mad /mæd/ adj (-der, -dest) 1 mentally ill.

drive/send sb mad, cause him to be mad.

as mad as a March hare/as a hatter, very mad. 2 (informal) very excited; filled with great enthusiasm: ~ about pop music. be/go mad, be/become wildly excited, angry, upset, etc. 3 (informal) angry: They were ~ about/at missing the train. Dad was ~ with me for coming home late. 4 (of a dog, etc) rabid.

'mad-man/-woman, who is mad(1).

mad-ly adv (a) in a mad manner. (b) (informal) extremely: ~ly excited/in love.

mad-ness n [U] the state of being mad; mad behaviour.

madam /'mædəm/ n 1 respectful form of address to a woman (married or unmarried) eg by a shop-assistant: Can I help you, ~? 2 (used in formal letters): Dear M~. 3 (informal) woman or girl who likes to order people about: She's a bit of a ~.

mad-den /'mædn/ vt make mad; irritate; annoy: ~dening delays.

made /meɪd/ pt, pp of make¹.

Ma-donna /mæ'dɒnə/ n the ~, (picture or statue of) Mary, Mother of Jesus Christ.

mad-ri-gal /'mædrɪɡl/ n [C] song for several voices without instrumental accompaniment.

mael-strom /'meɪlstrom/ n [C] 1 great whirlpool. 2 (fig) violent or destructive force or series of events: the ~ of war.

maes-tro /'maɪstrəʊ/ n [C] (pl maestri /'maɪstri/) (ti) distinguished musical composer, teacher or conductor.

mag /mæg/ n [C] (informal abbr of) magazine(4): the colour ~s.

maga-zine /'mægə'zi:n US: 'mægəzi:n/ n [C] 1 store for arms, ammunition, explosives, etc. 2 chamber for holding cartridges to be fed into the breech of a rifle or gun. 3 place for rolls or cartridges of film in a camera. 4 (weekly or monthly) periodical, with articles, pictures, etc.

ma-genta /mædʒenta/ adj, n [U] bright crimson (substance used as a dye).

mag-got /'mægət/ n [C] larva or grub, eg of the house-fly.

mag-goty adj having maggots: ~y cheese.

Magi /'meɪdʒaɪ/ n pl the M~, the three wise men from the East who brought offerings to the infant Jesus.

magic /'mædʒɪk/ adj done by, or as if by, magic; possessing magic; used in magic: see arts/words; a ~ touch. □ n [U] 1 art of controlling events by the pretended use of supernatural forces; superstitious practices based on a belief in supernatural agencies. as if by/like magic, in a mysterious manner. 2 art of obtaining mysterious results by tricks: use ~ to produce a rabbit. 3 (fig) quality produced as if by magic: the ~ of poetry.

black magic, ⇨ black art.

magi-cal /-kl/ adj = magic.

magi-cally /-klɪ/ adv

magician /'mædʒɪʃn/ n [C] person skilled in magic(2); wizard.

magis-ter-ial /'mædʒɪ'stəriəl/ adj 1 of, conducted by, a magistrate. 2 having or showing authority: a ~ manner.

magis-ter-ially /-iəlɪ/ adv

magis-tracy /'mædʒɪstrəsi/ n [C] (pl -ies) 1 position of a magistrate. 2 the ~, magistrates collectively.

magis-trate /'mædʒɪstreɪt/ n [C] civil officer acting as a judge in the lowest courts (Police Courts); Justice of the Peace.

mag-nani-mous /mæg'nænɪməs/ adj having, showing, generosity.

mag-nani-mous-ly adv

mag-na-nim-ity /'mæɡnə'nɪməti/ n [C,U] mag-nate /'mæɡneɪt/ n [C] wealthy and powerful leader of business or industry.

mag-nesia /mæg'ni:ʃə/ n [U] white, tasteless powder (formula MgO) used in medicine and industry.

mag-nesium /mæg'ni:ziəm/ n [U] silver-white metal (symbol Mg) used in the manufacture of aluminium and other alloys, and in photography: ~ light, bright light obtained by burning magnesium.

mag-net /'mæɡnɪt/ n [C] 1 substance able to attract iron, either natural (as in lodestone) or by means of an electric current. 2 (fig) person or thing that attracts.

mag-net-ic /mæg'netɪk/ adj 1 of magnetism. 2 having the properties of a magnet: the ~ field, area in which a magnetic force may be detected; (fig) a ~ smile/personality, attracting the attention of people.

magnetic needle, magnetized steel rod which, when horizontal, indicates north and south.

magnetic north, the point indicated by a magnetic needle.

magnetic pole, point near the North or South Pole to which the compass needle points.

magnetic tape, kind of tape coated with iron oxide used to record sound, vision.

mag-neti-cally /-klɪ/ adv mag-net-ism /'mæɡnɪtizəm/ n [U] 1 (the science of) magnetic phenomena and properties. 2 (fig) great personal charm and attraction.

mag-net-ize (also -ise) /'mæɡnɪtaɪz/ vt 1 give magnetic properties to. 2 (fig) attract as a magnet does.

mag-ni-fi-ca-tion /'mæɡnɪfɪ'keɪʃn/ n [U] (esp) power, strength, of magnifying, eg of a lens, a pair of binoculars.

mag-nifi-cent /mæg'nɪfɪsnt/ adj splendid; remarkable: a ~ house; his ~ generosity.

mag-nifi-cent-ly adv

mag-nifi-cence /-sns/ n [U] mag-ni-fier /-faɪə(r)/ n [C] instrument, etc that magnifies.

mag-nify /'mæɡnɪfaɪ/ vt (pt,pp -ied) 1 make (a person or thing) appear larger (as with a lens or microscope). 2 exaggerate: ~ dangers. 3 give praise to (God): ~ the Lord.

'magnifying-glass, lens for making objects appear larger.

mag-ni-tude /'mæɡnɪtju:d US: -tu:d/ n [C] (formal) 1 size. 2 (degree of) importance. 3 comparative brightness of stars.

mag-num /'mæɡnəm/ n [C] (pl ~s) (bottle containing) two quarts (of wine or spirit).

mag-num opus /'mæɡnəm 'əʊpəs/ n [C] 1 great literary work. 2 person's chief (literary) work.

mag-pie /'mæɡpaɪ/ n [C] 1 noisy black-and-white bird which is attracted by, and often takes away, small, bright objects. 2 (fig) person who talks very much. 3 (fig) person who steals small things.

ma-hog-any /mə'həɡəni/ n [C,U] (tropical tree with) dark-brown wood much used for furniture.

maid /meɪd/ n [C] 1 (literary) girl. 2 (old use) young, unmarried woman. 3 (modern use) woman servant: It's the ~'s day off. 4 (used in compounds): a nurse~. ⇨ old maid.

maid of 'honour, unmarried woman attending a queen or princess.

maiden /'meɪdn/ n [C] (literary) girl; young unmarried woman. □ adj 1 of a girl or woman. 2 first or earliest: a ship's ~ voyage. 3 (also maiden 'lover) (cricket) one in which no runs are scored. 4 (of an older woman) unmarried: my ~ aunt.

'maiden-head, (formal) virginity.

'maiden-hood, (formal) state, period, of being a girl.

maiden name, woman's family name before marriage.

maiden speech, first speech, eg in Parliament as a new member.

'maiden-like, maiden-ly adj gentle; modest; of or like a maiden.

mail¹ /meɪl/ n [U] body armour of metal rings or plates: a coat of ~; 'chain-~.

mail² /meɪl/ n 1 [U] government system of collecting, carrying and delivering letters and parcels: send a letter by air~. 2 [C,U] letters, parcels, etc sent or delivered by post; the letters, etc sent collected or delivered at one time: Was there any ~ this morning? □ vi (chiefly US; in GB post is more usual) send by post.

'mail-bag, strong bag in which mail is carried.

'mail-boat, one that transports mail.

'mail-box, (US) letter-box.

'mail-ing-card, (US) postcard.

'mail-ing-list, list of names of persons to whom something, eg a catalogue is regularly sent.

'mail-man, (US) postman.

'mail 'order, order for goods to be delivered by post.

'mail-train, train that carries mail.

maim /meɪm/ vt wound or injure so that some part of the body is useless: He was seriously ~ed in the war.

main¹ /meɪn/ adj chief; most important: the ~ thing to remember; the ~ street of a town; the ~ point of my argument; the ~ course of a meal.

'main deck, upper deck.

'main-land /-lənd/, country, continent or land mass, without its islands.

'main-spring, (a) principal spring of a clock or watch. (b) (fig) chief force or motive.

'main-stay /-steɪ/, (fig) chief support.

'main-stream, (a) most important aspect, direction, tendency, etc: the ~ stream of political thought. (b) style of jazz between traditional and modern.

main-ly adv chiefly; for the most part: You are ~ly to blame.

main² /meɪn/ n 1 [C] principal pipe bringing water or gas, principal wire transmitting electric current, from the source of supply into a building: My new house is not yet connected to the ~s. 2 in the main, for the most part; on the whole. 3 with (all sb's) might and main, physical force; strength. 4 (poetry) sea, esp a wide expanse of sea.

main-tain /meɪn'teɪn/ vt 1 keep up; retain; continue: ~ friendly relations (with...); ~ prices, keep them stable; ~ law and order; ~ a speed of 60 miles an hour. 2 support, feed etc: ~ a wife and eight children. 3 claim to be true: ~ one's innocence / that one is innocent. 4 keep in good repair or working order: ~ the roads. 5 defend: ~ one's rights.

main-tain-able /-əbəl/ adj that can be maintained.

main-ten-ance /'meɪntənəns/ n [U] maintaining or being maintained; (esp) what is needed to support life: A divorced woman may claim ~ (= money) for her children.

mai-son-ette /,meɪzə'net/ n [C] small house; part of a house let or used separately as a self-contained dwelling.

maize /meɪz/ n [U] (also called Indian corn) sort of grain plant. ⇨ corn-cob.

ma-jes-tic /mæ'dʒestɪk/ adj having, showing, majesty.

ma-jes-ti-cally /-klɪ/ adv

maj-esty /'mædʒəstɪ/ n (pl. -ies) 1 [U] conduct, speech, appearance, manner, causing respect; royal power. 2 His/Her/Your ~; Their/Your Majesties, form used when speaking of or to a sovereign ruler or rulers.

ma-jor¹ /'meɪdʒə(r)/ adj (contrasted with minor) greater or more important: ~ roads; a ~ operation, (in surgery) one that may be dangerous to the person's life. □ vi major in sth, specialize in (a certain subject, at college or university): Brian ~ed in economics.

ma-jor² /'meɪdʒə(r)/ n [C] army officer between a captain and a colonel.

'major-'general, army officer next above a brigadier and under a lieutenant-general.

ma-jor-ity /mæ'dʒɔrəti/ US: -dʒɔ:r- / n [C] (pl. -ies) 1 (used with a sing or pl verb) greater number or part (of): The ~ were/was in favour of the proposal. 2 number by which votes for one side are more than those for the other side: He was elected by a large ~/by a ~ of 3749. be in the majority, have the majority. 3 legal age of reaching manhood or womanhood (eg eighteen in Britain): He will reach his ~ next month.

majority 'verdict, verdict by the majority (of a jury, etc).

make¹ /meɪk/ vt, vi (pt, pp made /meɪd/) (For uses with nouns, ⇨ 24, 25 below; for uses with adverbial particles and prepositions, ⇨ 27 below.) 1 construct or produce by combining parts or putting materials together; form or shape from material; bring into existence (esp by effort): ~ bread. She made (= prepared) coffee for all of us. Cloth is made of cotton, wool, nylon and other materials. Men made gods. 2 cause to appear by breaking, tearing, removing material: ~ a hole in the ground/a gap in a hedge. 3 enact; establish: Who made this ridiculous rule? 4 draft; draw up: A treaty has been made with our former enemies. 5 amount to in significance: Agatha Christie's novels ~ excellent reading, are excellent books. 6 cause: I don't want to ~ any trouble for you. 7 (passive only) be meant or intended: John and Mary seem to have been made for each other, eg because they get on so well together. 8 cause to be or become: The news made her happy. He soon made himself understood. make it worth sb's while (to do sth), ⇨ while. 9 earn; win; gain; acquire: ~ a profit/loss of £100. He first made his name/reputation as a junior Minister. make or mar/break, ⇨ mar. make/earn, etc one's living (as/at/by/from), have as one's work or livelihood: He ~s his living as a teacher/from teaching/by giving piano lessons. make/earn a mint/pile/packet, ⇨ pile¹(3). 10 (in card-games): Six tricks bid and made, won. 11 (cricket) score: ~ a century in a test match. 12 (of the tide) begin to flow or ebb: The tide is making fast. 13 compel; force; persuade; cause (something) to happen: Can you ~ this old car start? What ~s the grass grow? His jokes made us all laugh. make one's 'blood boil/one's 'hackles rise, make one very angry. make sb's 'hair stand on end, ⇨ hair(1). make sth 'do; make 'do with sth, manage with it although it may not be really adequate or satisfactory: You'll have to ~ do with cold meat for dinner. make sth go round, make it last or be enough: I don't know how she ~s the money go round. make believe (that); 'make-believe, ⇨ believe(3). 14 represent as; cause to appear as: In the play the author ~s the murderer commit suicide, describes him as doing this. You've made my nose too big, eg in a drawing or painting. 15 estimate or reckon (to be); put (a total, etc) at: What time do you ~ it? What do you ~ the time? I ~ the distance about 70 miles. 16 come to, equal; add up to; amount to: A hundred pence ~s one pound. 5 and 7 and 3 is 15, and 4 more ~s 19. make (good/much/little) sense, ⇨ sense(6). 17 be (in a series); count as: This ~s the fifth time you've failed this examination. 18 turn into; turn out to be; prove to be: She will ~ him a good wife, will be one. 19 (informal) travel over (a distance); reach, maintain (a speed); be in time for, catch; reach (a place); gain the rank of or place of: We've made 80 miles since noon. The train leaves at 7.13; can we ~ it, reach the station in time? He'll never ~ (= win a place on) the team. 20 elect; appoint; nominate; raise to the rank of: ~ him King/an earl/a peer. 21 offer, propose: M ~ me an offer! Suggest a price! The Chairman of British Rail has made a new offer to the men, eg of a rise in wages during a strike. I made her a present of the vase. 22 make + noun + of (sth/sb); make sth/sb sth, cause a person or thing to be or become: His parents want to ~ a doctor of him, want him to be educated for the medical profession. Don't ~ a habit of it! ~ it a habit, don't let it become a habit. Don't ~ an ass/fool of yourself, don't behave stupidly. ⇨ 24 and 25 below for other examples. 23 make as if, behave as if about (to do something): He made as if to hit me. 24 (used with many nouns where make and the noun together have the same meaning as a verb related in form to the noun; ⇨ the noun entries): make allowances (for), make an application (to sb) (for sth); make arrangements for; make a decision; make a success of (sth). 25 (used with nouns in special senses; the examples below are a selection only; for definitions ⇨ the entry for the noun in the example): ~ an attempt; ~ an appointment; ~ the bed(s); ~ the best of; ~ a bid (for); ~ a break for it; ~ a change; ~ sb's day; ~ demands (of/on); ~ an effort; ~ an excuse; ~ eyes at; ~ a face/faces (at); ~ fun of; ~ a fuss (of); ~ a go of sth; ~ head or tail of; ~ a good/poor job of; ~ love (to sb); ~ a man of; ~ the most of; ~ much of; ~ a name for oneself; ~ a night of it; ~ a pass at; ~ one's peace (with); ~ a point (of); ~ room (for); ~ war (on); ~ way for; ~ one's way in life/the world; ~ heavy weather of. 26 (used with adjectives in special senses; for definitions ⇨ the entry for the adjective in the example): ~ certain; ~ good; ~ light of; ~ sure.

27 (uses with adverbial particles and prepositions):

make for sb/sth, (a) move in the direction of: It's late; we'd better ~ for home. (b) charge at, rush towards: When the interval came everyone made for the bar, ie to buy drinks. (c) contribute to, tend towards: Does early rising ~ for good health?

make sth/sb into sth, change or convert to: The huts can be made into temporary houses.

make sth of, understand, interpret: What are we to ~ of his behaviour? I can ~ nothing of all this scribble.

make off, hurry away (esp in order to escape): The get-away car made off at top speed.

make off with sth, steal and hurry away: The cashier made off with the firm's money.

make sth out, (a) write out; complete or fill in: ~ out a cheque for £10. (b) manage to see, read: We made out a woman in the darkness.

make sb out to be, claim; assert; maintain: He ~s himself out to be cleverer than he really is. make sb/sth out, understand him/it:

What a queer person he is! I can't ~ him out at all. I can't ~ out what he wants. I couldn't ~ it out, couldn't understand it. make out (with sb), progress, get on: How are you making out with Lucy? How's your friendship progressing? make out a case (for/against), ⇨ case¹(3).

make sth/sb over, transfer the possession or ownership of: He has made over his property to the National Trust.

make sth up, (a) complete: We still need £5 to ~ up the sum we asked for. There's a lot of time to ~ up. (b) invent; compose (esp to deceive): Stop making things up! It's all a made-up story. (c) form; compose; constitute: Animals and vegetables are made up of water and cells. I object to the way the committee is made up/to the make-up of the committee. (d) prepare, eg medicine, by mixing ingredients: Ask the chemist to ~ this up for you. (e) make (material, cloth, etc) into clothes: This cloth will ~ up into two dresses. (f) add fuel to, eg a fire: The fire needs making up. (g) prepare (a bed): They made up a bed on the sofa for the unexpected visitor. make sb/oneself up, prepare (an actor/oneself) by applying cosmetics to the face: It takes him more than an hour to ~ up for the part of Othello. Hence, 'make-up n [U]. make up one's mind, ⇨ mind¹(2).

make up for sth, compensate for: Hard work can often ~ up for a lack of intelligence.

make up for lost time, ⇨ time¹(3).

make it up to sb, give or do something in payment for something, he has lost, missed: I'm sorry you can't come to the party but I'll ~ it up to you. make it up (with sb), end a quarrel, dispute or misunderstanding: Why don't you ~ it up with her?

'make-believe, ⇨ believe(3).

'make-shift, something used for a time until something better is obtainable: use an empty crate as a ~shift for a table/as a ~shift table.

'make-up, (a) ⇨ make sb/oneself up in make(27) above. (b) character, temperament: men of that ~-up.

'make-weight, (a) small quantity added to get the weight required. (b) (fig) person or thing of small value that fills a gap, supplies a deficiency.

make² /meik/ n [C,U] way a thing is made; method or style of manufacture: cars of all ~s. Is this your own ~, made by you? on the make, (sl) concerned with making a profit, gaining an advantage.

maker /'meikə(r)/ n [C] 1 the/our M~, the Creator; God. 2 (esp in compounds) person or thing that makes: a ~dress~.

mak-ing /'meikɪŋ/ n be the making of, cause to develop well: The two years he served in the Army were the ~ of him. have the makings of, have the necessary qualities for becoming: He has in him the ~s of a great swimmer.

mal- /mæl-/ prefix bad, wrong, not: mal-adjusted.

mala-chite /'mæləkait/ n [U] kind of green stone used for ornaments, etc.

mal-adjusted /,mælə'dʒʌstɪd/ adj (of a person) unable to adapt himself properly to his environment, eg social or occupational.

mal-adjust-ment n [U].

mal-ady /'mælədi/ n [C] (pl -ies) (formal) (chronic) disease; illness; disorder.

mal-aise /mæ'leɪz/ n (sing with a, an) (formal) feeling of bodily discomfort, but without clear signs of a particular illness.

ma-laria /mæ'leəriə/ n [U] kinds of disease with chills, sweating and fever, carried by a particular type of mosquito.

ma-lar-ial /-iəl/ adj

male /meɪl/ adj of that sex that does not give birth to offspring: a ~ voice choir, of men and/or boys. □ n [C] male person, animal, etc.

mal-for-ma-tion /,mælfo:'meɪʃn/ n 1 [U] state of being badly formed or shaped. 2 [C] badly formed part: a ~ of the spine.

mal-formed /,mæl'fɔ:md/ adj badly formed or shaped.

mal-ice /'mælis/ n [U] active hatred; desire to harm others. bear sb malice, feel hatred for him.

ma-li-cious /mæ'liʃəs/ adj feeling, showing, caused by, malice: ~ gossip.

ma-li-cious-ly adv

mal-ig-nancy /-nənsi/ n [U] the state of being malignant.

mal-ig-nant /mæ'lɪgnənt/ adj 1 (of diseases) harmful to life: ~ cancer. 2 (formal) (of persons, their actions) filled with, showing, a desire to hurt: ~ glances.

mal-ig-nant-ly adv

mal-ig-nity /mæ'lɪgnəti/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] (of diseases) being harmful to life. 2 (formal) [U] great hatred; [C] instance of this; hateful act, remark, etc.

ma-lin-ger /mæ'lingə(r)/ vi pretend to be ill, etc in order to escape duty or work.

ma-lin-gerer, person who malingers.

mal-lard /'mæla:d/ n [C] kind of wild duck.

mal-leable /'mæliəbl/ adj 1 (of metals) that can be hammered or pressed into new shapes. 2 (fig) (eg of a person's character) easily trained or adapted.

mal-lea-bil-ity /,mæliə'bɪləti/ n [U] mal-let /'mælit/ n [C] 1 hammer with a wooden head as used at auctions. 2 hammer with a long handle and wooden head for striking a croquet or polo ball.

mal-nu-tri-tion /,mælnju:'triʃn/ US: -nu:-/ n [U] condition caused by not getting (enough of) (the right kind(s) of) food.

mal-prac-tice /,mælp'ræktɪs/ n (legal) 1 [U] doing wrong; neglect of duty. 2 [C] instance of this.

malt /mɔ:lt/ n [U] grain (usually barley) allowed to sprout, prepared for brewing or distilling. □ vt, vi 1 make (grain) into malt; (of grain) become malt. 2 prepare with malt: ~ed milk.

mal-treat /mæl'tri:t/ vt (formal) treat roughly or cruelly.

mal-treat-ment n [U] mama /mə'mɑ: US: 'mɑ:mə/ n [C] (dated) = mummy, mother.

mamba /'mæmbə/ n [C] (pl ~s) black or green poisonous African tree snake.

mam-mal /'mæml/ n [C] any of the class of animals of which the females feed their young with milk from the breast: Cats, rabbits, cows, monkeys, whales are all ~s.

man-moth /'mæməθ/ n [C] large kind of elephant now extinct. □ adj (informal) huge: a ~ task.

man¹ /mæn/ n [C] (pl men /men/) 1 adult male human being: a 'post~/'clergy~. man and 'boy, from boyhood onwards: He has worked for the firm, ~ and boy, for thirty years. a man of letters, a writer and scholar. a man about 'town, one who spends much time at parties, theatres, in clubs, etc. a man of the world, one with wide experience of business and society. the man in the street, person regarded as representing the interests and opinions of ordinary people. 2 human being; person: All men must die. □ odd (3). 3 (sing only, used without the, a or an) the human race; all mankind: M~ is mortal. 4 male person under the authority of another: officers and men, eg in the army. 5 male person having the qualities (eg strength, confidence) associated with men. make a man of, train, show, him how to be strong, confident, etc: How can we make a ~ of him? 6 husband: ~ and wife. 7 piece in chess, etc. 8 (used with possessive adjectives): If you want a good teacher, here's your ~, here's someone suitable.

'man-eater, cannibal; animal that eats human beings.

'man-handle vt (a) move by physical strength. (b) (sl) handle roughly: I was ~ handled by the police.

'man-hole, opening through which a man may enter (an underground sewer, boiler, tank, etc).

'man-hood, (a) state of being a man: reach ~hood. □ majority (3). (b) male qualities, eg virility, courage.

'man-hour, work done by one man in one hour.

man-'made, made by humans; produced artificially or from synthetic materials.

'man-power, number of men available for military service, work, etc: a shortage of ~power in the coalmines.

'man-servant, male servant.

'man-sized adj of a size right for a man: a ~sized 'steak.

'man-slaughter, (act of) killing a human being unlawfully but not deliberately.

man-to-'man adj frank, not holding back: a ~-to-~ discussion.

man² /mæn/ vt (-nn-) supply with men for service or defence: ~ a fort/a ship/~ the barricades.

-man /-mən, -mæn/ suffix 1 dweller in: countryman. 2 person occupied in a specific activity: businessman; doorman.

man-acle /'mænəkl/ n [C] (usually pl) chains for the hands or feet. □ vt 1 put in chains. 2 (fig) cause to be held back.

man-age /'mænidʒ/ vt, vi 1 control: managing a business/one's wife; the managing director. 2 succeed: I shan't be able to ~ without help. We can't ~ with these poor tools. 3 (informal) (with can, could, be able to) make use of; eat: Can you ~ another slice of cake?

man-age-able /-əbəl/ adj that can be dealt with; easily controlled.

man-age-abil-ity /'mænidʒə'bɪləti/ n [U] man-age-ment /'mænidʒmənt/ n 1 [U] managing or being managed: under new ~. 2 [U] skilful treatment or handling: It needed a good deal of ~ to persuade them to give me the job. 3 [C, U] (used collectively) all those concerned in managing an industry, enterprise, etc: joint consultation between workers and ~.

man-ager /'mænidʒə(r)/ n [C] 1 person who controls a business, a hotel, etc. 2 (usually with an adjective) person who manages a business, household affairs, etc in a certain way: My wife is an excellent ~.

man-ager-ess /'mænidʒə'res/ n [C] woman manager(1).

mana-ger-ial /'mæni'dʒəriəl/ adj of managers or management.

man-date /'mændət/ n [C] 1 order from a superior; command given with authority. 2 authority to administer a territory authorized by the League of Nations after the First World War. 3 authority given to representatives by voters, members of a trade union, etc: the ~ given to us by the electors/workers. □ vt put (a territory) under a mandate(2): the ~d territories.

man-da-tory /'mændətəri US: -tɔ:ri/ adj of, conveying, a command: the mandatory power.

man-dible /'mændəbl/ n [C] 1 lower jaw in mammals and fishes. 2 either part of a bird's beak. 3 (in insects) either half of the upper pair of jaws, used for biting, etc.

man-do-lin /'mændəlin/ n [C] musical instrument with 6 or 8 metal strings stretched in pairs on a rounded body.

mane /meɪn/ n [C] long hair on the neck of a horse, lion, etc.

ma-neu-ver /mə'nu:və(r)/ n, v (US) = manoeuvre.

man-ful /'mænfəl/ adj brave; determined.

man-fully /-fəli/ adv. behave ~ly.

man-ga-nese /'mæŋɡəniz/ n [U] hard, brittle, light-grey metal (symbol Mn) used in making steel, glass, etc.

mange /meɪndʒ/ n [U] contagious skin disease, esp of dogs and cats.

mangy /'meɪndʒi/ adj (-ier, -iest) manger /'meɪndʒə(r)/ n [C] long, open box or trough for horses or cattle to feed from.

mangle ¹ /'mæŋɡl/ n [C] machine with rollers for pressing out water from clothes, etc. □ vt put (clothes, etc) through a mangle.

mangle ² /'mæŋɡl/ vt cut up, tear, damage, badly: be badly ~d in a car accident.

mango /'mæŋɡəʊ/ n [C] (pl ~es or ~s) (tropical tree with) fruit with a large stone and yellow flesh when ripe.

man-grove /'mæŋɡrəʊv/ n [C] tropical tree growing in swamps and sending down new roots from its branches.

mangy /'meɪndʒi/ ⇨ mange.

man-handle ⇨ man¹.

mania /'meɪniə/ n 1 [U] madness shown by great excitement, delusions, violence. 2 extreme enthusiasm, excitement: a ~ for powerful motorbikes/hard work.

maniac /'meɪniæk/ n [C] 1 raving madman. 2 (fig) extreme enthusiast.

ma-ni-acal /mə'niækəl/ adj (a) violently mad. (b) (fig) extremely enthusiastic.

ma-ni-acally /-kli/ adv

manic-depressive /'mænik dɪ'presɪv/ adj, n [C] (person) suffering from alternating periods of excitement and deep depression.

mani-cure /'mænikʃə(r)/ n [U] care of the hands and finger-nails. □ vt cut, clean and polish the finger-nails.

'mani-cur-ist /-ɪst/, person who manicures as a profession.

mani-fest /'mænɪfest/ adj clear and obvious: a ~ truth. □ vt 1 show clearly: ~ the truth of a statement. 2 give signs of: She doesn't ~ much desire to marry him. 3 (reflexive) appear: No disease ~ed itself during the long voyage.

mani-fest-ly adv

mani-fes-ta-tion /'mænɪfɛ'steɪʃn/ n [C,U] mani-festo /'mænɪfɛstəʊ/ n [C] (pl ~s or ~es) public declaration of principles, policy, purposes, etc by a ruler, political party, etc or of the character, qualifications, intentions of a person or group.

mani-fold /'mænɪfəʊld/ adj having or providing for many uses, copies, etc. □ n [C] pipe or chamber with several openings or connections.

mani-kin /'mænikɪn/ n [C] 1 pygmy; dwarf. 2 anatomical model of the human body. 3 figure of the human body used by artists. 4 = mannequin.

ma-nipu-late /mə'nɪpjʊleɪt/ vt 1 operate, handle, with skill: ~ machinery. 2 manage or control skilfully or craftily, esp by using one's influence or unfair methods: A clever politician knows how to ~ his supporters/public opinion.

ma-nipu-la-tion /mə'nɪpjʊ'leɪʃn/ n [C,U] man-kind n [U] 1 /'mæn'kaɪnd/ the human species. 2 /'mænkaind/ the male sex; all men (contrasted with 'womankind').

man-like /'mænlaɪk/ adj having the qualities (good or bad) of a man.

man-ly /'mænli/ adj (-ier, -iest) 1 having the strong qualities expected of a man. 2 (of a woman) having a man's qualities. 3 (of things, qualities, etc) right for a man.

man-li-ness n [U] manna /'mænə/ n [U] 1 (in the Bible) food provided by God for the Israelites during their forty years in the desert. 2 (fig) something unexpectedly supplied or that gives spiritual refreshment.

man-ne-quin /'mænikɪn/ n [C] 1 = model(5) (the usual word). 2 life-size dummy of a human body, as used in shop-windows for the display of clothes.

man-ner /'mænə(r)/ n [C] 1 way in which a thing is done or happens: Do it in this ~. (as) to the manner 'born, as if naturally suitable; knowing how to deal with a situation, practice, custom, etc from birth: She began her teaching career as to the ~ born. 2 (sing only) person's way of behaving towards others: I don't like his ~. 3 (pl) habits and customs. 4 (pl) social behaviour: good/bad ~s. 5 style in literature or art: a painting in the ~ of Raphael. 6 kind, sort: What ~ of man is he? all man-ner of, every kind of: He gave us all ~ of excuses.

man-nered adj (a) (used in compounds): 'ill-'well-~ed, having bad/good manners(4). (b) showing mannerisms.

man-ner-ism /'mænərɪzəm/ n [C] 1 peculiarity of behaviour, speech, etc, esp one that is a habit. 2 too much use of a distinctive manner in art or literature.

man-ner-ly /'mænəli/ adj courteous, polite.

man-nish /'mæniʃ/ adj 1 (of a woman) like a man. 2 more suitable for a man than for a woman: a ~ style of dress.

ma-noeuvre (US = ma-neu-ver) /mə'nu:və(r)/ n [C] 1 planned movement (of armed forces); (pl) series of such movements, eg as training exercises: army ~s. 2 movement or plan, made to deceive, or to escape, or to win or do something: the desperate ~s of some politicians. □ vi,vt (cause to) perform manoeuvres: manoeuvring a car into a parking space.

ma-noeuvrer (US = ma-neu-verer), person who uses manoeuvres(2).

ma-noeuvr-able (US = ma-neu-ver-able) /-vrəbl/ adj that can be manoeuvred.

ma-noeuvr-abil-ity (US = -neu-ver-ity) /mə'nu:və'biləti/ n [U] manor /'mænə(r)/ n [C] 1 unit of land under the feudal system, part of which was used directly by the lord of the ~ and the rest occupied and farmed by tenants who paid rent in crops and service. 2 (modern use) area of land with a principal residence (called the '~-house').

ma-nor-ial /mə'nɔ:riəl/ adj of a manor.

man-sion /'mænʃn/ n [C] 1 large and stately house. 2 (pl) (in proper names) block of flats: Victoria M~s.

man-tel /'mæntl/ n [C] structure of wood, marble, etc above and around a fireplace.

'mantel-piece, shelf above a fireplace.

man-tilla /mæn'tilə/ n [C] (pl ~s) large veil or scarf worn by Spanish women to cover the hair and shoulders.

man-tis /'mæntɪs/ n [C] (kinds of) long-legged insect.

mantle /'mæntl/ n [C] 1 loose, sleeveless cloak. 2 (fig) covering: hills with a ~ of snow. 3 metal cover like lace fixed round the flame of a light from gas.

man-ual /'mænjʊəl/ adj of, done with, the hands: ~ labour. □ n [C] 1 handbook or textbook: a technical ~. 2 keyboard of an organ, played with the hands.

man-u-ally /-jʊəl/ adv

manu-fac-ture /,mænju'fæktʃə(r)/ vt 1 make, produce, (goods, etc) on a large scale by machinery: manufacturing industries; ~d goods. 2 invent (a story, an excuse, etc). □ n 1 [U] the making or production of goods and materials: the ~ of toys/plastic. 2 (pl) manufactured goods and articles.

manu-fac-turer, person who, firm which, manufactures things.

ma-nure /mə'njʊə(r)/ n [U] waste from the bodies of animals, eg from stables; other material, natural or artificial, spread over or mixed with the soil to make it fertile. □ vt put manure in or on (land/soil).

manu-script /'mænjʊskript/ n [C] (abbr to MS, pl MSS) book, etc as first written out or typed: poems still in ~.

many /'meni/ adj, n (contrasted with few; ⇨ more, most) 1 (used with pl nouns) a large number (of), plenty (of): I have some, but not ~. How ~ do you want? Do you need so ~? M ~ people think so. M ~ of us agree. A good ~ people agree with you. ⇨ good¹ (14). as many again, the same number, quantity, again. one too many, one more than the correct or needed number. 2 (used with a sing noun): M ~ a man (= Many men) would welcome the opportunity.

,many-¹sided adj (a) having many sides. (b) (fig) having many aspects, capabilities, etc: a ~-sided problem.

map /mæp/ n [C] representation on paper, etc of the earth's surface or a part of it, showing physical details, countries, vegetation, economical resources, etc; representation of the sky showing the stars, etc. (put sth) on the map, (fig) (cause it to be) considered important: John's success in athletics put his college on the ~. off the map, (informal) unimportant. □ vt (-pp-) 1 make a map of; show on a map. 2 map out, plan, arrange: ~ out one's time.

'map-reader, person able to get information from maps: He's a good/poor ~-reader.

maple /'meɪpl/ n 1 [C] (sorts of) tree of the northern hemisphere, grown for timber and ornament. 2 [U] wood of this tree.

'maple-leaf, emblem of Canada.

'maple-sugar/-syrup, sugar/syrup that is obtained from the sap of one kind of maple.

mar /mɑ:(r)/ vt (-rr-) injure; spoil; damage: Nothing ~ed their happiness. make or mar/break, make a great success of or ruin completely.

mar-a-thon /'mærəθən US: -θɒn/ n [C] 1 the M~, long-distance race on foot (about 26 miles (or 41.8 kilometres) at modern sports meetings). 2 (fig) test of endurance.

ma-raud /mə'raʊd/ vi go about in search of loot or prey.

ma-rauder, person, animal, that marauds.

marble /'mɑ:bl/ n 1 [U] (sorts of) hard limestone with patterns, used, when cut and polished, for building and sculpture: (as an adjective) a ~ statue/tomb. 2 (pl) works of art in marble. 3 [C] small ball of coloured glass used in games played by children.

March /mɑ:tʃ/ n the third month of the year, with 31 days.

march¹ /mɑ:tʃ/ n 1 [U] act of marching (by soldiers, etc). 2 [C] instance of marching; distance travelled: a ~ of ten miles. steal a march on sb, win an advantage by doing something earlier than expected by him. 3 progress: the ~ of events/time. 4 [C] piece of music for marching to: military ~es. 5 [C] large public demonstration(2) by people walking: a ~ in support of human rights.

dead march, one in slow time for a funeral.

forced march, one made more quickly than usual, or for a greater distance, in an emergency.

marcher, (a) person who marches. (b) person who walks in a march(5).

march² /mɑ:tʃ/ vi, vt 1 (cause to) walk as soldiers do, with regular steps: The troops ~ed by/past/in/out/off/away. He was ~ed off to prison, taken off to prison. 2 take part in a march(5).

'marching orders, (a) orders for troops to leave for war, etc. (b) (fig) notification of dismissal.

mar-chion-ess /,mɑ:ʃə'nes/ n [C] 1 wife or widow of a marquis. 2 woman who holds a position equal to that of a marquis.

mare /mɛə(r)/ n [C] female horse or donkey.

mare's nest, a discovery thought valuable that turns out to be false or worthless.

mar-gar-ine /ˈmɑːdʒərɪn/ US: ˈmɑːrdʒərɪn/ n [U] food substance, used like butter, made from animal or vegetable fats.

marge /mɑːdʒ/ n [U] (informal abbr for) margarine.

mar-gin /ˈmɑːdʒɪn/ n [C] 1 blank space round writing or printing on a page. 2 edge or border: the ~ of a lake. 3 amount (of time, money, etc) above what is estimated as necessary. 4 condition near the limit or borderline, below or beyond which something is impossible: He escaped defeat by a narrow ~.

mar-ginal /-nəl/ adj (a) of or in a margin (1): ~al notes. (b) of a margin (4): a ~al seat/constituency, one where the MP has been elected by a small majority.

mar-gin-ally /-nəli/ adv

mari-juana, mari-huana /ˈmæriˈwɑːnə/ n [U] (also called hashish, cannabis, pot) dried leaves and flowers of Indian hemp smoked in cigarettes (called reefers or joints) to cause euphoria.

ma-rina /mæˈriːnə/ n [C] (pl ~s) harbour designed for pleasure boats (small yachts, cabin cruisers, etc) often with hotels, etc.

mari-nade /ˈmæriˈneɪd/ n [C,U] (kinds of) pickle of wine, vinegar and spice; fish or meat pickled in this. □ vt (also mari-nate /ˈmæriˈneɪt/) soak in (a) marinade.

mar-ine /mæˈriːn/ adj 1 of, by, found in, produced by, the sea: ~ fishing. 2 of ships, sea-trade, the navy, etc: ~ insurance, of ships and cargo. □ n 1 [U] shipping in general. 2 [C] soldier serving on a warship.

mari-ner /ˈmæriːnə(r)/ n [C] sailor, esp one who helps to navigate a ship.

master mariner, captain of a merchant ship.

mari-on-ette /ˈmæriːnət/ n [C] jointed doll or puppet moved by strings.

mari-tal /ˈmæriːtl/ adj 1 of a husband. 2 of marriage.

mari-time /ˈmæriːtaɪm/ adj 1 connected with the sea or navigation: ~ law. 2 situated or found near the sea: ~ countries.

mark ¹ /mɑːk/ n [C] 1 line, scratch, cut, stain, etc that spoils the appearance of something: Who made these dirty ~s on my new book? 2 noticeable spot on the body by which a person or animal may be recognized: a 'birth' ~. 3 visible trace; sign or indication (of a quality, etc): ~s of old age/suffering. 4 figure, design, line, etc made as a sign or indication: punctuation ~s; 'trade' ~s. 5 numerical or alphabetical symbol, eg A +, to indicate a level or standard in an examination, or for conduct: He got the best ~s of his year. 6 target: His shot was off the ~. be/fall wide of the mark, be very inaccurate: Your guess/calculation is wide of the ~. beside the mark, ⇨ beside (2). 7 [U] distinction; fame. make one's mark, become distinguished. 8 (sing only) standard. up to/below the mark, equal to/below the required or normal standard. not be/feel (quite) up to the mark, not in one's usual health. 9 (athletics) line showing the starting-point of a race: On your ~s, get set, go! (words used by the starter). 10 (with numbers) model or type: Meteor M ~ III, eg of an aircraft.

mark ² /mɑːk/ vt 1 put or have a mark on something by writing, stamping, etc: All our stock has been ~ed down/up, reduced/increased in price. Hence, 'mark-up n [C] amount by which a price is increased. 2 (passive) have natural marks or visible signs: A zebra is ~ed with stripes. 3 give marks (5) to: ~ examination papers. 4 indicate something by putting a mark, eg a tick or a cross, on or against: ~ an answer wrong. 5 pay attention (to): M ~ carefully how it is done. (You) mark my words, Note what I say (and you will find, later that I am right). 6 be a distinguishing feature of: What are the qualities that ~ a great leader? 7 signal; be a sign of: His death ~ed the end of an era. Ceremonies ~ing an anniversary. mark time, (a) stamp the feet as when marching but without moving forward. (b) (fig) wait until further progress becomes possible.

8 (uses with adverbial particles):

mark sth off, put marks on (to show boundary lines, measurements, etc).

mark sth out, put lines on (to show limits, etc): ~ out a tennis-court.

marked adj clear; obvious: a ~ed difference/improvement.

a marked man, one whose conduct is watched with suspicion or hatred.

mark-ed-ly /ˈmɑːkɪdli/ adv

mark-ing, (esp) pattern of different colours of feathers, skin, etc: a tiger's ~ings.

marker /ˈmɑːkə(r)/ n [C] 1 person or tool that marks, esp a person who marks the score at games. 2 thing that marks or indicates, eg a flag or post on a playing field, a post showing distances. 3 person who marks examination papers.

mar-ket ¹ /ˈmɑːkɪt/ n [C] 1 public place (an open space or a building) where people meet to buy and sell goods: She went to (the) ~ to buy food for the family. 2 occasion during which such a meeting takes place: The next ~ is on Monday. 3 trade in a class of goods: the 'coffee' ~. 4 state of trade as shown by prices: The ~ rose/fell/was steady. Prices rose/fell/did not change much. play the market, buy and sell to make the most profit. 5 demand: There's no/not much/only a poor ~ for these goods. 6 (sing only) buying and selling. be in the market for sth, have the desire to buy something. be on/come on (to)/put on the market, be offered/offer for sale: This house will probably come on the ~ next month.

7 area, country, in which goods may be sold: We must find new ~s for our manufacturers.

Common 'Market, ⇨ common¹.

'market-day, day on which a market is regularly held.

'market-'garden, place where vegetables are grown for selling. Hence, 'market-'gardening n [U] market price, price for which something is usually sold in the open market.

'market-place, open place in a town where a market is held.

'market re'search, study of the reasons why people buy, or do not buy, certain goods, the effect of advertising, etc.

'market town, one where a market (esp one for cattle and sheep) is held.

mar-ket² /'mɑ:kɪt/ vt, vi 1 buy or sell in a market. 2 take or send to market; prepare and offer for sale.

mar-ket-able /-əbl/ adj that can be, fit to be, sold.

mar-ket-ing, theory and practice of (large-scale) selling.

marks-man /'mɑ:ksmən/ n [C] (pl -men /-mən/) person skilled in aiming at a target, esp with a rifle.

mar-ma-lade /'mɑ:məleɪd/ n [U] (bitter) jam made from citrus fruit (usually oranges).

mar-mo-set /'mɑ:məzət/ n [C] small, tropical American monkey with soft, thick hair and a bushy tail.

mar-mot /'mɑ:mət/ n [C] small animal of the squirrel family.

ma-roon¹ /'mɑ:ru:n/ adj, n [U] brownish-red (colour).

ma-roon² /'mɑ:ru:n/ vt put (a person) on a desert island, uninhabited coast, etc and leave him there.

mar-quee /'mɑ:'ki:/ n [C] large tent (as used for flower shows, a circus, etc).

mar-quis, mar-quess /'mɑ:kwis/ n 1 (GB) nobleman next in rank above an earl and below a duke. 2 (in other countries) nobleman next in rank above a count. ⇨ marchioness.

mar-riage /'mæɪdʒ/ n 1 [C, U] (instance of) a legal union of a man and woman as husband and wife; state of being married: A ~ has been arranged between... and.... 2 = wedding (the usual word).

mar-riage-able /-əbl/ adj old enough, fit for, marriage: a girl of ~able age.

mar-ried /'mæɪd/ adj united in marriage; of marriage: ~ couples; ~ life.

mar-row /'mæɪəʊ/ n 1 [U] soft, fatty substance that fills the hollow parts of bones. chill/chilled to the marrow, (of a person) (make) extremely cold. 2 [U] (fig) essence; essential part. 3 [C] (GB) (also 'vegetable ~) vegetable like a large fat cucumber (US = squash); [U] this as food.

marry /'mæɪrɪ/ vt, vi (pt, pp -ied) 1 take as a husband or wife; have a husband or wife. 2 (of a priest, a civil official) join as husband or wife: Which priest is going to ~ them? 3 give in marriage: He married both his daughters to rich directors. 4 obtain by marrying: ~ money/wealth.

Mars /mɑ:z/ n 1 (in Roman myth) the god of war. 2 (astron) planet fourth in order from the sun.

marsh /mɑ:ʃ/ n [C, U] (area of) low-lying, wet land.

marshy adj (-ier, -iest) of or like a marsh.

mar-shal¹ /'mɑ:ʃl/ n [C] 1 officer of highest rank: Field-M~, Army; Air-M~, Air Force. 2 official responsible for important public events or ceremonies, eg one who accompanies a High Court judge; an officer of the royal household. 3 (US) official with the duties of a sheriff; head of a fire or police department.

mar-shal² /'mɑ:ʃl/ vt (-ll-, US -l-) 1 arrange in proper order: ~ facts/military forces. 2 guide or lead (a person) with ceremony: ~ persons into the presence of the Queen.

'marshalling-yard, railway yard in which goods wagons, etc are made up into trains.

mar-su-pial /'mɑ:'sʊpiəl/ adj, n [C] (animal) of the class of mammals the females of which have a pouch to carry their young.

mar-tial /'mɑ:ʃl/ adj 1 of, associated with, war: ~ music. 2 brave; fond of fighting: ~ spirit.

'martial 'law, military government, by which ordinary law is suspended, eg during a rebellion.

mar-tal-ly /-ʃli/ adv

mar-tin /'mɑ:tɪn/ US: -tən/ n [C] (also 'house-~), bird of the swallow family that builds a mud nest on walls, etc.

mar-ti-net /'mɑ:tɪnet/ n [C] person who asks for and enforces strict discipline.

mar-tyr /'mɑ:tə(r)/ n [C] person who is put to death or caused to suffer greatly for his religious beliefs or for the sake of a great cause or principle: the early Christian ~s in Rome. be a martyr to sth, suffer greatly from: He's a ~ to rheumatism. make a martyr of oneself, sacrifice one's own wishes or advantage (or pretend to do so) in order to get credit or reputation. □ vt put to death, cause to suffer, as a martyr.

mar-tyr-dom /-dəm/ n [U] martyr's suffering or death: His wife's never-ending complaints made his life one long ~dom.

mar-vel /'mɑ:vəl/ n [C] 1 something causing great surprise, wonder, astonishment: the ~s of modern science. work marvels, produce a highly successful result. 2 wonderful example: She's a ~ of patience. □ vi (-ll-, US -l-) 1 be greatly surprised (at): ~ at her patience. 2 wonder: I ~ that she should agree to marry him.

mar-vel-lous, (US = mar-vel-ous) /'mɑ:vələs/ adj astonishing; wonderful.

mar-vel-lous-ly (US = mar-vel-ous-ly) adv

Marx-ism /'mɑ:ksɪzəm/ n [U] teaching on the main laws of development of nature and society, on the revolution of the exploited masses, on the victory of socialism and the building of communism; ideology of the Working Class and its Communist Party.

Marx-ist /'mɑ:ksɪst/ n follower of Karl Marx /mɑ:ks/ (1818-1883), the founder of scientific communism.

mar-zi-pan /'mɑ:zɪpən/ n [U] thick paste of ground almonds, sugar, etc.

mas-cara /mæ'skɑ:rə/ n [U] cosmetic preparation for darkening the eyelashes.

mas-cot /'mæskət/ n [C] person, animal or object thought to bring good fortune.

mas-cu-line /'mæskjʊlɪn/ adj 1 of, like, men: a ~ style. 2 of male gender: 'He' and 'him' are ~ pronouns. ⇨ feminine.

mas-cu-lin-ity /'mæskjʊlɪnəti/ n [U] quality of being masculine.

mash /mæʃ/ n [U] 1 grain, bran, etc cooked in water as food for poultry, cattle or pigs. 2 any substance softened and crushed, eg boiled potatoes beaten and crushed: sausage and ~. 3 mixture of malt and hot water used in brewing. □ vt beat or crush into a mash: ~ed potato.

mask /'mɑ:sk US: mæsk/ n [C] 1 covering for the face, or part of it, eg a piece of silk or velvet. 2 replica of the face carved in wood, ivory, etc; disguise. 3 pad of sterile gauze worn over the mouth and nose by doctors and nurses. 4 likeness of a face made by taking a mould in wax, etc.

'death mask, one made by taking a mould of the face of a dead person.

'gas-mask, breathing apparatus, in some cases for the whole of the head, worn as a protection against poisonous gas, etc.

mask² /'mɑ:sk US: mæsk/ vi 1 cover (the face) with a mask: a ~ed ball, one at which masks are worn. 2 conceal: ~ one's hatred under an appearance of friendliness.

maso-chism /'mæskɪzəm/ n [U] mental disorder of getting satisfaction (esp sexual) from (self-inflicted) pain or humiliation.

maso-chist /-kɪst/, person suffering from masochism.

maso-chis-tic /'mæskɪstɪk/ adj ma-son /'meɪsn/ n [C] 1 worker who builds or works with stone. 2 = freemason.

ma-sonic /'mæsnɪk/ adj of freemasons.

ma-son-ry /'meɪsənəri/ (a) stonework; that part of a building made of stone and mortar. (b) = freemasonry.

mas-quer-ade /'mɑ:skəreɪd US: 'mæsk-/ n [C] 1 masked ball. ⇨ mask²(1). 2 (fig) false show or pretence. □ vi appear, be, in disguise: a prince masquerading as a peasant.

mass /mæs/ n 1 [C] lump, quantity of matter, without regular shape; large number, quantity or heap: ~es of dark clouds in the sky; a ~ of colour in the garden. 2 the ~es, ordinary people; (manual) workers. 3 [U] (science) quantity of material in a body measured by its resistance to change of motion. ⇨ size¹(1). □ vt, vi form or collect into a mass: Troops are ~ing/are being ~ed on the frontier.

mass com-muni-cations/'media, means (esp newspapers, radio, TV) of supplying information to, influencing the ideas of, enormous numbers of people.

mass pro-duction, manufacture of large numbers of identical articles by standardized processes. Hence, mass-pro-duce vt

Mass /mæs/ n [C] celebration (esp RC) of the Eucharist.

mass-acre /'mæsəkə(r)/ n [C] cruel killing of large numbers of (esp defenceless) people (occasionally used of animals). □ vt make a massacre of.

mass-age /'mæsəʒ/ n [C,U] (instance of) pressing and rubbing the body with the hands in order to lessen pain, stiffness, etc. □ vt apply a massage to.

mass-eur /mæ'sɜ:(r)/ n [C] man who practises massage.

mass-euse /mæ'sɜ:z/ n [C] woman who practises massage.

mass-ive /'mæsɪv/ adj 1 large, heavy and solid: a ~ monument. 2 (of the features) heavy-looking: a ~ forehead. 3 (fig) substantial; impressive: a ~ victory.

mass-ive-ly adv

mast /mɑ:st US: mæst/ n [C] 1 upright support (of wood or metal) for a ship's sails. 2 tall pole (for a flag). 3 tall steel structure for aerials of a radio or television transmitter.

'mast head, highest part of a mast, used as a look-out post.

mas-ter¹ /'mɑ:stə(r) US: 'mæs-/ n [C] 1 man who has others working for him or under him.

be one's own master, be free and independent. 2 male head of a household: the ~ of the house.

3 captain of a merchant ship: a ~ mariner. 4 male owner of a dog, horse, etc. 5 male teacher (esp in a private school): the mathe'matics ~.

6 master of, person who has control: He is ~ of the situation, has it under control. 7 (with a boy's name) young Mr: M ~ Charles Smith, sometimes used when speaking of or to a boy up to about the age of 14. 8 title of the head of a college: the ~ of Balliol. 9 great artist. ⇨ old master. 10 original (taped recording, etc) from which copies are made. □ adj 1 having, showing, professional skill: a ~ builder/carpenter. 2 superior: a ~ hand at diplomacy. 3 original: a ~ tape.

Master of Arts/Science, (abbr MA,

MSc holder of the second university degree.

Master of Ceremonies, (abbr MC) person who controls the procedure of various social occasions, eg a public banquet.

master-key, one that will open many different locks.

master-mind, person with superior intelligence (esp one who plans work to be carried out by others). Hence, master-mind vt plan, direct, a scheme.

master-piece, something made or done with very great skill; the best example.

master-stroke, highly skilful act (of policy, etc).

mas-ter² /'mɑːstə(r) US: 'mæs-/ vt become the master(6) of: ~ one's feelings; ~ a foreign language.

mas-ter-ful /'mɑːstəfl US: 'mæs-/ adj 1 fond of controlling others: speak in a ~ manner. 2 = masterly.

mas-ter-fully /-fəli/ adv

mas-ter-ly /'mɑːstəli US: 'mæs-/ adj 1 worthy of a great master. 2 very skilful: with a few ~ strokes of the brush.

mas-tery /'mɑːstəri US: 'mæs-/ n [U] 1 complete control or knowledge: his ~ of the violin. 2 supremacy: Which side will get the ~ (over us)?

mas-ti-cate /'mæstikeɪt/ vt (formal) chew; soften, grind up (food) with the teeth.

mas-ti-ca-tion /'mæstri'keɪʃn/ n [U] mas-tiff /'mæstɪf/ n [C] large, strong dog much used as a watchdog.

mas-toid /'mæstɔɪd/ n [C] bone at the back of the ear.

mas-tur-bate /'mæstəbeɪt/ vi produce, obtain, sexual excitement by manual or other stimulation of the genital organs.

mas-tur-ba-tion /'mæstə'beɪʃn/ n [U] mat¹ /mæt/ n [C] 1 piece of material used for a floor covering, for sleeping on, or (a 'door~) for wiping dirty shoes on. 2 small piece of material placed under vases, ornaments, etc or (a 'table~) under hot dishes on a table. 3 anything thickly tangled or twisted together: a ~ of weeds. □ vt, vi (-tt-) 1 cover or supply with mats. 2 (cause to) be or become tangled or knotted: ~ ted hair.

mat², matt (US = matte) /mæt/ adj (of surfaces) dull; not shiny or glossy: paint that dries with a ~ finish. ⇨ gloss paint.

ma-ta-dor /'mætədɔː(r)/ n [C] man whose task is to kill the bull in a bull-fight.

match¹ /mætʃ/ n [C] short piece of wood, waxed paper, etc with a top made of material that bursts into flame when rubbed on a rough or specially prepared surface.

match-box, box for holding matches.

match² /mætʃ/ n [C] 1 contest; game: a 'football/tennis ~. 2 person with the same strength, skill, etc as another: You are no ~ for him. 3 marriage: They decided to make a ~ of it, (of two persons) They decided to marry. 4 person considered from the point of view of marriage: He's a good ~, is considered satisfactory or desirable as a possible husband. 5 person or thing exactly like, or corresponding to, or combining well with, another: colours/materials that are a good ~.

match-maker, (esp) person who is fond of arranging matches(3) for others.

match point, final point needed to win a match(1).

match³ /mætʃ/ vt, vi 1 put in competition: I'm ready to ~ my strength with/against yours. 2 be equal to; be, obtain, a match(2) for: a well-~ed pair, eg boxers about equal in skill. 3 be equal to, correspond (with), (in quality, colour, design, etc): The carpets should ~ the curtains. ⇨ clash(4). 4 find a material, etc that matches(3) with (another): Can you ~ this silk? 5 join (one person with another) in marriage.

match-less adj unequalled: ~ less beauty.

match-et /'mætʃɪt/ n [C] = machete.

mate¹ /meɪt/ n 1 (informal) companion; fellow-workman: Where are you going, ~? ⇨ class-mate, playmate. 2 ship's officer (not an engineer) below the rank of captain. 3 helper: (in titles) a plumber's ~. 4 one of a pair of birds or animals: the lioness and her ~.

mate² /meɪt/ vt, vi (of birds or animals) (cause to) unite for the purpose of producing young.

the mating season, spring, when birds make their nests and mate.

mate³ /meɪt/ n, v = checkmate.

ma-ter-i-al¹ /mə'tɪəriəl/ adj 1 (contrasted with spiritual) made of, connected with, matter or substance: the ~ world. 2 of the body; of physical needs: ~ needs, eg food and warmth. 3 (legal) important; essential: ~ evidence/ testimony.

ma'terial noun, (gram) naming a material, eg stone, wood, wool.

ma-ter-i-ally /-iəli/ adv essentially.

ma-ter-i-al² /mə'tɪəriəl/ n 1 [C, U] that of which something is or can be made or with which something is done: raw ~s, not yet used in manufacture; 'dress ~s, cloth; 'writing ~s, pen, ink, paper, etc. 2 [U] (fig) facts, happenings, elements: the ~ from which history is made.

ma-ter-i-al-ism /mə'tɪəriəlɪzəm/ n [U] 1 scientific, philosophical theory, asserting that the world is material, that it exists irrespective of man's consciousness, and that the cognition of it is possible. 2 valuation of material things (wealth, etc) too much.

ma-ter-i-al-ist /-ɪst/ n [C] (a) believer in materialism(1). (b) person who only aims to get things for himself.

ma-ter-i-al-is-tic /mə'tɪəriəlɪstɪk/ adj ma-ter-i-al-is-ti-cally /-kli/ adv

ma-ter-i-al-ize (also -ise) /mə'tɪəriəlaɪz/ vi take material form; (cause to) become fact: Our plans did not ~, came to nothing, were not carried out.

ma-ter-nal /mə'tɜːnl/ adj 1 of or like a mother: ~ care/instincts. 2 related through the mother: my ~ grandfather.

ma-ter-nally /-nəli/ adv

ma-tern-ity /mə'tɜːnəti/ n [U] being a mother: (used as an adjective) a ~ ward/hospital, for women who (are about to) become mothers.

matey /'meiti/ adj (informal).

math-emat-ics /ˌmæθə'mætiks/ n [U] (used with a sing or pl verb) science of size and numbers (of which arithmetic, algebra, trigonometry and geometry are branches).

math-emat-ical /ˌmæθə'mætɪkl/ adj math-emat-ically /-kli/ adv

math-ema-ti-cian /ˌmæθə'mə'tɪʃn/ n [C] expert in mathematics.

maths (US = math) /mæθs US: mæθ/ n (abbr of) mathematics.

ma-ti-née /'mæti-nei US: ˌmætə'nei/ n [C] afternoon performance at a cinema or theatre.

mat-ins /'mætiŋz US: -tənz/ n pl 1 service for Morning Prayer in the Church of England. 2 prayers recited at daybreak in the RC Church.

ma-tri-arch /'mætriɑːk/ n [C] woman head of a family or tribe.

ma-tri-ar-chal /ˌmeitri'ɑːkl/ adj ma-tri-archy /-ɑːki/ n [C] social organization in which mothers are the heads of families.

ma-trices /'meitrisiːz/ pl of matrix.

mat-ri-cide /'mætrisaɪd/ n [U] killing of one's own mother; [C] instance of this; [C] person guilty of this.

mat-ri-mony /'mætrɪməni US: -məʊni/ n [U] state of being married.

mat-ri-mo-nial /ˌmætri'məʊniəl/ adj ma-trix /'meɪtrɪks/ n (pl matrices /'meɪtrɪsiːz/ or ~es) 1 shaped mould into which hot metal, or other material in a soft or liquid condition, is poured to be shaped. 2 substance in which a mineral, etc is found in the ground.

ma-tron /'meɪtrən/ n [C] 1 woman housekeeper in a school or other institution. 2 woman who manages the domestic affairs and nursing staff of a hospital.

ma-tronly adj

mat /mæt/ adj variant spelling of mat².

mat-ter¹ /'mætə(r)/ n 1 [U] substance(s) of which a physical thing is made (contrasted with mind, spirit, etc): organic/inorganic ~. 2 material for thought or expression; substance of a book, speech, etc contrasted with the form or style. 3 [U] something printed or written: 'reading ~, books, periodicals, etc. 4 [C] something to which attention is given; piece of business; affair: 'money ~s. a matter of 'course, expected in the natural course of events. as a matter of fact, ⇨ fact(3). no laughing matter, serious. a matter of opinion, something about which opinions may differ. for 'that matter, so far as that is concerned. 5 [U] importance. (make/be) no matter, (be) of no importance: It's no ~ / makes no ~ whether you arrive early or late. no matter 'who/'what/'where, etc, whoever (it is), whatever (happens, etc). 6 [U] the ~, wrong (with): What's the ~ with it? 7 [U] pus. 8 a matter of, about: a ~ of 20 weeks/10 miles/£50; within a ~ of hours.

'matter-of-'course adj to be expected.

'matter-of-'fact adj (of a person, his manner) unimaginative; keeping to the facts.

mat-ter² /'mætə(r)/ vi be of importance: It doesn't ~ much, does it?

mat-ting /'mætiŋ/ n [U] rough woven material used for floor covering and for packing goods: 'cocconut-'.

mat-tins /'mætiŋz US: -tənz/ n pl = matins.

mat-tock /'mætək/ n [C] tool used for breaking up hard ground, etc with an iron bar at a right angle to the handle.

mat-tress /'mætris/ n [C] thick, flat, oblong pad of wool, hair, feathers, foam rubber, etc on which to sleep.

spring mattress, one with coiled wires fitted inside a padded cover.

matu-rate /'mætʃəreɪt/ vi (formal) become mature.

matu-ration /ˌmætʃu'reɪʃn/ n [U] ma-ture /mætʃuə(r) US: -tʃʊə/ vt, vi 1 come or bring to full development or to a state ready for use: His character ~d during these years. 2 (of bills) become due. 3 adj 1 fully grown or developed; ripe with fully developed powers: persons of ~ years. 2 careful; perfected: ~ plans. 3 (of bills) due for payment.

ma-ture-ly adv

ma-tur-ity /mætʃuəriti/ n [U] the state of being mature.

maud-lin /'mɔːdlɪn/ adj self-pitying; tearful.

maul /mɔːl/ vt hurt or injure by rough or brutal handling: ~ed by a tiger.

Maundy Thurs-day /ˌmɔːndi 'θɜːzdi/ n Thursday before Easter, commemorating Jesus' Last Supper.

mau-so-leum /ˌmɔːsə'liːəm/ n [C] magnificent and monumental tomb.

mauve /mɔːv/ adj, n [U] bright but delicate pale purple (colour).

maxi /'mæksɪ/ n [C] (informal) woman's ankle-length skirt, coat, etc. ⇨ mini.

maxim /'mæksɪm/ n [C] widely accepted rule of conduct or general truth briefly expressed, eg 'Look before you leap'.

maxi-mal /'mæksɪml/ adj greatest in amount or degree.

maxi-mize (also -ise) /'mæksɪmaɪz/ vt increase to a maximum: maximizing educational opportunities.

maxi-mum /'mæksɪmə/ n (pl ~s) (opp of minimum) greatest possible or recorded degree, quantity, etc: the ~ temperature recorded in London. The ~ load is one ton.

may /meɪ/ auxiliary verb (pt might /maɪt/) (negative may not, shortened to mayn't /meɪnt/ and might not, shortened to mighn't /'maɪnt/) 1 (used of possibility or probability): That ~ or ~ not be true. He ~ have (= Perhaps he has) missed his train. This might have cured your cough, if you had taken it. 2 (used of permission or request for permission): M ~ I come in? Might I make a suggestion? 3 (used of uncertainty, and asking for information, or expressing wonder): Well, who ~ you be? 4 may as well, (used to suggest 'There is good reason'): We ~ as well stay where we are. 5 (used to express wishes and hopes): M ~ you both be happy! 6 (used to express requests): I think you might at least offer to help. 7 (in clauses) (used to express purpose, and after wish, fear, be afraid, etc): He died so that others might live. I'm afraid the news ~ be true.

May /meɪ/ n the fifth month of the year, with 31 days.

May Day, 1st of May, celebrated as a spring festival; day of international solidarity of the working people.

may-be /'meɪbɪ/ adv perhaps; possibly.

may-on-naise /,meɪə'neɪz US: 'meɪəneɪz/ n [U] thick dressing of eggs, cream, oil, vinegar, etc used on cold foods, esp salads.

mayor /meə(r) US: 'meɪə(r)/ n [C] head of a local authority of a city or borough.

mayor-ess /'meɪəɪs/ n [C] 1 woman mayor. 2 wife of a mayor.

maze /meɪz/ n [C] 1 network of lines, paths, etc; labyrinth: a ~ of narrow roads. 2 state of confusion or bewilderment (when faced by a confused mass of facts, etc).

ma-zurka /mə'zɜ:kə/ n [C] (piece of music for a) lively Polish dance.

me /mi:/ personal pron (used as the object form of I): He saw ~. Give ~ one. It's ~, (now usual for) It is I.

mead /mɪd/ n [U] alcoholic drink made from fermented honey and water.

mead² /mɪd/ n [C] (poetic) meadow.

meadow /'medəʊ/ n [C,U] (area, field, of) grassland, esp kept for hay.

meagre (US = mea-ger) /'mi:ɡə(r)/ adj 1 thin; having no flesh: a ~ face. 2 insufficient; poor; scanty: a ~ meal/attendance.

meagre-ly (US = mea-ger-ly) adv meagre-ness (US = mea-ger-) n [U] meal /mi:l/ n [C] 1 occasion of eating: three ~s a day. make a meal of sth. (fig) do it as if it is much more difficult than it is. 2 food that is eaten: have a good ~. I hope you enjoy your ~.

'meal-ticket, (fig) (informal) person or thing providing money, food or other resources.

'meal-time, usual time for taking a meal.

meal² /mi:l/ n [U] grain coarsely ground: 'loaf~.

mealy /'mi:li/ adj (-ier, -iest) of, like, containing, covered with, meal².

'mealy-bug, insect that infests vines, etc.

'mealy-mouthed adj tending to avoid straightforward, frank, language because of shyness, hypocrisy, etc.

mean¹ /mi:n/ adj (-er, -est) 1 poor in appearance; shabby: a ~ house in a ~ street. 2 (of behaviour) unworthy: That was a ~ trick! It was ~ of you to take all the oranges. 3 (of persons, their character, etc) cruel, malicious: Don't be so ~ to your little brother. Don't tease him, treat him unkindly, etc. 4 of low rank or humble birth: We offer justice even to the ~est citizens. 5 (of the understanding, the natural powers) inferior; poor: This should be clear even to the ~est intelligence. 6 ungenerous; selfish: Her husband is so ~ about money. 7 (informal) ashamed: feel rather ~ for not helping more. 8 (US) nasty; vicious: He's ~—he likes to see people suffer.

mean-ly adv

mean-ness n [U]

mean² /mi:n/ adj occupying the middle position between two extremes: the ~ annual temperature in Malta.

Greenwich Mean Time, ⇨ Greenwich.

mean³ /mi:n/ n 1 [C] condition, quality, course of action, etc that is halfway between two extremes. 2 (maths) term between the first and the last of a series: The ~ of 3, 5 and 7 is 5 (because $3 + 5 + 7 = 15$ and $15 \div 3 = 5$).

mean⁴ /mi:n/ vi (pt, pp meant /ment/) 1 (of words, sentences, etc) have as an explanation: A dictionary tries to tell you what words ~. 2 be a sign of; be likely to result in: These new orders will ~ working overtime. 3 have as a purpose; intend; refer to: What do you ~ by saying that? Do you ~ (= refer to) Miss Ann Smith or Miss Angela Smith? Is this figure ~t to be a 1 or a 7? I'm sorry if I hurt your feelings—I didn't ~ to. mean 'business, ⇨ business(3). 4 intend; be determined: a building ~t for offices. He ~s you no harm, does not intend to hurt you. He ~s to succeed. 5 be of importance or value to: Your friendship ~s a great deal to me. £20 ~s a lot to her. ⇨ also nothing. 6 'mean well, have good intentions (though perhaps not the will or ability to carry them out): His plans never work but he ~s well.

meaning n [C,U] what is meant or intended: a word with many distinct ~ings. What's the ~ing of this? (for example, asked by a person who thinks he has been badly treated, etc). □ adj full of meaning: well-~ing, having good intentions.

meaning-ful /-fl/ adj significant.

meaning-fully /-fəli/ adv

meaning-less adj without meaning or motive.

me-ander /mɪˈændə(r)/ vi 1 (of a stream) follow a winding course, flowing slowly and gently. 2 wander here and there. 3 (fig) speak in an aimless way.

me-ander-ings /mɪˈændrɪŋz/ n pl winding path, etc.

means¹ /mi:nz/ n pl (often used as a sing. as in the examples) method, process, by which a result may be obtained: There is/are no ~ of learning what is happening. Does the end always justify the ~. If the aim or purpose is good, may any methods, even if bad, be used? by means of, through; with the help of: Thoughts are expressed by ~ of words. by 'all means, certainly. by 'no means, not at all. ways and 'means, methods, esp of providing money by taxation for government needs: a ways and ~ committee.

means² /mi:nz/ n pl money; wealth; resources: a man of ~, a rich man; have private ~, an income from property, investments, etc (not earned as salary, etc). live beyond/within one's means, spend more/less than one's income.

'means test, inquiry into the financial resources of a person who is seeking help from the State, eg for a student's grant.

meant /ment/ pt, pp of mean⁴.

mean-time /'mi:ntaim/ adv, n (sing) (in the interval between.

mean-while /'min'wail/ US: -'hwaɪl/ adv in or during the time between.

measles /'mi:zlz/ n [U] (used with a sing verb) infectious disease, marked by fever and small red spots that cover the whole body.

measly /'mi:zli/ adj (-ier, iest) (informal) of little value; of poor quality; of small size or amount: What a ~ helping of ice-cream!

measure¹ /'meʒə(r)/ n 1 [U] size, quantity, degree, weight, etc as found by a standard or unit. made to measure, (of articles of clothing) specially made for a person after taking measurements. get the measure of sb. (fig) form an estimate of his character, abilities, etc. 2 [C] unit, standard or system used in stating size, quantity or degree: liquid/dry ~. for good measure, in addition to the necessary amount. 3 [C] something with which to test size, quantity, etc: a pint ~. 4 extent, (esp in) beyond measure, very greatly: Her joy was beyond ~. in some/large, etc measure, to a large extent: Their success was in some ~ in great ~ the result of thorough preparation. 5 [C] (proposed) law: ~s to halt inflation. 6 [C] proceeding; step: They took strong ~s against dangerous drivers.

greatest, common 'measure, (abbr GCM) largest number that will divide each of several given numbers exactly.

'tape-measure, ⇨ tape.

measure² /'meʒə(r)/ vt, vi 1 find the size, extent, volume, degree, etc of: ~ an 'area of ground/the strength of an electric current/the speed of a car/the length of my arm. 2 be (a certain length, etc): This room ~s 10 metres across. 3 give or mark a measured quantity: ~ out a dose of medicine.

measured adj (a) (of language) carefully chosen or considered: ~d words. (b) in slow and regular rhythm: with a ~d tread.

measur-able /'meʒərəbl/ adj measure-less adj limitless.

measure-ment n (a) [U] measuring: the metric system of ~ment. (b) (pl) figures about length, breadth, depth, etc: the ~ments of a room.

meat /mi:t/ n 1 [U] flesh of animals used as food, excluding fish and birds. 2 (fig) substance: There's not much ~ in his argument.

'meat-ball, small ball of minced meat.

meaty adj (-ier, -iest) (fig) full of substance, interest: a ~ story.

mechanic /mɪ'kænik/ n [C] skilled workman, esp one who repairs or adjusts machinery and tools: a 'motor-~.

mech-an-ical /mɪ'kænikl/ adj 1 of, connected with, produced by, machines: ~ engineering. 2 (of persons, their actions) like machines; automatic; as if done without thought: ~ movements.

mech-an-ically /-kl/ adv in a mechanical way (esp 2): answering ~ly, (as if) thoughtlessly.

mech-an-ics /mɪ'kæniks/ n 1 (usually used with a sing verb) science of motion and force; science of machinery: M ~ is taught by Mr Hill. 2 (pl) (method of) construction: the ~ of producing plays.

mech-an-ism /'mekənɪzəm/ n [C] 1 working parts of a machine collectively. 2 structure or arrangement of parts that work together as the parts of a machine do: the ~ of government. 3 way in which something works or is constructed.

mech-an-ize (also -ise) /'mekənəɪz/ vt use machines in or for; give a mechanical character to.

mech-an-iz-ation (also -isation) /'mekənəɪzəʃn/ US: -nɪz-/ n [U] medal /'medl/ n [C] flat piece of metal, usually shaped like a coin, with words and a design stamped on it, given as an award for bravery, to commemorate something or for distinction in scholarship.

med-al-list (US = med-alist) /'medəlɪst/ n person who has been awarded a medal, eg for distinction in sport, literature, art.

me-dal-lion /mɪ'dæliən/ n [C] large medal; large, flat circular ornamental design.

meddle /'medl/ vi become involved without being asked to do so; interfere: Don't ~ in my affairs. Who's been meddling with my papers?

med-dler, person who meddles.

'meddle-some /-səm/ adj fond of, in the habit of, meddling.

me-dia /'mi:diə/ n ⇨ mass(2), medium.

the media, (usually used with a sing verb) mass communications, eg television, radio, the press.

medi-aeval /,mɛdɪ'vi:vl US: /,mɪd-/ = medieval.

me-dial /'mi:diəl/ adj (formal) 1 situated, placed, in the middle. 2 of average size.

me-di-ally /-i:li/ adv

me-di-ate /'mɪdi:et/ vi,vt 1 act as go-between or peacemaker: ~ between employers and their workers. 2 bring about by doing this: ~ a settlement/a peace.

me-dia-tion /,mɪ:di'eɪʃn/ n [U] me-dia-tor /-tə(r)/ person who mediates.

medic /'medɪk/ n (informal abbr for) medical student.

medi-cal /'medɪkl/ adj 1 of the art of medicine (the treatment of disease): a ~ practitioner, a qualified doctor; a ~ school. 2 of the art of medicine (contrasted with surgery): The hospital has a ~ ward and a surgical ward. □ n [C] medical examination.

medi-cally /-kli/ adv

medi-cate /'medɪkeɪt/ vt treat medically; fill with a medicinal substance: ~d soap.

medi-ca-tion /,mɛdɪ'keɪʃn/ n [C, U] medi-ci-nal /mɪ'dɪsɪnl/ adj able to heal or cure: ~ preparations; for ~ use.

medi-cine /'medsɪn US: /'medɪsən/ n 1 [U] the art and science of the prevention and cure of disease: study ~ and surgery. 2 [C, U] (kind of) substance, esp one taken through the mouth, used to treat disease: He's always taking ~s. 3 [U] (fig) deserved punishment. 4 [U] (among primitive peoples) spell; charm; fetish; magic.

'medicine-man /-mæn/, = witch-doctor.

medi-eval (also medi-aeval) /,mɛdɪ'vi:vl US: /,mɪd-/ adj of the Middle Ages (about AD 1100–1500).

me-di-ocre /,mɪ:di'əʊkə(r)/ adj not very good; neither very good nor very bad; second-rate.

me-di-oc-ri-ty /,mɪ:di'əʊkrəti/ n [C, U] (pl -ies) quality of being mediocre.

medi-tate /'medɪteɪt/ vi,vt 1 think about; consider: ~ revenge/mischief. 2 give oneself up to serious thought: He sat there meditating on his misfortunes. 3 think deeply about a moral, religious or philosophical topic: ~ on world peace.

medi-ta-tion /,mɛdɪ'teɪʃn/ n 1 [U] meditating: deep in ~. 2 [C] instance of this.

Medi-ter-ra-nean /,medɪtə'reɪniən/ adj of, characteristic of, the Mediterranean Sea or the countries, etc bordering it: a ~ climate.

me-dium /'mi:diəm/ n [C] (pl ~s or media /'mi:diə/) 1 that by which something is expressed: Commercial television is a ~ for advertising. 2 middle quality or degree. 3 (pl often media) substance, surroundings, in which something exists or moves: Air is the ~ of sound. 4 person who acts as a go-between, esp in spiritualism; person who claims to be able to receive messages from the spirits of the dead. □ adj coming halfway between; not extreme: a man of ~ height; a ~sized firm.

the happy medium, satisfaction by avoiding extremes, eg by being neither very lax nor very severe in maintaining discipline.

'medium wave, (radio telegraphy) wave between long and short (200 to 1000 metres).

med-ley /'medli/ n [C] (pl ~s) mixture of things or persons of different sorts: the ~ of races in Hawaii; a musical ~, of excerpts from longer works; the 400 metres ~, a relay swimming race where each swimmer uses a different style.

meek /mɪ:k/ adj (-er, -est) mild and patient: She's as ~ as a lamb, very meek.

meek-ly adv

meek-ness n [U]

meet¹ /mɪ:t/ vt,vi (pt,pp met /met/) 1 come face to face with from the opposite or a different direction; come together from different points or directions: We met (each other) quite by chance. The Debating Society ~s every Friday at 8pm. meet with, (a) experience: ~ with misfortune/an accident. (b) come into contact by chance: ~ with obstacles; ~ with an old friend at a party. 2 make the acquaintance of; be introduced to: I know Mrs Hill by sight, but have never met her/we've never met. Pleased to ~ you, (used as a formal introduction). 3 go to a place and await the arrival of: I'll ~ you at the station/~ your train. 4 satisfy (a demand, etc): ~ his wishes, do what he wants; ~ all the expenses, pay them. meet sb halfway, (fig) give way to some extent in order to satisfy him or reach agreement. 5 come into contact; touch: Their hands met. The roads should ~ about a mile away. make (both) ends meet, ⇨ end¹(1). 6 meet the eye/ear, our eyes/ears, be visible/audible: There's more to that man than ~s the eye, (fig) he has qualities, characteristics, etc that are not obvious.

meet² /mɪ:t/ n [C] 1 (GB) gathering of riders and hounds at a fixed place (for foxhunting). 2 coming together of a number of people for a purpose: an ath'letics ~.

meet-ing /'mi:tɪŋ/ n [C] 1 coming together of a number of persons at a certain time and place, esp for discussion: political ~s. 2 any coming together: a 'race-~; a 'sports-~.

'meeting-house, building for meetings, esp those held by Quakers.

'meeting-place, place fixed for a meeting.

mega- /mega-/ prefix 1 large: megalith. 2 one million: megacycle.

mega-cycle /'megə'saɪkl/ n [C] million cycles (of changes of radio current, esp per second).

mega-lith /'megəliθ/ n [C] large stone, esp an ancient one used as a monument.

mega-lithic /'megəliθik/ adj made of, marked by, the use of megaliths.

mega-lo-ma-nia /'megələ'meɪniə/ n [U] mental illness in which a person has exaggerated ideas of his importance of power, wealth, etc: The dictator was obviously suffering from ~.

mega-lo-ma-niac /-niæk/, person suffering from megalomania.

mega-phone /'megəfəʊn/ n [C] device for magnifying sound, for carrying the voice to a distance.

mega-ton /'megətən/ n [C] explosive force equal to one million tons of TNT.

mel-an-cholic /'melənkɒlik/ adj (with a tendency to) melancholy.

mel-an-choly /'melənkəli/ US: -kəli/ n [U] sadness, esp often or for long periods. □ adj sad; depressed; causing sadness or depression: a ~ occasion, eg a funeral.

mel-an-cholia /'melənkəʊliə/ n [U] mental illness marked by melancholy.

meli-or-ate /'mi:lɪəreɪt/ vt, vi (formal) make or become better.

meli-or-ation /'mi:lɪəreɪʃn/ n [U] mel-low /'meləʊ/ adj (-er, -est) 1 soft and sweet in taste. 2 soft, pure and rich in colour or sound. 3 made wise and sympathetic by age or experience: ~ judgement. 4 (informal) kindly; sympathetic. □ vt, vi make or become mellow.

mel-low-ness n [U] mel-odic /'mɪlədɪk/ adj of melody; melodious.

mel-odious /'mɪlədiəs/ adj of, producing, melody; sounding tuneful.

mel-odi-ous-ly adv

melo-drama /'melədra:mə/ n 1 [C] exciting and emotional (often sensational, exaggerated) drama, usually with a happy ending. 2 [C] event or series of events, behaviour or writing, which suggests a stage melodrama. 3 [U] language, behaviour, suggestive of plays of this kind.

melo-dram-atic /'melədra'mætɪk/ adj melo-dram-ati-cally /-kli/ adv

mel-ody /'melədi/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] pleasant music; tunefulness; musical arrangement of words. 2 [C] song or tune: old Irish melodies. 3 [C] principal part or theme in harmonized music: The ~ is next taken up by the flutes.

melon /'melən/ n [C] (kinds of) large, juicy round fruit growing on a plant that trails along the ground.

melt /melt/ vt, vi (pt, pp ~ed; pp used as an adj, of metal molten /'məʊltən/) 1 (cause to) become liquid through heating: Snow ~s when the sun ... shines. melt away, become less, disappear, (as) by melting: The snow soon ~ed away when the sun came out. Her money seemed to ~ away in Paris melt sth down, melt metals

(eg articles of gold and silver) in order to use the metal as raw material. 2 (of soft food) dissolve, be softened, easily: This cake|pear ~s in the mouth. 3 (of a solid in a liquid) dissolve (the usual word). 4 (of a person, heart, feelings) soften, be softened: Her heart ~ed with pity. 5 fade; go (slowly) away: One colour ~ed into another, eg in the sky at sunset.

melt-ing adj (fig) tender; sentimental: in a ~ing voice|mood.

'melt-ing-point, temperature at which a solid melts.

'melting-pot, (a) pot in which metals, etc are melted. (b) any situation in which there is a mixture of ideas, differences, etc.

mem-ber /'membə(r)/ n [C] 1 person belonging to a group, society, etc: Every ~ of her family came to her wedding. 2 (old use) part of a human or animal body.

Member of Parliament, (abbr MP) elected representative in the House of Commons.

'mem-ber-ship, (a) [U] the state of being a member (of a society, etc). (b) [C] number of members: a ~ship of 80.

mem-brane /'membreɪn/ n [C] (soft, thin layer of) animal, vegetable or synthetic tissue. ⇨ mucous.

mem-bran-ous /'membrənəs/ adj mem-ento /'mɪmentəʊ/ n [C] (pl ~s or ~es) something that serves to remind one of a person or event.

memo /'meməʊ/ n [C] (pl ~s) (abbr for) memorandum.

mem-oir /'memwɑ:(r)/ n [C] 1 short life-history, esp by someone with first-hand knowledge. 2 essay on an academic subject specially studied by the writer. 3 (pl) person's written account of his own life or experiences: war ~s.

mem-or-able /'memrəbl/ adj deserving to be remembered; remarkable.

mem-or-ably /-əblɪ/ adv

mem-or-an-dum /'memərændəm/ n [C] (pl -da /-də/ or ~s) 1 note or record for future use. 2 informal business communication, usually without a personal signature. 3 report of an agreement that has been reached but not yet formally drawn up and signed: ~s and articles of association, legal document for this.

mem-orial /'mɪmə:riəl/ n [C] 1 something made or done to remind people of an event, person, etc: a 'war ~. 2 (used as an adjective) serving to commemorate: a ~ service. 3 (usually pl) historical records or chronicles.

mem-or-ize (also -ise) /'meməraɪz/ vt commit to memory: ~ a speech.

mem-ory /'meməri/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] power of keeping facts in the conscious mind and of being able to recall them at will; preservation of past experience for future use. commit to memory, ⇨ commit(2). to the best of my 'memory, as far as I can remember. 2 [C] this power in an individual (also used, by extension, of the unit of a computer which stores data for future use): He has a bad ~ for dates.

3 [U] period over which the memory can go back. within living memory, within the years that people now alive can remember. 4 [C] something remembered or stored in the memory: memories of childhood. 5 [U] reputation after death: the late Pope, of blessed ~.

'memory bank, part of a computer in which data and instructions are stored.

men /men/ n pl of man ¹ (1).

men-ace /'menəs/ n [C,U] danger; threat: a ~ to world peace. That woman is a ~, is a nuisance. □ vt threaten: countries ~d by/with war.

men-ac-ing adj

men-ac-ing-ly adv

men-ag-erie /mɪ'nædʒəri/ n [C] collection of wild animals in captivity, esp for a circus.

mend /mend/ vt, vi 1 remake, repair (something broken, worn out or torn); restore to good condition or working order: ~ shoes/a broken window. 2 (= amend) free from faults or errors: That won't ~ (= improve) matters. mend one's ways, ⇨ way(9). 3 regain health; heal. □ n [C] damaged or torn part that has been mended: The ~s were almost invisible. on the mend, improving in health or condition.

'mend-ing, (esp) work of repairing (clothes, etc).

men-da-cious /men'deɪʃəs/ adj (formal) false; untruthful: ~ newspaper reports.

men-dac-ity /men'dæsəti/ n (pl -ties) (formal) 1 [U] untruthfulness. 2 [C] untrue statement.

men-di-cant /'mendikənt/ n, [C] adj (personal) getting a living as a beggar: ~ friars.

men-folk /'menfəʊk/ n pl (informal) men, esp the men of a family: The ~ have all gone out fishing.

me-nial /'mi:nɪəl/ adj suitable for, to be done by, a household servant: ~ tasks such as washing pots and pans.

me-ni-ally /-ɪəli/ adv men-in-gi-tis /menɪn'dʒaɪtɪs/ n [U] (serious illness caused by) inflammation of any or all of the membranes enclosing the brain and spinal cord.

meno-pause /'menəpəʊz/ n [C] final stopping of the menses (informally called 'the change of life').

men-ses /'mensɪz/ n pl monthly bleeding from the uterus.

men-strual /'menstruəl/ adj of the menses.

men-stru-ate /'menstruət/ vi produce the menses.

men-stru-ation /menstru'eɪʃn/ n [U]

-ment /-ment/ suffix (verb + ~ = noun) result or means of an action: development.

-men-tal /'mentl/ adj

-men-tally /-mentəli/ adv

men-tal /'mentl/ adj 1 of or in the mind. 2 mentally ill. 3 (informal) mad.

'mental a'rithmetic, done in the mind without using written figures or a calculator.

'mental de'ficiency, subnormal development of intellectual powers.

'mental 'health, general condition of the mind.

'mental home/hospital, one for mental patients.

'mental 'illness, illness of the mind.

men-tally /'mentəli/ adv: ~ly deficient, suffering from mental illness.

men-tal-ity /men'tæləti/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] general intellectual character; degree of intellectual power: persons of average ~. 2 [C] characteristic attitude of mind: a bourgeois ~.

men-thol /'menθɒl/ n [U] solid white substance obtained from oil of peppermint, used medically and as a flavouring.

men-tho-lated /'menθəleɪtɪd/ adj men-tion /'menʃn/ vt speak or write something about; say the name of; refer to: I'll ~ it to him. Did I hear my name ~ed? Was somebody talking about me? Don't mention it, phrase used to show that thanks, an apology, etc are welcome but unnecessary. □ n 1 [U] mentioning or naming: He made no ~ of your request. 2 [C] brief notice or reference: several honourable ~s in dispatches.

-men-tioned suffix (used with an adverb). above/below-mentioned, referred to above/below.

men-tor /'mentɔ:(r)/ n [C] wise and trusted adviser and helper.

menu /'menju:/ n [C] list of courses or dishes that are available in a restaurant.

mer-can-tile /'mɜ:kəntaɪl/ adj of trade, commerce and merchants.

'mercantile ma'rine, country's merchant ships and seamen.

mer-cen-ary /'mɜ:sənəri/ US: -neri/ adj working only for money or other reward; inspired by love of money: ~ politicians; act from ~ motives. □ n [C] (pl -ies) soldier hired for pay to serve in a foreign army.

mer-cha-n-dise /'mɜ:tʃəndaɪz/ n [U] goods bought and sold. □ vt, vi buy and sell (goods).

mer-chant /'mɜ:tʃənt/ n [C] 1 (usually wholesale) trader, esp one doing business with foreign countries. 2 (chiefly as an adjective) of overseas trade and the carriage of goods by sea: ~ ships. 3 (used with a prefix) person trading inside a country in the goods mentioned: a coal-~ wine-~.

mer-ci-ful /'mɜ:sɪfl/ adj having, showing, feeling, mercy (to).

mer-ci-fully /-flɪ/ adv

mer-ci-less /'mɜ:sɪls/ adj showing no mercy.

mer-ci-less-ly adv

mer-cur-ial /mɜ:'kjʊəriəl/ adj 1 of, like, caused by, containing, mercury: ~ poisoning.

2 (fig) lively; quickwitted. 3 (of persons) changeable; inconstant.

mer-cury /'mɜ:kjʊr/ n [U] (also called quick-silver) heavy, silver-coloured metal (symbol Hg) usually liquid, as used in thermometers and barometers.

Mer-cury /'mɜ:kjʊr/ n planet nearest the sun.

mercy /'mɜ:si/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] (capacity for) holding oneself back from punishment, or from causing suffering to, a person whom one has the right or power to punish: We were given no ~. He threw himself on my ~, begged me not to punish him, etc. at the mercy of, in the power of; without defence against: The ship was at the ~ of the waves. 2 [C] piece of good fortune; something to be thankful for; relief: We must be thankful for small mercies.

'mercy killing, (informal) euthanasia.

mere¹ /mɪə(r)/ adj (-r, -st) not more than: She's a ~ child. It's a ~/the ~st trifle, nothing at all important, nothing of any value, etc.

mere-ly adv only; simply: I ~ly asked his name. I said it ~ly as a joke.

mere² /mɪə(r)/ n [C] pond; small lake.

mer-etri-cious /,merɪ'trɪʃəs/ adj (formal) attractive on the surface but of little value: ~ jewellery.

merge /mɜ:dʒ/ vt, vi 1 (of business companies) (cause to) become one: The small banks ~d/ were ~d into one large organization. 2 merge into, fade or change gradually into: Twilight was merging into darkness.

merger, n [U] merging(1); [C] instance of this.

mer-id-ian /mɪ'dɪʃən/ n [C] 1 (either half of a) circle round the globe, passing through a given place and the north and south poles: the ~ of Greenwich (of longitude 0° on British maps). 2 highest point reached by the sun or other star as viewed from a point on the earth's surface; 12 noon.

me-ringue /mɪ'ræŋ/ n [U] whites of egg baked with sugar, used to cover tarts, etc; [C] small cake made of this mixture.

merit /'merɪt/ n 1 [U] quality or fact of deserving approval; worth; excellence: a certificate of ~. Do men of ~ always win recognition? 2 [C] quality, fact, action, etc that deserves reward (or, less often, punishment): We must decide the case on its ~s, according to the rights and wrongs of the case, without being influenced by personal feelings. □ vt deserve; be worthy of: ~ reward.

meri-toc-racy /,merɪ'tɒkrəsi/ n [C] (pl -ies) (system of government or control by) persons of practical or intellectual ability.

meri-tori-ous /,merɪ'tɔ:riəs/ adj (formal) praiseworthy; deserving reward: a prize for ~ conduct.

meri-tori-ous-ly adv

mer-maid /'mɜ:meid/ n [C] (in stories, etc) woman with a fish's tail in place of legs.

merry /'merɪ/ adj (-ier, -iest) 1 happy; cheerful; bright and gay: a ~ laugh. I wish you a ~ Christmas. 2 (old use) pleasant: M ~ England. 'merry-go-round, revolving machine with horses, cars, etc on which children ride at fun-fairs.

mer-rily /'merəlɪ/ adv

mer-ri-ment /'merrɪmənt/ n [U] mesh /meʃ/ n [C] 1 one of the spaces in material such as a net or wire screen: a net with centimetre ~es. ⇨ micromesh. 2 (pl) network: the ~es of a spider's web. 3 (fig) complex system: the ~es of political intrigue. □ vi, vi 1 catch (eg fish) in a net. 2 (of toothed wheels) be engaged (with others). 3 (fig) harmonize: Our ways of looking at these problems don't ~.

mess¹ /mes/ n (used with a, an, but rarely pl) state of confusion, dirt or disorder: The workmen cleaned up the ~ before they left. He has got into a ~, is in trouble. □ vt, vi 1 put into disorder or confusion: The late arrival of the train ~ed up all our plans. Hence, 'mess-up n (informal). 2 mess about, (a) do things without a definite plan; behave foolishly. (b) make a mess or muddle; treat roughly or inconsiderately: Stop ~ing me about!

messy adj (-ier, -iest) dirty; in a state of disorder: a ~y job; look ~y.

mess² /mes/ n [C] 1 company of persons taking meals together (esp in the Armed Forces); these meals. 2 the room, etc in which the meals are eaten.

mess-age /'mesɪdʒ/ n [C] 1 piece of news, or a request, sent to a person: Will you take this ~ to my brother? 2 something announced by a prophet and said to be inspired social or moral teaching.

mess-en-ger /'mesɪndʒə(r)/, person carrying a message.

Mess-iah /mɜ'saɪə/ n 1 person expected by the Jews to come and set them free. 2 the Saviour, Jesus Christ.

met /met/ pt, pp of meet¹.

me-tab-olism /mɪ'tæbəlɪzəm/ n [U] process by which food is built up into living matter or by which living matter is broken down into simple substances.

meta-bolic /,metə'bɒlɪk/ adj meta-car-pal /,metə'kɑ:pl/ adj, n [C] (of a) bone in the hand.

metal /'metl/ n 1 [C] any of a class of mineral substances such as tin, iron, gold and copper. 2 [U] one of these (as a material noun): Is it made of wood or ~?

me-tal-lic /mɪ'tællɪk/ adj of or like metal: ~ sounds, eg as made by brass objects struck together.

meta-mor-pho-sis /,metə'mɔ:fəsis/ n [C] (pl -ses /-siz/) change of form or character, eg by natural growth or development: the ~ in the life of an insect, from the egg, etc.

meta-phor /'metəfɔ:(r)/ n [C,U] (example of) the use of words to indicate something different from the literal meaning, as in 'I'll make him eat his words'.

meta-phori-cal /'metəfɔ:ɪkl/ US: -'fɔ:r-/ adj of, like, containing or using, a metaphor.

meta-phori-cally /-kli/ adv meta-tar-sal /'metə'tɑ:sl/ adj, n [C] (of a) bone in the foot.

mete /mi:t/ vt mete out, portion or measure: Justice was ~d out to them.

me-teor /'mi:tɪə(r)/ n [C] small body rushing from outer space into the earth's atmosphere and becoming bright (as a 'shooting star' or 'falling star') as it is burnt up.

me-teoric /'mi:tɪ'ɒrɪk/ US: -'ɔ:r-/ adj 1 of the atmosphere or of atmospheric conditions; of meteors. 2 (fig) swift and dazzling; brilliant: a ~ career; a ~ rise to fame.

me-teor-ite /'mi:tɪəraɪt/ n [C] fallen meteor.

me-teoro-logi-cal /'mi:tɪə'rɒlədʒɪkl/ US: -'mi:tɪə:r-/ adj of meteorology.

me-teor-ol-ogist /'mi:tɪə'rɒlədʒɪst/ n [C] expert in meteorology.

me-teor-ol-ogy /'mi:tɪə'rɒlədʒɪ/ n [U] science of the weather; study of the earth's atmosphere and its changes.

me-ter¹ /'mi:tə(r)/ n [C] apparatus which measures, esp one that records the amount of whatever passes through it, or the distance travelled, fare payable, etc: a 'parking-~, one that measures the time during which a car is parked in a public place.

me-ter² /'mi:tə(r)/ n (US) = metre.

-meter /-mɪtə(r)/ suffix means of measuring: thermometer.

method /'meθəd/ n 1 [U] system, order: He's a man of ~. 2 [C] way of doing something: modern ~s of teaching arithmetic.

meth-odi-cal /mɪ'θɒdɪkl/ adj (a) done, carried out, with order or method: ~ical work. (b) having orderly habits: a ~ical worker.

meth-odi-cally /-kli/ adv

Meth-od-ism /'meθədɪzəm/ n teaching, organization and manner of worship in the Christian denomination started by John Wesley.

Meth-od-ist /-ɪst/ n, adj (member) of this denomination.

meth-od-ol-ogy /'meθə'dɒlədʒɪ/ n [U] science or study of methods(2), esp in academic subjects.

meth-yl-ated spirit /'meθɪleɪtɪd 'spɪrɪt/ n [U] form of alcohol used for lighting and heating.

me-ticu-lous /mɪ'tɪkjələs/ adj giving, showing, great attention to detail; careful and exact.

me-ticu-lous-ly adv

mé-tier /'meɪtiə/ US: mɛr'tɪjə/ n [C] one's trade or profession.

metre¹ (US = meter) /'mi:tə(r)/ n [C] unit of length in the metric system.

metre² (US = meter) /'mi:tə(r)/ n [U] rhythm in verse; [C] particular form of this.

-metre (US -meter) /-mɪtə(r)/ suffix part of a metre: centimetre.

met-ric /'metrɪk/ adj of metre¹.

metric mile, (athletics) 1500 metres race.

'metric system, the decimal measuring system based on the metre as the unit of length, the kilogram as the unit of mass and the litre as the unit of capacity.

met-ri-cal /'metrɪkl/ adj 1 of, composed in, metre² (contrasted with ordinary prose): a ~ translation of the Iliad. 2 connected with measurement: ~ geometry.

met-ri-cally /-kli/ adv

metri-ca-tion /'metrɪ'keɪʃn/ n [U] conversion to the metric system.

met-ro-nome /'metrənəm/ n [C] (music) graduated inverted pendulum for sounding an adjustable number of beats per minute.

me-trop-olis /mə'trɒpəlɪs/ n [C] (pl ~es) 1 chief city of a country; capital. 2 archbishop's see.

metro-poli-tan /'metrə'pɒlɪtən/ adj 1 of or in a capital city: the ~ police. 2 of an ecclesiastical province: a ~ bishop, one having authority over the bishops in his province. □ n [C] 1 person who lives in a metropolis. 2 M~, metropolitan bishop.

mettle /'metl/ n [U] quality, eg in persons, horses, of endurance and courage: a man of ~. be/put sb on his mettle, (a) encourage him to do his best. (b) put him in a position that tests him.

mew /mjʊ:/ n, vi = miaow.

mews /mjʊ:z/ n pl (used with a sing verb) (formerly a) square or street of stables behind a residential street; such stables rebuilt as garages or flats, etc: a South Kensington ~.

mezza-nine /'metzə:nɪn/ US: 'meza-/ n [C], adj (floor) between the ground floor and first floor.

mi-aow /mi:'au/ n [C] sound made by a cat. □ vi make this sound.

mice /maɪs/ n pl of mouse.

mickey /'mɪki/ n take the mickey (out of sb), (sl) mock or tease him.

micro- /maɪkrəʊ/ prefix 1 relatively small: microwave. 2 of examining or reproducing small quantities: microscope; microphone.

mi-crobe /'maɪkrəʊb/ n [C] tiny living creature that can be seen only with the help of a microscope, esp kinds of bacteria causing diseases and fermentation.

micro-cosm /'maɪkrəʊkɒzəm/ n [C] 1 something considered as representing (on a small scale) mankind or the universe. 2 miniature representation (of a system, etc). ⇨ macrocosm.

micro-dot /'maɪkrəʊdɒt/ n [C] photograph reduced to the size of a very small dot.

micro-electronics /ˌmaɪkrəʊ-ˌlɛkˈtrɒnɪks/ n (used with a sing verb) electronic equipment of a very small size.

micro-fiche /ˈmaɪkrəʊfɪʃ/ n [C] piece of microfilm.

micro-film /ˈmaɪkrəʊfɪlm/ n [C,U] (roll, section, of) photographic film with the photographs greatly reduced. □ vt photograph in this way.

micro-mesh /ˈmaɪkrəʊmeʃ/ adj having very small mesh: ~ tights.

micro-meter /maɪˈkrɒmɪtə(r)/ n [C] device for measuring very small objects.

micro- /ˈmaɪkrən/ n [C] unit of length (symbol μ) equal to one millionth of a metre.

micro-organism /ˌmaɪkrəʊ ˈɔːɡənɪzəm/n [C] organism that can only be seen under a microscope.

microphone /ˈmaɪkrəfəʊn/ n [C] instrument for changing sound waves into electrical waves, used to increase the volume of sound, as in telephones, radio, etc.

microscope /ˈmaɪkrəʊskəʊp/ n [C] instrument with lenses for making very small objects appear larger.

microscopic /ˌmaɪkrəˈskɒpɪk/microscopically /-kli/ adj micro-wave /ˈmaɪkrəʊweɪv/ n [C] very short wave (as used in radio and radar): ~ oven, for cooking or heating food very quickly.

mid¹ /mɪd/ adj 1 in the middle of; middle: from ~ June to ~ August; in ~ winter. 2 (used in compounds): a ~ morning coffee.

,mid-'off, ,mid-'on, (cricket) fielder near the bowler on the off, on, side.

'mid-term adj in the middle of a period of government, office, etc: ~ term elections.

the ,Mid'west, (also known as the Middle West) that part of the US which is the Mississippi basin as far south as Kansas, Missouri and the Ohio River.

mid² /mɪd/ prep (poetry) among.

mid-day /ˌmɪdˈdeɪ/ n noon: (used as an adjective) the ~ (say /middeɪ/) meal.

middle /ˈmɪdl/ n 1 the ~, point, position or part, which is at an equal distance from two or more points, etc or between the beginning and the end: the ~ of a room. They were in the ~ of dinner (= were having dinner) when I called. 2 [C] (informal) waist. □ adj in the middle: the ~ house in the row.

,middle 'age, the period between youth and old age. Hence, ,middle-'aged adj: He's ~ aged; a ~-aged man.

the ,Middle 'Ages, the period (in European history) from about AD 1100 to 1400 (or, in a wider sense, AD 600–1500).

,middle 'class, class of society between the lower and upper classes (eg business men, professional workers). Hence, ,middle-

'class adj: ~-class voters.

'middle course, compromise between two extreme courses (of action).

the ,Middle 'East, countries from Egypt to Iran.

'middle-man, any trader who buys goods from a producer and sells them.

middle name, second of two given names, eg Bernard in George Bernard Shaw.

'middle school, (GB) type of school between primary school and high school.

the middle watch, (on ships) period of duty between midnight and 4am.

'middle-weight, (esp) boxer weighing between 147 and 160 lbs (66.6 and 72.5 kg).

the ,Middle 'West, = the Midwest.

mid-'dling /ˈmɪdlɪŋ/ adj of middle or medium size, quality, grade, etc: a town of ~ size. fair to middling, (informal) in fairly good but not very good health.

midge /mɪdʒ/ n [C] small winged insect like a gnat.

midget /ˈmɪdʒɪt/ n [C] extremely short person. □ adj very small: a ~ submarine.

mid-'land /ˈmɪdlənd/ adj, n (of the) middle part of a country.

the Midlands, the middle counties of England.

mid-'night /ˈmɪdnait/ n [C] 12 o'clock at night: at/before/after ~. □ adj during the middle of the night; at midnight.

mid-'riff /ˈmɪdrɪf/ n [C] 1 diaphragm. 2 abdomen, belly.

mid-ship-man /ˈmɪdʃɪpmən/ n [C] (pl -men) 1 non-commissioned officer ranking below a sublieutenant in the Royal Navy. 2 student training to be commissioned as an officer in the US Navy.

mid-ships /ˈmɪdʃɪps/ adv = amidships.

midst /mɪdst/ n, adv (literary or archaic) (in the) middle part.

mid-'sum-mer /ˈmɪdsʌmə(r)/ n [U] the middle of summer (about June 21).

,midsummer 'day, June 24.

mid-way /ˌmɪdˈweɪ/ adj, adv midway between, halfway.

mid-'wife /ˈmɪdwaɪf/ n [C] (pl midwives /ˌwaɪvz/) woman trained to help women in childbirth.

mid-'wifery /ˈmɪdwaɪfəri/ n [U] profession and work of a midwife.

mid-'win-ter /ˈmɪdwɪntə(r)/ n [U] the middle of the winter (about Dec 22).

might¹ /maɪt/ pt of may.

might² /maɪt/ n [U] great power; strength:
work with all one's ~. ⇨ also *main*² (3). mighty /ˈmaɪti/ adj (-ier, -iest) 1 powerful: a ~ nation. 2 great; massive: the ~ ocean. 3 (informal) great. high and mighty, very proud. □ adv (informal) very: think oneself ~ clever.

might-'ily /-əli/ adv

mi-graine /'mi:greɪn/ n [C] very strong, frequent headache.

mi-grant /'maɪgrənt/ n [C] person who, bird which, migrates.

mi-grate /maɪ'greɪt/ US: 'maɪgreɪt/ vi 1 move from one place to another (to live there). 2 (of birds and fishes) come and go to a region with the season.

mi-gra-tion /maɪ'greɪʃn/ n [C, U] mi-gra-tory /'maɪgrətri/ US: -tɔ:ri/ adj having the habit of migrating: migratory birds.

mike /maɪk/ n [C] (informal abbr for) microphone.

mi-lage /'maɪlɪdʒ/ n = mileage.

mild /maɪld/ adj (-er, -est) 1 soft; gentle; not severe: ~ weather; a ~ answer/temper. 2 (of food, drink, tobacco) not sharp or strong in taste or flavour: ~ cheese/cigars.

mild-ly adv in a mild manner. to put it mildly, to speak without exaggeration.

mild-ness n [U]

mil-dew /'mɪldju: US: -du:/ n [U] (usually destructive) growth of tiny fungi forming on plants, leather, food, etc in warm and damp conditions: roses ruined by ~. □ vt, vi affect, become affected, with mildew.

mile /maɪl/ n [C] 1 unit of distance (statute ~, (of land) 1760 yards; metric mile, (athletics) 1500 metres; nautical ~, (of sea) about 6076 feet): He ran the ~ in under 4 minutes. My car can do 40 ~s to the gallon. 2 (pl) (informal) any long distance: walk for ~s (and ~s). There's no one within ~s of him as a tennis player, no one who can rival him. ⇨ stand out. 3 (pl) (informal) a great deal: She's feeling ~s better today.

mile-om-eter /maɪ'lɒmɪtə(r)/ device (in a motor-vehicle) recording the number of miles travelled.

'mile-stone, (a) stone at the side of a road showing places and distances. (b) (fig) (important) stage or event in history, research, etc.

mile-age /'maɪlɪdʒ/ n [C] 1 distance travelled, measured in miles: a used car with a small ~. 2 allowance for travelling expenses at a fixed rate a mile. 3 = miles per gallon.

mili-tancy /'mɪlɪtənsɪ/ n [U] state of being militant.

mili-tant /'mɪlɪtənt/ adj ready for fighting; actively engaged in or supporting the use of force: ~ workers. □ n [C] militant person.

mili-tary /'mɪlɪtri/ US: -teri/ adj of or for soldiers, an army, war on land: ~ training. □ n the ~, soldiers; the army.

mili-tate /'mɪlɪteɪt/ vi (of evidence, facts) have force, operate: Several factors combined to ~ against the success of our plan.

mil-itia /mɪ'lɪʃə/ n [C] (usually the ~) force of civilians trained as soldiers but not part of the regular army.

milk¹ /mɜːlk/ n [U] 1 white liquid produced by female mammals as food for their young, esp that of cows, drunk by human beings and made into butter and cheese. the milk of human kindness, the kindness that should be natural to human beings. It's no use crying over spilt milk, over a loss or error for which there is no remedy. 2 juice like milk of some plants and trees, eg of a coconut. 3 preparation like milk made from herbs, drugs, etc: ~ of magnesia.

'milk 'chocolate, (light brown colour of the) kind made with milk.

'milk loaf, sweet-tasting white bread.

'milk-maid, woman who milks cows and works in a dairy.

'milk-man, man who delivers milk to homes.

'milk 'pudding, hot or cold dish of rice, etc boiled or baked in milk.

'milk round, milkman's route from house to house, street to street.

'milk-shake, milk drink with ice-cream or flavouring mixed into it and beaten up.

'milk-tooth, one of the first (temporary) teeth in young mammals.

milk² /mɜːlk/ vt, vi 1 draw milk from a cow, ewe, goat, etc. 2 (fig) extract money, information, etc (by deceit or dishonesty) from a person or institution. 3 yield milk: The cows are ~ing well.

milky /'mɪlki/ adj (-ier, -iest) 1 of or like milk; mixed with milk. 2 (of a liquid) cloudy, not clear.

the Milky Way, = the Galaxy.

mill¹ /mɪl/ n 1 (building (eg a 'flour-~) with) machinery or apparatus for grinding grain into flour. go/put sb through the mill, (cause to) undergo hard training or experience. ⇨ run-of-the-mill. 2 building, factory, workshop, for industry: a 'cotton/ 'paper-~. 3 small machine for grinding: a 'coffee-'pepper-~.

'mill-stone, (a) one of a pair of circular stones between which grain is ground. (b) (fig) heavy burden: That mortgage has been like a ~ stone round my neck.

mill² /mɪl/ vt, vi 1 put through a machine for grinding; produce by doing this: ~ grain/ flour. 2 produce regular markings on the edge of (coin): silver coins with a ~ed edge. 3 mill about/around, (of cattle, crowds of people) move in a disorganised group.

mil-len-nium /mɪ'lɛnɪəm/ n [C] (pl -nia /-niə/ or ~s) 1 period of 1000 years. 2 (fig) future time of great happiness and prosperity for everyone.

mil-le-pe-de /'mɪlɪpi:d/ n [C] = millipede.

mil-ler /'mɪlə(r)/ n [C] owner or tenant of a mill, esp the old-fashioned flour-mill worked by wind or water.

mil-let /'mɪlɪt/ n [U] cereal plant growing 3 to 4 feet high and producing a large crop of small seeds; the seeds (as food).

milli- /mɪlɪ-/ prefix one-thousandth part of: 'millimetre.

mil-li-bar /'mɪlɪbɑː(r)/ n [C] unit of atmospheric pressure.

mil-liner /'mɪlɪnə(r)/ n [C] person who makes and sells women's hats, and sells lace, trimmings, etc for hats.

mil-lin-ery /-nəri/ U.S. -neri/ n [U] (business of making or selling) women's hats.

mil-lion /'mɪljən/ adj. n [C] 1 (of) one thousand thousand (1000000). (Note: the pl is rarely used after a number: six ~ people.) make a million, earn, gain, a million pounds, dollars, etc. 2 (informal) great number: ~s of people were at the demonstration.

mil-lion-aire /'mɪljən'eɪə(r)/, person who has a million dollars, pounds, etc; extremely rich man.

mil-lionth /-ljənθ/ adj. n [C] (of) the next after 999999 or one part of a million.

mil-li-pede /'mɪlɪpɪd/ n [C] small creature like a worm with many legs, usually in double pairs.

mime /maɪm/ n [C] 1 (in ancient Greece and Rome) kind of drama in which real persons and events were made fun of and in which imitating and dancing were important. 2 (in the theatre, etc) use of only facial expressions and gestures to tell a story; actor in such drama. □ vi, vt act (as) in a mime.

mimic /'mɪmɪk/ adj imitated or pretended: ~ warfare, as in peacetime manoeuvres. □ n [C] person who is clever at imitating others, esp in order to make fun of their habits, appearance, etc. □ vt (pt, pp ~ked) 1 make fun of by imitating: He was ~king his uncle's voice. 2 (of things) resemble closely: wood painted to ~ marble.

'mim-icry n [U]

min-aret /'mɪnə'ret/ n [C] tall, slender spire, connected with a mosque, from the balconies of which people are called to prayer.

mince /mɪns/ vt, vi 1 cut or chop (meat, etc) into small pieces (with a knife, or a machine with revolving blades, called a 'mincing machine or mincer). 2 (dated) say (words) with affected delicacy; try to appear elegant when speaking or walking. □ n [U] minced meat.

'mince-meat, mixture of currants, raisins, sugar, candied peel, apples, suet, etc. make mincemeat of, (informal) defeat a person, an argument, etc.

mincer, device for mincing food.

mind /maɪnd/ n 1 [U] memory; remembrance. bear/keep sth in mind; bring/call sth to mind, remember it. 2 [U] (but with a, an or pl in some phrases, as shown below) what a person thinks or feels; way of thinking; conscious thoughts; feeling, opinion; intention: Nothing was further from his ~. be in two minds about sth, feel doubtful, hesitate, about something. blow one's* mind, (informal) (of drugs, extraordinary or sensational sights, sounds, etc) cause mental excitement, state of ecstasy, etc. Hence, 'mind-blowing adj. change one's mind, ⇨ *change*¹(3). give sb a piece of one's mind, ⇨ *piece*¹(2). have a good mind to 'do sth, be strongly determined or ready to do it: I've a good ~ to report you to the police.

have half a mind to 'do sth, be almost decided to do it. have sth/sb on one's mind, be troubled about a thing or person which, one feels, one ought to deal with. have/keep an open mind, be willing to have more evidence before deciding. keep one's mind on sth, continue to pay attention to: Keep your ~ on what you're doing. know one's own mind, know what one wants, have no doubts. make up one's mind, come to a decision: I've made up my ~ to be a doctor. My ~'s made up, I've decided. not in one's right mind, mentally ill; very disturbed. set sb's mind at rest, remove his anxieties, doubt, etc. slip one's mind, be forgotten.

speak one's mind, ⇨ speak(5). take one's/sb's mind off sth, turn one's/a person's attention away from something (disagreeable). take/be a load off sb's/one's mind, make him/her less worried about sth. in the mind's 'eye, ⇨ *eye*¹(1). to one's mind, according to one's way of thinking: To my ~, this is all nonsense. ⇨ also absence; presence. 3 [C,U] (person with) mental ability; intellect: He has a very good ~. No two ~s think alike.

'mind-reading, knowing by intuition what a person is thinking. Hence, 'mind-reader n.

mind² /maɪnd/ vt, vi 1 take care of; attend to: Who's ~ing the baby? M~ the dog, Beware of it. M~ (out), there's a bus coming! mind one's P's and Q's, mind your 'own 'business, ⇨ business(3). 2 be troubled by; feel objection to: He doesn't ~ the cold weather at all. Do you ~ if I smoke? Would you ~ opening the window, Will you please do this? I wouldn't ~ a glass of cold beer, I would like one. Never mind, (a) It is not important: Never ~ how long it takes - just do it. (b) Do not worry, feel sorry: I've lost your pen. 'Never ~.

minder, person whose duty it is to look after something or somebody: a ma'chine-~er; a 'baby-~er.

-minded /-maɪndɪd/ suffix (used with an adj or adv) having the kind of mind mentioned: 'strong-~; 'high-~ 'leaders.

mind-ful /'maɪndfʊl/ adj mindful of, giving thought and attention to: ~ of one's duties/the nation's welfare.

mind-less /'maɪndlɪs/ adj 1 mindless of, paying no attention to; forgetful of: ~ of danger. 2 not having or not requiring intelligence: ~ layouts.

mind-less-ly adv.

mine¹ /maɪn/ possessive pron of or belonging to me: Is this book yours or ~? He's a 'friend of ~, one of my friends.

mine² /maɪn/ n [C] 1 excavation made in the earth from which coal, mineral ores, etc. are taken: a 'coal~. 2 (fig) rich or abundant source: A good dictionary/My grandmother is a ~ of information. 3 (tunnel for a) charge of high explosive exploded by electricity or contact with a vehicle, or a time fuse, etc: The lorry was destroyed by a 'land~.

'mine-detector, electro-magnetic device for finding mines(3).

'mine-field, (a) area of land or sea where mines(3) have been laid. (b) area of land where there are many mines(1).

'mine-sweeper, naval vessel for clearing the sea of mines(3).

mine³ /maɪn/ vt, vi 1 dig (for coal, ores, etc) from the ground; obtain (coal, etc) from mines: mining gold. 2 lay mines(3) in; destroy by means of these: ~ a bridge.

miner /'maɪnə(r)/ n [C] 1 man who works in a mine underground: 'coal~s. 2 soldier trained to dig tunnels and lay mines under enemy trenches, etc.

min-eral /'mɪnərəl/ n [C] natural substance (not vegetable or animal) got from the earth by mining. □ adj of, containing, mixed with, minerals: ~ ores.

the 'mineral kingdom, all natural inorganic substances. ⇨ kingdom(3).

'mineral water, (a) water that naturally contains a mineral substance, esp one said to have medicinal value. (b) (GB) non-alcoholic flavoured drink containing soda-water.

min-er-al-ogy /'mɪnərələdʒi/ n [U] the study and science of minerals.

min-er-al-ogist /'mɪnərələdʒɪst/ n [C] expert in, student of, mineralogy.

mingle /'mɪŋɡl/ vt, vi mix: ~ with (= go about among) the crowds.

mingy /'mɪndʒɪ/ adj (-ier, -iest) (GB informal) mean, ungenerous: a ~ sister.

mini /'mɪni/ prefix of small size, length, etc: a 'bus; a ~skirt.

minia-ture /'mɪnɪtʃə(r) US: -tʃʊə(r)/ n 1 [C] very small painting of a person; [U] this branch of painting. in miniature, on a small scale. 2 [C] small-scale copy or model of any object. 3 (as an adjective) on a small scale: a ~ railway.

minia-tur-ize (also -ise) /'mɪnɪtʃəraɪz/ vt make on a very small scale.

minim /'mɪnɪm/ n [C] (music) note with half the value of a semibreve.

mini-mal /'mɪnɪml/ adj smallest in amount or degree: On these cliffs vegetation is ~.

mini-mize (also -ise) /'mɪnɪmaɪz/ vt reduce to, estimate at, the smallest possible amount or degree: ~ an error, try to reduce its impor- tance, say that it is not serious.

mini-mum /'mɪnɪmə/ n [C] (pl ~s) (opposite of maximum) 1 least possible or recorded amount, degree, etc: reduce something to a ~. 2 (used as an adjective): the ~ temperature; a ~ wage, lowest wage that regulations allow.

min-ing /'maɪnɪŋ/ n [U] the process of getting minerals, etc from mines.

min-ion /'mɪnɪən/ n [C] (usually contemptuous for an) employee who, in order to win favour, obeys orders too readily.

min-is-ter¹ /'mɪnɪstə(r)/ n [C] 1 person at the head of a Department of State (and often a member of the Cabinet): the Prime M~. 2 person of lower rank than an ambassador, representing his Government in a foreign country. 3 Christian priest or clergyman, esp one in the Presbyterian and Nonconformist Churches.

min-is-ter² /'mɪnɪstə(r)/ vi give help or service: ~ to the needs of a sick man.

min-is-ter-ial /'mɪnɪstəriəl/ adj 1 of a Minister of State, his position, duties, etc: ~ functions/duties. 2 of or for the Ministry (or Cabinet): the ~ benches.

min-is-ter-ially /-iəli/ adv

min-is-tra-tion /'mɪnɪstreɪʃn/ n 1 [U] ministering or serving, eg in performing a religious service. 2 [C] act of this kind.

min-is-try /'mɪnɪstri/ n [C] (pl -ies) 1 Department of State under a Minister: the M~ of Defence. 2 office, duties, term of service, of a minister. 3 the ~, the ministers of religion as a body. enter the ministry, become a minister of religion.

mink /mɪŋk/ n [C, U] (valuable brown fur skin of a) small animal like a stoat: (used as an adjective) a ~ coat.

min-now /'mɪnəʊ/ n [C] (sorts of) very small fresh-water fish.

mi-nor /'maɪnə(r)/ adj ⇨ major. 1 smaller, less important: ~ repairs/alterations. 2 comparatively unimportant: the ~ poets; play only a ~ part in the play. 3 second or younger of two boys (esp in the same school): Smith ~. 4 (music): a ~ third, an interval of three semitones; a ~ key, in which the scale has a minor third. ⇨ also *key*¹ (8). □ n (legal) person not yet legally of age.

mi-nor-ity /maɪ'nɒrəti US: -'nɔːr-/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] (legal) the state of being under age (in GB under 18). 2 the smaller number or part, esp of a total of votes. be in the minority, be in the smaller of two groups. 3 [C] small racial, religious, etc group in a community, nation, etc.

a minority government, one which has a minority of the total number of seats in a legislative assembly.

Mino-taur /'maɪnəʊtə(r)/ n [C] (in Greek myth) monster, half man and half bull, kept in the labyrinth in Crete.

min-ster /'mɪnstə(r)/ n [C] large or important church, esp one that once belonged to a monastery: York ~.

min-strel /'mɪnstrel/ n [C] 1 (in the Middle Ages) travelling composer, player and singer. 2 one of a group of entertainers at fairs, holiday resorts, etc.

mint¹ /mɪnt/ n [U] (sorts of) plant whose leaves are used for flavouring: ~ sauce, chopped mint leaves, in vinegar and sugar, as eaten with lamb.

mint² /mɪnt/ n [C] 1 place where coins are made. make/earn a mint (of money), ⇨ *make*¹(9). 2 (used as an adjective) of medals, stamps, prints, books, etc. in mint condition, as if new; unsoiled; perfect. □ vt 1 make (a coin) by stamping metal: ~ coins of 50p. 2 (fig) invent a word, phrase, etc.

min-uet /mɪnjuːet/ n [C] (piece of music for a) slow, graceful 17th century dance.

minus /'maɪnəs/ adj 1 the ~ sign, the sign — 2 negative: a ~ quantity, a quantity less than zero (eg —2x). □ prep 1 less; with the deduction of: 7 ~ 3 is 4. 2 (informal) without: He came back from the war ~ a leg. □ n [C] minus sign or quantity.

min-us-cule /'mɪnəskjuːl/ adj tiny; small.

min-ute¹ /'mɪnuːt/ n [C] 1 the sixtieth part of one hour: seven ~s to six; arrive ten ~s early. in a minute, soon: I'll come in a ~. the minute (that), as soon as: I'll give him your message the ~ (that) he arrives. 2 the sixtieth part of a degree (in an angle): 37° 30', 37 degrees 30 minutes. 3 official record giving authority, advice or making comments. 4 (pl) summary, records, of what is said and decided at a meeting, esp of a society or committee. □ vt 1 record in the minutes(4). 2 make a record of something.

'minute-hand, long hand on a watch or clock pointing to the minute.

up-to-the-minute adj ⇨ this entry at up.

mi-nute² /maɪnjuːt/ US: -'nuːt/ adj (-r, -st) 1 very small: ~ particles of dust. 2 giving small details; careful and exact: the ~st details.

mi-nute-ly adv

mir-acle /'mɪrəl/ n [C] act or event (good or welcome) which does not follow the known laws of nature; remarkable and surprising event: work/accomplish ~s. a miracle of, exceptional example or specimen: It's a ~ of technology.

mir-acu-lous /mɪ'rækjʊləs/ adj

mir-acu-lous-ly adv

mi-rage /'mɪrɑːʒ/ US: mɪ'rɑːʒ/ n [C] 1 effect, produced by air conditions, causing something (not existing) to become visible (or upside down), esp the appearance of water in the desert. 2 (fig) any illusion or hope that cannot be realized.

mire /'maɪə(r)/ n [U] 1 swampy ground; soft, deep mud. 2 be in the mire, (fig) be in difficulties. □ vt, vi 1 cover with mud; cause to be, sink, in mud.

mir-ror /'mɪrə(r)/ n [C] 1 polished surface (usually of glass) that reflects images. 2 (fig) something that reflects or gives a likeness: Pepys's 'Diary' is a ~ of the times he lived in. □ vt reflect as in a mirror: The still water of the lake ~ed the hillside.

'mirror 'image, reflection or copy with the right and left sides reversed.

mirth /mɜːθ/ n [U] (formal) being merry, happy and bright; laughter.

mis- /mɪs-/ prefix bad, wrong, not: misbehave.

mis-ad-ven-ture /mɪsəd'ventʃə(r)/ n [C,U] (event caused by) bad luck; misfortune.

death by misadventure, by accident.

mis-al-liance /mɪsə'laɪəns/ n [C] unsuitable alliance, esp marriage.

mis-an-thrope /'mɪzənθrəʊp/ n [C] person who hates mankind; person who avoids society.

mis-an-thropic /mɪsənθrɒpɪk/ adj mis-an-thropy /mɪs'ænθrəpi/ n [U] hatred of mankind.

mis-apply /mɪsə'plai/ vt (pt,pp -ied) apply wrongly; use for a wrong purpose, eg public funds.

mis-ap-pli-ca-tion /mɪsəplɪ'keɪʃn/ n [C,U] mis-ap-pre-hend /mɪsə'prɪ'hend/ vt (formal) misunderstand.

mis-ap-pre-hen-sion /mɪsə'prɪ'hensjən/ n [C,U] misunderstanding.

mis-ap-pro-pri-ate /mɪsə'prəʊpɪət/ vt take and use wrongly; apply (a person's money) to a wrong (esp one's own) use: The treasurer ~d the society's funds.

mis-be-got-ten /mɪsbɪ'gɒtn/ adj (informal) worthless: ~ plans.

mis-be-have /mɪsbɪ'hæv/ vt,vi behave improperly.

mis-be-hav-iour (US = -ior) /mɪsbɪ'hervɪə(r)/ n [U] mis-cal-cu-late /mɪs'kælkjuleɪt/ vt,vi calculate (amounts, etc) wrongly.

mis-cal-cu-la-tion /mɪs'kælkjuleɪʃn/ n mis-car-riage /'mɪskærɪdʒ/ n 1 [U] a miscarriage of justice, failure of a court to administer justice properly; mistake in judgement or in punishment; [C] instance of this. 2 [U] failure to deliver to, or arrive at, the destination: ~ of goods; [C] instance of this. 3 [U] premature expulsion of a foetus from the womb; [C] instance of this: have a ~.

mis-carry /mɪs'kæri/ vi (pt,pp -ied) 1 (of plans, etc) fail; have a result different from what was hoped for. 2 (of letters, etc) fail to reach the right destination. 3 (of a woman) have a miscarriage(3).

mis-cast /mɪs'kæst/ US: -'kæst/ vt (pt,pp ~) (usually passive) (of an actor, a play) be cast unsuitably: She was badly ~ as Juliet.

mis-cel-laneous /mɪsə'leɪniəs/ adj of mixed sorts; having various qualities and characteristics: a ~ collection of goods.

mis-cel-lany /mɪ'seləni/ US: 'mɪsələni/ n [C] (pl -ies) collection, eg of writings on various subjects by various authors.

mis-chance /mɪs'tʃæns US: -'tʃæns/ n [C,U] (piece of) bad luck: by ~.

mis-chief /mɪs'tʃɪf/ n 1 [U] injury or damage done by a person or other agent, esp on purpose. do sb a mischief, hurt him. 2 [U] moral harm or injury: Such wild speeches may work great ~. make mischief (between...), cause discord or ill feeling. Hence, 'mischievous-maker/-making. 3 [U] foolish or thoughtless behaviour likely to cause trouble: Boys are fond of ~, of playing tricks, etc. Tell the children to keep out of ~. 4 light-hearted, innocent desire to tease: Her eyes were full of ~. 5 [C] person who is fond of mischief (4).

mis-chiev-ous /mɪs'tʃɪvəs/ adj 1 causing mischief; harmful: a ~ letter/rumour. 2 filled with, liking, engaged in, mischief: ~ looks/tricks/children.

mis-con-ceive /mɪskən'si:v/ vt, vi understand wrongly.

mis-con-cep-tion /mɪskən'sepʃn/ n [C,U] mis-con-duct /mɪs'kɒndʌkt/ n [U] 1 improper behaviour, eg adultery. 2 bad management. □ vt /mɪskən'dʌkt/ 1 behave badly; (which is more usual). 2 manage badly: ~ one's business affairs.

mis-con-struc-tion /mɪskən'strʌkʃn/ n [U] false or inaccurate interpretation or understanding: Her friendliness is open to ~; [C] instance of this.

mis-con-strue /mɪskən'stru:/ vt get a wrong idea of: You have ~d my words/meaning.

mis-count /mɪs'kaʊnt/ vt, vi count wrongly. □ n [C] /mɪskaʊnt/ wrong count, esp of votes at an election.

mis-cre-ant /mɪskrɪənt/ n [C] (dated) scoundrel; wicked person.

mis-date /mɪs'deɪt/ vt 1 give a wrong date to an event, etc. 2 put a wrong date on a letter, cheque, etc.

mis-deal /mɪs'di:l/ vt, vi (pt, pp ~t /-delt/) deal (playing-cards) wrongly. □ n [C] error in dealing cards.

mis-deed /mɪs'di:d/ n [C] wicked act; crime: be punished for one's ~s.

mis-de-mean-our (US = -meanor) /mɪs'di'mi:nə(r)/ n [C] (legal) offence which is less serious than a felony.

mis-di-rect /mɪs'di'rekt/ vt direct wrongly: ~ a letter, by failing to put the full or correct address on it; ~ one's energies or abilities, eg by using them for a bad purpose.

mis-di-rect-ion /mɪs'di'rekʃn/ n [C,U] mis-doings /mɪs'duɪnz/ n pl misdeeds.

miser /'maɪzə(r)/ n [C] person who loves wealth for its own sake and spends as little as possible.

mi-ser-ly adj

mis-er-able /'mɪzərəbl/ adj 1 very unhappy; poor and sad: feeling ~; the ~ lives of refugees. 2 causing unhappiness: ~ weather. 3 poor in quality: a ~ attempt/meal.

mis-er-ably /-əblɪ/ adv

mis-ery /'mɪzəri/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] state of being miserable; great suffering (of mind or body): be in a ~/suffer ~ from toothache. 2 (pl) painful happenings; great misfortunes: the miseries of war. 3 [C] (informal) person who is always miserable and complaining.

mis-fire /mɪs'faɪə(r)/ vi 1 (of a gun) fail to go off. 2 (informal) (of a joke, etc) fail to have the intended effect: His joke ~d badly on him. □ n /mɪs'faɪə(r)/ [C] such a failure.

mis-fit /'mɪsɪt/ n [C] 1 article of clothing which does not fit well. 2 (fig) person not fitting in with his position or his associates.

mis-for-tune /mɪs'fɔ:tʃu:n US: -'tʃən/ n 1 [U] bad luck: suffer ~. 2 [C] instance of bad luck: He bore his ~s bravely.

mis-giv-ing /mɪs'gɪvɪŋ/ n [C,U] (feeling of) doubt, suspicion, distrust: a heart full of ~s.

mis-gov-ern /mɪs'gʌvən/ vt govern (the State, etc) badly.

mis-gov-ern-ment n [U] mis-guided /mɪs'gaɪdɪd/ adj (of behaviour) foolish and wrong (because of bad or wrong guidance or influence).

mis-handle /mɪs'hændl/ vt deal with roughly, rudely or inefficiently.

mis-hap /mɪshæp/ n 1 [C] unlucky accident: meet with a slight ~. 2 [U] bad luck; accident: arrive without ~.

mis-in-form /mɪsɪn'fɔ:m/ vt give wrong information to.

mis-in-ter-pret /mɪsɪn'tɜ:pɪt/ vt give a wrong interpretation to: He ~ed her silence as giving consent.

mis-judge /mɪs'dʒʌdʒ/ vt, vi judge or estimate wrongly; form a wrong opinion of: He ~d the distance and fell into the stream.

mis-lay /mɪs'leɪ/ vt (pt, pp mislaid /-leɪd/) put something where it cannot easily be found: I've mislaid my passport.

mis-lead /mɪs'li:d/ vt (pt, pp misled /-led/) lead wrongly; cause to be or do wrong: This information is rather ~ing, gives a wrong impression.

mis-man-age /mɪs'mænɪdʒ/ vt manage badly or wrongly.

mis-man-age-ment n [U] mis-nomer /mɪs'nəʊmə(r)/ n [C] wrong use of a name or word: It's a ~ to call this place a first-class hotel.

mis-ogyn-ist /mɪ'sɒdʒɪnɪst/ n [C] hater of women.

mis-place /mɪs'pleɪs/ vt 1 put in a wrong place. 2 (usually passive) give wrongly or unwisely: ~d confidence. 3 lose; mislay.

mis-pro-nounce /ˌmɪsprəˈnaʊns/ vt pronounce wrongly.

mis-pro-nun-ci-ation /ˌmɪsprəˈnʌnsɪˈeɪʃn/ n [C,U] mis-quote /ˌmɪsˈkwəʊt/ vt quote wrongly.

mis-quo-ta-tion /ˌmɪskwəʊˈteɪʃn/ n [C,U] mis-read /ˌmɪsˈriːd/ vt (pt,pp ~/-red/) read or interpret wrongly: ~ one's instructions.

mis-rep-re-sent /ˌmɪsˈreprɪˈzent/ vt represent wrongly; give a false account of.

mis-rep-re-sen-ta-tion /ˌmɪsˈreprɪzənˈteɪʃn/ n [C,U] mis-rule /ˌmɪsˈruːl/ n [U] 1 bad government. 2 lawlessness; confusion.

miss¹ /mɪs/ n [C] 1 M~, (used in front of the name of an unmarried woman or girl who has no other title): M~ Smith. 2 (eg by schoolchildren to a woman teacher, also to shopkeepers, etc): Good morning, ~! Two cups of coffee, ~.

miss² /mɪs/ n [C] failure to hit, catch, reach, etc: ten hits and one ~. give sth a miss, (informal) decide not to do it, take it, eat it, etc. a near miss. ⇨ near¹(2).

miss³ /mɪs/ vt,vi 1 fail to hit, hold, catch, reach, see, etc: ~ the target. He ~ed the 9.30 train (= was too late and did not catch it), and therefore ~ed (= escaped) the accident. The house is at the next corner; you can't ~ it, you'll certainly see it. He ~ed (= failed to understand) the point of my joke. miss the boat/bus, (fig) (be too late and) lose an opportunity. 2 realize, learn, feel regret at, the absence of: He's so rich that he wouldn't ~ £100. She'd ~ her husband if he died. When did you ~ your purse, realize you didn't have it? 3 miss out (on sth), lose an opportunity to benefit, enjoy oneself: If you don't come, you'll be ~ing out on the fun. miss sth out, omit; fail to put in or say: The printers have ~ed out a word/line.

miss-ing adj not to be found; not in the place where it ought to be: a book with two pages ~ing; ~ing persons.

mis-sal /ˈmɪsl/ n [C] 1 book containing the order of service for Mass in the RC Church. 2 book of prayers and devotions.

mis-shap-en /ˌmɪsˈʃeɪpən/ adj (esp of the body or a limb) deformed.

mis-sile /ˈmɪsaɪl US: ˈmɪsl/ n [C] object or weapon that is thrown (eg a stone), shot (eg an arrow) or projected (eg a rocket).

guided 'missile, eg from ground to air, for destroying aircraft, directed by electronic devices.

mis-sion /ˈmɪʃn/ n [C] 1 (the sending out of a) number of persons to perform a special task, usually abroad: a trade ~ to S America. 2 (esp) the sending out of missionaries to convert people by preaching, teaching, etc. 3 place where the work of missionaries is carried on; settlement where charitable or medical work is carried on, esp among poor people. 4 one's 'mission in life, that work which a person feels called on to do by God: She thinks her ~ in life is to reform juvenile delinquents. 5 special task, assigned to an individual or a unit of the armed forces: The group has flown twenty ~s.

mis-sion-ary /ˈmɪʃənəri US: -nerɪ/ n [C] (pl -ies) person sent to preach his religion, esp among people who are ignorant of it. □ adj of missions(2) or missionaries.

mis-sive /ˈmɪsɪv/ n [C] (used humorously for) (esp) a long, serious-looking letter.

mis-spell /ˌmɪs ˈspel/ vt (pt,pp ~ed or mis-spelt /ˈspelt/) spell wrongly.

mis-spell-ing n [C,U] mis-spent /ˌmɪs ˈspent/ adj used wrongly or foolishly: a ~ youth.

mist /mɪst/ n 1 [C,U] (occasion when there is, an area with) water vapour in the air, at or near the earth's surface, less thick than fog: hills hidden/covered in ~. 2 [C] filmy appearance before the eyes (caused by tears, etc). 3 (fig) something which dims, obscures, etc: the ~s of time. □ vi,vt cover, be covered, with mist: The scene ~ed over.

misty adj (-ier, iest) (a) with mist: a ~y evening; ~y weather. (b) not clear: have only a ~y idea.

mis-take¹ /ˈmɪsteɪk/ n [C] wrong opinion, idea or act: 'spelling ~s. We all make ~s occasionally. by mistake, as the result of carelessness, forgetfulness, an error, etc: I took your umbrella by ~.

mis-take² /ˈmɪsteɪk/ vt,vi (pt mistook /mɪˈstʊk/, pp ~n /mɪˈsteɪkn/) 1 be wrong, have a wrong idea, about: We've ~n the house, come to the wrong house. 2 mistake sb/sth for, identify wrongly: She is often ~n for her twin sister.

mis-taken adj (a) in error; wrong in opinion: a case of ~n identity; have ~n ideas. be mistaken (about sth), be wrong: If I'm not ~n, there's the man we met on the train. (b) ill-judged: ~n kindness/zeal.

mis-tak-en-ly adv

mis-ter /ˈmɪstə(r)/ n [C] 1 (always written Mr) (used in front of the name of a man who has no other title): Mr Green. 2 (sf) (used by children): Please, ~, can I have my ball back?

mis-timed /ˌmɪsˈtaɪmd/ adj said or done at an unsuitable time: a ~d intervention.

mistle-toe /ˈmɪstləʊ/ n [U] evergreen plant (growing on fruit and other trees) with small white sticky berries, used as a Christmas decoration.

mis-took /mɪˈstʊk/ pt of mistake.

mis-tress /ˈmɪstrɪs/ n [C] 1 (formal) woman at the head of a household or family: Is your ~ at home? ⇨ master(2). 2 woman school teacher: the 'games ~. 3 woman with a good knowledge or control of something: She is ~ of the situation. 4 (before the 18th century) title equivalent to the modern Mrs or Miss. 5 (poetic) woman loved and courted by a man: 'O ~ mine'. 6 woman having regular sexual intercourse with a man to whom she is not married.

mis-trial /ˌmɪs'traɪl/ n [C] (legal) trial which is made invalid because of some error in the proceedings.

mis-trust /ˌmɪs'trʌst/ vt feel no confidence in: ~ one's own powers. □ n [U] (or with the) absence of confidence or trust: a strong ~ of anything new.

mis-trust-ful /-fl/ adj misty /'mɪstɪ/ ⇨ mist.

mis-under-stand /ˌmɪsʌndə'stænd/ vt, vi (pt, pp -stood /-stʊd/) take a wrong meaning from (instructions, messages, etc); form a wrong opinion of: She had always felt mis-understood.

mis-un-der-stand-ing n [C, U] failure to understand correctly, esp when this causes or caused ill-feelings: ~ings between nations that may lead to war.

mis-use /ˌmɪs'juːz/ vt 1 use wrongly; use for a wrong purpose. 2 treat badly. □ n /ˌmɪs'juːs/ [U] using wrongly; [C] instance of this: the ~ of power.

mite¹ /maɪt/ n [C] 1 very small or modest contribution or offering: offer a ~ of comfort. 2 tiny object, esp a small child: Poor little ~!

mite² /maɪt/ n [C] small parasitic creature that may be found in food and carry disease.

mi-ter /ˌmaɪtə(r)/ n (US) = mitre.

miti-gate /ˌmɪtɪgeɪt/ vt make less severe, violent or painful.

mitigating circumstance, one that may make a mistake, crime, seem less serious.

miti-ga-tion /ˌmɪtɪ'geɪʃn/ n [U] mitre (US = mi-ter) /ˌmaɪtə(r)/ n [C] tall headdress worn by bishops.

mitt /mɪt/ n [C] 1 mitten. 2 baseball glove. 3 (sl) hand; fist.

mit-ten /ˌmɪtn/ n [C] 1 kind of glove covering four fingers together and the thumb separately. 2 covering for the back and palm of the hand only, leaving the thumb and fingers bare.

mix¹ /mɪks/ vt, vi 1 (of different substances, people, etc) put, bring or come together so that the substances, etc are no longer distinct; make or prepare by doing this: ~ flour and water. We can sometimes ~ business with pleasure. Many races are ~ed in Hawaii. 2 (of persons) come or be together in society: He doesn't ~ well, doesn't get on well with people. 3 be/get mixed up (in sth), be involved or confused: Don't get ~ed up in politics. He feels very ~ed up (= confused) about life. Hence, 'mix-up n [C] mix² /mɪks/ n [C] (used chiefly in trade) ingredients, mixed or to be mixed, for a purpose, eg for plaster, mortar, concrete or kinds of food: a 'cake ~.

mixed /mɪkst/ adj of different sorts: a ~ school, for boys and girls. have mixed feelings (about sth), be undecided.

mixed 'blessing, result, etc having both advantages and disadvantages.

mixed 'doubles, (in tennis, etc) with two players, one man and one woman, on each side.

mixed 'farming, eg dairy farming and cereals.

mixer /ˌmɪksə(r)/ n [C] 1 person or thing that mixes: a ce'ment/food ~. 2 (in TV, films) person who combines shots onto one length of film or video-tape. 3 (informal) one who is at ease with others on social occasions: a good ~. ⇨ *mix*¹ (2).

mix-ture /ˌmɪkstʃə(r)/ n 1 [U] mixing or being mixed. 2 [C] something made by mixing: a 'cough ~. Air is a ~ of gases.

moan /məʊn/ n [C] low sound (as) of pain, suffering or regret: the ~s of the wounded; the ~ of the wind on a winter evening. □ vi, vt make moans: What's she ~ing (= complaining) about now?

moat /məʊt/ n [C] deep, wide ditch filled with water, round a castle, etc as a defence.

mob /mɒb/ n [C] 1 disorderly crowd, esp one that has gathered to make trouble or attack: 2 gang of criminals. □ vt (-bb-) (of people) crowd round in great numbers, either to attack or to admire: The pop singer was ~bed by teenagers.

mo-bile /ˌməʊbaɪl/ US: -bl/ adj 1 moving, able to be moved, easily and quickly from place to place: ~ troops/artillery. 2 easily and often changing. □ n [C] ornamental structure with hanging parts that move in air.

mo-bil-ity /məʊ'bɪləti/ n [U] being mobile.

mo-bi-lize (also -ise) /ˌməʊbɪlaɪz/ vt, vi collect together for service or use, esp in war.

mo-bi-liz-ation (also -isation) /ˌməʊbɪlaɪzətʃn/ US: -lɪ'z-/ n [U] mo-c-a-sin /ˌmɒkəsɪn/ n 1 [U] soft leather made from deerskin. 2 (pl) (also a pair of ~s) style of shoes made from this.

mock /mɒk/ vt, vi make fun (of) (esp by copying in a funny or disrespectful way): The naughty boys ~ed the blind man. □ adj not real or genuine: a ~ battle.

mock-ing-ly adv

mock-ery /ˌmɒkəri/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] contempt; ridicule: using ~ to hide the weakness of your argument. 2 [C] person or thing that is mocked; mocking occasion. 3 [C] very bad example: His trial was a ~ of justice. make a mockery of, cause to appear foolish.

mock-ing bird /ˌmɒkɪŋ bɜːd/ n [C] American bird of the thrush family that mimics other birds.

mo-dal /ˌməʊdl/ adj 1 relating to mode, manner or form (contrasted with substance). 2 (gram) related to the mood of a verb: ~ auxiliaries, eg can, may.

mode /məʊd/ n [C] 1 way in which something is done; way of speaking or behaving. 2 (music) one of the two chief scale systems in modern music (the major and the minor modes).

model¹ /'mɒdl/ n [C] 1 small-scale reproduction or representation; design to be copied: a ~ of an ocean liner; (as an adjective) ~ aircraft/trains. 2 person or thing to be copied: He's a ~ of kindness. 3 (informal) person or thing exactly like another: She's the ~/a perfect ~ of her mother. 4 person who poses for sculptors, painters or photographers. 5 person employed to wear clothes, hats, etc so that prospective buyers may see them. 6 article of clothing, hat, etc shown by models(5): the latest Paris ~s. 7 design or structure of which many copies or reproductions are (to be) made: the latest ~s of Ford cars. 8 (as an adjective) perfect; deserving to be used as a good example: ~ behaviour; a ~ wife.

model² /'mɒdl/ vt, vi (-ll-, US -l-) 1 shape (in some soft substance): ~ her head in clay. 2 work as a model(4,5): She earns a living by ~ling clothes/hats. 3 model oneself on/upon sb, take as a good copy or example: ~ oneself on one's father.

mod-el-ler (US = -eler), person who models(1).

mod-el-ling (US = -eling), (a) art, method, of making models(1). (b) working as a model(5).

mod-er-ate¹ /'mɒdəreɪt/ adj 1 not extreme; limited; having reasonable limits: a ~ appetite. 2 midway; keeping or kept within reasonable limits: a ~ political party; be ~ in one's demands. □ n [C] person who holds moderate opinions, eg in politics.

mod-er-ate-ly adv

mod-er-ate² /'mɒdəreɪt/ vt, vi 1 make or become less violent or extreme: ~ one's enthusiasm/demands. 2 act as a moderator.

mod-er-ation /'mɒdəreɪʃn/ n [U] quality of being moderate. in moderation, in a moderate manner or degree: Will alcoholic drinks be harmful if taken in ~?

mod-er-ator /'mɒdəreɪtə(r)/ n [C] 1 Presbyterian minister presiding over a church court. 2 presiding examiner at some university examinations. 3 material in which neutrons are slowed down in an atomic pile.

mod-ern /'mɒdən/ adj 1 of the present or recent times: ~ technical achievements. 2 new and up-to-date: ~ methods and ideas; a house with all ~ conveniences. □ n [C] person living in modern times.

modern English, since 1475.

modern history, ⇨ history.

modern language, near the form now spoken and written.

mod-ern-ity /mɒ'dɜːnəti/ n [U] being modern.

mod-ern-ize (also -ise) /'mɒdənaɪz/ vt make suitable for present-day needs; bring up to date: a ~d kitchen in an old cottage.

mod-est /'mɒdɪst/ adj 1 having, showing, a not too high opinion of one's merits, abilities, etc: be ~ about one's achievements. 2 moderate; not large in size or amount: a ~ house. My needs are quite ~. 3 taking, showing, care not to do or say anything indecent or improper: ~ in speech, dress and behaviour.

mod-est-ly adv

mod-esty /'mɒdɪsti/ n [U] state of being modest (all senses).

mod-i-cum /'mɒdɪkəm/ (n (sing only) small or moderate amount: a ~ of effort).

mod-i-fier /'mɒdɪfaɪə(r)/ n [C] (gram) word that modifies, eg an adj or adv.

mod-i-fy /'mɒdɪfaɪ/ vt (pt, pp -ied) 1 make changes in; make different: The industrial revolution modified the whole structure of English society. 2 make less severe, violent, etc: You'd better ~ your tone, eg be less rude. 3 (gram) make the sense of (a word) less general; limit the meaning of: In 'red shoes' 'red' modifies 'shoes'.

mod-i-fi-ca-tion /'mɒdɪfɪ'keɪʃn/ n [C,U] mod-ish /'mɒdɪʃ/ adj fashionable (the usual word).

modu-late /'mɒdʒəleɪt/ vt, vi 1 regulate; adjust; adapt. 2 (music) make a change in the pitch, intensity or key of. 3 (music) change or pass from one key to another. 4 vary the frequency, amplitude or other characteristics of sound waves.

modu-la-tion /'mɒdʒʊ'leɪʃn/ n 1 [U] process of modulating; state of being modulated; [C] change resulting from this. 2 [U] (music) changing of key; [C] particular change of key. 3 variation in the amplitude, frequency or phase of a sound wave so that it is suitable for the radio or telephone.

mod-ule /'mɒdʒjuːl/ n [C] 1 standard or unit of measurement as used in building. 2 standard uniform component used in the structure of a building; unit of electronic components as used in the assembly of a computer. 3 independent and self-contained unit of a spacecraft.

com'mand module, for the astronaut in command.

'lunar module, to be separated for a moon landing.

modu-lar /'mɒdʒjʊlə(r)/ US: -dʒu-/ adj mo-hair /'məʊheə(r)/ n [U] (thread, cloth, made from the) fine, silky hair of the Angora goat.

Mo-ham-medan /mə'hɒmɪdən US: məʊ'hæmɪdən/ n ⇨ Muhammad.

moist /moɪst/ adj (esp of surfaces) slightly wet: eyes ~ with tears.

mois-ten /'moɪsn/ vt, vi make or become moist: ~ en the lips.
mois-ture /'moɪstʃə(r)/ n [U] condensed vapour on a surface; liquid in the form of vapour.
mo-lar /'mɒlə(r)/ n [C], adj (one) of the back teeth used for grinding food.
mo-las-ses /mə'leɪsɪz/ n pl (used with a sing verb) thick, dark syrup drained from raw sugar during the refining process.
mold, molder, mold-ing, moldy, ⇨ mould, etc. mole¹ /'məʊl/ n [C] permanent, small dark spot on the human skin.
mole² /'məʊl/ n [C] small, dark-grey fur-covered animal living in tunnels (or burrows).
'mole-hill, pile of earth thrown up by a mole while burrowing. make a mountain out of a mole-hill, treat an unimportant matter as important.
mole³ /'məʊl/ n [C] stone wall built in the sea as a breakwater or causeway.
mol-ecule /'mɒlɪkjʊ:l/ n [C] smallest unit (usually of a group of atoms) into which a substance could be divided without a change in its chemical nature.
mol-ecu-lar /mə'lekjʊlə(r)/ adj mol-est /'məʊlest/ vt trouble or annoy intentionally.
mol-lify /'mɒlɪfaɪ/ vt (pt, pp -ied) make (a person, his feelings) calmer or quieter: ~ ing remarks: ~ his anger.
mol-lusc (US also mol-lusk) /'mɒləsk/ n [C] one of a class of animals with soft bodies (and often hard shells), eg oysters, mussels, cuttlefish, snails, slugs.
molt /mɒlt/ ⇨ moult.
mol-ten /'məʊltən/ adj (pp of melt) 1 (of metals) melted: ~ steel. 2 made of metal that has been melted and cast.
mo-ment /'məʊmənt/ n [C] point or very brief period of time: It was all over in a few ~s. Just a ~, please. □ conj as soon as; at the time when: The ~ I saw you I knew you were angry with me. mo-men-tary /'məʊməntəri/ US: -teri/ adj lasting for, done in, a moment: a ~ pause in order to think before replying.
mo-men-tar-ily /'məʊməntərəli/ adv mo-men-tous /mə'mentəs/ adj important; serious.
mo-men-tum /mə'mentəm/ n [U] 1 (science) quantity of motion of a moving body (the product of its mass and velocity): Do falling objects gain ~? 2 (fig) (of events) force (as) gained by movement; impetus: lose/gain ~.
mon-arch /'mɒnək/ n [C] supreme ruler (a king, queen, emperor or empress).
mon-ar-chie /mə'nɑ:kɪk/ adj mon-ar-chism /'mɒnəkɪzəm/ n [U] system of government by a monarch.
mon-ar-chist /'mɒnəkɪst/ n [C] supporter of monarchism.

mon-archy /'mɒnəkɪ/ n (a) [U] government by a monarch. (b) [C] (pl -ies) state ruled by a monarch.

mon-as-tery /'mɒnəstri/ US: -steri/ n [C] (pl -ies) building in which monks live as a community under religious vows.

mon-as-tic /mɒ'næstɪk/ adj of monks or monasteries: ~ vows, ie of poverty, chastity and obedience.

mon-as-ti-cism /mə'næstɪsɪzəm/ n [U] monastic system and way of life.

mon-aural /'mɒn'ɔ:rəl/ adj 1 for one ear. 2 (abbr mono) (of sound-reproducing equipment and recordings) not stereophonic.

Mon-day /'mʌndɪ/ n second day of the week.

mon-et-ary /'mʌnɪtri/ US: -teri/ adj of money or coins: The ~ unit in the US is the dollar.

money /'mʌni/ n [U] coins stamped from metal or printed on paper and accepted when buying and selling, etc: Are there easy ways of making ~? ⇨ *run*¹ (1).

'money-box, closed box into which coins are dropped through a slit, used for savings or for collecting.

'money-lender, person whose business is to lend money at interest.

'money-maker, (a) person who is successful in making a profit. (b) profitable item.

the 'money-market, bankers, financiers, etc whose operations decide the rates of interest on borrowed capital.

'money-order, order for money bought from a post office for payment at another post office to a named person.

'money-spinner, (informal) book, play, etc that makes a lot of money.

moneyed /'mʌnɪd/ adj having much money: the ~ed classes.

-mon-ger /-mʌŋgə(r)/ suffix person who deals in: 'ironmonger.

mon-gol /'mɒŋgəl/ n [C], adj (person) suffering from mongolism.

mon-gol-ism /'mɒŋgəlɪzəm/ n [U] congenital condition in which a child is born with mental deficiency and a flattened broad skull and slanting eyes.

mon-goose /'mɒŋgu:s/ n [C] (pl ~s) small Indian animal clever at destroying venomous snakes.

mon-grel /'mʌŋgrəl/ n [C] 1 dog of mixed breed. 2 any plant or animal of mixed origin. □ adj of mixed breed, race or origin: a ~ dog.

moni-tor /'mɒnɪtə(r)/ n [C] 1 pupil given authority over other pupils. 2 person employed to listen to and report on foreign broadcasts. 3 apparatus for testing transmissions by radio, for detecting radio-activity, etc. □ vt, vi act as a monitor (2).

monk /mʌŋk/ n [C] member of a community of men living together under religious vows in a monastery.

monk-ish /-ɪʃ/ adj.

mon-key /'mʌŋki/ n [C] (pl ~s) 1 animal of the group of animals most closely resembling man. 2 person, esp a child, who is fond of mischief: You little ~! vi monkey about (with), play mischievously: Stop ~ing about with those tools!

'monkey-nut, groundnut.

'monkey wrench, wrench (spanner) with a jaw that can be adjusted to various lengths.

mono /'mɒnəʊ/ (abbr of) monaural.

mono- /'mɒnə-/ prefix one, a single: monosyllable.

mono-chrome /'mɒnəkrəʊm/ n [C] painting in (different tints of) one colour. adj having only one colour.

mon-ocle /'mɒnəkl/ n [C] framed lens for one eye, kept in position by the muscles round the eye.

mon-og-amist /mən'ɒgəməst/ n [C] person who practises monogamy.

mon-og-amous /mən'ɒgəməs/ adj practising monogamy.

mon-og-amy /mən'ɒgəmi/ n [U] practice of being married to only one person at a time. ⇒ polygamy.

mono-gram /'mɒnəgrəm/ n [C] two or more letters (esp a person's initials) combined in one design (on notepaper, etc).

mono-graph /'mɒnəgrəf/ US: -græf/ n [C] detailed (scientific) account, esp a published report on one particular subject.

mono-lin-gual /'mɒnəʊ'liŋgwəl/ adj using, concerning, one language: a ~ dictionary.

mono-lith /'mɒnəlɪθ/ n [C] single upright block of stone (as a pillar or monument).

mono-lithic /'mɒnəlɪθɪk/ adj mono-logue /'mɒnɒlɒg/ US: -lə:g/ n [C] 1 scene in a play or a complete play in which only one person speaks. 2 any long talk by one person in a conversation.

mono-mania /'mɒnəʊ'meɪniə/ n [U] state of mind, sometimes amounting to madness, caused by the attention being occupied exclusively by one idea or subject; [C] instance of this.

mono-maniac /'mɒnəʊ'meɪniæk/ n [C] person suffering from monomania.

mono-plane /'mɒnəpleɪn/ n [C] aircraft with one wing on each side of the fuselage.

mon-op-ol-ize (also -ise) /mən'ɒpələɪz/ vi get or keep control of the whole of, so that others cannot share: Don't let me ~ the conversation.

mon-op-oly /mən'ɒpəli/ n [C] (pl -ies) 1 powerful amalgamation of capitalists in the form of concerns, trusts, etc. 2 complete control of trade, talk, etc: a government ~. 3 anything over which one person or group has control and which is not or cannot be shared by others.

mon-op-ol-ist /-lɪst/, person who has a monopoly.

mon-op-ol-is-tic /mən'ɒpəlɪstɪk/ adj mono-rail /'mɒnəreɪl/ n [C] single rail serving as a track for vehicles; railway system for vehicles using such a rail.

mono-syl-lable /'mɒnəsɪləbl/ n [C] word of one syllable.

mono-syl-labic /'mɒnəsɪ'læbɪk/ adj having only one syllable.

mon-ot-on-ous /mən'ɒtənəs/ adj (uninteresting because) unchanging, without variety: a ~ voice; ~ work.

mon-ot-on-ous-ly adv

mon-ot-on-y /mən'ɒtəni/ n [U] the state of being monotonous.

Mon-si-gnor /'mɒn'si:njə(r)/ n (title given to) certain officials in the RC Church.

mon-soon /mɒn'su:n/ n [C] seasonal wind blowing in the Indian Ocean from SW from April to October (wet ~) and from NE during the other months (dry ~); the rainy season that comes with the wet monsoon.

mon-ster /'mɒnstə(r)/ n [C] 1 abnormally shaped animal or plant. 2 person or thing of extraordinary size, shape or qualities. 3 (in stories) imaginary creature (eg half animal, half bird): dragons are ~s. 4 person who is remarkable for some bad or evil quality: a ~ of cruelty. 5 (used as an adjective) huge: a ~ ship.

mon-stros-ity /mɒn'strɒsəti/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] state of being monstrous. 2 [C] monster; hideous object, building, etc.

mon-strous /'mɒnstɹəs/ adj 1 of or like a monster; of great size. 2 causing horror and disgust: ~ crimes. 3 (informal) absurd; incredible; scandalous: It's perfectly ~ that men should be paid more than women for the same job.

mon-strous-ly adv

mon-tage /'mɒnta:ʒ/ n [C,U] (Fr) 1 selection, cutting and arrangement of photographic film, etc to make a consecutive whole. 2 process of using many pictures, designs, sometimes superimposed, to make a composite picture.

month /mʌnθ/ n [C] approximately a twelfth of a year: a baby of three ~s; a three-~ old baby. ⇒ Sunday.

calendar month, any of the twelve parts into which the year is divided; period of time from a day in one month to the corresponding day in the next (eg 2 Jan to 2 Feb).

lunar month, period in which the moon makes a complete revolution; period of 28 days.

month-ly adj, adv done, happening, etc once a month; valid for one month: a ~ly season ticket, for railway travel. □ n [C] (pl -ies) periodical issued once a month.

monu-ment /'mɒnjumənt/ n [C] 1 building, column, statue, etc in memory of a person or event: a ~ in the church to the late rector. 2 piece of scholarship or research that deserves to be remembered; work of literature or science of lasting value: a ~ of learning.

monu-men-tal /ˌmɒnjə'mentl/ adj 1 of, serving for, a monument: a ~ inscription. 2 (of books, studies, etc) of lasting value: a ~ production, eg the Oxford English Dictionary. 3 (of qualities, buildings, tasks) very great: ~ ignorance.

moo /mu:/ n [C] sound made by a cow or ox. □ vi make the sound moo.

'moo-cow, (child's word for a) cow.

mood¹ /mu:d/ n [C] state of mind or spirits: not in the ~ for serious music.

moody adj (-ier, -iest) having moods that often change, esp being bad-tempered.

mood-ily /-əli/ adv

mood² /mu:d/ n [C] (gram) one of the groups of forms that a verb may take to show whether things are regarded as certain, possible, doubtful, etc: the indicative/imperative ~.

moon¹ /mu:n/ n [C] 1 the ~, the body which moves round the earth once in a month and shines at night by light reflected from the sun. 2 (with a, an) this body regarded as an object distinct from that visible in other months: Is it a new ~ or a full ~? promise sb the moon, make extravagant promises. 3 satellite of other planets: How many ~s has the planet Jupiter? 4 (poetry) month. once in a blue moon, ⇨ blue¹.

'moon-beam, ray of moonlight.

'moon-light, light of the moon: (often used as an adjective) a ~light night. ⇨ flit.

'moon-shine, (a) light of the moon. (b) foolish or idle talk, ideas, etc.

'moon-stone, kind of semi-precious stone.

'moon-struck adj wild and mad (supposedly as the result of the moon's influence).

moon-less adj without a visible moon: a dark, ~less night.

moon² /mu:n/ vi, vt moon about/around, move or look slowly and without energy or interest.

moor¹ /muə(r)/ n [C, U] (area of) open, uncultivated land, esp if covered with heather.

'moor-land /-lənd/, land consisting of open moor and covered with heather.

moor² /muə(r)/ vi, vi make (a boat, ship, etc) secure (to land or buoys) by means of cables, etc.

moor-ings /'muəriŋz/ n pl (a) cables, anchors and chains, etc by which a ship or boat is moored. (b) place where a ship is moored.

Moor /muə(r)/ n 1 member of the Muslim peoples of mixed Arab and Berber blood who now live in NW Africa. 2 one of the Muslim Arabs who invaded Spain in the 8th century.

moose /mu:s/ n [C] (pl ~ or ~s /-sɪz/) large sort of deer with coarse fleece and large, flat antlers, found in the forests of N America, and in northern Europe (where it is called an elk).

moot /mu:t/ adj (only in) a moot point/question, one about which there is uncertainty. □ vt raise or bring forward for discussion: This question has been ~ed before.

mop /mɒp/ n [C] 1 bundle of coarse strings, cloth, etc fastened to a long handle for cleaning floors, etc; similar material on a short handle for cleaning dishes, etc. 2 mass of thick, untidy hair. □ vt (-pp-) 1 clean with a mop: ~ the floor. 2 wipe with, or as with, a mop: ~ one's brow; ~ up a mess.

mope /mɒp/ vi pity oneself, feel sad or in low spirits: moping (about) in the house all day. □ n pl the ~s, low spirits.

moped /'mɒpəd/ n [C] (GB) pedal bicycle fitted with a small petrol engine (under 50 cc).

mo-raine /mɒ'reɪn/ US: mɔ:-/ n [U] heap or mass of earth, gravel, rock, etc carried down and deposited by a glacier.

moral¹ /'mɒrəl/ US: 'mɔ:rəl/ adj 1 concerning principles of right and wrong: ~ standards/law. 2 good and virtuous: a ~ life/man. 3 able to understand the difference between right and wrong: At what age do we become ~ beings? 4 teaching or illustrating good behaviour: a ~ talk. 5 (contrasted with physical or practical) connected with the sense of what is right and just: a ~ victory, outcome of a struggle in which the weaker side is comforted because it has established the righteousness of its cause. give sb moral support, help by saying that he has justice and right on his side.

'moral phi'losophy, the study of right and wrong in human behaviour; ethics.

mor-ally /-rəli/ adv (a) in a moral manner: M ~ly he is all that can be desired. (b) according to what is most probable: ~ly bound to fail.

moral² /'mɒrəl/ US: 'mɔ:rəl/ n [C] 1 that which a story, event or experience teaches; lesson: And the ~ is that a young girl should not speak to strange men. 2 (pl) moral habits; standards of behaviour; principles of right and wrong: a man without ~s.

mo-rale /mɒ'ræl/ US: 'ræl/ n [U] state of discipline and spirit (in a person, an army, a nation, etc); attitude, state of mind, as expressed in action: The army recovered its ~ and fighting power.

moral-ist /'mɒrəlɪst/ US: 'mɔ:r-/ n [C] person who points out morals(1) or who practises or teaches morality.

moral-is-tic /,mɒrəlɪstɪk/ US: 'mɔ:r-/ adj concerned with morals(2).

moral-ity /mɒ'ræləti/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] standards, principles, of) good behaviour: standards of commercial ~. 2 [C] particular system of morals: socialist ~.

moral-ize (also -ise) /'mɒrəlaɪz/ US: 'mɔ:r-/ vi, vi talk or write on questions of duty, right and wrong, etc: ~ about/on the failings of the young generation.

mo-rass /mə'ræs/ n [C] 1 stretch of low, soft, wet land; marsh. 2 (fig) difficult, complicated situation: a ~ of problems.

mora-tor-ium /ˌmɒrə'tɔːrɪəm US: /ˌmɔː-/ n [C] (pl ~s or -ria /-rɪə/) [C] 1 (period of) legal authorization to delay payment of debts. 2 temporary deferment or delay, esp when agreed.

mor-bid /'mɔːbɪd/ adj 1 diseased: ~ anatomy, the study of diseased organs in the body. 2 (of the mind or ideas) unhealthy: a ~ imagination, one that concentrates on horrible or nasty things.

mor-bid-ly adv

more /mɔː(r)/ (contrasted with less and fewer):
 ⇨ many, most¹, much¹) adj greater in number, quantity, quality, degree, size, etc; additional: We need ~ men/help. □ n [U] a greater amount, number, etc; an additional amount: What ~ do you want? There are still a few ~. □ adv 1 (forming the comparative degree of most adjectives and adverbs): ~ beautiful/ useful/interesting (than...). 2 to a greater extent; in a greater degree: You need to sleep ~, ie more than you sleep now. 3 again: I'm not going any ~, ever again. once more, one more time. 4 more and more, increasingly: Life is becoming ~ and ~ expensive. more or less, about: It's an hour's journey, ~ or less. 5 (with a noun, = an adjective): The ~ fool you to believe him, You are foolish to believe him. ⇨ pity (2).

more-over /mɔːr'əʊvə(r)/ adv further; besides; in addition (to this).

morgue /mɔːg/ n [C] building in which bodies of persons found dead are kept until they are identified and claimed by members of their families. ⇨ mortuary.

mori-bund /'mɒrɪbʌnd US: /ˌmɔːr-/ adj at the point of death; about to come to an end: ~ civilizations.

morn /mɔːn/ n [C] (poetic) morning.

morn-ing /'mɔːnɪŋ/ n [C] 1 early part of the day between dawn and noon (or, more generally, before the midday meal): in/during the ~; this ~; yesterday/tomorrow ~; every ~; on Sunday/Monday ~; a few ~s ago. good morning, ⇨ *good*¹ (13). 2 (as an adjective): a ~ walk; an early ~ swim.

'morning coat, black formal coat with tails.

'morning dress, as worn on formal occasions such as weddings.

'Morning Prayer, service used in the Church of England at morning service.

'morning-room, room for the morning, esp for breakfast.

'morning 'sickness, (feeling of) nausea early in the morning, often during the first few months of pregnancy.

the morning 'star, Venus, or other bright star seen at dawn.

mo-rocco /mə'rɒkəʊ/ n [U] soft leather made from goatskins.

mo-ron /'mɔːrɒn/ n [C] 1 person with low intelligence (not so low as imbeciles or idiots). 2 (informal) stupid person.

mo-ronic /mə'rɒnɪk/ adj mo-rose /mə'rəʊs/ adj gloomy; bad-tempered.

mo-rose-ly adv

mor-pHEME /'mɔːfɪm/ n [C] smallest meaningful part into which a word can be divided: 'Run-s' contains two ~s and 'un-man-ly' contains three.

mor-phia /'mɔːfiə/, mor-phine /'mɔːfɪn/ n [U] drug made from opium and used for relieving pain.

mor-phol-ogy /mɔː'fɒlədʒi/ n [U] 1 branch of biology dealing with the form and structure of animals and plants. 2 (gram) study of the morphemes of a language and of how they are combined to make words.

mor-ris dance /'mɒrɪs dɑːns US: /ˌmɔːrɪs dæns/ n [C] old English folk-dance for men.

mor-row /'mɒrəʊ US: /ˌmɔːr-/ n 1 (literary) the next day after the present or after any given day. 2 (archaic) morning: Good ~!

Morse /mɔːs/ n (also the ~ code) system of dots and dashes or short and long sounds, flashes of light, representing letters of the alphabet and numbers.

mor-sel /'mɔːsl/ n [C] tiny piece (esp of food); mouthful: not a ~ of food anywhere.

mor-tal /'mɔːtl/ adj 1 (contrasted with im-mortal) which must die; which cannot live for ever: Man is ~. 2 causing death: a ~ wound. 3 lasting until death: ~ hatred. 4 accompanying death: in ~ agony. 5 (informal) extreme; very great or long: in ~ fear. □ n [C] (literary) human being.

mor-tally /-təli/ adv (a) so as to cause death: ~ wounded. (b) extremely: ~ offended.

'mortal 'combat, only ended by the death of one of the fighters.

'mortal 'enemy, whose hatred will not end until death.

'mortal 'sin, one causing spiritual death.

mor-tal-ity /mɔː'tæləti/ n [U] 1 state of being mortal. 2 number of deaths caused (eg by a disaster or disease): an epidemic with a heavy ~. 3 death-rate: infant ~.

mor-tar¹ /'mɔːtə(r)/ n [U] mixture of lime, sand and water used to hold bricks, stones, etc together in building. □ vt join (bricks, etc) with mortar.

'mortar-board, (a) small board with a short handle underneath, used for holding mortar. (b) square cap sometimes worn as part of academic costume.

mor-tar² /'mɔːtə(r)/ n [C] 1 bowl of hard material in which substances are crushed with a pestle. 2 cannon for firing shells at high angles.

mort-gage /'mɔ:ɡɪdʒ/ vt give a person a claim on one's house, etc as a security for payment of a loan to buy it. □ n [C] act of mortgaging; legal agreement about this: a ~ of £10000.

mort-ga-gee /,mɔ:ɡə'dʒi:/, person to whom property is mortgaged.

mort-ga-gor /,mɔ:ɡə'dʒɔ:(r) US: 'mɔ:ɡɪdʒər/, person who mortgages his property.

mort-ice /'mɔ:tɪs/ n ⇨ mortise.

mort-ify /'mɔ:tɪfaɪ/ vt, vi (pt, pp -ied) 1 cause to be ashamed, humiliated, or hurt: a ~ing defeat. 2 mortify the flesh, discipline bodily passions, overcome bodily desires. 3 (of flesh, eg round a wound) decay, be affected with gangrene.

mort-ise, mort-ice /'mɔ:tɪs/ n [C] hole cut in a piece of wood, etc to receive the end of another piece (the tenon). □ vi join or fasten in this way: ~ two beams together.

mort-u-ary /'mɔ:tʃʊəri US: -tʃuəri/ n [C] (pl -ies) room or building (eg part of a hospital) to which dead bodies are taken to be kept until burial.

mo-saic /mɔ'u:zeɪk/ n [C], adj (form or work of art) in which designs, pictures, etc are made by fitting together differently coloured bits of stone, etc.

Mos-lem /'mɒzləm/ n, adj (variant of) Muslim.

mosque /mɒsk/ n [C] building in which Muslims worship Allah.

mos-quito /mɒ'ski:təʊ/ n [C] (pl ~es) small, flying, blood-sucking insect, esp the sort that spreads malaria.

moss /mɒs US: mɔ:s/ n [U] sorts of small green or yellow plant growing in thick masses on wet surfaces. A rolling stone gathers no moss. (proverb) A person who often changes his occupation or who never settles in one place will not succeed in life.

mossy adj (-ier, -iest) covered with, like, moss: ~y green.

most¹ /mɔ:st/ (contrasted with least and fewest; ⇨ many, more, much¹) adj, n 1 (with the) (the) greatest possible number, quantity, degree: Which of you has made (the) ~ mistakes? at the (very) most, not more than: I can pay only £10 at the ~. make the most of, use to the best advantage: We have only a few hours so we must make the ~ of it. for the 'most part, usually; on the whole: Japanese cameras are, for the ~ part, of excellent quality. 2 (without the) the majority of; the greater part of: M ~ people think so. He was ill ~ of the summer.

most² /mɔ:st/ adv 1 (forming the superlative degree of nearly all adjectives and adverbs): the ~ beautiful/interesting/useful. 2 to the greatest extent; in the greatest degree: What is troubling you ~? 3 very; extremely: This is a ~ useful book. He was ~ polite to me.

-most /-mɔ:st/ suffix (used to form a superlative): innermost.

most-ly /'mɔ:stli/ adv chiefly; almost all; generally: The medicine was ~ (made of) sugar and water. We are ~ out on Sundays.

mote /mɔ:t/ n [C] particle (of dust, etc).

mo-tel /mɔ'u'tel/ n [C] motorists' hotel (with rooms, a parking area, service station, etc).

moth /mɒθ US: mɔ:θ/ n [C] sorts of winged insect flying chiefly at night, attracted by lights.

'moth-ball, small ball (of camphor, etc) used to discourage moths.

'moth-eaten, adj (a) eaten or destroyed by moths. (b) (fig) torn and dirty.

mother /'mʌðə(r)/ n [C] 1 female parent; woman who has adopted a child. 2 woman (often 'house~) who is in charge of children in a boarding-school or home² (2). 3 quality or condition that causes something (as in the proverb, Necessity is the mother of invention). 4 head of a female religious community. □ vi take care of (as a mother does).

the 'mother country, (a) one's native land. (b) country in relation to dominions (eg Great Britain for Canada).

mother-in-law /'mʌðər ɪn lɔ:/ n [C] (pl ~s-in-law) mother of one's wife or one's husband.

'mother-of-pearl, hard, shiny rainbow-coloured lining of some shells, esp the pearl-oyster, used for ornaments, etc.

'mother ship, one from which other ships (eg submarines) get supplies.

'mother tongue, one's native language.

'mother-hood /-hʊd/, state of being a mother.

mother-less adj having no (living) mother.

mother-ly adj having, showing, the tender, kind qualities of a mother.

mo-tif /mɔ'u'tɪf/ n [C] 1 theme in music for treatment and development, often one which recurs. 2 main feature in a work of art.

mo-tion /'mɔ:ʃn/ n 1 [U] (manner of) moving. put/set sth in motion, cause it to start moving or working. 'time and 'motion study, analysis of the movements of workers (in industry, etc) undertaken by experts, who aim at improving efficiency. 2 [C] gesture; particular movement: All her ~s were graceful. go through the motions, (informal) do something in a disinterested or insincere manner. 3 [C] proposal to be discussed and voted on at a meeting: The ~ was adopted/carried/rejected/lost by a majority of six. 4 [C] = movement (6). □ vi, vi 1 direct by a motion or gesture: He ~ed (to) me to enter.

'motion picture, film shown in a cinema.

mo-tion-less adj not moving; still.

mo-ti-vate /'mɔ:tɪveɪt/ vt be the motive of; give a motive or encouragement to; encourage.

mo-tiv-a-tion /ˈməʊtɪveɪʃn/ n [C,U] mo-tive /ˈməʊtɪv/ adj causing motion: ~ power/force, eg steam, electricity. □ n [C] that which causes action: do it from ~s of kindness.

mot-ley /ˈmɒtli/ adj 1 of various colours. 2 of varied character or various sorts: a ~ crowd, eg people of many different occupations, social classes, etc.

mo-tor /ˈməʊtə(r)/ n [C] 1 device which produces or uses power (esp electric power) to produce motion, but not used of a steam engine: electric ~s. 2 (often as an adjective) self-powered (by an internal combustion engine) vehicle: ~-vehicles. 3 (dated) (car is more usual) (abbr for) motor-car: the 'M ~ Show. □ vi, vt (dated) travel by motor-car: ~ from London to Brighton.

motor-bike/cycle, motor-vehicle like a bike, for 1 or 2 people.

motor-boat, boat with a motor.

motor-cade, (US) procession of motor-vehicles.

motor-car, (car is more usual) enclosed motor-vehicle with space for passengers.

motor nerve, nerve that excites movements of a muscle or muscles.

motor-scooter, ⇨ scooter.

motor-vehicle, car, bus, motorbike, etc.

motor-way, wide road designed for fast traffic, with separate carriageways and going over or under other roads.

mo-tor-ist /-ɪst/, person who drives a car.

motor-ize (also -ise) /-aɪz/ vt equip with a motor-vehicle.

mottled /ˈmɒtld/ adj marked with spots or areas of different colours without a pattern.

motto /ˈmɒtəʊ/ n [C] (pl ~es or ~s) 1 short sentence or phrase used as a guide or rule of behaviour (eg 'Every man for himself'). 2 short sentence or phrase written or inscribed (eg on a coat of arms) expressing a suitable sentiment.

mould¹ (US = mold) /məʊld/ n [C] 1 container, hollow form, into which molten metal or a soft substance is poured to cool into a desired shape; the shape or form given by this container. 2 jelly, pudding, etc made in such a container. □ vt 1 make something in, or as in, a mould: ~ a head out of/in clay. 2 (fig) guide or control the growth of; influence: ~ a person's character.

mould² (US = mold) /məʊld/ n [U] woolly or furry growth of fungi appearing on damp surfaces. □ vi (US) become covered with mould: Cheese ~s in warm, wet weather.

mouldy adj (-ier, -iest) (a) covered with, smelling of, mould: ~y bread. (b) (fig) (of a person) mean and obstructive; worthless.

mould³ (US = mold) /məʊld/ n [U] soft, fine loose earth: 'leaf ~, from decayed leaves.

moul-der (US = mol-der) /ˈməʊldə(r)/ vi crumble to dust by natural decay: ~ing away in his grave.

mould-ing (US = mold-) /ˈməʊldɪŋ/ n 1 [U] act, way, of moulding or shaping. 2 line of ornamental plaster, carved woodwork, etc round a wall or window, etc.

moult (US = molt) /məʊlt/ vt, vi 1 (of birds) lose (feathers) before a new growth. 2 (of dogs and cats) lose hair.

mound /maʊnd/ n [C] mass of piled up earth; small hill: a burial ~, of earth over a grave.

mount¹ /maʊnt/ n [C] 1 (literary) mountain, hill: Christ's sermon on the ~. 2 (abbr Mt) (before proper names) mountain: Mt Everest.

mount² /maʊnt/ vt, vi 1 go up (a hill, a ladder, etc). 2 get on to (a horse, etc); supply with a horse; put on a horse: He ~ed (his horse) and rode away. 3 mount the throne, become king, queen, emperor, etc. 4 become greater in amount: Our expenses are ~ing (up). 5 put and fix in position: ~ pictures, eg fix them in an album; ~ insects, eg for display or preservation in a museum. 6 (mil uses): mount guard (at/over), act as a guard or sentry.

mount an offensive, attack. 7 put (a play) on the stage or TV. 8 (esp of large animals) get up on (a female animal) in order to copulate. □ n [C] that on which a person or thing is or may be mounted (eg a card for a drawing or photograph, a horse for riding on, a gun-carriage).

moun-tain /ˈmaʊntɪn/ n [C] 1 mass of very high land going up to a peak: Everest is the highest ~ in the world. 2 (fig) very large thing: a ~ of debt/letters.

moun-tain-ee /ˈmaʊntɪnɪə(r)/ n [C] person who climbs mountains.

moun-tain-ee-ing n [U] climbing mountains (as a sport).

moun-tain-ous /ˈmaʊntɪnəs/ adj (a) having mountains: ~ous country. (b) huge: ~ous waves.

mourn /mɔːn/ vi, vt feel or show sorrow or regret: ~ for a dead child; ~ over the child's death.

mourner, person who mourns, esp at a funeral.

mourn-ful /-fl/ adj sad.

mourn-fully /-fəli/ adv mourn-ing /ˈmɔːnɪŋ/ n [U] 1 grief. 2 (the wearing of) black clothes as a sign of grief: go into ~ for three weeks.

mouse /maʊs/ n [C] (pl mice /maɪs/) 1 sorts of small rodent ('house ~, 'field ~, 'harvest ~). 2 (fig) shy, timid person. □ vi (of cats) hunt for, catch, mice.

mouse-trap, trap for catching mice.

mousse /mus/ n [C,U] (dish of) flavoured cream beaten and frozen: chocolate ~.

mous-tache (US = mus-) /mə'staːʃ/ US: 'mɑːstæʃ/ n [C] hair allowed to grow on the upper lip.

mousy /ˈmaʊsi/ adj (-ier, -iest) 1 (esp of hair) dull brown. 2 (of a person) timid, shy.

mouth¹ /maʊθ/ n [C] (pl ~s /maʊðz/) 1 opening through which animals take in food; space behind this containing the teeth, tongue, etc. by word of mouth, \Rightarrow word(1). down in the mouth, sad, dejected. look a gift-horse in the mouth, \Rightarrow horse(1). make one's mouth water, make one feel hungry or thirsty. put words into sb's mouth; take the words out of sb's mouth, \Rightarrow word(2). 2 opening or outlet (of a bag, bottle, tunnel, cave, river, etc).

mouth-organ, small musical wind-instrument with metal reeds, played by passing it along the lips.

mouth-piece, (a) that part of a tobacco pipe, a musical instrument, etc placed at or between the lips. (b) person, newspaper, etc that expresses the opinions of others: Which newspaper is the ~piece of the Socialists?

mouth-ful /-fəl/ n [C] (pl ~s) as much as can be put into the mouth comfortably at one time: have only a ~ful of food.

mouth² /maʊð/ vt, vi speak (words) too distinctly or pompously: An actor who ~s his words is a poor actor.

movable /'mu:vəbl/ adj 1 that can be moved; (of property) that can be taken from place to place (eg furniture). \Rightarrow portable. 2 varying in date: Christmas is fixed but Easter is a ~ feast. \square n (pl) personal property; articles that can be removed from a house (contrasted with fixtures).

move¹ /mu:v/ n [C] 1 change of place or position, esp of a piece in chess or other games played on boards; player's turn to do this: Do you know all the ~s in chess? Whose ~ is it? 2 something (to be) done to achieve a purpose: What's our next ~? 3 on the move, moving about: Large enemy forces are on the ~. get a move on, (informal) hurry up. make a move, (a) move to a different place. (b) begin to act: Unless we make a ~ soon, we shall never get to the top of the mountain.

move² /mu:v/ vt, vi 1 (cause to) change position; put, cause to be, in a different place or attitude; (cause to) be in motion: M~ your chair nearer to the fire. It was calm and not a leaf ~d. move heaven and earth, \Rightarrow heaven(4). 2 move house, take one's furniture, etc to another house, flat, etc. move in, take possession of a new dwelling-place. move out, give up a dwelling-place: We ~d out on Monday and the new tenants ~d in on Tuesday. 3 move (sb) on, move (a person) to another place or position: 'M~ on, please'. move along/down/up, move farther in the direction indicated so as to make space for others: 'M~ along, please', said the bus conductor. 4 affect the feelings of with pity, etc: be ~d to tears. The story of their sufferings ~d us deeply. 5 cause to do something: If the spirit ~s him, (=

If he feels like doing so, he'll come and help us.

6 put forward for discussion and decision (at a meeting): Mr Chairman, I ~ that the money be used for library books. \Rightarrow motion(3). 7 make progress; go forward: Time is moving on. 8 take action: Nobody seems willing to ~. 9 be socially active in: They ~ in the best society. 10 cause (the bowels) to act, to empty; (of the bowels) be emptied.

moving staircase, = escalator.

move-ment /'mu:vmənt/ n 1 [U] moving or being moved; activity (contrasted with quiet and rest): He lay there without ~. 2 [C] act of changing position: an opening ~ in chess; ~s of troops in the war area. 3 [C] moving part of a machine or mechanism or a particular group of such parts: the ~ of a clock or a watch. 4 [C] united actions and efforts of a group of people for a special purpose: the ~ to abolish nuclear armaments. 5 [C] (music) principal division of a musical work with a distinctive structure of its own: the final ~ of the Ninth Symphony. 6 [C] emptying of the bowels. 7 [U] activity (in a stock market, etc): not much ~ in oil shares.

mover /'mu:və(r)/ n [C] (esp) person who moves(6) a proposal.

movie /'mu:vi/ n [C] (informal or US) 1 film¹(3). 2 the ~s, the cinema.

mow /məʊ/ vt (pt ~ed; pp ~n /məʊn/ or ~ed) 1 cut (grass, etc) (with a 'lawn-er). 2 mow down, destroy, kill, as if by mowing: Our men were ~n down by the enemy's machine-gun fire.

mower, person or machine that mows.

Mr /'mɪstə(r)/ \Rightarrow mister.

Mrs /'mɪsɪz/ (used in front of the name of a married woman who has no other title).

Ms /mæz/ (used in front of the name of a woman (married or unmarried) who has no other title).

much¹ /mʌtʃ/ (more, most. \Rightarrow little) adj, n [U] (used with sing nouns; compare many which is used with pl nouns. Much can often be replaced by plenty (of), a lot (of), a large quantity (of), a good/great deal (of). Much is often used with how, too, so, or as): There isn't ~ food in the house. M~ of what you say is true. You have given me too ~. I thought as ~, That is what I thought. It is as ~ your responsibility as mine. You and I are equally responsible. It was as ~ as he could do to (= He could do no more than) pay his way. a bit much, (informal) excessive: I don't mind taking you but it's a bit ~ to expect me to pay for you. be too much, more than can be endured: Your insolence really is too ~! (with) not/without so much as, not even: He left without so ~ as saying 'Thank you'. how much, (a) what quantity: Tell me how ~ flour (= what weight) you want. (b) what price: How ~ is that dress? not much of a, not a good: He's not ~ of a singer. (not) up to much, (not) worth much: I don't think his work is up to ~, ie it is not good. 'so much, (a) an unspecified (often large) quantity: so ~ money; four meals at ~ so ~ a head. (b) nothing but: His essays are 'so ~ rubbish. not so much as, (a) not even: He didn't so ~ as ask me to sit down! (b) less... than: He's not so ~ rude as forgetful. 'so much for, that is all that needs to be said, done, etc about: 'So ~ for the organizing; now what about the cost? so much so that, to such an extent that: He's ill—so ~ so that he can't get out of bed. this/that much, the quantity, extent, etc indicated: I will say this ~..., I will admit, agree, that... make much of, (a) understand: I didn't make ~ of that lecture. (b) attach importance to; exaggerate: He makes (too) ~ of his connections with rich people. not think much of, have a poor opinion of: I don't think ~ of the new teacher.

much² /mʌtʃ/ adv 1 (modifying comparatives and superlatives, sometimes preceding the): You must work ~ harder. This is ~ (= by far) the best. much more/less, (used to show that what has been stated applies with greater force to the following statement): It is difficult to understand him, ~ more his wife. I didn't even speak to him, ~ less discuss your problems. 2 (modifying participles and adjectives such as afraid): I am very ~ afraid that... I was ~ annoyed. 3 (modifying a verbal phrase): It doesn't ~ matter. I enjoyed it very ~. He doesn't like beef ~. 4 (in phrases) much as, although: M ~ as I should like to go, I can't. how much, to what extent: How ~ does losing your job really matter? much the same, about the same: The patient's condition is ~ the same. much to, to my, his, her, etc great...: M ~ to her surprise/regret... too much, too highly: He thinks too ~ of himself.

much-ness /'mʌtʃnɪs/ n (only in) much of a/muchness, (almost) alike.

muck /mʌk/ n [U] 1 dung; farmyard manure (the droppings of animals). 2 dirt; filth. make a muck of sth, (informal) do it badly. □ vt, vi 1 muck sth up, (informal) make it dirty; do it badly. 2 muck about, (sl) do useless or unnecessary things: 'What's he up to?' — 'Oh, just ~ing about.' 3 muck out, clean out (stables, etc) by removing dung: She ~s out (the stables) every morning.

mucky adj (-ier, -iest) dirty.

mu-cous /'mju:kəs/ adj of, like, covered with, mucus.

the mucous membrane, the moist skin that lines the nose, mouth and food canal.

mu-cus /'mju:kəs/ n [U] sticky, slimy substance (as) produced by the mucous membrane: Snails and slugs leave a trail of ~.

mud /mʌd/ n [U] soft, wet earth: Rain turns soil into ~. his/her/your, etc name is mud, he/she/you, etc are in disgrace. ⇨ also stick-in-the-mud.

'mud-guard, guard (curved cover) over a wheel (of a bicycle, etc).

muddle /'mʌdl/ vt, vi 1 bring into a state of confusion and disorder; make a mess of: You've ~d the scheme completely. A glass of whisky soon ~s him. Don't ~ (= mix) things up (together). 2 muddle along/on, progress with no clear purpose or plan: He's still muddling along/on. muddle through, reach the end of an undertaking in spite of inefficiency, obstacles of one's own making, etc. □ n (usually sing with a, an) confused state; confusion of ideas: Everything was in a ~ and I couldn't find what I wanted. You have made a ~ of it, mismanaged it, made a mess of it.

'muddle-headed adj confused in thought.

muddy /'mʌdɪ/ adj (-ier, -iest) 1 full of, covered with, mud: ~ roads/shoes. 2 mud-coloured; like mud because thick: ~ coffee. □ vt (pt, pp -ied) fill, cover, stain, with mud: You've mudded the carpet.

mu-az-zin /mu:'ezɪn US: mju:-/ n [C] man who calls the hours of prayers from the minaret of a mosque.

muff /mʌf/ n [C] covering, open at both ends, (formerly) used by a woman to keep the hands warm; similar covering for the foot.

muf-fin /'mʌfɪn/ n [C] light, flat, round cake, usually eaten hot with butter.

muffle /'mʌfl/ vt 1 wrap or cover for warmth or protection: ~d up in a heavy overcoat. 2 decrease the sound of something (eg a machine) by covering it: ~d voices, eg from persons whose mouths are covered.

muf-fler /'mʌflə(r)/ n [C] 1 cloth, scarf, worn round the neck for warmth. 2 something used to reduce sound: the ~ in the engine of a motor-vehicle.

mufti /'mʌftɪ/ n [C] official adviser on Muslim law.

mug¹ /mʌg/ n [C] 1 drinking vessel with a handle, for use without a saucer; its contents: a 'beer-~; a ~ of coffee. 2 (sl) face; mouth: What an ugly ~ you have!

mug² /mʌg/ n [C] (sl) fool; easily deceived person.

mug³ /mʌg/ vt (-gg-) mug sth up, (informal) (try to) become familiar with information, etc on which one is to be tested.

mug⁴ /mʌg/ vt (-gg-) (sl) attack (a person) violently and rob (eg in a dark street, a lift, an empty corridor, etc).

mug-ger, person who mugs⁴.

mug-ging, such an attack.

mug-gins /'mʌgɪnz/ n [C] (sl) (pl ~es) fool.

muggy /'mʌɡɪ/ adj (-ier, -iest) (of the weather, etc) damp and warm; close and sticky.

mugginess n [U]

Mu-ham-mad /mə'hæmɪd/ n Prophet and Founder of Islam.

Mu-ham-madan /-ən/ adj, n (of a) believer in Islam.

Mu-ham-ma-dan-ism /mə'hæmɪdənɪzəm/ n Islam (the preferred name).

mu-latto /mju:'lætəʊ US: mə'l-/ n [C] (pl ~s or ~es) (dated) person who has one parent of a white race and one Negroid parent.

mul-berry /'mʌlbəri US: -beri/ n [C] (pl -ies) tree with broad, dark-green leaves on which silkworms feed; its fruit (dark purple or white).

mule¹ /mju:l/ n [C] animal that is the offspring of an ass and a mare. as obstinate/stubborn as a mule, very obstinate/stubborn.

mul-ish /-ɪʃ/ adj stubborn; obstinate.

mu-lish-ly adv

mu-lish-ness n [U]

mule² /mju:l/ n [C] slipper without a heel.

mull¹ /mʌl/ vt make (wine, beer) into a hot drink with sugar, spices, etc: ~ed claret.

mull² /mʌl/ vt mull sth over; mull over sth, think about it carefully.

mul-lah /'mʌlə/ n [C] Muslim expert in Islamic theology and sacred law.

mul-let /'mʌlɪt/ n [C] (pl unchanged) kinds of seafish used as food: red/grey ~.

mul-li-ga-tawny /'mʌlɪgə'tɔ:ni/ n [U] (~soup) highly seasoned soup with curry powder in it.

mul-lion /'mʌlɪən/ n [C] vertical stone division between parts of a window.

multi- /'mʌltɪ-/ prefix many: a multi-storey carpark.

multi-far-ious /'mʌltɪ'feəriəs/ adj (formal) many and various: his ~ duties.

multi-lat-eral /'mʌltɪ'lætərəl/ adj involving two or more participants: ~ disarmament, after agreement between two or more countries.

multiple /'mʌltɪpl/ adj having many parts or elements: a ~ choice exercise, with several answers given of which one is right. □ n [C] quantity which contains another quantity an exact number of times: 28 is a ~ of 7.

least/lowest common 'multiple, (abbr LCM) least quantity that contains two or more given quantities exactly: 12 is the LCM of 3 and 4.

multi-plex /'mʌltɪpleks/ adj having many parts or forms; of many elements.

multi-pli-ca-tion /'mʌltɪplɪ'keɪʃn/ n 1 [U] multiplying or being multiplied: The symbol × stands for ~. 2 [C] instance of this: 3 × 11 is an easy ~.

multi-plic-ity /'mʌltɪ'plɪsəti/ n [U] (formal) being great in number: a ~ of duties.

multi-ply /'mʌltɪplaɪ/ vt, vi (pt, pp -ied) 1 take (a given quantity or number) a given number of times: ~ 3 by 5. 6 multiplied by 5 is 30, 6 × 5 = 30. 2 produce a large number of; make greater in number. 3 increase in number by procreation: Rabbits ~ rapidly.

multi-storey /'mʌltɪ stɔ:ri/ adj having many storeys: a ~ carpark.

multi-tude /'mʌltɪtju:d US: -tu:d/ n 1 [C] great number (esp of people gathered together). 2 (with the) the common people; the masses: policies which appeal to the ~. 3 [U] greatness of number: like the stars in ~, very great in number.

multi-tud-in-ous /'mʌltɪ'tju:dɪnəs US: -tu:dənəs/ adj great in number.

mum¹ /mʌm/ n [C] (informal) mother.

mum² /mʌm/ n [C] Mum's the word! Say nothing about this!

mumble /'mʌmbəl/ vt, vi say something indistinctly: The old man was mumbling away to himself.

numbo-jumbo /'nʌmbəʊ 'dʒʌmbəʊ/ n [U] (fig) meaningless language.

mum-mify /'mʌmɪfaɪ/ vt (pt, pp -ied) preserve (a dead body) by embalming.

mummy¹ /'mʌmi/ n [C] (pl -ies) (informal) mother.

mummy² /'mʌmi/ n [C] (pl -ies) 1 body of a human being or animal embalmed for burial. 2 dried-up body preserved from decay (as in early Egypt).

mumps /'mʌmps/ n [U] (used with a sing verb) contagious disease with painful swellings in the neck.

munch /'mʌntʃ/ vt, vi chew with much movement of the jaw: ~ing (away at) a hard apple.

mun-dane /'mʌn'deɪn/ adj 1 worldly (contrasted with spiritual or heavenly). 2 dull, routine: ~ jobs in factories.

mu-nici-pal /'mju:'nɪsɪpl/ adj of a town or city having self-government: ~ buildings, eg the town hall, public library.

mu-ni-ci-pally /-pli/ adv

mu-ni-ci-pal-ity /'mju:'nɪsɪ'pæləti/ n [C] (pl -ies) town, city, district, with local self-government; governing body of such a town, city, etc.

mu-nifi-cence /'mju:'nɪfɪsn/ n [U] (formal) great generosity.

mu-nifi-cent /'mju:'nɪfɪsnt/ adj (formal) 1 extremely generous. 2 (of a gift) large in amount or splendid in quality.

mu-ni-tion /'mju:'nɪʃn/ n [C] (pl except when used as an adjective) military supplies, esp guns, shells, bombs, etc: The war was lost because of a shortage of ~s/a ~s) shortage. □ vt provide with munitions: ~ a fort.

mural /'mjuərəl/ adj of, like, on, a wall: a ~ painting. □ n [C] wall-painting.

mur-der /'mɜ:də(r)/ n [U] unlawful killing of a human being on purpose; [C] instance of this: commit ~; guilty of ~. get away with murder, (informal) do whatever one wishes (and not be punished). □ vt 1 kill (a human being) unlawfully and on purpose. 2 spoil by not having skill or knowledge: ~ a piece of music, play it very badly.

mur-derer, person guilty of murder.

mur-der-ess /-ɪs/, woman murderer.

mur-der-ous /-əs/ adj planning, suggesting, designed for, murder: a ~ous-looking villain.

mur-der-ous-ly adv

murk /mɜ:k/ n [U] darkness; gloom.

murky adj (-ier, -iest) dark; gloomy: a ~y night; ~y coffee.

murk-ily /-əl/ adv

mur-mur /'mɜ:mə(r)/ n [C] 1 low, continuous, indistinct sound: the ~ of bees in the garden; the ~ of distant traffic/conversation from the next room. 2 subdued expression of feeling: They paid the higher taxes without a ~, ie without complaining. □ vi, v 1 make a murmur(1): a ~ing brook. 2 complain in a murmur(2): ~ against new taxes. 3 say in a low voice: ~ a prayer.

muscle /'mɜ:sl/ n [C,U] (band or bundle of) elastic substance in an animal body that can be tightened or loosened to produce movement: Don't move a ~, stay perfectly still. 2 (fig) authority; power: modern weapons added more ~ to the attack. □ vi muscle 'in (on), (sf) use force to get a share of something advantageous.

'muscle-bound adj having stiff muscles as the result of excessive exercise.

'muscle-man /-mæn/ n [C] (pl -mən) man of great muscular development.

mus-cu-lar /'mɜ:kjʊlə(r)/ adj 1 of the muscles: ~ rheumatism. 2 having strong muscles: a ~ man.

muse¹ /'mju:z/ n [C] 1 (in Greek myth) any one of the nine goddesses, daughters of Zeus, who protected and encouraged poetry, music, dancing, history and other branches of art and learning. 2 the ~, spirit that inspires a poet.

muse² /'mju:z/ vi muse over/on/upon, think deeply or dreamily, ignoring what is happening around one: ~ing over memories of the past.

mu-seum /mju:'ziəm/ n [C] building in which objects illustrating art, history, science, etc are displayed.

mush /mʌʃ/ n [U] soft, thick mixture or mass.

mushy adj like mush: ~ peas.

mush-room /'mʌʃrʊm/ US: -rʊm/ n [C] 1 fast-growing fungus of which some kinds can be eaten. 2 sudden, rapid, development: the ~ growth of London suburbs. □ vi 1 gather mushrooms. 2 spread or grow rapidly: English language schools are ~ing in Bournemouth.

mu-sic /'mju:zɪk/ n [U] 1 art of making pleasing combinations of sounds in rhythm and harmony; the sounds and composition so made: (as an adjective) a ~ lesson/teacher.

face the music, ⇨ *face*² (2). set/put sth to music, provide words, eg of a poem, with music. 2 written or printed signs representing these sounds: sheet ~.

'music-hall, (GB) place for variety entertainment (eg songs, acrobatic performances, comedians) (US = vaudeville).

'music-stand, framework for holding sheets of printed music.

'music-stool, adjustable seat without a back used when playing a piano.

mu-si-cal /'mju:zɪkl/ adj of, fond of, skilled in, music: She's not at all ~, does not enjoy or understand music. □ n [C] 1 musical comedy. 2 cinema film in which music and singing have an essential part.

'musical 'comedy, light, amusing play with songs and dancing.

'musical 'instrument, used to play music, eg the piano, violin, flute.

mu-si-cally /-kli/ adv mu-si-cian /'mju:zɪfn/ n [C] person skilled in playing music; composer of music.

musk /mʌsk/ n [U] 1 strong-smelling substance produced in glands by male deer, used in the manufacture of perfumes. 2 kinds of plant with a smell like musk.

'musk-rat, (also musquash) large water animal of N America, like a rat, valuable for its fur.

'musk-rose, rambling rose with large, sweet-smelling flowers.

musky adj (-ier, -iest) having the smell of musk.

mus-ket /'mʌskɪt/ n [C] light gun used by foot-soldiers (16th to 19th centuries) now replaced by the rifle.

mus-ket-eer /'mʌskɪtɪə(r)/, soldier armed with a musket.

Mus-lim /'mʊzlm/ n believer in Islam; (used as an adjective) of Islam: ~ holidays.

mus-lin /'mʌzlm/ n [U] thin, fine, cotton cloth, used for dresses, curtains, etc.

mus-quash /'mʌskwɒʃ/ n [C,U] (fur of the) musk-rat.

mus-sel /'mʌsl/ n [C] (sorts of) mollusc with a black shell, eaten as food.

must¹ /mʌst/ n [U] grape-juice before fermentation has changed it into wine.

must² /mʌst/ strong form: mast/ auxiliary verb (No infinitive, no participles, no inflected forms; must not may be contracted to mustn't /'mʌsnt/) 1 (expressing an immediate or future obligation or necessity; must not expresses a prohibition): You ~ do as you're told. Cars ~ not be parked in front of the entrance. We ~n't be late. (Note: compare the use of may to express permission and of need not to express non-obligation. Compare the use of had to for a past obligation and shall/will have to for a future obligation.) 2 (used to show what was necessary or obligatory at a time in the past): As he had broken it, he agreed that he ~ buy a new one. 3 (with less emphasis on necessity; stressing what is desirable or advisable): I ~ ask you not to do that again. 4 (expressing certainty): If you try hard, you ~ win (= will certainly win) eventually. 5 (expressing strong probability): You ~ be hungry after your long walk. You ~ be joking! You can't be serious! 6 (indicating something unwelcome): M~ you worry her with questions, just when she is busy cooking the dinner! □ n [C] (informal) something that must be done, seen, heard, etc: Tom Stoppard's new play is a ~.

mus-tache n ⇨ moustache.

mus-tard /'mʌstɑd/ n [U] 1 plant with yellow flowers and seeds (black or white) in long, slender pods. 2 fine, yellow powder made from the seeds of this plant; this powder made into hot sauce. as keen as mustard, very keen.

mus-ter /'mʌstə(r)/ n [C] assembly or gathering of persons, esp for review or inspection. pass muster, be considered satisfactory. □ vt, vi call, collect or gather together: Go and ~ all the men you can find. They ~ed (up) all their courage.

musty /'mʌsti/ adj (-ier, -iest) 1 stale; smelling or tasting mouldy: a ~ room/book. 2 (fig) out-of-date: a professor with ~ ideas.

musti-ness /'mʌstɪnəs/ n [U] mu-table /'mju:təbl/ adj (formal) liable to change; likely to change.

mu-ta-bil-ity /'mju:təbɪləti/ n [U] mu-ta-tion /'mju:'teɪʃn/ n [U] change; alteration; [C] instance of this: Are ~s in plants caused by cosmic rays?

mute /'mju:t/ adj 1 silent; making no sound: staring at me in ~ amazement. 2 (of a person) dumb. 3 (of a letter in a word) not sounded: The 'b' in 'dumb' is ~. □ n [C] 1 dumb person. 2 piece of bone or metal used to soften the sounds produced from a stringed instrument; pad placed in the mouth of a wind instrument for the same purpose. □ vt muffle the sound of (esp a musical instrument).

mu-ti-late /'mju:tɪleɪt/ US: -təl- vt damage by breaking, tearing or cutting off a necessary part; destroy the use of (a limb, etc).

mu-ti-la-tion /'mju:trɪleɪʃn/ n [U] mutilating or being mutilated; [C] injury or loss caused by this.

mu-ti-nous /'mju:tɪnəs/ adj guilty of mutiny; rebellious: ~ sailors.

mu-tiny /'mju:tɪni/ US: -təni/ n (pl -ies) [U] (esp of soldiers and sailors) open rebellion against lawful authority; [C] instance of this. □ vi (pt, pp -ied) be guilty of mutiny.

mu-tin-eer /'mju:trɪnə(r)/, person guilty of mutiny.

mut-ter /'mʌtə(r)/ vt, vi speak in a low voice not meant to be heard; grumble in an indistinct voice: He was ~ing away to himself. □ n [C] muttered speech or sound.

mut-terer, person who mutters.

mut-ton /'mʌtən/ n [U] flesh of fully grown sheep, eaten as food.

mu-tual /'mju:tʃuəl/ adj 1 (of love, friendship, respect, etc) shared; (of feelings, opinions, etc) held in common with others: ~ suspicion/affection. 2 each to the other(s); reciprocal: ~ aid. 3 common to two or more persons: our ~ friend Smith, ie a friend of both of us.

mu-tual-ly /-tʃəl/ adv

muzzle /'mʌzl/ n [C] 1 nose and mouth of an animal (eg dog or fox). 2 guard of straps or wires placed over this to prevent biting, etc. 3 open end or mouth of a firearm: a ~-loading gun. □ vt 1 put a muzzle on (a dog, etc). 2 (fig) prevent (a person, society, newspaper, etc) from expressing opinions freely.

muzzy /'mʌzi/ adj (-ier, -iest) (of a person, thoughts) confused; stupid from drinking.

my /maɪ/ possessive adj 1 belonging to me: Where's ~ hat? 2 (as a part of a form of address): Yes, ~ dear. M~ dear Anne, ... 3 (used in exclamations): M~ goodness!

my-col-ogy /maɪ'kɒlədʒi/ n [U] science or study of fungi.

my-nah (also my-na) /'mama/ n [C] (kinds of) starling of SE Asia, known for their ability to copy human speech.

my-opia /maɪ'əpiə/ n [U] short-sight.

my-opic /maɪ'ɒpɪk/ adj short-sighted.

myr-iad /'maɪriəd/ n [C] very great number (of).

myrrh /mɜ:(r)/ n [U] sweet-smelling, bitter-tasting kind of gum or resin obtained from shrubs, used for making incense and perfumes.

myrtle /'mɜ:tl/ n [C] (kinds of) evergreen shrub with shiny leaves and sweet-smelling white flowers.

my-self /maɪ'self/ pron 1 (reflexive): I hurt ~. (all) by myself, (a) alone. (b) without help. 2 (used for emphasis): I said so ~. 3 I'm not ~ today, am not in my normal state of health or mind.

mys-ter-i-ous /mɪ'stəriəs/ adj full of, suggesting, mystery: a ~ visitor; a ~-looking parcel.

mys-ter-i-ous-ly adv

mys-tery /'mɪstəri/ n (pl -ies) 1 [C] something of which the cause or origin is hidden or impossible to understand: The murder remained an unsolved ~. 2 [U] condition of being secret or obscure: The origin of this tribe is lost in ~. It has been impossible to learn anything about it. 3 (pl) secret religious rites and ceremonies.

'mystery (play), medieval drama based on episodes in the life of Jesus.

mys-tic /'mɪstɪk/ adj of hidden meaning or spiritual power; causing feelings of awe and wonder: ~ rites and ceremonies. □ n [C] person who seeks union with God and, through that, realization of truth beyond men's understanding.

mys-ti-cal /'mɪstɪkl/ adj = mystic.

mys-ti-cism /'mɪstɪsɪzəm/ n [U] beliefs, experiences, of a mystic; teaching and belief that knowledge of God and of real truth may be obtained through meditation.

mystify /'mɪstɪfaɪ/ vt (pt, pp -ied) puzzle; bewilder.

mystification /'mɪstɪfɪ'keɪʃn/ n [U] mystifying or being mystified; [C] something that mystifies.

mystique /mɪ'sti:k/ n [C] 1 puzzling atmosphere, impressive character of a person, institution, etc caused by devotion and veneration: the ~ of the monarchy in Great Britain. 2 secret skill, etc known only to the practitioner (of an art, etc).

myth /mɪθ/ n 1 [C] story, handed down from olden times, eg ideas or beliefs about the early history of a race, explanations of natural events, etc. 2 [U] such stories collectively: famous in ~ and legend. 3 [C] person, thing, etc that is imaginary or invented: That rich uncle of whom he boasts is only a ~.

mythical /'mɪθɪkl/ adj (a) of, existing only in, myth: ~ical heroes. (b) imaginary: ~ical wealth.

mythology /mɪ'thɒlədʒi/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] study or science of myths. 2 [U] myths collectively: Greek ~; [C] body or collection of myths: the mythologies of primitive races.

mythological /'mɪθə'lɒdʒɪkl/ adj of mythology; unreal.

myxomatosis /'mɪksəmə'təʊsɪs/ n [U] infectious fatal disease of rabbits.

Nn

N, n /en/ (pl N's, n's /enz/) 1 the 14th letter of the English alphabet. 2 (maths) indefinite number.

nab /næb/ vt (-bb-) (informal) catch (eg a thief, etc): be ~bed by the police.

nadir /'neɪdɪ(r)/ n [C] (fig) lowest, weakest, point: at the ~ of one's hopes. ⇨ zenith.

nag¹ /næg/ n [C] (informal) small horse.

nag² /næg/ vt, vi (-gg-) find fault with continuously: She ~ged (at) him all day long.

nagger, person who nags.

nail /neɪl/ n [C] 1 layer of hard substance over the outer tip of a finger (finger-nail) or toe (toe-nail). fight tooth and nail, ⇨ fight². 2 piece of metal, pointed at one end and with a head at the other, (to be) hammered into articles to hold them together, or into a wall, etc. as hard as nails, (of a person) (a) in a first-rate physical condition. (b) pitiless; unsympathetic. hit the nail on the head, ⇨ hit(1). □ vt 1 make fast with a nail: ~ a lid on a box; ~ down a carpet. nail sb down (to sth), make him say clearly what he intends to do. 2 keep fixed (a person, his attention, etc): He ~ed me in the corridor.

nail-brush, for cleaning nails(1).

nail-file, small, flat file for shaping nails(1).

nail-scissors, for trimming nails(1).

nail-varnish/polish, for giving a shiny colour to nails(1).

naïve, (also naive) /naɪ'vi:/ adj natural and innocent in speech and behaviour (eg because young or inexperienced): a ~ girl; ~ remarks.

naïvely adv

naïveté, naivety /naɪ'vɪti/ n [U] being naïve; [C] naïve remark, etc.

naked /'neɪkɪd/ adj 1 without clothes on: as ~ as the day he was born. 2 without the usual covering: a ~ light, without a lampshade, etc. see sth with the naked eye, without using a microscope, telescope or other aid. the naked truth, not disguised.

nakedly adv

nakedness n [U]

name¹ /neɪm/ n 1 [C] word(s) by which a person, animal, place, thing, etc is known and spoken to or of: The teacher knows all the pupils in his class by ~. in the name of, (a) with the authority of: Stop in the ~ of the law! (b) in the cause of (used when making an appeal): In the ~ of common sense, what are you doing? call sb names, call him insulting names (eg liar, coward). not have a penny to one's name, be without money. take sb's name in vain, use a name disrespectfully. 2 (sing only) reputation; fame: have a ~ for being honest. make/win a name for oneself, become well-known. 3 [C] famous person: the great ~s of history.

name-day, (a) day of the Saint whose name one was given at christening. (b) Saint's Day (in the RC Church).

name-dropping, the practice of casually mentioning the names of important people (as if they were friends) to impress people. Hence, name-drop vi (-pp-).

name-sake, person or thing with the same name as another.

name² /neɪm/ vt 1 give a name to: They ~d the child John. ⇨ first/given name. name sb after sb, give him the same name. 2 say the names(s) of: Can you ~ all the plants and trees in this garden? 3 make an offer of (price, etc): N~ your price, Say what price you want. 4 state (what is desired, etc): Please ~ the day, say on what date you will be willing to (eg marry). 5 nominate for, appoint to, a position: Mr X has been ~d for the directorship.

nameless /'neɪmlɪs/ adj 1 not having a name; having an unknown name: a ~ grave; a well-known person who shall be ~, whose name I shall not mention. 2 too bad to be named: ~ vices.

name-ly /'neɪmlɪ/ adv that is to say: Only one boy was absent, ~ Harry.

nanny /'næni/ n [C] (pl -ies) woman employed by rich people to look after their babies and young children.

nanny-goat /'næni gəʊt/ n [C] female goat.
 ⇨ billy-goat.

nap¹ /næp/ n [C] short sleep (esp during the day, not necessarily in bed): have/take a ~ after lunch. □ vi (-pp-) (rare, except in) catch sb napping. (a) find him asleep, being lazy. (b) catch him unawares.

nap² /næp/ n [U] surface of cloth, felt, etc made of soft, short hairs or fibres.

na-palm /'næpɑ:m/ n [U] jellied petroleum used in making fire-bombs.

nape /neɪp/ n [C] back of the neck.

nap-kin /'næpkɪn/ n [C] 1 ('table ~), piece of cloth used at meals for protecting clothing, for wiping the lips, etc. 2 = nappy (the usual word).

'napkin-ring, ring for a person's napkin(1).

nappy /'næpi/ n [C] (pl -ies) towel folded round a baby's bottom and between its legs, to absorb excreta.

nar-cissus /nɑ:'sɪsəs/ n [C] (pl ~es or -cissi /-sɪsaɪ/) sorts of bulb plant (daffodil, etc), esp the kind having heavily scented white or yellow flowers in the spring.

nar-cotic /nɑ:'kɒtɪk/ n [C], adj 1 (kinds of drug) producing sleep, often dulling the senses and, in large doses, producing complete insensibility: Opium is a ~ (drug). 2 (person) addicted to narcotics.

nar-rate /nɑ'reɪt/ vt tell (a story); give an account of: ~ one's adventures.

nar-ra-tion /nɑ'reɪʃn/ n [U] the telling of a story, etc; [C] story; account of events, etc.

nar-rator /-tə(r)/, person who narrates.

nar-ra-tive /'nærətɪv/ n 1 [C] story or tale; orderly account of events; [U] (composition that consists of) story-telling. 2 (used as an adjective) in the form of, concerned with, story-telling: ~ literature, stories and novels; ~ poems.

nar-row /'nærəʊ/ adj (-er, -est) (opposite of wide) 1 measuring little across in comparison with length: a ~ bridge. 2 small, limited: a ~ circle of friends. 3 with a small margin: a ~ escape from death; elected by a ~ majority. 4 strict; exact: What does the word mean in the ~est sense? 5 limited in outlook; having little sympathy for the ideas, etc, of others. □ n (usually pl) narrow strait or channel between two larger bodies of water; narrow place in a river or pass. □ vt, vi (cause to) become narrow.

'narrow-minded adj not sympathizing with the ideas of others.

'narrow-mindedly adv

'narrow-mindedness n [U] nar-row-ly adv only just; with little to spare: He ~ly escaped drowning.

nar-row-ness n [U] na-sal /'neɪz/ adj of, for, in, the nose: ~ sounds, eg /m, n, ŋ/. □ n [C] nasal sound.

na-sal-ize (also -ise) /'neɪzəlaɪz/ vt make (a sound) with the breath, or part of it, passing through the nose.

nas-tur-tium /nə'stɜ:tʃəm/ US: næ-/ n [C] (pl ~s) garden plant with red, orange or yellow flowers and round leaves.

nasty /'nɑ:sti/ US: 'næ-/ adj (-ier, -iest) 1 dirty; disgusting; unpleasant: medicine with a ~ smell and a nastier taste. 2 immoral: a man with a ~ mind. 3 unpleasant: a ~ temper/look in his eye. a nasty piece of work, (informal) unpleasant person. 4 causing difficulty or danger; awkward: That's a ~ question, an awkward one.

nas-tily /-əli/ adv

nas-ti-ness n [U] na-tal /'neɪtl/ adj of, from, birth.

na-tion /'neɪʃn/ n [C] large community of people associated with a particular territory usually speaking a single language and having a society under one government: the United Nations Organization.

'na-tion-wide adj (a) throughout a nation. (b) concerning, expressed by, all citizens.

na-tional /'næʃənl/ adj of the (whole) nation; of a particular nation: a ~ theatre, one supported by the State; ~ pride, expressed by all citizens. □ n [C] citizen of a particular nation: British ~s in Spain.

'national anthem, song or hymn of a nation (eg 'God Save the Queen' in GB).

'national insurance, (GB) State contributions from earnings, used for health, pensions, unemployment pay, etc.

'national park, public area of land for the use and enjoyment of the people.

'national service, period of compulsory service in the armed forces.

'National Trust, (in GB) society founded in 1895 to preserve places of natural beauty or historic interest for the nation.

na-tion-ally /'næʃənəli/ adv

na-tion-al-ism /'næʃənəlizəm/ n [U] 1 patriotic feelings, efforts, principles. 2 movement for political (economic, etc) independence (in a country controlled by another).

na-tion-al-ist /'næʃənəlist/ n [C] supporter of nationalism(2): Scottish ~. □ adj (also na-tion-al-ist-ic /'næʃənəlistɪk/) favouring, supporting, nationalism.

na-tion-al-ity /'næʃənəliɪti/ n [C,U] (pl -ies) being a member of a nation: What is your ~?

na-tion-al-ize (also -ise) /'næʃənəlaɪz/ vt 1 transfer from private to State ownership: ~ the railways. 2 make (a person) a national: ~ d Greeks in Great Britain. 3 make into a nation: The Czechs were ~d after the war of 1914-18, became an independent nation.

na-tion-al-iza-tion (also -isation) /'næʃənəlaɪzəʃn/ US: -lɪz/ n [U] na-tive /'nætv/ n [C] 1 person born in a place, country, etc and associated with it by right of birth: a ~ of London/Wales/India/Kenya. 2 animal or plant natural to and having its origin in a certain area: The kangaroo is a ~ of Australia. □ adj 1 associated with the place and circumstances of one's birth: my ~ land. 2 of the natives of a place, esp non-European: ~ customs. 3 (of qualities) belonging to a person by nature, not acquired through training, by education, etc: ~ ability/charm. 4 native to, (of plants, animals, etc) having their origin in: One of the animals ~ to India is the tiger. 5 (of metals) found in a pure state, uncombined with other substances: ~ gold.

na-tiv-ity /'nætvət/ n [C] (pl -ies) birth, esp (the N~) of Jesus Christ.

Na-tivity Play, one about the Nativity.

nat-ter /'nætə(r)/ vi (informal) grumble, chatter, (esp to oneself): What's she ~ing (on) about now?

natu-ral /'nætʃrəl/ adj 1 of, concerned with, produced by, nature: animals living in their ~ (= wild) state; a country's ~ resources, its minerals, forests, etc. 2 of, in agreement with, the nature(4) of a living thing: ~ gifts/abilities. 3 (of persons) born with qualities or powers: He's a ~ orator, makes speeches easily. It comes ~ to her. 4 ordinary; normal; to be expected: It is ~ for a bird to fly. 5 not cultivated, exaggerated or self-conscious: speak in a ~ voice. 6 (music) of the normal scale of C; neither sharp nor flat. □ n [C] 1 (music) natural(6) note. 2 a natural (for sth), (informal) person naturally expert or qualified: He's a ~ for the job/the part.

natural childbirth, without anaesthesia.

natural death, from age or disease, not as the result of an accident, murder, etc.

natural forces/phe/nomena, the forces of nature, eg storms, thunder, lightning.

natural gas, gas for fuel occurring with petroleum deposits, not manufactured.

natural history, botany and zoology.

natural life, duration of one's life on earth.

natural science, study of the natural world, eg biology, chemistry, geology.

natural selection, evolutionary theory that animals and plants survive or become extinct in accordance with their ability to adapt themselves to their environment.

natu-ral-ism /'nætʃrəlizəm/ n [U] 1 accurate representation of nature in literature and art; drawing and painting of things in a way true to nature. 2 system of thought which rejects the supernatural and divine revelation and holds that natural causes and laws explain all phenomena.

natu-ral-ist /'nætʃrəlist/ n [C] 1 person who makes a special study of animals or plants. 2 believer in naturalism.

natu-ral-is-tic /'nætʃrəlistik/ adj of naturalism: a ~ painter. ⇨ abstract art.

natu-ral-ize (also -ise) /'nætʃrəlaɪz/ vt, vi 1 give (a person from another country) rights of citizenship: ~ immigrants into the US. 2 take (a word) from one language into another: English sporting terms have been ~d in many languages, eg 'football'. 3 introduce and acclimatize (an animal or plant) into another (part of a) country.

natu-ral-ization (also -isation) /'nætʃrəlaɪzəʃn/ US: -lɪz-/n [U] nat-ur-ally /'nætʃrəli/ adv 1 by nature(4): She's ~ musical. 2 of course; as might be expected: 'Did you answer her letter?' — 'N~'. 3 without artificial help, special cultivation, etc: Her hair curls ~. 4 without exaggeration, pretence, etc: She speaks and behaves ~.

na-ture /'nætʃə(r)/ n 1 [U] the whole universe and every created thing: Is ~ at its best in spring? 2 [U] force(s) controlling what happens or exists in the physical world: Miracles are contrary to ~. 3 [U] simple life without civilization: a return to ~, to the simple and primitive life before mankind became civilized. 4 [C, U] qualities and characteristics, physical, mental and spiritual, which naturally belong to a person or thing: It is the ~ of a dog to bark. ⇨ human nature; good/ill-natured. 5 essential qualities of things: Chemists study the ~ of gases. 6 sort, kind: Things of this ~ do not interest me.

'nature cure, treatment of disease using natural remedies (sunlight, diet, exercise).

'nature study, (at school) the study of animals, plants, etc.

na-tur-ism /'nætʃərizəm/ n [U] = nudism.

na-tur-ist /-ɪst/ n [C] = nudist (the more usual word).

naught /nɔ:t/ n nothing, esp in the phrases: care naught for, have no interest in; consider worthless. come to naught, fail.

naughty /'nɔ:tɪ/ adj (-ier, -iest) 1 (of children, their behaviour, etc) bad; wrong; disobedient; causing trouble. 2 taking pleasure in shocking, intended to shock, people: ~ stories; ~ words, swear words.

naught-ily /-əli/ adv

naughti-ness n [U] nausea /'nɔ:sɪə/ US: 'nɔ:ʃə/ n [U] feeling of sickness or disgust: be overcome by/filled with ~ after eating octopus/at the sight of cruelty to animals.

nause-eate /'nɔ:sɪet/ US: 'nɔ:ʒ-/ vt cause nausea: a nauseating sight.

naus-eous /'nɔ:sɪəs/ US: 'nɔ:ʃəs/ adj nauti-cal /'nɔ:tɪkl/ adj of ships, sailors or navigation: ~ terms, used by sailors.

nautical mile, sixtieth of a degree(1), 2025 yards (= 1852 metres).

na-val /'nɛvəl/ adj of a navy; of warships: ~ officers/battles.

nave /neɪv/ n [C] central part of a church where the people sit.

navel /'neɪvl/ n [C] mark in the surface of the belly (left by the detachment of the umbilical cord).

navi-gable /'nævɪɡəbl/ adj 1 (of rivers, seas, etc) suitable for ships: The Rhine is ~ from Strasbourg to the sea. 2 (of ships, etc) that can be steered and sailed: not in a ~ condition.

navi-gate /'nævɪɡeɪt/ vt, vi 1 plot the course, find the position, etc of a ship or aircraft, using charts and instruments. 2 steer (a ship); pilot (an aircraft). 3 sail over (a sea); sail up or down (a river). 4 (fig) direct: ~ a Bill through the House of Commons.

navi-gator /-tə(r)/, (a) person who navigates (1). (b) sailor with skill and experience who has taken part in many voyages.

navi-ga-tion /'nævɪ'geɪʃn/ n [U] 1 the act, science, of navigating. 2 the making of voyages on water or of journeys through the air.

navy /'neɪvi/ n [C] (pl -ies) 1 a country's warships. 2 the officers and men of a country's warships: join the ~.

navy blue, dark blue.

neap /ni:p/ n [C] (also ~-tide) tide when high water is at its lowest level of the year.

Ne-an-der-thal /ni:'ændətəl/ adj (also ~ man), extinct type of man of the stone age.

Nea-poli-tan /'ni:ə'pɒlɪtən/ n, adj 1 (inhabitant) of Naples. 2 (small n) with many flavours and colours: ~ ice-cream.

near¹ /nɪə(r)/ adj (-er, -est) 1 not far from; close in space or time: The post office is quite ~. near to, close to; almost: She was ~ to tears. a near miss, (also fig) not on target but close enough to cause damage. a near thing, a narrow escape (from an accident, etc). 2 close in relation or affection: a ~ relation, eg a mother, a son; friends who are ~ and dear to us. 3 (contrasted with off) (of parts of animals and vehicles, etc) the left side: the ~ foreleg; the ~ front wheel of a car. □ vt, vi come or draw near (to); approach: The ship was ~ing land. He's ~ing his end, is dying.

near-ness n [U]

near² /nɪə(r)/ adv not far; to or at a short distance in space or time: We searched far and ~ (= everywhere) for the missing child. as near as, as closely as: As ~ as I can guess there were forty people present. as near as makes no difference, with no difference worth considering: They're the same height, or as ~ as makes no difference. near at hand, □ hand¹ (1). nowhere near, not nearly: She's nowhere ~ as old as her husband. near by, not far away: A good restaurant is ~ by.

Near East, variant of Middle East.

near-side, side nearest the kerb: the ~side lane of traffic.

near-sighted adj = short-sighted (which is more usual).

near³ /nɪə(r)/ prep (= near to) close to (in space, time, relationship, etc): Come and sit ~ me.

near-by /'nɪəbaɪ/ adj not far away: a ~ restaurant. □ near by at near².

near-ly /'nɪəli/ adv 1 almost: It's ~ one o'clock. I'm ~ ready. □ hardly, scarcely. 2 closely: We're ~ related, are near relations. 3 not nearly, not at all near: I have £20, but that isn't ~ enough for my fare.

neat /ni:t/ adj (-er, -est except 5 below) 1 (liking to have everything) tidy; done carefully: a ~ worker; ~ writing. 2 simple and pleasant: a ~ dress. 3 pleasing in appearance: a woman with a ~ figure. 4 cleverly said or done: a ~ reply/conjuring trick. 5 (of wines and spirits) undiluted: drink one's whisky ~.

neat-ly adv

neat-ness n [U]

neath /ni:θ/ prep (poetic) beneath.

neb-ula /'nebjulə/ n [C] (pl ~e /-li:/) group of very distant stars, mass of gas, seen in the night sky as a patch of light.

nebu-lar /-lə(r)/ adj of nebulae.

nebu-lous /'nebjuləs/ adj 1 = nebular. 2 like clouds; hazy. 3 (fig) without form; vague: a ~ argument.

neces-sar-ily /'nesə'serəli/ adv as a necessary result: Big men are not ~ strong men.

neces-sary /'nesəsəri/ US: -səri/ adj which has to be done; which must be; which cannot be avoided: Sleep is ~ to health. Is that really ~? Is it ~ to play your records so loudly?

necessi-tate /'nɪsɪsɪteɪt/ vt (formal) make necessary: The increase in population ~s a greater food supply.

necess-ity /'nɪsɪsəti/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] urgent need; circumstances that make a person do something: He was driven by ~ to steal food for his starving children. of necessity, unavoidably. 2 (obligation regarded as a) natural law that directs human life, the universe, etc. 3 [C] something that is indispensable: the necessities of life, food, clothing and shelter. 4 [C] something which must be or happen: Is it a logical ~ that prices go up if wages go up?

neck¹ /nek/ n [C] 1 part of the body that connects the head and the shoulders: wrap a scarf round one's ~. neck and neck, side by side, level, in a race or struggle: a pain in the neck. □ pain (2). break one's neck, (fig) work extremely hard (to achieve something). □ breakneck. risk one's neck, (informal) do something dangerous. stick one's neck out, (informal) do or say something at the risk of severe criticism, pain, etc. talk through (the back of) one's neck, talk, argue, foolishly. 2 flesh of an animal's neck as used for food: ~ of lamb. 3 something like a neck in shape or position: the ~ of a bottle; a narrow ~ of land; the ~ of a guitar.

neck-lace /-lɪs/, string of beads, pearls, etc worn round the neck as an ornament.

'neck-let /-lɪt/, ornament (eg of beads) for the neck.

'neck-line, (of fashions for women's clothes) line or edge at or near the neck.

'neck-tie, (tie is the usual word) band of material worn under a collar and knotted in front.

neck² /nek/ vi (sf) (of young couples of opposite sex) exchange kisses, caresses and hugs: ~ing in the park.

nec-tar /'nektə(r)/ n [U] 1 (in Greek myth) the drink of the gods. ⇨ ambrosia. 2 sweet liquid in flowers, collected by bees. 3 (fig) any delicious drink.

nec-tar-ine /'nektərɪn/ n [C] kind of peach with thin, smooth skin and firm flesh.

née /nei/ adj (Fr) born (put after the name of a married woman and before her father's family name): Mrs J Smith, ~ Brown.

need¹ /ni:d/ n 1 [U] circumstances in which something is absent when it is necessary or requires some course of action: There's no ~ (for you) to start yet. There's a great ~ for a book on this subject. if need be, if necessary. 2 (pl) something felt to be necessary: My ~s are few. 3 [U] poverty; misfortune; bad circumstances: He helped me in my hour of ~.

needy adj (-ier, -iest) very poor: help the poor and ~y.

need² /ni:d/ auxiliary verb (no infinitive, no participles, 3rd person sing present tense needs; need not may be contracted to needn't /'ni:dnt/) 1 be obliged; be necessary: N~ you go yet? No, I ~n't. 2 (indicating that although something may have occurred or been done in the past, it was or may have been unnecessary): N~ it have happened? We ~n't have hurried, We hurried but now we see that this was unnecessary.

need-ful /-fl/ adj necessary: do what is ~ful.

need-fully /-fəli/ adv

need-less adj unnecessary: ~less work/trouble. Needless to say... It is not necessary to say or add...

need-less-ly adv

need³ /ni:d/ vt 1 want; require: Does he ~ any help? I'm here if you ~ me. 2 be under a necessity or obligation: I agree that they ~ to be told about the arrangement. 3 deserve; ought to have: What he ~s is a slap!

needle /'ni:dl/ n [C] 1 small, thin piece of polished steel, pointed at one end and with a small hole at the other end for thread, used in sewing and darning. look for a needle in a haystack, search hopelessly. as sharp as a needle, very observant. ⇨ pins and needles. 2 long, thin piece of polished wood, bone or metal (without an eye), with a pointed end (for knitting) or a hook (for crocheting). 3 thin steel pointer in a compass, showing magnetic north; similar pointer in a telegraphic instrument. 4 something like a needle(1) in shape, appearance or use (eg the thin, pointed leaves of pine-trees; a sharp, pointed peak or rocky summit; the long, sharp, end of a syringe used for giving injections). 5 stylus used in recording and playing records. 6 tall slender monument: Cleopatra's ~, in London. □ vt 1 sew, pierce, operate on, with a needle. 2 (informal) annoy, make angry.

'needle-craft/-work, sewing; embroidery.

needs /'ni:dz/ adv (now used only with must) needs must, circumstances may compel us (to do something). must needs, (dated) foolishly insists or insisted: He must ~ go away just when I want his help.

ne'er /neə(r)/ adv (poetic) never.

ne'er-do-well /'neə du: wel/ n [C] (dated) useless person.

ne-gate /nɪ'geɪt/ vt (formal) deny; make null and void.

ne-ga-tion /nɪ'geɪʃn/ n [U] 1 act of denying, refusing: Shaking the head is a sign of ~. 2 absence of any positive or real quality or meaning.

ne-ga-tive /'negətɪv/ adj 1 (of words and answers) showing no or not: give a ~ answer. ⇨ affirmative. 2 expressing the absence of any positive character; that stops, hinders or makes powerless: ~ criticism, that does not help by making constructive suggestions. ⇨ positive(3). 3 (maths) (of a number or quantity) less than zero, to be subtracted from others. 4 (electricity) of the sort carried by electrons: the ~ plate in a battery. ⇨ positive(6). 5 (photography) having the lights and shades of the actual scene reversed: ~ film. □ n [C] 1 word or statement that denies: 'No', 'not' and 'neither' are ~s. The answer is 'the', is 'No'. 2 (maths) minus quantity (eg $-5x$). 3 developed film etc on which lights and shades are reversed. □ vt 1 prove (a theory, etc) to be untrue: Experiments ~d his theory. 2 reject; refuse to accept; neutralize (an effect).

ne-ga-tive-ly adv

ne-glect /nɪ'glekt/ vt 1 pay no attention to; give no or not enough care to: ~ing one's studies/children/health. 2 omit or fail (to do something): He ~ed to say 'Thank you'. □ n [U] neglecting or being neglected: ~ of duty. The garden was in a state of ~.

ne-glect-ful /-fl/ adj in the habit of neglecting things: ~ful of her appearance.

nég-ligé, neg-li-gee /'neglɪʒe/ US: /'neglɪʒeɪ/ n [C,U] loose, informal, often transparent, dress.

neg-li-gence /'neglɪdʒəns/ n [U] 1 carelessness; failure to take proper care or precautions: The accident was due to ~. 2 neglected condition or appearance.

neg-li-gent /'neglɪdʒənt/ adj taking too little care; guilty of neglect: He was ~ in his work/~ of his duties.

neg-li-gent-ly adv
neg-li-gible /'neglɪdʒəbl/ adj of little or no importance or size: a ~ quantity.
ne-go-ti-able /nɪ'gəʊjəbl/ adj 1 that can be negotiated (2): Is the dispute ~? 2 that can be changed into cash, or passed from person to person instead of cash: ~ securities, eg cheques. 3 (of roads, rivers, etc) that can be passed over or along.
ne-go-ti-ate /nɪ'gəʊtɪət/ vi, vt 1 discuss, confer, in order to come to an agreement: We've decided to ~ with the employers about our wage claims. 2 arrange by discussion: negotiating a sale/a loan/a treaty/peace. 3 get or give money for (cheques, etc). 4 get past or over: This is a difficult corner for any car to ~. ne-go-ti-ator /-tə(r)/, person who negotiates.
ne-go-ti-ation /nɪ'gəʊtɪ'eɪʃn/ n [C, U] negotiating: enter into/start/carry on ~s with him. Price is a matter of ~.
Ne-gress /'ni:grɪs/ n [C] Negro woman or girl.
Ne-gro /'ni:grəʊ/ n [C] (pl ~es) member (or, outside Africa, descendant) of one of the black African races south of the Sahara.
Ne-groid /'ni:grɔɪd/ adj of Negroes or the Negro race. □ n [C] = Negro (the usual word). neigh /nei/ vi, n [C] (make the) cry of a horse.
neigh-bour (US = -bor) /'neɪbə(r)/ n [C] 1 person living in a house, street, etc near another: We're nextdoor ~s. Our houses are side by side. 2 person, thing or country that is near(est) another: Britain's nearest ~ is France.
neigh-bour-ing adj nearby; next door: ~ing countries/villages.
neigh-bour-ly (US = -bor-) adj kind; friendly. neigh-bour-li-ness (US = -bor-) n [U] friendly feeling, help.
neigh-bour-hood (US = -bor-) /'neɪbəhʊd/ n [C] 1 (people living in a) district; area near the place, etc referred to: There's some beautiful scenery in our ~. He lives in the ~ of London. 2 condition of being near: He lost a sum in the ~ of £500.
nei-ther /'neɪðə(r)/ US: 'ni:ð-/ adj, pron (used with a sing noun or pron) not one nor the other (of two): N~ statement is true. In ~ case can I agree. ♡ either. □ adv, conj 1 neither... nor, not one or the other: He ~ knows nor cares what happened. N~ you nor I could do it. 2 (after a negative if-clause, etc): If you don't go, ~ shall I. A: 'I don't like it.' - B: 'N~ do I.'
neo- /ni:əʊ/ prefix new; revived, later: neo-classical.
neo-col-oni-al-ism /ni:əʊ kə'ləʊniəlɪzəm/ n [U] colonialist policies of imperialist countries to preserve supremacy in former colonies.
neo-lithic /ni:ə'liθɪk/ adj of the new or later stone age: ~ man.
neon /'ni:n/ n [U] colourless gas occurring in small proportions in the earth's atmosphere. .

neon light, orange-red light produced when an electric current passes through this gas.
neon sign, advertisement, etc in which neon light is used.
nephew /'nevju:/ US: 'nefju:/ n [C] son of one's brother or sister.
nep-ot-ism /'nepəʊtɪzəm/ n [U] the giving of special favour to his relatives (esp employment) by a person in high position.
Nep-tune /'neptju:n/ US: -tu:n/ n 1 (Roman god of) the sea. 2 one of the farthest planets of the solar system.
nerve /nɜ:v/ n 1 [C] fibre or bundle of fibres carrying impulses of feeling and motion between the brain and all parts of the body. 2 (pl) condition of being easily excited, worried, irritated: He is suffering from ~s. a bundle of nerves, very nervous person. get on one's nerves, annoy: That noise/man gets on my ~s. 3 [U] quality of being bold; courage: A test pilot needs plenty of ~. have the nerve to do sth. (a) have the necessary courage, etc. (b) (informal) be impudent enough: He had the ~ to suggest that I was cheating! have a nerve, (informal) be self-assured or impudent: He's got a ~, going to work dressed like that! lose/regain one's nerve, lose/recover one's courage, etc. □ vt summon up (one's strength) (physical or moral): ~ oneself for a task.
'nerve-cell, cell that transmits impulses in nerves (1).
'nerve-centre, (a) group of nerve-cells. (b) (fig) centre of power or control.
'nerve-gas, poisonous gas that affects the nervous system.
'nerve-racking, causing great worry; needing great courage.
nerve-less adj (a) confident, not nervous. (b) without strength or spirit; without energy: The knife fell from his ~less hand.
nerve-less-ly adv
ner-vous /'nɜ:vəs/ adj 1 of the nerves (1): the ~ system. 2 easily excited, afraid, timid: Are you ~ in the dark?
'nervous 'breakdown, mental illness with exhaustion and severe loss of self-control and confidence.
'nervous 'energy, (informal) energy produced in an excitable, sometimes uncontrolled, state.
'nervous system, nerves (1) and nerve-centres as a whole.
ner-vous-ly adv
ner-vous-ness n [U]
ner-vy /'nɜ:vɪ/ adj (informal) suffering from nervous (2) strain.
ness /nes/ n [C] (usually in place names) headland.
-ness /-nis/ suffix (adjective + ~ = noun) a quality, state, character: dryness; silliness.

nest /nest/ n [C] 1 place made or chosen by a bird for its eggs. 2 place in which certain living things have and keep their young: a 'wasps' ~. 3 comfortable place: make a ~ of cushions. 4 number of like things (esp boxes, tables) fitting one inside another. 5 (fig) shelter; hiding-place; secluded retreat: a ~ of crime/vice/pirates. □ vi make and use a nest: The swallows are ~ing in the woodshed.

'nest-egg, (fig) sum of money saved for future use.

nestle /'nesl/ vt, vi 1 settle comfortably and warmly: ~ (down) among the cushions. 2 press oneself lovingly to: The child was nestling closely against ~d up to her mother.

nest-ling /'nestlɪŋ/ n [C] bird too young to leave the nest.

net¹ /net/ n [U] open material of knotted string, hair, wire, etc; [C] such material made up for a special purpose: a 'hair'~; a mosquito-net, for use over a bed; 'fishing'~s; 'tennis' ~s. □ vt (-tt-) 1 catch (fish, animals, etc) with or in a net. 2 cover with a net or nets: ~ strawberries. 3 put nets in place in: ~ a river.

'net-ball, game for teams of girls or women in which a ball has to be thrown so that it falls through a net fastened to a ring on the top of a post.

'net-work (a) complex system of lines that cross: a ~work of railways/canals. (b) connected system: an intelligence/spy ~work.

net², nett /net/ adj remaining when nothing more is to be taken away: ~ price, off which discount is not to be allowed; ~ profit, when working expenses have been deducted; ~ weight, excluding the weight of the container, packing, etc. □ vt (-tt-) gain as a net profit: He ~ted £5 from the deal.

nether /'neðə(r)/ adj (archaic) lower: the ~ regions/world, the world of the dead; hell.

nett ⇨ net².

net-ting /'netɪŋ/ n [U] 1 making or using nets. 2 net of string, thread or wire.

nettle /'netl/ n [C] common wild plant which has on its leaves hairs that sting and reddens the skin when touched. □ vt 1 sting (oneself) with nettles. 2 (fig) make angry; annoy: She looked ~d by my remarks.

'nettle-rash, red patches on the skin (like those) caused by nettles.

net-work ⇨ net¹.

neur-al /'njuərəl/ US: 'nuər-/ adj of the nerves(1).

neur-al-gia /njuə'rældʒə/ US: nu-/ n [U] sharp, nervous pain, esp of the face and head.

'neur-al-gic /-dʒɪk/ adj neur-ologist /njuə'rɒlədʒɪst/ US: nu-/ n [C] expert in, student of, neurology.

neur-ol-ogy /njuə'rɒlədʒi/ US: nu-/ n [U] branch of medical science that is concerned with nerves.

neur-osis /nju'rəʊsɪs/ US: nu-/ n [C] (pl -ses /-sɪz/) disturbance in behaviour, bodily activity, etc caused by disorders of the nervous system or by something in the subconscious mind.

neur-otic /nju'rɒtɪk/ US: nu-/ adj 1 (of a person) suffering from a neurosis; abnormally sensitive, excited. 2 (of a drug) affecting the nervous system. □ n [C] neurotic person or drug.

neu-ter /'nju:tə(r)/ US: 'nu:/ adj 1 (gram) (of gender) neither feminine nor masculine. 2 (of plants) without male or female parts. 3 (of insects, eg worker ants) sexually undeveloped; sterile. □ n [C] 1 neuter noun or gender. 2 sexually undeveloped insect; castrated animal: My cat is an enormous ginger ~. □ vt castrate: a ~ed cat.

neu-tral /'nju:trəl/ US: 'nu:/ adj 1 taking neither side in a war or quarrel: ~ nations. 2 belonging to a country that remains neutral in war: ~ territory/ships. 3 having no definite characteristics; not clearly one (colour, etc) or another: ~ tints. 4 (chemistry) neither acid nor alkaline. 5 (of gear mechanism) of the position in which no power is transmitted: leave a car in ~ gear. □ n [C] 1 neutral person, country, etc. 2 neutral position of gears: slip the gears into ~.

neu-tral-ity /nju:'træləti/ US: nu:/ n [U] state of being neutral, esp in war.

neu-tral-ize (also -ise) /-aɪz/ vt (a) make neutral; declare by agreement that (a place) shall be treated as neutral in war. (b) take away the effect or special quality of, by using something with an opposite effect or quality: ~ize a poison.

neu-tral-iz-ation (also -isation) /nju:'træl-ɪz-ə'tʃən/ US: nu:'træl-ɪz-/ n [U] neu-tron /'nju:trɒn/ US: 'nu:trɒn/ n [C] particle carrying no electric charge, of about the same mass as a proton, and forming part of the nucleus of an atom.

never /'nevə(r)/ adv 1 at no time; on no occasion: He has ~ been abroad. N ~ in all my life have I heard such nonsense! Such a display has ~ been seen before. 2 (used as an emphatic substitute for not): That will ~ do, isn't good enough at all. Never mind! Don't worry!

never-more /nevə'mɔ:(r)/ adv never again.

never-the-less /nevəðə'les/ adv, conj however; in spite of that; still: There was no news; ~, she went on hoping.

new /nju: / US: nu:/ adj (-er, -est) 1 not existing before; seen, heard of, introduced, for the first time; of recent origin, growth, manufacture, etc: a ~ invention/film/novel/idea; the newest (= latest) fashions. as good as 'new', in very good condition. 2 already in existence, but only now seen, discovered, etc: learn ~ words in a foreign language. 3 new to, unfamiliar with; not yet accustomed to: I am ~ to this town. new from, recently arrived from: a typist ~ from school. 4 (with the) later, modern, having a different character. 5 beginning again: a ~ life after a divorce. □ adv (preceding, joined or hyphenated to, the word it qualifies) recently: ~born; ~laid; ~laid eggs.

'new-comer, person who has recently arrived in a place.

'new-fangled, recently in use or fashion (and, for this reason, disliked by some): ~fangled ideas.

'new Moon, (period of the) moon seen as a crescent after being invisible.

'New Testament, second part of the Bible, containing the life and teachings of Christ.

'new town, one for the population from overcrowded cities.

the New World, N and S America.

new year, coming year or one recently begun.

'New Year's Day, 1 January.

'New Year's Eve, 31 December.

new-ness n [U]

new-ly /nju:li/ US: /nu:li/ adv 1 recently: a ~ married couple. 2 in a new, different way: ~ arranged furniture.

'newly-weds n pl newly married couple(s).

news /nju:z/ US: /nu:z/ n pl (used with a sing verb) new or fresh information; report(s) of what has most recently happened: What's the latest ~? Here are the ~ headlines. Here are some interesting pieces/bits of ~. That's no ~ to me, I already know that. No news is 'good news'. Absence of information means we, you, etc can continue to be optimistic.

'news-agent, shopkeeper who sells newspapers, periodicals, etc.

'news-flash, important piece of broadcast news.

'news-letter, letter or circular sent out to members of a society, etc.

'news-paper, printed publication, usually issued daily, with news, advertisements, etc.

'news-print, paper for printing newspapers.

'news-reel, short film of news.

'news-stand, stall for the sale of newspapers, etc.

'news-worthy adj sufficiently interesting for reporting, eg in a newspaper.

newt /nju:t/ US: /nu:t/ n [C] (kinds of) small animal like a lizard which spends most of its time in the water.

next /nekst/ adj, n [U] 1 coming immediately after, in order or space: Take the ~ turning to the right. Miss Green was the ~ (person) to arrive. the next best (thing), that which is chosen or accepted if the first choice fails: There are no tickets left for the Circus: the ~ best thing is the Zoo. 2 close to; at the side of: the chair ~ to mine; sit ~ to the fire. next to nothing, scarcely anything; almost nothing:

She earns ~ to nothing. next door, ⇨ door(1). next of kin, ⇨ kin. 3 (of time; the) is needed if the reference is to a time that is future in relation to a time already mentioned: I shall go there ~ Friday/week/year. We arrived in Turin on a Monday; the ~ day we left for Rome. Is he coming this weekend (ie the coming weekend)? ~ weekend (ie the following weekend)? □ adv 1 after this/that; then: What are you going to do ~? When I ~ saw her she was dressed in green. come next, follow: What comes ~? What's the next thing (to do, etc)? 2 (used to express surprise or wonder): Whatever will he be saying ~?

nib /nɪb/ n [C] split metal part (to be) inserted in a pen-holder.

nibble /nɪbl/ vt, vi 1 take tiny bites: rabbits nibbling carrots. 2 (fig) show some willingness to accept (an offer), agree (to a suggestion, etc), but without being definite. □ n [C] act of nibbling: I felt a ~ at the bait.

nice /naɪs/ adj (-r, -st) 1 (contrary to nasty) pleasant; agreeable; kind; friendly; fine: a ~ day; ~ weather; a ~ little girl; medicine that is not very ~ to take. nice and..., pleasant because...: ~ and warm by the fire. 2 needing care and exactness; sensitive; subtle: ~ shades of meaning. 3 (ironic) difficult; bad: You've got us into a ~ mess. 4 moral; conscientious: He's not too ~ in his business methods.

nice-ly adv (a) in a nice manner. (b) (informal) very well: The patient is doing ~ly, is making good progress.

nice-ness n [U]

nicety /naɪsəti/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] accuracy; exactness: ~ of judgement. 2 [C] delicate distinction: the niceties of criticism.

niche /nɪʃ/ n [C] 1 (usually shallow) recess (often with a shelf) in a wall, eg for a statue or ornament. 2 (fig) suitable or fitting position: He found the right ~ for himself in the Civil Service.

nick¹ /nɪk/ n [C] 1 small V-shaped cut. 2 in the nick of time, only just in time. 3 (sl) prison. □ vi make a nick(1) in.

nick² /nɪk/ n (sl) (only in) in good/poor nick, in good/poor health or condition.

nickel /nɪkl/ n 1 [U] hard, silver-white metal (symbol Ni) used in alloys. 2 [C] coin used in the US, value 5 cents. □ vt (-ll-, US = -l-) coat with nickel.

nick-nack /nɪknæk/ n [C] = knick-knack.

nick-name /nɪkneɪm/ n [C] name given in addition, altered from or used instead of the real name (eg Fatty for a fat boy). □ vi give a nickname to: They ~d him 'Spotty'.

nicotine /nɪkətiːn/ n [U] poisonous, oily substance in tobacco leaves.

niece /niːs/ n [C] daughter of one's brother or sister.

niggle /nɪgl/ vi, vt 1 give too much time or attention to unimportant details; complain about trivial matters. 2 irritate: Her bad manners ~d me.

nig-gling adj small, unimportant but annoying.

nigh /naɪ/ adv, prep (-er, -est) (archaic and poetic) near (to).

night /naɪt/ n [C] dark hours between sunset and sunrise or twilight and dawn: in/during the ~; on Sunday ~; on the ~ of Friday, the 13th of June. night after 'night, for many nights in succession. all night (long), throughout the night. night and day, continuously: travel ~ and day for a week. at night, (a) when night comes. (b) during the night: 6 o'clock at ~, 6pm. by night, during the night: travel by ~. have a good/ bad night, sleep well/badly. make a night of it, spend all night in pleasure-making, eg at a party. spend the night with, (a) stay as a guest during the night. (b) sleep with. ⇨ also stand¹(7).

'night-club, club open until the early hours of the morning to members for dancing, supper, entertainment, etc.

'night-dress, long, loose dress worn by a woman or child in bed.

'night-fall, the coming of night; evening.

'night-gown, = nightdress.

'nightie, 'nighty, (informal) = nightdress.

'night life, entertainment, eg cabaret, night-clubs, available in a town late at night: the ~ life of London.

'night-long adj lasting the whole night.

'night-mare /-meə(r)/, (a) frightening dream. (b) haunting fear; memory of a horrible experience: Travelling on those bad mountain roads was a ~mare.

'night-school, one giving lessons in the evening.

'night-time, time of darkness.

'night-watch, (person or group keeping) watch by night.

'night-watchman /-mən/, man employed to keep watch (eg in a factory) at night.

night-ly adj, adv (taking place, happening, existing) in the night or every night.

night-in-gale /'naɪtɪŋgeɪl/ n [C] small, reddish-brown bird that sings sweetly by night as well as by day.

nil /nɪl/ n nothing: The result of the football match was 3–0 (say 'three~').

nimble /'nɪmbl/ adj (-r, -st) 1 quick-moving; agile: as ~ as a goat, very nimble. 2 (of the mind) sharp; quick to understand.

nim-bly /'nɪmblɪ/ adv

nim-bus /'nɪmbəs/ n [C] (pl ~es or -bi /-baɪ/) 1 bright disc round or over the head of a saint (in a painting, etc). 2 rain cloud.

nin-com-poop /'nɪŋkəmpuːp/ n [C] foolish, unintelligent person.

nine /naɪn/ adj, n [C] (of) 9: He's ~ (years old). ⇨ stitch(2).

nine-teen /naɪn'tiːn/ adj, n [C] (of) 19. (talk) nineteen to the dozen, (talk) continuously.

nine-teenth /naɪn'tiːnθ/ adj, n [C] (abbr 19th) (of) one of 19 parts or the next after 18.

nine-ti-eth /'naɪntiəθ/ adj, n [C] (abbr 90th) (of) one of 90 parts or the next after 89.

ninety /'naɪntɪ/ adj, n [C] (pl -ies) (of) 90.

ninety-nine times out of a hundred, almost always. in the nineties, (a) (of a person's age, temperature, speed, etc) between 89 and 100. (b) between '89 and '00 in a century.

ninth /naɪnθ/ adj, n [C] (abbr 9th) (of) one of 9 parts or the next after 8.

nine-pins /'naɪnpɪnz/ n pl (used with a sing verb) 1 game in which a ball is rolled along the floor at nine bottle-shaped pieces of wood. 2 (sing) one of these pins.

ninny /'nɪni/ n [C] (pl -ies) (dated) fool.

nip /nɪp/ vt, vi (-pp-) 1 pinch; press hard (eg between finger and thumb, or with the claws as a crab does, or with the teeth as a dog or horse does): He ~ped his finger in the door. 2 (of frost, wind, etc) stop the growth of; damage. nip sth in the bud, stop its (bad) development. 3 bite; pinch. 4 (informal) hurry: I'll ~ on ahead and open the door. □ n [C] 1 sharp pinch or bite. a (cold) nip in the air, sharp feeling of frost. 2 small drink (esp of spirits): a ~ of brandy.

nip-ping adj (of the air or wind) sharp; biting cold. ⇨ nippy.

nip-per /'nɪpə(r)/ n [C] 1 (pl) (informal) pincers, forceps or other tool for gripping. 2 claw of a crab, etc. 3 (informal) small child.

nipple /'nɪpl/ n [C] 1 part of the breast through which a baby gets its mother's milk; similar small projection on the breast of a human male. (Note: teat is used for other mammals.) 2 something like a nipple: greasing ~s in an engine.

nippy /'nɪpi/ adj (-ier, -iest) (informal) biting cold.

nir-vana /nɪə'vɑːnə/ n [U] (Buddhism) state after death in which the individual becomes part of the supreme spirit (God).

nisi /'naɪsaɪ/ conj (Latin, legal) unless.

de, cree 'nisi, ⇨ decree.

nit¹ /nɪt/ n [C] egg of a louse or other parasitic insect (eg as found in the human hair).

nit² /nɪt/ n [C] (informal) = nitwit.

ni-trate /'naɪtreɪt/ n [C, U] salt formed by the chemical reaction of nitric acid with an alkali, esp potassium ~ and sodium ~, used as fertilizers.

ni-tric /'naɪtrɪk/ adj of, containing, nitrogen.

'nitric acid, (symbol HNO_3), clear colourless, powerful acid that eats into and destroys most substances.

ni-tro-gen /'naɪtrədʒən/ n [U] gas (symbol N) without colour, taste or smell, forming about four-fifths of the earth's atmosphere.

ni-tro-glycer-ine, -glycerin /-ˌnɪtrəʊgliserin US: -rɪn/ n [U] powerful explosive made by adding glycerine to a mixture of nitric and sulphuric acids.

nit-wit /'nitwɪt/ n [C] (informal) unintelligent person.

nix /nɪks/ n [U] (sl) nothing.

no¹ /nəʊ/ adj 1 not one; not any: *She had ~ money. N~ two men think alike. N~ other man could do the work. no end of, ⇨ end¹ (3). 2 (implying the opposite of the following word): He's ~ friend of mine. 3 (in the pattern: there + to be + no + ...ing): There's ~ saying (= It is impossible to say) what he'll be doing next. 4 (in commands, etc): N~ smoking. Smoking is not allowed. No way! (sl) Certainly not! be no good/use, useless: It's ~ good worrying about her now. by no means, ⇨ means¹. in no time (at all), ⇨ time¹ (6).*

no-claims bonus, reduction in insurance costs because not claim has been made.

no-go, (informal) impossible to do (successfully).

no-go area, (informal) (usually urban) area barricaded to prevent the police or security force from entering.

no-man's-land, (in war) ground between the fronts of two opposing armies.

no-one, no one, pron = nobody.

no² /nəʊ/ adv (used with comparatives): We went ~ farther than (= only as far as) the bridge. I have ~ more money. □ particle (opposite of 'Yes'): Is it Monday today? N~ it isn't. □ n [C] word or answer no; refusal; negative vote. never/not take no for an answer, refuse to give up trying. The noes /nəʊz/ have it, Those voting 'no' are in the majority.

nob /nɒb/ n [C] (sl) member of the upper classes; person of high rank.

nobble /'nɒbl/ vt (sl) 1 interfere with (a race-horse) to lessen its chance of winning. 2 (informal) get the attention of (in order to gain an advantage, etc). 3 (informal) get something dishonestly or by devious means.

no-bil-ity /nəʊ'bɪləti/ n [U] 1 quality of being noble; noble character, mind, birth. 2 (usually with the) the nobles as a class: a member of the ~.

noble /'nəʊbl/ adj (-r, -st) 1 of high rank, title or birth: a man of ~ rank/birth. 2 having, showing, impressive character and qualities: a ~ leader; ~ sentiments. 3 splendid; that excites admiration: a building planned on a ~ scale. □ n [C] person of noble birth.

'noble-man, peer; peeress.

nobly /'nəʊbli/ adv in a noble manner; splendidly.

no-body /'nəʊbədi/ pron (pl -ies) 1 [U] not anybody; no person: We saw ~ we knew. He said he would marry me or ~. N~ could find their luggage. nobody else, no other person: I love you and ~ else. N~ else would marry

you. 2 (used in the sing with a or an, and in the pl) unimportant or unimpressive person: Don't marry a ~ like James.

noc-tur-nal /'nɒk'tʃ:ənəl/ adj of, in or done, active, or happening in, the night: ~ birds, eg owls.

noc-turne /'nɒktʃ:n/ n [C] dreamy piece of music.

nod /nɒd/ vi, vt (-dd-) 1 bow (the head) quickly as a sign of agreement or as a familiar greeting: He ~ded to me as he passed. have a nodding acquaintance with, know (a person) well enough to greet but not to talk to. 2 let the head fall forward as if sleepy or falling asleep: She sat ~ding by the fire. nod off, fall asleep. 3 indicate by nodding: He ~ded his approval.

node /nəʊd/ n [C] point on the stem of a plant where a leaf or bud grows out.

nod-ule /'nɒdjʊl/ US: 'nɒdʒəl/ n [C] small rounded lump, knob or swelling.

nod-ular /-lə(r)/, nodu-lated /-leɪtɪd/ adj.

Noel /nəʊ'el/ n = Christmas (which is more usual).

nog-gin /'nɒɡɪn/ n [C] small measure, usually a quarter of a pint, of liquor.

no-how /'nəʊhaʊ/ adv (informal) in no way; not at all.

noise /nɔɪz/ n [C,U] loud and unpleasant sound, esp when confused and undesired: the ~ of jet aircraft. Don't make so much ~/such a loud ~! make a noise (about sth), talk or complain in order to get attention. □ v make public: It was ~d everywhere that he had been arrested.

noise-less adj making little or no noise: with ~less footsteps.

noise-less-ly adv

nois-some /'nɔɪsəm/ adj (esp of smell) disgusting.

noisy /'nɔɪzi/ adj (-ier, -iest) 1 making, accompanied by, much noise: ~ children/games. 2 full of noise: a ~ classroom.

nois-ily /-əli/ adv

noisi-ness n [U]

no-mad /'nəʊmæd/ n [C] member of a tribe that wanders from place to place, with no fixed home.

no-madic /'nəʊmædɪk/ adj of nomads: a ~ic society.

nom de plume /'nɒm də 'plu:m/ n [C] (pl noms de plume) (Fr) pen-name.

no-men-cla-ture /'nəʊmənklətʃə(r)/ n [C] (formal) system of naming: botanical ~.

nomi-nal /'nɒmɪnəl/ adj 1 existing, etc in name or word only, not in fact: the ~ ruler of the country. 2 inconsiderable: a ~ rent, one very much below the actual value of the property. 3 (gram) of a noun or nouns. 4 of, bearing, a name: ~ shares.

nomi-nal-ly /-nəli/ adv nomi-nate /'nɒmɪneɪt/ vt 1 put forward for election to a position: ~ a woman for the Presidency. 2 appoint to office: a committee of five ~d members and eight elected members.

nomi-na-tion /nɒmɪ'neɪʃn/ n 1 [U] nominating; [C] instance of this: How many ~s have there been so far? 2 [U] right of nominating.

nomi-na-tive /'nɒmɪnətv/ adj, n [C] (gram) (of the) form of a word when it is the grammatical subject: the ~ case, eg pronoun we.

nomi-nee /nɒmɪ'ni:/ n [C] person who is nominated for an office or appointment.

non- /nɒn/ prefix who or which is not, does not, etc:

non-align-ment, principle or practice of not joining a large group of world powers.

non-ag-gression, not attacking; not starting hostilities: a ~ pact.

non-combatant, person (esp in the armed forces, eg a surgeon or chaplain) who does not take part in the fighting.

non-com-missioned adj (esp of army officers such as sergeants and corporals) not holding commissions (4).

non-com-mittal adj not committing oneself to a definite course or to either side (in a dispute, etc): give a ~-committal answer.

non-con-ductor, substance that does not conduct heat or electric current.

non-con-formist, (a) person, esp a Protestant, who does not conform to the ritual, etc of an established Church. (b) N~, (in England) member of a sect that has separated from the Church of England.

non-con-formity, (beliefs and practices of) nonconformists as a body; failure to conform.

non-con-tributory adj not involving contributions: a ~contributory pension scheme.

non-e-vent, which is not as good, etc as it was declared to be.

non-fic-tion n [U] literature based on fact (not novels, stories, plays, which deal with fictitious events and persons).

non-flam-mable adj not inflammable.

non-inter-vention, principle or practice, esp in international affairs, of keeping out of disputes.

non-pay-ment, failure or neglect to pay (a debt, etc).

non-resi-dent adj who does not live in: a ~resident landlord. n [C] person not staying at a hotel, etc: meals served to ~residents.

non-smoker, (a) person who does not smoke tobacco. (b) place, eg a train compartment, where smoking is forbidden.

non-starter, (a) horse which, although entered for a race, does not run. (b) (fig) person who has no chance of success in something he is doing or decides to do.

non-stick adj (eg of a pan) made so that food, etc will not stick to its surface.

non-stop adj, adv without a stop: a ~stop train from London to Brighton; fly ~stop from New York to Paris.

non-U adj (a) not (of the) upper class. (b) not fashionable.

non-union adj not belonging to, not of, a trade union: ~union labour.

non-violence, policy of rejecting violent means (but using peaceful protest, etc) to gain a political or social objective.

nona-gen-ar-ian /nɒnə'geɪəriən/ n [C], adj (person who is) between 90 and 99 years old.

non-chal-ance /'nɒnʃələns/ n [U] indifference; unconcern.

non-chal-ant /'nɒnʃələnt/ adj not having, not showing, interest or enthusiasm.

non-chal-ant-ly adv

non-com-pos men-tis /nɒn ,kɒmpəs 'mentɪs/ adj (Latin) (legal) not legally responsible because not of sound mind.

non-de-script /'nɒndɪskrɪpt/ n [C], adj (person or thing) not easily classed, not having a definite character.

none /nʌn/ pron 1 not any, not one: *I wanted some string but there was ~ in the house. 'Is there any petrol left?' 'No, ~ at all.' N~ of them has/have come back yet. none but, only: They chose ~ but the best. none the less, ⚡ less. none other than: The new arrival was ~ other than the President (= the President himself). 2 (in constructions equal to an imperative): N~ of that! Stop that! N~ of your impudence! Don't be impudent! adv by no means; in no degree; not at all: *I hope you're ~ the worse for that accident.

non-en-tity /nɒn'entəti/ n [C] (pl -ties) 1 unimportant person. 2 thing that does not really exist or that exists only in the imagination.

none-such, non-such /'nʌnsʌtʃ/, 'nɒn-/ n [C] person or thing without equal.

non-pareil /nɒn pə'reil/ US: -'rel/ adj, n [C] (formal) unique or unrivalled (person or thing).

non-plus /nɒn'plʌs/ vt (-ss-, US: -s-) (usually passive) surprise or puzzle (a person) so much that he does not know what to do or say: I was completely ~sed when she said 'No'.

non-sense /'nɒnsəns/ US: -sens/ n (with or without a, an but not usually pl) meaningless words; foolish talk, ideas, behaviour: N~! I don't believe a word of it! What ~!

non-sen-si-cal /nɒn'sensɪkl/ adj not making sense: ~ remarks.

non-such ⚡ nonesuch.

non se-qui-tur /nɒn 'sekwi:tʃ(r)/ n [C] (Latin) (in logic) conclusion which does not follow from the premises.

noodle /'nu:dl/ n (usually pl) flour-paste and water or flour and eggs prepared in long, narrow strips: chicken~ soup.

nook /nʊk/ n [C] out-of-the-way place; hidden corner: search every ~ and cranny, search everywhere.

noon /nu:n/ n 12 o'clock in the middle of the day: at ~.

noon-day/tide, = noon.

no-one, no one /'nəʊ wʌn/ pron = nobody(1).

noose /nuːs/ n [C] loop of rope (with a slip-knot) that becomes tighter when the rope is pulled: the hangman's ~. put one's head in the noose, (fig) allow oneself to be caught, defeated. □ vi catch with a noose; make a noose.

nope /nəʊp/ int (sl) No!

nor /nɔː(r)/ conj 1 (after neither or not) and not: I have neither time ~ money for pop festivals. 2 and... not: He can't do it; ~ can I, ~ can you, ~ can anybody.

nor' /'nɔː(r)/ prefix ⇨ north.

norm /nɔːm/ n [C] 1 the ~, standard; pattern; type (as representative of a group when judging other examples). 2 (in some industries, etc) amount of work required or expected in a working day: fulfil one's ~.

nor-mal /'nɔːml/ adj in agreement with what is representative, usual or regular: the ~ temperature of the human body. □ n (sing only) usual state, level, etc: above/below ~.

nor-mal-ly /'nɔːməli/ adv

north /nɔːθ/ n 1 the ~, one of the four cardinal points of the compass, to the left of a person facing the sunrise; part of any country farther in this direction than other parts: the ~ of England; cold winds from the ~. 2 (used as an adjective) situated in, living in, of, from, the north: a ~ wind. □ adv to or towards the north: sailing ~.

the North, northern area (of England, Wales, etc).

the North Pole, end of the earth's axis of rotation marking the farthest north.

nor-th-east, north-west (abbr NE, NW) n, adj, adv (sometimes, esp naut, nor'-east /'nɔːr 'iːst/, nor'-west /'nɔːr 'west/) (regions) midway between north and east or north and west.

nor-th-north-east, north-north-west (abbr NNE, NNW) n, adj, adv (sometimes, esp naut, nor'-nor'-east, nor'-nor'-west) (regions) midway between north and north-east or northwest.

nor-th-easter-ly adj (a) (of wind) blowing from the northeast. (b) (of direction) towards the northeast.

nor-th-eastern /-'iːstən/ adj of, from, situated in, the northeast.

nor-th-wester-ly adj (a) (of wind) from the northwest. (b) (of direction) towards the northwest.

nor-th-western /-'westən/ adj of, from, situated in, the northwest.

north-er-ly /'nɔːðəli/ adj, adv 1 (of winds) from the north. 2 (of direction) towards the north; in or to the north.

north-ern /'nɔːðən/ adj of, from, in, the north part of the world, a country, etc.

the Northern Hemisphere, ⇨ hemisphere.

the northern lights, the aurora borealis.

north-er-n, person born in or living in the north regions of a country.

'north-ern-most /-məʊst/ adj farthest north.

north-ward /'nɔːθwəd/ adj towards the north: in a ~ direction.

north-wards adv: to travel ~s.

nose¹ /nəʊz/ n [C] 1 part of the face above the mouth, through which breath passes, and serving as the organ of smell: hit a man on the ~. as plain as the nose on one's face, obvious. (right) under one's very nose, (a) directly in front of one. (b) in one's presence, and regardless of one's disapproval. cut off one's nose to spite one's face, damage one's own interests in a fit of bad temper. follow one's nose, (a) go straight forward. (b) be guided by instinct. keep one's nose clean, avoid trouble. lead sb by the nose, make him do everything one wants him to do. look down one's nose at sb, ⇨ look down. pay through the nose, pay an excessive price. poke/stick one's nose into (sb else's business), ask questions, etc without being asked to do so. put sb's nose out of joint, ⇨ joint²(2). rub sb's nose in it, (informal) remind him unkindly of his recent failure. turn one's nose up at, show contempt for. 2 sense of smell: a dog with a good ~. 3 (fig) good sense for finding out: a reporter with a ~ for news/scandal. ⇨ nose². 4 something like a nose in shape or position, eg the open end of a pipe or the front part of an aircraft.

'nose-bag, bag for food (oats, etc) fastened on a horse's head.

'nose-bleed, bleeding from the nose.

'nose-cone, most forward section of a rocket or guided missile, usually separable.

'nose-dive n sharp vertical descent made by an aircraft. □ vi (of an aircraft) come down steeply with the nose pointing to earth.

'nose-gay, bunch of cut (esp sweet-scented) flowers.

'nose-ring, ring fixed in the nose of a bull, etc for leading it.

'nose-wheel, the front landing-wheel under an aircraft.

nose² /nəʊz/ vt, vi 1 go forward carefully, push (one's way): The ship ~d its way slowly through the ice. 2 nose sth out, discover by smelling: The dog ~d out a rat. 3 (fig) enquire or search for rudely: ~ out a scandal; nosing into other people's affairs/nosing about for information.

nosey, nosy /'nəʊzi/ adj (-ier, -iest), n [C] (sl) inquisitive (person).

'nosey-parker, (sl) inquisitive person.

nos-tal-gia /nɒ'stældʒə/ n [U] longing for something one has known in the past; homesickness: full of ~.

nos-tal-gic /nɒ'stældʒɪk/ adj of, feeling or causing, nostalgia.

nos-tal-gi-cally /-kli/ adv

nos-tril /'nɒstrɪl/ n [C] either of the two external openings into the nose.

not /nɒt/ adv (often contracted to -n't /-nt/, as in hasn't /'hæznt/, needn't /'ni:dn't/) Used to make a negative. 1 (used with non-finite verbs): He warned me ~ to be late. 2 (used after certain verbs, esp think, suppose, believe, expect, fear, fancy, trust, hope, seem, appear, and the phrase be afraid equivalent to a that-clause): 'Can you come next week?' — 'I'm afraid ~. I'm afraid that I cannot come. 'Will it rain this afternoon?' — 'I hope ~. as likely as not, ⇨ likely (2). as soon as not, ⇨ soon (4). not at all, /nɒt ə 'tɔ:l/ (used as a polite response to thanks, enquiries after a person's health, etc): 'Thank you very much' — 'N~ at all. 'Are you tired?' — 'N~ at all. Not in the least. 3 (used in understatement): ~ a few, = many; ~ seldom, = often; ~ without reason, = with good reason. not that, it is not suggested that: If he ever said so — ~ that I ever heard him say so — he told a lie.

nota bene /nəʊtə 'benɛ/ v imperative (Latin) (abbr NB, nb /ɛn 'bi:/) observe, note, carefully.

no-table /'nəʊtəbl/ adj deserving to be noticed; remarkable: ~ events/speakers. □ n [C] eminent person.

no-tably /-əbl/ adv

no-tary /'nəʊtəri/ n [C] (pl -ies) (also ~ 'public) official with authority to do certain kinds of legal business, such as witnessing the signing of legal documents.

no-ta-tion /nəʊ'teɪʃn/ n [C] system of signs or symbols representing numbers, amounts, musical notes, etc. 2 [U] representing of numbers, etc by such signs or symbols.

notch /nɒtʃ/ n [C] V-shaped cut (in or on something). □ v t make or cut a notch in or on.

note¹ /nəʊt/ n [C] 1 short record (of facts, etc) made to help the memory: He spoke for an hour without ~s. 2 short letter: a ~ of thanks. 3 short comment on or explanation of a word or passage in a book, etc: a new edition of 'Hamlet', with ~s at the back. ⇨ footnote. 4 observation (not necessarily written): He was comparing ~s with a friend, exchanging views, comparing experiences, etc. 5 written or printed promise to pay money: 'bank ~s; a £5 ~. 6 single sound of a certain pitch and duration: play ~s on the piano. strike the right note, ⇨ *strike*² (4). 7 sign used to represent such a sound in manuscript or printed music. 8 (usually sing with a, an) quality or tone (esp of voice) showing feelings, attitude, etc: There was a ~ of pleasure in his speech. 9 [U] distinction; importance: a family of ~. 10 [U] notice; attention: worthy of ~. Take ~ of what he says, Pay attention to it.

'note-book, pad (2) in which to write notes.

'note-case, wallet for banknotes.

'note-paper, (kinds of) paper for writing, esp private, letters.

note² /nəʊt/ v 1 notice; pay attention to: N~ how I did it. 2 make a note of; write (down) in order to remember: The policeman was noting down every word I said.

noted /'nəʊtɪd/ adj celebrated; well-known: a town ~ for its pottery/as a health resort.

note-worthy /'nəʊtwɜ:ði/ adj deserving to be noted; remarkable.

noth-ing¹ /'nɒθɪŋ/ adv not at all; in no way: It is ~ near as large/~ like as good.

noth-ing² /'nɒθɪŋ/ n not anything: He's had ~ to eat yet. N~ ever pleases her. There's ~ like leather (= Nothing is so good as leather) for shoes. for nothing, (a) free: without payment. (b) without a reward or result; to no purpose: It was not for ~ that he spent three years studying the subject. next to nothing, ⇨ next (2). be nothing to, (a) not be of interest to: She's ~ to him. (b) not to be compared to: My losses are ~ to yours. come to nothing, fail. have nothing on, ⇨ *on*¹ (4). have nothing to do with, (a) avoid; have no dealings with: Have ~ to do with that man. (b) not to be the business or concern of: This has ~ to do with you. mean nothing to, (a) have no meaning for: These technical words mean ~ to me. (b) be of no concern or interest to: He used to like Jane but she means ~ to him now. think nothing of, ⇨ think of. to say nothing of, without mentioning: He owns houses, cars and shops, to say ~ of his land abroad.

no-tice /'nəʊtɪs/ n [C] (written or printed) news of something about to happen or that has happened: put up a ~. 2 [U] warning, suggestion (of what will happen): give the typist a month's ~, tell her that she must leave her job at the end of one month. (do sth) at short notice, with little warning, time for preparation, etc. 3 [U] attention. bring sth/come to sb's notice, call a person's attention/ have one's attention called to something: It has come to my ~ that... I have learnt that... take no notice (of), pay no attention: Take no ~ of them/ of what they're saying about you. 4 [C] short particulars of a new book, play, etc in a periodical. □ v, t pay attention; observe: I wasn't noticing. I didn't ~ you.

no-tice-able /-əbl/ adj easily seen or noticed.

no-tice-ably /-əbl/ adv

no-ti-fi-able /nəʊ'tɪfaɪəbl/ adj that must be reported (esp of certain diseases that must be reported to public health authorities).

no-tify /'nəʊtɪfaɪ/ v (pt, pp -ied) give notice of; report: ~ the police of a loss; ~ the authorities that...

no-ti-fi-ca-tion /nəʊtɪfɪ'keɪʃn/ n [C,U] no-tion /'nəʊʃn/ n [C] idea; opinion: I have no ~ of what he means.
no-tional /-ʃnəl/ adj (a) (of knowledge, etc) not based on experiment or demonstration. (b) existing only in thought.
no-tor-i-ety /nəʊtə'raɪəti/ n [U] state of being notorious.
no-tori-ous /nəʊ'tɔ:riəs/ adj well-known (esp for something bad): a ~ criminal.
no-tori-ous-ly adv
not-with-stand-ing /nɒtwɪð'stændɪŋ/ adv nevertheless; all the same. □ conj although. □ prep in spite of.
no-u-gat /'nu:ɡɑ: US: 'nu:ɡət/ n [U] sort of hard sweet made of sugar, nuts, etc.
nought /nɒt/ n [C] nothing; the figure 0: point ~ one, ie -01. come to nought, fail.
noun /naʊn/ n [C] (gram) word (not a pronoun) which can function as the subject or object of a verb, or the object of a preposition (marked n in this dictionary). ⇨ countable/uncountable noun.
nour-ish /'nʌrɪʃ US: 'nər-/ vt 1 keep (a person) alive and well with food: ~ing food. 2 improve (land) with manure, etc: ~ the soil. 3 (formal) have or encourage (hope, fear, etc): ~ hope in one's heart.
nour-ish-ment n [U] (formal) food.
nova /'nəʊvə/ n [C] (pl ~s or ~e /-vi/) star that suddenly increases its brilliance and then dims again.
novel /'nɒvl/ adj strange; new; of a kind not previously known: ~ ideas.
novel /'nɒvl/ n [C] story in prose, long enough to fill one or more volumes, about either imaginary or historical people: the ~s of Dickens.
novel-lette /-let/, short novel. novel-ist /-ɪst/, writer of novels.
nov-elty /'nɒvəlti/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] newness; strangeness; quality of being novel: the ~ of his surroundings. 2 [C] previously unknown or unfamiliar thing, idea, etc. 3 (pl) manufactured goods of low cost, eg toys, decorations.
No-vem-ber /nəʊ'vembə(r)/ n the eleventh month of the year, with 30 days.
nov-ice /'nɒvɪs/ n [C] 1 person who is still learning and who is without experience. 2 person who is training to become a monk or a nun.
no-vi-ci-ate, no-vi-ti-ate /nəʊ'vɪʃɪət/, nov-ice; period of being a novice.
now /naʊ/ adv 1 at the present time; in the present circumstances: Where are you ~ living/living ~? N ~ is the best time to visit Devon. 2 (used after a preposition): Up to/Till/Until ~ we have been lucky. (every) now and then/again, occasionally; from time to time: We go to the opera ~ and then. now... now; now... then, at one time, at another time: N ~ you see me, ~ you don't. 3 at once; immediately: Do it (right) ~! just now, ⇨ just²(6). 4 (used without reference to time, to indicate the mood of the speaker, to explain, warn, comfort, etc): N ~ stop quarrelling and listen to me. now, 'now; now then, (used at the beginning of a sentence, often as a protest or warning, or simply to call attention: N ~ then, what have you been up to? □ conj because of the fact (that): N ~ (that) you're grown up, you must stop this childish behaviour.

now-adays /'naʊədeɪz/ adv at the present time (and often used in contrasts between present day manners, customs, etc and those of past times): N ~ children are much healthier.
no-where /'nəʊweə(r) US: -hweə/ adv not anywhere: The boy was ~ to be found. no-where near, ⇨ near².
nox-i-ous /'nɒkʃəs/ adj harmful: ~ gases.
nozzle /'nɒzl/ n [C] metal end of a hose, etc through which a stream of liquid or air is directed.
nu-ance /'nju:əns US: nu:'æns/ n [C] small difference in or of shade of meaning, opinion, colour, etc.
nu-bile /'nju:bəl US: 'nu:bl/ adj (of girls) marriageable; old enough to marry.
nu-clear /'nju:kliə(r) US: 'nu:/ adj of a nucleus; using nuclear energy.
nuclear 'bomb, using nuclear energy to provide its destructive power.
nuclear dis'armament, agreement not to develop, stock or use nuclear weapons.
nuclear 'energy, great energy produced during reactions on atomic nuclei.
nuclear 'physics, study of the atomic nucleus and its behaviour.
nuclear 'power, (a) power from nuclear energy. (b) country having nuclear weapons.
nuclear-powered adj using nuclear energy: a ~-powered submarine.
nuclear re'actor, device that generates power by atomic fission.
nuclear 'warfare, using nuclear bombs.
nu-cleus /'nju:kliəs US: 'nu:/ n [C] (pl nuclei /-kliə/) 1 central part of an atom, consisting of protons and neutrons. 2 central part, round which other parts are grouped or round which other things collect.
nude /nju:d US: nud/ adj naked. □ n [C] nude human figure (esp in art). in the nude, naked.
nu-dist /-ɪst/, person who lives unclothed and believes that sun and air is good for the health.
'nudist camp/colony, place where nudists practise their beliefs.
nu-dity /-əti/, nakedness.
nudge /nʌdʒ/ vt touch or push slightly with the elbow in order to attract a person's attention. □ n [C] push given in this way.
nug-get /'nʌɡɪt/ n [C] lump of metal, esp gold, as found in the earth.

nui-sance /'nju:sn̩s US: 'nu:-/ n [C] thing, person, act, etc that causes trouble or offence: These flies are a ~.

null /nʌl/ adj of no effect or force. null and void. (legal) without legal effect, invalid.

null-ify /'nʌlɪfaɪ/ vt (pt, pp -ied) make null and void.

null-ifi-ca-tion /'nʌlɪfɪkeɪʃn/ n [U] numb /nʌm/ adj (-er, -est) without ability to feel or move: ~ with cold/shock. □ vt make numb: ~ed with grief.

numb-ness n [U] num-ber /'nʌmbə(r)/ n [C] 1 3, 13, 33 and 103 are ~s. 2 quantity or amount: a large ~ of people. A ~ of books (= Some books) are missing from the library. in number: They were fifteen in ~. There were fifteen of them. without number, too many to be counted.

3 (usually shortened to No, with pl Nos, before a figure): Room No 145, eg in a hotel. 4 one issue of a periodical, esp for one day, week, etc: the current ~ of 'Punch'. ⇨ back-number. 5 dance, song, music, etc for the stage. 6 (pl) numerical superiority: The enemy won by force of ~s. 7 (pl) arithmetic: He's not good at ~s. □ vt 1 give a number to: Let's ~ them from 1 to 10. 2 amount to; add up to: We ~ed 20 in all. 3 include; place: ~ her among one's friends. 4 (passive) be restricted in number: His days are ~ed, He has not long to live. 5 (mil) call out one's number in a rank of soldiers: The company ~ed off from the right.

'number-plate, plate showing the index-mark and number of motor-vehicles, the number of a house, etc.

nu-mer-al /'nju:mərəl US: 'nu:-/ n [C], adj (word, figure or sign) standing for a number; of number.

Arabic numeral, 1, 2, 3, 4 etc.

Roman numeral, I, II, III, IV, etc.

nu-mer-ate /'nju:məreɪt US: 'nu:-/ adj (of a person) having good basic ability in mathematics and science. ⇨ literate.

nu-mer-ation /'nju:mə'reɪʃn US: 'nu:-/ n [C] 1 method or process of numbering or calculating. 2 expression in words of numbers written in figures.

nu-mer-a-tor /'nju:mə'reɪtə(r) US: 'nu:-/ n [C] number above the line in a vulgar fraction, eg 3 in $\frac{3}{4}$. ⇨ denominator.

nu-meri-cal /'nju:merɪkl US: nu:-/ adj of, in, denoting, numbers: ~ symbols.

nu-meri-cally /-klɪ/ adv: The enemy were ~ly superior.

nu-mer-ous /'nju:mərəs US: 'nu:-/ adj great in number; very many: her ~ friends.

nun /nʌn/ n [C] woman who, after taking religious vows, lives, with other women in a convent in the service of God.

nun-ery /'nʌnəri/, convent.

nup-tial /'nʌpʃəl/ adj (formal) of marriage or weddings.

nup-tials n pl (formal) wedding.

nurse ¹ /nɜ:s/ n [C] 1 person who cares for people who are ill or injured (in a hospital, etc). 2 ('nurse-)maid, woman or girl employed to look after babies and young children. ⇨ nanny. 3 ('wet-)nurse, woman (formerly) employed to give her own natural milk to another woman's child. 4 [U] nursing or being nursed: put a child to ~.

nurse ² /nɜ:s/ vt 1 take charge of and look after (persons who are ill, injured, etc). 2 feed (a baby) at the breast. 3 hold (a baby, a child, a pet dog) on the knees; clasp carefully. 4 give special care to: ~ young plants. nurse a cold, stay at home, keep warm, in order to cure it. nurse a constituency, keep in touch with the voters (to obtain or retain their support). 5 have in the mind, think about a great deal: He was nursing feelings of revenge.

nurs-ery /'nɜ:səri/ n [C] (pl -ies) 1 room (in a house, passenger liner, etc) for the special use of small children. 2 place where young plants and trees are raised (for transplanting later).

'day nursery, (a) room (in a wealthy home) where small children play, have their meals, etc. (b) building where mothers who go out to work may leave babies and young children.

'nurs-ery-man /-mən/, man who owns a nursery (2).

'nursery rhyme, poem or song (usually traditional) for young children.

'nursery school, for children of 3 to 5.

nursery slope, skiing slope suitable for learners.

nurs-ing /'nɜ:sɪŋ/ n [U] the profession or duties of a nurse (1): Careful ~ will be needed.

'nursing-home, building, usually privately owned, smaller than a hospital, for the sick or aged.

nur-ture /'nɜ:tʃə(r)/ n [U] (formal) care, training; education (of children). □ vt bring up; train: a delicately ~d girl.

nut /nʌt/ n [C] 1 fruit consisting of a hard shell round a part (kernel) that can be eaten. a hard nut to crack, a difficult problem to solve. 2 small piece of metal with a threaded hole for screwing on to a bolt. 3 (sl) head (of a human being). off one's nut, (sl) insane. 4 (pl) small lumps of coal.

'nut-crackers n pl device for cracking nuts open.

'nut house, (sl) mental hospital.

'nut-shell, hard outside covering of a nut. (put sth) in a nutshell, (fig) say, write, it in the fewest possible words.

nut-meg /'nʌtmeg/ n 1 [C] hard, small, round, sweet-smelling seed of an E Indian evergreen. 2 [U] this seed grated to powder, used as a flavouring.

nu-tri-ent /'nju:triənt US: 'nu:-/ adj (formal) serving as or providing nourishment.

nu-tri-ment /'nju:trɪmənt US: 'nu:-/ n [C, U] (formal) nourishing food.

nu-tri-tion /nju:'trɪʃn/ US: nu:-/ n [U] (formal) the process of supplying and receiving nourishment; the science of food values: the care and ~ of children.

nu-tri-tious /nju:'trɪʃəs/ US: nu:-/ adj (formal) having high value as food.

nu-tri-tive /nju:'trɪtɪv/ US: 'nu:-/ adj (formal) serving as food; of nutrition.

nuts /nʌts/ adj (sl) crazy; mad. be nuts about/over sb/sth, be very much in love with, infatuated with.

nutty /'nʌti/ adj (-ier, -icst) 1 tasting, looking, like nuts (1). 2 (sl) mad; crazy. 3 containing, made up of, nuts (4): ~ coal.

nuzzle /'nʌzl/ vt, vi press, rub or push the nose against: The horse ~d (up against) my shoulder.

ny-ion /'naɪon/ n 1 [U] (P) synthetic fibre used for hosiery, rope, brushes, etc: ~ tights/ blouses. 2 (pl) (dated) nylon stockings; tights.

nymph /nɪmf/ n [C] 1 (in Greek and Roman stories) one of the lesser goddesses, living in rivers, trees, hills, etc. 2 (literary) beautiful young woman. 3 pupa; chrysalis.

Oo

O, o /əʊ/ (pl O's, o's /əʊz/) 1 the 15th letter of the English alphabet. 2 O-shaped sign or mark. 3 zero (esp when saying telephone numbers).

O, oh /əʊ/ int cry of surprise, fear, pain, sudden pleasure, etc.

oak /əʊk/ n [C] sorts of large tree with tough, hard wood, common in many parts of the world; [U] the wood of this tree: a forest of ~(s) of/~trees.

oar /ɔ:(r)/ n [C] pole with a flat blade used to move a boat through the water. put/shove one's oar in, (informal) interfere. rest on one's oars, relax one's efforts.

oars-man, 'oars-woman, rower.

oasis /əʊ'eɪsɪs/ n [C] (pl oases /-sɪz/) 1 fertile place, with water, in a desert. 2 (fig) experience, place, etc which is pleasant in the midst of what is dull, unpleasant, etc.

oast /əʊst/ n [C] kiln for drying hops.

'oast-house, building containing an oast.

oat /əʊt/ n [C] (usually pl) 1 (grain from a) cereal plant grown in cool climates as food (oats for horses, oatmeal for human beings). sow one's wild oats, lead a life of pleasure and gaiety while young before settling down seriously. 2 (used with a sing verb) oatmeal porridge: Is Scotch ~s on the breakfast menu? 'oat-meal, oats in porridge, etc.

oath /əʊθ/ n [C] (pl ~s /əʊðz/) 1 solemn undertaking with God's help to do something. 2 solemn declaration that something is true. be on/under oath, (legal) having sworn to tell the truth. swear/take an oath, promise solemnly to give (one's loyalty, allegiance, etc). 3 wrongful use of God's name or of sacred words to express strong feeling; swear-word.

ob-du-racy /'ɒbdjʊərəsɪ/ US: -dər-/ n [U] (formal) stubbornness.

ob-du-rate /'ɒbdjʊrət/ US: -dər-/ adj (formal) stubborn; not showing regret.

ob-dur-ate-ly adv

obedience /ə'bi:diəns/ n [U] being obedient, showing obedience: Soldiers act in ~ to the orders of their superior officers.

obedi-ent /ə'bi:diənt/ adj doing, willing to do, what one is told to do: ~ children.

obedi-ent-ly adv

ob-elisk /'ɒbəɪsk/ n [C] tall, pointed four-sided stone pillar, set up as a monument or landmark.

obese /əʊ'bi:s/ adj (formal) (of persons) very fat.

obesity /əʊ'bi:səti/ n [U] (formal) being obese.

obey /ə'beɪ/ vt, vi do what one is told to do; carry out (a command): They refused to ~. I was ~ing orders.

obitu-ary /ə'bitʃuəri/ US: -tʃuəri/ n [C] (pl -ies) 1 printed notice of a person's death, often with a short account of his life. 2 (used as an adjective): ~ notices, eg in a newspaper.

ob-ject¹ /'ɒbdʒekt/ n [C] 1 something that can be seen or touched; material thing: Tell me the names of the ~s in this room. 2 person or thing to which action or feeling or thought is directed: an ~ of pity/admiration. 3 purpose; end: with no ~ in life; fail/succeed in one's ~. 4 (gram) noun, clause, etc towards which the action of the verb is directed, or to which a preposition indicates some relation.

direct object, ⇨ *direct*¹.

indirect object, ⇨ indirect.

prepositional object, ⇨ preposition.

ob-ject² /əb'dʒekt/ vi say that one is not in favour of something; be opposed (to); make a protest against: I ~ to all this noise/to being treated like a child. He stood up and ~ed in strong language.

ob-jec-tor /-tə(r)/, person who objects. ⇨ conscientious objector.

ob-jec-tion /əb'dʒekʃn/ n [C, U] statement or feeling of dislike, disapproval or opposition: He has a strong ~ to getting up early. He took ~ to what I said. 2 [C] that which is objected to.

ob-jec-tion-able /-əbl/ adj likely to be objected to; unpleasant: an ~able smell; ~able remarks.

ob-jec-tion-ably /-əbli/ adv

ob-jec-tive /əb'dʒektɪv/ adj 1 (in philosophy) having existence outside the mind; real. ⇨ subjective. 2 (of persons, writings, pictures) not influenced by personal thought or feeling; dealing with things, actual facts, etc. 3 (gram) of the object (4): the ~ form of 'I' is 'me'. ⇨ also case¹ (4). □ n [C] 1 object aimed at; purpose. 2 position to which armed forces are moving to capture it; military aim: All our ~s were won.

ob-jec-tive-ly adv in an objective (2) manner.

ob-jec-tiv-ity /ɒb'dʒektɪvətɪ/ n [U] state of being objective; impartial or unprejudiced judgement.

ob-la-tion /ə'bleɪʃn/ n [C] offering made to God or a god.

ob-li-gate /'ɒblɪgeɪt/ vt (usually passive) compel (a person, esp legally) (to do something): He felt ~d to help.

ob-li-ga-tion /ɒblɪ'geɪʃn/ n [C] promise, duty or condition that shows what action ought to be taken (eg the power of the law, duty, a sense of what is right): the ~s of conscience. be/place sb under an obligation, be/make him indebted to another.

ob-li-ga-tory /ə'blɪgətəri/ US: -tɔːri/ adj that is required by law, rule or custom: Is attendance at the meeting ~ or optional?

ob-lige /ə'blaɪdʒ/ vt 1 require, compel, by a promise, oath, etc: The law ~s parents to send their children to school. be obliged to do sth, compelled: They were ~d to (= had to) sell their house in order to pay their debts. ⇨ have³ (1). 2 do something as a favour or in answer to a request: Please ~ me by closing the door. I'm much ~d to you, I'm grateful for what you've done.

oblig-ing adj willing to help: obliging neighbours.

oblig-ing-ly adv

ob-lique /ə'blɪk/ adj sloping; slanting.

oblique angle, angle that is not a right angle (ie not 90°).

ob-lique-ly adv

ob-lit-er-ate /ə'blɪtəreɪt/ vt rub or blot out; remove all signs of; destroy.

ob-lit-er-a-tion /ə'blɪtə'reɪʃn/ n [U] ob-liv-ion /ə'blɪvɪən/ n [U] state of being completely forgotten. sink/fall into oblivion, be forgotten.

ob-liv-i-ous /ə'blɪvɪəs/ adj unaware, having no memory: ~ of one's surroundings/of what was happening.

ob-long /'ɒblɒŋ/ US: -lɔːŋ/ n [C], adj (figure) having four straight sides and angles at 90°, longer than it is wide.

ob-nox-i-ous /əb'nɒksɪəs/ adj (of, eg smell) nasty; very disagreeable (to).

ob-nox-i-ous-ly adv

oboe /'əʊbəʊ/ n [C] woodwind instrument of treble pitch with a double-reed mouthpiece.

'obo-ist /-ɪst/, player of the oboe.

ob-scene /əb'siːn/ adj (of words, thoughts, books, pictures, etc) morally disgusting; offensive; likely to corrupt (esp by regarding or describing sex indecently).

ob-scene-ly adv

ob-scen-ity /əb'seniːtɪ/ n (pl -ies) [U] being obscene; offensive language, etc; [C] instance of this.

ob-scure /əb'skjʊə(r)/ adj 1 dark; hidden; not clearly seen or understood: an ~ view/corner. Is the meaning still ~ to you? 2 not well known: an ~ village/poet. □ vt make obscure; hide: Clouds were obscuring the moon.

ob-scure-ly adv

ob-scur-ity /əb'skjʊərətɪ/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] state of being obscure: content to live in ~. 2 [C] something that is obscure: a philosophical essay full of obscurities.

ob-sequi-ous /əb'siːkwɪəs/ adj too eager to obey or serve; showing excessive respect (esp from hope of reward or advantage): ~ to the Manager.

ob-sequi-ous-ly adv

ob-serv-able /əb'zɜːvəbl/ adj 1 that can be seen or noticed. 2 deserving to be observed.

ob-serv-ance /əb'zɜːvns/ n 1 [U] the keeping or observing (2,3) of a law, custom, festival, etc: the ~ of Independence Day. 2 [C] act performed as part of a ceremony, or as a sign of respect or worship.

ob-serv-ant /əb'zɜːvnt/ adj 1 quick at noticing things: an ~ boy. 2 careful to observe (2) laws, customs, etc: ~ of the rules.

ob-serv-ant-ly adv

ob-serv-a-tion /ɒbzə'veɪʃn/ n 1 [U] observing or being observed: ~ of the stars. be/come/keep under observation, be watched/watch carefully: under medical ~. 2 [U] power of taking notice: a man of little ~. 3 (usually pl) collected and recorded information: ~s on bird life in the Antarctic. 4 [C] taking of the altitude of the sun or other heavenly body in order to find the latitude and longitude of one's position.

observation post (mil) post as near to the enemy's lines as possible, from which reports of the enemy's movements may be obtained.

ob-serv-a-tory /əb'zɜːvətɔːri/ US: -tɔːri/ n [C] (pl -ies) building from which natural things (eg the sun and the stars, marine life) may be observed.

ob-serve /əb'zɜːv/ vt, vi 1 see and notice; watch carefully: observing the behaviour of birds. The accused man was ~d entering the bank. 2 pay attention to (rules, etc). 3 celebrate (the usual word) (festivals, birthdays, etc): Do they ~ Christmas in that country? 4 say by way of comment: He ~d that the house seemed to be too small. 5 attend (eg a conference) to listen but not to take an active part.

ob-server, (a) person who observes (1): an ~r of nature. (b) person who observes (3): an ~r of the Sabbath. (c) person who observes (5).

ob-serv-ing adj quick to notice.

ob-serv-ing-ly adv

ob-sess /əb'ses/ vt (usually passive) (of a fear, etc) occupy the mind of; continually distress: ~ed by fear of unemployment/failure.

ob-ses-sion /əb'seʃn/ n 1 [U] state of being obsessed. 2 [C] thing, fixed idea, etc that occupies one's mind.

ob-sess-ive /əb'sesiv/ adj of or like an obsession.

ob-sol-es-cence /ɒbsə'lesns/ n [U] being obsolescent.

ob-sol-es-cent /ɒbsə'lesnt/ adj becoming out of date; passing out of use.

ob-sol-ete /'ɒbsəli:t/ adj no longer used; out-of-date.

ob-stacle /'ɒbstəkl/ n [C] something that stops progress or makes it difficult: ~s to world peace.

'obstacle race, (a) one in which obstacles, eg ditches, hedges, have to be crossed. (b) (fig) aim, etc with many difficulties to be overcome.

ob-ste-tri-cian /ɒbstet'riʃn/ n [C] expert in obstetrics.

ob-stet-rics /əb'stetrɪks/ n pl branch of medicine and surgery connected with childbirth.

ob-sti-nacy /'ɒbstɪnəsi/ n [U] being obstinate; stubbornness.

ob-sti-nate /'ɒbstɪnət/ adj 1 not easily giving way to argument or persuasion: ~ children. ⇨ mule. 2 not easily overcome: an ~ disease.

ob-sti-nate-ly adv

ob-struct /əb'strakt/ vt 1 be, get, put, something in the way of; block up (a road, passage, etc): Trees ~ed the view. 2 make (the development, etc of something) difficult: ~ justice in the magistrate's court.

ob-struc-tion /əb'strækʃn/ n 1 [U] obstructing or being obstructed: The Opposition adopted a policy of ~. 2 [C] something that obstructs: ~s on the road, eg trees blown down in a storm.

ob-struc-tive /əb'straktɪv/ adj causing, likely or intended to cause, obstruction: a policy ~ to our plans.

ob-tain /əb'teɪn/ vt, vi 1 get; secure for oneself; buy; have lent or granted to oneself: ~ what one wants. Where can I ~ the book? 2 (formal) (of rules, customs) be established or in use: The custom still ~s in some districts.

ob-tain-able /-əbl/ adj that can be obtained.

ob-trude /əb'tru:d/ vt, vi push (oneself, one's opinions, etc) forward, esp when unwanted.

ob-tru-sive /əb'tru:sɪv/ adj (making oneself) too noticeable.

ob-tru-sive-ly adv

ob-tuse /əb'tju:s/ US: -'tu:s/ adj 1 insensitive and not trying to be gentle or polite: an ~ remark. 2 (of a person) slow in understanding; unintelligent.

obtuse angle, one between 90° and 180°.

obtuse-ly adv

ob-tuse-ness n [U]

ob-vi-ate /'ɒbvɪet/ vt (formal) get rid of, clear away (dangers, difficulties, needs, etc).

ob-vi-ous /'ɒbvɪəs/ adj easily seen or understood; clear; plain.

ob-vi-ous-ly adv

oc-ca-sion /ə'keɪʒn/ n 1 [C] time at which a particular event takes place or should take place: on this/that ~...; on the present/last ~...; on rare ~s. He has had few ~s to speak French. on occasion, now and then; whenever the need arises. rise to the occasion, show that one is capable of doing what needs to be done. 2 [U] reason; cause; need: I've had no ~ to visit him recently. 3 [C] immediate, subsidiary or incidental cause of something: The real causes of the strike are not clear, but the ~ was the dismissal of two workmen. ⇨ vt (formal) be the cause of: The boy's behaviour ~ed his parents much anxiety.

oc-ca-sional /ə'keɪʒənl/ adj 1 happening, coming, seen, etc from time to time, but not regularly: He pays me ~ visits. 2 used or meant for a special event, time, purpose, etc: ~ verses, eg written to celebrate an anniversary.

oc-ca-sion-ally adv now and then; at times.

oc-cu-pancy /'ɒkjʊpənsɪ/ n [C] (pl -ies) act, fact, period of occupying a house, land, etc by being in possession.

oc-cu-pant /'ɒkjʊpənt/ n [C] 1 person who occupies a house, room or office. 2 person in actual possession of land, etc.

oc-cu-pa-tion /'ɒkjʊ'peɪʃn/ n 1 [U] act of occupying (1,2); taking and holding possession of: the ~ of a house by a family. 2 [U] period during which land, a building, etc is occupied. 3 [C] business, trade, etc. 4 [C] that which occupies one's time, either permanently or as a hobby, etc.

oc-cu-pa-tional /-ʃənl/ adj arising from, connected with, a person's job.

occu-pational hazards, risks that arise from a person's work (eg explosions in coal-mines).

occu-pational therapy, treatment of illness, etc by mental or physical activity.

oc-cu-pier /'ɒkjʊpaɪə(r)/ n [C] occupant; person in (esp temporary or subordinate) possession of land or a building (contrasted with the owner or tenant).

oc-cupy /'ɒkjʊpaɪ/ vt (pt, pp -ied) 1 live in, be in possession of, (a house, farm, etc). 2 take and keep possession of (towns, countries, etc) in war: ~ the enemy's capital. 3 take up, fill (space, time, attention, a seat, the mind):

Many anxieties ~ my mind. He is occupied with playing chess. Is this seat occupied? 4 hold, fill: She occupies an important position in the Department of the Environment.

oc-cur /ə'kʌ:(r)/ vi (-rr-) 1 take place; happen: When did the accident ~? 2 occur to, come to mind: Did it ever ~ to you that..., Did you ever have the idea that...? 3 exist; be found: Sadly poverty ~s in every country.

oc-cur-rence /ə'kʌrəns US: ə'kʌrəns/ n 1 [C] happening; event: an sad ~. 2 [U] fact or process of occurring: of frequent/rare ~.

ocean /əʊʃn/ n [C] 1 the great body of water that surrounds the land masses of the earth. 2 one of the main divisions of this: the Atlantic/Pacific O~. 3 (informal) great number or quantity: ~s of time.

oceanic /əʊʃi'ænik/ adj of, like, living in, the ocean.

ochre (US also ocher) /'əʊkə(r)/ n [U] 1 sorts of earth used for making pigments varying from light yellow to brown. 2 pale yellowish-brown colour.

o'clock /ə'klɒk/ particle (used in asking and telling the time) (ie an hour): He left at five ~. I'll come between five and six ~. It is nearly one ~.

oc-ta-gon /'ɒktəgən US: -gɒn/ n [C] flat figure with eight sides and angles.

oc-tag-onal /'ɒktəgənəl/ adj eight-sided.

oc-tane /'ɒkteɪn/ n [C,U] hydrocarbon paraffin (as in fuels such as petrol).

oc-tave /'ɒktɪv/ n [C] 1 (music) note that is six whole tones above or below a given note; the interval of five whole tones and two semitones; note and its octave sounded together. 2 (poetry) first eight lines of a sonnet; stanza of eight lines.

oc-tet, oc-tette /'ɒktet/ n [C] 1 (piece of music for) eight singers or players. 2 = octave(2).

Oc-to-ber /'ɒktəʊbə(r)/ n the tenth month of the year, with 31 days.

oc-to-gen-arian /'ɒktədʒi'neəriən/ n [C], adj (person) of an age from 80 to 89.

oc-to-pus /'ɒktəpəs/ n [C] (pl ~es) sea-animal having a soft body and eight arms (tentacles) with suckers.

ocu-lar /'ɒkjʊlə(r)/ adj (formal) of, for, by, the eyes; of seeing: ~ proof/demonstration.

ocu-list /'ɒkjʊlist/ n [C] specialist in diseases of the eye.

odd /ɒd/ adj 1 (of numbers) not even; not exactly divisible by two: 1, 3, 5 and 7 are ~ numbers. 2 of one of a pair when the other is missing: an ~ shoe/glove. 3 of one or more of a set or series when not with the rest: two ~ volumes of an encyclopaedia. odd man 'out, (a) person or thing left when the others have been arranged in pairs. (b) (informal) person who keeps away from, or cannot fit himself into, the society, community, etc of which he is a member. 4 with a little extra: 'thirty-~ years, between 30 and 40; twelve 'pounds ~, £12 and some pence extra. 5 not regular, habitual or fixed; occasional: make a living by doing ~ jobs; knit at ~ times/moments. 6 (-er, -est) strange; peculiar: He's an ~/-looking old man. How ~!

odd-ly adv in a strange manner: Oddly enough..., As strange as it may seem...

odd-ity /'ɒdɪti/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] quality of being odd(6); strangeness: ~ of behaviour/dress. 2 [C] queer act, thing or person.

odd-ment /'ɒdmənt/ n [C] something left over; spare piece: The chair was sold as an ~ at the end of the auction. ⇨ odds and ends.

odds /ɒdz/ n pl 1 the chances in favour of or against something happening: The ~ are in our favour/against us, We are likely/unlikely to succeed. 2 difference in amount between the money betted and the money that will be paid if the bet is successful: ~ of ten to one. 3 be at odds (with sb) (over sth), be quarrelling or disagreeing.

odds and ends, small articles, bits and pieces, of various sorts and usually of small value.

ode /əʊd/ n [C] poem, usually in irregular metre, rhyming and expressing noble feelings.

odi-ous /'əʊdiəs/ adj hateful; repulsive.

odi-ous-ly adv

odium /'əʊdiəm/ n [U] (formal) general or widespread hatred; strong feeling against something: inhuman behaviour that exposed him to ~.

odour (US = odor) /'əʊdə(r)/ n [C] pleasant or unpleasant smell.

odour-less (US = odor-) adj od-ys-sey /'ɒdɪsi/ n [C] (pl ~es) long, adventurous journey or series of adventures (from the voyage of Odysseus after the siege of Troy, in Homer's epic).

oecu-meni-cal /i:kju:'menɪkl/ adj = ecumenical.

o'er /ɔ:(r)/ adv, prep (poetic) = over.

oesoph-agus /i:'sɒfəɡəs/ n = esophagus.

of /ʊsual form: əv strong form: ɒv/ prep 1 (showing separation in space or time): five miles south ~ Leeds. 2 (showing origin, authorship): ~ royal descent; the works ~ Shakespeare. 3 (showing cause): die ~ grief/hunger. 4 (showing relief, removal, separation, etc): cure her ~ a disease/a bad habit; rid a warehouse ~ rats; free ~ customs duty; independent ~ help; short ~ money. 5 (showing material, substance or identity): a dress ~ silk; built ~ brick; a centimetre ~ rain; your letter ~ 2 June. 6 (description, quality, etc): a girl ~ ten (years), ten years old; a case ~ measles; cameras ~ Japanese manufacture; the countries ~ Europe. 7 (in the pattern noun + of + noun): Where's that fool ~ an assistant, that foolish assistant? We had a whale ~ a good time. ⇨ whale(2). 8 (showing objective relation): the writer ~ this letter; loss ~ power/appetite; the fear ~ being killed. 9 (showing subjective relation): the love ~ God, God's love for mankind; with the help ~ my family. 10 (showing connection, reference or belonging): the cause ~ the accident; a topic ~ conversation; the leg ~ the table, the table leg; the opposite ~ what I intended; a Doctor ~ Medicine; be accused/suspected/convicted ~ a crime; What ~ (= about) the risk? 11 (showing sharing, inclusion, measure, selection): a pint ~ milk; one/a few/all ~ us. He's the most dangerous ~ enemies. It surprises me that you, ~ all men (= most or least of all), should be so foolish. 12 (in the pattern noun + off + possessive) from among the number of: a friend ~ mine; a volume ~ Keat's poetry; that foolish young wife ~ yours. 13 (in the pattern adj + off + pronoun/noun): How kind ~ you to help! 14 (showing time): In days ~ old, in the past. off late, recently. 15 by: beloved ~ all.

off¹ /ɒf US: ɔ:f/ adj 1 (contrasted with near) (of horses, vehicles) on the right-hand side: the ~ front wheel; the ~side lane of the motorway. 2 (remotely) possible or likely. on the 'off chance, ⇨ *chance*¹(2). 3 inactive; dull: the ~ season.

off-peak, ⇨ peak(3).

off-putting, ⇨ put off.

off-the-record, ⇨ *record*¹(2).

off² /ɒf US: ɔ:f/ adverbial particle (For special uses with off as an adverbial particle such as go off; turn sth off, ⇨ the verb entries.) 1 (showing distance in space or time) departure, removal, separation at or to a distance; away: The town is five miles ~. The holidays are not far ~, will soon arrive. He's ~ to London, going to London. It's time I was ~/I must be ~ now, I must leave now. Take your coat ~. O ~ with his head! Cut his head off! 2 (contrasted with on) (showing the ending of something arranged, planned, etc): Their engagement (ie to marry) is (broken) ~, ended. The miners' strike is ~. I've paid ~ the loan. 3 (contrasted with on) disconnected; no longer available: The water/gas/electricity/brake is ~. 4 (showing absence or freedom from work or duty): The manager gave the staff a day ~, a day's holiday. 5 (of food) no longer fresh: This meat/fish is/has gone ~. a bit 'off, (sl) (slightly) annoying: It's a bit ~, making me work over the weekend! 6 (in a theatre) behind or at the side(s) of the stage: Noises ~. on and off; off and on, from time to time; now and again; irregularly: It rained on and ~ all day. better/worse off, ⇨ *better*²(1), worse adv(1). badly/comfortably/well off, ⇨ these adverbs. right/straight off, at once (away is more usual).

off³ /ɒf US: ɔ:f/ prep 1 not on; down or up from; away from: fall ~ a ladder/a tree/a horse. Keep ~ the grass. Can you take something ~ (ie reduce) the price? She is wearing an ~ the shoulder 'dress, with no neckline, straps, etc. 2 (of a road or street) extending or branching from: a narrow lane ~ the main road. 3 at some distance from: an island ~ the coast. 4 (informal) not taking or indulging in: I'm ~ my food, have no appetite, don't enjoy it. She's ~ smoking/drugs, does not smoke/take drugs any more. 5 not quite: ~ white. (look) off colour, ⇨ *colour*¹(2). off duty, ⇨ duty(1). be rushed off one's feet, ⇨ *foot*¹(2). (go) off one's head, ⇨ *head*¹(20). off the map, ⇨ map. (wander) off the point, ⇨ *point*¹(9). off side, ⇨ offside.

off- /ɒf US: ɔ:f/ prefix (used in numerous compounds). ⇨ the entries below.

off-fal /'ɒf US: ɔ:fəl/ n [U] those parts of an animal, eg heart, head, kidneys, but not the flesh, used for food.

off-beat /ɒf 'bi:t US: ɔ:f/ adj (informal) unusual; unconventional: an ~ bow/tique.

off-day /'ɒf deɪ US: ɔ:f deɪ/ n [C] (informal) day when one is unlucky, does things badly, etc: I'm afraid this is one of my ~s.

off-fence (US = off-fense) /ɔ:fens/ n 1 [C] crime, sin, breaking of a rule: an ~ against the law/good manners; be charged with a serious ~. 2 [U] the hurting of a person's feelings; condition of being hurt in one's feelings: No ~ meant! (phrase used to say) I did not intend to hurt your feelings. take offence, be offended: He's quick to take ~, is easily offended. 3 [U] attacking: They say that the most effective defence is ~. 4 [C] that which annoys or causes anger: That dirty house is an ~ to the neighbourhood.

off-fend /ɔ:fend/ vi, vt 1 do wrong; commit an offence: ~ against good manners/the law/traditions. 2 hurt the feelings of: I'm sorry if I've ~ed you/if you were ~ed by my remarks. 3 displease; annoy: ugly buildings that ~ the eye.

off-fender, person who offends, esp by breaking a law.

off-fense /ɔ:fens/ ⇨ offence.

off-fen-sive /ɔ:fensiv/ adj 1 causing offence to the mind or senses; disagreeable: fish with an ~ smell; ~ language. 2 used for, connected with, attacking: ~ weapons/wars. ⇨ defensive. □ n [C] attacking; an attack: launch an ~ against the enemy. take the/mount an offensive, start to attack.

off-fen-sive-ly adv

off-fen-sive-ness n [U] off-fer /'ɒfə(r) US: ɔ:f- / vi, vt 1 hold out, put forward, to be accepted or refused; say what one is willing to pay, give or exchange: They ~ed a reward. I have been ~ed a job in Spain. He ~ed to help me. He ~ed me his help. 2 present (to God): ~ (up) prayers to God. 3 attempt; give signs of: ~ no resistance to the enemy. 4 occur; arise: Take the first opportunity that ~s, that there is. □ n [C] statement offering to do or give; that which is offered: an ~ of help. I've had an ~ of £9000 for the house. be open to offers, be willing to consider a price to be named by a buyer.

off-fer-ing /'ɒfəriŋ/ US: 'ɔ:f-/ n 1 [U] act of offering: the ~ing of bribes. 2 [C] something offered or presented, eg the money collected during a church service. ⇨ also peace-offering.

off-fer-tory /'ɒfətəri/ US: -tɔ:ri/ n [C] (pl -ies) money collected in church during, or at the end of, a service.

off-hand /ɒf'hænd/ US: ɔ:f/ adj 1 without previous thought or preparation: ~ remarks. 2 (of behaviour, etc) casual; impolite: in an ~ way. □ adv without previous thought or preparation: I can't say ~ whether I agree.

off-ice /'ɒfis/ US: 'ɔ:f-/ n [C] 1 (often pl) room(s) used as a place of business, for clerical work: a lawyer's/business ~. ⇨ booking-office, box-office. 2 (buildings of a) government department, including the staff, their work and duties: the 'Foreign O~. 3 duty, esp in a public position of trust or authority: Which party will be in ~ after the next general election? 4 duty: the ~ of chairman. 5 (pl) (formal) attentions, services, help: through the good ~s (= kind help) of a friend.

'office-bearer, official; officer.

'office-block, large building with business offices.

'office-boy, boy employed to do minor jobs in an office.

'office hours, period during the day when a business is active.

'office-worker, employee in an office (1).

off-icer /'ɒfisa(r)/ US: 'ɔ:f-/ n [C] 1 person appointed to command others in the armed forces, in merchant ships, aircraft, the police force, etc usually wearing special uniform with indications of rank: ~s and men/crew. 2 person with a position of authority or trust, engaged in active duties, eg in the government: executive/clerical ~s; a customs ~. 3 form of address to a policeman.

off-icial /ə'fi:ʃl/ adj 1 of a position of trust or authority; said, done, etc with authority: ~ responsibilities/records; in his ~ uniform; ~ statements. The news is not ~. 2 characteristic of, suitable for, persons holding office: written in ~ style. □ n [C] person holding public office (eg in national or local government).

off-icially /-fəli/ adv in an official manner; with authority.

off-ici-ate /ə'fi:ʃiət/ vi do the duties expected of an office or position: ~ as chairman; ~ at a marriage ceremony, (of a priest) perform the ceremony.

off-fi-cious /ə'fi:ʃəs/ adj (formal) too eager or ready to use one's authority, rank, etc.

off-fi-cious-ly adv

off-ing /'ɒfiŋ/ US: 'ɔ:f-/ n 1 [C] part of the sea distant from the point of observation but visible: a steamer in the ~. 2 in the offering, (fig) possible: Promotion is in the ~.

off-ish /'ɒʃɪʃ/ US: 'ɔ:f-/ adj (informal) distant in manner. ⇨ stand-offish.

off-licence /'ɒf laɪns/ US: 'ɔ:f/ n [C] 1 licence to sell beer and other alcoholic drinks for drinking off the premises. 2 shop, part of a public house, where such drinks may be bought and taken away.

off-load /ɒf'ləʊd/ US: ɔ:f/ vt unload: ~ a cargo; ~ shares onto the market.

off-peak /'ɒf pi:k/ US: 'ɔ:f/ adj ⇨ peak (3).

off-putting /ɒf'pʊtɪŋ/ US: ɔ:f/ adj (informal) disconcerting. ⇨ put off.

off-set /'ɒfset/ US: 'ɔ:f-/ vt (-tt-) balance, compensate for: He has to ~ his small salary by freelance work. □ n [C] method of printing in which the ink is transferred from a plate to a rubber surface and then on to paper.

off-shoot /'ɒfʃu:t/ US: 'ɔ:f-/ n [C] 1 stem or branch growing from a main stem. 2 (fig) branch (of a family, mountain range, etc).

off-shore /'ɒf ʃɔ:(r)/ US: 'ɔ:f/ adj 1 in a direction away from the shore or land: ~ breezes. 2 at a short way out to sea: ~ islands/fisheries.

off-side /ɒf'saɪd/ US: ɔ:f/ adj, adv (in football, hockey) (of a player) in a position in front of the ball which is against the rules: be ~; the ~ rule.

off-spring /'ɒfsprɪŋ/ US: 'ɔ:f-/ n [C] (pl unchanged) child; children; young of animals: He's the ~ of a scientist and a dancer.

off-white /ɒf'waɪt/ US: ɔ:f'hwait/ adj not pure white.

oft /ɒft/ US: ɔ:ft/ adv (poetic) = often: many a time and ~, very often.

'oft-times adv (archaic) = often.

of-ten /'ɒfn/ US: 'ɔ:fən/ adv of frequency (more ~, most ~ is more usual than -er, -est) many times; in a large number of instances: We ~ go there. We've been there quite ~, several times. as often as not; more often than not, very frequently: During foggy weather the trains are late more ~ than not. every so often, from time to time. how often: How ~ do the buses run? once too often, once more than is wise, safe, etc: You've let me down once too ~ and I shall not trust you again.

ogle /'ɒʊgl/ vi, vt stare at; make eyes at (suggesting love or longing): ogling all the pretty girls.

ogre /'ɒʊgrə(r)/ n [C] (in fables) cruel man-eating giant.

ogress /'ɒʊgrɪs/, female ogre.

oh /əʊ/ int exclamation of surprise, fear, etc.

ohm /əʊm/ n [C] (symbol Ω) unit of electrical resistance.

oho /əʊ'həʊ/ int exclamation of surprise or triumph.

oil /ɔɪl/ n [C,U] 1 (sorts of) liquid which does not mix with water, obtained from animals (eg cod-liver 'oil) plants (eg olive-'oil), or found in rock underground ('mineral oil, petroleum). burn the midnight oil, sit up late at night to study, etc. strike oil, (a) find petroleum in the ground. (b) (fig) become very prosperous or successful. 2 (pl) oil colours. paint in oils, paint with oil colours (⇒ oil colours below). □ vt put oil on or into (eg to make a machine run smoothly).

'oil-bearing adj (eg of rock) containing mineral oil.

'oil-can, can with a long spout, containing fine oil used for oiling machinery.

'oil-cloth, waterproofed cotton material.

'oil colours n pl paints made by mixing colouring matter in oil.

'oil-field, area where petroleum is found.

'oil-fired adj burning oil as fuel: ~fired central heating.

'oil-painting, (a) [U] art of painting in oil colours. (b) [C] picture painted in oil colours.

'oil-rig, structure for drilling (eg in the seabed) for oil.

'oil-skin, (a) [C,U] (coat, etc made of) cloth treated with oil to make it waterproof. (b) (pl) suit of clothes made of this material, as worn by sailors, etc.

'oil slick, layer of oil on the sea, etc (eg from an oil-tanker after a collision).

'oil-tanker, ship, large vehicle, for carrying oil (esp petroleum).

'oil-well, well producing petroleum.

oiled /ɔɪld/ adj (usually well-oiled) (sl) drunk.

oily /ɔɪli/ adj (-ier, -iest) 1 of or like oil: an ~ liquid. 2 covered or soaked with oil: ~ fingers. 3 (of speech or manner) using flattery (to win favour).

oint-ment /ɔɪntmənt/ n [C,U] (sorts of) medicinal paste made from oil or fat and used on the skin (to heal injuries or roughness, or as a cosmetic).

okay /əʊ'keɪ/ adj, adv (common abbr OK) (informal) all right; correct; approved. □ vt agree to; approve of. □ n [C] agreement; sanction: Have they given you their OK?

okra /'ɒkrə/ n [C,U] (tropical and semi-tropical plant with) pointed green seed pods used as a vegetable.

old /əʊld/ adj (-er, -est) ⇒ also elder¹, eldest. 1 (with a period of time, and with how) of age: He's forty years ~ [a forty-year-~]. How ~ are you? He's ~ enough to know better. 2 (contrasted with young) having lived a long time; no longer young or middle-aged: He's far too ~ for the job. What will he do when he grows/ is/gets ~? (the) young and old, everyone. 3 (contrasted with new, modern, up-to-date) belonging to past times; having been in existence or use for a long time: ~ clothes; ~ customs/families/civilizations/times. 4 long known or familiar: an ~ friend of mine, one who has been a friend for a long time (but not necessarily old in years). 5 former; previous (but not necessarily old in years): ~ boys, former pupils. 6 having much experience or practice: He's an ~ supporter of the club/ member of the committee. 7 (informal) (used in addressing persons): 'Good ~ John! 'Hullo, ~ thing! 8 (informal) (used to intensify): Any ~ thing (= Anything whatever) will do. □ n [U] 1 the ~, old people. 2 of old, in, from, the past: in days of ~; the men of ~.

'old-ish /-ɪʃ/ adj a little old.

old age, period of life from about 60 years.

old age 'pensioner, = senior citizen.

'old country, person's country of origin.

old-'fashioned adj (a) out-of-date. (b) keeping to older ways, etc: an ~fashioned 'child. (c) critical: an ~fashioned 'look.

the old guard, faithful members, supporters.

old hand, person with long experience: an ~ hand at negotiating.

old hat, (informal) boringly familiar thing or person.

old maid, elderly woman thought unlikely to marry.

old man, (informal) (a) husband; father. (b) employer, headmaster, ship's captain, etc. (c) male friend. ⇒ 4, 7 above.

old master, great painter or painting, esp of the 13th to 17th centuries.

Old Nick, the devil.

old offender, person often convicted of crimes.

'old school, (a) the school attended as a pupil. (b) conservative, old-fashioned (person): He's one of the ~ school.

old soldier, (fig) experienced person.

old-time adj belonging to former times: ~time 'dancing.

old-timer, person having a long association with a place, job, group, etc.

old woman, (informal) (a) wife; mother. (b) fussy or timid man. Hence, old-'womanish adj.

old-world, adj belonging to former times.

the Old World, Europe, Asia and Africa.

old year, year just ended or about to end.

olden /'əʊldən/ adj (literary) of a former age: in ~ times/days.

oli-garchy /'ɒlɪgə:kɪ/ n [C,U] (pl -ies) (country with) government by a small group of powerful persons; such a group.

ol-ive /'ɒlɪv/ n 1 [C] (evergreen tree common in S Europe bearing a) small oval fruit with a hard seed like a stone and a bitter taste, yellowish-green when unripe and bluish-black when ripe; used for pickling, eaten raw or used to make an oil, (~-'oil), which is used for cooking, in salads, etc. 2 [C] leaf, branch or wreath of olive branches as an emblem of peace. 3 [U] (also used as an adjective) yellowish-green or yellowish-brown (colour).

Olympic /ə'limpɪk/ adj the ~ Games (informal the ~s) 1 the contests held at Olympia in Greece in ancient times. 2 the international athletic and sports competitions held in modern times every four years in a different country.

om-buds-man /'ɒmbʊdzmæn/ n [C] the O~, (in GB officially called Parliamentary Commissioner) experienced person having authority to inquire into and judge grievances of citizens (against the executive branch of Government).

omega /'əʊmɪgə/ US: əʊ'megə/ n [C] 1 the last letter (Ω) of the Greek alphabet. 2 (fig) final development; last of a series.

om-elette, (also om-elet) /'ɒmlɪt/ n [C] eggs beaten together and fried, often flavoured with cheese, etc.

omen /'əʊmən/ n [C,U] (thing, happening, regarded as a) sign of something good or warning of evil fortune: an event of good/bad ~. □ vt be an omen of.

om-in-ous /'ɒmɪnəs/ adj threatening: an ~ silence; ~ of disaster.

om-in-ous-ly adv

omis-sion /ə'mɪʃn/ n 1 [U] act of omitting, leaving out; neglect. 2 [C] something that is omitted.

omit /ə'mɪt/ vt (-tt-) 1 fail: ~ to say/~ saying who wrote it. 2 fail to include; leave out: The rail fare has been ~ted from the accounts.

om-ni-bus /'ɒmnɪbəs/ n [C] (pl ~es) 1 (former name for a) bus (sometimes used in names): The ~Midland ~O~ Co. 2 (used as an adjective) for, including, many purposes: an ~ volume, in which a number of books, eg by the same author, are reprinted.

om-nip-otence /ɒm'nɪpətəns/ n [U] infinite power: the ~ of God.

om-nip-otent /-ənt/ adj having infinite power. the O~, God.

on /ɒn/ adverbial particle (For special uses with on as an adverbial particle such as go on, go on sth, ⇨ the verb entries.) 1 (expressing the idea of progress, advance, continued activity; ⇨ verb entries for special uses): Come ~! I'll follow ~, come after you. He's getting ~ in years, growing old. O~ with the show! Let the show begin, continue! and 'so on, ⇨ *so*²(1). later on, ⇨ *late*²(1). on and 'on, without stopping: We walked ~ and ~ until we reached the river. off and on, ⇨ *off*²(6). 2 (corresponding in meaning to *on*²(1)): Your hat is not ~ straight. He climbed ~ to the table. 3 (contrasted with *off*²(3)) in action; in use; available; functioning; flowing, running, etc: The lights were all ~. Someone has left the bathroom tap ~, running. The film is ~, has begun. Is the strike ~? Is the hot water ~ yet? 4

(combined with be and have in various meanings): What's ~? What's the programme/happening? Have you anything ~ this evening, any engagements, plans, etc? have nothing on, (a) be naked. (b) have no commitment; be free: I've nothing ~ until 9 o'clock. be 'on to, (a) be aware of a person's intentions, activities, etc. (b) be aware of the importance, etc of something. 5 towards: end/head ~, ie with the end/front forward.

on² /ɒn/ prep (Can be replaced by upon, esp formal style, in 6,7,8,10 below) 1 supported by; fastened or attached to; covering or forming part of (a surface); lying against; in contact with: a carpet ~ the floor; the jug ~ the table; the words (written) ~ the poster; sit ~ the grass; write ~ paper; stick a stamp ~ the envelope; live ~ the Continent; have lunch ~ the train. Have you a match/any money ~ you, ie in your pockets, etc? 2 (of time) (a) during; exactly at: ~ Sunday(s)/the 1st of May; ~ that day; ~ this occasion. (b) at the time of: ~ my arrival home; ~ (my) asking for information. ⇨ *time*¹(3). 3 about; concerning: a lecture ~ Shakespeare. 4 (of membership): He is ~ the committee/the jury/the staff. 5 (of direction) towards: marching ~ the enemy's capital; turn one's back ~ her. 6 (expressing the basis, ground or reason for something): a story based ~ fact; act ~ your lawyer's advice; arrested ~ a charge of theft; be ~ one's oath/one's honour. 7 (of a charge or imposition): put a tax ~ tobacco. 8 close to; against: a town ~ the coast; ~ both sides of the river; ~ my right/left; just ~ (= almost) 2 o'clock/£10. 9 (concerning, about, affecting an activity, action, manner, state): ~ business/holiday; ~ the way, coming; ~ fire, burning; ~ sale/loan. 10 added to: suffer disaster ~ disaster.

once /wʌns/ adv 1 for one time; on one occasion only: I have been there ~. He goes to see his parents ~ (in) every six months. once more, ⇨ more(3). once or twice; (every) once in a while, ⇨ while. (just for once, on this one occasion only, as an exception. once and for 'all, ⇨ *all*⁴(2). 2 at some indefinite time in the past; formerly: (a) He ~ lived in Munich. (b) (in story-telling style): O~ upon a time there was a giant with two heads. There ~ lived a king who had twelve beautiful daughters. 3 ever; at all; even for one time: He didn't ~/He never ~ offered to help. 4 at once, (a) without delay; immediately: I'm leaving for Rome at ~. Come here at ~! (b) at the same time: Don't all speak at ~! I can't do two things at ~. All at once..., Suddenly... □ conj as soon as; when: O~ you understand this particular instruction, you will have no further difficulty.

on-com-ing /'ɒnkamɪŋ/ adj advancing; approaching: ~ traffic. □ n [C] approach: the ~ of winter.

one¹ /wʌn/ adj, n [C] 1 (of) 1: ~ pen, two pencils and three books; ~ from twenty leaves nineteen; ~ o'clock; twenty-~; ~ thousand; ~ half. one and all, everyone. one or two, a few: I shall be away only ~ or two days. by ones and twos, one or two at a time: People began to leave the meeting by ~s and twos. be one 'up (on sb), have an advantage over him, be one step ahead of him. 2 (similar in function to a and an): ~ day/morning. (Note: compare one summer evening and on a summer evening.) 3 (used to show a contrast with the other, another or other(s)): It is difficult for strangers to tell (the) ~ from the other. Well, that's ~ way of doing it, but there is another way. He did not know which to admire more, the ~s courage or the other's determination. for 'one thing, ⇨ thing(5). 4 (always stressed; used for emphasis): That's the ~ thing needed. 5 (dated) (used before a family name, with or without a title) a certain: I heard the news from ~ Mr Smith. 6 (used as an adjective) the same: They all went off in ~ direction. in one, combined: He is President, Chairman and Secretary in ~. 7 one of ..., single person or thing of the sort indicated or supplied: O~ of my friends (pl Some of my friends) arrived late. If ~ of them (pl any of them) should need help... I borrowed ~ of your books (= a book of yours; pl some of your books) last week. one-off adj once only. one-sided adj (a) having one side only; occurring on one side only. (b) unfair; prejudiced: a ~-sided argument. one-time adj former: a ~-time politician. one-way, in which traffic may proceed in one direction only: a ~-way street. one² /wʌn/ indefinite pron (used in place of a noun standing for a member of a class) 1 one of, (showing inclusion; equivalent to among): Mr Smith is not ~ of my customers. We have always treated her as ~ (= a member) of the family. 2 (replacing a noun used with a, an, any, some): I haven't a pen. Can you lend me ~? I haven't any stamps. Will you please give me ~? (Note: compare I like that pen. Can I borrow it?) 3 (equivalent to that, those): I drew my chair nearer to the ~ (= to that) on which Mary was sitting. The children who do best in examinations are not always the ones (= those) with the best brains. 4 (used after the, that, etc or after an adjective as in): a better ~; that ~. He collects stamps and he has some very rare ~s. My cheap camera seems to be just as good as John's expensive ~. this/that one: Will you have this (~) or that (~)? (Note: pl = Will you have these or those? With an adjective 'one' is necessary: Will you have this green one/these green ~s?) which one: Here are some books on European history. Which ~(s) do you want? one³ /wʌn/ personal pron 1 a particular person or creature: the 'Holy O~, God; the 'Evil O~, Satan, the Devil; the little ~s, the children. He's not ~ to be (= not a man who is) easily frightened. 2 one another('s), (used, like each other, to show mutual action or relation): They don't like ~ another. They were throwing stones and trying to break ~ another's heads.

one⁴ /wʌn/ impersonal pron (possessive = one's; reflexive = oneself) (formal) any person, including the speaker or writer: O~ cannot always find time for reading. O~ doesn't like to have ~'s word doubted.

on-er-ous /'ɒnəɪs/ adj (formal) needing effort; burdensome (to): ~ duties.

on-er-ous-ly adv

one-self /wʌn'self/ pron 1 (reflexive) one's own self: wash/dress ~. (all) by oneself. (a) alone. (b) without help. 2 (used for emphasis): To be certain one must look at it ~.

on-go-ing /'ɒŋɡəʊŋ/ adj progressing; continuing: ~ research.

onion /'ɒnɪən/ n [C] vegetable plant which is a (usually) round bulb with a strong smell and flavour, used in cooking and pickled; [U] this plant as food.

on-looker /'ɒnlʊkə(r)/ n [C] person who looks on at something happening.

only¹ /'ɒnli/ adj 1 (used with a sing noun) that is the one specimen of its class; single: Smith was the ~ person able to do it. Harry is an ~ child, has no brothers or sisters. 2 (used with a pl noun) that are all the specimens or examples: We were the ~ people wearing hats. 3 best; most worth consideration: He's the ~ man for me.

only² /'ɒnli/ adv solely; and no, no one, nothing, more: I ~ saw 'Mary, I saw Mary and no one else. Compare: I ~ saw Mary, I saw her but didn't speak to her. We've ~ half an hour to wait now. if only. ⇨ if(7). only too, (+ adj or pp) very: I shall be ~ too 'pleased to get home.

only³ /'ɒnli/ conj but then; it must, however, be added that: I like the book very much, ~ it's expensive.

ono-mato-poeia /ɒnəʊmə'tpi:ə/ n [U] (formation of) words or names from sounds of the thing concerned (eg cuckoo for the bird that makes this cry).

on-rush /'ɒnrʌʃ/ n [C] strong, onward rush or flow.

on-set /'ɒnset/ n [C] attack; vigorous start: at the first ~ of the disease.

on-shore /'ɒnʃɔ:(r)/ adj, adv toward the shore.

on-slaught /'ɒnslɔ:t/ n [C] furious attack (on).

onto /'ɒntə strong form: 'ɒntu:/ prep = on; on to; upon. ⇨ on¹(2).

onus /'əʊnəs/ n (sing only) responsibility for, duty of, doing something: The ~ of proof rests with you.

on-ward /'ɒnwəd/ adj, adv forward: an ~ march/movement. □ adv (also on-wards) towards the front; forward: move ~ (s).

onyx /'ɒnɪks/ n [U] (sorts of) quartz in layers of different colours, used for ornaments, in jewellery, etc.

oodles /'uːdlz/ n pl (sl) great amounts: ~ of money/love.

ooze /uːz/ n [U] soft liquid mud, esp on a river-bed, the bottom of a pond, lake, etc. □ vi, vt 1 (of moisture, thick liquids) pass slowly through small openings: Blood was still oozing from the wound. 2 emit (moisture, confidence, etc): He was oozing sweat. 3 (fig) slowly go away: Their courage was oozing away.

opac-ity /əʊ'pæsəti/ n [U] (quality of) being opaque.

opal /'əʊpəl/ n [C] kinds of semi-precious stone some of which slowly change colour.

opaque /əʊ'peɪk/ adj not allowing light to pass through; that cannot be seen through.

opaque-ly adv

op art /'ɒp ɑ:t/ n [U] form of modern abstract art using geometrical patterns which produce optical illusions of movement.

open /'əʊpən/ adj 1 not closed; allowing (things, persons) to go in, out, through: sleep with ~ windows; leave the back door ~. 2 not enclosed, fenced in, barred or blocked: ~ country; the ~ sea. 3 not covered in or over: an ~ boat, one without a deck; an ~ car, with no roof or a roof that is folded back. in the ~ air, outside (a building, etc). 4 spread out; unfolded: The flowers were all ~. The book lay ~ on the table. with open arms, ⇨ *arm*¹(1). 5 public; free to all; not limited to any special persons, but for anyone to enter: an ~ competition/championship/scholarship. The position is still ~, No one has yet been appointed. keep open house, offer hospitality to everyone. 6 not settled or decided: leave a matter ~. have/keep an open mind (on sth), ⇨ *mind*¹(2). 7 ready for business or for the admission of the public: Are the shops ~ yet? 8 known to all; not secret or disguised; frank: an ~ quarrel/scandal. Let me be quite ~ (= frank) with you. 9 unprotected; unguarded: ~ to ridicule/attack. 10 not settled, finished or closed: keep one's account ~ at a bank. ⇨ also offer(4). □ n the ~, the open air. come out into the open, (fig) come into public view; make one's ideas, plans, etc known.

,open-and-'shut adj easily decided.

'open-air adj taking place out of doors; not covered: an ~ air 'swimming-pool. ⇨ 3 above.

'open-cast adj (of mines or mining) on the surface.

open cheque, one that is not crossed and may be cashed at the bank named.

open court, one to which the public are admitted.

,open-ended adj (a) with no limit or boundary. (b) (of a debate, etc) with many possible solutions or where no agreement is expected, reached, etc.

,open-handed adj generous.

,open-hearted adj kind, generous.

open market, with free competition for sellers and buyers.

,open-'minded adj without prejudice.

,open-'mouthed adj amazed; surprised.

open-plan adj (of an office, etc) without walls between staff areas.

open prison, one with fewer physical restrictions.

,open 'sandwich, single slice of bread, etc with meat, cheese, etc on top.

'open season, (fishing and shooting) when there are no restrictions.

,open 'secret, something meant to be secret, but known to all.

open society, without a rigid class structure, religiously free, etc.

,Open ,Uni'versity, British university (founded in 1971) whose students live at home and are taught by correspondence, textbooks and radio and TV programmes; similar organization in other countries.

open verdict, jury's agreement that a crime was committed but not naming the criminal, not giving the cause of death, etc.

open vowel, one made with the roof of the mouth and the tongue wide apart, eg /e, æ, ɒ/.

'open-work, work (in lace, metal) with spaces.

open-ly adv without secrecy; frankly; publicly: speak ~ly. ⇨ *open*¹(8).

open-ness n [U] frankness.

open² /'əʊpən/ vt, vi 1 make, cause to be, open; unfasten: ~ a box. O ~ up! Open this door! 2 cut or make an opening in or a passage through: ~ a new road through a forest. 3 make accessible; make possible the development of: ~ up a mine/undeveloped land/a new territory to trade. 4 spread out; unfold: ~ one's hand/a book/a newspaper/an envelope/a map. open one's mind/heart to sb, make known one's ideas/feelings. 5 start: ~ an account, eg at a bank, shop; ~ a debate/a public meeting. open fire, ⇨ *fire*¹(5). open with, start: The story ~s with a murder. 6 declare, show, that business, etc may now start: ~ a shop/an office; ~ Parliament. 7 become open; be opened: The flowers are ~ing. The door ~ed and a man came in.

opener, person or thing that opens: (used chiefly in compounds) a tin-'bottle-~er. ⇨ also eye-opener.

open-ing /'əʊpnɪŋ/ n [C] 1 open space; way in or out: an ~ in a hedge. 2 beginning: the ~ of a book/speech. 3 process of becoming open: the ~ of a flower. 4 position (in a business firm) which is open or vacant; opportunity: an ~ in an advertising section. 5 (chess) known system of early moves in a game. □ adj first: his ~ remarks.

'opening time, when public houses, bars, etc begin to serve customers.

op-er-a /'ɒpərə/ n (pl ~s) 1 [C] dramatic composition with music, in which the words are sung. 2 [U] dramatic works of this kind as entertainment: fond of ~; the ~ season.

comic opera, with spoken dialogue and a happy ending.

grand opera, with no spoken dialogue.

light opera, with a humorous subject.

'opera-glasses, small binoculars for use in a theatre.

'opera-house, theatre for operas.

op-er-atic /'ɒpə'reɪtɪk/ adj op-er-able /'ɒpərəbl/ adj that can be treated by means of a surgical operation.

op-er-ate /'ɒpə'reɪt/ vt, vi 1 (cause to) work, be in action, have an effect; manage: ~ a machine. The lift was not operating properly. The company ~s two factories. 2 perform a surgical operation: The doctors decided to ~ at once. 3 (of an army) carry out various movements: operating on a large scale.

'operating-table/-theatre, for use in surgical operations.

op-er-ation /'ɒpə'reɪʃn/ n 1 [U] working; way in which something works: Is this rule in ~ yet? 2 [C] piece of work; something (to be) done. 3 (usually pl) movements of troops, ships, aircraft, etc in warfare or during manoeuvres. 4 [C] planned campaigns in industry, etc: building/banking ~s. 5 [C] act performed by a surgeon on any part of the body, esp by cutting to take away or deal with a diseased part: an ~ for appendicitis.

op-er-ational /-fə'nəl/ adj (a) of, for, used in, operations. (b) ready for use: When will the new airliner be ~al?

op-er-at-ive /'ɒpə'reɪv/ US: -ə'reɪt-/adj 1 operating; having an effect: This law became ~ on 1 May. 2 of surgical operations: ~ treatment. □ n [C] worker; mechanic: cotton ~s.

op-er-a-tor /'ɒpə'reɪtə(r)/ n [C] 1 person who operates or works something: telephone ~s; airline ~s. 2 (sl) confident, efficient man (in business, love affairs, etc): He's a smooth ~.

op-er-etta /'ɒpə'retə/ n [C] (pl ~s) one-act, or short, light musical comedy.

oph-thal-mic /'ɒfθəlmɪk/ adj of the eyes.

op-in-ion /ə'pɪniəm/ n 1 [C] belief or judgement not founded on complete knowledge: political ~s. What's your ~ (= view) of the new President? In my ~/In the ~ of most people, the scheme is unsound. be of the opinion that, feel, believe, that. 2 [U] views, beliefs, of a group: O~ is changing in favour of stronger penalties for armed robbery. 3 [C] professional estimate or advice: You ought to get a lawyer's ~ on the question.

public opinion, what the majority of people think: Public ~ is against the proposed change.

o'pin-ion poll, survey of opinion by questioning a section of the community.

op-in-ion-ated /-eɪtɪd/ adj refusing to change an opinion; obstinate; dogmatic.

opi-um /'əʊpɪəm/ n [U] substance prepared from poppy seeds, used to relieve pain, cause sleep, and as a narcotic drug.

opos-sum /ə'pɒsəm/ (also pos-sum /'pɒsəm/) n [C] kinds of small American animal that carries its young in a 'pocket' and lives in trees.

op-po-nent /ə'pəʊnənt/ n [C] person against whom one fights, struggles, plays games, contests an election or argues.

op-por-tune /'ɒpətju:n/ US: -tʊn/ adj (formal) 1 (of time) suitable, favourable; good for a purpose: arrive at an ~ moment. 2 (of an action or event) done, coming, at a favourable time: an ~ remark/speech.

op-por-tune-ly adv

op-por-tun-ism /'ɒpətju:nɪzəm/ US: -tʊn-/ n [U] being guided by what seems possible, preferring what can be done to what should be done.

op-por-tun-ist /'ɒpətju:nɪst/ n [C] 1 believer in opportunism. 2 person who is more anxious to gain an advantage for himself than to consider whether he is trying to get it fairly.

op-por-tun-ity /'ɒpətju:nəti/ US: -tʊn-/ n [C,U] (pl -ies) favourable time or chance: to make/find/get an ~; have no/little/not much ~ for hearing good music. take the opportunity of doing/to do sth, make use of a favourable moment to act.

op-pose /ə'pəʊz/ vt 1 place oneself, fight, against: opposing the Government/a scheme. 2 put forward as a contrast or opposite; set up against: ~ your will against mine/your views to mine. as opposed to, in contrast with.

op-po-site /'ɒpəzɪt/ adj 1 facing; front to front or back to back (with): the house ~ (to) mine; on the ~ side of the road. 2 entirely different; contrary: in the ~ direction. 3 similarly placed elsewhere. one's opposite number, person or thing occupying the same or a similar position in another group, etc. □ prep facing: stop ~ the house. □ n [C] word or thing that is entirely different: Black and white are ~s. I think the ~.

op-po-si-tion /'ɒpə'zɪʃn/ n 1 [U] the state of being opposite or opposed: The Socialist Party was in ~. 2 the O~, (used with a sing verb) MP's of the political party or parties opposing the Government: the leader of the O~; the O~ benches. 3 [U] resistance: Our forces met with strong ~.

op-press /ə'pres/ vt 1 rule unjustly or cruelly; keep down by unjust or cruel government. 2 (fig) cause to feel troubled, uncomfortable:

~ed with anxiety; feel ~ed with the heat.

op-press-ion /ə'presn/ n (a) [U] the condition of being oppressed: a feeling of ~ion. (b) [U] oppressing or being oppressed: victims of ~ion; [C] instance of this.

op-press-ive /ə'presiv/ adj (a) unjust: ~ive laws/rules. (b) hard to endure: ~ive weather/heat/taxes.

op-press-ive-ly adv

op-press-or /-sə(r)/, cruel or unjust ruler, leader, etc.

opt /ɒpt/ vi exercise a choice; decide: More students are ~ing for science courses nowadays. opt out of, choose to take no part in: young people who have ~ed out of society, chosen not to be conventional.

op-tic /'ɒptɪk/ adj of the eye or the sense of sight.

optic nerve, from the eye to the brain.

op-tics n (used with a sing verb) science of light and the laws of light.

op-ti-cal /'ɒptɪkəl/ adj 1 of the sense of sight. 2 for looking through; to help eyesight.

optical illusion, something by which the eye is deceived: A mirage is an ~ illusion.

optical instrument, eg a microscope, telescope.

op-ti-cal-ly /-klɪ/ adv

op-ti-cian /ɒp'tɪʃn/ n [C] person who makes or supplies optical instruments, esp lenses and spectacles.

op-ti-mism /'ɒptɪmɪzəm/ n [U] 1 belief that in the end good will triumph over evil. 2 tendency to feel confidence in success.

op-ti-mist /-mɪst/, person who believes that all things happen for the best.

op-ti-mis-tic /ɒp'tɪmɪstɪk/ adj expecting the best; confident: an optimistic view of events.

op-ti-mis-ti-cally /-klɪ/ adv

op-ti-mum /'ɒptɪməm/ adj best or most favourable: the ~ temperature for the growth of plants.

option /'ɒpʃn/ n 1 [U] right or power of choosing: I haven't much ~ in the matter, cannot choose. 2 [C] thing that is or may be chosen: None of the ~s is satisfactory. leave one's options open, not commit oneself. 3 [C] (commerce) right to buy or sell at a certain price within a certain period of time: have an ~ on a piece of land.

op-tional /'ɒpʃənəl/ adj which may be chosen or not as one wishes; not compulsory: ~ subjects at school.

opus /'ɒpəs/ n [C] (pl opera /'bɒərə/, rarely used) separate musical composition (abbr op, used in citing a composition by number, as Beethoven, Op 112).

magnum opus, great literary undertaking, completed or in course of being written.

or /ɔ:(r)/ conj 1 (introducing an alternative): Is it green ~ blue? Are you coming ~ not? either... or, ⇨ either. (or else), otherwise;

if not: Hurry up ~ (else) you'll be late. 2 (introducing all but the first of a series): I'd like it to be black, white ~ grey. 3 (introducing a word that explains or means the same as, another): an English pound, ~ one hundred new pence. 4 or so, (often equivalent to about) suggesting vagueness or uncertainty: I'd like twenty ~ so.

-or /-ɔ:(r)/ suffix person or thing performing the action: governor; actor.

or-acle /'brækəl/ US: 'ɔ:(r)- n [C] 1 (in ancient Greece) (answer given at a) place where questions about the future were asked of the gods; priest(ess) giving the answers: consult the ~. 2 person considered able to give reliable guidance.

oracu-lar /ə'rækjələ(r)/ adj oral /'ɔ:(rəl/ adj 1 using the spoken, not the written, word: an ~ examination. 2 (anat) of, by, for, the mouth: ~ medicine. □ n [C] (informal) oral examination.

oral-ly /'ɔ:(rəlɪ/ adv by spoken words; by the mouth.

or-ange /'brɪndʒ/ US: 'ɔ:(r)- n, adj [C] (evergreen tree with a) round, thick-skinned juicy fruit, green and usually changing to a colour between yellow and red; [U] colour of this fully-ripened fruit.

orange-ade /,brɪndʒ'eɪd/ US: 'ɔ:(r)-, drink made of orange juice.

orang-outang /ɔ:(r)æŋ u:'tæŋ/ US: ɔ:(r)æŋ ɔ'tæŋ/ (also -utan, -outan /-tæn/) n [C] large ape with long arms, of Borneo and Sumatra.

orate /ɔ:(r)et/ vi (formal) speak publicly.

ora-tion /ɔ:(r)etʃn/ n 1 [C] formal speech made on a public occasion: a funeral ~. 2 [U] (gram) way of speaking: direct/indirect ~, direct/ reported speech.

ora-tor /'brətə(r)/ US: 'ɔ:(r)- n [C] person who makes speeches (esp a good speaker).

ora-tori-cal /,brət'ɒrɪkəl/ US: ɔ:(r)ət'ɔ:(r)- adj (formal) of speech-making and orators.

ora-tory 1 /'brətəri/ US: 'ɔ:(r)ət'ɔ:(r)- n [U] (art of) making speeches.

ora-tory 2 /'brətəri/ US: 'ɔ:(r)ət'ɔ:(r)- n [C] (pl -ies) small chapel for private worship or prayer.

orb /ɔ:(b)/ n [C] 1 globe, esp the sun, moon or one of the stars. 2 jewelled globe with a cross on top, part of a sovereign's regalia.

or-bit /'ɔ:(bɪt/ n [C] path followed by a heavenly body, eg a planet, or by a man-made object, eg a spacecraft, round another body: the earth's ~ round the sun. How many satellites have been put in ~ round the earth? □ vt, vi put into, (cause to) move, in orbit: When was the first satellite ~ed?

or-bi-tal /'ɔ:(bɪtəl/ adj or-ard /'ɔ:(r)əd/ n [C] piece of ground (usually enclosed) with fruit-trees.

or-ches-tra /'ɔ:(kɪstrə/ n [C] (pl ~s) 1 band of persons playing musical instruments (including stringed instruments) together: a dance ~; a symphony ~. 2 (also ~ pit) place in a theatre for an orchestra.

or-ches-tral /ɔ:'kestrəl/ adj of, for, by, an orchestra: ~ instruments/performances.

or-ches-trate /'ɔ:kɪstreɪt/ vt compose, arrange, score, for orchestral performances.

or-ches-tra-tion /ɔ:kɪ'streɪʃn/ n [C,U] or-chid /'ɔ:kɪd/ n [C] sorts of plant of which the tropical kinds have flowers of brilliant colours and fantastic shapes.

or-dain /ɔ:'deɪn/ vt 1 make (a person) a priest or minister: He was ~ed priest. 2 (of God, law, authority) decide; give orders (that): God has ~ed that all men shall die.

or-deal /ɔ:'di:l/ n 1 [U] (in former times) method of deciding a person's guilt or innocence by a physical test, such as passing through fire unharmed or fighting his accuser: trial by ~; ~ by fire. 2 [C] any severe test of character or endurance: suffer terrible ~s.

or-der¹ /'ɔ:də(r)/ n 1 [U] way in which things are placed in relation to one another: put names in alphabetical ~. in order of, arranged according to: in ~ of size/importance. in reverse order, ⇨ reverse¹. 2 [U] condition in which everything is carefully arranged; working condition. (not) in order, (not) as it should be: Is your passport in ~. Is it valid? in good/bad, else running/working order, (esp of machines) working well/badly: The engine has been tuned and is now in perfect running ~. out of order, (of a machine, etc) not functioning properly: The lift/phone is out of ~. 3 [U] (condition brought about by) good and firm government, obedience to law, rules, authority: It is the business of the police to keep ~. ⇨ disorder. law and order, ⇨ law(3). 4 [U] rules usual at a public meeting; rules accepted, eg in Parliament, committee meetings, by members and enforced by a president, chairman, or other officer: Is it in ~ to interrupt? on a point of order, on a point (= question) of procedure. 5 [C] command given with authority: Soldiers must obey ~s. by order of, according to directions given by proper authority of: by ~ of the Governor. under starters' orders, ⇨ starter(b). 6 [C] request to supply goods; the goods (to be) supplied: an ~ worth £50. on order, requested but not yet supplied. 7 [C] written instruction (esp to a bank or post office) to pay money, or giving authority: a 'postal ~ for thirty new pence. 8 [U] purpose, intention. in order to do sth, with the purpose of, with a view to, doing something: in ~ (for you) to see clearly. in order that, with the intention that; so that: in ~ that he can be here in time. 9 [C] rank or class in society: the ~ of knights/baronets. 10 [C] group of people belonging to or appointed to a special class (as an honour or reward): the O~ of Merit/of the Bath. 11 [C] badge, sign, etc worn by members of an order(10): wearing all his ~s and decorations. 12

(pl) authority given by a bishop to perform church duties. be in/take (holy) orders, be/become a priest. 13 [C] class of persons on whom holy orders have been conferred: the O~ of Deacons/Priests/Bishops. 14 [C] group of persons living under religious rules, esp a brotherhood of monks: the monastic ~s. 15 [C] style of architectural forms, esp of columns (pillars) and capitals, esp the classical orders (Doric, Ionic, Corinthian) 16 [C] (biology) highest division in the grouping of animals, plants, etc: The rose and the bean families belong to the same ~. 17 [C] kind; sort: intellect of a high ~. 18 [C] arrangement of military forces: in open/close ~, with wide/with only slight spaces between the men, etc.

or-der² /'ɔ:də(r)/ vt 1 give an order(5,6,7): The doctor ~ed me to (stay in) bed. The judge ~ed that the prisoner should be remanded. I've ~ed lunch for 1.30. order sb about, keep on telling him to do things. 2 arrange; direct: ~ one's life according to strict rules.

or-der-ing, (from 2 above) arrangement: the ~ing of words in an index.

or-der-ly /'ɔ:dəli/ adj 1 well arranged; in good order; tidy: an ~ room/desk. 2 methodical: a man with an ~ mind. 3 well behaved; obedient to discipline: an ~ crowd. □ n [C] (pl -ies) (army) officer's messenger; attendant in a (military) hospital.

or-der-li-ness n [U] or-di-nal /'ɔ:dɪnəl/ adj, n [C] (number) showing order or position in a series: first, second, third. ⇨ cardinal.

or-di-nance /'ɔ:dɪnəns/ n [C] order, rule, statute, made by authority or decree: the ~s of the City Council.

or-di-nary /'ɔ:dɪnəri/ US: 'ɔ:dənəri/ adj normal; usual; average: an ~ day's work; in ~ dress. in the ordinary way, in the usual or customary way.

or-di-nar-ily /'ɔ:dɪnərəli/ US: 'ɔ:dənərəli/ adv in the usual or normal way: behave quite ordinarily.

or-di-na-tion /ɔ:dɪ'neɪʃn/ n [U] ceremony of ordaining (a priest or minister); [C] instance of this.

ord-nance /'ɔ:dɪnəns/ n [U] artillery; munitions.

Ord-nance 'Survey, (the preparation of) accurate and detailed maps of the physical geography of Britain and Ireland.

ore /ɔ:(r)/ n [C,U] (kinds of) rock, earth, mineral, from which metal can be mined or extracted: iron ~.

or-gan¹ /'ɔ:gən/ n [C] 1 any part of an animal body or plant serving an essential purpose: the ~s of speech, the tongue, teeth, lips, etc; the reproductive ~s. 2 means of getting work done; organization: Parliament is the chief ~ of government. 3 means for making known what people think: ~s of public opinion, the press, radio, TV, etc.

or-gan² /'ɔ:gən/ n [C] musical instrument from which sounds are produced by air forced through pipes, played by keys pressed with the fingers and pedals pressed with the feet.

'or-gan-ist /-ɪst/, player of an organ.

or-ganic /ɔ:'gænik/ adj 1 of an organ or organs of the body: ~ diseases. 2 (opposite = inorganic) having bodily organs: ~ life. 3 made of related parts; arranged as a system: an ~ (ie organized) structure.

or-gani-cally /-kli/ adv

or-gan-ism /'ɔ:gənɪzəm/ n [C] 1 living being (plant or animal) with parts which work together. 2 any system with parts dependent on each other: the social ~.

or-gan-iz-a-tion (also -isation) /'ɔ:gənə'raɪzɪʃn US: -nɪz-/ n [U] act of organizing; condition of being organized: busy with the ~ of a new committee. 2 [C] organized body of persons; organized system: The human body has a very complex ~.

or-gan-ize (also -ise) /'ɔ:gənəɪz/ vt put into working order; arrange in a system; make preparations for: ~ an army/a trade union/one's work/oneself.

or-gan-ized (also -ised) adj (a) having a system or order: highly ~d forms of life. (b) (of a business, etc) with a recognized trade union representation.

or-gan-izer (also -iser), person who organizes things.

or-gi-as-tic /'ɔ:dʒɪ'æstɪk/ adj of the nature of an orgy.

orgy /'ɔ:dʒɪ/ n [C] (pl -ies) 1 occasion of wild merry-making. 2 (pl) drunken or immoral acts for amusement. 3 (informal) succession of innocent, pleasant activities: an ~ of concerts/spending.

orient¹ /'ɔ:riənt/ n the O~, (poetic name for) countries east of the Mediterranean, esp the Far East. o adj (poetic) Eastern; (of the sun) rising: the ~ sun.

orient² /'ɔ:riənt/ vt (US) = orientate.

orien-tal /'ɔ:riəntl/ adj of the Orient: ~ civilization/art/rugs. o n [C] O~, inhabitant of the Orient, esp China and Japan.

orien-tate /'ɔ:riəntet/ (US = orient) vt 1 place (a building, etc) so as to face east; build (a church) with the chancel end facing east. 2 place or exactly determine the position of (something) with regard to the points of the compass. 3 (fig) bring into clearly understood relations: ~ oneself, make oneself familiar with a situation, one's surroundings, etc.

orien-ta-tion /'ɔ:riən'teɪʃn/ n [U] ori-fice /'brɪfɪs US: 'ɔ:r-/ n [C] outer opening; mouth (of a cave, etc).

ori-gin /'brɪdʒɪn US: 'ɔ:r-/ n [C,U] starting-point: the ~ of a quarrel; the ~(s) of civilization; words of Latin ~.

orig-i-nal /ə'rɪdʒɪnəl/ adj 1 first or earliest: the ~ inhabitants of the country. 2 newly created; not copied or imitated: an ~ design. 3 able to produce new ideas, etc: an ~ thinker/mind. o n 1 [C] original(2) thing: This is a copy; the ~ is in Madrid. 2 the ~, language in which something was first written: study Plato in the ~, in classical Greek.

o,original'sin, tendency to commit sin which, some Christians believe, is inherited.

orig-in-al-ly /-nəli/ adv (a) in an original(2) manner: write ~ly. (b) from or in the beginning: The school was ~ly quite small.

orig-in-al-ity /ə'rɪdʒɪ'næləti/ n [U] state or quality of being original(2): work that shows no ~ity.

orig-i-nate /ə'rɪdʒɪneɪt/ vi, vt 1 have as a cause or beginning: With whom did the scheme ~? 2 be the author or creator of: ~ a new style of dancing.

orig-in-a-tor /-tə(r)/, person who originates something.

or-na-ment /'ɔ:nəmənt/ n 1 [U] adorning or being adorned; that which is added for decoration: embroidery used as ~. 2 [C] something designed or used to add beauty or to decorate: a shelf crowded with ~s, eg pieces of china. 3 [C] person, act, quality, etc that adds beauty, charm, etc: He is an ~ to his profession. o vt /'ɔ:nəment/ decorate; make beautiful: ~ a dress with lace.

or-na-men-tal /'ɔ:nəmentl/ adj decorative.

or-nate /'ɔ:nənt/ adj 1 richly ornamented. 2 (of literary style) not simple in style or vocabulary.

or-nate-ly adv

or-ni-tho-logi-cal /'ɔ:nɪθə'lɒdʒɪkl/ adj of ornithology.

or-ni-thol-ogist /'ɔ:nɪθə'lɒdʒɪst/ n [C] expert in, student of, ornithology.

or-ni-thol-ogy /'ɔ:nɪθə'lɒdʒɪ/ n [U] scientific study of birds.

or-phan /'ɔ:fən/ n [C] child who has lost one or both of its parents by death: (used as an adjective) an ~ child. o vt cause to be an orphan: ~ed by war.

'or-phan-age /-ɪdʒ/, home for orphans.

or-tho-dox /'ɔ:θədɒks/ adj (having opinions, beliefs, etc which are) generally accepted or approved: an ~ member of the Church; ~ behaviour. ⇨ heterodox.

the Orthodox Church, the Eastern or Greek Church, recognizing the Patriarch of Istanbul (Constantinople) as its head; the national churches of Russia, Rumania, etc.

or-tho-dox-y /'ɔ:θədɒksɪ/ n (pl -ies) [U] being orthodox; [C] orthodox belief, character, practice.

or-tho-gra-phy /'ɔ:θɒgrəfi/ n [U] (system of) spelling; correct or conventional spelling.

or-tho-paedic (also -pedic) /'ɔ:θə'pi:dɪk/ adj of the curing of deformities and diseases of bones: ~ surgery.

or-tho-paed-ics (also -ped-ics) n (used with a sing verb) branch of surgery dealing with bone deformities and diseases.

os-cil-late /'ɒsɪleɪt/ vi, vt 1 swing backwards and forwards as the pendulum of a clock does.

2 (fig) change between extremes of opinion, etc. 3 cause to swing to and fro. 4 (of electric current) undergo high frequency alternations; (of radio receivers) radiate electro-magnetic waves; experience interference (in reception) from this.

os-cil-la-tion /,ɒsɪl'eɪʃn/ n [C, U] os-cil-lator /-tə(r)/, (esp) device for producing electric oscillations.

os-prey /'ɒspreɪ/ US: /-prɪ/ n [C] (pl ~s) large kind of hawk that preys on fish.

oss-ify /'ɒsɪfaɪ/ vt, vi (pt, pp -ied) 1 (formal) make or become hard like bone; change into bone. 2 (fig) make or become rigid, unprogressive.

ossi-fi-ca-tion /,ɒsɪfɪ'keɪʃn/ n [U] os-ten-sible /'ɒstɛnsəbl/ adj (formal) (of reasons, etc) put forward in an attempt to hide the real reason; seeming to be.

os-ten-sibly /-əblɪ/ adv apparently.

os-ten-ta-tion /,ɒstɛn'teɪʃn/ n [U] display (of wealth, learning, skill, etc) made to get admiration or envy.

os-ten-ta-tious /,ɒstɛn'teɪʃəs/ adj showing ostentation: ~ jewellery/manners/people.

os-ten-ta-tious-ly adv

os-tra-cize (also -ise) /'ɒstrəsaɪz/ vt shut out from society: refuse to meet, talk to, etc: She was ~ed by all her neighbours after her imprisonment.

os-trich /'ɒstrɪtʃ/ n [C] (pl ~es) fast-running bird, the largest in existence, unable to fly, bred for its valuable tail feathers.

other /'ʌðə(r)/ adj, pron (of) (person or thing) not already named or implied. 1 the ~, (sing) the second of two: The twins are so much alike that people find it difficult to know (the) one from the ~. The post office is on the ~ side of the street. on the 'other hand, ⇨ *hand*¹(9). 2 the ~s, (pl) (used when the reference is to two or more): Six of them are mine; the ~s are John's. 3 (used when one member of a group is compared with other members): Green is far better as a striker than any ~ member of the team. ⇨ also another. each other, ⇨ each(4). every other, (a) all the rest: John is stupid; every ~ boy in the class knows the answer. (b) alternate: Write only on every ~ line. one after the other / another, in succession, not together. ... or other, (used to suggest absence of certainty or precision): I shall be coming again some day or ~, one of these days. the other day, a few days ago. 4 different: I do not wish her to be ~ than she is. ⇨ adv (= otherwise) in a different way: I can't do it ~ than slowly.

other-wise /'ʌðəwaɪz/ adv 1 in another or different way: You evidently think ~. 2 in other or different respects or conditions: The rent is high, but ~ the house is satisfactory. ⇨ conj if not; or else: Do what you've been told; ~ you will be punished.

ot-ter /'ɒtə(r)/ n [C] fur-covered, fish-eating animal with four webbed feet and a flat tail; [U] its fur.

ouch /aʊtʃ/ int (used to express sudden pain).

ought /ɔ:t/ auxiliary verb (No infinitive, no participles, no inflected forms; ought not may be contracted to oughtn't /'ɔ:tnt/) 1 (showing duty or obligation): Such things ~ not to be allowed. You ~ to have done that earlier. ⇨ shall(3). 2 (showing what is advisable, desirable or right): There ~ to be more buses during the rush hours. You ~ (= I advise you) to see that new film. 3 (showing probability): That ~ to be enough fish for three people. Harry ~ to win the race.

ounce /aʊns/ n [C] (abbr oz) unit of weight, one sixteenth of a pound avoirdupois or one twelfth of a pound troy.

our /ʊə(r)/ usual form: ɔ:(r) strong form: /aʊə(r)/ possessive adj of or belonging to us; that we are concerned with, etc: We have done ~ share.

Our Father, God.

Our Lady, the Virgin Mary.

ours /aʊəz/ possessive pron (the one or ones) belonging to us: This house is ~. Ours is larger than theirs.

our-selves /,aʊə'selvz/ pron 1 (reflexive): It's no use worrying ~ about that. (all) by ourselves, (a) alone. (b) without help. 2 (used for emphasis): We've often made that mistake ~.

-ous /-əs/ suffix having the qualities of: poisonous.

oust /aʊst/ vt cause (a person) to leave (his job, position, etc): ~ him from being the secretary of the committee.

out¹ /aʊt/ adverbial particle (contrasted with in) (For special uses with verbs, eg go out, ⇨ the verb entries.) 1 away from, not in or at, a place, the usual or normal condition, etc: walk ~; order him ~; find one's way ~. 2 be out: Mrs White is ~, not at home. The dockers are ~ again, on strike. The book I wanted was ~, was not in the library. The tide is ~, low. The Socialist party was ~, not in power. Short skirts are ~, not fashionable. be (out and) about, ⇨ *about*²(3). be out to + inf, trying or hoping to: I'm not ~ (= It is not my aim) to reform the world. 3 (used in various phrases to show absence from home): We don't go ~ much. We're dining ~ this evening. 4 (used to emphasize the idea of distance): He lives ~ in the country. The fishing boats are all ~ at sea. What are you doing ~ there? 5 available; free from confinement or restraint; discovered: The secret is ~, discovered, known. The apple blossom is ~, open. The sun is ~, not hidden by cloud. His new book is ~, published. 6 exhausted, extinct: The fire/gas/light is ~, not burning. Put that cigarette ~! 7 to or at an end; completely: I'm tired/worn ~. have it out with sb, ⇨ have⁴(9). all out, ⇨ all²(3). 8 (showing error): I'm ~ in my calculations. We're ten pounds ~ in our accounts. a long way/not far out, badly/not much in error. 9 (showing clearness or loudness): call/cry/shout ~. out loud, in a loud voice. straight out, ⇨ straight²(1). 10 (cricket) (of a batsman) no longer batting; having been bowled, caught, etc: The captain was ~ for three (runs).

out² /aʊt/ prep out of, (contrasted with in and into; ⇨ the noun and verb entries for special uses, eg out of date, out of the way). 1 (of place): Fish cannot live ~ of water. Mr Green is ~ of town this week. out of bounds, ⇨ bounds. 2 (of movement): He walked ~ of the shop. 3 (of motive or cause): They helped us ~ of pity/kindness. 4 from among: It happens in nine cases ~ of ten. 5 by the use of; from: The hut was made ~ of old planks. Can good ever come ~ of evil? 6 without: ~ of breath/stock/work/petrol. 7 (of condition): ~ of fashion/control/order/danger. ⇨ the noun entries. 8 (of origin or source): a scene ~ of a play; drink ~ of a cup/a bottle. 9 (of result): talk him ~ of doing it, talk to him with the result that he does not do it; cheat him ~ of his money; frighten her ~ of her wits. 10 at a certain distance from: The ship struck a mine ten miles ~ of Hull. 'out of it, (a) not invited to be a member of a party, etc; sad for this reason: She felt ~ of it as she watched the others go off to the disco. (b) not concerned or involved: It's a dishonest scheme and I'm glad to be ~ of it.

out³ /aʊt/ n (only in) the ins and (the) outs, ⇨ in³.

out-back /'aʊtbæk/ adj, n the ~, (eg in Australia) (of) the more distant areas with a small population.

out-bid /aʊt'bid/ vt (-dd-) bid higher than (another person) at an auction, etc.

out-board /'aʊtbɔ:d/ adj placed on or near the outside of a ship or boat.

outboard motor, detachable engine that is at the back and outside a boat.

out-brave /aʊt'breiv/ vt put up with bravely: ~ the storm.

out-break /'aʊtbrek/ n [C] breaking out: an ~ of fever/hostilities.

out-build-ing /'aʊtbɪldɪŋ/ n [C] building, eg a shed or stable, separate from the main building.

out-burst /'aʊtbɜ:st/ n [C] bursting out (of steam, energy, laughter, anger, etc).

out-cast /'aʊtkɑ:st US: -kæst/ n [C], adj (person or animal) sent away from home or society.

out-caste /'aʊtkɑ:st US: -kæst/ n [C], adj (eg in India) (person) having lost, or been expelled from, or not belonging to, a caste.

out-class /aʊt'klas US: -'klæs/ vt be, do, much better than: He was ~ed from the start of the race.

out-come /'aʊtkam/ n [C] effect or result of an event, or of circumstances.

out-crop /'aʊtkrɒp/ n [C] that part of a layer (of rock, etc) which can be seen above the surface of the ground.

out-cry /'aʊtkrai/ n (pl -ies) 1 [C] loud shout or scream (of fear, alarm, etc). 2 [C,U] public protest (against something).

out-dated /aʊt'detɪd/ adj made out-of-date (by the passing of time).

out-dis-tance /aʊt'dɪstəns/ vt travel faster than and leave behind.

out-do /aʊt'du:/ vt (3rd person sing pres -does /-'daz/, pt -did /-'dɪd/, pp -done /-'dʌn/) do more or better than: Not to be outdone he tried again.

out-door /'aʊtdɔ:(r)/ adj done, existing, used, outside a house or building: leading an ~ life; ~ sports.

out-doors /aʊt'dɔ:z/ adv in the open air; outside: It's cold ~. Let's eat ~.

outer /'aʊtə(r)/ adj 1 of or for the outside. ⇨ inner. 2 farther from the middle or inside.

'outer 'space, the universe beyond the earth's atmosphere.

'outer-most /-məʊst/ adj farthest from the inside or centre.

out-fit /'aʊtfɪt/ n [C] all the clothing, equipment, needed for a purpose: a 'camping ~, tent, etc. □ vt (-tt-) equip.

out-fitter, shopkeeper, shop, selling clothes: a school ~ter.

out-flank /aʊt'flæŋk/ vt go or pass round the side of (the enemy): an ~ing movement.

out-fox /aʊt'fɒks/ vt defeat by being cunning.

out-go-ing /'aʊtgəʊɪŋ/ adj going out; leaving: the ~ tenant/tide. ⇨ incoming.

out-go-ings n pl expenditure.

out-grow /aʊt'grəʊ/ vt (pt -grew /-'gru:/, pp -grown /-'grəʊn/) 1 grow too large or too tall for, eg one's clothes. 2 grow faster or taller than another person. 3 leave behind, as one grows older (bad habits, childish interests, opinions, etc).

out-growth /'aʊtgroʊθ/ n [C] 1 natural development or product. 2 that which grows out of something: an ~ on a tree.

out-house /'aʊthaus/ n [C] (pl ~s /-'haʊzɪz/) small building adjoining the main building (eg a shed, barn or stable).

out-ing /'aʊtɪŋ/ n [C] 1 holiday away from home; pleasure trip: go for an ~ to the seaside. 2 practice (eg by a race-horse).

out-jockey /aʊt'dʒɒki/ vt outmanoeuvre.

out-land-ish /aʊt'lændɪʃ/ adj looking or sounding very odd, strange (esp to shock): ~ dress/behaviour/ideas.

out-land-ish-ly adv

out-last /'aʊt'lɑːst/ US: -'læst/ vt last or live longer than.

out-law /'aʊtlɔː/ n [C] (in olden times) person punished by being placed outside the protection of the law. □ vt make (a person) an outlaw.

out-lay /'aʊtleɪ/ n [U] spending; providing money; [C] sum of money that is spent: a large ~ on/for scientific research.

out-let /'aʊtlet/ n [C] 1 way out for water, steam, etc: an ~ for water. 2 (fig) means of or occasion for showing one's feelings, using one's energies, etc.

out-line /'aʊtlaɪn/ n [C] 1 line(s) showing shape or boundary: an ~ map of Great Britain; draw it in ~. 2 statement of the chief facts, points, etc: an ~ for an essay/a lecture. □ vt draw, give, in outline: outlining ideas for the stage design/for future activities.

out-live /'aʊt'lɪv/ vt 1 live longer than: ~ one's wife. 2 live until something is forgotten: ~ a disgrace.

out-look /'aʊtlʊk/ n [C] 1 view on which one looks out: a pleasant ~ over the valley. 2 what seems likely to happen: a bright ~ for trade; further ~, dry and sunny (weather forecast). 3 person's way of looking at something: a narrow ~ on life. ⇨ narrow (5).

out-lying /'aʊtlaɪɪŋ/ adj far from the centre: ~ villages.

out-man-oeuvre (US = -ma-neu-ver) /'aʊtmənuːvə(r)/ vt overcome, defeat, by being superior in manoeuvring.

out-match /'aʊtmætʃ/ vt be more than equal: be ~ed in skill and endurance.

out-moded /'aʊtməʊdɪd/ adj out of fashion.

out-most /'aʊtməʊst/ adj = outermost.

out-number /'aʊtnʌmbə(r)/ vt be greater in number than.

out-of-date /'aʊt əv 'deɪt/ adj (hyphens are used when it is used with (usually before) a noun to name a quality) = out of date: an ~ set of figures. ⇨ date (2).

out-of-the-way /'aʊt əv ðə 'weɪ/ adj 1 remote; secluded: an ~ cottage. 2 not commonly known: ~ items of knowledge.

out-patient /'aʊtpetɪnt/ n [C] person visiting a hospital for treatment but not living there.

out-play /'aʊtpleɪ/ vt play better than: The English were ~ed by the Brazilians.

out-point /'aʊtpɔɪnt/ vt (in boxing, etc) score more points than; defeat on points.

out-post /'aʊtpəʊst/ n [C] 1 (soldiers in an) observation post at a distance from the main body of troops. 2 any distant settlement: an ~ of the Roman Empire.

out-pour-ing /'aʊtpɔːrɪŋ/ n 1 [C] pouring out. 2 (usually pl) expression of feeling: ~ s of sadness at her death.

out-put /'aʊtpʊt/ n [C] 1 quantity of goods, etc produced: the ~ of a goldmine/a factory. 2 power, energy, etc produced. 3 information produced from a computer. ⇨ input.

out-rage /'aʊtreɪdʒ/ n [C,U] 1 (act of) extreme violence or cruelty: The use of torture is an ~ against humanity. 2 act that shocks public opinion: an ~ on decency. □ vt treat violently or cruelly; shock greatly: ~ public opinion/one's sense of justice.

out-rage-ous /'aʊtreɪdʒəs/ adj shocking; very cruel, immoral: ~ behaviour; an ~ price/remark.

out-rage-ous-ly adv

out-rider /'aʊtraɪdər/ n [C] person, eg policeman on a motorcycle, accompanying a vehicle as an attendant or guard.

out-right /'aʊtraɪt/ adj 1 thorough; positive: an ~ denial; ~ wickedness; an ~ liar. 2 clear; unmistakable: On the voting for secretary, Smith was the ~ winner. □ adv 1 openly, with nothing held back: tell a man ~ what one thinks of his behaviour. 2 completely; at one time: buy a house ~, ie not by instalments; be killed ~, quickly, eg by a single blow.

out-rival /'aʊtraɪvl/ vt (-ll-, US also -l-) be or do better than a rival.

out-run /'aʊt'rʌn/ vt (pt -ran /-'ræn/, pp -run) (-nn-) run faster or better than.

out-set /'aʊtset/ n at/from the outset, at/from the beginning: I warned you from the ~ that I don't like spiders.

out-shine /'aʊtʃaɪn/ vt (pt,pp -shone /-'ʃɒn/) 1 shine more brightly than. 2 (fig) be more attractive, successful, than.

out-side /'aʊt'saɪd/ n (contrasted with inside)

1 [C] the other side or surface; the outer part(s): The ~ of the house needs painting. 2 at the (very) outside, at the most; at the highest reckoning: There were only fifty people there at the ~, certainly not more than fifty. □

adj 1 of or on, nearer, the outside: ~ measurements, eg of a box; an ~ broadcast, from a place away from the studios. 2 greatest possible or probable: an ~ estimate. 3 not connected with or included in a group, organization, etc: We shall need ~ help (= extra workers) for this job. 4 unlikely, small; an ~ chance/possibility. □ adv on or to the outside: The car is waiting ~. □ prep 1 at or on the outer side of: ~ the house. 2 beyond the limits of: He has no occupation ~ his office work.

outside broadcast, one not in a studio.

out-sider /'aʊt'saɪdə(r)/ n [C] 1 person who is not, or who is not considered to be, a member of a group, society, etc. 2 horse that is thought to have little chance of winning a race.

out-size /'aʊtsaɪz/ adj (esp of clothing, etc) larger than the usual size.

outskirts /'aʊtskɜːts/ n pl borders or outlying parts (esp of a town): on the ~ of Lille.

out-smart /ˌaʊt'smɑːt/ vt (informal) be cleverer, more cunning, than.

out-spoken /ˌaʊt'spəʊkən/ adj saying freely what one thinks: ~ comments/delegates.

out-spoken-ly adv

out-spread /ˌaʊt'spreɪd/ adj spread or stretched out: with ~ arms/arms ~.

out-standing /ˌaʊt'stændɪŋ/ adj 1 in a position to be easily noticed; attracting attention (because so good): an ~ landmark. The boy who won the scholarship was quite ~. 2 (of problems, work, payments, etc) still to be attended to: ~ debts; work that is still ~. 3 /ˌaʊt'stændɪŋ/ sticking out: a boy with big, ~ ears.

out-standing-ly adv: ~ ly successful.

out-stay /ˌaʊt'steɪ/ vt stay longer than: ~ the other guests. outstay one's welcome, stay until one is no longer a welcome guest.

out-stretched /ˌaʊt'stretʃt/ adj stretched or spread out: lie ~ on the grass; with ~ arms.

out-strip /ˌaʊt'strɪp/ vt (-pp-) do better than.

out-ward /ˌaʊtwəd/ adj 1 of or on the outside: the ~ appearance of things. 2 going out: during the ~ voyage. adv (also out-wards) towards the outside; away from home or the centre: The two ends must be bent ~s. The ship is ~ bound, sailing away from its home port.

out-ward-ly adv on the surface; apparently: Though frightened she appeared ~ly calm.

out-wear /ˌaʊt'weə(r)/ vt (pt -wore /-wɔː(r)/, pp -worn /-wɔːn/) 1 last longer than: Leather shoes will ~ plastic ones. 2 (pp): outworn (= out-of-date) practices in industry.

out-weigh /ˌaʊt'wei/ vt be greater in weight, value or importance than: Do the disadvantages ~ the advantages?

out-wit /ˌaʊt'wɪt/ vt (-tt-) defeat by being cleverer or more cunning than.

out-wore /ˌaʊt'wɔː(r)/, out-worn /ˌaʊt'wɔːn/ ⇨ outwear.

ova /'əʊvə/ n pl of ovum.

oval /'əʊvl/ n [C], adj (shape or outline that is) like an egg or ellipse.

ovary /'əʊvəri/ n [C] (pl -ies) (anat) 1 either of the two reproductive organs in which ova are produced in female animals. 2 seed-vessel in a plant. ⇨ ovum.

ovation /əʊ'veɪʃn/ n [C] enthusiastic expression (clapping, cheering) of welcome or approval: a standing ~, one showing great pleasure, etc by standing up to clap, etc.

oven /'ʌvn/ n [C] enclosed space (in a cooker) heated for baking, roasting, etc: Bread is baked in an ~.

'oven-ready adj (on sale) ready to cook: ~ ready chickens.

'oven-ware /-weə(r)/ n [U] heat-proof dishes for use in an oven.

over¹ /'əʊvə(r)/ adv (⇨ the verb entries for special combinations, eg give over.) 1 (suggesting movement from an upright position, from one side to the other side, or so that a different side is seen, etc): Don't knock that vase ~. He turned ~ in bed. 2 (suggesting motion upwards and outwards): The milk boiled ~. (fig) He was boiling ~ with rage. 3 from beginning to end; through: You should think it ~, consider the matter carefully. 4 (suggesting repetition). (all) over again, again completely: He did it so badly that I had to do it all ~ again myself. over and over ('again), repeatedly; many times: I've warned you ~ and ~ again not to do that. 5 across (a street, an open space, a distance, etc): Take these letters ~ to the post office. Come ~ and see me some time. over there, ⇨ there⁽⁵⁾. 6 remaining; not used after part has been taken or used: Seven into thirty goes four times and two ~. If there's any meat (left) ~, give it to the dog. 7 in addition; in excess; more: children of fourteen and ~; 10 metres and a little ~. 8 ended; finished; done with: The meeting/The storm is ~. His sufferings will soon be ~. 9 more than is right, usual, wise, etc: ~ anxious; ~taxed. ⇨ over-below. 10 (suggesting transference or change from one person, party, etc to another): He has gone ~ to the enemy, joined them. 11 on the whole surface; in all parts: He was aching all ~. Paint the old name ~, cover it with paint. That's Smith all ~, It's typical of him!

over² /'əʊvə(r)/ prep 1 resting on the surface of and covering, partly or completely: He spread his handkerchief ~ his face to keep the flies off. I knocked the man's hat ~ his eyes, so that he couldn't see. 2 at a level higher than, but not touching: The sky is ~ our heads. I leant ~ the table. over one's head, ⇨ head⁽²⁰⁾. 3 (of superiority in rank, authority, etc): He rules ~ a great tribe. He has no command ~ his students. Mr White is ~ me in the office. 4 in or across every part of: Snow is falling ~ the north of England. He has travelled all ~ Europe. 5 from one side to the other of; to or at the other side of: He escaped ~ the frontier. She spoke to me ~ her shoulder. Look ~ the hedge. 6 so as to be over and on the other side of: climb ~ a wall; jump ~ a brook. 7 (of time): Can you stay ~ Sunday, until Monday? 8 (opposite = under) more than: He spoke for ~ an hour. He stayed in London (for) ~ a month. The river is ~ fifty miles long. He's ~ fifty years old. over and above, in addition to: The waiters get good tips ~ and above their wages. 9 in connection with; while engaged in; concerning: an argument ~ methods. He went to sleep ~ his work, while doing it. How long will he be ~ it? How long will it take him to do it, get there, etc?

over³ /'əʊvə(r)/ n [C] (cricket) number of balls bowled in succession by each bowler in turn.

over- /əʊvə(r)/ prefix 1 across, above: overland; overhead. 2 too (much): over-polite.

The meanings of the adjectives below may be obtained by putting too in place of over:

over-abundant	over-ex-cited over-active	over-fa-miliar over-am-bitious	over-'fond over-'anxious	over-'full over-'bold	over-'generous over-'busy	over-'greedy over-'careful	over-'hasty
over-'cautious	over-'jealous over-'confident	over-'nervous over-'critical	over-'proud over-'curious	over-'ripe over-'delicate	over-'sensitive over-'eager	over-'serious over-'emotional	over-'sus-picious over-en-thusiastic	over-'zealous

The meanings of the nouns below may be obtained by putting too much in place of over:

over-abundance	over-'payment over-an-'xiety	over-'popu-lation over-'confidence	over-'pro-'duction over-ex-'posure	over-'strain over-in-'dulgence	over-'valu-'ation

The meaning of the verbs below may be obtained by putting too much after the verb in place of over:

over-'burden	over-'heat
over-'cook	over-in-'dulse
over-'eat	over-'praise
over-'emphasize	over-'pro-'duce over-'estimate	over-'simplify over-ex-'ert	over-'strain over-ex-'pose	over-'value over-act /əʊvərækt/ vi, vt act in an exaggerated way.

over-all /əʊvərɔ:l/ adj including everything; containing all: the ~ measurements of a room.

over-all /əʊvərɔ:l/ n 1 [C] loose-fitting dress that covers other clothes (eg as worn by housewives). 2 (pl) loose-fitting trousers, with the front extended above the waist, worn to protect other clothes.

over-arm /əʊvərɑ:m/ adv (in sport, eg cricket) with the arm swung over the shoulder: bowled ~; an ~ bowler; ~ bowling.

over-awe /əʊvərɔ:b/ vi gain complete reverence, respect, obedience, etc.

over-bal-ance /əʊvərbæləns/ vt, vi (cause to) fall over: He ~d and fell in.

over-bear-ing /əʊvərbearɪŋ/ adj forcing others to one's will: an ~ manner.

over-bear-ing-ly adv

over-bid /əʊvə'bid/ vt, vi (pt, pp ~) (-dd-) 1 (at an auction) bid higher than (another person). 2 bid more than the value of (something offered for sale). □ n [C, U] act of overbidding.

over-board /əʊvə'bɔ:d/ adv over the side of a ship or boat into the water: fall/jump ~.

over-bur-den /əʊvə'bɜ:dn/ vt burden too heavily: ~ed with grief.

over-cast /əʊvə'kɑ:st/ US: -'kæst/ adj 1 (of the sky) darkened (as) by clouds. 2 (fig) gloomy; sad. □ n [C] cloud-covered sky.

over-charge /əʊvə'tʃɑ:dʒ/ vt, vi 1 charge too high a price: We were ~d for the eggs. 2 fill or load too much: ~ an electric circuit. □ n /əʊvə'tʃɑ:dʒ/ [C] load, price, etc that is too high or great.

over-cloud /əʊvə'klaʊd/ vt, vi cover, become covered, with clouds or shadows.

over-coat /əʊvə'kəʊt/ n [C] long coat worn over other clothes in cold weather.

over-come /əʊvə'kʌm/ vt (pt -came /-keɪm/, pp -come) 1 defeat; be too strong for. ~ the enemy/a bad habit/temptation. 2 make weak: be ~ by emotion/tiredness/sadness/whisky/fumes.

over-crowd /əʊvə'kraʊd/ vt crowd too much: ~ed buses and trains; the ~ing of large cities.

over-do /əʊvə'du:/ vt (pt -did /-dɪd/, pp -done /-dʌn/) 1 do too much; exaggerate; overact: He overdid his part in the play. over-do it, (a) work, etc too hard: You should work hard, but don't ~ it and make yourself ill. (b) exaggerate; go too far in order to achieve one's aim: He tried to show sympathy for us, but didn't he ~ it? 2 cook too much: overdone beef.

over-dose /əʊvədəʊs/ n [C] amount or dose of a drug that is too much.

over-draft /əʊvədraʊt/ US: -draɪt/ n [C] amount of money by which a bank account is overdrawn.

over-draw /əʊvə'drɔ:/ vt, vi (pt -drew /-dru:/, pp -drawn /-draʊn/) 1 draw a cheque for a sum that is more than one's credit balance in a bank: an ~n account. 2 exaggerate: The characters in this novel are rather ~n, are not true to life.

over-dress /əʊvədres/ vt, vi dress (oneself, etc) too richly or too formally.

over-due /əʊvə'dju:/ US: -'du:/ adj beyond the time fixed (for arrival, payment, etc): The train is ~, is late. These bills are all ~, ought to have been paid before now. The baby is two weeks ~, still not born two weeks after the expected date of birth.

over-flow /əʊvə'flaʊ/ vt, vi (pt, pp ~ed) 1 flow over; flow over the edges or limits; spread beyond the ordinary or usual area: The river ~ed its banks. The crowds were so big that they ~ed into the street. 2 be more than filled: a heart ~ing with love. □ n /əʊvə'flaʊ/ [C] flowing over of liquid; that which flows over or is too much for the space, area, etc available: an ~ meeting, one held for those unable to find room in the hall, etc where the principal meeting is held.

over-grown /əʊvə'grəʊn/ adj 1 having grown too fast: an ~ boy. 2 covered with something that has grown over: a garden ~ with weeds.

over-growth /'əʊvəgrəʊθ/ n [C] 1 that which has grown over: an ~ of weeds. 2 growth that is too fast or too much: weakness due to ~.

over-hang /'əʊvə'hæŋ/ vt, vi (pt, pp -hung /-hæŋ/) hang, project, over, like a shelf: The cliffs ~ the stream. The ledge ~s several feet. □ n /'əʊvə'hæŋ/ [C] part that overhangs: the ~ of a roof.

over-haul /'əʊvə'hɔ:l/ vt 1 examine thoroughly in order to learn about the condition of: have the engine of a car ~ed. 2 overtake; catch up with: The fast cruiser soon ~ed the old cargo boat. □ n /'əʊvə'hɔ:l/ [C] examination for the purpose of repairing, cleaning, etc.

over-head /'əʊvə'hed/ adv above one's head; in the sky: the people in the room ~; the stars ~. □ adj /'əʊvə'hed/ raised above the ground: ~ wires/cables.

over-heads /'əʊvə'hedz/ n pl those expenses, etc needed for running a business, eg rent, salaries, light, not manufacturing costs.

over-hear /'əʊvə'hɜ:(r)/ vt (pt, pp ~d /-'hɜ:d/) 1 hear without the knowledge of the speaker(s). 2 hear what one is not intended to hear, deliberately or by chance.

over-joyed /'əʊvə'dʒɔɪd/ adj very delighted (at one's success, etc).

over-kill /'əʊvə'kɪl/ n [U] nuclear capacity greatly above what is needed to exterminate the enemy.

over-land adj /'əʊvəlænd/, adv /'əʊvə'lænd/ across the land (contrasted with the sea): take the ~ route; travel ~.

over-lap /'əʊvə'læp/ vt, vi (-pp-) 1 partly cover by extending beyond one edge: tiles that ~ one another. 2 (fig) partly coincide; involve duplication: His duties/authority and mine ~. □ n /'əʊvəlæp/ [C, U] (amount of, that which is) overlapping.

over-leaf /'əʊvə'li:f/ adv on the other side of the leaf (of a book, etc).

over-load /'əʊvə'ləʊd/ vt put too great a load (of electric current, weight) on.

over-look /'əʊvə'lʊk/ vt 1 have a view of from above: Our garden is ~ed from the neighbours' windows. They can look down on to our garden from their windows. 2 fail to see or notice; pay no attention to: His services have been ~ed by his employers. They have not properly rewarded him. 3 let pass without punishing: ~ a fault.

over-mas-ter /'əʊvə'mɑ:stə(r)/ US: -mæs-/ vt overcome, overpower: an ~ing desire.

over-much /'əʊvə'mʌtʃ/ adj, adv too greatly (ly): an author who is praised ~.

over-night /'əʊvə'naɪt/ adv 1 on the night before: Let's get everything ready ~ so that we can start early the next morning. 2 for, during, the night: stay ~ at a friend's house, sleep there for the night. □ adj /'əʊvə'naɪt/, during or for the night: an ~ journey.

over-pass /'əʊvə'pɑ:s/ US: -pæs/ n [C] bridge that carries a road over a highway or motorway. ⇨ flyover, underpass.

over-pay /'əʊvə'peɪ/ vt (pt, pp -paid /-'peɪd/) pay too much or too highly: Has Jack been overpaid for his work?

over-power /'əʊvə'paʊə(r)/ vt defeat by greater strength or numbers: The criminals were easily ~ed by the police. He was ~ed by the heat.

over-power-ing adj too strong; very powerful: an ~ing stink; ~ing grief.

over-rate /'əʊvə'reɪt/ vt put too high a value on: ~ her abilities; an ~d book.

over-reach /'əʊvə'ri:tʃ/ vt overreach oneself, fail, damage one's own interests, by being too ambitious.

over-ride /'əʊvə'raɪd/ vt (pt -rode /-'rəʊd/, pp -ridden /-'rɪdn/) refuse to agree with or accept, (a person's opinions, decisions, wishes, claims, etc): They overrode my wishes.

over-rule /'əʊvə'ru:l/ vt decide against (esp by using one's higher authority): The judge ~d the previous decision.

over-run /'əʊvə'rʌn/ vt (pt -ran /-'ræn/, pp ~) 1 spread over and occupy or injure: a country ~ by enemy troops; a garden ~ with weeds. 2 go beyond (a limit): speakers who ~ the time allowed them.

over-seas /'əʊvə'si:z/ adj (at, to, from, for, places) across the sea: ~ trade (no 'e stress change). □ adv: go/live ~s, abroad.

over-see /'əʊvə'si:/ vt (pt -saw /-'sɔ:/, pp -seen /-'si:n/) look after, control (work or workmen).

over-seer /'əʊvəsiə(r)/, person whose duty it is to take charge of work and see that it is properly done.

over-shadow /'əʊvə'ʃædəʊ/ vt 1 throw a shade over. 2 (fig) cause to seem less important or obvious.

over-shoe /'əʊvəʃu:/ n [C] (also a pair of ~s) rubber shoe worn over an ordinary one in wet weather. ⇨ galoshes.

over-shoot /'əʊvə'ʃu:t/ vt (pt, pp -shot /-'ʃɒt/) 1 shoot or travel over or beyond (a mark or limit): The aircraft overshot the runway. 2 (literary, fig) go too far.

over-sight /'əʊvəsi:t/ n 1 [U] failure to notice; [C] instance of this: Because of a very unfortunate ~, your letter was left unanswered. 2 [U] supervision: under the ~ of a nurse.

over-sim-ple-fi-ca-tion /'əʊvə ,sɪmplɪ'fɪkəʃn/ n [C, U] (instance of) making something (a process, an explanation, etc) seem too easy.

over-sleep /'əʊvə'sli:p/ vi (pt, pp -slept /-'slept/) sleep too long or after the time for waking: He overslept and was late for work.

over-spill /'əʊvəspɪl/ n [C] 1 what has overflowed. 2 (fig) surplus population (leaving a town to live elsewhere): build new towns for London's ~.

over-state /'əʊvəsteɪt/ vt 1 express or state too strongly. 2 state more than is true about: Don't ~ your case.

over-state-ment /'əʊvəsteɪtmənt/ n [U] exaggeration; [C] exaggerated statement.

over-stay /'əʊvəsteɪ/ vt = outstay.

over-step /'əʊvəstep/ vt (-pp-) go beyond: ~ one's authority.

over-stock /'əʊvəstɒk/ vt supply, fill, with too much stock.

over-strung /'əʊvəstrʌŋ/ adj (of a person, his nerves) intensely nervous; easily excited; too sensitive.

over-sub-scribed /'əʊvəsəb'skraɪbd/ adj (finance) (of an issue of shares, etc) with more applications than what is offered.

overt /'əʊvɜ:t/ US: əʊ'vɜ:t/ adj done or shown openly, publicly: ~ hostility.

overt-ly adv

over-take /'əʊvəteɪk/ vt (pt -took /-'tʊk/, pp -taken /-'teɪkən/) 1 catch up with and pass: ~ other cars on the road. 2 (of storms, troubles, etc) happen suddenly, by surprise: be ~n by/with fear/surprise.

over-tax /'əʊvətæks/ vt 1 tax too heavily. 2 put too heavy a burden on or strain on: ~ one's strength/her patience.

over-throw /'əʊvəθrəʊ/ vt (pt -threw /-'θru:/, pp -thrown /-'θrəʊn/) defeat; put an end to; cause to fall or fail: ~ the government. □ n /'əʊvəθrəʊ/ [C] ruin; defeat; fall.

over-time /'əʊvətəɪm/ n [U], adv (time spent at work) after the usual hours: working ~; be on ~; ~ pay.

over-ture /'əʊvətʃʊə(r)/ n [C] 1 (often pl) approach made (to a person) with the aim of starting discussions: peace ~s; make ~s to strikers. 2 (music) composition played as an introduction to an opera, or as a separate item at a concert.

over-turn /'əʊvətɜ:n/ vt, vi (cause to) turn over; upset: He ~ed the boat. The car ~ed.

over-weight /'əʊvəweɪt/ n [U] excess of weight above what is usual or legal. □ adj /'əʊvəweɪt/ more than the weight allowed or than is normal: If your luggage is ~, you'll have to pay extra.

over-whelm /'əʊvəwelm/ US: -'hwelm/ vt weigh down; cover, completely by pouring down on; crush; cause to feel confused or embarrassed: be ~ed by the enemy/by superior forces; ~ing sorrow.

over-work /'əʊvəwɜ:k/ vt, vi (cause to) work too hard or too long: ~ a horse. She used to ~. □ n [U] working too much or too long: ill through ~.

over-wrought /'əʊvə'rɔ:t/ adj tired out by too much work or excitement.

ovi-duct /'əʊvɪdʌkt/ n [C] (anat) (also called Fallopian tube) either of two tubes through which ova pass from the ovary to the uterus.

ovum /'əʊvəm/ n [C] (pl ova /'əʊvə/) cell in female animals, capable of developing into a new individual when fertilized by male sperm.

owe /əʊ/ vt, vi 1 be in debt to (a person) (for something): He ~s his father £50. 2 be under an obligation to, feel the necessity of gratitude to: We ~ a great deal to our parents. 3 be bound to give as a duty: owing reverence and obedience to my father. 4 be indebted to as the source of: He ~s his success more to good luck than to ability. To whom do we ~ the discovery of penicillin?

owing /'əʊɪŋ/ adj still to be paid: large sums still ~. owing to, prep because of: O ~ to the rain, they could not come.

owl /əʊl/ n [C] bird flying at night that lives on small birds and animals, eg mice.

own¹ /əʊn/ adj, pron 1 (used with possessive adjectives) for emphasis in possession, individual, and not another's: I saw it with my ~ eyes. It's my ~, belongs to me. This fruit has a flavour all its ~. (all) on one's own, (a) alone: I'm (all) on my ~ today. (b) independently of an employer: He's (working) on his ~, is self-employed. (c) without help: I did it on my ~. (d) outstanding; excellent: For craftsmanship, Smith is on his ~, has no equal. come into one's own, receive the credit, fame, etc that is deserved. get one's own back, ⇨ get back. hold one's own, ⇨ hold³(9). 2 done or produced by and for oneself: She makes all her ~ clothes.

own² /əʊn/ vi, vi 1 possess; have as property: This house is mine; I ~ it. 2 agree; confess; recognize: ~ that a claim is justified. own 'up (to sth), confess fully and frankly.

owner /'əʊnə(r)/ n [C] person who owns something: Who's the ~ of this house?

own-er-ship /'fɪp/, state of being an owner; right of possession.

ox /ɒks/ n [C] (pl oxen /'ɒksn/) 1 general name for domestic cattle. 2 (esp) fully grown castrated bullock.

'ox-cart, cart drawn by oxen.

'ox-tail, tail of ox, used for soup, etc.

oxi-dize (also -ise) /'ɒksɪdaɪz/ vt, vi (cause to) combine with oxygen; make or become rusty.

oxy-acety-lene /'ɒksɪə'setlɪn/ adj, n [U] (of a) mixture of oxygen and acetylene: ~ welding, using a hot flame of oxyacetylene.

oxy-gen /'ɒksɪdʒən/ n [U] chemical element (symbol O), gas without colour, taste or smell, present in the air and necessary to the existence of all forms of life.

'oxygen mask, mask placed over the nose and mouth to supply oxygen.

'oxygen tent, enclosure to allow a patient to breathe air with a greater oxygen content.

oy-ster /'ɔɪstə(r)/ n [C] kinds of shellfish used as food, usually eaten uncooked.

'oyster-bed/-bank, where oysters breed or are bred.

'oyster-catcher, wading seabird.

Pp

P, p /pi:/ (pl P's, p's /pi:z/) the 16th letter of the English alphabet. mind one's P's and Q's, be careful about what one says or does.

pa /pa:/ n [C] (informal) short for papa.

pace /peɪs/ n [C] 1 (distance covered by the foot in a) single step in walking or running. 2 rate of walking or running: go at a good ~, go fast. set the pace, ⇨ *set*² (6). keep pace (with), (literary, fig) progress at the same rate: He finds it hard to keep ~ with all the developments in nuclear physics. 3 (esp of horses) way of walking, running, etc. □ vi, vt 1 walk, trot, etc with slow or regular steps: ~ up and down, (often suggesting restlessness, impatience). 2 move across in this way: pace the room. 3 measure by taking paces: ~ off 30 metres; ~ out a room. 4 set the pace (2) for (a rider or runner in a race).

'pace-maker, (a) (also 'pace-setter) rider, runner, etc who sets the pace for another in a race. (b) electronic device to correct weak or irregular heartbeats.

pa-cific /pə'sɪfɪk/ adj peaceful; making or loving peace.

pa-cifi-cally /-kli/ adv

paci-fi-ca-tion /pə'sɪfɪ'keɪʃn/ n [U] making or becoming peaceful.

paci-fism /'pæsɪfɪzəm/ n [U] principle that war should and could be abolished.

paci-fist /'pæsɪfɪst/ n [C] believer in pacifism.

pac-ify /'pæsɪfaɪ/ vt (pt, pp -ied) 1 calm (a person's anger, excitement, etc). 2 end violence in (a country).

pack¹ /pæk/ n [C] 1 bundle of things tied or wrapped up together for carrying. 2 number of dogs kept for hunting (a ~ of hounds) or of wild animals that go about together: Wolves hunt in ~s. 3 (used contemptuously) number of things or persons: a ~ of thieves/liars/lies. 4 complete set (usually 52) of playing-cards. 5 quantity of fish, meat, fruit, etc packed in a season: this year's ~ of salmon. ⇨ *pack*² (5). 6 (US) = packet: a ~ of cigarettes.

'pack-horse/-animal, one used for carrying packs (1).

'pack-ice, mass of large blocks of ice in the sea.

pack² /pæk/ vt, vi 1 put things into, fill, a box, bundle, bag, etc; get ready for a journey by doing this: ~ clothes into a trunk. Have you ~ed

(up) your things? You must begin ~ing at once. Her husband takes a ~ed lunch (eg sandwiches, etc in a container) to work every day.

pack up, (informal) (a) put one's tools, etc away; stop working: It's time to ~ up. (b) fail: One of the aircraft's engines ~ed up. 2 crush or crowd together (into a place or period of time): ~ing people into a bus. She managed to ~ a lot of sightseeing into the short time she had in London. 3 put soft material into or round (something) to prevent loss or damage: glass/china ~ed in straw. 4 pack sb off; send sb packing, send him away quickly and roughly (because he is troublesome, etc). 5 prepare and put (meat, fruit, etc) in tins for preservation. ⇨ *pack*¹ (5). 6 choose (the members of a committee, etc) so that their decisions are likely to be in one's favour.

pack-age /'pækɪdʒ/ n [C] parcel, bundle of things, packed together. □ vt place in, make, a package.

'package 'deal, (informal) several parts of a proposal for discussion together.

'package 'holiday/'tour, (informal) holiday including travel, accommodation, etc arranged in advance by travel agents and sold at a fixed price.

packer /'pækə(r)/ n [C] person or machine that packs (1).

packet /'pækɪt/ n [C] 1 small parcel, carton: a ~ of 20 cigarettes. 2 (sl) large sum of money: cost a ~. make a packet, (informal) earn a lot of money.

'packet-boat, mailboat.

pack-ing /'pækn̩/ n [U] 1 process of packing (goods): doing my ~, putting things in my suitcase. 2 materials used in packing (3), eg for closing a leaking joint.

'packing-case, box of rough boards in which goods are packed for shipment.

pact /pækt/ n [C] agreement: a Peace P~.

pad /pæd/ n [C] 1 mass of, container filled with, soft material, used to prevent damage, give comfort or improve the shape of something. 2 number of sheets of writing-paper fastened together along one edge. 3 = launching pad. 4 guard for the leg or other parts of the body (in cricket and other games). 5 (also 'inking-pad) absorbent material used for inking rubber stamps. 6 soft, fleshy underpart of the foot (of a dog, fox, etc). 7 (sl) bed; room to sleep in. □ vt (-dd-) 1 put pads (1) in or on (to prevent injury, to give comfort, or to fill out hollow spaces, etc). 2 pad sth out, make (a sentence, essay, book, etc) longer by using unnecessary material.

'padded 'cell, one with padded walls (as used in a mental hospital).

pad-ding /'pædn̩/ n [U] material used for padding (1, 2). paddle¹ /'pædl/ n [C] 1 short oar with a wide blade at one or at both ends, used (without a rowlock) to move a canoe through the water. 2 (rowing) act or period of moving a boat with light, easy strokes. 3 instrument shaped like a paddle (eg one used for beating, stirring or mixing things). □ vt, vi use a paddle. paddle one's own canoe, depend on oneself alone.

'paddle-steamer, steam vessel moved by paddle-wheels.

'paddle-wheel, one of a pair of wheels which moves a paddle-steamer.

paddle² /'pædl/ vi walk with bare feet in shallow water (as children do at the seaside): a 'paddling pool, shallow pool (eg in a public park) where children paddle. □ n [C] act or period of paddling.

pad-dock /'pædək/ n [C] 1 small grass field, esp one used for exercising horses. 2 (at a race-course) enclosed area where horses are assembled and paraded before a race.

paddy /'pædi/ n [U] rice that is still growing; rice in the husk.

'paddy-field, field where rice is grown.

pad-lock /'pædlɒk/ n [C] detachable lock with a hook put round the object fastened. □ vt fasten with a padlock.

padre /'pædreɪ/ n [C] 1 (army and navy) chaplain. 2 (GB informal) priest; parson.

paedi-at-rics /'pi:di'ætri:k/ ⇨ pediatrics.

pa-gan /'peɪgən/ n [C], adj (person who is) not a believer in any of the chief religions of the world.

page¹ /'peɪdʒ/ n [C] 1 one side of a piece of paper which is part of a book, periodical, etc. 2 whole piece of paper: Several ~s have been torn out. □ vt number the pages of.

page² /'peɪdʒ/ n [C] 1 (also ~ boy) boy servant, usually in uniform, in a hotel, club, etc. 2 (in the Middle Ages) boy in training for knighthood and living in a knight's household. 3 boy acting as a personal attendant of a person of high rank. □ vt summon or call the name of (a person) in a hotel, club, etc: paging Mr Green.

pag-eant /'pædʒənt/ n [C] 1 public entertainment, often outdoors, in which historical events are acted in the costume of the period. 2 public celebration, esp one in which there is a procession of persons in fine costumes (eg a coronation).

pag-eantry /'pædʒəntri/ n [U] rich and splendid ceremony or display.

pa-goda /pə'gəʊdə/ n [C] (pl ~s) (in India, Ceylon, Burma, China, Japan, etc) religious building, typically a sacred tower shaped like a pyramid (Hindu temple), or of several storeys (Buddhist tower).

paid /peɪd/ ⇨ pay².

pail /peɪl/ n [C] vessel, usually round, of metal or wood, for carrying liquid: a ~ of milk.

pail-ful /-fʊl/ n [C] as much as a pail can hold.

pain /peɪn/ n 1 [U] suffering of mind or body: be in (great) ~; cry with ~; feel some/no/not much/a great deal of ~. 2 [C] particular or localized kind of bodily suffering: a ~ in the knee; stomach ~s. a pain in the neck, (sl) annoying person. □ vt cause pain to: My foot is still ~ing me.

'pain-killer, medicine for lessening pain (1).

pained adj distressed: She had a ~ed look.

pain-ful /-fl/ adj causing pain: This duty is ~ful to me.

pain-fully /-fəli/ adv

pain-less adj without, causing no, pain: ~less methods of killing animals.

pain-less-ly adv

pains /peɪnz/ n pl trouble; effort: work hard and get very little for all one's ~. be at/take (great) pains to do sth, make a great effort, work hard, to do it.

pains-taking /'peɪnstekɪŋ/ adj very careful; industrious.

paint /peɪnt/ n 1 [U] solid colouring matter (to be) mixed with oil or other liquid and used to give colour to a surface: give the doors two coats of ~. 2 (pl) collection of tubes or cakes of colouring materials. □ vt, vi 1 coat with paint: ~ a door. paint the town red, ⇨ red (1). 2 make a picture (of) with paint: ~ flowers; ~ in oils/in water-colours. paint sth in, add to a picture: ~ in the foreground. 3 (fig) describe vividly in words. be not so black as one is painted, ⇨ black (1).

'paint-box, box with a collection of paints (2).

'paint-brush, brush for painting.

painter¹ /'peɪntə(r)/ n [C] 1 person who paints pictures. 2 workman who paints wood-work, buildings, ships, etc.

painter² /'peɪntə(r)/ n [C] rope fastened to the bow (front) of a boat by which it may be tied to a ship, pier, etc.

paint-ing /'peɪntɪŋ/ n 1 [U] using paint; occupation of a painter. 2 [C] painted picture.

pair /peə(r)/ n [C] 1 two things of the same kind (to be) used together: a ~ of shoes/gloves. 2 single article with two parts always joined: a ~ of trousers/tights/scissors/tongs. 3 two persons closely associated, eg an engaged or married couple: They make a handsome ~, look attractive together. in pairs, in twos. 4 two animals of opposite sex; two horses harnessed together. 5 (in Parliament) two persons of opposite political parties who are absent from voting by mutual agreement; one member willing to do this: The member for Lewisham couldn't find a ~. □ vt, vi 1 form a pair; join, go off, in pairs. 2 (in Parliament) make a pair (5).

pa-ja-mas /pə'dʒɑ:mæz/ n pl ⇨ pyjamas.

pal /pæl/ n [C] (informal) friend. □ vi (-ll-) pal up (with sb), become friendly.

pally /'pæli/ adj (informal) friendly.

pal-ace /'pælɪs/ n [C] 1 official residence of a sovereign, archbishop or bishop. 2 any large and splendid house; large, splendid building for entertainment. 3 the ~, influential persons at the palace of a sovereign.

pal-at-able /'pælətəbl/ adj 1 agreeable to the taste. 2 (fig) pleasing.

pal-ate /'pælət/ n [C] 1 roof of the mouth: the hard/soft ~, its front/back part. ⇨ cleft palate. 2 sense of taste: have a good ~ for wines.

pa-la-tial /'pælɪeɪl/ adj of or like a palace: a ~ residence.

pale¹ /peɪl/ adj (-r, -st) 1 (of a person's face) having little colour: He turned ~ at the news. 2 (of colours) not bright; faintly coloured: ~ blue. □ vi grow pale; lose colour.

pale-ness n [U]

pale² /peɪl/ n [C] pointed piece of wood used for fences; stake. ⇨ paling.

paleo-lithic (also palaeo-) /'pælɪəʊ'lɪθɪk/ US: 'peɪl-/ adj of the period marked by the use of primitive stone implements.

pale-on-tol-ogist (also palae-) /'pælɪən-'tɒlədʒɪst/ US: 'peɪl-/ n [C] expert in paleontology.

pale-on-tol-ogy (also palae-) /'pælɪən-'tɒlədʒɪ/ US: 'peɪl-/ n [U] study of fossils as a guide to the history of life on earth.

pal-ette /'pæltɪ/ n [C] board (with a hole for the thumb) on which an artist mixes his colours.

'palette-knife, wide, flat knife, used (by artists) for mixing (and sometimes spreading) oil colours, by potters for moulding clay and in cookery.

pale-ing /'peɪlɪŋ/ n [C,U] fence made of pales².

pal-ish /'peɪlɪʃ/ adj a little pale.

pal¹ /pɒl/ n [C] 1 heavy cloth spread over a coffin. 2 (fig) any dark, heavy covering: a ~ of smoke.

'pall-bearer, person who walks by the side of a coffin at a funeral.

pal² /pɒl/ vi become distasteful or boring because done, used, etc for too long a time: pleasures that ~ after a time.

pal-let /'pælt/ n [C] 1 straw-filled mattress for sleeping on. 2 portable platform for carrying and storing loads.

pal-lid /'pæld/ adj pale; looking ill.

pal-lid-ly adv

pal-lor /'pælə(r)/ n [U] paleness, esp of the face.

pally ⇨ pal.

palm¹ /pɑ:m/ n [C] inner surface of the hand between the wrist and the fingers. □ vt hide (a coin, card, etc) in the hand when performing a trick. palm sth off (on sb), get him to accept it by fraud, deceit, etc.

palm² /pɑ:m/ n [C] 1 sorts of tree growing in warm climates, with no branches and a mass of large wide leaves at the top: 'date~s'; 'coco-nut ~s'. 2 leaf of a palm as a symbol of victory.

palm-ist /'pɑ:mɪst/ n [C] person who claims to tell a person's future by examining the lines on his palm.

palm-is-try /'pɑ:mɪstri/ n [U] art of doing this.

pal-pable /'pælpəbl/ adj (formal) 1 that can be felt or touched. 2 clear to the senses or mind: a ~ error.

pal-pably /-əblɪ/ adv

pal-pi-tate /'pælpɪteɪt/ vi 1 (of the heart) beat rapidly and irregularly. 2 (of a person, his body) tremble (with terror, etc).

pal-pi-ta-tion /'pælpɪteɪʃn/ n [C,U] (instance of) palpitating of the heart (from disease, great efforts, etc).

pal-try /'pɒltri/ adj (-ier, -iest) worthless; of no importance; contemptible.

pam-pas /'pæmpəs/ US: -əz/ n pl extensive, treeless plains of S America. (Note: compare: prairie in N America and savannah in tropical America and W Africa.)

pam-per /'pæmpə(r)/ vt indulge too much; be too kind to: a ~ed child/dog.

pamph-let /'pæmfli:t/ n [C] small paper-covered book, esp on a topic of current interest.

pamph-let-eer /'pæmfli:tə(r)/ n [C] writer of pamphlets.

pan¹ /pæn/ n [C] 1 flat dish, usually shallow and without a cover, used for cooking and other domestic purposes. 2 receptacle with various uses: the ~ (= bowl) of a lavatory; a 'bed~. 3 (natural or artificial) depression in the ground: a 'salt~, where salt water evaporates. 4 either of the dishes on a pair of scales. 5 open dish for washing gravel, etc to separate gold ore or other metals. □ vt, vi (-nn-) 1 wash (gold-bearing gravel, etc) in a pan. pan out, (a) yield gold. (b) (fig) succeed; turn out: How did things ~ out? 2 (informal) criticize harshly: His play was ~ned severely.

'pan-cake, (a) batter fried on both sides until brown. (b) pancake landing, emergency landing in which the aircraft drops flat to the ground. (c) cosmetic face-powder pressed into a flat cake, used without a foundation cream.

pan² /pæn/ vi, vt (in cinema and TV) turn a camera right or left to follow a moving object or get a panoramic effect. ⇨ zoom(2).

pan- prefix all, throughout: Pan-African.

pana-cea /'pænə'siə/ n [C] (pl ~s) remedy for all troubles, diseases, etc.

pa-nache /'pænæʃ/ US: pə-/ n [U] (air of) confidence: He does everything with ~.

pana-tella /'pænə'telə/ n [C] (pl ~s) long, thin cigar.

pan-chro-matic /'pænkroʊ'mætɪk/ adj (in photography) equally sensitive to all colours: ~ film.

pan-creas /'pæŋkriəs/ n [C] gland near the stomach, discharging a juice which helps digestion.

pan-cre-atic /'pæŋkri:tɪk/ adj of the pancreas.

panda /'pændə/ n [C] (pl ~s) mammal like a bear, of Tibet and China, with black legs and a black and white body.

'Panda car, (GB) police patrol car.

pan-de-mo-nium /,pændɪ'məʊniəm/ n [C, U] (pl ~s) (scene of) wild and noisy disorder.

pan-der /'pændə(r)/ vi give help or encouragement (to): newspapers that ~ to the public interest in crime; ~ to low tastes.

pane /peɪn/ n [C] sheet of glass in (a division of) a window.

panel /'pænl/ n [C] 1 separate part of the surface of a door, wall, ceiling, etc raised above or sunk below the surrounding area. 2 large piece of material of a different kind or colour inserted in a dress. 3 board or other surface for controls and instruments: the instrument ~, of an aircraft or motor-vehicle; the control ~, on a radio or TV set. 4 list of names, eg of doctors who (in GB) have agreed to attend persons under the National Health Service. 5 group of speakers, esp one chosen to speak, answer questions, take part in a game, before an audience, eg of listeners to a broadcast: (as an adjective) a ~ discussion/game. □ vt (-ll-, US -l-) furnish or decorate with panels (1,2): a ~led room/skirt.

pan-el-ling, series of panels on a wall, etc.

pang /pæŋ/ n [C] sudden, sharp feeling of pain, guilt, etc.

panic /'pænik/ n [C, U] uncontrolled, quickly spreading, fear: There is always danger of (a) ~ when a building catches fire. □ vi (-ck-) be affected with panic: Stop ~king!

pan-icky /'pænikl/ adj (informal) easily affected by, in a state of, panic.

'panic-stricken adj terrified; overcome by panic.

pan-nier /'pæniə(r)/ n [C] 1 one of a pair of baskets placed across the back of a horse or ass. 2 one of a pair of bags on either side of the back of a (motor-)bike.

pan-or-ama /,pænə'rɑ:mə US: /'ræmə/ n [C] (pl ~s) wide, uninterrupted view; constantly changing scene: the ~ of London life.

pan-or-amic /,pænə'ræmik/ adj pan-pipes /'pænpaɪps/ n pl musical instrument made of a series of reeds or pipes, played by blowing across the open ends.

pansy /'pænzɪ/ n [C] (pl -ies) flowering herbaceous plant.

pant /pænt/ vi, vt 1 take short, quick breaths; gasp: The dog ~ed along behind its master's horse. 2 say while panting: He ~ed out his message. □ n [C] short, quick breath (as when exhausted).

pan-ta-loon /,pæntə'lu:n/ n 1 [C] (in pantomime) foolish character on whom the clown plays tricks. 2 (pl) (old use) = pants (2).

pan-tech-ni-con /pænteknikən/ n [C] (GB) large van for removing furniture.

pan-the-ism /'pænthɪzəm/ n [U] belief that God is in everything and that everything is God; belief in and worship of all gods.

pan-the-ist /-ɪst/, believer in pantheism.

pan-the-is-tic /,pænthɪ'ɪstɪk/ adj.

pan-ther /'pænθə(r)/ n [C] leopard; (US) puma.

pan-ties /'pæntɪz/ n pl (informal) (woman's or girl's) close-fitting short knickers.

panto /'pæntəʊ/ n [C] (pl ~s) (informal) (abbr of) pantomime.

pan-to-mime /'pæntəmaɪm/ n [C, U] 1 (example of a) kind of English drama based on a fairy tale or traditional story, with music, dancing and clowning. 2 acting without words.

pan-try /'pæntri/ n [C] (pl -ies) 1 room (in a large house, hotel, ship, etc) in which silver, glass, etc are kept. 2 larder; room (in a house) in which food is kept.

pants /pænts/ n pl 1 (esp US) trousers. 2 underpants; knickers.

panty-hose /'pænthəʊz/ n [U] (used with a pl verb) tights fitting below the waistline.

papa /pə'pɑ:/ US: /'pɑ:pə/ n [C] (child's word for) father.

pa-pacy /'peɪpəsi/ n [C] (pl -ies) position, authority of, the Pope; system of government by Popes.

pa-pal /'peɪpl/ adj of the Pope or a papacy.

pa-paw (also paw-paw) /pə'pɔ:/ US: /'pɔ:pɔ:/ n [C] 1 tropical tree like a palm; its large edible fruit with a yellow pulp inside. 2 small N American evergreen tree with small fleshy edible fruit (also called custard apple).

pap-aya /pə'paɪə/ = papaw.

pa-per /'peɪpə(r)/ n 1 [U] substance in the form of sheets, used for writing, printing, drawing, wrapping, packing, etc: a sheet of ~; a ~ bag. (be) good on paper, (be) good when judged from written or printed evidence: It's a good scheme on ~ (but has not yet been tested). 2 [C] = newspaper: the evening ~s. 3 (pl) documents showing who a person or thing is, what authority he or it has, etc: identification ~s; ship's ~s. 4 [C] set of printed examination questions on a given subject: The biology ~ was difficult. 5 [C] essay, esp one to be read to a learned society: a ~ on currency reform. □ vt paste wallpaper on: ~ the dining-room. paper over, (fig) hide (faults) using a weak disguise.

'paper-back, book in paper covers.

'paper-clip, ⇨ clip¹.

'paper-mill, factory where paper is made.

'paper tiger, person, group of persons, etc which seems to be, but is not, powerful.

'paper-work, written work (in an office, etc, eg filling in forms, correspondence, contrasted with practical affairs, dealing with people): He's good at ~work.

pa-poose /pə'pu:s US: /pə'pu:s/ n [C] 1 (word used by Indians of N America for a) baby. 2 framed bag (like a rucksack) for carrying a young baby on one's back.

pap-rika /'pæprɪkə/ US: /pə'prɪkə/ n [U] sweet red pepper used in cooking.

pa-py-rus /pə'paɪərəs/ n 1 [U] (kind of paper made in ancient Egypt from) tall water plant or reed. 2 [C] (pl papyrus /pə'paɪərəɪ/) manuscript written on this paper.

par /pɑː(r)/ n [U] 1 average, normal amount, degree, value, etc. above/below/at par, (of shares, bonds, etc), above/below/at the original price or face value. on a par with, of the same (high) standard as: intelligence on a ~ with Einstein. 2 (golf) number of strokes considered necessary for a player to complete a hole or course.

par-able /'pærəbl/ n [C] simple story designed to teach a moral lesson.

par-ab-ola /pə'ræbələ/ n [C] (pl ~s) flat curve formed by cutting a cone along a line parallel to its side.

para-bolic /pə'ræ'bɒlɪk/ adj para-chute /'pærəʃu:t/ n [C] apparatus used for a jump from an aircraft or for dropping supplies, etc. □ vt, vi drop, descend, from an aircraft by means of a parachute.

para-chut-ist /-ɪst/, person who jumps with a parachute.

par-ade /pə'reɪd/ vt, vi 1 (of troops) (cause to) gather together for drilling, inspection, etc. 2 march in procession: clowns parading in the circus-ring. 3 make a display of; try to attract attention to: parading wild animals; ~ one's wealth. □ n 1 [U] parading of troops: be on ~; [C] instance of this: a circus ~. 2 [C] display or exhibition: a 'fashion ~. 3 wide, pavement on a seafront.

pa'rade-ground, area on which parades (1) are held.

para-dise /'pærədaɪs/ n 1 the Garden of Eden, home of Adam and Eve. 2 Heaven. 3 (with a, an) any place of perfect happiness; [U] condition of perfect happiness. ⇨ fool's paradise.

para-dox /'pærədɒks/ n [C] statement that seems to say something opposite to common sense or the truth, but which may contain a truth (eg 'More haste, less speed' if you hurry too much, you may find you take longer).

para-doxi-cal /pə'ræ'dɒksɪkəl/ adj para-doxi-cally /-klɪ/ adv

par-af-fin /'pærəfɪn/ n [U] 1 (GB) oil obtained from petroleum, coal, etc used as a fuel (US = kerosene). 2 substance like wax used for making candles. 3 odourless, tasteless form of paraffin used as a laxative.

para-gon /'pærəgɒn/ US: -gɒn/ n [C] model (of excellence); apparently perfect person or thing: a ~ of virtue.

para-graph /'pærəgrɑːf/ US: -græf/ n [C] 1 division (usually a group of several sentences dealing with one main idea) of a piece of writing, started on a new line. 2 small item of news in a newspaper. □ vt divide into paragraphs.

para-keet /'pærəki:t/ n [C] small, long-tailed parrot of various kinds.

par-al-lel /'pærələ/ adj 1 (of lines) always at the same distance from one another. 2 (of one line) having this relation (to or with another): in a ~ direction (with/to...). 3 (fig) similar; corresponding: a ~ job in another company. □ n [C] 1 in parallel, (of the components of an electrical circuit) with the supply of current taken to each component independently. ⇨ series. 2 person, event, etc precisely similar: a brilliant career without (a) ~ in modern times. 3 comparison: draw a ~ between... □ vt (-l- or (GB) -ll-) 1 quote, produce or mention a comparison. 2 be the same as: His experiences ~ mine in many instances.

par-al-lelo-gram /,pærələ'lelɒgræm/ n [C] four-sided plane figure whose opposite sides are parallel.

para-lyse (US = -lyze) /'pærəlaɪz/ vt 1 affect with paralysis. 2 (fig) make helpless: paralysed with fear.

par-al-ysis /pə'rælɪsɪs/ n [U] 1 loss of feeling or power to move in any or every part of the body. 2 (fig) state of total powerlessness.

para-lytic /,pærə'lytɪk/ adj (a) suffering from paralysis (1). (b) (fig) helpless: paralytic laughter. (c) (informal) very drunk. □ n [C] paralytic person.

para-meter /pə'ræmɪtə(r)/ n [C] variable factor in an analysis or experiment.

para-mili-tary /,pærə'mɪlɪtəri/ US: -teri/ adj having duties like but not with the same status as regular military forces.

para-mount /'pærəmaʊnt/ adj (formal) 1 supreme, superior in power: ~ chiefs. 2 pre-eminent, superior: of ~ importance.

para-noia /pə'rə'nɔɪə/ n [U] mental disorder marked by fixed delusions, eg of persecution or grandeur.

para-noid /'pærənɔɪd/ n [C], adj (person) suffering from paranoia.

para-pet /'pærəpɪt/ n [C] 1 protective wall at the edge of a flat roof, side of a bridge, etc. 2 defensive bank of earth, stone, etc along the front edge of a trench (in war).

para-pher-nalia /,pærəfə'neɪliə/ n [U] numerous small possessions, tools, instruments, etc.

para-phrase /'pærəfreɪz/ vt, n [C] (give a) statement of a piece of writing in other (usually fewer) words.

para-ple-gia /,pærə'pli:dʒə/ n [U] paralysis of the lower part of the body, including both legs, caused by injury to the spinal cord.

para-plegic /,pærə'pli:dʒɪk/ n [C], adj (person) suffering from paraplegia.

para-site /'pærəsɪt/ n [C] 1 animal (eg louse, hookworm) or plant (eg mistletoe) living on or in another and getting its food from it. 2 (fig) person supported by another and giving him nothing in return.

para-sitic /ˌpærə'sɪtɪk/ para-siti-cal /ˌpærə'sɪtɪkəl/ adj para-sol /ˌpærəsəl/ US: -sɔ:l/ n [C] umbrella used to give shade from the sun.

para-troops /ˌpærətru:ps/ n pl troops trained for being dropped by parachute.

para-trooper /ˌpærətru:pə(r)/ n [C] one of these.

par-boil /ˌpɑ:bɔɪl/ vt boil (food) until partially cooked.

par-cel /ˌpɑ:sl/ n [C] thing or things wrapped and tied up for carrying, sending by post, etc.

part and parcel of, an essential part of. □ vt (-lt-, US also -l-) 1 divide into portions: ~ out the food. 2 make into a parcel: ~ up the books.

parch /ˌpɑ:tʃ/ vt (of heat, the sun, etc) make hot and dry: the ~ed deserts of N Africa.

parch-ment /ˌpɑ:tʃmənt/ n 1 [C, U] (manuscript on) writing material prepared from the skin of a sheep or goat. 2 [U] kind of paper like parchment.

par-don /ˌpɑ:dən/ n 1 [U] forgiveness: ask for ~; [C] instance of this. 2 I beg your pardon, (used to show politeness, eg when disagreeing with somebody, or when not hearing or understanding somebody). 3 freeing from legal punishment: a general ~, for groups of offenders, not individuals. □ vt forgive; excuse: ~ her for doing wrong.

par-don-able /-əbl/ adj that can be forgiven.

pare /peə(r)/ vt 1 cut away the outer part, edge or skin of: ~ the claws of an animal. 2 (fig) reduce little by little: ~ down one's expenses.

par-ent /ˌpeərənt/ n [C] 1 father or mother; ancestor. 2 (fig) source, origin: ~s of evil.

'par-ent-age /-ɪdʒ/ n [U] fatherhood or motherhood; origin.

par-ental /ˌpɑ'rentl/ adj of a parent: showing ~al care.

'parent-hood, motherhood or fatherhood.

par-enth-esis /ˌpɑ'renθəsis/ n [C] (pl -eses /-əsɪz/) 1 sentence or phrase within another sentence, marked off by commas, dashes or brackets. 2 (sing or pl) round brackets () for this: a comment in ~.

par-en-thetic /ˌpærən'θetɪk/, also par-entheti-cal /-ɪkl/ adj par-en-theti-cally /-klɪ/ adv par-ish /ˌpærɪʃ/ n [C] 1 division of a county with its own church and clergymen. 2 (civil ~) (GB) division of a county for local government: the ~ council.

par-ish-ioner /ˌpɑ'rɪʃənə(r)/ n [C] inhabitant of a parish.

par-ity /ˌpærəti/ n [U] equality; being equal; being at par: The two currencies have now reached ~, are equivalent.

park /pɑ:k/ n [C] 1 public garden or public recreation ground in a town. 2 area of grassland, trees, etc round a large country house or mansion. ⇨ also car park, national park. □ vt, vi 1 place or leave (a motor-vehicle) in a car park, a drive¹ (2), etc: Where can we ~ (the car)? 2 (informal) put (a person or thing) somewhere: Where can I ~ this suitcase?

parka /ˌpɑ:kə/ n [C] = anorak.

parking /ˌpɑ:kɪŋ/ n [U] (area for the) parking of motor-vehicles: No ~.

'parking lot, (US) = car park.

'parking meter, coin-operated meter for parking a car in a public place, eg a street.

Parkinson's disease /ˌpɑ:kɪnsns dɪzɪz/ n [U] chronic progressive disease of old people, with muscular tremors, muscular rigidity and general weakness.

par-li-a-ment /ˌpɑ:lɪmənt/ n [C] (in countries with representative government) supreme law-making council or assembly (in GB the House of Commons and the House of Lords): enter P ~; Members of 'P ~.

par-li-a-men-tar-ian /ˌpɑ:lɪmənt'etərɪən/, person skilled in the rules and procedures of parliament.

par-li-a-men-tary /ˌpɑ:lɪ'mentri/ adj par-lour (US = -lor) /ˌpɑ:lə(r)/ n [C] 1 (dated) ordinary sitting-room for the family in a private house (now called a sitting-room or living-room). 2 private sitting-room at an inn; room for the reception of visitors. 3 (esp US) room for customers and clients: a 'beauty ~.

par-ochial /ˌpɑ'rəʊkiəl/ adj 1 of a parish. 2 (fig) limited, narrow: a ~ mind/attitude.

par-ochi-ally /-kiəl/ adv

par-ody /ˌpærədi/ n (pl -ies) 1 [C, U] (piece of) writing intended to amuse by imitating the style of writing used by somebody else. 2 [C] feeble imitation: a ~ of justice. □ vt (pt, pp -ied) make a parody of.

pa-role /ˌpɑ'rəʊl/ n [U] prisoner's solemn promise, on being given certain privileges, that he will not try to escape or repeat a crime. on parole, freed after making such a promise. □ vt set (a prisoner) free on parole.

par-o-quet /ˌpærəki:t/ n = parakeet.

par-ox-ysm /ˌpærəksɪzəm/ n [C] sudden attack or outburst (of pain, anger, laughter, etc).

par-quet /ˌpɑ:kɛi/ US: ˌpɑr'keɪ/ n [C] flooring of wooden blocks fitted together to make a pattern.

par-ri-ci-de /ˌpærɪsaɪd/ n [C, U] (person guilty of the) murder of one's father or near relation.

par-rot /ˌpærət/ n [C] 1 sorts of bird with a short, hooked bill and (often) brightly coloured feathers of which some kinds can be trained to imitate human speech. 2 person who repeats, often without understanding, what others say.

parry /ˌpærɪ/ vt (pt, pp -ied) 1 turn aside, avoid (a blow). 2 (fig) evade (a question). □ n [C] act of parrying.

parse /pɑ:z/ US: ˌpɑ:rs/ vt 1 describe (a word) grammatically. 2 point out how the words of a sentence are related.

Par-see /pɑ:'si:/ n [C] supporter of a religious system in India, the members being descended from Persians who settled in India in the 7th and 8th centuries.

par-si-moni-ous /pɑ:'si:məniəs/ adj (formal) too economical; mean¹ (6).

pars-ley /pɑ:'sli:/ n [U] plant with aromatic leaves, used in seasoning and sauces.

pars-nip /pɑ:'snip/ n [C] long, white or pale-yellow root, cooked as a vegetable.

par-son /pɑ:'sn/ n [C] parish priest; clergyman.

par-son's 'nose, (informal) tail-end of a cooked fowl.

par-son-age /-idʒ/, parson's house.

part¹ /pɑ:t/ n [C] 1 (often sing without a, an) some but not all of a thing or a number of things; something less than the whole: We spent (a) ~ of our holiday in France. P~s of the book are interesting. for the 'most part, ⇨ most¹ (1). in part, to some extent or degree. 2 (pl) region; district: in these/those ~s. 3 any one of a number of equal divisions: A minute is the sixtieth ~ of an hour. 4 person's share in some activity; his duty or responsibility; what an actor in a play, film, etc says and does: a man with an important ~ in a play/in a conference. play one's part, be involved, do what is expected. take part (in), have a share (in); help: Are you going to take ~ in the discussion? Do you intend to speak? 5 side in a dispute, transaction, agreement, mutual arrangement, etc. take sb's part, support him: He always takes his brother's ~. for 'my part, as far as I am concerned: For my ~ I am quite happy about the division of the money. 6 take sth in good part, not be offended by it. 7 each issue of a work published in instalments: a new encyclopaedia to be issued in monthly ~s. 8 essential piece or section (eg a spare ~), extra piece, etc to be used when needed, when something breaks or wears: When can I get a ~ for my pump? 9 (music) each of the melodies that make up a harmony; the melody for a particular voice or instrument. □ adv partly: made ~ of iron and ~ of wood.

part of 'speech, one of the classes of words, eg noun, verb, adjective.

part-'time adj, adv for only a part of the working day or week: be employed ~time; ~time 'teaching. Hence, part-'timer n [C] part² /pɑ:t/ vt, vi 1 (cause to) separate or divide: We tried to ~ the two fighters. Let's ~ friends. part company (with), ⇨ company (1). 2 give up, give away: He hates to ~ with his money. 3 divide one's hair by combing it in opposite ways.

part-ing n (a) [C] line where the hair is combed in opposite ways. (b) [C,U] departure. at the parting of the ways, (fig) at the point when one has to choose between courses of action.

par-take /pɑ:'teik/ vi, vt (pt -took /-tʊk/, pp -taken /-teikən/) (formal) 1 take a share in: They partook (of) our simple meal. 2 have some of (the nature or characteristics of): His manner ~s of insolence.

par-tial /pɑ:'ʃl/ adj 1 forming only a part; not complete: a ~ success; a ~ eclipse of the sun. 2 showing too much favour to one person or side: examiners who are ~ towards pretty female students. 3 having a liking for: ~ to French wines.

par-tially /pɑ:'ʃəli/ adv (a) partly; not completely. (b) in a partial (2) manner.

par-ti-al-ity /pɑ:'ʃi:əli/ n (a) [U] being partial (2) in treatment of people, etc. (b) [C] fondness: a ~ity for chocolate cake.

par-tici-pant /pɑ:'tɪsɪpənt/ n [C] person who takes part in something.

par-tici-pate /pɑ:'tɪsɪpeɪt/ vi have a share, be involved: ~ in a plot.

par-ti-ciple /pɑ:'tɪsɪpl/ n [C] (verbal adjective qualifying nouns but retaining some characteristics of a verb, eg: 'Hurrying' and 'hurried' are the present and past ~s of 'hurry'. (Note: past participle is marked pp in this dictionary.)

par-ti-cip-ial /pɑ:'tɪsɪpiəl/ adj par-ticle /pɑ:'tɪkl/ n [C] 1 very small bit: ~s of dust. 2 (gram) minor part of speech, eg an article (a, an, the), or an affix (un-, in-, -ness).

par-ticu-lar /pɑ:'tɪkjʊlə(r)/ adj 1 relating to one as distinct from others: this ~ case. 2 special; worth notice; outstanding: for no ~ reason. He took ~ trouble to get it right. in particular, especially: I remember the colour in ~. 3 very exact: a full and ~ account of what we saw. 4 difficult to satisfy: She's very ~ about what she wears. □ n [C] detail. go into particulars, give details.

par-ticu-lar-ly adv especially: He was ~ly noticeable.

part-ing /pɑ:'tɪŋ/ ⇨ part².

par-ti-san /pɑ:'tɪzən/ US: 'pɑ:tɪzən/ n [C] 1 person devoted to a political party, group or cause. 2 (esp) member of an armed resistance movement in a country occupied by enemy forces: ~ troops. □ adj uncritically devoted to a cause: His loyalties are too ~.

par-ti-tion /pɑ:'tɪʃn/ n 1 [U] division into parts: the ~ of India in 1947. 2 [C] that which divides, eg a thin wall between rooms. 3 [C] part formed by dividing; section. □ vi divide into sections, eg using a partition (2): ~ off a room.

par-ti-tive /pɑ:'tɪtɪv/ n [C], adj (gram) (word) denoting part of a collective whole: 'Some' and 'any' are ~s.

part-ly /pɑ:'tli/ adv to some extent: I ~ agree with you. It's ~ green in daylight.

part-ner /pɑ:'tɪnə(r)/ n [C] 1 person who takes part with another or others in some activity, esp one of the owners of a business: ~s in crime; 'business ~s. ⇨ sleeping partner. 2 one of two persons dancing together, playing tennis, cards, etc together. 3 husband or wife. □ vt 1 be a partner to. 2 bring (people) together as partners.

'part-ner-ship /-ʃɪp/, (a) [U] state of being a partner. (b) [C] joint business: enter/go into ~ship (with her).

par-took /pɑ:'tʊk/ ⇨ partake.

par-tridge /'pɑ:trɪdʒ/ n [C] sorts of bird of the same family as the pheasant; [U] its flesh eaten as food.

party /'pɑ:ti/ (n pl -ies) 1 [C] group of persons united in policy and opinion, in support of a cause, esp in politics: the Conservative, Labour and Liberal parties. 2 [U] (esp used as an adjective) government based on political parties: ~ politics, politics of and within a political party; Our best men put public interest before ~. follow the party line, ⇨ line¹ (11). 3 [C] person taking part in a legal agreement or dispute. 4 [C] group of persons travelling or working together, or on duty together: a ~ of tourists; a 'firing-~, of soldiers, at a military funeral or execution. 5 [C] gathering of persons, by invitation, for pleasure: a 'dinner/ 'birthday ~. 6 [C] person taking part in and approving of or being aware of what is going on: be ~ to a decision.

'party line, (a) telephone line shared by two or more persons. (b) agreed or established policy of a political party.

,party-'wall, one that divides two properties and is the responsibility of both owners.

pass¹ /pɑ:s US: pæs/ n 1 [C] act of passing. 2 [C] success in an examination, esp (in university degree examinations) success in satisfying the examiners but without distinction or honours¹ (7): get a ~ in History; a ~ degree. 3 (sing only) bring to pass, accomplish, carry out. come to pass, happen. come to/ reach (such) a fine/sad/pretty pass, reach such a state or condition. 4 [C] (paper, ticket, etc giving) permission or authority to travel, enter a building, have a seat in a cinema, etc: No admittance without a ~. 5 [C] act of kicking, throwing, or hitting the ball from one player to another player (of the same team). 6 [C] narrow way over or through mountains; such a way viewed as the entrance to a country. 7 make a pass at (a woman), (sf) make (possibly unwelcome) friendly or amorous approach. 8 [C] (in card-games) act of passing (16).

'pass-key, (a) private key to a gate, etc. (b) key which opens a number of locks.

'pass-mark, minimum mark needed to pass an examination.

'pass-word, secret word or phrase which enables a person to be recognized as a friend and not an enemy.

pass² /pɑ:s US: pæs/ vi, vt (Compare past¹) (For special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions, ⇨ 19 below.) 1 move towards and beyond, proceed (along, through, down, etc): ~ through a village. Please let me ~. The road was too narrow for cars to ~. The two ships ~ed by/~ed each other during the night. 2 leave (a person, place, object, etc) on one side or behind as one goes forward: Turn right after ~ing the post office. I ~ed Miss Green in the street. 3 go through, across, over or between: The ship ~ed the channel. No complaints ~ed her lips. 4 give by handing: Please ~ (me) the butter. The letter was ~ed on/round to all the members of the family. 5 (of time) go by; be spent: Six months ~ed and still we had no news of them. 6 spend (time): How shall we ~ the evening? pass the time, ⇨ time¹ (5).

7 change from one state of things to another; change into another state of things: Water ~es from a liquid to a solid state when it freezes. (Note: change is the usual word.) 8 say (something): ~ a remark. pass the time of day (with sb). ⇨ time¹ (3). 9 (cause to) circulate: He was imprisoned for ~ing forged banknotes. 10 be known by or recognised as: He can easily ~ for an officer. She ~es under the name of Mrs Green. 11 examine and accept; be examined and accepted: Parliament ~ed the Bill. The Bill ~ed and became law. The examiners ~ed most of the candidates. The candidates ~ed (the examination). We have to ~ the Customs before we leave. 12 take place; be said or done (between persons): Tell me everything that ~ed between you. 13 be beyond the range of: a story that ~es belief. It ~es my comprehension. 14 give (an opinion, judgement, etc): ~ sentence on an accused man. I can't ~ an opinion on your work without seeing it. 15 be accepted without criticism or blame: His rude remarks ~ed without comment. I don't like it, but I'll let it ~, will not make objections, etc. 16 (card-games) let one's turn go by without playing a card or making a bid. 17 move; cause to go: He ~ed his fingers through his hair. pass an eye over, look quickly at. pass water, urinate. 18 (in football, hockey, etc) kick, throw, hit (the ball) to a player of one's own side. 19 (special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions):

pass away, die: He ~ed away peacefully/in his sleep.

pass between, be exchanged by: Don't tell anyone about what has ~ed between us, about what we have discussed.

pass sb/sth by, pay no attention to: I can't ~ the matter by without a protest.

pass down, = hand down.

pass for sb/sth, be accepted as: Do I speak French well enough to ~ for a Frenchman?

pass off, (a) (of events) take place, be carried through: The meeting of the strikers ~ed off quietly. (b) (of pain, a crisis) end gradually: Has your toothache ~ed off yet? pass sth off, turn attention from (to avoid embarrassment): ~ off an awkward situation. pass sth/sb off as, represent falsely to be: He tried to ~ himself off as a qualified doctor.

pass on, (of a person) die. pass sth on (to), hand or give it (to another person or others).

pass out, (informal) = faint. pass out (of), leave (a military) college, etc having passed one's examinations.

pass over, fail to notice or include: ~ over an important mistake and hope it will not be noticed. pass sb over, fail to consider for promotion, etc: They ~ed me over in favour of a younger man.

pass through, experience; suffer: ~ through a difficult period after a divorce.

pass sth up, (informal) not take advantage of something: ~ up an opportunity.

pass-able /'pasəbl/ US: 'pæs-/ adj 1 (of roads, etc) that can be passed over or crossed: Are the Alpine roads ~ yet? 2 that can be accepted as fairly good but not excellent: a ~ knowledge of German.

pass-ably /-əbli/ adv

pas-sage /'pæsidʒ/ n 1 [U] passing; act of going past, through or across; right to go through: the ~ of time. 2 [C] journey from point to point by sea or air: book one's ~ to New York. work one's passage, ⇨ work²(4). 3 [C] way through: force a ~ through a crowd. 4 [C] corridor in a building: She has to keep her bicycle in the ~. 5 [C] short extract from a speech or piece of writing, quoted or considered separately. 6 [U] (in Parliament) passing of a Bill so that it becomes law. 7 (pl) what passes between two persons in conversation: have angry ~s with an opponent during a debate.

'pass-age-way, = passage(4).

pas-sen-ger /'pæsiŋdʒə(r)/ n [C] 1 person being conveyed by bus, taxi, tram, train, ship, aircraft, etc. 2 (informal) member of a team, crew, etc who does no effective work.

passer-by /'pɑ:sə 'baɪ/ US: 'pæsər/ n [C] (pl passers-by) person who passes a person or a thing by chance.

pass-ing /'pɑ:siŋ/ US: 'pæs-/ adj going by; not lasting: the ~ years. n [U] the act of going by: the ~ of the old year, ie on New Year's Eve.

passion /'pæʃn/ n 1 [C,U] strong feeling or enthusiasm, esp of love, hate or anger. 2 (with a, an) outburst of strong feeling: be in a ~ about the news.

the Passion, the suffering and death of Jesus.

'Passion play, drama about the Passion.

'Passion Sunday, the fifth Sunday in Lent.

'Passion Week, the week between Passion Sunday and Palm Sunday.

passion-less adj passion-ate /'pæʃənət/ adj filled with, showing, love or anger: a ~ nature; ~ language.

passion-ate-ly adv

pass-ive /'pæsiv/ adj 1 acted on but not acting; not offering active resistance: In spite of my efforts the boy remained ~, showed no signs of interest, activity, etc. 2 (gram) in the passive voice. n [U] = passive voice.

the passive (voice), (gram) form of a sentence, etc describing an action done to the subject, eg 'The car was driven by him.' ⇨ active voice.

pass-ive-ly adv

pass-key ⇨ pass¹.

Pass-over /'pɑ:səʊvə(r)/ US: 'pæs-/ n Jewish religious festival commemorating the liberation of the Jews from slavery in Egypt.

pass-port /'pɑ:spɔ:t/ US: 'pæs-/ n [C] 1 official document to be carried by a traveller abroad, certifying identity and citizenship. 2 (fig) something that enables one to win or obtain something: Is flattery a ~ to success with that teacher?

pass-word ⇨ pass¹.

past¹ /pɑ:st/ US: pæst/ adj of the time before the present; gone by in time: during the ~ week; in times ~; ~ generations. (Note: compare passed in pass².) n 1 (with the) past time: We cannot change the ~. In the ~ trains were pulled by steam-engines. 2 person's past life or experiences: We know nothing of his ~.

past participle, (gram) ⇨ participle.

(the) past tense, (gram) verb form showing action in the past, eg 'He went/hurried/walked' (marked pt in this dictionary).

past² /pɑ:st/ US: pæst/ prep 1 beyond in time; after: half ~ two; a woman ~ middle age. 2 beyond in space; up to and farther than: He walked ~ the house. 3 beyond the limits, power or range of: The old man is ~ work, is too old, weak, etc. The pain was almost ~ bearing, too severe to be endured. be past caring, ⇨ care²(1). would not put sth past sb, consider him capable of doing something disreputable, unusual, etc: I wouldn't put it ~ him to run off with the money.

adv (in the sense of 2 above: go/run/hurry ~).

pasta /'pæstə/ n [U] (It) (paste prepared from) flour, eggs and water mixed and dried, eg macaroni, spaghetti, ravioli.

paste /peɪst/ n [U] 1 soft mixture of flour, fat, etc as for making pastry. 2 preparation of fish, meat, etc made into a soft, moist mass: 'fish-~'. 3 mixture used for sticking things together, eg paper on walls. 4 substance like glass used in making artificial diamonds, etc. n vi stick with paste(3).

pas-tel /'pæstl/ US: pæ'stel/ n [C] 1 (picture drawn with) dried paste made into coloured crayons. 2 (used as an adjective) soft, light, delicate shades of colour.

pas-tern /'pæstn/ n [C] part of a horse's foot between the fetlock and the hoof.

pas-teur-ize (also -ise) /'pæstʃəraɪz/ vt rid (milk, etc) of disease-producing bacteria by heating.

pas-teur-iz-ation (also -isation) /'pæstʃəraɪzɪʃn/ US: -rɪz-/ n [U] pas-tille /'pæstɪl/ US: pæ'stɪl/ n [C] small flavoured tablet to be sucked, eg one containing medicine for the throat.

pas-time /'pɑːstaɪm/ US: 'pæs-/ n [C] anything done to pass time pleasantly: Flirting was her favourite ~.

pas-tor /'pɑːstə(r)/ US: 'pæs-/ n [C] minister(3), esp of a nonconformist church.

pas-toral /'pɑːstərəl/ US: 'pæs-/ adj 1 of shepherds and country life: ~ poetry. 2 of a pastor; (esp) of a bishop: a ~ letter, one to the members of a bishop's diocese. 3 of (duties towards) the spiritual welfare of Christians: ~ care/responsibilities. □ n [C] pastoral(1) poem, play, letter, etc.

pas-try /'peɪstri/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] paste of flour, fat, etc baked in an oven. 2 [C] article of food made wholly or partly of this, eg a pie or tart.

pas-ture /'pɑːstʃə(r)/ US: 'pæs-/ n [U] grass-land for cattle; grass on such land; [C] piece of land of this kind. ⇨ meadow. □ vt, vi 1 (of persons) put (cattle, sheep, etc) to graze. 2 (of cattle, etc) eat grass.

pasty /'peɪsti/ adj like paste(1): a ~ complexion, white and unhealthy.

pasty /'peɪsti/ n [C] (pl -ies) meat or jam, etc enclosed in pastry and baked without a dish: a Cornish ~.

pat /pæt/ vt, vi (-tt-) 1 tap gently with the open hand or with something flat: ~ a dog. pat sb/oneself on the back, (fig) show approval, congratulate, etc. 2 carry out the action of patting. □ n [C] 1 tap with the open hand, eg as a caress or to show sympathy. 2 small mass of something, eg butter, formed by patting. 3 light sound made by hitting something with a flat object.

patch /'pætʃ/ n [C] 1 small piece of material put over a hole or a damaged or worn place: a coat with ~es on the elbows; a ~ on the inner tube of a tyre. 2 piece of plaster put over a cut or wound. 3 pad worn to protect an injured eye. 4 small, irregular, differently coloured part of a surface: a dog with a white ~ on its neck. 5 small area: a ~ of ground; ~es of fog.

not a patch on, not nearly so good as. a bad patch, a period of bad luck, difficulty, unhappiness, behaviour.

patch /'pætʃ/ vt put a patch on; (of material) serve as a patch for. patch up, repair; make roughly ready for use. patch up a quarrel, end it.

patchy adj (-ier, -iest) made up of patches; uneven in quality: ~y work/fog.

patch-work /'pætʃwɜːk/ n [U] 1 piece of material made up of bits of cloth of various sizes, shapes and colours: (as an adjective) a ~ quilt. 2 (fig) piece of work made up of odds and ends.

pâté /'pæteɪ/ US: pɑː'teɪ/ n [U] 1 small pie. 2 paste(2).

pa-tel-la /pə'telə/ n [C] (anat) = kneecap.

pat-ent /'peɪtənt/ US: 'pætənt/ adj 1 evident, easily seen: It was ~ to everyone that he disliked the idea. 2 protected by a patent(1): ~ medicines, made by one firm or person only.

patent leather, leather with a smooth, shiny surface.

pa-tent-ly adv clearly; obviously.

pat-ent /'peɪtənt/ US: 'pætənt/ n [C] 1 government authority giving exclusive right to make or sell a new invention. 2 that which is protected by a patent; invention or process. □ vt obtain a patent for (an invention or process).

Patent (usually /'pætənt/) Office, government department which issues patents.

pa-ter-nal /pə'tɜːnəl/ adj 1 of or like a father: ~ care. 2 related through the father: my ~ grandfather.

pa-ter-nal-ism /-ɪzəm/ n [U] (practice of) governing or controlling people in a paternal way (limiting their freedom or responsibility by well-intentioned rules).

pa-ter-nally /-nəlɪ/ adv pa-ter-nity /pə'tɜːnɪti/ n [U] 1 fatherhood; being a father; origin on the father's side: ~ unknown. 2 (fig) source; authorship.

pater-nos-ter /'pætə'nɒstə(r)/ n [C] (Latin for 'Our Father') 1 (recital of) the Lord's Prayer. 2 bead in a rosary at which the Lord's Prayer is repeated. 3 lift(2) with a series of doorless cars(3) moving on a continuous belt so that passengers can step on or off at each floor.

path /pɑːθ/ US: pæθ/ n [C] (pl ~s /pɑːðz/ US: pæðz/) x008 way made (across fields, through woods, etc) by people walking: Keep to the ~ or you may lose your way. ⇨ footpath. 2 line along which something or somebody moves: the ~ of a spacecraft. 3 = track(4) (the usual word).

'path-finder, explorer; person sent in advance to find a route, etc.

'path-way, = path(1).

pa-thetic /pə'θetɪk/ adj 1 sad; pitiful: a ~ sight; ~ ignorance. 2 of the emotions.

pa-theti-cally /-klɪ/ adv

patho-logi-cal /'pæθə'lɒdʒɪkl/ adj of the nature of disease.

patho-logi-cally /-klɪ/ adv path-ol-ogist /pə'θɒlədʒɪst/ n [C] student of, expert in, pathology.

pa-thol-ogy /pəˈθɒlədʒi/ n [U] science of diseases.

pa-thos /ˈpeɪθɒs/ n [U] quality in speech, writing, etc which produces a feeling of pity, sympathy or tenderness.

pa-tience /ˈpeɪjns/ n [U] 1 (power of) putting up with trouble, suffering, inconvenience, without complaining: She has no ~ with people who are always grumbling. 2 ability to wait for results, to deal with problems, calmly and without haste. 3 (GB) kind of card-game, usually for one player (US = solitaire).

pa-tient¹ /ˈpeɪnt/ adj having, showing, patience: be ~ with a child.

pa-tient-ly adv

pa-tient² /ˈpeɪnt/ n [C] person who has received, is receiving or is on a doctor's list for, medical treatment: an old ~ of mine.

patio /ˈpætiəʊ/ n [C] (pl ~s) 1 courtyard, open to the sky, within the walls of a Spanish or Spanish American house. 2 (modern use) paved area near a house, used for eating outside, etc.

pa-tis-serie /pəˈtiːsəri/ n [C] (Fr) shop, bakery, specializing in (French) pastry and cakes.

pa-trial /ˈpeɪtriəl/ n [C], adj (person) having the right to be considered legally a British citizen, eg an Asian in E Africa who has a British passport.

pa-tri-arch /ˈpeɪtriːk/ US: /ˈpæt-/ n [C] 1 venerable old man. 2 male head of a family or tribe. 3 bishop among the early Christians; (in the RC Church) high-ranking bishop; (in Eastern Churches) bishop of highest honour: the P ~ of Antioch/Jerusalem.

pa-tri-archal /ˈpeɪtriːkəl/ US: /ˈpæt-/ adj pat-ri-cide /ˈpætriːsaɪd/ n [U] killing of one's own father; [C] instance of this; [C] person guilty of this.

pat-ri-mony /ˈpætrɪməni/ US: /-məʊni/ n [C] (pl -ies) 1 property inherited from one's father or ancestors. 2 endowment of a church, etc.

pat-ri-mo-nial /ˈpætriːməʊniəl/ adj pa-triot /ˈpætriət/ US: /ˈpeɪ-/ n [C] person who loves and is ready to defend his country.

pa-tri-otic /ˈpætriːɒtɪk/ US: /ˈpeɪ-/ adj having, showing, the qualities of a patriot.

pa-tri-oti-cally /-kli/ adv

'pa-tri-ot-ism /-ɪzəm/ n [U] the feelings and qualities of a patriot.

pa-trol /pəˈtrɒl/ vt, vi (-ll-) go round (a camp, town, the streets, etc) to see that all is well, to look out (for persons doing wrong, in need of help, etc). □ n 1 [U] the act of patrolling: soldiers on ~; (used as an adjective) a police ~ car, eg on a motorway. 2 [C] person(s), ship(s) or aircraft on patrol.

pa-trol-man /-mən/, policeman who patrols an area.

pa-tron /ˈpeɪtrən/ n [C] 1 person who gives encouragement, moral or financial support, to a person, cause, the arts, etc: Modern artists have difficulty in finding wealthy ~s. 2 regular customer at a shop.

'patron /ˈsaɪnt, saint regarded as the special protector (of a church, town, travellers, etc).

'pa-tron-ess /-ɪs/ n [C] woman patron (1).

pa-tron-age /ˈpætrənɪdʒ/ US: /ˈpeɪ-/ n [C] 1 support given by a patron: with/under the ~ of the Duke of X. 2 right of appointing a person to an office, to grant privileges, etc: He's an influential man, with a great deal of ~ in his hands. 3 customer's support (to a shop-keeper, etc): take away one's ~ because of poor service and high prices. 4 patronizing manner. ⇨ patronize (2).

pa-tron-ize (also -ise) /ˈpætrənaɪz/ US: /ˈpeɪ-/ vt 1 act as patron towards: ~ a young musician/the corner shop. 2 treat (a person in need, etc) as if he were an inferior person.

pat-ron-iz-ing (also -ising) adj pat-ron-iz-ing-ly (also -isingly) adv

pat-ter¹ /ˈpætə(r)/ n [U] 1 kind of talk used by a particular class of people: thieves' ~. 2 rapid talk of a conjuror or comedian. □ vt, vi recite, say, repeat very quickly or in a mechanical way.

pat-ter² /ˈpætə(r)/ n [U] sound of quick, light taps or footsteps: the ~ of rain on a roof; the ~ of tiny feet. □ vi make this sound.

pat-tern /ˈpætən/ n [C] 1 excellent example: She's a ~ of all the virtues. 2 something used as a model, eg shape of a dress cut out in paper and used as a guide in dressmaking, etc; model for a cast from which a mould is made (in a foundry, etc). 3 sample, esp a small piece of cloth: ~s from the tailor. 4 ornamental design, eg on a carpet, on wallpaper or cloth: a ~ of roses; geometrical ~s. 5 way in which something happens, develops, is arranged, etc: new ~s of family life. It's the usual ~, the expected behaviour, result, procedure, etc. □ vt 1 model: He ~s himself on his father. 2 decorate with a pattern (4).

pau-city /ˈpɔːsəti/ n [U] (formal) smallness of number or quantity.

paunch /ˈpɔːntʃ/ n [C] belly, esp if fat: He was getting quite a ~, getting wide round the waist.

paunchy adj having a large paunch.

pau-per /ˈpɔːpə(r)/ n [C] very poor person, esp one who is supported by charity.

pause /pɔːz/ n [C] 1 short interval or stop (while doing or saying something): during a ~ in the conversation. 2 (music) sign (∞ or ∪) over or under a note or rest to show that it is to be lengthened. □ vi stop for a short time: ~ to look round.

pave /perv/ vt put flat stones, bricks, etc on (a path, etc): a path ~d with brick. pave the way for, ⇨ way (1).

pave-ment /ˈpeɪvmənt/ n [C] (GB) paved way at the side of a street for people on foot (US = sidewalk).

paving /'peɪvɪŋ/ n [U] (material for a) paved area.

'paving-stone, slab of stone for paving.

pa-vil-ion /pə'vɪlən/ n [C] 1 building on a sports ground for the use of players, spectators, etc. 2 ornamental building for concerts, dancing, etc. 3 large tent, eg as used for an exhibition.

paw /pɔː/ n [C] animal's foot that has claws or nails. □ vt 1 (of animals) feel or scratch with the paw(s); (of a horse) strike (the ground) with a hoof. 2 (of persons) touch with the hands, awkwardly, rudely or with improper familiarity: No girl likes being ~ed (about) by men.

pawn¹ /pɔːn/ n [C] 1 (chess) least valuable piece. 2 person made use of by others for their own advantage.

pawn² /pɔːn/ vt deposit (clothing, jewellery, etc) as security for money borrowed: The medical student ~ed his microscope to pay his rent. □ n [U] state of being pawned: This is in ~.

'pawn-broker, person licensed to lend money at interest on pawned goods.

'pawn-shop, pawnbroker's place of business.

paw-paw /pə'pɔː/ US: /pɔːpɔː/ n = papaw.

pay¹ /peɪ/ n [U] money paid for regular work or services, esp in the armed forces: get an increase in ~. in the pay of, employed by (often of the suggestion of dishonour, eg in the ~ of the enemy).

'pay-day, (a) day on which wages, salaries, etc are (to be) paid. (b) day (on the Stock Exchange) on which transfer of stock has to be paid for.

'pay load, (a) that part of the load (of a ship, aircraft, etc) for which payment is received, eg passengers and cargo, but not fuel. (b) war-head of a missile.

'pay-master, official responsible for paying troops, workers, etc.

'pay-master 'general, officer at the head of a department of the Treasury.

'pay-off, (informal) (time of) full and final settlement of accounts or of revenge.

'pay-packet, packet containing pay.

'pay-phone, (US) coin-operated telephone.

'pay-roll/-sheet, (a) list of persons to be paid and the amounts due to each. (b) total amount of wages, salaries, etc to be paid.

'pay-slip, piece of paper showing how pay has been calculated, showing deductions.

pay² /peɪ/ vt, vi (pt, pp paid)/peɪd/ (For special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions, ⇨ 5 below.) 1 give (a person) money for goods, services, etc: You must ~ me what you owe. I paid you the money last week. He paid £600 for that car. 2 give (a person) reward or recompense: He says that sheep farming doesn't ~, that it isn't profitable. 3 settle (debts, etc): Have you paid all your taxes? put

'paid to sth, (informal) settle; end it so that it gives no more trouble. 4 give, eg attention, respect, etc to: Please ~ more attention to your work. He seldom ~s his wife any compliments. pay one's way, not get into debt. pay through the nose, ⇨ nose¹(1). pay a visit, visit: ~ a visit to the dentist.

5 (uses with adverbial particles and prepositions):

pay sth back, return (money, etc) that has been borrowed. pay sb back (for sth), punish him; have one's revenge: I've paid him back for the trick he played on me.

pay for, (a) give money owed: ~ for the use of the room. (b) suffer pain or punishment for: He'll be made to ~ for his stupidity.

pay in/into, deposit (money) with a bank, to one's own or another's account: Please ~ this sum into my/my wife's account.

pay off, (a) pay a person his wages and discharge him. (b) pay in full and no longer owe: ~ off one's debts. ⇨ pay-off.

pay sth out, (a) give money, eg in settlement of expenses: ~ing out (money) on rent. (b) allow (rope) to move freely; make (rope) loose so that it moves freely.

pay up, pay in full what is owing: If you don't ~ up, I'll take legal action.

pay-able /'peɪəbl/ adj which must or may be paid.

payee /'peɪiː/ n [C] person to whom something is (to be) paid.

payer /'peɪə(r)/ n [C] person who pays or is to pay.

pay-ment /'peɪmənt/ n 1 [U] paying or being paid: demand immediate ~; a cheque in ~ for services given. 2 [C] sum of money (to be) paid: ten monthly ~s of £5. 3 [C, U] (fig) reward; punishment.

pea /piː/ n [C] plant with seeds in pods, used for food. as like as two peas (in a pod), exactly alike.

'pea-'green adj, n [U] (of) bright light-green colour as of young peas.

peace /piːs/ n [U] (not used in pl, but see examples for uses with a, an) 1 state of freedom from war: be at ~ with neighbouring countries. After a brief ~ (= a brief period of peace) war broke out again. 2 (often P~) treaty of peace: P~/A P~ was signed between the two countries. 3 freedom from civil disorder. keep the peace, obey the laws. a breach of the peace, ⇨ breach¹(1). ⇨ also Justice of the Peace. 4 rest; quiet; calm: the ~ of the countryside. at peace (with), in a state of friendship or harmony: He's never at ~ with himself, is always restless. in peace, peacefully: live in ~ with one's neighbours. make one's peace (with sb), settle a quarrel. peace of mind, calm, contented mental state.

'peace-maker, person who restores friendly relations.

peace-offering, something offered to show that one is willing to make peace.

peace-ful /'pi:sl/ adj 1 loving peace: ~ nations. 2 calm; quiet: a ~ evening.

peace-fully /-'fəli/ adv

peace-ful-ness n [U]

peach /'pi:tʃ/ n [C] 1 (tree with) juicy, round fruit with yellowish-red skin and a large, rough seed; yellowish-red colour. 2 (sf) person or thing greatly admired, eg a very attractive girl: Isn't she! it a ~!

pea-cock /'pi:kɒk/ n [C] large male bird noted for its fine tail feathers.

peacock-blue adj, n [U] bright blue (colour).

pea-fowl /'pi:faʊl/ n [C] peacock or peahen.

pea-hen /'pi:hen/ n [C] female of the peacock.

peak /'pi:k/ n [C] 1 pointed top of a mountain.

2 pointed front part of a cap; projecting brim (to shade the eyes). 3 highest point in a record of figures that fluctuate: ~ hours of traffic, times when the traffic is heaviest; the ~ period of selling as shown on this graph. off-peak, when traffic, electricity consumption is lightest. 4 point of a beard.

peaked adj having a peak: a ~ed cap/roof.

peal /pi:l/ n [C] 1 loud ringing of a bell or of a set of bells with different notes; changes rung on a set of bells; set of bells tuned to each other. 2 loud echoing noise: a ~ of thunder; ~s of laughter. □ vi, vt (cause to) ring or sound loudly.

pea-nut /'pi:nʌt/ n 1 [C] kind of fruit in a thin shell (in pairs) growing underground. 2 (pl) (sf) small amount of money.

peanut butter, paste of roasted ground peanuts.

pear /'peə(r)/ n [C] (tree with) sweet, juicy fruit, usually narrower towards the stalk.

pearl /'pɜ:l/ n [C] 1 silvery-white or bluish-white round deposit found inside the shells of some oysters, valued as a gem: a necklace of ~s; a ~ necklace; similar artificial one. 2 small round fragment of various substances such as barley. 3 something that looks like a pearl, eg a dew drop. 4 very precious person or thing: ~s of wisdom. She's a ~ among women. □ vi fish for pearls: go ~ing.

peas-ant /'peznʌt/ n [C] (not current in GB, Australia, Canada, New Zealand, US) man working on the land, either for wages or on a very small farm which he either rents or owns.

peas-antry /'pezntri/ n [U] (usually with the) the peasantry of a country.

peat /'pi:t/ n [U] plant material partly decomposed by the action of water, used as a fuel and fertilizer: a ~ bog, a marshy place where peat is found.

peaty adj of, like, smelling of, peat.

pebble /'pebl/ n [C] small stone made smooth and round by water, eg in a stream.

peb-bly /'pebəli/ adj having pebbles: a pebbly beach.

peck ¹ /pek/ n [C] (before metricalization) measure for grain or fruit (= 2 gallons).

peck ² /pek/ vi, vt 1 (try to) get, make, strike with the beak: hens ~ing at the corn/each other; ~ing a hole in the sack. 2 peck (at), (informal) (of a person) eat only small amounts: ~ at one's food. 3 (informal) kiss (a person) hurriedly from habit or a sense of duty. □ n [C] 1 strike with the beak; mark made by this. 2 (informal) hurried kiss.

'peck-ing order, (a) order (within a flock of poultry) in which a bird is dominated by stronger birds and itself dominates weaker birds. (b) any similar arrangement in a group of human beings: Poor Tom! He's at the bottom of the ~ing order.

'peck-ish /-'ɪʃ/ adj (informal) hungry.

pec-toral /'pektərəl/ adj of, for, the chest or breast: a ~ muscle/fin.

pe-cu-liar /'pi:kju:lɪə(r)/ adj 1 owned, used, adopted, practised, only by: customs ~ to these tribes. 2 strange; unusual; odd: I can smell something ~ in the bathroom. 3 particular; special: a matter of ~ interest.

pe-cu-liar-ly adv in a strange or special way: behaving ~ly.

pe-cu-liar-ity /'pi:kju:lɪəriti/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] the quality of being peculiar. 2 [C] something distinctive or characteristic. 3 [C] something odd or strange.

pe-cuni-ary /'pi:kju:nɪəri/ US: -ɪəri/ adj (formal) of money: ~ reward.

peda-gogic /'pedə'gɒdʒɪk/ (also peda-gogi-cal /-'ɪkl/) adj of pedagogy.

peda-gogue (US also -gog) /'pedəgɒg/ n [C] pedantic teacher.

peda-gogy /'pedəgɒdʒi/ n [U] (formal) science of teaching.

pedal /'pedl/ n [C] lever (eg on a bicycle, sewing-machine, organ or piano) worked by the foot or feet. □ vi, vt (-l-, US also -l-) use, work by using, a pedal or pedals (for playing an organ, riding a bicycle, etc).

ped-ant /'pedənt/ n [C] person who values book-learning, technical knowledge, formal rules, too highly.

pe-dan-tic /'prɪdæntɪk/ adj of or like a pedant.

pe-danti-cally /-'kli/ adv

ped-antry /'pedəntri/ n [U] tiresome and unnecessary display of knowledge; too much insistence on formality; [C] instance of this.

peddle /'pedl/ vi, vt 1 go from house to house trying to sell small articles. 2 (fig) give out in small quantities: She loves to ~ gossip round the village.

ped-estal /'pedɪstl/ n [C] base of a column, for a statue or for other works of art. put/set sb on a pedestal, treat him as very important or special.

pe-des-trian /pɪ'dɛstriən/ n [C] person walking in a street, etc: ~s killed in traffic accidents. □ adj 1 connected with walking. 2 (of writing, a person's way of making speeches, etc) uninteresting, ordinary.

pedestrian 'crossing, place marked on a road where pedestrians may walk across.

pedia-tric-ian /pi:diə'tri:ən/ n [C] physician who specializes in pediatrics.

pedi-at-rics /pɪdi'ætriks/ n pl (used with a sing verb) branch of medicine concerned with children and their illness.

pedi-cure /'pedɪkjʊə(r)/ n [C] treatment of the feet, toe-nails, corns, bunions, etc.

pedi-gree /'pedɪɡri:/ n [C] line of ancestors: proud of their long ~s; [U] ancestry, esp ancient descent. □ adj having a known line of descent: ~ cattle/dogs.

ped-lar /'pedlə(r)/ n [C] person who goes from house to house selling small articles.

pee /pi:/ vi, n [C, U] (sl) (pass) urine.

peek /pi:k/ vi peek at, peep at. □ n [C] quick look: have a ~ at the answers before doing the exercises.

peel /pi:l/ vt, vi 1 take the skin off (fruit, etc): ~ a banana; ~ potatoes. 2 come off in strips or flakes: The wallpaper is ~ing off. After a day in the hot sun my skin began to ~/my face ~ed. □ n [U] skin of fruit, some vegetables, etc.

peeler, device used for peeling fruit and vegetables: a potato ~er.

peep /pi:p/ n [C] short, quick look, often secret or cautious: have a ~ at her through the keyhole. □ vi take a peep (at): neighbours ~ing at us from behind the curtains.

'Peeping Tom, man who enjoys secretly watching a woman undress.

peep /pi:p/ n [C] weak, shrill sound made by mice, birds, etc. □ vi make this sound.

peer /piə(r)/ n [C] 1 person equal in rank, merit or quality: It will not be very easy to find his ~. 2 (in GB) member of one of the nobility, eg duke, marquis, earl, viscount.

'peer of the 'realm, person with the right to sit in the House of Lords.

'life peer, one elected to the House of Lords for life only.

peer-ess /'piəri:əs/, (a) woman peer(2). (b) wife of a peer(2).

peer /piə(r)/ vi look closely, as if unable to see well: ~ into dark corners; ~ing at her over his spectacles.

peer-age /'piəri:dʒ/ n [C, U] 1 the whole body of peers; rank of peer(2). 2 book containing a list of peers with their ancestry.

pee-wit /'pi:wɪt/ n = pewit.

peg /peg/ n [C] 1 wooden or metal pin or bolt, used to fasten parts of woodwork together. a square peg in a round 'hole, a person unsuited to the work he is doing. 2 pin driven into the ground to hold a rope (a 'tent-~); hook fastened to a wall or door. (buy

sth) off the peg. (informal) (buy clothes) ready-made. ⇨ clothes-peg. 3 wooden screw for tightening or loosening the string of a violin, etc. 'take sb 'down a peg (or two), make him feel less important. 4 piece of wood for stopping the hole in a cask, etc. 5 (fig) theme, excuse: a ~ on which to hang a sermon.

peg /peg/ vt, vi (-gg-) 1 fasten with pegs: ~ a tent down. peg sb down, (fig) make him keep to a certain line of action, to the rules, etc. 2 mark, eg by using pegs fixed in the ground. 3 (commerce) keep (prices, wages, etc) unchanged: ~ing prices for six months. 4 peg away at, (informal) keep on working at.

5 peg out, (informal) die.

pe-jor-at-ive /pɪ'dʒɔrətɪv/ US: -'dʒɔ:r-/ adj having or giving an idea of being unimportant or valueless; discrediting.

pe-jor-at-ive-ly adv

pe-kin-ese /'pi:kɪ'nɪz/ n [C] small breed of Chinese dog with long, silky hair.

pe-li-can /'pelɪkən/ n [C] large waterbird with a large bill under which hangs a pouch for storing food.

pel-let /'pelɪt/ n [C] 1 small ball of something soft, eg wet paper, bread, made, for example, by rolling between the fingers. 2 type of small shot, used for a gun.

pel-met /'pelmt/ n [C] ornamental strip above a window or door to hide a curtain rod.

pelt /pelt/ n [C] animal's skin with the fur or hair on it.

pelt /pelt/ vt, vi 1 attack by throwing things at: ~ them with stones/snowballs/mud. 2 (of rain, etc) fall heavily: It was ~ing with rain. The rain was ~ing down. □ n [C] pelting. at full pelt, (running) as fast as possible.

pel-vic /'pelvɪk/ adj of the pelvis.

pel-vis /'pelvɪs/ n [C] (pl pelves /'pelvi:z/) (anat) bony frame with the hip-bones and the lower part of the backbone, holding the kidneys, colon, bladder, etc.

pen /pen/ n [C] 1 instrument for writing with ink. ⇨ ballpoint (-pen) and fountain-pen. 2 (formerly) quill, pointed and split at the end, for writing with ink. 3 (style of) writing: make a living with one's ~. □ vt (-nn-) write (a letter, etc).

pen-and-'ink adj drawn with these: a ~ and-ink sketch.

'pen-friend, person (eg in another country) with whom one has a friendship through exchanges of letters.

'pen-knife, small knife with one or more folding blades.

'pen-name, name used by a writer instead of his real name.

pen /pen/ n [C] 1 small enclosure, eg for cattle, sheep, poultry, etc. 2 = play-pen. □ vi (-nn-) pen up/in, shut up (as) in a pen.

penal /'pi:nəl/ adj connected with punishment: ~ laws; a ~ offence, one for which there is legal punishment.

penal servitude, imprisonment with hard labour.

pen-al-ize (also -ise) /'pi:nəlaɪz/ vt 1 declare to be punishable by law. 2 give a penalty (3) to (a player, competitor, etc).

pen-alty /'penlti/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] punishment for doing wrong, for failure to obey rules or to keep an agreement; [C] what is imposed (imprisonment, payment of a fine, etc) as punishment: forbidden under ~ of death. 2 (fig) disadvantage, suffering, caused by a person to himself or others: The ~ for not working will be failing the exams. 3 (in sport, competitions, etc) disadvantage to a player or team for breaking a rule: The referee awarded a ~. 4 handicap imposed on a player or team for winning a previous contest.

'penalty area, (football) area in front of the goal where a free kick at goal is given as a penalty if a defender breaks a rule.

'penalty kick, (football) free kick at goal by the attackers as a penalty against the opposing team.

'penalty spot, (football) mark in the penalty area where a penalty kick is taken.

pen-ance /'penəns/ n [U] punishment which one imposes on oneself to show repentance.

pence /pens/ n pl ⇨ penny.

pen-cil /'pensl/ n [C] instrument for drawing or writing, esp of graphite or coloured chalk in wood or fixed in a metal holder. □ vt (-ll-, US also -l-) write, draw, mark, with a pencil: ~led sketches [eyebrows].

pen-dant /'pendənt/ n [C] 1 ornament which hangs down, esp one attached to a necklace, bracelet, etc. 2 (naut) pennant.

pend-ing /'pendɪŋ/ adj waiting to be decided or settled: The lawsuit was still ~. □ prep 1 during: ~ these discussions. 2 until: ~ his acceptance of the offer.

pen-du-lous /'pendʒələs/ adj (formal) (of nests, breasts, etc) hanging down loosely so as to swing freely.

pen-du-lum /'pendʒələm/ n [C] (pl ~s) weighted rod hung from a fixed point so that it swings freely, esp to regulate the movement of a clock. the swing of the pendulum, (fig) the movement of opinion from one extreme to the other.

pen-etrable /'penɪtrəbl/ adj (formal) that can be penetrated.

pen-etr-ate /'penɪtreɪt/ vt, vi 1 make a way into or through: The cat's sharp claws ~d my skin. The smell ~d (into) the room. 2 (fig) see into or through: Our eyes could not ~ the darkness.

pen-etrat-ing adj (a) (of a person, his mind) able to see and understand quickly and well. (b) (voices, cries, etc) loud and clear.

pen-etrat-ing-ly adv

pen-etra-tion /'penɪtreɪʃn/ n [U] 1 penetrating. 2 ability to grasp ideas quickly and well.

pen-friend /'pen frend/ ⇨ pen¹.

pen-guin /'pengwɪn/ n [C] seabird of the Antarctic with wings like flippers used for swimming.

peni-cil-lin /'penɪsɪlɪn/ n [U] antibiotic drug that, by changing the chemical environment of germs, prevents them from surviving or multiplying.

pen-in-sula /pə'nɪnsjələ/ US: -sələ/ n [C] (pl ~s) area of land, eg Italy, almost surrounded by water or projecting into the sea.

pen-in-su-lar /-lə(r)/ adj pe-nis /'pi:nɪs/ n [C] organ of copulation of a male animal.

peni-tence /'penɪtəns/ n [U] sorrow and regret (for doing wrong, sin).

peni-tent /'penɪtənt/ adj feeling or showing deep regret.

peni-tent-ly adv

peni-ten-ti-ary /'penɪ'tenʃəri/ n [C] (pl -ies) prison for persons guilty of serious crimes, esp one in which reform of the prisoners is the main aim. □ adj of reformatory treatment.

pen-knife /'pen naɪf/ ⇨ pen¹.

pen-name /'pen neɪm/ ⇨ pen¹.

pen-nant /'penənt/ n [C] flag (usually long and narrow) used on a ship for signalling, identification, etc.

pen-ni-less /'penɪlɪs/ adj without any money: I'm ~ until pay-day.

pen-non /'penən/ n [C] 1 long, narrow (usually triangular) flag, as used by a knight, by soldiers and on ships, eg in signalling. 2 (US) flag of this shape as a school or team banner.

penn'orth /'penəθ/ n = pennyworth.

penny /'penɪ/ n [C] (pl pence /pens/ when combined with numbers, as in 'sixpence, 'ten-pence, eighteen pence; pl pennies /'penɪz/ when used of individual coins: Please give me ten pennies for this tenpence piece.) 1 (since 1971) British bronze coin (abbr p) worth one hundredth of an English pound: These cigarettes are 80 pence/80p /pi/; a packet. (cost) a pretty penny, a lot of money. spend a penny, (informal) use a toilet. the penny (has) dropped, the desired result was achieved, the meaning of a remark was understood, etc. 2 (until 1971) British coin worth one-twelfth of a shilling. 3 coin of the US and Canada, the cent.

'penny pinching adj (informal) spending as little as possible.

'penny-weight, 24 grains, one-twentieth of an ounce Troy.

'penny-worth (also penn'orth /'penəθ/), as much as can be bought for a penny.

pen-sion /'penʃn/ n [C] regular payment made by the State to a person who is old (re-tirement ~), disabled (eg war ~) or widowed, or by a former employer to an employee after long service: retire on a ~. draw one's pension, obtain it: go to the post office to draw one's ~. □ vt pension sb off, grant or pay a pension to; dismiss or allow to retire with a pension.

pen-sion-able /-əbl/ adj (of services, posts, age, work, etc) entitling one to a pension.

pen-sioner, person receiving a pension.

pen-sion² /'pɒnsɪn/ n [C] boarding-house at which fixed rates are charged (by the week or month).

pen-sive /'pensɪv/ adj seriously thoughtful: ~ looks; looking ~.

pen-sive-ly adv

pen-ta-gon /'pentəɡɒn/ US: -ɡɒn/ n [C] plane figure with five sides and five angles.

the Pentagon, building in Arlington, Virginia, headquarters of the US Armed Forces.

pen-tath-lon /pen'tæθlən/ n [C] (modern Olympic Games) contest in which each competitor takes part in five events (running, horseback riding, swimming, fencing and shooting with a pistol).

Pente-cost /'pentkɒst/ US: -kɔːst/ n 1 Jewish harvest festival, fifty days after the Passover. 2 (esp US) Whitsunday, the seventh Sunday after Easter.

pent-house /'penthaʊs/ n [C] 1 sloping roof supported against a wall, esp one for a shelter or shed. 2 apartment or flat built on the roof of a tall building.

pent-in /'pent ɪn/ adj closely confined: feel ~ on a crowded train.

pent-up /'pent ʌp/ adj shut-in; not expressed: ~ feelings/anger.

pen-ul-ti-mate /pen'altɪmət/ n [C] adj (word, event, etc which is) last but one.

pen-ury /'penjuəri/ n [U] (formal) poverty: living in ~.

peony /'piːəni/ n [C] (pl -ies) garden plant with large round pink, red or white flowers.

people /'piːpl/ n (1 to 4 below collective, never pl in form but used with a pl verb. For one human being use man, woman, boy, girl and not person, which, although useful in dictionary definitions, often seems too formal.) 1 persons in general: streets crowded with ~. 2 those persons belonging to a place, or forming a social class: The ~ in the village like the new doctor. 3 all the persons forming a State: government of the ~, by the ~, for the ~. 4 those persons who are not nobles, not high in rank, position, etc: He's the ~'s choice. 5 (used with a sing or pl verb and in pl) race, tribe, nation: the ~s of Asia; a brave and intelligent ~. □ vt fill with people: a thickly ~d district (populated is more usual).

pep /'pep/ n [U] (sf) strength; energy; spirit. □ vt (-pp-) give energy or life to.

'pep pill, one that stimulates the nervous system.

'pep talk, one intended to fill the listener(s) with encouragement and energy: giving the team a ~ talk before the match.

pep-per /'pepə(r)/ n 1 [U] hot-tasting powder made from the dried berries of certain plants, used to season food. 2 [C] (garden plant with a) red or green seed-pod which is used as a vegetable: stuffed ~s. □ vt put pepper(1) on (food).

pep-ery adj (a) tasting of pepper. (b) (fig) hot-tempered: a ~y old colonel.

'pep-per-corn, (a) the dried, black berry of the pepper(1) plant. (b) (fig) of small size or value: a ~corn rent.

'pepper-mill, small device for grinding pepper.

'pep-per-mint, (a) kind of mint grown for its oil, used in medicine and confectionery. (b) sweet of boiled sugar with this flavour.

per /pəː(r)/ prep for each: ~ pound; 15 rounds of ammunition ~ man; 30 miles ~ gallon, (abbr mpg). as per, according to: as ~ instructions. per usual, (informal) as usual.

per annum /'ænəm/, for each year.

per cent, (abbr %) for, in, each hundred: 40% income tax.

per-am-bu-lator /pə'ræmbjuleɪtə(r)/ n [C] (more usually pram) four-wheeled carriage, pushed by hand, for a baby.

per-ceive /pə'siːv/ vt (formal) become aware of, esp through the eyes or the mind.

per-cent-age /pə'sentɪdʒ/ n [C] 1 rate or number per cent (= for each hundred). 2 proportion: What ~ of his income is paid in income tax?

per-cep-tible /pə'septəbl/ adj (formal) that can be seen or noticed.

per-cep-tibly /-əblɪ/ adv

per-cep-tion /pə'sepʃn/ n [U] (formal) process, act, by which we become aware of changes (through seeing, hearing, etc).

per-cep-tive /pə'septɪv/ adj (formal) 1 having, connected with, perception. 2 showing that one has seen or noticed: ~ remarks.

per-cep-tive-ly adv

perch¹ /pɜːtʃ/ n [C] (pl unchanged) kinds of freshwater fish with spiny fins.

perch² /pɜːtʃ/ n [C] 1 bird's resting-place, eg a branch, bar or rod. 2 (informal) high position occupied by a person: come off your ~, stop being so superior (in manner, etc). 3 (also pole, rod) measure of length, esp for land, 5 and a half yards. □ vi, vt 1 settle: The birds ~ed on the television aerial. 2 (of a person) sit on a tall seat: ~ed on stools at the bar. 3 (chiefly in pp) (of buildings) be situated high up: a castle ~ed on a rock.

per-co-late /'pɜːkəleɪt/ vi, vt 1 (of liquid) (cause to) pass slowly (through): Has the water ~d through the coffee yet? 2 (fig) filter (2): Has the news ~d through?

per-co-lator /-tə(r)/, (perc) kind of coffee-pot in which hot water percolates through coffee.

per-cus-sion /pə'kʌʃn/ n [U] 1 the striking together of two (usually hard) objects; sound or shock produced by this. 2 the ~, musical instruments played by percussion, eg drums, cymbals: the ~ section.

per-cus-sion-ist /-ɪst/, player of a percussion instrument.

per-emp-tory /pə'remptəri US: 'peremptɔ:ri/ adj (formal) 1 (of commands) not to be disobeyed or questioned. 2 (of a person, his manner) (too) commanding; insisting on obedience.

per-emp-tor-ily /-trəli US: -tɔ:rəli/ adv per-en-nial /pə'reniəl/ adj 1 continuing throughout the whole year. 2 lasting for a very long time. 3 (of plants) living for more than two years. □ n [C] perennial plant.

per-en-nially /-nəli/ adv

per-fect¹ /pə'fɛkt/ adj 1 complete with everything needed. 2 without fault; excellent: a ~ wife. 3 exact; accurate: a ~ circle/fit. 4 having reached the highest point in training, skill, etc: a ~ shot. 5 complete: a ~ stranger/fool; ~ nonsense.

(the) perfect tense, (gram) verb form using the finites of have and a past participle, eg 'He has/had/will have written the letter.'

per-fect-ly adv completely: ~ly happy.

per-fect² /pə'fɛkt/ vt make perfect: ~ oneself in a foreign language; ~ing my French.

per-fect-ible /-əbl/ adj that can be perfected.

per-fec-tion /pə'fɛkʃn/ n [U] 1 perfecting or being perfected: busy with the ~ of detail. 2 perfect quality or example: It was the very ~ of beauty. 3 best possible state or quality: beef roasted/done to ~.

per-fec-tion-ist /-ɪst/ n [C] (a) person who believes that it is possible to live without sinning. (b) (informal) person who is satisfied with nothing less than what he thinks to be perfect.

per-fidi-ous /pə'fɪdiəs/ adj (formal) treacherous; faithless (to).

per-fidi-ous-ly adv

per-for-ate /pə'fɔ:reit/ vt, vi make a hole or holes in; make rows of tiny holes (in paper) so that part may be torn off easily: a ~d sheet of postage stamps.

per-for-ation /pə'fɔ:reɪʃn/ n [C, U] per-form /pə'fɔ:m/ vt, vi 1 (formal) do (a piece of work, something one is ordered or has promised to do): ~ a task. 2 act (a play); play (music); sing, do tricks, etc before an audience: ~ 'Hamlet'. Do you enjoy seeing ~ing animals?

per-former, person who performs, esp at a concert or other entertainment.

per-form-ance /pə'fɔ:məns/ n 1 [U] performing: faithful in the ~ of his duties. 2 [C] notable action; achievement: The orchestral musicians gave a fine ~. 3 [C] performing of a play at the theatre; public exhibition; concert:

two ~s a day. 4 [C] (fig) bad, action, etc: What a ~! What bad behaviour!

per-fume /pə'fju:m/ n [C, U] (kinds of prepared liquid with a sweet smell, esp from an essence of flowers. □ vt /pə'fju:m/ give a perfume to; put perfume on.

per-func-tory /pə'fʌŋktəri/ adj (formal) 1 done as a duty or routine but without care, sincerity or interest: a ~ inspection. 2 (of persons) doing things in this way.

per-func-tor-ily /-trəli US: -tɔ:rəli/ adv per-haps /pə'hæps/ adv possibly; it may be or have been: P ~ it will rain. There were three men, or ~ four.

peril /'perəl/ n 1 [U] serious danger: in ~ of one's life. do sth at one's peril, at one's own risk. 2 [C] something that causes danger: the ~s of the ocean, storms etc.

peril-ous /'perələs/ adj dangerous: a ~ous journey.

peril-ous-ly adv: ~ously close to death.

per-im-eter /pə'rɪmɪtə(r)/ n [C] (length of the) outer boundary of a closed figure or area, eg an airfield, etc.

period /'piəriəd/ n [C] 1 length or portion of time, eg hours, days, months and years: ~s of sunny weather; the ~ when the disease is contagious; 20 teaching ~s a week. 2 portion of time in the life of a person, a nation, a stage of civilization, etc; division of geological time: the ~ of the French Revolution. The actors will wear costumes of the ~/~ costumes, ie of the time when the events of the play took place. 3 (esp US) full pause at the end of a sentence; full stop (.) marking this in writing and print. 4 (astron) time taken to make one revolution. 5 (informal) occurrence of menstruation.

peri-odic /pɪəri'ɒdɪk/ adj occurring or appearing at regular intervals: ~ headaches.

periodic table, (chem) chart of the elements (1) according to their atomic weights.

peri-od-ical /-kl/ adj = periodic. □ n [C] magazine or other publication which appears at regular intervals, eg monthly, quarterly.

peri-od-ically /-kli/ adv (a) at regular intervals. (b) occasionally.

peri-pa-tetic /pɪrɪpə'tetɪk/ adj going about from place to place; wandering: the ~ religious teachers of India.

pe-riph-eral /pe'rɪfərəl/ adj of, on, forming, a periphery.

pe-riph-ery /pə'rɪfəri/ n [C] (pl -ies) external boundary or surface.

peri-scope /'perɪskəʊp/ n [C] instrument, as used in submarines, with mirrors and lenses arranged to reflect a view down a tube, etc so that the user may see things which are at a level above normal eyesight.

per-ish /'perɪʃ/ vi, vt 1 be destroyed, come to an end, die: Hundreds of people ~ed in the earthquake. 2 (of cold or exposure) reduce to distress or inefficiency: We were ~ed with cold/hunger. 3 (esp of rubber) (cause to) lose natural qualities; decay: Oil on your car tyres will ~ them.

per-ish-able /-əbl/ adj (esp of food) quickly or easily going bad.

per-ish-ables n pl (esp) goods that go bad if delayed in transit, eg fish, fresh fruit.

per-ito-ni-tis /pə'ritə'naitis/ n [U] inflammation of the membrane lining the walls of the abdomen.

per-jure /'pɜ:dʒə(r)/ vt (reflex) perjure oneself, knowingly make a false statement after taking an oath to tell the truth.

per-jurer /'pɜ:dʒərə(r)/, person who has perjured himself.

per-jury /'pɜ:dʒəri/ n [C,U] perk /pɜ:k/ vi, vt 1 perk up, (of a person) become lively and active (after depression, illness, etc). 2 perk sb/sth up, show interest, liveliness: The horse ~ed up its head, lifted its head as a sign of interest.

perky adj (-ier, -iest) lively; showing interest or confidence.

perks /pɜ:ks/ n pl (informal) perquisites: an executive's salary with the usual ~.

perm /pɜ:m/ n [C] (informal abbr for) permanent wave: go to the hairdresser's for a ~.
□ vt give a perm to.

per-ma-nence /'pɜ:mənəns/ n [U] state of being permanent.

per-ma-nent /'pɜ:mənənt/ adj not expected to change; going on for a long time; intended to last: my ~ address. ⇨ temporary.

permanent 'secretary, senior civil servant.

permanent (wave), artificial curls put in the hair so that they last several months.

per-ma-nent-ly adv

per-meate /'pɜ:miət/ vt, vi pass, flow or spread into every part of: water permeating (through) the soil; new ideas that have ~d (through/among) the people.

per-me-ation /pɜ:mi'eɪʃn/ n [U] per-mis-sible /pɜ:'misəbl/ adj that may be permitted.

per-mis-sibly /-əblɪ/ adv

per-mis-sion /pɜ:'mɪʃn/ n [U] act of allowing or permitting; consent: with your ~, if you will allow me. Has he given you ~ to leave?

per-miss-ive /pɜ:'mɪsɪv/ adj giving permission.

the per,missive so'ciety, (in GB, 1967 onwards) term used for social changes, including greater sexual freedom, homosexual law reform, abolition of censorship in the theatre, frank discussion of taboo subjects, use of slang words, increased drug-taking, etc.

per-miss-ive-ness n [U] per-mit ¹ /'pɜ:mit/ n [C] written authority to go somewhere, do something, etc: You won't get in without a ~.

per-mit ² /pɜ:'mit/ vt, vi (-tt) 1 allow: We'll play football, weather ~ting. Smoking is not ~ted in this cinema. 2 (formal) admit (of): The situation does not ~ of any delay, There must be no delay.

per-mu-ta-tion /pɜ:mju'teɪʃn/ n [C] (maths) change in the order of a set of things arranged in a group; any one such arrangement: The ~s of x, y and z are xyz, xzy, yxz, yzx, zxy, zyx.

per-mute /pɜ'mju:t/ vt (formal) change the order of.

per-ni-cious /pɜ'nɪʃəs/ adj (formal) harmful, causing distress: ~ gossip.

per-ni-cious-ly adv

per-ox-ide /pɜ'rɒksaɪd/ n [U] (esp) ~ of hydrogen, (H₂O₂) colourless liquid used as an antiseptic and to bleach hair.

per-pen-dicu-lar /pɜ:pən'dɪkjulə(r)/ adj 1 at an angle of 90° (to another line or surface). 2 upright; crossing the horizontal at an angle of 90°. □ n [C] perpendicular line. ⇨ horizontal; vertical.

per-pe-trate /'pɜ:ptreɪt/ vt commit (a crime, an error): Several violations of human rights are being ~ed.

per-pe-tra-tor /-tə(r)/, person who commits a crime, etc.

per-pe-tra-tion /pɜ:pɪ'treɪʃn/ n [U] per-pet-ual /pɜ'petʃʊəl/ adj going on for a long time or without stopping.

perpetual 'motion, the motion of a machine, if it could be invented, which would go on for ever without a continuing source of energy.

per-pet-u-ally /-ʃʊəli/ adv per-petu-ate /pɜ'petʃʊeɪt/ vt preserve from being forgotten or from going out of use: ~ his memory by erecting a statue of him.

per-petu-ation /pɜ:petʃʊ'eɪʃn/ n [U] per-petu-ity /pɜ:pɪ'tju:əti/ US: -'tju:ə- (n pl -ies) 1 [U] state of being perpetual. in perpetuity, for ever (which is more usual). 2 [C] (legal) perpetual possession.

per-plex /pɜ'pleks/ vt puzzle; bewilder; confuse: ~ her with questions.

per-plexed adj confused; complicated.

per-plex-ity /-ætɪ/ n (pl -ies) (formal) (a) [U] state of being confused, eg because of doubt: He looked at us in ~ity. (b) [C] perplexing thing.

per-qui-site /'pɜ:kwɪzɪt/ n [C] (formal) profit, allowance, etc given or looked on as one's right, in addition to regular wages or salary: The salesman's ~s include the use of his firm's car out of business hours. ⇨ perks.

per-se-cute /'pɜ:sɪkjʊ:t/ vt 1 punish, treat cruelly, esp because of religious beliefs. 2 cause repeated trouble to: ~ a man with questions.

per-se-cu-tion /pɜ:sɪ'kju:ʃn/ n [C,U] per-se-cu-tor /-tə(r)/, person who persecutes.

per-se-ver-ance /pɜːsɪˈvɛərəns/ n [U] constant effort to achieve something.

per-se-vere /pɜːsɪˈvɛə(r)/ vi continue with, doing, (esp something difficult or tiring): ~ with/in one's studies.

per-se-ver-ing adj

per-sist /pɜːsɪst/ vi 1 refuse, in spite of argument, opposition, failure, etc to make any change in (what one is doing, one's beliefs, etc): She ~s in wearing that old coat. 2 per-sist with, continue to work hard at. 3 continue to exist: The fog is likely to ~ in most areas.

per-sist-ence /-əns/ n [U] per-sist-ent /-ənt/ adj continuing (to refuse); occurring again and again: ~ent denials/attacks of malaria.

per-sist-ent-ly adv

per-son /ˈpɜːsn/ n [C] (Note: people is the usual plural, not persons.) 1 man, woman (the usual words): Who is this ~? 2 living body of a human being. in person, physically present: He'll collect his certificate in ~, will be there himself. 3 (gram) each of three classes of personal pronouns: the first ~ (I, we), the second ~ (you) and the third ~ (he, she, it, they).

per-son-able /ˈpɜːsnəbl/ adj good-looking and pleasant.

per-son-age /ˈpɜːsənɪdʒ/ n [C] (important) person.

per-sonal /ˈpɜːsənl/ adj 1 private; individual; of a particular person: my ~ affairs/needs/opinions; your ~ rights. 2 done or made by a person himself: The Prime Minister made a ~ appearance at the meeting. 3 done or made for a particular person: give him one's ~ attention. He did me a ~ favour, one directed to me and by him. 4 of the body: P ~ cleanliness is important to health. 5 of the nature of a human being: Do you believe in a ~ God? 6 of or about a person in a critical or hostile way: I object to such ~ remarks.

personal as/sistant, one who helps an official, eg by making travel arrangements, organizing meetings, etc.

personal column, one (in a newspaper, etc) in which private messages or advertisements appear.

personal/pronoun, ⇨ person (3).

per-son-ally /-əli/ adv (a) in person, not through a representative: He showed me round the exhibition ~. (b) speaking for oneself: P ~ly I have no objection to your joining us.

per-son-al-ize (also -ise) /ˈpɜːsnəlaɪz/ vt have (something) printed with one's address (~d stationery) or sewn with one's initials (~d handkerchiefs).

per-son-al-ity /ˈpɜːsnəˈləti/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] state of being a person; existence as an individual: respect the ~ of a child. 2 [C,U] qualities that make up a person's character: a man with little ~; a woman with a strong ~. 3 [C] per-son-ify /pɜːsənɪfaɪ/ vt (pt, pp -ied) 1 regard or represent (something) as a person: ~ the sun and moon, by using 'he' and 'she'. 2 be an example of (a quality): That man is greed personified.

(modern use) person who is well known in a particular context: a TV ~, known to television viewers. 4 (pl) impolite remarks about a person's looks, habits, etc: Let's avoid personalities, avoid such remarks.

per-soni-fi-ca-tion /pɜːsənɪfɪˈkeɪʃn/ n (a) [U] personifying or being personified; [C] instance of this. (b) (usually sing with the) excellent example of a quality: He's the personification of every virtue.

per-son-nel /ˈpɜːsənel/ n [U] (used with a sing or pl verb) staff, esp in large companies and the armed forces: Five airline ~ died in the plane crash.

personnel manager/officer, one employed to deal with staff, their salaries, training, etc.

per-spec-tive /pɜːspektɪv/ n 1 [U] the art of drawing solid objects on a flat surface so as to give the right impression of their relative height, width, depth, distance, etc; [C] drawing so made. 2 [U] apparent relation between different aspects of a problem: He sees things in their right ~. 3 [C] (literary, fig) view; prospect: ~s of Britain's history.

per-spex /ˈpɜːspeks/ n [U] (P) tough plastic material used as a substitute for glass.

per-spi-ca-cious /ˈpɜːspɪˈkeɪʃəs/ adj (formal) quick to judge and understand.

per-spi-cac-ity /ˈpɜːspɪˈkæsəti/ n [U] per-spire /pɜːˈspaɪə(r)/ vi sweat (which is less formal).

per-spiration /ˈpɜːspəˈreɪʃn/ n [U] sweat; sweating.

per-suade /pɜːˈsweɪd/ vt 1 convince (a person): How can I ~ you of my sincerity? that I am sincere? 2 cause (a person) by reasoning (not) (to do something): We ~d him/He was ~d to try again. Can you ~ her out of her foolish plans?

per-suad-able /-əbl/ adj per-sua-sion /pɜːˈsweɪʒn/ n 1 [U] persuading or being persuaded; power of persuading. 2 [U] belief (the usual word): It is my ~ that... 3 [C] group of people holding a particular belief: various political ~s.

per-sua-sive /pɜːˈsweɪsɪv/ adj able to persuade: She has a ~ manner/voice.

per-sua-sive-ly adv

pert /pɜːt/ adj cheeky; not showing proper respect: a ~ child/answer.

pert-ly adv

per-tain /pɜːˈteɪn/ vi (formal) belong as a part or accessory; have reference; be appropriate: the farm and the lands ~ing to it.

per-ti-na-cious /ˈpɜːtɪˈneɪʃəs/ adj (formal) determined.

per-ti-na-cious-ly adv
per-ti-nac-ity /pɜːtɪˈnæsəti/ n [U] (formal) determination.
per-ti-nent /ˈpɜːtɪnənt/ adj (formal) referring directly; relevant: a ~ reply.
per-ti-nent-ly adv
per-turb /pɜːtɜːb/ vt (formal) cause concern to; make anxious: ~ing rumours; a man who is never ~ed.
per-turb-able adj
per-tur-ba-tion /pɜːtɜːbeɪʃn/ n [U] pe-rusal /pɜːruːzl/ n [C,U] act of reading carefully.
pe-ruse /pɜːruːz/ vt (formal) read carefully.
per-veid /pɜːveɪd/ vt (formal) spread through every part of: The ideas that ~ all these periodicals may do great harm.
per-va-sion /pɜːveɪʃn/ n [U] per-va-sive /pɜːveɪsɪv/ adj tending to pervade: ~ influences.
per-va-sive-ly adv
per-verse /pɜːvɜːs/ adj 1 (of persons) deliberately continuing in doing wrong. 2 (of circumstances) contrary (to one's wishes). 3 (of behaviour) unreasonable.
per-verse-ly adv
per-verse-ness n [U] per-ver-sion /pɜːvɜːʃn/ US: -ʒn n 1 [U] perverting or being perverted. 2 [C] turning from right to wrong; change to something abnormal, unnatural, etc: a ~ of justice; sexual ~s.
per-ver-sity /pɜːvɜːsəti/ n (pl -ies) [U] being perverse; [C] perverse act.
per-vert¹ /pɜːvɜːt/ n [C] person whose (sexual) behaviour is abnormal.
per-vert² /pɜːvɜːt/ vt 1 turn (something) to a wrong use. 2 cause (a person, his mind) to turn away from right behaviour, beliefs, etc: ~ (the mind of) a child.
pes-si-mism /ˈpesɪmɪzəm/ n [U] tendency to believe that the worst thing is most likely to happen, that everything is basically evil.
pes-si-mist /-ɪst/, believer in pessimism.
pes-si-mis-tic /ˈpesɪmɪstɪk/ adj pes-si-mis-ti-cally /-kli/ adv pest /pest/ n [C] 1 troublesome or destructive thing, animal, etc: garden ~s, eg insects, mice, snails; ~ control, the use of various methods to get rid of pests. 2 (informal) child who is a nuisance: You little ~!
pes-ter /ˈpestə(r)/ vt annoy; trouble: be ~ed with flies/by requests for help.
pes-ti-cide /ˈpestɪsaɪd/ n [C,U] substance used to destroy pests.
pes-ti-lence /ˈpestɪləns/ n [C,U] (any kind of) fatal epidemic disease, esp bubonic plague.
pestle /ˈpestl/ n [C] stick with a thick end used in a mortar for pounding or crushing things. □ vt crush in (or as in) a mortar.
pet /pet/ n 1 (often as an adjective) animal, etc kept as a companion, treated with care and affection, eg a cat or a dog: ~ food/shops. 2 person treated as a favourite: Mary is the teacher's ~. 3 person specially loved or lovable: make a ~ of a child. □ vt (-tt-) 1 treat with affection. 2 kiss and caress.

pet aversion, person or thing disliked most: Cowboy films are her ~ aversion.

'pet name, name other than the real name, used affectionately.

petal /ˈpetl/ n [C] one of the (usually colourful) divisions of a flower: rose ~s.

peter /ˈpi:tə(r)/ vi peter out, (of supplies, etc) come gradually to an end.

pe-ti-tion /pɪˈtʃn/ n [C] 1 prayer; earnest request; appeal (esp a written document signed by a large number of people). 2 formal application made to a court of law. □ vt, vi 1 make an appeal to, eg the authorities: ~ Parliament to stop unemployment. 2 petition for, ask earnestly or humbly: ~ for a retrial.

pe-ti-tioner, one who petitions, esp the plaintiff in a divorce suit.

pet-rel /ˈpetrəl/ n [C] long-winged black and white seabird.

pet-rify /ˈpetrɪfaɪ/ vt, vi (pt, pp -ied) 1 (cause to) change into stone. 2 (fig) take away power to think, feel, act, etc (through fear, surprise, etc).

pet-rol /ˈpetrəl/ n [U] refined petroleum used as a fuel in internal combustion engines (US = gasoline): fill up with ~.

'petrol station, place where motor-vehicles can be filled with petrol.

pe-tro-leum /pɪˈtrəʊliəm/ n [U] mineral oil found underground and used in various forms (petrol, paraffin, etc) for lighting, heating and driving machines.

petroleum 'jelly n [U] semi-solid substance obtained from petroleum, used as a lubricant and in ointments.

pet-ti-coat /ˈpetɪkəʊt/ n [C] woman's underskirt.

petty /ˈpeti/ adj (-ier, -iest) 1 small; unimportant: ~ regulations enforced by ~ officials. 2 on a small scale: ~ farmers/shopkeepers. 3 having or showing no generosity or sympathy: ~ spite.

petty cash, (business) money for or from small payments.

petty larceny, theft of articles of little value.
'petty officer, naval officer below commissioned rank.

pet-tily /ˈpetəli/ adv

pet-ti-ness n [U] petu-lance /ˈpetʃələns/ n [U] (formal) petulant behaviour.

petu-lant /ˈpetʃələnt/ adj (formal) unreasonably impatient or irritable.

petu-lant-ly adv

pe-tu-nia /pɪˈtjuːniə/ US: -tuː-/ n [C] (pl ~s) garden plant with funnel-shaped flowers of various colours.

pew /pjuː/ n [C] bench with a back in a church.

pe-wit, pee-wit /'pi:wɪt/ n [C] lapwing.

pew-ter /'pjʊ:tə(r)/ n [U] (objects made of a) grey alloy of lead and tin.

phal-anx /'fælæŋks/ n [C] (pl ~es or phallanges /fə'lændʒɪz/) 1 (in ancient Greece) body of soldiers in close formation for fighting. 2 number of persons banded together for a common purpose. 3 (anat) bone in a finger or toe.

phal-lic /'fælɪk/ adj of a phallus: ~ sym-bols/emoles.

phal-lus /'fæləs/ n [C] (pl ~s or phalli /'fælai/) image of the penis, as a symbol of fertility.

phan-tasy /'fæntəsi/ n = fantasy.

phan-tom /'fæntəm/ n [C] ghost; something seen as in a dream or vision: (used as an adjective) ~ ships.

Phari-see /'færisi:/ n [C] 1 member of an ancient Jewish sect known for strict obedience to written laws and for claiming reverence. 2 (small p) hypocritical and self-righteous person.

phar-ma-ceu-ti-cal /'fɑ:mə'sju:tɪkl/ US: -'sju:l/ adj of, engaged in, pharmacy; of the use or sale of medicinal drugs.

phar-ma-cist /'fɑ:mə'stɪs/ n [C] person skilled in preparing medicines. ⇨ chemist, druggist.

phar-ma-col-ogist /'fɑ:mə'kɒlədʒɪst/ n [C] expert in, student of, pharmacology.

phar-ma-col-ogy /'fɑ:mə'kɒlədʒi/ n [U] science of pharmacy.

phar-macy /'fɑ:məsi/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] preparation and dispensing of medicines and drugs. 2 [C] (part of a) shop where medical goods are sold. (US = drugstore).

phar-yn-gi-tis /'færɪn'dʒaɪtɪs/ n [U] inflammation of the mucous membrane of the pharynx.

phar-ynx /'færɪŋks/ n [C] cavity (with the muscles, etc that enclose it) at the back of the mouth, where the passages to the nose, mouth and larynx begin.

phase /feɪz/ n [C] 1 stage of development: the critical ~ of an illness. 2 (of the moon) amount of bright surface visible from the earth (new moon, full moon, etc). □ vt plan, carry out, by phases: a well-~d withdrawal, one made by careful stages. phase in/out, introduce/withdraw one stage at a time.

pheas-ant /'feɪznt/ n [C] long-tailed game bird; [U] its flesh as food.

phe-nom-enal /'fə'nɒmɪnəl/ adj 1 that is known only through the senses. 2 concerned with phenomena. 3 enormous; extraordinary.

phe-nom-enally /-nəli/ adv phe-nom-enon /'fə'nɒmɪnən/ US: -nɒn/ n [C] (pl -ena /-inə/) 1 thing that is known to exist by the senses: the phenomena of nature. 2 unusual, extraordinary, person, thing, happening, etc.

phew /fju:/ int (suggesting astonishment, impatience, discomfort, disgust, etc according to context).

phial /'fiəl/ n [C] small bottle, esp one for liquid medicine.

phil-an-thropic /'fɪlən'thrɒpɪk/ adj kind and helpful.

phil-an-thropi-cally /-kli/ adv

phil-an-thro-pist /'fɪlənθrəpɪst/ n [C] person who helps others, esp those who are poor or in trouble.

phil-an-thropy /'fɪlənθrəpi/ n [U] love of mankind; practical sympathy and benevolence.

phil-at-ely /'fɪlətəli/ n [U] collecting stamps.

Phi-lis-tine /'fɪlɪstæn/ US: -stɪn/ n 1 (Biblical) one of the warlike peoples in Palestine who were the enemies of the Israelites. 2 (small p) (modern use) uncultured person; person whose interests are only material and are ordinary or dull.

phil-o-logi-cal /'fɪlə'lɒdʒɪkl/ adj of philology.

phil-ol-ogist /'fɪlə'lɒdʒɪst/ n [C] student of, expert in, philology.

phil-ol-ogy /'fɪlə'lɒdʒi/ n [U] study of the development of language, or of particular languages. ⇨ linguistics.

phil-os-opher /'fɪlə'sɒfə(r)/ n [C] 1 person studying or teaching philosophy, or having a system of philosophy. 2 (informal) person whose mind is untroubled by stormy feelings or hardships; person who lets reason govern his life.

phil-o-sophi-cal /'fɪlə'sɒfɪkl/ adj 1 of, devoted to, guided by, philosophy. 2 (informal) (of a person, his behaviour) guided by reason and not feelings: take a ~ view of a personal situation.

phil-o-sophi-cally /-kli/ adv phil-os-ophize (also -ise) /'fɪlə'sɒfaɪz/ vi think, discuss, like a philosopher.

phil-os-ophy /'fɪlə'sɒfi/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] the search for knowledge, esp the nature and meaning of existence. 2 [C] system of thought resulting from such a search for knowledge: a man with a practical ~. 3 [U] calm, quiet attitude towards life, even in the face of unhappiness, danger, difficulty, etc.

phleb-it-itis /'flɪ'bæɪtɪs/ n [U] inflammation of a vein.

phlegm /flem/ n [U] 1 thick, semi-fluid substance forming on the skin of the throat and in the nose, and expelled by coughing. 2 quality of being phlegmatic.

phleg-matic /fleg'mætɪk/ adj being slow to act or to show feeling or interest.

phleg-mati-cally /-kli/ adv

pho-bia /'fəʊbiə/ n [C] (pl ~s) unhealthy, strong, fear or dislike.

phone¹ /'fəʊn/ n, vt, vi (informal abbr for) telephone.

'phone-booth/-box, telephone kiosk; call-box.
'phone-in, radio or television programme in which the public take part on the telephone.
phone² /fəʊn/ n [C] (linguistics) single speech-sound (vowel or consonant).
pho-neme /'fəʊni:m/ n [C] (linguistics) unit of the system of sounds that distinguish words of a language as represented ideally by single letters of the alphabet.
pho-nemic /fə'ni:mik/ adj
pho-netic /fə'netik/ adj 1 concerned with the sounds of human speech. 2 (of transcriptions) providing a symbol for each phoneme of the language transcribed. 3 (of a language) having a system of spelling close to the sounds represented by the letters: Spanish spelling is ~.
pho-neti-cally /-kli/ adv
pho-net-ics n (used with a sing verb) (a) study and science of speech sounds, their production, and the signs used to represent them. (b) sound-system of a language.
pho-neti-cian /fəʊni'tʃi:n/ n [C] expert in phonetics.
pho-ney, phony /'fəʊni/ adj (-ier, -iest) (sl) fake; not genuine. □ n [C] phony person: He's a complete ~.
pho-nic /'fəʊnik/ adj (of vocal) sounds.
pho-nol-ogy /fə'nɒlədʒi/ n [U] (linguistics) scientific study of the organization of speech sounds (including phonemes), esp in particular languages.
phooey /'fʊi/ int (used to show disgust, disbelief, etc).
phos-pho-rescence /fəʊs'fə:resns/ n [U] the giving out of light without burning or heat that can be felt.
phos-pho-rescent /-snt/ adj phos-phorus /'fəʊs'fərəs/ n [U] yellow, non-metallic, poisonous element like wax (symbol P) which catches fire easily and gives out a faint light in the dark.
photo /'fəʊtəʊ/ n [C] (informal abbr for) photograph.
photo- /'fəʊtəʊ/ prefix 1 of light: photo-electric. 2 of photography: photogenic.
photo-copy /'fəʊtəkəpi/ vt (pt, pp -ied) make a copy of (a document, etc) by a photographic method. □ n [C] (pl -ies) such a copy.
photo-electric /fəʊtəʊ'lektrik/ adj: ~ cell, device which gives out an electric current when light falls on it, used for many purposes, eg to cause a door to open when someone approaches it.
photo-finish /fəʊtəʊ'fiɪnɪʃ/ n [C] finish of a horse-race so close that a photograph is needed to decide the winner.
photo-fit /'fəʊtəʊfɪt/ n [C,U] (example of a) method of combining facial features to provide the police, etc with an idea of what a suspect looks like.
photo-genic /fəʊtə'dʒenik/ adj (of a person) looking attractive in photographs.

photo-graph /'fəʊtəgrɑ:f/ US: -græf/ n [C] picture recorded by means of the chemical action of light on a specially prepared film in a camera, etc which is transferred to specially prepared paper. □ vt take a photograph of.
pho-togra-pher /fə'tɒgrəfə(r)/ n [C] person (esp professional) who takes photographs.
pho-to-graphic /fə'tə'græfik/ adj of, related to, used in, taking photographs.
photo-graphi-cally /-kli/ adv
pho-togra-phy /fə'tɒgrəfi/ n [U] art or process of taking photographs.
photo-stat /'fəʊtəstæt/ n = photocopy.
phrasal /'freɪz/ adj in the form of a phrase.
phrasal verb, idiomatic use of a verb with an adverb and/or a preposition, eg pick up (→ the end section of the verb pick).
phrase /freɪz/ n [C] 1 group of words forming part of a sentence, eg in the garden, in order to. 2 short, clever expression. 3 (music) short, independent passage forming part of a longer passage. □ vt express in words: a neatly ~d compliment.
'phrase book, one listing expressions with equivalents in another language, eg for tourists.
phras-eol-ogy /f'reɪzi'blədʒi/ n [U] choice of words; wording.
phren-etic /fri'netik/ adj (formal) frantic; fanatic.
physi-cal /'fizɪkl/ adj 1 of things that are known through the senses (contrasted with moral and spiritual things): the ~ world. 2 of the body: ~ exercise, eg running. 3 of the laws of nature: ~ impossibility. 4 of the natural features of the world: ~ geography.
'physical/science, eg physics, chemistry.
physi-cally /-kli/ adv
physi-cian /'fiziʃi:n/ n [C] doctor of medicine and surgery.
physi-cist /'fizɪsɪst/ n [C] student of, expert in, physics.
phys-ics /'fizɪks/ n pl (used with a sing verb) group of sciences dealing with matter and energy (eg heat, light, sound), but usually excluding chemistry and biology.
physi(o)- /fizi(ə)-, etc/ prefix of the body or living things: physiology.
physio-logi-cal /fizi'ɒlədʒɪkl/ adj of physiology.
physi-ol-ogist /fizi'blədʒɪst/ n [C] expert in, student of, physiology.
physi-ol-ogy /fizi'blədʒi/ n [U] science of the normal functions of living things, esp animals.
physio-thera-pist /fizi'ʊðərəpɪst/ n [C] person trained to give physiotherapy.
physio-ther-apy /fizi'ʊðərəpi/ n [U] treatment of disease by means of exercise, massage, the use of light, heat, electricity and other natural forces.

phy-sique /fɪ'zɪk/ n [U] structure and development of the body: a strong ~.

pia-nist /'piənɪst/ n [C] person who plays the piano.

pi-ano /pɪ'ænəʊ/ n [C] (pl ~s) musical instrument in which metal strings are struck by hammers operated from a keyboard.

grand piano, one with horizontal strings.

upright piano, one with vertical strings.

piano-forte /pɪ'ænəʊ'fɔːtɪ/ US: pɪ'ænəʊ'fɔːrt/ n [C] (formal) piano.

pica-dor /'pɪkədɔː(r)/ n [C] man (on a horse) who uses a lance to anger and weaken bulls in the sport of bull-fighting.

pic-ca-lilli /,pɪkə'lɪli/ n [U] kind of hot-tasting pickle made of chopped vegetables, spices, mustard, vinegar, etc.

pic-colo /'pɪkələʊ/ n [C] (pl ~s) small flute.

pick¹ /pɪk/ n [C] picking; selection. the pick of the bunch, (fig) the best of all of them.

pick² /pɪk/ n [C] 1 (also 'pick(-axe)'), heavy tool with an iron head having two pointed ends, used for breaking up hard surfaces (eg roads, brickwork). 2 small, sharp-pointed instrument: a 'tooth-~.

pick³ /pɪk/ vt, vi (For special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions, ⇨ 7 below.) 1 take up, remove, pull away, with the fingers: ~ flowers/fruit; ~ one's nose, remove bits of dried mucus from the nostrils. pick sb's brains, ⇨ brain(4). pick sb's pocket, ⇨ pocket(1). 2 tear or separate; use a pointed instrument to clean, etc: ~ one's teeth, get bits of food from the spaces between them, etc by using a 'tooth-~'. pick a lock, use a pointed tool, a piece of wire, etc to unlock it without a key. have a 'bone to pick with sb, ⇨ bone. 3 choose; select: ~ a team, choose players; ~ the winning horse ~ the winner, make a successful guess at the winner (before the race). pick a quarrel with sb, ⇨ quarrel(2). 4 make by picking. pick holes in, ⇨ hole(1). 5 (of birds) take up (grain, etc) in the bill; (of persons) eat (food, etc) in small amounts: She only ~ed at her food. 6 (US) pluck (the strings of): ~ a banjo.

7 (special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions):

pick at sb, (informal) find fault with: Why are you always ~ing at the poor child?

pick on sb, select for punishment, criticism, etc: You're always ~ing on me.

pick sb/sth out, (a) choose. (b) distinguish from surrounding persons, objects, etc: ~ out a friend in a crowd.

pick sth over, examine and make a selection from: ~ over a basket of grapes, eg to throw out any that are bad.

pick sth up, (a) take hold of and lift: ~ up one's hat/parcels. (b) gain; get: ~ up a foreign language, learn it without taking lessons or studying; ~ up bits of information; ~ up a bar- gain at a sale. (c) succeed in seeing or hearing (by means of apparatus): enemy planes were ~ed up by our searchlights/radar. (d) recover (health); regain: You'll soon ~ up when you get to the seaside. pick sb up, (a) make the acquaintance of casually: a girl he ~ed up in the street. (b) take (persons) along with one: He stopped the car to ~ up a young girl who was hitch-hiking across Europe. The escaped prisoner was ~ed up (= seen and arrested) by the police at Hull. pick oneself up, raise (oneself) after a fall: She slipped and fell, but quickly ~ed herself up again.

picker /'pɪkə(r)/ n [C] person or thing that picks (chiefly in compounds): 'hop-~s.

picket /'pɪkɪt/ n [C] 1 pointed stick, etc set upright in the ground (as part of a fence, etc).

2 small group of men on police duty, or sent out to watch the enemy. 3 worker, or group of workers, stationed at the gates of a factory, dockyard, etc during a strike, to try to persuade others not to go to work. □ vt, vi 1 put pickets(1) round. 2 station (men) as pickets(2). 3 place/be a picket(3) at: ~ a factory.

pick ings /'pɪkɪŋz/ n pl odds and ends left over from which profits may be made; these profits.

pickle /'pɪkl/ n 1 [U] salt water, vinegar, etc for keeping meat, vegetables, etc in good condition. 2 (often pl) vegetables kept in pickle: onion ~s. 3 in a (sad/sorry) pickle, in a sad, disorganized, etc condition. □ vt preserve in pickle: ~d onions.

pickled adj (sl) very drunk.

pick-me-up /'pɪk mɪ ʌp/ n [C] drink, etc that gives new strength, cheerfulness.

pick-pocket /'pɪk pɒkɪt/ n [C] person who steals from pockets. ⇨ pocket(1).

pick-up /'pɪk ʌp/ n [C] (pl ~s) 1 that part of a record-player that holds the stylus. 2 small general-purpose van or truck, open and with low sides. 3 (sl) person of the opposite sex who a person meets deliberately, eg at a party, in the street. 4 acceleration: an engine/car with a good ~up.

pic-nic /'pɪknɪk/ n [C] 1 pleasure trip on which food is carried to be eaten outdoors. 2 (informal) something easy and enjoyable: It's no ~, is not an easy job. □ vi (-ck-) take part in a picnic: ~ing in the woods.

pic-tor-ial /'pɪktʊəriəl/ adj of, having, represented in, pictures: a ~ record of the wedding. □ n [C] periodical of which pictures are the main feature.

pic-ture /'pɪktʃə(r)/ n [C] 1 painting, drawing, sketch, photograph, esp as a work of art. 2 beautiful scene, object, person, etc. 3 type or example. be the picture of health, appear to be very healthy. 4 (fig) account or description that enables somebody to see in his mind an event, etc. be/put sb in the picture, be/cause him to be aware of all the facts of a situation. 5 film (to be) shown in a cinema. 6 what is seen on a television screen. □ vt 1 make a picture of; paint. 2 imagine: P ~ me upon your knee.

the pictures, (dated informal) the cinema.

'picture-book, book with many illustrations, esp one for children.

'picture-card, (playing-cards) one with a king, queen or jack on it.

pic-tur-es-que /'pɪktʃə'resk/ adj 1 having the quality of being like, or of being fit to be, the subject of a painting: a ~ village. 2 vivid; graphic: ~ language. 3 (of a person, his character) attractive; original.

piddle /'pɪdl/ vi, n [C, U] (sl) (pass) urine.

pid-dling /'pɪdlɪŋ/ adj (informal) insignificant; unimportant: ~ jobs.

pidgin /'pɪdʒɪn/ n [C] 1 any of several languages resulting from contact between European traders and local peoples, eg in West Africa and the Far East, containing elements of the local language(s) and English, French or Dutch. 2 (informal) (only in) (not) one's pidgin, not one's job or concern.

pie /paɪ/ n [C, U] meat or fruit covered with pastry and baked in a dish. have a finger in every 'pie, be (too) concerned in all that is going on. as easy as pie, (sl) very easy. pie in the sky, unrealistic hopes.

piece¹ /pi:s/ n [C] 1 part or bit of a solid substance (complete in itself, but broken, separated or made from a larger portion): a ~ of paper/string. Will you have another ~ (= slice) of cake? The vase is in ~s. The teapot fell and was broken to ~s. come/take (sth) to pieces, divide (it) into the parts which make it up: Does this machine come/take to ~s? fall to pieces, break into pieces: It just fell to ~s in my hands. go (all) to pieces, (informal) (of a person) break up physically, mentally or morally. a piece of cake, ⇨ cake(1). 2 separate instance or example: a ~ of news/luck/advice/information/furniture. give sb a piece of one's mind, criticize him strongly. a nasty piece of work, a horrible person. 3 single composition (in art, music, etc): a fine ~ of work/music/poetry. 4 single thing out of a set: a dinner service of 50 ~s. 5 one of the objects moved on a board in such games as chess. 6 coin: a tenpence ~.

piece² /pi:s/ vt put (parts, etc) together; make by joining or adding (pieces) together: piecing together odds and ends of cloth.

piece-meal /'pi:smɪl/ adv one (part) at a time: work done ~. □ adj arriving in parts, not all at the same time.

pier /pɪə(r)/ n [C] 1 structure of wood, iron, etc built out into the sea as a landing-stage; similar structure for walking on for pleasure (often with a pavilion, restaurant, etc). 2 pillar supporting a span of a bridge, etc.

pierce /piəs/ vt, vi 1 (of sharp-pointed instruments) go into or through; make (a hole) by doing this: The arrow ~d his shoulder. 2 (fig) (of cold, pain, sounds, etc) force a way into or through: Her screams ~d the air. 3 go (through, into, etc): Our forces ~d through the enemy's lines.

pierce-ing adj (esp of cold, voices) sharp: a piercing wind.

pierce-ing-ly adv: a piercingly cold wind.

piety /'paɪəti/ n (pl -ies) (formal) 1 [U] devotion to God and good actions. 2 [C] act, etc that shows piety.

pig /pɪɡ/ n 1 [C] domestic and wild animal without fur that does not chew grass; [U] its flesh as meat. ⇨ bacon, ham, pork. pigs might 'fly, the impossible might happen. 2 (informal) dirty, greedy or ill-mannered person. make a pig of oneself, eat or drink too much.

'pig-headed adj stubborn.

'pig-skin, [U] (leather made of a) pig's skin.

'pig-sty /-stɑɪ/, (a) small building for pigs.

(b) (informal) dirty home.

'pig-tail, plait of hair hanging down over the back of the neck and shoulders.

'pig-gish /-ɪʃ/ adj dirty; greedy.

piggy /'pɪɡi/ n [C] (pl -ies) little pig. □ adj (informal) greedy.

'piggy bank, model of a pig used by a child for saving coin money.

pigeon /'pɪdʒɪn/ n [C] bird, wild or tame, of the dove family. ⇨ stool-pigeon.

'pigeon-breasted adj (of a human being) having a large, round chest.

'pigeon-hole n [C] one of a number of small open boxes (eg above a desk) for keeping papers in. □ vt put (papers, etc) in a pigeonhole and ignore or forget them; postpone consideration of: The scheme was ~holed.

'pigeon-toed adj having the toes turned inwards.

pig-let /'pɪɡlɪt/ n [C] young pig.

pig-ment /'pɪgmənt/ n 1 [U] colouring matter for making dyes, paint, etc; [C] particular substance used for this. 2 [U] the natural colouring matter in the skin, hair, etc of living beings.

pigmy /'pɪgmɪ/ n [C] = pygmy.

pike¹ /paɪk/ n [C] long wooden shaft with a spearhead, formerly used by soldiers fighting on foot.

pike² /paɪk/ n [C] large, fierce, freshwater fish.

pil-chard /'pɪltʃəd/ n [C] small sea fish resembling the herring.

pile¹ /paɪl/ n [C] 1 number of things lying one on another: a ~ of books. 2 'funeral pile, heap of wood, etc on which a corpse is burnt. 3 (informal) large amount of money. make a/one's pile, earn a lot of money.

pile² /paɪl/ n [C] heavy beam of timber, steel, concrete, etc in the ground, as a foundation for a building a support for a bridge, etc.

'pile-driver, machine for driving piles into the ground.

pile³ /paɪl/ n [U] soft, thick, surface like hair as on velvet, carpets, etc.

pile⁴ /paɪl/ vt, vi 1 make into a pile(1); put on or in a pile(1): piling up dishes on a table; ~ more coal on (the fire). pile it 'on, (informal) exaggerate. 2 pile up, (a) accumulate: My work keeps piling up, There is more and more for me to do. (b) (of a number of vehicles) crash into each other. Hence, 'pile-up n: another bad ~ up on the motorway. 3 pile into/out of sth, enter/leave in a disorderly way: They all ~d into/out of the car/cinema.

piles /paɪlz/ n [U] hemorrhoids.

pil-fer /'pɪlfə(r)/ vt, vi steal, esp in small quantities.

pil-ferer, person who pilfers.

pil-grim /'pɪlgrɪm/ n [C] person who travels to a sacred place as an act of religious devotion: ~s to Mecca.

the Pilgrim Fathers, English Puritans who went to America in 1620 and founded the colony of Plymouth, Massachusetts.

'pil-grim-age /-ɪdʒ/, journey of a pilgrim.

pill /pɪl/ n [C] 1 small ball or tablet of medicine for swallowing whole. 2 the ~, oral contraceptive. be/go on the pill, be taking/start to take such pills regularly.

pil-lar /'pɪlə(r)/ n [C] 1 upright column, of stone, wood, metal, etc as a support or ornament. (driven) from pillar to post, (fig) (forced to go) from one place to another. 2 pillar of, (fig) strong supporter: a ~ of the Church. 3 something in the shape of a pillar, eg a column of fire, smoke.

'pillar-box, cylindrical container (in GB, red) in which letters are posted.

pil-lion /'pɪliən/ n [C] 1 saddle for a passenger behind the driver of a motorbike: a ~ passenger. 2 seat for a second rider behind the rider of a horse.

pil-low /'pɪləʊ/ n [C] soft cushion for the head, esp when lying in bed. □ vt rest, support, on or as on a pillow.

'pillow-case-slip, washable cover for a pillow.

pi-lot /'paɪlət/ n [C] 1 person trained and licensed to take ships into or out of a harbour, along a river, through a canal, etc. 2 person trained to operate the controls of an aircraft. 3 (used as an adjective) experimental; used to test how something will work, how it may be improved, etc: a ~ census/survey/scheme. □ vt act as a pilot.

'pilot fish, small fish which often swims with larger fish, eg sharks, or sometimes ships.

'pilot light, small flame in a gas-cooker, which lights large burners, etc when the gas is turned on.

pi-mento /prɪ'mentəʊ/ n (pl ~s) 1 [U] dried aromatic berries of a West Indian tree, also called Jamaica pepper and allspice. 2 [C] tree that produces the berries.

pimp /pɪmp/ n [C] man who solicits for a prostitute. □ vt act as a pimp.

pimple /'pɪmpl/ n [C] small, hard, inflamed spot on the skin.

pimpled adj having pimples.

pim-ply /'pɪmplɪ/ adj (-ier, -iest) pin¹ /pɪn/ n [C] 1 short, thin piece of stiff wire with a sharp point and a round head, used for fastening together parts of a dress, papers, etc. 2 similar piece of wire with an ornamental head for special purposes: a 'hat-~. ⇨ safety pin. 3 peg of wood or metal for various purposes. ⇨ drawing pin, hairpin, ninepins, rolling pin. 4 each of the pegs round which the strings of a musical instrument are fastened.

'pins and 'needles, tingling sensation in a part of the body caused by blood flowing again when its circulation has been slowed down.

'pin-cushion, pad for pins(1).

'pin-money, money earned by a woman to buy small personal necessities, etc.

'pin-point n [C] something very small. □ vt (fig) find, hit, a target with the required accuracy: Our planes ~pointed the target.

'pin-prick, (fig) small act, remark, etc causing annoyance.

'pin-stripe, (of cloth, clothes) with many very narrow stripes: a ~striped suit.

pin² /pɪn/ vt (-nn-) 1 fasten with a pin or pins: ~ papers together; ~ up a notice, eg with drawing-pins on a notice board. pin sth on sb, make him appear responsible or deserving blame. pin one's hopes on, rely completely on a person, a decision, etc. 2 make unable to move: He was ~ned under the wrecked car. He ~ned me against the wall, held me there and prevented me from moving. pin sb down, (fig) get him to commit himself, to decide, etc.

pin-a-fore /'pɪnəfə(r)/ n [C] loose article of clothing worn over a dress to keep it clean.

pin-cers /'pɪnsəz/ n pl (also a pair of ~s) 1 instrument for gripping things, pulling nails out of wood, etc. 2 pincer-shaped claws of certain shellfish.

pinch /pɪntʃ/ vt, vi 1 squeeze between the thumb and finger; have in a tight grip between two hard things which are pressed together: He ~ed the boy's cheek. 2 be too tight; hurt by being too tight: These shoes ~ (me). 3 (informal) take without permission: Who's ~ed my dictionary? 4 live economically: ~ and scrape in order to save money. 5 (sl) (of the police) arrest: be ~ed for stealing. □ n [C] 1 painful squeeze: He gave her a spiteful ~. 2 (fig) stress: feel the ~ of poverty. 3 amount which can be taken up with the thumb and finger: a ~ of tobacco. take sth with a pinch of salt, ⇨ salt. 4 at a pinch, if there is need and if there is no other way: We can get six people round the dining-table tomorrow at a ~.

pine¹ /paɪn/ n [C] kinds of evergreen tree with needle-shaped leaves ('pine-needles') and cones ('pine-cones'); [U] the wood of this tree.

pine² /paɪn/ vi 1 waste away through sorrow or illness: pinning from hunger. 2 pine for sth/to do sth, have a strong desire: exiles pinning for home/to return home.

pine-apple /ˈpaɪnæpl/ n [C] (tropical plant with spiny leaves above a) sweet, juicy fruit; [U] this as food: ~ juice; tinned ~.

ping /pɪŋ/ n [C] short, sharp, ringing sound as of a small bell being hit. □ vi make this sound.

ping-pong /ˈpɪŋpɒŋ/ n [C] = table tennis.

pin-ion¹ /ˈpɪniən/ n [C] bird's wing, esp the outer joint; flight-feather of a bird. □ vi 1 cut off a pinion (of a bird) to prevent flight. 2 bind the arms of (a person).

pin-ion² /ˈpɪniən/ n [C] small cog-wheel with teeth fitting into those of a larger cog-wheel.

pink¹ /pɪŋk/ n 1 [U] pale red colour of various kinds (rose ~, salmon ~). 2 [C] garden plant with sweet-smelling white, pink, crimson or variegated flowers. 3 in the pink, (informal) very well. □ adj of, with a pale red colour.

pink-ish /-ɪʃ/ adj rather pink.

pink² /pɪŋk/ vi 1 pierce with a sword. 2 decorate (leather, cloth) with small holes, etc.

'pink-ing scissors/shears, sewing scissors with serrated edges, used to prevent edges of cloth from fraying.

pin-money /ˈpɪn mʌni/ n ⇨ *pin*¹.

pin-nacle /ˈpɪnəkl/ n [C] 1 tall, pointed part of buttress. 2 high, slender mountain peak. 3 (fig) highest point: at the ~ of his fame. □ vi put (as) on a pinnacle.

pinny /ˈpɪni/ n [C] (pl-ies) (child's name for a) pinafore.

pin-point /ˈpɪnpɔɪnt/ ⇨ *pin*¹.

pin-prick /ˈpɪn prɪk/ ⇨ *pin*¹.

pint /paɪnt/ n [C] unit of measure for liquids and certain dry goods, one-eighth of a gallon or about .57 of a litre: a ~ of milk/beer.

pin-up /ˈpɪn ʌp/ n [C] picture of an attractive person, esp a woman.

pioneer /ˈpaɪəniə(r)/ n [C] 1 person who goes into a new or undeveloped country to settle or work there. 2 first person to begin a new branch of study, method etc; explorer. 3 (mil) one of an advance party of soldiers (eg clearing or making roads). □ vi,vt act as a pioneer: ~ing work in the field of learner's dictionaries.

pi-ous /ˈpaɪəs/ adj having, showing, deep devotion to religion.

pi-ous-ly adv

pip¹ /pɪp/ n [C] seed, esp of a lemon, orange, apple or pear.

pip² /pɪp/ n 1 the ~, disease of poultry. 2 give one the pip, (sl) make one angry, etc.

pip³ /pɪp/ n [C] note of a time-signal on the telephone or radio.

pip⁴ /pɪp/ n [C] 1 each spot on playing-cards, dice and dominoes. 2 (GB informal) star on an army officer's shoulder-strap.

pipe¹ /paɪp/ n [C] 1 tube through which liquids or gases can flow: 'water-~s'; 'gas-~s'; 'drain-~s'. 2 musical wind-instrument (a single tube with holes stopped by the fingers); each of the tubes from which sound is produced in an organ; (pl) = bagpipes. 3 (sound of the) whistle used by a sailor. 4 song or note of some birds. 5 tubular organ in the body: the 'wind-~. 6 (also to'bacco ~), tube with a bowl, used for smoking tobacco; quantity of tobacco held in the bowl. Put 'that in your pipe and smoke it, (informal) Think about that and accept it whether you want to or not.

'pipe-dream, plan, idea, etc that is impracticable.

'pipe-line, (esp) pipes, often underground, for conveying petroleum to distant places. in the pipeline, (modern use) (of any kind of goods or proposals) on the way; about to be delivered or to receive attention.

'pipe-rack, for tobacco pipes.

'pipe-ful /-fʊl/, as much as a pipe(6) can hold.

pipe² /paɪp/ vi,vt 1 convey (water, etc) through pipes: ~ water into a house. 2 play as on a pipe. pipe down, (informal) be less noisy. 3 (naut) summon (sailors), welcome on board, with a pipe: piping the captain on board. 4 trim (a dress), ornament (a cake, etc) with piping. ⇨ piping(2).

pipe-line /ˈpaɪplaɪn/ n ⇨ *pipe*¹.

piper /ˈpaɪpə(r)/ n [C] person who plays on a pipe or bagpipes.

pip-ette /pɪˈpet/ n [C] thin tube for transferring small quantities of liquid, esp used in chemistry.

pip-ing /ˈpaɪpɪŋ/ n [U] 1 length of pipe(1), esp for water and drains: ten metres of lead ~.

2 narrow cord used to decorate the edges of clothes; lines of icing sugar used to decorate cakes, etc. 3 action of playing on a pipe; sound produced from a pipe. □ adj like the sound from a pipe(2): in a ~ voice. □ adv pip-ing 'hot', (of liquids, food) very hot.

pi-quancy /ˈpɪ:kənəsi/ n [U] the quality of being piquant.

pi-quant /ˈpɪ:kənt/ adj pleasantly sharp or hot to the taste: a ~ sauce.

pique /pɪ:k/ vi hurt the pride, self-respect, of. □ n [U] resentment: resign in a fit of ~.

pi-qué /ˈpɪ:kɛɪ/ US: pɪˈkeɪ n [U] stiff cotton cloth.

pi-racy /ˈpaɪərəsi/ n (pl-ies) 1 [U] robbery on the high seas. 2 [U] pirating of books, etc. 3 [C] instance of either of these.

pi-ranha /ˈpɪˈrɑːnjə/ n [C] (kind of) tropical American freshwater fish, noted for attacking and eating live animals.

pi-rate /'paɪrət/ n [C] 1 person who commits piracy (1). 2 person who uses something, eg another's copyright, without authorization. □ vt use, reproduce (a book, a recording, etc) without authority.

pi-rati-cal /'paɪrætiːkəl/ adj pir-ou-ette /'piroʊet/ n [C] ballet-dancer's rapid turn on the ball or the toe of the foot. □ vi dance a pirouette.

Pis-ces /'paɪsɪz/ n the fish, twelfth sign of the zodiac.

piss /pɪs/ vt, vi Δ (vulgar sl) pass urine. □ n [U] urine.

pissed adj Δ (vulgar sl) very drunk.

pis-ta-chio /'piːstɑːtʃiəʊ US: -tæʃiəʊ/ n [C] (pl ~s) (tree with) nut with a green edible kernel; colour of this kernel.

pis-til /'pɪstl/ n [C] seed-producing part of a flower.

pis-tol /'pɪstl/ n [C] small firearm held and fired in one hand.

pis-ton /'pɪstən/ n [C] round plate or short cylinder fitting closely inside another cylinder or tube in which it moves, used in engines, pumps, etc to pass on motion.

pit¹ /pɪt/ n [C] 1 large hole in the earth, esp one from which material is dug out (a 'coal-~) or for industrial purposes (a 'saw-~). 2 covered hole as a trap for wild animals, etc. 3 hollow in an animal or plant body, esp the ~ of the stomach, the depression in the belly between the ribs. ⇨ also armpit. 4 scar left on the body after smallpox. 5 (GB) (people in the) seats on the ground floor of a theatre. 6 hole in the floor (of a garage, workshop) from which the underside of a motor-vehicle can be examined and repaired. 7 place at which cars stop (at race-courses) for fuel, new tyres, etc. □ vt (-tt-) mark with pits (4) or with hollows in the ground: The moon is ~ted with craters.

'pit-fall, (fig) unsuspected trap or danger.

'pit-head, entrance of a coalmine.

'pit pony, pony kept underground in coalmines for pulling wagons.

'pit-prop, prop used to support the roof of a gallery in a mine.

pit² /pɪt/ n [C] (US) hard seed like a stone (of such fruits as cherries, plums, peaches, dates). □ vt (-tt-) (US) remove pits from.

pit-a-pat /'pɪt ə 'pæt/ adv with (the sound of) light, quick taps or steps: Her heart/feet/The rain went ~.

pitch¹ /pɪtʃ/ n [C] 1 place where a person (esp a street trader) usually does business. queer sb's pitch, upset his plans. 2 area for playing football, etc. 3 (cricket) part of the ground between the wickets; manner in which the ball is delivered in bowling. 4 act of pitching or throwing anything. 5 (in music and speech) degree of highness or lowness: the ~ of a voice. 6 degree: the noise reached such a ~ that... ⇨ fever pitch. 7 amount of slope (esp of a roof).

8 (of a ship) process of pitching (5).

pitch² /pɪtʃ/ n [U] black substance made from coal-tar, turpentine or petroleum, sticky and semi-liquid when hot, hard when cold, used eg between planks forming a floor, to make roofs waterproof, etc.

'pitch-black/'pitch-dark adj very black or dark.

pitch³ /pɪtʃ/ vt, vi 1 set up, erect (a tent, camp). 2 throw (a ball, etc). 3 (music) set in a certain key: This song is ~ed too low for me. 4 (cause to) fall heavily forwards or outwards: The boat overturned and the passengers were ~ed out. 5 (of a ship) move up and down as the bows rise and fall. ⇨ roll² (6). 6 pitch in, set to work with energy. pitch into, (a) attack violently. (b) get busy with: We ~ed into the work/the food. 7 (cricket) (cause the ball to) strike the ground near or around the wicket. 8 (baseball) throw (the ball) to the batter. □ vi 1 lift or move with a fork. 2 (fig) force (a person) (into a job, etc).

'pitch-fork, long-handled fork with sharp prongs for lifting hay, etc.

pitcher¹ /'pɪtʃə(r)/ n [C] large jug.

pitcher² /'pɪtʃə(r)/ n [C] (baseball) player who throws the ball.

pit-eous /'pɪtʃəs/ adj (formal) arousing pity.

pit-eous-ly adv

pit-fall /'pɪtʃfəl/ ⇨ pit¹.

pith /pɪθ/ n [U] 1 soft substance that fills the stems of some plants (eg reeds). 2 similar substance lining the rind of oranges, etc. 3 (fig) essential part: the ~ of his argument/speech.

'pith hat/helmet, light sun hat made of dried pith of marrow.

pithy adj (-ier, -iest) (a) of, like, full of, pith. (b) full of meaning: ~y remarks.

pith-ily /-əlɪ/ adv

piti-able /'pɪtiəbl/ adj arousing pity; deserving to be disliked: a ~ attempt.

piti-ably /-əblɪ/ adv

piti-ful /'pɪtɪfəl/ adj 1 feeling, showing, pity. 2 causing pity: a ~ sight. 3 arousing dislike.

piti-fully /-fəli/ adv

piti-less /'pɪtlɪs/ adj showing no pity.

piti-less-ly adv

pi-ton /'piːtən/ n [C] (Fr) metal spike driven into rock, with a hole for rope, used as a hold in mountain climbing.

pit-tance /'pɪtəns/ n [C] low, insufficient amount, payment: work all day for a ~.

pitter-patter /'pɪtə pætə(r)/ n [U] rapid succession of light sounds: the ~ of rain.

pi-tu-itary /'piːtjuːɪtəri/ US: -tuːətəri/ n [C] (pl -ies) (also ~ gland) small gland at the base of the brain, giving hormones that influence growth, etc.

pity /'pɪti/ (pl -ies) 1 [U] feeling of sorrow for the troubles, sufferings, etc of another person: be filled with/feel ~ for her. have/take pity on sb, help a person in trouble, etc. for pity's sake, (used when asking for urgent action, a decision, etc): For ~'s sake try to stop this persecution. out of pity, because of a feeling of pity: I did it out of ~ for her seven children. 2 (with a, an, but not in pl) (event which gives) cause for regret or sorrow: What a ~ (= How unfortunate) (that) you can't come with us! more's the pity, unfortunately. □ vt (pt, pp -ied) feel genuine (but often used to show disrespect) pity for: I ~ you having such an ugly wife.

pivot /'pɪvət/ n [C] 1 central pin or point on which something turns. 2 (fig) something on which an argument or discussion depends. □ vt, vi turn (as) on a pivot.

pixy, pixie /'pɪksɪ/ n [C] (pl -ies) small elf or fairy.

pizza /'pɪtsə/ n [C,U] (It) (food made by baking a) layer of dough covered with a mixture of tomatoes, cheese, etc.

placard /'plækɑ:d/ n [C] written or printed announcement (to be) publicly displayed; poster. □ vt make known using a placard.

placate /'plækɪt/ US: 'pleɪkɪt/ vt = pacify.

place¹ /pleɪs/ n [C] 1 particular part of space (to be) occupied by a person or thing: I can't be in two ~s at once. all over the place, in disorder. in/out of place, (a) in/not in the right or proper place: I like to have everything in ~. (b) (fig) suitable/unsuitable: his remarks were out of ~. in place of, instead of. give place, yield. give place to, be succeeded by. put sb in his (proper) place; put oneself in sb's/in sb else's place, □ put(2). take the place of, be substituted for: Plastics have taken the ~ of many materials. take place, happen. □ also pride(1); swop. 2 city, town, village, etc: go to ~s and see things, travel as a tourist. 'go places, (informal) have increasing success. 3 building or area of land used for some particular purpose that is specified: a ~ of worship, a church, mosque etc; a ~ of business. 4 particular area on a surface: a sore ~ on my neck. 5 passage, part, in a book, etc: I've lost my ~. 6 rank or station (in society, etc). keep sb in his place, not allow him to be too familiar. 7 (in a race) position among those competitors who are winners: Whose horse got the first ~? 8 (sport) position in a team. 9 (maths) position of a figure in a series: calculated to two decimal ~s, eg 6.57. 10 single step or stage in an argument, etc: in the first/second ~. 11 office, employment, eg a government appointment; duties of an office-holder. 12 position as an undergraduate: get a ~ at Cambridge. 13 (informal) house or other residence, eg a flat: He has a nice little ~ in the country. Come round to my ~ one evening. 14 (in proper names) alternative name for Street, Square, etc in a town: St James's P~. 15 seat for one person in a theatre, restaurant, etc.

place² /pleɪs/ vt 1 put in a certain place; arrange (things) in their proper places: P ~ them in the right order. 2 appoint to a position: He was ~d in command of the Second Army. 3 invest (money): ~ £500 in Saving Bonds. 4 put (an order for goods, etc) with a business firm: ~ an order for books with the bookshop. 5 sell (unwanted goods) to a customer: How can we ~ all this surplus stock? 6 have: ~ confidence in a leader. 7 recognize by connecting a person with past experience: I know that man's face, but I can't ~ him. 8 (racing) state the position of runners, athletes, team members. be placed, be among the first three: The Duke's horse wasn't ~d.

placenta /plə'sentə/ n [C] (pl ~s)(med) organ lining the womb during pregnancy, by which the foetus is nourished.

placid /'plæsid/ adj calm; untroubled; (of a person) not easily irritated.

placidly adv

plagiarism /'pleɪdʒərɪzəm/ n [U] plagiarizing; [C] instance of this.

plagiarist /-ɪst/ n [C] person who plagiarizes.

plagiarize (also -ise) /'pleɪdʒəraɪz/ vt take and use somebody else's ideas, words, etc as if they were one's own.

plague /pleɪg/ n [C,U] 1 kind of fatal disease which spreads quickly: bubonic ~. 2 (fig) cause of serious trouble or disaster: a ~ of locusts/flies. □ vt annoy (with repeated requests or questions).

plaipe /pleɪs/ n [C] (pl unchanged) brown flatfish with spots, eaten as food.

plaid /plæd/ n 1 [C] long piece of woollen cloth worn over the shoulders by Scottish Highlanders. 2 [U] cloth with a chequered or tartan pattern.

plain¹ /pleɪn/ adj (-er, -est) 1 easy to see, hear or understand: ~ English. The meaning is quite ~. □ nose¹(1). 2 simple; ordinary; without luxury or ornament: ~ cooking; a ~ blue dress, without a pattern on it, or without trimmings, etc. in plain clothes, (esp of policemen) in ordinary clothes, not in uniform. 3 (of persons, their thoughts, actions, etc) straightforward; frank. 4 (of a person's appearance) not pretty or handsome: It's a pity his wife is so ~. □ adv clearly: learn to speak ~.

plain sailing, (fig) course of action that is simple and free from difficulties: After we engaged a guide, everything was ~ sailing.

plain-spoken adj frank in speech.

'plain-song/-chant, music for a number of voices together, used in the Anglican and Roman Catholic Church services.

plainly adv It was ~ly visible.

plainness n [U]

plain² /pleɪn/ n [C] area of level land: the wide ~s of Canada.

plain³ /pleɪn/ n [C] (knitting) basic stitch. □ purl, □ vt, vi knit this stitch.

plain-tiff /'pleɪntɪf/ n [C] person who brings an action at law. ⇨ defendant.

plain-tive /'pleɪntɪv/ adj sounding sad.

plain-tive-ly adv

plait /plæɪt/ vt weave or twist (lengths of hair, straw, etc) under and over one another into one length. □ n [C] something made by plaiting: wearing her hair in a ~.

plan /plæn/ n [C] 1 outline drawing (of or for a building) showing the relative size, positions, etc of the parts, esp as if seen from above: ~s for a new school. ⇨ elevation (4). 2 diagram (of the parts of a machine). 3 diagram showing how a garden, park, town or other area of land has been, or is to be, laid out. (Note: map is used for a large area of land.) 4 arrangement for doing or using something, considered in advance: make ~s for the school holidays. go according to plan, happen as planned. □ vt (-nn-) make a plan (of, for, to): ~ a house/a holiday/a military campaign. We're ~ning to visit London this summer.

plan-ner, one who makes plans, esp (3).

plane 1 /pleɪn/ n [C] one of several kinds of tree (a ~tree) with spreading branches, broad leaves and thin bark.

plane 2 /pleɪn/ n [C] tool for trimming the surface of wood by taking shavings from it. □ vt, vi use a plane: planing wood.

plane 3 /pleɪn/ n [C] 1 flat or level surface; surface such that the straight line joining any points on it is touching it at all points. 2 wing or supporting surface of an aeroplane. 3 = aeroplane. 4 (fig) level or stage (of development, etc): on a higher social ~. □ adj perfectly level; lying in a plane: a ~ curve. □ vi plane (down), (of aeroplanes) travel, glide.

planet /'plæɪnɪt/ n [C] one of the heavenly bodies (eg Mars, Venus) which move round a star such as the sun and are illuminated by it.

plan-et-ary /'plæɪnɪtri/ US: -teri/ adj plank /plæŋk/ n [C] 1 long, flat piece of timber. walk the plank, (of a person captured by pirates in former times) be forced to walk blindfolded into the sea along a plank put over the ship's side. 2 basic principle in a political platform. □ vi cover (a floor, etc) with planks.

'plank-ing n [U] planks put down to form a floor.

plank-ton /'plæŋktən/ n [U] the very small forms of life that drift in or on the water of the oceans, lakes, rivers, etc.

plant 1 /plɑ:nt/ US: plænt/ n [C] 1 living organism which is not an animal, esp the kind smaller than trees and shrubs: 'garden ~s; a to'bac-co ~. 2 apparatus, fixtures, machinery, etc used in an industrial or manufacturing process: We get our tractors and bulldozers from a ~-hire firm. 3 (US) factory; buildings and equipment of an institution. 4 (sl) instance of planting (6). 5 person who joins criminals in order to get evidence against them.

plant 2 /plɑ:nt/ US: plænt/ vt 1 put plants, bushes, trees, etc in (a garden, etc): ~ a garden with rose-bushes. 2 (fig) cause (an idea) to form in the mind: ~ the idea of organizing a demonstration among the members. 3 place firmly in position; take up a position or attitude: He ~ed his feet firmly on the ground. 4 establish, found (a community, colony, etc). 5 deliver (a blow, etc) with deliberate aim: ~ a blow on his ear. 6 (sl) hide (esp in order to deceive, to cause an innocent person to seem guilty, etc): He ~ed the stolen pen in my room.

planter, (a) person who grows crops on a plantation: 'tea-~ers; 'rubber-~ers. (b) machine for planting: po'tato-~er.

plan-tain 1 /'plæntɪn/ n [C] tropical plant bearing fruit similar to the banana; its fruit, cooked as a vegetable.

plan-tain 2 /'plæntɪn/ n [C] common wild plant with broad leaves and seeds.

plan-ta-tion /plæn'teɪʃn/ n [C] 1 area of land planted with trees: ~s of fir and pine. 2 estate on which a cash crop is cultivated.

plaque /plɑ:k/ US: plæk/ n [C] flat metal or porcelain plate fixed on a wall as an ornament or memorial.

plasma /'plæzmə/ n [U] clear, yellowish fluid in which the blood-cells are carried.

plas-ter /'plɑ:stə(r)/ US: 'plæs-/ n 1 [U] soft mixture of lime, sand, water, etc used for coating walls and ceilings. 2 [C] piece of fabric spread with a medicinal substance, used to cover a wound, etc. □ vt 1 cover (a wall, etc) with plaster (1). 2 put a plaster (2) on (the body). 3 cover thickly: hair ~ed with oil.

'plaster of Paris, white paste that becomes very hard when dry, used for covering broken limbs etc.

'plaster cast, (a) mould made with gauze and plaster of Paris to hold a broken or dislocated bone in place. (b) mould (eg for a small statue) made of plaster of Paris.

'plaster-board, board made of plaster and cardboard, used for inside walls and ceilings.

plas-tered adj (informal) drunk.

plas-terer, workman who uses plaster (1).

plas-tic /'plæstɪk/ adj 1 (of materials) easily shaped or moulded: Clay is a ~ substance. 2 (of goods) made of plastic: ~ raincoats. 3 of the art of modelling: the ~ arts. 4 (fig) easily influenced or changed: the ~ mind of a child. □ n [C, U] (kinds of) man-made material which can be shaped or moulded and which keeps its shape when hard.

'plastic surgery, for the restoration of deformed or diseased parts of the body (by grafting skin, etc).

plas-tics n pl (used with a sing verb) (science of) plastic substances, esp man-made materials.

plas-tic-ity /plæ'stɪsɪti/ n [U] state or quality of being plastic (1).

plas-ti-cine /'plæstisi:n/ n [U] (P) substance like clay used for modelling.

plate¹ /pleɪt/ n 1 [C] shallow, almost flat dish from which food is served or eaten: a 'dinner/soup/dessert ~; contents of this: a ~ of beef and vegetables. hand/give sb sth on a plate, (informal) give him something without his having to make any effort. 2 [U] (collective) gold or silver articles, eg spoons, dishes, bowls. ⇨ *late*²(2). 3 [C] flat, thin sheet of metal, glass, etc eg for building ships: 'boiler ~s. 4 [C] sheet of glass coated with sensitive film for photography: 'whole-~, 'half-~, 'quarter-~, the usual sizes. 5 [C] oblong piece of metal with a person's name, etc on it (as used by professional persons). 6 sheet of metal, plastic, rubber, etc from which the pages of a book are printed; book illustration printed separately from the text. 7 thin piece of plastic material, moulded to the shape of the gums, with artificial teeth attached to it. 8 (baseball) (also home ~) home base of the batting side.

plate-ful /-fʊl/, as much as a plate can hold.

plate² /pleɪt/ vt 1 cover (esp a ship) with metal plates(3). 2 cover (another metal) with gold, silver, copper or tin: silver-~d spoons.

pla-teau /'plætəʊ US: 'plætəʊ/ n [C] (pl ~s or ~x /-təʊz/) expanse of level land high above sea-level.

plat-form /'plætfɔ:m/ n [C] 1 flat surface built at a higher level than the track in a railway station, where travellers wait: Which ~ does your train leave from? 2 flat structure raised above floor-level for speakers, teachers in a classroom, etc. 3 space at the entrance of a bus or tram (for the conductor). 4 programme of a political party, esp as stated before an election.

plat-ing /'pleɪtɪŋ/ n [U] (esp) thin coating of gold, silver, etc. ⇨ *plate*²(2).

plati-num /'plætinəm/ n [U] grey metal (symbol Pt) used for jewellery and mixed with other metals for use in industry.

plati-tude /'plætrɪtju:d US: -tʊd/ n 1 [C] statement that is obviously true, esp one often heard before, but made as if it were new. 2 [U] quality of being dull and ordinary.

plati-tudi-nous /'plætrɪtju:dɪnəs US: -'tu:-/ adj dull and ordinary: ~ remarks.

Pla-tonic /'plæ'tonɪk/ adj of Plato or his teachings: ~ love/friendship, between a man and a woman, without physical love.

pla-toon /'plæ'tu:n/ n [C] body of soldiers, subdivision of a company, acting as a unit and commanded by a lieutenant.

plat-ter /'plætə(r)/ n [C] (US) large, shallow dish for serving food, esp meat and fish.

platy-pus /'plætipəs/ n ⇨ duck-billed platypus.

plau-dit /'plɔ:dɪt/ n [C] (usually pl) (formal) cry, clapping or other sign of approval: grati- fied at the ~s of the audience.

plaus-ible /'plɔ:zəbl/ adj seeming to be right or reasonable: a ~ excuse/explanation.

plaus-ibly /-əblɪ/ adv

play¹ /pleɪ/ n 1 [C] (performance of a) representation, acting, of a story, etc on a stage, TV, etc. 2 [U] (what is done for) amusement; recreation: The children are at ~, playing. a play on 'words, = pun. 3 [U] the (manner of) playing of a game: rough ~ in a football match. in/out of play, (of the ball in football, cricket, etc) in/not in a position where the rules of the game allow it to be played. ⇨ fair play. 4 (sing only) turn or move in sport or in a game (eg chess): It's your ~. 5 [U] gambling: lose £50 in one evening's ~; 6 [U] light, quick, movement: the ~ of sunlight on water. 7 [U] (space for) free and easy movement; scope for activity: give free ~ to one's emotions; a knot with too much ~, one that is not tight enough. 8 [U] activity; operation: the ~ of natural forces. be in full play/come into play, begin to operate or be active. bring sth into play, make use of it; bring it into action. 9 [C] pretence: My tears were a ~ to get your sympathy.

'play-acting, (fig) pretence.

'play-boy, rich pleasure-loving man.

'play-goer, person who often goes to the theatre.

'play-group, school for children under 5.

'play-ground, area of ground at a school, etc for children to play.

'play-house, = theatre.

'play-mate, (of children) friend one plays with.

'play-pen, portable enclosure for a baby to be left to play.

'play reading, recital of the text of a play by a group.

'play-room, one in a house for children to play in.

'play-school, = playgroup.

'play-suit, article of clothing (trousers and bib) for children.

'play-thing, (a) toy. (b) (fig) person treated like a toy.

'play-time, period for play.

'play-wright, person who writes plays.

play² /pleɪ/ vt, vi (pt, pp ~ed /pleɪd/) (For special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions, ⇨ 14 below.) 1 (contrasted with work) have fun; do things to pass the time pleasantly, as children do: Let's go out and ~. She was ~ing with the kitten. 2 pretend, for fun, to be or do: Let's ~ (at being) pirates. 3 practice, do: He has played a trick on me. play it cool, ⇨ *cool*¹(2). play with fire, take foolish risks. play into sb's hands, ⇨ *hand*¹(3). play hell with, ⇨ hell(2). play the market, ⇨ *market*¹(4). play for time, ⇨ *time*¹(3). play truant, ⇨ truant. 4 (be able to) take part in a game, eg of football, golf, cards: He ~s (football) for Stoke/England. On Saturday France ~ (rugby) against Wales/~ Wales at rugby. 5 fill a particular position in a team: Who's ~ing in goal? Who shall we ~ as goalkeeper? 6 (cricket, football, etc) strike (the ball) in a specified way: In soccer only the goalkeeper may ~ the ball with his hands. play ball, ⇨ ball¹ (1). 7 move (a chesspiece); lay a card on the table: ~ the ace of hearts. play one's cards well/-right/badly, (fig) make good/bad use of opportunities. play fair, ⇨ fair². play the game, ⇨ game² (1). 8 perform on (a musical instrument), perform (a musical composition): ~ the piano; ~ a Beethoven sonata. play second fiddle (to), ⇨ fiddle (1). play sth by ear, ⇨ ear¹ (2). 9 operate a record-player, tape-recorder, etc: ~ a disc/tape. play sth back, reproduce (music, speech, etc) from a tape or disc after it has been recorded. Hence, 'play-back n (a) the device on a tape-recorder which plays back recorded material. (b) occasion when this is done. 10 perform (a drama on the stage); act (a part in a drama); (of a drama) be performed: ~ 'Twelfth Night'; ~ Shylock; the National Theatre, where 'Hamlet' is now ~ing, ~ being played. play the fool, ⇨ fool. 11 move about in a gentle, lively manner; direct (light) (on, over, along, etc): sunlight ~ing on the water. They ~ed coloured lights over the dance floor. 12 operate continuously; send out in a steady stream: The firemen ~ed their hoses on the burning building. 13 fire: We ~ed our guns on the enemy's lines. 14 (special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions): play at sth, (a) ⇨ 2 above. (b) do in a half-hearted way, or merely for pleasure: Fight properly—you're only ~ing at boxing! play sth back, ⇨ 8 above. play down to sb, deliberately talk to or behave towards him so that he does not feel inferior, in order to win support or favour. play sth down, deliberately treat it as less important. play off, play again (eg a football) match that was drawn: ~ off a draw/tie. Hence, 'play-off n such a match. play one person off against another, encourage rivalry, esp for one's own advantage. play 'on, continue to take part (in a sport, etc). play on sth, try to make use of (a person's feelings, trust, etc) for one's own advantage: He tried to ~ on her sympathies. play sth out, (fig) play it to the finish: The long struggle between the strikers and their employers is not yet ~ed out. be played out, be exhausted, used up; be out of date: Isn't that theory ~ed out, no longer worth considering? play up, (a) (esp in the imperative) (sport) play vigorously, energetically. (b) (informal) be naughty: Don't let the children ~ up. play sth up, deliberately treat it with too much importance: Don't let him ~ up his illness, eg by making it an excuse for doing nothing.

play sb up, (informal) give trouble to: My wretched car/bad tooth has been ~ing me up again. play up to sb, (informal) flatter (to win favour for oneself): He always ~s up to his boss.

play with sb/sth, (a) ⇨ 1 above. (b) treat, think about, casually: It's wrong for a man to ~ with a woman's affections. He's ~ing with the idea of emigrating to Canada.

player /'pleɪə(r)/ n [C] person who plays a game.

play-ful /'pleɪfl/ adj in a mood for play; not serious: as ~ as a kitten; in a ~ manner.

play-fully /-fəli/ adv

playing-card /'pleɪŋ kɑ:d/ n [C] ⇨ card (3).

play-ing field /'pleɪŋ fi:ld/ n [C] field for such games as football and cricket.

play-let /'pleɪlt/ n [C] short dramatic piece.

plaza /'plæzə/ US: 'plæzə/ n [C] (pl ~s) market-place; open square (esp in a Spanish town).

plea /pli:/ n [C] 1 (legal) statement made by or for a person charged in a law court. 2 request: ~s for mercy. 3 reason or excuse offered for doing wrong or failing to do something, etc.

plead /pli:d/ vt, vi (pt, pp ~ed, or US pled, /pled/) 1 address a court of law on behalf of either the plaintiff or the defendant: ~ for/against her. 2 admit or deny that one is guilty: 'How do you ~?' Did you ~ not guilty? 3 offer as an explanation or excuse: The thief ~ed poverty. 4 ask earnestly: He ~ed with his son to be less trouble to his mother. 5 argue in favour of; give reasons for (a cause, etc): ~ the cause of political freedom.

plead-ings n pl (legal) statements, replies to accusations, etc made by the parties in a legal action.

pleas-ant /'pleznt/ adj giving pleasure; agreeable; friendly: a ~ afternoon/taste/wine/surprise/companion.

pleas-ant-ly adv

pleas-ant-ness n [U].

pleas-ant-ry /'plezntri/ n (pl -ies) (formal) 1 [U] humour. 2 [C] humorous or informal remark.

please /pli:z/ vi, vt 1 (used as a polite form of request): Come in, ~. P ~ come in. Two coffees, ~. P ~ don't do that. 2 give satisfaction to: It's difficult to ~ everybody. Are you ~d with your new clothes? 3 think fit; choose; prefer: I shall do as I ~. Take as many as you ~.

pleased /pli:zd/ adj glad; feeling or showing satisfaction: He looked ~d with himself. I'm very ~d with what he has done.

pleas-ing /'pli:zɪŋ/ adj 1 giving pleasure (to). 2 attractive: a ~ design.

pleas-ing-ly adv

pleas-ure /'pleʒə(r)/ n 1 [U] feeling of enjoyment, of being happy or satisfied: It gave me such ~ to hear of your success. May we have the ~ of your company for lunch? Some boys take great ~ in teasing their little sisters. 2 [U] (formal) will; desire: You may go or stay at your ~, as you wish. 3 [C] something that gives happiness: the ~s of friendship.

'pleasure-boat/-craft, one used for enjoyment only.

pleas-ur-able /'pleʒərəbl/ adj giving enjoyment.

pleas-ur-ably /-əbl/ adv pleat /pli:t/ n [C] fold made by doubling cloth on itself. □ vt make pleats in: a ~ed skirt.

plebi-scite /'plebɪst/ US: -saɪt/ n [C] (decision made about a political question by) the votes of all qualified citizens.

plec-trum /'plektrəm/ n [C] small piece of metal, plastic, etc attached to the finger for plucking the strings of some instruments, eg the guitar.

pled /pled/ □ plead.

pledge /pledʒ/ n 1 [C] something left with a person to be kept until the giver has done whatever he has to do. 2 [U] state of being left on these conditions: put/hold goods in ~. 3 [C] something given as a sign of love, approval, etc. 4 [U] agreement; promise: under ~ of secrecy. take/sign the pledge, (esp) make a written promise not to take alcoholic drink. □ vt 1 give as security; put in pawn. 2 make an undertaking: be ~d to secrecy; ~ one's word/honour.

ple-nary /'pli:nəri/ adj 1 (of powers, authority) unlimited; absolute. 2 (of meetings) attended by all who have a right to attend: a ~ session.

pleni-po-ten-tiary /plenɪpə'tenʃəri/ n [C] (pl -ries), adj (person, eg a representative, an ambassador) having full power to act, make decisions, etc (on behalf of his government, etc).

plen-teous /'plɛntɪəs/ adj (chiefly poetic) plentiful.

plen-ti-ful /'plɛntɪfl/ adj in large quantities or numbers.

plen-ti-fully /-fəli/ adv

plenty /'plɛnti/ n [U] as much as or more than is needed or desired; a large number or quantity: There are ~ of eggs. We must get to the station in ~ of time. Six will be ~, as many as I need.

pleth-ora /'pleθərə/ n [C] (pl ~s) (formal) 1 (unhealthy) state of being too much or too many; excess. 2 (med) state of having too many red corpuscles in the blood.

pleur-isy /'pljuəri:si/ n [U] serious illness with inflammation of the delicate membrane of the thorax and the lungs.

plexus /'pleksəs/ n [C] (pl ~es /-səz/ or ~) (anat) network of fibres or vessels in the body: the solar ~, in the abdomen.

pli-able /'plaɪəbl/ adj 1 easily bent, shaped or twisted. 2 (of the mind) easily influenced.

pli-abil-ity /'plaɪə'bɪləti/ n [U] pli-ant /'plaɪənt/ adj = pliable.

pli-ers /'plaɪəz/ n pl (also a pair of ~) kind of pincers with long, flat jaws, used for holding, bending or cutting wire, etc.

plight¹ /plaɪt/ n [C] serious and difficult condition: His affairs were in a terrible ~.

plight² /plaɪt/ vt 1 (formal) promise: one's ~ed word. 2 (archaic) engage oneself to be married: ~ed lovers.

plim-soll /'plɪmsəl/ n [C] (also a pair of ~s) rubber-soled canvas shoe (US = sneaker).

Plim-soll line /'plɪmsəl laɪn/ n [C] line on the hull of a ship to mark how far it may legally go down in the water when loaded.

plinth /plɪnθ/ n [C] square base or block on which a column or statue stands.

plod /plɒd/ vi, vt (-dd-) 1 walk slowly with a heavy step. 2 continue working, etc slowly and without resting: ~ away at a task.

plod-der, (a) person who plods(1). (b) slow but earnest person.

plod-ding adj

plonk¹ /plɒŋk/ n [C] dull sound of something dropping: the ~ of a shoe falling down the stairs. □ adv with this sound. □ vi put down with a plonking sound: ~ the book down on the table.

plonk² /plɒŋk/ n [U] (sl) cheap wine.

plop /plɒp/ n [C] sound (as) of a small smooth object dropping into water without a splash. □ adv with a plop. □ vi (-pp-) make, fall with, a plop.

plot¹ /plɒt/ n [C] piece of ground (usually small): a 'building ~; a ~ of vegetables. □ vt, vi (-tt-) 1 make a plan, map or diagram of. 2 mark (the position of something) on a diagram by connecting points on a graph. 3 divide into plots: ~ out a vegetable garden.

plot² /plɒt/ n [C] 1 secret plan (good or bad): a ~ to overthrow the government. 2 plan or outline (of the events of a story, esp of a novel or drama). □ vt, vi (-tt-) form, take part in, a plot.

plot-ter, person who plots.

plough (US = plow) /plau/ n [C] 1 implement for cutting furrows in soil and turning it up, pulled by animals or (more usually) a tractor. 2 any kind of implement resembling a plough. 3 [U] ploughed land: 100 acres of ~. 4 the P~, (astron) the group of stars called Charles's Wain, the Dipper or the Great Bear. □ vt, vi 1 break up (land) with a plough: ~ a field. 2 (fig) reinvest: ~ back the profits of a business. 3 force a way through: ~ (one's way) through the mud/a dull textbook. 4 (informal) reject (a candidate) in an examination.

'plough-man /-mən/, man who guides a plough.

'plough-share, broad blade of a plough.

pllover /'plʌvə(r)/ n [C] sort of long-legged, short-tailed bird living near marshes.

plow /pləʊ/ (US) = plough.

play /pleɪ/ n [C] (informal) something said or done to gain an advantage over a person: crying as a ~ to gain sympathy.

pluck /plʌk/ vt, vi 1 pull the feathers off (a hen, goose, etc): Has this goose been ~ed? 2 pick (flowers, fruit, etc). 3 take hold of and pull: He was ~ing at his mother's skirt. 4 pluck up courage, overcome one's fears. □ n 1 [U] courage; spirit: a boy with plenty of ~. 2 [C] short, sharp pull.

plucky adj (-ier, -iest) brave.

plug /plʌɡ/ n [C] 1 piece of wood, metal, etc used to stop up a hole (eg in a wash-basin, bath, etc). 2 device for making a connection with a supply of electric current: put the ~ in the socket. ⇨ also sparking-plug. 3 cake of pressed or twisted tobacco; piece of this cut off for chewing. 4 (sl) favourable publicity (eg in a radio or TV programme) for a commercial product. ⇨ 4 below. □ vt, vi (-gg-) 1 stop or fill (up) with a plug: ~ a leak. 2 plug (sth) in, make a connection with a plug (2): ~ in the TV set. 3 (informal) plug away at, work hard at. 4 (sl) advertise (something) repeatedly: ~ a new song, eg on radio or TV.

plum /plʌm/ n [C] 1 (tree having) soft round, smooth-skinned fruit with a seed like a stone. 2 (informal) (used as an adjective) considered good and desirable: a ~ job in the Civil Service.

plum pudding, rich, brown fruit pudding, boiled or steamed.

plumage /'plʌmɪdʒ/ n [U] bird's feathers: brightly coloured ~.

plumb /plʌm/ n [C] ball or piece of lead tied to the end of a cord or rope (a ~line) for finding the depth of water or testing whether a wall is vertical. □ adv 1 exactly: ~ straight. 2 (US) (informal) very: ~ crazy. □ vi (fig) get to the root of: ~ the depths of a mystery.

plumber /'plʌmə(r)/ n [C] workman who fits and repairs pipes.

plumbing /'plʌmɪŋ/ n [U] 1 the work of a plumber. 2 the pipes, water-tanks, cisterns, etc in a building.

plume /plʌm/ n [C] 1 feather, esp a large one used as a decoration. 2 something suggesting a feather by its shape: a ~ of smoke. □ vi (of a bird) smooth (its feathers).

plumb-met /'plʌmɪt/ n [C] (weight attached to a) plumb-line or to a fishing-line to keep the float upright. □ vi (-tt-) fall steeply: Share prices have ~ed.

plump 1 /plʌmp/ adj (of an animal, a person, parts of the body) fat in a pleasant-looking way: a baby with ~ cheeks. □ vt, vi make or become rounded: She ~ed up the pillows.

plump 2 /plʌmp/ vi, vi 1 (cause to) fall or drop, suddenly and heavily: ~ (oneself) down in a chair; ~ down a heavy bag. 2 vote for, choose, with confidence: ~ for the Liberal candidate. □ adv suddenly, abruptly: fall ~ into the hole. □ n [C] abrupt, heavy fall.

plunder /'plʌndə(r)/ vt, vi rob, esp during war or civil disorder: ~ (the citizens of) a conquered town. □ n [U] goods taken.

plunge /plʌndʒ/ vt, vi 1 put (something), or go suddenly and with force, into: plunging one's hand into cold water; ~ a country into war. 2 (of a horse) move forward and downward quickly; (of a ship) thrust its bows into the water. □ n [C] act of plunging (eg from a diving-board into water). take the plunge, (fig) do something decisive, eg marry.

plunger, (a) part of a mechanism that moves with a plunging motion, eg the piston of a pump. (b) suction device for clearing a blocked pipe.

plunk /plʌŋk/ = plonk 1.

plu-per-fect /'plʌ:pfɜ:kt/ n the pluperfect (tense), (gram) verb form showing action completed before some past time, stated or implied, using had and a pp, as in 'As he had not received my letter, he did not come'.

plu-ral /'plʌərəl/ n [C], adj (form of word) used with reference to more than one: 'The ~ of child is children' (marked pl in this dictionary).

plus /plʌs/ prep with the addition of: Two ~ five is seven, $2 + 5 = 7$. □ adj: a ~ quantity, one greater than zero. ⇨ minus. □ n [C] (pl ~ses) the sign +.

plush /plʌʃ/ (also plushy (-ier, -iest)) adj (sl) smart, rich: a ~(y) restaurant.

Pluto /'plʌ:təʊ/ n (astron) planet farthest from the sun.

plu-to-cracy /plʌ:'tɒkrəsi/ n [C, U] (pl -ies) (government by a) rich and powerful class.

plu-to-cratic /'plʌ:tɒkræt/ n [C] person who is powerful because of his wealth.

plu-to-cratic /'plʌ:tɒ'krætɪk/ adj plu-to-nium /plʌ:'təʊniəm/ n [U] (artificially produced) radioactive element (symbol Pu) used in nuclear reactors and weapons.

ply 1 /plaɪ/ n [C] 1 layer of wood or thickness of cloth: three-~ wood, made by sticking together three layers with the grain of each at a right angle to that of the next. 2 one strand in wool, rope, etc: four-~ wool.

'ply-wood, board(s) made by gluing together thin layers of wood.

ply 2 /plaɪ/ vt, vi (pt, pp plied, present participle plying) 1 (formal) work with (an instrument, eg a needle). 2 (of ships, buses, etc) go regularly to and from: ships that ~ between Glasgow and New York. 3 ply sb with sth, keep him constantly supplied with (food and drink); attack him constantly with (questions, arguments, etc).

pneu-matic /nju:'mætɪk/ US: nu:-/ adj 1 worked or driven by compressed air: ~ drills.

2 filled with compressed air: ~ tyres.

pneu-mati-cally /-kli/ adv

pneu-monia /nju:'mæniə US: nu:-/ n [U] serious illness with inflammation of one or both lungs.

poach¹ /pəʊtʃ/ vt cook (an egg) by cracking the shell and dropping the contents into boiling water.

poach² /pəʊtʃ/ vt, vi 1 (go on a person's property and) take (hares, pheasants, salmon, etc) illegally. 2 (fig) be active in some kind of work that another person believes is his own responsibility.

poacher, person who poaches.

pock /pɒk/ n [C] spot on the skin caused by smallpox.

'pock-marked, with marks (as) left after smallpox.

pocket /'pɒkɪt/ n [C] 1 small bag forming part of an article of clothing, for carrying things in. pick sb's pocket, steal from his pocket. ⇨ pickpocket. 2 (as an adjective) of a size suitable for a pocket: a ~ dictionary. 3 money. in/out of pocket, rich(er)/poor(er). 4 bag, hollow, eg a small cavity in the ground or in rock, containing gold or ore. 5 partial vacuum in the atmosphere (an 'air-~) affecting the flight of an aircraft; cavity of air (an 'air-~) in a mine²(1). 6 (isolated area occupied by) enemy forces, etc: ~s of resistance; ~s of unemployment in the Midlands. □ vt 1 put into one's pocket: He ~ed the money. 2 keep for oneself (often dishonestly): He ~ed half the profits.

'pocket-money, small sum given to children to spend on sweets, etc.

pocket-ful /-fʊl/ n [C] as much as a pocket can hold.

pod /pɒd/ n [C] long, green container for seeds of various plants, esp peas and beans. □ vt, vi (-dd-) 1 take (peas, etc) out of pods. 2 pod (up), form pods.

podgy /'pɒdʒi/ adj (-ier, -iest) (of a person) short and fat.

poem /'pəʊɪm/ n [C] piece of creative writing (often in verse form), eg one expressing deep feeling, one describing an experience, etc.

poet /'pəʊɪt/ n [C] writer of poems.

'poet laureate, poet appointed to write poems on great state or royal occasions.

poet-ess /'pəʊɪtɪs/ n [C] (rare) woman poet.

po-etic /pəʊ'etɪk/ (also po-eti-cal /-ɪkl/) adj of poets and poetry: ~ genius.

po,etic 'justice, ideal justice, with proper distribution of rewards and punishments.

po,etic 'licence, freedom from the normal rules of language (as in poetry).

po-eti-cally /-kli/ adv

po-etry /'pəʊɪtri/ n [U] 1 the art of a poet; poems. 2 quality that produces feelings as produced by poems: the ~ of motion, eg in some kinds of athletics.

po-grom /'pɒgrəm US: pə'grom/ n [C] organized persecution or killing (of a group or class of people).

poign-nancy /'pɔɪnjənsi/ n [U] (formal) state or quality of being poignant.

poign-ant /'pɔɪnjənt/ adj (formal) causing sad feelings: ~ memories.

poign-ant-ly adv

point¹ /pɔɪnt/ n 1 [C] sharp tip (of a pin, pencil, knife, etc). not to put too fine a point on it, ⇨ *fine*¹(6). 2 [C] tapering piece of land that stretches out into the sea, a lake, etc. 3 dot (as) made by the point of a pen, etc. ⇨ decimal point; full point. 4 [C] real or imaginary mark of position, in space of time: on the ~ of learning; a 'turning-~ in my career. at this point, at this place or moment. a point of view, (a) position from which something is viewed. (b) (fig) way of looking at a question.

be at the point of death, be dying. be on the point of doing sth, be about to do it.

if/when it comes to the point, if/when the moment for action or decision comes: When it came to the ~, he refused to help.

point of no return, ⇨ *return*¹(1). 5 [C] mark on a scale; unit of measuring: the 'boiling-~ of water.

possession is nine points of the law, is strong evidence in favour of the person in possession of something.

6 [C] unit of scoring in some games, sports and competitions. 7 [C] one of the thirty-two marks or divisions on the circumference of a compass. 8 [C] single item, detail, idea, etc:

There are several ~s on which we've agreed to differ. stretch a point, do what is not normal, eg when deciding something. 9 [C] chief idea or thought. come to/get to/reach the point, give the essential, relevant fact.

get/see/miss the point of sth, see/fail to understand: She missed the ~ of the joke.

make a point of doing sth, regard or treat it as important or necessary. take sb's point, (during a discussion) understand what a person is proposing, etc. (wander) off/away from the point, say something irrelevant. on a point of order, ⇨ *order*¹(4).

to the point, apt, relevant. 10 [U] no/not much point in doing sth, little reason for doing it: There's no ~ in protesting. It won't help. 11 [C] characteristic: What are her best ~s as a secretary? 12 (GB) socket or outlet for electric current. 13 (pl) tapering movable rails by which a train can move from one track to another. 14 [U] effectiveness: His remarks have no ~.

point² /pɔɪnt/ vt, vi 1 direct attention to; show the position or direction of; be a sign of: He ~ed to the door. All the evidence ~s to his guilt.

2 aim or direct (something): ~ing a gun at him.

3 point sth out, show; call or direct attention to: ~ out a mistake. Can you ~ (me) out the man you suspect? I must ~ out that the price is too high. 4 make a point (1) on (a pencil). 5 fill in the joints of (brickwork, etc) with mortar or cement, using a trowel to smooth the material.

pointed adj (a) (fig) directed definitely against a person or his behaviour: Jack was making ~ed comments about his neighbour's garden. (b) (of humour, etc) apt, relevant.

point-ed-ly adv

point-blank /ˌpɔɪnt 'blæŋk/ adj 1 (of a shot aimed, fired) at very close range: fired at ~ range. 2 (fig) (something said) in a manner that leaves no room for doubt: a ~ refusal. □ adv in such a manner: I asked him ~ whether he intended to help.

pointer /ˌpɔɪntə(r)/ n [C] 1 stick used to point to things on a map, etc. 2 indicator on a dial or balance. 3 short-haired hunting dog. 4 indication; piece of advice: The rise in unemployment is a ~ to the failure of her economic policies.

point-less /ˌpɔɪntlɪs/ adj 1 (fig) with little or no sense, aim or purpose: It seemed ~ to argue. 2 without points scored: a ~ draw.

point-less-ly adv: argue ~ly.

poise /pɔɪz/ vt, vi 1 be or keep balanced: ~d in mid-air. 2 balance; support in a particular place or manner: Note the way the dancer ~s his head. □ n 1 [U] balance, equilibrium. 2 [C] way in which one carries oneself, holds one's head, etc. 3 [U] self-confidence.

poi-son /ˌpɔɪzn/ n [C, U] 1 substance causing death or harm if absorbed by a living thing (animal or plant): ~ for killing weeds; commit suicide by taking ~. 2 (fig) evil principle, teaching, etc considered harmful to society. □ vt 1 put poison on or in: ~ the rats. 2 (fig) injure morally: ~ somebody's mind against another person.

pois-oner, (esp) person who murders by using poison.

pois-on-ous /ˌpɔɪzənəs/ adj (a) causing death or injury: ~ous plants. (b) hurting the feelings, a reputation, etc: a man with a ~ous tongue.

pois-on-ous-ly adv

poke /pəʊk/ vt, vi 1 push sharply (with a stick, one's finger, etc): ~ a man in the ribs; ~ the fire, move the coals to make the fire burn better. 2 put, move (something) with a sharp push: Don't let him ~ his head out of the (train) window—it's dangerous! poke fun at sb, try to make him look foolish. ⇨ nose¹(1). 3 search: Who's that poking about in the garden? 4 make (a hole) by poking. □ n [C] act of poking.

poker¹ /ˈpəʊkə(r)/ n [C] strong metal rod or bar for moving or breaking coal in a fire.

poker² /ˈpəʊkə(r)/ n [U] card-game for two or more persons in which the players gamble on the value of the cards they hold.

poky /ˈpəʊki/ adj (-ier, -iest) (of a place) too small: a ~ little room.

po-lar /ˈpəʊlə(r)/ adj 1 of or near the North or South Pole. 2 directly opposite.

polar bear, the white kind living in the north polar regions.

po-lar-ity /pəʊˈlærəti/ n [U] possession of two contrasted or opposite qualities, principles or tendencies.

po-lar-ize (also -ise) /ˈpəʊləraɪz/ vt cause to centre on two opposite, conflicting or contrasting positions: Inflation has ~d the parties' manifestos for the election.

po-lar-ization (also -isation) /ˌpəʊləraɪˈzeɪʃn/ n [U] po-lar-oid /ˈpəʊləroɪd/ n [U] thin transparent film used in sun-glasses, etc to lessen sun glare.

pole¹ /pəʊl/ n [C] 1 either of the two ends of the earth's axis: the North P~; the South P~. 2 = magnetic pole. 3 North P~, South P~, (astron) two points in the night sky about which the stars appear to turn. 4 either of the two ends of a magnet or the terminal points of an electric battery: the negative/positive ~. 5 (fig) each of two opposed principles, etc. be poles apart, be opposite: The employers and the trade union leaders are still ~s apart, are far from reaching an agreement, etc.

'pole star, the North Star almost coinciding with true north.

pole² /pəʊl/ n [C] 1 long, slender, rounded piece of wood or metal, eg as a support for a tent, as a handle for a broom, etc. up the pole, (sl) (a) in difficulty. (b) slightly mad; eccentric. 2 measure of length (also called rod or perch), 5½ yds or about 5 metres.

'pole-jumping, (athletic contest) jumping with the help of a long pole held in the hands.

'pole-vault, jump of this kind over a bar which can be raised or lowered.

pole-cat /ˈpəʊlkæt/ n [C] small, dark-brown, fur-covered European animal which gives off an unpleasant smell.

pol-emic /pəˈlemɪk/ n 1 [C] (formal) dispute; argument. 2 (pl) art or practice of arguing, esp in theology. □ adj of polemics.

pol-emi-cally /-klɪ/ adv

po-lice /pəˈliːs/ n (always sing in form, used with the and a pl verb) department, body of men, concerned with the keeping of public order: the ~, the members of this body; Several hundred ~ were on duty at the demonstration. The ~ have not made any arrests. □ vt keep order in (a place) (as) with police: United Nations forces ~d the Gaza Strip for a long time.

pol-ice-man /-mən/, member of a police force.

pol-ice constable, policeman of ordinary rank.

pol-ice force, the police of a country or region.

pol-ice officer, policeman.

pol'ice state, country controlled by political police.

pol'ice station, office of a local police force: I was taken to the ~ station.

pol'ice-woman, woman police officer.

pol-icy¹ /'pɒləsi/ n (pl -ies) 1 [C] plan of action, statement of aims and ideals, eg one made by a government, political party, business company, etc: Is honesty the best ~? 2 [U] wise, sensible conduct; art of government.

pol-icy² /'pɒləsi/ n [C] written statement of the terms of a contract of insurance: an in'surance ~; a ~-holder.

po-lio /'pɒliəʊ/ n [U] (informal abbr for poliomyelitis).

po-lio-mye-litis /,pɒliəʊ,maɪə'laɪtɪs/ n [U] infectious disease with inflammation of the grey matter of the spinal cord, often resulting in physical disablement.

polish /'pɒlɪʃ/ vt, vi 1 make or become smooth and shiny by rubbing (with or without a chemical substance): ~ furniture/shoes. 2 improve in behaviour, intellectual interests, etc. 3 (pp) make refined or elegant: a ~ed speech. 4 finish quickly: ~ off a large meal. □ n 1 [U] (surface, etc obtained by) polishing: shoes/tables with a good ~. 2 [C] substance used for polishing: 'shoe/'furniture ~. 3 [U] (fig) refinement; elegance.

pol-it-buro /pə'litbjʊərəʊ/ n [C] (pl ~s) chief executive committee of a (Communist) party.

pol-ite /pə'laɪt/ adj having, showing the possession of, good manners and consideration for other people: a ~ boy; a ~ remark.

pol-ite-ly adv

pol-ite-ness n [U]

poli-tic /'pɒlətɪk/ adj 1 (of persons) acting or judging wisely. 2 (of actions) well judged: a ~ remark at the conference.

the body 'politic, the state as an organized group of citizens.

pol-iti-cal /pə'litɪkəl/ adj 1 of the State; of government; of public affairs in general: for ~ reasons. 2 because of politics: a ~ crisis; ~ prisoners.

political a'sylum, protection given by a Government to a person who has left his own country for political reasons.

political e'conomy, science of economics.

political 'prisoner, one who is imprisoned because he opposes the (system of) government.

political science, study of government and politics.

political surgery, ⇨ surgery (3).

po-liti-cally /-klɪ/ adv

poli-ti-cian /,pɒlə'tɪʃn/ n [C] person taking part in politics or very interested in politics: party ~s.

poli-tics /'pɒlətɪks/ n pl (used with a sing or pl verb) the science or art of government; political views, affairs, questions, etc: Is ~ taught at the school? What are your ~?

pol-ity /'pɒləti/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] form or process of government. 2 [C] society as an organized State.

polka /'pɒlkə US: 'pɒlka/ n [C] (piece of music, of E European origin, for a) lively kind of dance.

poll¹ /'pɒl/ n [C] 1 voting at an election; list of voters; counting of the votes; place where voting takes place: a light/heavy ~, voting by a small/large number of voters. go to the polls, vote (in an election). 2 survey of public opinion by putting questions to a representative selection of persons. ⇨ opinion poll.

poll² /'pɒl/ vt, vi 1 vote at an election. 2 receive (a certain number of) votes: Mr Hill ~ed over 3000 votes.

'poll-ing-booth/-station, place where voters go to vote.

'poll-ing-day, day appointed for a poll.

pol-len /'pɒlən/ n [U] fine powder (usually yellow) formed on flowers which fertilizes other flowers when carried to them by the wind, insects, etc.

'pollen count, figure of the amount of pollen in the atmosphere.

pol-lin-ate /'pɒlɪneɪt/ vt make fertile with pollen.

pol-li-na-tion /,pɒlɪ'neɪʃn/ n [U] poll-ster /'pɒlstə(r)/ n [C] person who conducts public opinion polls.

pol-lute /'pɒlʊt/ vt 1 make dirty, impure: rivers ~d with waste from factories. 2 (fig) make immoral: polluting young minds.

pol-lu-tant /-ənt/, anything that pollutes, eg exhaust fumes from motor-vehicles.

pol-lu-tion /pə'lu:ʃn/ n [C, U] polo /'pɒləʊ/ n [U] ball game played on horseback with mallets. ⇨ water-polo.

'polo-neck, (having) a rolled collar: ~neck 'sweaters.

poly- /pɒli-/ prefix many: polygamy.

poly-ester /,pɒli'estə(r)/ n [U] type of synthetic fabric, like cotton.

poly-ga-mist /pə'ligəməst/ n [C] man who practises polygamy.

poly-ga-mous /pə'ligəməs/ adj of, practising, polygamy.

poly-gamy /pə'ligəmə/ n [U] custom of having more than one wife at the same time.

poly-glot /'pɒlɪglɒt/ adj knowing, using, written in, many languages. □ n [C] polyglot person or book.

poly-gon /'pɒlɪɡən US: -ɡɒn/ n [C] plane figure with five or more straight sides.

poly-mor-phous /,pɒli'mɔ:fəs/, (also polymor-phic /-fɪk/) adj having, passing through, many stages (of development, growth, etc).

poly-sty-rene /,pɒli'stairi:n/ n [U] light plastic material.

poly-tech-nic /,pɒli'teknɪk/ n [C] institution for advanced full-time and part-time education, esp of scientific and technical subjects: Manchester P~.

poly-theism /'pɒlɪθi:zəm/ n [C] belief in, worship of, more than one god.

poly-theis-tic /'pɒlɪθi:'ɪstɪk/ adj poly-thene /'pɒlɪθi:n/ n [U] plastic material widely used for waterproof packaging, insulation, etc.

pom-egran-ate /'pɒmɪgrænɪt/ n [C] (tree with) thick-skinned round fruit which, when ripe, has a reddish centre full of seeds.

pom-mel /'pʌml/ n [C] 1 the tall part at the front of a saddle. 2 rounded knob on the hilt of a sword. □ vt (-ll-, US also -l-) = pummel.

pomp /pɒmp/ n [U] splendid display, magnificence, esp at a public event: the ~ and ceremony of the State Opening of Parliament.

pom-pos-ity /pɒm'pɒsɪti/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] being pompous. 2 [C] instance of this.

pom-pous /'pɒmpəs/ adj full of, showing, (too much) self-importance: a ~ official.

pon-cho /'pɒntʃəʊ/ n [C] (pl ~s) large piece of cloth with a slit in the middle for the head, worn as a cloak.

pond /pɒnd/ n [C] small area of water, eg for ducks, children's boats, etc.

pon-der /'pɒndə(r)/ vt, vi ponder (over), think about: He ~ed over the incident.

pon-der-ous /'pɒndərəs/ adj 1 heavy; bulky: ~ movements, eg of a fat man. 2 (of style) dull; laboured.

pon-der-ous-ly adv

pong /pɒŋ/ n [C] (sl) bad smell. □ vi smell badly.

pon-tiff /'pɒntɪf/ n [C] 1 the Pope. 2 (old use) bishop; chief priest.

pon-tifi-cal /'pɒntɪfɪkl/ adj 1 of or relating to the Pope; papal. 2 authoritative (in a pompous way). □ n (pl) vestments and insignia used by bishops and cardinals at some church functions and ceremonies.

pon-tifi-cate /'pɒntɪfɪkeɪt/ n [C] office of a pontiff, esp of the Pope; period of this. □ vi speak, act, pompously.

pon-toon¹ /'pɒn'tu:n/ n [C] 1 flat-bottomed boat. 2 many of these or a similar metal structure, supporting a roadway over a river: a ~ bridge. 3 either of two supports shaped like boats that enable a sea-plane to come down on, and take off from, water.

pon-toon² /'pɒn'tu:n/ n [U] kind of card-game.

pony /'pɒni/ n [C] (pl -ies) horse of small breed, used by children for riding.

'pony-trekking, the making of a journey for pleasure on ponies.

poodle /'pu:dl/ n [C] kind of dog with thick curling hair, often clipped and shaved into patterns.

pooh /pu:/ int (used to indicate impatience or contempt or that there is a bad smell).

pool¹ /pu:l/ n [C] 1 small area of water (smaller than a pond). 2 quantity of water or other liquid lying on a surface: He was lying in a ~ of blood. 3 = swimming pool.

pool² /pu:l/ n [C] 1 total of money staked by a number of gamblers. 2 (pl) = football pools: win a fortune on the ~s. 3 arrangement by business firms to share business and divide profits, to avoid competition and agree on prices. 4 common fund, supply or service, provided by or shared among many: a 'typing ~. 5 [U] (US) = snooker. □ vt put (money, resources, etc) together for the use of all who contribute: They ~ed their savings and bought a car.

poop /pu:p/ n [C] (raised deck at the) stern of a ship.

poor /puə(r)/ adj (-er, -est) 1 having little money; not having and not able to get the necessities of life. 2 deserving or needing help or sympathy: The ~ little puppy had been abandoned. 3 small in quantity: a ~ supply of well-qualified science teachers; a country ~ in minerals. 4 low in quality: ~ soil; in ~ health.

the poor n pl poor people.

poor-ly /'puəli/ adj (informal) unwell: He's very ~ this morning. □ adv 1 in a poor manner; badly: ~ lit streets. 2 poorly off, having very little money: She's been ~ off since her husband died.

poor-ness /'puənɪs/ n [U] absence of some necessary quality or element: the ~ of the soil. (Note: poverty is used for having little or no money.)

pop¹ /pɒp/ n [C] 1 short, sharp, explosive sound: the ~ of a cork. 2 (informal) bottled drink with gas in it: a bottle of ~. □ adv with the sound of popping: I heard it go/The balloon went ~.

pop² /pɒp/ n [C] (informal) = father.

pop³ /pɒp/ adj (informal) (abbr for) popular: '~ music; '~ singers; '~ groups, (singers and players) (esp) those whose records sell in large numbers and who are most popular on radio, TV and in discotheques. □ n (informal) [U] pop music, etc; [C] pop song: top of the ~s, most popular record, etc during a given period of time.

'pop concert, of popular music.

'pop festival, large outdoor gathering of people to hear pop singers and musicians.

'pop star, famous pop singer or musician.

pop⁴ /pɒp/ vt, vi (-pp-) 1 (cause to) make a sharp, quick sound (as when a cork comes out of a bottle). 2 pop the question, (sl) propose marriage. 3 (sl) shoot: They were ~ping away at the wood-pigeons. 4 (uses with adverbial particles and prepositions):

pop across to, ⇨ pop over below.

pop in/out, (cause to) go or come in/out quickly (giving the idea of rapid or unexpected movement or activity): He ~ped his head in at the door. The neighbours' children are always ~ping in and out, are very frequent visitors.

pop sth into sth, quickly put it there: She ~ped the 'gin bottle into the cupboard as the vicar entered the room.

pop off, (a) go away. (b) (sl) die.

pop out of: His eyes almost ~ped out of his head when he saw that he had won.

pop over/across to, make a quick, short visit to: She's ~ped over/across to the grocer's.

pop up, (of toast, pictures in a book) spring up quickly: a ~up toaster/book.

'pop-corn, dried maize heated until it bursts open (eaten with honey, salt, etc).

'pop-eyed adj having eyes wide open (with surprise, etc).

pope /pəʊp/ n the P~, Bishop of Rome as head of the Roman Catholic Church.

pop-lar /'pɒplə(r)/ n [C] tall, straight, fast-growing tree; [U] its wood.

poppa /'pɒpə/ n (US) = papa.

poppy /'pɒpi/ n [C] (pl -pies) sorts of plant, wild and cultivated, with large flowers, esp red: 'opium ~, kind from which opium is obtained.

poppy-cock /'pɒpɪkɒk/ n [U] (GB sl) = nonsense.

popu-lace /'pɒpjʊləs/ n [C] (formal) the general public.

popu-lar /'pɒpjʊlə(r)/ adj 1 of or for the people: ~ government, by the elected majority of all those who have votes. 2 suited to the tastes, needs, educational level, etc of the general public: food at ~ (= low) prices. 3 liked and admired: ~ film stars; a man who is ~ with his neighbours. (⇒ pop³).

,popular 'front, (in politics) coalition of parties opposed to reaction and fascism.

popu-lar-ly adv

popu-lar-ity /'pɒpjʊləriəti/ n [U] quality of being popular (3).

popu-lar-ize (also -ise) /'pɒpjʊləraɪz/ vt make popular: ~ a new book.

popu-lar-iz-ation (also -isation) /'pɒpjʊləraɪzətʃn/ US: -rɪ'z-/ n [U] popu-late /'pɒpjuleɪt/ vt supply with people; inhabit; form the population of: the thickly ~d parts of India.

popu-la-tion /'pɒpjʊlə'teɪʃn/ n [C] (number of) people living in a place, country, etc or a special section of them: the ~ of London; the working-class ~.

por-ce-lain /'pɒ:səleɪn/ n [U] (articles, eg cups and plates, made of a) fine china with a coating of translucent material called glaze.

porch /pɔ:tʃ/ n [C] 1 built-out roofed doorway or entrance to a building. 2 (US) = veranda.

por-cu-pine /'pɒ:kjupain/ n [C] small animal covered with spines that the animal can stick out if attacked.

pore¹ /pɔ:(r)/ n [C] tiny opening (in the skin) through which fluids (eg sweat) may pass.

pore² /pɔ:(r)/ vi study something with close attention: poring over a letter/book.

pork /pɔ:k/ n [U] flesh of a pig (usually fresh, not salted or cured) used as food: a leg of ~; a ~ chop; roast ~. ⇨ bacon, ham(1).

porker, pig raised for food.

porn /pɔ:n/ n [U] (informal) (abbr of) pornography.

'porn shop, where pornographic books, etc are sold.

por-nogra-phy /pɔ:'nɒgrəfi/ n [U] treatment of obscene subjects, esp sexual perversions, in writing, pictures, etc; such writings, pictures, etc.

por-nogra-pher /pɔ:'nɒgrəfə(r)/ n [U] writer of pornography.

por-no-graphic /pɔ:'nɒ'græfɪk/ adj po-rous /'pɒ:rəs/ adj 1 having pores. 2 allowing liquid to pass through: Sand is ~.

por-poise /'pɒ:pəs/ n [C] sea-animal like a dolphin or small whale.

por-ridge /'pɒrɪdʒ/ US: 'pɔ:r-/ n [U] soft food made by boiling oatmeal in water or milk: a bowl/plate of ~.

port¹ /pɔ:t/ n [C] 1 harbour: a naval ~; reach ~. 2 town or city with a harbour, esp one where customs officers are stationed. free port, one open for the merchandise of all countries to load and unload in; one where there is exemption of duties for imports or exports. 3 (fig) refuge.

port² /pɔ:t/ n [C] (naut) opening in the side of a ship for entrance, or for loading and unloading cargo.

'port-hole, (a) opening in a ship's side for admission of light and air. (b) small glass window in the side of a ship or aircraft.

port³ /pɔ:t/ n [U] (naut) 1 left-hand side of a ship or aircraft as one faces forward: put the helm to ~. 2 (as a adjective): on the ~ bow/quarter. ⇨ starboard. □ vt turn (the ship's helm) to port.

port⁴ /pɔ:t/ n [U] strong (usually sweet) dark-red wine of Portugal.

port-able /'pɔ:təbl/ adj that can be carried about: ~ radios/typewriters.

port-abil-ity /'pɔ:tə'bɪləti/ n [U] being portable.

port-age /'pɔ:tɪdʒ/ n [C,U] (cost of) carrying goods, esp when (eg in forest country in Canada) goods have to be carried overland between two rivers or parts of a river; place where this is done.

por-tal /'pɔ:tl/ n [C] doorway, esp a large, elaborate one of a large building.

port-cul-lis /'pɔ:t'kʌlɪs/ n [C] (pl ~es) iron grating that was raised or lowered to protect the gateway of a castle.

por-tend /pɔ:'tend/ vt (formal) be a sign or warning of (a future event, etc): This ~s war.

por-tent /'pɔ:tent/ n [C] (formal) omen.

por-ten-tous /pɔ:'tentəs/ adj (formal) (a) ominous; threatening. (b) marvellous; extraordinary.

por-ten-tous-ly adv

por-ter¹ /'pɔ:tə(r)/ n [C] 1 person whose work is to carry luggage, etc at stations, airports, hotels, etc. 2 person carrying a load on his back or head (usually in country where there are no roads for motor-vehicles). 3 (US) attendant on a train.

por-ter² /'pɔ:tə(r)/ n [C] doorkeeper (at a hotel, public building, etc).

porter's lodge, (rooms in a) small house at the entrance to a college, etc.

por-ter³ /'pɔ:tə(r)/ n [U] dark-brown bitter beer.

por-ter-house /'pɔ:təhaʊs/ n [C] (~ steak), superior cut of beefsteak.

port-folio /'pɔ:t'fəʊliə/ n [C] (pl ~s) 1 flat case for keeping papers, documents, drawings, etc. 2 position and duties of a minister of state: He is minister without ~, not in charge of any particular department. 3 list of securities and investments (stocks, shares, etc) owned by a person, bank, etc.

port-hole n ⇨ port².

port-ico /'pɔ:tɪkəʊ/ n [C] (pl ~es or ~s) roof on columns, esp at the entrance of a building.

por-tion /'pɔ:ʃn/ n [C] 1 part, esp a share, (to be) given when something is distributed. 2 quantity of any kind of food served in a restaurant: a generous ~ of roast duck. 3 (formal, poetic) (sing) one's lot or fate: Brief life is here our ~. □ vt portion sth out (among/ between), share out (which is more usual).

port-ly /'pɔ:tlɪ/ adj round and fat (person): a ~ city councillor.

port-man-teau /'pɔ:t'mæntəʊ/ n [C] (pl ~s or ~x /-təʊz/) oblong, leather case for clothes, opening on a hinge into two equal parts.

por-trait /'pɔ:treɪt/ n [C] 1 painted picture, drawing, photograph, of a person or animal. 2 vivid description in words.

'por-trait-ist /-ɪst/, maker of portraits.

'por-trait-ure /-tʃə(r) US: -tʃʊə(r)/ n [U] art of making portraits.

por-tray /'pɔ:treɪ/ vt 1 make a picture of. 2 describe vividly in words. 3 act the part of (in a play).

por-tray-al /'pɔ:treɪəl/ n [U] portraying; [C] act at portraying.

pose /pəʊz/ vt, vi 1 put (a person) in a position before making a portrait, taking a photograph, etc: All the subjects are well ~ed. 2 pose for, take up a position (for a photograph, etc): Will you ~ for me? 3 put forward for discussion; create; cause: The increase in student numbers ~s many problems for the universities.

4 pose as, claim to be (esp deliberately): posing as an expert on old coins. 5 behave in an affected way hoping to impress people: She's always posing. □ n [C] 1 position taken up for a portrait, photograph, etc: an unusual ~. 2 unnatural way of behaving, intended to impress people: That rich man's socialism is a mere ~.

poser n [C] awkward or difficult question or problem.

posh /pɒʃ/ adj (informal) smart; first-class: a ~ hotel; ~ clothes; her ~ friends.

po-si-tion /'pəʊzɪʃn/ n 1 [C] place where a person or thing is or stands, esp in relation to others: find a ~ where one will get a good view of the procession. in/out of position, in/not in the right place. 2 [U] state of being well placed (in war or any kind of struggle): They were manoeuvring for ~. 3 [C] attitude or posture: sit/lie in a comfortable ~. 4 [C] person's place or rank in relation to others, in employment, in society, etc: a pupil's ~ in class; a high/low ~ in society. 5 [C] job; employment: apply for the ~ of assistant manager. 6 [C] condition; circumstances: I'm sorry but I am not in a ~ (= am unable) to help you. 7 [C] opinion: What's your ~ on this problem? □ vt 1 place in position. 2 find the position of.

posi-tive /'pɒzətɪv/ adj 1 definite; sure; leaving no room for doubt: I gave you ~ instructions. 2 (of persons) quite certain, esp about opinions: Are you ~ (that) it was after midnight? 3 practical and constructive; that definitely helps: a ~ suggestion; ~ help; ~ criticism. 4 (informal) complete: That man is a ~ fool. 5 (maths) greater than zero. 6 (of electricity) of the sort caused by deficiency of electrons: a ~ charge. 7 (photography) showing light and shadows as in nature, not reversed (as in a negative). 8 (gram) (of adjectives and adverbs) of the simple form, not the comparative or superlative. 9 (med) showing presence of a disease, etc: the blood tests were ~. □ n [C] 1 positive degree, adjective, quantity, etc. 2 positive photograph.

positive sign, the sign +.

posi-tive-ly adv definitely; certainly.

pos-sess /'pɒzəz/ vt 1 own, have: ~ nothing; lose all that one ~s. 2 occupy (the mind); dominate: What ~ed you to do that? What influenced or caused you to do that?

pos-ses-sor /-sə(r)/ n [C] owner.

pos-ses-sion /'pɒzəʃn/ n 1 [U] possessing; ownership: How did it come into your ~? How did you get ~ of it? The information in my ~ is strictly confidential. Is she in full ~ of her senses? Is she sane? ⇨ also point¹(5). 2 [C] (often pl) property: lose all one's ~s.

pos-sess-ive /'pɒzəzɪv/ adj 1 of possession or ownership: She has a ~ nature, is eager to own things or wants the whole of (someone's) love or attention. 2 (gram) showing possession.

possessive adjective, eg my, your, her, its. possessive case, (of nouns) eg Tom's, the boy's, the boys'.

possessive pronoun, eg yours, his, theirs.

pos-si-bil-ity /'pɒsə'bɪləti/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] state, degree, of being possible: Is there any/much ~ of your getting to London this week? Help is still within the bounds of ~, is possible.

2 [C] something that is possible: I see great possibilities for this scheme.

possible /'pɒsəbl/ adj 1 that can be done; that can exist or happen: Come as quickly as ~. Frost is ~, though not probable. 2 that is reasonable or satisfactory: He is the only ~ man for the position. □ n [C] possible(2) person or thing.

possibly /-əbli/ adv (a) (used to emphasise effort, etc): I will come as soon as I possibly can. (b) perhaps: 'Will the manager put your salary up?' — 'Possibly.'

post¹ /'pəʊst/ n [C] 1 place where a soldier is on duty: The sentries are all at their ~s. 2 place occupied by soldiers, esp a frontier fort; the soldiers there. ⇨ outpost. 3 position or appointment; job: be given the ~ as general manager. □ vt 1 send to a post(1,2): ~ an officer to a unit; be ~ed at the gates. 2 be appointed, appoint to a job (overseas): be ~ed to Brussels.

post² /'pəʊst/ n [C] (mil) bugle-call sounded at sunset: the first/last ~. (Note: the last ~ is also sounded at military funerals.)

post³ /'pəʊst/ n [C] 1 (GB) (US = mail) public corporation which transports and delivers letters, parcels, etc; one collection of letters, parcels, etc; one delivery or distribution of letters, etc: I will send you the book by ~. Please reply by return of ~, in the next collection. 2 box (into which letters are dropped for collection): take letters to the ~. 3 letters, parcel, etc posted: Has the ~ arrived yet? 4 (formerly) one of a number of men placed with horses at intervals, the duty of each being to ride with letters, etc to the next stage.

'post-box, = post(2).

'post-card, oblong card (usually with a picture on one side) used for sending short messages.

'post-code, (US = zipcode) group of letters and numbers, written on the envelope, used to make the sorting and delivery of mail easier (by use of a computer).

'post-free adj, adv carried free of charge by post, or with postage prepaid.

'post-man /-mən/, (US = mailman) man employed to deliver letters, etc.

'post-mark, official mark stamped on letters, cancelling postage stamp(s) and giving the place, date, and time of collection. □ vt mark (an envelope, etc) with this.

'post-master/mistress, official in charge of a post office.

'post office, building, etc where postal business is carried on, together with the telegrams and telephones, payment of state pensions, etc.

'post office box, (abbr PO Box) numbered box in a post office where letters are kept for collection by an individual or company.

'post-paid adj, adv with postage already paid.

post⁴ /'pəʊst/ vt, vi 1 (US = mail) put (letters, etc) into a post box or take (them) to a post office to be forwarded. 2 (formerly) travel by stages, using relays of horses: ~ from London to Bristol. 3 keep sb posted, (fig) keep him supplied with information.

'post-haste adv with great speed.

post⁵ /'pəʊst/ n [C] upright piece of wood, metal, etc supporting or marking something: 'gate~s; the 'starting-/winning-~, marking the starting and finishing points in a race. ⇨ lamp-post. □ vt 1 display in a public place by means of a paper, placard, etc: The announcement was ~ed up on the wall of the town hall. 2 make known by means of a posted notice: a ship ~ed as missing.

post- /'pəʊst/ prefix after: postscript.

post-age /'pəʊstɪdʒ/ n [U] payment for the carrying of letters, etc: What is the ~ for an air-letter?

'postage stamp, stamp (to be) stuck on letters, etc showing the amount of postage paid.

postal /'pəʊstl/ adj of the post³(1): '~ rates; '~ workers; a ~ vote, sent by post to decide a ballot.

'postal order, written form for money (to be) cashed at a post office.

post-date /'pəʊst'deɪt/ vt 1 put (on a letter, cheque, etc) a date later than the date of writing. 2 give to (an event) a date later than its actual date.

poster /'pəʊstə(r)/ n [C] 1 placard displayed in a public place (announcing or advertising something). 2 large printed picture, eg of a pop star.

post-erior /'pɒstɪəriə(r)/ adj 1 later in time or order. ⇨ prior¹. 2 placed behind; at the back.

post-er-ity /'pɒstəriəti/ n [U] 1 person's descendants (his children, their children, etc). 2 future generations: We should each plant a tree for ~.

post-gradu-ate /'pəʊst'grædʒuət/ adj (of studies, etc) done after taking a first academic degree. □ n [C] person engaged in such studies.

post-hum-ous /'pɒstʃʊməs/ adj 1 (of a child) born after the death of its father. 2 coming or happening after death: ~ fame.

post-hum-ous-ly adv

post mer-idiem /'pəʊst mə'riðiəm/ adv (abbr pm which is more usual) after midday.

post-mor-tem /'pəʊst 'mɔ:təm/ n [C], adj 1 (medical examination) made after death: A ~ showed that the man had been poisoned. 2 (informal) review of an event, etc in the past.

post-pone /'pəʊ'spəʊn/ vt change to a later time: ~ a meeting.

post-pone-ment n [C, U] post-script /'pəʊskript/ n [C] (abbr PS) sentence(s) added (to a letter) after the signature.

pos-tu-lant /'pɒstjələnt US: -tʃu-/ n [C] candidate for admission to a religious order. ⇨ novice.

pos-tu-late /'pɒstjuleɪt US: -tʃu-/ vt put forward, defend, as a necessary fact, as a basis for reasoning. □ n [C] something (that may be) considered undeniably true.

pos-ture /'pɒstʃə(r)/ n [C] 1 attitude of, way of holding, the body: Good ~ helps you to keep well. 2 attitude: Will the Government alter its ~ over aid to the railways? □ vt, vi 1 put or arrange in a position: ~ a model. 2 be vain, etc: She was posturing before a tall mirror (pose is more usual).

posy /'pəʊzi/ n [C] (pl -ies) small bunch of cut flowers.

pot¹ /pɒt/ n [C] 1 round vessel of earthenware, metal or glass, for holding liquids or solids, for cooking things in, etc; contents of such a vessel: a ~ tea ~ coffee ~ flower ~. 2 (phrases and proverbs) go to pot, (st) be ruined or (mentally) destroyed. take ~ot 'luck, whatever is available (without choice). the pot calling the kettle black, the accuser having the same fault as the accused. 3 (informal) large sum: make a ~/~s of money. 4 (st) marijuana.

pot-'bellied adj (of a person) having a large, round belly.

'pot-boiler, book, picture, etc produced quickly to earn money.

'pot-bound, (of a plant) having roots that have filled its pot.

'pot-head, (st) habitual user of marijuana.

'pot-hole, (a) hole in a road made by rain and traffic. (b) deep cylindrical hole worn in rock (eg in limestone caves) by water.

'pot-holer, person who explores potholes in caves.

pot 'luck, ⇨ 2 above.

'pot plant, one grown (indoors) in a pot.

pot roast, beef, etc browned in a pot and cooked slowly with very little water.

'pot-shot, shot aimed at a bird or animal that is near, so that careful aim is not needed.

pot² /pɒt/ vt, vi (-tt-) 1 put (meat, fish paste, etc) in a glass jar to preserve it: ~ted shrimps. 2 plant in a flower-pot. 3 (informal) put (a baby) on a potty.

po-tass-ium /pə'tæsiəm/ n [U] (symbol K) soft, shining, white metallic element.

po-tato /pə'tetəʊ/ n [C, U] (pl ~es) plant with rounded white tubers eaten as a vegetable; one of the tubers: baked ~es. May I have some more ~? ⇨ sweet potato.

po-tency /'pəʊtənsi/ n [U] (formal) strength (eg of drugs, etc.)

po-tent /'pəʊtənt/ adj (of arguments, charms, drugs, etc) powerful.

po-tent-ly adv

po-ten-tial /pə'tenʃl/ adj that can or may come into existence or action: ~ wealth; the ~ sales of a new book. □ n 1 [C] possibility. 2 [U] what a person or thing is capable of: He/It hasn't much ~.

po-ten-ti-ally /-ʃəli/ adv: a ~ly rich country, eg one with rich but undeveloped natural resources.

po-ten-ti-al-ity /pə'tenʃi'æləti/ n [C] (pl -ies) power or quality which is possible, and needs development: a country with great potentialities (potential is more usual).

po-tion /'pəʊʃn/ n [C] dose of liquid medicine, poison, etc.

potted /'pɒtɪd/ adj 1 ⇨ pot². 2 (of a book, etc) inadequately abridged: a ~ version of a classical novel.

pot-ter¹ /'pɒtə(r)/ (US also put-ter /'pʊtə(r)/) vi, vt 1 move about from one little job to another: ~ing about in the garden. 2 waste (time) in this way: ~ away a whole afternoon.

pot-ter² /'pɒtə(r)/ n [C] maker of (clay, stone, etc) pots.

potter's wheel, horizontal revolving disc on which pots are shaped.

pot-tery n (pl -ies) (a) [U] earthenware; pots. (b) [C] potter's workshop.

potty¹ /'pɒti/ adj (-ier, -iest) (GB informal) 1 unimportant; insignificant: ~ little jobs. 2 (of a person) mad. 3 (of a person) in love with: He's ~ about his new girlfriend.

potty² /'pɒti/ n [C] (pl -ies) child's chamber-pot.

pouch /paʊtʃ/ n [C] 1 small bag carried in the pocket (a tobacco ~) or fastened to the belt. 2 formation like a bag, eg that in which a female kangaroo carries her young. □ vt put into a pouch.

pouf, pouffe /pu:f/ n [C] large cushion, used as a seat.

poul-tice /'pəʊltis/ n [C] soft heated mass of eg linseed, mustard, spread on a cloth, and put on the skin to relieve pain, etc. □ vt put a poultice on.

poul-try /'pəʊltrɪ/ n (collective) 1 (used with a pl verb) hens, ducks, geese, etc: The ~ are being fed. 2 (used with a sing verb) these considered as food: P~ will be expensive next year.

pounce /paʊns/ vi 1 make a sudden attack (downward) or swoop on: The hawk ~d on its prey. 2 (fig) seize: He ~d at the first chance of a holiday. □ n [C] such an attack.

pound¹ /paʊnd/ n [C] 1 unit of weight, 16 ounces avoirdupois, 12 ounces troy. 2 British unit of money: five ~s, written £5; a five-~ note, banknote for £5. 3 monetary unit of various other countries, esp former British dependencies, and Israel.

pound² /paʊnd/ n [C] (modern use) place where stray dogs and cats, and motor-vehicles left in unauthorized places, are kept until claimed.

pound³ /paʊnd/ vt, vi 1 strike heavily and repeatedly: Someone was ~ing at the door with his fist. She could feel her heart ~ing as she finished the 100 metres race. 2 crush to powder; break to pieces: ~ crystals in a mortar; a ship ~ing/being ~ed to pieces on the rocks. 3 ride, run, walk, heavily: He ~ed along the road.

-pounder /'paʊndə(r)/ suffix 1 weighing so many pounds: a three-~, eg a fish. 2 gun that fires a shot of so many pounds: an eighteen-~.

pour /pɔ:(r)/ vt, vi 1 cause (a liquid or a substance like a liquid) to flow in a continuous stream: P ~ yourself another cup of tea. The sweat was ~ing off him. 2 (fig) flow in a continuous stream: Tourists ~ into London during the summer months. The crowds were ~ing out of the football ground. Letters of complaint ~ed in. 3 (of rain) come down heavily: The rain ~ed down. 4 tell, describe, in a long speech: He ~ed out his story of the road crash.

pout /paʊt/ vt, vi push out the lips (as a sign of displeasure). n [C] such an act.

poverty /'pɒvəti/ n [U] 1 state of being poor: live in ~. 2 state of being low in quality: an essay which shows ~ of ideas.

'poverty-stricken adj affected by poverty: ~stricken homes.

powder /'paʊdə(r)/ n [C, U] (kind of) substance that has been crushed, rubbed or worn to dust, for use on the skin ('face-~), for cleaning things ('soap-~), or for cooking ('baking-~). ⇒ gunpowder. □ vt, vi use face-powder or talcum-powder.

'powder-blue, pale blue (colour).

'powder-puff, soft pad used for applying face-powder to the skin.

'powder-room, (esp US) ladies' cloakroom in an hotel, restaurant, cinema, etc with wash-basins and lavatories.

powdered adj reduced to powder: ~ed milk/eggs.

power /'paʊə(r)/ n 1 [U] (in living things, persons) ability to do or act: It is not within/It is beyond/It is outside my ~ to help you. I am unable to do so. I will do everything in my ~ to help. 2 (pl) faculty of the body or mind: His ~s are failing. He is becoming weak. He's a man of great intellectual ~s. 3 [U] strength; force: the ~ of a blow. 4 [U] energy or force that can be used to do work: electric ~. ⇒ horse power. 5 [U] right; control; authority: the ~ of the law; the ~ of Congress. have power over sb. be in authority, control. in power, (of a ministry or political party) in office. 6 [C] right possessed by, or granted to, a person or group of persons: The President has exceeded his ~s, has done more than he has authority to do. 7 [C] person or organization having great authority or influence: Is the press a great ~ in your country? 8 [C] State having great authority and influence in international affairs. 9 [C] (maths) result obtained by multiplying a number or quantity by itself a certain number of times: the second, third, fourth, etc ~ of x (= x², x³, x⁴, etc); the fourth ~ of 3 (= 3 × 3 × 3 × 3 = 81). 10 [U] capacity to magnify: the ~ of a lens; a telescope of high ~. 11 [U] (informal) large number or amount: This beer does me a ~ of good.

'power-boat, motorboat (esp one used for racing or towing water-skiers).

'power-house/-station, building where electric power is generated for distribution.

'power-point, socket on a wall, etc for a plug to connect an electric circuit.

power politics, diplomacy backed by force.

pow-ered adj (a) having, able to exert or produce, mechanical energy: a high-~ed car. (b) (fig) having great energy: a high-~ed salesman.

power-ful /'paʊəfl/ adj having or producing great power: a ~ enemy; a ~ drug.

power-fully /-fəli/ adv power-less /'paʊəls/ adj without power; unable: be ~ to resist.

power-less-ly adv

prac-ti-cable /'præktəkəbl/ adj that can be done or used or put into practice: ideas that are not ~.

prac-ti-cably /-əbl/ adv

prac-ti-cal /'præktukl/ adj 1 concerned with practice (contrasted with theory): a suggestion/proposal with little ~ value. 2 (of persons, their character, etc) clever at and liking doing and making things: a ~ husband/mind. 3 doing well what it is intended to do: Your invention is clever, but not very ~.

'practical 'joke, trick in which a person does something or has something done to him, so that he appears ridiculous.

prac-ti-cally /-kl/ adv (a) in a practical manner. (b) almost: We've had ~ly no sunshine this month.

prac-ti-cal-ity /'præktɪ'kæləti/ n [C] (pl -ies): Let's get down to ~ities, to considering the things to be done.

prac-tice (US also prac-tise) /'præktɪs/ n 1 [U] performance; the doing of something (contrasted with theory): put a plan into ~, do what has been planned. The idea would never work in ~, may seem good theoretically, but would be useless if carried out. 2 [C] something done regularly: the ~ of closing shops on Sundays. make a practice of (sth), do it habitually: boys who make a ~ of cheating at examinations. 3 [U] frequent or systematic repetition, repeated exercise: Piano-playing needs a lot of ~. It takes years of ~ to become an expert. in/out of practice, having/not having given enough time recently to practice.

4 [U] work of a doctor or lawyer; [C] (number of) persons who regularly consult a doctor or lawyer: a doctor with a large ~. ⇨ general practitioner.

prac-tise (US also prac-tice) /'præktɪs/ vt, vi 1 do something repeatedly or regularly in order to become skilful: ~ the piano; ~ two hours every day. 2 make a habit of: ~ getting up early. practise what one preaches, make a habit of doing what one advises others to do. 3 be employed in (a profession, etc): ~ medicine/the law, work as a doctor/lawyer.

practised (US also -ticed) adj skilled; having had much practice.

prac-ti-tion-er /'præktɪʃənə(r)/ n [C] 1 one who practices a skill or art. 2 professional man, esp in medicine and the law. ⇨ general practitioner.

prag-matic /'præg'mætɪk/ adj concerned with practical results, reasons and values.

prag-mati-cally /-klɪ/ adv prag-ma-tism /'præg'mætɪzəm/ n [U] philosophical belief that the truth or value of a theory depends on its practical use.

prag-ma-tist /-tɪst/ n [C] believer in pragmatism.

prairie /'preəri/ n [C] wide area of level land with grass but no trees, esp in N America. ⇨ pampas, savanna.

praise /preɪz/ vt 1 say that one admires or approves: ~ a man for his courage/the meal as the best of its kind. 2 give honour and glory to (God). □ n [U] 1 act of praising: His heroism is worthy of great ~/is beyond (= too great for) ~. 2 worship; glory: P ~ be to God.

'praise-worthy adj deserving praise. pram /præm/ n [C] (GB) (abbr for, and the usual word for) perambulator.

prance /pra:ns/ US: prænɪz/ vi 1 (of a horse) move forwards jerkily, by raising the forelegs and jumping from the hind legs. 2 (fig) move in an arrogant manner; dance or jump happily and gaily. □ n [C] prancing movement.

prank /præŋk/ n [C] playful or mischievous trick: play ~s on her.

prattle /'prætl/ vi talk in a simple, childish way. □ n [U] such talk; gossip.

prawn /prɔ:n/ n [C] edible shellfish like a large shrimp. □ vi fish for prawns: go ~ing.

pray /preɪ/ vt, vi commune with God; offer thanks, make requests known: ~ to God for help. They knelt down and ~ed.

prayer /preə(r)/ n 1 [U] act of praying to God: He knelt down in ~. 2 [U] form of church worship: Morning/Evening P ~. 3 [C] form of words used in praying: the Lord's P ~.

'prayer-book, containing prayers for use in church services, etc.

'prayer-rug/-mat, small rug used by Muslims to kneel on when they pray.

'prayer-wheel, revolving cylinder inscribed with or containing prayers, used by the Buddhists of Tibet.

pre- /pri:/, pre-/ prefix before; beforehand: pre-war; premature.

preach /'pri:tʃ/ vt, vi 1 deliver (a sermon); give a talk (in church) about religion or morals: ~ the gospel; ~ Buddhism. 2 give moral advice (to): The headmaster was ~ing to his boys about being lazy. ⇨ practise (2). 3 urge; recommend (as right or desirable): The Dictator ~ed war as a means of making the country great.

preacher, one who delivers sermons.

pre-amble /'pri:æmbəl/ n [C] introduction or preliminary statement (esp to a formal document).

pre-arrange /'pri:ə'reɪndʒ/ vt arrange in advance.

pre-arrange-ment n [C, U] pre-car-i-ous /'pri:kəriəs/ adj (formal) uncertain; unsafe; depending on chance: make a ~ living as an author.

pre-car-i-ously adv

pre-cast /'pri:'kɑ:st/ US: -'kæst/ adj (of concrete) in blocks ready for use in building.

pre-caution /'pri:'kɔ:ʃn/ n 1 [U] care taken in advance to avoid a risk. 2 [C] instance of this: take an umbrella as a ~.

pre-cau-tion-ary /'pri:'kɔ:ʃnəri/ US: -nerɪ/ adj pre-cede /'pri:sɪd/ vt, vi come or go before (in time, place or order): The singer who is preceding the pop group in the programme is very good.

pre-ced-ing adj existing or coming before.

pre-ced-ence /'presɪdəns/ n [U] (formal) (right to a) priority, or to a senior place. have/take precedence (over), must be considered first.

pre-ced-ent /'presɪdənt/ n [C] (formal) earlier happening, decision, etc as an example or rule for what comes later: set/create/establish a ~.

pre-cen-tor /'pri:sentə(r)/ n [C] (in English cathedrals) member of the clergy in general control of the singing.

pre-cept /'pri:sept/ n (formal) 1 [U] moral instruction: Example is better than ~. 2 [C] rule or guide, esp for behaviour.

pre-cinct /'pri:sɪŋkt/ n [C] 1 space enclosed by outer walls or boundaries, esp of a cathedral or church: within the sacred ~s. 2 (US) subdivision of a county or city or ward: an e'lection ~; a po'lice ~. 3 (pl) neighbourhood (of a town). 4 boundary: within the city ~s. 5 (modern use) area (of a town) for a particular use: a 'shopping ~, for shops only.

pre-cious /'preʃəs/ adj 1 of great value and beauty: my ~ possessions. 2 highly valued; dear: Her children are very ~ to her. □ adv (informal) very: I have ~ little (= hardly any) money left.

'precious-metal, gold, platinum.

'precious-stone, diamond, ruby, etc.

precipice /'presɪpɪs/ n [C] perpendicular or very steep face of a rock, cliff or mountain.

precipitate /prə'sɪpɪteɪt/ vt 1 (formal) throw or send violently down from a height. 2 cause (an event) to happen suddenly, quickly, or in haste: ~ a crisis. 3 (chem) separate (solid matter) from a solution. 4 condense (vapour) into drops which fall as rain, dew, etc. □ n [C] that which is precipitated (3,4). □ adj /prə'sɪpɪtət/ (doing things, done) without enough thought.

precipitate-ly adv

precipitation /prə'sɪpɪ'teɪʃn/ n 1 [C] (esp) fall of rain, sleet, snow or hail; amount of this: the annual ~ in Scotland. 2 [U] being hurried: act with ~, without enough thought or consideration of the consequences. 3 act of precipitating.

precipitous /prə'sɪpɪtəs/ adj (formal) very steep.

précis /'preɪsɪ/ US: prɛɪ'si:/ n [C] (pl unchanged in spelling but with usual change in pronunciation to /-sɪz/) restatement in shortened form of the chief ideas, points, etc of a speech or piece of writing. □ vt make a précis of.

precise /prɪ'saɪs/ adj 1 exact; correctly and clearly stated; free from error: ~ measurements; at the ~ moment when she sat down. 2 taking care to be exact, not to make errors: a very ~ man. 3 too careful, fussy, about details: prim and ~ in his manner.

precise-ly adv (a) exactly: at 2 o'clock ~ly. (b) (used as a response) I agree.

precision /prɪ'sɪʒn/ n [U] accuracy; freedom from error: (used as an adjective) ~ instrument/tool, used in technical work, very precise (for measuring, etc).

preclude /prɪ'klu:d/ vt (formal) prevent; make impossible: ~ all doubts.

preclusion /prɪ'klu:ʒn/ n [U] precocious /prɪ'kəʊʃəs/ adj 1 (of a person) having developed intelligence earlier than is normal. 2 (of actions, knowledge, etc) showing such development.

precocious-ly adv

preconceive /prɪ:kən'si:v/ vt form (ideas, opinions) in advance (before getting knowledge or experience): visit a foreign country with ~d ideas.

preconception /prɪ:kən'sepʃn/ n [C] preconceived idea, opinion.

precursor /prɪ:'kɜ:sə(r)/ n [C] (formal) person or thing coming before, as a sign of what is to follow.

precursory /-səri/ adj (formal) preliminary; anticipating.

predator /'predətə(r)/ n [C] predatory animal.

predatory /'predətəri/ US: -təri/ adj (formal) 1 of plundering and robbery: ~ tribesmen. 2 (of animals) preying on others.

pre-deces-sor /'pri:disəsə(r)/ US: 'predi-/n [C] 1 former holder of any office or position: I was Mr Green's ~ on the Board. 2 thing to which another has succeeded: Is the new proposal any better than its ~?

pre-des-ti-na-tion /'pri:destɪ'neiʃn/ n [U] 1 theory or doctrine that God has decreed from eternity that part of mankind shall have eternal life and part eternal punishment. 2 destiny; doctrine that God has decreed everything that comes to pass.

pre-des-tine /'pri:destɪn/ vt 1 (often passive) (of God, fate) decide, ordain, beforehand. 2 decide or make inevitable: It was as if he was ~d to succeed.

pre-de-ter-mine /'pri:di'tɜ:mɪn/ vt (formal) 1 decide in advance: Does social class ~ a man's career? 2 persuade or force a person in advance to do something: Did an unhappy childhood ~ him to behave as he did?

predicament /prɪ'dɪkəmənt/ n [C] unpleasant situation from which escape seems difficult: be in an awkward ~.

predi-cate¹ /'predɪkət/ n [C] (gram) part of a statement which says something about the subject, eg 'is short' in 'Life is short'.

predi-cate² /'predɪkeɪt/ vt (formal) 1 declare to be true or real: ~ a motive to be good. 2 make necessary as a consequence: These policies were ~d by Britain's decision to join the Common Market.

predicative /prɪ'dɪkətɪv/ US: 'predɪkeɪt-/adj (gram) (of an adjective or noun) forming part or the whole of the predicate.

predicative adjective, one used in the predicate, eg asleep, alive.

predict /prɪ'dɪkt/ vt say, tell, in advance: ~ a good harvest/that there will be an earthquake.

predictable /-əbl/ adj that can be predicted.

predic-tion /prɪ'dɪkʃn/ n [U] predicting; [C] something predicted.

pre-dis-pose /prɪ:di'spəʊz/ vt (formal) cause (somebody) to be interested, liable, etc before the event: His early training ~d him to travel widely.

pre-dis-positi-on /prɪ:dispə'zɪʃn/ n [C] (formal) state of mind or body favourable to: a ~ to arthritis/to going on safari.

pre-dominance /prɪ'dɒmɪnəns/ n [U] superiority in strength, numbers, etc; state of being predominant.

pre-dominant /prɪ'dɒmɪnənt/ adj (formal) having more power, attraction or influence than others: Her ~ characteristic is her friendliness.

pre-dominant-ly adv for the most part: a ~ly brown-eyed race.

pre-domin-ate /prɪ'dɒmɪneɪt/ vi (formal) have control (over); be superior in numbers, strength, influence, etc: a forest in which oak-trees ~.

pre-emi-nence /pri:'eminəns/ n [U] (formal) being best.

pre-emi-nent /pri:'eminənt/ adj (formal) best of all: ~ above all his rivals.

pre-emi-nent-ly adv

pre-empt /pri:'empt/ vt (formal) 1 obtain by pre-emption(a). 2 (US) occupy (public land) so as to have the right of pre-emption. 3 take for oneself (and exclude others).

pre-emp-tion /pri:'empʃn/ n [U] (formal) (a) purchase by one person, etc before others are offered the chance to buy; right to purchase in this way. (b) pre-empting(2).

pre-emp-tive /-tɪv/ adj done before another has a chance to act: a ~ive attack.

preen /pri:n/ vt 1 (of a bird) clean, tidy, (its feathers) with its beak. 2 (fig) (of a person) tidy (oneself).

pre-exist /,pri:'ɪgzɪst/ vi 1 exist beforehand. 2 live a life before this life.

pre-exist-ence /-əns/, life of the soul before entering its present body or this world.

pre-fab-ri-cate /pri:'fæbrɪkett/ vt manufacture the parts, eg roofs, walls, of a building for putting together on the site: ~d houses.

pre-fab-ri-ca-tion /pri:'fæbrɪ'keɪʃn/ n [U] pre-fa-ce /'prefɪs/ n [C] author's explanatory remarks at the beginning of a book. □ vt provide with a preface; begin (a talk, etc with...): He ~d his remarks with some sharp knocks on the table.

pre-fa-tory /'prefətəri/ US: -tɔ:ri/ adj: after a few prefatory remarks.

prefect /'pri:fekt/ n [C] 1 (in some English schools) one of a number of senior pupils given responsibility, eg for keeping order. 2 (in France) title of the chief administrative officer of a department; head of the Paris police.

pre-fer /'pri:fə(r)/ vt (-rr-) 1 choose (from several); like better: Which would you ~, tea or coffee? 1 ~ walking to cycling. 2 put forward: ~ charges against a motorist, ie accuse him of a motoring offence.

pre-fer-able /'prefərəbl/ adj superior: an idea ~ to his. (Note: not used with more.)

pre-fer-ably /-əbl/ adv

pre-fer-ence /'prefərəns/ n 1 [C,U] act of preferring: have a ~ for modern jazz. 2 [C] that which is preferred: What are your ~s? 3 [U] the favouring of one person, country, etc more than another; [C] instance of this.

pre-fer-en-tial /,prefə'renʃl/ adj of, giving, receiving, preference (esp 3): get ~ treatment.

pre-fix /'pri:fɪks/ n [C] 1 word or syllable, eg pre-, co-, placed in front of a word to add to or change its meaning. 2 word used before a person's name, eg Mr, Dr. □ vt /pri:'fiks/ add a prefix to or in front of.

preg-nancy /'pregnənsɪ/ n [U] the state of being pregnant (both senses); [C] (pl -ies) instance of this.

preg-nant /'pregnənt/ adj 1 (of a woman or female animal) having in the uterus offspring in a stage of development before birth. 2 (fig) (of words, actions) significant: words ~ with meaning; a ~ pause in a play.

pre-hen-sile /pri:'hensail/ adj (of a foot or tail, eg a monkey's) able to seize and hold.

pre-his-toric /,pri:'hɪstɔ:rik/ US: -tɔ:rik/ (also -torical /-kl/) adj of the time before recorded history.

pre-his-tory /pri:'hɪstəri/ n [U] pre-judge /,pri:'dʒʌdʒ/ vt make a decision, form an opinion, about a person, cause, action, etc before hearing the evidence, making a proper inquiry, etc.

pre-judge-ment n [C,U] pre-ju-dice /'predʒʊdɪs/ n 1 [U] opinion, like or dislike, formed before one has adequate knowledge or experience; [C] instance of this: racial ~, against members of other races. 2 [U] (legal) injury that may or does arise from some action or judgement. □ vt 1 cause a person to have a prejudice(1). 2 injure or weaken (a person's interests, etc): He ~d his claim by asking too much.

pre-ju-di-cial /,predʒʊ'dɪʃl/ adj causing prejudice or injury.

pre-late /'prelət/ n [C] bishop or other churchman of equal or higher rank.

pre-limi-nary /'prɪ'lɪmɪnəri/ US: -nerɪ/ adj coming first and preparing for what follows: a ~ examination; after a few ~ remarks. □ n [C] (pl -ies) (usually pl) preliminary actions, measures, etc.

pre-lude /'preljʊd/ n [C] 1 action, event, etc that serves as an introduction to (another). 2 (music) introductory movement (eg as part of a suite). □ vt serve as, be, a prelude to.

pre-mari-tal /,pri:'mæritl/ adj before marriage.

pre-ma-ture /'premətʃə(r)/ US: 'pri:mətuə(r)/ adj done, happening, doing something, before the right or usual time: ~ birth.

pre-ma-ture-ly adv: act ~ly.

pre-medi-tate /'pri:'medɪteɪt/ vt consider, plan, (something) in advance: a ~d murder.

pre-medi-ta-tion /,pri:'medɪ'teɪʃn/ n [U] pre-mier /'premiə(r)/ US: 'pri:-/ adj first in position, importance, etc. □ n [C] prime minister; head of the government.

pre-mier-ship /-ʃɪp/ n [C] pre-mière /'premiə(r)/ US: 'pri:mjə(r)/ n [C] first performance of a play or ('film-~) first public showing of a cinema film.

pre-mise, prem-iss /'premis/ n [C] 1 statement on which reasoning is based. 2 (pl) house or building with its sheds, land, etc: 'business ~s, the building(s), offices, etc where a business is carried on. 3 (pl) details of property, names of persons, etc in the first part of a legal agreement. □ vt make a statement (that) or a statement of (fact) by way of introduction.

pre-mium /'pri:miəm/ n [C] (pl ~s) 1 amount or instalment paid for an insurance policy. 2 reward (the usual word): a ~ for good conduct. 3 addition to ordinary charges, rent, etc: He had to pay the agent a ~ before he could rent the house. 4 fee (to be) paid by a pupil to a professional man, eg an accountant or architect, for instruction and training.

pre-mon-ition /'premə'nɪʃn/ n [C] feeling of uneasiness considered as a warning (of approaching danger, etc): have a strong ~ of failure.

pre-moni-tory /'pri:mənitəri/ US: -tɔ:ri/ adj pre-natal /'pri:'neɪtl/ adj before birth.

pre-oc-cu-pa-tion /'pri:ɒkju'peɪʃn/ n [U] state of mind in which something takes up all a person's thoughts; [C] the subject, etc that takes up all his thoughts: His greatest ~ was saving money for a holiday in Europe.

pre-oc-cupy /'pri:ɒkjupaɪ/ vt (pt, pp -ied) take all the attention of a person so that attention is not given to other matters: preoccupied with thoughts of a holiday.

pre-or-dain /'pri:ɔ:'deɪn/ vt determine in advance.

pre-pack-aged /'pri:'pækɪdʒd/ (also pre-packed /'pri:'pækt/) adj (of products) cut, wrapped, packed, before being supplied to shops.

prep-ara-tion /'prepə'reɪʃn/ n 1 [U] preparing or being prepared: The book is in ~. 2 [C] (usually pl) things done to get ready: ~s for war; make ~s for a voyage. 3 [C] kind of medicine, food, etc specially prepared: chemical ~s.

pre-pa-ra-tory /'pri:pə'rətəri/ US: -tɔ:ri/ adj introductory; needed for preparing: ~ measures/training.

pre-pare /'pri:peə(r)/ vt, vi 1 prepare (for), get or make ready: ~ a meal; ~ students for an examination, teach them; be ~d for anything to happen. 2 be prepared to, be able and willing to: I'm ~d to help you if you want me to.

pre-pay /'pri:'peɪ/ vt (pt, pp -paid /-'peɪd/) pay in advance: postage prepaid.

pre-pon-der-ance /'pri:pɒndərəns/ n [U] (formal) greater amount, weight, etc.

pre-pon-der-ant /'pri:pɒndərənt/ adj (formal) greater in weight, number, strength, etc.

pre-pon-der-ant-ly adv

pre-posi-tion /'prepə'zɪʃn/ n [C] word or group of words (eg in, from, to) often placed before a noun or pronoun to show place, direction, source, method, etc (marked prep in this dictionary).

pre-posi-tional /-ʃnəl/ adj of, containing, a preposition.

prepositional object, (gram) as in 'I gave the money to the treasurer.'

prepositional phrase, (a) phrase made up of a group of words acting as a preposition, eg in front of; on top of. (b) preposition and the noun following it, eg in the night; on the beach.

pre-pos-sess /,pri:pə'zes/ vt (formal) give (a person) a feeling (about something), or an idea: I was ~ed by his manners. They made a favourable impression upon me.

pre-pos-sess-ing adj attractive; making a good impression: a girl of ~ing appearance.

pre-pos-ses-sion /,pri:pə'zeɪʃn/ n [C] favourable feeling experienced in advance.

pre-pos-ter-ous /'pri:pɒstərəs/ adj completely unreasonable or senseless; ridiculous.

pre-pos-ter-ous-ly adv

pre-re-cord /,pri:'ri:kɔ:d/ vt record, eg a radio or TV programme, in advance on tape or record.

pre-requi-site /,pri:'rekwɪzɪt/ n [C], adj (thing) required as a condition for something else: Three passes at 'A' level are a ~ for university entrance.

pre-roga-tive /'pri:rɒɡətɪv/ n [C] special right(s) or privilege(s), esp of a ruler.

Pres-by-ter-ian /'prezbɪ'tɪəriən/ adj (also ~ Church) church governed by elders, all of equal rank. □ n [C] member of this Church.

pres-by-tery /'prezbɪtəri/ US: -teri/ n [C] (pl -ies) 1 (in a church) eastern part of the chancel beyond the choir; sanctuary. 2 (regional) administrative court of the Presbyterian Church. 3 residence of a Roman Catholic parish priest.

pre-scribe /'pri:'skraɪb/ vt, vi 1 advise or order the use of: ~ textbooks, books which pupils are required to use. 2 say, with authority, what course of action is to be followed: penalties ~d by the law.

pre-scription /'pri:'skrɪpʃn/ n 1 [U] act of prescribing; [C] that which is prescribed. 2 (esp) doctor's written order or direction for the making up and use of a medicine; the medicine itself.

pre-script-ive /'pri:'skriptɪv/ adj giving orders or directions. ⇨ descriptive.

pres-ence /'preznz/ n [U] 1 being present in a place, etc: in the ~ of his friends, with his friends there. presence of mind, ability to act or decide quickly when necessary. 2 person's way of standing, moving, etc: a man of noble ~.

pres-ent¹ /'preznt/ adj 1 being in this/tha place: The Smiths were ~ at the ceremony. ⇨ absent¹(1). 2 being discussed or dealt with; now being considered. 3 existing now: the ~ government. □ n 1 the ~, now; the time now passing: the past, the ~, and the future. at present, now: We don't need any more at ~. 2 (gram) = present tense.

present participle, (gram) verb form used to show the present tense, eg coming.

(the) present tense, (gram) verb form showing action now, descriptions existing now, etc.

pres-ent² /'preznt/ n [C] something given for pleasure: birthday ~s.

present³ /prɪ'zent/ vt 1 give; offer: the clock that was ~ed to me when I retired. 2 introduce (a person, esp to a Sovereign): be ~ed at Court. 3 (reflex) appear; attend: ~ oneself for trial/for examination. 4 show; reveal: A good opportunity has ~ed itself for doing what you suggested. 5 (of a theatrical manager or company) produce (a play); cause (an actor) to take part in a play: The Playhouse will ~ 'Hamlet' next week. 6 introduce a programme on TV or radio.

present-able /prɪ'zentəbl/ adj fit to appear, be shown, in public: Is the girl he wants to marry ~, the sort of girl he can introduce to his friends and family?

present-ably /-əbl/ adv: presentably dressed.

pres-en-ta-tion /,prezən'teɪʃn US: /prɪzən-/ n [U] presenting or being presented; [C] something presented: the ~ of a new play.

pres-en-ti-ment /prɪ'zentɪmənt/ n [C] (formal) vague feeling that something (esp unpleasant or undesirable) is about to happen.

pres-ent-ly /'prezəntli/ adv 1 soon: I'll be with you ~. 2 (US) at the present time: The Secretary of State is ~ in Africa.

pres-er-va-tion /,prezə'veɪʃn/ n [U] 1 act of preserving: the ~ of food/one's health/wild life. 2 condition of something preserved: paintings in a good state of ~.

pre-serv-ative /prɪ'zɜ:vətɪv/ n [C], adj (substance) used for preserving: This ice-cream is free from artificial ~s.

pre-serve /prɪ'zɜ:v/ vt 1 keep safe from harm or danger: preserving old people from the loneliness of old age. 2 keep from decay, risk of going bad, etc (by pickling, making into jam, etc): ~ fruit. 3 keep from loss; retain (health, etc): ~ one's eyesight. 4 care for and protect land, rivers, lakes, etc with the animals and fish: The fishing in this stream is strictly ~d. 5 keep alive (a name or memory): Few of his early poems are ~d. 6 n [C] 1 (usually pl) jam (the usual word). 2 woods, streams, etc where animals and fish are preserved: a game ~.

pre-serv-able /-əbl/ adj that can be preserved.

pre-server, person or thing that preserves.

pre-side /prɪ'zaid/ vi preside (at/over), be chairman, be the head of: The Prime Minister ~s at meetings of the Cabinet. The city council is ~d over by the mayor.

presi-dency /'prezɪdənsɪ/ n [C] (pl -ies) 1 the ~, the office and functions of president. 2 term of office as a president: during the ~ of Lincoln.

presi-dent /'prezɪdənt/ n [C] 1 elected head of the government in the US and other modern republics. 2 head of some government departments: P~ of the Board of Trade. 3 head of some business companies, colleges, societies, etc.

presi-dential /,prezɪ'denʃl/ adj of a president or his duties: the ~ial election.

press¹ /pres/ n [C] 1 act of pressing(2): give something a light ~. 2 machine or apparatus for pressing: a 'wine-~. 3 the ~, printed periodicals, the newspapers generally; journalists: The book was favourably noticed by the ~/had a good ~, was favourably reviewed by the literary critics. The liberty/freedom of the ~ (= The right of newspapers to report events, express opinions, etc freely) is a feature of democratic countries. 4 business for printing (and sometimes publishing) books or periodicals; (also 'printing-~) machine for printing: in the ~, being printed; go to ~, start printing. 5 pressure (the usual word): the ~ of modern life.

'press box, reporters' shelter (in a stadium).

'press conference, one of newspaper reporters, organized by a government official, for a well-known person, etc who talks about policy, achievements, etc.

'press-cutting/-clipping, article, etc cut out from a newspaper or other periodical.

'press photographer, newspaper photographer.

'press-stud, device for fastening fabrics together, eg on clothes, by pressing a small metal knob into a hole.

'press-up, exercise in which a person lies face down on the floor, the arms being straightened and bent by pressing against the floor with the palms of the hands to raise and lower the body.

press² /pres/ vt, vi 1 push steadily against: ~ the trigger of a gun; ~ (down) the accelerator pedal (of a car); ~ the button, eg of an electric bell. 2 use force or weight to get something smooth or flat, to get juice out of fruit, etc: ~ a suit/skirt, with an iron, to remove creases, etc; ~ the juice out of an orange. 3 keep close to and attack: ~ home an attack, carry it out with determination. 4 (fig) obtain support, agreement, etc using a determined, organized effort: ~ one's point home in the debate. 5 make repeated requests: demand urgently; ~ for an inquiry into a question; ~ the Government for support. 6 be pressed for, have barely enough of: be ~ed for time/money/space. 7 push, crowd, with weight or force: crowds ~ing against the barriers. 8 urge; insist on: ~ him for an answer. 9 demand action or attention: The matter is ~ing, is urgent. 10 squeeze (a person's hand, arm, etc) as a sign of affection or sympathy: He ~ed her to his side. 11 weigh heavily on: The new taxes ~ed down heavily on the people. 12 hurry, continue, in a determined way: ~ on with one's work/journey.

press-ing /'presɪŋ/ adj 1 urgent; requiring immediate attention: ~ing business. 2 (of persons, their requests, etc) insistent: as you are so ~ing.

press-ure /'presʌ(r)/ n [C,U] 1 pressing; (amount of) force on or against something: I hope that the tyre ~ is right. ⇨ blood pressure. 2 force or influence: He pleaded ~ of work and resigned his place on the committee. be/come under pressure, feel/be caused to feel forced (to act): He's under strong ~ to vote with the government on this issue. bring pressure to bear on/put pressure on sb (to do sth), use force or influence. 3 something that is difficult to bear: the ~ of taxation.

'pressure-cooker, airtight saucepan for cooking quickly with steam under pressure.

'pressure group, organized group, eg a union, which tries to use influence for the benefit of its members.

press-ur-ize (also -ise) /'presʌraɪz/ vt 1 maintain normal air-pressure, eg in an aircraft. 2 (informal) use pressure(2): She was ~d into helping with the cooking.

press-ur-ized (also -ised) /'presʌraɪzd/ adj (of an aircraft, a submarine, etc) built so that its internal air-pressure can be controlled and made normal.

pres-tige /'prestiːʒ/ n [U] 1 respect that results from the good reputation (of a person, nation, etc); power or influence coming from this. 2 distinction, glamour, that comes from achievements, success, possessions, etc: (used as an adjective) the ~ value of living in a fashionable street.

pres-tig-i-ous /'prestɪdʒəs/ adj producing respect, influence, etc.

pre-stressed /'priːstrest/ adj (of concrete) strengthened by being compressed.

pre-sum-able /'priːzjuːməbl/ US: -'zuː-/ adj that may be presumed.

pre-sum-ably /-əbli/ adv: Presumably (= I suppose) you would agree to giving him more responsibility.

pre-sume /'priːzjuːm US: -'zuːm/ vt, vi suppose (to be true): In Britain an accused man is ~d (to be) innocent until he is proved guilty.

pre-sum-ing adj having, showing, a tendency to presume, to take an unfair advantage of.

pre-sump-tion /'priːzʌmpʃn/ n 1 [C] something which seems likely although there is no proof: on the ~ that he was drowned. 2 [U] arrogance: What ~ to say that he is better than me!

pre-sump-tive /'priːzʌmpʃɪv/ adj based on presumption(1): the heir ~, person who is heir (to the throne, etc) until a person with a stronger claim is born.

pre-sump-tu-ous /'priːzʌmpʃʊəs/ adj (of behaviour, etc) too self-confident.

pre-sump-tu-ous-ly adv

pre-sup-pose /'priːsə'pəʊz/ vt 1 assume beforehand. 2 require as a condition: Sound sleep ~s a peaceful mind.

pre-sup-po-si-tion /'priːsəpə'zɪʃn/ n [C] something presupposed: [U] presupposing.

pre-tence (US also pre-tense) /'priːtens/ n 1 [U] pretending: under the ~ of friendship. It's all ~. 2 [C] pretext or excuse; false claim or reason: It is only a ~ of friendship. false pretences, (legal) acts intended to deceive: get money by/on/under false ~s.

pre-tend /'priːtend/ vt, vi 1 make oneself appear (to be (doing) something), either in play or to deceive others: ~ to be asleep. They ~ed not to see us. 2 say falsely that one has (as an excuse or reason, or to avoid danger, difficulty, etc): ~ sickness.

pre-ten-der, person who has a claim (to a throne, etc) that not everyone agrees to.

pre-tense /'priːtens/ ⇨ pretence.

pre-tension /'priːtensn/ n 1 [C] '(often pl) (statement of a) claim: He makes no ~s to expert knowledge of the subject. 2 [U] being pretentious: P ~ is his worst fault.

pre-ten-tious /'priːtensjəs/ adj claiming (without justification) great merit or importance: a ~ student/speech; use ~ language.

pre-ten-tious-ly adv

pre-text /'priːtekst/ n [C] reason that is not true (for an action, etc): find a ~ for refusal/refusing the invitation.

pretty /'prɪti/ adj (-ier, -iest) 1 pleasing and attractive without being beautiful or magnificent: a ~ girl/garden/picture/piece of music. 2 fine; good: A ~ mess you've made of it! 3 (informal) large in amount or extent: a ~ big fine for such a minor offence. a pretty kettle of fish, a state of confusion. (cost) a pretty penny, ⇨ penny(1). □ adv to a certain extent: The situation seems ~ hopeless. It's ~ cold outside. pretty much, very nearly: The result of the ballot is ~ much what we expected. pretty nearly, almost: The car is new, or ~ nearly so. pretty well, almost: We've ~ well finished the work. sitting pretty, (informal) rich; favourably placed for future developments, etc.

pret-tily /'prɪtəli/ adv

pret-ti-ness n [U]

pre-vail /'priːveɪl/ vi 1 gain victory (over); fight successfully (against): Truth will ~. 2 be generally seen, done, etc: the conditions now ~ing in Africa. 3 persuade (a person to do): ~ on/upon a friend to lend you £10.

pre-vail-ing adj most frequent or usual: the ~ing winds/fashions.

pre-va-lence /'prevələns/ n [U] being usual: ~ of bribery among officials.

pre-va-lent /'prevələnt/ adj (formal) common, seen or done everywhere (at the time in question): Is malaria still ~ in that country?

pre-vari-cate /'priːværiːkeɪt/ vi (formal) make untrue or partly untrue statements (to avoid telling the (whole) truth).

pre-vari-ca-tion /prɪˈværiˈkeɪʃn/ n [C,U].

pre-vent /prɪˈvent/ vt stop or hinder: Who can ~ us from getting married/ ~ our getting married?

pre-vent-able /-əbl/ adj that is able to be prevented.

pre-ven-tion /prɪˈvenʃn/ n [U] act of preventing: P ~ is better than cure.

pre-ven-tive /prɪˈventɪv/ adj serving or designed to prevent.

preventive custody, imprisonment of a person (eg before a trial) so that he may not commit further crimes.

preventive detention, detention without trial because a person is thought likely to commit crime or (in some countries) opposes the government.

preventive medicine, research into means of avoiding disease, illness.

pre-view /ˈprɪvjuː/ n [C] view of a film, play, etc before it is shown to the general public. □ vt have/give a preview of.

pre-vi-ous /ˈprɪviəs/ adj coming earlier in time or order: on a ~ occasion. previous to, before.

pre-vi-ous-ly adv

prey /preɪ/ n (sing only) animal, bird, etc hunted for food: The eagle was eating its ~. □ vi 1 take, hunt, as prey: hawks ~ing on small birds. 2 steal from; plunder: Our ships were ~ed on/upon by pirates. 3 (of fears, etc) produce great trouble: anxieties/losses that ~ on my mind.

beast/bird of prey, one that kills and eats other animals, eg tigers, eagles.

price /praɪs/ n [C] sum of money for which something is (to be) sold or bought: What ~ are you asking? put a 'price on sb's head, offer a reward for his capture (dead or alive). 2 [U] value; worth: a pearl of great ~. 3 [C] that which must be done, given or experienced to obtain or keep something: Loss of independence is a high ~ to pay for peace! □ vi fix, ask about, the price; mark (goods) with a price. price oneself/one's goods out of the market, (of manufacturers, producers) fix prices so high that orders decline or stop. ⇨ asking/list price.

'price-control, control or fixing of prices by a government, manufacturers, etc.

'price war, (informal) competition between tradesmen by using low prices to attract buyers.

price-less adj too valuable to be priced: ~less paintings.

pricey /ˈpraɪsi/ adj (informal) expensive.

prick 1 /prɪk/ n [C] 1 small mark or hole caused by the act of pricking: ~s made by a needle. 2 pain caused by pricking: I can still feel the ~. a prick of conscience, mental uneasiness.

prick 2 /prɪk/ vt, vi 1 make a hole or a mark in (something) with a sharp point: ~ a blister, on the skin. 2 hurt, cause pain to, with a sharp point or points: ~ one's finger with/on a needle. 3 feel sharp pain: My fingers ~. 4 prick sth out/off, put (seedlings) in holes made with a pointed stick, etc. 5 (fig) cause uneasy feeling: His conscience ~ed him. 6 prick up one's ears, ⇨ ear¹(1).

prickle /ˈprɪkl/ n [C] pointed growth on the stem, etc of a plant, or on the skin of some animals, eg hedgehogs. □ vt, vi give or have a pricking sensation.

prick-ly /ˈprɪkli/ adj (a) having prickles. (b) (informal) easily irritated or annoyed.

prickly heat, inflammation of the sweat glands, marked by a pricking sensation, common in the tropics during the hot-weather season.

prickly pear, cactus covered with prickles and having pear-shaped fruit.

pride /praɪd/ n 1 [U] feeling of satisfaction arising from what one has done, or from persons, things, etc one is concerned with: look with ~ at one's garden. take a great/no/little pride in, have some/much/no/little pride about: take (a) great ~ in one's achievements. pride of place, a position of superiority. 2 [U] self-respect: knowledge of one's worth and character: Don't say anything that may wound his ~. 3 [U] object of pride(1): a girl who is her mother's ~ and joy. 4 [U] too high an opinion of oneself, one's position, possessions, etc: be puffed up with ~. 5 the ~, prime: in the full ~ of youth. 6 [C] group: (esp) a ~ of lions/peacocks. □ vi (reflex) be pleased and satisfied about: He ~s himself on his skill as a pianist.

priest /praɪst/ n [C] 1 clergyman of a Christian Church, esp one who is between a deacon and a bishop in the Church of England or Roman Catholic Church. (Note: clergyman is usual in the Church of England, except in official use.) ⇨ minister for Methodist, Baptist, etc Churches. 2 (of non-Christian religions) person trained to perform special acts of religion, etc.

priest-ess /ˈpraɪstɪs/, woman priest(2).

'priest-hood /-hʊd/, the whole body of priests of a Church: the Irish ~hood.

priest-ly, priest-like adj of, for or like a priest.

prig /prɪg/ n [C] (dated) person showing too much self-satisfaction or pride.

prim /prɪm/ adj (-mer, -mest) 1 neat; formal: a ~ garden. 2 (of persons, their manner, speech, etc) showing a dislike of anything rough, rude, improper: a very ~ and proper old lady.

prim-ly adv

prima /ˈprɪmə/ adj (It) first.

,prima ,balle,rina, leading woman performer in ballet.

prima 'donna /'dɒnə/, (a) leading woman singer in opera. (b) (informal) temperamental and conceited person.

primacy /'praɪməsi/ n [U] (esp) position of an archbishop.

primae-val /'praɪ'mi:vl/ adj ⇨ primeval.

prima facie /,praɪmə 'feɪʃi:/ adv, adj (Latin) (based) on the first impression: have ~ a good (legal) case.

prima facie evidence, (legal) sufficient to prove something (unless proved wrong).

prim-al /'praɪml/ adj (formal) 1 primeval. 2 first in importance.

primar-ily /'praɪmərəli/ US: prar'merəli/ adv in the first place; above all.

prim-ary /'praɪməri/ US: -meri/ adj leading in time, order or development: of ~ (= chief) importance. □ n [C] (pl -ies) (US) meeting of electors to name candidates for an election.

primary colour, red, blue or yellow, from which all other colours can be obtained by mixing two or more.

'primary school, (GB) for children aged 5 to 9 or 11.

primary stress, (marked ' in this dictionary) strongest stress(3) used in a word.

pri-mate¹ /'praɪmeɪt/ n [C] archbishop.

pri-mate² /'praɪmeɪt/ n [C] one of the highest order of mammals (including men, apes, monkeys and lemurs).

prime¹ /praɪm/ adj 1 chief; most important: his ~ motive. 2 excellent; first-rate: ~ (cuts of) beef. 3 fundamental; primary.

the Prime Minister, head of the British Government.

prime number, divisible only by itself and the number 1 (eg 7, 17, 41).

prime² /praɪm/ n 1 [U] state of highest perfection; the best part: in the ~ of life. 2 [U] first or earliest part: the ~ of the year, spring.

prime³ /praɪm/ vt 1 get ready for use or action: ~ a gun, (the old-fashioned kind) put in gunpowder, etc. 2 supply with facts, etc: The witness had been ~d by a lawyer. 3 cover (a surface) with the first coat of paint, oil, varnish, etc.

primer /'praɪmə(r)/ n [C] 1 small quantity of explosive, contained in a cap or cylinder, for igniting the powder in a cartridge, bomb, etc. 2 special paint for priming(3).

pri-me-val (also -mae-val) /'praɪ'mi:vl/ adj 1 of the earliest time in the world's history. 2 very ancient: ~ forests.

prim-ing /'praɪmɪŋ/ n [U] 1 gunpowder used to fire the charge of a gun, bomb, mine, etc. 2 mixture used by painters for a first coat.

primi-tive /'prɪmɪtv/ adj 1 of the earliest times; of an early stage of social development: ~ man; ~ culture. 2 simple; old-fashioned; having undergone little development: ~ weapons, eg bows and arrows, spears. □ n [C] primitive man.

primi-tive-ly adv

pri-mor-dial /'praɪ'mɔ:diəl/ adj in existence at or from the beginning: ~ forests.

prim-rose /'prɪm'rəʊz/ n [C] common wild plant with pale yellow flowers: the flower; [U] its colour. □ adj pale yellow.

prim-ula /'prɪmjʊlə/ n [C] (pl ~s) kinds of perennial herbaceous plants with flowers of various colours and sizes (including the prim-rose and polyanthus).

prince /prɪns/ n [C] 1 ruler, esp of a small state. 2 male member of a royal family, esp (in GB) a son or grandson of the Sovereign.

Prince Consort, husband of a reigning queen.

'prince-dom /-dəm/ n [C] rank or dignity of, area ruled by, a prince(1).

prince-ly adj (-ier, -iest) (worthy) of a prince; splendid; generous: a ~ly gift.

prin-cess /'prɪn'ses/ n [C] wife of a prince; daughter or granddaughter of a sovereign.

prin-ci-pal /'prɪnsəpl/ adj highest in order of importance: the ~ rivers of Europe. □ n [C] 1 title of some heads of colleges and of some other organizations. 2 person for whom another acts as agent in business: I must consult my ~. 3 money lent, put into a business, etc on which interest is payable. 4 (legal) person directly responsible for a crime.

prin-ci-pally /-pli/ adv for the most part; chiefly.

prin-ci-pal-ity /,prɪnsɪ'pæləti/ n [C] (pl -ies) country ruled by a prince.

prin-ciple /'prɪnsəpl/ n [C] 1 basic truth; general law of cause and effect: the (first) ~s of geometry. 2 guiding rule for behaviour: moral ~s. in principle, (contrasted with in detail) in general: I agree with you in ~. on principle, from a moral motive: He refuses to fight on ~. 3 basic method of working of a machine, etc: These machines work on the same ~. -prin-cipled suffix following, having, the kind of principle(2) shown: a high-~d 'woman, very moral.

print¹ /prɪnt/ n 1 [U] mark(s), letters, etc in printed form. in print, (of a book) on sale. out of print, (of a book) no longer available.

2 [C] mark left on a surface preserving the shape, pattern, left by the pressure of something: 'finger-~s; 'foot-~s. 3 [C] picture, design, etc made by printing on paper, etc: old Japanese ~s. 4 photograph printed from a negative. ⇨ blueprint.

print² /prɪnt/ vt, vi 1 make marks on (paper, etc) with inked type, etc; make books, pictures, etc in this way; (of a publisher, an editor, an author) cause to be printed: ~ 6000 copies of a novel. 2 shape (one's letters), write (words), like printed characters (instead of ordinary handwriting). 3 make (a photograph) from a negative film or plate: How many copies shall I ~ (off) for you? 4 (of a plate or film) be produced as the result of printing(3): This film|plate|picture hasn't ~ed very well. 5 mark (cloth) with a coloured design. 6 (fig) make an impression: The accident ~ed itself on her memory.

'print-out, printed output of a computer.

print-able /-əbl/ adj that can be printed, suitable to be printed.

printer, workman who prints books, etc; (owner of a) printing business.

prior¹ /'praɪə(r)/ adj earlier in time, order or importance: have a ~ claim (to the money).

prior to, prep before: The house was sold ~ to auction, before the day of the auction.

prior² /'praɪə(r)/ n [C] head of a religious order or house; (in an abbey) person next below an abbot in rank.

prior-ess /'praɪəris/ n [C] woman prior.

pri-or-ity /praɪ'ɒrəti/ US: /-ɪ-ɪ-ɪ/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] right to have or do something before others: I have ~ over you in my claim. 2 [C] high place among competing claims: Road building is a first|is top ~.

priory /'praɪəri/ n [C] (pl -ies) religious house governed by a prior or prioress.

prise (also prize) /praɪz/ vt use force to get something, eg a box, lid, open/up/off.

prism /'prɪzəm/ n [C] 1 solid figure with similar, equal and parallel ends, and with sides which are parallelograms. 2 solid of this form, usually triangular and made of glass, which breaks up white light into the colours of the rainbow.

pris-matic /prɪz'mætɪk/ adj 1 like, having the shape of, a prism. 2 (of colours) brilliant and varied.

prison /'prɪzn/ n [C] 1 building in which a person who commits a crime is kept locked up. 2 place where a person is shut up against his will. 3 [U] confinement in such a place: escape|be released from ~.

pris-oner, (a) person kept in prison for crime or until tried in a law court. (b) person, animal, kept in confinement: political ~s; ~s of conscience, because of their religious, political, etc beliefs.

priv-acy /'prɪvəsi/ US: /'praɪ-/ n [U] 1 state of being away from others, alone and undisturbed: I don't want my ~ disturbed. 2 secrecy (opposite to publicity): They were married in ~.

pri-vate /'praɪvɪt/ adj 1 (opposite of public) of, for the use of, concerning, one person or group of persons, not people in general: a ~ letter; for ~ reasons, not to be explained to everybody; ~ means, income not earned as a salary, etc but coming from personal property, investments, etc. 2 secret; kept secret: have ~ information about it. 3 having no official position; not holding any public office: act in one's ~ capacity, not as an official, etc. 4 (of a soldier) without rank: P ~ Dodd. □ n 1 [C] private soldier. 2 in private, not in public: talk in ~.

'private ac-count, bank account opened by and drawn on by one person: My wife and I have a joint account, and in addition we each have a ~ account.

'private 'bill, bill brought before the House of Commons by an MP acting independently of his political party.

'private 'enterprise, the management of industry, etc by private individuals, companies, etc (contrasted with State ownership or control).

'private 'income, unearned income.

private member, (of the House of Commons) not a member with a position in the Government: a ~ Member's motion.

private parts (also informal privates), external sex organs.

private school, one at which fees are paid (contrasted with a State school).

private-ly adv

pri-va-tion /praɪ'veɪʃn/ n (formal) 1 [C,U] lack of the necessities of life; destitution: fall ill through ~; suffering many ~s. 2 [C] state of being deprived of something: It was a great ~ not being allowed to smoke.

privet /'prɪvɪt/ n [U] evergreen shrub used for garden hedges.

pri-vi-lege /'prɪvɪlɪdʒ/ n 1 [C] right or advantage available only to a person, class or rank, or the holder of a certain position, etc: the ~s of birth, eg that come because one is born into a wealthy family. 2 [C] special favour or benefit: It was a ~ to hear her sing. 3 [C,U] right to do or say things without risk of punishment, etc (as when Members of Parliament may say things in the House which might result in a libel case if said outside Parliament).

pri-vi-leged adj having, granted, a privilege.

privy /'prɪvɪ/ adj (old use or legal) secret; private. privy to, having secret knowledge of: ~ to the plot against the President.

the 'Privy 'Council, committee of persons appointed by the Sovereign, advising on some State affairs, but membership now being chiefly a personal dignity.

'Privy 'Councillor/'Counsellor, member of the Privy Council.

prize¹ /'praɪz/ n [C] 1 something (to be) awarded to one who succeeds in a competition, etc: win first ~. 2 (fig) anything struggled for or worth struggling for: the ~s of life. □ vt value highly: my most ~d possessions.

prize² /praɪz/ vt ⇨ prise.

pro /prəʊ/ n [C] (pl ~s) (informal) (short for) professional (player): a ~tennis ~.

pro- /prəʊ/ prefix 1 supporting; in favour of: pro-Chinese. 2 acting for: pro-vice-'chancellor.

the, pros and cons, the arguments for and against.

prob-abil-ity /ˈprɒbəˈbɪləti/ n (pl -ities) 1 [U] quality of being probable. in all probability, most probably. 2 [U] likelihood: There is not much ~ of his succeeding. 3 [C] (most) probable event or result: What are the probabilities?

prob-able /ˈprɒbəbl/ adj likely to happen or to prove true or correct: the ~ result; a ~ winner. □ n [C] person who will most likely be chosen, eg for a team.

prob-ably /-əbəl/ adv

prob-ate /ˈprəʊbeɪt/ n (legal) 1 [U] the official process of proving the validity of a will: take out/grant ~ of a will. 2 [C] copy of a will with a certificate showing that it is correct. □ vt (US) establish the validity of a will (GB = prove).

pro-ba-tion /ˈprəʊbeɪʃn/ US: prəʊ-/ n [U] 1 testing of a person's conduct, abilities, qualities, etc before he is finally accepted for a position, admitted into a society, etc: an officer on ~. 2 system by which (esp young) offenders are allowed to go unpunished for their first offence while they continue to live without further breaking of the law: be on/get three years' ~.

prob-ation officer, official who watches over the behaviour of offenders who are on probation.

pro-ba-tional /-əl/ adj prob-ation-er, (a) hospital nurse receiving training and still on probation(1). (b) offender who is on probation(2).

probe /prəʊb/ n [C] 1 thin instrument with a blunt end, used by doctors for learning about the depth and direction of a wound, etc. 2 (journalism) investigation (into a scandal, etc). 3 object used to investigate an unknown area: a space-~ to the moon. □ vt 1 examine with a probe. 2 investigate or examine thoroughly (eg the causes of something).

prob-lem /ˈprɒbləm/ n [C] question to be solved or decided, esp something difficult: mathematical ~s.

prob-lem-atic /ˈprɒbləmˈætɪk/ adj (esp of a result) doubtful; that cannot be foreseen.

prob-lem-ati-cally /-kəl/ adv pro-bos-cis /ˈprɒbɒsɪs/ n [C] (pl ~es) 1 elephant's trunk. 2 long part of the mouth of some insects.

pro-ced-ure /ˈprəʊsɪdʒə(r)/ n [C,U] (the regular) order of doing things, esp legal and political: the usual ~ at committee meetings.

pro-ced-ural /ˈprəʊsɪdʒərəl/ adj pro-ceed /ˈprəʊsiːd/ vi 1 go forward; continue, go on: Let us ~ to business/to the next item on the agenda. 2 come, arise (from): famine, plague and other evils ~ing from war. 3 take legal action (against).

pro-ceed-ing /ˈprəʊsiːdɪŋ/ n 1 [U] course of action; (way of) behaving: What is our best way of ~? 2 [C] something done: There have been suspicious ~s in committee meetings. 3 (pl) legal action (against): start legal ~s against a person. 4 (pl) records (of the activities of a society, etc): the P~s of the Archaeological Society.

pro-ceeds /ˈprəʊsiːdz/ n pl financial results, profits, of an undertaking: All the ~ will go to the Red Cross.

pro-cess¹ /ˈprəʊses/ US: ˈprɒses/ n 1 [C] connected series of actions, changes, etc esp if they are involuntary or unconscious: the ~es of digestion, reproduction and growth. 2 [C] series of operations deliberately undertaken: Unloading the cargo was a slow ~. 3 [C] method, esp one used in manufacture or industry: the ~ of melting iron. 4 [U] forward movement; progress: a building in ~ of construction. 5 [C] (legal) action at law; formal start of this. □ vt 1 treat (material, food) in order to preserve it: ~ leather; ~ed cheese. 2 (photography): ~ film, develop it, etc. 3 (computers): ~ tape/information, put it through the system in order to obtain the information.

pro-cess² /ˈprəʊses/ vi (formal) walk in or as if in procession.

pro-ces-sion /ˈprəʊseɪʃn/ n 1 [C] number of persons, vehicles, etc moving forward and following each other in an orderly way: a funeral ~. 2 [U] act of moving forward in this way: walking in ~ through the streets.

pro-ces-sional /-ʃənl/ adj of, for, used in, processions: ~al music.

pro-claim /ˈprɒkleɪm/ vt 1 make known publicly or officially; declare: ~ war/peace; ~ a man (to be) a traitor/that he is a traitor. 2 show (the usual word): His accent ~ed that he was a Scot.

proc-la-ma-tion /ˌprɒkləˈmeɪʃn/ n 1 [U] proclaiming: by public ~. 2 [C] that which is proclaimed: issue/make a ~.

pro-con-sul /ˌprəʊˈkɒnsəl/ n [C] (modern use) governor of a colony or dominion.

pro-con-su-lar /ˌprəʊˈkɒnsjələ(r)/ US: -səl-/ adj pro-con-su-late /-lət/ n [C] position of a proconsul; his term of office.

pro-cras-ti-nate /ˌprəʊˈkræstɪneɪt/ vi (formal) delay action: He ~d until it was too late.

pro-cras-ti-na-tion /ˌprəʊˈkræstɪˈneɪʃn/ n [U] pro-create /ˈprəʊkreɪt/ vt (formal) give birth to.

pro-cre-ation /ˌprəʊkreɪʃn/ n [C,U] pro-cure /ˈprɒkjʊə(r)/ vi (formal) 1 obtain, esp with care or effort: ~ an abortion. 2 (old use) bring about; cause: ~ his death by poison.

prod /prɒd/ vt, vi (-dd-) 1 push or poke with something pointed: ~ding (at) the bear through the bars of the cage. 2 (fig) urge an action: I was always ~ding her to see her doctor. □ n [C] prodding action: She gave him a ~ with her umbrella.

pro-di-gal /'prɒdɪɡl/ adj (formal) spending or using too much: a ~ administration, spending public funds too freely.

pro-di-gious /prə'dɪdʒəs/ adj enormous; 'surprisingly great; wonderful: a ~ sum of money.

pro-di-gious-ly adv

pro-di-gy /'prɒdɪdʒi/ n [C] (pl -ies) something wonderful because it seems to be contrary to the laws of nature; person who has unusual or remarkable abilities or who is a remarkable example of something.

pro-duce¹ /'prɒdʒuː/ US: -duːz/ n [U] that which is produced, esp by farming: garden/farm/agricultural ~.

pro-duce² /prə'dʒuːs/ US: -duːz/ vt, vi 1 put or bring forward to be looked at or examined: ~ one's railway ticket when asked to do so. 2 manufacture; make; grow; create: We must ~ more food and import less. 3 give birth to; lay (eggs). 4 cause; bring about: success ~d by hard work and enthusiasm; a film that ~d a sensation. 5 organize (a play, film) for the stage, TV, etc.

pro-ducer /prə'dʒuːsə(r)/ US: -duː-/ n [C] 1 person who manufactures goods (contrasted with the consumer). 2 person responsible for presenting a play in the theatre or for the production of a film or a radio or TV programme. ⇨ director.

prod-uct /'prɒdʌkt/ n [C] 1 thing produced (by nature or by man): metal ~s from Germany. 2 result; outcome: The plan was the ~ of many hours of careful thought. 3 (maths) quantity obtained by multiplication. 4 (chem) substance obtained by chemical reaction.

pro-duc-tion /prə'dʌkʃn/ n [U] process of producing: the ~ of crops/manufactured goods. ⇨ mass production. 2 [U] quantity produced: a fall/increase in ~. 3 [C] thing produced: his early ~s as a writer, his first novels, plays, etc.

pro-duc-tive /prə'dʌktɪv/ adj 1 able to produce; fertile: ~ land. 2 resulting in: ~ of happiness. 3 producing things economically: ~ methods.

pro-duc-tive-ly adv

pro-duc-tiv-ity /prə'dʌk'tɪvəti/ n [U] being productive; power of being productive: a ~ bonus for workers.

produc-tivity agreement, (as part of a wage settlement) better pay and conditions for an increased output.

pro-fane /prə'feɪn/ US: prəu-/ adj 1 (formal) (contrasted with sacred, holy) worldly: ~ literature. 2 having or showing contempt for God and sacred things: ~ language. □ vt treat (sacred or holy places, things) with contempt, without proper reverence: ~ the name of God.

pro-fane-ly adv

pro-fane-ries /prə'fæniəri/ US: prəu-/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] use of profane conduct, speech or language. 2 (pl) profane language.

pro-fess /prə'fes/ vt, vi 1 declare that one has (beliefs, likes, ignorance, interests, etc): He ~ed a great interest in my welfare. 2 declare one's faith in (a religion, Christ): ~ Islam. 3 claim; represent oneself: I don't ~ to be an expert on that subject.

pro-fessed adj (a) self-confessed: a ~ed Christian. (b) having taken religious vows: a ~ed nun.

pro-fes-sion /prə'feɪʃn/ n [C] 1 occupation, esp one needing advanced education and special training, eg the law, teaching, medicine. 2 statement or declaration (of belief, feeling, etc): ~s of faith/loyalty.

pro-fes-sional /prə'feɪʃnəl/ adj 1 of a profession (1): ~ skill; ~ men, eg doctors, lawyers. 2 doing or practising something for payment or to make a living: ~ football. ⇨ amateur. □ n [C] 1 (abbr = pro) person who teaches or engages in some kind of sport for money. 2 person who does something for payment that others do (without payment) for pleasure: ~ musicians. turn professional, become a professional.

pro-fes-sion-ally /-nəli/ adv

pro-fes-sion-al-ism /-ɪzəm/ n [U] (a) high standard of a profession (1). (b) the practice of employing professionals (2) to play games.

prof-es-sor /prə'fesə(r)/ n [C] university teacher at the highest level, holding a chair of some branch of learning; (US also) teacher or instructor.

prof-es-sor-ial /prə'fɛsəriəl/ adj prof-es-sor-ship /-ʃɪp/ professor's post.

prof-fer /'prɒfə(r)/ vt (formal) offer.

pro-fi-ciency /prə'fɪ:nsi/ n [U] being skilled: a certificate of ~ in English.

pro-fi-cient /prə'fɪʃnt/ adj skilled: ~ in using a calculator.

pro-fi-ci-ent-ly adv

pro-file /'prəʊfaɪl/ n [C] 1 side view, esp of the head. 2 edge or outline of something seen against a background. 3 brief biography, as given in a periodical or on TV. □ vt draw, show, in profile.

profit¹ /'prɒfɪt/ n 1 [U] advantage or good obtained from something: gain ~ from one's studies. 2 [C, U] money gained in business, etc: sell a bike at a ~; gross/net ~.

'profit-margin, difference between the cost of purchase or production and the selling price.

'profit-sharing, the sharing of profits between employers and employees.

profit-less adj

profit² /'prɒfɪt/ vt, vi (of persons) gain or be helped: I have ~ed by your advice.

prof-it-able /'prɒfɪtəbl/ adj 1 bringing profit: ~ investments. 2 (fig) useful: a deal that was ~ to all of us.

prof-it-ably /-əbli/ adv

profiteer /ˌprɒfɪtɪə(r)/ vi make large profits, esp by taking advantage in times of difficulty, eg in war. □ n [C] person who does this.

profligate /ˈprɒflɪɡət/ adj (formal) 1 (of a person, his behaviour) shamelessly immoral. 2 (formal) (of the spending of money) very extravagant: ~ of one's inheritance. □ n [C] such a person.

profound /prəˈfaʊnd/ adj 1 (formal) deep: a ~ sleep. 2 needing, showing, having, great knowledge: a man of ~ learning. 3 needing much thought to understand: ~ mysteries.

profoundly adv deeply: ~ly grateful.

profundity /prəˈfʌndəti/ n [U] (formal) depth: the ~ of his knowledge.

profuse /prəˈfjuːs/ adj (formal) 1 very plentiful: ~ gratitude. 2 extravagant: He was ~ in his apologies, apologized almost too much.

profusely adv

profusion /prəˈfjuːʒn/ n [U] (formal) great supply: flowers in ~.

progenitor /prəʊˈdʒenɪtə(r)/ n [C] (formal) = ancestor.

progeny /ˈprɒdʒəni/ n (collective sing) (formal) offspring; descendants.

prognosis /prɒɡˈnəʊsɪs/ n [C] (pl -noses /-sɪz/) (med) forecast of the probable course of a disease or illness. ⇨ diagnosis.

prognostic /prɒɡˈnɒstɪk/ adj, n [C] (formal) (that which is) warning, indicating, etc: ~ of failure.

prognosticate /prɒɡˈnɒstɪkeɪt/ vt (formal) predict: ~ trouble.

prognostication /prɒɡˈnɒstɪˈkeɪʃn/ n [C, U] programme (also and US -gram) /ˈprəʊɡræm/ n [C] 1 list of items, events, etc, eg for a concert, for radio or TV or for a sports meeting; list of names of singers at a concert, actors in a play, etc. 2 plan of what is to be done: a political ~. What's the ~ for tomorrow? What are we/you going to do? 3 coded collection of information, data, etc fed into a computer. □ vt make a programme of or for; plan.

programmer, person who prepares a computer programme.

progress /ˈprɒɡres/ US: 'prɒɡ-/ n 1 [U] forward movement; improvement; development: making fast ~. in progress, being made, done. make good progress, (a) (of health) improve satisfactorily. (b) (of a task) do it well.

progress² /prəˈɡres/ vi make progress: The work is ~ing steadily. She is ~ing well in her studies.

progression /prəˈɡresjən/ n [U] moving forward; improvement.

progressive /prəˈɡresɪv/ adj 1 making continuous forward movement. 2 increasing by regular amounts: ~ taxation. 3 (of a disease) getting worse. 4 improving; supporting or favouring reform, modernization: a ~ political party. □ n [C] person supporting a progressive (political) policy.

progressive-ly adv

prohibit /prəˈhɪbɪt/ US: prəʊ-/ vt say that something must not be done, that somebody must not do something: Smoking is strictly ~ed in libraries.

prohibition /ˌprəʊɪˈbɪʃn/ n 1 [U] prohibiting. 2 [C] law or order that forbids: a ~ against smoking.

prohibitive /prəˈhɪbɪtɪv/ US: prəʊ-/ adj 1 intended to prevent use or abuse: ~ laws to stop racialism. 2 (informal) have the effect of prohibiting: ~ prices.

project /ˈprɒdʒekt/ n [C] (plan for a) scheme or undertaking: a ~ to study community welfare.

project² /prəˈdʒekt/ vt, vi 1 make plans for: ~ a new dam/waterworks. 2 cause a shadow, an outline, a picture from a film, slide, etc to fall on a surface, etc: ~ a beam of light on to a wall. 3 say a person has feelings (usually unpleasant ones such as guilt, inferiority) that one has oneself: She always ~s her own bad temper onto her colleagues. 4 make known the characteristics of: Does the BBC World Service adequately ~ Great Britain, give listeners right ideas about British life, etc? 5 throw; send: to ~ missiles into space. 6 draw (a solid thing) on a flat surface using straight lines through every point of it from a centre; make (a map) in this way. 7 stand out beyond the surface nearby: a balcony that ~s over the street.

projectile /prəˈdʒektaɪl/ US: -tɪl/ n [C] something (to be) sent forward, esp from a gun or launching-pad.

projection /prəˈdʒekʃn/ n [C] the act of projecting (all senses); [C] something that projects or has been projected.

projection room, (in a cinema) room from which pictures are projected on to the screen.

projectionist /-ʃənɪst/, person who, in a cinema, projects the films on to the screen.

projector /prəˈdʒektə(r)/ n [C] apparatus for projecting pictures by rays of light on to a screen: a ~cinema/slide ~.

proletariat /ˌprəʊləˈtɛəriət/ n [C] (modern use) the wage-earners contrasted with the owners of industry and capital (called the bourgeoisie).

proletarian /-iən/ n [C], adj (member) of the proletariat.

proliferate /prəˈlɪfəreɪt/ US: prəʊ-/ vi, vt (formal) 1 reproduce, by rapid multiplication of cells, new parts, etc. 2 (fig) reproduce; exist in large numbers: guerrillas proliferating in the hills.

proliferation /prəˈlɪfəˈreɪʃn/ US: prəʊ-/ n [U] prolific /prəˈlɪfɪk/ adj (formal) producing much or many: a ~ author.

pro-logue /'prəʊlɒg/ US: -lɔ:g/ n [C] 1 introductory (part of a) poem: the 'P~' to the 'Canterbury Tales'. 2 (fig) first of a series of events.

pro-long /prə'lon/ US: -lɔ:g/ vt make longer: ~ a visit.

pro-longed adj continuing for a long time: a ~ed discussion.

pro-lon-ga-tion /,prəʊlɒŋ'geɪʃn/ US: -lɔ:ŋ-/ n [C, U] prom-en-ade /,prɒmə'næd/ US: -'neɪd/ n [C] 1 (place suitable for, made for, a) walk or ride taken in public, for exercise or pleasure, esp along the waterfront at a seaside resort. 2 (US) formal dance or ball (for a class in a high school or college). □ vi, vt go, take, up and down a promenade.

promi-nence /'prɒmɪnəns/ n 1 [U] the state of being prominent. 2 [C] prominent(1) part or place: a ~ in the middle of a plain.

promi-nent /'prɒmɪnənt/ adj 1 standing out; easily seen: ~ cheekbones; the most ~ feature in the landscape. 2 (of persons) distinguished: ~ politicians. 3 important: play a ~ part in public life.

promi-nent-ly adv

prom-is-cu-ity /,prɒmɪ'skju:əti/ n [U] (state of) being promiscuous.

pro-mis-cu-ous /prə'mɪskjuəs/ adj (esp) indiscriminate; casual (esp in sexual relationships): ~ teenagers.

pro-mis-cu-ous-ly adv

prom-ise ¹ /'prɒmɪs/ n 1 [C] written or spoken undertaking to do, or not to do, give, something, etc: make/give/keep/carry out/break a ~. ⇨ moon¹ (2). 2 [C] that which one undertakes to do, etc: It was a ~ so I'm doing it. 3 [C] (something that gives) hope of success or good results: a writer who shows much ~, seems likely to succeed.

prom-ise ² /'prɒmɪs/ vt, vi 1 make a promise(1) to: He ~d (me) to be here/that he would be here at 6 o'clock. 2 give cause for expecting: The clouds ~ rain.

prom-is-ing adj likely to succeed, have (the possibility of) good results, etc: make a promising start as a student.

prom-on-tory /'prɒməntri/ US: -tɔ:ri/ n [C] (-pl -ies) high point of land standing out from the coastline.

pro-mote /prə'məʊt/ vt 1 give (a person) higher position or rank: He was ~d sergeant/to sergeant/to the rank of sergeant. 2 help to organize and start; help the progress of: try to ~ good feelings (between...).

pro-mo-ter, (esp) person who supports with money, etc new trading companies, professional sports, etc.

pro-mo-tion /prə'məʊʃn/ n 1 [U] promoting or being promoted: He has got/gained ~. 2 [C] instance of promoting or being promoted: He resigned because ~s were few. 3 advertising using publicity, etc: 'sales ~, advertising, publicizing, one's products.

prompt ¹ /prɒmpt/ adj acting, done, sent, given, without delay: a ~ reply; at 6pm ~.

prompt-ly adv

prompt-ness n [U]

prompt ² /prɒmpt/ vt 1 be the reason causing (a person to do something): He was ~ed by patriotism. 2 follow the text of a play and tell (an actor) what to say if he forgets. □ n [C] action of prompting(2).

prompt-er, person who prompts actors.

prom-ul-gate /'prɒmlgeɪt/ vt (formal) 1 make public, announce officially (a decree, a new law, etc). 2 make known beliefs, knowledge.

prom-ul-ga-tion /,prɒml'geɪʃn/ n [U] prone /prəʊn/ adj 1 (stretched out, lying) face downwards: in a ~ position. 2 prone to, have a tendency: ~ to accidents (and other generally undesirable things). Some people seem to be 'accident' ~.

prong /prɒŋ/ US: prɔ:ŋ/ n [C] (something like) one of the long, pointed parts of a fork.

pro-noun /'prəʊnaʊn/ n [C] word used in place of a noun or noun phrase, eg he, it, hers, me, them (marked pron in this dictionary).

pro-nounce /prə'naʊns/ vt, vi 1 make the sound of (a word, etc): The 'b' in 'debt' is not ~d. 2 declare, announce (esp formally, solemnly or officially): Has judgement been ~d yet? 3 (formal) declare as one's opinion: He ~d himself in favour of the plan. 4 (legal) pass judgement (in a law court): ~ for/against him.

pro-nounce-able /-əbl/ adj (of sounds, words) that can be pronounced.

pro-nounced adj definite; easy to notice: a man of ~d opinions/with a ~d foreign accent.

pro-nounce-ment n [C] formal statement or declaration.

pro-nun-ciation /prə'naʊnsɪ'eɪʃn/ n 1 [U] way in which a language is spoken: the ~ of English. 2 [U] person's way of speaking a language, or words of a language: His ~ is improving. 3 [C] way in which a word is pronounced: Which of these ~s do you recommend?

proof ¹ /pru:f/ adj proof (against), giving safety or protection; able to resist: ~ against bullets; 'bullet-~'; 'water-~'; 'sound-~'; 'splinter-~'; (fig) ~ against temptation. ⇨ foolproof. □ vt make safe or resistant (esp make cloth waterproof).

proof ² /pru:f/ n 1 [U] evidence (in general), or [C] a particular piece of evidence, that is sufficient to show that something is a fact: Is there any ~ that the accused man was at the scene of the crime? 2 [U] demonstrating; testing of whether something is true, is a fact, etc: He produced documents in ~ of his claim. 3 [C] test, trial, examination. 4 [C] trial copy of something printed or engraved, for approval before other copies are printed. 5 [U] standard of strength of distilled alcoholic liquors: This rum is 30 per cent ~.

prop¹ /prɒp/ n [C] 1 support used to keep something up: a clothes~, holding up a line on which laundered clothes are drying. 2 (fig) person who supports another person: He is the ~ of his parents in their old age. □ vt (-pp-) 1 support; keep in position: Use this box to ~ the door open/to ~ up the ladder. 3 (fig) support: He can't always expect his colleagues to ~ him up.

prop² /prɒp/ n [C] (usually pl) (abbr of) (stage) property(5).

propa-ganda /,prɒpə'gændə/ n [U] (means of, methods for the) spreading of information, doctrines, ideas, etc: political ~; (used as an adjective) ~ plays/films.

propa-gan-dize (also -ise) /-daɪz/ vi engage in propaganda.

propa-gate /'prɒpəgeɪt/ vt, vi (formal) 1 increase the number of (plants, animals, diseases) by natural process from the parent stock: Trees ~ themselves by seeds. 2 spread more widely: ~ news/knowledge. 3 (of animals and plants) reproduce.

propa-ga-tion /,prɒpə'geɪʃn/ n [U] propagating: the propagation of disease by insects.

pro-pel /prə'pel/ vt (-ll-) force to move forward: a boat ~led by oars.

pro-pel-lant, (or -lent) /-ənt/ adj, n [C] something used to produce forward motion, eg fuel that burns to fire a rocket, etc.

pro-pel-ler, two or more blades which turn to move a ship, helicopter, an aircraft, etc.

propelling pencil, pencil with a lead that can be extended by turning the outer casing.

prop-en-sity /prə'pensəti/ n [C] (pl -ies) (formal) natural tendency: a ~ to exaggerate.

proper /'prɒpə(r)/ adj 1 right, correct, fitting, suitable: Are you doing it the ~ way? Is this the ~ tool for the job? 2 in conformity with, paying regard to, the conventions of society: ~ behaviour. 3 (placed after the noun) strictly so called; genuine: architecture ~, excluding, for example, the question of water-supply, electric current, etc. 4 (informal) great: We're in a ~ mess.

proper fraction, (eg $\frac{1}{2}$, $\frac{3}{4}$) one in which the number above the line is smaller than that below the line.

proper noun/name, (gram) name used for an individual person, town, object, place, etc eg Mary, Prague, Mars.

proper-ly adv (a) in a correct manner: behave ~ly. (b) (informal) thoroughly: He was ~ly beaten by the champion.

prop-erty /'prɒpəti/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] (collectively) things owned; possessions: Don't take my bike—it's not your ~. 2 [C] area of land or land and buildings: He has a small ~ (eg a house) in Kent. 3 [U] ownership; the fact of owning or being owned: P ~ has its obligations, eg you must look after it. 4 [C] special quality that belongs to something: the chemical properties of iron. 5 (theatre) (abbr prop) article of dress or furniture or other thing (except scenery) used on the stage in the performance of a play.

prop-er-tied /'prɒpətɪd/ adj owning property, esp land.

prop-h-ecy /'prɒfɪsi/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] power of telling what will happen in the future: have the gift of ~. 2 [C] statement that tells what will happen: His ~ came true.

prop-h-esy /'prɒfɪsaɪ/ vt, vi (pt, pp -ied) 1 say what will happen: ~ war/that war will break out. 2 speak as a prophet.

prophet /'prɒfɪt/ n [C] 1 person who teaches religion and claims that his teaching comes to him directly from God: the ~ Isaiah. 2 pioneer of a new theory, cause, etc: William Morris, one of the early ~s of socialism. 3 person who tells, or claims to tell, what will happen in the future: I'm not a good ~ weather-~.

prophet-ess /'prɒfɪtəs/ n [C] woman prophet.

pro-ph-etic /prə'fetik/ adj of a prophet or prophecy: Her dreams were ~.

pro-ph-eti-cally /-kli/ adv

pro-pi-ti-ate /prə'pɪʃɪət/ vt (formal) do something to take away the anger of; win the favour or support of: offer a sacrifice to ~ the gods.

pro-pi-ti-ation /prə'pɪʃɪ'eɪʃn/ n [U] pro-pi-ti-atory /prə'pɪʃɪətəri/ US: -tɔːri/ adj pro-pi-tious /prə'pɪʃəs/ adj (formal) favourable: ~ weather.

pro-pi-tious-ly adv

prop-or-tion /prə'pɔːʃn/ n 1 [U] relation of one thing to another in quantity, size, etc; relation of a part to the whole: The ~ of imports to exports is worrying the government. in proportion to, relative to: payment in ~ to work done. get sth/be out of proportion (to), (make it) bear no relation (to): When you're angry, you often get things out of ~, have an exaggerated view of things. 2 [C] part; share: You have not done your ~ of the work. 3 (often pl) the correct relation of parts or of the sizes of the several parts: a room of good ~s. 4 (pl) size; measurements: export trade of substantial ~s. 5 (maths) equality of relationship between two sets of numbers; statement that two ratios are equal (eg 4 is to 8 as 6 is to 12). □ vt (formal) put into a correct relationship: Do you ~ your expenditure to your income?

prop-or-tion-able /-ʃənəbl/ adj = proportional.

prop-or-tional /prə'pɔːʃnəl/ adj (formal) corresponding in degree or amount (to): payment ~ to the work done.

prop,ortional ,represen'tation, system of voting so that parties have a number of representatives corresponding to the size of their success in the election.

pro-portion-ally /-nəli/ adv pro-portion-ate /prə'pɔːʃənət/ adj (formal) = proportional.

pro-portion-ate-ly adv

pro-po-sal /prə'pəʊzl/ n 1 [U] proposing. 2 [C] plan or scheme: a ~ for peace. 3 [C] offer (esp of marriage): five ~s in one week.

pro-pose /prə'pəʊz/ vt, vi 1 offer or put forward for consideration, as a suggestion, plan or purpose: I ~ starting early/an early start/that we should start early. 2 offer (marriage). 3 put forward (a person's name) for an office; nominate: I ~ Mr Smith for chairman.

pro-poser, person who proposes.

prop-osition /prəpə'zɪʃn/ n [C] 1 statement; assertion: a ~ stated so well that it needs no explanation. 2 question or problem (with or without the answer or solution): Tunnelling under the English Channel is a big ~. 3 (informal) matter to be dealt with, esp something immoral or illegal, eg an indecent suggestion made to a girl. \square vi (sl) make a proposition (3) to.

pro-pound /prə'paʊnd/ vt (formal) offer for consideration or solution: ~ a theory.

pro-pri-etary /prə'praɪətəri/ US: -teri/ adj owned or controlled by somebody; held as property: a ~ name, eg Kodak for cameras and films.

pro-pri-eter /prə'praɪətə(r)/ n [C] owner, esp of a hotel, store, land or patent.

pro-pri-ess /prə'praɪətrɪs/ n [C] woman proprietor.

pro-pri-ety /prə'praɪəti/ n (pl -ies) (formal) 1 [U] state of being correct in behaviour and morals: a breach of ~. 2 (pl) details of correct social behaviour: observe the proprieties. 3 [U] reasonableness; fitness: I question the ~ of granting such a request, doubt whether it is right to do so.

pro-pul-sion /prə'pʌlʃn/ n [U] propelling force.

pro rata /,prəʊ 'rɑ:tə/ adv (Latin) according to the share, etc of each.

pro-rogue /prə'rəʊg/ vt bring (a session of Parliament) to an end without dissolving it (so that unfinished business may be taken up again in the next session).

pro-ro-ga-tion /,prəʊrə'geɪʃn/ n [C, U] pro-saic /prə'zeɪk/ adj (formal) dull; uninteresting; commonplace: a ~ husband.

pro-sai-cally /-kli/ adv pro-scenium /prə'siːniəm/ n [C] (pl ~s) (theatre) that part of a stage between the curtain and the orchestra; an enclosing arch.

pro-scribe /prəʊ'skraɪb/ vt 1 denounce (a person, practice, etc) as dangerous. 2 (old use) publicly put (a person) out of the protection of the law.

pro-scrip-tion /prə'skrɪpʃn/ US: prəʊ-/ n [U] proscribing or being proscribed; [C] instance of this.

prose /prəʊz/ n [U] language not in verse form. \Rightarrow poetry.

pros-ecute /'prɒsɪkjʊt/ vt start legal proceedings against: Trespassers will be ~d.

pros-ecu-tion /,prɒsɪ'kjʊːʃn/ n 1 [U] prosecuting or being prosecuted: make oneself liable to ~; [C] instance of this: start a ~ against him. 2 (collective) person and his advisers who prosecute: the case for the ~. \Rightarrow defence (3).

pros-ecutor /'prɒsɪkjʊ:tə(r)/ n [C] person who prosecutes.

pros-pect /'prɒspekt/ n 1 [C] wide view over land or sea. 2 [C] (fig) broad view before the mind, in the imagination. 3 (pl) something expected, hoped for, looked forward to: There are bright ~s for me if I accept the job. 4 [U] expectation; hope: I see no/little/not much ~ of his recovery. 5 [C] possible customer or client: He's a good ~.

pros-pect /'prɒspekt/ US: 'prɒspekt/ vi search (for): ~ing for gold.

pros-pec-tive /prə'spektɪv/ adj hoped for; anticipated: a ~ buyer; the ~ Labour candidate.

pros-pec-tor /'prɒspektə(r)/ n [C] person who explores a region looking for gold or other valuable ores, etc.

pro-spec-tus /prə'spektʌs/ n [C] (pl ~es) printed leaflet advertising something, eg a book about to be published.

pros-per /'prɒspə(r)/ vi, vt succeed; do well: The business ~ed.

pros-per-ity /prɒ'sperəti/ n [U] state of being successful; good fortune: a life of happiness and ~; live in ~.

pros-per-ous /'prɒspərəs/ adj successful; rich: a ~ business; ~ years.

pros-per-ous-ly adv

pros-ti-tute /'prɒstɪtjuːt/ US: -tuːt/ n [C] person who offers herself or himself for sexual intercourse for payment. \square vi 1 (reflexive) make a prostitute of (oneself). 2 put to wrong or unworthy uses: ~ one's reputation, lose it; ~ one's talents, use in an unworthy cause.

pros-ti-tu-tion /,prɒstɪ'tjuːʃn/ US: -'tuː-/ n [U] practice of prostituting.

pros-trate /'prɒstreɪt/ adj 1 lying stretched out on the ground, usually face downward, eg because exhausted, or to show submission or deep respect. 2 (fig) overcome (with grief, etc); conquered. \square vi /prə'streɪt/ US: 'prɒstreɪt/ 1 make oneself, cause to be, prostrate: trees ~d by the gale. 2 make helpless: She is ~d with grief.

pros-tra-tion /prə'streɪʃn/ n [C, U] pro-tag-on-ist /prəʊ'tæɡənɪst/ n [C] (formal) chief person in a drama; (by extension) chief person in a story or factual event.

pro-tect /prə'tekt/ vt keep safe (from danger, enemies; against attack): well ~ed from the cold/against the weather.

pro-tection /prə'tekʃn/ n [U] 1 protecting or being protected: These plants need ~ against the sun. 2 [U] system of protecting home industry against foreign competition. 3 [C] person or thing that protects: wearing a heavy coat as a ~ against the cold.

pro-tec-tive /prə'tektɪv/ adj 1 giving protection: a ~ covering. 2 protective (to-wards), (of persons) with a wish to protect: A mother will naturally feel ~ towards her children.

pro-tec-tive-ly adv

pro-tec-tor /prə'tektə(r)/ n [C] 1 person who protects. 2 something made or designed to give protection.

pro-tec-tor-ate /prə'tektərət/ n [C] country which is under the protection of one of the great powers.

pro-tégé (feminine = -gée) /'prɒtʒeɪ/ US: /prəʊ'tʒeɪ/ n [C] person to whom another gives protection and help (usually over a long period).

pro-tein /'prəʊti:n/ n [C,U] body-building substance essential to good health, in such foods as milk, eggs, meat, fish.

pro-test ¹ /'prəʊtest/ n 1 [C,U] statement of disapproval or objection: He paid without ~, without making any objection. 2 (as an adjective) expressing protest: a ~ march.

pro-test ² /prə'test/ vt,vi 1 affirm strongly; assert against opposition: He ~ed his innocence. 2 raise an objection, say something (against): I ~ against being called an old fool.

pro-tester, person who protests.

pro-test-ing-ly adv

Prot-es-tant /'prɒtɪst/ n adj (member) of any of the Christian groups that separated from the Church of Rome at the time of the Reformation (16th century), or their later branches.

prot-esta-tion /'prɒtɪ'steɪʃn/ n [C] (formal) serious declaration: ~s of innocence.

pro-to-col /'prəʊtəkəl/ n 1 [C] first or original draft of an agreement (esp between States), signed by those making it, in preparation for a treaty. 2 [U] code of behaviour as practised on diplomatic occasions: Was the seating arranged according to ~?

pro-ton /'prəʊtɒn/ n [C] positively charged particle forming part of an atomic nucleus. ⇨ electron.

pro-to-type /'prəʊtəʊp/ n [C] first or original example from which others have been or will be copied or developed.

pro-to-zoa /'prəʊtə'zəʊə/ n pl (division of the animal kingdom consisting of) animals of the simplest type formed of a single cell.

pro-tract /prə'trækt/ US: prəʊ-/ vt lengthen the time taken by: a ~ed visit/argument.

pro-trac-tion /prə'trækʃn/ US: prəʊ-/ n [U] lengthening out.

pro-trac-tor /prə'træktə(r)/ US: prəʊ-/ n [C] instrument, usually a semicircle, marked (0° to 180°) for measuring and drawing angles.

pro-trude /prə'trud/ US: prəʊ-/ vi,vi (cause to) stick out or project: protruding teeth.

pro-tru-sion /prə'tru:ʒn/ US: prəʊ-/ n [U] protruding; [C] something that protrudes.

pro-tru-sive /prə'tru:sɪv/ US: prəʊ-/ adj protruding.

pro-tu-ber-ance /prə'tju:bərəns/ US: prəʊ-/ n (formal) [U] bulging; [C] bulge or swelling.

pro-tu-ber-ant /prə'tju:bərənt/ US: prəʊ-/ adj (formal) curving or swelling outwards; bulging.

proud /praʊd/ adj (-er, -est) 1 (in a good sense) having or showing a proper pride or dignity: ~ of their success/of being so successful. 2 (in a bad sense) having or showing too much pride: He was too ~ to join our party. 3 of which one is or may be properly proud; splendid: It was a ~ day for the school when its team won the national chess championship. ⇨ houseproud.

proud-ly adv

prov-able /'pru:vəbl/ adj that can be proved.

prove /'pru:v/ vt,vi (pp ~d, or, as below, ~n /'pru:vən/) 1 supply proof of; show beyond doubt to be true: ~ that he is guilty. Can you ~ it (to me)? His guilt was easily ~n. The exception proves the rule, the theory, etc is valid in most cases (and so it is useful). 2 establish the genuineness, quality or accuracy of: ~ a man's worth. 3 be seen or found (to be): The new typist ~d (to be) useless. Our wood supply ~d (to be) insufficient.

prov-erb /'prɒvə:b/ n [C] popular short saying, with words of advice or warning, eg 'It takes two to make a quarrel'.

prov-erb-ial /prə'və:biəl/ adj widely known and talked about: His stupidity is ~ial.

prov-erbi-ally /-əli/ adv

pro-vide /prə'vaɪd/ vi,vi 1 give, supply (what is needed or useful, esp what a person needs in order to live): providing the children with food; ~ food and clothes for the family. 2 do what is necessary: ~ against the risk of infection. 3 state: The agreement ~s that the tenant shall pay for repairs to the building.

pro-vider, person who provides.

pro-vided /prə'vaɪdɪd/ conj on condition (that): I'll come ~ that he stays away.

provi-dence /'prɒvɪdəns/ n 1 P ~ God, as believed to be the supreme creator, and all his supposed actions. 2 [U] (old use) thrift; being provident or prudent (about future needs).

provi-dent /'prɒvɪdənt/ adj (formal) (careful in) providing for future needs or events, esp in old age.

provi-dent-ly adv

pro-vid-ing /prə'vaɪdɪŋ/ conj = provided.

prov-ince /'prɒvɪns/ n [C] 1 large administrative division of a country. 2 the ~s, all the country outside the capital: The pop group is now touring the ~s. 3 district under an archbishop. 4 area of learning or knowledge; department of activity: That is outside my ~, not something with which I can or need deal.

prov-in-cial /prə'vɪnʃl/ adj 1 of a province(1): ~ government. 2 of the provinces(2): ~ roads. 3 having, typical of, the speech, manners, views, etc of a person living in the provinces (esp in former times when communications were poor): a ~ accent. □ n [C] person from the provinces(2).

prov-in-ci-ally /-ʃəli/ adv pro-vi-sion /prə'vɪʒn/ n 1 [U] providing, preparation (esp for future needs): make ~ for one's old age, eg by saving money. 2 [C] amount provided: issue a ~ of meat to the troops. 3 (pl) food; food supplies: have a good supply of ~s. 4 [C] condition in a legal document, eg a clause in a will: Have you made ~s for your children? □ vt supply with food and stores.

pro-vi-sional /prə'vɪʒnəl/ adj 1 of the present time only, and to be changed or replaced later: a ~ government/chairman. 2 (of an appointment or acceptance eg as an undergraduate) to be confirmed if certain conditions are met.

pro-vi-sion-ally /-nəli/ adv pro-viso /prə'vaɪzəʊ/ n: with the ~ that..., on condition that...

provo-ca-tion /prəvə'keɪʃn/ n 1 [U] provoking or being provoked: She shouts at/on the slightest ~. 2 [C] something that provokes or annoys.

pro-vo-ca-tive /prəvəkətɪv/ adj causing, likely to cause, anger.

pro-vok-ing-ly adv

pro-w /praʊ/ n [C] pointed front of a ship or boat.

pro-w-ess /'praʊs/ n [U] (formal) bravery; valour; unusual skill or ability.

pro-wl /praʊl/ vi, vt go about quietly looking for a chance to get food (as wild animals do), or to steal, etc. □ n be on the prowl, be prowling.

pro-w-ler, animal or person that prowls.

prox-im-ity /prɒk'sɪmɪti/ n [U] nearness. in (close) proximity to, (very) near to.

proxy /'prɒksi/ n (pl -ies) 1 [C,U] (document giving) authority to represent or act for another (esp in voting at an election). 2 [C] person given a proxy: vote by ~.

prude /pru:d/ n [C] person who is extremely moral (often exaggerated or affected) in behaviour or speech: She's such a ~ — she objects to bikinis. ⇨ prudish.

pru-dery /'pru:dəri/ n (pl -ies) [U] prudish behaviour; [C] prudish act or remark.

pru-dence /'pru:dns/ n [U] careful forethought.

pru-dent /'pru:dnt/ adj acting only after careful thought or planning: a ~ housewife.

pru-dent-ly adv

prud-ish /'pru:diʃ/ adj easily shocked; extremely moral.

pru-dish-ly adv

prune¹ /pru:n/ n [C] dried plum.

prune² /pru:n/ vt 1 cut away parts of (trees, bushes, etc) in order to control growth or shape: pruning the rose-bushes. 2 (fig) take out unnecessary parts from: a ~ report of unnecessary detail.

pry¹ /praɪ/ vi (pt, pp pried /praɪd/) 1 pry (into), inquire too curiously (into other people's affairs). 2 pry (about), look (about) for.

pry-ing-ly adv

pry² /praɪ/ vt = prize².

psalm /sɑ:m/ n [C] sacred song or hymn, esp (the P~s) in the Bible.

pseud(o)- /sju:dəʊ US: /su:-/ prefix false; fake: pseudonym.

pseu-do-nym /'sju:dənɪm US: /'su:d-/ n [C] name taken, esp by an author, instead of his real name.

pseud-ony-mous /sju:'dɒnɪməs US: /su:-/ adj psyche /'saɪki/ n [C] 1 human soul or spirit. 2 human mind.

psyche-delic /,saɪkɪ'delɪk/ adj 1 (of drugs) of, causing, hallucinations, ecstasy, terror, etc. 2 (of visual and sound effects) acting on the mind like psychedelic drugs: ~ music.

psy-chi-atric /,saɪkɪ'ætrɪk/ adj of psychiatry: a ~ ward/clinic.

psy-chia-trist /saɪ'kɪətrɪst/ n [C] expert in psychiatry.

psy-chia-try /saɪ'kɪətri US: /sɪ-/ n [U] the study and treatment of mental illness.

psy-chic /'saɪkɪk/, psy-chi-cal /'saɪkɪkl/ adj 1 of the soul or mind. 2 of phenomena and conditions which appear to be outside physical or natural laws, eg telepathy.

psy-cho-an-al-yse (US = -lyze) /,saɪkəʊ 'ænələɪz/ vt treat (a person) by psychoanalysis.

psy-cho-an-a-ly-sis /,saɪkəʊ 'ænələsɪs/ n [U] 1 method of healing mental illnesses by tracing them, through interviews, to events in the patient's early life, and making the events and their effects known to the patient. 2 body of doctrine based on this method concerned with the investigation and treatment of emotional disturbances.

psy-cho-anal-yst /,saɪkəʊ 'ænəlist/ n [C] person who practises psychoanalysis.

psy-cho-an-a-lytic(al) /,saɪkəʊ 'ænə-lɪtɪk(l)/ adj relating to psychoanalysis.

psy-cho-logi-cal /,saɪkə'lɒdʒɪkl/ adj of psychology.

psycho,logical 'warfare, attempt at winning a struggle by affecting the opponent's mind.

psy-cho-logi-cally /-kli/ adv

psy-chol-ogist /saɪ'kɒlədʒɪst/ n [C] student of, expert in, psychology.

psy-chol-ogy /saɪ'kɒlədʒi/ n [U] science, study, of the mind and its processes.

psy-cho-path /'saɪkəʊpæθ/ n [C] person suffering from severe emotional derangement, esp one who is aggressive and antisocial.

psy-cho-pathic /'saɪkəʊ'pæθɪk/ adj psy-cho-sis /saɪ'kəʊsɪs/ n [C] (pl -choses /-kəʊsɪz/) abnormal or diseased mental state.

psy-cho-therapy /,saɪkəʊ'therəpi/ n [U] treatment by psychological methods of mental, emotional and nervous disorders.

pub /pʌb/ n [C] (common abbr and usual word for) public house.

pu-berty /'pjʊ:bəti/ n [U] stage at which a person becomes physically able to become a parent.

pu-bic /'pjʊ:bɪk/ adj of the lower front part of the abdomen: ~ hair.

pub-lic /'pʌblɪk/ adj (opposite of private) of, for, connected with, owned by, done for or done by, known to, people in general: a ~ library/park. be in the public eye, ⇨ eye ¹(1). □ n 1 the ~, members of the community in general: The ~ are not admitted. in public, not in private; openly: be seen together in ~. 2 particular section of the community: the reading ~.

public house n [C] (GB) (formal) place (not a club, hotel, etc) licensed to sell alcoholic drinks to be drunk on the premises.

public opinion poll, = opinion poll.

public ownership, ownership by the State, eg of the railways.

Public Prosecutor, State official who prosecutes.

public relations n pl (esp) relations between a government department or authority, business organization, etc and ordinary people.

'public school, (a) (GB) private school for fee-paying pupils. (b) (US and Scot) school providing free education from public funds.

public servant, person who works for the public, eg a policeman, fireman.

public spirit, readiness to do things that are for the good of the community. Hence, public-spirited adj

pub-lic-ly /-kli/ adv

pub-li-ca-tion /'pʌblɪ'keɪʃn/ n 1 [U] act of making known to the public, by publishing something. 2 [C] something published, eg a book or a periodical.

pub-lic-ity /'pʌb'lɪsəti/ n [U] 1 the state of being known to, seen by, everyone: an actress who seeks/avoids ~. 2 (business of) providing information, advertising, to interest people in general: a ~ campaign.

pub-li-cize (also -ise) /'pʌblɪsaɪz/ vt bring to the attention of the public.

pub-lish /'pʌblɪʃ/ vt 1 have (a book, periodical, etc) printed and announce that it is for sale. 2 make known to the public: ~ the news.

pub-lisher, person, company, whose business is publishing books.

puck /pʌk/ n [C] hard rubber disc used like a ball in ice-hockey.

pucker /'pʌkə(r)/ vt, vi draw or come together into small folds or wrinkles: ~ up one's lips.

pudding /'puɒɪŋ/ n 1 [C, U] (dish of) food, usually a soft, sweet mixture, served as part of a meal, eaten after the meat or fish course. 2 kind of sausage: black ~.

puddle /'pʌdl/ n [C] small, dirty pool of rain-water.

pudgy /'pʌdʒi/ adj (-ier, -iest) short, thick and fat: ~ fingers.

puer-ile /'pjʊərəɪl US: -rɪ/ adj trivial, childish: ask ~ questions.

puff¹ /pʌf/ n [C] 1 (sound of a) short, quick sending out of breath, air, etc: have a ~ at a pipe. 2 = powder-puff. 3 mass of material on a dress, etc: ~ sleeves, swelling out like balloons.

'puff-adder, poisonous African viper which can inflate the upper part of its body.

puffy adj (-ier, -iest) (a) short of breath (by running, climbing, etc). (b) swollen: ~ under the eyes.

puff² /pʌf/ vi, vt 1 breathe quickly (as after running); (of smoke, steam, etc) come out in puffs: He was ~ing hard when he jumped on to the bus. He was ~ing (away) at his cigar. 2 send out in puffs: He ~ed smoke into my face.

3 puff sth out, cause to swell with air: He ~ed out his chest with pride. (all) puffed up, (of a person) behaving conceitedly.

puf-fin /'pʌfɪn/ n [C] North Atlantic seabird with a large bill.

pug /pʌg/ n [C] breed of small dog with a flat nose.

pug-na-cious /'pʌg'neɪʃəs/ adj (formal) fond of, in the habit of, fighting.

puke /pjʊ:k/ vi, vt n [U] (sl) vomit.

pull¹ /pʊl/ n 1 [C] act of pulling: give a ~ at a rope. 2 [U] force or effort: It was a long ~ (= a long, hard climb) to the top of the mountain. 3 [C, U] (informal) power to get help or attention through influence, eg with people in high positions: He has strong ~/a great deal of ~ with the Managing Director.

pull² /pʊl/ vt, vi (For special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions, ⇨ 6 below.) 1 (contrasted with push) use force on (a person or thing) so as to draw towards or after one, or in the direction shown: The horse was ~ing a heavy cart. Would you rather push the barrow or ~ it? pull sth to pieces, (a) use force to separate its parts or to break it up into parts. (b) (fig) criticize severely by pointing out the weak points or faults: He ~ed my theory to pieces. 2 (of a boat) be rowed (by): The men ~ed for the shore. pull together, (fig) work together; co-operate. pull one's weight, do a fair share of the work. 3 pull at/on sth, (a) give a tug: ~ at/on a rope. (b) draw or suck: ~ing at his pipe. 4 pull a muscle, strain it. For other uses with nouns, ⇨ the noun entries, eg at face, leg, string, wool. 5 (sb) raid; rob; steal: ~ a bank.

6 (special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions):

pull sb/sth about, treat roughly.

pull sth apart, tear or pull into its parts.

pull sth down, destroy or demolish, eg an old building.

pull in, (a) (of a train) enter a station: The express from Rome ~ed in on time. (b) (of a motor-vehicle or boat) move in towards: The lorry driver ~ed in to the side of the road.

Hence, 'pull in n place to stop at the side of the road. pull sb in, (a) attract, draw: The new play at the National Theatre is ~ing in large audiences. (b) (informal) (of the police) arrest. pull oneself in, draw in the stomach muscles (so as to be less fat).

pull sth off, (a) drive a motor-vehicle off the road into a lay-by or hard shoulder. (b) succeed in a plan, in winning: ~ off a deal, be successful in getting agreement.

pull out (of), (a) move out (in order to pass or go round): The driver of the car ~ed out from behind the lorry. The train ~ed out of Euston on time. (b) detach, eg from a magazine. pull (sb) out (of), leave a place or situation which is too difficult to manage: Troops are being ~ed out/are ~ing out of these troubled areas.

pull (sth) over, (cause a vehicle, boat, etc to) move or steer to one side, eg to let another vehicle or boat pass: P~ over and let me pass!

pull (sb) round, (help to) recover from illness, weakness, a faint, etc.

pull through, (a) = pull round. (b) succeed in avoiding difficulties, dangers, etc. pull sb through, (a) help to recover from illness, etc. (b) help to avoid failure, help to pass an examination, etc.

pull together, ⇨ 2 above. pull oneself together, get control of oneself, of one's feelings, etc.

pull (sth) up, bring or come to a stop: The driver ~ed up when he came to the traffic lights.

pull sb up, express disapproval of him: He was ~ed up by the chairman. pull up to/with sb/sth, improve one's relative position (in a race, etc): The favourite soon ~ed up with the other horses.

pull-let /'pʊlt/ n [C] young hen, esp at the time she begins to lay eggs.

pulley /'pʊli/ n [C] (pl ~s) grooved wheel(s) for ropes or chains, used for lifting things.

pull-over /'pʊləʊvə(r)/ n [C] knitted article of clothing pulled on over the head.

pul-mon-ary /'pʌlmənəri/ US: -neri/ adj (anat) of, in, connected with, the lungs: ~ diseases; the ~ arteries, carrying blood to the lungs.

pulp /pʌlp/ n [U] 1 soft, fleshy part of fruit. 2 soft mass of other material, esp of wood fibre as used for making paper. □ vt,vi make into, become like, pulp: ~ old books.

pul-pit /'pʊlpɪt/ n [C] raised and enclosed structure in a church, used by a clergyman, esp when preaching.

pul-sate /pʌl'seɪt/ US: 'pʌlseɪt/ vt,vi (cause to) beat or throb; expand and contract rhythmically.

pul-sa-tion /pʌl'seɪʃn/ n [C,U] pulse /pʌls/ n [C] 1 the regular beat of the arteries, eg as felt at the wrist, as the blood is pumped through them by the heart. 2 (fig) activities or thrill of life or emotion: the ~ of life in a big city. □ vi beat; throb: news that sent the blood pulsing through his veins.

pul-ver-ize (also -ise) /'pʌlvəraɪz/ vt,vi 1 grind to a powder; smash completely (also fig). 2 become powder or dust.

puma /'pju:mə/ n [C] (pl ~s) large brown American animal of the cat family (also called a cougar and mountain lion).

pum-ice /'pʌmɪs/ n [U] (also ~-stone), light, porous stone (from lava) used for cleaning and polishing.

pum-mel /'pʌml/ vt (-ll-, US also -l-) beat repeatedly with the fists.

pump /pʌmp/ n [C] machine or device for forcing liquid, gas or air into, out of or through something, eg water from a well, air into a tyre: a bicycle ~. □ vt,vi 1 force, eg water, air, into, from, something using a pump: ~ petrol into a car; ~ up a tyre. 2 (fig) obtain, explain, something using repetition, etc: ~ information out of her; ~ facts into the heads of dull students.

pump-kin /'pʌmpkɪn/ n [C,U] (plant, a trailing vine, with a) large, round orange-yellow fruit, used as a vegetable and (US) as a filling for pies.

pun /pʌn/ n [C] (also called a play on words) humorous use of words which sound the same or of two meanings of the same word, eg 'The soldier laid down his arms.' □ vi (-nn-) make a pun or puns.

punch¹ /pʌntʃ/ n [C] 1 tool or machine for cutting holes in leather, metal, paper, etc. 2 tool for stamping designs on surfaces. □ vi 1 make a hole (in something) with a punch: ~ a train ticket. 2 force (nails, etc) in or out with a punch.

punch² /pʌntʃ/ n [U] drink made of wine or spirits mixed with hot water, sugar, lemons, spice, etc.

'punch-bowl, bowl in which punch is mixed.

punch³ /pʌntʃ/ vt hit hard with the fist: ~ a man on the chin. □ n 1 [C] blow given with the fist: a ~ on the nose. 2 [U] (fig) energy: a speech with plenty of ~ in it.

'punch-up, fight with the fists: The quarrel ended in a ~-up.

punc-ti-lious /pʌŋktɪlɪəs/ adj (formal) very careful to carry out duties correctly, arrive on time, etc.

punc-ti-lious-ly adv

punc-tual /'pʌŋktʃʊəl/ adj neither early nor late; coming, doing something, at the time fixed: be ~ for the lecture/in the payment of one's rent.

punc-tu-al-ity /pʌŋktʃʊəlɪti/ n [U] being punctual.

punc-tu-ally /-ʊəli/ adv

punc-tu-ate /'pʌŋktʃueɪt/ vt 1 put stops, commas, etc. eg . . . ? !, into a piece of writing. 2 interrupt from time to time: a speech ~d with cheers. ⇨ Appendix.

punc-tu-ation /pʌŋktʃʊeɪʃn/ n [U] (use of) stops, commas, etc in writing: ~ marks.

punc-ture /'pʌŋtʃə(r)/ n [C] small hole, esp one made accidentally in a tyre. □ vt, vi 1 make a puncture in: ~ an abscess. 2 experience a puncture: Two of my tyres ~ed while I was on that stony road.

pun-dit /'pʌndɪt/ n [C] 1 very learned Hindu. 2 (informal) learned teacher; pedant.

pun-gent /'pʌndʒənt/ adj (formal) 1 (of smells, tastes) sharp; stinging: a ~ sauce. 2 (fig) (of remarks) hurting: ~ criticism.

pun-ish /'pʌnɪʃ/ vt 1 cause (a person) suffering or discomfort for doing wrong: ~ a man with/by a fine. 2 treat roughly; hit: The champion ~ed his opponent severely.

pun-ish-able /-əbl/ adj that can be punished (by law).

pun-ish-ment n [U] punishing or being punished: Does the ~ment fit the crime? [C] penalty for doing wrong: severe ~ment for murder.

pun-itive /'pju:nɪtɪv/ adj (intended for) punishing.

punk /pʌŋk/ adj (sl) worthless (used in GB 1970's to describe young people who deliberately shock society through their clothes, language, pop music, etc).

punk rock, (1970's) style of fast, loud rock music using violent or antisocial themes.

pun-net /'pʌnɪt/ n [C] small basket, made of very thin wood, plastic, etc esp as a measure for fruit: strawberries, 60p a ~.

pun-ster /'pʌnstə(r)/ n [C] person who has the habit of making puns.

punt¹ /pʌnt/ n [C] flat-bottomed, shallow boat with square ends, moved by pushing the end of a long pole against the river-bed. □ vt, vi move, carry in, a punt.

punt² /pʌnt/ vi bet on a horse.

pun-ter /'pʌntə(r)/ n [C] 1 person using a punt. 2 person who bets on a horse.

puny /'pjʊni/ adj (-ier, -iest) small and weak: What a ~ little man!

pup /pʌp/ n [C] = puppy.

pupa /'pjʊpə/ n [C] (pl ~s or ~e /-pi:/) = chrysalis.

pu-pil¹ /'pjʊ:pl/ n [C] young person at school or having private lessons.

pu-pil² /'pjʊ:pl/ n [C] (anat) round opening in the centre of the iris of the eye, regulating the passage of light.

pup-pet /'pʌpɪt/ n [C] 1 doll, small figure of an animal, etc with jointed limbs moved by wires or strings, used in plays or shows called ~-plays/-shows. 2 (glove-~) doll of which the body can be put on the hand like a glove, moved by the fingers. 3 person, group of persons, whose acts are completely controlled by another: (used as an adjective) a ~ government/State.

puppy /'pʌpi/ n [C] (pl -ies) young dog.

'puppy love, love by young people.

pur-chase¹ /'pɜ:tʃəs/ n 1 [U] buying. 2 [C] (formal) something bought: I have some ~s to make.

pur-chase² /'pɜ:tʃəs/ vt buy (which is much more usual): a dearly ~d victory, eg a battle in which many lives are lost.

pur-chaser, = buyer (the usual word).

pur-dah /'pɜ:də/ n [U] (esp in Muslim communities) curtain for, convention of, keeping women from the sight of strangers, esp men: live/be in ~.

pure /pjʊə(r)/ adj (-r, -st except 5, 6 below) 1 unmixed with any other substance, etc: ~ air, free from smoke, fumes, etc. 2 of unmixed race or breed: a ~ poodle. 3 without evil or sin: ~ in body and mind. 4 (of sounds) clear and distinct: a ~ note. 5 dealing with, studied for the sake of, theory only (not applied): ~ mathematics/science. 6 nothing but: a ~ waste of time. ⇨ simple(7).

pure-ly adv (esp) entirely; completely; merely: ~ly by accident.

pu-rée /'pjʊərə/ US: pjʊə'reɪ/ n [C, U,] soup of vegetables, etc boiled and pressed through a sieve; fruit similarly treated: apple ~.

pur-ga-tive /'pɜ:gətɪv/ n [C], adj (substance) having the power to empty or cleanse the bowels.

pur-ga-tory /'pɜ:gətɪ/ US: -tɔ:rɪ/ n [C] (pl -ies) 1 (esp in Roman Catholic doctrine) condition after death in which the soul has to be purified by temporary suffering; place where souls are so purified. 2 (fig) any place of temporary suffering.

pur-ga-tor-ial /pɜ:gə'tɔ:riəl/ adj purge /'pɜ:dʒ/ vt 1 make clean or free (of physical or moral impurity): be ~d of/from sin; purging away one's sins. 2 empty (the bowels) of waste matter by means of medicine. 3 clear (oneself, a person, of a charge, of suspicion). 4 rid (eg a political party, etc) of members who are considered undesirable. □ n [C] clearing out or away: the political ~s that followed the counter-revolution.

pu-rify /'pjʊərɪfaɪ/ vt (pt, pp -ied) make pure; cleanse: ~ing the air in a factory.

pu-ri-fi-ca-tion /'pjʊərɪfɪ'keɪʃn/ n [U] pu-rist /'pjʊərɪst/ n [C] person who pays great attention to the correct use of words, grammar, style, etc.

puri-tan /'pjʊərɪtən/ n [C] 1 P~, (16th and 17th centuries, in England) member of a division of the Protestant Church which wanted simpler forms of church ceremony. 2 person who is strict in morals and religion, who considers some kinds of fun and pleasure as sinful: Don't marry a ~. □ adj of or like a Puritan or a puritan.

puri-tani-cal /'pjʊərɪ'tænikl/ adj puri-tani-cally /'pjʊərɪ'tænikli/ adv pu-rity /'pjʊərɪti/ n [U] state or quality of being pure.

purl /pɜːl/ n [C] (knitting) inverted stitch, which produces a ribbed appearance (the opposite of plain). □ vt, vi knit in this way.

pur-loin /pɜː'lɔɪn/ vi (formal) steal.

purple /'pɜːpl/ n [U], adj (colour) of red and blue mixed together.

pur-port /'pɜːpɔːt/ US: -pɔːrt/ n [C] (formal) general meaning or intention of something said or written; likely explanation of a person's actions: the ~ of what he said. □ vt /pɜːpɔːt/ 1 seem to mean: The statement ~s that... 2 claim: It's ~ed to be an original but it is really a fake.

pur-pose /'pɜːpəːs/ n [C] 1 that which one means to do, get, be, etc; plan; design; intention: This van is used for various ~s. 2 [U] (formal) determination; power of forming plans and keeping to them: weak of ~. 3 on purpose, deliberately: She sometimes smiles at him on ~ just to annoy me. □ vt (formal) have as one's purpose: They ~ a further attempt/ ~ to make/ ~ making a further attempt.

purpose-built adj made to serve a particular function: ~built offices.

pur-pose-ful /-fl/ adj pur-pose-fully /-fəli/ adv pur-pose-ly adj intentionally; deliberately.

purr /pɜː(r)/ vi, vt 1 (of a cat) make a low, continuous vibrating sound expressing pleasure. 2 (of a car engine) make a similar vibrating sound. □ n [C] purring sound.

purse /pɜːs/ n [C] 1 small bag for money. 2 money; funds. 3 (US) = handbag.

the purse-strings, control of expenditure.

purse /pɜːs/ vt draw (the lips) together in tiny folds or wrinkles.

purser /'pɜːsə(r)/ n [C] officer responsible for a ship's accounts and stores, esp in a passenger liner.

pur-su-ance /pɜːsjuːns/ US: -sjuː- n in pur- suance of, (formal) in the carrying out or performance of (one's duties, a plan, etc).

pur-su-ant /-ənt/ adj pursuant to, (formal) in accordance with: pursuant to your instructions.

pur-sue /pɜːsjuː/ US: -suː/ vt 1 go after in order to catch up with, capture or kill: They were pursuing a robber/a bear. Make sure that you are not being ~d. 2 (fig) (of consequences, penalties, etc) be constantly remembered, stated, etc: His record as a criminal ~d him wherever he went. 3 continue with: ~ one's study of English after leaving college. 4 have as an aim or purpose: ~ pleasure/a teaching career.

pur-suer, person who pursues (1).

pur-suit /pɜːsjuːt/ US: -sɜːt/ n 1 [U] act of pursuing: a dog in ~ of rabbits. 2 [C] something at which one works or to which one gives one's time: scientific/literary ~s.

pur-vey /pɜː'veɪ/ vt, vi 1 (formal) provide, supply (food, as a trader). 2 supply provisions (for): a firm that ~s for the Navy.

pur-veyor /-s(r)/, supplier (the usual word).

pus /pas/ n [U] thick yellowish-white liquid formed in and coming out from a poisoned place in the body, eg a cut.

push /puʃ/ n 1 [C] act of pushing: Give the door a hard ~. 2 [C] great effort: We must make a ~ to finish the job this week. 3 be given/get the push, (sl) be dismissed (from one's employment, etc). give sb the push, (sl) dismiss him. 4 [U] confidence to put oneself forward, to attract attention, etc: He hasn't enough ~ to succeed as a salesman.

push /puʃ/ vt, vi (For special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions, ⇨ 8 below.) 1 (contrasted with pull) use force on (a person or thing) to cause forward movement: Please ~ the table nearer to the wall. We had to ~ our way (= go forward by pushing) through the crowd. 2 persuade others to recognize, eg claims, or buy, eg goods: Unless you ~ your claim you'll get no satisfaction. ⇨ also ~ oneself forward in 8 below. 3 sell (illicit drugs) by acting as a link between large suppliers and the drug addicts. ⇨ pusher below. 4 insist, put pressure on: We're ~ing them for payment/an answer. 5 urge: She'll ~ him to the edge of suicide. 6 press: ~ a button, eg to ring a bell. 7 be pushing fifty, etc, (informal) be nearing the age mentioned: She wouldn't like you to think so, but she's ~ing forty.

8 (special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions):

push along, (informal) leave: I'm afraid it's time I was ~ing along.

push sb around, (informal) bully him; order him about: I'm not going to be ~ed around by you or anybody!

push forward/on (to), continue energetically with a journey, one's work, etc: We must ~ on with our work, hurry and finish it. push oneself forward, ambitiously draw attention to oneself, eg at work, in society: He never ~es himself forward.

push off, (informal) leave; go away: I told him to ~ off!

push sb/sth over, cause to fall: Several children were ~ed over by the crowd.

'push-over, (sf) (a) something very easy to do. (b) person who is easily defeated, converted, etc.

push sb through (sth), enable a person to succeed: ~ a weak student through an exam.

push sth through, do something by making a special effort: ~ the bill through the Commons.

push sth up, force, eg prices, to rise. push up the daisies, (informal) die, be buried in a grave.

'push-bike, one that is worked by pedalling (not a moped or motorbike).

'push-cart, small cart pushed by a man.

'push-chair, chair on wheels (used when a child is old enough to sit up).

pusher, (a) person who takes every opportunity of gaining an advantage for himself. (b) (sf) seller of illicit drugs.

push-ing adj having a tendency to be a pusher(a).

puss /pos/ n [C] cat; word used to call a cat.

pussy /'pusi/ n [C] (pl -ies) (also '~-cat) (child's word for a) cat.

put /put/ vi, vt (pt pp put, present part putting)

(For special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions, ⇨ 10 below.)

1 move (something) so as to be in a certain place or position: He ~ the book on the table. He ~ his hands in (to) his pockets. Did you ~ milk in my tea? It's time to ~ the baby to bed. They've ~ men on the moon.

put one's foot in it, ⇨ foot¹(1).

2 cause to be in some relationship, eg as an employee, client, with a person. put sb in his (proper) place, make him humble.

put oneself in his/her/in sb else's, etc place/position, imagine oneself in his position.

3 make a person bear (the particular nervous or moral strain shown). put the blame on sb: Don't ~ all the blame on me.

put pressure on sb (to do sth), ⇨ pressure(2).

4 affect the progress of. put an end/a stop to sth, ⇨ end¹(3), stop¹(1).

5 cause to pass into or suffer the emotional, physical, etc-state shown by the phrase that follows. put sb to death, ⇨ death(2).

put sb at his ease, ⇨ ease¹. put sb/sth to the test, test him/it.

6 cause (a person or thing) to become (what is shown by the adjective): That picture on the wall is crooked—I must ~ it straight.

put sth right, ⇨ right¹(2).

7 write; indicate; mark: ~ a tick against a name/a price on an article/one's signature to a will.

8 put sth (to sb); put it to sb (that), offer; express: ~ a proposal to the Board of Directors, ~ a question to the vote/a resolution to the meeting. I ~ it to you that..., invite you to agree with me that... How can I ~ it, express it? How would you ~ (= express, translate) this in Danish? That can all be ~ in a few words. 9 set a value (on): The experts refused to ~ a price on the Rubens painting.

10 (special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions):

put sth about, spread, eg rumours: Don't believe all the stories he's ~ about.

put sth across (to sb), communicate something successfully: a teacher who quickly ~s his ideas across to his students.

put sth across sb, deceive; trick: You can't ~ that across me, make me believe or accept it.

put sth aside, (a) put down and leave it: ~ one's work aside. (b) = put by. (c) ignore: P ~ aside for a moment the fact that the man's been in prison.

put sth away, (a) put in the usual place of storage, eg a drawer, box: P ~ your books/toys away. (b) save: ~ money away for one's old age.

put sb away, (informal) put into confinement, eg in a mental home: He acted so strangely that he had to be ~ away.

put back, (naut) return: The ship/We ~ back to harbour.

put sth back, (a) replace: P ~ the dictionary back on the shelf. (b) move backwards: That clock is fast; I'd better ~ it back five minutes, move the minute hand back.

(c) (fig) stop the advance of, cause delay to: The strike ~ back production by two months.

put sth by, save for future use: Has she any money ~ by/ ~ any money by?

put (sth) down, (a) land: He ~ down (his glider) in a field. (b) set or place down: P ~ down your hands! (c) press down: When you get on the motorway, you can really ~ your foot down, press the accelerator pedal down and go fast.

put one's foot down, ⇨ foot¹(1).

(d) place in storage: ~ down wine. (e) suppress by force or authority: ~ down a rebellion. (f) write down; make a note of: Here's my address—~ it down before you forget it.

(g) (of animals, eg sick or old pets) kill. put sb down, (a) allow to get off: The bus stopped to ~ down passengers. (b) reduce to silence: ~ down hecklers at a political meeting.

put sb down as, consider that he is: They ~ me down as a fool.

put sb down for, (a) write his name on a list as willing to give, eg to a charity or other fund: You can ~ me down for £5. (b) put a person's name down as an applicant, participant, etc: They ~ him down for the school football team.

put sth down to sth, (a) charge to an account: You can ~ the cost of the petrol down to business expenses. (b) attribute to: Can we ~ it down to his ignorance?

put sth forward, (a) suggest for consideration: ~ forward a new theory. (b) move on: ~ a clock forward, eg when it is stopped or slow.

put sb forward, propose: ~ oneself/a friend forward as a candidate.

put in/into, (naut) (of a boat, its crew) enter: The boat ~ in at Malta/~ into Malta for repairs. put in for sth, apply formally for: ~ in for the position of manager. put in for leave, ⇨ leave²(2). put sth in, (a) cause to be in: He ~ his head in at the window. (b) present formally: ~ in a claim for damages. (c) manage to hint or say: ~ in a blow. (d) do, perform: ~ in an hour's work before breakfast. (e) pass (time): There's still an hour of work to ~ in before the pubs open. put the boot in, ⇨ boot¹(1). put in a good word for sb, ⇨ word(2). put sb in, elect to office: Which party will be ~ in at the next general election? put sb in mind of sb/sth, remind him. ⇨ the noun entries for put in an appearance; put one's oar in. put sth in/into sth, devote; give: ~ a lot of work into improving one's French.

put sth off, (a) postpone: ~ off going to the dentist. (b) get rid of: You must ~ off your doubts and fears. (Note: take off clothes.) put sb off (sth), (a) do something with somebody at a later date: We shall have to ~ the Smiths off till next week. (b) make excuses and try to avoid, eg a duty: I won't be ~ off with such silly excuses, won't accept them. (c) hinder or dissuade: ~ a man off his game, eg distract him when he is about to play.

put sth on, (a) (opposite = take off) clothe oneself with: ~ one's hat/shoes on. (b) pretend to have: Her modesty is all ~ on, she's only pretending to be modest. Hence 'put-on n': It's all a ~ on, pretence. (c) increase; add to: ~ on more speed. (d) add to: He's ~ ting on weight, is getting fatter. (e) arrange for; make available: ~ on extra trains during the rush hours. put a play on, arrange for it to be shown at a theatre. (f) advance: ~ the clock on one hour, move the hands forward, eg for Summer Time. (g) (informal) exaggerate; pretend to be more important, etc than is justified: Stop ~ ting it on! (h) turn on: ~ the light/TV on. put money on sb/sth, gamble (in horse-racing, etc): I've ~ a pound on the favourite.

put sth out, (a) extinguish; cause to stop burning: ~ out the lights/the gas/the fire. (b) dislocate: She fell off a horse and ~ her shoulder out. (c) produce: The firm ~ out 1000 bales of cotton sheeting every week. ⇨ output. (d) issue; broadcast: The Health Department has ~ out a warning about dangerous drugs. put one's tongue out, show it, eg for a doctor, or as a rude act. put sb out, (a) cause to be confused or worried: She was very much ~ out by your rudeness. (b) inconvenience: He was ~ out by the late arrival of his guests. put sb out (of), expel: Don't get drunk—you'll be ~ out/eg of the bar.

put sth through, carry it out: ~ through a business deal. put sb/sth through, connect (by telephone): Please ~ me/this call through to the Manager. put sb through sth, cause him to undergo, eg an ordeal, a test: The police ~ him through a severe test. put sb through it, (informal) test or examine him thoroughly, eg use force to make him confess.

put sth to sb, ⇨ 8 above. be hard put to it (to do sth), find difficulty in doing it: I'd be hard ~ to say exactly why I disliked him.

put sth together, construct (a whole) by combining parts: It's easier to take a machine to pieces than to ~ it together again. put our (two)/your/their heads together, consult one another. put two and two together, ⇨ two.

put up (for sth), offer oneself for election: Are you going to ~ up for Finchley again, ie as a prospective member of Parliament? put sb up, provide lodging and food (for): We can ~ you up for the weekend. put sb up (for sth), propose, nominate, him for a position. put sb up to sth, urge him to do something naughty or wrong: Who ~ you up to all these tricks? put sth up, (a) raise; hold up: ~ up one's hands, eg over one's head, as a sign that one is ready to answer, surrender; ~ up a flag/a sail. (b) build: ~ up a shed/a tent. (c) place so as to be seen: ~ up a notice. (d) raise, increase: ~ up the rent by £5 (a week). (e) offer, make: ~ up a good fight. (f) supply (a sum of money for an undertaking): I will supply the skill and knowledge if you will ~ up the £2000 capital. put sb's back up, ⇨ back²(1). put sth up for auction/sale, offer it to be auctioned/sold. put up with sb/sth, endure without protest; bear patiently: There are many inconveniences that have to be ~ up with when you are camping.

pu-ta-tive /'pju:tativ/ adj generally considered to be: his ~ father.

pu-trefy /'pju:trifai/ vi, vi (pt, pp -ied) (cause to) decay.

pu-tre-fac-tion /'pju:trifækʃn/ n [C, U] pu-tres-cent /'pju:tresnt/ adj in the process of decaying.

pu-trid /'pju:trid/ adj having become decayed; decomposed and smelling bad: ~ fish.

putt /pʌt/ vi, vi strike (a golf-ball) gently with a club so that it rolls across the ground towards or into a hole.

putty /'pʌti/ n [U] soft paste of white powder and oil used for fixing glass in window frames, etc. □ vt (pt, pp -ied) fill or fix with putty: ~ up a hole.

puzzle /'pʌzl/ n [C] 1 question or problem difficult to understand or answer. 2 problem (eg a 'crossword~') or toy (eg a 'jig-saw~') designed to test a person's knowledge, skill, patience. 3 (sing only) state of feeling confused, thinking hard about a problem: be in a ~

about this refusal. □ vi, vt 1 cause (a person) to be confused, worried, (about the solution to a problem): This letter ~s me. 2 puzzle over sth, think very much about it. puzzle sth out, (try to) find the answer or solution by thinking hard.

puzz-ler, difficult problem.

puzzle-ment n [U] state of being puzzled.

pygmy, pigmy /'pɪgmɪ/ n [C] (pl -ies) 1 P~, dwarf race in Equatorial Africa. 2 very small person; dwarf.

py-ja-mas (US = pa-ja-mas) /pə'dʒɑ:məz US: -'dʒæm-/ n pl (also a pair of ~) loose-fitting jacket and trousers for sleeping in. (Note: singular when used as an adjective: pyjama tops/bottoms.) py-lon /'paɪlən US: -lən/ n [C] tower (steel framework) for carrying overhead high-voltage electric cables.

py-or-rhoea (also -rhea) /paɪə'riə/ n [U] inflammation of the gums causing them to shrink, with loosening of the teeth.

pyra-mid /'pɪrəmid/ n [C] 1 structure with a triangular or square base and sloping sides meeting at a point, esp one of those built of stone in ancient Egypt. 2 pile of objects in the shape of a pyramid.

pyre /'paɪə(r)/ n [C] large pile of wood for burning, esp a funeral pile for a corpse.

py-thon /'paɪθn/ n [C] large snake that kills its prey by twisting itself round it and crushing it.

Qq

Q, q /kju:/ (pl Q's, q's /kju:z/) the seventeenth letter of the English alphabet. mind one's P's and Q's, ⇨ P.p.

quack¹ /kwæk/ vi, n (make the) cry of a duck.

quack² /kwæk/ n [C] person dishonestly claiming to have medical knowledge and skill: (used as an adjective) ~ remedies.

quad /kwɒd/ n [C] (abbr of) 1 = quadrangle. 2 = quadruplet (but quad is more usual).

quad-rangle /'kwɒdræŋgl/ n [C] 1 flat shape with four sides, esp a square or a rectangle. 2 (abbr quad) space in the form of a rectangle, (nearly) surrounded by buildings.

quad-ran-gu-lar /kwɒ'dræŋgʊlə(r)/ adj quad-rant /'kwɒdrənt/ n [C] 1 quarter of a circle or its circumference. 2 graduated strip of metal, etc shaped like a quarter of a circle for use in measuring angles (of altitude) in astronomy and navigation.

quad-ri-lat-eral /'kwɒdrɪ'lætərəl/ adj, n [C] (of a) quadrangle(1).

quad-ru-ped /'kwɒdrʊpəd/ n [C] (formal) four-footed animal.

quad-ruple /'kwɒdrʊpl US: kwɒ'dru:pl/ adj 1 made up of four parts. 2 agreed to by four persons, parties, etc: a ~ alliance, of four Powers. □ n [C] number or amount four times as great as another: 20 is the ~ of 5. □ vi, vt multiply by four: He has ~d his income/His income has ~d in the last four years.

quad-ru-plet /'kwɒdrʊplit US: kwɒ'dru:-/ n [C] (abbr quad which is more usual) one of four babies at a birth. (Note: usually pl: one of the ~s, not a ~.) quad-ru-pli-cate /kwɒ'dru:plɪkət/ adj repeated or copied four times. □ n: in ~, in four exactly similar examples or copies. □ vt /kwɒ'dru:plɪkət/ make four specimens of.

quag-mire /'kwɒgmɑɪə(r)/ n [C] area of soft, wet land.

quail¹ /kweɪl/ n [C] small bird, similar to a partridge, valued as food.

quail² /kweɪl/ vi feel or show fear: He ~ed at the prospect of meeting the President.

quaint /kweɪnt/ adj (-er, -est) attractive or pleasing because unusual or old-fashioned: American visitors to England admire our ~ villages/customs.

quaint-ly adv

quake /kweɪk/ vi 1 (of the earth) shake: The ground ~d under his feet. 2 (of persons) tremble: quaking with fear/cold.

Quaker /'kweɪkə(r)/ n member of the Society of Friends, a Christian group that holds informal meetings and is opposed to the use of violence or resort to war under any circumstances.

quali-fi-ca-tion /'kwɒlɪfɪ'keɪʃn/ n 1 [U] act of restricting, modifying or limiting; [C] something which restricts, modifies or limits: You can accept his statement without ~/with certain ~s. 2 [C] training, test, diploma, degree, etc that qualifies(1) a person to do or be something.

qual-ify /'kwɒlɪfaɪ/ vi, vt (pt, pp -ied) 1 be trained, educated and approved as having the required standard: He's qualified/His training qualifies him as a teacher of English/for this post. 2 have the necessary experience, ability, age, etc: He's the manager's son but that does not ~ him to criticize my work. Do you ~ for the vote/to vote? 3 limit; make less general: The statement 'Boys are lazy' needs to be qualified, eg by saying 'Some boys' or 'Many boys'. 4 (gram) limit the meaning of: Adjectives ~ nouns.

quali-fied /-faɪd/ adj (a) having the necessary qualifications: a qualified doctor. (b) limited: give a scheme one's qualified approval.

'quali-fier /-faɪə(r)/ n [C] (gram) qualifying word, eg an adjective or adverb.

quali-tat-ive /'kwɒlɪtətɪv US: -tɪt-/ adj relating to quality: ~ analysis. ⇨ quantitative.

qual-ity /'kwɒləti/ n (pl -ies) 1 [C,U] (esp high standard, of) goodness or worth: We aim at ~ rather than quantity, aim to produce superior goods, not large quantities. 2 [C] something that is special in or that distinguishes a person or thing: One ~ of leadership is to be trusted.

qualm /kwa:m/ n [C] 1 feeling of doubt (esp about whether one is doing or has done right): He felt no ~s about borrowing money from friends. 2 temporary feeling of sickness in the stomach: ~s which spoil his appetite.

quandary /'kwɒndəri/ n [C] (pl -ies) state of doubt or confusion: be in a ~ about what to do next.

quango /'kwæŋgəʊ/ n [C] (pl ~s) semi-autonomous government committee or organization.

quan-ti-tat-ive /'kwɒntitativ/ US: -teɪt- / adj relating to quantity: ~ analysis. ⇨ qualitative.

quan-tity /'kwɒntəti/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] the property of things which can be measured, eg size, weight, number: I prefer quality to ~. 2 [C] amount, total or number: There's only a small ~ (ie not much or not many) left. 3 (often pl) large amount or number: He buys things in large quantities. 4 an unknown quantity, (a) (maths) symbol (usually x) representing an unknown value in an equation. (b) (fig) person or thing whose ability, etc is not known: The Union's candidate is an unknown ~, may or may not win the election.

quantity surveyor, expert who estimates quantities of materials needed in building, their cost, etc.

quar-an-tine /'kwɒrənti:n/ US: 'kwɔ:r-/ n [C,U] (esp of imported animals) (period of) separation from others until it is known that there is no danger of spreading disease: be in/out of ~. □ vt put in quarantine.

quar-rel /'kwɒrəl/ US: 'kwɔ:rəl/ n [C] 1 angry argument; strong disagreement: have a ~ with him about the weather. 2 cause for being angry; reason for protest or complaint: I have no ~ with/against him. pick a quarrel (with sb), find or invent some occasion or excuse for disagreement, etc. ⇨ patch². □ vi (-ll-, US also -l-) 1 have, take part in, a quarrel: The thieves ~led with one another about how to divide the money. 2 disagree (with); complain about: It's not the fact of examinations I'm ~ling with; it's the way they're conducted.

'quar-rel-some /-səm/ adj quickly made to argue; often causing arguments.

quarry¹ /'kwɒri/ US: 'kwɔ:ri/ n [C] (pl -ies) (usually sing) hunted animal, bird, etc.

quarry² /'kwɒri/ US: 'kwɔ:ri/ n [C] (pl -ies) place (not underground like a mine) where stone, slate, etc is obtained (for building, road-making, etc). □ vi, vi (pt, pp -ied) get from a quarry: ~ limestone.

quart /kwɔ:t/ n [C] measure of capacity equal to two pints or about 1.14 litres.

quar-ter /'kwɔ:tə(r)/ n [C] 1 fourth part (¼); one of four equal or corresponding parts: a ~ of a mile; a mile and a ~; a ~ of an hour, 15 minutes; an hour and a ~; the first ~ of this century, ie 1901–25. 2 point of time 15 minutes before or after any hour: a ~ to (US = of) two; a ~ past six. 3 three months, esp as a period for which rent and other payments are made. 4 (US) (coin worth) 25 cents. 5 (used of animals in compounds) section including a leg: 'fore-~s; 'hind-~s. 6 direction; district; source of supply; help, information, etc: travel in every ~ of the globe, everywhere. As his father was penniless, he could expect no help from that ~. 7 division of a town, esp one of a particular group of people: the Chinese ~ of San Francisco. 8 one-fourth of a lunar month: the moon at the first ~/in its last ~. 9 (pl) place to stay in: married ~s. All troops must return to ~s at once, return to barracks. ⇨ head-quarters. 10 at close quarters, close together. 11 place for duty by sailors on a ship, esp for fighting: Officers and men at once took up their ~s. 12 back part of a ship's side: on the port/starboard ~. 13 (GB) fourth part of a hundredweight, 28 lb; (US) 25 lb; measure of grain of eight bushels. □ vt 1 divide into quarters. 2 place (troops) in lodgings: ~ troops on the villagers.

'quarter-final, (sport) one of four competitions or matches, the winners of which play in the semi-finals.

'quarter-master, (a) (army) (abbr QM) officer in charge of the stores, etc of a battalion. (b) (navy) petty officer in charge of steering the ship, signals, etc.

'quarter-master-general, (army) (abbr QMG) staff officer in charge of supplies.

quar-ter-ly /'kwɔ:təli/ adj, adv (happening) once in each three months: ~ payments; to be paid ~. □ n [C] (pl -ies) periodical published every 3 months.

quar-tet, quar-tette /kwɔ:tet/ n [C] (piece of music for) four players or singers: a string ~, for (usually) two violins, viola and cello; a piano ~, for piano and three stringed instruments.

quartz /'kwɔ:ts/ n [U] sorts of hard mineral (esp crystallized silica), including agate and other semi-precious stones.

quash /kwɒʃ/ vi put an end to, reject as not valid (by legal procedure): ~ a verdict.

quasi- /kweɪsəi/ prefix almost, partly: 'quasi-official.

quat-er-cen-ten-ary /kwɔ:təsən'ti:nəri/ US: 'kwɒtər'sentənəri/ adj, n [C] (pl -ies) (of the) 400th anniversary: the ~ celebrations in 1964 of Shakespeare's birth.

qua-ver /'kwɛvə(r)/ vi, vi 1 (of the voice or a sound) shake; tremble: in a ~ing voice; in a voice that ~ed. 2 say or sing in a shaking voice. □ n [C] 1 trembling sound. 2 (music) note with one-half the value of a crotchet.

quay /ki:/ n [C] landing-place usually built of stone or iron, alongside which ships can be tied up for loading and unloading.

queasy /'kwɪzi/ adj (-ier, -iest) 1 (of food) causing a feeling of sickness in the stomach. 2 (of the stomach) easily upset. 3 (of a person) easily made sick.

queen /kwɪn/ n [C] 1 woman ruler in her own right: the Q~ of England; Q~ Elizabeth II. 2 wife of a king. 3 woman regarded as first of a group: a 'beauty-~. 4 (chess) most powerful piece for attack or defence. 5 (playing-cards) one with the picture of a queen: the ~ of spades/hearts. 6 fertile, egg-producing, female of bees, ants, etc.

queen mother, mother of a reigning sovereign.

Queen's Counsel, (abbr QC) ⇨ King's Counsel.

queen-ly adj like, fit for, a queen.

queer /'kwɪə(r)/ adj (-er, -est) 1 strange; unusual: a ~ way of talking. 2 causing doubt or suspicion: ~ noises in the attic. 3 (informal) unwell; sick: feel very ~.

queer /'kwɪə(r)/ ⇨ pitch¹(1).

quell /kwel/ vt suppress (a rebellion, rebels, opposition).

quench /kwentʃ/ vt 1 put out (flames, fire). 2 satisfy (thirst). 3 put an end to (hope).

querulous /'kwɛrələs/ adj (formal) full of complaints: in a ~ tone.

query /'kwɪəri/ n [C] (pl -ies) 1 question, esp one raising a doubt about the truth of something: raise a ~. 2 mark (eg ?) put against something, eg in the margin of a document, as a sign of doubt. □ vi 1 inquire: I ~ whether/if his word can be relied on. 2 express doubt about: ~ a person's instructions. 3 put a mark (eg ?) against.

quest /kwɛst/ n [C] (formal) search: the ~ for gold. □ vt (formal) search (for): ~ing for further evidence.

question /'kwɛstʃən/ n [C] 1 sentence which by word-order, use of words such as who, why, etc written with ? at the end, or by intonation, asks for information, an answer, etc. 2 something which needs to be decided; inquiry; problem: economic ~s. Success is only a ~ of time, will certainly come sooner or later. The ~ is..., What we want to know, What we must decide, is... in question, being talked about: Where's the man in ~? out of the question, impossible: We can't go out in this weather; it's out of the ~. 3 [U] (the putting forward of) doubt, objection: There is no ~ about/some ~ as to his honesty. beyond (all)/without question, certain(ly); without doubt: His honesty is beyond all ~. Without ~, he's the best man for the job.

question-mark, (a) the mark (?) at the end of a written question. (b) (fig) instance of doubt: a ~ mark about/over her suitability for the job.

question time, (in the House of Commons) period when ministers answer questions put by Members.

question? /'kwɛstʃən/ vi 1 ask a question; examine: He was ~ed by the police. 2 express or feel doubt about: ~ her honesty; ~ the value/importance of games at school.

question-able /-əbl/ adj doubtful: a ~ able account of what happened.

question-ably /-əbli/ adv

questioner, person who questions.

question-naire /'kwɛstʃə'neə(r)/ n [C] printed list of questions to be answered by a group of people, esp to get facts or information, or for a survey.

queue /kju:/ n [C] 1 line of people waiting for their turn (eg to enter a cinema, get on a bus, buy something): form a/stand in a ~. jump the queue, ⇨ jump²(8). 2 line of vehicles waiting to proceed: A ~ of cars was held up by the traffic lights. □ vi get into, be in, a queue: queueing up for tickets/to buy tickets.

quibble /'kwɪbl/ n [C] attempt to escape giving an honest answer (in an argument), by using a secondary or doubtful meaning of a word or phrase. □ vi argue about small points or differences: quibbling about/over nothing of importance.

quick /kwɪk/ adj (-er, -est) 1 moving fast; able to move fast and do things in a short time; done in a short time: a ~ train/worker; have a ~ meal. Be ~ about it! Hurry up! 2 lively; bright; active; prompt: ~ to seize an opportunity; ~ at figures; a ~ (= intelligent) child; a ~ temper, easily angered. □ n [U] tender or sensitive flesh below the skin, esp the nails: bite one's nails to the ~. cut/touch sb to the quick, hurt his feelings deeply. □ adv (-er, -est) (informal) (= quickly and always placed after the verb): Can't you run ~er? He wants to get rich ~.

quick-step, kind of ballroom dancing step.

quick-tempered adj easily made angry.

quick-ly adv

quick-ness n [U]

quicken /'kwɪkən/ vi, vt 1 make or become quick(er): We ~ed our pace. Our pace ~ed. 2 make or become more lively, vigorous or active: His pulse ~ed.

quick-sand /'kwɪksænd/ n [C] (area of) loose, wet, deep sand which sucks down men, vehicles, etc that try to cross it.

quick-silver /'kwɪksɪlvə(r)/ n [U] = mercury.

quick-step /'kwɪkstep/ n ⇨ quick.

quid /kwɪd/ n [C] (pl unchanged) (GB sl) = pound¹(2): earning twenty ~ (= £20) a week. quids 'in, (sl) profiting.

quiet /'kwaɪət/ adj (-er, -est) 1 with little or no sound: a ~ classroom. 2 free from excitement, trouble, anxiety: live a ~ life in the country. 3 gentle; not rough (in attitude, etc): a ~ personality. 4 (of colours) not bright. 5 not open or revealed: harbouring ~ resentment. keep sth quiet, keep it secret. on the quiet, (or, informal, on the qt /kju: 'ti:/), secretly: have a whisky on the ~. □ n [U] state of being quiet (all senses): live in peace and ~.

quieten /'kwaɪətn/ vt, vi make or become quiet: ~ children/fears/suspensions. The city ~ed down after the political disturbances.

quiff /kwɪf/ n [C] lock of hair brushed up above the forehead.

quill /kwɪl/ n [C] 1 (also ~feather) large wing or tail feather; (hollow stem of) such a feather formerly used for writing with: a ~ pen. 2 long, sharp, stiff spine of a porcupine.

quilt /kwɪlt/ n [C] thick bed-covering of two layers of cloth padded with soft material kept in place by cross lines of stitches. ⇨ continental quilt, duvet. □ vt make in the form of a quilt, ie with soft material between layers of cloth: a ~ed dressing-gown.

quilt-ing, material for a quilt.

quin /kwɪn/ n [C] (abbr of) quintuplet (but quin is more usual).

quin-cen-ten-ary /'kwɪnsən'ti:nəri/ US: -'sentənəri/ adj, n [C] (pl -ies) (of) (the celebration of) the 500th anniversary of an event.

quin-ine /kwɪ'nɪn/ US: 'kwɪnɪn/ n [U] bitter medicine used for fevers such as malaria.

Quin-qua-ges-ima /'kwɪŋkwə'dʒesɪmə/ n the Sunday before Lent.

quin-tes-sence /kwɪn'tesns/ n [C] (formal) perfect example: the ~ of virtue.

quin-tet, quin-tette /kwɪn'tet/ n [C] (piece of music for) five players or singers: a string ~, string quartet and an additional cello or viola; a piano ~, string quartet and piano; a wind ~, bassoon, clarinet, flute, horn and oboe.

quin-tu-plet /'kwɪntju:plɪt/ US: kwɪn'tu:plɪt/ n [C] (abbr quin which is more usual) one of five babies at a birth. (Note: usually pl: one of the ~s, not a ~.)

quip /kwɪp/ n [C] clever, witty or sarcastic remark or saying. □ vi (-pp-) make quips.

quire /'kwɪə(r)/ n [C] twenty-four sheets of 'writing-paper'.

quirk /kwɜ:k/ n [C] odd act or behaviour.

quis-ling /'kwɪzlɪŋ/ n [C] person who cooperates with the authorities of an enemy country who are occupying his country.

quit! /kwɪt/ adj free, clear: We are well ~ of him, fortunate to be rid of him.

quit /kwɪt/ vi (pt ~ted or ~t) (-tt- US also -t-) 1 go away from; leave: I ~ted him in disgust. We've had notice to ~, a warning that we must give up the house we rent. 2 stop: He ~ work when the bell rang.

quit-ter, (informal) person who does not finish what he has started.

quite /kwaɪt/ adv 1 completely; altogether: I ~ agree/understand. She was ~ alone. That's ~ another (= a completely different) story. 2 to a certain extent; a little more (so) than not: ~ a good player. It's ~ warm today. (Note: used before an adjective.) ⇨ rather(3). 3 really; truly: She's ~ a beauty. 4 (used to show agreement, understanding, etc): A: 'It's a difficult situation'. B: 'Q~ (so)'. A: 'I'm so sorry'. I'm afraid I'm late'. B: 'Oh, that's ~ all right'.

quits /kwɪts/ adj be quits (with sb), be on even terms (by repaying a debt of money, punishment, etc): We're ~ now. call it quits, agree that things are even, that a dispute or quarrel is over. double or quits, (in gambling) paying double or nothing that is owed.

quiver¹ /'kwɪvə(r)/ n [C] sheath for carrying arrows.

quiver² /'kwɪvə(r)/ vt, vi (cause to) tremble slightly or vibrate: a ~ing leaf; ~ing with fear. □ n [C] quivering sound or movement.

quix-otic /kwɪk'sɒtɪk/ adj (formal) generous, unselfish, imaginative, in a way that disregards one's own welfare.

quiz /kwɪz/ vt (-zz-) ask questions of, as a test of knowledge. □ n [C] (-zz-) (modern use) general knowledge test or contest.

quiz-zi-cal /'kwɪzɪkl/ adj (formal) 1 causing amusement. 2 teasing: a ~ smile. 3 expressing disbelief, puzzlement; questioning: a ~ look.

quiz-zi-cally /-kli/ adv

quoit /kwɔɪt/ US: kwɔɪt/ n [C] ring (of metal, rubber, rope) to be thrown at a peg so as to encircle it; (pl) this game (often played on the deck of a ship, 'deck-~s).

quorate /'kwɔ:reɪt/ adj (informal) having a quorum.

quo-rum /'kwɔ:rəm/ n [C] (pl ~s) number of persons who must, by the rules, be present at a meeting (a committee, etc) before its proceedings can have authority: have/form a ~.

quota /'kwɔ:tə/ n [C] (pl ~s) limited share, amount or number, esp a quantity of goods allowed to be manufactured, sold, etc or number, eg of immigrants allowed to enter a country: The ~ of trainees for this year has already been filled.

quo-ta-tion /kwɔ:t'eɪʃn/ n 1 [U] quoting(1). 2 [C] something quoted(1): ~s from Shakespeare. 3 [C] statement of the current price of an article, etc: the latest ~s from the Stock Exchange. 4 [C] estimate of the cost of a piece of work: Can you give me a ~ for building a garage?

quotation marks, the marks '—' or '—' enclosing words spoken or quoted.

quote /kwɔ:t/ vi 1 repeat, write (words used by another, from a book, an author, etc): ~ from the newspaper; ~ the Chairman. 2 give (a reference, etc) to support a statement: Can you ~ (me) a recent instance? 3 name, mention (a price): This is the best price I can ~ you.

quot-able /-əbl/ adj that can be, or deserves to be, quoted.

quoth /kwəuθ/ vt (archaic) (1st and 3rd person sing, pt only) said: ~ I/he/she.

quo-tient /'kwəʊfənt/ n [C] (maths) number obtained by dividing one number by another.

Rr

R, r /ɑ:(r)/ (pl R's, r's /ɑ:z/) the eighteenth letter of the English alphabet. the three R's, reading, (w)riting and (a)rithmetic as the basis of an elementary education.

rabbi /'ræbaɪ/ n [C] (pl ~s) teacher of the Jewish law; (title of a) spiritual leader of a Jewish congregation.

rab-bini-cal /rə'bɪnɪkl/ adj rab-bit /'ræbɪt/ n [C] small burrowing animal with long ears of the hare family. □ vt (-tt-) hunt rabbits: go ~ting.

'rabbit-hutch, cage for domestic rabbits.

'rabbit-punch, punch on the back of the neck with the side of the hand.

'rabbit-warren, area of land full of rabbit-burrows.

rabble /'ræbl/ n [C] disorderly crowd; mob.

'rabble-rousing adj inciting the passions of the mob: ~-rousing 'speeches/speakers.

rabid /'ræbɪd/ adj 1 affected with rabies. 2 (fig) furious; fanatical: ~ hate of socialism.

ra-bies /'reɪbi:z/ n [U] infectious fatal disease causing madness in dogs and other animals.

rac-coon = racoon.

race¹ /reɪs/ n [C] 1 contest or competition in speed, eg in running, swimming or to see who can finish a piece of work, or get to a certain place, first: a 'horse-~; run a ~ with the other school. a race against time, an effort to finish something before a certain time. 2 strong, fast current of water in the sea, a river, etc. □ vi, vt 1 compete in speed, have a race; move at full speed: boys racing home from school; ~ with/against somebody for a prize. 2 own or train horses for racing and take part in horse-races: He ~s at all the big meetings. 3 cause (a person or thing) to move at full speed: He ~d me to the station in his car.

rac-ing n [U] (esp) the hobby, sport or profession of running horses or driving motor-cars in races.

'race-course, ground where horse-races are run.

'race-horse, special breed for racing.

'race-meeting, occasion when a number of horse-races are held at a certain place.

'race-track, path prepared for races, eg in a stadium.

race² /reɪs/ n 1 [C, U] any of several subdivisions of mankind sharing certain physical characteristics, esp colour of skin, colour and type of hair, shape of eyes and nose: people of the same ~ but of different culture. 2 [C] (used loosely for a) group of people having a common culture, history or language: the 'German ~. 3 (used as an adjective): Can ~ relations be improved by legislation? 4 [C] main division of any living creatures: the human ~, mankind.

ra-cial /'reɪʃl/ adj relating to race² (1, 2): ~ conflict/minorities/discrimination/harmony.

ra-cially /-ʃəli/ adv

ra-cial-ism /-ɪzəm/ n [U] conflict between different races; belief that one's own race is superior.

ra-cial-ist /-ɪst/, person who believes that some races are superior to others.

ra-cily, raci-ness ⇨ racy.

ra-cing /'reɪsɪŋ/ n ⇨ race¹.

ra-cism /'reɪsɪzəm/ n [U] = racialism.

ra-cist /-ɪst/ n [C] = racist.

rack¹ /ræk/ n [C] 1 wooden or metal framework for holding food for animals (in a stable or in the fields). 2 framework with bars, pegs, etc for holding things, hanging things on, etc: a 'plate-~; a 'tool-~. 3 shelf over the seats of a train, plane, bus, etc for light luggage: a 'luggage-~. 4 rod, bar or rail with teeth or cogs into which the teeth on a wheel (or pinion) fit (as used on special railways up a steep hill-side).

rack² /ræk/ n [C] (usually the ~) instrument of torture (a frame with rollers to which a person was tied so that his joints were stretched when the rollers were turned). □ vt 1 torture by placing on the rack. 2 (of a disease or of mental agony) inflict torture on: ~ed with pain. 3 rack one's brains (for), make great mental efforts (for, in order to find, an answer, method, etc).

rack³ /ræk/ n (only in) go to rack and ruin, fall into a ruined state.

racket¹ /'rækt/ n 1 (sing only, with a, an or [U]) loud noise: The young men in the pub kicked up such a ~, were very noisy. 2 [U] (time of) great social activity: I hate the ~ of living in London. 3 [C] (informal) dishonest way of getting money (by deceiving or threatening people, selling worthless goods, etc). 4 [C] ordeal.

rack-et-eer /'ræktɪə(r)/ n [C] person who is engaged in a racket (3).

racket², rac-quet /'ræktɪ/ n [C] 1 light, stringed bat used for hitting the ball in tennis, badminton, etc. 2 (pl) ball-game for two or four players in a court with four walls.

rac-on-teur /'ræknɪtɜ:(r)/ n [C] person who tells stories with skill and wit.

rac-oon, rac-coon /rə'kʊn/ US: ræ-/ n [C] small, flesh-eating animal of N America with a bushy, ringed tail; [U] its fur.

rac-quet n [C] = racket².

racy /'reɪsi/ adj (-ier, -iest) 1 (of speech or writing) full of activity and life; spirited: a ~ style/novel. 2 having strongly marked qualities: a ~ flavour.

ra-cily /-əli/ adv

ra-ci-ness n [U]

ra-dar /'reɪdɑ:(r)/ n [U] (the use of) apparatus that shows on a screen (by means of radio echoes) solid objects that come within its range, used (eg by pilots of ships, aircraft or spacecraft) in fog, war, etc and which gives information about their position, movement, speed, etc: follow an aircraft by ~; (used as an adjective): a ~ screen.

ra-dial /'reɪdiəl/ adj 1 relating to a ray, rays or a radius. 2 (of spokes in a bicycle wheel, etc) from a centre; arranged like rays or radii. □ n [C] (also ~ tyre) tyre designed (by having the material inside the tyre wrapped in a direction radial to the hub of the wheel) to give more grip on road surfaces, esp when cornering or when roads are wet.

ra-di-ally /-iəli/ adv

ra-di-ance /'reɪdiəns/ n [U] radiant quality.

ra-di-ant /'reɪdiənt/ adj 1 sending out rays of light; shining: the ~ sun. 2 (of a person, his looks, eyes) showing great joy or love: a ~ face. 3 (physics) transmitted by radiation: ~ heat/energy.

ra-di-ant-ly adv

ra-di-ate /'reɪdiət/ vt, vi 1 send out rays of (light or heat). 2 (fig) send out: a bride who ~s happiness. 3 come or go out in rays; show: heat that ~s from a fireplace; the happiness that ~s from her eyes. 4 spread out like radii: the avenues that ~ from the Arc de Triomphe in Paris.

ra-di-ation /'reɪdi'eɪʃn/ n [U] radiating. 2 [U] (physics) the sending out of energy, heat, light, etc in rays. 3 [C] something radiated: ~ emitted by an X-ray apparatus.

ra-di-ator /'reɪdiəto(r)/ n [C] 1 apparatus (in a room) for radiating heat, esp heat from hot water supplied through pipes or from electric current. 2 device for cooling the cylinders of the engine of a motor-vehicle: This car has a fan-cooled ~.

'radiator grill, grill in front of the engine of a motor-vehicle.

rad-ical /'rædɪkəl/ adj 1 of or from the root or base: ~ (= thorough and complete) changes. 2 (politics) favouring complete reform; advanced (and usually left-wing) in opinions and policies: the R~ Party. □ n [C] person with radical(2) opinions.

radi-cally /-kli/ adv ra-dii /'reɪdiəl/ n pl ⇨ radius.

ra-dio /'reɪdiəʊ/ n (pl ~s) 1 [U] (communication by) electromagnetic waves or by telephone: send a message by ~. 2 [U] broadcasting by this means: hears something on the ~; (as an adjective) a ~ programme. 3 [C] apparatus (eg on ships, aircraft) for transmitting and receiving radio messages or (eg in the home) for receiving sound broadcast programmes: a transistor ~.

'radio frequency, frequency(2) between 10 kilocycles per second and 300000 megacycles per second.

radio- /'reɪdiəʊ/ prefix (esp) of rays.

'radio telescope, apparatus that detects stars by means of radio waves from outer space and tracks spacecraft.

'radio therapist, expert in radio therapy.

'radio-therapy, treatment of disease by means of X-rays or other forms of radiation, eg of heat.

radio-active /'reɪdiəʊ 'æktɪv/ adj (of such metals as uranium) having atoms that break up and, in so doing, send out rays in the form of electrically charged particles capable of passing through material that cannot be seen through and of producing electrical effects: ~ dust, dust (eg as carried by winds) from explosions of nuclear bombs, etc.

'radio-ac-tiv-ity n [U] radi-og-ra-phy /'reɪdi'ɒgrəfi/ n [U] production of X-ray photographs.

'radi-og-ra-pher, person trained in radio-graphy.

radio-iso-tope /'reɪdiəʊ 'aɪsətoʊp/ n [C] radioactive form of an element, used in medicine, industry, etc.

rad-ish /'rædɪʃ/ n [C] plant used in salad, with a white or red root.

ra-dius /'reɪdiəs/ n [C] (pl radii /-diəli/) 1 (length of a) straight line from the centre of a circle or sphere to any point on the circumference or surface. 2 circular area measured by its radius: The police searched all the fields and woods within a ~ of two miles. 3 (anat) outer of the two bones in the forearm.

raf-fia /'ræfiə/ n [U] fibre from the leaf-stalks of a kind of palm-tree, used for making baskets, hats, mats, etc.

raffle /'ræfl/ n [C] sale of an article by a lottery, often for a charitable purpose. □ vt sell in a raffle: raffling (off) a television.

raft /rɑ:ft/ US: ræft/ n [C] 1 number of logs fastened together to be floated down a river. 2 = life-raft: The sailors got away from the wrecked ship on a ~. □ vt, vi carry, move, go, on a raft.

raf-ter /'ræftə(r)/ US: 'ræf-/ n [C] one of the sloping beams of the framework on which the tiles or slates of a roof are supported.

rag¹ /ræg/ n [C] 1 odd bit of cloth: a ~ to polish the car with. 2 (used contemptuously for a) newspaper: Why do you read that worthless ~?

rag² /ræg/ vt (-gg-) (informal) play practical jokes on. □ n [C] procession of amusing floats¹(3), eg as held by college students.

rag-day, day on which students hold a rag, and often collect money for charity.

rage /reɪdʒ/ n [C,U] (outburst of) furious anger: shouting with ~; the ~ of the sea, its violence during a storm. be in/fly into a rage, be, become, very angry. 2 [C] strong desire: He has a ~ for collecting butterflies. 3 be (all) the rage, (informal) something for which there is temporary enthusiasm: Long hair on men is all the ~ this summer. □ vi 1 be very angry: He ~d and fumed against me for not letting him have his own way. 2 (of storms, etc) be violent: The storm/battle ~d all day.

rag-ged /'ræɡɪd/ adj 1 (with clothes) badly torn or in rags: a ~ coat/old man. 2 having rough or irregular edges or outlines or surfaces: a dog with a ~ coat of hair; a sleeve with ~ edges. 3 (of work, etc) not having smoothness or uniformity: a ~ performance, eg of an actor, a piece of music.

rag-ged-ly adv

rag-time /'ræɡtaɪm/ n [U] (1920's) popular music and dance of US Negro origin, the accent of the melody falling just before the regular beat of the accompaniment.

raid /reɪd/ n [C] 1 surprise attack made by troops, ship(s) or aircraft: make a ~ on the enemy's camp; killed in an 'air-~, an attack by aircraft. 2 sudden visit by police to make arrests: a ~ on a casino. 3 sudden attack for the purpose of taking money: a ~ on a bank by armed men. □ vi, vi carry out a raid: Boys have been ~ing my orchard, stealing fruit.

raider, person, ship, aircraft, etc that makes a raid.

rail /reɪl/ n [C] 1 horizontal or sloping bar or rod or continuous series of bars or rods, of wood or metal, as part of a fence, as a protection against contact or falling over: metal ~s round a monument. He was leaning over the (ship's) ~. 2 similar bar or rod placed for things to hang on: a 'towel-~, eg at the side of a wash-basin. 3 steel bar or continuous line of such bars, laid on the ground as one side of a track for trains or trams: a 'a strike, of railway workers. off the rails, (a) (of a train) off the track. (b) (fig) out of order, out of control. (c) (informal) mad. □ vt rail off/in, put rails(1) round: fields that are ~ed off from the road.

'rail-road, (US) = railway.

'rail-way, (a) track on which trains run: build a new ~way. (b) system of such tracks, with the locomotives, wagons, etc and the organization controlling the system: work on/nationalize the ~way. (c) (as an adjective): a 'a-way station/bridge.

rail-ing n [C] (often pl) fence made with rails.

rail² /reɪl/ vi find fault; criticize.

rai-ment /'reɪmənt/ n [U] (literary) clothing.

rain¹ /reɪn/ n 1 [U] condensed moisture of the atmosphere falling in separate drops; fall of such drops: It looks like ~, as if there will be a fall of rain. Don't go out in the ~. (come) rain or shine, (a) whatever the weather is like. (b) (fig) whether conditions are favourable or not: He's always there, come ~ or shine. right as rain, ⇨ right¹(4). 2 (with a and an adjective) fall or shower of rain: There was a heavy ~ last night. 3 (usually sing with a) fall of something like rain: a ~ of arrows/bullets.

the rains, the season in tropical countries when there is heavy and continuous rain.

rain-bow /'reɪnbəʊ/ arch containing the colours of the spectrum, formed in the sky opposite the sun when rain is falling or when the sun shines on mist or spray.

'rain-coat, light coat of waterproof or tightly-woven material.

'rain-drop, single drop of rain.

'rain-fall, amount of rain falling within a given area in a given time.

'rain forest, hot, wet forest in tropical areas, where rainfall is heavy and there is no dry season.

'rain-gauge, instrument for measuring rainfall.

'rain-proof adj able to keep rain out.

'rain-water, water that has fallen as rain and has been collected.

rain² /reɪn/ vi, vi 1 fall as rain: It was ~ing. It never rains but it pours, (proverb) If one disaster happens, others will follow. 2 fall in a stream: Tears ~ed down her cheeks. 3 send or come down (on): The people ~ed gifts on/upon the heroes returning from the war.

rainy /'reɪni/ adj (-ier, -iest) having much rain: ~ weather; a ~ day/climate; the ~ season. save/put away/keep sth for a rainy day, save money for a time when one may need it.

raise /reɪz/ vt 1 lift up; move from a low(er) to a high(er) level; cause to rise: ~ a sunken ship to the surface of the sea; ~ one's glass to one's lips; ~ prices; ~ (= build, erect) a monument.

raise sb's hopes, ⇨ hope¹(1).

raise one's voice, ⇨ voice(3). 2 cause to be upright: ~ a man from his knees; ~ the banner of revolt. 3 cause to rise or appear: ~ a cloud of dust; shoes that ~ blisters on my feet; a long; hot walk that ~d a good thirst, caused the walker to be thirsty. raise sb from the dead, restore him to life. raise a laugh, do something to cause laughter. raise Cain/hell/the devil/the roof, (sl) become very angry; start a big row. 4 bring up for discussion or attention: ~ a new point/a question/a protest/an objection. 5 grow or produce (crops); breed (sheep, etc); bring up (a family).

6 get or bring together; manage to get: ~ an army; ~ a loan; ~ money for a new swimming-pool. □ n [C] (US) = rise¹(2).

raisin /'reɪzn/ n [C] dried sweet grape; as used in cakes, etc.

ra-jah /'rɑ:dʒə/ n [C] Indian prince; Malayan chief.

rake¹ /reɪk/ n [C] long-handled tool with prongs used for drawing together straw, dead leaves, etc, for smoothing soil or gravel, etc. □ vi, vi 1 use a rake (on); make smooth with a rake: ~ garden paths; raking together dead leaves; ~ the soil smooth for a seedbed. 2 get (something together, up, out, etc) with or as with a rake: ~ out a fire, get the ashes or cinders out from the bottom of a grate, etc. rake sth in, (fig) earn, make, much money: The firm is very successful—they're raking it in/ raking in the money. rake over/through sth, search for facts, etc: ~ through old manuscripts for information. rake sth up, (esp) bring to people's knowledge (something which it is better not to remember): ~ up old quarrels/the past. 3 fire at with guns, from end to end: ~ a ship.

'rake-off, (sl) (usually dishonest) share of profits: If I put this bit of business your way, I expect a ~-off.

rake² /reɪk/ n [C] (dated) immoral man.

rake³ /reɪk/ vi, vi 1 (of a ship) project beyond the keel; (of the funnel, masts) (cause to) slope towards the stern. 2 (of the stage of a theatre, cinema) slope down (towards the audience). □ n [C] degree of slope.

rak-ish /'reɪkɪʃ/ adj 1 of or like a rake²: a ~ appearance. 2 on one side: set one's hat at a ~ angle.

rak-ish-ly adv

rally /'ræli/ vi, vi (pt, pp -lied) 1 (cause to) come together, esp after defeat or confusion, or in the face of threats or danger, to make new efforts: The troops rallied round their leader. The leader rallied his men. They rallied to the support of the Prime Minister. 2 give new strength to; (cause to) recover health, strength, firmness: ~ one's strength/spirits; ~ from an illness. □ n [C] (pl -ies) 1 gathering or assembly, esp to encourage fresh effort: a political ~; a 'peace ~, one to urge the ending or avoiding of war. 2 meeting of a number of car drivers or motor-cyclists for a competition, etc. (in tennis, etc) exchange of several strokes.

ram /ræm/ n [C] 1 uncastrated male sheep. 2 one of various implements or devices for striking or pushing with great force. 3 = battering ram. □ vi (-mm-) strike and push heavily: ~ piles into a river bed.

'ram-rod, iron rod for ramming the charge into old (muzzle-loading) guns.

Rama-dan /'ræmə'dæn/ US: -dæn/ n ninth month of the Muslim year, when Muslims fast between sunrise and sunset.

ramble /'ræmbəl/ vi 1 walk for pleasure, with no special destination. 2 (fig) wander in one's talk, not keeping to the subject. 3 (of plants) grow with long shoots that extend up or along: rambling roses. □ n [C] rambling walk: go for a country ~.

ram-bler, person or thing that rambles.

ram-bling adj (a) (esp of buildings, streets, towns), extending in various directions as if built without planning. (b) (of a speech, essay, etc) disconnected.

ramp /ræmp/ n [C] sloping way from one level to another, eg instead of stairs or steps.

ram-page /'ræmpedʒ/ vi rush about in excitement or rage. □ n be/go on the ram-page, be/go rampaging.

ram-pa-geous /ræm'peɪdʒəs/ adj (formal) excited and noisy.

ram-pant /'ræmpənt/ adj 1 (of plants, etc) luxuriant: Rich soil makes some plants too ~, causes them to spread too thickly, to have too much foliage, etc. 2 (of diseases, social evils, physical activity, etc) beyond control: Revenge was ~ in the village. 3 (of animals, esp of a lion in heraldry) on the hind legs.

ram-pant-ly adv

ram-part /'ræmpɑ:t/ n [C] wide bank of earth, often with a wall, built to defend a fort, etc.

ram-rod /'ræmrɒd/ ⇨ ram.

ram-shackle /'ræmjækəl/ adj almost collapsing: a ~ house/old bus.

ran /ræn/ pt of run².

ranch /rɑ:ntʃ/ US: ræntʃ/ n [C] (in N America) large farm, esp one with extensive lands for cattle, but also for fruit, chickens, etc.

'ranch house, (US) rectangular house without stairs.

rancher, person who owns, manages or works on, a ranch.

ran-cid /'rænsɪd/ adj with the smell or taste of stale, decaying fat or butter.

ran-cour (US = -cor) /'ræŋkə(r)/ n [U] (formal) deep and long-lasting feeling that one has been ignored, injured or insulted: full of ~ (against him).

ran-cor-ous /'ræŋkərəs/ adj ran-dom /'rændəm/ n [U] 1 at random, without reason, aim or purpose: choosing children at ~ to help in the class. 2 (as an adjective) done, made, taken, at random: a ~ remark/sample/selection.

rang /ræŋ/ pt of ring².

range¹ /reɪndʒ/ n [C] 1 row, line or series of things: a magnificent ~ of mountains; a 'mountain ~. 2 area of ground with targets for shooting at: a 'rifle ~. 3 area in which rockets and missiles are fired. 4 distance to which a gun will shoot or to which a missile, etc can be fired: in/within/out of/beyond ~. 5 distance at which one can see or hear, or to which sound will carry. 6 extent; distance between limits: the ~ of an aircraft, how far it can travel without refuelling; the annual ~ of temperature, eg from 0°C to 30°C; a long ~ 'weather forecast, for a long period; a wide ~ of colours. 7 (fig) extent: a subject that is outside my ~, one that I have not studied; a wide ~ of interests. 8 (US) area of grazing or hunting ground. 9 area over which plants are found growing or in which animals are found living: What is the ~ of the elephant in Africa? 10 type of stove, with ovens, a coal boiler, and a surface for pans, kettles, etc.

range² /reɪndʒ/ vt, vi 1 place in a row or rows; put, take one's place, in an order, class or group; arrange (the usual word): The general ~d his men along the river bank. 2 go, move, wander: animals ranging through the forests/over the hills. 3 (fig) be extensive: researches that ~d over a wide field; a wide-ranging discussion. 4 extend, run in a line: a boundary that ~s north and south/from A to B. 5 vary between limits: prices ranging from £7 to £10/between £7 and £10. 6 (of guns, projectiles) carry: This gun ~s over six miles, can fire to this distance.

ranger /'reɪndʒə(r)/ n [C] 1 (N America) forest guard. 2 (esp in Canada) one of a body of mounted troops employed as police (eg in thinly populated areas). 3 (GB) keeper of a royal park, who sees that the forest laws are observed.

rank /ræŋk/ n 1 [C] line of persons or things: Take the taxi at the head of the ~, the first one in the line. 2 number of soldiers placed side by side. 3 the ~s, ordinary soldiers, ie privates and corporals, contrasted with officers. 4 [C, U] position in a scale, distinct grade in the armed forces; category or class: promoted to the ~ of captain; be in the ~s of the unemployed. □ vt, vi 1 put or arrange in a rank: A major ~s above a captain. 2 have a place: Would you ~ him among the world's great statesmen?

rankle /'ræŋkl/ vi continue to be a painful or annoying memory: The insult ~d in his mind.

ran-sack /'rænsæk/ US: ræn'sæk/ vt 1 search (a place) thoroughly: a drawer for money/to find money. 2 rob: The house had been ~ed of all that was worth anything.

ran-som /'rænsəm/ n [U] freeing of a person who has been kidnapped on payment; [C] sum of money, etc, paid for this. hold a man to ransom, keep him as a prisoner and ask for money. worth a king's ransom, a very large sum of money. □ vt obtain the freedom of (a person), set (a person) free, in exchange for ransom: ~ a kidnapped diplomat/politician.

rant /rænt/ vi, vt use pompous, boasting, loud language: ~ing and raving on the stage.

rap /ræp/ n [C] 1 (sound of a) light, quick blow: I heard a ~ on the door. 2 (informal) blame; consequences. take the rap (for sth), (informal) be punished, etc (esp when innocent). □ vt, vi (-pp-) hit, strike quickly; make the sound of a rap: ~ (at) the door.

ra-pa-cious /rə'peɪʃəs/ adj (formal) greedy (esp for money).

ra-pa-cious-ly adv

rape /reɪp/ vt commit the crime of forcing sexual intercourse on. □ n [C] act of raping.

ra-pist /'reɪpɪst/ n, person who rapes.

rapid /'ræpɪd/ adj 1 quick; moving, happening, with great speed: a ~ decision. 2 (of a slope) steep; descending steeply.

rap-id-ity /rə'pɪdəti/ n [U] rap-id-ly adv

rap-ids /'ræpɪdz/ n pl part of a river where a steep slope causes the water to flow fast.

ra-pier /'reɪpiə(r)/ n [C] light sword used for thrusting in duels and the sport of fencing.

rap-t /ræpt/ adj so deep in thought, so carried away by feelings, that one is unaware of other things: listening to the news with ~ attention; ~ in a book.

rap-ture /'ræptʃə(r)/ n 1 [U] state of being ecstatic: gazing with ~ at the face of the girl he loved. 2 (pl) state of being extremely happy, full of joy and enthusiasm: She went into ~s over the dresses they showed her.

rap-tur-ous /'ræptʃərəs/ adj

rap-tur-ous-ly adv

rare¹ /rəə(r)/ adj (-r, -st) unusual; uncommon; not often happening, seen, etc: a ~ animal. It is very ~ for her to arrive late.

rare-ly adv not often: ~ly seen.

rare-ness n [U]

rare² /rəə(r)/ adj (of meat) cooked so that the redness and juices are kept: a ~ steak.

rarefy /'ræərɪfaɪ/ vt, vi (pt, pp -ied) make or become less dense; purify: rarefied air.

rar-ing /'ræərɪŋ/ adj (informal) full of eagerness: They're ~ to go.

rar-ity /'ræərɪti/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] rareness. 2 [C] something uncommon or unusual (and so valuable): The person who is always happy is a ~.

ras-cal /'rɑːskl/ US: 'ræskl/ n [C] 1 dishonest person. 2 (playfully) naughty child.

rash¹ /ræʃ/ adj too hasty; done, doing things, without enough thought of the possible result: a ~ act/statement/man.

rash-ly adv

rash-ness n [U]

rash² /ræʃ/ n [C] 1 (appearance, patch, of) tiny red spots on the skin: a 'heat-~. 2 (fig) sudden spread: a ~ of new bungalows on a country road.

rasher /'ræʃə(r)/ n [C] slice of bacon.

rasp /rɑːsp/ US: ræsp/ n [C] 1 metal tool like a coarse file with a surface or surfaces having sharp points, used for scraping. 2 rough, grating sound produced by this tool. □ vt, vi 1 scrape with a rasp. 2 (fig) have an irritating effect on: ~ing my nerves. 3 say in a way that grates or sounds like the noise of a rasp: ~ out orders/insults. 4 make a harsh, grating sound: a learner ~ing (away) on his violin.

rasp-ing-ly adv

rasp-berry /'rɑ:zbəri/ US: /'ræzbəri/ n [C] (pl -ies) 1 (bush with a) small, sweet yellow or red berry: (as an adjective) ~ jam. 2 (sl) noise made with the tongue and lips or by wind passing out of the anus, or a similar noise to show dislike or disapproval.

rat /ræt/ n [C] 1 animal like, but larger than, a mouse. 2 person who deserts a cause that he thinks is about to fail. smell a rat, suspect that something wrong is being done. 3 (fig) cowardly traitor, eg a strike-breaker. □ vt (-tt-) 1 hunt rats: go ~ing. 2 rat (on sb), (sl) break a promise to do something.

the 'rat race, endless and undignified competition for success in one's career, social status, etc.

rat-ty adj (-ier, -iest) (informal) irritable.

rat-able (also rate-able) /'reɪtəbl/ adj having to pay rates(3): the ~ value of a house, its value as assessed for the levying of rates.

rat-abil-ity (also rate-) /'reɪtə'bɪləti/ n [U] rate¹ /reɪt/ n 1 [C] standard or reckoning, obtained by bringing two numbers or amounts into relationship: the 'birth-'death-~; walk at the ~ of 3 miles an hour. What is the letter postage ~ to foreign countries? 2 at 'this/'that rate, if/this/thatis true, if this/thatis state of affairs continues. at 'any rate, in any case; at least: At any ~, say you're sorry. 3 (GB) tax on property (land and buildings), paid to local authorities for local purposes. 4 speed: travelling/increasing at a great ~. 5 (with ordinal numbers) class or grade: first ~, excellent; second ~, fairly good; third ~, (rather) poor; (used as an adjective, with a hyphen): a first-~ teacher.

the rates, payments of rates(3) collectively. 'rate of ex'change, relationship of value between two currencies (eg dollars and francs).

'rate-payer, person paying rates(3).

rate² /reɪt/ vt, vi 1 judge or estimate the value or qualities of: What do you ~ his wealth at? He was ~d as kind and hospitable. 2 (GB) value (property) for the purpose of assessing rates(3) on: My property was ~d at £200 per annum.

rather /'rɑ:ðə(r)/ US: /'ræ-/ adv 1 more willingly; by preference or choice: I'd ~ fail the exam if I have to cheat. I would ~ you came tomorrow than today. A: 'Will you join us in a game of cards?' - B: 'Thank you, but I'd ~ not.', prefer not to. 2 more truly, accurately or precisely: He arrived very late last night or ~ in the early hours this morning. 3 (to be distinguished from fairly²) in a certain degree or measure; more (so) than not; (a) (with adjectives, preceding or following a, following the): a ~ surprising result ~ a surprising result. (b) (with comparatives): My brother is ~ better today. (c) (with nouns): It's ~ a pity. (d) (with verbs): We were all ~ exhausted when we got to the top of the mountain.

rat-ify /'rætɪfaɪ/ vt (pt, pp -ied) confirm (an agreement) by signature or other formality.

rati-fi-ca-tion /'rætɪfɪ'keɪʃn/ n [U] rat-ing /'reɪtɪŋ/ n 1 [C] act of valuing property for the purpose of assessing rates(3); amount or sum fixed. 2 [C] class, classification, eg motor-cars by engine capacity or horsepower. 3 [C] popularity of radio or TV programmes as estimated by asking a selected group. 4 (navy) person's position or class as recorded in the ship's books; non-commissioned sailor: officers and ~s.

ratio /'reɪʃiəʊ/ n [C] (pl ~s) relation between two amounts determined by the number of times one contains the other: The ~s of 1 to 5 and 20 to 100 are the same.

ra-tion /'ræʃn/ n 1 [C] fixed quantity, esp of food, allowed to one person. 2 (pl) fixed allowance served out to, eg members of the armed forces: go and draw ~s. □ vt 1 limit (a person) to a fixed ration. 2 limit (food, water, etc): We'll have to ~ the water.

ra-tion-al /'ræʃnəl/ adj 1 of reason or reasoning. 2 able to reason; having the faculty of reasoning. 3 sensible; that can be tested by reasoning: ~ behaviour.

ra-tion-al-ly /-nəli/ adv

ra-tion-al-ity /'ræʃənəli/ n [U] ra-tion-ale /'ræʃə'næl/ n [C] fundamental reason, logical basis (of something).

ra-tion-al-ist-ic /'ræʃnəlɪstɪk/ adj sensible, accepting a reasonable argument.

ra-tion-al-ize (also -ise) /'ræʃnəlaɪz/ vt 1 make reasonable; treat or explain in a rational manner: ~ one's fears/behaviour. 2 reorganize (an industry, etc) so as to lessen or get rid of waste (in time, labour, expense, etc).

ration-al-iz-a-tion (also -isation) /'ræʃnə-larɪz'eɪʃn/ US: /-lɪz-/ n [U] rattle /'rætl/ vt, vi 1 (cause to) make short, sharp sounds quickly, one after the other: The windows were rattling in the wind. The hailstones ~d the tin roof. □ death rattle. 2 talk, say or repeat (something) quickly and in a thoughtless way: The boy ~d off the poem he had learnt. 3 (informal) frighten; make nervous: He was ~d by the accident. □ n 1 [U] rattling sound: the ~ of bottles in a milkman's van. 2 [C] toy for producing a rattling sound. 'rattle-snake, poisonous American snake that makes a rattling noise with its tail.

ratty □ rat.

rau-cous /'rɒkəs/ adj (of sounds) harsh; rough; hoarse: the ~ cries of the crows.

rau-cous-ly adv

rav-age /'rævɪdʒ/ vt, vi 1 destroy; damage badly: forests ~d by fire. 2 (of armies, etc) rob, plunder, with violence: They had ~d the countryside. □ n 1 [U] destruction. 2 (pl) destructive effects: the ~s of time, eg on a woman's face.

rave /reɪv/ vi 1 talk wildly, violently, angrily: The patient (eg someone with a high fever) began to ~. 2 (of the sea, wind, etc) roar; rage. 3 talk or act with (often) excessive enthusiasm: She was raving about the food she had had in France. □ n [C] 1 (informal) (often as an adjective) enthusiastic praise: a ~ review, eg of a book. 2 (sl) wild, exciting party, dance, etc. 3 (sl) great enthusiasm: be in a ~ about him.

raver, (informal) person who raves (3).

rav-ing adj talking wildly: a raving lunatic. □ adv to the point of talking wildly: You're raving mad!

ravel /'rævl/ vt, vi (-ll-, US also -l-) 1 (of knitted or woven things) separate into threads. 2 (fig) make confused.

raven /'reɪvn/ n [C] 1 large, black bird like a crow. 2 (as an adjective) glossy, shining black: ~ black hair.

rav-en-ous /'rævənəs/ adj 1 very hungry. 2 greedy: a ~ appetite.

rav-en-ous-ly adv hungrily; greedily: eat ~ly after a long journey.

ra-vine /'rævi:n/ n [C] deep, narrow valley.

ravi-oli /'rævi'əʊli/ n [U] flour paste (pasta) made in square pieces filled with chopped meat, etc.

rav-ish /'rævɪʃ/ vt 1 fill with delight: ~ed by the view. 2 (dated) commit rape.

rav-ish-ing-ly adv

raw /rɔ:/ adj 1 uncooked: ~ meat. 2 in the natural state, not manufactured or prepared for use: the ~ materials of industry, eg coal, ores. in the raw, (a) in the natural state. (b) (fig) naked. 3 (of persons) untrained; unskilled; inexperienced: ~ recruits, for the army, etc. 4 (of the weather) damp and cold: a ~ February morning. 5 (of a place on the flesh) with the skin rubbed off; sore and painful. 6 (informal) unjust (esp) a raw deal, unfair or cruel treatment. □ n [C] raw place on the skin, esp of a horse.

raw-hide, (of) untanned hide.

ray¹ /rei/ n [C] 1 line, beam, of radiant light, heat, energy: the ~s of the sun; X-~s. 2 (fig) small sign: a ~ of hope. 3 any one of a number of lines coming out from a centre. □ vi, vt send out or come out in rays.

ray² /rei/ n [C] (pl often unchanged) kinds of large sea-fish with a broad, flat body, eg skate.

rayon /'reɪon/ n [U] cloth like silk made from cellulose.

raze, rase /reɪz/ vt destroy (towns, buildings) completely, esp by making them level with the ground: a city ~d by an earthquake.

razor /'reɪzə(r)/ n [C] instrument with a sharp blade or cutters used for shaving hair from the skin.

razor-blade, ⇨ blade (2).

re- /ri-/ prefix 1 again: reappear. 2 in a different way: rearrange.

reach /ri:tʃ/ vt, vi 1 stretch (out): He ~ed (out his hand) for the knife. 2 stretch out the hand for and take; get and give (something) to: Can you ~ that book for your brother? 3 get to, go as far as: ~ London; ~ the end of the chapter. When did the news ~ you? 4 extend; go; pass: My land ~es as far as the river. □ n 1 (sing only) act of stretching out (a hand, etc): a long ~. 2 [U] extent to which a hand, etc can be reached out: This boxer has a long ~. I have my reference books within my ~/within easy ~, so near that I can get them quickly and easily. 3 [C] continuous extent, esp of a river or canal, that can be seen between two bends or locks² (3).

re-act /ri'ækt/ vi 1 have an effect (on the person or thing): Applause ~s on/upon a speaker, eg has the effect of giving him confidence. 2 behave differently, be changed, as the result of being acted on: Do children ~ to kind treatment by becoming more self-confident? 3 respond to something with feeling: The people will ~ against the political system that oppresses them. 4 (chem) (of one substance applied to another) have an effect: How do acids ~ on metals?

re-action /ri'ækʃn/ n [C,U] 1 action or state resulting from, in response to, something, esp a return to an earlier condition after a period of the opposite condition: After these days of excitement there was a ~, eg a period when life seemed dull. 2 opposition to progress or change: The forces of ~ made reform difficult. 3 response; opinion: What was his ~ to your proposal? 4 (science) action set up by one substance in another; change within the nucleus of an atom.

re-action-ary /ri'ækʃənəri/ US: -neri/ n [C] (pl -ies), adj (person) opposing progress or reform.

re-actor /ri'æktə(r)/ n = nuclear reactor.

read /ri:d/ vt, vi (pt, pp read /red/) 1 (used in the simple tenses or with can/be able) look at and (be able to) understand (something written or printed): Can you ~ French/a musical score? 2 reproduce mentally or vocally the words of (an author, book, etc): She was ~ing the letter aloud/to herself/to the children. She ~ out the letter to all of us. 3 study (a subject, esp at a university): He's ~ing physics/~ing for a degree in physics/~ing for a physics degree. 4 interpret mentally; learn the significance of: ~ a person's thoughts. 5 give a certain impression; seem (good, etc) when read: The play ~s better than it acts, is better for reading than for performing. 6 find implications in (what is read, etc): Silence mustn't always be ~ as consent. read between the lines, ⇨ line¹ (13). read into sth, add more than is justified: You have ~ into her letter more sympathy than she probably feels. 7 (of instruments, graphs,) show: What does the thermometer ~? 8 bring into a specified state by reading: She ~ herself to sleep. 9 (pp with an adverb) having knowledge gained from books, etc: a well-~ man.

 □ n [C] period of time given to reading: have a good ~ in the train.

read-able /'ri:dəbl/ adj that is easy or pleasant to read.

read-abil-ity /'ri:də'bɪləti/ n [U] re-ad-dress /'ri:ədres/ vt change the address on (a letter, etc).

reader /'ri:də(r)/ n [C] 1 person who reads, esp one who spends much time in reading. 2 (GB) university teacher of a rank immediately below a professor: R~ in English Literature. 3 textbook for reading in class; book with selections for reading by students of a language: a German R~. 4 person who can interpret what is hidden or obscure, esp a 'mind' 'thought'~.

'reader-ship /-ʃɪp/, (a) position of a reader (2). (b) (of a periodical) number of persons who read it.

read-ily, readi-ness ⇨ ready.

read-ing /'ri:dɪŋ/ n 1 [U] act of one who reads. ⇨ play reading. 2 [U] knowledge, esp of books: a man of wide ~. 3 [C] way in which something is interpreted or understood: My ~ of the situation is... 4 [C] figure of measurement, etc as shown on a dial, scale, etc: The ~s on my thermometer last month were well above the average.

'reading-lamp, shaded table-lamp used to read by.

'reading-room, room (eg in a public library) for reading.

re-ad-just /'ri:ədʒəst/ vt adjust again: It's sometimes difficult to ~ (oneself) to life in England after working abroad.

re-ad-just-ment n [C, U] ready /'redi/ adj (-ier, -iest) 1 in the condition needed for use; willing: ~ for work. He's always ~ to help his friends. make ready, prepare. 2 quick; prompt; He always has a ~ answer. 3 within reach; easily obtained: keep a revolver ~, near at hand. 4 (adverbial use, with pp) prepared beforehand: buy food ~cooked.

 □ n (only in) at the ready. (a) (of a rifle) in the position for aiming and firing. (b) in the correct position, condition.

'ready-made adj ready to wear or use: ~made 'clothes.

'ready 'money, money in the form of coins or notes, which can be used for payment at the time when goods are bought (contrasted with credit).

'ready 'reckoner, book of answers to various common calculations needed in business, etc.

read-ily adv (a) without showing hesitation or unwillingness. (b) without difficulty.

readi-ness /'redɪnəs/ n [U] (a) in readi-ness (for), in a ready or prepared state: have everything in readiness for an early start. (b) willingness: a surprising readiness to accept the proposal.

re-af-firm /'ri:ə'fɜ:m/ vt affirm again: ~ one's loyalty.

real /riəl/ adj existing in fact; not imagined or supposed; not made up or artificial: Was it a ~ man you saw or a ghost? Things that happen in ~ life are sometimes stranger than in stories. Who is the ~ manager of the business? Tell me the ~ (= true) reason for your absence from work.

'real estate, (legal) immovable property consisting of land, any natural resources, and buildings (contrasted with personal estate).

real-ism /'ri:əlɪzəm/ n [U] 1 (in art and literature) showing of real life, facts, etc in a true way, omitting nothing that is ugly or painful, and idealizing nothing. 2 behaviour based on an honest opinion of the facts and disregard of emotion, convention, etc.

real-ist /-ɪst/ n [C] (esp) person who believes himself to be without illusions.

real-is-tic /'ri:əlɪstɪk/ adj (a) showing the true form. (b) practical: realistic policies.

real-is-ti-cally /-klɪ/ adv

real-ity /'ri:ələti/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] the quality of being real; real existence: belief in the ~ of miracles. in reality, in actual fact. 2 [C] something actually seen or experienced: the grim realities of war. 3 [U] (in art, etc) truth; lifelike resemblance to the original: The TV broadcast described what was happening with extraordinary ~.

real-ize (also -ise) /'ri:əlaɪz/ vt 1 be fully conscious of; understand: Does he ~ his mistake yet? 2 convert (a hope, plan, etc) into a fact: ~ one's hopes/ambitions/dreams. 3 exchange (property, business shares, etc) for money: Can these shares/bonds be ~d at short notice? 4 (of property, etc) obtain as a price-for or as a profit: How much did you ~ on the paintings you sent to the sale?

real-iz-able (also -isable) /-əbl/ adj real-iz-ation (also -isation) /'ri:ələ'zeɪʃn/ US: -lɪ'z-/ n (a) [U] realizing (of a plan, one's ambitions or hopes). (b) [C] act of exchanging property for money.

really /'ri:əli/ adv 1 in fact; without doubt; truly: What do you ~ think about it? I'm ~ly sorry. 2 (used to express interest, surprise, mild protest, doubt, etc according to context): 'We're going to Mexico next month.' — 'Oh, ~!' R~! This noise is terrible!

realm /reɪlm/ n [C] 1 (poetic or legal) = kingdom: the defence of the R~. 2 (fig) region: the ~ of the imagination.

ream /ri:m/ n [C] 1 measure for paper, 480 (or US 500) sheets or 20 quires. 2 (pl) (informal) great quantity (of writing): She has written ~s of verse.

re-ani-mate /ri:'ænimet/ vt fill with new strength, courage or energy.

reap /ri:p/ vt, vi 1 cut (grain, etc); collect in a crop of grain from (a field, etc): ~ a field of barley; ~ the corn. 2 (fig) gain; obtain: ~ the reward of virtue.

reaper, person who, machine which, reaps.

re-appear /ˌri:ə'piə(r)/ vi appear again (after disappearing).

re-appear-ance /-rəns/ n [C,U] re-appraisal /ˌri:ə'preɪz/ n [C] new examination and judgement: a ~ of our relations with China.

rear¹ /rɪə(r)/ n [C] 1 back part: The kitchen is in/to the ~ of the house. 2 (as an adjective) in or at the rear: the ~ wheels/mirror, of a car, etc. 3 last part of any army, fleet, etc: attack the enemy in the ~. bring up the rear, come/be last.

rear-admiral, naval officer below a vice-admiral.

rear-guard, body of soldiers given the duty of guarding the rear of an army.

rearguard action, fight between an army in retreat and the enemy.

rear-most /ˌriəməʊst/ adj farthest back.

rear² /rɪə(r)/ vt, vi 1 cause or help to grow; bring up: ~ poultry/cattle; ~ children. 2 (esp of a horse) rise on the hind legs. 3 lift up: The snake ~ed its head.

re-arm /ri:'ɑ:m/ vt, vi supply (an army, etc) with weapons again, or with weapons of new types, etc.

re-arma-ment /ri:'ɑ:məmənt/ n [U] re-ar-range /ˌri:ə'reɪndʒ/ vt arrange in a different way.

re-ason¹ /ˌri:zn/ n 1 [C,U] (fact put forward or serving as a) cause of or justification for something: Is there any ~ why you are late? The ~ why he's late is that/because there was a breakdown on the railway. He complains with ~ (= rightly) that he has been punished unfairly. by reason of, because of: He was excused by ~ of his age. 2 [U] power of the mind to understand, form opinions, etc: Only man has ~. lose one's reason, go mad. 3 [U] what is right or practicable; common sense; sensible conduct. do anything (with) in reason, anything sensible or reasonable. listen to reason, pay attention to common sense, sensible advice, etc. without rhyme or reason, without rhyme (1). it stands to reason (that)..., is obvious to sensible people; most people will agree...

rea-son² /ˌri:zn/ vi, vt 1 make use of one's reason(2); exercise the power of thought: Man's ability to ~ makes him different from animals. 2 reason with sb, argue in order to convince him: She ~ed with me for an hour. 3 say by way of argument: He ~ed that if we started at dawn, we could arrive before noon. 4 explain, argue, logically: a well-~ed statement/manifesto. reason sth out, find an answer by considering successive arguments, etc. 5 persuade by argument (not) to do something: ~ a person out of his fears.

reason-ing n [U] process of reaching conclusions by using one's reason: There's no ~ing with that woman. She won't listen to sensible advice, arguments.

rea-son-able /ˌri:znəbl/ adj 1 having ordinary common sense; able to reason; acting, done, in accordance with reason; willing to listen to reason: Is the accused guilty beyond ~ doubt? 2 neither more or less than seems right or acceptable: a ~ price/offer; a ~ excuse; be ~ in one's demands.

rea-son-ably /-əblɪ/ adv

re-as-sure /ˌri:ə'sʃʊə(r)/ vt remove the fears or doubts of: She felt ~d after her teacher told her she would pass the examination.

re-as-surance /-rəns/ n [U] re-as-sur-ing-ly adv

re-bate /ˌri:'beɪt/ n [C] sum of money by which a debt, tax, etc may be reduced: There is a ~ of £1.50 if the account is settled before 31 Dec.

rebel¹ /ˈrebl/ n [C] 1 person who takes up arms against, or refuses to accept, the established government; person who resists authority or control. 2 (used as an adjective) of the nature of a rebellion: the ~ forces.

re-bel² /rɪ'bel/ vi (-ll-) 1 take up arms to fight (against the government). 2 show resistance; protest strongly: The children ~led against having three hours' homework each evening.

re-bel-lion /rɪ'belɪən/ n 1 [U] rebelling, eg against a government: rise in ~ (against the Union). 2 [C] instance of this: a ~ against the dictator.

re-bel-li-ous /rɪ'belɪəs/ adj 1 acting like a rebel; taking part in a rebellion: ~ members/behaviour. 2 not easily controlled: a child with a ~ temper.

re-bel-li-ous-ly adv

re-birth /ˌri:'bɜ:θ/ n [C] 1 change in moral attitude, eg by religious conversion, causing a person to lead a new kind of life. 2 revival: the ~ of learning.

re-born /ˌri:'bɔ:n/ adj changed in spirit.

re-bound /ˌri:'baʊnd/ vi 1 spring or bounce back after hitting something: The ball ~ed from the wall. 2 happen as the consequence of one's own action: The nasty things you say could ~ on yourselves. on the rebound, (a) while bouncing back: hit a ball on the ~. (b) (fig) while still reacting to depression or disappointment: She quarrelled with Paul and then married Peter on the ~.

re-buff /rɪ'bjʌf/ n [C] unkind or offensive refusal of, or show of indifference to (an offer of or request for help, friendship, etc). vi give a rebuff to.

re-build /ˌri:'bɪld/ vt (pt, pp -built /-bɪlt/) build or put together again: a rebuilt engine.

re-buke /rɪ'bjʊ:k/ vt (formal) blame, speak severely to (eg officially): ~ an employee for being rude. n [C] blame (the usual word).

re-buk-ing-ly adv

re-but /rɪˈbʌt/ vt (-tt-) prove (a charge, piece of evidence, etc) to be false.

re-but-tal /-tl/ n [C] act of rebutting; evidence that proves a charge, etc to be false.

re-cal-ci-trance /rɪˈkælsɪtrəns/ n [U] (formal) being disobedient.

re-cal-ci-trant /rɪˈkælsɪtrənt/ adj (formal) disobedient; opposing authority or discipline.

re-call /rɪˈkɔːl/ vt 1 ask to come back: ~ an ambassador (from his post/to his own country).

2 bring back to the mind; remember: I don't ~ his name/face/meeting him/where I met him. 3 take back; cancel (an order, a decision). □ n 1 [C] request to return (esp to an ambassador: letters of ~. 2 [U] ability to remember: instant ~, able to remember quickly. beyond/past recall, that cannot be taken back or cancelled. 3 [C] signal, eg a bugle call, to troops, etc to return.

re-cant /rɪˈkænt/ vt, vi give up (an opinion, a belief); take back (a statement) as being false: The torturers could not make him ~.

re-cap /rɪˈkæp/ vt, vi, n (informal abbr of) recapitulate, recapitulation.

re-cap-itu-late /rɪˈkæpɪtʃuleɪt/ vt, vi repeat, go through again, the chief points of (something that has been said, discussed, argued about, etc).

re-cap-itu-la-tion /rɪˈkæpɪtʃuleɪʃn/ n [C, U] re-cap-ture /rɪˈkæptʃə(r)/ vt 1 capture again. 2 recall: try to ~ the past.

re-cast /rɪˈkɑːst/ US: -kæst/ vt 1 cast or fashion again: ~ a gun/a bell; ~ (= rewrite) a sentence/paragraph/chapter. 2 change the cast of a play, ie find different actors or give actors different parts.

re-cede /rɪˈsiːd/ vi 1 (appear to) go back (from an earlier position): As the tide ~d we were able to explore the beach. As our ship steamed out to sea the coast slowly ~d. 2 slope away from the front or from the observer: a receding chin. 3 withdraw (from an opinion, etc).

re-ceipt /rɪˈsiːt/ n 1 [U] receiving or being received: on ~ of the news. 2 (pl) money received (in a business, etc) (contrasted with expenditure). 3 [C] written statement that something (money or goods) has been received: get a ~ for money spent; sign a ~.

re-ceive-able /rɪˈsiːvəbl/ adj 1 that can be, fit to be, received. 2 (commerce) (of bills, accounts, etc) on which money is to be received.

re-ceive /rɪˈsiːv/ vt, vi 1 accept, take, get (something offered, sent, etc): When did you ~ the letter/news/telegram? He has ~d a good education. 2 take possession of stolen property: Smith was caught receiving soon after his release from prison. 3 allow to enter: He was ~d into the Church, admitted as a member.

re-ceiver /rɪˈsiːvə(r)/ n [C] 1 person who receives, esp who knowingly receives stolen goods. 2 R~, official appointed to take charge of the property and affairs of a bankrupt, or to administer property in dispute. 3 part of an apparatus for receiving something, eg that part of a telephone that is held to the ear, apparatus for receiving broadcast signals: a radio~.

re-cent /rɪˈsɪnt/ adj (having existed, been made, happened) not long before; begun not long ago: ~ news; a ~ event; within ~ memory.

re-cent-ly adv not long ago: until ~ly.

re-cep-tacle /rɪˈseptəkl/ n [C] container or holder in which things may be put.

re-ception /rɪˈsepʃn/ n 1 [U] receiving or being received: prepare rooms for the ~ of guests; a ~ area/camp/centre, one where persons, eg evacuees, refugees, are received and accommodated. 2 [C] formal occasion on which guests are received: There was a ~ after the wedding ceremony. 3 [C] welcome or greeting of a specified kind; demonstration of feeling: The new book/minister had a favourable ~, was welcomed by the public, etc. 4 [U] receiving of radio, etc signals; degree of efficiency of this: Is radio ~ good in your district?

re-ception desk, (in a hotel) counter where guests ask for rooms, etc.

re-ception-ist /-ʃənɪst/, person employed in a hotel, or by a doctor or other professional person, to receive clients.

re-cep-tive /rɪˈseptɪv/ adj quick or ready to receive suggestions, new ideas, etc: ~ to new ideas.

re-cep-tive-ly adv

re-cess /rɪˈses/ US: -rɪses/ n [C] 1 (US = vacation) period of time when work or business is stopped, eg when Parliament, the law courts, are not in session. 2 part of a room where the wall is set back from the main part. 3 secret place; place difficult to get in: the dark ~es of a cave. 4 (fig) deep, inner part: in the ~es of the mind. □ vi place in, provide with, a recess(2).

re-ces-sion /rɪˈseʃn/ n 1 [U] withdrawal; act of receding. 2 [C] slowing down of business and industrial activity: Did the recent ~ in Europe cause a lot of unemployment?

re-ces-sional /rɪˈseʃənl/ n [C] hymn sung while the clergy and choir go out after a church service. □ adj 1 of a recession: ~ music. 2 relating to a Parliamentary recess.

re-ces-sive /rɪˈsesɪv/ adj 1 tending to recede or go back. 2 (biology) showing the weak characteristics (the stronger ones are called dominant) which are passed on by means of genes to later generations, eg blue eyes and blond hair.

recipe /ˈresɪpi/ n [C] 1 explanation of how to prepare (food): a ~ for a fruit cake. 2 (fig) explanation, advice: Have you a ~ for happiness?

re-ci-pi-ent /rɪ'sɪpiənt/ n [C] (formal) person who receives something.

re-cip-ro-cal /rɪ'sɪprəkl/ adj 1 given and received in return: ~ affection/help. 2 corresponding, but the other way round: a ~ mistake, eg I thought he was a waiter and he thought I was a guest, but I was a waiter and he was a guest.

re-cip-ro-cally /-kli/ adv

re-cip-ro-cate /rɪ'sɪprəkeɪt/ vt, vi 1 give in return; give and receive, each to and from each: He ~d by wishing her a pleasant journey. 2 (of parts of a machine) (cause to) move backwards and forwards in a straight line: a reciprocating engine/saw.

reci-proc-ity /rɪ'sɪprəʊsəti/ n [U] (formal) principle or practice of give and take, of making mutual concessions; the granting of privileges in return for similar privileges: ~ in trade (between two countries).

re-cital /rɪ'saɪtl/ n [C] 1 detailed account of a number of connected events, etc: We were bored by the long ~ of his adventures. 2 performance of music by a soloist or small group, or of the works of one composer: a piano ~.

reci-ta-tion /rɪ'sɪteɪʃn/ n 1 [U] the act of reciting(2): a boring ~ of his grievances. 2 [U] delivery in public of prose or poetry learnt by heart; [C] instance of this: a 'Dickens ~, of extracts from his novels. 3 [C] piece of poetry or prose (to be) learnt by heart and recited.

re-cite /rɪ'saɪt/ vt, vi 1 say (esp poems) aloud from memory: The little girl refused to ~ at the party. 2 give a list of, tell one by one, (names, facts, etc): ~ the names of all the capital cities of Europe.

reck-less /'reklɪs/ adj not thinking or caring about the effects, consequences: a ~ spender/driver.

reck-less-ness n [U] reckon /'rekən/ vt, vi 1 find out (the quantity, number, cost, etc) by working with numbers: ~ the cost of a holiday. 2 reckon with sb, (a) deal with; settle with: When the fighting is over, we'll ~ with the enemy's sympathizers. (b) take into account; consider: He is certainly a man to be ~ed with, a man who cannot be ignored. 3 depend (on): I am ~ing on your help. 4 be of the opinion, suppose; consider: One-fourth of the country is ~ed to be/as unproductive. Do you still ~ him among/as one of your friends? 5 (US) (informal) assume: I ~ we'll have to go next week.

reck-on-er /'rekənə(r)/, person or thing that counts. ⇨ ready reckoner.

reck-on-ing /'rekənɪŋ/ n (a) [C] (old use) (tallied) account of items to be paid for: pay the ~ing. day of reckoning, time when one must be punished for doing something. (b) [U] calculation.

re-claim /rɪ'kleɪm/ vt 1 return (waste land, etc) to a useful condition, a state of cultivation, etc. 2 (formal) reform (a person): a ~ed drunkard. 3 demand that something be given back.

rec-la-ma-tion /rɪ'kleɪ'meɪʃn/ n [U] re-cline /rɪ'klaɪn/ vi, vt place oneself, be, in a position of rest; lie back or down: reclining on a couch/in a chair.

re-cluse /rɪ'klus/ n [C] person who lives alone and avoids other people.

rec-og-ni-tion /rɪ'kɒɡ'nɪʃn/ n [U] recognizing or being recognized: He was given a cheque for £25 in ~ of his services. R~ of the new State is unlikely. It is unlikely that diplomatic relations will be established with it. after/change beyond/out of (all) recognition, completely: The town has changed out of all ~ since I was there ten years ago.

re-cog-ni-zance (also -isance)

/rɪ'kɒɡnəns/ n [C] (legal) 1 order by which a person must appear before a court of law at a certain time, or to observe certain conditions, and to forfeit a certain sum if he fails to do so. 2 sum of money (to be) paid as security for observing such an order.

rec-og-ni-ze (also -ise) /rɪ'kɒɡnaɪz/ vt 1 know, (be able to) identify again (a person or thing) that one has seen, heard, etc before: ~ a tune/an old friend. 2 be willing to accept (a person or something) as what he or it claims to be or has been in the past: refuse to ~ a foreign government. The Browns no longer ~ the Smiths, do not accept them as friends. 3 be prepared to admit; be aware: He ~d that he was not qualified for the post. 4 acknowledge: Everyone ~d him to be the greatest living poet.

rec-og-niz-able (also -isable) /-əbl/ adj that can be identified.

rec-og-niz-ably (also -isably) /-əbli/ adv

re-coil /rɪ'kɔɪl/ 1 draw or jump back: ~ from doing something (in fear, horror, disgust, etc). 2 (of a gun) move back quickly (when fired); (of a spring) close again. 3 (fig) react: Revenge may ~ on the person who takes it. n [C] act of recoiling.

rec-ol-lect /rɪ'kɒləkt/ vt, vi succeed in remembering: ~ childhood days.

rec-ol-lec-tion /rɪ'kɒləkʃn/ n 1 [U] act or power of remembering, time over which the memory goes back: It has not happened within my ~. 2 [C] that which is remembered: letters with many ~s of my father.

rec-om-mend /rɪ'kɒmənd/ vt 1 speak favourably of; say that one thinks something is good (for a purpose) or that a person is suitable (for a post, etc as...): I can ~ this soap. He has been ~ed for first class honours. Can you ~ Miss Hill as a typist? 2 suggest as wise or suitable; advise: Do you ~ raising the school-leaving age? 3 (of a quality, etc) cause to be or appear pleasing, satisfactory; make acceptable: Behaviour of that sort will not ~ you.

rec-om-men-da-tion /rɪ'kɒməndəʃn/ n (a)

[U] recommending: speal in ~ation of my secretary|the plan; buy it on the ~ation of a friend. (b) [C] statement that is favourable: The jury brought in a verdict of guilty, with a ~ to mercy. (c) [C] something which causes a person to be well thought of: Is good cooking a ~ation in a wife?

rec-om-pense /'rekəmpens/ vt (formal) reward or punish; repay (for a loss, injury, etc): ~ a person for losing his pen. □ n [C,U] (formal) reward; payment: work hard without ~, Here is £1 in ~ for your help.

rec-on-cile /'rekənsail/ vt 1 cause (persons) to become friends after they have quarrelled: He refused to become ~d with his brother. 2 settle, end, (a quarrel, difference of opinion, etc). 3 cause to agree with: I can't ~ what you say with the facts of the case. 4 overcome one's objections to; resign oneself to: You must ~ yourself to a life of hardship and poverty.

rec-on-cil-able /-əbl/ adj rec-on-cili-ation /'rekənsili'eɪʃn/ n [U] reconciling or being reconciled; [C] instance of this: bring about a reconciliation between friends who have quarrelled.

re-con-di-tion /'ri:kən'diʃn/ vt put into good condition again: a car with a ~ed engine.

re-con-nais-sance /'ri:kənɪsəns/ n 1 [U] act of getting information (about an enemy): ~ in force, with many soldiers. 2 [C] survey, made by troops or a group of scouting vessels or aircraft, of an enemy's position or whereabouts. 3 (fig) survey of any kind of work before it is started: make a ~ of the planned publicity campaign.

re-con-noître (US = -ter) /'rekə'nɔɪtə(r)/ vt, vi go to or near (a place or area occupied by enemy forces) to learn about their position, strength, etc: ~ the area.

re-con-struct /'ri:kən'strakt/ vt 1 construct again. 2 build up a complete structure or description of (something of which one has only a few parts or only partial evidence): ~ a ruined abbey. The detective tried to ~ the crime, provide an opinion of how it had been committed.

re-con-struc-tion /'ri:kən'strækʃn/ n [C,U] rec-ord¹ /'rekɔ:d /'rekɔ:d/ n 1 [C] written account of facts, events, etc: a ~ of school attendances|of road accidents. 2 [U] state of being recorded or preserved in writing, esp as authentic evidence: I don't want to go on ~| don't want you to put me on ~ as saying that I think the President a fool. off the rec- ord, (informal) not for publication or for recording: What the President said at his press conference was off the ~, not to be repeated by the newspaper men there. put the record straight, ⇨ straight¹ (3). 3 [C] facts known about the past of a person or something: He has an honourable ~ of service|a good ~. That airline has a bad ~, eg its aircraft has had many accidents. 4 [C] something that provides evidence or information: Our museums are full of ~s of past history. 5 [C] disc on which sound has been registered; what is recorded on such a disc: 'gramophone ~s. ⇨ recording. 6 [C] limit, score, point, mark, etc (high or low), not reached before; (esp in sport) the best yet done: Which country holds the ~ for the 5000 metres race? (as an adjective) There was a ~ rice crop in Thailand that year. break/beat the record, do better than has been done before. Hence, 'record-breaking adj. ⇨ also smash (3).

'record-player, instrument for reproducing sound from discs.

re-cord² /'ri:kɔ:d/ vt 1 preserve for use or for reference, by writing or in other ways, eg on a disc, magnetic tape, video-tape, film, etc: This volume ~s the history of the regiment. The programme was ~ed. 2 (of an instrument) mark or show on a scale: The thermometer ~ed 40°C.

re-corder /'ri:kɔ:də(r)/ n [C] 1 judge who has criminal and civil responsibility in a borough or city. 2 apparatus that records. ⇨ tape recorder, video recorder. 3 wooden musical instrument like a flute.

re-cord-ing /'ri:kɔ:dɪŋ/ n [C] (esp for radio, TV and for record-players, etc) programme, piece of music, etc registered on a disc, magnetic tape, film, etc for reproduction: It wasn't a 'live' performance but a BBC ~.

re-count /'ri:kaʊnt/ vt (formal) give a description of; tell: He ~ed to them the story of his adventures in Mexico.

re-count /'ri:kaʊnt/ vt count again: ~ the votes. □ n [C] /'ri:kaʊnt/ another count: One of the candidates demanded a ~.

re-coup /'ri:kʊp/ vt pay (a person, oneself, for a loss, etc); ~ one's losses.

re-course /'ri:kɔ:s/ n (formal) [U] 1 act of seeking help from: I still have ~ to the money-lenders. 2 something turned to for help: Your only ~ is legal action against them.

re-cover¹ /'ri:kʌvə(r)/ vt, vi 1 get back (something lost, etc); get back the use of: ~ what was lost; ~ consciousness (after fainting); ~ one's sight|hearing. 2 recover from, become well; get back to a former position of prosperity, state of health, mental condition, etc: He is slowly ~ing from his illness. Has the country ~ed from the effects of the war yet? 3 get control of oneself again; become calm or normal: He almost fell, but quickly ~ed (himself).

re-cover-able /-əbl/ adj that can be recovered (1): Is the deposit I've paid ~able?

re-cov-ery n [U] recovering: make a quick recovery, get well again quickly or quickly regain one's position.

re-cover² /'ri:kʌvə(r)/ vt supply with a new cover: This chair needs to be ~ed.

rec-re-ation /'rekrɪ'eɪʃn/ n [C,U] (form of) play or amusement; refreshment of body and mind; something that pleasantly occupies one's time after work is done: walk and climb mountains for ~.

recreation ground, land, eg in a public park, set aside for games, etc.

recreational /-ʃənəl/ adj: ~al facilities.

re-crimi-nate /rɪ'krɪmɪneɪt/ vi accuse (a person) in return: ~ against my sister.

re-crimi-na-tion /rɪ'krɪmɪ'neɪʃn/ n [C,U] accusation made in return for one already made; (act of) doing this.

re-crimi-na-tory /rɪ'krɪmɪnətəri/ US: -tɔːrɪ/ adj of recrimination.

re-cruit /rɪ'kruːt/ n [C] new member of a society, group, etc esp a soldier in the early days of his training: gain a few ~s to one's political party. □ vt,vi get new members for: a ~ing officer.

re-cruit-ment n [C,U] (instance of) getting new members; person who is recruited.

rec-tal /'rektl/ adj (anat) of the rectum.

rec-tangle /'rektæŋɡl/ n [C] four-sided shape with four right angles, esp one with adjacent sides unequal.

rec-tan-gu-lar /rek'tæŋɡjʊlə(r)/ adj rec-tify /'rektɪfaɪ/ vt (pt,pp -ied) 1 put right; take out mistakes from: mistakes that cannot be rectified. 2 purify or refine by repeated distillation or other process: rectified spirits.

rec-ti-lin-e-ar /'rektɪ'lɪnə(r)/ adj in or forming a straight line; bounded by, characterized by, straight lines.

rec-tor /'rektə(r)/ n [C] 1 (Church of England) clergyman in charge of a parish the taxes of which were not withdrawn. eg to a monastery or university, at or after the time when the English Church separated from the Church of Rome. ⇨ vicar. 2 head of certain universities, colleges or religious institutions.

rec-tory /'rektəri/ n [C] (pl -ies) rector's residence.

rec-tum /'rektəm/ n [C] (pl ~s) (anat) lower and final part of the large intestine.

re-cum-bent /rɪ'kʌmbənt/ adj (formal) (esp of a person) lying down: a ~ figure on a tomb.

re-cu-per-ate /rɪ'kju:pəreɪt/ vt,vi make or become strong again after illness, exhaustion or loss: ~ one's health; go to the seaside (in order) to ~.

re-cu-per-ation /rɪ'kju:pə'reɪʃn/ n [U] re-cu-per-at-ive /rɪ'kju:pə'reɪtɪv/ US: -reɪtɪv/ adj helping, relating to, recuperation.

re-cur /rɪ'kɜː(r)/ vi (-rr-) 1 come, happen, again; be repeated: a problem/pain which ~s frequently. 2 (of ideas, events etc) come back: My first meeting with her often ~s to me/my memory.

re-cur-rence /rɪ'kærəns/ US: /-kærəns/ n [C, U] repetition: Let there be no ~rence of this error.

re-cur-rent /-ənt/ adj (of events, fevers etc) happening again frequently or regularly.

re-cycle /rɪ'saɪkl/ vt treat (substances already used) so that further use is possible: ~ waste paper.

red /red/ adj (-der, -dest) 1 of the colour of fresh blood, rubies, human lips, the tongue, of shades varying from crimson to bright brown (as of iron rust): ~ with anger/embarassment, flushed in the face; with ~ eyes, eyes red with weeping. paint the town 'red, (informal) go out and have a lively, exciting time specially when celebrating. see red, lose control of oneself through anger or indignation. 2 Russian; Soviet; Communist: The R ~ Army/Air Force. □ n 1 [C,U] (shade of) red colour: the ~s and browns of the woods in autumn. 2 red clothes: dressed in ~. 3 person favouring or supporting Communism or the Soviet system.

4 debtor side of business accounts. be/get into/out of the red, have/get liabilities that (no longer) exceed assets.

'red-breast, (also robin redbreast) robin.

red 'carpet, one laid out for the reception of an important visitor.

Red 'Crescent, (emblem of an) organization in Muslim countries corresponding to the Red Cross.

Red 'Cross, (emblem of the) international organization concerned with the relief of suffering caused by natural disasters, etc and for helping the sick and wounded and those taken prisoner in war.

red deer, kind of deer native to the forests of Europe and Asia.

red 'ensign, red flag with the Union Jack in one corner, used by British merchant ships.

red 'flag, (a) flag used as a symbol of danger (eg on railways, by workers on the roads). (b) symbol of left wing revolution. (c) (the Red Flag) revolutionary song.

'red-head, person having red hair.

red 'herring, (esp) something doubtful or irrelevant to take attention from the subject being discussed.

red-'hot adj (fig) highly excited, furious: ~ hot en'thusiasm.

red-'letter day, (fig) memorable because something good happened.

'red meat, beef and mutton (contrasted with white meat, ie veal, pork, poultry).

red 'pepper, red fruit of the capsicum plant.

the Red Star, symbol of the USSR and other Communist States.

red 'tape, too much use of formalities in public business; too much attention to rules and regulations: ~ tape in government offices.

red-den /'redn/ vt,vi make or become red; blush.

red-dish /'redɪʃ/ adj a little red.

re-deem /rɪ'diːm/ vt 1 get (something) back by payment or by doing something: ~ a mortgage; ~ one's honour. 2 perform (a promise or obligation). 3 set free by payment: ~ a slave/prisoner. 4 compensate: his ~ing feature, the feature or quality that balances his faults, etc.

re-deem-able /-əbl/ adj

the Re-dee-mer, Jesus Christ.

re-demp-tion /n'dempn/ n [U] (formal) redeeming or being redeemed: the ~ of a promise; past/beyond ~, too bad to be rescued from being evil.

re-de-ploy /rɪ'di'plɔɪ/ vt withdraw and rearrange (troops, workers) so as to use more efficiently.

re-de-ploy-ment n: the ~ment of labour.

re-do /rɪ'duː/ vt (pt -did /-dɪd/, pp -done /-dʌn/) do again: We must have the house re-done, redecorated, etc.

redo-lent /'redələnt/ adj (formal) having a strong smell, esp one that recalls something: bed sheets ~ of lavender.

re-double /rɪ'dʌbl/ vt, vi make or become greater or stronger: They ~d their efforts.

re-dress /rɪ'dres/ vt set (a wrong) right again; make up for, do something that compensates for (a wrong): You should confess and ~ your errors. re-dress the 'balance, make things equal again. □ n [U] redressing.

re-duce /rɪ'djuːs/ US: -dʌs/ vt, vi 1 make less; make smaller in size, number, degree, price, etc.: reducing speed/pressure/costs; ~ one's expenses/weight. 2 bring or get to a certain condition, way of living, etc.: ~ a girl to tears, make her cry; ~ him to silence, cause him to stop talking. They were ~d to begging or starving. They became so poor that they had either to beg or starve. 3 change (to another form): ~ an equation/argument to its simplest form.

re-duc-ible /-əbl/ adj

re-duc-tion /rɪ'dʌkʃn/ n 1 [U] reducing or being reduced; [C] instance of this: a ~ in/of numbers; great ~s in prices; price ~s. 2 [C] copy, on a smaller scale, of a picture, map, etc.: a photographic ~.

re-dun-dancy /rɪ'dʌndənsɪ/ n [U] being redundant: ~ caused by the increasing use of computers; [C] (pl -ies) instance of this: more redundancies in the docks.

re-dun-dant /rɪ'dʌndənt/ adj no longer needed, useful (used, for example, of somebody being made unemployed): ~ adding-machines. When the factory closes down many workers will become ~.

re-echo /rɪ'ekəʊ/ vi, vt echo again and again. □ n [C] (pl -es) echo of an echo.

reed /rɪd/ n 1 [C] (tall, firm stem or stalk of) kinds of coarse grasses growing in or near water; [U] (collective) mass of such grasses growing together. a broken reed, (fig) an unreliable person or thing. 2 [C] (in some wind-instruments, eg the oboe, bassoon, clarinet and in some organ-pipes) strip of metal, etc that vibrates to produce sound.

reef¹ /rɪf/ n [C] that part of a sail which can be rolled up or folded so as to reduce its area. □ vt reduce the area of (a sail) by rolling up or folding a part.

'reef-knot, ordinary double knot.

reef² /rɪf/ n [C] ridge of rock, shingle, etc just below or above the surface of the sea: a coral ~.

reek /rɪk/ n [U] strong, bad smell: the ~ of stale tobacco smoke. □ vi reek of, smell unpleasantly of: He ~s of whisky/garlic.

reel¹ /rɪl/ n [C] 1 cylinder, roller or similar device on which cotton, thread, wire, photographic film, magnetic tape, hose (for water), etc is wound. 2 length of film rolled on one reel. □ vi 1 roll or wind (thread, a fishing-line etc) on to, or with the help of, a reel: ~ in the fish. 2 reel sth off, tell, say or repeat something without pause or apparent effort: ~ off a list of names.

reel² /rɪl/ vi 1 be shaken (physically or mentally) by a blow, a shock, rough treatment, etc: His mind ~ed when he heard the news. 2 walk or stand unsteadily, moving from side to side; sway: He ~ed like a drunken man. 3 appear to move, sway or shake: The street ~ed before him as the bike hit him.

reel³ /rɪl/ n [C] (music for a) lively Scottish dance, usually for two couples.

re-entry /rɪ'entri/ n [C] (pl -ies) act of re-entering, eg the return of a spacecraft into the earth's atmosphere.

re-face /rɪ'feɪs/ vt put a new surface on.

re-fec-tion /rɪ'fekʃn/ n [U] (formal) refreshment in the form of food and drink.

re-fec-tory /rɪ'fektəri/ n [C] (pl -ies) dining-hall (eg in a monastery or college).

re-fer /rɪ'fɜː(r)/ vt, vi (-rr-) 1 send, take, hand over (to, back to, a person or thing) to be dealt with, decided etc: The dispute was ~ed to the United Nations. I was ~ed to the Manager. 2 (of a speaker, what is said, etc) speak about; apply to: When I said that some people are stupid I wasn't ~ing to you. Does that remark ~ to me? 3 turn to, go to, for information, etc: The speaker often ~ed to his notes.

ref-er-able (also ref-er-able) /rɪ'fɜːrəbl/ adj that can be referred(4): Lung cancer is ~able to smoking cigarettes.

ref-eree /rɪ'fɜːri/ n [C] 1 person to whom disputes, eg in industry, between workers and employers, are referred for decision. 2 (in football, boxing, etc) person who controls matches, judges points in dispute, etc. ⇨ umpire. □ vt, vi act as a referee: ~ a football match.

ref-er-ence /rɪ'fɜːns/ n 1 [C, U] (instance of) referring: The book is full of ~s to places that I know well. terms of reference, (of a commission, etc) scope or range given to an authority: Is this question outside our terms of ~, one that we are not required to investigate? 2 [C] (person willing to make a) statement about a person's character or abilities: The clerk has excellent ~s from former employers. 3 [C] note, direction, etc telling where certain information may be found: He dislikes history books that are covered with ~s to earlier authorities. 4 [U] in/with reference to, concerning; about.

'reference book, one that is not read through but consulted for information, eg a dictionary or encyclopaedia.

'reference library, one containing reference books.

'reference marks, mark, eg *, †, ‡, §, used to refer the reader to the place, eg a footnote, where information may be found. ⇨ cross-reference.

ref-er-en-tial /ˌrefə'renʃl/ adj (formal) having reference to.

ref-er-en-dum /ˌrefə'rendəm/ n [C] (pl ~s, -da /-də/) the referring of a political question to a direct vote of the electorate.

re-fill /ˌriːfɪl/ vt fill again. □ n [C] /ˌriːfɪl/ amount used to refill; a container: two ~s for a ball-point pen.

re-fine /ˌriːfaɪn/ vt, vi 1 free from other substances; make or become pure: ~ sugar/oil/ores. 2 cause to become more cultured, polished in manners: ~d language/manners/speech/taste. 3 make small improvements (to writing, etc).

re-fine-ment /ˌriːfaɪnmənt/ n 1 [U] refining or being refined. 2 [U] purity of feeling, taste, language, etc: lack of ~, ie vulgarity. 3 [C] clever or remarkable example of such purity of tastes, etc: ~s of meaning. 4 small improvement (to writing, etc).

re-finer /ˌriːfaɪnə(r)/ n [C] 1 person whose business is to refine something: sugar ~s. 2 machine for refining metals, sugar, etc.

re-finery /-nəri/ n [C] place, building, etc where something is refined: a 'sugar ~y.

re-fit /ˌriːfɪt/ vt, vi (-tt-) (of a ship, etc) make, be made, ready for use again by renewing or repairing parts. □ n /ˌriːfɪt/ [C] refitting.

re-fla-tion /ˌriːfleɪʃn/ n [U] inflation of currency after a deflation to restore the system to its previous condition.

re-plate /ˌriːpleɪt/ vt restore to a former economic or currency state: plans to ~ the economy.

re-reflect /ˌriːflekʃt/ vt, vi 1 (of a surface) throw back (light, heat, sound); (of a mirror) send back an image of: Look at the trees ~ed in the lake. The sight of my face ~ed in the mirror never pleases me. 2 show the nature of: Her sad looks ~ed the thoughts passing through her mind. 3 (of actions, results) bring (credit or discredit on): The results ~ the greatest credit on all concerned. 4 injure the good reputation of: Your rude behaviour ~s only on yourself. You are the only person whose reputation is hurt by it. 5 consider; think: I must ~ on/upon what answer to give to/how to answer that question.

re-flec-tion (GB also re-flexion) /ˌriːflekʃn/ n 1 [U] reflecting or being reflected: the ~ of heat. 2 [C] something reflected, esp an image reflected in a mirror or in water. 3 [U] thought (the usual word): be lost in ~. on reflection, after reconsidering the matter. 4 [C] expression of a thought in speech or writing: ~s on the pleasures of being idle. 5 [C] something that brings discredit: This is a ~ on your honour.

re-flec-tor /ˌriːflekʃtə(r)/ n [C] something that reflects heat, light or sound, eg a piece of glass or metal for reflecting light, eg as used on the back of a bicycle.

re-flex /ˌriːfleks/ adj 1 bent backwards. 2 (of thought) directed back on itself or its own action. □ n [C] reflex action: test one's ~es.

'reflex action, one that is an involuntary response to a stimulation of the nerves, eg sneezing.

'reflex angle, one that is bigger than 180°.

'reflex camera, in which, by using a mirror, the image to be photographed can be focused up to the moment of exposure.

re-flexion /ˌriːflekʃn/ n = reflection.

re-flex-ive /ˌriːfleksɪv/ adj, n [C] (gram) (of a word or form) showing that the subject's action is on himself or itself.

reflexive pronoun, eg myself, themselves.

reflexive verb, showing that the subject and object are the same: He cut himself.

re-float /ˌriːfləʊt/ vt, vi cause (something) to float again after it has gone aground, been sunk, etc.

re-form¹ /ˌriːfɔːm/ vt, vi make or become better by removing or putting right what is bad or wrong: ~ a sinner/one's character/the world. □ n 1 [U] reforming; removal of vices, imperfections, etc: demonstrate for social or political ~. 2 [C] instance of reform: a ~ in teaching methods.

re-former, person active in trying to get or carrying out reforms.

re-form² /ˌriːfɔːm/ vt, vi form again; (of soldiers) get into ranks, etc again.

re-for-ma-tion /ˌriːfɔːmeɪʃn/ n [C, U] ref-or-ma-tion /ˌrefɔːmeɪʃn/ n 1 [U] reforming or being reformed; [C] radical change for the better in social, political or religious affairs. 2 the R~, the 16th-century movement for reform of the Roman Catholic Church, resulting in the establishment of the Protestant Churches.

re-fract /ˌriːfrækt/ vt cause (a ray of light) to bend where it enters water, glass, etc.

re-frac-tion /ˌriːfrækʃn/ n [U] re-frain¹ /ˌriːfreɪn/ n [C] (formal) chorus(2).

re-frain² /ˌriːfreɪn/ vi (formal) not do something: Please ~ from smoking/swearing.

re-fresh /ˌriːfrefʃ/ vt 1 give new strength to; make fresh: ~ oneself with a warm bath. 2 refresh one's memory, remember by referring to notes, etc. 3 (formal) take something to eat or drink: They stopped at a pub to ~ themselves.

re-fresh-ing adj (a) strengthening; giving rest and relief: a ~ing breeze/sleep. (b) welcome and interesting because rare or unexpected: The news that the children were doing things to help the old man was ~ing.

re-fresher /rɪ'frefʃə(r)/ n [C] (informal) refreshing drink.

refresher course, course providing instructions, eg to practising teachers, on modern methods, newer techniques, etc.

re-fresh-ment /rɪ'frefʃmənt/ n 1 [U] refreshing or being refreshed: feel ~ of mind and body. 2 (pl) food and drink: R~s will be served during the interval.

re-frig-er-ate /rɪ'frɪdʒəreɪt/ vt make cool or cold; keep (food) in good condition by making and keeping it cold.

re-frig-er-ation /rɪ'frɪdʒə'reɪʃn/ n [U] (esp) the cooling or freezing of food in order to preserve it: the refrigeration industry.

re-frig-er-ator /rɪ'frɪdʒə'reɪtə(r)/ n [C] (common abbr fridge) apparatus in which food and drinks are kept cold.

re-fuel /rɪ'fju:əl/ vt (-l-, US also -l-) supply with, take on, more fuel.

ref-uge /'refju:dʒ/ n [C,U] (place giving) shelter or protection from trouble, danger, pursuit, etc: seek ~ from the floods.

refu-gee /rɪ'fju:dʒi/ US: 'refju:dʒi/ n [C] person who has been forced to flee from danger, eg from floods, war, political persecution: ~s from the war zone; political ~s; (used as an adjective) ~ camps.

re-fund /rɪ'fʌnd/ vt pay back (money): ~ the cost of postage. □ n /rɪ'fʌnd/ [C,U] repayment: obtain a ~ of a deposit/of £20.

re-fur-bish /rɪ'fɜ:bɪʃ/ vt make clean or bright again, (as if) like new.

re-fusal /rɪ'fju:zl/ n 1 [U] act of refusing; [C] instance of this: We were surprised at his ~ to do what I asked. 2 (also with the) right of deciding whether to accept or refuse something before it is offered to others: If you ever decide to sell your car, please give me (the) first ~.

ref-use¹ /'refju:s/ n [U] waste or worthless objects, materials, etc (to be burnt, etc).

refuse collector, = dustman.

re-fuse² /rɪ'fju:z/ vi, vi 1 say 'no' to (a request or offer): ~ permission. I ~ / 2 show unwillingness to accept (something offered), to do (something that one is asked to do): refusing a gift; ~ to help.

re-fute /rɪ'fju:t/ vt prove (a person, statements, opinions, etc) to be wrong or mistaken: ~ an argument/an opponent.

re-fut-able /'refjutəbl US: rɪ'fju:-/ adj that can be proved wrong.

refu-ta-tion /rɪ'fju:tə'ʃn/ n [U] (formal) refuting; [C] argument against.

re-gain /rɪ'geɪn/ vt 1 get possession of again:

~ consciousness; ~ one's freedom. 2 get back to (a place or position): ~ one's footing, recover one's balance.

re-gal /'ri:gl/ adj of, for, fit for, by, a monarch; ~ dignity/splendour/power.

re-gally /-gəli/ adv

re-gale /rɪ'geɪl/ vt (formal) give pleasure or delight to: regaling themselves on caviar.

re-galia /rɪ'geɪliə/ n pl (often used with a sing verb) 1 emblems (crown, orb, sceptre, etc) of royalty, as used at coronations. 2 emblems or decorations of an order (10).

re-gard¹ /rɪ'gɑ:d/ n 1 [U] attention; concern; consideration: He has very little ~ for the feelings of others. More ~ must be paid to safety on the roads. 2 [U] consideration; respect: hold a person in high/low ~. 3 (pl) kindly thoughts and wishes: Please give my kind ~s to your brother, (eg at the end of a letter). 4 (old use) long, steady or significant look: He turned his ~ on the accused man. 5 in/with regard to, with respect to; concerning.

re-gard-less adj paying no attention: ~less of expense.

re-gard² /rɪ'gɑ:d/ vt 1 be of the opinion: ~ her as a heroine; ~ torture as a crime. 2 consider (a person, his behaviour) to be: How is he ~ed locally? He is ~ed with disfavour/unfavourably. 3 pay attention to: He never ~s my advice. (Note: usually negative or a question.) as regards; regarding, with reference to; about.

re-gatta /rɪ'gætə/ n [C] (pl ~s) meeting for boat-races (rowing boats or yachts).

re-gency /'rɪdʒənsi/ n [C] (pl -ies) the (period of) office of a regent.

re-gen-er-ate /rɪ'dʒənə'reɪt/ vi, vi 1 reform spiritually or morally. 2 give new strength or life to. 3 grow again. □ adj /rɪ'dʒənə'reɪt/ spiritually reborn: a ~ society.

re-gen-er-ation /rɪ'dʒənə'reɪʃn/ n [U] re-gent /'rɪdʒənt/ n [C] 1 person appointed to perform the duties of a ruler who is too young, old, ill, etc or who is absent. 2 (US) governor (eg of a State university). □ adj (used after the noun) performing the duties of a regent: the Prince R~.

regi-cide /'redʒɪsaɪd/ n [C,U] (person taking part in the) crime of killing a king.

re-gime, ré-gime /rɪ'ʒɪm/ n [C] 1 method or system of government or of administration; usual system of things: under the old ~, before the changes were made, etc. 2 set of rules for diet, exercise, etc for improving one's health and physical well-being.

regi-men /'redʒɪmən/ n [C] 1 (old use) = regime(1). 2 = regime(2).

regi-ment /'redʒmənt/ n [C] 1 (cavalry and artillery) unit divided into squadrons or batteries and commanded by a colonel; (GB infantry) organization usually based on a city or county, with special traditions and dress, represented in the field by battalions: the 1st battalion of the Manchester R~. 2 a regiment of, (informal) a large number: a ~ of children. □ vt organize; discipline: ~ the members of a Trade Union.

regi-men-tal /ˈrɛdʒɪ'mɛntl/ adj of a regiment: a ~ badge. □ n (pl) military uniform.

Re-gi-na /rɪ'dʒaɪnə/ n [C] (pl ~s) (abbr R) reigning queen: Elizabeth ~; (legal) (used in titles of lawsuits): ~ v Hay, the Crown against Hay.

re-gi-on /ˈrɪ:dʒən/ n 1 [C] area or division with or without definite boundaries or characteristics: the 'Arctic ~s; the densely populated ~s of Europe. 2 (pl) areas away from the capital: live in the ~s.

re-gi-on-al /-nl/ adj of a region or regions.

re-gi-on-ally /-nəli/ adv

reg-is-ter¹ /ˈrɛdʒɪstə(r)/ n [C] 1 (book containing a) record or list: the R~ of voters, of persons qualified to vote at elections. 2 range of the human voice or of a musical instrument; part of this range: the lower ~ of the clarinet. 3 mechanical device for indicating and recording speed, force, numbers, etc. □ cash register. 4 = registry. 5 vocabulary, etc used by a particular group, in a particular situation, etc eg legal, sports.

reg-is-ter² /ˈrɛdʒɪstə(r)/ vt, vi 1 make a written and formal record of, in a list: ~ one's car. I am a foreigner here; must I ~ (myself) with the police? 2 put or get a person's name, one's own name, on a register, eg at a hotel. 3 (of instruments) indicate; record: The thermometer ~ed only two degrees above freezing-point. 4 show (emotion, etc): Her face ~ed surprise. 5 send (a letter or parcel) by special post, paying an extra charge which promises compensation if it is lost: Send your money by ~ed post.

reg-is-trar /ˈrɛdʒɪstrə(r)/ n [C] person whose duty is to keep records or registers, eg for a town council or a university.

reg-is-tra-tion /ˈrɛdʒɪstreɪʃn/ n 1 [U] registering; recording: ~ of letters; ~ of students for an examination/an academic course. 2 [C] entry; record of facts.

regis-tration mark, numbers and letters on the front and back of a motor-vehicle used to identify it.

reg-is-try /ˈrɛdʒɪstri/ n [C] (pl -ies) 1 (sometimes register) place where registers are kept: a ship's port of ~. 2 [U] = registration.

'registry office, (esp) where a marriage is conducted without a religious ceremony: They had a ~ office wedding.

re-gress /rɪ'ɡres/ vi return to an earlier or more primitive form or state: ~ mentally/culturally.

re-gres-sion /rɪ'ɡresn/ n [C,U] regressing.

re-gres-sive adj tending to regress.

re-gret¹ /rɪ'ɡret/ n 1 [U] feeling of being sorry or sad at the loss of something, or of annoyance of disappointment because something has or has not or cannot be done: hear with ~ that a friend is ill. Much to my ~ I am unable to accept your kind invitation. 2 (pl) (in polite expressions of refusal, etc): I have no ~s, do not feel sorry (about what I did, etc).

re-gret-ful /-fl/ adj sad; sorry.

re-gret-fully /-fəli/ adv sadly; with regret.

re-gret² /rɪ'ɡret/ vt (-tt-) 1 be sorry for the loss of; wish to have again: ~ lost opportunities. 2 feel sorry for; be sorry (to say, etc that...): I ~ that I cannot help.

re-gret-table /-əbl/ adj to be regretted: ~table failures.

re-gret-tably /-əbli/ adv

re-group /ˈri:'ɡrup/ vt, vi form again into groups. 2 form into new groups.

reg-ular /ˈregjələ(r)/ adj 1 evenly arranged; symmetrical; systematic: ~ teeth; a ~ wall-paper design. 2 coming, happening, done, again and again at even intervals: keep ~ hours, eg leaving and returning home, getting up and going to bed, at the same times every day. He has no ~ work, no continuous occupation. 3 properly qualified; recognized; trained; full-time or professional: ~ soldiers, not volunteers; the ~ army, made up of professional soldiers. 4 in agreement with what is considered correct procedure or behaviour: I doubt whether your methods would be considered ~ by the Customs officials. 5 (gram) (of verbs, nouns, etc) having normal inflections: The verb 'go' is not ~. 6 (informal) thorough; complete: He's a ~ nuisance. 7 (US) normal: Do you want king size cigarettes or ~ size? □ n [C] 1 soldier of the regular army. 2 (informal) frequent customer or client, eg at a pub.

regu-lar-ity /ˈregjələˈlærəti/ n [U] state of being systematic, on time, etc: win a prize for ~ of attendance at school.

regu-lar-ly adv in a proper manner; at frequent intervals or times: as ~ly as clockwork, always at the same time.

regu-lar-iz-ation (also -isation) /ˈregjələraɪˈzeɪʃn/ US: -rɪˈz-/ n [U] regu-lar-ize (also -ise) /ˈregjələraɪz/ vi make lawful or correct: ~ the proceedings.

regu-late /ˈregjuleɪt/ vt 1 control using rules; cause to obey a rule or standard: ~ one's expenditure; ~ the traffic. 2 adjust (an apparatus, mechanism) to get the desired result: ~ the speed of a machine/clock.

regu-la-tion /ˈregjuleɪʃn/ n 1 [U] regulating or being regulated: the ~ of affairs/of a clock. 2 [C] rule; order; authoritative direction: 'safety ~s, eg in factories; 'traffic ~s, made by the police for drivers of vehicles. 3 (as an adjective) as required by rules: ~ dress/size; the ~ speed, eg 30 miles per hour in British towns.

re-gur-gi-tate /rɪ:'ɡɑ:dʒɪteɪt/ vi, vt 1 (of liquid, etc) rush back. 2 bring (swallowed food) up again to the mouth.

re-ha-bili-tate /ˌrɪ:həˈbɪlɪteɪt/ vt 1 restore (eg old buildings) to a good condition. 2 restore (a person) to former rank, position or reputation: He has been ~d in public esteem. 3 bring back (a person who is physically or mentally disabled) to a (more) normal life by special treatment.

re-ha-bili-ta-tion /ˌrɪ:həˈbɪlɪteɪʃn/ n [U] re-hearsal /ˌrɪ:həˈsæl/ n 1 [U] rehearsing: put a play into ~. 2 [C] trial of a play or other entertainment. ⇨ dress rehearsal.

re-hearse /ˌrɪ:həˈs/ vt, vi practise (a play, music, programme, etc) for public performance: rehearsing (the parts in) a play.

re-house /ˌrɪˈhaʊz/ vt provide with a new house: be ~d after the fire.

reign /reɪn/ n [C] (period of) sovereignty, rule: during five successive ~s; in the ~ of King George. □ vi 1 hold office as a monarch: The king ~ed over the country for ten years. 2 exist at the present time: the ~ing champion, eg in tennis. 3 (formal) exist: Silence ~ed everywhere.

re-im-burse /ˌrɪːmˈbɜːs/ vt pay back (to a person who has spent money, the money spent): You will be ~d for your expenses.

re-im-burse-ment n [C, U] repayment (of expenses).

rein /reɪn/ n (often pl in the same sense as the sing) long, narrow strap fastened to the bit of a bridle for controlling a horse. give free rein to sb/sth, allow freedom to: give free ~ to one's imagination. hold/take the reins, (fig) have/take control: hold the ~s of government. keep a tight rein on sb/sth, allow little freedom to. □ vt control (as) with reins: ~ in a horse, restrain it.

re-in-car-nate /ˌrɪːɪnˈkɑːneɪt/ vt give a new body to (a soul). □ adj /ˌrɪːɪnˈkɑːneɪt/ born again in a new body.

re-in-car-na-tion /ˌrɪːɪnˈkɑːneɪʃn/ n [U] religious doctrine that the soul enters, after death, into another (human or animal) body; [C] instance of this.

rein-deer /ˈreɪndɪə(r)/ n [C] (pl unchanged) kind of large deer with branched antlers, used in Lapland for transport and kept in herds for its milk, flesh and hide.

re-in-force /ˌrɪːɪnˈfɔːs/ vt 1 make stronger by adding or supplying more men or material: ~ an army/a fleet. 2 increase the size, thickness, of something so that it supports more weight, etc: reinforcing a bridge.

re-in-forced concrete, concrete which is strengthened with steel bars or metal netting.

re-in-force-ment n [U] (a) reinforcing or being reinforced. (b) (esp pl) (esp) soldiers, ships, etc sent to reinforce.

re-in-state /ˌrɪːɪnˈsteɪt/ vt replace (a person) (in a former position): ~ the chairman.

re-in-state-ment n [C, U] re-in-sure /ˌrɪːɪnˈʃʊə(r)/ vt insure again.

re-in-sur-ance /-rəns/ n [U] re-is-sue /ˌrɪːɪʃuː/ vt issue(2) again after temporary discontinuance: ~ stamps/books. □ n [C] something reissued.

re-iter-ate /ˌrɪːɪteɪt/ vt say or do again several times: ~ a command.

re-iteration /ˌrɪːɪteɪʃn/ n [C, U] re-ject¹ /ˌrɪːdʒekt/ n [C] something rejected: export ~s, made for export but rejected because of an imperfection.

re-ject² /ˌrɪːdʒekt/ vt 1 put aside, send back, throw away, as not good enough: ~ fruit that is overripe. 2 refuse to accept: ~ an offer of help/of marriage. The army doctors ~ed him, would not accept him as medically fit. The judge ~ed her evidence. The meter ~ed the bent coin. I applied for the job but I was ~ed.

re-jection /ˌrɪːdʒekʃn/ n [U] rejecting or being rejected: [C] instance of this; something rejected.

re-joice /ˌrɪːdʒɔɪs/ vt, vi 1 feel great joy; show signs of great happiness: rejoicing over a victory, ~ at her success. (Note: be glad, be pleased are more common.) 2 make glad; cause to be happy: The boy's success ~d his mother's heart. (Note: gladden, please are more usual.)

re-joic-ing n [U] happiness; joy.

re-join¹ /ˌrɪːdʒɔɪn/ vt, vi (formal) answer; reply.

re-join-der /-dɜː(r)/ n [C] (formal) what is said in reply.

re-join² /ˌrɪːdʒɔɪn/ vt join the company of again: ~ one's regiment/ship.

re-join /ˌrɪːdʒɔɪn/ vt join (together) again.

re-ju-ven-ate /ˌrɪːdʒuːvneɪt/ vt, vi make or become young or active again in nature or appearance.

re-ju-ven-a-tion /ˌrɪːdʒuːvneɪʃn/ n [U] re-kind-le /ˌrɪːkɪndl/ vt, vi 1 kindle again: ~ a fire. 2 (fig) (cause to) be active again: Our hopes ~d.

re-laid /ˌrɪːleɪd/ ⇨ relay².

re-lapse /ˌrɪːləps/ vi fall back again (into bad ways, error, heresy, illness, silence etc). □ n [C] falling back, esp after recovering from illness: The patient has had a major ~.

re-late /ˌrɪːleɪt/ vt, vi 1 (formal) tell (a story); give an account of (facts, adventures etc): He ~d to us some amusing stories about his employer. 2 connect in thought or meaning: It is difficult to ~ these results with/to any known cause. 3 relate to, have reference (to): She is a girl who notices nothing except what ~s to herself. 4 be related (to), be connected by family (to): She says she is ~d to the royal family.

re-la-tion /ˌrɪːleɪʃn/ n 1 [U] the act of relating(1,2) or telling: the ~ of his adventures. 2 [C] that which is told; tale or narrative. 3 [U] = relationship(c): The effort and expense needed for this project bore no ~/were out of all

~ to the results. in/with relation to, as regards; concerning. 4 (usually pl) dealings; affairs; what one person, group, country etc, has to do with another: have business ~s with a firm in Stockholm; the friendly ~s between my country and yours; diplomatic ~s. ⇨ public relations. 5 [C] relative(2): All his poor ~s came to spend their holidays at his home. ⇨ distant(2), near¹(2).

re-la-tion-ship n (a) [C] what there is between one thing, person, idea, etc and another or others: He said his affair with Susan could never develop into a lasting ~ship. (b) [U] condition of belonging to the same family; being connected by birth or marriage. (c) [C] instance of being related: the ~ship between oil and water/of oil to water.

rela-tive /'relatɪv/ adj 1 comparative: the ~ advantages of gas and electricity for cooking. They are living in ~ comfort, i.e. compared with other people or with themselves at an earlier time. 2 relative to, referring to; having a connection with: the facts ~ to this problem. □ n [C] 1 relative word, esp a pronoun. 2 person to whom one is related, eg an uncle or aunt, a cousin, a nephew or niece. ⇨ distant(2), near¹(2).

relative adverb, eg where in 'the place where the accident occurred'.

relative clause, one joined by a relative pronoun or relative adverb.

relative pronoun, eg who in 'the man who came yesterday'.

rela-tive-ly adv comparatively; in proportion to: The matter is ~ly unimportant.

re-lax /rɪ'læks/ vt, vi 1 cause or allow to become less tight, stiff, strict or rigid: ~ one's grip/hold on something; ~ing the muscles. 2 become less tense, rigid, energetic, strict: His face ~ed in a smile. Let's stop working and ~ for an hour.

re-lax-a-tion /rɪ'læks'eɪʃn/ n (a) [U] relaxing or being relaxed: ~ation of the muscles. (b) [C,U] (something done for) recreation: Fishing is his favourite ~ation.

re-lay¹ /rɪ'leɪ/ n [C] 1 gang or group of men, supply of material, to replace tired or worn ones: working in/by ~s. 2 (in telegraphy, broadcasting) device which receives messages, radio programmes, etc and transmits them with greater strength to increase the distance over which they are carried. 3 (short for a) relay race: the 400 metres ~. □ vt /rɪ'leɪ/ (pt, pp ~ed) send out (a broadcast programme received from another station).

'relay race, one between two teams, each member of the team running one section of the total distance.

'relay station, place from which radio programmes are broadcast after being received from another station.

re-lay² /rɪ:'leɪ/ vt (pt, pp -laid /-'leɪd/) lay (a cable, carpet, etc) again.

re-lease /rɪ'li:s/ vt 1 allow to go; set free; unfasten: ~ one's grip/a man from prison; ~ a bomb (from an aircraft), allow it to fall. 2 allow (news) to be known or published; allow (a film) to be exhibited or (goods) to be placed on sale: recently ~d films/records. 3 (legal) give up or surrender (a right, debt, property) to another. □ n 1 [U] releasing or being released; [C] instance of this: an order for his ~ from prison; a 'press ~, i.e. of a news item to the newspapers; the newest ~es, eg films/records. on general release, (of cinema films) available for seeing at local cinemas. 2 [C] handle, lever, etc that releases part of a machine: the 'carriage ~ (on a typewriter).

rel-e-gate /'relɪgeɪt/ vt, 1 delegate. 2 dismiss to a lower position or condition: Will our team be ~d to the second division?

rel-e-ga-tion /rɪ'lɪgeɪʃn/ n [U].

re-lent /rɪ'lent/ vi become less severe; give up unkind or cruel intentions: At last mother ~ed and let us to stay up and watch TV.

re-lent-less adj without pity: suffer ~less persecution.

re-lent-less-ly adv.

rel-e-vance /'reləvəns/ n [U] state of being relevant: What ~ does your theory have to the facts?

rel-e-vant /'reləvənt/ adj connected with the topic, problem, person, etc receiving attention: have all the ~ documents.

rel-e-vant-ly adv

re-li-able /rɪ'laɪəbl/ adj that may be relied on depended on: ~ tools/assistants/information/witnesses.

re-li-ably /-əblɪ/ adv

re-li-a-bil-ity /rɪ'laɪəbɪləti/ n [U] re-li-ance /rɪ'laɪəns/ n 1 [U] trust; confidence: Do you place much ~ on/upon your doctor? 2 person or thing depended on.

re-li-a-nt /-ənt/ adj trusting.

relic /rɪ'elɪk/ n [C] 1 something that belonged to a saint or was connected with him, kept as an object of reverence, and in some cases said to have miraculous powers. 2 something from the past that serves to keep memories alive: a ~ of early civilization. 3 (pl) person's dead body or bones; what has survived destruction or decay.

re-lief¹ /rɪ'li:f/ n [U] (used with the a, an as in examples, but not normally in the pl) 1 lessening, ending or removal of pain, distress, anxiety, etc: The doctor's treatment gave/brought some/ not much ~. It was a great ~ to find the children safe. 2 help given to those in need; food, clothes, money, etc for persons in trouble: send ~ to people made homeless by floods; provide ~ for refugees; a ~ fund. 3 something that makes a change from monotony or that relaxes tension: Shakespeare introduced comic scenes into his tragedies by way of ~. 4 help given to a besieged town; raising (of a siege): The troops hastened to the ~ of the fortress. 5 (replacing of a person, persons, on duty by a) person or persons appointed to go on duty: (as an adjective) a ~ driver.

re-lief ² /rɪ'li:f/ n 1 [U] method of carving or moulding in which a design stands out from a flat surface: a profile of Mozart in ~. 2 [C] design or carving made in this way. 3 [U] (in drawing, etc) appearance of being done in relief by the use of shading, colour, etc. 4 [U] distinctness of outline.

re-lief map, one showing hills, valleys, etc by shading or other means, not only by contour lines.

re-lieve /rɪ'li:v/ vt 1 give or bring relief¹ to; lessen or remove (pain or distress): We were ~d to hear that you had arrived safely. The fund is for relieving distress among the flood victims. 2 take one's turn on duty: ~ the guard/the watch/a sentry. 3 take something from somebody: Let me ~ you of your suitcase, carry it (which is more usual). 4 dismiss from: He was ~d of his duties.

re-lig-ion /rɪ'lidʒən/ n 1 [U] belief in the existence of a supernatural ruling power, the creator and controller of the universe. 2 [C] one of the various systems of faith and worship based on such belief: the great ~s of the world, eg Christianity, Islam, Buddhism. 3 [U] life as lived under the rules of a monastic order: Her name in ~ is Sister Mary, This is her name as a nun.

re-lig-ious /rɪ'lidʒəs/ adj 1 (of a person) devout; having faith. 3 (of a monastic order: a ~ house, a monastery or convent. 4 conscientious: do one's work with ~ care.

re-lig-ious-ly adv

re-line /rɪ'laɪn/ vt put a new lining in, eg a coat.

re-lin-quish /rɪ'liŋkwɪʃ/ vt 1 give up: ~ a hope/a habit/a belief. 2 surrender: ~ one's rights/shares to a partner.

rel-ish /rɪ'liʃ/ n 1 [C,U] (something used to give, or which has, a) special flavour or attractive quality: Olives and sardines are ~s. Some pastimes lose their ~ when one grows old. 2 [U] liking (for): I have no further ~ for camping now that I am 90. □ vt enjoy; get pleasure out of: She won't ~ having to get up before 5am!

re-live /rɪ'li:v/ vt live through, undergo, again: It's an experience I don't want to ~.

re-lo-cate /rɪ'li:əu'keɪt/ US; /rɪ'li:əukeɪt/ vt,vi establish, become established, in a new place or area.

re-lo-ca-tion /rɪ'li:əu'keɪʃən/ n [U] re-luc-tance /rɪ'lʌktəns/ n [U] being reluctant.

re-luc-tant /rɪ'lʌktənt/ adj (slow to act because) unwilling or not wanting to: He seemed ~ to join us.

re-luc-tant-ly adv

rely /rɪ'laɪ/ vi (pt,pp -lied) depend (on) with confidence, look to for help: He can always be relied on/upon for help.

re-main /rɪ'meɪn/ vi 1 be still present after a part has gone or has been away: After the fire, very little ~ed of my house. If you take 3 from 8, 5 ~s. 2 continue in some place or condition; continue to be: How many weeks will you ~ (= stay) here? He ~ed silent.

re-main-der /rɪ'meɪndə(r)/ n [C,U] that which remains; persons or things that are left over: Twenty people came in and the ~ (= the rest, the others) stayed outside.

re-mains /rɪ'meɪnz/ n pl 1 what is left: the ~s of a meal; ancient ~s of Rome. 2 dead body; corpse: His mortal ~s are buried in the churchyard.

re-make /rɪ'meɪk/ vt (pt,pp -made /-meɪd/) make again. □ n /rɪ'meɪk/ [C] something made again: a ~ of a film.

re-mand /rɪ'ma:nd/ US; -mænd/ vt send (an accused person) back (from a law court) into custody so that more evidence may be obtained: be ~ed for a week. □ n [U] remanding or being remanded: detention on ~.

re-mark /rɪ'mɑ:k/ vt,vi 1 (formal) notice; see: Did you ~ the similarity between them? 2 say (that): He ~ed that he would be absent the next day. 3 say something by way of comment: It would be rude to ~ on/upon her appearance. □ 1 [U] notice; looking at: There was nothing worthy of ~ at the Flower Show. 2 [C] comment: pass rude ~s about her; make a few ~s, give a short talk.

re-mark-able /-əbl/ adj out of the ordinary; deserving or attracting attention: a ~able event/boy.

re-mark-ably /-əbli/ adv

re-marry /rɪ'mæri/ vt,vi (pt,pp -ied) marry again.

re-medial /rɪ'mi:diəl/ adj providing, or intended to provide, a remedy: ~ education/ classes, eg for less able children.

re-medi-able /rɪ'mi:diəbl/ adj that can be remedied.

rem-edy /rɪ'mɛdɪ/ n [C,U] (pl -ies) cure (for a disease, evil, etc), method of, something used for, putting something right: a good ~ for colds. Your only ~ (= way to get satisfaction) is to go to law. □ vt (pt,pp -ied) put right; provide a cure for (evils, defects): Your faults of pronunciation can be remedied.

re-mem-ber /rɪ'membə(r)/ vt,vi 1 call back to mind the memory of: Can you ~ where you were? I ~ed (= did not forget) to post your letters. 2 have, keep in the mind: I shall always ~ her (= picture her in my mind) as a slim young girl. 3 make a present to: I hope you'll ~ me in your will, leave me something. 4 convey greetings: Please ~ me to your brother.

re-mem-brance /rɪ'membərəns/ n 1 [U] remembering or being remembered; memory have no ~ of something; a service in ~ of those killed in the war. 2 [C] something given or kept in memory of a person or thing: He sent us a small ~ of his visit. 3 (pl) (dated) regards; greetings (the usual words): Give my kind ~s to your parents.

re-mind /rɪ'maɪnd/ vt cause (a person) to remember (to do something, etc); cause (a person) to think (of something). Please ~ me to answer that letter. He ~s me of his brother. That ~s me.... What you have just said makes me remember.... I've just remembered.... etc.

re-minder, something (eg a letter) that helps a person to remember something: He hasn't paid the money yet—I must send him a ~er.

remi-nisce /remɪ'nɪs/ vi think or talk (about past events and experiences).

remi-nis-cence /rɪ'mɪ'nɪsnəs/ n 1 [U] recalling of past experiences. 2 (pl) remembered experiences (thought, spoken or written): ~s of my days in the Navy. 3 something that reminds one (of something, somebody else): There is a ~ of his father in the way he walks.

remi-nis-cent /rɪ'mɪ'nɪsnt/ adj reminding one of, recalling, past experiences.

remi-nis-cent-ly adv

re-miss /rɪ'mɪs/ adj (formal) negligent: That was very ~ of you.

re-mis-sion /rɪ'mɪʃn/ n 1 [U] pardon or forgiveness (of sins, by God). 2 [U] freeing (from debt, punishment, etc): ~ of a claim; [C] instance of this: get a ~ (from a prison sentence) for good conduct. 3 [U] lessening or weakening (of pain, disease, efforts, etc): ~ of a fever.

re-mit /rɪ'mɪt/ vt, vi (-tt-) 1 (of God) forgive (sins). 2 excuse payment (of a debt, a punishment): Your fees cannot be ~ted. 3 send (money, etc) by post: Kindly ~ by cheque, send a cheque for the sum owing. 4 make or become less: ~ one's efforts. 5 take or send (a question to be decided) (to some authority): The matter has been ~ted to a higher tribunal.

re-mit-tance /-təns/ n [U] the sending of money; [C] sum of money sent.

re-mit-tent /rɪ'mɪtənt/ adj (esp of a fever) that is less severe at intervals.

rem-nant /rɪ'mnənt/ n [C] 1 small part that remains: ~s of a meal; ~s of former glory. 2 (esp) length of cloth offered cheaply after the greater part has been sold.

re-mon-strate /rɪ'mɒnstreɪt/ vi (formal) make a protest; argue in protest: ~ against cruelty to children.

re-morse /rɪ'mɔ:s/ n [U] deep, bitter regret for doing wrong: feel/be filled with ~ for one's failure to help her; in a fit of ~; without ~, merciless(ly).

re-morse-ful /-fl/ adj feeling remorse.

re-morse-fully /-fəli/ adv

re-morse-less adj without mercy.

re-morse-less-ly adv

re-mote /rɪ'məʊt/ adj (-r, -st) 1 far away in space or time: in the ~st parts of Asia; live in a house ~ from any town or village. 2 widely separated (in feeling, interests, etc from): Some of your statements are too ~ from the subject we are discussing. 3 distant in manner. 4 (often used in the superlative) slight: a ~ possibility. I haven't the ~st idea of what you mean.

remote control, control of apparatus, eg an aircraft, a rocket, from a distance by means of radio signals.

re-mote-ly adv distantly: ~ly related.

re-mote-ness n [U] re-mount¹ /rɪ'maʊnt/ vt, vi (esp) get on (a horse, bicycle, etc) again.

re-mount² /rɪ'maʊnt/ vt 1 supply (a man, a regiment) with a fresh horse or horses. 2 put (a photograph, etc) on a new mount. □ n [C] /rɪ'maʊnt/ fresh horse; supply of fresh horses.

re-moval /rɪ'mu:v/ n [U] act of removing: the ~ of furniture; (used as an adjective) a ~ van (for furniture); [C] instance of removal.

re-move /rɪ'mu:v/ vt, vi 1 take off or away (from the place occupied); take to another place: ~ the cloth from the table. 2 get rid of: ~ doubts/fears. What do you use for removing ink from clothes? 3 dismiss: ~ a Civil Servant. 4 go to live in another place (move is more usual): We're removing from London to the country. 5 removed from, distant or remote from: an explanation far ~d from the truth.

removed, (of cousins) different by a generation: first cousin once ~d, first cousin's child.

re-mov-able /-əbl/ adj that can be removed:

re-mover /rɪ'mu:və(r) n 1 [C] (esp) person whose business is moving furniture when people move house. 2 (used in compounds) something that removes (2): a ~stain ~r.

re-mun-er-ate /rɪ'mju:nəreɪt/ vi (formal) pay (a person) (for work or services).

re-mun-eration /rɪ'mju:nə'reɪʃn/ n [C, U] re-mun-er-ative /rɪ'mju:nə'reɪtɪv US: -reɪt-/ adj profitable (the usual word).

re-nais-sance /rɪ'neɪsns US: 'renəʊs:ns/ n 1 the R~, (period of) revival of art and literature in Europe in the 14th, 15th and 16th centuries: (used as an adjective) ~ art. 2 [C] any similar revival.

re-nal /rɪ'ni:l/ adj (anat) of or in the (region of the) kidneys: ~ artery.

re-name /rɪ'neɪm/ vt give a new name to; name again.

re-nas-cence /rɪ'næsns/ renaissance (2).

re-nas-cent /-snt/ adj reviving; being reborn.

rend /rend/ vt (pt, pp rent /rent/) (literary) 1 pull or divide forcibly; penetrate: a country rent (in two) by civil war. Loud cries rent the air. 2 tear or pull (off, away) violently: Children were rent away from their mothers' arms by the brutal soldiers.

ren-der /rɪ'ndə(r)/ vt 1 give in return or exchange, or as something due: ~ thanks to God; ~ good for evil; ~ help to those in need; ~ a service to him/ ~ him a service; a reward for services ~ed. 2 present; offer; send in (an account for payment): You will have to ~ an account of your expenditure. 3 cause to be (in some condition): be ~ed helpless by an accident. 4 give a performance of; express in another language: The piano solo was well ~ed. There are many English idioms that cannot be ~ed into other languages. 5 melt and make clear: ~ down fat/lard.

ren-der-ing /'rendərɪŋ/ n [C] way of performing, playing, translating, something: ~ings of Chaucer. ⇨ 4 above.

ren-dez-vous /'rɒndɪvʊː/ n [C] (pl unchanged) 1 (place decided on for a) meeting at a time agreed on. 2 place where people often meet: This café is a ~ for writers and artists. □ vi meet at a rendezvous.

ren-di-tion /ren'dɪʃn/ n [C] (formal) interpretation or performance (of a song, etc).

ren-egade /'renɪgeɪd/ n [C] person who changes his religious beliefs, esp from Christianity; person who deserts his political party; traitor: (used as an adjective) a ~ priest. □ vi become a renegade.

re-new /rɪ'njuː/ US: -nuː/ vt 1 make (as good as) new; put new life and strength into; restore to the original condition: ~ acquaintance with an old friend; begin again with ~ed enthusiasm. 2 get, make, say or give, again: ~ a lease/contract; ~ one's subscription to a periodical. 3 replace (with the same sort of thing, etc): We must ~ our supplies of coal.

re-new-able /-əbl/ adj that can be renewed: Is the lease ~able?

re-newal /-əl/ n (a) [U] renewing or being renewed: urban ~al, eg the provision of better housing. (b) [C] something renewed, eg an insurance premium.

re-nounce /rɪ'naʊns/ vt 1 declare formally that one will no longer have anything to do with, that one no longer recognizes (a person or thing): ~ one's faith/one's family; ~ the world, give up meeting people socially, etc. 2 consent formally to give up (a claim, right, possession): renouncing one's claim to an inheritance. 3 refuse to recognize: He ~d his sons because they were criminals.

reno-vate /'renəveɪt/ vt restore, eg old buildings, oil paintings, to a good or strong condition.

reno-va-tion /,renə'veɪʃn/ n [U] renovating; (pl) instances of this.

re-nown /rɪ'naʊn/ n [U] fame: win ~; a man of high ~.

re-nowned adj famous; celebrated: He was ~ed for his skill.

rent /rent/ n [C,U] regular payment for the use of land, a building, a room or rooms, machinery, etc; sum of money paid in this way: You owe me three weeks' ~. □ vt, vi 1 occupy or use (land, buildings, etc) for rent: We don't own our house, we ~ it from Mr Gay. 2 allow (land, buildings, etc) to be used or occupied in return for rent: Mr Hill ~s this land to us at £50 a year.

'rent-collector, person who goes from house to house to collect rents.

'rent-free adj, adv: a ~-free 'house, for which no rent is charged to the tenant.

'rent-rebate, rebate, based on earnings, given by a local government authority to the lower paid, esp council tenants.

rent-able /-əbl/ adj able to be rented.

ren-tal /rentl/ n [C] amount of rent paid or received.

rent² /rent/ n [C] 1 torn place in cloth, etc: a ~ in the balloon. 2 (fig) division or split (in a political party, etc).

rent³ /rent/ pt, pp of rend.

re-nunci-ation /rɪ,nʌnsɪ'eɪʃn/ n [U] renouncing; self-denial.

re-open /rɪ:'əʊpən/ vt, vi open again after closing or being closed: ~ a shop; ~ a discussion. School ~s on Monday.

re-or-gan-ize (also -ise) /rɪ:'ɔ:gənaɪz/ vt, vi organize again or in a new way.

re-orien-tate /rɪ:'ɔ:rɪənteɪt/ (also re-orient /rɪ:'ɔ:rɪənt/) vt, vi orient(ate) again or anew.

rep /rep/ n [C] (informal) (common abbr of) repertory; representative n.

re-pair¹ /rɪ'peə(r)/ vt 1 restore (something worn or damaged) to good condition: ~ the roads/a watch. 2 put right again: ~ an error. □ n 1 [U] repairing or being repaired: road under ~. 2 (sing or pl but not with a, an) work or process of repairing: The shop will be closed during ~s. 3 [U] condition for using or being used: This machine is in a bad state of ~/in good ~.

re-pair-able /-əbl/ adj that can be repaired.

re-pairer, person who repairs things: 'shoe ~ers.

re-pair² /rɪ'peə(r)/ vi (formal) (esp) go frequently, go in large numbers to: ~ to the seaside for the summer.

rep-ar-able /'reɪərəbl/ adj (of a loss, etc) that can be made good.

rep-ar-ation /,reɪə'reɪʃn/ n [U] act of compensating for loss or damage; (pl) compensation for war damages demanded from a defeated enemy.

rep-ar-tee /,repa:'tiː/ n [C] witty, clever reply; [U] the making of such remarks.

re-past /rɪ'pɑːst/ US: -'pæst/ n [C] (formal) meal: a luxurious ~ in the banqueting hall.

re-pat-ri-ate /rɪ:'pætri'eɪt/ US: -'peɪt-/ vt send or bring (a person) back to his own country: ~ refugees after a war. □ n [C] repatriated person.

re-pat-ri-ation /,rɪ:'pætri'eɪʃn/ US: -'peɪt-/ n [U] re-pay /rɪ'peɪ/ vt, vi (pt, pp -paid /-'peɪd/) 1 pay back (money): If you'll lend me 75p, I'll ~ you next week. 2 give in return: How can I ~ Jim for his kindness.

re-pay-able /-əbl/ adj that can or must be repaid.

re-pay-ment n [U] repaying; [C] instance of this.

re-peal /rɪ'pi:l/ vt cancel, annul, (a law, etc). □ n [C,U] repealing.

re-peat /rɪ'pi:t/ vt, vi 1 say or do again: ~ a word/mistake. 2 say (what somebody else has said or what one has learnt by heart): You must not ~ what I've told you; it's very confidential. 3 (of food) continue to be tasted after being eaten: Do you find that onions ~? 4 (of numbers, eg decimals) recur: The last figure is ~ed. 5 supply a further amount, order, etc: We regret that we cannot ~ this article. □ n [C] another supply, performance, etc: There will be a ~ (= another broadcast) of this talk on Friday. This is a ~ performance.

re-peat-ed-ly adv again and again.

re-pel /rɪ'pel/ vt (-ll-) 1 drive back or away; refuse to accept: ~ the enemy/temptation. 2 cause a feeling of dislike in: His long, rough beard ~led her.

re-pel-lent /-ənt/ adj unattractive; uninviting: ~lent work/food/manners. □ n [C] something that causes something else to go or stay away: ~insect ~.

re-pent /rɪ'pent/ vi, vt think with regret or sorrow of; be full of regret; wish one had not done (something): Don't you ~ (of) having wasted your money so foolishly?

re-pent-ance /-əns/ n [U] regret for doing wrong: show ~ance (for ...).

re-pent-ant /-ənt/ adj feeling or showing regret.

re-pent-ant-ly adv

re-per-cus-sion /,rɪ:pə'kʌʃn/ n 1 [U] springing back; driving or throwing back. 2 [C] something thrown or driven back; echoing sound: the ~ of the waves from the rocks. 3 [C] (usually pl) far-reaching and indirect effect (of an event, etc): The assassination of the President was followed by ~s throughout the whole country.

re-per-toire /'repətwa:(r)/ n [C] all the plays, songs, pieces, etc which a company, actor, musician, etc is prepared to perform: She has a large ~ of songs.

re-per-tory /'repətəri/ US: -tɔ:ri/ n [C] (pl -ies) = repertoire.

'repertory company/theatre, (common abbr rep) one in which the actors or plays are changed regularly.

rep-eti-tion /,repɪ'tʃn/ n 1 [U] repeating or being repeated; [C] instance of this: after numerous ~s. 2 [C] another repeat: Let there be no ~ of this, Don't do it again. 3 [C] piece (of poetry, etc) set to be learnt by heart and repeated.

re-peti-tive /rɪ'petətɪv/ (also rep-eti-tious /,repɪ'tɪʃəs/) adj characterized by repeated action: the repetitive work typical of modern industry.

re-phrase /rɪ:'freɪz/ vt say again using different words: ~ a question.

re-place /rɪ'pleɪs/ vt 1 put back in its place: replacing a dictionary on the shelf; ~ the receiver, ie after telephoning. 2 take the place of: Can anything ~ a mother's love and care? 3 supply as a substitute for: ~ coal by/with oil.

re-place-able /-əbl/ adj that can be replaced.

re-place-ment n [U] replacing or being replaced; [C] person or thing that replaces: get a ~ment while one is away on holiday.

re-play /rɪ:'pleɪ/ vt play (eg a football match that was drawn) again. □ n /rɪ:'pleɪ/ [C] replaying of a record, a football match etc.

re-plen-ish /rɪ'plenɪʃ/ vt (formal) fill up again; get a new supply of or for.

re-plete /rɪ'pli:t/ adj (formal) filled with; holding as much as possible: ~ with food; feeling ~.

re-ple-tion /rɪ'pli:ʃn/ n [U] (formal) state of being or feeling replete.

rep-lica /'replɪkə/ n [C] (pl ~s) exact copy (esp one made by an artist of one of his own pictures).

re-ply /rɪ'plai/ vi, vt (pt, pp -ied) give as an answer to, in words or action: He failed to ~ (to my question). 'Certainly, sir', he replied. □ n [C] act of replying; what is replied: He made no ~. What was said in ~? reply paid, (eg of a telegram) with the cost of replying paid by the sender.

re-port¹ /rɪ'pɔ:t/ n 1 [C] account of, statement about, something heard, seen, done, etc: the annual ~ of a business company; 'law ~s, ie of trials, etc in the law courts; a school ~, eg by teachers about a pupil, with his examination marks, etc; newspaper ~s. 2 [U] rumour: R~ has it that.... People are saying that...; [C] piece of gossip. 3 [C] sound of an explosion: the loud ~ of a gun.

re-port² /rɪ'pɔ:t/ vi, vi 1 give an account of (something seen, heard, done, etc); give as news: The discovery of a new planet has been ~ed. 2 write down (eg in shorthand) the words of speeches, etc for newspapers, etc: ~ a speech/a Parliamentary debate. 3 give news or information concerning: ~ on/upon a meeting. 4 go (somewhere), and announce that one has come, that one is ready for work, duty, etc: ~ for duty at the office; ~ to the Manager. 5 make a complaint against a person (to authorities): ~ an official for insolence. I shall have to ~ your lateness.

reported speech, = indirect speech.

re-porter, person who supplies news to a newspaper, for radio or TV.

re-pose¹ /rɪ'pəʊz/ vt (formal) place (trust, confidence, etc) in: Don't ~ too much confidence in his honesty.

re-pose² /rɪ'pəʊz/ vt, vi (formal) 1 rest; give rest or support to: a girl reposing on a cushion. 2 be based or supported (on). □ n [U] (formal) 1 rest; sleep: Her face is beautiful in ~. 2 peaceful, restless or quiet behaviour, manner or appearance.

re-posi-tory /rɪ'pɒzɪtri/ US: -tɔ:ri/ n [C] (pl -ies) (formal) place where things are or may be stored: Desks are repositories for all sorts of useless papers.

rep-re-hend /,repri'hend/ vt (formal) disapprove of strongly: ~ his conduct.

rep-re-hen-sible /,repri'hensəbl/ adj deserving to be strongly disapproved of.

rep-re-sent¹ /,repri'zent/ vt 1 be, give, make, a picture, sign, symbol or example of: Phonetic symbols ~ sounds. This painting ~s a hunting scene. 2 declare to be; describe (as): He ~ed himself as an expert. 3 explain; make clear: Let me try to ~ my ideas to you in another way. 4 express: They each ~ed their grievances to the headmaster. 5 act or speak for (eg as a lawyer); be MP for; be an agent for: members (ie MP's) ~ing several Welsh constituencies.

rep-re-sen-ta-tion /,repri'zentʃən/ n (a) [U] representing or being represented; [C] that which is represented: no taxation without ~ation, ie citizens should not be taxed without being represented (in Parliament, etc). ⇨ proportional representation. (b) [C] (esp) polite protest: make ~ations to the Inspector of Taxes about an excessive assessment.

re-pre-sent² /,ri:prɪ'zent/ vt submit again: Please ~ your cheque when you have funds in your account.

rep-re-sen-ta-tive /,repri'zentətɪv/ adj 1 serving to show; serving as an example of a class or group; containing examples of a number of classes or groups: a ~ collection of French Impressionist paintings. 2 consisting of elected deputies; based on representation by such elected deputies: ~ government/institutions. □ n [C] 1 example; typical specimen (of). 2 person elected or appointed to represent or act for others: send a ~ to a conference; our ~ (= MP) in the House of Commons.

the House of Representatives, the lower house of the US Congress or of a state legislature.

re-press /rɪ'pres/ vt keep or put down or under; prevent from finding an outlet: ~ a revolt; ~ed emotions.

re-pres-sion /rɪ'presn/ n [U] re-pres-sive /rɪ'presv/ adj serving or tending to repress: ~ive legislation.

re-prieve /rɪ'pri:v/ vt 1 postpone or delay punishment (esp the execution of a person condemned to death). 2 (fig) give relief for a short time (from danger, trouble, etc). □ n [C] (order giving authority for the) postponement or cancelling of punishment (esp by death): grant a prisoner a ~.

re-pri-mand /,repri'ma:nd US: -'mænd/ vt express disapproval to (a person) severely and officially (because of a fault, etc). □ n /'reprɪma:nd US: -mænd/ [C] official expression of disapproval.

re-prisal /rɪ'praɪz/ n 1 [U] paying back injury with injury: do something by way of ~. 2 (pl) such acts, esp of one country on another during a war.

re-proach /rɪ'prəʊtʃ/ vt find fault with (a person, usually with a feeling of sorrow, or suggesting the need for sorrow): ~ one's son for being late home. □ n 1 [U] reproaching: a term/look of ~. 2 [C] instance, word, phrase, etc of reproach. above/beyond reproach, perfect, blameless: She/Her behaviour is beyond ~. 3 [C] something that brings disgrace or discredit (to): slums that are a ~ to the city council.

re-proach-ful /-fl/ adj full of, expressing, reproach: a ~ful look.

re-proach-fully /-fəli/ adv

re-pro-duce /,ri:prə'dju:s US: -'dʊ:s/ vt, vi 1 cause to be seen, heard, exist, etc again: ~ music from magnetic tape; ~ copies of an original painting. 2 bring forth as offspring; bring about a natural increase: plants that ~ easily. 3 grow anew (a part that is lost, etc): Can lizards ~ their tails?

re-pro-ducer, person who, that which, re-produces.

re-pro-duc-ible /-əbl/ adj that can be reproduced.

re-pro-duc-tion /,ri:prə'dʌkʃn/ n [U] process of reproducing; [C] something reproduced, esp a work of art.

re-pro-duc-tive /,ri:prə'dʌktɪv/ adj reproducing; for, relating to, reproduction (esp (2)): the reproductive organs.

re-proof¹ /rɪ'pru:f/ n 1 [U] blame (the more usual word); disapproval: a glance of ~; conduct deserving of ~. 2 [C] expression of blame or disapproval.

re-proof² /,ri:pru:f/ vt make (a coat, etc) waterproof again.

re-prove /rɪ'pru:v/ vt find fault with; disapprove of strongly: The priest ~d the people for not attending church services.

re-proving-ly adv

rep-tile /'reptail US: -tl/ n [C] cold-blooded animal that lays eggs, eg a lizard, tortoise, crocodile, snake.

rep-til-ian /rep'tɪliən/ adj of, like, a reptile.

re-pub-lic /rɪ'pʌblɪk/ n [C] (country with a) system of government in which the elected representatives of the people are supreme, and with an elected head (the President): a constitutional ~, eg the US.

re-pub-li-can /rɪ'pʌblɪkən/ adj of, relating to, supporting the principles of, a republic. □ n

[C] 1 person who favours republican government. 2 R~, member of one of the two main political parties in the US (the other is Democrat).

re-pudi-ate /rɪ'pjʊ:diət/ vt (formal) 1 say that one will have nothing more to do with: ~ a wicked son. 2 refuse to accept or acknowledge: ~ the authorship of an article, declare that one did not write it. 3 refuse to pay (a debt).

re-pudi-ation /rɪ'pjʊ:di'eɪʃn/ n [U] re-pug-nance /rɪ'pʌɡnəns/ n [U] (formal) strong dislike or distaste: a great ~ to accept charity.

re-pug-nant /rɪ'pʌɡnənt/ adj (formal) causing a feeling of dislike or opposition: I find his views/proposals ~.

re-pulse /rɪ'pʌls/ vt 1 drive back (the enemy); resist (an attack) successfully. 2 refuse to accept (a person's help, friendly offers, etc); discourage (a person) by unfriendly treatment. □ n [U] repulsing or being repulsed.

re-pul-sion /rɪ'pʌlʃn/ n [U] (a) feeling of dislike or distaste: feel repulsion for him. (b) (physics) tendency of bodies to repel each other (opp of attraction).

re-pul-sive /rɪ'pʌlsɪv/ adj 1 causing a feeling of disgust: a ~ sight. 2 (physics) showing repulsion (b): ~ forces.

re-pul-sive-ly adv

repu-table /'repjʊtəbl/ adj respected; of good reputation: ~ occupations.

repu-tably /-əbli/ adv

repu-ta-tion /'repjʊ'teɪʃn/ n [U] (used with a, an as in examples) the general opinion about the character, qualities, etc of a person or thing: have a good ~ as a doctor; make a ~ for oneself. live up to one's reputation, act in the way that people expect (good or bad).

re-pute /rɪ'pjʊt/ vt 1 be reputed as/to be, be generally considered or reported (to be), be thought of as: He is ~ed (to be) very wealthy. He is ~d (as/to be) the best surgeon in Paris. 2 (as an adjective) generally considered to be (but with some element of doubt): the ~d father of the child. □ n [U] 1 reputation (good or bad): know a man by ~. 2 good reputation: a doctor of ~.

re-put-ed-ly /-ədli/ adv by reputation.

re-quest /rɪ'kwɛst/ n 1 [U] asking or being asked: We came at your ~/at the ~ of Mr Brown. Buses stop here by ~, if signalled to do so. This is a ~ stop. Samples will be sent on ~. 2 [C] expression of desire for something: repeated ~s for help. 3 [C] thing asked for: All my ~s were granted. □ vt make a request: Visitors are ~ed not to touch the paintings.

requiem /'rekwiəm/ n [C] (musical setting for a) special mass for the repose of the souls of the dead.

re-quire /rɪ'kwaɪə(r)/ vt 1 need (the usual word); depend on for success, etc: We ~ extra help. 2 (formal) order; demand; insist on as a right or by authority: Students are ~d to take three papers in English literature. I have done all that is ~d by law.

re-quire-ment n [C] (formal) something needed: meet his ~ments, do what he wants done.

requi-site /'rekwi:zɪt/ n [C], adj (thing) needed or required by circumstances or for success: We supply every ~ for travel/all travelling ~s.

requi-si-tion /'rekwi'zɪʃn/ n 1 [U] act of requiring or demanding. 2 [C] formal, written demand: a ~ for supplies/that the supplies should be sent. □ vt make a demand for: ~ a cheque for £100.

re-run /'ri:ʌn/ n [C] (cinema and TV) reshooting of a film or recorded programme. □ vt (-nn-) show a film, etc again.

re-scind /rɪ'sɪnd/ vt (legal) repeal, cancel (a law, contract, etc).

res-cue /'reskjʊ:/ vt make safe (from danger, attack, etc); set free: rescuing a child (from drowning). □ n 1 [U] rescuing or being rescued: John came to my ~ at the meeting, supported me. 2 [C] instance of this: three ~s from drowning.

res-cuer, person who rescues a person or thing.

re-search /rɪ'sɜ:tʃ/ US: 'rɪsɜ:tʃ/ n [U] (and with a, an, and in the pl, but not usually with many or numerals) investigation undertaken in order to discover new facts, get additional information, etc: be engaged in ~; much ~ work; carry out a ~/~es into the causes of cancer. His ~es have been successful. □ vi (a problem, etc): She is ~ing into the causes of cancer.

re-searcher, person engaged in research.

re-seat /rɪ'si:t/ vt supply with a new seat: ~ an old pair of trousers/a cane chair.

re-sem-blance /rɪ'zembəlɒns/ n [C,U] (point of) likeness, similarity: There's very little ~ between them.

re-semble /rɪ'zembl/ vt be like; be similar to: She ~s her mother.

re-sent /rɪ'zɛnt/ vt feel bitter, indignant or angry at: ~ criticism. He ~s my being here.

re-sent-ful /-fl/ adj feeling or showing resentment.

re-sent-fully /-fəli/ adv re-sent-ment n [U] feeling that one has when insulted, ignored, injured, etc: bear/feel no ~ment against anyone.

res-er-va-tion /'rezə'veɪʃn/ n 1 [U] keeping or holding back; failure or refusal to express something that is in one's mind; [C] that which is kept or held back: accept a plan without ~, wholeheartedly, completely; accept a plan with ~s, with limiting conditions. 2 [C] the central ~ of a motorway, land dividing the two carriageways. 3 [C] (US) area of land reserved for a special purpose: the Indian ~s, land for the exclusive use of the Indians. 4 [C] arrangement to keep something for somebody, eg a seat in a train, a room in a hotel: My travel agents have made all the ~s for my journey.

re-serve¹ /rɪ'zɜ:v/ n 1 [C] something that is being or has been stored (for later use): a ~ of food; the bank's ~s, ie of money. 2 (sing or pl) (mil) military forces kept back for use when needed. 3 [U] in reserve, kept back unused, but available if needed: have/hold a little money in ~. 4 [C] place or area reserved for some special use or purpose: a 'game ~, eg in Africa, for the preservation of wild animals. 5 [C,U] (instance of) limitation or restriction; condition that limits or restricts: We accept your statement without ~, believe it completely. 6 [U] self-control in speech and behaviour: break through his ~, get him to talk and be sociable. 7 [C] (in football, etc) player who is officially allowed to replace another player during a game.

re-serve² /rɪ'zɜ:v/ vi 1 store, keep back, for a later occasion: Re~ your strength for the climb. The judge ~d his judgement, deferred announcing it until a future time. 2 keep for the special use of, or for a special purpose: We are reserving these seats for special guests. 3 secure possession of, or the right to use, eg by advance payment: ~ rooms at a hotel.

re-served adj (of a person, his character) slow to show feelings or opinions; shy: He is too ~d to be popular.

re-served-ly /-ɔdli/ adv res-er-voir /'rezəvwa:(r)/ n [C] 1 place (often an artificial lake) where water is stored, eg for supplying a town. 2 (fig) supply (of facts, knowledge, etc).

re-set /rɪ'set/ vi (pl, pp reset; -tt-) 1 place in position again: ~ a diamond in a ring; ~ a broken bone. ⇨ set²(9) 2 (of a book, etc) prepare the type(3) again. 3 sharpen (a saw) again.

re-settle /rɪ'setl/ vi, vi (esp of refugees) (help to) settle in a new country: ~ European refugees in Canada.

re-settle-ment n [C,U] re-shuffle /rɪ'ʃʌfl/ vi 1 mix (playing-cards) again. 2 redistribute (Cabinet responsibilities). □ n [C] change the positions again: a Cabinet ~.

re-side /rɪ'zaɪd/ vi (formal) 1 live (the more usual word), have one's home: residing abroad. 2 (of power, rights, etc) be the property of, be present in: The supreme authority ~s in the President.

resi-dence /'rezɪdəns/ n (formal) 1 [U] residing: take up ~ in a new house. in residence, (a) (of an official, etc) living in the house officially provided for him. (b) (of members of a university) living in a college or other part of a university. 2 place where one lives: this desir- able family ~ for sale.

resi-dent /'rezɪdənt/ adj having a home (in the place mentioned or indicated): the ~ population of the town (contrasted with visitors, tourists, etc). □ n [C] person who lives in a place (not a visitor).

resi-den-tial /'rezɪ'denʃl/ adj 1 of residence: the ~ qualifications for voters, ie requiring that they should live in the constituency. 2 of, with, private houses: ~ parts of the town (contrasted with business or industrial parts).

re-sid-ual /rɪ'zɪdʒuəl/ adj remaining: ~ income after tax.

resi-due /'rezɪdju: US: -du:/ n [C] that which remains after a part is taken or used.

re-sign /rɪ'zaɪn/ vi, vi 1 give up (a post, claim, etc): ~ one's job; ~ from the Committee. 2 (formal) hand over: I ~ my children to your care. 3 be ready to put up with or accept without complaining: be ~ed to one's fate.

re-signed adj having or showing patient acceptance: with a ~ed look.

re-sign-ed-ly /-ɔdli/ adv

res-ig-na-tion /'rezɪg'neɪʃn/ n 1 [U] resigning(1); [C] instance of this; letter (to one's employers, superior, etc) stating this: offer/send in/hand in one's ~. 2 [U] state of being resigned to, accepting, conditions, etc: accept failure with ~.

re-sil-i-ence /rɪ'zɪliəns/ (also re-sil-iency /-nsɪ/) n 1 [U] quality or property of quickly recovering the original shape or condition after being pulled, pressed, crushed, etc: the ~ of rubber. 2 (fig) power of recovering quickly: the ~ of the human body.

re-sil-i-ent /-ənt/ adj resin /'rezɪn/ n [C,U] 1 sticky substance flowing from most plants when cut or injured, esp from fir and pine trees, hardening in air, used in making varnish, lacquer, etc. 2 similar substance (plastics) made chemically, widely used in industry.

re-sist /rɪ'zɪst/ vi, vi 1 oppose; use force against in order to prevent the advance of: ~ the enemy/an attack/authority/the police. 2 be undamaged or unaffected by: a kind of glass that ~s heat, that does not break or crack. 3 try not to give in to, to take or use: ~ temptation. She can't ~ chocolates.

re-sis-ter, person who resists: passive ~ers.

re-sis-tance /rɪ'zɪstəns/ n 1 [U] (power of) resisting: make/offer no/not much ~ to the enemy's advance. 2 the ~, (in a country occupied by an enemy) group of people organized to oppose the enemy. 3 [U] opposing force: An aircraft has to overcome the ~ of the air. choose/follow/take the line of least resistance. ⇨ *line*¹(11). 4 [C,U] desire to oppose: 'sales ~, unwillingness of the public to buy.

re-sis-tant /rɪ'zɪstənt/ adj offering resistance: insects that have become ~ to DDT.

re-sis-tor /rɪ'zɪstə(r)/ n [C] device to reduce the power in an electric circuit.

re-sole /rɪ:'səʊl/ vt put a new sole on (a shoe).

res-ol-ute /rɪ'zəlu:t/ adj (formal) determined: a ~ man.

re-sol-ute-ly adv

res-ol-ution /rɪ'zəʊlu:ʃn/ n 1 [U] quality of being determined: show great ~; a man with no ~. 2 [C] something that is decided; formal expression of opinion by a legislative body or a public meeting; proposal for this: pass/carry/adopt/reject a ~ (for/against/in favour of that...). 3 [C] something one makes up one's mind to do: a New Year ~, something a person is determined to do in a new year, eg to give up smoking. 4 [U] resolving, solution (of a doubt, question, etc). ⇨ resolve(3).

re-solve /rɪ'zɒlv/ vt, vi 1 decide; determine: He ~d that nothing should prevent him from succeeding. He ~d to succeed. 2 (of a committee, public meeting, legislative body) pass by formal vote the decision (that): The House of Commons ~d that... 3 put an end to (doubts, difficulties, etc) by supplying an answer. 4 break up, separate (into parts); convert; be converted: ~ a problem into its elements. □ n [C] something that has been decided: keep one's ~.

re-solv-able /-əbl/ adj that may be resolved.

res-on-ance /rɪ'zɒnəns/ n [U] quality of being resonant.

res-on-ant /rɪ'zɒnənt/ adj 1 (of sound) resounding; continuing to resound: a deep, ~ voice. 2 (of places) resounding: Alpine valleys ~ with the sound of church bells.

res-on-ate /rɪ'zɒneɪt/ vt, vi produce or show resonance.

re-sort /rɪ'zɔ:t/ vi 1 make use of for help or to gain one's purpose, etc: If other means fail, we shall ~ to force. 2 frequently visit: The police watched the cafés to which the wanted man was known to ~. □ n 1 [U] resorting(1): Can we do it without ~ to force? in the/as a last resort, when all else has failed, as a last means of finding help or relief. 2 [C] person or thing that is resorted(1) to: Because it was raining and the last bus had gone, an expensive taxi was the only ~ left. 3 [C] place often visited for a particular purpose: a seaside/health ~.

re-sound /rɪ'zaʊnd/ vi, vt 1 (of a voice, instrument, sound, place) echo and re-echo: The organ ~ed. The hall ~ed with the fans' screaming. 2 (fig) (of fame, an event) be much talked of; spread far and wide: The film was a ~ing success.

re-sound-ing-ly adv

re-source /rɪ'sɔ:s US: 'rɪ:sɔ:rs/ n 1 (pl) wealth, supplies of goods, raw materials, etc which a person, country, etc has or can use: the natural ~s of our country, its mineral wealth, potential water power, etc. 2 [C] something which helps in doing something, that can be turned to for support, help, consolation: Leave him to his own ~s, to amuse himself, find his own way of passing the time. 3 [U] skill in finding resources(2): a man of ~.

re-source-ful /-fl/ adj good or quick at finding resources(2): a ~ful mind.

re-source-fully /-fəli/ adv

re-spect¹ /rɪ'spekt/ n 1 [U] honour; high opinion or regard for a person or quality: The Prime Minister is held in the greatest ~. Children should show ~ for their teachers. 2 [U] consideration; attention: We must have ~ for/pay ~ to the needs of the general reader, think about his requirements or preferences. 3 [U] reference; relation. with/without respect to, concerning, paying no attention to. 4 [C] detail; particular aspect. in respect of, as regards: Your action was admirable in ~ of the courage you showed. in some/any/no, etc respects, with regard to some aspect(s), detail(s): They resemble one another in some/a few ~s. 5 (pl) regards; polite greetings: My father sends you his ~s.

re-spect² /rɪ'spekt/ vi show respect for; treat with consideration: He is ~ed by everyone. We must ~ his wishes.

re-spec-ter n (only in) no respecter of persons, person or thing paying little or no attention to wealth, social rank, etc: Death is no ~er of persons.

re-spect-able /rɪ'spektəbl/ adj 1 deserving respect: act from ~ motives. 2 (of persons) of good character and fair social position; having the qualities associated with such social position. 3 (of clothes, appearance, behaviour, etc) suitable for such persons: Is she/her appearance ~? 4 of considerable size, merit, importance, etc: He earns a ~ income.

re-spect-ably /-əbli/ adv in a respectable manner: respectably dressed.

re-spect-ful /rɪ'spektfl/ adj (formal) showing respect: They stood at a ~ distance from the President.

re-spect-ive /rɪ'spektɪv/ adj for, belonging to, each of those in question: The men were given work according to their ~ abilities.

re-spect-ive-ly adv separately or in turn, and in the order mentioned: Rooms for men and women are on the first and second floors ~ly, ie for men on the first floor and for women on the second.

res-pir-ation /rɪ'spə'reɪʃn/ n [U] breathing; [C] single act of breathing in and breathing out. ⇨ artificial respiration.

res-pir-ator /rɪ'spə'reɪtə(r)/ n [C] apparatus for breathing through, eg by firemen, to filter the air of smoke and fumes.

res-pir-at-ory /rɪ'spɪrətəri US: 'respɪrətɔ:ri/ adj of breathing: ~ diseases, eg bronchitis, asthma.

respiratory tract, system of organs for breathing.

re-spire /rɪ'spaɪə(r)/ vi (formal) breathe (the usual word).

res-pite /'respait/ 'respit/ n [C] 1 time of relief or rest (from toil, suffering, anything unpleasant): work without (a) ~. 2 permitted postponement or delay in punishment, having to do something, etc.

re-splen-dent /rɪ'splɛndənt/ adj very bright; looking rich and colourful: a ~ display by the Household Cavalry.

re-splen-dent-ly adv

re-pond /rɪ'spɒnd/ vi 1 answer: ~ to a speech of welcome. 2 act in answer to, or because of, the action of another: When Tom insulted the referee, he ~ed by ordering him off the field. 3 react (to); be affected (by): The illness/patient quickly ~ed to treatment.

re-sponse /rɪ'spɒns/ n [C] answer: My letter of inquiry brought no ~. 2 [C,U] reaction: My appeal to her pity met with no ~. 3 [C] (in a church service) part of the liturgy said or sung by the congregation alternately with the priest.

re-spon-si-bil-ity /rɪ'spɒnsə'bɪləti/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] being responsible; being accountable: I'll lend you my camera if you will take full ~ for it. 2 [C] something for which a person is responsible; duty: the heavy responsibilities of the Prime Minister.

re-spon-sible /rɪ'spɒnsəbl/ adj 1 (of a person) legally or morally having to carry out a duty, care for a person or thing; in a position where one may be blamed for loss, failure, etc: The pilot of an airliner is ~ for the safety of the passengers. Who is ~ for the education of our children? 2 involving the obligation to make decisions for others and bear the blame for their mistakes: I've made you ~ and you must decide what to do. 3 who can be relied on: Give the task to a ~ man. 4 be responsible for sth, be the cause or source of: Who's ~ for this mess in the kitchen?

re-spon-sibly /-əbli/ adv: I would expect a man of your age to act responsibly, to be reliable, trusted.

re-spon-sive /rɪ'spɒnsɪv/ adj 1 answering: a ~ gesture. 2 answering easily or quickly: ~ to affection/treatment.

re-spon-sive-ly adv

rest ¹ /rest/ n [U] condition of being free from activity, movement, disturbance; quiet; sleep: *R~ is necessary after hard work. She had a good night's ~, sleep. at rest, (a) free from movement. (b) dead. be laid to rest, be buried. come to rest, (of a moving body) stop moving. set sb's mind at rest, ⇨ mind¹(2). 2 [C] that on which something is supported: an 'arm-~. 3 [C] (music) (sign marking an) interval of silence. 4 (used as an adjective) place where people may recuperate from illness, etc: a ~ home/centre.*

'rest-cure, course of treatment for persons suffering from nervous disorders.

'rest room, public lavatory; cloakroom.

rest-ful /-fl/ adj quiet; peaceful; giving (a feeling of) rest: a ~ful scene; colours that are ~ful to the eyes.

rest-less adj never still or quiet; unable to rest: the ~less waves; spend a ~less night.

rest-less-ly adv

rest-less-ness n [U]

rest ² /rest/ n (always the ~) 1 what remains; the remainder: Take what you want and throw the ~ away. Her hat was red, like the ~ of her clothes. for the rest..., as regards other matters... 2 (used with a pl verb) the others: John and I are going to play tennis; what are the ~ of you going to do?

rest ³ /rest/ vi, vt 1 be still or quiet; be free from activity, movement, disturbance, etc: *We ~ed (for) an hour after lunch. He ~s (= is buried) in the churchyard. He will not ~ (= will have no peace of mind) until he knows the truth. 2 give rest or relief to: *He stopped to ~ his horse. These dark glasses ~ my eyes. 3 (cause to) be supported (on/against something): *She ~ed her elbows/Her elbows were ~ing on the table. R~ the ladder against the wall.

'resting-place, (esp) place of burial.

rest ⁴ /rest/ vi 1 continue to be in a specified state: *You may ~ assured that everything possible will be done. 2 rest with, be left in the hands or charge of: *It ~s with you to decide. It is your responsibility. 3 depend, rely: *His fame ~s on/upon his plays more than his novels.

re-state /rɪ:'steɪt/ vt state again or in a different way.

re-state-ment n [C,U] (instance of) restating.

res-taur-ant /'restɔ:rənt/ US: -tərənt/ n [C] place where meals can be bought and eaten.

res-ti-tu-tion /,restu'tju:ʃn/ US: -'tu:-/ n [U] 1 restoring (of something stolen, etc) to its owner: ~ of property. 2 = reparation.

res-tive /'restɪv/ adj 1 (of a horse or other animal) refusing to move forward; moving backwards or sideways. 2 (of a person) reluctant to be controlled or disciplined; unable to lie still (and sleep).

re-stock /rɪ:'stɒk/ vt put fresh stock into: ~ the shelves in a shop.

res-to-ra-tion /,resta'reɪʃn/ n 1 [U] restoring or being restored: *~ to health and strength; ~ of stolen property. 2 the R~, (the period of) the re-establishment of the monarchy in England in 1660, when Charles II became king: *R~ poetry/comedy. 3 [C] model representing the original form of an extinct animal, ruined building, etc; building formerly ruined and now rebuilt.

re-stor-a-tive /rɪ'stɔ:rətɪv/ adj tending to restore health and strength. ⇨ n [C,U] restorative food, medicine, etc.

re-store /rɪ'stɔ:(r)/ vt 1 give back: restoring stolen property/borrowed books. 2 bring back into use; reintroduce: ~ old customs. 3 make well or normal again; bring back (to a former condition): quite ~d to health; feel completely ~d. Law and order have been ~d. 4 repair; rebuild as before: ~ a ruined abbey. 5 place in or bring back to the former position, etc: ~ an employee to his old post/an officer to his command.

re-storer, person who, that which, restores, eg old oil paintings.

re-strain /rɪ'streɪn/ vt hold back; keep under control; prevent (a person or thing from doing something): ~ a child from (doing) mischief; ~ one's anger.

re-strained adj (esp) not emotional or wild; kept under control.

re-straint /rɪ'streɪnt/ n 1 [U] restraining or being restrained. without restraint, freely; without control. 2 [U] (in art, literature, etc) avoidance of excess or exaggeration. 3 [C] that which restrains; check; controlling influence: the ~s of poverty.

re-strict /rɪ'strɪkt/ vt limit; keep within limits: Discussion at the meeting was ~ed to the agenda. We are ~ed to 30 miles an hour in built-up areas.

re-strict-ion /rɪ'strɪkʃn/ n (a) [U] restricting or being restricted: ~ion of expenditure. (b) [C] instance of this; something that restricts: currency ~ions, eg on the sums that a person may use for foreign travel.

re-strict-ive /rɪ'strɪktɪv/ adj tending to restrict: ~ive practices (in industry), practices that prevent effective use of labour, etc.

re-strict-ive-ly adv

re-style /rɪ'staɪl/ vt 1 give a new name to: The chairman has been ~ed 'the President'. 2 redesign: They have ~d the seats for the new model of this car.

re-sult /rɪ'zʌlt/ vi 1 result from, come about, happen, because of: Any damage ~ing from negligence must be paid for by the borrower. 2 bring about; have as a consequence: Their diplomacy ~ed in war. 3 end in a manner which is stated: Their efforts ~ed badly. □ n 1 [C,U] that which is produced by an activity or cause; outcome; effect: work without (much) ~; announce the ~s of a competition, the names of prize-winners, etc. 2 [C] answer (to a mathematical problem, etc).

re-sult-ant /-ənt/ adj coming as a result, esp as the total outcome of forces or tendencies from different directions. □ n [C] product or outcome (of something).

re-sume /rɪ'zju:m US: 'zu:m/ vi 1 go on after stopping for a time: ~ one's work/a story. 2 take or occupy again: ~ one's seat.

ré-sumé /re'zumeɪ US: 'rezu:'meɪ/ n [C] summary.

re-sump-tion /rɪ'zʌmpʃn/ n [U] resuming; [C] instance of this.

re-sur-face /rɪ'sʌ:fɪs/ vt, vi 1 put a new surface on (a road, etc). 2 (of a submarine) come to the surface again. 3 (fig) (of persons, ideas, etc) reappear, come back.

re-sur-gence /rɪ'sɜ:dʒəns/ n [U] revival; return of energy, etc.

re-sur-gent /rɪ'sɜ:dʒənt/ adj (formal) reviving, coming back to activity, strength, etc (after defeat, destruction, etc): ~ hopes.

res-ur-rect /rɪ'zʌ'rekt/ vt, vi bring back into use; revive the practice of: ~ an old word/custom.

res-ur-rec-tion /rɪ'zʌ'rekʃn/ n [U] 1 the R~, (a) the rising of Jesus from the tomb; anniversary of this. (b) the rising of all the dead on the Last Day. 2 revival from disuse, inactivity, etc: the ~ of hope.

re-sus-ci-tate /rɪ'sʌsɪteɪt/ vt, vi bring or come back to consciousness: ~ a person who has been nearly drowned.

re-sus-ci-ta-tion /rɪ'sʌsɪ'teɪʃn/ n [U] re-tail /rɪ'teɪl/ n [C] sale of goods to the general public, not for resale: sell goods (by) ~; (used as an adjective) ~ prices. □ wholesale. □ adv by retail: Do you buy wholesale or ~? □ vt, vi 1 sell (goods) by retail: (of goods) be sold retail: an article that is ~ed at/that ~s at seventy pence. 2 (formal) repeat (what one has heard, esp gossip) bit by bit or to several persons in turn: ~ a criticism to the man affected.

re-tailer, tradesman who sells by retail; shopkeeper.

re-tain /rɪ'teɪn/ vt 1 keep; continue to have or hold; keep in place: This dyke was built to ~ the flood waters. She ~s a clear memory of her schooldays. 2 get the services of (esp a barrister) by payment (a ~ing fee).

re-tainer n [C] (a) (legal) fee paid to retain the services of, eg a barrister. (b) (old use) servant of somebody of high rank: the duke and his ~ers.

re-take /rɪ'teɪk/ vt (pt -took /-tʊk/, pp -taken /-teɪkən/) take, capture, photograph, again. □ n /rɪ'teɪk/ [C] (esp, cinema, TV) re-photographed scene.

re-tali-ate /rɪ'tæliet/ vi return the same sort of treatment, usually bad, that one has received: He ~d by kicking the other boy on the ankle. If we raise our import duties on their goods, they may ~ against us.

re-tali-ation /rɪ'tæli'eɪʃn/ n [U] retaliating: in retaliation for being critical.

re-tali-at-ive /rɪ'tæliətv US: -ɪet-/ re-tali-at-ory /rɪ'tæliətɔː US: -tɔːrɪ/ adj returning (bad) treatment for (bad) treatment; of or for retaliation: retaliatory punches.

re-tard /rɪ'tɑːd/ vt check; hinder: ~ progress/development; a mentally ~ed child, one whose mental or emotional development has been slowed down or stopped.

retch /retʃ/ vi make (involuntarily) the sound and physical movements of vomiting but without bringing up anything from the stomach.

re-tell /rɪˈtɛl/ vt (pt,pp -told /-ˈtɒld/) tell again; tell in a different way or in a different language: old Greek tales retold for children.

re-tention /rɪˈtɛnʃn/ n [U] retaining or being retained: the ~ of funds for emergency use.

re-tentive /rɪˈtɛntɪv/ adj having the power of retaining (1) things: a ~ memory.

re-think /rɪˈθɪŋk/ vt,vi (pt,pp -thought /-ˈθɒt/) think about again; reconsider: They will have to ~ their policy towards China.

reticence /ˈretɪsəns/ n [U] being reticent; [C] instance of this.

reti-cent /ˈretɪsənt/ adj in the habit of saying little; not saying all that is known or felt: She was ~ about/on what Tom had said.

re-ti-cent-ly adv

ret-ina /ˈretɪnə US: ˈretənə/ n [C] (pl ~s or -nae /-ni:/) layer of membrane at the back of the eyeball, sensitive to light.

reti-nue /ˈretɪnju: US: ˈretənu:/ n [C] number of persons (staff, officers, etc) travelling with a person of high rank.

re-tire /rɪˈtaɪə(r)/ vi,vt 1 withdraw; go away: He ~d to his cabin. 2 (formal) go to bed: My wife usually ~s at 10 o'clock. 3 (of an army) withdraw; go back: Our forces ~d to prepared positions. 4 give up one's work, position, business, etc: He will ~ on a pension at 65. 5 cause (a person) to retire (3,4): ~ the head clerk. 6 ~ from the world, enter a monastery or become a hermit. retire into oneself, become unwilling to meet people or talk. □ n [C] signal to troops to withdraw: sound the ~, ie on the bugle.

re-tired adj having retired (4): a ~d civil servant.

re-tir-ing adj (a) (of persons, their way of life, etc) avoiding meeting people or talking. a girl of a retiring nature. (b) about to retire: the retiring chairman.

re-tire-ment n (a) [U] retiring or being retired; seclusion: ~ment from the world, eg in a convent. (b) [U] condition of being retired (4): be/live in ~ment. go into retire-ment, retire (esp 4 and 6 above). (c) [C] instance of this: There have been several ~ments in my office recently.

'retirement pension, ⇨ pension¹.

re-tort /rɪˈtɔ:t/ vt,vi answer back quickly, cleverly or angrily (esp to an accusation or challenge): 'It's entirely your fault,' he ~ed. □ n [U] retorting: say something in ~; [C] retorting answer: make an insolent ~.

re-touch /rɪˈtʌtʃ/ vt improve (a photograph, painting, etc) by adding a little paint with a brush, etc.

re-trace /rɪˈtreɪs/ vt 1 go back over or along: ~ one's steps. 2 go over (past actions, etc) in the mind: retracing her movements.

re-tract /rɪˈtrækt/ vt,vi 1 take back or withdraw (a statement, offer, opinion, etc): Even when confronted with proof the accused man re-fused to ~ his statement. 2 draw in or back; move back or in; be capable of doing this: A cat can ~ its claws.

re-tract-able /-əbl/ adj that can be retracted: a ~able undercarriage, (in an aircraft) wheels, etc which can be drawn up into the body of the aircraft during flight.

re-trac-tion /rɪˈtrækʃn/ n [C,U] re-tread /rɪˈtri:əd/ vt (pt,pp ~ed) put a new tread (3) on (an old tyre). □ n /rɪˈtri:əd/ [C] tyre that has been retreaded.

re-treat /rɪˈtri:t/ vi (esp of an army) go back; withdraw: force the enemy to ~; ~ on (ie towards) the capital. □ n 1 [U] act of retreating: The army was in full ~. We made good our ~, withdrew safely. 2 [C] signal for this: sound the ~, eg on a bugle. 3 [C] instance of retreating: after many advances and ~s. beat a (hasty) retreat. ⇨ beat² (1). 4 [C,U] (place for a) period of quiet and rest: a quiet country ~/~ in the country. go into retreat, eg temporary retirement for religious purposes.

re-trial /rɪˈtri:əl/ n [C] act of trying again in a law court.

ret-ri-bu-tion /rɪˈtri:bju:ʃn/ n [U] deserved punishment: R ~ for immoral acts does not always come in this life.

re-tri-bu-tive /rɪˈtri:bjutɪv/ adj inflicted or coming as a penalty for doing wrong.

re-triev-able /rɪˈtri:vəbl/ adj that may be retrieved.

re-trieval /rɪˈtri:vəl/ n [U] 1 act of retrieving: the ~ of one's fortunes. 2 possibility of recovery: beyond/past ~.

re-trieve /rɪˈtri:v/ vt,vi 1 get possession of again: ~ a lost umbrella; retrieving information from a computer. 2 put or set right; make amends for: ~ an error/a loss/disaster/defeat. 3 rescue (from); restore: ~ a person from ruin; ~ one's honour/fortunes. 4 (of specially trained dogs) find and bring in (killed or wounded birds, etc).

re-triever, breed of dog used for retrieving (4).

retro-ac-tive /rɪˈtrəʊˌæktɪv/ adj (of laws, etc) = retrospective (b).

retro-ac-tive-ly adv

retro-grade /ˈrɛtrəɡreɪd/ adj 1 directed backwards: ~ motion. 2 deteriorating, likely to cause worse conditions: a ~ policy.

retro-gress /rɪˈtrəɡres/ vi (formal) go or move backwards.

retro-gres-sion /rɪˈtrəɡresɪn/ n [U] return to a less advanced state.

retro-gres-sive /rɪˈtrəɡresɪv/ adj returning, tending to (cause a) return, to a less advanced state; becoming worse.

retro-rocket /ˈrɛtrəʊrɒkɪt/ n [C] jet engine fired to slow down or alter the course of a missile, spacecraft, etc.

retro-spect /ˈrɛtrəspekt/ n in retrospect, looking back at past events, etc.

retro-spection /ˈrɛtrəspekʃn/ n (formal) [U] action of looking back at past events, scenes, etc; [C] instance of this: indulge in dreamy ~ions.

retro-spective /ˈrɛtrəspektɪv/ adj (a) looking back on past events, etc. (b) (of laws, payments, etc) applying to the past: ~ive legislation; a ~ive (= backdated) wage increase.

retro-spective-ly adv

ret-ro-ver-sion /ˈrɛtrəʊvɜːʃn/ US: -ʒn/ n [U] state of being turned backwards; turning backward.

re-turn¹ /rɪˈtɜːn/ n 1 [C,U] coming, going, giving, sending, putting, back: on my ~, when I got/get back; the ~ of spring. by return, by the next post out: Please send a reply by ~. in return (for), as repayment (for). Many happy returns (of the day), phrase used as a greeting on somebody's birthday. point of no return, (fig) stage of an activity, etc at which withdrawal, stopping, is not possible. 2 (as an adjective) involving going back or coming back, etc: the ~ voyage. 3 [C] (often pl) profit on an investment or undertaking: small profits and quick ~s, large sales and quick turnover. 4 [C] official report or statement: make one's ~ of income (to the Inspector of Taxes).

return fare, needed for the journey back.

return half, the ticket for the journey back.

return match, one played between teams which have already played one match.

return ticket, one giving a traveller the right to go to a place and back to his starting-point (two-way ticket in US).

re-turn² /rɪˈtɜːn/ vi, vt 1 come or go back: ~ home; ~ to Paris from London. I shall ~ to this point later in my lecture. 2 pass or go back (to a former state): He has ~ed to his old habits. 3 give, put, send, pay, carry, back: When will you ~ the book I lent you? She ~ed the compliment, said something pleasant after a compliment had been paid to her. 4 (of a constituency) elect (a person) as representative to Parliament. 5 state or describe officially, esp in answer to a demand: ~ the details of one's income (for taxation purposes). The jury ~ed a verdict of guilty.

returning officer, official in charge of a Parliamentary election and announcing the name of the person elected.

re-turn-able /-əbl/ adj that may be sent, given back.

re-un-ion /rɪˈjuːniən/ n 1 [U] reuniting or being reunited. 2 [C] (esp) meeting of old friends, former colleagues, etc after separation: a family ~ at Christmas.

re-unite /rɪˈjuːnaɪt/ vi, vi bring or come together again: ~d after long years of separation.

rev /rev/ vt, vi (-vv-) (informal) increase the speed of revolutions in (eg a car engine): Don't ~ up (the engine) so hard. ⇨ also revolution (2).

re-value /rɪˈvæljuː/ vt 1 value again or anew. 2 increase the value of: ~ the currency.

re-valuation /rɪˈvæljuːˈeɪʃn/ n [C,U] re-vamp /rɪˈvæmp/ vt (informal) reconstruct; renew; revise: ~ an old book with new illustrations.

re-veal /rɪˈviːl/ vt 1 allow or cause to be seen; display: Bikinis ~ more than swimming-costumes. 2 make known: One day the truth about these events will be ~ed. The doctor did not ~ to him his hopeless condition.

re-veille /rɪˈvæli/ US: ˈrevəli/ n [C] (in the armed forces) bugle signal to men to get up in the morning: sound (the) ~.

revel /ˈrevl/ vi (-ll; US also -l-) 1 have a gay, lively time: They ~led until dawn. 2 revel in, take great delight in: ~ in one's success; people who ~ in gossip. □ n [C,U] (occasion of) joyous festivity.

rev-el-er, (US = rev-eler) /ˈrevələ(r)/, person who revels.

rev-el-ation /ˈrevəˈleɪʃn/ n 1 [U] making known of something secret or hidden. 2 [C] that which is revealed, esp something that causes surprise: It was a ~ to John when Mary said she had married him for money.

rev-elry /ˈrevlri/ n [U] (or pl; -ies) noisy, happy festivity and merrymaking: when the ~/revelries ended.

re-venge /rɪˈvendʒ/ vt 1 do something to get satisfaction for (an offence, etc to oneself or another): ~ an injustice/insult. 2 get satisfaction by deliberately causing injury in return for a person or oneself suffering: ~ a friend; be ~ed on a persecutor. ⇨ avenge. □ n [U] 1 deliberate injury to the person(s) from whom injury has been received: thirsting for ~; take ~ on; have/get one's ~ (on a person); do it out off in ~ (for). 2 [U] revenging.

re-venge-ful /-fl/ adj feeling or showing a desire for revenge.

re-venge-fully /-fəli/ adv

rev-enue /ˈrevɛnjuː/ US: -nuː/ n 1 [U] income, esp the total annual income of the State; government department which collects money for public funds. ⇨ Inland Revenue. 2 (pl) separate items of revenue put together: the ~s of the City Council.

re-ver-ber-ate /rɪˈvɜːbəreɪt/ vt, vi (esp of sound) send or throw back, be sent back, again and again: The roar of the train ~d/was ~d in the tunnel.

re-ver-ber-ation /rɪˈvɜːbəreɪʃn/ n [U] reverberating or being reverberated; (pl) echoes; effects (of an event).

re-vere /rɪˈviə(r)/ vt have deep respect for; regard as sacred: my ~d grandfather.

rev-er-ence /ˈrevərəns/ n [U] deep respect; feeling of wonder and awe: a bishop who was held in ~ by everyone.

rev-er-end /'revərænd/ adj deserving to be treated with respect (because of age, character, etc). □ n the R~, (usual abbr Rev'd) used as a title of a clergyman.

Reverend Mother, Mother Superior of a convent.

rev-er-ent /'revərənt/ adj feeling or showing reverence.

rev-er-ent-ly adv

rev-er-en-tial /,revə'renʃl/ adj caused or marked by reverence.

rev-er-ie /'revəri/ n [C,U] (instance of, occasion of) a condition of being lost in dreamy, pleasant thoughts.

re-vers /rɪ'vɜ:(r)/ n [C] (pl unchanged) turned-back edge of a coat, etc showing the reverse side, as on a lapel.

rev-er-sal /rɪ'vɜ:sl/ n 1 [U] reversing or being reversed. 2 [C] instance of this: a ~ of the normal procedure.

re-verse¹ /rɪ'vɜ:s/ adj contrary or opposite in character or order; inverted: the ~ side of a coin. in reverse order, from the end to the start, or in the opposite order.

re-verse² /rɪ'vɜ:s/ n 1 [U] (with the) opposite; contrary: do the ~ of what one is expected to do. 2 [C] reverse side (of a coin, medal, disc, etc): The Queen's head is on this side; what is on the ~? 3 [C] mechanism or device that reverses: Most cars have three forward gears and (a) ~. Put the car into ~. 4 [C] defeat; change to bad fortune: Our forces/My finances have suffered a slight ~.

re-verse³ /rɪ'vɜ:s/ vt, vi turn (something) the other way round or up or inside out: ~ a procedure; ~ one's policy. 2 (cause to) go in the opposite direction: ~ one's car into the garage. 3 change the order or position of: Their positions are now ~d; Tom is poor and Ben is rich. 4 cancel, annul: ~ the decision of a lower court; ~ a decree. 5 make (the charge for a telephone call) payable by the person who receives it: ~ charges.

re-vers-ible /-əbl/ adj that can be reversed, eg of a coat, either side of which can be used on the outside.

re-ver-sion /rɪ'vɜ:ʃn/ US: -ʒn n 1 [U] reverting (of property, etc). ⇨ revert (2). 2 [C] right to possess property in certain circumstances.

re-vert /rɪ'vɜ:t/ vi 1 return (to a former state, condition, topic, etc): The fields have ~ed to moorland, have gone out of cultivation, etc. R~ing to your original statement, I think... 2 (legal) (of property, rights, etc) return at some named time or under certain conditions (to the original owner, the State, etc): If he dies without an heir, his property will ~ to the State.

re-view /rɪ'vju:/ vt, vi 1 consider or examine again; go over again in the mind: ~ the past; ~ last week's lesson. 2 inspect formally (troops, a fleet, etc). 3 write an account of (new books, etc) for newspapers and other periodicals: His new novel has been favourably ~ed. □ n 1 [U] act of reviewing (1). come under review, be considered or examined; [C] instance of this: a ~ of the year's sporting events. 2 [C] inspection of military, naval, etc forces: hold a ~. 3 [C] article that critically examines a new book, etc: write ~s for the monthly magazines. 4 [C] periodical with articles on recent events, reviews of books, etc.

re-viewer, person who writes reviews (3).

re-vile /rɪ'vaɪl/ vt, vi (formal) swear at; use abusive language: ~ one's persecutors.

re-vise /rɪ'vaɪz/ vt reconsider; read carefully through, esp in order to correct and improve: ~ one's estimates; ~ one's opinion.

re-viser, person who revises.

re-vi-sion /rɪ'vɪʒn/ n (a) [U] revising or being revised; [C] instance of this: Several more revisions have been made. (b) [C] that which has been revised; corrected version.

re-vision-ist /rɪ'vɪʒənɪst/ n [C] person who supports a review of the basic principles and beliefs of a political ideology.

re-vital-ize (also -ise) /rɪ'vaɪtəlaɪz/ vt put new life into; restore power; strength, etc.

re-vital-ization (also -isation) /,rɪ:vaɪtəlaɪzeɪʃn/ US: -lɪ'z- /n [U] re-vival /rɪ'vaɪvəl/ n 1 [U] reviving or being revived; bringing or coming back into use or knowledge; [C] instance of this: a ~ of trade. 2 [C] (series of meetings intended to produce an) increase of interest in religion: a religious ~; ~ meetings.

re-vival-ist /rɪ'vaɪvəlɪst/ n [C] person who organizes or conducts revival meetings.

re-vive /rɪ'vaɪv/ vi, vt 1 come or bring back to consciousness, health or an earlier state: ~ a person who has fainted; ~ an old play, produce it for the theatre after many years. 2 come or bring into use again: customs which have never been ~d.

re-viv-ify /rɪ'vɪvɪfaɪ/ vt (pt, pp -ied) (formal) give new life or liveliness to.

revo-cable /'revəkəbl/ adj that can be revoked.

revo-ca-tion /,revə'keɪʃn/ n [U] revoking or being revoked; [C] instance of this.

re-voke /rɪ'vəʊk/ vt, vi 1 repeal; cancel; withdraw (a decree, consent, permission, etc): ~ a driving licence. 2 (of a player at such card-games as whist and bridge) fail to follow suit (ie not play a card of the same suit as that led by another player although he could do so). □ n [C] failure of this kind.

re-volt /rɪ'vəʊlt/ vi, vt 1 rise in rebellion: The people ~ed against their rulers. 2 be filled with disgust or horror: Human nature ~s at/from/against rape. 3 fill with disgust or horror: scenes that ~ed all who saw them. □ n 1 [U] act of revolting; state of having revolted (1): a period of ~; stir the people to ~. 2 [C] rebellion or rising: ~s against authority.

re-volt-ing /rɪ'vɔʊltɪŋ/ adj disgusting.

re-volt-ing-ly adv in a way that disgusts: a ~ly dirty child.

rev-ol-ution /ˌrevə'lu:ʃn/ n 1 [C] act of revolving or going round: the ~ of the earth round the sun. 2 [C] complete turn of a wheel, etc: sixty-five ~s (or, informally, revs) a minute. 3 [C, U] (instance of a) complete change (in conditions, ways of doing things, esp in methods of government when caused by the overthrow of one system by force): the Russian R~ (in 1917); ~s in our ways of travelling, eg the development of supersonic aircraft.

re-vol-ution-ary /ˌrevə'lu:ʃənəri/ US: -nerɪ/ adj 1 of a revolution (2). 2 bringing, causing, favouring, great (and perhaps violent) changes: ~ ideas. □ n [C] supporter of a (political) revolution.

re-vol-ution-ize (also -ise) /ˌrevə'lu:ʃənəɪz/ vt 1 fill with revolutionary principles. 2 make a complete change in; cause to be entirely different: The use of nuclear energy will ~ the lives of coming generations.

re-volve /rɪ'vɒlv/ vt, vi 1 (cause to) go round in a circle: The earth ~s round/about the sun. The life of the home ~s around the mother, is centred on her. 2 think about all sides of (a problem, etc): revolving a problem in one's mind.

re-volver /rɪ'vɒlvə(r)/ n [C] pistol with a revolving mechanism that makes it possible to fire it a number of times without reloading.

re-vue /rɪ'vju:/ n [C] theatrical entertainment which consists of dialogue, dance and song, usually making fun of current events, people etc; [U] this form of entertainment: to appear/perform in ~.

re-vul-sion /rɪ'vʌlʃn/ n [U] (often with a, an) sudden and complete change of feeling to hatred or opposition: a ~ against slavery.

re-ward /rɪ'wɔ:d/ n 1 [U] recompense for service or merit: work without hope of any ~. 2 [C] that which is offered, given or obtained in return for work or services, or the restoration of lost or stolen property, the capture of a criminal, etc: offer a ~ of £10 for information about a stolen necklace. □ vt give a reward to: ~ a man for his honesty.

re-wire /ˌrɪ:'waɪə(r)/ vt provide, eg a building, with new wiring (for electric current).

re-word /ˌrɪ:'wɔ:d/ vt express again in different words: If we ~ the telegram we can save one-third of the cost.

re-write /ˌrɪ:'raɪt/ vt write again in a different style, etc.

rex /reks/ n (abbr R) reigning king. ⇨ Regina.

rhap-so-dize (also -ise) /ˌræpsədaɪz/ vi talk or write with great enthusiasm: ~ over Previn's conducting.

rhap-sody /ˌræpsədi/ n [C] (pl -ies) 1 enthusiastic expression of delight (in speech, poetry, etc): Everyone went into rhapsodies over Olivier's performance as Othello. 2 (music) composition in irregular form: Liszt's Hungarian Rhapsodies.

rhet-oric /ˈretərɪk/ n [U] 1 (art of) using words impressively in speech and writing. 2 language with much ornamentation (often with the implication of insincerity and exaggeration): the ~ of politicians.

rhe-tori-cal /rɪ'tɔrɪkl/ US: -tɔr- / adj in a style designed to impress or persuade; artificial or exaggerated in language.

rhetorical question, one asked for the sake of effect, to impress people, no answer being needed or expected.

rhe-tori-cally /-klɪ/ adv

rheu-matic /ru:'mætɪk/ adj relating to, causing, caused by, suffering from, rheumatism: ~ fever, serious form of rheumatism, chiefly in children. □ n [C] person who suffers from rheumatism.

rheu-ma-tism /ru:'mætɪzəm/ n [U] (kinds of) painful disease with stiffness and inflammation of the muscles and joints.

rheu-ma-toid /ru:'mætɔɪd/ adj of rheumatism: ~ arthritis.

rhinal /ˈraɪnəl/ adj (anat) of the nose or nostrils.

rhino /ˈraɪnəʊ/ n [C] (pl ~s, or, collectively, ~) (informal) (abbr of) rhinoceros.

rhi-noc-eros /raɪ'nɒsərəs/ n [C] (pl ~es or, collectively, ~) thick-skinned, heavy animal of Africa and Asia with one or two horns on the nose.

rhomb-oid /ˈrɒmbɔɪd/ adj of the shape of a rhombus. □ n [C] rhombus with only its opposite sides equal.

rhomb-us /ˈrɒmbəs/ n [C] (pl ~es) four-sided figure with equal sides, and angles which are not right angles (eg diamond or lozenge shape).

rhu-barb /ru:'bɑ:b/ n [U] 1 (garden plant with) thick, pink stalks which are cooked and eaten like fruit. 2 (informal) noisy talk of many speakers; confused discussion.

rhyme (US also rim) /raɪm/ n 1 [U] sameness of sound of the endings of two or more words at the ends of lines of verse, eg say, play; measure, pleasure; puff, rough. without rhyme or reason, without meaning or explanation. 2 [C] word which provides a rhyme: Is there a ~ to/for 'hiccups'? 3 [C] verse or verses with rhyme. ⇨ nursery rhyme. 4 [U] the use of rhyme: The story should be written in ~. □ vi, vi 1 put together to form a rhyme: Can we ~ 'hiccups' with 'pick-ups'? 2 (of words or lines of verse) be in rhyme: 'Ship' doesn't ~ with 'sheep'.

rhyming slang, style of slang using words that rhyme to replace other words, eg a terrible boat-race (= an ugly face).

rhythm /'rɪðəm/ n 1 [U] regular succession of weak and strong stresses, accents, sounds or movements (in speech, music, dancing, etc). 2 [U] regular recurrence of events, processes, etc: the ~ of the tides, their regular rise and fall. 3 [C] particular kind of such regular succession or recurrence.

rhythmic /'rɪðmɪk/, also rhythmical /'rɪðmɪkl/ adj marked by, having, rhythm: the ~ical noise of a typewriter.

rib /rɪb/ n [C] 1 any one of the 12 pairs of bones extending from the backbone round the chest to the front of the body in man; corresponding bone in an animal. 2 (of various things like ribs) vein of a leaf; mark left on sand on the sea-shore by waves. 3 (pattern of a) raised line in a piece of knitting. □ vt (-bb-) 1 supply with, mark off in, ribs: ~bed patterns. 2 (US) (informal) tease.

ribald /'rɪbəld/ adj (dated) (of a person) using indecent or irreverent language or humour; (of language, laughter, etc) coarse: ~ jests/songs. □ n [C] (dated) person who uses such language.

ribaldry /-dri/ n [U] such language.

rib-bon /'rɪbən/ n 1 [C, U] (piece or length of) cotton or other material woven in a long, narrow strip or band, used for ornamenting, for tying things, etc: She had a ~ in her hair. Typewriter ~s provide ink for typing. 2 [C] piece of ribbon of a special design, colour, etc worn to show membership of an order, as a military decoration (when medals are not worn). 3 [C] long, narrow strip: His clothes were hanging in ~s, were very torn or worn.

ribbon-development, (the building of) long lines of houses along main roads leading out of a town.

rice /raɪs/ n [U] (plant with) white grain used as food.

rich /rɪʃ/ adj (-er, -est) 1 having much money or property: ~ people. 2 (of clothes, jewels, furniture, etc) costly; luxurious. 3 rich in, producing or having much or many: a country ~ in minerals. 4 (of food) containing a large proportion of fat, oil, butter, eggs, etc: a ~ fruit cake. 5 (of colours, sounds, etc) full; deep; mellow; strong: the ~ colours of the national flags; the ~ voice of the baritone. □ n the ~, rich people.

rich-ly adv (a) in a rich manner: ~ly dressed. (b) thoroughly; fully: He ~ly deserved the punishment he received.

rich-ness, quality or state of being rich (but not in the sense of 1 above).

riches /'rɪʃɪz/ n pl wealth; being rich: from rags to ~, from poverty to being rich.

rick /rɪk/ n [C] regular stack of hay, straw, corn, etc (in a field). □ vt make (hay, etc) into a rick.

rick-ets /'rɪkɪts/ n pl (used with a sing or pl verb) disease of childhood, marked by softening and malformation of the bones, caused by deficiency of vitamin D as found in fresh food, eg milk, butter.

rick-ety /'rɪkɪti/ adj likely to break and collapse: ~ furniture.

rickshaw /'rɪkʃəʊ/ n [C] two-wheeled carriage for one or two passengers, pulled by a man.

rico-chet /'rɪkəʃet/ US: /'rɪkəʃeɪ/ n [U] movement in a new direction (of a stone, bullet, etc) after hitting the ground, a solid substance or the surface of water; [C] hit made in this way. □ vi, vt (-t- or -tt-) (of a shot, etc) (cause to) rebound or move away sharply: The bullet ~ed off his helmet.

rid /rɪd/ vt (pt, pp rid) make free: ~ oneself of debt/a country of bandits. be/get rid of, be/become free of: These shoes are difficult to get ~ of, eg are difficult to sell.

rid-dance /'rɪdəns/ n [U] (usually good rid-dance) state of being rid of something unwanted or undesirable: Good ~ to bad rubbish, (said of an undesirable thing or person now finished, gone, etc).

riddle 1 /'rɪdl/ n [C] 1 question, statement or description, intended to make a person think hard in order to know the answer or meaning: know the answer to a ~. 2 mysterious person, thing, situation, etc: the ~ of the universe.

riddle 2 /'rɪdl/ n [C] coarse sieve (for stones, earth, gravel, cinders etc). □ vt 1 pass (soil, ashes, etc) through a riddle. 2 make many holes in (something), eg by firing bullets into it: ~ a man with bullets. 3 (pp) (fig) full of: writing ~d with mistakes.

ride 1 /raɪd/ n [C] 1 period of riding; journey on horseback, on a bicycle, bus, etc: It's a ten-penny ~ on the bus. take sb for a ride, (informal) deceive, or humiliate him. 2 road or track for the use of persons on horseback and not for vehicles.

ride 2 /raɪd/ vi, vt (pt rode /rəʊd/, pp ridden /'rɪdn/) 1 sit on a horse, etc and be carried along; sit on a bicycle, etc and cause it to go forward: He jumped on his horse and rode off away. He was riding fast. 2 sit on and control: ~ a horse/pony/bicycle. 3 be in, be carried in, a bus or another (public) vehicle: ~ in a bus/taxi. 4 compete in, on horseback, etc: ~ a race. 5 (allow to) sit or be on something as if on a horse: The boy was riding on his father's shoulders. 6 go out regularly on horseback (as a pastime, for exercise, etc): I've given up riding. 7 go through or over on horseback, etc: ~ the desert. 8 float on: a ship riding the waves; float on water: a ship riding at anchor; be supported by: an albatross riding (on) the wind. ride out a storm, ⇨ storm (3). let sth ride, (informal) take no action on it. 9 ride up, eg of an article of clothing, shift or move upwards.

rider /'raɪdə(r)/ n [C] 1 person who rides, esp one who rides a horse: Miss White is no ~. 2 additional observation following a statement, verdict, etc: The jury added a ~ to their verdict recommending mercy.

ridge /rɪdʒ/ n [C] 1 raised line where two sloping surfaces meet: the ~ of a roof. 2 long mountain range. 3 long, narrow stretch of high land between the tops of a line of hills: a ~ walk, along this high land. 4 (in ploughed land) raised part between two furrows.

ridicule /ˈrɪdɪkjʊl/ n [U] being made fun of; derision: She has become an object of ~. hold sb up to ridicule, make fun of him. □ vi make fun of; cause to appear foolish: Why do you ~ my proposal?

rid-icu-lous /rɪˈdɪkjʊləs/ adj deserving to be laughed at; absurd: You look ~ in that old hat. What a ~ idea! old man!

rid-icu-lous-ly adv

rid-ing-breeches /ˈraɪdɪŋ brɪtʃɪz/ n pl trousers fastened below the knee, worn for riding on horseback.

rife /raɪf/ adj widespread; common: Is superstition still ~ in the country?

riffle /ˈrɪfl/ vt, vi 1 mix playing-cards quickly.

2 turn over (the pages of a book, etc) quickly.

rifle ¹ /ˈraɪfl/ vt cut spiral grooves in (a gun, its barrel or bore). □ n [C] gun with a long barrel, to be fired from the shoulder.

'rifle-range, (a) place where men practise shooting with rifles. (b) distance that a bullet from a rifle will travel: within/out of ~range.

'rifle-man /-mən/, soldier of a regiment using rifles.

rifle ² /ˈraɪfl/ vt search thoroughly in order to steal from: The thief ~d every drawer in the room.

riff /rɪft/ n [C] 1 split or crack: a ~ in the clouds. 2 (fig) disagreement, quarrel, (eg between two (groups of) friends, etc).

'rift-valley, steep-sided valley caused by sinking of the earth's crust.

rig ¹ /rɪɡ/ vt (-gg-) 1 supply (a ship) with masts, rigging, sails, etc; (of a ship) be supplied with these things; prepare for sea in this way. 2 provide (a person) with necessary clothes, equipment, etc: ~ the children out with rainwear. 3 rig sth up. (a) put together or adjust parts (of aircraft, etc). (b) make, put together, quickly or with any materials that may be available: They ~ged up some scaffolding for the workmen. □ n [C] 1 way in which a ship's masts, sails, etc are arranged. 2 equipment put together for a special purpose. ⇨ oil-rig.

'rig-out, (informal) person's clothes, etc: What a queer ~-out!

rig-ging n [U] all the ropes, etc which support a ship's masts and sails.

rig-ger, (a) person who rigs ships, etc. (b) person whose work is to put together and adjust the parts of aircraft, etc.

rig ² /rɪɡ/ vt (-gg-) manage fraudulently for private profit or gain: ~ an election; use dishonest methods to be successful.

right ¹ /raɪt/ adj (1 to 3 contrasted with wrong) 1 (of conduct, etc) just; morally good; required by law or duty: Always do what is ~ and honourable. You were quite ~ to refuse. 2 true; correct; satisfactory: What's the ~ time? Have you got the ~ (= exact) fare? put sth right, restore to order, good health, a good condition, etc: put a watch ~, ie to the correct time. This medicine will put you ~. all right, ⇨ all² (3) and 4 below. 3 most suitable; best in view of the circumstances, etc: Are we on the ~ road? He is the ~ man for the job. Which is the ~ side (ie the side meant to be seen or used) of this cloth? get on the right side of sb, win his support, approval. 4 in healthy condition: Do you feel all ~? not in one's right mind, ⇨ mind¹ (2). right as rain, (informal) perfectly sound or healthy. 5 (of an angle) of 90° (ie neither acute nor obtuse): at ~ angles/at a ~ angle.

'right-minded adj having opinions or principles based on what is right: All ~-minded people will agree with me.

right-ly adv justly; justifiably; correctly; truly: She has been sacked, and ~ly so.

right-ness n [U] right ² /raɪt/ adv 1 straight; directly: Put it ~ in the middle. right away/now, at once, without any delay. 2 all the way (to/round, etc); completely (off/out, etc): Go ~ to the end of this road, and then turn left. There's a fence ~ round the building. The pear was rotten ~ through. The prisoner got ~ away. He turned ~ round. right, left and 'centre, in all directions; everywhere. 3 justly; correctly; satisfactorily; properly: if I remember ~. Right on! (informal) (used to show approval). It serves him right, It is what he deserves, etc.

right ³ /raɪt/ n [U] that which is good, just, honourable, true, etc: know the difference between ~ and wrong. be in the right, have justice and truth on one's side. 2 [U] proper authority or claim; the state of being justly entitled to something. 3 [C] something one may do or have by law, authority, social acceptance, etc: human ~s, ⇨ human. What gives you the ~ to say that? by right(s), if justice were done: The property is not mine by ~(s). in one's own 'right, because of a personal claim, qualification, etc: She's a peeress in her own ~, ie not by marriage. right of way, (a) right of the general public to use a path, road, etc: Is there a ~ of way across these fields? (b) (in road traffic) right to proceed before others: It's my ~ of way, so that lorry must stop or slow down until I've passed it. 4 (pl) true state: set/put things to rights, put them in order; give an accurate explanation.

right ⁴ /raɪt/ vt put, bring or come back, into the right or an upright condition: The ship ~ed herself after the big wave had passed.

right⁶ /raɪt/ adj (contrasted with left) of the side of the body which is toward the east when a person faces north: my ~ hand/leg. In Great Britain traffic keeps to the left, not the ~, side of the road. □ adv to the right hand or side: He looked neither ~ nor left. Eyes ~! (used as a military command). □ n [U] 1 side or direction on one's right hand: Take the first turning to the ~. 2 (politics) the R~, ⇨ Right Wing: members of the R~.

right-about ('turn/'face), right turn continued until one is facing in the opposite direction.

right-handed adj (of a person) using the right hand more, or more easily, than the left.

right-turn, turn into a position at right angles (90°) with the original one.

(the) right (wing), conservative or reactionary political group(s), party or parties: (as an adjective) ~wing demonstrators.

right-ist /-ɪst/ n member of a right-wing political party. □ adj of such a party: ~ist sympathizers.

right-eous /'raɪtʃəs/ adj 1 doing what is morally right; obeying the law. 2 morally justifiable: ~ anger.

right-eous-ly adv

right-eous-ness n [U] right-ful /'raɪtfl/ adj 1 according to law and justice: the ~ owner of the land. 2 (of actions, etc) fair; justifiable.

right-fully /-fəli/ adv rigid /'rɪdʒɪd/ adj 1 stiff; that cannot be bent: a ~ support for a tent. 2 firm; strict; not changing; not to be changed: a ~ disciplinarian; practise ~ economy.

rigid-ly adv

rig-id-ity /'rɪdʒɪdɪti/ n [U] 1 inflexibility: the ~ of his religious beliefs. 2 strictness.

rig-ma-role /'rɪgmərəʊl/ n [C] long, incoherent account or description.

rigor mor-tis /'raɪgə: 'mɔ:tɪs/ US; /'rɪgər/ n (Latin) the stiffening of the muscles after death.

rig-or-ous /'rɪgərəs/ adj 1 stern; strict; determined: a ~ search for drugs. 2 harsh; severe: a ~ climate.

rig-or-ous-ly adv

rig-our (US = rigor) /'rɪgə(r)/ n 1 [U] sternness; strict enforcement (of rules, etc): use the ~ of the law. 2 (often pl) severe conditions: the ~s of prison life.

rile /raɪl/ vt (informal) annoy; cause anger in: It ~d him that no one believed him.

rim /rɪm/ n [C] circular edge of the framework of a wheel, round the lenses of spectacles, etc; edge, border or margin of something circular: the ~ of a cup/bowl. □ vt (-mm-) provide with a rim; be a rim for.

rind /raɪnd/ n [U] hard, outside skin or covering (of some fruits, eg melons, or of bacon and cheese); [C] piece or strip of this skin.

ring¹ /rɪŋ/ n [C] 1 circular band worn round a finger as an ornament, or as a token: an en-gagement ~; a 'wedding ~; similar band for other parts of the body: an 'ear~. 2 circular band of any kind of material, eg metal, wood, ivory: a 'key~, one for carrying keys on. 3 circle: a ~ of light round the moon; the ~s of a tree, seen in wood when the trunk is cut across, showing the tree's age. make/rum rings round sb, argue, do things, better than he does. 4 combination of persons (traders, politicians, etc) working together for their own advantage, eg to keep prices up or down, to control policy: a ~ of dealers at a public auction. 5 (also 'circus-~), circular enclosure or space for circus performances. 6 roped area for a boxing-match. □ vt, vi (pt, pp ~ed) 1 surround: ~ed about with enemies. 2 put a ring in the nose of (a bull, etc) or on the leg of (a bird, eg a homing pigeon). 3 make, draw, a ring round (something), eg with a pencil.

'ring-finger, third finger of the left hand.

'ring-leader, person who leads others in a rising against authority.

'ring-master, man who directs performances in a circus.

'ring road, road round, and through the outskirts of, a large town, for the use of traffic passing through.

'ring-side, place near to the ring of a circus, a boxing-ring, etc: have a ~side seat, be favourably placed for seeing an event, etc.

'ring-worm, contagious skin disease, esp of children, producing round, red patches.

ring² /rɪŋ/ vt, vi (pt rang /ræŋ/, pp rung /rʌŋ/) 1 give out a clear, musical sound as when metal vibrates: How long has that telephone (bell) been ~ing? 2 produce a certain effect when heard. ring 'true, seem sincere. 3 cause a bell to sound, as a summons, warning, etc: She rang for the porter. 4 cause something, esp a bell, to ring: ~ the church bells; ~ the bell for the steward. ring a bell, (informal) bring something vaguely back to mind: Ah! That name ~s a bell! 5 resound; echo: The children's playground rang with happy shouts. A shot rang out, The noise of a gun, etc was heard. 6 stay in one's hearing or memory: His last words are still ~ing in my ears. 7 ring (up), get into communication by telephone: I'll ~ you (up) this evening. (US = call (up).) ring off, end a telephone conversation. 8 (of a chime of bells) announce (the hour, etc); strike the hours. 9 give a signal by ringing a bell, etc: Did the cyclist ~ his bell? ring the alarm, give one by ringing. ring the changes (on), (fig) put or arrange things, do things, in as many different ways as possible. ring the curtain up/down, (in a theatre) give the signal for it to be raised/lowered. 10 ring up, record (a slae) on a cash-register. □ n 1 (sing only) sound produced by a bell or piece of metal when it is struck: This coin has a good ~. 2 (sing only) loud and clear sound: the ~ of happy voices. 3 (sing only) effect of sincerity, etc: There was a ~ of truth in his statement. 4 [C] act of ringing; sound of a bell: There was a ~ at the door. I'll give you a ~ this evening, will telephone you.

'ringing tone, sound heard on a telephone when there is a connection with the number that has been dialled.

ring-let /'rɪŋlɪt/ n [C] small curl of hair: She arranged her hair in ~s.

rink /rɪŋk/ n [C] specially prepared area of ice for skating or hockey, or floor for roller-skating.

rinse /rɪns/ vt 1 wash with clean water in order to remove unwanted substances, etc: rinse soap out of the clothes; ~ the clothes; ~ (out) the mouth, eg while being treated by a dentist. 2 rinse sth down, help (food) down with a drink: R~ it down with a glass of beer. □ n [C] 1 act of rinsing: Give your hair a good ~ after you've used shampoo. 2 solution for tinting the hair: the blue ~ used by some elderly women.

riot /'raɪət/ n 1 [C] violent outburst of lawlessness: R~s during the election were dealt with/put down by the police. 2 [U] noisy, uncontrolled behaviour, eg by students celebrating, etc. run riot, (a) lose all discipline. (b) (of plants) be out of control by growing fast and in wrong places. 3 (sing only, with a, an) great supply: The flowerbeds in the park were a ~ of colour. 4 (sing only) unrestrained display of something: a ~ of emotion. □ vi 1 take part in a riot(1,2): They were ~ing all night after the elections. 2 riot in, indulge or revel (in): The tyrant ~ed in cruelty.

rioter, person who riots.

riotous /-əs/ adj likely to cause a riot; disorderly; running wild: a ~ous assembly; ~ous behaviour.

riotous-ly adv

rip /rɪp/ vt, vi (-pp-) 1 pull, tear or cut (something) quickly and with force (to get it off, out, open, etc): ~ open a letter; ~ off the cover; ~ out (= remove) worn bricks and replace them: ~ a pocket. 2 (of material) tear; be ripped. 3 go forward, rush along. Let her/it rip, (informal) (of a boat, car, machine, etc) allow it to go at its maximum speed. let things rip, let things take their natural course. 4 rip off sb/sth, (sl) rob; steal: ~ off books from the library. Hence 'rip-off n instance of robbing or stealing. □ n [C] torn place; long cut: bad ~s in my tent.

'rip-cord, cord which, when pulled during a descent, releases a parachute from its pack.

'rip-saw, saw used for ripping(2).

ripe /raɪp/ adj (-r, -st) 1 (of fruit, grain, etc) ready to be gathered and used: ~ fruit; cherries not ~ enough to eat. 2 matured and ready to be eaten or drunk: ~ cheese/wine. 3 fully developed: a person of ~(r) years, past the stage of youth. 4 ripe for, ready, fit, prepared: land that is ~ for development, eg for building houses or factories. when the time is ripe, at the most suitable moment.

ripe-ly adv

ripe-ness n [U]

ripen /'raɪpən/ vt, vi make or become ripe.

ri-poste /rɪ'pɒst/ n [C] 1 quick return or thrust in fencing. 2 (formal) quick, sharp reply or retort. □ vi deliver a riposte.

ripple /'rɪpl/ n [C] (sound of) small movement(s) on the surface of water, etc, eg made by a gentle wind, or of soft voices or laughter: A long ~ of laughter passed through the audience. □ vt, vi (cause to) move in ripples; (cause to) rise and fall gently: The wheat ~d in the breeze.

rip-tide /'rɪp taɪd/ n [C] tide causing strong currents and rough water.

rise ¹ /raɪz/ n [C] 1 small hill; upward slope: on the ~ of a hill; a ~ in the ground. 2 increase (in value, temperature, etc): a ~ in prices; have a ~ in wages (US = raise). 3 upward progress: a ~ in social position; the ~ and fall of the tide. 4 (literary) coming up (of the sun, etc): at ~ of the sun/day, (more usually sunrise). 5 movement of fish to the surface of water: I fished two hours without getting a ~. take the rise out of sb, tease him. 6 origin; start: The river has/takes its ~ among the hills. give rise to, be the cause of; suggest: Such conduct might give ~ to misunderstandings.

riser, (a) an early/late ~r, person who gets up early/late. (b) vertical part of a step, connecting two treads of a staircase.

rise ² /raɪz/ vi (pt rose /'raʊz/, pp risen /'rɪzn/) 1 (of the sun, moon, stars) appear above the horizon: The sun ~s in the East. ⇨ set ² (1). 2 get up from a lying, sitting or kneeling position: The wounded man fell and was too weak to ~. The horse rose on its hind legs. 3 get out of bed; get up (which is more usual): He ~s very early. 4 come to life (again): Jesus Christ rose (again) from the dead. He looked as though he had ~n from the grave. 5 go, come, up or higher; reach a high(er) level or position: The river/flood has ~n a metre. His voice rose in anger/excitement, became high, louder. Prices continue to ~. The temperature is rising. New office blocks are rising in our town. ⇨ high-rise. 6 come to the surface: Bubbles rose from the bottom of the lake. 7 slope upwards: rising ground. 8 have as a starting-point: Where does the Nile ~? 9 become or be visible above the surroundings: A range of hills rose on our left. 10 develop greater intensity: The wind is rising. 11 reach a higher position in society; make progress (in one's profession, etc): ~ in the world; a rising politician/lawyer. 12 (of meetings, etc) cease to be held: Parliament will

~ on Thursday next, will stop for a recess. 13 rise to the occasion, ⇨ occasion(1). 14 rise up against, rebel (against the government, etc).

ris-ing, (esp) armed rebellion. ⇨ uprising.

risk /rɪsk/ n 1 [C, U] (instance of a) possibility or chance of meeting danger, suffering loss, injury, etc: There's no/not much ~ of injury if you obey the rules. at risk, threatened by uncertainties (such as failure, loss, etc): Is the Government's income policy seriously at ~? at one's own risk, accepting responsibility, agreeing to make no claims, for loss, injury, etc. at the risk of; at risk to, with the possibility of loss, etc: He was determined to get there even at the ~ of his life. run a/the risk of; take risks, put oneself in a position where there is risk: She's too sensible to take ~s when she's driving. He was ready to run the ~ of being taken prisoner by the enemy. 2 [C] amount for which a person or thing is insured; the person or thing insured: He's a good/poor ~. □ vt 1 expose to risk: ~ one's health in the jungle. risk one's neck, ⇨ neck(1). 2 take the chances of: We mustn't ~ getting caught in a storm.

risky adj (-ier, -iest) full of danger: a ~y undertaking.

ri-sotto /rɪ'zɒtəʊ/ n [U] dish of rice cooked with butter, cheese, onions, etc.

ris-qué /'rɪskeɪ/ US: rɪ'skeɪ/ adj (of a story, remark, situation in a drama, etc) likely to be considered indecent.

ris-sole /'rɪsəʊl/ n [C] small, fried, ball of minced meat, fish, etc.

rite /raɪt/ n [C] ceremony (esp in religious services): burial ~s.

rit-ual /'rɪtʃʊəl/ n 1 [U] all the rites or forms connected with a ceremony; way of conducting a religious service: the ~ of the Catholic Church; [C] particular form of ritual. 2 [C] any procedure regularly followed, as if it were a ritual: He went through his usual ~ of cutting and lighting his cigar. 3 (pl) ceremonial observances. □ adj of religious rites; done as a rite: the ~ dances of an African tribe.

ri-val /'raɪvl/ n [C] person who competes with another (because he wants the same thing, or to be or do better than the other): 'business ~s; ~s in love; (as an adjective) ~ business firms. □ vt (-ll-, US also -l-) be a rival of; claim to be (almost) as good as: Can cricket ~ football in excitement?

ri-valry /'raɪvlrɪ/ n [C, U] (pl -ies) (instance of) being rivals: the ~ries between the political parties.

river /'rɪvə(r)/ n [C] 1 natural stream of water flowing in a channel to the sea or to a lake, etc or joining another river: the R~ Thames. sell sb down the river, (fig) betray him. 2 great flow: a ~ of lava; ~s of blood, great bloodshed (as in war).

'river-basin, area drained by a river and its tributaries.

'river-bed, ground over which a river flows.

'river-side, ground along a river bank: a ~side walk.

rivet /'rɪvɪt/ n [C] metal pin or bolt for fixing metal plates (eg in a ship's sides), the plain end being hammered flat to prevent slipping. □ vt 1 fasten with rivets; flatten (the end of a bolt) to make it secure. 2 (fig) fix or concentrate (one's eyes, attention) on: He ~ed his eyes on the scene. 3 hold (attention, etc): Some television documentaries are ~ing, of great interest.

rivu-let /'rɪvjuːlət/ n [C] small stream.

road /rəʊd/ n [C] 1 specially prepared way between places for the use of vehicles, pedestrians, etc: travel by ~; (as an adjective) a ~map of Great Britain; ~ accidents. R~ works in progress, the road is under construction or repair. 2 (in proper names) (a) (with the) name of a road leading to the town, etc named: the Oxford R~, leading to Oxford. (b) (without the, usually abbr to Rd) street of buildings: 35 York Rd, London, SW. 3 one's way or route: You're in the/my ~, obstructing me. 4 road to, way of getting: Is too much drinking the ~ to ruin?

'road-block, barricade built across a road to stop or slow down traffic (eg by police to catch an escaped prisoner).

'road-hog, motorist who is inconsiderate of others.

'road-house, building(s) on a main road, often with facilities for meals, etc used by people who travel by car.

road 'safety, safety from road accidents.

'road-sense, capacity for intelligent behaviour on roads: Harry/Harry's dog has no ~ sense.

'road-side, ground along the side of a road.

'road-way, (usually with the) central part used by vehicles: Dogs should be kept off the ~way.

'road-worthy adj (of a motor-vehicle, etc) fit for use on the roads.

roam /rəʊm/ vi, vt walk or travel without any definite aim or destination over or through (a country, etc): ~ about the world/~ the seas.

roar /rɔ:(r)/ n [C] loud, deep sound as of a lion, of thunder, of a person in pain, etc: the ~s of a tiger; the ~ of London's traffic; ~s of laughter. □ vi, vt 1 make such loud, deep sounds: lions ~ing in the distance; ~ with laughter/pain. Several lorries ~ed past. 2 say, sing, loudly: ~ out an order/a drinking song; ~ oneself hoarse, make oneself hoarse by roaring.

roar-ing adj (a) noisy; rough. (b) stormy: the ~ing forties, part of the Atlantic between 40° and 50° N latitude, often very stormy. (c) lively; healthy: do a ~ing trade. □ adv (informal) extremely: ~ing drunk.

roast /rəʊst/ vt, vi 1 (of meat, potatoes, etc) cook, be cooked, in a hot oven, or over or in front of a hot fire: ~ a joint. The meat was ~ing in the oven. 2 expose for warmth to heat of, some kind: ~ oneself by the fire; lie in the sun and ~. □ adj that has been roasted: ~ beef. □ n 1 [C] joint of roasted meat; [U] slices from such a joint: ~ and vegetables. 2 [C] operation of roasting.

rob /rɒb/ vt (-bb-) 1 deprive (a person) of his property; take property from (a place) unlawfully (and often by force): The bank was ~bed last night. I was ~bed of my watch. (Note: compare - I had my watch stolen.) 2 deprive a person of (what is due to him, etc): be ~bed of the rewards of one's labour.

rob-ber, person who robs: a bank-~ber.

rob-bery /'rɒbəri/ n [C, U] (pl -ries) (instance of) robbing: ~ with violence. daylight 'robbery, (informal) obvious charging of excessive prices.

robe /rəʊb/ n [C] 1 long, loose dress: a 'bath~. 2 (US) = dress-gown. 3 (often pl) long, loose gown worn as a sign of rank or office: magistrates/judges in their black ~s. □ vt put a robe on: professors ~d in their academic gowns.

robin /'rɒbɪn/ n [C] small, brownish bird with red breast-feathers.

ro-bot /'rəʊbɒt/ n [C] 1 machine made to act like a man. 2 (S Africa) set of traffic-lights.

ro-bust /rəʊ'bʌst/ adj strong, active; fit, healthy: a ~ young man; a ~ appetite.

ro-bust-ly adv

rock¹ /rɒk/ n 1 [U] solid stony part of the earth's crust: a house built on ~. 2 [C, U] mass of rock standing out from the earth's surface or from the sea. as firm/solid as a rock, (a) that cannot be moved. (b) (fig) (of persons) reliable; dependable. on the rocks, (a) (fig) (of a person) very short of money. (b) (of a marriage) likely to end in divorce or separation. (c) (US) (of spirits(13)) served with ice-cubes. 3 [C] large stone or boulder: ~ s rolling down the side of a mountain; (US) = stone(2). 4 [U] (GB) length of hard, sticky sweet.

rock-'bottom, lowest point: His morale has reached ~-bottom; (as an adjective) ~-bottom 'prices.

'rock-cake, small cake or bun with a hard, rough surface.

'rock-climbing, the climbing of rocky mountain-sides (with the help of ropes, etc).

'rock-crystal, natural transparent quartz.

'rock-garden, area of ground with stones and rock-plants growing among them.

'rock-plant, kinds of small plant able to grow among stones, esp in rock-gardens.

'rock-'salmon, (trade name for) dogfish.

'rock-salt, common salt as found in mines in crystal form.

rock-ery, = rock-garden.

rock² /rɒk/ vi, vi (cause to) sway or swing backwards and forwards, or from side to side: ~ a baby to sleep. The town was ~ed by an earthquake. rock the boat, (fig) do something that upsets the smooth progress of an undertaking, etc.

rock-er, (a) one of the curved pieces of wood on which a rocking-chair or rocking-horse rests. (b) = rocking-chair. (c) off one's rocker, (sl) crazy; mad.

'rock-ing-chair, one fitted with rockers on which it rests.

'rock-ing-horse, wooden horse with rockers for a child to ride on.

rock³ /rɒk/ n [U] highly rhythmic popular music for dancing, played on electric guitars. □ vi dance to this music.

rock-'n-roll /rɒk ən 'rəʊl/ n [U] (also rock and roll) = rock³.

rocket /'rɒkɪt/ n 1 [C] tube-shaped case filled with fast-burning material, which launches itself into the air (a firework, a signal of distress, or a self-propelled projectile or missile) (as used to launch a spacecraft): ~ propulsion. 2 (informal) severe scolding: get/give him a ~. □ vi go up fast like a rocket: (informal) Prices are ~ing.

'rocket-base, military base for missiles.

'rocket-range, area used for experiments with missiles.

rock-etry /-tri/ n [U] (art or science of) using rockets for space missiles, etc.

rocky /'rɒki/ adj (-ier, -iest) 1 of rock, full of rocks; hard like rock: a ~ road; ~ soil. 2 (informal) unstable; insecure: The table is rather ~. His business is very ~.

rod /rɒd/ n [C] 1 thin, straight piece of wood or metal: a 'fishing-~. 2 stick used for punishing. make a rod for one's own 'back, make trouble for oneself. 3 (US) (sl) = revolver. 4 measure of length equal to 5½ yds. 5 metal bar; shaft, etc: a 'piston-~.

rode /rəʊd/ pt of ride².

ro-dent /'rəʊdənt/ n [C] animal, eg a rat, rabbit, squirrel or beaver, which gnaws things with its strong teeth specially adapted for this purpose.

ro-deo /'rəʊdiəʊ/ n [C] (pl ~s) 1 (on the plains of Western US) rounding up of cattle. 2 contest of skill in lassoing cattle, riding untamed horses, etc.

roe¹ /rəʊ/ n [C, U] (hard ~) (mass of) eggs in a female fish; (soft ~) sperm-filled gland of a male fish.

roe² /rəʊ/ n [C] (pl ~s or, collectively, ~) small kind of European and Asiatic deer.

'roe-buck, male roe.

Roent-gen /'rɒntʃən/ US: 'rentgən/ ⇨ X-rays.

ro-ga-tion /rəʊ'geɪʃn/ n [C] (usually pl) litany of the saints chanted on the three days before Ascension Day.

rogue /rəʊg/ n [C] 1 (old use) vagabond. 2 scoundrel; rascal.

ro-guery /'rəʊgəri/ n (pl -ies) (a) [C,U] (instance of) the conduct of a rogue. (b) [U] playful mischief; (pl) mischievous acts.

role, rôle /rəʊl/ n [C] 1 actor's part in a play: play the 'title-~ in 'Hamlet', play the part of Hamlet. 2 person's task or duty in an undertaking: What is your new ~ on the Committee?

roll¹ /rəʊl/ n [C] 1 something made into the shape of a cylinder by being rolled: a ~ of carpet/photographic film; a man with ~s of fat on his neck; a sausage ~, a sausage rolled in pastry and then baked; a bread ~, small loaf of bread. 2 turned-back edge: a ~ collar, large collar made by turning back the edge of the material. 3 rolling movement: The slow, steady ~ of the ship made us sick. 4 official list or record, esp of names. call the roll, read the names (to check who is present and who absent). Hence, 'roll-call n. 5 rolling sound: the distant ~ of thunder/drums.

roll² /rəʊl/ vi, vi (For special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions, ⇨ 11 below.) 1 (cause to) move along on wheels or by turning over and over: The brakes failed and the car ~ed down the hill. The coin fell and ~ed under the table. The bicycle hit me and sent me ~ing/ ~ed me over. He ~ed (= wrapped by turning over) himself (up) in the blanket. 2 make into the shape of a ball or a cylinder: R ~ the string/wool into a ball. ~ed into one, combined in one person: She's mother and father ~ed into one, eg of a widow. 3 come or go in a wavy or rolling motion: The clouds ~ed away as the sun rose higher. The years ~ed on/by, passed. The tears were ~ing (= flowing) down her cheeks. 4 turn about in various directions: a dog ~ing on the ground. 5 make or become flat, level or smooth by pressing with a rolling cylinder of wood metal, etc or by passing between two such cylinders: ~ a lawn; ~ a road flat. roll sth out, flatten it by rolling: ~ out pastry. 6 (cause to) sway or move from side to side: The ship was ~ing heavily. The drunken man ~ed up to me. 7 (of surfaces) have long slopes that rise and fall: miles and miles of ~ing country. 8 move, be moved, on wheels: lorries ~ing down the hill; ~ a piano into the corner. 9 make, say, be said with, long, deep, vibrating or echoing sounds: The thunder ~ed in the distance. roll one's r's, utter them with the tongue making a rapid succession of taps against the palate. 10 (of the eyes) (cause to) change direction with a rotary motion: His eyes ~ed strangely when the stone hit his head.

11 (special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions):

roll sth back, cause to retreat, eg enemy forces.

roll in, come, arrive, in large numbers or quantities: Offers of help are ~ing in. be 'rol- ling in, (a) have large quantities of: He's ~ing in money. (b) be living in: ~ing in luxury.

roll into, form into by rolling: Hedgehogs can ~ into balls. ⇨ roll up.

roll on, (a) be capable of being put on by rolling. (b) (of time) pass steadily: Time ~ed on. (c) (of time, chiefly imperative) come soon: R~ on the day when I retire! roll sth on, put on by rolling over a part of the body: She ~ed her tights on.

roll up, (a) form into a cylinder or ball: The cat ~ed up into a ball. He ~ed up his sleeves. (b) arrive (in a vehicle); join a group: Two or three latecomers ~ed up. R~ up! R~ up!, (used eg to call possible customers to a street stall).

roller /'rəʊlə(r)/ n [C] 1 cylinder-shaped object of wood, metal, rubber, etc, usually part of a machine, for pressing, smoothing, crushing, printing, etc: a 'garden-~, for use on a lawn; a 'road-~, used for making roads level. 2 cylinder of wood, metal, etc placed beneath an object to make movement easy, or round which something may be rolled easily: a ~ blind, on which a window blind is rolled; a ~ towel, a loop of towel on a roller. 3 long, rolling wave.

'roller-skate, (also a pair of ~-skates) skate with wheels for use on a smooth surface.

roll-ing- /'rəʊlɪŋ/ prefix (using rotatory motion).

'rolling-pin, cylinder of wood for rolling pastry, etc.

'rolling-stock, all the carriages and wagons belonging to a railway.

'rolling-'stone, person who is unsettled, uncommitted. ⇨ moss.

roly-poly /'rəʊli 'pəʊli/ n [C] (pl -ies) (GB) (also ~ 'pudding) pudding made of pastry spread with jam, etc formed into a roll and boiled.

Roman /'rəʊmən/ adj 1 of Rome, esp ancient Rome: the ~ Empire. 2 R~, (esp) = Roman Catholic. n 1 citizen of ancient Rome; (pl) Christians of ancient Rome. 2 Roman Catholic.

'Roman 'Catholic n, adj (member) of the Christian group which has the Pope as its head.

'roman 'numeral, I, IV, XL, M, etc.

'roman 'letter/'type, upright kind like this, not italic.

ro-mance /rə'mæns/ n 1 [C] story or novel of adventure; love story. 2 [U] class of literature consisting of love stories. 3 [C] R~, medieval story, usually in verse, relating the adventures of some hero of chivalry. 4 [C] experience, esp a love-affair, considered to be remarkable or worth description: I still remember my teenage ~s. 5 [U] mental tendency which welcomes stories of the marvellous, etc; the qualities characteristic of stories of life and adventure:

travel abroad in search of ~.

Ro-mance /rə'mæns/ adj Romance language, French, Italian, Spanish, Portuguese, Rumanian, etc developed from Latin.

ro-man-tic /rə'mæntik/ adj 1 (of persons) having ideas, feelings, etc remote from experience and real life given to romance (1, 4, 5): a ~ girl. 2 of, like, suggesting, romance: ~ music/situations/adventures/tales/scenes; a ~ old castle. 3 (in art, literature and music) marked by feeling rather than by intellect; preferring passion, beauty, to order and proportion (opp of classic and classical): the ~ poets, eg Shelley, Keats. \square n [C] person with romantic (1, 3) ideals.

ro-man-ti-cally /-kli/ adv

ro-man-ti-cism /-sizəm/ n [U] romantic or imaginative tendency in literature, art and music (contrasted with realism and classicism).

ro-man-ti-cist /-sist/ n [C] follower of romanticism.

ro-man-ti-cize (also -ise) /-saiz/ vt, vi treat in a romantic way; use a romantic style in writing, etc.

romp /rɒmp/ vi 1 (esp of children) play about, esp running, jumping and being noisy. 2 win, succeed, quickly or without apparent effort: The favourite (horse) ~ed home, won easily. John ~s through his examinations, passes them easily. \square n [C] period of romping: have a ~.

rom-pers, loose-fitting article of clothing with legs, worn by a child: a pair of ~ers; a ~er suit.

roof /ru:f/ n [C] (pl ~s) 1 top covering of a building, tent, bus, car, etc: How can you live under the same ~ as that woman, in the same building? raise the roof, (informal) \Rightarrow raise (3). 2 the ~ of heaven, the sky: the ~ of the world, a high mountain range; the ~ of the mouth, the palate. \square vt (pp ~ed /ru:ft/) supply with a roof; be a roof for: a shed ~ed over with strips of bark.

roof-ing, material used for roofs (eg slates, tiles).

rook¹ /ruk/ n [C] large black bird like a crow.

rook-ery /-əri/, (a) place (a group of trees) where many rooks have their nests. (b) colony of penguins or seals.

rook² /ruk/ n [C] person who makes money by cheating when gambling. \square vi 1 win money from (a person) at cards, etc by cheating. 2 charge (a customer) a ridiculously high price.

rook³ /ruk/ n [C] chess piece (also called a castle).

room /ru:m/ US: ru:m/ n 1 [C] part of a house or other buildings enclosed by walls and a ceiling. 2 (pl) apartment: Come and see me in my ~s one evening. 3 [U] space that is or might be occupied, or that is enough for a purpose: Is there ~ for me in the car? This table takes up too much ~. make room (for), make enough space (for): Can you make ~ on that shelf for some more books? 4 [U] scope; opportunity: There's ~ for improvement in your work. It is not as good as it could be; There's no ~ for doubt. \square vi (US) occupy a room or rooms: He's ~ing with my friend Smith.

'room-mate, one of two or more persons sharing a room or apartment.

room-ful /-ful/, amount (of furniture, etc), number of persons, that a room can hold.

roomy adj (-ier, -iest) having plenty of space: a ~y cabin.

-roomed /rɒmd/ US: ru:md/ suffix: a six-~ed house, having six rooms.

roost /ru:st/ n [C] branch, pole, etc on which a bird rests, esp one for hens to sleep or rest on; hen-house. come home to roost, affect the person responsible: Her extravagance came home to ~ a month later. rule the roost, be the leader or master. \square vi (of birds or persons) settle down for the night's sleep.

rooster /'ru:stə(r)/ n [C] domestic cock.

root¹ /ru:t/ n [C] 1 that part of a plant, tree, etc which is normally in the soil and which takes water and food from it: pull up a plant by the ~s. take/strike roots, (a) (eg of a cutting) send out roots. (b) (fig) become established.

root and branch, (fig) thoroughly; completely: These evil practices must be destroyed ~ and branch. 2 (pl) = root crop. 3 that part of a hair, tooth, the tongue, a finger-nail, etc that is like a root in position, function, etc. 4 (fig) basis; source: He has no ~s in society, is not settled, does not belong to any particular group or place. Is money the ~ of all evil? get at/to the root of sth, deal with (the problem) at its source. pull up one's roots, (fig) move from a home, job, etc to start a new life elsewhere. put down new roots, (fig) settle in another place after leaving a place where one has been established. 5 (gram) (also base form) form of a word on which other forms of that word are based: 'Walk' is the ~ of 'walks', 'walked', 'walking', and 'walker'. 6 (maths) quantity which, when multiplied by a certain number of times, produces another quantity: 4 is the square ~ of 16 and the cube ~ of 64.

'root beer, (US) non-alcoholic drink made from roots.

the root cause, fundamental, basic cause.

'root crop, plant with a root used as food.

'root sign, (maths) the symbol $\sqrt{\quad}$.

root-less adj (a) having no roots (1). (b) (of a person) without roots in society.

root² /ru:t/ vt, vi 1 (of plants, cuttings, etc) (cause to) send out roots and begin to grow: Some cuttings ~ easily. 2 cause to stand fixed and unmoving: He stood there ~ed to the spot. 3 (chiefly in pp) (of ideas, principles, etc) establish firmly: She has a ~ed objection to cold baths. Her affection for him is deeply ~ed. 4 root sth out, get rid of (an evil, etc).

root² /ru:t/ vi, vt 1 root about (for), (a) (of pigs) turn up the ground with the snout in search of food. (b) (of persons) search for; turn things over when searching: ~ing about among piles of papers for a missing document. root sth out, find by searching: I managed to ~ out a copy of the document. 2 (US sl) cheer: ~ing for the baseball team.

rope /rəʊp/ n 1 [C, U] (piece or length of) thick strong cord or wire cable made by twisting finer cords or wires together. give sb (plenty of) rope, (fig) freedom of action. give sb enough rope to hang himself, leave him to bring about his own ruin. 2 the ~s, those round a boxing-ring or other place used for sport or games. know/learn/show sb the ropes, the conditions, the rules, the procedure (of an action). 3 [C] number of things twisted, strung or threaded together: a ~ of onions. □ vt 1 fasten or bind with rope: roping climbers together, connect them with a rope for safety. 2 rope sth off, enclose with a rope: Part of the field was ~d off. 3 rope sb in, persuade him to help in some activity.

'rope-ladder, ladder made of two long ropes connected by rungs of rope.

ropey /'rəʊpi/ adj (sl) very poor in quality.

ro-sary /'rəʊzəri/ n [C] (pl -ies) 1 form of prayer used in the RC Church; book containing this. 2 string of beads for keeping count of these prayers.

rose¹ /rəʊz/ pt ⇨ rise².

rose² /rəʊz/ n 1 [C] (shrub or bush with prickles or thorns on its stems and bearing a) colourful and usually sweet-smelling flower. a bed of roses, a pleasant, easy condition of life. (be) not all roses, not perfect; having some discomfort and disadvantages. 2 [U] pinkish-red colour. see things through rose-coloured/-tinted spectacles, be very optimistic. 3 (of various things thought to be like a rose in shape) (a) sprinkling nozzle of a watering can or hose. (b) rosette. (c) the national emblem of England.

'rose-bed, flowerbed in which roses are grown.

'rose-bud, bud of a rose.

'rose-'red adj red like a rose.

'rose-water, perfume made from roses.

'rose window, ornamental circular window (usually in a church).

'rose-wood, hard, dark red wood obtained from several varieties of tropical tree.

rose-mary /'rəʊzməri/ US: -meri/ n [U] evergreen shrub with fragrant leaves used as a herb and in making perfumes.

ro-sette /rəʊ'zet/ n [C] small rose-shaped badge, ornament or carving in stone.

rosin /'rəʊzɪn/ US: 'rəʊzən/ n [U] resin, esp in solid form, as used on the strings of violins, etc and on the bow with which violins are played. □ vt rub with rosin.

ros-ter /'rɒstə(r)/ n [C] list of names of persons showing duties to be performed by each in turn.

ros-trum /'rɒstrəm/ n [C] (pl ~s or -tra /-trə/) platform or pulpit for public speaking.

rosy /'rəʊzi/ adj (-ier, -iest) 1 of the colour of red roses: ~ cheeks. 2 (fig) good, bright, cheerful: ~ prospects.

rot /rɒt/ n [U] 1 decay; condition of being bad: R~ has set in, decay has begun. ⇨ dry rot. 2 (sl) nonsense: Don't talk ~! 3 (in sport, business, etc) succession of failures: A ~ set in. How can we stop the ~? □ vi, vt (-tt-) 1 decay by processes of nature: The wood was ~ting away. 2 (fig) (of a committee, club, etc) gradually become inactive. 3 (fig) (of prisoners, etc) waste away: She was left to ~ in gaol. 4 cause to decay or become useless: Oil and grease will soon ~ your tyres.

rota /'rəʊtə/ n [C] (pl ~s) (GB) list of persons who are to do things in turn; list of duties to be performed in turn.

ro-tary /'rəʊtəri/ adj 1 (of motion) moving round a central point. 2 (of an engine, machine) worked by circular motion.

'Rotary Club, (branch of an) international association of professional and business men in a town for the purpose of serving the community.

ro-tate /rəʊ'teɪt/ US: 'rəʊteɪt/ vi, vt 1 (cause to) move round a central point. 2 (cause to) take turns or come in succession: ~ crops, ⇨ rotation (2). The office of Chairman ~s.

ro-tation /rəʊ'teɪʃn/ n 1 [U] rotating or being rotated: the ~ of the earth; [C] complete turning: five ~s an hour. 2 [C, U] regular coming round of things or events in succession: 'crop-~, ~ of crops, varying the crops grown each year on the same land to avoid exhausting the soil. in rotation, in turn; in regular succession.

ro-ta-tory /'rəʊtətəri/ US: -tɔ:ri/ adj relating to, causing, moving in, rotation: ~ movement.

ro-tor /'rəʊtə(r)/ n [C] assembly of horizontally rotating blades of a helicopter propeller.

rot-ten /'rɒtn/ adj 1 decayed; having gone bad: ~ eggs. 2 (sl) very unpleasant or undesirable: What ~ luck! I'm feeling ~ today, unwell. How ~ of you to say that!

ro-tund /'rəʊ'tʌnd/ adj 1 (of a person, his face) round and plump. 2 (of the voice) rich and deep. 3 (of speech, style) grand.

rouge /ru:ʒ/ n [U] 1 fine red powder or other substance for colouring the cheeks. 2 powder for cleaning silver plate. □ vt use rouge.

rough¹ /rʌf/ adj (-er, -est) 1 (of surfaces) not level, smooth or polished; (of roads) of irregular surface, not easy to walk or ride on: ~ paper; a ~ skin. 2 not calm or gentle; moving or acting violently: ~ children; ~ behaviour; a rough luck, worse luck than is deserved.

~ (= stormy) sea. a rough tongue, habit of speaking rudely or sharply. give sb/have a rough time, (cause him to) experience hardship, to be treated severely, etc (according to context). 3 made or done without attention to detail, esp as a first attempt: a ~ sketch/translation; a ~ draft, eg of a letter. rough and ready, good enough for ordinary or general purposes, occasions, etc; not particularly efficient, etc; ~ and ready methods. 4 (of sounds) harsh: a ~ voice.

rough house, (sl) disturbance, row.

rough-neck, (informal) noisy, ill-mannered person.

rough-ly adv (a) in a rough manner: treat him ~ly. (b) approximately: It cost of ~ly £5. It took 3 hours, ~ly speaking.

rough-ness n [U] quality or state of being rough.

rough² /rʌf/ adv in a rough manner: play ~, be (rather) violent (in games, etc). live rough, live in the open (as a homeless person may do). sleep rough, (of homeless persons) sleep wherever there is some shelter, eg under a bridge, in the open air.

rough³ /rʌf/ n 1 [U] rough state, ground or surface; unpleasantness; hardship. take the rough with the smooth, accept what is unpleasant with what is pleasant. 2 [U] unfinished state: My notes are only in ~. ⇨ rough¹ (3). 3 [U] the ~, part of a golf-course where the ground is uneven and the grass uncut. 4 [C] hooligan: A gang of ~s knocked him down and took all his money.

rough⁴ /rʌf/ vt 1 make untidy or uneven: Don't ~ (up) my hair. 2 rough sb up, (sl) treat him roughly, with physical violence: He was ~ed up by hooligans. 3 rough it, live without the usual comforts of life: Some students have to ~ it.

rough-age /ˈrʌfɪdʒ/ n [U] coarse foodstuff, esp husks of cereals, eaten to stimulate bowel movements.

roughen /ˈrʌfn/ vt, vi make or become rough.

rou-lette /ruːˈlet/ n [U] gambling game in which a small ball falls by chance into one of the numbered compartments of a revolving wheel.

round¹ /raʊnd/ adj 1 shaped like a circle or a ball: a ~ plate/window/table. 2 a ~table conference, at which there is no position of importance at the head of the table, everyone being apparently of equal importance. 3 done with, involving, a circular motion; going and returning: ~ trip/tour/voyage. 4 entire; continuous; full: a ~ dozen/score, that number and not less. in round figures/numbers, given in 10's, 100's, 1000's, etc (and so roughly correct).

round-shouldered adj having the shoulders bent forward.

round-ness n [U]

round² /raʊnd/ adv part (For special uses with verb, ⇨ the verb entries. Specimens only are given here.) 1 in a circle or curve to face the opposite way: Turn your chair ~ and face me. 2 with a return to the starting-point: The hour hand of a clock goes right ~ in twelve hours. Christmas will soon be ~ again. round and round, with repeated revolutions. all/right round, completely round: We walked right ~ the lake. all the year round, during all the year. 3 in circumference: Her hips are a metre ~. 4 (so as to be) in a circle: A crowd soon gathered ~. The garden has a high wall all ~. 5 from one (place, point, person, etc) to another: Please hand these papers ~, ie distribute them. The news was soon passed ~. go round, supply everybody: Have we enough food to go ~? ⇨ make¹ (13). 6 by a longer way or route; not by the direct route: The taxi-driver brought us a long way ~. 7 to a place where a person is or will be: Come ~ and see me this evening. 8 in the neighbourhood: in all the villages ~ about.

round³ /raʊnd/ n [C] 1 something round in shape: a ~ of toast, a slice. 2 in the round, so as to be viewed from all sides: a statue in the ~. theatre in the round, with the audience on (nearly) all sides of the stage. 3 regular series or succession or distribution: the daily ~, the ordinary occupations of the day; the doctor's ~ of visits (to the homes of his patients); the postman's ~, the route he takes to deliver letters. make one's rounds, make one's usual visits: The doctor makes his ~ of the wards every evening. 4 (in games, contests, etc) one stage: a boxing-match of ten ~s; the sixth ~ of the FA Cup, the quarter-finals of this soccer contest; have a ~ of cards; a ~ of golf, to all the 9 or 18 holes of the course. 5 allowance of something distributed or measured out; one of a set or series: pay for a ~ of drinks, drinks for every member of the group; another ~ of wage claims, by trade unions for higher wages for their members; have only three ~s of ammunition left, enough to fire three times. 6 song for several persons or groups, the second singing the first line while the first is singing the second line, etc. 7 dance in which the dancers move in a circle.

round⁴ /raʊnd/ prep 1 (of movement) in a path that passes on all sides of and comes back to the starting-point: The earth moves ~ the sun. Drake sailed ~ the world. round the clock, all day and all night. 2 (of movement) in a path changing direction: walk/follow her ~ a corner. round the bend, ⇨ bend¹ (1). (sl) mad. 3 (of position) so as to be on all sides of: They were sitting ~ the table. He had a scarf ~ his neck. 4 in various or all directions: He looked ~ the room. Can I show you ~ (the house), ie show you the various rooms? 5 to or at various points away from the point or person mentioned: The players stood ~ the goal. 6 approximate(ly): Come ~ about 2 o'clock. He paid ~ about £20 for it.

round⁵ /raʊnd/ vt, vi 1 make or become round: stones ~ed by the action of water. 2 go round: He ~ed a corner. 3 round sth off, bring it to a satisfactory conclusion, add a suitable finish: ~ off a sentence; ~ off one's career by being made a Minister. round on sb, attack him (in words or action). round sb up, drive, bring or collect, together: He ~ed up the tourists and took them back to the coach. round sth up, collect (it, them) together: The cowboy ~ed up the cattle. Hence, 'round-up n bringing together: a ~ up of criminals/cattle. round up (a figure/price), bring it to a whole number: The price had been ~ed up from £647.50 to £650.

round-about /'raʊndəbaʊt/ adj not going or coming by, or using, the shortest or most direct route: I heard the news in a ~ way. What a ~ way of doing things! □ n [C] 1 (= merry-go-round) revolving circular platform with wooden horses, etc on which children ride for fun (at fairs, etc). 2 circular area at a road junction causing traffic to go round instead of directly across.

rounders /'raʊndəz/ n pl game for two teams, played with bat and ball, the players running through four bases arranged in a square.

rouse /raʊz/ vt, vi (usually formal) 1 wake up: I was ~ed by the ringing of a bell. 2 cause (a person) to be more active, interested, etc: politicians rousing the masses; be ~d to anger by insults.

rout¹ /raʊt/ n [C] complete defeat and disorderly retreat: The defeat became a ~. □ vt defeat completely: ~ the enemy.

rout² /raʊt/ vt, get a person up, out of bed, etc: We were ~ed out of our cabins before breakfast.

route /ru:t/ n [C] way taken or planned from one place to another: The climbers had tried to find a new ~ to the top of the mountain. en route /,ɒn 'ru:t/, on the way. □ vt plan a route for; send by a specific route: We were ~d through Dover.

rou-tine /ru:'ti:n/ n [C,U] fixed and regular way of doing things: the ~ (= usual, ordinary) procedure; my ~ duties, those performed regularly.

rove /rəʊv/ vi, vt 1 wander (the more usual word): roving over sea and land. 2 (of the eyes, one's affections) be directed first one way, then another.

rover, (a) wanderer. (b) (old use) pirate. (c) senior scout.

row¹ /rəʊ/ n [C] number of persons or things in a line: a ~ of books/houses/desks/cabbages; sitting in a ~/in ~s.

row² /rəʊ/ vt, vi move (a boat) by using oars; carry or take in a boat with oars: Shall I ~ you up/down/across the river? □ n [C] journey or outing in a boat moved by oars; period of this; distance rowed: go for a ~.

rower, person who rows a boat.

'rowing-boat, one moved by the use of oars.

'rowing-club, one for persons who row.

row³ /raʊ/ n 1 [U] uproar; noisy disturbance: How can I study with all this ~ going on outside my windows? 2 [C] noisy or violent argument or quarrel: have a ~ with the neighbours. 3 [C] instance of being in trouble, told off, etc: get into a ~ for being late at the office. □ vi, vi 1 tell off. 2 quarrel noisily: He's always ~ing with his neighbours.

rowdy /'rəʊdi/ adj (-ier, -iest) rough and noisy: There were ~ scenes at the elections. □ n [C] (pl -ies) rowdy person.

row-dily /-əli/ adv

row-diness n [U].

row-lock /'rəʊlək/ US: 'rəʊlək/ n [C] pivot for an oar or scull on the side (gunwale) of a boat (US = oarlock).

royal /'rɔɪəl/ adj of, like, suitable for, supported by, belonging to the family of, a king or queen: His R~ Highness; the ~ family; the R~ Navy/Air Force.

roy-ally /'rɔɪəli/ adv in a splendid manner: We were ~ly entertained.

roy-al-ist /-ɪst/ n [C] supporter of a king or queen or of the royal side in a civil war.

roy-alty /'rɔɪəlti/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] royal persons: The play was performed in the presence of ~. 2 [U] position, rank, dignity, power, etc of a royal person. 3 [C] payment of money, eg by a mining company to the owner of the land, to the owner of a copyright or patent: a ~ of 10 per cent.

rub¹ /rʌb/ n [C] period of rubbing: Give the bruise a good ~ with this cream.

rub² /rʌb/ vi, vi (-bb-) (For special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions. ⇨ 3 below.) 1 move (one thing) backwards and forwards on the surface of (another); make (something clean, dry, etc) by doing this: He was ~bing his hands together. R~ this oil on your skin. The dog ~bed itself/its head against my legs. 2 come into, be in, contact with, by a sliding or up and down movement: What is the wheel ~bing on/against?

3 (special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions):

rub sb/oneself/a horse down, rub thoroughly, vigorously, eg with a towel, to make dry and clean: He ~bed himself down after his bath. rub sth down, make it smooth or level by rubbing: R~ the walls down well before applying new paint. Hence, 'rub-down n: Give the horse/the walls a good ~-down.

rub sth in/into sth, (a) force (ointment, etc) into eg the skin, by rubbing: R~ the oint- ment well in/into the skin. (b) force (a humiliating or unpleasant fact) into a person's mind. rub it in, remind a person repeatedly of a fault, failure, etc: I know I behaved foolishly but you needn't ~ it in.

rub sth off, remove it (from a surface) by rubbing. rub off on sb, (informal) pass from one person to another by contact or close association: Don't let the criticism of him ~ off on you.

rub sth out, remove (marks, writing, etc) by rubbing: ~ out a word/pencil marks/mistakes.

rub sth up, polish by rubbing: ~ up the silver spoons. rub sb (up) the wrong way, irritate him, make him angry.

rub-ber¹ /'rʌbə(r)/ n 1 [U] tough elastic substance made from the milky liquid that flows from certain trees when the bark is cut, used for making tyres, tennis balls, etc: (as an adjective) ~ trees. 2 [C] piece of rubber material for rubbing out pencil marks, etc (also called an eraser).

rubber 'band, elastic band for keeping papers, etc together.

rub-ber² /'rʌbə(r)/ n [C] (in such card-games as whist and bridge) 1 three successive games between the same sides or persons. 2 the winning of two games out of three; the third game when each side has won one.

rub-bing /'rʌbɪŋ/ n [C] impression of something, eg an engraving, by rubbing paper laid over it with wax, etc: 'brass-~s.

rub-bish /'rʌbɪʃ/ n [U] 1 waste material; that which is, or is to be, thrown away as worthless. 2 nonsense; worthless ideas: This book/What you said is ~. 3 (used as an exclamation) Nonsense!

'rubbish bin, a container for rubbish.

rub-bishy adj worthless.

rubble /'rʌbl/ n [U] bits of broken stone, rock or brickwork: build roads with a foundation of ~; a building reduced to ~.

ruby /'ru:bi/ n [C] (pl -ies) red precious stone. □ adj, n [U] deep red (colour).

ruck /rʌk/ n [C] irregular fold or crease (esp in cloth). □ vi, vt be pulled, make, into rucks: The sheets have ~ed up.

ruck-sack /'rʌksæk/ n [C] canvas bag strapped on the back from the shoulders, used by people on a walking holiday, etc.

ruc-tions /'rʌkɪnz/ n (pl) angry words or protests: There'll be ~ if you refuse.

rud-der /'rʌdə(r)/ n [C] 1 flat, broad piece of wood or metal at the stern of a boat or ship for steering. 2 similar structure on an aircraft.

ruddy /'rʌdi/ adj (-ier, -iest) 1 (of the face) red, as showing good health: ~ cheeks. 2 red or reddish: a ~ glow in the sky. 3 (euphemism for) bloody(3).

rude /ru:d/ adj (-r, -st) 1 (of a person, his speech, behaviour) impolite; not showing respect or consideration: ~ words/actions. It's rude-ly adv in a rude manner.

~ to interrupt/to point at people. Don't be ~ to your teacher. 2 startling; strong and unexpected: get a ~ shock. 3 roughly made; simple: the ~ prehistoric implements.

rude-ness n [U]

ru-di-ment /'ru:dimənt/ n 1 (pl) first steps or stages (of an art or science): learn the ~s of chemistry/grammar. 2 [C] earliest form on which a later development is or might have developed: A new-born chick has only the ~s of wings.

ru-di-men-tary /,ru:di'mentri/ adj 1 elementary: a ~ knowledge of mechanics. 2 undeveloped: ~ wings.

rue /ru:/ vt (old use or literary) think of with sadness or regret: You'll ~ the day when...

rue-ful /'ru:fəl/ adj showing, feeling, expressing, regret.

rue-fully /'ru:fəli/ adv

ruff /rʌf/ n [C] 1 ring of differently coloured or marked feathers round a bird's neck, or of hair round an animal's neck. 2 wide, stiff frill worn as a collar in the 16th century.

ruf-fian /'rʌfɪən/ n [C] violent, cruel young man.

ruffle /'rʌfl/ vt, vi disturb the peace, calm or smoothness of; become annoyed: The bird ~d up its feathers. Who's been ruffling your hair? Anne is easily ~d, easily annoyed. □ n 1 [C] frill used to ornament clothing at the wrist or neck. 2 [U] ruffling or being ruffled(1).

rug /rʌg/ n [C] 1 mat of thick material (usually smaller than a carpet): a 'hearth-~. 2 thick covering or blanket: a 'travelling-~ (in a car, etc).

rugby /'rʌgbɪ/ n [U] kind of football using an oval-shaped ball which may be handled: ~ League, form of rugby with thirteen players and allowing professionalism; Rugby Union, with fifteen players and having amateur teams only.

rug-ged /'rʌgɪd/ adj 1 rough; uneven; rocky: a ~ coast. 2 having furrows or wrinkles: a ~ face. 3 rough in sound, feel, behaviour, etc.

rug-ged-ly adv

rug-ged-ness n [U]

ruin /'ru:ɪn/ n 1 [U] destruction; overthrow; serious damage: the ~ of her hopes; brought to ~ by gambling and drink. 2 [U] state of being decayed, destroyed, collapsed: The castle has fallen into ~. go to rack and ruin, *⇒ rack*³. 3 [C] something which has decayed, been destroyed, etc: The building is in ~s. 4 (sing only) cause of ruin: Gambling was his ~. □ vt cause the ruin of: The storm ~ed the crops.

ruin-ation /,ru:ɪ'neɪʃn/ n [U] being ruined; bringing to ruin: These debts will be the ~ation of him.

ruin-ous /-əs/ adj causing ruin: ~ous expenditure.

ruin-ous-ly adv: ~ously expensive.

rule /ru:l/ n 1 [C] law or custom which guides or controls behaviour or action: obey the ~s of the game. It's against the ~s to handle the ball in soccer. by/according to rule, according to regulations: He does everything by ~, never uses his own judgement. work to rule, pay exaggerated attention (deliberately) to regulations and so slow down output: Instead of coming out on strike, the men decided to work to ~. rule of thumb, ⇨ thumb. 2 [C] habit: He makes it a ~ to do an hour's work in the garden every day. as a rule, usually, more often than not: He's late as a ~. 3 [U] government; authority: countries that were under French ~. 4 [C] strip of wood, metal, etc. used to measure: a 'foot-~; a 'slide-~. □ vi, vt 1 govern; have authority (over): King Charles I ~d (England) for eleven years without a parliament. Is it true that Mrs Jones ~s her husband? 2 be guided or influenced by; have power or influence over: Don't be ~d by your passions/ by hatred. (Note: usually passive.) 3 give as a decision: The chairman ~d the motion out of order/that the motion was out of order. rule sth out, declare that it cannot be considered, that it is out of the question: That's a possibility that can't be ~d out. It is something we must consider. 4 make (a line or lines) on paper (with a ruler): ~d notepaper. rule sth off, separate it, end it, by ruling a line.

ruler /'ru:lə(r)/ n [C] 1 person who rules or governs. 2 straight length of wood, plastic, metal, etc used in drawing straight lines or for measuring.

ruling /'ru:lɪŋ/ adj that rules: his ~ passion, which governs his actions. □ n [C] (esp) decision made by a person in authority, eg a judge.

rum /rʌm/ n [C, U] (portion of) alcoholic drink made from sugar-cane juice.

rumble /'rʌmbəl/ vi, vt 1 make, move with, a deep, heavy, continuous sound: thunder/gun-fire rumbling in the distance. 2 make, say, in a deep voice: ~ out a few comments. □ n 1 [U] deep, heavy, continuous sound: the ~ of juggernauts through the village.

ru-mi-nant /'ru:mɪnənt/ n [C], adj (animal) which chews the cud, eg cows, deer.

ru-mi-nate /'ru:mɪneɪt/ vi 1 meditate: ~ over/about/on recent events. 2 (of animals) chew the cud.

ru-mi-na-tive /'ru:mɪnətɪv/ adj inclined to meditate.

ru-mi-na-tion /,ru:mɪneɪʃn/ n [U] rum-mage /'rʌmɪdʒ/ vi, vt 1 turn things over, move things about, while looking for something: ~ (about) in a desk drawer. 2 search thoroughly: ~ a ship, eg by Customs officers. □ n [U] 1 search (esp of a ship by Customs officers). 2 things found by rummaging.

ru-mour (US = ru-mor) /'ru:mə(r)/ n 1 [U] general talk, gossip: R~ has it that she will be promoted. 2 [C] (statement, report, story) which cannot be verified and is of doubtful accuracy: There is a ~ that there will be a General Election in the autumn. □ vt report by way of rumour: He is ~ed to have escaped to Dublin. (Note: usually passive.)

rump /rʌmp/ n [C] 1 animal's buttocks. 2 contemptible remnant of a parliament or similar body.

rump-steak, beefsteak cut from near the rump.

rumple /'rʌmpl/ vt crease; crumple: Don't sit on my lap or you'll ~ my dress.

rum-pus /'rʌmpəs/ n (sing only) (informal) disturbance; noise: What's all this ~ about? kick up/make a rumpus, cause a rumpus.

run /rʌn/ n [C] 1 act of running on foot: go for a short ~ across the fields. at a run, running: He started off at a ~ but soon tired and began to walk. on the run, (a) running away: He's on the ~ from the police. (b) continuously active and moving about: I've been on the ~ all day. get/give sb a (good) run for his money, provide him with strong competition: We must give him a good ~ for his money. 2 [C] outing or journey in a car, train, etc: Can we have a trial ~ in the new car? 3 [C] distance travelled by a ship in a specified time. 4 route taken by vehicles, ships, etc: The bus was taken off its usual ~. 5 series of performances: The play had a long ~/a ~ of six months. 6 period; succession: a ~ of bad luck, a series of misfortunes. a run on a bank, a demand by many customers together for immediate repayment.

in the 'long run, in the end: It pays in the long ~ to buy goods of high quality. in the 'short run, during a short period; at present. 7 (enclosed) space for domestic animals, fowls, etc: a 'chicken-~. 8 (cricket, baseball) unit of scoring, made by running over a certain course. 9 common, average or ordinary type or class: the common ~ of mankind, ordinary, average people; an hotel out of the common ~, different from, and better than, the kind one usually finds. 10 (informal) permission to make free use (of). get/give sb the run of sth, the permission to use it: I have the ~ of his library. 11 way in which things tend to move; general direction or trend: The ~ of events is rather puzzling. 12 (music) series of notes sung or played quickly and in the order of the scale. 13 shoal of fish in motion: a ~ of salmon, eg on their way upstream. 14 long hole in cloth where a thread has broken: a ~ in my tights. ⇨ run² (26).

run-of-the-mill, ordinary; average.

run² /rʌn/ vi, vt (pt ran /ræn/, pp ~; -nn-) (For special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions, ⇨ 27 below; ⇨ also running.) 1 (of men and animals) move with quick steps, faster than when walking: ~ three miles; ~ fast; ~ upstairs. We ran to help him. Don't ~ across the road until you're sure it's safe. 2 escape or avoid by going away: As soon as we appeared the boys ran off. 3 practice running for exercise or as a sport; compete in races on foot: Is he ~ning in the 100 metres? Is your horse likely to ~ in the Derby? run a race, take part in one. also ran n person or animal unsuccessful in a race or other form of competition. 4 run for, compete for (as a candidate): ~ for President. 5 present or nominate (for an office): How many candidates is the Liberal Party ~ning in the General Election? 6 (cause to) reach a certain condition or place as the result of running: He ran second in the race. run oneself/sb into the ground, exhaust oneself/a person by hard work or exercise. 7 make one's way quickly to the end of, or through or over (something). run its course, develop in the usual or normal way: The disease ran its course. 8 expose oneself to; be open to. run the chance/danger of sth: You ~ the chance of being suspected of theft. run the risk, \Rightarrow risk. 9 chase; compete with: It was a close run thing, (of competition, etc) The result was very close. 10 (of ships, etc) sail or steer; (of fish) swim: The ship ran aground/on the rocks/ashore. The salmon are ~ning, swimming upstream. 11 go forward with a sliding, smooth or continuous motion: Sledges ~ well over frozen snow. The train ran past the signal. 12 be in action; work freely; be in working order: Don't leave the engine of your car ~ning. 13 (of buses, ferry-boats, etc) journey to and fro: The buses ~ every ten minutes. 14 organize; manage; cause to be in operation: ~ a business/a theatre. I can't afford to ~ a car (= own and use one) on my small salary. Who ~s his house for him now that his wife has divorced him? 15 convey; transport: I'll ~ you back home, drive you there in my car. run arms, convey them into a country unlawfully. run errands/messages (for sb), make journeys to do things, carry messages, etc. run liquor, smuggle it into a country. 16 cause to move quickly (in a certain direction or into a certain place): ~ one's fingers/a comb through one's hair; ~ one's eyes over a page. 17 (of thoughts, feelings, eyes, exciting news, etc) pass or move briefly or quickly: The thought kept ~ning through my head. The pain ran up my arm. A shiver ran down his spine. The news ran like wildfire. A whisper ran through the crowd. 18 cause (something) to penetrate (intentionally or by accident) or come into contact with: ~ a splinter into one's finger. The drunken driver ran his car into a tree. 19 (of liquids, grain, sand, etc) flow, drip: The tears ran down my cheeks. Who has left the tap/water ~ning? His legs were covered with ~ning sores. Your nose is ~ning. 20 (of colours, dyes) spread: Will the colours ~ if the dress is washed? 21 cause (a liquid, molten metal, etc) to flow: ~ some hot water into the bowl. 22 become; pass into (a specified condition): Supplies are ~ning short/low. I have ~ short of money. Feelings/Passions ran high, became stormy or violent. My blood ran cold, I was filled with horror. run riot, \Rightarrow riot (2). run wild, \Rightarrow wild (7). run a temperature, become feverish. 23 extend; have a certain course or order; be continued or continuous; shelves ~ning round the walls; a scar that ~s across his left cheek; a road that ~s across the fields. It happened several days ~ning, several days in succession. The play ran (for) six months, was performed for this period of time. The lease of my house has only a year to ~. \Rightarrow running. 24 have a tendency or common characteristic; have as an average price or level: Yellow hair ~s in the family. Inflation is ~ning high. 25 be told or written: So the story ran, that is what was told or said. 26 (of woven or knitted material) become unwoven or unravelled; drop stitches through several rows: Nylon tights sometimes ~.

27 (special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions):

run across sb/sth, meet or find by chance; I ran across her in Paris last week.

run after sb/sth, (a) try to catch: The dog was ~ning after a rabbit. (b) go after in order to get the attention of: She ~s after every man in the village.

run against sb, compete with him in a race or for an elected office.

run along, (informal) go away: Now, children, ~ along!

run away, leave: The boy ran away to sea, left home and became a sailor. run away with sb, (a) elope with: The butler ran away with the duke's daughter. (b) go at a speed too high for control: Don't let your car ~ away with you. (c) destroy the self-control of: Don't let your temper ~ away with you. run away with sth, (a) steal: The maid ran away with the duchess's jewels. (b) get a clear or easy win over: The girl from Peru ran away with the first set, eg in a tennis tournament. run away with the idea/notion that, assume (too quickly that something is the case): Don't ~ away with the idea that I can lend you money every time you need help.

run sth back, rewind (film, tape, etc).

run down, (a) (of a clock or other mechanism worked by weights) stop because it needs winding up. (b) (of a battery) become weak or exhausted: The battery is/has ~ down. run down, (of a person, his health) exhausted or weak from overwork, mental strain, etc. run sb/sth down, knock down or collide with: The cyclist was ~ down by a big lorry. run sb down, (a) say unkind things about: That man doesn't like me; he's always ~ning me down. (b) chase and overtake: ~ down an escaped prisoner. run sth down, allow to become less active or occupied: ~ down a factory, do less work and employ fewer workers. Hence, 'run-down, reduction: the ~down of the coal industry.

run for sth, ⇨ 4 above. run for it, avoid something by running: It's raining; let's ~ for it, ie run for shelter.

run sb in, (informal) (of the police) arrest and take to a police station. run sth in, bring (esp the engine of a car) into good condition by running it carefully for a time or distance: He's ~ning in his new car and doesn't do more than 50 miles an hour.

run into sb, meet unexpectedly: ~ into an old friend in the street. run into sth, (a) collide with: The bus got out of control and ran into a wall. (b) reach (a condition): ~ into debt/difficulties. (c) reach (a level or figure): His income ~s into five figures, is now ten thousand (pounds, dollars, etc) or more. run sth into sth, cause (sth) to be in collision: ~ one's car into a wall.

run off with sb/sth, go away with; steal and take away: His daughter has ~ off with a married man/with all the funds. run sth off, (a) cause to flow away: ~ off the water from a tank, empty the tank. (b) write or recite fluently, eg a list of names: ~ off an article for the local (news)paper. (c) print; produce: ~ off a hundred copies on the duplicating machine. (d) decide (a race) after a tie, or trial heats: When will the race be ~ off? Hence, 'run-off, deciding race, etc after a dead heat or tie.

run on, (a) talk continuously: He will ~ on for an hour if you don't stop him. (b) elapse: Time ran on. (c) (of a disease) continue its course. run (sth) on, (of written letters of the alphabet) join, be joined, together: When children are learning to write, they should ~ the letters on. run on sth, be concerned with: Our talk ran on recent events in India.

run out, (a) go out: The tide is ~ning out. (b) (of a period of time) come to an end: When does the lease of the house ~ out? (c) (of stocks, supplies) come to an end, be exhausted; (of persons) become short of (supplies, etc): Our provisions are ~ning out. We're ~ning out of milk. Her patience is ~ning out. (d) jut out; project: a pier ~ning out into the sea. run (sth) out, (of rope) pass out: The rope ran out smoothly. be run out, (cricket) (of a batsman) have his innings ended because, while trying to make a run, he fails to reach the crease before the ball hits the bails or stump(s). run 'out on sb, (sl) abandon, desert: Poor Jane! Her husband has ~ out on her. run over, (a) (of a vessel or its contents) overflow. (b) pay a short or quick visit to: ~ over to a neighbour's house. run over sth, (a) review: Let's ~ over our parts again, eg when learning and rehearsing parts in a play. (b) read through quickly: He ran over his notes before starting his lecture. run over sb/run sb over, (of a vehicle) (knock down and) pass over (a person, etc lying on the ground): He was ~ over and had to be taken to hospital.

run round, = run over(b).

run through sth, (a) use up (a fortune, etc) esp by foolish spending: He soon ran through the money he had inherited. (b) examine, deal with, quickly: ~ through one's post during breakfast.

run to sth, (a) reach (an amount, number, etc): That will ~ to $50. (b) have money for; (of money) be enough for: We can't/Our funds won't ~ to a holiday abroad this year. (c) extend to: His new novel has already ~ to three impressions.

run sth up, (a) raise; hoist: ~ up a flag on the mast. (b) make quickly: ~ up a dress. (c) add up (a column of figures). (d) cause to grow quickly in amount: ~ up a big bill at a hotel. run up against sth, meet by chance or unexpectedly: run up against difficulties. run up to, amount, extend to (a figure): Prices ran up to £5 a ton.

rung¹ /rʌŋ/ n [C] 1 crosspiece forming a step in a ladder. 2 (fig) particular level in society, one's employment, etc: start on the lowest/reach the highest ~ (of the ladder).

rung² /rʌŋ/ pp of ring².

run-ner /ˈrʌnə(r)/ n [C] 1 person, animal, etc that runs: How many ~s were there in the Derby? 2 messenger, scout, etc. 3 (used as a suffix) smuggler: 'gun-~s. 4 part on which something slides or moves along: the ~s of a sledge. 5 long piece of cloth; long piece of carpet, eg for stairs. 6 kinds of twining bean-plant, esp 'scarlet ~s; (as an adjective) ~ beans.

runner-up, person, animal, taking second place in a race.

run-ning /ˈrʌnɪŋ/ n [U] act of a person or animal that runs, esp in racing. make the running, (literally and fig) set the pace. take up the running, take the lead. in/out of the running, (of competitors) having some/no chance of winning. □ adj 1 done, made, carried on, while or immediately after running: a ~ kick/jump/fight. 2 continuous; uninterrupted: a ~ fire of questions, coming in a continuous stream. 3 in succession: win three times ~. 4 (of water) flowing; coming from a mains supply: All bedrooms in this hotel have hot and cold ~ water. 5 (of sores, etc) with liquid or pus coming out.

running 'commentary, commentary as the event occurs, eg of a football match.

'running costs, costs incurred in production (not preparation, planning).

runny /ˈrʌni/ adj (-ier, -iest) (informal) semi-liquid; tending to run (19) or flow: a ~ nose.

run-way /'rʌnweɪ/ n [C] 1 specially prepared surface along which aircraft take off and land.

2 way made for rolling felled trees and logs down a hill-side.

rup-ture /'rʌptʃə(r)/ n [U] breaking apart or bursting; [C] instance of this. 2 [C,U] (instance of) ending of friendly relations. 3 [C] hernia. □ vt,vi break or burst, eg a blood-vessel; end (a connection, etc).

ru-ral /'rʊərəl/ adj in, of, characteristic of, suitable for, the countryside: ~ scenery/life. > urban.

ruse /ru:z/ n [C] deceitful way of doing something; trick.

rush¹ /rʌʃ/ n [U] rapid movement toward; sudden advance; [C] instance of this: I don't like the ~ of city life. Why all this ~, this hurry and excitement? 2 [C] sudden demand: the Christmas ~, the period before Christmas when crowds of people go shopping.

the 'rush-hour, when crowds of people are travelling to or from work in a large town: (as an adjective) We were caught in the ~-hour traffic.

rush² /rʌʃ/ n [C] (tall stem of one of numerous varieties of) marsh plant with slender leafless stems, often dried and used for weaving into mats, baskets, etc.

rush³ /rʌʃ/ vi,vt 1 (cause to) go or come, do something, with violence or speed: The children ~ed out of the school gates. They ~ed more soldiers to the front. rush to conclusions, form them (too) quickly. rush sth through, do it at high speed: The new Bill was ~ed through Parliament. 2 get through, over, into, etc by pressing eagerly or violently forward: ~ the gates of the football ground. 3 force into hasty action: I must think things over, so don't ~ me. rush sb off his feet, exhaust him. 4 (sl) charge an exorbitant price: How much did they ~ you for this?

rusk /rʌsk/ n [C] piece of bread or biscuit baked hard and crisp.

rus-set /'rʌsɪt/ n [U] yellowish-brown or reddish-brown colour. 2 [C] kind of apple. □ adj reddish brown.

rust /rʌst/ n [U] 1 reddish-brown coating formed on iron by the action of water and air; similar coating on other metals. 2 (plant-disease with r1 st-coloured spots caused by) kinds of fungus. □ vt,vi (cause to) become covered with rust.

rusti-ness n [U]

rusty adj (-ier, -iest) (a) covered with rust: ~ needles. (b) in need of being polished or revised: My German is rather ~, needs to be practised. (c) (of a person, knowledge, etc) out of date.

rus-tic /'rʌstɪk/ adj 1 (used in a good sense) characteristic of country people: ~ simplicity.

2 rough; unrefined: ~ speech/manners. 3 of rough workmanship: a ~ seat, made of rough wood. □ n [C] countryman; peasant.

rus-ti-cate /'rʌstɪkeɪt/ vi,vt 1 lead a rural life.

2 (GB) send (a student) temporarily away from the university as a punishment.

rustle /'rʌsl/ vi,vt 1 make a gentle, light sound (like dry leaves blown by the wind); move along making such a sound: Did you hear something rustling in the hedge? 2 cause to make this sound: I wish people wouldn't ~ their programmes in theatres. 3 rustle up, get together, provide: ~ up some food for an unexpected guest. □ n [U] gentle light sound as of dry leaves blown by the wind: the ~ of paper.

rust-ling /'rʌslɪŋ/, sound made by something that rustles: the rustling of dry leaves.

rut /rʌt/ n [C] 1 line or track made by wheel(s) in soft ground. 2 (fig) way of doing something, behaving, living, etc that has become established. be in/get into a rut, a fixed (and boring) way of living so that it becomes difficult to change. □ vt (-tt-) (usually in pp) mark with ruts: a deeply ~ed road.

ruth-less /'ru:θlɪs/ adj cruel; without pity; showing no mercy.

ruth-less-ly adv

rye /raɪ/ n [U] 1 (plant with) grain used for making flour, and as a food for cattle. 2 kind of whisky made from rye.

Ss

S, s /es/ (pl S's, s's /'esɪz/) the nineteenth letter of the English alphabet.

Sab-bath /'sæbəθ/ n day of rest, Saturday for Jews, Sunday for Christians: to break/keep the ~.

sab-bati-cal /sə'bætɪkəl/ adj of or like the Sabbath: After this uproar there came a ~ calm.

sabbatical year, year of freedom from routine duties given to some university teachers to enable them to travel or study.

saber /'seɪbə(r)/ ⇨ sabre.

sable /'seɪbl/ n [C] small animal valued for its beautiful dark fur; [U] fur of this animal.

sab-otage /'sæbəʊtɑ:ʒ/ n [U] deliberate damaging of machinery, materials, etc or the hindering of an opponent's activity, during an industrial or political dispute, or during war. □ vt perform an act of sabotage against.

sab-oteur /sə'bəʊtə:(r)/ n [C] person who commits sabotage.

sabre (US = sa-ber) /'seɪbə(r)/ n [C] heavy cavalry sword with a curved blade.

'sable-toothed adj having teeth like sabres: a ~ toothed tiger.

sac /sæk/ n [C] skin enclosing a cavity in an animal or plant.

sac-er-do-tal /'sæso'dəʊtl/ adj connected with priests.

sachet /'sæʃet/ US: /sæ'ʃet/ n [C] 1 small perfumed bag. 2 plastic bag for shampoo, etc.

sack¹ /sæk/ n [C] (quantity held by a) large bag of strong material (eg coarse flax, rushes, stiffened paper) for storing and carrying heavy goods: two ~s of potatoes.

'sack-cloth, coarse material made of flax or hemp.

sack-ing, = sackcloth.

sack² /sæk/ n (sing with the) (informal) dismissal from employment: He got the ~ for stealing. □ vi dismiss from employment.

sack³ /sæk/ vt (of a victorious army) steal from, destroy (a captured city, etc). □ n (usually sing with the) sacking of a captured town, etc: The citizens lost everything they had during the ~ of the town.

sack⁴ /sæk/ n [U] (sl) bed. hit the sack, go to bed.

sac-ra-ment /'sækrəmənt/ n [C] solemn religious ceremony in the Christian Church, eg Baptism, Confirmation, Matrimony, believed to be accompanied by great spiritual benefits.

sac-ra-men-tal /'sækrə'mentl/ adj sacred /'seɪkrɪd/ adj 1 of God; connected with religion: a ~ building, eg a church, mosque, synagogue or temple. 2 solemn: hold a promise ~. 3 (to be) treated with great respect or reverence: In India the cow is a ~ animal.

sac-ri-fice /'sækrɪfaɪs/ n 1 [U] the offering of something precious to a god; [C] instance of this; [C] the thing offered: the ~ of an ox to Jupiter; kill a sheep as a ~. 2 [C, U] the giving up of something of great value to oneself for a special purpose, or to benefit another person; [C] something given up in this way: Parents often make ~s (eg go without things) for their children. □ vt, vi 1 make a sacrifice (1): sacrificing a lamb to the gods. 2 give up as a sacrifice (2): He ~d his life to save the drowning child.

sac-ri-fi-cial /'sækrɪ'fiʃl/ adj of or like a sacrifice.

sac-ri-lege /'sækrɪldʒ/ n [U] disrespectful treatment of, injury to, what should be sacred: It would be a ~ to steal a crucifix from a church altar.

sac-ri-legious /'sækrɪ'ldʒəs/ adj sac-ro-sanct /'sækrə'sæŋkt/ adj 1 (to be) protected from all harm, because sacred or holy. 2 (fig) not to be treated with disrespect: He regards his privacy as ~.

sad /sæd/ adj (-der, -dest) 1 unhappy; causing unhappy feelings: It was a ~ day for Mary when her mother died. Why is he looking so ~? 2 (of colours) dull.

sad-ly adv

sad-ness n [U]

sad-den /'sædn/ vt, vi make or become sad.

saddle /'sædl/ n [C] 1 leather seat for a rider on a horse, donkey or bicycle; the part of a horse's back on which the seat is placed: a ~ of lamb, part of its back cooked as a joint. in the saddle, (a) on horseback. (b) (fig) in a position of control or power. 2 line or ridge of high land rising at each end to a high point. □ vt 1 put a saddle on (a horse). 2 saddle sb with sth, put a heavy responsibility or burden on: be ~d with a wife and ten children.

'saddle-bag, (a) one of a pair over the back of a horse or donkey. (b) bag at the back of a bicycle saddle.

sad-dler /'sædlə(r)/, maker of saddles and leather goods for horses.

sa-dism /'seɪdɪzəm/ n [C] 1 kind of sexual perversion marked by getting pleasure from cruelty to other persons of either sex. 2 (informal) (delight in) excessive cruelty.

sa-dist /-ɪst/, person guilty of sadism.

sa-dis-tic /sə'dɪstɪk/ adj of sadism.

sa-fari /sə'fɑːri/ n [C, U] 1 hunting expedition, overland journey, esp in E and Central Africa (where safari can also mean any short trip away from home). 2 organized tour (for people on holiday) to game reserves, etc. on safari, hunting or visiting wild animals.

safe¹ /seɪf/ adj (-r, -st) 1 free from, protected from, danger: ~ from attack. 2 unharmed and undamaged: a ~ journey. safe and sound, secure and unharmed: return ~ and sound from a dangerous expedition. 3 not causing or likely to cause harm or danger: Is 120 kilometres an hour ~ on this road? Are these toys ~ for small children? 4 (of a place, etc) giving security: Keep it in a ~ place. 5 (Parliament) that can be depended on: Is this a ~ seat for the Tories? Is it certain that the Tory candidate will be elected? 6 cautious; not taking risks: They appointed a ~ man as Headmaster. it is safe to say..., it can be said without risk of being proved wrong, etc. be on the 'safe side, take more precautions than may be necessary: He took his umbrella to be on the ~ side. better, safe than 'sorry, it is better to be cautious than to take risks.

'safe-conduct, (document giving the) right to visit or pass through a district without the risk of being arrested or harmed (esp in time of war).

'safe-deposit, building containing strong-rooms and safes which persons may rent separately for storing valuables.

'safe-guard n [C] condition, circumstance, etc that tends to prevent harm, give protection: a ~guard against death. □ vt protect, guard.

'safe-keeping, care; custody: Leave your jewels in the bank for ~-keeping while you are on holiday.

'safe period, (in the menstrual cycle) when conception is least likely.

safe seat, ⇨ 5 above.

safe-ly adv

safe² /seɪf/ n [C] 1 fireproof and burglar-proof box in which money and other valuables are kept. 2 cool cupboard used to protect food from flies, etc: a ~meat-~.

safety /'seɪfəti/ n [U] being safe; freedom from danger: do nothing that might endanger the ~ of other people. play for safety, avoid taking risks. ⇨ road safety.

'safety belt, = seat belt.

'safety catch/ lock, device that gives safety against a possible danger (eg to prevent a gun from being fired by accident or a door being opened without the proper key).

'safety curtain, fireproof screen that can be lowered between the stage and auditorium of a theatre.

'safety first, motto used to warn that safety is important.

'safety glass, glass that does not splinter.

'safety match, one that lights only when rubbed on the side of a match-box.

'safety net, used to catch an acrobat, etc if he falls.

'safety pin, one with a guard for the point which is bent back to the head.

'safety razor, razor with a guard to prevent the blade from cutting the skin.

'safety valve, (a) valve which releases pressure (in a steam boiler, etc) when it becomes too great. (b) (fig) way of releasing feelings of anger, excitement, etc harmlessly.

safron /'sæfrən/ n [U], adj orange colouring obtained from flowers of the autumn crocus, used as a dye and for flavouring.

sag /sæg/ vi (-gg-) sink or curve down under weight or pressure: a ~ging roof. □ n [C] (degree of) sagging: There is a bad ~ in the seat of this chair.

saga /'sɑ:gə/ n [C] (pl ~s) 1 old story of heroic deeds, esp of Icelandic or Norwegian heroes. 2 long narrative, eg a number of connected books (esp novels) about a family, social group, etc: the Forsyte S-. 3 (modern use) long account (of troubles, bad experiences, etc): I had to listen to boring ~s about her holiday.

sa-ga-cious /sə'geɪʃəs/ adj (formal) showing good judgement, common sense or (of animals) intelligence.

sa-ga-cious-ly adv

sa-gac-ity /sə'gæsəti/ n [U] (formal) wisdom of a practical kind.

sage¹ /seɪdʒ/ n [C] wise man; man who is believed to be wise. □ adj wise; having the wisdom of experience.

sage² /seɪdʒ/ n [U] herb with dull greyish-green leaves, used to flavour food: ~ and onions, stuffing used for a goose, duck, etc.

'sage-green n [U], adj colour of sage leaves.

Sag-it-ta-rius /sædʒɪ'teəriəs/ n the Archer, ninth sign of the zodiac.

sago /'seɪgəʊ/ n [U] starchy food, in the form of hard, white grains, used to make a milk pudding.

said /sed/ pt, pp of say.

sail¹ /seɪl/ n 1 [C, U] sheet of canvas spread to catch the wind and move a boat or ship forward: hoist/lower the ~s. under sail, (moving) with sails spread. set sail (from/to/for), begin a voyage. 2 [C] set of boards attached to the arm of a windmill to catch the wind. 3 (pl unchanged) ship: a fleet of twenty ~. 4 [C] (rarely pl) voyage or excursion on water for pleasure: go for a ~; voyage of a specified duration: How many days' ~ is it from Hull to Oslo?

'sail-plane, aircraft that uses air currents, etc instead of engines.

sail² /seɪl/ vi, vt 1 move forward across the sea, a lake, etc by using sails or engine-power, move forward (in sport) across ice or a sandy beach, by means of a sail or sails: ~ up/along the coast; ~ into harbour; go ~ing. 2 (of a ship or persons on board) begin a voyage; travel on water by use of sails or engines: When does the ship ~? He has ~ed for New York. 3 travel across or on: ~ the sea/the Pacific. 4 (be able to) control (a boat): He ~s his own yacht. Do you ~? 5 move smoothly like a ship with sails: The moon/clouds ~ed across the sky.

'sail-ing-boat/-ship/-vessel, boat, etc moved by sails.

sailor /'seɪlə(r)/ n [C] seaman; member of a ship's crew.

saint /seɪnt GB usual form immediately before names: sənt/ n [C] 1 holy person. 2 person who, having died, is among the blessed in Heaven. 3 (abbr St) person who has been declared by the Church to have won by holy living on earth a place in Heaven and veneration on earth. 4 unselfish or patient person: What a ~ my wife is!

St Agnes' Eve, 20th January night.

St Bernard /'bɜ:nəd US: bɜ:'nɑ:rd/, large, powerful breed of dog, originally bred by monks in the Swiss Alps, trained to rescue travellers lost in snowstorms.

St Andrew's Day, 30th November (patron saint of Scotland).

St David's Day, 1st March (patron saint of Wales).

St George's Day, 23rd April (patron saint of England).

St Patrick's Day, 17th March (patron saint of Ireland).

St Valentine's Day, ⇨ Valentine.

saint-ly adj (also saint-like) very holy or good; like, of, a saint: a ~ly expression on his face.

sake /seɪk/ n for the sake of sb/sth; for 'my'/your/the 'country's, etc sake, for the welfare or benefit of; because of an interest in or desire for: He argues for the ~ of arguing, only because he likes arguing. Do it for 'my ~, only to please me. ⇨ pity(1).

sa-laam /sə'la:m/ n 1 Muslim greeting (from an Arabic word) meaning 'Peace'. 2 [C] low bow. □ vi make a low bow.

sal-able, sale-able /'seɪləbl/ adj fit for sale; likely to find buyers.

sa-la-cious /sə'leɪʃəs/ adj (formal) (of speech, books, pictures, etc) obscene; indecent.

sa-la-cious-ly adv

salad /sæləd/ n 1 [C, U] (cold dish of) (usually uncooked) vegetables such as lettuce, cucumber, tomatoes, eaten with cheese, cold meat, etc: a chicken ~; cold beef and ~. ⇨ fruit salad. 2 lettuce or other green vegetables for eating raw.

'salad-days n pl period of inexperienced youth.

'salad-dressing, mixture of oil, vinegar, cream, etc used with salad.

'salad-oil, superior quality of olive oil.

sa-lami /sə'la:mi/ n [U] sausage salted and flavoured with garlic.

sal-ary /'sæləri/ n [C] (pl -ies) (weekly, monthly) payment for employment based on a total amount for a year: a ~ of £6000 a year. ⇨ wage.

sal-ar-ied adj receiving a salary; (of employment) paid for by means of a salary.

sale /seɪl/ n 1 [U] exchange of goods or property for money; act of selling: The ~ of his old home made him sad. for sale, intended to be sold: Is the house for ~? on sale, (of goods in shops, etc) offered for purchase. put sth up for sale, ⇨ put up. 2 [C] instance of selling something: S ~s are up/down this month, more/fewer goods have been sold. 3 [C] the offering of goods at low prices for a period (to get rid of old stock, etc): the winter/summer ~s; ~ price, low price at a sale. 4 occasion when goods, property, etc are put up for sale by auction: for ~ to the highest bidder; get bargains at ~s.

'sale-room, room where goods, etc are sold by public auction.

'sales department, that part of a business company that is concerned with selling.

'sales-man, 'sales-woman, person selling goods in a shop or (on behalf of wholesalers) to shopkeepers.

'sales-man-ship /-mənʃɪp/, skill in selling goods.

'sales talk, talk (to a prospective customer) to sell goods.

'sales tax, tax payable on the sum received for articles sold by retail.

sa-li-ent /'seɪliənt/ adj (formal) 1 most significant; easily noticed: the ~ points of a speech. 2 (of an angle) pointing outwards.

sa-line /'seɪləm US: -li:n/ adj containing salt; salty: a ~ solution, eg as is used for gargling. □ n [U] solution of salt and water.

sal-iva /sə'laɪvə/ n [U] the natural liquid present in the mouth.

sali-vary /'sælvəri US: -veri/ adj of or producing saliva: the ~ glands.

sali-vate /'sælvɪt/ vi secrete (too much) saliva.

sal-low /'sæləʊ/ adj (-er, -est) (of the human skin or complexion) of an unhealthy yellow colour. □ vt, vi make or become sallow: a face ~ed by living in the tropics.

sally /'sæli/ n [C] (pl -ies) 1 sudden breaking out by soldiers who are surrounded by the enemy. 2 lively, witty remark. □ vi 1 make a sally(1). 2 sally forth, go out on a journey or for a walk.

salmon /'sæmən/ n [C] (pl unchanged) large fish, valued for food and the sport of catching it with rod and line; [U] its flesh as food; the colour of its flesh, orange-pink.

salon /'sælən/ n [C] 1 assembly, as a regular event, of notable persons at the house of a lady of fashion (esp in Paris); reception room used for this purpose. 2 business offering services connected with fashion, etc: a 'beauty-~.

sa-loon /sə'lu:n/ n [C] 1 room for social use in a ship, hotel, etc: the ship's 'dining-~. 2 (US) = pub. 3 (GB) (also ~car) motor-car with wholly enclosed seating space for 4 or 5 passengers.

sa'loon bar, where drinks are served in a public house or inn.

salt /sɔ:lt/ n 1 [U] white substance obtained from mines, present in sea-water and obtained from it by evaporation, used to flavour and preserve food: 'table ~, powdered salt for use at table. rub salt in the wound, (fig) make humiliation, suffering, worse. take (a statement, etc) with a grain/pinch of salt, feel some doubt whether it is altogether true. the salt of the earth, person(s) with very high qualities. 2 [C] (chem) chemical compound of a metal and an acid. 3 [C] experienced sailor. 4 (pl) medicine used to empty the bowels: take a dose of (Epsom) ~s. 5 (fig) something that gives flavour or appeal: Adventure is the ~ of life to some men. □ vt put salt on or in (food) to season it or preserve it: ~ed meat. □ adj 1 (opp of fresh) containing, tasting of, preserved with, salt: ~ water. 2 (of land) containing salt: ~ marshes.

'salt-cellar, small container for salt at table.

'salt-~water, of the sea: ~water 'fish.

salti-ness n [U]

salty adj (-ier, -iest) containing, tasting of, salt.

salt-petre (US = -pe-ter) /sɒl'tpi:tə(r)/ n [U] salty white powder used in gunpowder, for preserving food, etc.

sa-lu-bri-ous /sə'lju:brɪəs/ adj (formal) (esp of climate) health-giving: the ~ air of Switzerland.

salu-tary /sælju'trɪ US: -teri/ adj having a good effect (on body or mind): ~ exercise/advice.

salu-tation /sælju'teɪʃn/ n [C, U] (formal) (act or expression of) greeting or goodwill (eg a bow or a kiss): He raised his hat in ~.

sa-lute /sə'lut/ n [C] 1 something done to welcome a person or to show respect or honour, esp (eg in the armed forces) the raising of the hand to the forehead, the firing of guns, the lowering and raising of a flag: give a ~; fire a ~ of ten guns. 2 friendly greeting such as a wave. □ vt, vi 1 give a salute (to): The soldier ~d smartly. 2 greet.

sal-vage /sæl'veɪdʒ/ n [U] 1 the saving of property from loss (by fire or other disaster, eg a wrecked ship): a ~ company, one whose business is to bring wrecked ships to port, raise valuables from a ship that has sunk, etc. 2 property so saved. 3 payment given to those who save property. 4 (saving of) waste material that can be used again after being processed. □ vt save from loss, fire, wreck, etc.

sal-va-tion /sæl'veɪʃn/ n [U] 1 the act of saving, the state of having been saved, from sin and its consequences. 2 that which saves a person from loss, disaster, etc: Government loans have been the ~ of several shaky businesses.

Sal-va-tion 'Army, religious and missionary organization for the revival of religion among the masses and for helping the poor everywhere.

salve /sælv/ n 1 [C, U] (kinds of) oily medicinal substance used on wounds, sores or burns: 'lip-~. 2 (fig) something that comforts wounded feelings or soothes an uneasy conscience. □ vt soothe: It is pointless trying to ~ one's conscience by giving stolen money to charity.

sal-ver /sæl've(r)/ n [C] (usually silver) tray on which servants hand letters, drinks, etc.

salvo /sæl'vəʊ/ n [C] (pl ~s or ~es) the firing of a number of guns together as a salute.

Sa-mari-tan /sə'mæri'tæn/ n person who gives practical help to persons in trouble.

same /seɪm/ adj, pron (Note: always with the except as noted in 5 below.) 1 identical; unchanged; not different: He is the ~ age as his wife. We have lived in the ~ house for fifty years. 2 the same... that/as: He uses the ~ books that you do/the ~ books as you. 3 (used with a clause introduced by that, where, who, etc): Put the book back in the ~ place where you found it. 4 (used as a pronoun) the same thing: We must all say the ~. And I would do the ~ again. Same 'here, the same applies to me. And the same to you, I hope you experience the same thing. at the same time, □ *time*¹ (6). one and the 'same, absolutely the same: Jekyll and Hyde were one and the ~ person. be all/just the same to, make no difference to: You can do it now or leave it till later; it's all the ~ to me. come/amount to the 'same 'thing, have the same result, meaning, etc: You may pay cash or by cheque; it comes to the ~ thing. 5 (with this, that, these, those) already thought of, mentioned or referred to: On the Monday I didn't go to work. On that ~ day, the office was bombed. □ adv in the same way: Old people do not feel the ~ about these things as the younger generation. all the same, □ *all*².

same-ness, the condition of being the same, (and so being uninteresting through absence of variety).

samo-var /sæməvə:(r)/ n [C] metal urn used in Russia for boiling water for tea.

sam-pan /sæmpæn/ n [C] small, flat-bottomed boat used in the Far East.

sample /sɑ:mpl US: 'sæm-/ n [C] specimen; one of a number, part of a whole, taken to show what the rest is like. □ vt take a sample of; test a part of: sampling the quality of the wine.

sana-torium /sənə'tɔ:riəm/ n [C] (pl ~s) establishment for the treatment of people who are ill, esp convalescents.

sanc-tify /sæŋktɪfaɪ/ vt (pt, pp -ied) make holy; observe as sacred.

sanc-ti-moni-ous /sæŋktɪ'məniəs/ adj making a show (often insincere) of sanctity.

sanc-ti-moni-ous-ly adv

sanc-tion /sæŋkʃn/ n 1 [U] right or permission given by authority to do something: translate a book without the ~ of the author. 2 [U] approval, encouragement (of behaviour, etc), by general custom or tradition. 3 [C] penalty esp as used by several States together against a country violating international law: apply economic ~s against a country. 4 [C] reason for obeying a rule, etc: The best moral ~ is that of conscience. □ vt give a sanction to: Torture should never be ~ed.

sanc-tity /sæŋktɪti/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] holiness; sacredness; saintliness: break the ~ of an oath. (pl) sacred obligations, feelings.

sanc-tu-ary /sæŋktʃuəri US: -uəri/ n (pl -ies) 1 [C] holy or sacred place, esp a church, temple or mosque. 2 [C] sacred place (eg the altar of a church) where, in former times, a person running away from the law, etc could by Church law, take refuge; place of refuge: This little town used to be a perfect ~ for fugitives. 3 [U] (right of offering such) freedom from arrest: to seek/be offered ~. 4 [C] area where by law it is forbidden to kill birds, rob their nests, etc to shoot animals, etc: a 'bird-~.

sand /sænd/ n 1 [U] (mass of) finely crushed rock as seen on the seashore, in river-beds, deserts, etc. 2 (often pl) expanse of sand (on the seashore or a desert). □ vt 1 cover, sprinkle, with sand. 2 make smooth by using sandpaper.

'sand-bag, bag filled with sand used in groups as a defensive wall (in war, against rising flood-water, etc).

'sand-bank, bank of sand in a river or the sea.

'sand-bar, long bank of sand at the mouth of a river or harbour.

'sand-blast, vt send a jet of sand against eg stonework, to clean it, or against glass to make a design on it.

'sand dune, hill of sand (as in the desert).

'sand-fly, kind found on seashores.

'sand-glass, glass with two bulbs containing enough sand to take a definite time in passing from one bulb to the other.

'sand-paper, strong paper with sand glued to it, used for rubbing rough surfaces smooth. □ vt make smooth with sandpaper.

'sand-piper, small bird living in wet, sandy places near streams.

'sand-pit, enclosure with sand for children to play in.

'sand-stone, type of rock formed of sand.

'sand-storm, storm in a sandy desert with clouds of sand raised by the wind.

sandy adj (-ier, -iest) (a) covered with, of, sand: a ~y beach. (b) (of hair, etc) yellowish-red.

sand-al /'sændl/ n [C] (also a pair of ~s) kind of shoe made of a sole with straps to hold it on the foot.

sand-al-wood /'sændlwud/ n [U] hard, sweet-smelling wood; its perfume.

sand-wich /'sænwɪdʒ/ US: -wɪtʃ/ n [C] two slices of bread with meat, salad, etc between: ham/chicken/cheese ~es. □ vt put (one thing or person) between two others, esp when there is little space: I was ~ed between two fat men on the bus.

'sandwich-board, structure with two boards hung over the shoulders displaying advertisements.

'sandwich course, course of study, eg at a polytechnic, between periods of practical work in industry.

sane /seɪn/ adj (-r, -st) 1 mentally healthy; not mad. 2 sensible: a ~ policy; ~ judgement.

sane-ly adv

sang /sæŋ/ pt of sing.

sani-gui-nary /'sæŋgwɪnəri/ US: -neri/ adj (formal) 1 with much killing or wounding: a ~ battle. 2 delighting in cruel acts: a ~ ruler.

sani-guine /'sæŋgwɪn/ adj (formal) 1 hopeful; optimistic: ~ of success. 2 having a red complexion.

sani-tar-ium /'sæntɪəriəm/ n [C] (pl ~s) (US) sanatorium; health resort.

sani-tary /'sænitri/ US: -teri/ adj 1 clean; free from dirt which might cause disease: ~ conditions. 2 of, concerned with, the protection of (public) health: a ~ inspector.

'sanitary towel/napkin, absorbent pad used during menstruation.

sani-ta-tion /'sæntɪteɪʃn/ n [U] arrangements to protect public health, esp the disposal of sewage.

sani-ty /'sænitɪ/ n [U] 1 health of mind. 2 soundness of judgement.

sank /sæŋk/ pt of sink².

Santa Claus /'sæntə 'klɔːz/ US: 'sæntə klɔːz/ n the person who, small children are told, brings them toys by night at Christmas.

sap¹ /sæp/ n [C] tunnel or covered trench made to get nearer to the enemy. □ vi, vi (-pp-) 1 make a sap or saps. 2 (fig) destroy or weaken (a person's health, strength, energy, faith, confidence, etc): The climate ~ed his health. The criticism ~ed his confidence.

sap² /sæp/ n [U] 1 liquid in a plant, carrying food to all parts. 2 (fig) (anything that provides) strength or energy.

sap-ling /'sæplɪŋ/ n [C] young tree.

sap-phire /'sæfəɪə(r)/ n 1 [C] bright blue precious stone. 2 [U] (often as an adjective) bright blue colour.

sar-casm /'sɑːkæzəm/ n [U] (use of) remarks intended to hurt the feelings; [C] such a remark.

sar-cas-tic /sɑː'kæstɪk/ adj of, using, sarcasm.

sar-cas-ti-cally /-kli/ adv

sar-copha-gus /sɑː'kɒfəɡəs/ n [C] (pl -gi /-gaɪ/ or ~es) stone coffin.

sar-dine /sɑː'diːn/ n [C] small fish (usually preserved and tinned in oil or tomato sauce). packed like sardines, closely crowded together.

sar-donic /sɑː'dɒnɪk/ adj scornful; cynical: a ~ smile.

sar-doni-cally /-kli/ adv

sari /'sɑːri/ n [C] (pl ~s) length of cotton or silk cloth draped round the body, worn by Hindu women.

sa-ron /sɑː'rɒŋ/ US: -rɒŋ/ n [C] long strip of cotton or silk material worn round the middle of the body by Malays and Javanese.

sash /sæʃ/ n [C] long strip of cloth worn round the waist or over one shoulder for ornament or as part of a uniform.

sash window, one with a frame that slides up and down on ropes.

sat /sæt/ pt, pp of sit.

Satan /'seɪtn/ n the Devil.

Sa-tanic /sə'tænik/ US: sei-/ adj of, like, the Devil.

satchel /'sætʃəl/ n [C] bag with a long strap for carrying school books.

sate /seɪt/ vi = satiate.

sat-el-lite /'sætələɪt/ n [C] 1 small body moving in orbit round a planet; moon. 2 artificial object, eg a spacecraft put in orbit round a planet, etc: communications ~, for sending back to the earth telephone messages, radio and TV signals. 3 (fig) (often used as an adjective) person, state, depending on and taking the lead from another.

sati-able /'sɛɪjəbl/ adj (formal) that can be fully satisfied.

sati-ate /'sɛɪʃieɪt/ vt (formal) satisfy fully or too much: be ~d with food/pleasure.

sati-ety /sə'taɪəti/ n [U] (formal) condition of being satiated.

satin /'sætn US: 'sætən/ n [U] silk material shiny on one side: (as an adjective) ~ ribbons. □ adj smooth like satin.

sat-ire /'sætəɪə(r)/ n 1 [U] form of writing, drama, etc making a person, idea, appear foolish or absurd. 2 [C] piece of writing that does this.

sa-tiri-cal /sə'tɪrɪkl/ adj

sa-tiri-cally /-klɪ/ adv

sat-ir-ist /'sætərɪst/ n [C] person who writes or uses satire.

sat-ir-ize (also -ise) /'sætəraɪz/ vt attack with satire; describe satirically.

sat-is-fac-tion /'sætɪs'fækʃn/ n 1 [U] the state of being satisfied, pleased or contented; act of satisfying: have the ~ of being successful in life. 2 [C] (with a, an, but rarely pl) something that satisfies: It is a great ~ to know that he is well again. 3 [U] (opportunity of getting) revenge or compensation for an injury or insult: The angry man demanded ~ but the other refused it, would neither apologize nor fight.

sat-is-fac-tory /'sætɪs'fæktəri/ adj 1 giving pleasure or satisfaction: a ~ holiday. 2 good enough for a purpose: Will these shoes be ~ for a long walk?

sat-is-fac-tor-ily /-əli/ adv

sat-is-fy /'sætɪsfai/ vt, vi (pt, pp -ied) 1 make contented; give (a person) what he wants or needs: Nothing satisfies him; he's always complaining. 2 be enough for (one's needs); be equal to (what one hopes for or desires): ~ one's hunger. 3 make free from doubt: He satisfied me that he would come.

sat-is-fy-ing adj giving satisfaction: a ~ing meal.

satu-rate /'sætʃəreɪt/ vt 1 make thoroughly wet; soak with moisture: We were caught in the rain and came home ~d. 2 cause to absorb like water: be ~d with sunshine. 3 be unable to take any more: The market for used cars is ~d. 4 (chem) cause (one substance) to absorb the greatest possible amount of another: a ~d solution of salt.

satu-ra-tion /'sætʃə'reɪʃn/ n [U] state of being saturated.

,satu-ration point, the stage beyond which no more can be absorbed.

Sat-ur-day /'sætədɪ/ n the seventh and last day of the week.

Sat-urn /'sætən/ n 1 (astron) large planet encircled by rings. 2 (in Roman myth) god of agriculture.

satyr /'sætə(r)/ n (Greek and Roman myth) god of the woods, half man and half animal.

sauce /sɔ:s/ n 1 [C,U] (kind of) (semi-)liquid preparation served with food to give flavour: spaghetti and tomato ~. 2 [U] (informal) impudence (usually more amusing than annoying): What ~! How rude!

sauc-ily adv impudently.

saucy adj (-ier, -iest) impudent.

sauce-pan /'sɔ:spən US: -pæn/ n [C] deep metal cooking pot with a lid and a handle.

saucer /'sɔ:sə(r)/ n [C] small curved dish on which a cup stands. ⇨ flying saucer.

sauer-kraut /'sauəkraut/ n [U] (Ger) chopped, pickled cabbage.

sauna /'saunə/ n [C] (pl ~s) (building for a) steam bath.

saun-ter /'sɔ:ntə(r)/ vi walk in a leisurely way: ~ along Oxford Street window-shopping. □ n [C] quiet, unhurried walk or pace.

saus-age /'sɔ:sdʒ US: 'sɔ:s-/ n [U] chopped up meat, etc flavoured and stuffed into a casing or tube of thin skin; [C] one section of such a tube.

'sausage-dog, (GB informal) = dachshund.

'sausage-meat, meat minced for making sausages.

'sausage 'roll, piece of sausage-meat baked in pastry.

sauté /'səuteɪ US: 'səu'teɪ/ adj (Fr) (of food) quickly fried in a little fat: ~ potatoes. □ vt fry food in this way.

sav-age /'sævɪdʒ/ adj 1 in a primitive or uncivilized state: ~ people/tribes/countries. 2 fierce; cruel: a ~ dog/attack; ~ criticism. □ n [C] member of a primitive tribe living by hunting and fishing. □ vt attack, bite, etc: a lion savaging its trainer.

sav-age-ly adv

sav-agery /'sævɪdʒrɪ/ n [U] the state of being savage; savage behaviour.

sa-vanna(h) /sə'vænə/ n [C] treeless plain, eg in tropical America and parts of W Africa. (Note: compare prairie, N America, and pampas, S America.)

save¹ /seɪv/ vt, vi 1 make or keep safe (from loss, injury, etc): ~ her from drowning; ~ his life. save (one's) face, ⇨ *face*¹ (2). save one's skin, ⇨ skin (1). 2 keep for future use: ~ (up) money for a holiday; ~ some of the meat for tomorrow. He is saving himself/saving his strength for the swim back. save for a rainy day, ⇨ rainy. 3 free (a person) from the need of using: That will ~ you 50 pence a week/a lot of trouble. 4 (in the Christian religion) set free from the power of (or the eternal punishment for) sin: Jesus Christ came into the world to ~ sinners. □ n [C] (in football, etc) act of preventing the scoring of a goal: Banks made such a brilliant ~ in Brazil.

saver, (a) person who saves (money) (b) means of saving: This device is a useful 'time-~r.

sav-ing adj (esp) that compensates. saving 'grace, good quality in a person whose other qualities are not all good. □ n 1 [C] way of saving; amount saved: a useful saving of time and money. 2 (pl) money saved up: keep one's savings in the post office.

'savings account, (with a bank) on which interest is paid.

'savings-bank, bank which holds, and gives interest on, small savings.

save² /sɜ:v/ (also sav-ing /'sɜ:vɪŋ/) prep (dated) except: all ~ him.

sav-iour (US = -ior) /'sɜ:vɪə(r)/ n [C] 1 person who rescues or saves a person from danger. 2 The S~, Our S~, Jesus Christ.

sa-vour (US = -vor) /'seɪvə(r)/ n [C,U] 1 taste or flavour (of something): soup with a ~ of garlic. 2 (fig) quality (of): His political views have a ~ of Facism. □ vi have the quality (of): His speech ~s of a humane approach.

sa-voury (US = -vory) /'seɪvəri/ adj 1 having an appetizing taste or smell. 2 having a salt or sharp, not a sweet, taste: a ~ omelette. □ n [C] (pl -ies) savoury dish, biscuit, etc.

sa-voy /sə'vɔɪ/ n [C,U] (kind of) winter cabbage with wrinkled leaves.

saw¹ /sɔ:/ pt of see¹.

saw² /sɔ:/ n [C] (kinds of) tool with a sharp-toothed edge, for cutting wood, metal, □ vi, vi (pt ~ed, pp ~n /sɔ:n/ and (US) ~ed) 1 cut with, use, a saw: ~ wood; ~ a log in two. saw sth off, cut off with a saw: ~ a branch off a tree. saw sth up, cut into pieces with a saw. 2 capable of being sawn: This wood ~ easily.

'saw-dust, tiny bits of wood falling off when wood is being sawn.

'saw-mill, factory with power-operated saws.

saw-yer /'sɔ:jə(r)/, man whose work is sawing wood.

saxo-phone /'sæksəfəʊn/ n [C] brass musical wind-instrument with a reed in the mouthpiece and keys for the fingers.

sax-ophon-ist /sæksə'fɒnɪst/ US: 'sæksə-fəʊnɪst/, saxophone player.

say /seɪ/ vi, vi (3rd person, present tense says /sez/, pt, pp said /sed/) 1 make (a word or remark); use one's ordinary voice (not singing, etc) to produce (words, sentences): Did you ~ anything? He said that his friend's name was Smith. The boy was ~ing his prayers. that is to say, or to use other words: He's 15, that is to ~, he's very young. to say nothing of, ☞ nothing. What do you say to...? What do you think about...: What do you ~ to a walk/ to playing tennis? When all is said and done, after all (the effort to convince a person): He thinks he is brilliant but when all is said and done, he's only an ordinary student.

You can say 'that again! (informal) I agree. You don't say! (informal) (used to express surprise when hearing news, etc). go without saying, ☞ go without. say no more, you need not add anything because I agree. say so, say what you think, feel: If you think I have lied to you, ~ so. say the word; say a good word for, ☞ word(2). 2 state: It ~s here that he was killed. They say/It is said (that), (used to introduce rumours): They ~|It's said that he's a thief. 3 make known information: She spoke for an hour but didn't ~ much. 4 form and give an opinion concerning: There is no ~ing when peace will be achieved. and so say all of us, that is the opinion of us all. 5 estimate: You could speak English in, let's ~, six weeks. be hard to say, be difficult to estimate. □ n (only in the following) have/say one's say, express one's opinion; state one's views: Let him have his ~. have/be allowed a/no/not much, etc say in the matter, have some/no/not much right or opportunity to share in a discussion, express one's opinions, etc: He wasn't allowed much ~ in choosing his holiday.

saying /'seɪŋ/ n [C] remark often made; well-known phrase, proverb, etc: 'More haste, less speed', as the ~ goes.

scab /skæb/ n [C] 1 dry crust formed over a wound or sore. 2 (informal) workman who refuses to join a strike, or his trade union, or who takes a striker's place.

scabby adj (-ier, -iest) having scabs(1).

scab-bard /'skæbəd/ n [C] sheath for the blade of a sword, etc.

scabies /'skeɪbɪz/ n [U] kind of skin disease causing itching.

scaf-fold /'skæfəʊld/ n [C] 1 structure put up for workmen and materials around a building which is being erected or repaired. 2 platform on which criminals are executed: go to the ~, be executed.

scaf-fold-ing /'skæfəldɪŋ/ n [U] (materials for a) scaffold(1) (eg poles and planks).

scald /skɔ:ld/ vi 1 burn with hot liquid or steam: ~ one's hand with hot fat. 2 clean (instruments, etc) with boiling water or steam. □ n [C] injury to the skin from hot liquid or steam.

scale¹ /skeɪl/ n 1 [C] one of the thin overlapping pieces of hard material that cover the skin of many fish, etc: scrape the ~s off a herring. 2 [C] piece like a scale, eg a flake of skin that loosens and comes off the body in some diseases, a flake of rust on iron. 3 [U] chalky deposit inside boilers, kettles, waterpipes, etc (from the lime in hard water). 4 [U] deposit of tartar on teeth. □ vi, vi 1 cut or scrape scales from (eg fish). 2 scale off, come off in flakes:

paint/plaster scaling off a wall.

scaly adj (-ier, -iest) covered with, coming off in scales: a kettle scaly with rust.

scale² /skeɪl/ n [C] 1 series of marks at regular intervals for the purpose of measuring (as on a ruler or a thermometer): It has one ~ in Centigrade and another in Fahrenheit. 2 ruler or other tool or instrument marked in this way. 3 system of units for measuring: the 'decimal ~. 4 arrangement in steps or degrees: a ~ of wages. ⇨ sliding scale. 5 proportion between the size of something and the map, diagram, etc which represents it: a map on the ~ of ten kilometres to the centimetre. drawn to scale, with a uniform reduction or enlargement. 6 relative size, extent, etc: They are preparing to demonstrate on a large ~. 7 (music) series of tones arranged in order of pitch, esp a series of eight starting on a keynote: practise ~s on the piano. □ vt 1 make a copy or representation of, according to a certain scale: ~ a map/building. 2 scale up/down, increase/decrease by a certain proportion: All wages/marks were ~d up by 10 %.

scale³ /skeɪl/ n [C] 1 one of the two pans on a balance. 2 (pl, or a pair of ~s) simple balance or instrument for weighing. 3 any machine for weighing: bathroom ~s, for measuring one's weight. □ vi weigh: ~ 10 stone.

scale⁴ /skeɪl/ vt climb up (a wall, cliff, etc).

scallop /'skɒləp/ n [C] kind of shellfish with a hinged double shell.

scalp /skælp/ n [C] skin and hair of the head, excluding the face. □ vi cut the scalp off.

scalpel /'skælpəl/ n [C] small, light knife used by surgeons.

scamp /skæmp/ n [C] (dated) (used playfully of a child) rascal.

scamper /'skæmpə(r)/ vi (of small animals, eg mice, rabbits, when frightened, or of children and dogs at play) run quickly. □ n [C] short, quick run.

scampi /'skæmpi/ n pl (used with a sing verb) large prawns.

scan /skæn/ vt, vi (-nn-) 1 look at attentively or over every part of: The shipwrecked sailor ~ned the horizon anxiously every morning. 2 (modern use) glance at quickly but not very thoroughly: He ~ned the newspaper while having his breakfast. 3 test the rhythm of (a line of verse). 4 (of verse) be composed so that it can be scanned: This line does not/will not ~. The verses ~ well. 5 (TV) prepare (a picture) for transmission (by separating its elements of light and shade). 6 (radar) pass electronic beams across an area in search of something.

scan-sion /'skænsən/ n [U] scanning of verse; the way verse scans.

scan-dal /'skændl/ n 1 [C, U] (action, behaviour, etc that causes) general shock, anger, opposition; [C] shameful or disgraceful action: The way they treat the poor is a ~. 2 [U] careless or unkind talk which damages a person's reputation: Most of us enjoy a bit of ~.

'scandal-monger /-mæŋgə(r)/, person who gossips.

scan-dal-ize (also -ise) /-aɪz/ vt offend the moral feelings of: ~ize the neighbours by sun-bathing in the nude.

scan-dal-ous /-əs/ adj (a) disgraceful; shocking. (b) (of reports, rumours) containing scandal. (c) (of persons) fond of gossiping.

scan-dal-ous-ly adv in a scandalous way.

scan-sion /'skænsən/ ⇨ scan.

scant /skænt/ adj (having) hardly enough: pay ~ attention to her advice.

scant-ily /-əli/ adv in a scanty manner: ~ily dressed.

scanty adj (-ier, -iest) (opposite of ample) small in size or amount; only just large enough: a ~y bikini.

scap-goat /'skæpɡəʊt/ n [C] person blamed or punished for the mistake(s) or wrong acts of another or others.

scap-ula /'skæpjələ/ n [C] (pl ~s) (anat) = shoulder-blade.

scar /ska:(r)/ n [C] 1 mark remaining on the surface (of skin, etc) as the result of injury or illness. 2 (fig) mark or effect of suffering, bad planning, etc: Mining that leaves a ~ on the countryside. □ vt, vi (-rr-) 1 mark with a scar: a face ~red by smallpox. 2 (fig) mark with effects of suffering, etc: the ~s of war in many European towns. 3 form scars: The cut on his forehead ~red over.

scarab /'skærəb/ n [C] 1 kinds of beetle, esp one regarded as sacred in ancient Egypt. 2 ornament, etc in the shape of a scarab.

scarce /skeəs/ adj (-r, -st) 1 (opposite of plentiful) not available in sufficient quantity; not equal to the demand: Jobs are ~ this month. 2 rare: a ~ book.

scarce-ity /'skeəsəti/ n [C, U] (pl -ies) occasion, state of being scarce; smallness of supply compared with demand: The scarcity of fruit was caused by the drought.

scarce-ly /'skeəsl/ adv barely; not quite; almost not: There were ~ a hundred people present. I ~ know him.

scare /skeə(r)/ vt, vi frighten; become afraid: The dogs ~d the thief away. He was ~d by the thunder. He ~s easily/is easily ~d. He feels ~d at night. She's ~d of the dark. scare sb stiff, (informal) make him very afraid, nervous: He's ~d stiff of women. scare sb out of his wits, make him extremely frightened: The sound of footsteps outside the door ~d her out of her wits. □ n [C] feeling, state, of alarm: The news caused a war ~, a fear that war might break out.

'scare-crow, figure of a man in old clothes, set up to scare birds away from crops.

'scare-monger /-mæŋgə(r)/, person who spreads alarming news.

scary /'skeəri/ adj (-ier, -iest) (informal) causing alarm.

scarf /ska:f/ n [C] (pl scarves /ska:vz/ or ~s) long strip of material (silk, wool, etc) worn over the shoulders, round the neck or (by women) over the hair.

scar-ify /'skæɪfaɪ/ vt (pt, pp -ied) (in surgery) make small cuts in, cut off skin, from.

scar-let /'ska:lət/ n [U], adj bright red. go scarlet, blush deeply.

scarlet 'fever, infectious disease with red marks on the skin.

scarlet 'runner, kind of bean plant.

scarlet 'woman, (old use) prostitute.

scarp /skɑ:p/ n [C] steep slope.

scat /skæt/ int (dated sl) Go away!

scath-ing /'skeɪdɪŋ/ adj (of criticism, etc) severe; harsh: a ~ review of a new book.

scath-ing-ly adv

scat-ter /'skætə(r)/ vt, vi 1 send, go, in different directions: The police ~ed the crowd. The crowd ~ed. 2 throw or put in various directions: ~ seed. □ n [C] that which is scattered; sprinkling: a ~ of hailstones.

'scatter-brain, person who cannot keep his thoughts on one subject for long. Hence,

'scatter-brained adj

scat-tered adj not situated together: a few ~ed villages.

scatty /'skæti/ adj (-ier, -iest) (informal) behaving as if mad: a ~ woman. drive sb scatty, cause him to become mad.

scav-enge /'skævɪndʒ/ vt, vi act as a scavenger: scavenging in dustbins.

scav-en-ger /'skævɪndʒə(r)/ n [C] 1 animal or bird, eg a vulture, that lives on decaying flesh. 2 person who looks among rubbish for food, useful things.

scen-ario /sɪ'nɑ:riəʊ US: -hæ-/ n [C] (pl ~s) written outline of a play, an opera, a film, with details of the scenes, etc.

scene /sin/ n [C] 1 place of an actual or imagined event: the ~ of a great battle. The ~ of the novel is set in Scotland. 2 description of an incident, or of part of a person's life; incident in real life suitable for such a description: There were distressing ~s when the earthquake occurred. 3 (incident characterized by an) emotional outburst: She made a ~/We had a ~ when I arrived late. 4 view; something seen: The boats in the harbour make a beautiful ~.

change of scene, new surroundings. 5 (abbr Sc) one of the parts, shorter than an act, into which some plays and operas are divided; episode within such a part: 'Macbeth', Act II, Sc 1. 6 place represented on the stage of a theatre; the painted background, woodwork, canvas, etc representing such a place: The ~s are changed during the intervals. behind the scenes, (a) out of sight of the audience; behind the stage. (b) (fig) (of a person) influencing events secretly; having private or secret information and influence. come on the scene, (usually fig) appear. 7 (informal) area of what is currently fashionable or notable: the 'drug ~ in big cities.

'scene-painter, person who paints scenery (2).

'scene-shifter, person who changes the scenes (6).

scen-ery /'sɪnəri/ n [U] 1 general natural features of a district, eg mountains, plains, valleys, forests: mountain ~; stop to admire the ~. 2 the furnishings, painted canvas, etc used on the stage of a theatre.

scenic /'sɪnɪk/ adj of scenery: a ~ highway across the Alps; ~ effects, eg in a film.

sceni-cally /-kli/ adv

scent /sent/ n 1 [U] smell, esp of something pleasant: a rose that has no ~. 2 [C] particular kind of smell: ~s of lavender and rosemary. 3 [U] perfume: a bottle of ~; a ~-bottle. 4 [C] (usually sing) smell left by (the track of) an animal: follow/lose/recover the ~. off/on the scent, not having/having the right clue. put/throw sb off the scent, (fig) mislead him by giving false information. 5 [U] sense of smell (in dogs): hunt by ~. □ vt 1 learn the presence of by smell: The dog ~ed a rat. 2 begin to suspect the presence or existence of: ~ a crime; ~ treachery/trouble. 3 put scent on; make fragrant: ~ a handkerchief; roses that ~ the air.

scep-ter /'septə(r)/ n = sceptre.

scep-tic (US = skep-tik) /'skeptɪk/ n [C] 1 person who doubts the truth of a particular claim, theory, belief, etc. 2 person who doubts the truth of the Christian religion or of all religions.

scep-ti-cal (US = skep-) /-kl/ adj in the habit of not believing, of questioning the truth of claims, statements, etc.

scep-ti-cally (US = skep-) /-kli/ adv scep-ti-cism (US = skep-) /'skeptɪsɪzəm/ n [U] doubting state of mind, attitude.

sceptre (US = scep-ter) /'septə(r)/ n [C] rod or staff carried by a ruler as a symbol of power or authority.

sched-ule /'fedju:l US: 'skedʒəl/ n [C] list or statement of details, esp of times for doing things; programme or timetable for work: a pro'duction ~, eg in a factory; a full ~, a busy programme. on/behind schedule, on/not on time: The train arrived on ~. (according) to schedule, as planned. □ vt 1 make, put in, a schedule: ~d flights, (eg of aircraft) flying according to announced timetables. ⇨ chart-er (2). 2 enter in a list of arrangements: The President is ~d to make a speech tomorrow.

sche-matic /'ski:mætɪk/ adj 1 of the nature of a scheme or plan. 2 (shown) in a diagram.

sche-mati-cally /-kli/ adv scheme /skim/ n [C] 1 arrangement; ordered system: a 'colour ~, eg for a room, so that colours of walls, rugs, curtains, etc match. 2 plan or design (for work or activity): a ~ for manufacturing paper from straw. 3 secret and dishonest plan: a ~ to avoid paying taxes. □ vi, vt 1 make a (esp dishonest) scheme: They ~d to defeat/for the overthrow of the government. 2 make plans for (esp something dishonest): a scheming (= crafty) young man. schemer, person who schemes.

schism /'sɪzəm or 'skɪzəm/ n [U] (offence of causing the) division of an organization (esp a Church) into two or more groups; [C] instance of such separation.

schis-matic /sɪz'mætɪk or skɪz'mætɪk/ adj schizo-phrenia /'skɪtsəʊ'frɪniə/ n [U] type of mental disorder with no association between the intellectual processes and actions.

schizo-phrenic /'skɪtsəʊ'frenɪk/ adj of, suffering from, schizophrenia. □ n [C] person suffering from schizophrenia.

schnor-kel /'snɔːkl/ n = snorkel.

scholar /'skɒlə(r)/ n [C] 1 (dated) boy or girl at school. 2 student who, after a competitive examination or other means of selection, is awarded money or other help so that he may attend school or college: British Council ~s. 3 person with much knowledge (usually of a particular subject): Professor X, the famous Greek ~. 4 (informal) person able to read and write: I'm not much of a ~.

schol-ar-ly adj having or showing much learning; of or suitable for a scholar(3); fond of learning: a ~ly translation/young woman.

schol-ar-ship /'skɒləʃɪp/ n 1 [U] learning or knowledge obtained by study; proper concern for scholarly methods. 2 [C] payment of money, eg a yearly grant to a scholar(2) so that he may continue his studies: win a ~ to the university.

schol-as-tic /skə'læstɪk/ adj 1 (dated) of schools and education: the ~ profession, teaching. 2 connected with the learning of the Middle Ages, esp when men argued over small points of dogma.

school /'skuːl/ n 1 [C] institution for educating children: 'primary and 'secondary ~s. 2 (not with the, a or an) process of being educated in a school: '~ age, between the ages of starting and finishing school. Is he old enough for ~/to go to ~? He left ~ when he was fifteen. 3 (not with the, a or an) time when teaching is given; lessons: S~ begins at 9am. There will be no ~ (= no lessons) tomorrow. 4 (with the) all the pupils in a school: The whole ~ hopes that its football team will win. 5 [C] department or division of a university for the study of a particular subject: the 'Law/ 'Medical S~; the S~ of Dentistry. 6 [C] (GB) branch of study for which separate examinations are given in a university: the 'History ~. 7 [C] (fig) circumstances or occupation that provides discipline or instruction: the hard ~ of experience. 8 [C] group of persons who are followers or imitators of an artist, a philosopher, etc: the 'Dutch ~ of painting. the same school of thought, the same way of thinking; agreement. 9 [C] group of persons having the same characteristics. ⇨ old school. □ vt train; control; discipline: ~ a horse; ~ one's temper.

'school-bag, for carrying school books, equipment.

'school-book, (dated) textbook.

'school-boy, boy at school: (used as an adjective) ~boy slang.

'school-days, time of being at school: look back on one's ~days with pleasure.

'school-girl, girl at school.

'school-house, building of a school in a village.

school-ing, education (the usual word): He had very little ~ing.

'school-master/-mistress, teacher (esp in a private or old-fashioned school).

'school-mate, boy, girl, at the same school.

'school teacher, person who teaches in a school.

'school-time, lesson time at school.

school² /'skuːl/ n [C] large number (of fish) swimming together.

schoo-ner /'skuːnə(r)/ n [C] 1 kind of sailing-ship with two or more masts. 2 tall drinking-glass.

schwa /'ʃwɑː/ n [C] (pl ~s) the symbol /ə/ as used in phonetic notation.

science /'saɪəns/ n 1 [U] knowledge arranged in an orderly manner, esp knowledge obtained by observation and the testing of facts; effort to find such knowledge: S~ is an exact discipline, demands complete accuracy and precision. 2 [C,U] branch of such knowledge, eg physics. study ~/the ~s at school. ⇨ applied / natural / political / physical / social science. ⇨ also *art*¹(2).

,science 'fiction, stories about recent or imagined scientific discoveries and advances.

scien-tist /'saɪəntɪst/, student of, expert in, one of the natural or physical sciences.

scien-ti-fic /saɪəntɪ'fɪk/ adj of, for, connected with, used in, science; guided by the rules of science: ~ methods; ~ instruments.

scien-ti-fi-cally /-klɪ/ adv scimi-tar /'sɪmɪtə(r)/ n [C] oriental, curved sword.

scin-til-late /'sɪntɪlət/ vi 1 sparkle. 2 (fig) talk cleverly: scintillating conversation.

scin-til-la-tion /sɪntɪ'leɪʃn/ n [U] scis-sors /'sɪzəz/ n pl (also a pair of ~s) instrument with two blades which cut as they come together: Where are my ~?

scoff¹ /skɒf US: skɒf/ vi say disrespectful things, eg about religion. □ n [C] 1 scoffing remark. 2 object of ridicule.

scoffer, person who scoffs.

scoff² /skɒf/ US: skɔ:f/ vi (sf) eat greedily: Who's ~ed all the pastries?

scold /skəʊld/ vt, vi 1 blame with angry words: ~ a child for being lazy. 2 complain: She's always ~ing. □ n [C] woman who scolds.

scolding n [C] complaint using angry words: get/give her a ~ing for being late.

scollop /'skɒləp/ n = scallop.

scone /skɒn/ US: skəʊn/ n [C] soft, flat cake of oatmeal or flour, etc baked quickly.

scoop /sku:p/ n [C] 1 (sorts of) short-handled tool like a shovel for taking up and moving quantities of grain, flour, sugar, etc. 2 motion of, or as of, using a scoop: at one ~, in one single movement of a scoop. 3 (informal) piece of news obtained and published by one newspaper before its competitors. 4 (commerce) large profit from sudden luck. □ vi 1 scoop sth out/up, lift with, or as with, a scoop. 2 make (a hole, groove, etc) with, or as with, a scoop: ~ out a hole in the sand. 3 (informal) get (news, a profit, etc) as a scoop(3). He ~ed the market.

scoot /sku:t/ vi (informal) = scam.

scooter /'sku:tə(r)/ n [C] 1 (also 'motor~) motor-bike with a low seat and a small engine. 2 child's toy, an L-shaped vehicle with small wheels, one foot being used to steer it and the other to move it by pushing against the ground.

scope /skəʊp/ n [U] 1 opportunity: work that gives ~ for one's abilities. 2 range of action or observation: Economics is beyond the ~ of a child's mind.

scorch /skɔ:tʃ/ vt, vi 1 burn or discolour the surface of (something) by dry heat; cause to dry up (and die): You ~ed my shirt when you ironed it. The long, hot summer ~ed the grass. 2 become discoloured, etc with heat. □ n [C] brown mark on the surface of something (esp cloth) made by dry heat.

scorcher, something that scorches: Yesterday was a ~er, a very hot day.

scorching adj very hot. □ adv: ~ing hot, extremely hot.

score¹ /skɔ:(r)/ n [C] 1 cut, scratch or notch made on a surface: ~s on rock. 2 mark made by whipping. 3 pay/settle an old score, get even with a person for past offences; have one's revenge: I have some old ~s to settle with him. 4 (record of) points, goals, runs, etc made by a player or team in sport: The ~ in the tennis final was 6-4, 3-6, 7-5. The half-time ~ (eg football) was 2-1. keep the score, keep a record of the score as it is made. 5 reason; account. on 'that score, as far as that point is concerned: You need have no anxiety on that ~. 6 copy of orchestral, etc music showing what each instrument is to play, each voice to sing: follow the ~ while listening to music. 7 twenty; set of twenty: a ~ of people, three ~ and ten, 70, the normal length of human life according to the Bible. scores of times, very often. 8 (sf) remark or act by which a person gains an advantage for himself in an argument, etc: a politician who is clever at making ~s off opponents.

'score-board/-book/-card, one on which the score is recorded.

score² /skɔ:(r)/ vt, vi 1 mark with scratches, cuts, lines, etc: Don't ~ the floor by pushing heavy furniture about. The composition was ~d with corrections in red ink. score out, draw a line or lines through: Three words had been ~d out. ⇨ score¹(1). 2 make or keep a record (esp for games): Who's scoring? 3 make as points in a game: ~ a goal; ~ a century, 100 runs at cricket; ~ tricks, when playing card-games. score an advantage over, win one. score a point (over sb), = score off sb. 4 score off sb, (informal) defeat him in an argument; make a clever response. 5 enter as a record: That remark will be ~d up against you, will be remembered (and, perhaps, be revenged). 6 write instrumental or vocal parts for a musical composition: ~d for violin, viola and cello. ⇨ score¹(6).

scorer, (a) person who keeps a record of points, goals, runs, etc scored in a game. (b) player who scores runs, goals, etc.

scorn /skɔ:n/ n [U] 1 feeling that a person or thing deserves no respect: be filled with ~ for her; dismiss a suggestion with ~. laugh sb/sth to scorn, laugh in a manner showing that he/it is inferior, worthless. 2 object of scorn: He was the ~ of the village. □ vi feel or show disrespect, disregard, for; refuse (to do something because it is unworthy): He ~ed my advice. She ~s lying/telling lies/to tell a lie.

scornful /-fl/ adj showing or feeling scorn: a ~ful smile.

scornfully /-fəli/ adv

Scorpio /'skɔ:piəʊ/ n the Scorpion, eighth sign of the zodiac.

scorpion /'skɔ:pɪən/ n [C] small animal of the spider group with a poisonous sting in its long, jointed tail.

Scot /skɒt/ n [C] native of Scotland.

scot-free /'skɒt 'fri:/ adj unharmed, unpunished: He went/got off ~.

Scotch /skɒtʃ/ adj of Scotland: ~ whisky, the kind distilled in Scotland. □ n [C, U] (portion of) Scotch whisky.

Scotch egg, boiled egg fried in sausage-meat.

Scots /skɒts/ n [C], adj ⇨ Scot.

'Scots-man /-mən/, -woman /-wʊmən/, native of Scotland.

Scot-tish /'skɒtɪʃ/ adj of, from, Scotland: ~ music.

scoundrel /'skaʊndrəl/ n [C] person who does wicked things.

scour¹ /'skauə(r)/ vt, vi 1 make (a dirty sur(face) clean or bright by using a rough cloth, pad of wire, with soap, sand, etc: ~ the pots and pans; ~ out a saucepan, clean the inside. 2 get rid of (rust, marks, etc) by rubbing, etc: ~ the rust off/away. 3 clear out (a channel, etc) by flowing over or through it: The torrent ~ed a channel down the hillside. □ n [C] act of scouring.

scourer, pad of stiff nylon or wire for cleaning pots and pans.

scour² /'skaʊə(r)/ vt, vi look everywhere for: The police ~ed London for the thief|were ~ing about.

scourge /skɜːdʒ/ n [C] 1 (old use) whip. 2 (modern use) (fig) cause of suffering: After the ~ of war came the ~ of disease. □ vt 1 (old use) whip. 2 (fig) cause suffering to.

scout /skaʊt/ n [C] 1 person, ship or small, fast aircraft, sent out to get information about the enemy. 2 S ~ member of an organization of boys intended to develop character and teach self-reliance, discipline and social awareness. 3 patrolman helping motorists who are members of a motoring organization. 4 person employed to look out for talented performers (in sport, etc) and recruit them for his employer(s): a ~ talent ~. □ vi scout about/around (for sb/sth), go about looking for.

'scout-master, officer who leads a troop of Scouts.

scowl /skaʊl/ n [C] bad-tempered look (on the face). □ vi look in a bad-tempered way: The prisoner ~ed at the judge.

scrabble /'skræbl/ vi scrabble about (for sth), grope about to find or collect.

scrag /skræg/ n [C] 1 lean, skinny person or animal. 2 (also ~end) bony part of a sheep's neck, used to make soup.

scrappy adj (-ier, -iest) thin and bony.

scram /skræm/ vi (-mm-) (sl) (used as an imperative) Go away quickly!

scramble /'skræmbəl/ vi, vt 1 climb (with difficulty) or crawl (over steep or rough ground): ~ up the side of a cliff|over a rocky hillside. 2 struggle with others to get something: The players were scrambling for possession of the ball. 3 cook (eggs) by beating them and then heating them in a saucepan with butter and milk. 4 make a message sent by telephone, etc unintelligible. □ n [C] 1 walk, motor-bike competition or trial, over or through obstacles, rough ground, etc. 2 rough struggle: There was a ~ for the best seats.

scrap¹ /skræp/ n [C] small (usually unwanted) piece: ~s of paper|broken glass. 2 (fig) small amount: not a ~ of truth in her statement. 3 [U] waste or unwanted articles, esp those of value only for the material they contain: He offers good prices for ~. 4 (pl) bits of uneaten food: Give the ~s to the dog. 5 [C] picture or paragraph cut out from a periodical, etc for a collection. □ vt (-pp-) 1 throw away as useless or worn-out: You ought to ~ that old bicycle and buy a new one. 2 reject a plan, idea, etc: This idea won't work, let's ~ it.

'scrap-book, book of blank pages on which to paste scraps(5).

'scrap heap, pile of waste or unwanted material or articles. throw sth/sb on the scrap heap, reject it/them as no longer wanted.

'scrap-iron, things made of iron to be sold for scrap(3).

scrappy adj (-ier, -iest) (a) made up of bits or scraps. (b) not complete or properly organized: a ~ idea.

scrap² /skræp/ n [C] (dated informal) fight, quarrel (between children). □ vi (-pp-) fight; quarrel.

scrape /skreip/ vt, vi 1 make clean, smooth or level by drawing or pushing the hard edge of a tool, or something rough, along the surface; remove (mud, grease, paint, etc) in this way: ~ the rust off a nail; ~ paint from a door. 2 injure or damage by rubbing, etc: The boy fell and ~d (the skin off) his knee. He ~d the side of his car. 3 make by scraping: ~ (out) a hole. 4 go, get, pass along, touching or almost touching: branches that ~ against the window. scrape through (sth), only just pass: The boy just ~d through (his exams). bow and scrape, (fig) behave with exaggerated respect. 5 obtain by being careful, or with effort: We managed to ~ together an audience of fifty people|enough money for a short holiday. scrape a living, with difficulty make enough money for a living. □ n [C] 1 act or sound of scraping: the ~ of a fork across a plate. 2 place that is scraped; injury: a bad ~ on the elbow, eg because of a fall. 3 awkward situation because of foolish or thoughtless behaviour: That boy is always getting into ~s.

scraper, tool used for scraping, eg for scraping paint from woodwork.

scrappy /'skræpi/ adj ⇨ scrap¹.

scratch¹ /'skrætʃ/ n [C] mark, cut, injury, sound, made by scratching(1): It's only a ~, a very small injury. He escaped without a ~, quite unhurt. 2 (sing only) act or period of scratching(5): The dog enjoys having a good ~. 3 (sing only without the, a or an) starting line for a race. start from scratch, (fig) (a) start at the beginning, without being allowed any advantage(s). (b) begin (something) without preparation. be/come/bring sb up to scratch, (fig) be ready/get him ready to do what is expected or required: Will you be up to ~ for the examination? 4 (as an adjective) brought together, done, made, with whatever or whoever is available: a ~ team.

scratchy adj (-ier, -iest) (a) (of writing, drawings) done carelessly. (b) (of a pen) making a scratching noise.

scratch ²/skrætʃ/ vt, vi 1 make lines on or in a surface with something pointed or sharp, eg fingernails, claws: This cat ~es. Who has ~ed the paint? scratch the surface, (fig) deal with a subject without getting deeply into it: The teacher merely ~ed the surface of the subject. 2 get (oneself, a part of the body) scratched by accident: He ~ed his hands badly on a rose-bush. 3 draw a line or lines through a word or words, a name, etc: ~ out his name from the list. 4 withdraw (a horse, a candidate, oneself) from a competition: The horse was ~ed. 5 scrape or rub (the skin), esp to stop itching: ~ mosquito bites. Stop ~ing (yourself). scratch one's head, show signs of being puzzled. 6 make by scratching: ~ (out) a hole. 7 make a scraping noise: This pen ~es. 8 tear or dig with the claws, fingernails, etc in search of something: The chickens were ~ing about in the yard.

scrawl /skrɔ:l/ vi, vt write or draw quickly or carelessly; make meaningless marks: He ~ed a few words on a postcard to his wife. Who has ~ed all over this wall? 1 [C] piece of bad writing; hurried note or letter. 2 (sing only) shapeless, untidy handwriting: His signature was an illegible ~.

scrawny /'skrɔ:ni/ adj (-ier, iest) thin and bony.

scream /skri:m/ vi, vt 1 (of humans, birds, animals) give a loud, sharp cry or cries of, or as of, fear or pain: The baby has been ~ing for an hour. 2 shout in a high voice: She ~ed out that there was a burglar under the bed. scream with laughter, laugh noisily. 3 (of the wind, machines, etc) make a loud, high noise: The wind ~ed through the trees. 1 [C] 1 loud, high, cry or noise: ~s of pain/laughter. 2 (informal) person or thing that causes screams of laughter: He/It was a perfect ~.

scree /skri:/ n [C, U] (part of a mountain-side covered with) small loose stones.

screech /skri:tʃ/ vi, vt 1 make a harsh, piercing sound: The brakes ~ed as the car stopped. The car ~ed to a halt. 2 scream (as) in anger or pain: monkeys ~ing in the trees. 1 [C] screeching cry or noise: the ~ of tyres on wet roads.

screed /skri:d/ n [C] long, dull letter or speech.

screen /skrin/ n [C] 1 (often movable) upright framework (some made so as to fold), used to divide a room, protect from draughts, etc. 2 (in a church) structure of wood or stone separating (but not completely) the main part of the church and the altar, or the nave of a cathedral and the choir. 3 anything that is or can be used to give shelter or protection from observation, the weather, etc: a ~ of trees, hiding a house from the road; a ~ smoke-~, used in war to hide ships, etc from the enemy. 4 white or silver surface on to which film transparencies, cinema films, TV pictures, etc are projected. 5 surface on which an image is seen on a cathode ray tube (as in a television set). 6 frame with fine wire netting ('window ~, 'door ~) to keep out flies, mosquitoes, etc. 1 vi, vi 1 shelter, hide, protect, with a screen: The trees ~ our house from public view. 2 (fig) protect from blame, discovery, punishment: I'm not willing to ~ you from blame. 3 investigate (a person's) history, eg when applying for a position in government service, in order to judge his loyalty, dependability, etc. 4 show (an object, a scene) on a screen (4, 5).

'screen-play, script of a film.

'screen-test, test of a person's suitability for acting in films.

'screen-ing, (a) wire netting for a screen (6). (b) process of screening (3).

screw /skru:/ n [C] 1 metal peg with slotted head and a spiral groove cut round its length, driven into wood, metal, etc by twisting under pressure, for fastening and holding things together. 2 something that is turned like a screw and is used for producing pressure, tightening, etc. put the screws on, (informal) use pressure, especially to intimidate. 3 action of turning; turn: This isn't tight enough yet; give it another ~. 4 (also '~-propeller) propeller of a ship: a twin-~ steamer. 5 (sl) prison warder. 1 vt, vi 1 fasten or tighten with a screw: ~ a lock on a door; ~ down the lid of a coffin. have one's head screwed on (the right way), be sensible, show good judgement. 2 twist round; make tight, tense or more efficient: ~ a lid on/off a jar; ~ up one's face/features/eyes, contract the muscles, eg when going out into bright sunshine from a dark room. screw up one's courage, become brave because determined. 3 (esp fig) force (out of): ~ more taxes out of the people. 4 screwed up, (sl) very confused; mentally disturbed.

'screw-driver, tool for turning a screw (1).

screwy adj (-ier, -iest) (informal) crazy; absurd.

scribble /'skribl/ vi 1 write quickly or carelessly. 2 make meaningless marks on paper, etc. 1 [U] careless handwriting; [C] something scribbled.

scrib-ble /'skriblə(r)/, person who scribbles.

scribe /skraib/ n [C] 1 person who, before the invention of printing, made copies of writings, eg in monasteries. 2 (among the Jews in olden times) maker and keeper of records; teacher of Jewish law (at the time of Jesus Christ).

script /skript/ n 1 [U] handwriting; printed characters in imitation of handwriting. 2 [C] (short for) manuscript or typescript.

'script-writer, person who writes scripts for radio, TV, films.

scrip-ture /'skriptʃə(r)/ n 1 The (Holy) S~s, the Bible; (as an adjective) taken from, relating to, the Bible: a 1 ~ lesson. 2 sacred book of a religion other than Christianity.

scrip-tural /'skriptʃərəl/ adj based on the Bible.

scroll /skrəʊl/ n [C] 1 roll of paper or parchment for writing on; ancient book written on a scroll. 2 ornamental design cut in stone like the curves of a scroll.

scro-tum /'skrəʊtəm/ n [C] (pl ~s) pouch of skin enclosing the testicles in mammals.

scrounge /skraʊndʒ/ vi, vt (informal) get what one wants by taking it without permission, borrowing or by trickery.

scrounger, person who scrounges.

scrub¹ /skrʌb/ n [U] (land covered with) trees and bushes of poor quality.

scrub² /skrʌb/ vt, vi (-bb-) 1 clean by rubbing hard, esp with a stiff brush, soap and water: ~ the floor. 2 cancel; ignore: ~ (out) an order. □ n [C] act of scrubbing: The floor needs a good ~.

'scrub-bing-brush, stiff brush for scrubbing floors, etc.

scruff /skrʌf/ n (only in) the scruff of the neck, (clothes near) the back of the neck when used for grasping.

scruffy /'skrʌfi/ adj (-ier, -iest) (informal) dirty, untended and untidy looking.

scrum /skram/ n [C] (abbr of) scrummage.

'scrum 'half, (rugby) the half-back who puts the ball into the scrum.

scrum-mage /'skramɪdʒ/ n [C] (rugby) the play when the forwards of both sides pack together with their heads down while the ball is thrown into the middle of them; all those forwards when such play occurs.

scruple /'skru:pl/ n [C, U] (feeling of doubt caused by a) troubled conscience: Have you no ~s about borrowing things without permission? □ vi hesitate owing to scruples: He doesn't ~ to tell a lie if he thinks it useful. (Note: usually negative.)

scru-pu-lous /'skru:pjʊləs/ adj careful to do nothing morally wrong; paying great attention to small points (esp of conscience): A solicitor must act with ~ honesty.

scru-pu-lous-ly adv in a scrupulous manner.

scru-ti-nize (also -ise) /'skru:tinaɪz/ vt make a detailed examination of.

scru-tiny /'skru:tɪni/ US: -tani/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] thorough and detailed examination; [C] instance of this. 2 [C] official examination of votes, esp a re-count: demand a ~.

scuff /skʌf/ vi, vt 1 walk without properly lifting the feet from the ground. 2 wear out or scrape (shoes, etc) by walking in this way: ~ one's shoes.

scuffle /'skʌfl/ vi, n [C] (take part in a) rough fight or struggle: police scuffling with demonstrators.

scull /skʌl/ n [C] 1 one of a pair of oars used by a rower. 2 oar worked at the stern (back) of a boat with twisting strokes. □ vt, vi move, row,

(a boat) with sculls.

scul-ler, person who sculls.

scul-lery /'skʌləri/ n [C] (pl -ies) room in a large house next to the kitchen, where dishes, pots, etc are washed up.

'scullery-maid, servant who helps the cook by washing up dishes, etc.

sculpt /skʌlpt/ vt, vi = sculpture.

sculp-tor /'skʌlptə(r)/ n [C] artist who sculpts.

sculp-tress /'skʌlptɪs/ n [C] woman who sculpts.

sculpt-ure /'skʌlptʃə(r)/ n 1 [U] art of making representations in stone, wood, metal, etc by carving or modelling. 2 [C, U] (piece of) such work. □ vt, vi 1 represent in, decorate with, sculpture: ~ a statue out of stone; ~ d columns. 2 be a sculptor.

scum /skʌm/ n [U] 1 froth which forms on the surface of some boiling liquids; dirt on the surface of a pond or other area of still water. 2 the ~, (fig) the worst, or seemingly worthless, section (of the community, etc).

scup-per /'skʌpə(r)/ n [C] opening in a ship's side to allow water to run off the deck. □ vt 1 sink a ship deliberately. 2 (informal) (usually passive) ruin; disable: We're ~ed!

scurf /skʌ:f/ n [U] small bits of dead skin, esp on the scalp.

scurfy adj having, covered with, scurf.

scur-ri-lous /'skʌrɪləs/ adj using, full of, violent words of abuse: ~ attacks on the Prime Minister.

scurry /'skʌri/ US: 'skəri/ vi (pt, pp -ied) run with short, quick steps; hurry: The rain sent everyone ~ing about~ing for shelter. □ n 1 [U] act or sound of scurrying: There was a ~ towards the bar. 2 [C] windy shower (of snow); cloud (of dust).

scurvy /'skʌ:vi/ n [U] diseased state of the blood caused by eating too much salt meat and not enough fresh vegetables and fruit.

scuttle¹ /'skʌtl/ n [C] (also 'coal-~) container for a supply of coal at the fireside.

scuttle² /'skʌtl/ vi scuttle off/away, = scurry. □ n [C] hurried departure.

scuttle³ /'skʌtl/ n [C] small opening with a lid, in a ship's side or on deck or in a roof or wall. □ vt cut holes in, open valves in, a ship's sides or bottom to sink it: The captain ~d his ship to avoid its being captured by the enemy.

scythe /saɪð/ n [C] tool with a curved blade on a long wooden pole with two short handles, for cutting long grass, grain, etc. □ vt use a scythe.

sea /si:/ n 1 the ~, expanse of salt water that covers most of the earth's surface; any part of this (in contrast to areas of fresh water and dry land): Ships sail on the ~. The ~ covers nearly three-quarters of the world's surface. on the sea, on the coast: Brighton is on the ~. 2 (pl) same sense as 1 above. the high seas, ⇨

high¹. 3 (in proper names) particular area of sea which is smaller than an ocean: the Caspian S~; the S~ of Galilee. 4 (in various phrases without the, a or an) at sea, away from, out of sight of, the land: He was buried at ~. all/completely at sea, (fig) puzzled: He was all at ~ when he began his new job. by sea, in a ship: travel by ~ and land. go to sea, become a sailor. put to sea, leave port or land. 5 (with a, an or in pl) local state of the sea swell of the ocean; big wave or billow: There was a heavy ~, large waves. 6 large quantity or expanse (of): a ~ of up-turned faces, eg crowds of people looking upwards.

sea ¹*air*, air at the seaside, considered to be good for health.

sea-anemone, popular name for a sea-creature like a flower.

sea-animal, animal living in the sea, eg fish, mammals, molluscs, etc.

sea-bathing, bathing in the sea.

sea-bed, floor of the sea sea-bird, any bird which lives close to the sea, ie on cliffs, islands, etc.

sea-board, coastal region.

sea-borne adj (of trade) carried in ships.

sea-breeze, breeze blowing inland from the sea.

sea-faring /-fearɪŋ/ adj of work or voyages on the sea: a ~faring man, a sailor.

sea-fish, fish living in the sea.

sea-food, edible fish or shellfish from the sea.

sea-front, part of a town facing the sea.

sea-god, god living in or having power over the sea, eg Neptune.

sea-going adj (a) (of ships) built for crossing the sea, not for coastal voyages only. (b) (of a person) seafaring.

sea-green adj, n [U] bluish-green.

sea-gull, common seabird with long wings.

sea-horse, small fish with a head like a horse.

sea-legs, ability to walk on the deck of a moving ship: get/find one's ~-legs.

sea-level, level of sea halfway between high and low tide as the basis for measuring height of land and depth of sea: 100 metres above/below ~-level.

sea-lion, large seal of the N Pacific Ocean.

sea-man /-mən/, (a) (in the Navy) rating, not an officer. (b) person expert in nautical matters.

sea-man-ship, skill in managing a boat or ship.

sea mile, nautical mile.

sea-plane, aircraft designed so that it can come down on and rise from water.

sea-port, town with a harbour used by sea-going ships.

sea-power, ability to control and use the seas (by means of naval strength).

sea-scape, picture of a scene at sea. ⇨ landscape.

sea-shell, shell of any shellfish living in the sea.

sea-shore, land nearest the sea.

sea-sick adj (feeling) sick from the motion of a ship.

sea-side, (often used as an adjective) place, town, etc by the sea, esp a holiday resort: go to the ~side; a ~side town.

sea-urchin, small sea-animal with a shell covered with long sharp points.

sea-wall, wall built to stop the sea from approaching the land.

sea-water, water from the sea.

sea-weed, kinds of plant growing in the sea, esp on rocks washed by the sea.

sea-ward /-wəd/ adj towards the sea; in the direction of the sea.

sea-wards /-wədz/ adv

sea-worthy adj (of a ship) fit for a voyage.

seal¹ /si:l/ n [C] kinds of mammals of the sea with fur and flippers. □ vi hunt seals.

seal-skin, skin of a seal.

seal² /si:l/ n [C] 1 piece of wax, lead, etc stamped with a design, attached to a document to show that it is genuine, or to a letter, packet, box, bottle, door, etc to guard against its being opened by unauthorized persons. 2 something used instead of a seal(1), eg a paper disc stuck to, or an impression stamped on, a document. 3 piece of metal, etc with a design used to stamp the seal on wax, etc. 4 seal of, (fig) act, event, etc regarded as a confirmation or guarantee or giving approval (of something): the ~ of approval for spending the money. 5 something that closes a thing tight to prevent leaks: an airtight ~. □ vt 1 put a seal(1) on: ~ a letter. 2 fasten or close tightly: ~ an envelope; ~ up a drawer. 3 seal off, enclose to prevent entry or exit: ~ off an area of land. 4 decide: His fate is ~ed!

seal-ing-wax, kind of wax used to seal letters, string round parcels, etc.

seam /sɪm/ n [C] 1 line where two edges, eg of cloth, are turned back and sewn together. 2 line where two edges, eg of boards forming a ship's deck, meet. 3 layer of coal, etc between layers of other materials, eg rock, clay. 4 line or mark like a seam(1) (eg of folded paper).

seam-stress /ˈsi:mstres/, (also semp-stress /ˈsempstres/) n [C] woman who makes a living by sewing.

sé-ance /ˈseɪ.əns US: ˈseɪ.əns/ n [C] meeting for communicating with the spirits of the dead through a medium(4).

sear /sɪə(r)/ vt 1 burn or scorch the surface of, esp with a heated iron. 2 (fig) make (a person, his conscience, etc) hard and without feeling: His soul had been ~ed by injustice.

search /sɜ:tʃ/ vt, vi examine, look carefully at, through, or into (in order to find a person or thing): He ~ed through all the drawers for the missing papers. I've ~ed my memory but can't remember that man's name. □ n [C, U] 1 act of searching: go in ~ of a missing child; a ~ for a missing aircraft. 2 (legal) investigation (eg by lawyers) into possible reasons (eg planned demolition) why one should not buy land or property.

'search-light, powerful light with a beam that can be turned in any direction to search for the enemy, escaped prisoners, etc.

'search-party, number of persons looking for a person or thing that is lost.

'search-warrant, official authority to enter and search a building (eg for drugs).

searcher, person who searches.

searching adj (a) (of a look) taking in all details. (b) (of a test, etc) thorough.

sea-son /'si:zn/ n [C] 1 one of the divisions of the year according to the weather, eg spring, summer, etc: the 'dry ~; the 'rainy ~. 2 period suitable or normal for something, or closely associated with it: the 'football ~; the 'holiday/tourist ~. in/out of season, available/not available: Oysters/Strawberries are out of ~ now. □ vt, vi 1 make or become suitable for use: Has this wood been well ~ed, dried and hardened? The soldiers were not yet ~ed to the tropical climate. 2 flavour (food) (with salt, pepper, etc): highly ~ed dishes.

'season-ticket, (a) one that gives the owner the right to travel between places as often as he wishes for a stated period of time. (b) ticket that gives the owner the right to attend a theatre, etc for a certain period.

sea-son-ing, something used to season food: Salt and pepper are ~ings.

sea-son-able /'si:znəbl/ adj 1 (of the weather) of the kind expected at the time of year. 2 (of help, advice, gifts, etc) coming at the right time.

sea-sonal /'si:znəl/ adj depending on a particular season; changing with the seasons: ~ occupations, eg fruit-picking.

sea-son-ally /-əli/ adv seat /si:t/ n [C] 1 something used or made for sitting on, eg a chair, box, bench: The back ~ of the car is wide enough for three persons.

take a seat, sit: Won't you take a seat? take one's seat, sit down in one's place, eg in a hall or theatre. take a back seat, ⇨ back seat. 2 that part of a chair, stool, bench, etc on which one sits (contrasted with the back, legs, etc): a 'chair-~. 3 part of the body (the buttocks) on which one sits; part of clothing covering this: He tore the ~ of his pants. 4 place to sit in a cinema, theatre, etc or in which one has a right to sit: Mr Smith has a ~ in the House of Commons, is a member. win a seat/lose one's seat, win/be defeated in a Parliamentary election. 5 place where something is, or where something is carried on: In the US, Washington is the ~ of government. A university is a ~ of learning. 6 large house in the country: He has a country ~ as well as a large house in London. □ vt 1 (formal) be seated, sit down: Please/Kindly be ~ed, gentlemen. 2 have seats for: Our community hall ~s 500.

'seat-belt, strap for fastening across a seated passenger in a car or aircraft.

seca-teurs /'sekə'tɜ:z/ n pl (also a pair of ~) clippers used by gardeners for pruning bushes, roses, etc.

se-cede /sɪ'si:d/ vi (of a group) withdraw (from membership of a state, federation, organization, etc).

se-ces-sion /sɪ'seʃn/ n [U] seceding; [C] instance of this (as in the US when eleven Southern States withdrew from the Federal Union in 1810–11).

se-ces-sion-ist /-ɪst/ n [C] supporter of secession.

se-clude /sɪ'klud:/ vt keep (a person, oneself) away from the company of others: ~ oneself from society; keep a wife ~d in the kitchen.

se-cluded adj (esp of a place) apart.

se-clu-sion /sɪ'kluzn/ n [U] secluding or being secluded; solitary place: live in ~; in the ~ of one's own home.

sec-ond ¹/sɪ'kɒnd/ adj (abbr 2nd) 1 next after the first (in place, time, order, importance, etc): February is the ~ month of the year. Tom is the ~ son—he has an elder brother. second to 'none, no other person, idea, etc is better. In the 'second place... = secondly. 2 additional; extra: You will need a ~ pair of shoes. play second fiddle (to), ⇨ fiddle(1). 3 of the same kind as one that has gone before: This man thinks he's a ~ Napoleon! □ adv in the second place (in importance or in a race): The English swimmer came (in) ~.

second-Advent/'Coming, return of Jesus Christ at the Last Judgement.

second-¹best adj next after the best: my ~-best 'suit. □ n, adv: I won't accept/put up with ~-best. come off second-best, get the worst of it.

second 'chamber, upper house in a legislature: The House of Lords is the ~ chamber of Parliament in Great Britain.

second-¹class adj, n (a) (of the) class next after the first: a ~-class ho'tel; (b) class below the first in examination results: take a ~-class de'gree in law. (c) (regarded or treated as) inferior: ~-class 'citizens. □ adv: go ~-class.

second 'childhood, period of old age when a person shows a weakening of mental powers: He's in his ~ childhood.

second 'cousin, ⇨ cousin.

second 'floor, the one above the first (GB two floors up, in US one floor above the ground): (as an adjective) a ~-floor d'partment.

second gene'ration, having parents who were immigrants, members, etc.

second-hand adj (a) previously owned by someone else: ~hand 'furniture/'books. (b) (of news, knowledge) obtained from others, not based on personal observation, etc: get news ~hand.

second 'home, (a) another home. (b) (fig) like one's house (because friendly, etc).

second lieu'tenant, lowest commissioned rank in the Army.

second 'name, = surname.

second 'nature, tendency that has become instinctive like a habit: Kindness is ~ nature to him.

second-rate adj not of the best quality; inferior: a man with ~rate ideas.

second 'sight, power to see future events, or events happening at a distance, as if present.

second 'string adj, n (of) an alternative course of action after initial failure.

second 'teeth, those which grow after a child's first teeth are out.

second thoughts, opinion or resolution reached after reconsideration: On ~ thoughts I will accept the offer. I'm having ~ thoughts (= am not so sure) about buying that house.

second 'wind, renewed strength, energy.

second-ly adv and a second example is; in the next place; furthermore.

sec-ond² /'sekənd/ n [C] 1 person or thing that comes next to the first: the ~ of May; Queen Elizabeth the S~ (or II). get a second, get a second-class degree. 2 another person or thing besides the person or thing previously mentioned: You are the ~ to ask me that question. 3 (pl) goods below the best in quality: There are many cheap ~s of china in the sale. 4 supporter of a boxer or wrestler; supporter in a dual.

sec-ond³ /'sekənd/ n [C] 1 sixtieth part of a minute or a degree: The winner's time was 1 minute and 5 ~s. 1° 6' 10" means one degree, six minutes, and ten ~s. 2 moment; short time: I'll be ready in a ~ or two/in a few ~s.

'second-hand, extra hand in some watches and clocks recording seconds. ⇨ also second-hand at second¹.

se-cond⁴ /'sekənd/ vt 1 support (esp a boxer, wrestler). 2 (a debate, etc) rise or speak formally in support of a motion to show that the proposer is not the only person in favour of it: Mr Smith proposed, and Mr Green ~ed, a vote of thanks to the lecturer. se-conder, person who supports a proposal or motion (3) at a meeting.

se-cond⁵ /sɪ'kɒnd US: 'sekənd/ vt take (a person) from his ordinary duty and give him special duty: be ~ed by the BBC to work for another radio station.

se-cond-ment n [U] sec-ond-ary /'sekəndrɪ US: -derɪ/ adj 1 coming after: ~ education/schools, for children over eleven. 2 less important or less strong: ~ symptoms.

secondary stress, (marked //) in this dictionary eg on the second syllable of 'pronunciation' /prəˌnʌnsɪ'eɪʃn/.

sec-ond-ar-ily /-dənrɪ US: -der-/ adv se-crecy /'sɪkrəsi/ n [U] keeping of secrets; ability to keep secrets; habit of keeping secrets; state of being kept secret: I depend on your ~; prepare an escape in ~, secretly; do it with great ~. swear sb to secrecy. ⇨ swear (2).

se-cret /'sɪkriːt/ adj 1 (to be) kept from the knowledge or view of others; of which others have no knowledge: a ~ marriage. keep sth secret, (from), not tell it. 2 (of places) quiet and unknown. ⇨ n 1 [C] something that is secret. keep a secret, not tell anyone else: Can you keep a ~? (be) an open secret, (of something thought to be secret) be (in fact) widely known. 2 [C] hidden cause; explanation, way of doing or getting something, that is not known to some or most people: What is the ~ of his success? 3 [U] in secret, secretly: I was told about it in ~. 4 [C] mystery: the ~s of nature.

'secret agent, member of the secret service.

'secret ballot, when voters' choices are secret.

'secret police, operating in secret (against political opposition).

the 'secret service, government department concerned with spying.

se-cret-ly adv

sec-re-tar-ial /'sekɾə'teəriəl/ adj of (the work of) secretaries: ~ duties/training/colleges.

sec-re-tar-iat /'sekɾə'teəriət/ n [C] official department of a senior minister, esp of UNO.

sec-re-tary /'sekɾətɪ US: -rətəri/ n [C] (pl -ies) 1 employee in an office, who deals with correspondence, keeps records, makes arrangements and appointments for a particular member of staff. 2 official who has charge of the correspondence, records, and other business affairs of a society, club or other organization.

Secretary of State, (a) (GB) minister in charge of a Government office: the S~ of State for Foreign and Commonwealth Affairs. (b) (US) chief and foreign minister.

'Secretary-General, principal administrator (eg of UNO).

se-crete /sɪ'kriːt/ vt 1 produce by secretion (1). 2 put or keep in a secret place.

se-cre-tion /sɪ'kriːʃn/ n 1 [U] process by which certain substances in a plant or animal body are separated (from sap, blood, etc); [C] substance so produced, eg saliva, bile. 2 [C] (formal) act of hiding: the ~ of stolen goods.

se-cret-ive /'si:krətv/ adj having the habit of hiding one's feelings, intentions, etc.

se-cre-tive-ly adv

sect /sekt/ n [C] group of people united by (esp religious) beliefs or opinions.

sec-tar-ian /sek'teəriən/ n [C], adj (member, supporter) of a sect or sects: ~ politics, in which the advantage of a sect is considered more important than the public welfare.

sec-tion /'sekʃn/ n [C] 1 part cut off; one of the parts into which something may be divided: the ~s of an orange. 2 one of a number of parts which can be put together to make a structure: glue the ~s of the model together. 3 subdivision of an organized body of persons (the 'Postal S~), or of a piece of writing or of a town or community: 'res'i'dential/shopping ~s (area is the usual word). 4 view or representation of something seen as if cut straight through; thin slice suitable for examination under a microscope.

sec-tional /-ʃənl/ adj (a) made or supplied in sections (2): a ~al fishing-rod. (b) of one or more sections of a community, etc: ~al interests, the different and often conflicting interests of various sections of a community.

sec-tion-al-ism /-izəm/ n [U] concern about sectional interests, not the community as a whole.

sec-tor /'sektə(r)/ n [C] 1 part of a circle lying between two straight lines drawn from the centre to the circumference. 2 one of the parts into which an area is divided for the purpose of controlling (esp military) operations. 3 branch (of industry, etc): the public and private ~s of industry, those parts publicly owned and those privately owned.

secu-lar /'sekjələ(r)/ adj 1 worldly or material, not religious or spiritual: the ~ power, the State contrasted with the Church. 2 living outside monasteries: the ~ clergy.

se-cure /sɪ'kjʊə(r)/ adj (rarely -r, -st) 1 free from anxiety: feel ~ about the future. 2 certain; guaranteed: He has a ~ position as a university lecturer. 3 unlikely to involve risk; firm: Are you sure the doors and windows are ~? Is that ladder ~? 4 safe: Are we ~ from attack? □ vi 1 lock: S~ all the doors and windows before leaving the house. 2 make secure: By strengthening the embankments they ~d the village against/floods. 3 succeed in getting (something for which there is a great demand): She has ~d a good teaching job/job in teaching.

se-cure-ly adv

se-cur-ity /sɪ'kjʊərəti/ n (pl -ies) 1 [C,U] (something that provides) safety, freedom from danger or anxiety: children without the ~ of parental care. 2 [C,U] something valuable, eg a life-insurance policy, given as a guarantee for the repayment of a loan or the fulfilment of a promise or undertaking: lend money on ~; offer a house as (a) ~ for a loan. 3 [C] document, certificate, etc showing ownership of property (esp bonds, stocks and shares): government securities, for money lent to a government.

se-date /sɪ'deɪt/ adj (of a person, behaviour) calm; serious.

se-date-ly adv

se-da-tion /sɪ'deɪʃn/ n [U] treatment using sedatives; condition resulting from this. be under sedation, have taken sedatives.

se-da-tive /'sedətɪv/ n [C], adj (medicine, drug) tending to calm the nerves and reduce stress: After taking a ~ she was able to get to sleep. He is under ~s and feels no pain.

sed-en-tary /'sedəntəri/ US: -terɪ adj 1 (of work) done sitting down (at a desk, etc). 2 (of persons) spending much of their time seated: lead a ~ life.

sed-i-ment /'sedɪmənt/ n [U] matter (eg sand, dirt, gravel) that settles to the bottom of a liquid.

sed-i-men-tary /'sedɪ'mentəri/ adj of the nature of, formed from, sediment: ~ary rocks, eg sandstone.

se-di-tion /sɪ'dɪʃn/ n [U] words or actions intended to make people rebel against authority, disobey the government, etc.

se-di-tious /sɪ'dɪʃəs/ adj of the nature of sedition: sedition speeches/writings.

se-duce /sɪ'dju:s/ US: -du:s vt 1 persuade (a person) to do wrong, to commit a crime or to sin: be ~d by the offer of money into betraying one's country. 2 persuade a person less experienced to have sexual intercourse: How many women did Don Juan ~?

se-ducer, person who seduces, esp (2).

se-duc-tion /sɪ'dʌkʃn/ n 1 [U] seducing or being seduced; [C] instance of this. 2 something attractive that may lead a person to do something (but often with no implication of immorality): the ~s of country life.

se-duc-tive /sɪ'dʌktɪv/ adj attractive; captivating: seductive smiles; a seductive offer.

se-duc-tive-ly adv

sedu-lous /'sedjʊləs/ US: 'sedʒʊləs adj (formal) persevering; done with perseverance: He paid her ~ attention.

see¹ /sɪ/ vi, vt (pt saw /sɔ:/, pp seen /sɪn/) (For special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions, ⇨ 11 below.) 1 (often with can, could; not usually in the progressive tenses) have or use the power of sight: If you shut your eyes you can't ~. It was getting dark and I couldn't ~ to read. On a clear day we can ~ (for) miles. seeing is believing, (proverb) What we ourselves see is the best evidence.

see red, ⇨ red(1). be 'seeing things, imagine that one can see things that are not there or that do not exist: You're ~ing things—there's nobody there! 2 (often with can, could, esp when effort is needed; not in the progressive tenses) be aware of by using the power of sight: *I saw him put the key in the lock, turn it and open the door. The suspected man was ~n to enter the building. If you watch carefully you will ~ how to do it/how I do it/how it is done. I looked for him but he was not to be ~n, I could not find him. be glad to see the back of sb, ⇨ back²(1). see the last of sb/sth, see for the last time; have finished, completed, it: *I'll be glad to ~ the last of this job. see the sights, visit well-known places, etc as a tourist. see stars, ⇨ star(1). see one's way (clear) to doing sth, ⇨ way(8). 3 (in the imperative) look (at): S~, here he comes! S~ page 4. 4 (not in the progressive tenses) understand; learn by search or inquiry or thinking: He didn't ~ the joke/the point of the story. Do you ~ what I mean? as 'I see it, in my opinion. see for oneself, find out personally in order to be convinced or satisfied: If you don't believe me, go and ~ for yourself! 5 learn from the newspaper or other printed sources: *I ~ that the Prime Minister is in China. 6 have knowledge or experience of: *He has ~n a good deal in his long life. I never saw such rudeness. have seen better days, ⇨ day(4). 7 give an interview to; visit; receive a call from: *The manager can ~ you for five minutes. You ought to ~ a doctor about that cough. 8 allow; look on without protest or action: *You can't ~ people starve without trying to help them, can you? 9 attend to; take care; make provision: *S~ that the windows and doors are locked|that the children have enough food. 10 imagine: *He saw himself as the saviour of his country.*****

11 (special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions):

see about sth, deal with: *He promised to ~ about my broken window. see sb about sth, take advice: *I must ~ a builder about my roof.

see sb across sth, guide, help, him across (a road, etc): That man's blind—I'd better ~ him across the street.

see sb back/home, accompany him: May I ~ you home?

see sb off, go to a railway station, an airport, etc with a person about to start on a journey: I was ~n off by my friends.

see sb out, accompany a person until he is out of a building: My secretary will ~ you out.

see over sth, visit and examine or inspect carefully: We saw over a house that we wanted to buy.

see through sb/sth, not be deceived by: We all saw through him, knew what kind of man he really was. see sb through (sth), give him support, encouragement during (it).

see sth through, not give up an undertaking until the end is reached: Whatever happens, we'll ~ the struggle through.

see to sth, attend to it: The break won't work; get a mechanic to ~ to it.

see² /si:/ n [C] district under a bishop; bishop's position, office, jurisdiction: the S~ of Canterbury.

seed /si:d/ n [C] (pl ~s or unchanged) 1 flowering plant's element of life, from which another plant can grow: *a packet of ~(s). run/go to seed, (a) stop flowering as seed is produced. (b) (fig) become careless of one's appearance and manners. 2 cause, origin (of a tendency, development, etc): *sow the ~s of virtue in young children. 3 = semen. 4 (sport) seeded player: *England's No. 1 ~, eg in a tennis championship. ⇨ 4 below. □ vi, vt 1 (of a plant) produce seed when full grown. 2 sow with seed: ~ a field with wheat. 3 remove seed from: ~ raisins. 4 (esp in tennis) separate the best players from the rest when organizing competitions (in order to have good matches later in a tournament): ~ed players.

'seed-bed, area of fine soil in which to sow seed.

'seeds-man, dealer in seeds.

seed-less adj having no seed: ~less raisins.

seed-ling /'si:dlɪŋ/, young plant grown from a seed.

seedy /'si:di/ adj (-ier, -iest) 1 full of seed. 2 (informal) looking worn, neglected, etc: a ~ hotel; a ~-looking person. 3 (informal) unwell: feel ~.

seed-ily /-əli/ adv

seek /sɪk/ vi (pt, pp sought /sɔ:t/) 1 look for; try to find: ~ shelter from the rain. seek one's fortune, to try to become rich: *He's gone to Canada to ~ his fortune. 2 ask for: *I will ~ my doctor's advice. 3 seek for, try to win: ~ing for glory in football. (much) sought after, (much) in demand.

seem /sɪm/ vi have or give the impression or appearance of being or doing; appear to be: What ~s easy to some people ~s difficult to others. He ~s to think so. The book ~s (to be) quite interesting.

seem-ing adj apparent but perhaps not real or genuine: In spite of his ~ing friendship he gave me no help.

seem-ing-ly adv apparently.

seem-ly /'si:mli/ adj (-ier, -iest) (of behaviour) proper or correct (for the occasion or circumstances): It isn't ~ to praise oneself.

seen /sɪn/ pp of see¹.

seep /si:p/ vi (of liquids) come out or through: water ~ing through the roof.

seep-age /-ɪdʒ/ n [U] slow leaking through.

seer /sɪə(r)/ n [C] person claiming to see into the future.

see-saw /'si:sɔ:/ n [C, U] 1 (game played on a) long plank with a person sitting on each end which can rise and fall alternately. 2 (fig) up-and-down or to-and-fro movement: the ~ of bank interest charges. □ vi 1 play on a seesaw. 2 move up and down or to and fro. 3 be uncer- tain: ~ between two opinions/points of view.

seethe /si:ð/ vi, vt be very excited or agitated: ~ with anger; a country seething with discontent; streets seething with people.

seg-ment /'segmənt/ n [C] 1 part cut off or marked off by a line: a ~ of a circle. 2 section: a ~ of an orange. □ vt, vi /seg'ment/ divide, become divided, into segments.

seg-re-gate /'segrigeit/ vt put apart from the rest; isolate: ~ the boys from the girls.

seg-re-ga-tion /,segr'geiʃn/ n [U] seis-mic /'saizmik/ adj of earthquakes.

seis-mo-graph /'saizməgrəf/ US: -græf/ n [C] instrument which records the strength, duration and distance away of earthquakes.

seis-mol-ogist /saiz'mələdʒist/ n [C] scientist studying earthquakes.

seis-mol-ogy /saiz'mələdʒi/ n [U] science of earthquakes.

seize /si:z/ vt, vi 1 take possession of (property, etc) by law: ~ her house for payment of a debt. 2 take hold of, suddenly and with force: ~ a thief by the collar. 3 see clearly and use: seizing (on) an idea/a chance/an opportunity. 4 (of moving parts of machinery) become stuck or jammed, eg because of too much heat or friction: The engine has ~ed (up).

seiz-ure /'si:ʒə(r)/ n 1 [U] act of seizing or taking possession of by force or the authority of the law; [C] instance of this: ~ of drugs by Customs officers. 2 [C] heart attack.

sel-dom /'seldəm/ adv not often; rarely: She ~ goes out. She goes out very ~.

se-lect /sɪ'lekt/ vt choose (as being the most suitable, etc): ~ a book/a present for a child. Who has been ~ed to speak at the meeting? □ adj 1 carefully chosen: ~ passages from 'Hamlet'. 2 of or for a particular group of persons, not for all: shown to a ~ audience.

se-lec-tion /sɪ'lektʃn/ n 1 [U] choosing. □ natural selection. 2 [C] collection or group of selected things or examples; number of things from which to select: That shop has a good ~ of handbags.

se-lec-tive /sɪ'lektiv/ adj 1 having the power to select; characterized by selection. 2 choosing only the best: a ~ school, that chooses its pupils.

se-lec-tive-ly adv

se-lec-tor /sɪ'lektə(r)/ n [C] person who, that which, selects, eg a member of a committee choosing a national sports team, etc.

self /self/ n (pl selves /selvz/) 1 [U] person's nature, special qualities; one's own personality: my former ~, myself as I used to be. 2 one's own interests or pleasure: She has no thought of ~ (herself is more usual), thinks only of others.

self- /self/ prefix of oneself or itself alone, independent: ~-taught, taught by oneself.

self-a-basement, degrading of oneself.

self-ab-sorbed adj thinking of one's own interests only, unaware of other people.

self-as-sertion, n [U] the putting forward of oneself or one's ideas in an effort to be noticed by everyone.

self-as-surance, confidence in oneself. Hence, self-as-sured adj self-centred adj interested chiefly in oneself and one's own affairs.

self-confessed adj admitted by oneself: a ~-confessed thief.

self-confidence, belief in one's own abilities. Hence, self-confident adj self-conscious adj (a) aware of one's own existence, thoughts and actions. (b) shy; embarrassed. Hence, self-consciousness n [U] self-con-tained adj (a) (of a person) not dependent on others. (b) (esp of a flat') complete in itself (not sharing the kitchen, bathroom, etc with occupants of other flats).

self-con-trol, control of one's own feelings, behaviour, etc: exercise ~-control; lose one's ~-control.

self-de-fence, defence of one's own body, property, rights, etc: kill a person in ~-defence, while defending oneself against an attack.

self-de-nial, going without things in order to help others.

self-effacing adj keeping oneself in the background (and avoiding praise, attention).

self-em-ployed adj working, eg as a shopkeeper, as an owner of a business.

self-es-teem, good opinion (sometimes exaggerated) of oneself.

self-evident adj clearly true and not needing further proof or evidence. Hence, self-evidently adv self-ex-planatory adj clear without (further) explanation.

self-generating, produced from the thing itself or the person himself.

self-government, independent government (not a colony).

self-im-portant adj having too high an opinion of oneself. Hence, self-im-portance n [U] self-im-posed adj (of a duty, task, etc) imposed on oneself.

self-in-dulgent adj giving way too easily to one's preferred comfort, pleasures, etc: Hence, self-in-dulgence n [U] self-interest, one's own interests and personal advantage.

self-pity, (exaggerated) pity for oneself.

self-pos-sessed adj calm, confident: a ~-possessed young woman.

self-pres-er-va-tion, keeping oneself from harm or destruction: the instinct of ~-preservation.

self-raising adj (of flour) not needing the addition of baking-powder for cakes, etc to rise.

self-re'liant adj having or showing confidence in one's own powers, judgement, etc. Hence, self-re'liance n [U] self-re'spect, feeling that one is behaving and thinking in ways that will not cause one to be ashamed of oneself: lose all ~-respect.

self-re'specting adj having self-respect: No ~-respecting man could agree to do such a thing.

self-re'straint, = self-control.

self-'righteous adj convinced of one's own goodness and that one is better than others.

self-'rule, = self-government.

self-'sacrifice, the giving up of one's own interests and wishes for the sake of other people. Hence, self-'sacrificing adj self-same adj identical: Tom and I reached Paris on the ~-same day.

self-satis'faction, too much satisfaction with one's achievement(s) or position.

self-'service, (a) (of a canteen, restaurant), one at which persons collect their own food and drink from counters and carry it to tables. (b) (of a shop) one at which customers collect what they want from counters or shelves (in wire baskets) and pay as they leave. (c) (of a garage) one at which customers fill their cars with petrol.

self-'styled adj using a name, title, etc which one has given oneself and to which one has no right: a ~-styled expert on music.

self-'sufficient adj needing no help from others: The country is now ~-sufficient in oil, no longer has to import it.

self-sup'porting adj (a) (of a person) earning enough money to keep oneself: now that my children are ~-supporting. (b) (of a business, etc) not needing financial help.

self-'taught adj not taught by others.

self-'will, determination to do as one wishes and not be guided by others. Hence, self-'willed adj.

self-ish /'selfɪʃ/ adj chiefly thinking of one's self and one's own affairs: act from ~ motives.

self-ish-ly adv

self-ish-ness n [U]

sell /sel/ vt, vi (pt, pp sold /sould/) 1 give in exchange for money: ~ books; ~ a car at a good price; ~ oranges at fivepence each. Will you ~ me your bike? I'll ~ it to you for £5. sell sth off, sell (goods, etc) cheaply. sell sth out, sell all of one's stock of something: We are sold out of small sizes. sell (sb) short, ⚡ short² (2). 2 keep stocks for sale; be a dealer in: Do you ~ needles? 3 (of goods) be sold; find buyers: Your house ought to ~ for at least £18000. 4 cause to be sold: It's the low prices which ~ our goods. 5 'sell oneself, (a) present oneself to others in a convincing way (eg when applying for a job). (b) do something dishonourable for money or reward. 6 cheat; disappoint by failure to keep an agreement, etc: I've been sold! sell sb down the river, ⚡ river (1). 7 be sold on sth, (informal) agree with it, believe that it is good, etc: Are they sold on the idea of socialism?

sel-ler, person who sells: a 'book~er. ⚡ bestseller.

'sell-out, (a) event (a football match, concert, etc) for which all tickets have been sold. (b) (informal) betrayal: government policies which are ~-out.

sel-vage, sel-vedge /'selvɪdʒ/ n [C] edge of cloth woven so that threads do not come apart.

selves /selvz/ pl of self.

sem-an-tic /sɪ'mæntɪk/ adj relating to meaning in language.

se-man-tics n pl (used with a sing verb) branch of linguistics concerned with studying the meanings of words and sentences.

sema-phere /'seməfə(r)/ n [U] system (code) for sending signals, eg by using arms on a post or flags held in the hands, with various positions for the letters of the alphabet. □ vt, vi send (messages) by semaphore.

semi-blance /'sembləns/ n [C] appearance: put on a ~ of gaiety.

se-men /'sɪmən/ n [U] fertilizing fluid of male animals.

semi- /'semi/ prefix half of; partly; midway: semi-circle, semi-literate, semi-final.

'semi-circle, half a circle.

semi-'circular adj (having the shape of a) half a circle.

semi-'colon (US = 'semi-colon), the punctuation mark (:) used in writing and printing, between a comma and a full stop in value. ⚡ Appendix 4.

semi-'conscious adj partly conscious.

semi-de'tached adj (of a house) joined to another on one side.

semi-'final, match or round before the final (eg in football competitions). Hence, semi-'finalist n [C] player, team, in the semi-finals.

semi-'official adj (esp of announcements, etc made to newspapers) with the condition that they must not be considered as coming from an official source.

semi-'skilled, having or needing some skill from training but less than skilled: ~-skilled 'labour.

semi-'inar /'seminə(r)/ n [C] group studying a problem and meeting for discussion with a tutor or professor.

semi-'inary /'seminəri/ US: -neri/ n [C] (pl -ies) Roman Catholic training college for priests.

semo-'lina /'semə'lɪnə/ n [U] hard grains from wheat, used for making pasta, in milk puddings, etc.

semp-stress /'sempstɪs/ ⚡ seamstress.

sen-ate /'senət/ n [C] 1 (in ancient Rome) highest council of state. 2 (modern use) Upper House of the legislative assembly in various countries, eg France, US. 3 governing council of some universities.

senator /-tə(r)/, member of senate (1, 2).

senatorial /senə'tɔ:riəl/ adj of a senate or senator: a senatorial district, (US) one entitled to elect a senator.

send /send/ vt, vi (pt, pp sent) (For special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions, ⇨ 4 below.) 1 cause a person or thing to go or be carried without going oneself: ~ a telegram; ~ a message to her/~ her a message. The children were sent to bed. ⇨ take. 2 use force to cause a person or thing to move rapidly: The wind sent the vase crashing to the ground. 3 cause to become: This noise is ~ing me crazy. 4 (special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions):

send sb away, dismiss, eg an employee.

send away for sth, order (goods) to be delivered by rail, post, etc: Shall we ~ away for this bargain in the newspaper?

send sb down, (esp) expel a student from a university (for misconduct, etc). send sth down, cause to fall: The excellent weather sent the price of food down.

send for sb/sth (to do sth), ask or order a person/thing to come, for something to be delivered: ~ for a doctor/taxi.

send sth in (for eg a competition, exhibition): ~ in one's entry for a competition.

send sth on, (a) send it (eg luggage) in advance. (b) (of letters) readdress and post again (eg to previous occupants).

send sth out, (a) give out: The sun ~s out light and warmth. (b) produce: The trees ~ out new leaves in spring. (c) circularize.

send sb/sth up, show that he/it is ridiculous or false. Hence, 'send-up' n [C]. send sth up, cause to rise: The heavy demand for beef sent the price up.

sender /'sendə(r)/ n [C] person or thing that sends: Who was the ~ of the telegram?

se-nile /'si:nail/ adj suffering from bodily or mental weakness because of old age; caused by old age: ~ decay.

sen-il-ity /'si:nɪləti/ n [U] weakness (of body or mind) in old age.

sen-ior /'si:nɪə(r)/ adj (opp of junior) 1 older in years; higher in rank, authority, etc: He is ten years ~ to me. Smith is the ~ partner in (= the head of) the firm. 2 (abbr Snr, Sen or Sr) the father (used after a person's name esp when a father and his son have the same Christian name). ⇨ n [C] 1 senior person: He is my ~ by ten years. 2 (US) student in his/her fourth year at high school or college.

senior citizen, person over the age of retirement.

sen-ior-ity /'si:nɪə'brəti/ US: -ɪər-/ n [U] condition of being senior (in age, rank, etc): Should promotion be through merit or ~?

senna /'sena/ n [U] dried leaves of the cassia plant, used as a laxative.

sen-sa-tion /sen'seɪʃn/ n 1 [C, U] ability to feel; feeling: lose all ~ in one's legs; have a ~ of warmth/dizziness/falling. 2 [C, U] (instance of, something that causes, a) quick and excited reaction: The news created a great ~.

sen-sa-tional /-ʃənl/ adj (a) causing a sensation (2): a ~al murder. (b) (of newspapers, etc) presenting news in a manner designed to cause sensation (2): a ~al writer/newspaper.

sen-sa-tion-al-ism /-ɪzəm/ n [U] the deliberate causing of sensation: avoid ~alism during an election campaign.

sen-sa-tion-al-ist /-ɪst/ n [C] person causing sensation.

sen-sa-tion-ally /-nəli/ adv sense /sens/ n [C] 1 any one of the special powers of the body by which a person is conscious of things (ie sight, hearing, smell, taste and touch): have a keen ~ of hearing. ⇨ sixth sense. 2 (pl) normal state of mind: in one's (right) ~s, sane; out of one's ~s, insane. bring sb to his senses, cause him to stop behaving foolishly or wildly: Perhaps a month in prison will bring you to your ~s. come to one's senses, stop behaving foolishly or wildly.

take leave of one's senses, behave as if mad. 3 (with a, an or a possessive pronoun but not pl) appreciation or understanding of the value or worth (of): a ~ of humour; my ~ of duty. ⇨ direction (2). 4 (not pl) consciousness: have no ~ of shame. 5 [U] power of judging; good, practical, judgement: Haven't you any ~? There's a lot of ~ in what he says.

There's no ~ in doing that, It's pointless. ⇨ common sense. 6 [C] meaning: In what ~ are you using the word? Using the widest ~ of the word..., the meaning which is the most general or the fullest... make (good/much/no/little) sense, seem to have a lot of/no/little meaning that can be understood: It just doesn't make ~, seems to have no meaning. 7 [U] general feeling or opinion among a number of people: take the ~ of a public meeting.

⇨ consensus. ⇨ vt have the opinion; be vaguely aware of; realize: He ~d that his proposals were unwelcome.

'sense-organ', part of the body, eg ear, eye, used to experience a sense (1).

sense-less /'sensləs/ adj 1 foolish: a ~ idea. What a ~ person he is! 2 unconscious: fall ~ to the ground.

sense-less-ly adv

sense-less-ness n [U] sen-si-bil-ity /sensɪ'bɪləti/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] power of feeling, esp delicate emotional impressions: the ~ of an artist or poet. 2 (pl) sensitive (2) impressions (of what is right, in good taste, etc): Her sensibilities are quickly injured.

sen-sible /ˈsɛnsəbl/ adj 1 having or showing good sense(5); reasonable; practical: a ~ woman; ~ clothes, practical, not for only appearance or fashion. That was ~ of you. 2 (science) that can be known by the senses(1): ~ phenomena.

sen-sibly /-əblɪ/ adv in a sensible way: sen-sibly dressed for hot weather.

sen-si-tive /ˈsɛnsɪtɪv/ adj 1 quickly or easily receiving impressions: The eyes are ~ to light. 2 (of feelings) easily hurt or offended: He is very ~ about his ugly appearance. 3 (of instruments, and institutions thought of as measuring things) able to record or reproduce small changes: a ~ record-player. The Government is ~ to political opinion. 4 (of photographic film, etc) affected by light.

sen-si-tiv-ity /ˌsɛnsɪtɪvəti/ n [U] quality, degree, of being sensitive: an injection to reduce the sensitivity of the pain.

sen-si-tize (also -ise) /ˈsɛnsɪtaɪz/ vt make (photographic film, etc) sensitive to light.

sen-sory /ˈsɛnsəri/ adj of the senses(1) or sensation: ~ nerves.

sen-sual /ˈsɛnʃʊəl/ adj 1 of, engaged in, the pleasures of the senses: ~ perception. 2 enjoying, of, physical pleasures such as eating and drinking and sex: ~ enjoyment.

sen-su-al-ity /ˌsɛnʃʊəli/ n [U] love of, pleasure in, sensual pleasures.

sen-su-ous /ˈsɛnʃʊəs/ adj affecting, noticed by, appealing to, the senses(1): ~ music/ painting.

sent /sɛnt/ pt, pp of send.

sen-tence /ˈsɛntsəns/ n [C] 1 (statement by a judge, etc, of) punishment: pass ~ (on him), declare what the punishment is to be; be under ~ of death. 2 (gram) set of words complete in itself, used to express a statement, question, command, etc. □ vt state that (a person) is to have a certain punishment: ~ a thief to six months' imprisonment.

sen-ti-ment /ˈsɛntɪmənt/ n 1 [C] mental feeling, the total of what one thinks and feels on a subject; [U] such feelings collectively as an influence: The ~ of pity includes a feeling of sympathy and of a desire to help. 2 [U] (tendency to be affected by a) (display of) emotional feeling (contrasted with reason): There's no place for ~ in business. 3 expression of feeling; opinions or point of view: The ambassador explained the ~s of his government.

sen-ti-men-tal /ˌsɛntɪˈmentl/ adj 1 having to do with the feelings; emotional: have a ~ attachment to one's birthplace. The bracelet had only ~ value, eg because it belonged to one's mother. 2 (of things) producing, expressing, (often excessive) feelings: ~ music; (of persons) having such excessive feelings: She's far too ~ about her cats.

sen-ti-men-tal-ity /ˌsɛntɪməntəlɪti/ n [U] the quality of being very sentimental.

sen-ti-men-tally /-təli/ adv

sen-try /ˈsɛntri/ n [C] (pl -ies) soldier keeping watch or guard.

ˈsentry-box, hut for a sentry.

sep-ar-able /ˈseprəbl/ adj that can be separated.

sep-ar-ate ¹ /ˈseprət/ adj 1 divided; not joined or united: Cut it into three ~ parts. 2 not physically united but forming a distinct unit: The children sleep in ~ beds. Each of them has his own bed. Mr Green and his wife are living ~ (= apart) now. □ n (pl) clothing which may be worn in a variety of combinations, eg jerseys, blouses and skirts.

sep-ar-ate-ly adv (a) individually: Tie them up ~ly. (b) apart: They live ~ly.

sep-ar-ate ² /ˈseprəɪt/ vt, vi 1 make, be, separate: ~ the boys from the girls. England is ~d from France by the Channel. 2 (of a number of people) leave each other: We talked until midnight and then ~d.

sep-ar-ation /ˌseprəˈreɪʃn/ n 1 [U] (state of) being separated or separate; act of separating: S ~ from his friends made him sad. 2 [C] instance of, period of, not being together: after a ~ of five years.

se-pia /ˈsi:piə/ n [U], adj dark brown (ink or paint).

Sep-tem-ber /sepˈtembə(r)/ n the ninth month of the year, with 30 days.

sep-tet /sepˈtɛt/ n [C] (musical composition for a) group of seven voices or instruments.

sep-tic /ˈseptɪk/ adj causing, caused by, infection (with disease germs): A dirty wound may become ~.

ˈseptic tank, tank outside a building in which sewage is disposed of and purified.

sep-ul-chral /sɪˈpʌlkʁəl/ adj of a burial (in a tomb).

sep-ulchre (US = -ul-cher) /ˈsepʌlkə(r)/ n [C] tomb, esp one cut in rock or built of stone.

se-quel /ˈsi:kwəl/ n [C] 1 that which follows or arises out of (an earlier happening): Famine has often been the ~ of war. 2 story, film, etc continuing the plot, etc of an earlier one or with the same director, cast, etc.

se-quence /ˈsi:kwəns/ n [U] succession; [C] connected line of events, ideas, etc: the ~ of events, the order in which they occur.

se-quin /ˈsi:kwi:n/ n [C] tiny shining disc sewn on to cloth as an ornament.

sere /sɪə(r)/ = sear².

ser-en-ade /ˌsɛrəˈneɪd/ n [C] (piece of) music (to be) sung or played outdoors at night. □ vt sing or play a serenade to (a person): serenading her by moonlight.

ser-ene /sɪˈri:n/ adj clear and calm: a ~ sky/ look/smile.

ser-ene-ly adv

ser-en-ity /sɪˈrenəti/ n [U] serf /sɜ:f/ n [C] (in olden times) person who worked on the land and was sold with it like a slave.

serf-dom /-dəm/ n [U] (a) economic and social system using serfs. (b) serf's condition of life.

sergeant /'sɑ:dʒənt/ n [C] 1 non-commissioned army officer above a corporal. 2 police-officer with rank below that of an inspector.

sergeant-major, warrant officer, between commissioned and non-commissioned army officer.

serial /'siəriəl/ adj 1 of, in or forming a series: the ~ number of a banknote or cheque. 2 (of a story, etc) appearing in parts (on radio, TV, in a magazine etc). □ n [C] serialized play, story, etc.

serial-ize (also -ise) /-laɪz/ vt publish or produce in serial form.

series /'siəri:z/ n [C] (pl unchanged) number of things, events, etc each of which is related in some way to the others, esp to the one before it: a ~ of stamps, eg of different values, but issued at one time; a television ~, a number of programmes, each complete in itself, linked by cast, theme, etc. in series, (a) in an orderly arrangement. (b) (of the parts of an electrical circuit) with the supply of current fed directly through each component.

serious /'siəriəs/ adj 1 thoughtful; not funny, silly or for pleasure: a ~ attempt/appearance/face; look ~. Stop laughing and be ~ for a moment. 2 important because of possible danger: a ~ illness/mistake. The international situation looks ~. 3 in earnest; sincere: a ~ worker. Please be ~ about your work.

serious-ly adv in a serious manner: be ~ly ill.

serious-ness n [U] state of being serious: the ~ness of inflation. in all seriousness, very seriously: I tell you this in all ~ness, I am not joking, being insincere, etc.

ser-mon /'sɜ:mən/ n [C] spoken or written speech on a religious or moral subject, esp one given from a pulpit in a church.

ser-mon-ize (also -ise) /-aɪz/ vt, vi (fig) preach or talk seriously to: Stop ~izing, telling me about my faults, etc.

ser-pent /'sɜ:pənt/ n [C] 1 snake (the more usual word). 2 (fig) sly, deceptive person.

ser-reted /'se'reɪtɪd/ US: 'seretɪd/ adj having notches on the edge like a saw.

ser-ried /'serɪd/ adj (of lines or ranks of persons) close together, shoulder to shoulder: in ~ ranks.

serum /'sɜ:rəm/ n (pl ~s) 1 [U] watery fluid in animal bodies; thin, transparent part of blood. 2 [C,U] (dose of) such a fluid taken from the blood of an animal and used for inoculations.

ser-vant /'sɜ:vənt/ n [C] 1 person who works in a household for wages, food and lodging. 2 person devoted to a person or thing: a ~ of Jesus Christ, eg a Christian priest. ⇨ also civil/public servant.

serve /sɜ:v/ vt, vi 1 be a servant to, work for, (a person): He ~s as gardener and also as chauffeur. 2 perform duties (for): serving one's country, eg in Parliament or in the armed forces. serve on sth, be a member of: ~ on a committee. serve under sb, be in the armed forces (esp the Navy) under the command of: My great-grandfather ~d under Nelson. 3 attend to (customers in a shop, etc); supply (with goods and services); place (food, etc) on the table for a meal; give (food, etc) to people at a meal: There was no one in the shop to ~ me. Mint sauce is often ~d with lamb. 4 be satisfactory for a need or purpose: This box will ~ for a seat. 5 act towards, treat (a person in a certain way): I hope I'll never be ~d such a trick again, have such a trick played on me. It serves him, etc right, ⇨ right²(3). 6 pass the usual or normal number of years (learning a trade, etc): He's ~d his apprenticeship. 7 go through a term of office: He ~d his time as manager for five years. 8 undergo a period of imprisonment: He has ~d five years of his sentence. 9 (legal) deliver (a summons, etc) to the person named in it. 10 (in tennis, etc) put the ball into play by batting it to an opponent: ~ a ball; ~ well/badly. □ n [C] (in tennis, etc) (turn for) striking and putting the ball into play: Whose ~ is it?

server, (a) person who serves(3,10). (b) tray for dishes of food.

serving n [C] amount of food (to be) served to one person: four servings of soup.

ser-vice /'sɜ:vɪs/ n 1 [U] being a servant; position as a servant: Miss White has been in our ~ for five years. 2 [C] department or branch of public work, government employment, etc: the Diplomatic S~. ⇨ civil service. on active service, performing duties as a member of the armed forces in time of war. 3 [C] something done to help or benefit another or others: His ~s to the State have been immense. Do you need the ~s of a doctor/lawyer? 4 [U] benefit, use, advantage: Can I be of ~ to you, help you in any way? I am/My car is at your ~, ready to help you. 5 [C] system or arrangement that supplies public needs, esp for communications: a bus/train ~; the 'telephone ~; a good 'postal ~. 6 [C] form of worship and prayer to God: three ~s every Sunday; the 'marriage ~. 7 [C] complete set of plates, dishes, etc for use at table: a 'tea'dinner ~. 8 [U] serving of food and drink (in hotels, etc); work done by hotel staff, etc: The food is good at this hotel, but the ~ is poor. 9 [U] maintenance given after the sale of an article: send the car in for ~ every 3000 miles, eg for greasing, checking of brakes, etc. 10 (legal) serving of a writ, summons, etc. 11 (in tennis, etc) act of serving the ball; manner of doing this; person's turn to serve: Her ~ is weak. Whose ~ is it? □ vi maintain or repair (a car, radio, machine, etc) after sale (▷ 9 above): have the car ~d regularly.

'service charge, additional charge for service(8).

'service flat, one in which domestic help (sometimes with meals) is provided.

'service industry, providing services, not making things.

'service-line, (in tennis, etc) from which the ball is served(10).

'service road, branch off a main road giving access to houses, etc.

'service station, petrol station with servicing facilities.

ser-vice-able /-əbəl/ adj (a) suited for ordinary wear and use; strong and durable: ~able clothes for children. (b) capable of giving good service.

ser-vi-ette /,sɜːvɪ'et/ n [C] = napkin.

ser-vile /'sɜːvaɪl US: -vɪ/ adj 1 of or like slaves: ~ work. 2 characteristic of a slave; not showing the spirit of independence: ~ to public opinion, giving too much attention to it.

ser-vi-tude /'sɜːvɪtjuːd US: -tʊd/ n [U] (formal) condition of being forced to work for others and having no freedom. ▷ penal.

ses-ame /'sesəmi/ n [C] 1 plant with seeds used in various ways as food and giving an oil used in salads. 2 Open sesame! magic words said to cause a door to open.

ses-sion /'seʃn/ n [C] 1 (meeting of a) law court, law-making body, etc; time occupied by discussions at such a meeting: the autumn ~ (= sitting) of Parliament; go into secret ~. in session, meeting, active (not on holiday). 2 (Scot and US) university term. 3 single, uninterrupted meeting for a purpose: a re'cording ~, eg of a radio programme.

set¹ /set/ n 1 [C] number of things of the same kind, that belong together because they are similar or complementary to each other: a 'tea-~, cups, saucers, etc; a new ~ of false teeth; a ~ of stamps/of lectures. 2 [C] number of persons who associate, or who have similar or identical tastes and interests: the 'racing/ 'literary/ 'golfing ~; the 'smart ~, those who consider themselves leaders in society; the 'fast ~, those who gamble, etc; the 'jet ~, rich people flying from one holiday resort to another. 3 [C] radio receiving apparatus: a trans-istor ~. 4 (not pl) direction (of current, wind, etc); tendency (of opinion): the ~ of the tide; the ~ of public opinion. 5 (not pl) position or angle: I recognize him by the ~ of his head/ shoulders. 6 [C] way in which clothing conforms to the shape of the body: the ~ of a coat. ▷ set²(14).

7 [C] (in tennis, etc) group of games counting as a unit to the side that wins more than half the games in it. 8 setting of the hair: have a shampoo and ~. 9 [C] scenery on the stage of a theatre or in a studio or outside for filming: You must be on the ~ by 7am. 10 [C] young plant, cutting, bulb, etc ready to be planted: onion ~s. 11 (maths) collection of things of a similar type.

set² /set/ vt, vi (-tt-, pt, pp ~) (For special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions, ▷ 17 below.) 1 (of the sun, moon, stars) go down below the horizon: It will be cooler when the sun has ~. 2 move or place something so that it is near to or touching something else: ~ a glass to one's lips; ~ pen to paper, begin to write. set a match/(a) light/fire to sth; set sth alight/on fire, cause it to begin burning. 3 cause (a person or thing) to be in, or reach, a specified state or relation. set sb/ sth on his/its feet, (a) help him to get to his feet after a fall. (b) help him/it to gain strength, financial stability, etc: Foreign aid ~ the country on its feet after the war. set sb free, free (prisoners, etc). set sb's mind at ease/rest, ▷ mind¹(2). be all set (for sth/to do sth), be ready (for the start of a race, etc). 4 cause a person or thing to begin to do something: It's time we ~ the machinery going, start operations. The news ~ me thinking. 5 (usually with an adverb or adverbial phrase; ▷ 17 below for combinations of set and adverbial particles with special meanings) put, place, lay, stand: She ~ the food on the table. 6 put forward as (material to be dealt with as a task, an example, etc): I have ~ myself a difficult task. Who will ~ the papers for the examination, prepare the examination questions? set (sb) an example/a good example, offer a good standard for others to follow. set the fashion, start a fashion to be copied by others. set the pace, fix it by leading (in a race, etc). 7 give something (to a person/ oneself) as a task: He ~ the farm labourer to chop wood. 8 (used with various grammatical objects, the nouns in alphabetical order) set one's cap at sb, ▷ cap. set eyes on sb, see him. set one's heart/hopes/mind on sth; have one's heart, etc set on sth, be filled with strong desire for; direct one's hopes towards: The boy has ~ his heart on becoming an engineer. set a price on sth, declare what it will be sold for. set much/great/ little/no store by sth, ▷ store¹(7). 9 put in a certain state or condition for a particular purpose: ~ a (broken) bone, bring the parts together so that they may unite. set a clock/watch, put the hands to the correct time (or, for an alarm clock, to sound at the desired time). set one's hair, arrange it (when damp) so that when it is dried, it is waved: She's having her hair ~ for the party. set the scene, describe a place and the people taking part in an activity, eg in a play, novel or sporting event: Our commentator will now ~ the scene in the stadium. set sail

(from/to/for), begin a voyage. set the table, lay it ready with plates, cutlery, etc. 10 put, fix, one thing firmly in another: ~ a diamond in gold; a gold ring ~ with gems. 11 (of tides, winds) move or flow along; gather force: The current is ~ing in towards the shore. The wind ~s from the west. The tide has ~ in his favour, (fig) He is winning public support and approval. 12 set sth (to sth): ~ words/a poem to music, provide with music. 13 (of plants, fruit trees, their blossom) form or develop fruit as the result of fertilization: The apples haven't ~ well this year. 14 (of clothing) become adapted to the shape of the body. 15 (cause to) become firm, solid, rigid (from a liquid or soft state): The jelly is/has not ~ yet. 16 (pp) (a) unmoving, fixed: a ~ smile/look/purpose. (b) pre-arranged; at a ~ time. (c) unchanging: ~ in one's ways, having fixed habits; a man of ~ opinions, unable or unwilling to change them. (d) planned, learned; regular: ~ phrases; a ~ speech; ~ forms of prayers. (e) set fair, (of the weather) fine and with no signs of change. 17 (special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions):

set about sth, start it: I don't know how to ~ about this job, how to make a start on it. set about sb, (informal) attack: They ~ about each other in the park.

set sb against sb, cause him to compete with, fight, him. set one thing against another, regard it as compensating for, balancing, another.

set sth apart/aside, (a) put on one side for future use. (b) disregard: Let's ~ aside our personal feelings. (c) (legal) reject: ~ a claim aside.

set sth back, (a) move back: The horse ~ back its ears. (b) be placed at a distance from: The house is ~ back from the road. set sb/sth back, (a) stop or reverse the progress of: All our efforts at reform have been ~ back. Hence, 'set-back n [C] (pl set-backs). (b) (sl) cost: That dinner ~ me back £20.

set sth down, (a) put down: ~ down a load. (b) write down on paper: ~ it down for everyone to read. set sb down, (of a vehicle, its driver) allow (a passenger) to get down or out: The bus stopped to ~ down an old lady.

set forth, (a) = set out (which is more usual). set sth forth, (formal) make known: ~ forth one's political views.

set in, (a) start and seem likely to continue: The rainy season has ~ in. (b) (of tides, winds); ~ 11 above) begin to flow: The tide is ~ing in, flowing towards the shore.

set off, start (a journey, race, etc): They've ~ off on a trip round the world. set sth off, (a) explode a mine, fireworks, etc. (b) make more striking by comparison: This gold frame ~s off your painting very well. (c) balance; compensate: ~ off gains against losses. (d) mark off: ~ off a clause by a comma. set sb off (doing sth), cause to start: Don't ~ him off talking about football or he'll go on all evening.

set on sb, attack: She had been ~ on by muggers. be set on sth, be determined to be or get: His heart (= He) is ~ on being a doctor.

set out, begin (a journey, etc): They ~ out at dawn for (= to go to) the coast. set out to do sth, have it as an aim or intention: He ~ out to break the world record. set sth out, (a) make known: ~ out one's reasons. (b) arrange: He ~s out his ideas clearly in this essay. (c) plant out.

set sb over sb, put him in control/command: A younger man has been ~ over me.

set 'to, begin doing something: The engineers ~ to and repaired the bridge.

set sth up, (a) place something in position: ~ up a statue. (b) establish (an institution, business, argument, etc): ~ up an office. Hence, 'set-up n (informal) arrangement of an organization: What's the ~ up here? set (oneself) up as, (a) go into business as: He has ~ (himself) up as a bookseller. (b) believe oneself to be: I've never ~ myself up as perfect.

set sb up (as sth), get him started or established, eg by supplying money: His father ~ him up in business. set up house, start living in one. set up shop, ~ shop(1).

be set upon sth, = be set on sth.

set-square /'set skweə(r)/ n [C] triangular plate of wood, plastic, metal, etc with angles of 90°, 60° and 30° (or 90°, 45°, 45°), used for drawing lines at these angles.

set-tee /'seti:/ n [C] seat like a sofa, with sides and back, for two or more persons.

set-ter /'setə(r)/ n [C] 1 (breeds of) long-haired dog trained to stand motionless on scenting game. 2 (used as a suffix) person who, thing which, sets (various meanings): a 'bone~.

set-ting /'setɪŋ/ n [C] 1 framework in which something is fixed or fastened: the ~ of a jewel. 2 surroundings: a beautiful ~ for a picnic. 3 music composed for a poem, etc. ~ set² (12). 3 descent (of the sun, moon, etc) below the horizon: (as an adjective) the ~ sun.

settle¹ /'setl/ n [C] long, wooden seat with a high back and arms, the seat often being the lid of a chest.

settle² /'setl/ vt, vi (For special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions, ~ 8 below.)

1 make one's home in (permanently): ~ in London/in Canada/in the country. 2 come to rest (on); stay for some time (on): The bird ~d on a branch. The dust ~d on everything. 3 cause (a person) to become used to, or comfortable in, a new position (after a period of movement or activity): The nurse ~d her patients for the night, made them comfortable, etc. 4 make or become calm, untroubled: We need a period of ~d weather for the harvest. Wait until the excitement has ~d. 5 make an agreement about; decide: It's time you ~d the dispute/argument. Nothing is ~d yet. The lawsuit was ~d out of court, a decision was reached by the parties themselves (and their lawyers) instead of by the court. 6 pay: ~ a bill. 7 (of dust, etc in the air, particles of solid substances in a liquid, etc) (cause to) sink: (of a liquid) become clear as solid particles sink: We need a shower to ~ the dust.

8 (special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions):

settle down, sit or lie comfortably (after a period of movement or activity): He ~d down in his armchair to read. settle (sb) down, make or become calm and peaceful: Wait until the children have ~d down before you start your lesson. settle (down) to sth, give one's attention to: It's terrible—I can't ~ (down) to anything today, am too restless to do my work, etc. settle down (to sth), become established (in a new way of life, new work, etc): ~ down to married life/in a new job.

settle for sth, accept, although not altogether satisfactory: I had hoped to get £200 for my old car but had to ~ for £180. settle (sb) in, (help him to) move into a new house, flat, job, etc and put things in order: You must come and see our new house when we're/we've ~d in.

settle sth on/upon sb, (legal) give him (property, etc) for use during his lifetime: ~ part of one's estate on one's son. ⇨ settlement (2). settle on/upon sth, decide to have: Which of the hats have you ~d on?

settle (up) (with sb), pay what one owes: I shall ~ (up) with you next month.

settled /'setld/ adj 1 fixed; unchanging; permanent: ~ weather; a man of ~ opinions. 2 (of a bill) paid.

settle-ment /'setlmənt/ n 1 [U] the act of settling (a dispute, debt, etc); [C] instance of this: The strikers have reached a ~ with the employers. I enclose a cheque in ~ of your account. 2 [C] (statement of) property given to a person: a ~ marriage ~, one made by a man in favour of his wife. 3 [U] process of settling people in a colony; [C] new colony.

set-tler /'setlə(r)/ n [C] person who has made his home in a newly developed country: white ~s in Kenya.

seven /'sevn/ adj, n [C] (of) 7.

seven-fold /-fəʊld/ adj, adv seven times as much, as great or as many.

sev-enth /'sevnθ/ adj, n [C] (abbr 7th) (of) one of 7 parts or the next after 6.

seven-thly adv in the 7th place.

seven-teen /'sevn'ti:n/ adj, n [C] (of) 17.

seven-teenth /'sevn'ti:nθ/ adj, n [C] (abbr 17th) (of) one of 17 parts or the next after 16.

seven-ti-eth adj, n [C] (abbr 70th) (of) one of 70 parts or the next after 69.

sev-enty /'sevənti/ adj, n [C] (of) 70. in the seventies, (a) (of a person's age, temperature, speed, etc) between 69 and 80. (b) between '60 and '80 in a century.

sever /'sevə(r)/ vt, vi 1 cut (the usual word): ~ a rope. 2 (fig) break off: ~ one's connections with her. 3 break (the usual word): The rope ~ed under the strain.

sever-ance /'sevərəns/ n [U] : ~ance pay, paid to an employee when his contract has ended.

sev-eral /'sevrəl/ adj 1 three or more; some but not many: You will need ~ more. I've read it ~ times. 2 separate; individual: They went their ~ ways. Each went his own way. □ pron a few; some: S~ of us refused.

se-vere /sɪ'veɪə(r)/ adj 1 stern, strict: ~ looks; be ~ with one's children. 2 (of the weather, attacks of disease, etc) strong, extreme: a ~ storm; ~ pain. 3 making great demands on skill, ability, patience and other qualities: The pace was too ~ to be kept up for long.

severe-ly adv

se-ver-ity /sɪ'verəti/ n (pl -ies) (formal) 1 [U] quality of being severe: the ~ (= extreme cold) of the winter in Canada. 2 (pl) severe treatment or experiences: the severities of the winter campaign.

sew /səʊ/ vt, vi (pt ~ed, pp ~n /səʊn/) work with a needle and thread; fasten with stitches; make (clothing) by stitching: ~ a button on. This dress is hand-~n by hand. sew sth up, (a) join (at the edges) with stitches. (b) (informal) complete; (as a pp) having obtained control of: We've got the market for dictionaries ~n up.

sewer /'seʊə(r)/ n [C] person who sews.

sew-ing n [U] material (for clothes, etc) being sewn.

'sewing-machine, machine for sewing.

sew-age /'sju:ɪdʒ/ US: 'su:-/ n [U] waste organic matter, etc carried off in sewers.

sewer¹ /'sju:ə(r)/ US: 'su:-/ n [C] underground channel (pipeline, etc) to carry off sewage and rainwater.

sewer² /'seʊə(r)/ n ⇨ sew.

sewn /səʊn/ pp of sew.

sex /seks/ n 1 [U] being male or female: What is the cat's ~? Help them all, without distinction of race, age or ~. 2 [C] males or females as a group: the 'fair ~, women. 3 [U] differences between males and females; consciousness of these differences: ~ appeal, attractiveness of a person of one sex to the other. 4 [U] sexual activity and everything connected with it.

sex-less adj neither male nor female.

sexy adj (-ier, -iest) sexually attractive.

sex-ist /'seksɪst/ n [C], adj (person) who considers women to be inferior to men.

sex-tant /'seksənt/ n [C] instrument used for measuring the altitude of the sun, etc (in order to determine a ship's position, etc).

sex-ton /'seksən/ n [C] man who takes care of a church buildings, digs graves in the churchyard, etc.

sex-ual /'seksjuəl/ adj of sex or the sexes.

sexual 'intercourse, physical union of male and female persons or animals that produces offspring.

sexu-al-ity /'seksju'æləti/ n [U] sex characteristics or appeal.

shabby /'ʃæbi/ adj (-ier, -iest) 1 in bad repair or condition; poorly dressed: wearing a ~ hat. You look ~ in those old clothes. 2 (of behaviour) mean; unfair.

shab-bily /'ʃæbəlɪ/ adv

shack /ʃæk/ n [C] small, wooden shed, hut or house.

shackle /'ʃækl/ n [C] 1 one of a pair of iron rings joined by a chain for fastening a prisoner's wrists or ankles. 2 (fig) something that prevents freedom of action: the ~s of convention. □ vt put shackles on; prevent from acting freely.

shade /ʃeɪd/ n 1 [U; with adj, verb and a or an] 1 comparative darkness caused by the cutting off of direct rays of light: a temperature of 35°C in the ~. The trees give a pleasant ~. 2 (fig) comparative obscurity. put sb/sth in the shade, cause to appear small, unimportant, etc by contrast: You are so clever that my poor efforts are put in the ~. 3 [U] darker part(s) of a picture, etc; reproduction of the darker part of a picture: There is not enough light and ~ in your drawing. 4 [C] degree or depth of colour: cloth in several ~s of blue. 5 [C] degree of difference: a word with many ~s of meaning. 6 something that reduces light: a lamp ~. □ vt, vi 1 keep direct light from: He ~d his eyes with his hands. 2 screen (a light, lamp, etc) to reduce brightness. 3 darken (parts of a drawing, etc) to give the appearance of light and dark. 4 change by degrees: scarlet shading off into pink.

shad-ing n (a) [U] use of black, etc to give light and shade to a drawing. (b) [C] small difference or variation.

shadow /'ʃædəʊ/ n 1 [C] area of shade, dark shape, thrown on the ground, a wall, floor, etc by something which cuts off the direct rays of light. 2 [C] something difficult to see, vague or unreal: He's a ~ of his former self, is very thin and weak. 3 (pl) partial darkness: the ~s of evening. 4 [C] dark patch or area: have ~s round the eyes, thought to be due to no sleep, to illness, etc. 5 (sing only) very small amount or degree: without/beyond a ~ of doubt. 6 person's inseparable friend or follower. □ vt 1 darken. 2 follow closely and watch the movements of: The suspect was ~ed by detectives.

Shadow 'Cabinet, members of the Opposition in Parliament who would form a Cabinet if they were in power.

shadow 'spokesman, Opposition MP selected to speak on a particular issue, eg housing.

shad-ow-y adj

shady /'ʃeɪdi/ adj (-ier, -iest) 1 giving shade from sunlight; situated in shade: the ~ side of the street. 2 of doubtful honesty: a ~ deal.

shaft /ʃɑ:ft/ US: ʃæft/ n [C] 1 (long stem of an) arrow or spear. 2 long handle of an axe or other tool. 3 one of the pair of bars (wooden poles) between which a horse is harnessed to pull a cart, etc. 4 long part of a column (between the base and the top). 5 long, narrow space, usually vertical, eg for descending into a coalmine, for a lift in a building, or for ventilation. 6 bar or rod joining parts of a machine, or transmitting power. 7 ray (of light).

shag /ʃæg/ n [U] coarse kind of cut tobacco.

shaggy /'ʃæɡi/ adj (-ier, -iest) 1 (of hair) rough, coarse and untidy. 2 covered with rough, coarse hair: a ~ dog; ~ eyebrows.

shake /'ʃeɪk/ n [C] shaking or being shaken: a ~ of the head, to indicate 'no'.

shake /'ʃeɪk/ vt, vi (pt shook /ʃʊk/, pp ~n /'ʃeɪkən/) 1 (cause to) move from side to side, up and down etc: ~ a rug; ~ a man by the hand; ~ one's head, to indicate 'no', or doubt, disapproval, etc; ~ one's fist at him, to show anger, defiance. He was shaking with laughter/cold. 2 shock; trouble; weaken: They were badly ~n by the news. 3 (of a person's voice) tremble; become weak: Her voice shook with emotion.

4 (special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions):

shake down, become adjusted to a new environment, new conditions, etc: The new teaching staff is shaking down nicely.

shake sth from/out of sth, get from/out of by shaking: ~ apples from a tree; ~ sand out of one's shoes.

shake sth off, free oneself from: The thief ran fast and soon shook off the police. shake sth off, get rid of quickly: ~ off a cold/a fit of depression.

'shake on it, (informal) shake hands and agree: Let's ~ on it.

shake sth out, spread out by shaking: ~ out a tablecloth.

shake sth up, (a) mix well by shaking: ~ up a bottle of medicine. (b) restore something to shape by shaking: ~ up a cushion. shake sb up, restore from apathy or laziness: Some of these managers need shaking up—they're asleep on the job. Hence, 'shake-up n: We need a good ~ up in our office.

shak-ing /'ʃeɪkɪŋ/ n = shake: give a pillow a good ~, shake it well.

shaky /'ʃeɪki/ adj (-ier, -iest) 1 (of a person, his movements, etc) weak; unsteady: ~ hands; speak in a ~ voice; feel very ~. 2 unsafe; unreliable: a ~ table. My French is a little ~.

shak-ily /-əli/ adv

shale /ʃeɪl/ n [U] soft rock that splits easily into layers.

shall /ʃəl strong form: /ʃæl/ auxiliary verb (I shall, he shall, often shortened to I'll /aɪl/, He'll /hi:l/; shall not is often shortened to shan't /ʃɑːnt US: ʃænt/; pt should /ʃʊd weak form: /ʃəd/; should not is often shortened to shouldn't /ʃʊdn't/) 1 (used to express the future tense): We ~ / We'll arrive tomorrow. I'll see you soon. (Note: will is often used.) 2 (used to form a future or conditional statement expressing the speaker's will or intention; with stress on shall, should, it expresses obligation or compulsion; without special stress on shall, should, it expresses a promise or a threat): You say you will not do it, but I say you ~ do it. You shan't catch me so easily next time. 3 (used to form statements or questions expressing the ideas of duty, command, obligation, conditional duty, and (in the neg) prohibition): S ~ I (= Do you want me to) open the window? I asked the man whether the boy should wait. You should (= ought to) have been more careful. 4 (should is used after how, why): How should I know? Why should you/he think that? 5 (should is used to express probability or expectation): They should be there/have arrived by now.

shal-lot /ʃə'lɒt/ n [C] sort of small onion.

shal-low /'ʃæləʊ/ adj (-er, -est) 1 of little depth: ~ water. 2 (fig) not reasonable or serious: a ~ argument; ~ talk. 3 n [C] (often pl) shallow place in a river or in the sea.

sham /ʃæm/ vi, vt (-mm-) pretend to be: He ~med dead/death. He's only ~ming. 3 n [C] 1 person who shams; something intended to deceive: His love was only a ~. 2 [U] pretence: What he says is all ~. 3 adj false; pretended: ~ pity.

shamble /'ʃæmbəl/ vi walk unsteadily as if unable to lift the feet properly: The old man ~d up to me. 3 n [C] shambling walk.

shambles /'ʃæmbəlz/ n (used with a sing verb) 1 scene of bloodshed: The place became a ~. 2 scene of untidiness or confusion: His flat is a complete ~.

shame /ʃeɪm/ n [U] 1 sad feeling, loss of self-respect, caused by wrong, dishonourable or foolish behaviour, failure, etc (of oneself, one's family, etc): feel ~ at having told a lie; hang one's head for/in ~. 2 capacity for experiencing shame: He has no ~/is without ~. 3 [U] dishonour. bring shame on sb/oneself, dishonour him/oneself. 4 (with a, an but not pl) something unworthy; something that causes shame; a person or thing that is wrong: It's a ~ to take the money for doing such easy work. He's a ~ to his family. 5 vt 1 cause shame to; cause a person to feel shame; bring disgrace on: ~ one's family. 2 frighten or force (a person to do/not to do something): ~ a man into apologizing.

shame-faced adj looking ashamed.

shame-ful /-fl/ adj causing or bringing shame: ~ful conduct.

shame-fully /-fəli/ adv

shame-less adj without shame: The ~less girl had no clothes on.

sham-poo /ʃæm'puː/ n [C,U] (special liquid, etc for a) washing of the hair: give her a ~ and set. 3 vt wash (the hair of the head): Have you ~ed your hair yet?

sham-rock /'ʃæmrɒk/ n [C] plant with (usually) three leaves on each stem (the national emblem of Ireland).

shandy /'ʃændi/ n [C,U] drink of beer and lemonade.

shank /ʃæŋk/ n [C] 1 leg, esp the part between the knee and the ankle. 2 straight part of an anchor, etc.

shan't /ʃɑːnt US: ʃænt/ = shall not. ⇨ shall.

shanty /'ʃænti/ n [C] (pl -ies) poorly made hut or house.

'shanty-town, area of a town with shanties.

shape /ʃeɪp/ n 1 [C,U] outer form; total effect produced by the outlines of something: There were clouds of different ~s. What's the ~ of his nose? knock sth into/out of shape, put it into/out of the right shape.

take shape, become definite in form or outline: The new building/His plan is beginning to take ~. 2 sort, description: I've had no help from him in any ~ or form, none of any sort. 3 condition: He is in good ~, is physically fit. Her affairs are in good ~, are well organized. 4 [C] vague form: I could see a ~ in the darkness.

shape² /ʃeɪp/ vi, vt 1 give a shape or form to: ~ a pot on a wheel. 2 (pp): ~d like a pear/pear-~d, having the shape of a pear. 3 give signs of future shape or development: Our plans are shaping well, showing promise of success.

shape-less adj with no definite shape.

shape-ly /'ʃeɪpli/ adj (-ier, -iest) (esp of a person) having a pleasing shape: a ~ pair of legs.

share¹ /ʃeə(r)/ n 1 [C] part or division which a person has in, receives from, or gives to, a stock held by several or many persons, or which he contributes to a fund, expenses, etc: We shall all have a ~ in the profits. go shares (with sb) (in sth), divide (profits, costs, etc) with others; become part owner (with others); pay (a part of an expense): Let me go ~s with you in the taxi fare. 2 [U] part taken or received by a person in an action, etc, eg of responsibility, blame: You must take your ~ of the blame. 3 [C] one of the equal parts into which the capital of a company is divided with which the holder can have a part of the profits. 4 vt, vi 1 give a share of to others; divide and distribute: ~ (out) £100 among/between five men, eg by giving them £20 each. share sth with sb, give a part to somebody else: He would ~ his last pound with me. 2 have or use (with): He hated having to ~ the hotel bedroom with a stranger. 3 have a share: I will ~ (in) the cost with you. share and share a/like, have equal shares with others in the use, enjoyment, expense, etc of something.

'share-holder, owner of shares (3).

'share-out, n [C] distribution.

share² /ʃeə(r)/ n [C] blade of a plough.

shark /ʃɑ:k/ n [C] 1 sea-fish, often large and dangerous. 2 (fig) person who cheats to gain money.

sharp /ʃɑ:p/ adj (-er, -est) 1 with a fine cutting edge: a ~ knife; with a fine point: a ~ pin/needle. ⇨ blunt. 2 well-defined; distinct: a ~ outline; a ~ image, (in photography) one with clear contrasts between light and shade. 3 (of curves, slopes, bends) changing direction quickly: a ~ bend in the road. 4 (of sounds) shrill; piercing: a ~ cry of distress. 5 quickly aware of things: a ~ intelligence/sense of smell. keep a sharp look-out (for), look very carefully (for): keep a ~ look-out for thieves. 6 (of feelings, taste) producing a physical sensation like cutting or pricking: a ~ pain. 7 harsh; severe: ~ words; a ~ tongue, of a person who criticizes, is easily angry, etc. 8 quick to take advantage: a ~ lawyer. 9 (music) (of a note) raised half a tone in pitch: C ~, (#). ⇨ flat² (5). □ n [C] (music) sharp note; the symbol # used to show this. □ adv 1 punctually: at seven (o'clock) ~. 2 suddenly; abruptly: turn ~ to the left.

sharpen /'ʃɑ:pən/ vt, vi make or become sharp: ~en a pencil.

sharp-ener /'ʃɑ:pənə(r)/, thing that sharpens: a 'pencil-~ener.

sharp-ly adv

sharp-ness n [U]

shat-ter /'ʃætə(r)/ vt, vi 1 break suddenly into small pieces: The explosion ~ed every window in the building. 2 (fig) destroy; be destroyed: Our hopes were ~ed.

shave /ʃeɪv/ vt, vi (pt, pp ~ed or, as in (4) below, ~n /'ʃeɪvn/) 1 cut (hair) off the chin, etc with a razor: He is shaving off his beard. 2 take off (a thin layer, etc): ~ off a piece of wood. 3 pass very close to, almost but not touching: The bus ~d by me. 4 (pp) (as an adjective): clean-~n, without a beard. □ n [C] 1 shaving (of the face): A sharp razor gives a good ~. 2 a close/narrow shave, a narrow escape from injury, danger, etc.

shaver, razor with an electric motor.

'shaving-brush, brush for spreading lather over the face before shaving.

shav-ings n pl thin pieces of wood which have been shaved (2) off.

shawl /ʃɔ:l/ n [C] large (usually square or oblong) piece of material worn about the shoulders or head of a woman, or wrapped round a baby.

she /ʃi:/ pron (⇨ her; they) 1 female person, animal, etc already referred: My sister says ~ is going for a walk. 2 (often as a prefix) female: a'~goat. Is it a he or a ~?

sheaf /ʃi:f/ n [C] (pl sheaves /ʃi:vz/) 1 stalks of corn, barley, etc tied together. 2 arrows, etc tied together.

shear /ʃiə(r)/ vt (pt, ~ed, pp shorn /ʃɔ:n/ or ~ed) 1 cut the wool off (a sheep) with shears. 2 (fig) take away completely from: shorn of, having lost completely: The gambler came home shorn of his money.

shears /ʃiəz/ n pl (also a pair of ~) large cutting instrument shaped like scissors, used to cut hedges, etc.

sheath /ʃi:θ/ n [C] (pl ~s /ʃi:θz/) cover for the blade of a weapon or tool: Put the dagger back in its ~.

'sheath-knife, knife, with a blade, that fits into a sheath.

sheathe /ʃi:ð/ vt put into a sheath.

sheaves /ʃi:vz/ ⇨ sheaf.

shed /ʃed/ n [C] small building, usually of wood, used for storing things ('tool-~, 'wood-~, 'coal-~), for sheltering animals ('cattle-~), for vehicles ('engine-~, 'bicycle-~).

shed² /ʃed/ vt (pt, pp ~) (-dd-) 1 let (leaves, etc) fall; let come off: Some trees ~ their leaves in autumn. shed blood, (a) be wounded or killed. (b) cause the blood of others to flow: The wicked ruler ~ rivers of blood. ⇨ bloodshed. shed tears, = cry. 2 throw or take off; get rid of: People on the beach began to ~ their clothes as it got hotter and hotter. 3 spread or send out: a fire that ~s warmth; a woman who ~s happiness. shed light on, ⇨ light² (5).

she'd /ʃi:d/ = she had; she would.

sheen /ʃi:n/ n [U] brightness: the ~ of silk.

sheep /ʃi:p/ n [C] (pl unchanged) grass-eating animal kept for its flesh as food (mutton) and its wool. ⇨ ewe, lamb and ram.

'sheep-dog, dog trained to help a shepherd to look after sheep.

'sheep-fold, enclosure for sheep.

'sheep-skin, rug of a sheep's skin with the wool on it; clothing made of such skins.

'sheep-ish /-iʃ/ adj (a) awkwardly self-conscious: a ~ish-looking boy. (b) (feeling) foolish or embarrassed because of a fault.

sheep-ish-ly adv

sheer /ʃiə(r)/ adj 1 complete; thorough; absolute: ~ nonsense; a ~ waste of time; by ~ chance. 2 (of cloth, etc) finely woven and almost transparent: ~ nylon. 3 (almost) without a slope; a ~ drop of 50 metres. □ adv straight up or down: He fell 500 feet ~.

sheet¹ /ʃi:t/ n [C] 1 rectangular piece of cotton, etc cloth, used in pairs for sleeping between: put clean ~s on the bed. 2 flat thin piece (of a material): a ~ of glass/notepaper. 3 wide expanse (of water, ice, snow, flame, etc):

The rain came down in ~s, very heavily.

'sheet-lightning, kind that comes in wide flashes of brightness (not in zigzags, etc).

'sheet music, published on sheets of paper, not in a book.

sheet-ing n [U] material used for making sheets(1).

sheet² /ʃi:t/ n [C] rope fastened at the lower corner of a sail to hold it and control the angle at which it is set.

sheik(h) /ʃeik/ US: /ʃi:k/ n [C] Arab chieftain; head of an Arab village, tribe, etc.

sheik(h)-dom /-dɒm/ n [C] shelf /ʃelf/ n [C] (pl shelves /ʃelvz/) 1 flat piece of wood, metal, etc fastened at right angles to a wall or in a cupboard, etc, used to stand things on. on the shelf, (informal) (a) put aside as done with, eg of a person too old to continue working. (b) (of a woman) unmarried and considered as being unlikely to marry. 2 piece of rock on a cliff face, etc like a shelf (as used by rock-climbers).

shell /ʃel/ n [C] 1 hard outer covering of eggs, nuts, some seeds (eg peas) and fruits, and of some animals (eg snails) or parts of them.

go/retire into/come out of one's shell, become/stop being shy, reserved, quiet. 2 outside walls, etc of an unfinished building, ship, etc or of one of which the contents have been destroyed (eg by fire). 3 (US = cartridge) metal case filled with explosive, to be fired from a large gun. □ vt,vi 1 take out of a shell(1): ~ing peas. 2 fire shells(3) at: ~ the enemy's trenches. 3 shell out, (informal) pay up (money, a required sum): Must I ~ out (the money) for the party?

'shell-fish, kinds of sea-animal (crabs, lobsters, etc) with shells(1).

'shell-proof adj built so that a shell(3) cannot break it.

'shell-shock, nervous or mental disorder caused by the noise of shells(3).

she'll /ʃi:l/ = she will; she shall.

shel-ter /'ʃeltə(r)/ n 1 [U] condition of being kept safe, eg from rain, danger: take ~ from the storm. 2 [C] something that gives safety or protection: a bus ~, in which people wait for buses. □ vt,vi 1 give shelter to; protect: trees that ~ a house from cold winds; ~ (= hide, protect) an escaped prisoner. 2 take shelter: ~ under the trees.

shelve¹ /ʃelv/ vt 1 put (books, etc) on a shelf. 2 (fig) (of problems, plans, etc) postpone dealing with: ~ a problem.

shelve² /ʃelv/ vi (of land) slope gently.

shelves /ʃelvz/ pl of shelf.

shep-herd /'ʃepəd/ n [C] man who takes care of sheep. □ vt 1 take care of sheep. 2 guide or direct (people): The passengers were ~ed across the tarmac to the airliner.

shep-herd-ess /'ʃepədɪs/ n [C] woman shepherd.

sher-iff /'ʃerɪf/ n [C] 1 (also High ~) chief officer of the Crown in counties and certain cities, with legal and ceremonial duties. 2 (US) chief law-enforcing officer of a county.

sherry /'ʃerɪ/ n [U] kinds of yellow or brown wine from Spain, Cyprus, etc.

she's /ʃi:z/ = she is; she has.

shied /ʃaɪd/ ⇨ *shy*².

shield /ʃi:ld/ n [C] 1 piece of metal, leather, etc carried to protect the body when fighting. 2 representation of a shield with a coat of arms. 3 (fig) person or thing that protects. 4 (in machinery, etc) piece of metal, etc designed to keep out dust, wind, etc. □ vt 1 protect; keep safe: ~ one's eyes with one's hand. 2 protect (a person) from suffering, etc: ~ a friend from criticism.

shift¹ /ʃɪft/ n [C] 1 change of place or character: a ~ in emphasis. 2 change of one thing for another: a ~ from cars to bicycles. 3 [C] group of workmen who start work as another group finishes; period for which such a group works: on the 'day/night ~. 4 trick, way of avoiding a difficulty; clever way of getting something: use clever ~s to get some money. 5 woman's narrow dress without a waistline. 6 (motoring) mechanism for changing gear.

shift-less adj without ability to find ways of doing things.

shift² /ʃɪft/ vt,vi 1 change position or direction; transfer: ~ luggage from one hand to the other. Don't try to ~ the blame (on) to somebody else. 2 (motoring) change (gears): ~ into second/third gear. 3 shift for oneself, manage as best one can (to make a living, etc) without help: When our father died we had to ~ for ourselves.

shifty adj (-ier, -iest) not to be trusted: a ~y customer; ~y behaviour.

shil-ling /'ʃɪlɪŋ/ n [C] 1 (until 1971) British coin with the value of twelve pennies. 2 unit of currency in Kenya, Uganda, etc.

shim-mer /'ʃɪmə(r)/ vi, n [U] (have a shine with a) wavering soft or faint light: moonlight ~ing on the water.

shin /ʃɪn/ n [C] front part of the leg below the knee. □ vi (-nn-) shin up, climb up (using arms and legs to grip something): ~ up a tree.

'shin-bone, inner and thicker of the two bones below the knee.

shine /ʃaɪn/ vi,vt (pt,pp shone /ʃɒn/ US: /ʃaʊn/ but ⇨ 3 below) 1 give out or reflect light; be bright: The moon is shining. His face shone with excitement. 2 (fig) show particular ability or intelligence: He didn't ~ in the exams. I don't ~ at tennis. 3 (informal) (pp ~d) polish (which is more usual): ~ shoes. □ n (sing only) polish (which is more usual): Give your shoes a good ~. ⇨ also rain(1).

shiny adj (-ier, -iest) polished; bright: shiny shoes.

shingle /'ʃɪŋɡl/ n [U] area of small, rounded pebbles on the seashore.

shingly /'ʃɪŋɡli/ adj shingles /'ʃɪŋɡlz/ n (used with a sing verb) skin disease forming inflamed, irritating spots (often round the waist).

ship¹ /ʃɪp/ n [C] 1 large boat with an engine that can travel on a sea: a 'sailing-~; a 'merchant-~; a 'war-~. 2 (informal) = spacecraft. 3 (US informal) = aircraft.

'ship-breaker, contractor who buys and breaks up old ships (for scrap).

'ship-broker, agent of a shipping company; one who buys, sells and charters ships; agent for marine insurance.

'ship-builder, person whose business is building ships. Hence, 'ship-building n [U]

'ship's-chandler, trader who sells equipment for ships.

'ship-load, as much cargo, or as many passengers, as a ship can carry.

'ship-mate, person belonging to the same crew: Harry and I were ~mates in 1972.

'ship-owner, person who owns a ship or ships.

'ship-shape adj tidy; in good order.

'ship-wreck n [U] loss or destruction of a ship at sea; [C] instance of this. □ vi destroy by shipwreck.

'ship-wright, shipbuilder.

'ship-yard, place where ships are built.

ship² /ʃɪp/ vt, vi (-pp-) 1 put, take, send, in a ship: ~ oil to Europe. 2 take, send, by train, road, etc: ~ goods by express train. 3 ship oars, take them out of the water into the boat. 4 ship water, (of a boat, etc) be flooded with water.

ship-ment n [U] putting of goods, etc on a ship; [C] quantity of goods shipped.

ship-per, person who arranges for goods to be shipped.

ship-ping n [U] all the ships of a country, port, etc.

'ship-ping-agent, shipowner's representative at a port.

-ship /-ʃɪp/ suffix 1 state of being; status, office: friendship; professorship. 2 talent; skill: musicianship.

shire /'ʃaɪə(r)/ n [C] = county (the usual word). □ suffix /-ʃə(r)/ (used in the names of certain counties): Hamp-~, York-~.

shirk /ʃɜ:k/ vi, vi try to avoid (doing something, responsibility, duty, etc): He's ~ing (his duty).

shirker, person who shirks.

shirt /ʃɜ:t/ n [C] man's article of clothing for the upper part of the body (of cotton, nylon, etc) with sleeves. keep one's shirt on; (s/) keep one's temper. in one's shirt-sleeves, not wearing a jacket.

shirty adj (-ier, -iest) (s/) easily annoyed; bad-tempered.

shiver /'ʃɪvə(r)/ vi tremble, esp from cold or fear: ~ing like a leaf. □ n [C] trembling that cannot be controlled: The sight sent cold ~s down my back.

shoal¹ /ʃəʊl/ n [C] great number of fish swimming together: a ~ of herring. □ vi form shoals.

shoal² /ʃəʊl/ n [C] shallow place in the sea, esp where there are sandbanks. □ vi become shallow(er).

shock /ʃɒk/ n 1 [C] violent blow or shaking (eg as caused by a collision or explosion): the ~ of a fall. 2 [C] effect caused by the passage of an electric current through the body: If you touch that live wire you'll get a ~. 3 [C] sudden and strong disturbance of the feelings or the nervous system (caused by bad news, severe injury, etc); [U] condition caused by such a disturbance: The news of her mother's death was a terrible ~ to her. She died of ~ following an operation on the brain. □ vt cause shock (3) to: I was ~ed at the news of her death.

'shock absorber, device in a motor-vehicle, etc which absorbs the vibrations, etc.

'shock tactics, (a) sudden use of many troops to attack (in war). (b) (fig) similar show of force to attack.

'shock treatment/therapy, use of electric shocks to cure mental illness.

'shock wave, sudden change in air-pressure in a region, eg behind a supersonic aircraft or a nuclear bomb.

shocker, person or thing that shocks.

shock-ing adj (a) very bad or wrong: ~ing writing/behaviour. (b) causing shock (3): ~ing news, eg of a major disaster.

shock-ing-ly adv

shod /ʃɒd/ ⇨ shoe verb.

shoddy /'ʃɒdi/ adj (-ier, -iest) of poor quality: a ~ piece of work.

shoe /ʃu:/ n [C] 1 (also a pair of ~s) outer covering of leather, etc for the foot, esp one which does not reach above the ankle. 2 = horseshoe. 3 part of a brake that presses against the wheel or drum (of a bicycle, motor-vehicle, etc). □ vt (pt, pp shod /ʃɒd/) fit with shoes: well shod for wet weather.

'shoe-horn, device with a curved blade for getting the heel easily into a shoe.

'shoe-lace, cord for fastening a shoe.

'shoe-maker, person who makes shoes and boots.

'shoe-string, (US) = shoelace. do sth on a shoestring, do it (eg start a business) with a very small amount of money.

shone /ʃɒn US: ʃəʊn/ pt, pp of shine.

shoo /ʃu:/ int (cry used for telling children, pets, birds, etc to) go away. □ vi (pt, pp ~ed) make this cry.

shook /ʃʊk/ pt of shake.

shoot¹ /ʃu:t/ n [C] 1 new, young growth on a plant or bush. 2 party of people shooting for sport.

shoot² /ʃu:t/ vi, vt (pt, pp shot /ʃɒt/) 1 move, come, go, send, suddenly or quickly (out, in, up, etc.): Flames were ~ing up from the burning house. The meteor shot across the sky. Rents have shot up (= risen suddenly) in the last few months. Tom is ~ing up fast, quickly growing tall. She shot an angry look at him/shot him an angry look. 2 (of plants, bushes) send out new twigs or branches from a stem. 3 (of pain) happen suddenly and go quickly: The pain shot up his arm. 4 (of boats) move, be moved, rapidly over, through, etc: ~ a bridge, pass under it quickly. 5 aim and fire with a gun or revolver; aim with a bow and send an arrow at; hit with a shell, bullet, arrow, etc; wound or kill (a person, animal, etc) by doing this: They were ~ing at a target. The soldier was shot (= executed by shooting) for desertion. The seven bombers were shot down in flames. He had his arm shot off. 6 film (a scene): a ~ing script, one giving the order in which scenes are to be photographed, etc. 7 (football, etc) make an attempt to score a goal.

'shoot-ing-gallery, place where shooting is practised with pistols or airguns.

,shooting 'star, meteor seen as a moving star.

'shooting-stick, stick with a spiked end (to be pushed into the ground) and a handle which unfolds to form a seat.

-shooter /'ʃu:tə(r)/ suffix shooting implement: a 'six-~, revolver firing six shots without reloading.

shop /ʃɒp/ n [C] 1 (part of a) building where goods are shown and sold: a butcher's ~. (US = store). set up shop, set up in business as a retail trader. all 'over the shop, (a) in a great mess: His clothes were all over the ~. (b) in every direction: We looked for him all over the ~. 2 [U] a person's profession, etc and things connected with it. talk shop, talk about one's work, profession, etc. 3 = work-shop: a machine-~, the men on the ~ floor, the workers (not the management). ⇨ closed shop. □ vi (-pp-) 1 go to shops to buy things (usually go shopping). shop around, (informal) visit many shops, markets, etc to obtain the best value for one's money, etc. 2 inform against, esp to the police: ~ on an accomplice.

'shop-assistant, person who serves in a shop.

'shop-front, front of a shop with its window display, etc.

'shop-keeper, owner of (a small) shop.

'shop-lifter, person who steals things from shops. Hence, 'shop-lifting n [U]

,shop-'steward, member of a branch of a trade union elected by the workers.

,shop-'window, window used for the display of things on sale.

shop-per, person who is shopping.

shop-ping n [U]: do one's ~ing; a '~ing bag/basket, in which to carry purchases.

'shopping centre, part of a town where there are shops, markets, etc close together and often where cars are not allowed.

shore¹ /ʃɔ:(r)/ n [C] stretch of land bordering on the sea or a large body of water: a house on the ~(s) of a lake.

shore² /ʃɔ:(r)/ n [C] wooden support or prop (as set against the side of a ship while it is being built). □ vt shore sth up, support, prop up, (with a wooden beam, etc).

shore³ /ʃɔ:(r)/, shorn /ʃɔ:n/ ⇨ shear.

short¹ /ʃɔ:t/ adj (-er, -est) 1 (opposite of long) measuring little from end to end in space or time: a ~ stick; ~ hair; a ~ way off, not far away; a ~ journey. in the short run, ⇨ run¹(6). ⇨ also term(1). short and sweet, brief and (therefore) pleasant. 2 (opposite of tall) below the average height: a ~ man/ mountain. 3 not reaching the usual, stated or required number, amount, distance, etc: have a ~ temper, be easily made angry. These goods are in ~ supply, only a few are available. The factory is on ~ time, working fewer hours per day, or days per week, than usual. You've given me ~ change, less than the correct change. short of (a) not enough of: ~ of money/breath/time. (b) distant from: have no petrol left five miles ~ of the garage. little/nothing short of, almost: Our escape was nothing ~ of a miracle. 4 (of a person) saying very little or saying much in a few words; (of what he says) using a few words: He/His answer was ~ and to the point. for short; short for, as an abbreviation: Benjamin, called Ben for ~. Ben is ~ for Benjamin. in short, briefly. the long and the short of it, ⇨ long²(1). 5 (of cake, pastry) easily breaking or crumbling. 6 (of vowels or syllables) taking a short time: There is a ~ vowel in 'ship' and a long vowel in 'sheep'.

'short-bread, kind of dry cake or biscuit.

'short-comings, failure (to reach the standard, to do one's duty, etc).

,short-'circuit n [C] fault in the wiring so that an electric current flows without going through the resistance of a complete circuit. □ vt, vi (a) cause, make or take a short-circuit in. (b) (fig) shorten or avoid by taking a more direct route.

'short cut, way of getting somewhere, doing something, that is quicker than the usual way: take a ~ cut across the fields.

short drink, neat whisky, etc in small portions.

'short-fall, = deficit.

'short-hand, system of writing quickly using special symbols.

,short-'handed, having not enough workers or helpers.

'short list, list of candidates (eg for a job) reduced to a small number from which the final choice is to be made: be on the ~ list. Hence,

'short-list vt.

'short-lived adj lasting for a short time: a ~-lived success.

'short-range adj (a) (of plans, etc) of use for a limited period. (b) (of missiles, etc) with a limited range¹(3): ~-range bombers.

short sight, (a) inability to see distant objects clearly. (b) (fig) inability to forecast the obvious (and act accordingly). Hence, 'short-sighted adj: a ~-sighted decision to refuse help.

'short-tempered adj easily made angry.

'short-term adj related to a short period of time: ~term loans.

'short-wave, radio wave of between 10 and 100 metres in length.

'short-winded adj (a) quickly breathless after physical activity. (b) (fig) unable or unwilling to act or speak for a long time.

short-ly adv (a) soon; in a short time: ~ly after(wards); ~ly before noon. (b) briefly; in a few words. (c) sharply: answer ~ly.

short-ness n [U]

short² /ʃɔ:t/ adv 1 abruptly; suddenly: stop ~.

short of, except: They would commit every crime ~ of murder. 2 before the natural or expected time. come/fall short of, be insufficient, inadequate, disappointing (expectations, etc): Your exam results fell ~ of my expectations. cut sth/sb short, (a) interrupt; bring to an end before the usual or natural time: The chairman had to cut ~ the discussion. (b) make short(er). go short (of), do without: I don't want you to go ~ (of money, etc) in order to lend me what I need. run short (of), reach the end: We're running ~ of bread. sell sb short, betray, cheat them. be taken short, (informal) need to go to the toilet at an inconvenient time.

short-age /'ʃɔ:tɪdʒ/ n [C, U] (amount of) deficiency; condition of not having enough: 'food ~s; a ~ of staff.

shorten /'ʃɔ:tn/ vt, vi make or become shorter: Can you ~ my dress? The days are beginning to ~, eg in autumn.

short-en-ing /'ʃɔ:tənɪŋ/ n [U] fat used for making pastry light and flaky. ⇨ short¹(5).

shorts /ʃɔ:ts/ n (pl) short trousers extending to or above the knees, as worn by children, by adults for games, etc.

shot /ʃɒt/ n 1 [C] (sound of the) firing of a gun, etc: hear ~s in the distance. (do sth) like a shot, at once; without hesitation. 2 [C] (attempt at) hitting of something; attempt to do something, answer a question, etc; throw, stroke, hit, etc in certain games: That remark was a ~ at me, was aimed at me. a shot in the dark, a guess. have a shot (at sth), try to do it: Have a ~ at solving the problem. Let me have a ~ at it. a 'long shot, a wild guess: It's a long ~ but I think John must have stolen the bike. not by a 'long shot, far from (success, truth). 3 [C] that which is fired from a gun. ⇨ shell(3). 4 [C] heavy iron ball thrown in athletic competition called the '~put: putting the ~. 5 [U] (also lead ~) quantity of tiny balls of lead contained in the cartridge of a sporting gun (instead of a single bullet). 6 [C] person who shoots, with reference to his skill: He's a first-class/good/poor ~. 7 [C] photograph, or one of a series of photographs, taken with a cine-camera: The exterior ~s were taken in Bermuda. 8 (esp US) = injection (of a drug). have/get/give sb a shot in the arm, have/give something that revives or restores, eg the economy.

'shot-gun, sporting gun with a smooth bore firing cartridges containing shot(5).

'shot-put, ⇨ 4 above.

should /ʃʊd weak form ʃəd/ v ⇨ shall.

should-er /'ʃəʊldə(r)/ n [C] 1 that part of the body of a human being or animal where an arm or foreleg is joined to the trunk, or where the wing of a bird joins its neck: He has one ~ a little higher than the other. 'shoulder to 'shoulder, (fig) united. give sb the cold shoulder, deliberately ignore him. stand head and shoulders above (others), (a) be considerably taller than. (b) (fig) be mentally or morally better than. straight from the shoulder, frankly. 2 (pl) part of the back between the shoulders: give a child a ride on one's ~s. 3 part of a bottle, tool, mountain, etc like a shoulder. ⇨ hard shoulder. □ vt 1 take the weight of responsibility: ~ a task/the responsibility for his debts. 2 push with the shoulder: be ~ed to one side.

'shoulder-blade, either of the flat bones of the upper back, behind and below the neck.

'shoulder-strap, (a) narrow strap on the shoulders of a military uniform. (b) similar strap on woman's underwear or a dress.

shout /ʃaʊt/ n [C] loud call or cry: They greeted him with ~s of 'Long live the President'. □ vi, vt 1 speak or call out in a loud voice: Don't ~ at me! He ~ed to attract attention. 2 say in a loud voice: ~ (out) one's orders. He ~ed to me ~ed for me to come. 'Go back!' he ~ed.

shout sb down, shout to prevent him from being heard: The crowd ~ed the speaker down.

shout-ing n [U] shouts. be all over bar the shouting, (of a struggle, fight, etc) be finished except for the praise, cheers, etc to follow.

shove /ʃʌv/ vi, vt (informal) push: ~ a boat into the water. □ n [C] push: Give it a ~.

shovel /'ʃʌv/ n [C] 1 tool like a spade, used for moving coal, snow, etc. 2 large device used for the same purpose, mechanically operated from a crane in a vehicle. □ vt (-ll-, US -l-) lift, move, clear, using a shovel: ~ the snow away from the garden path; ~ a path through the snow.

shovel-ful /-fʊl/, as much as a shovel can hold.

show¹ /ʃəʊ/ n 1 [U] showing (chiefly in): by (a) ~ of hands, (voting) by the raising of hands for or against (a proposal). 2 [C] collection of things publicly displayed, esp for competition, or as a public entertainment: a 'flower/horse/cattle ~. on show, exhibited. 3 [C] (informal) natural display: Those trees make a fine ~. 4 [C] kind of public entertainment, eg circus, theatre, on radio, TV, etc: Have you seen any good ~s lately? 5 [C] (informal) performance (not theatrical, etc): put up a good/poor ~, do something well/badly. steal the show, attract all the attention. 6 [C] (informal) organization; business; something that is happening: Who's running this ~? Who is in control? 7 outward appearance; impression: He didn't offer even a ~ of resistance. 8 [U] something done to attract envy: She does it for ~, to make others envious. They're fond of ~.

'show-boat, river steam-boat on which theatrical performances were given (esp on the Mississippi, US).

'show-business, business of entertaining the public.

'show-case, case with glass sides and (or) top, for displaying articles in a shop, museum, etc.

'show-down, (sf) full and frank declaration of one's intentions, etc.

'show-girl, girl who sings or dances in a musical play, revue, etc.

'show-jumping, display of skill in riding horses over fences, barriers, etc.

'show-man, (a) organizer of public entertainments (esp circuses). (b) person (esp in public life) who uses publicity, etc to attract attention to himself: Some politicians are great ~men and very little else.

'show-place, one that tourists go to see: old palaces, castles and other ~places.

showy adj (-ier, -iest) likely to attract attention because (too much) decorated or ornamented, or (too) brightly coloured: a ~y dress.

show² /ʃəʊ/ vt, vi (pt ~ed, pp ~n /ʃəʊn/) 1 cause to be seen: You must ~ your ticket at the barrier. What films are they ~ing this week? 2 allow to be seen: A dark suit will not ~ the dirt. My shoes are ~ing signs of wear. 3 be visible or noticeable: Does the mark of the wound still ~? His fear ~ed in his eyes. 4 be visible: His annoyance ~ed itself in his looks. show one's face, appear: He's ashamed to ~ his face at the tennis-club. have nothing to show for it/sth, have nothing that is evidence of what one has achieved or tried to achieve. 5 give; grant: He ~ed me great kindness. 6 give evidence or proof of having or being: She ~ed great courage. His new book ~s him to be a first-rate novelist. 7 take, lead a person into/out of a place: We were ~n into the waiting-room. 8 make clear; cause (a person) to understand: He ~ed me how to do it/ how he had done it. That ~s how little you know. show sb the way, (fig) set an example. 9 show sb/sth off, display (him/it) to advantage: a bikini that ~s off her figure well. show off, make a display of one's wealth, learning, abilities, etc in order to impress people: a man who is always ~ing off. show sb/sth up, make the truth about (a dishonest, disreputable, etc person or thing) known: ~ up a fraud. show sb up, attract criticism towards him: Some children often ~ their mothers up by crying in the street. show up, (a) be conspicuous, easily visible: Her wrinkles ~ed up in the strong sunlight. (b) (informal) put in an appearance; be present (at): Three people didn't ~ up.

'show-off, person who shows off: He's a dreadful ~off, is always trying to attract attention, etc.

showing n (usually sing) (act of) displaying or pointing out; appearance: a firm with a poor financial ~ing, whose financial accounts do not appear to be good.

shower /'ʃəʊə(r)/ n [C] 1 brief fall of rain, sleet or hail; sudden sprinkle of water (as from a fountain). 2 (washing by using a) device which sprays water from above. 3 large number of things arriving together: a ~ of stones/ insults. □ vt, vi 1 send or give, in a shower: They ~ed the hero with honours. 2 fall in a shower: Good wishes ~ed (down) on the bride. 3 have a shower(2): I take/have a ~ every morning.

show-ery adj (of the weather) with frequent showers.

shown /ʃəʊn/ pp of show².

shrank /'ʃræŋk/ pt of shrink.

shrap-nel /'ʃræpnəl/ n [U] fragments of shell or bullets packed inside a shell.

shred /ʃred/ n [C] 1 strip or piece scraped, torn or broken off something. 2 (fig) very small amount: not a ~ of truth in what she says; not a ~ of evidence against me. □ vt (-dd-) tear into shreds.

shrew /ʃru:/ n [C] 1 small animal like a mouse that feeds on insects. 2 bad-tempered, scolding woman.

shrew-ish /-ɪʃ/ adj scolding.

shrewd /ʃrud/ adj (-er, -est) 1 having, showing, sound judgement and common sense: ~ businessmen; ~ arguments. 2 likely to be correct or effective: make a ~ guess.

shrewd-ly adv

shrewd-ness n [U]

shriek /ʃri:k/ vi, vt 1 scream. 2 say, make, in a screaming voice: ~ out a warning; ~ with laughter. □ n [C] scream: ~s of girlish laughter; the ~ of the brakes.

shrift /ʃrɪft/ n [U] get/give sb short shift, get/give little attention to because not deserving: They gave us/We got short ~.

shrill /ʃrɪl/ adj (-er, -est) (of sounds, voices, etc) sharp; piercing; high-pitched: a ~ voice/whistle.

shrimp /ʃrɪmp/ n [C] small shellfish used for food. □ vi catch shrimps: go ~ing.

shrine /ʃraɪn/ n [C] 1 tomb or casket containing holy relics; altar or chapel with special associations or memory. 2 building or place associated with a person deeply respected or venerated.

shrink /ʃrɪŋk/ vi, vt (pt shrank /ʃræŋk/, or shrunk /ʃrʌŋk/, pp shrunk, or, as an adj shrunken /'ʃrʌŋkən/) 1 make or become less, smaller (esp of cloth through wetting): Will this soap ~ woollen clothes? They will ~ in the wash. Look at these shrunken jeans! 2 shrink from/back, move back, show unwillingness to do something (from shame, dislike, etc): A shy man ~s from meeting strangers.

'shrink-age /-ɪdʒ/ n [U] process, degree, of shrinking: The ~age in our book export trade is serious.

shrivel /'ʃrɪvl/ vi, vt (-ll-, US also -l-) (cause to) become dried or curled (through heat, frost, dryness or old age): The heat ~led up the leaves. He has a ~led face, with the skin wrinkled.

shroud /ʃraʊd/ n [C] 1 cloth or sheet (to be) wrapped round a corpse. 2 something which covers and hides: a ~ of mist. 3 (pl) ropes supporting a ship's masts; ropes linking a parachute and the harness. □ vt 1 wrap (a corpse) in a shroud. 2 cover; hide: ~ed in darkness/mist; a crime ~ed in mystery.

shrove /ʃrəʊv/ ⇨ shrive.

Shrove Tuesday /ʃrəʊv 'tju:zdi/ US: 'tu:z-/ n day before the beginning of Lent.

shrub /ʃrʌb/ n [C] plant with a woody stem, lower than a tree, and (usually) with several separate stems from the root.

shrub-bery /'ʃrʌbəri/ n [C] (pl -ies) place, eg part of a garden, planted with shrubs.

shrug /ʃrʌg/ vi (-gg-) lift (the shoulders) slightly (to show indifference, doubt, etc).

shrug sth off, dismiss it as not deserving attention. □ n [C] such a movement: with a ~ of the shoulders/a ~ of despair.

shrunken /'ʃrʌŋkən/ ⇨ shrink.

shud-der /'ʃʌdə(r)/ vi tremble as with fear or disgust: ~ with cold/horror; ~ at the sight of blood. He ~ed to think of it. □ n [C] uncontrollable shaking.

shuffle /'ʃʌfl/ vi, vt 1 walk without raising the feet properly. 2 move (playing-cards, etc) one over the other to change their relative positions: He ~d the papers together and put them in a drawer. 3 do something in a careless way: ~ through one's work. 4 (fig): ~ off responsibility onto others, get rid of it by passing it to others. 5 keep shifting one's position; try to avoid giving an answer, a decision etc. □ n [C] 1 shuffling movement. 2 change of relative positions: give the cards a ~; a Cabinet ~, giving members different duties. 3 instance of dishonesty; misleading statement or action.

shun /ʃʌn/ vt (-nn-) avoid: ~ publicity/society.

'shun /ʃʌn/ int short for Attention! (as a word of command).

shunt /ʃʌnt/ vi, vt 1 send (railway wagons, coaches, etc) from one track to another, esp to keep a track clear: ~ a train on to a siding. 2 (of a train) be moved to a siding. 3 (fig) put aside (a project); leave (a person) unoccupied, or inactive.

shun-ter, (esp) railway employee who shunts wagons, etc.

shush /ʃʊʃ/ int call for silence.

shut /ʃʌt/ vi, vt (pt, pp shut) (-tt-) (For special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions, ⇨ 5 below.) 1 move (a door, one's lips, etc) into position to stop an opening: ~ the doors and windows; ~ a drawer; ~ one's mouth. 2 shut/close one's ears/eyes to, deliberately ignore: He ~ his eyes to her faults. He ~ his ears to all appeals for help. 3 shut the door on, refuse to consider: Why have you ~ the door on further negotiations? 2 become closed: The door won't ~. 3 bring the folding parts of (something) together: ~ a book. (Note: close is more usual.) 4 catch or squash by shutting something: I ~ my fingers in the door.

5 (special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions):

shut (sth) down, (of a factory, etc) stop working; end activity: The workshop has ~ down and the workers are unemployed. Hence, 'shut-down n [C] (temporary or permanent) closing of a factory, etc.

shut sb in, keep or enclose: We're ~ in by hills here, surrounded by hills. They ~ the boy in his bedroom, kept him there.

shut sth off, stop the supply or flow of, eg gas, steam, water.

shut sb/sth out, keep out; exclude: ~ out immigrants/competitive goods.

shut sth up, (a) close and secure all the doors and windows: ~ up a house before going away for a holiday. (b) put away for safety: ~ up one's jewels in the safe. shut (sb) up, (cause him to) stop talking: Tell him to ~ up. Can't you ~ him up?

shut-ter /'ʃʌtə(r)/ n [C] 1 movable cover (usually of wood and hinged) for a window, to keep out light or thieves. put up the shutters, (fig) stop doing business (for the day, or permanently). 2 device that opens to admit light through the lens of a camera. □ vt provide with, close with, shutters.

shuttle /'ʃʌtl/ n [C] 1 (in a loom) instrument with two pointed ends by which thread is carried between other threads. 2 (in a sewing-machine) sliding holder which carries the lower thread. □ vt, vi (cause to) move like a shuttle.

'shuttle-cock, cork with feathers in it, hit across a net in the games of shuttlecock and badminton.

'shuttle service, service (of trains, airlines, etc) between places not far apart.

shy¹ /ʃaɪ/ adj (-er, -est) 1 (of persons) self-conscious and uncomfortable in the presence of others; (of behaviour, etc) showing this: He's not at all ~ with women. She gave him a ~ look/smile. 2 (of animals, birds, fish, etc) easily frightened. 3 shy of, hesitating about: Don't be ~ of telling me what you want. fight shy of, ⇨ *fight*².

shy-ly adv

shy-ness n [U]

shy² /ʃaɪ/ vi (pt, pp shied /ʃaɪd/) (of a horse) turn aside from in fear or alarm: The horse was ~ing at the hedge.

Sia-mese /ˌsaɪəˈmiːz/ adj, n [C] 1 (also ~ twin) (of) one of two persons joined together from birth. 2 (of an) oriental breed of cat.

sib-ling /ˈsɪblɪŋ/ n [C] brother or sister (the usual words).

sic /sɪk/ adv (Latin) thus (placed in brackets to show that the preceding word, statement, etc is correctly quoted, etc even though this seems unlikely or is incorrect).

sick /sɪk/ adj 1 be ~, throw up food from the stomach; feel ~, feel that one is about to do this. ⇨ seasick. 2 unwell; ill: He has been ~ for six weeks. (Note: sick is normal US usage, ill or unwell are normal GB usage.) sick at heart, very sad, disappointed. fall sick, become ill. 3 sick (and 'tired) of; sick to 'death of, (informal) very tired of, disgusted with: I'm ~ to death of being blamed for everything that goes wrong. 4 feel sick at/about, (informal) unhappy, filled with regret: feel ~ at failing the examination. 5 sick for, filled with a longing for: ~ for home. ⇨ homesick. 6 (modern use) treating sadness or misfortune as funny: ~ humour/jokes. □ vt sick sth up, (informal) throw up from the stomach.

'sick-bay, (a) (Navy) part of a ship for those who are ill. (b) medical centre on a university campus, etc.

'sick-bed, bed of a sick person.

'sick-leave, permission to be away from duty or work because of illness: be/go on ~ leave.

'sick-list, list of those who are ill (in a regiment, on a warship, etc).

'sick-pay, pay to an employee who is absent because ill.

sicken /ˈsɪkn/ vi, vt 1 be in the first stages of (an illness): The child is ~ing from something. 2 cause to feel disgusted: Torture is ~ing. 3 feel sick to see: They ~ed at the sight of so much slaughter. 4 become tired of, disgusted with: He ~ed of trying to bring about reforms.

sick-en-ing /ˈsɪkənɪŋ/ adj disgusting; unpleasant: ~ing smells/news.

sick-ish /ˈsɪkɪʃ/ adj a little sick or sickening: feel ~; a ~ smell.

sickle /ˈsɪkl/ n [C] short-handled tool with a curved blade for cutting grass, grain, etc.

sick-ly /ˈsɪkli/ adj (-ier, -iest) 1 often in poor health: a ~ child. 2 having the appearance of sickness or ill health: These plants are/look ~.

3 suggesting unhappiness: a ~ smile. 4 causing, or likely to cause, a feeling of sickness or distaste: a ~ smell/taste.

sick-ness /ˈsɪknɪs/ n 1 [U] illness; ill-health.

2 [C, U] (an) illness or disease: suffering from 'sea-~. 3 [U] tendency to vomit.

'sickness benefit, (State) payment to a person absent from work through illness.

side¹ /saɪd/ n [C] 1 one of the flat or fairly flat surfaces of a solid object: the six ~s of a cube. Please carry the box with this ~ up, on top. 2 one of the surfaces which is not the top or the bottom: A box has a top, a bottom, and four ~s. 3 one of the surfaces which is not the top, bottom, front or back: (as an adjective) the ~ entrance of the house (not the front or back entrance). 4 (maths) one of the lines of a figure such as a rectangle or triangle. 5 either of the two surfaces of a thin, flat object or of material such as paper: Write on one ~ of the paper only. Which is the right ~ of the cloth, the side intended to be seen? 6 inner or outer surface of something vertical, sloping, round or curved: the ~ of a mountain. 7 one of the two halves of a person on his left or right, esp from armpit to hip: Come and sit by/at my ~. side by side, close together. 8 one of the two halves of an animal from foreleg to hindleg, esp as part of a carcass: a ~ of beef/bacon. 9 part of an object, area, space, etc away from, at a distance from, a central line real or imaginary: the left/right/shady/sunny ~ of the street; the east ~ of the town; the debit/credit ~ of an account. on/from all sides; on/ from every side, in/from all directions; everywhere. put sth on one side, (a) put it aside, apart. (b) postpone dealing with it. 10 one of two groups or parties of people who are opposed (in games, politics, war, etc) or who hold different beliefs, opinions, etc: be on the winning/losing ~; faults on both ~s; to pick (= choose) ~s. The school has a strong ~, eg a good football team. be on sb's side, be a supporter. let the side down, give an inferior performance and disappoint one's colleagues, team-mates, etc. take sides (with), support (a person, a group) in a dispute. ⇨ *side*². 11 aspect or view that is not complete; aspect different from or opposed to other aspects: look on the bright ~ of things/ life; study all ~s of a question; a man with many ~s to his character. There are two ~s to the story, two points of view. on the 'high/

'low, etc side, rather high/low, etc: Prices are on the high ~. 12 line of descent through a parent: a cousin on my father's ~.

'side-arms n pl (a) swords or bayonets, worn at the left side by soldiers. (b) pistol worn at the right side (usually in a holster).

'side-board, table with drawers and cupboards, placed against a wall.

'side-burns/-boards = side-whiskers.

'side effect, secondary or indirect effect, eg an undesirable effect of a drug used for a specific purpose.

'side-glance, look to or from one side.

'side issue, question of less importance (in relation to the main one).

'side-line, (a) class of goods sold in addition to the chief class of goods; occupation which is not one's main work. (b) (pl) (space immediately outside) lines round a football pitch, tennis-court, etc at the sides.

'side-long adj, adv (directed) to or from one side: a ~ long 'glance.

'side-road, minor road branching off a main road.

'side-saddle n [C] woman's saddle, made so that both feet may be on the same side of the horse. □ adv on a side-saddle.

'side-show, (a) small show at a fair or exhibition. (b) activity of small importance in relation to the main activity.

'side-step n [C] step taken to one side (eg to avoid a blow in boxing). □ vt, vi (-pp-) (a) avoid (a blow, etc) by stepping to one side. (b) (fig) avoid answering (a question). (c) move, step, to one side.

'side-street, = side-road.

'side-stroke, (kinds of) stroke used in swimming in which one side is above and the other below the water.

'side-track n [C] railway siding. □ vt (a) turn (a train) into a siding. (b) (fig) turn (a person's attention) from his work.

'side-view, view obtained from the side.

'side-walk, (US) = pavement.

side-wards /-wədz/, sideways /-weɪz/ adv to, towards, from, the side; with the edge first: look ~ ways at her; walk/carry a chair ~ ways through a narrow opening.

'side-whiskers n pl (of men) hair on the sides of the face near the ears.

side² /saɪd/ vi side with, take part, be on the same side (as a person in an argument or quarrel): It is safer to ~ with the stronger party.

-sided /saɪdɪd/ suffix have a specified number of sides: a 'five-~ shape.

sid-ing /saɪdɪŋ/ n [C] short railway track to and from which trains may be moved (from the main lines).

sidle /saɪdl/ vi move (away from/up to a person) in a shy or nervous way: The little girl was sidling up to me.

siege /sɪdʒ/ n [C,U] (period of) operations of armed forces who surround and blockade a town or fortress in order to capture it: a ~ of 50 days. lay siege to, attack: lay ~ to a town. raise a siege, end it by forcing the enemy's forces to withdraw.

si-en-na /sɪ'ena/ n [U] kind of reddish-yellow earth used as a colouring matter.

sieve /sɪv/ n [C] utensil with wire network for separating finer grains, etc from coarse grains, etc or solids from liquids. have a head/ memory like a sieve, be incapable of remembering anything. □ vt put through, sift with, a sieve: sieving soil.

sift /sɪft/ vt, vi 1 put, separate by putting, through a sieve: ~ the cinders. 2 shake through a sieve: ~ flour. 3 fall, pass, come through, as from a sieve. 4 (fig) examine carefully: ~ the evidence.

sigh /saɪ/ vi, vt 1 take a deep breath that can be heard (showing sadness, tiredness, relief, etc). 2 (of the wind) make a sound like sighing. 3 feel a longing (for): ~ for the return of a lost friend. 4 express with sighs: ~ out a prayer. □ n [C] act of, sound of, sighing: with a ~ of relief.

sight¹ /saɪt/ n 1 [U] power of seeing: lose one's ~, become blind; have long/short or near ~, be able to see things well only at long/short range; have good/poor ~ (= eyesight). know sb by sight, know him by his appearance only. 2 [U] seeing or being seen: Their first ~ of land came after three days at sea. catch sight of; have/get a sight of, begin to see; succeed in seeing: If ever I catch ~ of him again, I'll ask for the money he owes me. lose sight of, ⇨ lose(3). at first sight, when first seen; without examination, etc: He fell in love with her at first ~. At first ~ the problem seemed insoluble. at (the) sight of, on seeing: They all laughed at the ~ of the old man dancing with a girl of sixteen. 3 [U] range of seeing; distance within which seeing is possible: in/within/out of (one's) ~, (of objects, etc) visible/invisible: The train was still in ~| was not yet out of ~. Victory was not yet in ~, not yet probable. in/within/out of sight of sth, (of the viewer) where it can/cannot be seen: We are not yet within ~ of land, can't see it. We are now within ~ of finishing this job, are near to the end. come into/go out of sight, come near enough/go too far away to be visible. keep out of sight, stay where one cannot be seen. 4 [U] opinion: All men are equal in the ~ of God. 5 [C] something seen or worth seeing; (pl) noteworthy buildings, places, features, etc of a place or district. see the sights, ⇨ see¹(2). a sight for sore eyes, person or thing one enjoys seeing. 6 (sing with a, an) (informal) person or thing that produces unfavourable comment: What a ~ you are! She 'does look a ~! 7 [C] device that helps to aim or observe when using a rifle, telescope, etc.

'sight-seeing, visiting sights(5) as a tourist.

'sight-seer, person who visits sights(5).

sight² /saɪt/ vt 1 get sight of, esp by coming near: After many months at sea, Columbus ~ed land. 2 observe (a star, etc) by using sights(7); adjust the sights(7) of a gun.

sight-ing, occasion on which something is seen: ~ings of a new star.

-sighted /saɪtɪd/ suffix have the kind of sight(1) mentioned: 'far-/'long-~.

sight-less /'saɪtlɪs/ adj blind (the usual word).

sign¹ /saɪn/ n [C] 1 mark, object, symbol, used to represent something: mathematical ~s, eg +, -, ×, ÷. 2 word or words, design, etc on a board or plate to give a warning, or to give directions: 'traffic ~s, eg for a speed limit, a bend in the road. 3 something that gives evidence, points to the existence or probability of something: the ~s of suffering on his face. Are dark clouds a ~ of rain? 4 movement of the hand, head, etc used with or instead of words; signal. 5 symbol and name (often painted on a board) displayed by traders and shopkeepers ('shop-~s), and ('pub-~) by many public houses to advertise their business.

'sign-board, = sign(5).

'sign-language, used by deaf and dumb persons.

'sign-painter, person who paints sign-boards.

'sign-post, post placed at a crossroads or road junction with signs on its arms giving directions to different places.

sign² /saɪn/ vt, vi 1 write one's name on (a letter, document, etc) to show that one is the writer or that one accepts or agrees with the contents: ~ a letter/a cheque; ~ one's name, write it for this purpose. sign sth away, give up (rights, property, etc) by signing one's name. sign off, (a) end (a letter, etc) with a signature. (b) (radio, TV) end broadcasting (by saying goodnight, etc). sign sb on/up, (of an employer, etc) employ: The firm ~ed on fifty more workers last week. 2 write one's name on a document, etc: Please ~ on the dotted line. sign on/up, (of a worker, etc), sign an agreement about employment. 3 make known (to a person) an order or request by making signs(4): He ~ed to me to be quiet. (Note: signal is more usual.)

sig-nal /'sɪgnəl/ n [C] 1 (making of a) movement, (showing of a) light, (sending of a) message, device used, to give a warning, an order or information; order, warning, etc given in this way: 'traffic ~s, for cars, etc in the streets. 2 event which is the immediate cause of general activity, etc: The arrival of the President was the ~ for an outburst of cheering. 3 electronic impulse in radio, TV, etc; sound or TV image, transmitted or received: an area with a poor/ excellent TV ~. □ vt, vi (-ll-, US -l-) make a signal to; send by signal: ~ a message; ~ (to) the waiter to bring the menu; ~ that one is about to turn left.

'signal-box, building on a railway from which signals and movements of trains are controlled.

'signal-man, (a) person who operates signals on a railway, (b) man who sends and receives signals (in the army and navy).

sig-nal-ler (US = sig-naler) /'sɪgnələ(r)/ n [C] person who signals, esp a soldier.

sig-na-tory /'sɪgnətəri/ US: -tɔːri/ n [C] (pl -ies) (person, country, etc) that has signed an agreement: the signatories to the Treaty.

sig-na-ture /'sɪgnətʃə(r)/ n [C] person's name signed by himself: Can I have your ~ on these letters?

'signature tune, tune (a few bars of a piece of music) identifying a broadcasting station or a particular programme or performer.

sig-net /'sɪgnɪt/ n [C] private seal used with or instead of a signature.

'signet-ring, finger ring with a signet in it.

sig-ni-fi-cance /sɪg'nɪfɪkəns/ n [U] meaning; importance: a speech of great/little ~.

sig-ni-fi-cant /sɪg'nɪfɪkənt/ adj having a special or important meaning: a ~ speech.

sig-ni-fi-cant-ly adv

sig-ni-fi-ca-tion /sɪg'nɪfɪkeɪʃn/ n [C] (formal) (intended) meaning (of a word, etc).

sig-nify /'sɪgnɪfaɪ/ vt, vi (pt, pp -ied) (formal) 1 make known (one's views, intentions, purpose, etc); be a sign of; mean: He signified his agreement/that he agreed by nodding. Does a high forehead ~ intelligence? 2 (formal) be of importance: It signifies much/little.

Sikh /sɪk/ n member of an Indian sect believing in one God, founded in the 16th century.

si-lage /'saɪlɪdʒ/ n [U] kind of dry, green cattle food.

si-lence /'saɪləns/ n [U] 1 condition of being quiet or silent; absence of sound: the ~ of night/of the grave. 2 condition of not speaking, answering (questions, spoken or written), or making comments, etc; (with a, an) period (of saying nothing): Your ~ on recent events surprises me. There was a short ~ and then uproar broke out. in silence, silently: listen in ~ to a speaker. □ vt make (a person or thing) silent; cause to be quiet(er): ~ one's critics/the enemy's guns.

si-lencer, device that reduces the noise made by the exhaust of a petrol engine, a gun, etc.

si-lent /'saɪlənt/ adj 1 making no or little sound; not accompanied by any sound: a ~ prayer; with ~ footsteps. 2 saying little or nothing; giving no answer, views, etc: You'd better be ~ about what happened. Her husband is the strong, ~ type. 3 written but not pronounced: a ~ letter, eg b in doubt, w in wrong.

silent film, one without a sound track.

silently adv

silhouette /ˈsɪluːet/ n [C] picture in solid black showing only the outline; outline of a person or object seen against a light background: ~s of famous authors. in silhouette, produced as a silhouette. □ vt (passive) shown, exhibited, in silhouette: ~ed against the sky.

sili-con /ˈsɪlɪkən/ n [U] non-metallic element (symbol Si) occurring in powdered or crystal forms.

silicon chip, (microelectronics) tiny circuit contained in silicon crystal, becoming commonly used in communications, industry, etc where small reliable electronic control is useful.

silk /sɪlk/ n 1 [U] fine, soft thread from the cocoons of certain insects; material made from this: (as an adjective) ~ scarves. 2 [C] (in England) Queen's/King's Counsel (abbr QC, KC). take silk, become a QC/KC.

'silk-worm, caterpillar that spins silk to form a cocoon.

silken /ˈsɪlən/ adj soft and smooth; soft and shining: a ~ voice; ~ hair.

silky /ˈsɪlki/ adj (-ier, -iest) soft, shiny, smooth, like silk: a ~ voice.

sill /sɪl/ n [C] flat shelf at the base of a window: a vase of flowers on the 'window-~.

silly /ˈsɪli/ adj (-ier, -iest) (appearing to be) foolish: say ~ things. How ~ of you to do that! □ n [C] (pl -ies) (chiefly used to or by children) silly person: Don't be a ~!

silt /sɪlt/ n [U] sand, mud, etc carried by moving water (and left at the mouth of a river, in a harbour, etc). □ vt, vi (cause to) become stopped with silt: The sand has ~ed up the mouth of the river.

sil-ver /ˈsɪlvə(r)/ n [U] 1 shining white metal (symbol Ag) used for ornaments, coins, utensils, etc: 'table ~, spoons, forks, teapots, dishes, etc. 2 silver vessels, dishes, articles, eg candlesticks, trays: have all one's ~ taken by burglars. 3 (as an adjective) the colour of silver: the ~ moon. Every cloud has a silver lining. ⇨ lining (1). 4 (of sounds) soft and clear: He has a ~ tongue. 5 silver (3) coins: £20 in notes and £5 in ~. □ vi, vi 1 coat with (something that looks like) silver: The years have ~ed her hair. 2 become white or silver colour: Her hair had ~ed.

silver jubilee, 25th anniversary of a sovereign's rule.

silver medal, medal of silver given as the second prize.

silver paper, (informal) thin, light foil made of tin or aluminium (as used for packing cigarettes, etc).

'silver plate, spoons, dishes, etc of silver or copper coated in silver.

the silver screen, (informal) cinema industry.

'silver-smith, manufacturer of silver articles; merchant who sells these.

'silver wedding, 25th anniversary.

sil-very adj like silver: the ~y notes of a temple bell.

simi-lar /ˈsɪmɪlə(r)/ adj like; of the same sort: My wife and I have ~ tastes in music. Your guitar is ~ to mine. They are ~.

simi-lar-ly adv

simi-lar-ity /ˈsɪmɪləˈrɪti/ n (pl -ies) [U] likeness; state of being similar; [C] point or respect in which there is likeness: many similarities between the two men.

sim-ile /ˈsɪmɪli/ n [C, U] (use of) comparison of one thing to another, eg He is as brave as a lion.

sim-mer /ˈsɪmə(r)/ vi, vt 1 be, keep (something), almost at boiling-point: S~ the stew for an hour. 2 be filled with (anger, etc), which is only just kept under control: ~ with rage/annoyance. simmer down, (fig) become calm (after being angry or excited).

sim-per /ˈsɪmpə(r)/ vi, n [C] (give a) silly, self-conscious smile.

simple /ˈsɪmpl/ adj (-r, -st) 1 not mixed; not divided into parts; having only a small number of parts: a ~ machine. 2 plain; not much decorated or ornamented: ~ food/cooking; a ~ design. 3 not highly developed: ~ forms of life. 4 easily done or understood; not needing great effort: written in ~ English; a ~ task. 5 innocent; straight-forward: ~ folk. 6 inexperienced; easily deceived: I'm not so ~ as to suppose you really like me. 7 with nothing added; absolute: a ~ fact. pure and simple, (informal) absolute(ly), unquestionably: It's a case of kill or be killed, pure and ~.

'simple-minded adj unsophisticated.

sim-ply /ˈsɪmpli/ adv (a) in a simple(2) manner: dress simply; simply dressed. (b) completely; absolutely: His pronunciation is simply terrible, is very bad indeed. She looks simply lovely. (c) nothing more nor less than: He is simply a workman. It is simply a matter of working hard.

simple-ton /ˈsɪmptən/ n [C] (dated) foolish person, esp one who is easily deceived.

sim-ple-ity /ˈsɪmplɪti/ n [U] (formal) the state of being simple: A small child often has a look of ~. be simplicity it'self, (informal) be extremely easy.

sim-plify /ˈsɪmplɪfaɪ/ vt (pt, pp -ied) make simple; make easy to do or understand: a simplified reader/text.

sim-pli-fi-ca-tion /ˈsɪmplɪfɪˈkeɪʃn/ n [U] act or process of making simple; [C] instance of simplifying; thing simplified.

simu-late /ˈsɪmjuleɪt/ vt (formal) pretend to be; pretend to have or feel: ~d innocence; insects that ~ dead leaves.

simu-la-tion /ˈsɪmjʊˈleɪʃn/ n [U] pretence; imitation.

sim-ul-ta-neous /ˌsɪmlɪ'teɪniəs/ US: ,saɪm-/ adj happening or done at the same time: ~ signing of an agreement.

sim-ul-ta-neous-ly adv

sin /sɪn/ n 1 [U] breaking of God's laws; behaviour that is against the principles of morality. 2 [C] instance of this; immoral act such as telling a lie, stealing, adultery: confess one's ~s to a priest; ask for one's ~s to be forgiven. ⇨ original sin. the seven deadly sins, pride, covetousness, lust, anger, gluttony, envy, sloth. 3 [C] (informal) offence against convention; something considered to be not common sense: It's a ~ to stay indoors on such a fine day. □ vi (-nn-) commit sin; do wrong: We are all liable to ~/capable of ~ing.

sin-ner /ˈsɪnə(r)/, person who sins/has sinned.

sin-ful /-fl/ adj wrong; wicked.

sin-ful-ness n [U]

since /sɪns/ adv 1 (with the perfect tenses) after a date, event, etc in the past; before the present time; between some time in the past and the present time, or the time referred to: The town was destroyed by an earthquake ten years ago and has ~ been rebuilt. He left home in 1970 and has not been heard of ~. ever since, throughout the whole of a period of time referred to and up to the present: He went to Italy in 1970 and has lived there ever ~. 2 (dated) (used with the simple tenses) ago (the usual word): He did it many years ~. □ prep (with perfect tenses in the main clause) after; during a period of time after: She hasn't been home ~ her marriage. □ conj 1 from the past time when: Where have you been ~ I last saw you? How long is it ~ you were in London? 2 as: S~ we've no money, we can't buy it.

sin-cere /ˈsɪnsɪə(r)/ adj 1 (of feelings, behaviour) genuine; not pretended: It is my ~ belief that... 2 (of persons) not expressing feelings that are pretended.

sin-cere-ly adv in a sincere manner. Yours sincerely, formula used to end a letter to a friend, or informally in a business letter.

sin-cer-ity /ˈsɪnsərɪti/ n [U] the quality of being sincere: speaking in all ~, very sincerely and honestly.

sinew /ˈsɪnju:/ n [C] tendon (strong cord) joining a muscle to a bone.

sin-ewy adj tough; having strong sinews.

sing /sɪŋ/ vi, vt (pt sang /sæŋ/, pp sung /sʌŋ/) 1 make musical sounds with the voice, produce words one after the other to a tune: She ~s well. He was ~ing a French song. He was ~ing to the guitar. She sang the baby to sleep. 2 make a humming, buzzing or ringing sound: The kettle was ~ing (away) on the cooker. 3 celebrate in verse. sing sb's praises, praise him with enthusiasm. 4 sing out (for), shout (for).

singer, person who sings, esp in public.

sing-ing, (esp) art of the singer: teach ~ing; take ~ing lessons.

singe /sɪndʒ/ vt, vi blacken the surface of by burning; burn slightly: Careful! You're ~ing that dress! □ n [C] slight burn (on cloth, etc).

single /ˈsɪŋɡl/ adj 1 one only; one and no more: a ~ ticket, for a journey to a place, not back. In single 'file, (moving, standing) one behind the other in a line. 2 not married: ~ men and women; remain ~. 3 for the use of, used for, done by, one person: a ~ bed; reserve (at a hotel) two ~ rooms and one double room. □ n [C] 1 (in tennis and golf) game with one person on each side. 2 (in cricket) hit for which one run is scored. 3 (short for a) single ticket: two second-class ~s to Leeds. □ vt single sb/ sth out, select from others (for special attention, etc): He ~d me out for criticism.

single-breasted adj (of a coat) having only one row of buttons down the front.

single-handed adj, adv done by one person without help from others.

single-minded adj having, intent on, only one purpose.

singles, tennis, etc match between two persons.

sing-ly /ˈsɪŋɡli/ adv one by one; by oneself.

sin-glet /ˈsɪŋɡlɪt/ n [C] (GB) sleeveless cotton T-shirt; vest.

sing-song /ˈsɪŋsɒŋ/ n [C] meeting of friends to sing songs together (esp unplanned): have a ~ round the piano.

sin-gu-lar /ˈsɪŋɡjʊlə(r)/ adj 1 (dated) uncommon; strange: look ~ in a dress, to be unconventional. 2 (formal) outstanding: a man of ~ courage and honesty. 3 (gram) of the form used in speaking or writing of one person or thing: The ~ of 'children' is 'child'. □ n [C] the singular form: What is the ~ of 'parties'?

sin-gu-lar-ly adv (formal) strangely; peculiarly.

sin-gu-lar-ity /ˈsɪŋɡjʊləˈrɪti/ n (pl -ies) (formal) [U] strangeness; [C] something unusual or strange.

sin-is-ter /ˈsɪnɪstə(r)/ adj 1 suggesting evil or the likelihood of coming misfortune: a ~ beginning. 2 showing a bad temper; unkind: a ~ face; ~ looks. 3 (in heraldry) on the left side of the shield.

sink /sɪŋk/ n [C] 1 fixed basin (of china, steel, etc) with a drain for taking away water, usually in a kitchen. 2 = cesspool.

sink² /sɪŋk/ vi, vt (pt sank /sæŋk/, pp sunk /sʌŋk/), and, as an adjective, sunken /ˈsʌŋkən/) 1 go down, esp below the horizon or the surface of water or other liquid or a soft substance, eg mud: The sun was ~ing in the west. Wood does not ~ in water, it floats. The ship sank. 2 slope downwards; become lower or weaker: The foundations have sunk. 3 make by digging: ~ a well; place (something) in a hole made by digging: ~ a post one metre deep in the ground. 4 sink in/into, (of liquids, and fig) go down deep: The rain sank into the dry ground. ⇨ oblivion. 5 (fig) lose faith, hope, etc: have a ~ing feeling, feel all hope is lost. His heart sank at the thought of failure. 6 (fig) (of warnings, information) be understood, learnt: I've explained it to you often but nothing ~s in! 7 come to a lower level or state (physical or moral): ~ into a deep sleep; ~ into crime. The old man has sunken cheeks. His voice sank to a whisper. 6 cause or allow to sink: ~ a ship. He sank (= lowered) his voice to a whisper. Let us ~ our differences (= put them out of our thoughts, forget them), and work together.

sink-able /-əbl/ adj (of a boat, etc) that can be sunk.

sinu-ous /'sinjuəs/ adj (formal) full of curves and twists.

sinus /'sainəs/ n [C] (pl ~es) hollow in a bone, esp one of several air-filled cavities in the bones of the skull linked to the nostrils.

-sion suffix ⇨ -tion.

sip /sɪp/ vt, vi (-pp-) drink, taking a very small quantity at a time: ~ (up) one's coffee. □ n [C] (quantity taken in a) sipping.

si-phon (also syphon) /'saɪfn/ n [C] 1 bent or curved tube, pipe, etc so arranged (like an inverted U) that liquid will flow up through it and then down. 2 bottle from which soda-water can be forced out by the pressure of gas in it. □ vt, vi siphon sth off/out, draw (liquid) out or off through or as if through a siphon.

sir /sɜ:(r)/ n 1 respectful form of address to a man (eg to a school teacher or by a shop-assistant): Please ~, can I have a pencil? Can I help you, ~? (ie in a shop). 2 (used to begin letters): My dear S~; Dear S~. 3 prefix to the name of a knight or baronet: Sir Winston Churchill.

sire /'saɪə(r)/ n [C] 1 (old use) father or male ancestor. 2 male parent of an animal: race-horses with pedigree ~s. □ vt (esp of horses) be the sire of: a Derby winner ~d by Pegasus.

si-ren /'saɪərən/ n [C] 1 (Greek myth) one of a number of winged women whose songs charmed sailors and caused their destruction; (hence) woman who attracts and is dangerous to men. 2 ship's whistle for sending warnings and signals. 3 device for producing a loud shrill noise (as a warning, etc): an ambulance with its ~s wailing.

sir-loin /'sɜ:lɔɪn/ n [C, U] best part of loin of beef.

si-sal /'saɪzl/ n [U] plant with leaves which provide strong fibre used for making rope.

sissy /'sɪsɪ/ n [C], adj (boy or young man who is) girlish or without manly qualities such as courage, strength.

sis-ter /'sɪstə(r)/ n [C] 1 daughter of the same parents as oneself or another person: my/your/his ~. ⇨ half-sister, step-sister. 2 woman who behaves like a sister: She was a ~ to him. 3 (GB) senior hospital nurse. 4 member of a religious society; nun: S~s of Mercy. 5 woman of the same society, profession, trade union, socialist party, etc as another.

sis-ter-hood /-hʊd/ n (a) [U] feeling of a sister for a sister. (b) [C] society of women who live together in a religious order, belong to a socialist organization, do charitable works, etc.

sister-in-law /'sɪstər ɪn lɔ:/ n [C] (pl ~s-in-law) sister of one's husband or wife; wife of one's brother.

'sister-ship, of the same design, type, etc (as another).

sis-ter-ly adj of, like, a sister: ~ly love.

sit /sɪt/ vi, vt (pt, pp sat /sæt/) (-tt-) (For special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions, ⇨ 9 below.) 1 take or be in a position in which the body is upright and supported by the buttocks (resting on the ground or on a seat): ~ on a chair/on the floor/in an armchair/at a table or desk/on a horse. sit tight, (a) remain firmly in one's place, esp in the saddle. (b) (informal) hold firmly to one's opinions, not give in to opposition, etc. 2 cause to sit; place in a sitting position: He lifted the child and sat (= seated) her at a little table. 3 (of Parliament, a law court, a committee, etc) hold meetings: The House of Commons was still ~ing at 3am. 4 keep one's seat on (a horse, etc): She ~s her horse well. 5 (of birds) rest (on a branch, fence, etc) with the body close to it: ~ing on a branch. 6 (of domestic fowls) remain on the nest in order to hatch eggs: That hen wants to ~. 7 (of clothes) suit, fit, hang: The coat ~s badly across the shoulders. 8 act as a baby-sitter.

9 (special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions):

sit back, (a) settle oneself comfortably back, eg in a chair. (b) (fig) rest (after great activity, etc). (c) take no (further) action.

sit down, take a seat: Please ~ down, all of you. a sit-down 'strike, strike by workers who refuse to leave the factory, etc until their demands are considered or satisfied.

sit for, (a) take (an examination). (b) pose (for one's portrait, photograph).

sit in, (of workers, students, etc) demonstrate by occupying a building (or part of it) and staying there until their demands are met: There are reports of students ~ing in at several universities. Hence, 'sit-in n [C] such a demonstration. sit in on sth, attend (a discussion, etc) as an observer, not as a participant.

sit on sb, (sl) prevent him from interfering, opposing, etc. sit on sth, (a) be a member of (a jury, committee, etc). (b) (informal) neglect to deal with: They've been ~ing on my application for a month.

sit out, sit outside: ~ting out in the garden.
sit sth out, (a) stay to the end of (a performance, etc): ~ out a play. (b) take no part in (esp a dance): I think I'll ~ out the next dance.

sit up, not go to bed (until later than the usual time): The nurse sat up with her patient all night. sit (sb) up, (cause to) take a sitting position: The patient is well enough to ~ up in bed now. S~ up straight! (make sb) sit up (and take notice), (informal) alarm or frighten him; have one's interest (suddenly) stimulated.

sit upon, = sit on.

si-tar /sɪ'tɑ:(r)/ n [C] Indian stringed musical instrument with a long neck.

site /saɪt/ n [C] place where something was, is, or is to be: a ~ for a new school; a 'building ~.
 □ vi position; place: Where have they decided to ~ the new factory?

sit-ter /sɪtə(r)/ n [C] 1 person who is sitting for a portrait. 2 hen that sits (6): a good/poor ~. 3 bird or animal that is sitting and therefore easy to shoot. 4 = baby-sitter.

sit-ting /sɪtɪŋ/ n [C] 1 time during which a court of law, Parliament, etc is in session: during a long ~. 2 period of time during which one is engaged continuously in a particular occupation: finish reading a book at one ~. 3 act of posing for a portrait or photograph. 4 occasion of sitting down (for a meal, etc): In this hotel 100 people can be served at one ~. ie together. 5 collection of eggs on which a hen sits.

,sitting 'duck, an easy target or victim.

sitting member, candidate in a parliamentary election who held the seat before.

'sitting-room, room for general daytime use.

,sitting 'tenant, one already in occupation of a house, etc.

situ-ated /sɪtʃu'eɪtɪd/ adj 1 (of a town, building, etc) placed: The village is ~ in a valley. 2 (of a person) in (certain) circumstances: I'm badly ~ at the moment, in difficult circumstances.

situ-ation /sɪtʃu'eɪʃn/ n [C] 1 position (of a town, building, etc). 2 condition, state of affairs, esp at a certain time: be in an embarrassing ~. 3 work, employment, eg in domestic service: S~s vacant, S~s wanted, headings of newspaper advertisements of employment offered and asked for.

six /sɪks/ adj, n [C] (of) 6. six of one and half a dozen of the other, very little difference between the one and the other. at sixes and sevens, in confusion.

'six-pence, (a) (GB) coin worth (formerly) six pennies, or (since 1971) 2½p. (b) the sum of six pennies.

'six-penny adj costing sixpence.

'six-fold /-fəʊld/ adj, adv six times as much or as many or as great.

six-teen /sɪk'sti:n/ adj, n [C] (of) 16.

six-teenth /sɪk'sti:nθ/ adj, n [C] (abbr 16th) (of) one of 16 parts or the next after 15.

sixth /sɪksθ/ adj, n, [C] (abbr 6th) (of) one of 6 parts or the next after 5.

,sixth 'sense, power to be aware of things independently of the five senses.

sixth-ly adv

six-ti-eth /sɪks'ti:əθ/ adj, n [C] (abbr 60th) (of) one of 60 parts or the next after 59.

sixty /'sɪksti/ adj, n [C] (of) 60. in the sixties, (a) (of a person's age, temperature, speed, etc) between 59 and 70. (b) between '59 and '70 in a century.

size¹ /saɪz/ n 1 [U] degree of largeness or smallness: About the ~ of (= about as large as) a duck's egg. They're both of a ~, are the same size. cut sb down to size, reduce him to his correct level of (un)importance. 2 [C] one of the degrees of size in which articles of clothing, etc are made: ~ five shoes; three ~s too big. I take ~ ten. □ vi 1 arrange according to size. 2 size sb/sth up, (informal) form a judgement or opinion of.

size-able /-əbl/ adj fairly large.

size² /saɪz/ n [U] sticky substance used to glaze paper, stiffen cloth, etc. □ vi stiffen or treat with size.

sizzle /'sɪzl/ vi, n [C] (informal) 1 (make the) hissing sound as of something cooking in fat: sausages sizzling in the pan. 2 (fig) be in a state of great heat: a sizzling hot day.

skate /skeɪt/ n [C] (also a pair of ~s) a sharp-edged steel blade to be fastened to a boot for moving smoothly over ice. ⇨ roller-skate. □ vi 1 move on skates. 2 (fig) skate over/round a difficulty/problem, make only passing and cautious reference to it.

'skate-board n board on wheels, used to stand on and ride as a sport. □ vi do this.

skater, person who skates.

'skat-ing n [U] (sport of) moving on skates.

'skat-ing-rink, specially prepared surface for skating.

ske-daddle /skɪ'dædl/ vi (informal) (esp of children) run away.

skein /skeɪn/ n [C] length of silk or wool or thread coiled loosely into a bundle.

skel-eton /'skelɪtn/ n [C] 1 bony framework of an animal body; bones of an animal body in the same relative positions as in life. a skel-eton in the cupboard, something of which a person is ashamed and which he tries to keep secret. 2 framework of a building, plan, to which details are to be added.

'skeleton key, one that will open a number of different locks.

skeleton staff/crew/service, etc, one reduced to the smallest number needed.

sketch /sketʃ/ n [C] 1 rough, quickly made drawing: make a ~ of a harbour. 2 short account or description; general outline, without details: He gave me a ~ of his plans for the expedition. 3 short, humorous play or piece of writing. □ vt, vi 1 make a sketch of. sketch sth out, give a rough plan of; indicate without detail: ~ out plans for a new road. 2 practise the art of making sketches: I often go into the country to ~.

sketchy adj (-ier, -iest) (a) done roughly and without detail or care. (b) incomplete: He has a ~y knowledge of geography.

skew /skju:/ adj twisted or turned to one side; not straight.

skewer /'skju:ə(r)/ n [C] pointed stick of wood or metal for holding meat together while cooking. □ vi fasten with a skewer.

ski /ski:/ n [C] (pl ~ or ~s) (also a pair of ~s) long, narrow strip of wood, etc strapped under the foot for moving over snow. □ vi (pt, pp ~d, present participle ~ing) move over snow on skis: go ~ing.

'ski-jump, steep slope before a sharp drop to let a skier leap through the air.

'ski-lift, seats hanging from an overhead cable for carrying skiers uphill.

'ski-plane, aircraft fitted with skis instead of wheels, to enable it to land on snow.

skier /'ski:ə(r)/, person using skis.

skid /skɪd/ n [C] 1 slipping movement, often sideways, of the wheels of a car, etc on a slippery or icy road, or while turning a corner: How would you get out of/correct a ~? 2 piece of wood or metal fixed under the wheel of a cart, etc to prevent it from turning, to control the speed when going downhill. 3 log, plank, etc used to make a track over which heavy objects may be dragged or rolled. □ vi (-dd-) (of a car, etc) move or slip sideways, etc.

skies /skaɪz/ pl of sky.

skiff /skɪf/ n [C] small, light, rowing boat.

skill-ful (US = skill-ful) /'skɪlfʊl/ adj having or showing skill: ~ driving.

skill-fully /-fəli/ adv

skill /skɪl/ n [U] 1 ability to do something well. 2 [C] particular kind of skill.

skilled adj (needing a person who is) trained; experienced: ~ed workmen.

skim /skɪm/ vt, vi (-mm-) 1 remove floating matter from (the surface of a liquid): ~ milk; ~ cream off the milk. 2 move lightly over (a surface), not touching, or only lightly or occasionally touching (it): The swallows were ~ming (over) the water. 3 skim through sth, read quickly, noting only the chief points: ~ through a newspaper.

skimp /skɪmp/ vt, vi supply, use, the minimum of what is needed: They are so poor that they have to ~.

skimpy adj (-ier, -iest) skin /skɪn/ n 1 [U] (substance forming the) outer covering of the body of a person or animal: We all got wet to the ~, thoroughly wet (eg in heavy rain). by the skin of one's teeth, by a narrow margin. get under one's skin, (fig) (a) cause irritation or anger. (b) cause infatuation. have a thin/thick skin, (fig) be easily hurt/not easily hurt by unkindness, bad criticism, swearing, etc. Hence, thin-/thick-skinned adj: ⇨ also soak (5). 2 [C] animal's skin with or without the hair or fur: 'rabbit-~s. 3 [C,U] outer covering of a fruit, or plant: slip on a ba'nana ~. 4 [C,U] thin layer that forms on boiled milk: the ~ on a milk pudding. □ vt, vi (-nn-) take the skin off: ~ a rabbit.

'skin-deep adj (of beauty, feelings, etc) only on the surface; not deep or lasting.

'skin-diving, form of sport in which a person swims under the water without a diving-suit, with goggles over the eyes and a snorkel or aqualung to help breathing.

'skin-flint, (sl) = miser.

'skin-graft, (in surgery) the removal of layers of skin from one part of the body to another part, eg to grow over a bad scar.

'skin-tight adj (of clothing) fitting closely to the body: ~tight 'jeans.

skinny adj (-ier, -iest) having little flesh, not fat.

skint /skɪnt/ adj (GB sl) very poor.

skip /skɪp/ vi, vt (-pp-) 1 jump lightly and quickly: The lambs were ~ping about in the fields. 2 jump over a rope which is turned over the head and under the feet as one jumps. 3 go from one place to another quickly: ~ over/across to Paris for the weekend. He ~ped off (= left) without saying anything to any of us. 4 change from one subject to another when talking: He ~s from one excuse to another. 5 go from one part (of a book, etc) to another without reading, paying attention, etc: We'll ~ the next chapter. □ n [C] skipping movement: a hop, a ~ and a jump.

'skip-ping-rope, length of rope with handles, used in the children's game of skipping. ⇨ skip (2).

skip² /skɪp/ n [C] 1 cage or bucket in which men or materials are raised and lowered in mines and quarries. 2 large metal container for carrying away builders' refuse, etc.

skip-^{per} /'skɪpə(r)/ n [C] 1 captain, esp of a small merchant ship or fishing-boat. 2 (informal) captain of a team in games such as football and cricket. □ vi act as captain: ~ a team.

skir-mish /'skɜ:miʃ/ n [C] fight between small parts of armies or fleets. □ vi engage in such a fight.

skirt /skɜ:t/ n [C] 1 woman's article of clothing that hangs from the waist. 2 part of a dress, etc that hangs from the waist. 3 (pl) = outskirts (which is more usual). □ vt, vi be on, pass along, the edge of: Our road ~ed the forest.

'skirt-ing-board, line of boards fixed round the walls of a room close to the floor.

skit /skɪt/ n [C] short piece of humorous writing making fun of a person, idea, style, etc: a ~ on Wagner/on 'Macbeth'.

skit-tish /'skɪtɪʃ/ adj 1 (of horses) excitable; lively; difficult to control. 2 (fig) (of women) frivolous; excitable.

skittles /'skɪtlz/ n pl (used with a sing verb) (game in which a ball is thrown to knock down) a number of bottle-shaped pieces of wood (called a skittle).

skulk /skʌlk/ vi hide, move secretly, because afraid, or to avoid work or duty, or with an evil purpose: ~ing about in the corridors.

skull /skʌl/ n [C] bony framework of the head: have a thick ~, be stupid.

skunk /skʌŋk/ n [C] small, bush-tailed N American animal able to send out a strong evil smell as a defence when attacked.

sky /skaɪ/ n [C] (pl skies /skaɪz/) the space we look up to from the earth, where we see the sun, moon and stars. (Note: usually sing with the, but with a, an when used with an adj: a clear, blue ~, and often pl: The skies opened and the rain fell.) ⇨ pie.

sky-blue adj, n [U] (of) the bright blue colour of the sky on a cloudless day.

sky-high adv so as to reach the sky: When the bomb exploded, the bridge was blown ~ high.

sky-lark, small bird that sings as it flies up into the sky. □ vi = *lark*¹: ~larking about at school.

sky-light, window in a sloping roof.

sky-line, outline of hills, buildings, etc, defined against the sky: the ~line of New York.

sky-rocket vi (of prices) rise quickly.

sky-scraper, very tall building.

sky-ward(s) /'skaɪwəd(z)/ adj, adv toward(s) the sky; upward(s).

slab /slæb/ n [C] thick flat (usually square or rectangular) piece of stone, etc: paved with ~s of stone; a ~ of chocolate.

slack¹ /slæk/ adj (-er, -est) 1 giving little care or attention to one's work: Don't get ~ at your work. 2 inactive; with not much work to be done or business being done: Trade/Business is ~ this week. 3 loose, not tight: a ~ rope. 4 slow-moving: periods of ~ water, when the tide is neither ebbing nor flowing. □ vi 1 be lazy or careless in one's work: Don't ~ off in your studies. 2 reduce speed: S~ up before you reach the crossroads. 3 make (a rope, etc) loose.

slack-ly adv

slack-ness n [U]

slack² /slæk/ n the ~, that part of a rope, etc that hangs loosely.

slacken /'slækən/ vt, vi 1 make or become slower, less active, etc: The ship's speed ~ed. 2 make or become loose(r): ~ the ropes/reins.

slacks /slæks/ n pl (dated) trousers, not part of a suit, worn informally.

slag /slæg/ n [U] waste matter remaining when metal has been extracted from ore.

'slag-heap, hill of slag (from a mine).

slain /sleɪn/ pp of slay.

slake /sleɪk/ vt 1 satisfy or make less strong (thirst, desire for revenge). 2 change the chemical nature of (lime) by adding water.

sla-lom /'slɑ:lɒm/ n [C] ski-race along a zig-zag course marked out by poles with flags.

slam /slæm/ vt, vi (-mm-) 1 shut violently and noisily: ~ the door (to); ~ the door in his face.

2 be shut violently: The door ~med (to). 3 put, throw or knock with force: She ~med the box down on the table. □ n [C] 1 noise of something being slammed: the ~ of a car door. 2 (in whist, bridge): a grand ~, taking of 13 tricks; a small ~, taking of 12 tricks.

slan-der /'slɑ:ndə(r) US: 'slæn-/ n [C, U] (offence of making a) false statement that damages a person's reputation. □ vt use or contain slander.

slan-derer, person who uses slander.

slan-der-ous /-əs/ adj using or containing slander.

slang /slæŋ/ n [U] words, phrases, meanings of words, etc sometimes used in conversation but not suitable for writing or for formal occasions (marked sl in this dictionary). □ vt abuse: Stop ~ing me. a 'slanging match, a long exchange of insults and accusations.

slangy adj (-ier, -iest) using slang.

slant /slɑ:nt US: slænt/ vi, vt 1 slope: His handwriting ~s from right to left. 2 present information, etc so that it is seen from, and supports, a particular point of view (often prejudiced), eg in a newspaper. □ n [C] 1 slope. 2 (informal) point of view (prejudiced or biased) when thinking about something; a new ~ on the political situation.

slap /slæp/ vt (-pp-) 1 strike with the palm of the hand; smack: She ~ped his face/~ped him on the face. 2 put something down with a slapping noise: He ~ped the book down on the table. □ n [C] quick blow with the palm of the hand or with something flat. □ adv straight; directly: The car ran ~ into the wall.

'slap-dash adj, adv careless(ly): a ~dash worker.

'slap-happy adj carefree.

'slap-stick n [U] comedy using violence.

'slap-up adj (sl) first-class; extremely good: a ~up dinner at a ~up restaurant.

slash /slæʃ/ vt, vi 1 make a cut or cuts in (or at something) with sweeping strokes; strike with a whip: His face had been ~ed with a razor-blade. 2 condemn with force and energy: a ~ing attack on the government's policy. 3 (informal) cut, reduce, greatly: ~ prices/taxes/salaries. □ n [C] act of slashing; long cut or gash.

slat /slæt/ n [C] thin narrow piece of wood, metal or plastic material, eg as in Venetian blinds or louvered doors.

slate /sleɪt/ n 1 [U] kind of blue-grey stone that splits easily into thin, flat layers; [C] one of these layers, square or oblong, used for making roofs: a ~ quarry. 2 [C] sheet of slate in a wooden frame for writing on (as formerly used by school-children). a clean slate, no cause for criticism, discredit, etc. wipe the slate clean, forgive all past offences. □ vt 1 cover (a roof, etc) with slates. 2 (informal) criticize severely (esp in a review of a book, play, etc).

slaty adj of or like slate.

slaughter /s'lɔ:tə(r)/ n [U] 1 killing of animals (esp for food). 2 killing of many people at once: the ~ on the roads, the killing of people in road accidents. □ vt kill (animals, people) in large numbers.

'slaughter-house, place where animals are butchered for food.

slaugh-ter-er, (a) person who kills animals for food. (b) person who kills many people.

slave /sleɪv/ n [C] 1 person who is the property of another and must serve him. 2 person compelled to work very hard for someone else: You mustn't make ~s of your workers. 3 person completely in the power of, under the control of, a habit, etc: a ~ to duty/passion/convention/drink. □ vi work hard: Poor Jim! He's been slaving away (eg cooking) for three hours!

'slave-driver, (esp) person who makes those who are under him work very hard.

'slave ship, ship used in the slave-trade.

'Slave States, southern States of N America in which there was slavery before the Civil War.

'slave-trade/-traffic, capturing, transportation, buying and selling, of slaves.

'slav-ery /s'leɪvəri/ n [U] (a) condition of being a slave: sold into ~ry. (b) custom of having slaves: men who worked for the abolition of ~ry. (c) hard or badly paid work.

slav-ish /s'leɪvɪʃ/ adj like, fit for, a slave.

slaver /s'lævə(r)/ vi let spit run from the mouth (over). □ n [U] saliva.

slay /sleɪ/ vt (pt slew /slu:/, pp slain /sleɪn/) (literary) kill, murder.

sleazy /s'li:zi/ adj (-ier, -iest) (informal) dirty, untidy: a ~ hotel.

sled /sled/ n = sledge.

sledge /sledʒ/ n [C] vehicle with runners (long, narrow strips of wood or metal) instead of wheels, used on snow, larger types being pulled by horses or dogs and smaller types used in sport for travelling downhill at speed. □ vi, vt travel or carry by sledge: go sledging.

sledge-hammer /s'ledʒ hæmə(r)/ n [C] heavy hammer with a long handle, used for driving posts into the ground, and by blacksmiths.

sleek /sli:k/ adj (-er, -est) 1 (of hair, an animal's fur, etc) soft, smooth and glossy. 2 (of a person) having such hair. □ vt make sleek: ~ a cat's fur.

sleep ¹ /sli:p/ n 1 [U] condition of the body and mind at rest as happens regularly every night, in which the eyes are closed and the muscles, nervous system, etc are relaxed: How many hours' ~ do you need? 2 (with a, an) period of sleep: have a short/good/restful ~. 3 get to sleep, manage to fall asleep: I couldn't get to ~ last night. go to sleep, fall asleep.

sleep ² /sli:p/ vi, vt (pp, pt slept /slept/) 1 rest in the condition of sleep, be or fall asleep: We go to bed to ~. She slept (for) eight hours. sleep like a top/log, very deeply, well. 2 provide beds for: This hotel ~s 300 guests. 3 (uses with adverbial particles and prepositions):

sleep around, (informal) be promiscuous.

sleep sth off, recover from (a party, headache, etc) by sleeping: ~ off a bad headache/a hangover.

sleep on, continue to sleep: Don't wake him up—let him ~ on for another hour. sleep on sth, leave the answer, solution, to a problem, etc to the next day.

sleep through sth, not be woken up by (a noise, the alarm-clock, etc).

sleep with sb, have sexual intercourse with.

sleep ^{er} /s'li:pə(r)/ n [C] 1 person who sleeps: a heavy/light ~, one who is hard/easy to wake up. 2 heavy beam of wood (or similarly shaped piece of other material) on a railway track, etc supporting the rails. 3 (bed or berth in a) sleeping-car on a train.

sleeping /s'li:pɪŋ/ (in compounds):

'sleeping-bag, warmly lined and waterproof bag in which to sleep, eg in a tent.

'sleeping-car, railway coach fitted with beds or berths.

'sleeping 'partner, person who owns a share in a business but does not do any work in it.

'sleeping-pill, one that contains a drug to encourage sleep.

'sleeping-sickness, disease caused by the tsetse-fly with a weakening of the mental powers and (usually) death.

sleep-less /s'li:plɪs/ adj without sleep: pass a ~ night.

sleepy /s'li:pɪ/ adj (-ier, -iest) 1 needing, ready for, sleep: feel/look ~. 2 (of places, etc) quiet; inactive: a ~ little village. 3 (of some kinds of fruit) over-ripe: ~ bananas, soft and brown inside.

sleep-ily /-əli/ adv

sleet /sli:t/ n [U] falling snow or hail mixed with rain. □ vi: It was ~ing, Sleet was falling.

sleety adj (-ier, -iest) sleeve /sli:v/ n [C] 1 part of clothing that covers all or part of the arm: one's 'shirt-~s. have sth up one's sleeve, have an idea, plan, etc which one keeps secret for future use.

laugh up one's sleeve, be secretly amused.
2 stiff envelope for a record.

sleeve-less adj without sleeves.

sleigh /slei/ n [C] sledge, esp one drawn by a horse: go for a ~ride/a ride in a ~. □ vi, vt travel, carry (goods), by sleigh.

sleight /slaɪt/ n (usually in) sleight of hand, great skill in using the hand(s) in performing tricks, juggling, etc.

slen-der /'slendə(r)/ adj (-er, -est) 1 small in width or circumference compared with height or length: ~ fingers; a ~ waist. 2 (of persons) slim: a woman with a ~ figure. 3 slight; inadequate: have ~ means/hopes.

slen-der-ness n [U] slept /slept/ pt, pp of sleep.

slew /slu:/ pt of slay.

slice /slaɪs/ n [C] 1 thin, wide, flat piece cut off something, esp bread or meat. 2 part, share or price: Smith took too big a ~ of the credit for our success. 3 utensil with wide, flat blade for cutting, serving or lifting (eg cooked fish, fried eggs). 4 (golf, tennis, etc) stroke that causes the ball to go spinning off in a different direction. □ vt, vi 1 cut into slices: slicing (up) a loaf. 2 (golf, tennis, etc): ~ the ball, ⇨ 4 above.

slick /slik/ adj (informal) 1 smooth; slippery: The roads were ~ with wet mud. ⇨ oil slick. 2 done smoothly and efficiently, perhaps with a little deceit: a ~ business deal. 3 (of a person) doing things in a slick way: a ~ salesman.

slide¹ /slaɪd/ n [C] 1 act of sliding(1); smooth stretch of ice, hard snow, etc on which to slide: have a ~ on the ice. 2 smooth slope down which persons or things can slide (eg a wooden or metal slope made for children to play on). 3 picture, diagram, etc on photographic film (and usually mounted in a frame). 4 glass plate on which is placed something to be examined under a microscope. 5 part of a machine, etc that slides (eg the U-shaped part of a trombone). 6 = landslide(a). 7 = hair-slide.

slide² /slaɪd/ vi, vt (pt, pp slid /slɪd/) 1 (cause to) move smoothly over, slip along, a polished surface: children sliding on the ice. The drawers of this desk ~ in and out easily. let things slide, not take care of, organize, do, them. 2 have, become, gradually, without being fully aware: ~ into dishonesty/bad habits. 3 (cause to) move quickly, or so as to avoid observation: The thief slid behind the curtains. She slid a coin into his hand.

'slide-rule, device of two rulers with logarithmic scales, one of which slides in a groove, used for calculating quickly.

slid-ing door, one that is pulled across an opening (instead of turning on hinges).

slid-ing scale, scale by which one thing, eg wages, goes up or down in relation to changes in something else, eg the cost of living.

slight¹ /slaɪt/ adj (-er, -est) 1 slim; slender; frail-looking: a ~ figure. 2 small; not serious or important: a ~ error; a ~ headache; without the ~est difficulty, with no difficulty at all. She takes offence at the ~est thing, is very easily offended.

slight-ly adv (a) slenderly: a ~ly built boy. (b) to a small degree: The patient is ~ly better today. I know her ~ly.

slight² /slaɪt/ vt treat without proper respect or courtesy: She felt ~ed because no one spoke to her. □ n [C] failure to show respect or courtesy: suffer ~s.

slim /slɪm/ adj (-mer, -mest) 1 slender: a ~-waisted girl. 2 (informal) small; insufficient: ~ hopes/chances of success. □ vi (-mm-) eat less, take exercise, etc in order to reduce one's weight and become thin: ~ming exercises.

slim-ness n [U]

slime /slaɪm/ n [U] 1 soft, thick, sticky mud. 2 sticky substance from snails, etc: a trail of ~.

slimy /'slaɪmi/ adj (-ier, -iest) (a) of, like, covered with, slime. (b) (fig) disgustingly dishonest, flattering, etc: That slimy boy gets everything he wants.

sling /slɪŋ/ n [C] 1 band of material, length of rope, chain, etc looped round an object, eg a barrel, a broken arm, to support or lift it. 2 strip of leather (held in the hand in a loop) used to throw stones to a distance. 3 act of throwing. □ vt, vi (pt, pp slung /slʌŋ/) 1 throw with force: naughty boys ~ing stones at girls.

sling sb out, (informal) throw him out (of a room, party, etc). 2 support (something) so that it can swing, be lifted, etc: ~ a rope over the cliff; with his bag slung over his shoulder.

'sling-back adj (of shoes) with a strap at the back, not a heel: ~back shoes.

slink /slɪŋk/ vi (pt, pp slunk /slʌŋk/) go or move (off, away, in, out, by) in a secret or sneaking way.

slip¹ /slɪp/ n [C] 1 act of slipping; false step; slight error caused by carelessness or inattention: make a ~. a slip of the tongue/pen, error in speaking/writing. give sb the slip, escape, get away, from him. 2 = pillow-slip. 3 loose sleeveless clothing worn under a dress. 4 young, slender person: a (mere) ~ of a boy/girl. 5 (usually pl) sloping way (of stone or timber) down to the water, on which ships are built, or pulled up out of the water for repairs. 6 (cricket) one of the fielders: first/second/leg ~; (pl) part of the ground where these fielders stand. 7 [U] liquid clay for coating earthenware or making patterns on it.

'slip-cover, detachable cover for a piece of furniture.

'slip-knot, (a) knot which slips along the cord round which it is made to tighten or loosen the loop. (b) knot which can be undone by a pull.

'slip-over, knitted article of clothing to be pulled on (over a shirt, etc).

'slip-road, road for joining or leaving a motorway.

'slip-stream, stream of air from the propeller or jet engine of an aircraft.

'slip-up, (informal) \diamond slip²(5).

'slip-way, = slip(5).

slip² /slɪp/ vi, vt (-pp-) 1 fall or almost fall as the result of losing one's balance: He ~ped on the icy road and broke his leg. 2 go or move quietly or quickly, esp without attracting attention: She ~ped away/out/past without being seen. The years ~ped (= passed) by. 3 move, get away, escape, fall, by being difficult to hold, or by not being balanced, fastened: The fish ~ped out of my hand. The blanket ~ped off the bed. let sth slip. (a) allow it to fall from one's hands, escape, or be neglected: Don't let the opportunity ~. (b) accidentally reveal (a secret, etc). slip through one's fingers, (fig) fail to keep a hold on. slip one's mind, \diamond mind¹(2). 4 put, pull on or push off, with a quick, easy movement: ~ a coat on/off; ~ into/out of a dress. 5 allow (small mistakes, etc) to enter, esp by carelessness: errors that have ~ped into the text. slip up, (informal) make a mistake. Hence, 'slip-up n [C]. 6 move smoothly and effortlessly; go with a gliding motion: The ship ~ped through the water. 7 get free from; let go: ~ anchor, detach a ship from the anchor; ~ a stitch, (in knitting) move a stitch from one needle to the other without knitting it.

'slipped disc, \diamond disc(2).

slip-per /'slɪpə(r)/ n [C] (also a pair of ~s) loose-fitting, soft shoe worn in the house.

slip-pery /'slɪpəri/ adj (-ier, iest) 1 (of a surface) smooth, wet, polished, etc so that it is difficult to hold, to stand on, or to move on: ~ roads. 2 (fig) (of a subject) needing care: We're on ~ ground when dealing with this subject. 3 (fig) (of persons) unreliable; not to be trusted: He's as ~ as an eel.

slit /slɪt/ n [C] long, narrow cut, tear or opening. \diamond vt (pt, pp slit) (-tt-) 1 make a slit in; open (by slitting): ~ a man's throat; ~ an envelope open. 2 be cut or torn lengthwise: The shirt was ~ down the back.

slither /'slɪðə(r)/ vi slide or slip unsteadily: ~ down an ice-covered slope.

sliver /'slɪvə(r)/ n [C] 1 small, thin strip of wood; splinter. 2 thin piece cut off a large piece: a ~ of cheese. \diamond vt, vi break off, into, slivers.

slob-ber /'slɒbə(r)/ vi, vt 1 let saliva run from the mouth (as a baby does). 2 make wet with saliva: The baby has ~ed its bib. \diamond n [U] saliva running from the mouth.

sloe /sləʊ/ n [C] small, bluish-black wild plum, fruit of the blackthorn.

slog /slɒg/ vi, vt (-gg-) 1 hit hard and wildly, esp in boxing and cricket: ~ (at) the ball. 2 work, etc long and hard: ~ing away at one's work. \square n [U] (informal) work: all this hard ~ for nothing.

slog-ger, person who slogs.

slo-gan /'sləʊɡən/ n [C] striking and easily remembered phrase used to advertise something, or to make clear the aim(s) of a group, campaign, etc: political ~s.

sloop /slu:p/ n [C] 1 small one-masted sailing-ship. 2 (modern use) small warship used for anti-submarine escort duty.

slop /slop/ vi, vt (-pp-) 1 (of liquids) spill over the edge: The tea ~ped (over) into the saucer. 2 cause to spill: ~ beer over the counter of a pub.

3 empty buckets containing urine, etc: The prisoners had to ~ out every morning. 4 make a mess with: ~ing paint all over the floor. 5 splash: Why do some children love ~ping about in puddles? \square n 1 (pl) dirty waste water from the kitchen or from bedrooms (where there are no basins with running water and drains).

2 (pl) urine, excrement (in buckets, as in a prison cell). 3 [U] liquid food, eg milk, soup, esp for people who are ill. 4 [U] swill (for pigs).

slope /sloʊp/ n 1 [C, U] slanting line; position or direction at an angle, less than 90°, to the earth's surface or to another flat surface: the ~ of a roof; a hill with a ~ of 1 in 5. 2 area of rising or falling ground: 'mountain ~s; 'ski ~s. \square vi, vt 1 have a slope: Our garden ~s (down) to the river. 2 cause to slope. 3 (informal) slope off, go off or away (to avoid somebody, or escape doing something): children sloping off after a meal to escape the washing-up.

sloppy /'slopi/ adj (-ier, -iest) 1 wet or dirty with rain, etc; full of puddles: The melting snow made the roads ~. 2 (informal) not done with or using care and thoroughness: a ~ workman/piece of work. 3 (informal) foolishly sentimental; weakly emotional: ~ talk about girlfriends and boyfriends.

slop-pily /-əli/ adv in a careless manner: slop-pily (= carelessly) dressed.

slop-pi-ness n [U]

slosh /slɒʃ/ vt, vi 1 (sl) hit (somebody): ~ him on the chin. 2 splash about in water or mud. 3 throw water or other liquid.

sloshed adj (informal) drunk.

slot /slɒt/ n [C] 1 narrow opening through which something is to be put, eg for a coin in a machine to buy something, eg tickets, cigarettes, sweets. 2 slit, groove or channel into which something fits or along which it slides. 3 (informal) right or suitable place for something (in a broadcast programme, scheme, etc): too many advertising ~s. \diamond vt (-tt-) make a slot in: ~ 30000 graduates a year into jobs, find jobs for them.

sloth /slɒθ/ n 1 [U] laziness; idleness. 2 [C] S American mammal which lives in the branches of trees and moves very slowly.

sloth-ful /-fl/ adj inactive; lazy.

slouch /slaʊtʃ/ vi stand, sit or move, in a lazy, tired way: boys who ~ about at street corners all day. □ n [C] lazy attitude or way of walking: walk with a ~.

sloven /sləvn/ n [C] person who is untidy, dirty.

sloven-ly /sləvnli/ adj untidy, dirty, careless: a ~ appearance slow¹ /sləʊ/ adj (-er, -est) 1 not quick; taking a long time: a ~ runner; a ~ journey. 2 at less than the usual rate or speed. in slow motion. (of film) with the number of exposures per second greatly increased (so that when the film is shown at normal rate the action appears to be slow). 3 not quick to learn: a ~ child. 4 not acting immediately; acting only after a time; ~ poison. He is ~ to anger/~ to make up his mind. 5 (of watches and clocks) showing a time behind the correct time (eg 1.55 when it is 2.00): That clock is five minutes ~. 6 not sufficiently interesting or lively: We thought the party was rather ~. 7 (of a surface) of such a nature that what moves over it tends to do so at a reduced speed: a ~ running track.

'slow-coach, person who is slow in action or who has out-of-date ideas.

slow handclap, slow clapping (to show disapproval).

slow-ly adv in a slow manner.

slow-ness n [U]

slow² /sləʊ/ adv (-er, -est) 1 at a low speed; slowly: Tell the driver to go ~er. go slow. (a) (of workers in a factory, etc) work slowly as a protest, or in order to get attention to demands, etc. Hence, go-¹slow n [C]. (b) be less active: You ought to go ~ until you feel really well again. 2 ~¹going/-¹moving, going/moving slowly.

slow³ /sləʊ/ vi, vt (cause to) go, work, etc at a slower speed: S~ up/down before you reach the crossroads. You should ~ up a bit (= stop working so hard) if you want to avoid a breakdown.

slow-worm /sləʊ wɜ:m/ n [C] small, legless European lizard.

sludge /slʌdʒ/ n [U] 1 thick, greasy mud. 2 thick, dirty oil or grease.

slug¹ /slʌg/ n [C] slow-moving creature like a snail but without a shell.

slug² /slʌg/ n [C] bullet of irregular shape.

slug³ /slʌg/ vt, vi (-gg-) (US informal) 1 shoot(5). 2 hit hard; punch.

slug-gish /slʌgɪʃ/ adj inactive; slow-moving: a ~ river; feeling ~.

sluice /slu:s/ n [C] 1 apparatus, device, for regulating the level of water by controlling the flow into or out of (a canal, lake, etc). 2 artificial water channel, eg one made by gold-miners for rinsing gold from sand and dirt. 3 flow of water above, through or below a floodgate. □ vi, vt 1 send a stream of water over; wash with a stream of water: ~ ore, to separate it from gravel, etc. 2 sluice out, (of water) rush out as from a sluice.

'sluice-gate/-valve, = 1 above.

'sluice-way, = 2 above.

slum /slʌm/ n [C] street of dirty, crowded houses; such a house: live in a ~. □ vi (-mm-) (informal) live very cheaply: They've been ~ming off me for years.

slummy adj of slums: a ~my part of the town.

slum-ber /slʌmbə(r)/ vi, vt (literary) 1 sleep peacefully or comfortably. 2 pass (time) in sleep: ~ away a hot afternoon. □ n (often pl) sleep.

slump /slʌmp/ vi 1 drop or fall heavily: Tired from his walk, he ~ed into a chair. 2 (of prices, trade, business activity) fall steeply or suddenly. □ n [C] general drop in prices, etc; business depression.

slung /slʌŋ/ pt, pp of sling.

slunk /slʌŋk/ pt, pp of slink.

slur /slɜ:(r)/ vt, vi (-rr-) 1 join (sounds, letters, words) so that they are indistinct. 2 deal quickly with in an attempt to conceal: He ~red over the dead man's faults and spoke chiefly of his virtues. □ n [C] 1 suggestion of having done wrong: cast a ~ on her reputation; keep one's reputation free from (all) ~s. 2 act of slurring sounds.

slush /slʌʃ/ n [U] 1 melting, dirty snow. 2 (fig) foolish sentiment.

'slush fund, one used for bribes.

slut /slʌt/ n [C] untidy and careless or immoral woman.

slut-tish /-tɪʃ/ adj

sly /sli/ adj (-er, -est) deceitful; keeping or doing things secretly; seeming to have, suggesting, secret knowledge: a ~ look. on the sly, secretly.

sly-ly adv

smack¹ /smæk/ n [C] 1 (sound of a) blow given with the open hand; sound of the lips parted suddenly or of a whip: with a ~ of the lips, with this sound (suggesting enjoyment of food or drink). □ vt 1 strike with the open hand: If you say that again, I'll ~ your face. 2 part the lips with a smacking sound to show pleasure (at food or drink, etc). □ adv in a sudden and violent way: It hit me ~ in the eye.

smack-ing, act or occasion of hitting with the palm of the hand: That child needs a good ~ing.

smack² /smæk/ n [C] small sailing-boat for fishing.

smack³ /smæk/ vi have a slight flavour or suggestion (of): opinions that ~ of heresy.

small /smɔ:l/ adj (-er, -est) (opposite of large) 1 not large in degree, size, etc: a ~ town/room/audience/sum of money. on the 'small side, too small. 2 not doing things on a large scale: ~ farmers/businessmen/shopkeepers. 3 unimportant: a ~ mistake. 4 morally mean;

ungenerous: Only a ~ man/a man with a ~ mind would behave so badly. Hence, small-minded adj. 5 of low social position: great and ~, all classes of people. 6 in a 'small way, modestly, unpretentiously: He contributed to scientific progress in a ~ way. 7 little or no: He failed, and ~ wonder, It is not surprising. 1 (with the) slenderest part: the ~ of the back. 2 (pl) (informal) small articles of clothing (for laundering).

'small-arms n pl weapons light enough to be carried in the hand by a soldier.

small beer, (informal) unimportant (quantity, matter, etc).

small change, coins of small value: Can you give me ~ change for this note?

'small-fry, person(s) of no importance.

'small-holder, person owning a small-holding.

'small-holding, (in GB) piece of land under fifty acres in size.

the small hours n pl the three or four hours after midnight.

small letters n pl not capitals.

'small-pox n [U] serious contagious disease which leaves permanent marks on the skin.

'small talk, about everyday and unimportant social matters.

'small-time adj (informal) of minor importance; third-rate.

small-ness n [U] smart¹ /smɑ:t/ adj (-er, -est) 1 bright; new-looking; clean; well-dressed: a ~ dress/suit/car. You look very ~. 2 fashionable; part of high society: the ~ set. 3 clever; skilful; having a good, quick brain: a ~ student/officer. 4 quick; brisk: walk at a ~ pace. Look smart! Hurry up! 5 severe: a ~ rebuke; a ~ slap on the ear.

smart-ly adv

smart-ness n [U]

smart² /smɑ:t/ vt feel or cause a sharp pain (of body or mind): The smoke made my eyes ~. She was ~ing with anger. 1 [U] sharp pain, bodily or mental: The ~ of his wound kept him awake.

smarten /'smɑ:tn/ vt, vi make or become smart(1,4): ~ oneself up to see visitors.

smash /smæʃ/ vt, vi 1 break, be broken, with force into small pieces: ~ a window. The firemen ~ed in/down the doors. 2 rush, force a way, (into, through, etc): The car ~ed into a wall. 3 defeat thoroughly: ~ the enemy.

smash a record, (in sport, etc) set up a far better record. 4 (tennis) hit (a ball) downwards over the net with a hard, overhead stroke. 5 (of a business firm) go bankrupt. 1 [C] 1 breaking to pieces. 2 (tennis) stroke in which the ball is brought swiftly down. 1 adv with a smash: go/run ~ into a wall.

'smash-and-grab raid, one in which a thief breaks a shop-window, eg a jeweller's, and grabs valuables from behind it.

'smash-up, collision (of cars, trains, etc).

smasher /'smæʃə(r)/ n [C] 1 violent blow. 2 person or thing considered to be very fine: That girl's a ~!

smashing /'smæʃɪŋ/ adj (dated sl) excellent.

smat-ter-ing /'smætərɪŋ/ n (usually sing with a, an) slight knowledge (of a subject): a ~ of French.

smear /smiə(r)/ vt, vi 1 cover or mark with something oily or sticky; spread (something oily, etc) on: ~ one's hands with grease; hands ~ed with blood. 2 make dirty, greasy marks on. 3 (fig) defame (a person, his reputation): a ~ campaign, effort to discredit a person.

1 [C] mark made by smearing: a ~ of paint.

smell¹ /smel/ n 1 [U] that one of the five senses special to the nose: S~ is more acute in dogs than in men. 2 [C, U] that which is noticed by means of the nose; quality that affects this sense: What a nice/horrible/unusual ~! 3 (used without an adj) bad or unpleasant quality that affects the nose: What a ~! 4 (usually sing with a, an) act of breathing in through the nose to get the smell(2) of: Have a ~ of this egg and tell me whether it's good.

smell² /smel/ vt, vi (pt, pp smelt /smelt/) 1 (not used in the progressive tenses; often used with can, could) be aware of through the sense of smell: Can/Do you ~ anything unusual? I can ~ something burning. smell a rat, 1 rat(2).

2 (used in progressive tenses) use one's sense of smell in order to learn something; S~ this and tell me what it is. smell sth out, (a) discover by means of the sense of smell. (b) (fig) discover by intuition. 3 (not used in the progressive tenses) have the sense of smell: Do/Can fishes ~? 4 give out a smell (of the kind specified by an adj or adv); suggest or recall the smell (of): The flowers ~ sweet. Your breath ~s of brandy. (Note: if there is no adj, the suggestion is usually something unpleasant: His breath/He ~s.)

'smell-ing-salts n pl sharp-smelling substances used as a cure for faintness, etc.

smelly adj (-ier, -iest) (informal) having a bad smell: ~y feet.

smelt¹ /smelt/ vt melt (ore); separate (metal) from ore by doing this.

smelt² pp, pt of smell².

smile /smaɪl/ n [C] pleased, happy, amused or other expression on the face, with (usually a parting of the lips and) loosening of the face muscles: There was a pleasant/amused ~ on her face. He was all ~s, looked very happy. 1 vi, vt 1 give a smile; show pleasure, amusement, sympathy, contempt, etc by this means: He never ~s. What are you smiling at? 2 express by means of a smile: Father ~d his approval. 3 give the kind of smile indicated: ~ sweetly.

smirch /smɜ:tʃ/ vt 1 make dirty. 2 (fig) dishonour. □ n [C] (fig) blot or stain.

smirk /smɜ:k/ vi, n [C] (give a) silly, self-satisfied smile.

smite /smaɪt/ vt, vi (pt smote /smaʊt/, pp smitten /'smɪtn/) (old use) 1 strike; hit hard: The sound of an explosion smote our ears. 2 affect greatly: He was smitten with guilt/smitten with that pretty girl. 3 defeat utterly: smitten by our enemies.

smith /smɪθ/ n [C] worker in iron or other metals: a black~.

smithy /'smɪði/, blacksmith's workshop.

smith-er-eens /s'mɪðə'ri:nz/ n pl small fragments: broken to into ~.

smock /smɒk/ n [C] loose shirt (with smocking on it) like an overall.

smock-ing, kind of ornamentation on clothing made by gathering the cloth tightly with stitched patterns.

smog /smɒg/ n [U] fog with smoke, exhaust fumes from motor-vehicles, etc.

smoke¹ /sməʊk/ n 1 [U] visible vapour with particles of carbon, etc coming from a burning substance: ~ pouring from factory chimneys; cigarette ~. go up in smoke. (a) be burnt up. (b) (fig) be without result, leave nothing permanent or worth while behind. 2 [C] (informal) (act of smoking) a cigarette, etc: stop working and have a ~.

'smoke-screen, (a) clouds of smoke made to hide military operations. (b) (fig) explanation, etc designed to mislead people about one's real intentions, etc.

'smoke-stack, (a) outlet for smoke and steam from a steamship. (b) tall chimney.

smoke-less adj (a) that burns without smoke: ~less fuel. (b) free from smoke: a ~less zone, where smoke is prohibited.

smoky adj (-ier, -iest) (a) full of smoke: smoky chimneys/fires. (b) like smoke in smell, taste or appearance: smoky bacon.

smoke² /sməʊk/ vi, vt 1 give out smoke, or something thought to be like smoke, eg visible vapour or steam: a smoking volcano. 2 (of a fire or fireplace) send out smoke into the room (instead of up the chimney): This fireplace ~s badly. 3 draw in and let out the smoke of burning tobacco or other substance: ~ a pipe/cigar. 4 bring (oneself) into a specific state by smoking tobacco: He ~d himself sick. 5 dry and preserve (meat, fish) with smoke (from wood fires). 6 stain, darken, dry, with smoke: ~d glass, eg through which to look at the sun. 7 send smoke on to (plants, insects) (to kill pests). smoke sth out, force to leave by smoking: ~ out snakes from a hole.

smoker, person who habitually smokes tobacco: a heavy/light ~, person who smokes often/not often.

smock-ing n [U] habit, act, of smoking (3).

smol-der /'sməʊldə(r)/ ⇨ smoulder.

smooth¹ /smu:ð/ adj (-er, -est) 1 having a surface like that of glass; free from roughness: ~ paper/skin; ~ to the touch; a ~ sea, calm, free from waves. ⇨ rough³(1). 2 (of movement) free from shaking, bumping, etc: a ~ ride in a car. 3 (of a liquid mixture) free from lumps; well beaten or mixed: mix to a ~ paste. 4 free from harshness of sound or taste; flowing easily: a ~ voice; ~ claret/whisky. 5 (of a person, his manner) flattering, polite (often with a suggestion of insincerity): ~ manners. □ vt, vi 1 make smooth: ~ away/over obstacles/difficulties, get rid of them. 2 become calm: The sea has ~ed down. □ n [C] act of smoothing: give one's hair a ~.

smooth-ly adv in a smooth manner: Things are not going very ~ly, There are problems, obstacles, interruptions, etc.

smooth-ness n [U]

smote /smaʊt/ pt of smite.

smother /'smaðə(r)/ vt 1 cause the death of, by stopping the breath of or by keeping air from. 2 put out (a fire); keep (a fire) down (so that it burns slowly) by covering with ashes, sand, etc. 3 cover, wrap up: ~ a grave with flowers/a child with kisses/one's wife with kindness; be ~ed with/in dust by passing cars. 4 control; hold back: ~ a yawn/one's anger. □ n (usually sing with a, an) cloud of dust, smoke, steam, spray, etc.

smoul-der (US = smol-) /'sməʊldə(r)/ vi 1 burn slowly without flame. 2 (fig) (of feelings, etc) exist but be unseen, undetected, etc: ~ing discontent/hatred. □ n [U] slow burning: The ~ became a blaze.

smudge /smʌdʒ/ n [C] dirty mark: You've got a ~ on your cheek. □ vt, vi 1 make a smudge on. 2 (of ink, paint, etc) become blurred or smeared: Ink ~s easily.

smug /smʌg/ adj (-ger, -gest) having, showing, a character that is easily satisfied and without imagination, kindness for others, etc: a ~ smile/young man.

smug-ly adv

smuggle /'smʌgl/ vt 1 get (goods) secretly and illegally (into, out of, a country, through the customs, across a frontier): smuggling drugs into England. 2 take (a person or thing) secretly and in defiance of rules and regulations: ~ a letter/news into a prison.

smug-gler /'smʌglə(r)/, person who smuggles.

smut /smʌt/ n 1 [C] (mark or stain made by a) bit of soot, dirt, etc. 2 [U] disease of corn (wheat, etc) that causes the ears to turn black. 3 [U] indecent or obscene words, topics: Don't talk ~. □ vt (-tt-) mark with smuts (1).

smutty adj (-ier, -iest) (a) dirty with smuts. (b) containing smut (3): ~ty stories.

snack /snæk/ n [C] light meal (sandwiches, pies, etc).

'snack-bar/-counter, where snacks may be eaten.

snag /snæg/ n [C] 1 rough or sharp object, root of a tree, hidden rock, which may be a source of danger. 2 (informal) hidden, unknown or unexpected difficulty or obstacle: There's a ~ in this plan somewhere.

snail /sneɪl/ n [C] kinds of animal with a soft body, no limbs and with a spiral shell. at a 'snail's pace, very slowly.

snake /sneɪk/ n [C] 1 kinds of long, legless reptile, some of which are poisonous. 2 (fig) insincere, harmful person who pretends to be a friend. □ vi move in twists and glides: The road ~s through the mountains.

'snake-charmer, person who can control snakes with music.

snap /snæp/ vt, vi (-pp-) 1 (try to) catch with the teeth: The dog ~ped at my leg. 2 (fig) (try to) catch quickly: They ~ped at the offer, offered eagerly to accept it. snap sth up, buy eagerly: The cheapest clothes were quickly ~ped up. 3 break with a sharp crack; open or close with, make a sudden, sharp sound: The rope ~ped. He ~ped down the lid of the box. 4 say (something) quickly, sharply: The sergeant ~ped out his orders. snap at sb, speak quickly to him in an angry voice. 5 take a photograph of. 6 snap out of it, get out of a mood, habit, etc. □ n 1 [C] act or sound of snapping: The dog made a ~ at the meat. The lid shut with a ~. 2 [C] = cold snap. 3 [C] kinds of small biscuit: 'ginger-~s. 4 [C] = snapshot. 5 (used as an adjective) done quickly with little or no warning: a ~ e'lection/ de'cision.

'snap-shot, quickly taken photograph with a hand camera.

snappy adj (informal): Make it ~py! Hurry up!

snare /sneə(r)/ n [C] 1 trap for catching small animals and birds. 2 (fig) something that tempts one to expose oneself to defeat, disgrace, loss, etc: His promises are a ~ and a delusion. □ vi catch in a snare: ~ a rabbit.

snarl¹ /sna:l/ vi, vt 1 (of dogs) show the teeth and growl (at). 2 (of persons) speak in an angry voice. □ n [C] act, sound, of snarling.

snarl² /sna:l/ n [C] tangle; confused state: the 'traffic ~s in a big town. □ vt, vi (cause to) become jammed: The traffic (was) ~ed up. Hence, 'snarl-up n [C] snatch /snætʃ/ vt, vi 1 put out the hand suddenly and take: He ~ed the letter from me! ~ed the letter out of my hand. He ~ed at (ie tried to seize) the letter but was not quick enough. 2 get quickly or when a chance occurs: ~ an hour's sleep/meal; ~ a kiss. □ n [C] 1 act of snatching: make a ~ at the letter. 2 (as an adjective): a ~ decision, made quickly. 3 short outburst or period: overhear ~es of conversation.

snatcher, person who snatches.

sneak /sni:k/ vi, vt go quietly and secretly (in, out, away, back, past, etc.). □ n [C] (informal) cowardly, harmful person.

sneak-ing adj (a) secret, sly: have a ~ing respect/sympathy for him, respect, etc which is not shown openly. (b) a ~ing suspicion, a vague, puzzling one.

sneak-er /'sni:kə(r)/ n [C] (also a pair of ~s) (esp US) canvas shoe soled with rubber, rope, etc; tennis shoe.

sneer /sniə(r)/ vi show contempt by using a wrinkled nose and an insincere smile (and perhaps despising words): ~ at politics. □ n [C] sneering look, smile, etc.

sneer-ing-ly adv

sneeze /sni:z/ n [C] sudden, uncontrollable outburst of air through the nose and mouth: Coughs and ~s spread diseases. □ vi make a sneeze: sneezing into a handkerchief. not to be sneezed at, (informal) worth having even though it is small: A prize of £50 is not to be ~d at.

snick /snɪk/ vt, vi, n [C] (make a) small cut in something.

snicker /'snɪkə(r)/ vi, n [C] = snigger.

snide /snaɪd/ adj sneering; suggesting unpleasant thoughts: ~ remarks about their friendship.

sniff /snɪf/ vi, vt 1 draw air in through the nose so that there is a sound: ~ing and sneezing. 2 sniff(1) to show disapproval or contempt. 3 draw in through the nose as one breathes: ~ the sea-air; ~ (at) a rose. The dog was ~ing (at) the lamp-post. □ n [C] act or sound of sniffing; breath (of air, etc): One ~ of this stuff is enough to kill you.

sniffle /'snɪfl/ vi = snuffle.

snig-ger /'snɪgə(r)/ n [C] short giggle (esp at something improper, or in a cynical manner). □ vi laugh in this way.

snip /snɪp/ vt, vi (-pp-) cut with scissors or shears, esp in short, quick strokes: ~ off the ends of the string. □ n [C] 1 cut made by snipping; thing cut off (something large). 2 (informal) bargain: Only 50p! It's a ~!

snipe¹ /snaɪp/ n [C] (pl unchanged) bird with a long bill which lives in marshes.

snipe² /snaɪp/ vi, vt fire shots (at) from a hiding-place, usually at long range; kill or hit in this way.

sniper, person who snipes.

snip-pet /'snɪpɪt/ n [C] 1 small piece cut off: a ~ of cloth to use as a sample. 2 (pl) bits (of information, news, etc): catch only ~s of the conversation.

snitch /snɪtʃ/ vt, vi 1 (sl) steal (something of little or no value). 2 inform (on a person).

snivel /'snɪvl/ vi (GB -ll-; US -l-) cry from insincere grief, sorrow or fear; complain, cry, in a miserable way: a harassed woman with six ~ling children.

snob /snɒb/ n [C] person who pays too much respect to social position or wealth, or who dislikes persons who are of lower social position: '~ appeal, power to attract the interest of snobs.

snob-bery /'snɒbəri/, state, quality, of being snobbish.

snob-bish /-ɪʃ/ adj of or like a snob.

snob-bish-ly adv

snooker /'snu:kə(r)/ n [U] game played with 15 red balls and 6 balls of other colours on a billiard-table.

snook /snu:p/ vi snook into, enquire into matters one is not properly concerned with.

snook around, look for faults, breaking of laws, etc (to gain an advantage).

snooty /'snu:ti/ adj (-ier, -iest) (informal) snobbish.

snoot-ily /-ɪli/ adv

snooze /snu:z/ vi, n [C] (informal) (take a) short sleep (esp in the daytime): have a ~ after lunch.

snore /sno:(r)/ vi breathe roughly and noisily while sleeping. □ n sound of snoring: His ~s woke me up.

snorer, person who snores.

snorkel, schnor-kel /'snɔ:kl, 'ʃn-/ n [C] 1 tube that enables a submarine to take in air while submerged. 2 short, bent tube held in the mouth, for a swimmer to take in air while under water.

snort /snɔ:t/ vi, vt 1 force air violently out through the nose; do this to show impatience, contempt, etc: ~ with rage (at her/the idea). 2 express by snorting: ~ out a reply. 'Never!', he ~ed. □ n [C] 1 act or sound of snorting: give a ~ of contempt. 2 snorkel (of a submarine).

snout /snoʊt/ n [U] (vulgar) mucus of the nose.

snotty adj (vulgar) (a) running with, wet with, mucus. (b) annoyed.

'snotty-nosed, adj superior; snobbish: You ~-nosed little creep.

snout¹ /snaʊt/ n [C] 1 nose (and sometimes the mouth or jaws) of an animal (esp a pig). 2 front of something, thought to be like a snout.

snout² /snaʊt/ n (prison sl) [U] tobacco; [C] cigarette.

snow¹ /snoʊ/ n 1 [U] frozen vapour falling from the sky in soft, white flakes; mass of such flakes on the ground, etc: a heavy fall of ~.

'snow-ball n [C] (a) mass of snow pressed into a hard ball for throwing in play. (b) something that increases quickly in size as it moves forward. □ vi, vi (a) throw snowballs (at). (b) grow quickly in size, importance, etc: Opposition to the war ~balled.

'snow-blind adj (temporarily) unable to see because the eyes are tired by the glare of the sun on snow.

'snow-bound adj unable to travel because of heavy falls of snow.

'snow-drift, snow heaped up by the wind.

'snow-drop, bulb plant with small white flowers at the end of winter.

'snow-fall, (esp) amount of snow that falls on one occasion or in a period of time.

'snow-flake, one of the collections of small crystals in which snow falls.

'snow-man, figure of a man made of snow by children.

'snow-plough (US -plow), device for pushing snow from roads and railways.

'snow-shoes n pl frames with leather straps for walking on deep snow without sinking in.

'snow-storm, heavy fall of snow, esp with strong wind.

'snow-white adj as white as snow.

snow² /snoʊ/ vi, vt 1 (of snow) come down from the sky: It ~ed all day. be snowed in/up, be prevented by heavy snow from going out. 2 come in large numbers or quantities: Gifts and messages ~ed in on her birthday. She was ~ed under with work/with invitations to dinner parties.

snowy adj (-ier, -iest) (a) covered with snow: ~y roofs. (b) characterized by snow: ~y weather.

snub /snaʊb/ vt (-bb-) ignore, treat with contempt (esp a younger or less senior person); reject (an offer) in this way: be/get ~ed by a civil servant. □ n [C] snubbing words or behaviour: suffer a ~.

snub nose /snaʊb nəʊz/ n [C] short, turned up nose.

'snub-nosed adj

snuff¹ /snaʊf/ n [U] powdered tobacco to be taken up into the nose by sniffing: take a pinch of ~.

'snuff-box, box for snuff.

snuff² /snaʊf/ vt, vi cut or pinch off the burnt black end of the wick of (a candle).

snuffle /'snaʊfl/ vi make sniffing sounds; breathe noisily (as when the nose is partly stopped up with catarrh). □ n [C] act or sound of snuffling.

snug /snaʊ/ adj (-gg-) 1 sheltered from wind and cold; warm and comfortable: ~ in bed. 2 neat and tidy; rightly or conveniently placed or arranged: a ~ cabin, on a ship. 3 closely fitting: a ~ jacket.

snug-ly adv

snuggle /'snaʊgl/ vi, vt lie or get (close to a person) for warmth, comfort or affection: The child ~d up to its mother. She ~d down in bed, made herself comfortable.

so¹ /səʊ/ adv of degree to such an extent: It is not ~ big as I thought it would be. We didn't expect him to stay ~ long, as long as he did stay. He is not ~ stupid as to do that. He was ~ ill that we had to send for a doctor. There were ~ many that we didn't know where to put them all. I'm ~ glad to see you! so far; so far, so good, ⇨ far² (2). so long as, ⇨ long² (1). ⇨ also much¹.

so² /səʊ/ adv of manner 1 in this (that) way; thus: Stand just ~. S~ it was (= That is how)

I became a sailor. As you treat me, ~ I shall treat you. and 'so on/forth, and other things of the same kind. 2 so that, (a) in order that: Speak clearly, ~ that they can understand you. (b) with the result that: Nothing more was heard of him, ~ that people thought he was dead. so... that, (a) with the intent that: We have ~ arranged matters that one of us is always on duty. (b) with the result that, in a way that: It ~ happened that I couldn't attend the meeting. so as to, in order to; in such a way that: I'll have everything ready ~ as not to keep you waiting. 3 (used as a substitute for a word, phrase or situation): I told you ~! That is what I told you! 4 (used to express agreement): A: 'It was cold yesterday.' B: 'S~ it was.' 5 also: You are young and ~ am I, ie I also am young.

'so-called, having this description but perhaps wrongly or doubtfully: Your ~called friends won't help you in your troubles.

'so-so adj (informal) not very good: 'How are you feeling?' 'Only ~-~.

so-and-so /'səʊ n səʊ/, person not needing to be named (because known to be critical, etc): Don't worry about what old ~-and-~ says.

so³ /səʊ/ conj 1 therefore; that is why: The shops were closed ~ I couldn't get any. She asked me to go, ~ I went. 2 (used in exclamations) S~ there you are!

soak /səʊk/ vt, vi 1 become completely wet by being in liquid or by absorbing liquid: The clothes are ~ing in soapy water. 2 cause something to absorb as much liquid as possible: S~ the cloth in the dye for one hour. 3 absorb; take in (liquid): Blotting-paper ~s up ink. 4 soak oneself in sth, (fig) absorb: ~ oneself in the atmosphere of a place. 5 (of rain, etc) make very wet: We all got ~ed (through). be soaked to the skin, get completely wet. 6 enter and pass through: The rain had ~ed through the roof. □ n [C] act of soaking: Give the sheets a good ~. in soak, being soaked: The sheets are in ~.

soap /səʊp/ n [U] substance made of fat or oil, etc, used for washing and cleaning: a bar/cake of ~; use plenty of ~ and water. □ vi 1 apply soap: ~ oneself down. 2 (informal) use flattery to try to please. ⇨ soft soap.

'soap-box, packing-case used by a speaker to stand on (in a street, park, etc).

'soap-bubble, filmy ball of soapy water, full of air.

'soap-flakes/-powder, used to wash clothes.

'soap opera, TV or radio serial on domestic and romantic themes.

'soap-suds n pl bubbly lather of soap and water.

soapy adj (-ier, -iest) (a) of or like soap: This bread has a ~y taste. (b) (fig) over-anxious to please: He has a ~y voice.

soar /sɔ:(r)/ vi 1 (of birds, aircraft) fly or go up high in the air. 2 (fig) rise high up: Prices ~ed when war broke out.

sob /sɒb/ vi, vt (-bb-) 1 draw in the breath sharply and irregularly from sorrow or pain, esp while crying: She ~bed her heart out, cried a great deal. 2 tell while sobbing: She ~bed out the story of her son's death in the car crash. □ n [C] act or sound of sobbing: The child's ~s gradually died down.

so-ber /'səʊbə(r)/ adj 1 self-controlled; serious in thought, etc; calm: make a ~ estimate of what is possible; ~ colours, not bright. 2 avoiding drunkenness; not drunk: Does he ever go to bed ~? □ vi, vi 1 make or become sober(1): The bad news ~ed all of us. 2 make or become sober(2): Leave him to ~ up.

so-ber-ly adv in a controlled, serious way.

so-bri-ety /sə'braɪəti/ n [U] (formal) quality or condition of being sober(1).

soc-cer /'sɒkə(r)/ n [U] association football.

so-ci-able /'səʊjəbl/ adj friendly; liking company.

so-ci-ably /-əbli/ adv

so-cia-bil-ity /səʊʃə'bɪləti/ n [U] so-cial /'səʊʃl/ adj 1 living in groups, not separately: ~ ants. Man is a ~ animal. 2 of people living in communities; of relations between persons and communities: ~ customs/ reforms/welfare. 3 of or in society: one's ~ equals, persons of the same class as oneself in society. 4 for companionship: a' ~ club. 5 = sociable. □ n [C] social gathering, eg one organized by a club.

'Social 'Democrat, (politics) person who wishes society to change gradually to a system of democratic socialism.

'social se'curity, government provisions for helping people who are unemployed, ill, disabled, etc: The family is on ~ security, receiving such help.

'social 'science, eg psychology, politics.

'social worker, trained person who works to improve the social welfare of individuals.

so-cially /-ʃəli/ adv

so-cial-ism /'səʊʃəlɪzəm/ n [U] first phase of communism; social and economic system which is replacing capitalism, based on the public ownership of the means of production and the abolishing of the exploitation of man by man.

so-cial-ist /-ɪst/ n [C] supporter of, believer in, socialism. □ adj of socialism.

so-cial-ize (also -ise) /-aɪz/ vt make socialist.

so-cial-ite /'səʊʃələɪt/ n [C] person well-known in fashionable society.

so-ci-ety /sə'saɪəti/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] social way of living; system whereby people live together in organized communities: a danger to ~, person, idea, etc that endangers the bodily or moral welfare of the members of a community. 2 [C] social community; modern industrial societies. 3 [U] company; companionship: spend an evening in the ~ of one's friends. 4 [U] people of fashion or distinction in a place, district, country, etc; the upper classes: leaders of ~. ⇨ high society. 5 [C] organization of persons formed with a purpose; club; association: the school de'bating ~; a co-operative ~; the S~ of Friends.

so-cio-logi-cal /səʊsiə'lɒdʒɪkl/ adj of sociology.

so-cio-logi-cally /-kli/ adv.

so-ci-ol-ogist /səʊsi'ɒlədʒɪst/ n [C] student of, expert in, sociology.

so-ci-ol-ogy /səʊsi'ɒlədʒi/ n [U] science of the nature and growth of society and social behaviour.

sock /sɒk/ n [C] (also a pair of ~s) 1 woollen, cotton, etc covering for the foot and ankle. pull one's socks up, improve, make a greater effort: You won't pass the exam if you don't pull your ~s up! 2 loose sole used inside a shoe.

sock² /sɒk/ n [C] (sl) blow given with the fist: Give him a ~ on the jaw! □ vt (sl) give (a person) such a blow: S~ him on the jaw! □ adv (sl) exactly: It hit her ~ in the eye.

socket /sɒkɪt/ n [C] natural or artificial hollow into which something fits or in which something turns: the 'eye-~s; a ~ for an electric light bulb.

sod /sɒd/ n [U] upper layer of grassland including the grass with its roots and earth; [C] square or oblong piece of this.

soda /səʊdə/ n [U] common chemical substance used to make soap, glass, etc: 'baking-~, kind used in cooking.

'soda-water, water containing carbon dioxide gas to make it bubble.

sod-den /sɒdn/ adj 1 soaked through: clothes ~ with rain. 2 (of bread, etc) moist or sticky because undercooked.

so-dium /səʊdiəm/ n [U] silver-white metal (symbol Na) occurring naturally only in compounds: ~ chloride, (NaCl) common salt.

sod-omy /sɒdəmi/ n [U] anal sexual intercourse, esp between males.

sofa /səʊfə/ n [C] long seat with raised ends and back, on which several persons can sit or one person can lie.

soft /sɒft US: sɒft/ adj (-er, -est) 1 (opposite of hard) changing shape easily when pressed: ~ soil/ground/mud. a soft landing, (eg of a spacecraft on the moon) one that avoids damage or destruction. 2 (of surfaces) smooth and delicate: ~ fur; ~ furnishings, curtains, etc. 3 (of light, colours) restful to the eyes: lampshades that give a ~ light. 4 (of sounds) not loud: ~ music; in a ~ voice. 5 (of outlines) indistinct. 6 (of answers, words, etc) mild; gentle; intended to please: a ~ answer; have a ~ tongue. 7 (of the air, weather) mild: a ~ breeze/wind. 8 (of water) free from mineral salts and therefore good for washing: as ~ as rainwater. 9 (of certain sounds): C is ~ in 'city' and hard in 'cat'. G is ~ in 'gin' and hard in 'get'. 10 easy: have a ~ job, an easy, well-paid job.

11 not having strength and determination: Are the young people today getting ~? 12 sympathetic; considerate: have a ~ heart. 13 (informal) easily affected, fooled: He's not as ~ as he looks. Jack is ~ (= sentimentally silly) about Anne.

'soft-boiled adj (of eggs) boiled so that the yolk is liquid.

'soft-currency, one that is not convertible to gold, or into hard currencies.

'soft-drink, non-alcoholic fruit juice.

'soft-headed adj idiotic; foolish.

'soft-hearted adj sympathetic; kind.

'soft-option, alternative which is thought to need little effort.

'soft-palate, back part of the roof of the mouth.

'soft-pedal vi, vt (fig) make (a statement, etc) less definite or confident.

'soft-soap, (a) liquid soap. (b) (fig) flattery.

□ 'soft-soap vt flatter.

'soft-spoken adj having a gentle voice; saying pleasant, friendly things.

'soft-ware, data, programmes, etc not forming parts of a computer but used for its operation. ⇨ hardware.

soft-ly adv

soft-ness n [U]

soft-en /sɒfn US: 'sɒ:fn/ vi, vt 1 make or become soft: curtains that ~ the light; people who are ~ed by luxurious living. 2 make (something) easier to bear: Her gentle manner ~ed the effect of the news. soften the blow, make suffering easier to bear.

soft-ener n [C] something used to soften water.

soggy /sɒgi/ adj (-ier, -iest) (esp of ground) heavy with water.

sog-gi-ness n [U]

soil /sɔɪl/ n [C,U] ground; earth, esp the upper layer of earth in which plants, trees, etc grow: good/poor/sandy ~; a man of the ~, one who works on the land (and likes to do so). □ vi, vt 1 make dirty: He refused to ~ his hands, refused to do dirty work. 2 become soiled: material that ~s easily.

so-journ /sɒdʒn US: sɒ'dʒɜ:n/ vi, n [C] (literary) (make a) stay (with a person, at or in) for a time.

sol-ace /sɒlɪs/ n [C,U] (formal) (that which gives) comfort or relief (when one is in trouble or pain): The invalid found ~ in music. □ vt give relief to: The unhappy man ~d himself with whisky.

so-lar /səʊlə(r)/ adj of the sun.

solar cell, device (as used in satellites) which converts solar energy into electric energy.

solar energy, energy of sunlight as used to make electricity.

solar panel, device (in a roof, etc) which attracts solar energy (as a method of heating, lighting).

solar plexus /'pleksəs/, group of nerves at the pit of the stomach.

the solar system, the sun and the planets which revolve round it.

the solar year, time taken by the earth to go round the sun, about 365 days, 5 hours, 48 minutes and 46 seconds.

sold /səʊld/ pt, pp of sell.

solder /'sɒldə(r)/ US: /səʊdə(r)/ n [U] easily melted alloy used, when melted, to join harder metals, wires, etc. □ vt join with solder.

soldering-iron, tool used for this work.

sol-dier /'səʊldɪə(r)/ n [C] member of an army: three ~s, two sailors and one civilian. □ vi serve as a soldier: be tired of ~ing. soldier on, continue bravely with one's work, etc in the face of difficulties.

sole¹ /səʊl/ n [C] flat sea-fish with a delicate flavour.

sole² /səʊl/ n [C] under surface of a human foot, or of a sock, shoe, etc. □ vt put a sole on (a shoe, etc): send a pair of shoes to be ~ed and heeled.

-soled suffix (with the kind mentioned): rubber~d boots.

sole³ /səʊl/ adj 1 one and only; single: the ~ cause of the accident. 2 restricted to one person, company, etc: We have the ~ right of selling the article.

sole-ly adv alone; only: ~ly responsible; ~ly because of you.

sol-emn /'sɒləm/ adj 1 done with religious or other ceremony; causing deep thought or respect: a ~ silence as the coffin was carried out of the church; a ~ oath, serious and important. 2 serious-looking: ~ faces; look as ~ as a judge.

sol-emn-ly adv

sol-em-nity /sə'lemnəti/ n (pl -ies) (formal) 1 [U] seriousness; gravity. 2 [U] (but also pl) solemn ceremony: The Queen was crowned with all ~/with all the proper solemnities.

sol-em-nize (also -ise) /'sɒləmnaɪz/ vt perform (a religious ceremony, esp a wedding) with the usual rites.

solic-it /sə'lisɪt/ vt, vi 1 ask (for) seriously; make determined requests (for): Both the candidates ~ed my vote. 2 (of a prostitute) make an immoral sexual offer (to), esp in a public place.

solic-i-tor /sə'lisɪtə(r)/ n [C] 1 (GB) lawyer who prepares legal documents, eg wills, sale of land or buildings, advises clients on legal matters, and speaks on their behalf in lower courts. ⇨ barrister. 2 (US) person who solicits trade, support, etc.

Solicitor-General, one of the principal law officers in the British Government, advising on legal matters.

sol-ici-tous /sə'lisɪtəs/ adj (formal) anxious, concerned about (a person's welfare, etc) or to help somebody: ~ to please; ~ for her comfort.

sol-ici-tous-ly adv

sol-ici-tude /sə'lisɪtju:d/ US: -tʊd/ n [U] (formal) concern or anxiety: my deep ~ for your welfare.

solid /'sɒlɪd/ adj 1 not in the form of a liquid or gas: When water freezes and becomes ~, we call it ice. 2 firm; heavy: a man with good ~ flesh on him. 3 without holes or spaces; not hollow: a ~ sphere. 4 of strong material or construction; able to support weight or resist pressure: ~ buildings/furniture. ⇨ *rock*¹ (2). 5 that can be depended on: ~ arguments; a ~ (= financially sound) business firm; a man of ~ character. 6 of the same substance throughout: made of ~ gold. 7 unanimous; undivided: There was a ~ vote in favour of the proposal. 8 continuous; without a break: wait for a ~ hour; sleep ten ~ hours/ten hours ~. 9 (maths) having length, breadth and thickness: a ~ figure, eg a cube. □ n [C] 1 body or substance which is solid, not a liquid or a gas. 2 (maths) figure of three dimensions.

solid-ly adv

sol-id-ity /sə'lidəti/, solid-ness n [U] quality of being solid: the ~ity of a building/argument.

sol-i-dar-ity /sə'lidærəti/ n [U] unity because of common interests or feelings: national ~ in the face of danger.

sol-id-ify /sə'lidɪfaɪ/ vt, vi (pt, pp -ied) make or become solid, hard or firm.

sol-il-oquy /sə'ɪləkwɪ/ n [C, U] (pl -ies) 1 (instance of) speaking one's thoughts aloud. 2 (in drama) speech in which a character speaks his thoughts without a listener.

sol-il-oquize (also -ise) /sə'ɪləkwəɪz/ vi talk to oneself; think aloud.

sol-i-taire /sə'ɪlətɛə(r)/ US: /sɒlətɛə(r)/ n [C] 1 (ornament such as an earring with a) single gem or jewel. 2 (US) = patience (3).

sol-i-tary /'sɒlɪtri/ US: -teri/ adj 1 (living) alone; without companions; lonely: a ~ life; a ~ walk. 2 only one: not a ~ one/instance. 3 seldom visited: a ~ valley.

solitary confinement, prison punishment by which a person is kept in a separate cell.

sol-i-tar-ily /'sɒlɪtrəli/ US: /sɒlɪ'terəli/ adv sol-i-tude /'sɒlɪtju:d/ US: -tʊd/ n [U] being without companions; solitary state: live in ~. 2 [C] lonely place: spend six months in the ~s of the Antarctic.

solo /'sɒləʊ/ n [C] (pl ~s) 1 piece of music (to be) performed by one person: a violin/piano ~. 2 any performance by one person: (as an adverb) fly ~; (as an adjective) his first ~ flight. 3 [U] kind of whist in which one player opposes others.

'solo-ist /-ɪst/, person who gives a solo (1).

sol-stice /'sɒlstɪs/ n [C] either time (summer ~, about 21 June; winter ~, about 22 December) at which the sun is farthest N or S of the equator.

sol-uble /'sɒljʊbl/ adj 1 that can be dissolved. 2 = solvable.

solu-bil-ity /'sɒljʊ'bɪləti/ n [U] sol-ution /sə'lu:ʃn/ n 1 [C] answer (to a question, etc); way of dealing with a difficulty: Perhaps economy is the ~ to/of your financial troubles. 2 [U] process of finding an answer or explanation: problems that defy ~, cannot be solved. 3 [U] process of dissolving a solid or a gas in liquid: the ~ of sugar in tea. 4 [C,U] liquid that results from this process: a ~ of salt in water; a salt ~.

solv-able /'sɒlvəbl/ adj that can be solved or explained.

solve /sɒlv/ v find the answer to (a problem, etc); explain (a difficulty): ~ a crossword puzzle.

sol-vent /'sɒlvənt/ adj 1 of the power of dissolving or forming a solution: the ~ action of water. 2 having money enough to meet one's debts. □ n [C] substance (usually a liquid) able to dissolve another substance: grease ~, eg petrol.

sol-ven-ty /-nsi/ n [U] being solvent (2).

sombre (US = som-ber) /'sɒmbə(r)/ adj dark-coloured; gloomy: a ~ January day; ~ clothes/colours.

sombre-ly (US = som-ber-ly) adv som-brero /sɒm'breərəʊ/ n [C] (pl ~s) hat with a wide brim (as worn in Latin American countries).

some¹ /səm weak form səm/ adj 1 (used to show an amount or quantity, a certain degree or number (more than two): Please give me ~ milk. There are ~ children outside. S~ (= Some people) say that... (Note: some is used in affirmative sentences; usually replaced by any in questions and negative sentences; Have you any milk? We haven't any milk; used in sentences where doubt or negation is implied. Some and any are pl equivalents of the numeral article a, an, of numeral one, and the indefinite pron 'one'.) 2 (used in questions if the speaker expects, or wishes to suggest, an affirmative answer): Aren't there ~ stamps in that drawer? 3 (used in questions which are really invitations or requests): Will you have ~ cake? 4 (used after if, introducing something supposed): If we had ~/any money, we could buy it. If we find ~/any, we'll share them with you. (Note: some or any can be used.) 5 (used with more): Give me ~ more. Won't you have ~ more? (Note: compare Do you want any more? I haven't any more.) 6 (always /səm/) (contrasted with the rest, other(s), and all): S~ children learn languages easily. S~ work is pleasant. 7 (always /səm/) (used to show that the person, place, object, etc is unknown, or when the speaker does not wish to be specific): He's living at ~ place in East Africa. I've read that story before in ~ book or other. 8 about; approximately: That was ~ twenty years ago. 9 (always /səm/) considerable quantity or number of: I shall be away for ~ time, a fairly long time. The railway station is ~ distance (= quite a long way) from the village. 10 (always /səm/) (used suggest 'to a certain extent'): That is ~ help (ie It helps to a certain extent) towards understanding the problem.

some² /səm/ pron (Some as a pron is used in the same ways as some, adj, 1,2,3 and 4. S~ of and any of are equivalent to a few of, a little of, part of): S~ of these books are quite useful. (Compare: I don't want any of these (books). I don't want any of this (paper).) I agree with ~ (= part) of what you say. Scotland has ~ of the finest scenery in the world. □ adv ⇨ some(8) above.

-some /-səm/ suffix (used to form an adjective) likely to, productive of: quarrelsome.

some-body /'sʌmbədɪ/, some-one /'sʌmwʌn/ pron 1 a person (unknown or unnamed): There's ~ at the door. (Note: replaced by anybody or anyone in questions, negative sentences: Is there anyone at home? There isn't anybody at home.) 2 (often with a; also in the pl) a person of some importance: If you had studied harder at college you might have become ~. He's nobody here but he's a ~ in his own village.

some-how /'sʌmhaʊ/ adv 1 in some way (or other); by one means or another: We must find money for the rent ~ (or other). We shall get there ~. 2 for some (vague) reason (or other): S~ I don't trust that man.

some-one /'sʌmwʌn/ n = somebody.

some-place /'sʌmpleɪs/ adv (US informal) = somewhere: I've left my bag ~.

som-er-sault /'sʌməsɔ:lt/ n [C] leap or fall in which one turns over completely before landing on one's feet: turn/throw a ~. □ vi turn a somersault.

some-thing /'sʌmθɪŋ/ pron 1 a thing, object, event, etc (unknown, unnamed, etc): There's ~ on the floor. I want ~ to eat. There's ~ (= some truth, some point) in what he says. (Note: replaced by anything in questions, negative sentences: Is there anything in that box? There isn't anything to eat.) 2 or something. (used to show absence of precise information): I hear he has broken an arm or ~, met with an accident and has broken a limb, etc. □ adv something like, (a) a little like: The noise sounded ~ like an explosion. (b) approximately: It cost ~ like £10.

some-time /'sʌmtaɪm/ adv 1 at a point in time: I saw him ~ in May. It was ~ last sum- mer. I will speak to him about it ~. (Note: do not confuse with some time as in: I have been waiting some time. ⇨ some¹(9).) 2 former-(ly): Thomas Atkins, ~ professor at this University.

some-times /səmtaɪnz/ adv occasionally; from time to time: I ~ have letters from him. I have ~ had letters from him. 'Do you ever go to discos?' 'S~.'

some-way /səmwet/ adv (US informal) = somehow.

some-what /səmwɒt/ US: -hwɒt/ adv to some extent; in some degree: I was ~ surprised/disappointed.

some-where /səmwɛə(r)/ US: -hwɛə(r)/ adv in, at, to, a place (unknown, unnamed, etc): It must be ~ near here. He lost it ~ between his office and the station. (Note: replaced by anywhere in questions, negative sentences: Is it anywhere near here? I didn't go anywhere yesterday.)

son /sɒn/ n [C] 1 male child of a parent. 2 (used as a form of address, eg by a priest): my ~. 3 person having the qualities, etc shown: ~s of freedom, those who have inherited freedom from their ancestors.

the Son of God/Man, Jesus Christ.

'son-in-law n [C] (pl ~s-in-law) husband of one's daughter.

so-nata /sə'nɑ:tə/ n [C] (pl ~s) musical composition for one instrument (eg the piano), or two (eg piano and violin), normally with three or four movements.

song /sɒŋ/ US: sɔ:ŋ/ n [U] singing; music for the voice: burst into ~; the ~ (= musical sound) of the birds. 2 [U] (poetic) poetry; verse. 3 [C] poem set to music and intended to be sung: pop ~s.

'song-bird, bird (eg blackbird, thrush) noted for its musical sound.

'song-book, collection of songs (with both words and music).

song-ster /stɑ:(r)/, (a) singer. (b) songbird.

sonic /sɒnɪk/ adj relating to sound, sound-waves or the speed of sound: a ~ bang/boom, noise made when an aircraft travels faster than the speed of sound ⇨ supersonic, ultrasonic.

son-net /sɒnɪt/ n [C] kind of poem containing 14 lines, each of 10 syllables, and with a formal pattern of rhymes.

sonny /sɒni/ n [C] (pl -ies) familiar form of address to a young boy.

son-or-ous /sɒnərəs/ adj (formal) 1 having a full, deep sound: the ~ note of a large bell. 2 (of language, words, etc) making a deep impression: a ~ style.

son-or-ous-ly adv

soon /su:n/ adv (-er, -est) 1 not long after the present time or the time in question; in a short time: We shall ~ be home. We shall be home quite ~ now. He'll be here very ~. It will ~ be five years since we came to live in London. soon after, a short time after: He arrived ~ after three. (Note: the opposite of soon after is a little before.) 2 early: How ~ can you be ready? Must you leave so ~? 3 as/so soon as, at the moment that; when; not later than: He started as ~ as he received the news. We didn't arrive so/as ~ as we had hoped. no sooner... than, immediately when or after: He had no ~er/No ~er had he arrived home than he was asked to go out again. No ~er said than done, ie done immediately. 4 (used to show comparatives): The ~er you begin the ~er you'll finish. The ~er the better. as soon as not, more willingly: I'd go there as ~ as not. sooner or later, now or (much) later: You'll get it back ~er or later. sooner than, in preference to: He would ~er resign than be involved in bribery.

soot /sɒt/ n [U] black powder in smoke, or left by smoke on surfaces. □ vt cover with soot.

sooty adj (-ier, -iest) black with, like, soot.

sooth-sayer /sʊ:θseɪ(r)/ n [C] (old use) fortune-teller.

soothe /su:ð/ vt 1 make (a person, his nerves, passions) quiet or calm: ~ a crying baby; a soothing voice. 2 make (pains, aches) less sharp or severe: a soothing lotion for the skin, eg against sunburn.

sooth-ing-ly adv

sop /sɒp/ n [C] 1 piece of bread, etc soaked in milk, soup, etc. 2 something offered to prevent trouble or to give temporary satisfaction: ask a tenant to leave and offer money as a ~. □ vt (-pp-) 1 soak (bread, etc in soup, etc). 2 absorb (liquid): ~ up the water with this towel.

sop-ping adj, adv thoroughly (wet): ~ping wet.

soph-is-ti-cated /sə'fɪstɪkətɪd/ adj 1 having lost natural simplicity through experience of the world; cultured: a ~ girl; with ~ tastes. 2 with the latest improvements and refinements: ~ modern weapons. 3 (of mental activity) cultured, elaborate: a ~ discussion/argument.

soph-is-ti-ca-tion /sə'fɪstɪkeɪʃn/ n [U] sop-or-ific /sɒpə'rɪfɪk/ n [C], adj (substance, drink, etc) producing sleep.

sop-ping /sɒpɪŋ/ adj ⇨ sop.

soppy /sɒpi/ adj (-ier, -iest) 1 very wet. 2 (dated informal) foolishly sentimental: I'm ~ on/about his sister.

so-prano /sə'prænəʊ/ US: -'præn-/ n [C] (pl ~s), adj (person having the) highest singing voice of women and girls and boys.

sor-cerer /sɔ:sərə(r)/ n [C] man who practises magic with the help of evil spirits.

sor-cer-ess /sɔ:səris/ n [C] woman sorcerer.

sor-cery /sɔ:səri/ n (pl -ies) [U] 1 witchcraft (the usual word). 2 (pl) evil acts done by sorcery.

sor-did /'sɔːdɪd/ adj 1 (of conditions) poor, dirty, uncomfortable: a ~ slum; living in ~ poverty. 2 (of persons, behaviour, etc) without respect or honour.

sor-did-ly adv

sore /sɔː(r)/ adj (-r, -st) 1 (of a part of the body) tender and painful; hurting when touched or used: a ~ knee/throat. a sight for, sore 'eyes, welcome, pleasant, person or thing. 2 filled with sorrow; sad: a ~ heart. 3 causing sorrow or annoyance. a sore point/subject, one that hurts the feelings when talked about. 4 hurt in one's feelings: feel ~ about not being invited to the party. □ n [C] 1 sore place on the body (where the skin or flesh is injured). 2 (fig) painful subject or memory: Let's not recall old ~s.

sore-ly adv (a) (formal) severely: ~ly afflicted. (b) greatly: More financial help is ~ly needed.

sore-ness n [U] sor-row /'sɒrəʊ/ n [C,U] (cause of) grief or sadness; regret: express ~ for having done wrong; to my great ~. □ vi feel grief (at/for/over): ~ing over her child's death.

sor-row-ful /-fəl/ adj feeling, showing, causing, sorrow.

sorry /'sɒri/ adj 1 feeling regret or sadness: We were ~ to hear of your father's death. be/feel sorry (about/for sth), feel regret: Aren't you ~ for/about what you've done? be/feel sorry for sb, (a) feel sympathy: I feel ~ for anyone who has to drive in weather like this. (b) feel pity: I'm ~ for you, but you have been rather foolish. 2 (used to express mild regret or an apology): 'Can you lend me a pound?' — 'S~, but I can't'. 3 (-ier, -iest) pitiful: a ~ sight.

sort¹ /sɔːt/ n [C] 1 group or class of persons or things which are alike in some way: Pop music is the ~ she likes most. We can't approve of this ~ of thing/these ~ of things/things of this ~. 2 a good sort, (esp) a person who is likable, who has good qualities. 3 out of sorts, (informal) feeling unwell, depressed.

sort² /sɔːt/ vt, vi arrange in groups; separate things of one sort from things of other sorts: The boy was ~ing/ing out/over the foreign stamps he had collected. We must ~ out the good apples from the bad. sort sth out, (informal) (a) put in good order: ~ out a drawer. (b) solve: I'll leave you to ~ that out, find a solution. (c) clear up problems, misunderstandings: Let's leave John and Ann to ~ themselves out.

sort-ier, (esp) post office worker who sorts letters.

so-so /'səʊ səʊ/ adj, adv ⇨ so².

souf-flé /'suːfleɪ/ US: 'sufli/ n [C] (Fr) baked dish of beaten eggs, milk, cheese, etc.

sought /sɔːt/ pp of seek.

soul /səʊl/ n [C] 1 non-material part of a human, believed to exist for ever: believe in the immortality of the ~. He eats hardly enough to keep body and ~ together, to keep himself alive. That man has no ~, is unfeeling, selfish. 2 emotional and intellectual energy: He put his heart and ~ into the work. 3 person regarded as the ideal or personification of some virtue or quality: He is the ~ of honour/discretion. ⇨ life(9). 4 departed spirit: 'All 'S~s' Day, 2 Nov. 5 person: There wasn't a ~ to be seen. No one was in sight. 6 (informal) all those qualities that enable a person to be in harmony with himself and others, used esp by Afro-Americans and expressed through their music and dancing.

'soul brother/sister, fellow Afro-American.

'soul-destroying adj killing the will-power or spirit: ~destroying | work.

'soul music, modern popular blues with strong rhythm for dancing.

soul-ful /-fl/ adj having, affecting, showing, deep feeling: ~ful eyes/music.

soul-less adj without pity or deeper feelings.

sound¹ /saʊnd/ adj (-er, -est) 1 healthy; in good condition; not hurt, injured or decayed: ~ fruit/teeth. 2 dependable; based on logic, facts: a ~ argument/policy; ~ advice. 3 capable, careful: a ~ tennis player. 4 thorough; deep: be a ~ sleeper; give him a ~ beating. □ adv deeply: be ~ asleep.

sound-ly adv deeply; thoroughly: sleep ~ly; be ~ly beaten at tennis.

sound-ness n [U]

sound² /saʊnd/ n [C,U] 1 that which is or can be heard: We heard the ~ of voices/footsteps. 2 (sing only) mental impression produced by something stated (or read): I don't like the ~ of his excuses.

'sound barrier, point at which an aircraft's speed equals that of sound-waves, causing sonic booms.

'sound effects, sound (recorded on tape, film, etc) for use in broadcasts, in studio.

'sound-proof adj that sound cannot pass through or into.

'sound-track, music, etc used in a film.

'sound-wave, vibrations made in the air or other medium by which sound is carried.

sound³ /saʊnd/ vt, vi 1 produce sound from; make (something) produce sound: ~ a trumpet. 2 produce: ~ a note of alarm/danger. 3 pronounce: Don't ~ the 'h' in 'hour' or the 'b' in 'dumb'. 4 give notice of: ~ the alarm, eg by ringing a bell. 5 give forth sound: The trumpet ~ed. 6 test, examine (eg a person's lungs by tapping the chest). 7 give an impression when heard: How sweet the music ~s! 8 (fig) give an impression: His explanation ~s all right, seems reasonable enough.

sound⁴ /saʊnd/ vt, vi 1 test the depth of (the sea, etc) by letting down a weighted line (called a ~ing-line or ~ing apparatus); find the depth of water in a ship's hold (with a ~ing-rod). 2 get records of temperature, pressure, etc in (the upper atmosphere) (by sending up instruments in a ~ing-balloon). 3 try (esp cautiously or in a reserved manner) to learn a person's views, sentiments, etc: I will ~ out the manager about holidays/on the question of holidays.

sound-ing, (a) (pl) place or area near enough to the shore to make it possible to sound(1). (b) measurement obtained by sounding(1).

sound⁵ /saʊnd/ n [C] narrow passage of water joining two larger areas of water.

soup¹ /su:p/ n [U] liquid food made by cooking meat, vegetables, etc in water: chicken/pea/tomato ~. in the soup, (informal) in trouble.

soup² /su:p/ vt soup sth up, (sl) fit (a motor-vehicle, its engine) with a supercharger (to increase its power and so its speed): a ~ed-up car.

sour /'saʊə(r)/ adj 1 having a sharp taste (like that of vinegar, a lemon or an unripe plum, apple, etc). 2 having a taste of having gone bad: ~ milk. 3 (fig) bad-tempered: made ~ by disappointments. □ vt, vi turn or become sour (all uses): The hot weather has ~ed the milk. Her temper has ~ed.

sour-ly adv

sour-ness n [U]

source /sɔ:s/ n [C] 1 starting-point of a river: the ~s of the Nile. Where does the Rhine have its ~? 2 place from which something comes or is got: The news comes from a reliable ~. Is that well the ~ of infection? 3 (pl) original documents, etc for a study, eg of a period of history: (as an adjective) ~ materials.

souse /saʊs/ vt 1 throw into water; throw water on. 2 put (fish, etc) into salted water, vinegar, etc to preserve it: ~d herrings.

south /saʊθ/ n 1 the ~, one of the four cardinal points of the compass, on the right of a person facing the sunrise; part of any place, country, etc lying farther in this direction than other parts: the ~ of London/England. Mexico is to the ~ of the US. 2 (used as an adjective) situated in, living in, of, coming from, the south: S~ America; the S~ Pacific. □ adv to or towards the south: sailing ~.

south-east, south-west (abbr SE, SW), n, adj, adv (sometimes, esp naut, sou'-east /'sau 'i:st/, sou'-west /'sau 'west/) (regions) midway between south and east or south and west.

south-south-east, south-south-west (abbr SSE, SSW) n, adj, adv (sometimes, esp naut, sou'-sou'-east, sou'-sou'-west) (regions) midway between south and south-east or southwest.

south-easter-ly adj (a) (of wind) from the southeast. (b) (of direction) towards the southeast.

south-eastern /-'li:stn/ adj of, from, situated in, the southeast.

south-wester-ly adj (a) (of wind) from the southwest. (b) (of direction) towards the southwest.

south-western /-'westn/ adj of, from, situated in, the southwest.

south-er-ly /'sʌðəli/ adj, adv from the south, towards the south, in or to the south.

south-ern /'sʌðən/ adj of, from, in the south part of the world, a country, etc: ~ Europe; the S~ States of the USA.

the Southern Hemisphere, ☐ hemisphere.

south-erner, person born or living in the south regions of the country.

south-ern-most /-məʊst/ adj farthest south.

south-ward /'sʌ:θwəd/ adj towards the south: in a ~ direction.

south-wards adv: to travel ~s.

sou-venir /su:və'niə(r) US: /su:vənɪər/ n [C] something taken, bought or received as a gift, and kept as a reminder of a person, place or event.

sou'-wester /,saʊwestə(r)/ n [C] (esp) waterproof hat with a flap at the back to protect the neck.

sov-er-eign /'sɒvrɪn/ adj (of power) highest; without limit; (of a nation, state, ruler) having sovereign power: become a ~ state, fully self-governing and independent in foreign affairs. □ n [C] 1 sovereign ruler, eg a king, queen or emperor. 2 former GB gold coin (face value one pound).

sov-er-eignty /'sɒvrənɪti/, sovereign power.

so-viet /'səʊviət/ n [C] organ of political power in the USSR; one of the forms of political organization of a socialist state, now widely used in the USSR: the Union of S~ Socialist Republics; the S~ Union; the Supreme S~ of the USSR; the local S~s; Rural/Urban S~s of People's Deputies.

sow¹ /sau/ n [C] fully grown female pig.

sow² /'səʊ/ vt, vi (pt ~ed, pp ~n /saʊn/ or ~ed) 1 put (seed) on or in the ground or in soil (in pots, seed-boxes, etc); plant (land with seed): ~ seeds; ~ a plot of land with grass. 2 (fig) start, introduce: ~ the seeds of hatred.

sower, person who sows.

soya /'sɔɪə/ n [U] (also soya-bean) plant grown as food and for the oil obtained from its seeds: ~ sauce, from soya beans in brine.

sozzled /'sɒzld/ adj (GB sl) very drunk.

spa /spa:/ n [C] (pl ~s) (place with a) spring of mineral water having medicinal properties.

space /speɪs/ n 1 [U] that in which all objects exist and move: The universe exists in ~. Travel through ~ to other planets interests many people today. 2 [C, U] interval or distance between two or more objects: the ~s between printed words; separated by a ~ of ten metres. 3 [C,U] area or volume: open ~s, (esp) land, in or near a town, not built on. 4 [U] limited or unoccupied place or area; room (3): There isn't enough ~ in this office for two desks. 5 (sing only) period of time: a ~ of three years. □ vt space sth out, set out with regular spaces between: ~ out the posts three metres apart.

'space-capsule /-craft /-helmet /-rocket/-ship/-suit/-vehicle, used for travel beyond the earth's atmosphere.

spa·cious /'speɪʃəs/ adj having much space.

spa·cious·ly adv

spade /speɪd/ n [C] 1 tool with a flat blade having a sharp edge for digging. 2 (one of a) suit of playing-cards with black shapes like hearts upside down: the five of ~s. □ vt dig with a spade.

'spade-work, (fig) hard, basic, work: He got all the credit for the research but I did all the ~work.

'spade-ful /-ful/, as much as a spade can hold.

spa·ghetti /spə'geti/ n [U] (It) flour paste (pasta) in narrow rods, cooked by boiling.

span /spæn/ n [C] 1 distance between the tips of a person's thumb and little finger when stretched out. 2 distance or part between the supports of an arch: The arch has a ~ of 60 metres. 3 length in time, from beginning to end: for a short ~ of time. ◇ life-span. □ vt (-nn-) 1 extend across (from side to side): The Thames is ~ned by many bridges. 2 (of time) from one period or point to another: His life ~ned almost all of the 19th century. 3 measure by spans (1).

spangle /'spæŋgl/ n [C] tiny disc of shining metal, esp one of many, as used for ornament on a dress, etc. □ vt (esp as a pp) cover with, or as with, spangles.

span·iel /'spæniəl/ n [C] sorts of dog with short legs and large, drooping ears.

spank /spæŋk/ vt, vi punish (a child) by slapping him on the buttocks with the open hand or a slipper, etc.

spank-ing, slapping on the buttocks.

span·ner /'spænə(r)/ n [C] (US = wrench) tool for gripping and turning nuts on screws, bolts, etc.

spar¹ /spɑ:(r)/ n [C] strong wooden or metal, pole used as a mast, boom, etc.

spar² /spɑ:(r)/ vi (-rr-) 1 make the motions of attack and defence with the fists (as in boxing). 2 (fig) quarrel or argue.

'spar-ring-partner, man with whom a boxer spars as part of his training.

spare¹ /speə(r)/ adj 1 additional to what is usually needed or used; in reserve for use when needed; (of time) free; unoccupied: I have no/very little ~ time/money. Is there a ~ wheel in your car? 2 (of persons) thin; lean: a tall, ~ man. □ n [C] spare part (for a machine, etc).

'spare¹ 'part, part to replace a broken or worn-out part of a machine, an engine, etc.

'spare-rib, rib of pork with most of the meat cut off.

spare² /speə(r)/ vt, vi 1 (decide to) not hurt, damage or destroy; show mercy to: ~ a prisoner's life. He doesn't ~ himself, makes great demands on himself (his energies, time, etc).

spare sb's feelings, avoid hurting his feelings. 2 afford to, be able to, give (time, money, etc) to a person, or for a purpose: Can you ~ an extra ticket for me? Can you ~ me a few minutes (of your time)? We haven't enough to ~, need all of them/it.

spare a thought for sb, consider him when making a decision. 3 no expense spared, with no economy in money or effort.

sparing adj sparing of, economical, careful (of): You should be more sparing of your energy.

sparing·ly adv

spark /spa:k/ n [C] 1 tiny glow from a burning substance or still present in ashes, etc or produced by hard metal and stone banging together, or by the breaking of an electric current: The firework burst into a shower of ~s. 2 (fig) sign of life, energy, etc: He hasn't a ~ of generosity in him. □ vt, vi 1 give out sparks. 2 spark sth off, (fig) be the immediate cause of: His statement ~ed off a quarrel between them.

'spark-ing-plug, device for firing the mixture of air and petrol in an engine by means of an electric spark.

sparkle /'spa:kl/ vi 1 send out flashes of light: Her diamonds ~d in the bright light. 2 (fig) express brightly: Her eyes ~d with excitement. □ n [C] spark; glitter; gleam.

spark-ler, something that sparkles, eg a kind of firework spark-ling /'spa:klɪŋ/ adj spar-row /'spærəʊ/ n [C] very common, small brownish-grey bird.

spare /spɑ:s/ adj 1 not crowded: a ~ population. 2 not dense, thick: a ~ beard.

sparsely adv: a ~ly furnished room, one with little furniture.

spasm /'spæzəm/ n [C] 1 sudden and involuntary tightening of a muscle or muscles: asthma ~s. 2 sudden, convulsive movement: in a ~ of pain/excitement; a coughing ~. 3 sudden burst (of energy).

spas-modic /'spæzmədɪk/ adj 1 taking place, done, at irregular intervals. 2 caused by, affected by, spasms: ~ asthma.

spas-modi-cally /-kli/ adv

spas-tic /'spæstɪk/ n [C], adj (person) physically disabled because of difficulty in controlling voluntary muscles.

spat /spæt/ pt, pp of spit.

spate /speɪt/ n [C,U] 1 strong current of water at abnormally high level (in a river). 2 sudden rush of business, etc: a ~ of orders.

spatial /'speɪʃl/ adj of, in relation to, existing in, space.

spatially /-ʃəli/ adv

spat-ter /'spætə(r)/ vt, vi 1 splash, scatter, in drops: ~ grease on one's clothes/ ~ one's clothes with grease. 2 fall or spread out in drops: rain ~ing down on the tent. □ n [C] shower: a ~ of rain/bullets.

spat-ula /'spætʃʊlə/ n [C] (pl ~s) tool with a wide, flat, flexible blade used for mixing or spreading various substances.

spawn /spɔ:n/ n [U] eggs of fish and certain water animals, eg frogs. □ vt, vi 1 produce spawn. 2 (fig) produce in great numbers: committees which ~ sub-committees.

speak /spi:k/ vi, vt (pt spoke /spəʊk/, pp spoken /'spəʊkən/) 1 use language in an ordinary, not a singing, voice: Please ~ more slowly. I was ~ing to him about plans for the holidays. speak for sb, (a) state the views, wishes, etc of. (b) give evidence on behalf of.

nothing to speak of, nothing worth mentioning. speak out/up, (a) speak loud(er). (b) give one's opinions, etc without hesitation or fear. be on 'speaking terms with sb, (a) know him well enough to speak to him. (b) continue to speak to him (because there has not been a quarrel). so to speak, if I may use this expression, etc. 2 give evidence (of), express ideas (not necessarily in words): Actions ~ louder than words. 3 know and be able to use (a language): He ~s several languages. 4 address an audience; make a speech: He spoke for forty minutes. 5 make known: ~ the truth.

speak one's mind, say plainly what one thinks. 6 strictly/roughly/generally speaking, using the word(s) in a strict/rough/general sense.

speaker, (a) person who makes speeches (in the manner shown): He's a good/poor public ~er. (b) (short for) loudspeaker. (c) the Speaker, presiding officer (chairman) of the House of Commons and other legislative assemblies.

speaking clock, (GB) telephone service with a voice telling the exact time.

spear /spɪə(r)/ n [C] weapon with a metal point on a long shaft, used in hunting, or (formerly) by men fighting on foot. □ vt pierce, wound, make (a hole) in, with a spear.

'spear-head n [C] (fig) individual or group chosen to lead an attack. □ vt act as spearhead for: ~head the campaign for human rights.

spear-mint /'spiəmint/ n [U] aromatic variety of mint used for flavouring; chewing-gum flavoured with this.

special /'speʃl/ adj 1 of a particular or certain sort; not common, usual or general; of or for a certain person, thing or purpose: Her painting is something ~, particularly good. He did it for her as a ~ favour. What are your ~ interests? 2 exceptional in amount, degree, etc: Why should we give you ~ treatment? □ n [C] special train, edition of a newspaper, etc.

special delivery, delivery of mail (a letter, package, etc) by a special messenger instead of by the usual postal services.

spe-cially /-ʃəli/ adv particularly: I came here ~ly to see you.

special-ist /-ʃəlist/, expert in a profession, esp medicine: an 'eye ~ist.

spe-cial-ity /'speʃiæləti/ n [C] (pl -ies) 1 special quality or characteristic. 2 particular activity, product, operation, etc; thing to which a person (firm, etc) gives particular attention or for which a place is well known: Embroidery is her ~.

special-ize (also -ise) /'speʃəlaɪz/ vi, vt 1 be or become a specialist; give special or particular attention to: After his first degree he hopes to ~. 2 (usually as a pp) for a particular purpose: ~d knowledge.

spe-cial-iz-ation (also -isation) /'speʃəlaɪzəʃn/ US: -lɪz-/ n [C,U] spe-cial-ty /'speʃiəlti/ n [C] (pl -ies) = speciality (2).

spe-cies /'spi:ʃi:z/ n [C] (pl unchanged) 1 group of animals having similar characteristics, able to breed with each other but not with other groups: the human ~, mankind. 2 sort: He's a rare ~, rare type of person.

spe-ci-fic /spə'sɪfɪk/ adj 1 detailed and precise: ~ orders. 2 relating to one particular thing, etc, not general: The money is to be used for a ~ purpose.

spe-cifi-cally /-kəli/ adv in a specific manner: You were ~ally warned by your doctor not to smoke.

spec-ifi-ca-tion /'spesɪfɪ'keɪʃn/ n 1 [U] specifying. 2 [C] (often pl) details, instructions, etc for the design, materials, of something to be made or done: ~s for (building) a garage.

spec-ify /'spesɪfaɪ/ vt (pt, pp -ied) name a particular one, type, etc: ~ which colours to use.

speci-men /'spesɪmən/ n [C] 1 one as an example of a class: ~s of rocks and ores. 2 part taken to represent the whole: ~ pages of books. 3 something to be tested, etc for a special purpose: supply the doctor with a ~ of urine.

spe-cious /'spi:ʃəs/ adj (formal) appearing right or true, but not really so: a ~ argument/person.

speck /spek/ n [C] 1 small spot or particle (of dirt, etc): ~s of dust. 2 (fig) small spot: The ship was ~d on the horizon.

specked adj marked with specks.

speckle /'spekl/ n [C] small mark or spot, esp one of many on feathers, etc.

speckled adj: a ~d bird.

specs /speks/ n pl (informal) spectacles (3):

Where are my ~?

spec-tacle /'spektəkl/ n [C] 1 public display, procession, etc: The Jubilee parade was a fine ~. 2 something seen, esp something grand, remarkable: The sunrise as seen from the top of the mountain was a tremendous ~. 3 (pl) (also a pair of ~s) pair of lenses in a frame, resting on the nose and ears, to help the eyesight. (Note: glasses is more usual.) ⇨ *rose*²(2).

spec-tacu-lar /spek'tækjələ(r)/ adj making a fine spectacle(1,2).

spec-tacu-lar-ly adv

spec-ta-tor /spek'teɪtə(r) US: 'spekteɪtə(r) n [C] person looking at (a show, sport or game).

spectre (US = specter) /'spektə(r)/ n [C] ghost (the usual word); fear of future trouble.

spec-tral /'spektrəl/ adj (a) of the spectrum: spectral colours. (b) of, like, a ghost.

spec-trum /'spektrəm/ n [C] (pl -tra /-trə/) 1 image of a band of colours (as seen in a rainbow and usually described as red, orange, yellow, green, blue, indigo and violet). 2 (fig) wide range or sequence: the whole ~ of political opinion.

specu-late /'spekjuleɪt/ vi 1 consider, form opinions (without having complete knowledge): ~ about/on/upon the future of the human race. 2 buy and sell goods, stocks and shares, etc with risk of loss and hope of profit through changes in their market value: ~ in oil shares.

specu-la-tor /-tə(r)/, person who speculates(2).

specu-la-tion /spekju'leɪʃn/ n 1 [U] speculating(1); [C] opinion reached by this means. 2 [U] speculating(2): ~ in rice; [C] business deal of this kind.

specu-lat-ive /'spekjulətɪv US -leɪtɪv/ adj 1 concerned with speculation(1): ~ philosophy. 2 concerned with speculation(2): ~ purchase of grain.

specu-la-tive-ly adv

sped /sped/ pt,pp of speed.

speech /spi:tʃ/ n 1 [U] power, act, manner, of speaking: Man is the only animal that has the power of ~. 2 [C] talk or address given in public: make a ~ on/about human rights.

'speech marks, (informal) quotation marks.

'speech therapy, remedial treatment for defective speech, eg for stuttering.

speech-less adj (a) unable to speak, esp because of deep feeling: Anger left him ~less. (b) that causes a person to be unable to speak: ~less rage.

speed /spi:d/ n 1 [U] quickness of movement. More haste, less 'speed, (proverb) Too much haste can result in delay. 2 [C,U] rate of motion or moving: travelling at full/top ~; at a ~ of thirty miles an hour. □ vt,vi (pt,pp sped but see 3 below) 1 move along, go quickly: cars ~ing past the school. 2 cause to move or go quickly: ~ an arrow from the bow. 3 (pt,pp ~ed) increase the speed (of): They have ~ed up production/the train service.

'speed-boat, motor-boat designed for high speeds.

speed-ing n [U] (of motorists) travelling at an illegal speed: fined £10 for ~ing.

'speed-limit, fastest speed allowed.

speedom-eter /spi:'dɒmɪtə(r)/, instrument showing the speed of a motor-vehicle, etc.

'speed-way, (a) track, for fast driving and racing, esp by motorbikes. (b) (US) road for fast traffic.

speedy adj (-ier, -iest) quick; coming, done, without delay: I wish you a ~y recovery (from illness).

spell¹ /spel/ n [C] 1 words used as a charm, supposed to have magic power: cast a ~ over him; put a ~ on him; be under a ~. 2 attraction, fascination, exercised by a person, occupation, etc: the ~ of Mozart's music.

'spell-bound /-baʊnd/ adj with the attention held as if by a spell: The speaker held his audience ~bound.

spell² /spel/ n [C] 1 period of time: a long ~ of warm weather. 2 period of activity or duty, esp one at which two or more persons take turns: take ~s at the wheel, eg of two persons making a long journey by car.

spell³ /spel/ vt,vi (pt,pp ~ed /speld/ or spelt /spelt/) 1 name or write the letters of (a word): How do you ~ your name? These children can't ~. 2 (of letters) form when put together in a particular order: C-A-T ~s cat. 3 spell sth out, make clear and easy to understand; explain in detail: My request seems simple enough—do you want me to ~ it out for you? 4 have as a consequence: Does laziness always ~ failure?

speller, person who spells: a good/poor ~er.

spell-ing, way a word is spelt: Do you use English or American ~ing(s)?

spelt ⇨ spell³.

spend /spend/ vt,vi (pt,pp spent /spent/) 1 pay out (money) for goods, services, etc: ~ all one's money. ⇨ penny(1). 2 use up: ~ a lot of time cleaning the car. They went on firing until all their ammunition was spent. 3 pass time: ~ a weekend in London. ⇨ night.

spender, person who spends money (usually in the way shown by the adjective): an extravagant/big ~er.

'spend-thrift, person who spends money extravagantly.

sperm /spɜ:m/ n [U] fertilizing fluid of a male animal.

spew /spju:/ vt,vi = vomit.

sphere /sfɪə(r)/ n [C] 1 form of a globe; star; planet. music of the spheres, (myth) music produced by the movement of heavenly bodies which men cannot hear. 2 globe representing the earth or the night sky. 3 person's range of interests, activities, surroundings, etc: gardening is outside the ~ of my activities.

4 range, extent: a ~ of influence.

spheri-cal /'sferikl/ adj shaped like a sphere.

spher-oid /'sfəriɔɪd/, solid that is almost spherical.

spice /spaɪs/ n 1 [C,U] sorts of substance, eg ginger, nutmeg, cinnamon, cloves, used to flavour food. 2 [U] (and with a, an) (fig) interesting flavour, suggestion, or trace (of): a story without ~. She has a ~ of malice in her character. □ vi add flavour to (something) with: ~d with humour.

spicy adj (-ier, -iest) (a) of, flavoured with, spice. (b) (fig) exciting or interesting because a little immoral: spicy gossip about a pop star's love life.

spick /spɪk/ adj (only in) spick and span, bright, clean and tidy.

spider /'spaɪdər/ n [C] sorts of creature with eight legs, many species of which spin webs for the capture of insects as food.

spid-ery adj (of handwriting) with long, thin strokes.

spied /spaɪd/ pt, pp of spy.

spigot /'spɪɡət/ n [C] 1 plug or peg for the hole of a cask or barrel. 2 valve for controlling the flow of water, etc from a tank, etc.

spike /spaɪk/ n [C] 1 sharp point; pointed piece of metal, eg on iron railings or on running-shoes. 2 long, pointed cluster of flowers or grain on a single stem: ~s of lavender. □ vt 1 put spikes (on shoes, etc): ~d running-shoes. 2 pierce or injure with a spike.

spiky adj (-ier, -iest) having sharp points.

spill /spɪl/ vt, vi (pt, pp spilt /spɪlt/ or ~ed) 1 (of liquid or powder) (allow to) run over the side of the container: Who has spilt ~ed the milk? ⇨ milk¹ (1). 2 (of a horse, etc) cause (the rider, passenger, etc) to fall: His horse spilt him. □ n [C] fall from a horse, motorbike: have a nasty ~.

spill-over, (often as an adjective) (of population) extra: new towns for London's ~over (population).

spin /spɪn/ vt, vi (pt spun /spʌn/ or span /spæn/, pp spun): (-nn-) 1 form (thread) by twisting wool, cotton, silk, etc; draw out and twist (wool, cotton, etc) into threads. 2 form by means of threads: spiders ~ning their webs; silkworms ~ning cocoons. 3 (fig) produce, compose (a story). spin sth out, make it last as long as possible: ~ out the time by talking. 4 cause (something) to go round and round: ~ a coin, send it up in the air, revolving as it goes up, to decide something (by 'heads or tails'). 5 move round quickly: The top was ~ning merri-ly. The collision sent the car ~ning across the road. □ n 1 [U] turning or spinning motion, esp as given to the ball in some games, eg cricket, baseball: The pitcher gave (a) ~ to the ball. 2 [C] short ride in a motor-car, on a bicycle, etc; have/go for a ~. 3 [C] fast spinning movement of an aircraft during a diving descent: get into/out of a ~. in a flat spin, in a panic.

spin-drier, -drier, device that spins (clothes) to dry them.

spin-dry vt (pt, pp dried) dry in a spin-drier.

spinning jenny, early kind of machine for spinning more than one thread at a time.

spinning-wheel, machine for making thread on a spindle turned by a large wheel.

spin-off, advantage, benefit or product (often unexpected) (from a larger activity or process, or from research for it).

spin-ach /'spɪndɪʒ/ US: -ɪtʃ/ n [U] plant with small green leaves, cooked and eaten as a vegetable.

spi-nal /'spɪnəl/ adj (anat) of or to the spine: the ~ column, the backbone.

spindle /'spɪndl/ n [C] 1 (in spinning) thin rod for twisting and winding thread by hand. 2 bar or pin which turns round, or on which something turns (eg an axle or a shaft).

spin-dly /'spɪndli/ adj (-ier, -iest) long and thin; (too) tall and thin: spindly legs.

spine /spaɪn/ n [C] 1 = backbone. 2 sharp, pointed part on some plants, eg a cactus, and animals, eg a porcupine. 3 part of a book's cover that can be seen when it is on a shelf, usually with the book's title on it.

spine-less adj (a) having no spine(1). (b) (fig) without courage to make decisions.

spiny adj (-ier, -iest) having spines(2).

spinet /'spɪnɪt/ US: 'spɪnɪt/ n [C] old type of keyboard instrument like a harpsichord.

spin-naker /'spɪnəkə(r)/ n [C] large triangular sail on a racing yacht.

spin-ney /'spɪni/ n [C] (pl ~s) small wood with thick bushes, etc.

spin-ster /'spɪnstə(r)/ n [C] (usually official or legal use) unmarried woman, esp after the conventional age for marrying.

spin-ster-hood /-hʊd/, being a spinster.

spi-ral /'spaɪərl/ adj, n [C] (in the form of an) advancing or ascending continuous curve winding round a central point: A snail's shell is ~. □ vi (-ll-, US also -l-) move in a spiral: The smoke ~led up.

spire /'spaɪə(r)/ n [C] pointed structure rising above a tower (esp of a church).

spirit /'spɪrɪt/ n 1 [C,U] soul; immaterial, intellectual or moral part of man: The ~ is willing but the flesh is weak. One is willing (in theory) to do it, but physically (in practice) unable to do it. 2 [C] the soul thought of as separate from the body: believe in ~s. 3 [C] elf; goblin. 4 [U] life and consciousness not associated with a body: God is pure ~. 5 [C] (always with an adjective) person considered from the intellectual, moral or emotional point of view: What a generous ~ he is! 6 [U] quality of courage, strength, liveliness: Put a little more ~ into your work. 7 (sing only) mental or moral attitude: Whether it was unwise or not depends on the ~ in which it was done. 8 [U] real meaning or purpose underlying a law, etc (contrasted with the apparent meaning of the words, etc): obey the ~, not the letter, of the law. 9 (pl) state of mind: in high ~s, cheerful; in poor/low ~s, out of ~s, depressed, unhappy. 10 [U] industrial alcohol. 11 (usually pl) strong alcoholic drink (eg whisky, brandy, gin, rum). □ vt take a person or thing quickly, secretly or mysteriously: She has been ~ed away to another department.

'spirit-level, (piece of wood with a) glass tube partly filled with water or alcohol, with a bubble of air which, when centred, shows that a surface is horizontal.

spirited /'spɪrɪtɪd/ adj (a) full of spirit(6): a ~ed attack/defence/reply. (b) having the kind of spirits(9) shown: high-/low-/~ed, happy/depressed.

spiritual /'spɪrɪtʃuəl/ adj 1 of the spirit(1) or soul; of religion, not of material things; of, from, God; concerned about one's ~ welfare. 2 of spirits(2); supernatural. 3 caring much for things of the spirit(1). 4 of the church. □ n [C] religious song as sung by Negroes in the US.

spiritu-ally /-tʃuəli/ adv

spiritu-al-ism /'spɪrɪtʃuəzəm/ n [U] belief in the possibility of receiving messages from the spirits of the dead; practice of attempting to do this.

spiritu-al-ist /-ɪst/, believer in, person who practises, spiritualism.

spiritu-al-is-tic /spɪrɪtʃuəlɪstɪk/ adj spirt /spɜ:t/ vi n [C] = spurt.

spit /spɪt/ n [C] 1 long thin metal spike on which to fix meat, etc for roasting. 2 small, narrow point of land. □ vt (-pp-) put a spit through (a chicken, piece of meat, etc).

spit /spɪt/ vt, vi (pt, pp spit /spæt/) (-tt-) 1 send liquid (saliva) out from the mouth; do this as a sign of contempt or hatred: He spat in the man's face/spat at him. The cat spat (= made an angry spitting noise) at the dog. 2 send (out) from the mouth: ~ out a pip. 3 (fig) say angrily or sharply: She spat (out) curses at me. 4 make the noise of spitting (while sending out something): The frying-pan was ~ting. 5 (of rain or snow) fall lightly: It's not raining heavily, only ~ting. □ n 1 [U] = spittle (the usual word). 2 act of spitting. 3 the spit and/the spitting image of, exact replica or likeness of: He's the ~ting image of his father.

spit /spɪt/ n [C] depth of a spade.

spite /spat/ n [U] desire to annoy, to cause pain or damage: do something out/off/from ~. in spite of, not to be prevented by; although: They went out in ~ of the rain. In ~ of all his efforts (= Although he tried) he failed. □ vt injure or annoy because of spite: They play their radio loudly in the garden just to ~ us.

spite-ful /-fl/ adj having, showing, spite.

spite-fully /-fəli/ adv

spite-ful-ness n [U] spittle /'spɪtl/ n [U] liquid of the mouth.

splash /splæʃ/ vt, vi 1 cause (a liquid) to be flung about in drops; make (a person or thing) wet: Children love to ~ water over one another. 2 (of a liquid) be flung about and fall in drops: fountains ~ing in the park. 3 move, fall, so that there is splashing: The spacecraft ~ed down in the Pacific. Hence, 'splash-down, landing of a spacecraft in the sea. 4 splash out (on), (informal) spend extravagantly. □ n [C] 1 (sound, spot, mark, made by) splashing: He jumped into the swimming pool with a ~. 2 patch of colour: Her dog is brown with white ~es.

splay /spleɪ/ vt, vi make the distance between opposite sides (of an opening) wider; cause to slant or slope. □ n [C] sloping side (of a window opening, etc).

spleen /splɪn/ n [C] (anat) organ in the abdomen which causes changes in the blood.

splen-did /'splendɪd/ adj 1 magnificent: a ~ sunset/house/victory; ~ jewellery. 2 (informal) excellent: a ~ dinner/idea.

splen-did-ly adv

splen-dor (US = -dor) /'splendə(r)/ n [U] (sometimes pl) magnificence; brightness: the ~ of the moonlight over the sea.

splice /splaɪs/ vt 1 join (two ends of rope) by twisting the threads of one into those of the other. 2 join (two pieces of wood, magnetic tape, film) by fastening them at the ends. 3 get spliced, (informal) get married. □ n [C] joint made by splicing.

splint /splɪnt/ n [C] strip of wood, etc strapped to an arm, leg, etc to keep a broken bone in the right position.

splinter /'splɪntə(r)/ n [C] sharp piece of hard material (wood, metal, glass, etc) split, torn or broken off a larger piece: have a ~ in one's finger. □ vt, vi break into splinters.

'splinter group/party, (in politics) group of persons who have broken away from their Party.

split /splɪt/ vt, vi (pt, pp split) (-tt-) 1 break, cause to break, be broken, into two or more parts, esp from end to end along the length or the line of natural division: Some kinds of wood ~ easily. He can ~ a match in two. 2 break open by bursting: His coat has ~ at the seams. a splitting headache, so severe that it feels that one's head may break. 3 (cause to) break into parts; divide: The party ~ up into small groups. split the difference, (when making a bargain) compromise (on the price, cost, etc). split hairs, ⇨ hair(2). split one's sides (with laughter), laugh with movements of the sides. 4 (sl) give away a secret or information about a person (to his disadvantage). □ n [C] 1 crack or tear made by splitting: Will you sew up this ~ in my trousers?

2 separation or division resulting from splitting: a ~ in the Labour Party. 3 the ~s, sitting on the floor with legs stretched out in a line with the trunk upright: do the ~s.

split mind/personality, = schizophrenia.

split second, a brief moment.

splut-ter /'splʌtə(r)/ vi, vt speak quickly, confusedly (from excitement, etc): ~ out a few words/a threat. □ n [U] spluttering sound.

spoil /spoɪl/ vi, vt (pt, pp ~t or ~ed) 1 make useless or unsatisfactory: fruit ~t by insects; holidays ~t by bad weather. 2 harm the character or temperament of by too much kindness or absence of discipline: parents who ~ their children. 3 pay great attention to the comfort and wishes of: He likes having a wife who ~s him. 4 (of food, etc) become bad, unfit for use: Some kinds of food soon ~. □ n 1 (either [U] or pl, not with numerals) stolen goods: The thieves divided up the ~s. 2 (pl) profits, profitable positions, gained from political power: the ~s of office. 3 [U] earth, unwanted material, etc thrown or brought up in excavating, draining, etc.

'spoil-sport, person who does things that interfere with the enjoyment of other people.

spoke¹ /spəʊk/ n [C] any one of the bars or wire rods connecting the hub (centre) of a wheel with the rim (outer edge).

spoke², spoken /spəʊk, spəʊkən/ ⇨ speak.

spokes-man /'spəʊksmən/ n [C] (pl -men) person speaking, chosen to speak, as the representative of a group. ⇨ shadow.

sponge /spʌndʒ/ n 1 [C] kinds of simple sea-animal; its body made of elastic material full of holes and able to absorb water easily. 2 one of these (loofah), or something similar, used for washing, cleaning, etc. 3 = sponge-cake. □ vi, vt 1 wash, wipe or clean with a sponge: ~ a wound/a child's face. 2 take up (liquid) with a sponge: ~ up the mess. 3 (informal) obtain money from a person, without giving, or intending to give, anything in return: sponging on one's friends.

'sponge-cake, soft cake like a sponge.

sponger, person who sponges (3).

spongy adj (-ier, -iest) spon-sor /'spɒnsə(r)/ n [C] 1 person (eg a godfather) making himself responsible for another. 2 person who puts forward or guarantees a proposal. □ vt act as a sponsor for.

spon-ta-neous /spɒn'teɪniəs/ adj done, happening, from natural impulse, not suggested: He made a ~ offer of help.

spon-ta-neous-ly adv

spon-ta-neity /spɒn'teɪniəti/ n [U] spoof /spu:f/ vi, n [C] (informal) (produce a piece of) satire, deception, (for amusement).

spook /spu:k/ n [C] ghost.

spooky adj (-ier, -iest) of, suggesting, ghosts: a ~y (= haunted) house.

spool /spu:l/ n [C] reel (for thread, wire, photographic film, magnetic tape, etc).

spoon /spu:n/ n [C] utensil with a shallow bowl on a handle, used for stirring, serving and taking up food (named according to use): a des'sert-/soup-/table/tea~. □ vt take with a spoon: ~ up one's soup; ~ out the peas, serve them.

'spoon-feed vt (a) feed (a baby, etc) from a spoon. (b) (fig) give (a person) too much help or teaching: Some teachers ~ feed their pupils.

'spoon-ful /-fʊl/ n [C] (pl ~fuls) as much as a spoon can hold.

spor-adic /spə'rædɪk/ adj occurring, seen, only here and there or occasionally: ~ raids/firing.

spor-adi-cally /-kli/ adv

spore /spɔ:(r)/ n [C] germ, single cell, by which a flowerless plant (eg moss, a fern) reproduces itself.

spor-ran /'spɒrən/ n [C] pouch worn in front of a kilt.

sport /spɔ:t/ n 1 [U] activity engaged in, esp outdoors, for amusement and exercise; [C] particular form of such activity: fond of ~; athletic ~s, eg running, jumping; ~s coverage/reporting on TV. 2 (pl) meeting for athletic contests: the school ~s. 3 (informal) unselfish, kind person: Be a ~ and help me with this suitcase. □ vi, vt 1 play about, amuse oneself: seals ~ing about in the water. 2 (informal) have or wear proudly: ~ a moustache/a diamond ring.

'sports-car, small motor-car designed for high speeds.

'sports-man, (a) person who takes part in, is fond of, sport. (b) = sport (3). Hence, 'sports-man-ship /-ʃɪp/ n [U] sport-ing adj (a) connected with, interested in, sport: a ~ing man. (b) willing to take a risk of losing; involving a risk of losing: give her a ~ing chance.

sport-ing-ly adv

spot /spɒt/ n [C] 1 small (esp round) mark different in colour from what it is on: Which has ~s, the leopard or the tiger? knock spots off sb, do much better than him. 2 dirty mark or stain: ~s of mud on your boots. 3 small, red place on the skin: This ointment won't clear your face of ~s. 4 (fig) moral stain: There isn't one ~ on her reputation. 5 drop: Did you feel a few ~s of rain? 6 particular place or area: the (very) ~ where he was murdered. on the spot, (a) at the place where one is needed: The police were on the ~ within a few minutes. (b) immediately: The bullet struck his head and he was killed on the ~. find/put one's finger on sb's 'weak spot, find the point (of character, etc) where he is most open to attack. 7 (GB informal) small quantity of anything: I need a ~ of brandy. He's having a ~ of bother with his brother, a quarrel. □ vt, vi (-tt-) 1 mark, become marked, with spots: a table ~ted with ink. 2 pick out, recognize, see (one person or thing out of many): ~ a friend in a crowd.

spot check, check without warning: ~ checks by police on motorists.

spot-ted adj marked with spots, eg of animals or material.

spot-less adj free from spots; clean: a ~less kitchen/reputation.

spot-less-ly adv: ~lessly clean.

spotty adj (-ier, -iest) (a) marked with spots (on the skin): a ~ty complexion. (b) of varying quality: a ~ty piece of work.

spot-light /'spɒtlaɪt/ n [C] (projector or lamp used for sending a) strong light directed on to a particular place or person, eg on the stage of a theatre. be in/hold the spot-light, (fig) be the centre of attention. □ vt direct a spotlight on to.

spouse /spaʊz/ US: spauz/ n [C] (legal) husband or wife.

spout /spaʊt/ n [C] 1 pipe through or from which liquid pours, eg for tea from a teapot. 2 stream of liquid coming out with great force. ⇨ waterspout. 3 up the spout, (sl) in difficulties, broken, etc according to context. □ vt, vi 1 (of liquid) come or send out with great force: blood ~ing from a cut artery. 2 (informal) speak, recite (verses, etc), pompously: ~ing political slogans.

sprain /spreɪn/ vt injure (a joint, eg in the wrist or ankle) by twisting violently so that there is pain and swelling: ~ one's wrist. □ n [C] injury so caused.

sprang /spræŋ/ pt of spring³.

sprat /spræt/ n [C] small European sea-fish used as food.

sprawl /sprɔːl/ vi 1 sit or lie with the arms and legs loosely spread out; fall so that one lies in this way: ~ing on the sofa; be sent ~ing in the mud. 2 (of plants, handwriting) spread out loosely and irregularly. 3 (fig) (of towns) spread over much space: suburbs that ~ out into the countryside. □ n [C] sprawling position, movement or area.

spray¹ /spreɪ/ n [C] 1 small branch of a tree or plant, esp as an ornament. 2 ornament in a similar form: a ~ of diamonds.

spray² /spreɪ/ n 1 [U] liquid sent through the air in tiny drops (by the wind, or through an apparatus): 'sea-~. 2 [C, U] kinds of liquid preparation, eg a perfume, disinfectant or insecticide, to be applied in the form of spray. 3 [C] device that sprays (perfume, etc). □ vt put spray on: ~ fruit-trees.

'spray-gun, apparatus using pressure to spread cellulose, paint, varnish, etc over surfaces.

sprayer, (a) person who sprays. (b) appaatus for spraying.

spread /spred/ vt, vi (pt, pp ~) 1 extend the surface or width of something by unfolding or unrolling it: ~ out a map; ~ (out) one's arms. The bird ~ its wings. 2 cover by spreading: ~ a table with a cloth. 3 put (a substance) on a surface and extend its area by flattening, etc; cover (a surface) by doing this: ~ butter on bread/a slice of bread with butter. 4 (cause to) become more widely extended or distributed: ~ knowledge. Coughs and sneezes ~ diseases. The water ~ over the floor. The rumour quickly ~ through the village. The fire ~ from the factory to the houses next door. 5 extend in space: a desert ~ing for hundreds of miles. 6 spread over, extend in time: a course of studies ~ over three years; payments ~ over twelve months. □ n [C] (rarely pl) 1 extent; breadth: the ~ of a bird's wings. 2 extension; spreading(4): the ~ of disease/knowledge/education. 3 (informal) table with good things to eat and drink on it: What a superb ~! 4 something that is spread(1) (usually in compounds): a 'bed~, a cover spread over the bed-clothes. 5 name used for various kinds of paste (to be) spread on bread, etc.

'spread-eagle vi (reflexive) take up a lying position with arms and legs extended to form a cross: sunbathers ~eagled on the grass.

spreader, person who, that which, spreads, eg an implement used for spreading paste, etc on bread.

spree /sprɪ:/ n [C]: have a ~, have a lively, merry time; a 'spending/'buying ~, an occasion of (extravagant or unusual) spending of money. be on the spree/go out on a spree, be having/go out to enjoy, a spree.

spring /sprɪŋ/ n [C] small twig (of a plant or bush) with leaves, etc: a ~ of holly.

spright-ly /'sprɪtli/ adj (-ier, -iest) lively; brisk.

spring¹ /sprɪŋ/ n [C] 1 act of springing or jumping up. 2 (place where there is) water coming up from the ground: a 'hot-~; 'mineral-~. 3 device of twisted, bent or coiled metal or wire which returns to its shape or position after being pulled, pushed or pressed: the ~ of a watch. 4 [U] elastic quality: rubber bands that have lost their ~.

'spring-balance, device that measures weight by how much the object pulls a spring down.

'spring-board, board to give a springing motion to a person jumping from it.

springy adj (-ier, -iest) (of movement or substances) elastic; that springs: walk with a youthful ~y step.

spring² /sprɪŋ/ n [C] season of the year in which vegetation begins; season between winter and summer: in (the) ~; (as an adjective) ~ flowers/weather.

'spring-clean vt clean (a house, a room) thoroughly. Hence, 'spring-'cleaning n.

'spring-time, (also 'spring-tide), season of spring.

'spring-like adj: ~like weather.

spring³ /sprɪŋ/ vi, vt (pt sprang /spræŋ/, pp sprung /sprʌŋ/) 1 jump suddenly from the ground; move suddenly (up, down, out, etc) from being still, hidden, etc: He sprang to his feet/sprang out of bed/sprang out from behind the bush/sprang up from his seat. The branch sprang back and hit me in the face. 2 grow up quickly from the ground: or from a stem: Weeds were ~ing up everywhere. 3 appear suddenly: Where have you sprung from? 4 (fig) occur suddenly: A suspicion/doubt sprang up in her mind. 5 cause suddenly: He sprang a surprise on me. 6 cause to operate by means of a mechanism: ~ a trap, cause it to go off. 7 spring a leak, (of a ship, etc) crack or burst so that water enters.

spring-bok /'sprɪŋbɒk/ n [C] small, Southern African gazelle.

sprinkle /'sprɪŋkl/ vt direct, throw, a shower of (something) on to (a surface): sprinkling water on a dusty path; ~ the floor with sand.

sprink-ler /'sprɪŋklə(r)/, (esp) apparatus or device for sprinkling water (eg on to a lawn) or (permanently installed in buildings) for fighting fire.

sprink-ling, small quantity or number: There was a sprinkling of young people in the audience.

sprint /sprɪnt/ vi run a short distance at full speed: He ~ed past his competitors just before reaching the tape. □ n [C] 1 such a run. 2 short race, eg 100 metres.

sprin-ter, person who sprints.

sprite /sprat/ n [C] fairy; elf.

sprout /spraʊt/ vi, vt 1 put out leaves; begin to grow: Peter has really ~ed up in the past year. 2 cause to grow: The continuous wet weather has ~ed the wheat. 3 develop, produce: Tom has ~ed a moustache. □ n [C] 1 new part of a plant. 2 = Brussels sprout.

spruce¹ /spruːs/ adj neat and smart in dress and appearance. □ vt, vi make oneself smart: Go and ~ yourself up.

spruce-ly adv

spruce² /spruːs/ n [C, U] (also ~fir) kinds of fir-tree grown in plantations for its wood, used for making paper.

sprung /sprʌŋ/ pp of spring³.

spy /sprai/ adj (-er, -est) lively: still ~ at eighty. look spy, be quick.

spud /spʌd/ n [C] (sl) potato.

spue /spjuː/ vt, vi = spew.

spume /spjuːm/ n [U] foam; froth.

spun /spʌn/ pp of spin.

spunk /spʌŋk/ n [U] (informal) courage: a boy with plenty of ~.

spur /spɜː(r)/ n [C] 1 one of a pair of sharp-toothed wheels on the heels of a rider's boots and used to make the horse go faster. 2 (fig) something that urges a person on to greater activity: the ~ of poverty. act on the spur of the moment, act on a sudden impulse. 3 ridge extending from a mountain or hill. □ vt, vi (-rr-) urge on with, or as with, spurs: He was ~ed on by ambition.

spu-ri-ous /'spjuəriəs/ adj (formal) false; not genuine: a ~ argument.

spu-ri-ous-ly adv

spurn /spɜːn/ vt reject or refuse; have nothing to do with (an offer, a person or his advances).

spurt /spɜːt/ vi 1 (of liquids, flame, etc) come out in a sudden burst: Blood ~ed (out) from the wound. 2 make a sudden, short and violent effort, esp in a race or other contest: The runner ~ed as he approached the winning-post. □ n [C] sudden bursting forth; sudden burst of energy: ~s of water/flame/energy; put on a ~ (= increase speed) towards the end of a race.

sput-ter /'spʌtə(r)/ vi, vt 1 make a series of spitting sounds: The sausages were ~ing in the frying-pan. 2 = splutter (1, 2).

spu-tum /'spju:təm/ n [U] matter coughed up from the throat.

spy /spaɪ/ n [C] (pl spies) 1 person who tries to get secret information, esp about the military affairs of other countries. 2 person who keeps a secret watch on the movements of others: industrial spies, employed to learn trade secrets, etc. □ vi, vt 1 act as a spy on, watch secretly: ~ing on the enemy's movements; ~ out the land. 2 observe; see; discover: I ~ someone coming up the garden path.

'spy-glass, small telescope.

squabble /'skwɒbl/ vi take part in a small or noisy quarrel: Tom was squabbling with his sister about who should use the bicycle. □ n [C] noisy small quarrel.

squad /skwɒd/ n [C] small group of persons, eg of soldiers, working or being trained together.

'squad car, (US) police patrol car.

squad-ron /'skwɒdrən/ n [C] 1 sub-unit of a cavalry, armoured or engineer regiment (120–200 men). 2 number of warships or military aircraft forming a unit.

squalid /'skwɒlɪd/ adj dirty, poor, uncared for: living in ~ conditions/houses.

squalid-ly adv

squall /skwɒl/ n [C] 1 loud cry of pain or fear (esp from a baby or child). 2 sudden violent wind, often with rain or snow. □ vi utter squalls (1): ~ing babies.

squalor /'skwɒlə(r)/ n [U] squalid state: born in ~; the ~ of the slums.

squan-der /'skwɒndə(r)/ vt waste (time, money).

square¹ /skweə(r)/ adj 1 having the shape of a square (1): a ~ table. 2 having or forming (exactly or approximately) a right angle: ~ corners; a ~ jaw/chin, with angular, not curved, outlines. 3 level or parallel (with); balanced; settled: get one's accounts ~, settled. be (all) square, neither owing anything to the other; equal: Let's call it all ~, shall we? 4 connected with a number multiplied by itself: a ~ metre, an area equal to that of a square surface which has sides of one metre: nine ~ cm. The ~ root of 9 is 3. 5 thorough; uncompromising: meet with a ~ refusal. a square meal, one that is big enough. 6 fair, honest: ~ dealings, in business. 7 (dated fig) (of a person) formal, conventional, old-fashioned. □ adv 1 in a square (2) manner: stand/sit ~; hit a man ~ on the jaw. 2, fair and 'square, in an honest, fair manner.

'square bracket, either of the two symbols [or] used as parentheses.

'square-built adj (of a person) of comparatively broad shape.

'square dance, one in which the dancers face inwards from four sides.

'square-shouldered adj with the shoulders at right angles to the neck, not sloping.

'square-toed adj (of shoes) having a square toe-cap.

square-ly adv (a) so as to form a right angle. (b) fairly; honestly: act ~ly. (c) directly opposite: He faced me ~ly across the table.

square-ness n [U]

square² /skweə(r)/ n [C] 1 shape, area, with four equal sides and four right angles (□). back to square one, back to the starting-point and forced to start again. 2 anything having the shape of a square. 3 four-sided open area, eg in a town, used as a garden or for recreation, or one enclosed by streets and buildings: listening to the band playing in the ~. 4 buildings and streets surrounding a square (3): He lived at No 95 Russell S~. 5 block of buildings bounded by four streets; distance along one side. 6 result when a number or quantity is multiplied by itself: The ~ of 7 is 49. 7 L-shaped or ('T-square) T-shaped instrument for drawing or testing right angles. 8 (dated informal) person (considered to be) square (7).

'square-bashing, (sl) military drill.

square³ /skweə(r)/ vt, vi 1 make square; give a square shape to. 2 cause one line or side to make a right angle with another: ~ timber. 3 make straight or level: ~ one's shoulders. 4 multiply a number by itself: Three ~d is nine. 5 mark (off) in squares. 6 settle, balance (accounts): ~ up on Friday. 7 (fig) have one's revenge: ~ accounts with an enemy. 8 make or be consistent: It would help if the facts ~d with the theory, but they do not.

squash¹ /skwɒʃ/ vt, vi 1 press flat or into a small space: ~ too many people into a bus. 2 become squashed or pressed out of shape: Soft fruits ~ easily. 3 squeeze or crowd: Don't all try to ~ into the lift together. 4 (informal) silence (a person) with a clever, sarcastic, etc reply, statement: He was/felt completely ~ed. 5 (informal) defeat (a rebellion). □ n [C] (rarely pl) 1 crowd of persons squashed together: There was a frightful ~ at the gate. 2 (sound of) something squashing or being squashed: The ripe tomato hit the speaker in the face with a ~. 3 [C, U] drink made from fruit juice: 'orange'/'lemon' ~.

squash² /skwɒʃ/ n [U] (also 'rackets) game played with rackets and a rubber ball in a walled court.

squash³ /skwɒʃ/ n [U] (pl unchanged) kinds of gourd, like a pumpkin, eaten as a vegetable.

squat /skwɒt/ vi (-tt-) 1 sit on one's heels, or on the ground with the legs drawn up under or close to the body: The old man ~ed in front of the fire. 2 (of animals) crouch with the body close to the ground. 3 (informal) sit: Find somewhere to ~. 4 settle on land without permission, esp publicly owned and unoccupied land (in order to get ownership); occupy empty (usually deserted, derelict) buildings without authority. □ adj short and thick: a ~ man.

squat-ter, (a) person who squats (1). (b) person who squats (4).

squaw /skwɔː/ n [C] North American Indian woman or wife.

squawk /skwɔːk/ vi, n [C] 1 (chiefly of birds) (make a) loud, harsh cry, as when hurt or frightened. 2 (informal) (make a) loud complaint. 3 (sl) be an informer: The old man ~ed (to the police).

squawker, person, bird, that squawks.

squeak /skwi:k/ n [C] 1 short, shrill cry, eg made by a mouse, or similar sound, eg from an unoiled hinge. 2 a narrow squeak, a narrow escape from danger or failure. □ vi, vt 1 make a squeak: These new shoes ~. 2 (informal) become an informer.

squeaky adj (-ier, -iest) squeaking: ~y shoes.

squeal /skwi:l/ n [C] shrill cry or sound, longer and louder than a squeak, often showing terror or pain: the ~ of brakes, eg on lorries. □ vi, vt 1 make a squeal: The pigs were ~ing. He ~ed like a pig. 2 say in a squealing voice. 3 (informal) become an informer.

squealer, (a) animal that squeals. (b) (sl) informer.

squeam-ish /'skwi:mɪʃ/ adj 1 having a delicate stomach and easily made sick; feeling sick. 2 too easily disgusted or offended.

squeam-ish-ly adv

squeeze /skwi:z/ vt, vi 1 press on from the opposite side or from all sides; change the shape, size, etc of something by doing this: ~ her hand; ~ a sponge; ~ one's fingers, eg in a doorway. 2 get (water, juice, etc) out of something by pressing hard: ~ (the juice out of) a lemon; ~ the water out. 3 force (a person, oneself) into or through a narrow passage or small space: ~ (one's way) into a crowded bus; ~ (oneself) through a gap in a hedge. 4 get by force, demand, etc: ~ more money out of the public, eg by increasing taxes. 5 give in to pressure: Sponges ~ easily. □ n [C] 1 act of squeezing; condition of being squeezed; something obtained by squeezing: give her a hug and a ~. a tight squeeze, (a) closely packed crowd. (b) a narrow victory, escape, etc. 2 [U] (informal) policy of high taxation, high interest rates, etc aimed at deflation; [U] money obtained by squeezing(4).

squeezer, person, thing, that squeezes: a lemon-~.

squelch /skweltʃ/ vi, vt make a sucking sound as when feet are lifted from stiff, sticky mud: cows ~ing through the mud. □ n [C] squelching sound or act.

squid /skwid/ n [C] kind of sea-animal with ten long arms round the mouth.

squiggle /'skwɪgl/ n [C] small twisting line or scrawl: Is this ~ his signature?

squint /skwɪnt/ vi 1 have eyes that do not turn together but look in different directions at once. 2 look at with half-shut eyes or through a narrow opening. □ n [C] squinting position of the eyeballs: a man with a ~.

squire /'skwaɪə(r)/ n [C] 1 (dated) (in England) chief landowner in a country parish. 2 (in olden times) young man who was a knight's attendant until he himself became a knight.

squirm /skwɜ:m/ vi twist the body, wriggle (from discomfort, shame or embarrassment). □ n [C] squirming movement.

squir-rel /'skwɪrl/ US: 'skwɔ:rl/ n [C] (kinds of) small, tree-climbing, bushy-tailed animal with red or grey fur.

squirt /skwɜ:t/ vi, vi (of liquid, powder) force out, be forced out, in a thin stream or jet: The water ~ed all over me. □ n [C] 1 thin stream or jet (of liquid, powder, etc). 2 (informal) insignificant, nasty person: You little ~!

stab /stæb/ vt, vi (-bb-) 1 pierce or wound with a sharp-pointed weapon or instrument: eg a knife: ~ a man in the back. 2 produce a sensation of being stabbed: ~bing pains in the back. □ n [C] 1 stabbing blow; pain caused by this. 2 (informal) try, attempt: Let me have a ~ at it, try to do it.

stab-ber, person who stabs.

stable ¹ /'steɪbl/ adj (-er, -est) firm; fixed; not likely to move or change: What we need is a ~ Government. He needs a ~ job.

sta-bil-ity /stə'bɪləti/ n [U] quality of being stable.

sta-bil-ize (also -ise) /'steɪbəlaɪz/ vt make stable: ~ prices and wages.

sta-bi-lizer (also -iser), person or thing that stabilizes.

stable ² /'steɪbl/ n [C] 1 building in which horses are kept and fed. 2 number of horses (esp race-horses) belonging to one particular owner and kept in one set of stables. □ vt put, keep, in a stable: Where do you ~ your horse?

stack /stæk/ n [C] 1 pile of hay, straw, grain, etc usually with a sloping top, for storage in the open. 2 group of rifles arranged in the form of a pyramid. 3 pile or heap (of books, papers, wood, etc). 4 (informal) large amount: I have ~s of work waiting to be done. 5 (brick-work or stonework enclosing a) number of chimneys. 6 rack with shelves for books (in a library or bookshop). 7 number of aircraft waiting for instructions to land. □ vt make into a stack; pile up.

sta-dium /'steɪdiəm/ n [C] (pl ~s) enclosed area of land for games, athletic competitions, etc, with seats, etc for spectators: design a new Olympic ~.

staff /stɑ:f US: stæf/ n [C] 1 strong stick used as a support when walking or climbing, or as a weapon. 2 such a stick as a sign of office or authority: a pastoral ~, eg an ornamental one carried by or in front of a bishop, etc. 3 pole serving as a support: a 'flag-~. 4 group of assistants working together under a manager or head: the headmaster and his ~, ie the teachers; 'office-~. 5 group of senior army officers engaged in planning and organization: the General S-~; (as an adjective) ~ officers. 6 (music) (pl staves /'steɪvz/) set of five parallel lines on or between which symbols for notes are placed. □ vt provide with, act as, a staff(4): a well-~ed hotel/hospital.

tag /stæg/ n [C] male deer.

'stag-party, (informal) party for men only, usually for a man about to get married.

stage /steɪdʒ/ n [C] 1 (in a theatre) raised platform or structure of boards on which the actors appear. 2 the ~, theatrical work; the profession of acting in theatres. be/go on the stage, be/become an actor or actress. 3 (fig) scene of action; place where events occur. 4 point, period or step in development: at an early ~ in our history. The baby has reached the 'talking ~, is learning to talk. 5 any of two or more successive periods on the journey of a spacecraft: a multi-~ 'rocket. 6 journey, distance, between two stopping-places along a road or route; such a stopping-place: travel by easy ~s, for only a short distance at a time. 7 = stage-coach. ⇨ also landing-stage. □ vt, vi put on the stage(1); put before the public: ~ 'Hamlet'. stage a come-back, return (to a sport, eg boxing) from retirement or after having failed.

'stage-coach, horse-drawn vehicle formerly carrying passengers (and often mail) along a regular route.

'stage-craft, skill or experience in writing or directing plays.

'stage direction, direction in a play actors about their positions, movements, etc.

'stage 'door, entrance at the back of a theatre, used by actors, etc.

'stage fright, nervousness felt when facing an audience.

'stage 'manager, person who organizes scenery and props, etc, supervises the rehearsals, etc.

'stage-struck adj having a strong desire to become an actor or actress.

'stage-'whisper, whisper that is meant to be overheard.

stag-fla-tion /stæq'fleɪn/ n [U] inflation with a decline in productivity.

stag-ger /'stæɡə(r)/ vi, vt 1 walk or move unsteadily (from weakness, a heavy burden, drunkenness, etc): The man ~ed along/to his feet/across the room/from side to side of the pavement. 2 (of a blow or shock) cause to walk or move unsteadily: 3 (of news, etc) shock deeply; cause worry or confusion to: I was ~ed to hear/on hearing/when I heard that she had been arrested. 4 arrange (times of events) so that they do not all occur together: ~ office hours, so that employees are not all using buses, trains, etc at the same time. □ n (sing) staggering movement.

stag-ing /'steɪdʒɪŋ/ n [C,U] (platform or working area on) scaffolding for men on constructional work, eg building. 2 [U] (method of) presenting a play on the stage of a theatre.

stag-nant /'stæɡnənt/ adj 1 (of water) without current or tide: water lying ~ in ponds and ditches. 2 (fig) unchanging; inactive: Business was ~ last week.

stag-nate /stæɡ'neɪt/ US: 'stæɡneɪt/ vi 1 be stagnant. 2 (fig) be or become dull through disuse, inactivity, etc.

stag-na-tion /stæɡ'neɪʃn/ n [U] staid /steɪd/ adj (of persons, their appearance, behaviour, etc) conservative, quiet and serious.

staid-ly adv

stain /steɪn/ vt, vi 1 (of liquids, other substances) change the colour of; make coloured patches or dirty marks on: blood ~ed hands. 2 colour (wood, fabrics, etc) with a substance that soaks into the material: He ~ed the wood brown. 3 (of material) become discoloured or soiled: Does this material ~ easily? □ n 1 [U] liquid used for staining wood, etc. 2 [C] stained place; dirty mark or patch of colour: 'ink-'blood-~s. 3 [C] (fig) moral defect: a ~ on your character.

stain-less adj (a) without a fault: a ~less reputation. (b) (esp of a kind of steel alloy) that resists rust and corrosion: ~less steel cutlery.

stained glass, glass made by mixing into it transparent colours during the process of manufacture.

stair /steə(r)/ n [C] (any one of a) series of fixed steps leading from one floor of a building to another; The child was sitting on the bottom ~. She always runs up/down the ~s. a flight of stairs, ⇨ flight¹ (8). ⇨ also downstairs, upstairs.

'stair-case, series of stairs (often with banisters) inside a building.

'stair-rod, rod for keeping a carpet in position in the angle between two steps of a stair.

'stair-way, = staircase.

'stair-well, space in a building surrounded by a staircase.

stake /steɪk/ n [C] 1 strong, pointed length of wood or metal (to be) driven into the ground as a post (eg for a fence) or as a support for something, eg plants, young trees. 2 post, as used in olden times, to which a person was tied before being burnt to death as a punishment: condemned to the ~; suffer at the ~. 3 sum of money risked when gambling. at stake, to be won or lost; risked, depending, on the result of something: His reputation/His life itself was at ~. 4 interest or concern (in something); sum of money invested in an enterprise. 5 (pl) money to be contended for, esp in a horse-race; such a race: the trial ~s at Newmarket. □ vt 1 support with a stake: ~ newly planted trees. 2 mark (an area) with stakes: ~ out a claim (to land, etc). 3 risk (money, one's hopes, etc): I'd ~ my life on it, am very confident about it.

'stake-holder, person who keeps the stakes (3) until the result (of a race, etc) is known.

stal-ac-tite /'stæləktait/ US: stə'læk-/ n [C] length of lime hanging from the roof of a cave as water drips from it.

stal-ag-mite /'stæləgmait/ US: stə'læg-/ n [C] length of lime mounting upwards from the floor of a cave as water containing lime drips from the roof.

stale /steɪl/ adj 1 (of food) dry and unappetizing because not fresh: ~ bread. 2 uninteresting because heard before: ~ news/jokes. 3 (of athletes, musicians, etc) no longer able to perform really well because of too much playing, training, practice, etc: become ~. □ vi become stale: Are there any pleasures that never ~?

stale-ness n [U]

stale-mate /'steɪlmeɪt/ n [C,U] 1 (chess) position of the pieces from which no further move is possible. 2 (fig) any stage of a dispute at which further action by either side seems to be impossible. □ vt 1 (chess) reduce a player to a stalemate. 2 (fig) bring to a standstill.

stalk¹ /stɔːk/ n [C] part of a plant that supports a flower or flowers, a leaf or leaves, or a fruit or fruits.

stalk² /stɔːk/ vt, vi 1 walk with slow, stiff strides, esp in a proud, self-important or serious way: ~ out of the room. 2 move quietly and cautiously towards (wild animals, etc) in order to get near: ~ deer.

stalker, person who stalks animals.

stall /stɔ:l/ n [C] 1 compartment for one animal in a stable or cattle shed. 2 table or small, open shop, etc used by a trader in a market, on a street, in a railway-station, etc: a 'book-/flower-/coffee-~. 3 (pl) seats in the part of a theatre nearest to the stage. 4 fixed seat for the special use of a clergyman (usually in the choir or chancel): canon's/dean's ~. 5 condition of an aircraft when its speed has decreased to the point at which it no longer responds to the controls. □ vi, vt 1 place or keep (an animal) in a stall(1). 2 (eg of a car engine) fail to keep going through insufficient power or speed; (of a driver) cause an engine to stop from such a cause. 3 (of an aircraft) cause to be, become, out of control through loss of speed. 4 avoid giving a clear answer to a question, making a decision, (in order to get more time): ~ for time.

stallion /'stæljən/ n [C] uncastrated fully grown male horse, esp used for breeding.

stallwart /'stɔ:lwɜ:t/ adj (formal) 1 tall and muscular; solidly built. 2 firm and determined: ~ supporters. □ n [C] loyal supporter (of a political party, etc).

stamen /'steimən/ n [C] male part of a flower, bearing pollen.

stamina /'stæmɪnə/ n [U] energy and physical, mental and moral strength, enabling a person or animal to work hard for a long time, to survive a serious illness, to deal with serious problems, etc.

stammer /'stæmə(r)/ vi, vt 1 speak with a tendency to repeat rapidly the same sound or syllable, as in 'G-g-give me that b-b-book'. 2 say something in this confused or halting way: ~ out a request. □ n [C] (tendency to) stammering talk.

stammerer, person who stammers.

stamp ¹ /stæmp/ n [C] 1 act of stamping with the foot: a ~ of impatience. 2 something used to make a mark or design on a surface: a rubber ~, one on which a design, words, etc are cut (used for printing dates, signatures, addresses, etc). 3 design, word(s), etc made by stamping on a surface. 4 piece of printed paper stuck on envelopes (also 'postage-stamp'), documents, etc to show the postage paid, the insurance contribution, duty paid, etc. 5 (usually sing) characteristic mark or quality: He bears the ~ of genius. 6 (usually sing) kind; class: men of that ~.

stamp-album, one in which a collector of postage-stamps keeps his specimens.

stamp-collector, person who collects postage-stamps.

stamp-duty, tax imposed on certain kinds of legal documents.

stamp ² /stæmp/ vi, vt 1 put (one's foot) down with force (on something): ~ one's foot; ~ on a spider. 2 move (about, etc) doing this: ~

about/out of the room. stamp sth out, crush, destroy, end: ~ out a fire in the grass/a rebellion/an epidemic disease. 3 print (a design, lettering, the date, etc) on paper, cloth or other surface: The girl forgot to ~ my library books, mark the date by which they should be returned. 4 put a stamp(4) on (a letter, etc): I enclose a ~ed, addressed envelope for your reply. 5 give shape to something (eg pieces of metal) with a die or cutter. 6 (fig) impress: He ~ed his authority/personality on the game, eg of a great footballer.

'stamp-ing-ground, (a) place where specified animals, eg elephants, may usually be found. (b) place where specified people often gather: Soho, the ~ing-ground in London of those who enjoy exotic food.

stampede /stæmpɪd/ n [C] sudden rush of frightened people or animals. □ vi, vt 1 take part in a stampede; cause to do this. 2 force or frighten a person into action: Don't be ~ed into buying the house.

stance /stæns/ n [C] 1 (in golf, cricket) position taken for a stroke. 2 person's intellectual attitude.

stand ¹ /stænd/ n [C] 1 make a stand, be ready to resist or fight: make a ~ against the enemy. 2 position taken up: He took his ~ near the window. 3 small article of furniture, support, etc on or in which things may be placed: a 'music-/hat-~. 4 structure from which things are sold or exhibited: a 'news-~; the British ~s at the Hanover Fair. 5 place where vehicles may stand in line in a street, etc while waiting for passengers: a 'taxi-~. 6 structure, usually sloping, where people may stand or sit to watch races, sports-meetings, etc: a seat in the ~s. ⇨ grandstand. 7 engagement by a theatrical company when touring the country. a, one-night 'stand, (fig) a social meeting between two people that will not be repeated. 8 (US) witness-box (in a law court): take the ~.

'stand-point, point of view: from the ~point of the consumer.

'stand-still, be at/come to/bring sth to a standstill, (of progress, motion) stop, be stopped.

stand ² /stænd/ vi, vt (pt, pp stood /stud/) (For special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions, ⇨ 10 below.) 1 have, take, keep, an upright position; balance, support, the body on the feet: He was too weak to ~. S~ing room only, all seats are occupied, eg in a bus or cinema. His hair stood on end, ic with terror. He ~s six foot two, is of this height when standing. ⇨ also handstand. 2 rise to the feet: S~ up, please. Everyone stood (up) as the President entered. 3 remain without change: Let the words ~, don't alter them or take them out. stand firm/fast, not give way, retreat, change one's views, etc. 4 be in a certain condition or situation: As affairs now ~..., As they are at present. ... I ~ corrected, accept that I was wrong, etc. He ~s alone among his colleagues, None of them equals him in ability, etc. S ~ clear of the gates, eg as a warning when they are about to be closed. 5 have a certain place; be situated: These dishes ~ on the top shelf. The house ~s on the hill. Where does Tom ~ in class, What is his position (in order of ability, etc)? 6 cause to be placed in an upright position: S ~ the ladder against the wall. S ~ the empty barrels on the floor. 7 put up with; bear: He can't ~ hot weather. I can't ~ that woman, strongly dislike her. stand one's ground, (fig) not give way in an argument. stand (one's) trial, be tried (in a court of law). 8 provide at one's expense: ~ a friend a good dinner. 9 stand on ceremony, stand on ceremony (2). stand a (good) poor, etc) chance (of...), \hookrightarrow chance¹ (3). It stands to reason (that), \hookrightarrow reason¹ (3). stand to win/gain/lose sth, be in a position where one is likely to win, etc: What do we ~ to gain by the treaty?

10 (special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions):

stand aside, (a) be inactive, do nothing: He never ~s aside when something needs doing. (b) move to one side: S ~ aside and let me pass.

stand at, be at a certain level (on a scale, etc): The temperature stood at 30°C.

stand back, (a) move back: The policeman ordered us to ~ back. (b) be situated away from: The house ~s back from the road.

stand by, (a) look on without doing anything: How can you ~ by and see such cruelty? \hookrightarrow bystander. (b) be ready for action: The troops are ~ing by. stand by sb, support; show oneself to be a good friend: I'll ~ by you whatever happens. stand by sth, be faithful to (a promise, one's word, etc). Hence, 'stand-by', (a) state of readiness: The troops are on 24-hour ~by, ready to move at 24 hours' notice. (b) person or thing that one may depend on: Aspirin is a good ~by for headaches.

stand down, (a) leave a witness-box or similar position. (b) (of a candidate) withdraw.

stand for sth, (a) represent: 'Cm' ~ for 'centimetre.' (b) (GB) be a candidate for: ~ for Parliament. (c) (informal) tolerate: She says she's not going to ~ for any disobedience. \hookrightarrow 7 above.

stand in (for sb), take the place of, eg a person who is ill. Hence, 'stand-in', person who does this.

stand off, remain at a distance; move away. 'stand-off-ish' adj unfriendly and distant in behaviour.

stand out, (a) be easily seen above or among others: Does your work ~ out from that of others? Is it obviously better? \hookrightarrow outstanding. stand out a mile, be obvious: Her ability ~s out a mile. (b) continue to resist: The troops stood out against the enemy until help arrived.

stand over sb, supervise, watch closely: Unless I ~ over him he makes all sorts of mistakes.

stand up, \hookrightarrow 2 above. 'stand-up' adj (a) (of a meal) eaten while standing: a ~up 'buffer. (b) (of a fight) violent and hard-hitting.

stand sb up, (informal) not keep an appointment: First she agreed to come out with me, then she stood me up. stand up for sb, support; take the part of; defend. stand up to sth, (of materials) remain in good condition after long or hard use, etc: metals that ~ up well to high temperatures.

stand-ard /'stændəd/ n [C] 1 distinctive flag, esp one to which loyalty is given or asked: the royal ~, eg as flown to show that the Queen is in residence. 2 (often as an adjective) something used as a test or measure for weights, lengths, qualities or for the required degree of excellence: ~ weights and measures; set a high ~ for candidates in an examination; a high ~ of living, one with plenty of material comforts, etc; ~ authors, accepted as good. be up to / below standard, be equal to, not so good as, normal, etc: Their work is not up to ~. \hookrightarrow gold standard. 3 (often used as an adjective) upright support; pole or column.

'standard bearer', (a) person carrying a standard (1). (b) (fig) prominent leader.

'standard lamp', tall one with its base on the floor.

standard time, time officially adopted for (part of) a country.

stan-dard-ize (also -ise) /'stændədaɪz/ vt make of one size, shape, quality, etc according to fixed standards: The parts of motor-vehicles are usually ~d.

stan-dard-iz-ation (also -isation) /'stændədaɪzəʃn US: -dɪz-/ n [U] stand-ing /'stændɪŋ/ n 1 [U] duration: a debt of long ~. 2 [C, U] position or reputation; (if there is no adjective) established position: men of high ~; a member in full ~. \square adj established and permanent; ready for use: a ~ committee, a permanent one that meets regularly; a ~ order for newspapers and periodicals, to be delivered regularly.

stank /stæŋk/ pl of stink.

stan-za /'stænzə/ n [C] (pl ~s) group of rhymed lines forming a division in some forms of poem.

staple /'steɪpl/ n [C] 1 U-shaped metal pin hammered into a surface, to hold something in position. 2 U-shaped part of a padlock. 3 piece of wire pushed through sheets of paper and bent to hold them together. \square vt fasten or fit with a staple.

stapler /'steɪplə(r)/, small device for fixing papers together with staples (3).

staple² /'steɪpl/ n [C] chief sort of article or goods produced or traded in: Cotton is one of the ~s of Egypt. 2 [U] fibre of cotton, wool, etc (as determining its quality): cotton of short/fine ~. 3 (used as an adjective) forming the chief part: Is coffee still the ~ product of Brazil? Rice is the ~ diet (= the principal food) of many people in Asia.

star /sta:(r)/ n [C] 1 any one of the bodies seen in the sky at night as distant points of light. see stars, seem to see flashes of light, eg as the result of a hit on the head. 2 figure or design with points round it, suggesting a star by its shape; an asterisk (*): a five-~ ho/tel, of the highest grade. 3 badge of rank (worn by officers on the shoulder-strap). 4 planet or heavenly body regarded as influencing a person's fortune, etc: born under a lucky ~. 5 person famous as a singer, actor, actress, etc: the ~s of stage and screen; 'pop ~s. □ vi, vt (-rr-) 1 mark or decorate with, or as with, stars. 2 mark with an asterisk, etc to direct attention to something: I've ~red the important articles to read. 3 be a star (5) (in a play, film, etc); present (a person) as a star (5).

'star-dom /-dəm/, status of being a star (5).

'star-fish, sea-animal shaped like a star.

'star-let /-lɪt/, young successful actress.

'star-light, light from the stars. Hence, 'star-lit adj.

star-less adj with no stars to be seen: a ~less sky/night.

starry /'sta:ri/ adj lighted by, shining like, stars: a ~ry night.

'starry-eyed adj (informal) full of ideas but impractical: ~ry-eyed re/formers.

star-board /'sta:bɔ:d/ n [U] right side of a ship or aircraft from the point of view of a person looking forward. ⇨ *port*³.

starch /sta:tʃ/ n [U] 1 white, tasteless food substance, as in potatoes, grain, etc. 2 this substance prepared in powdered form and used for stiffening cotton clothes, etc. 3 (fig) stiffness of manner; formality. □ vt make, eg shirt collars, stiff with starch.

starchy adj (-ier, -iest) of, like, containing, starch: ~y foods.

stare /steə(r)/ vi, vt 1 look fixedly; (of eyes) be wide open: Do you like being ~ed at? She was staring into the distance. They all ~ed with astonishment. 2 stare one in the face, (fig) be obvious, be right in front of one: The book I was looking for was staring me in the face. □ n [C] staring look: a rude ~.

stark /sta:k/ adj 1 stiff, esp in death. 2 complete: ~ madness. □ adv completely: ~ naked.

star-ling /'sta:lɪŋ/ n [C] common small bird (black with brown-spotted plumage).

starry /'sta:ri/ ⇨ star.

start¹ /sta:t/ n [C] 1 beginning of a journey, activity, etc: make an early ~; the ~ of a race; from ~ to finish. 2 (sing only) amount of time or distance by which one person starts in front of competitors: They didn't give me much/any ~. He got a good ~ (= a position of advantage) in life/business. 3 sudden movement of surprise, fear, etc: He sat up with a ~. by fits and starts, in sudden short periods, not regularly. make a fresh start, ⇨ fresh (3).

start² /sta:t/ vi, vt (Note: begin may replace start in 1, 2, 6 below.) 1 leave; set out: We must ~ (out) early. We ~ed at six. 2 take the first action; show the first sign of: ~ work. It ~ed raining. It's ~ing to rain. 3 make a beginning: ~ (on) one's journey home. 4 make a sudden movement (from pain, surprise, fear, etc) or change of position: He ~ed at the sound of my voice. 5 set going; originate, bring into existence; cause: This news ~ed me thinking. The smoke ~ed her coughing. A rich uncle ~ed him in business, helped him, eg by supplying capital. 6 to start with, (a) in the first place: To ~ with, we haven't enough money, and secondly we haven't enough time. (b) at the beginning: We had only six members to ~ with.

7 (special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions):

start back, begin to return: It's time we ~ed back (eg said while out walking).

start off, begin to move: The horse ~ed off at a steady trot.

start out (to do sth), (informal) take the first steps: ~ out to write a novel.

start sth up, put (an engine, etc) in motion: We couldn't ~ up the car.

'starting-block, shaped block for the feet at the start of a race.

'start-ing-gate, barrier where horses start a race.

'start-ing-point, place at which a start is made.

'start-ing-post, place from which competitors start in a race.

'start-ing-price, (horse-racing) the odds just before the start of a race.

star-ter, (a) person, horse, etc that takes part in a race: There were only five ~ers in the last race. (b) person who gives the signal for a race to start. (c) device for causing an engine to start working. (d) (informal) first course of a meal.

startle /'sta:tl/ vt give a shock of surprise to; cause to move or jump: be ~ed out of one's sleep; be ~ed out of one's wits, suffer a sudden great shock. What startling news!

starve /sta:v/ vi, vt 1 (cause to) suffer or die from hunger: ~ to death. They tried to ~ the soldiers out, force them to surrender by preventing them from getting supplies of food. be starved of, (fig) be in great need of: The children were ~ed of affection. 2 (informal) feel hungry: What time's dinner? I'm starving!

star-va-tion /stɑ:'veɪʃn/ n [U] suffering or death caused by having no food: die of starvation.

state¹ /steɪt/ n [C] 1 (sing only) condition in which a person or thing is (in circumstances, appearance, mind, health, etc): The house was in a dirty ~. She's in a poor ~ of health. state of play, (a) (sport) score. (b) (fig) how parties in dispute stand in relation to one another (as likely to win or lose). 2 (often S~) organized political community with a government; territory in which this exists; such a community forming part of a federal republic: Railways in Great Britain belong to the S~. How many S~s are there in the United States of America? 3 (used as an adjective) of, for, concerned with, the State(2): ~ documents/records/archives. 4 [U] civil government: Church and S~; S~ schools, contrasted with Church or private schools. 5 [U] rank; dignity: persons in every ~ of life. 6 [U] ceremonial formality: The President was received in ~. 7 (used as an adjective) of or for ceremony and formality: the ~ apartments at the palace. 8 lie in state, be placed on view in a public place before burial.

state coach, one used by a monarch on ceremonial occasions.

the 'State Department, (US) of foreign Affairs.

'State-house, building in which a government of a State holds meetings.

'state-room, private cabin (or sleeping-compartment) on a steamer (and, in US, in a railway-carriage).

state school, one paid for by the government, with free education.

state-less adj (of a person) not recognized as a citizen or national of any country: ~less persons, eg some political refugees.

state-ly adj (-ier, -iest) impressive; dignified: the ~ly homes of England, those of the nobility, etc.

state² /steɪt/ vt express in words, esp carefully, fully and clearly: ~ one's views.

stated adj made known; announced: at ~d times/intervals.

state-ment, (a) [U] expression in words. (b) [C] stating of facts, views, a problem, etc (spoken or written); report: a 'bank ~ment, make a ~ment (in court), give a formal account in a law court of the cause of a legal action or its defence.

states-man /'steɪtsmən/ n [C] (pl -men) 1 person taking an important part in the management of State affairs. 2 person with skill and ability in State affairs.

'states-man-like adj gifted with, showing, wisdom in public affairs.

'states-man-ship /-ʃɪp/ n [U] skill and wisdom in managing public affairs.

static /'stætɪk/ adj at rest; in a state of balance: Sales are ~, not increasing or decreasing.

sta-tion /'steɪʃn/ n [C] 1 place, building, etc where a service is organized and provided: a 'bus/po'lice-~. 2 position, or relative position, to be taken up or maintained by a person or thing: battle ~s, positions for fighting. 3 stopping-place for railway trains. 4 social position, rank: people in all ~s of life. 5 military or naval base; those living there. □ vt put (a person, oneself, etc) at or in a certain place: The detective ~ed himself among the bushes, hid there.

'station-master, person in charge of a railway station.

'station-wagon, (dated) estate car.

sta-tion-ary /'steɪʃnəri/ US: -neri/ adj 1 not intended to be moved from place to place: a ~ crane/engine. ⇨ mobile(1). 2 not moving or changing: remain ~.

sta-tion-er /'steɪʃənə(r)/ n [C] dealer in stationery.

sta-tion-ery /'steɪʃnəri/ US: -neri/ n [U] paper, envelopes, etc for writing.

stat-is-tics /stə'tɪstɪks/ n [U] 1 (used with a pl verb) collection of information shown in numbers: S~ suggest that the population will double in ten years' time. 2 (used with a sing verb) the science of statistics.

stat-is-ti-cal /stə'tɪstɪkl/ adj of statistics: statistical evidence.

stat-is-ti-cally /-klɪ/ adv

stat-is-ti-cian /'stætɪ'stɪʃn/ n [C] expert in statistics.

statue /'stætʃu:/ n [C] figure of a person, animal, etc in wood, stone, bronze, etc, usually of life size or more than life size.

statu-ette /stætʃu'et/, small statue.

stat-ure /'stætʃə(r)/ n [U] 1 (person's) natural bodily height. 2 (fig) mental or moral quality.

status /'steɪtəs/ n [U] person's legal, social or professional position in relation to others: have no official ~, no official position.

'status symbol, something which is thought to be evidence of social rank, wealth, etc, eg a large, expensive car.

stat-ute /'stætʃu:t/ n [C] (written) law passed by Parliament or other law-making body.

'statute-book, book(s) containing statutes.

statu-tory /'stætʃʊtri/ US: -tɔ:ri/ adj fixed, done, required, by statute: statutory control of incomes.

staunch /stɔ:ntʃ/ (US also stanch /stɑ:ntʃ/ US: stæntʃ/ vi stop the flow of (esp blood).

staunch² /stɔ:ntʃ/ adj (of a friend, supporter, etc) loyal; firm.

staunch-ly adv

stave¹ /steɪv/ n [C] 1 one of the curved pieces of wood used for the side of a barrel or tub. 2 (music) = staff(6). 3 stanza; verse.

stave² /steiv/ vt, vi (pt, pp ~ed or stove /stəʊv/)

1 break, smash, make a hole in: The side of the yacht was ~ed in by the collision. 2 stave sth off, keep off, delay (danger, disaster, bankruptcy, etc).

stay¹ /steɪ/ vi, vt 1 be, remain, in a place or condition: ~ in the house/at home/in bed: ~ (= be a guest) at a hotel/with friends. I'm too busy to/I can't ~, must leave now. stay in, not go outdoors. stay out, (a) remain outdoors: Tell the children they mustn't ~ out after dark. (b) remain on strike: The miners ~ed out for several weeks. stay up, not go to bed: I ~ed up reading until midnight. come to stay, (informal) become, or seem likely to be, permanent: Has shoulder-length hair for men come to ~? 2 continue in a certain state: ~ single, not marry. He never ~s sober for long, frequently gets drunk. stay put, (informal) remain where placed. 3 stop, delay, postpone: ~ the progress of a disease. 4 be able to continue (work, etc); show endurance: The horse has no ~ing power. stay the course, (a) be able to continue to the end of the race. (b) (fig) continue the struggle, etc. □ n [C] 1 period of staying(1): make a short ~ in Karachi. 2 (legal) delay; postponement. a stay of execution, that an order of the court need not be carried out immediately.

stay² /steɪ/ n [C] 1 rope or wire supporting a mast, pole, etc. 2 (pl) (dated name for) kind of reinforced corset. □ vt support by means of a wire, rope or prop.

stead-fast /ˈstɛd.fəst/ US: -fæst/ adj unchanging; keeping firm (to): a ~ gaze.

stead-fast-ly adv

steady /ˈstɛd.i/ adj (-ier, -iest) 1 firmly fixed or supported; balanced; not likely to fall over: make a table ~, eg by repairing a leg; not very ~ on one's legs, eg of a person after a long illness. 2 regular in movement, speed, direction, etc: a ~ speed/rate of progress. 3 regular in behaviour, habits, etc: a ~ worker. 4 constant, unchanging: a ~ purpose. □ adv = steadily.

go steady, (informal) go about regularly with a person of the opposite sex, though not yet engaged to marry: Are Tony and Jane going ~? □ n [C] (pl -ies) (sf) regular boyfriend or girlfriend. □ vt, vi make, become, keep, steady: ~ a boat; ~ oneself by holding on to the rail, eg on the deck of a ship that is rolling.

stead-ily /ˈstɛd.əl.i/ adv in a regular manner. His health is getting steadily worse.

steak /steɪk/ n [C, U] (thick slice of) meat or fish for frying, grilling, stewing, etc.

steal /sti:l/ vt, vi (pt stole /stəʊl/, pp stolen /ˈstəʊlən/) 1 take (a person's property) secretly, without right: Someone has stolen my watch. 2 obtain by surprise or a trick: ~ a glance at her in the mirror. 3 ⚡ thunder(2). move, come, go (in, out, away, etc) secretly and quietly: He stole out of the room.

steam /sti:m/ n [U] 1 gas or vapour which rises from boiling water: ~ covered windows.

2 power obtained from steam: The ship was able to proceed under her own ~, using her own engines and not needing to be towed. Full steam a-head! order to go forward at full speed. 3 (fig) (informal) energy. let off steam, release surplus energy or emotion; become less excited. run out of steam, become exhausted. under one's own steam, without help from others. □ vi, vt 1 give out steam or vapour: ~ing hot coffee. 2 move, work, etc under (or as if under) the power of steam: a ship ~ing up the Red Sea. 3 cook, soften, clean; by the use of steam: ~ fish. 4 steam up, become misty with condensed steam: The windows ~ed up.

'steam-boat, vessel moved by steam.

'steam-engine, one worked or driven by pressure of steam.

'steam-roller n [C] heavy engine with wide wheels, used to make roads flat. □ vt (fig) use force to destroy opposition (to a plan, etc).

'steam-ship, ship driven by steam.

steamer, (a) = steamship. (b) vessel in which food is steamed.

steamy adj (-ier, -iest) of, like, full of, steam: the ~y heat of the tropics.

steel /sti:l/ n [U] hard alloy of iron and carbon or other elements, used for knives, tools, machinery, etc. □ vt harden: ~ oneself/one's heart (against pity).

steel band, band of musicians who use old oil drums, etc as percussion instruments.

'steel-plated adj covered with steel plates.

steel wool, fine steel shavings (used for scouring and polishing).

'steel-works, (often used with a sing verb) factory where steel is made.

steep¹ /sti:p/ adj (-er, -est) 1 (of a slope) rising or falling sharply: a ~ gradient/path/descent. 2 (informal) (of a demand) unreasonable; excessive: It's a bit ~ that I should pay for all of your clothes!

steep-ly adv

steep-ness n [U]

steep² /sti:p/ vt, vi 1 soak or bathe in liquid: ~ sheets in bleach. 2 (fig) become full of; get a thorough knowledge of: ~ed in ignorance; a scholar ~ed in Greek history.

steeple /ˈsti:pəl/ n [C] high tower with a spire, rising above the roof of a church.

'steeple-chase, race with obstacles such as fences, hedges and ditches.

'steeple-jack, man who climbs steeples, tall chimney-stacks, etc to do repairs.

steer¹ /stiə(r)/ n [C] young male of the ox family, esp castrated and raised for beef.

steer² /stiə(r)/ vt, vi direct the course of (a boat, ship, car, etc): ~ north; ~ by the stars.

steer clear of, (fig) avoid.

'steering-wheel, wheel used to control the direction of a car, boat, etc.

stel-lar /ˈstɛlə(r)/ adj (formal) of stars: ~ light.

stem¹ /stɛm/ n [C] 1 part of a plant coming up from the roots; part of a leaf, flower or fruit that joins it to the main stalk or twig. 2 part like a stem, eg the narrow part of a wineglass or a tobacco pipe. 3 (gram) root or main part of a noun or verb from which other words are made by additions. □ vi (-mm-) stem from, have as origin: His illness ~s from the period he lived in the tropics.

stem² /stɛm/ vt (-mm-) 1 check, stop, dam up (a stream, a flow of liquid, etc). 2 make progress against the resistance of: ~ the tide.

stench /stɛnʃ/ n [C] horrid smell.

sten-cil /stɛnsəl/ n [C] thin sheet of metal, cardboard, waxed paper, etc with letters or designs cut through it; lettering, design, etc printed through a stencil. □ vt (-ll-, US also -l-) produce (a pattern, wording, etc) by using a stencil.

step¹ /stɛp/ n 1 act of stepping once; distance covered by doing this: He was walking with slow ~s. step by step, gradually. watch one's step, ⚡ watch². 2 sound made by somebody walking; way of walking (as seen or heard): That's Lucy—I recognize her ~. 3 be/get in/out of step (with), (a) put/not put the right foot to the ground at the same time as others (in marching, dancing). (b) conform/not conform with other members of a group: He's out of ~ with the official view.

keep step with, march in step with. 4 one action in a series of actions in order to do something: take ~s to prevent the spread of influenza; a false ~, a mistaken action. What's the next ~? What must I/we do next? be one step ahead (of sb), have an advantage (over him). 5 place for the foot when going from one level to another: The child was sitting on the bottom ~. 6 grade, rank; promotion: When do you get your next ~ up? When will you be promoted? 7 (pl) (also a pair of ~s) = step-ladder.

'step-ladder, portable folding ladder with steps, not rungs.

step² /stɛp/ vi, vt (-pp-) 1 move the foot, or one foot after the other (forward, or in the direction shown): ~ across a stream; ~ over a puddle; ~ into a boat. 2 (uses with adverbial particles and prepositions):

step aside, (a) move to one side. (b) (fig) let another person take one's place.

step down, (fig) resign (to make way for another person).

step in, (fig) intervene (either to help or to obstruct).

step sth up, increase: ~ up production; ~ up the campaign, put more effort into it.

'step-ping-stone, (a) stones in a shallow stream, so that it can be crossed without getting wet. (b) (fig) means of getting something: a first ~ping-stone to success.

step- /stɛp/ prefix (used to show a relationship not by blood but by a later marriage):

'step-child/-son/-daughter, child of an earlier marriage of one's wife or husband.

'step-brother/-sister, child of an earlier marriage of one's stepfather or stepmother.

'step-father/-mother, one's parent's later husband, wife.

stereo /ˈstɛrɪoʊ/ n (pl ~s) 1 [U] (abbr of stereophonic: in ~, with stereophonic sound.

2 [C] stereophonic record-player.

stereo-phon-ic /ˌstɛrɪoˈfɒnɪk/ adj 1 (of broadcast and recorded sound, using two separately placed loudspeakers) giving the effect of naturally distributed sound: a ~ recording. 2 (of apparatus) designed for recording or reproducing sound in this way.

stereo-type /ˈstɛrɪotaɪp/ n [C] (esp) fixed phrase, idea, belief. □ vt (of phrases, ideas, etc) used and repeated without change: ~ d greetings, eg 'Good morning', 'How d'you do?'

ster-ile /ˈstɛrɪəl/ US: 'sterɪl/adj 1 not producing, not able to produce, seeds or offspring. 2 (of land) barren. 3 (fig) having no result; producing nothing: a ~ discussion. 4 free from living germs.

ster-il-ity /ˈstɛrɪləti/ n [U] being sterile.

ster-il-ization (also -isation) /ˌstɛrɪˈlaɪzɪʃn/ US: -lɪz-/n [U] ster-il-ize (also -ise) /ˈstɛrɪlaɪz/ vt make sterile.

ster-ling /ˈstɛrlɪŋ/ adj 1 (of gold and silver) of standard value and purity. 2 (fig) of solid worth; genuine: ~ qualities. □ n [U] British money: payable in ~.

stern¹ /stɜːn/ adj (-er, -est) 1 demanding and enforcing obedience: a ~ teacher. 2 severe; strict: a ~ face/look.

stern-ly adv

stern-ness n [U]

stern² /stɜːn/ n [C] rear end of a ship or boat.

ster-num /ˈstɜːnəm/ n [C] (pl ~s) (anat) narrow bone in the front of the chest (also called 'breast-bone) connecting the collar-bone and the top seven pairs of ribs.

stetho-scope /ˈstɛθəskəʊp/ n [C] instrument for listening to the beating of the heart, sounds of breathing, etc.

stet-son /ˈstɛtsn/ n [C] man's hat with a high crown and a wide brim.

steve-dore /ˈstɪvədɔː(r)/ n [C] man whose work is loading and unloading ships.

stew /stjuː/ US: stuː/ vt, vi cook, be cooked, in water or juice, slowly in a closed dish, pan, etc: ~ ed chicken/fruit. let a person stew in his own juice, do nothing to help him (when he is in trouble for which he is himself responsible). □ n 1 [C, U] (dish of) stewed meat, etc: lamb ~. 2 be in/get into/a stew (about sth), (informal) a nervous, excited condition.

steward /'stjuəd/ US: 'stur-/ n [C] 1 man who attends to the needs of passengers in a ship or airliner. 2 man responsible for organizing details of a race-meeting, public meeting, show, etc: The hecklers were thrown out by the ~s. 3 = shop steward.

steward-ess /'stju:ədis/ n [C] woman steward(1).

stick¹ /stɪk/ n [C] 1 thin branch broken, cut or fallen, from a bush, tree, etc. 2 such a branch cut to a convenient length, piece of cane cut, shaped, etc for a special purpose: The old man cannot walk without a ('walking-~). We have only a few ~s of furniture, furniture of the simplest kind. ⇨ hockey stick. have/get hold of the wrong end of the stick, be confused; misunderstand things completely. ⇨ also cleave(2). 3 slender piece (of chalk, sealing-wax, celery, etc).

stick² /stɪk/ vt,vi (pt,pp stuck /stʌk/) (For special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions, ⇨ 7 below.) 1 push (something pointed) (into, through, etc): ~ a fork into a potato. 2 (of something pointed) be, remain, in a position by the point: The needle stuck in my finger. 3 (cause to) be or become joined or fastened with, or as with, paste, glue or other substance: ~ a stamp on a letter. be/get stuck with (sb/sth), (sl) permanently involved with; unable to escape from: It looks as if I'm stuck with the job of clearing up this mess. ⇨ throat(2). 4 (informal) put (in some position or place), esp quickly or carelessly: He stuck his pen behind his ear/his hands in his pockets/the papers in a drawer. 5 be or become fixed; fail to work properly: The key stuck in the lock, could not be turned or taken out. 6 (informal) put up with; bear: I can't ~ it any longer. ⇨ stick it out.

7 (special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions):

stick around, (informal) stay in or near a place: S~ around; we may need you.

stick at sth, (a) stop short of, hesitate at: He ~s at nothing, allows no feelings of doubt, etc to stop him. (b) keep on with: He ~s at his work ten hours a day.

stick sth down, (a) (informal) put down: stick it down anywhere you like. (b) (informal) write down. (c) fasten with paste, etc: ~ down (the flap of) an envelope.

stick sth on, fasten it with paste, etc: ~ on a label.

stick sth out, (cause to) project, stand out: with his chest stuck out; a rude boy ~ing his tongue out at his sister. Don't ~ your head out of the window. stick it out, (informal) put up with hardship, etc until the end. ⇨ 6 above. stick one's neck out, ⇨ neck¹(1). stick out for sth, refuse to give way until one gets (something demanded): They're ~ing out for higher wages. stick out a mile, be extremely obvious.

stick to sb/sth, (a) be faithful to (one's ideals, a friend, etc). (b) remain determined: ~ to a resolution. (c) continue at: ~ to a timetable, do something in the time agreed.

stick together, (informal) (of persons) remain loyal or friendly to one another.

stick up, project upwards (and out of): The branch was ~ing up out of the water. stick sb/sth up, (sl) threaten to shoot in order to rob: ~ up a bank. Hence, 'stick-up n [C]. stick up for sb/oneself/sth, defend, support: ~ up for one's friends.

stick with sb/sth, remain loyal to, continue to support: ~ with a friend/an ideal.

sticker /'stɪkə(r)/ n [C] adhesive label.

stick-ing plas-ter /'stɪkɪŋ plɑ:stə(r)/ US: plæstər/ n [C,U] ⇨ plaster(2).

stick-in-the-mud /stɪk ɪn ðə mʌd/ n [C] conservative, stubborn person.

stick-ler /'stɪklə(r)/ n [C] stickler for, person who insists on the importance of something: He's a ~ for being on time.

sticky /'stɪki/ adj (-ier, -iest) 1 that sticks or tends to stick to anything that touches it: ~ fingers. 2 come to a sticky end, (sl) die in an unpleasant and painful way. 3 (informal) making, likely to make, objections, be unhelpful, etc: be ~ about an overdraft.

stiff /stɪf/ adj (-er, -est) 1 not easily bent or changed in shape: a sheet of ~ cardboard; have a ~ leg/back, not easily bent. keep a stiff upper lip, not complain (when in pain, or trouble, etc). 2 hard to stir, work, move, etc: a ~ paste. 3 hard to do; difficult: a ~ climb/examination. 4 (of manners, behaviour) formal, unfriendly: be ~ with the new neighbours. 5 great in degree: a ~ (= strong) breeze; a ~ (= high) price. □ adv thoroughly: It bored me ~, bored me very much. ⇨ scare. □ n [C] (sl) corpse.

stiff-ly adv

stiff-ness n [U]

stiff-fen /'stɪfn/ vt,vi make or become stiff(1,2) stiff-en-ing /'stɪfnɪŋ/ n [U] material used to stiffen a substance or an object.

stiff-ener /'stɪfnə(r)/, something used to stiffen, eg starch.

stifle /'stɪfl/ vt,vi 1 give or have the feeling that breathing is difficult: They were ~d by the heat. The heat was stifling. 2 suppress; put down; keep back: ~ a yawn.

stigma /'stɪgmə/ n [C] 1 (pl ~s) (fig) mark of shame or disgrace: the ~ of imprisonment. 2 (pl -mata /stɪg'mɑ:tə/) marks resembling those made by the nails on the body of Jesus at His crucifixion. 3 (pl ~s) that part of the pistil of a flower which receives the pollen.

stile /stɑɪl/ n [C] kind of step used to climb over a fence, gate, etc.

still¹ /stɪl/ adj. 1 without movement or sound: Please keep ~ while I take your photograph. 2 (of wines) not sparkling. □ n 1 (poetic) deep silence: in the ~ of the night. 2 [C] one photograph from a motion picture film. □ vt cause to be still or at rest; make calm.

still-ness n [U]

'still-birth, child or foetus dead at birth.

'still-born adj (a) (of a child) dead at birth.

(b) (fig) (of an idea, etc) never acted on.

'still-'life n [U] representation of non-living things (eg fruit, flowers, etc) in painting; [C] (pl ~s) painting of this kind.

still² /stɪl/ adv 1 even to this or that time: He is ~ busy. Will he ~ be here when I get back? In spite of his faults she ~ loved him/loved him ~. Is your brother ~ here, Hasn't he left? (Note: compare Is your brother here yet, Has he arrived?) 2 (used with a comparative) even; yet; in a greater degree: Tom is tall but Mary is ~ taller/taller ~. 3 nevertheless: He has treated you badly; ~, he's your brother and you ought to help him.

still³ /stɪl/ n [C] apparatus for making liquors (brandy, whisky, etc) by distilling.

stilted /stɪltɪd/ adj (of written style, talk, behaviour, etc) stiff and unnatural; too formal.

stilts /stɪltz/ n pl (also a pair of ~s) poles with a support for the foot at some distance from the bottom, used to raise the user (eg a clown) from the ground: walk on ~.

stimu-lant /'stɪmjələnt/ n [C] 1 drink (eg coffee, brandy), drug, etc that increases bodily or mental activity. 2 something that encourages a person (eg praise, hope of gain).

stimu-late /'stɪmjuleɪt/ vt excite; increase; quicken thought or feeling: stimulating him to make greater efforts.

stimu-lat-ing adj

stimu-lus /'stɪmjələs/ n [C] (pl -li /-ləɪ/) something that stimulates: a ~ to make extra efforts.

sting¹ /stɪŋ/ n 1 [C] sharp, often poisonous, pointed organ of some insects (eg bees). 2 hairs projecting from the surface of the leaves of plants (esp ~ing-nettles), which cause pain to the fingers, etc when touched. 3 [C] sharp pain caused by the sting of an insect or plant; wound made by a sting. 4 [C,U] any sharp pain of body or mind: feel the ~ of a whip/of hunger.

sting² /stɪŋ/ vt, vi (pt, pp stung /stʌŋ/) 1 (have the power to) injure with a sting or as with a sting: A bee stung me on the cheek. 2 cause sudden, strong physical or mental pain (to): He was stung by his enemy's insults. 3 (of parts of the body) feel strong pain: His fingers were still ~ing from the caning he had had. 4 (informal) charge (a person) an excessive price: He was stung for £5, had to pay this sum.

stingy /'stɪndʒi/ adj (-ier, -iest) spending, using or giving unwillingly: Don't be so ~ with the sugar!

stin-gily /-əlɪ/ adv

stin-gi-ness n [U]

stink /stʌŋk/ vi, vt (pt stank /stæŋk/ or stunk /stʌŋk/, pp stunk) 1 have a horrid and offensive smell: Her breath stank of garlic. 2 fill a place with a stink: You'll ~ the place out with your cheap cigars! □ n [C] horrid smell. raise/kick up a stink (about sth), (informal) complain angrily and noisily.

stinker, (sl) (a) letter intended to convey strong disapproval. (b) (informal) something difficult: The biology paper (ie in an examination) was a ~er.

stint /stɪnt/ vt, vi restrict (a person) to a small allowance: Don't ~ yourself the food. □ n 1 (usually) without stint, without limit, without sparing any effort. 2 [C] fixed amount (of work): do one's daily ~.

stipple /'stɪpl/ vt draw, paint, with dots.

stipu-late /'stɪpjuleɪt/ vt, vi state as a necessary condition: It was ~ed that the goods should be delivered within three days.

stipu-la-tion /stɪpjʊ'leɪʃn/ n [C] condition: on the stipulation that....

stir¹ /stɜ:(r)/ vi, vt (-rr-) 1 be moving; cause to move: A breeze ~ed the leaves. Nobody was ~ing in the house. Everyone was resting, in bed. not stir a finger, make no effort to help. 2 move a spoon, etc round and round in liquid, etc in order to mix it thoroughly: ~ one's tea. 3 excite: The story ~ed the boy's imagination. □ n (usually sing with a, an) commotion; excitement: The news caused quite a ~ in the village.

stir-ring adj exciting: ~ing tales of adventure.

stir² /stɜ:(r)/ n [C] (sl) prison: in ~ for six months.

stir-rup¹ /'stɪrəp/ US: 'stərəp/ n [C] foot-rest, hanging down from a saddle, for the rider of a horse.

stir-rup² /'stɪrəp/ US: 'stərəp/ n [C] (anat) bone in the ear.

stitch /stɪtʃ/ n 1 [C] (sewing) the passing of a needle and thread in and out of cloth, etc to join or decorate; (knitting) one complete turn of the wool, etc over the needle. 2 the thread, etc seen between two consecutive holes made by a needle; result of a single movement with a knitting-needle, etc: drop a ~, allow a loop to slip off the end of a knitting-needle; put ~es into/take ~es out of a wound. A stitch in time saves nine, (proverb) A small piece of work done now may save a lot of work later. 3 particular kind of stitch: a 'chain-~. 4 (sing only) sharp pain in the side (as caused sometimes when running). be in stitches, (informal) be laughing. □ vt, vi put stitches in or on.

stoat /stəʊt/ n [C] small, furry animal larger than a rat.

stock¹ /stɒk/ n 1 [C,U] store of goods available for sale, distribution or use, esp goods kept by a trader or shopkeeper. (be) in/out of stock, be available/not available. take stock of, (fig) review (a situation); estimate (a person's abilities, etc). 2 (as an adjective) usually in stock (and therefore usually obtainable): ~ sizes. She's tired of her husband's ~ jokes. 3 [C,U] supply of anything: a good ~ of information; get in ~s of coal and coke for the winter. 4 [U] = livestock. 5 [C,U] money lent to a government in return for interest; shares in the capital of a business company. 6 [U] line of ancestry: a woman of Irish/farming ~. 7 [U] raw material ready for manufacture: ~paper ~. 8 [U] liquid in which bones, etc have been stewed, used for making soup, gravy, etc. 9 [C] base, support, or handle of an instrument, tool, etc: the ~ of a rifle. lock, stock and barrel, (fig) completely. 10 on the stocks, under construction; in preparation. 11 (pl) wooden framework with holes for the feet in which a person who had done something wrong was formerly locked. 12 [C] sort of garden plant with single or double brightly coloured sweet-smelling flowers.

'stock-breeder/-farmer, one who breeds, raises, cattle.

'stock-broker, man who buys and sells stock(5).

'stock-car, railway truck for cattle.

'stockcar racing, racing of ordinary (not racing-) cars.

'stock-cube, cube of dehydrated stock(8).

'stock exchange, place where stocks(5) and shares are bought and sold.

'stock-in-trade, everything needed for a trade or occupation.

'stock market, (business at the) stock exchange.

'stock-pile vi reserve large quantities of materials, weapons, etc.

'stock-pot, pot for stock(8).

'stock-room, for storing stock(1).

'stock-still adv motionless: stand ~ still.

'stock-taking, examining and recording stock(1).

'stock-yard, enclosure for cattle (eg at a market).

stock² /stɒk/ vi supply or equip with stock; have, keep, a stock of: ~ a shop with goods. He is well ~ed with ideas.

stock-ist /-ɪst/, person who stocks (goods) for sale.

stock-ade /stɒk'keɪd/ n [C] wall of upright stakes, built as a defence.

stock-ings /'stɒkɪŋz/ n pl (dated) = tights.

stocky /'stɒki/ adj (-ier, -iest) (of persons, animals, plants) short, strong and fat.

stock-ily /-əli/ adv: stockily built.

stodge /stɒdʒ/ n [U] (sl) heavy and solid food.

stodgy /'stɒdʒi/ adj (a) (of food) heavy and solid. (b) (of style) heavy, uninteresting. (c) (of persons) dull.

stoic /'stɔɪk/ n [C] person who has great self-control.

sto-ical /-kl/ adj of, like, a stoic.

sto-ically /-kli/ adv

sto-icism /'stɔɪsɪzəm/ n [U] patient and uncomplaining endurance of suffering, etc.

stoke /stɔʊk/ vt, vi put (coal, etc) on the fire of (an engine, furnace, etc); attend to a furnace: stoking (up) the furnace.

stoker, workman who stokes a furnace, etc.

stole¹ /stəʊl/ n [C] 1 strip of material worn (round the neck with the ends in the front) by priests of some Christian Churches during services. 2 woman's wrap worn over the shoulders.

stole², stolen pl, pp of steal.

stolid /'stɒlɪd/ adj not easily excited.

stom-ach /'stʌmək/ n 1 [C] part of the alimentary canal into which food passes to be digested: work on an empty ~. 2 (formal) = abdomen. 3 [U] appetite. have no stomach for sth, dislike or disapprove of it: have no ~ for bull-fighting. □ vi put up with; accept: How can you ~ the violence in so many films today?

'stomach-ache, pain in the belly.

stomp /stɒmp/ vi stamp, tread, heavily: ~ about the room in anger.

stone /stəʊn/ n 1 [U] (often as an adjective) solid mineral matter which is not metallic; rock (often with a defining word as prefix, as 'sand-~, 'lime-~): a wall made of ~; ~ walls/buildings. have a heart of stone, be unsympathetic, severe. 2 [C] piece of stone: a fall of ~s down a hillside. leave no stone unturned, try every possible means. throw stones at, (fig) attack the character of. within a stone's throw (of), very close (to). ⇨ moss. 3 [C] (also 'precious ~) = jewel. 4 [C] piece of stone of a definite shape, for a special purpose: a 'grave-~; a 'stepping-~; a 'tomb-~. 5 [C] something round and hard like a stone, esp (a) the hard shell and nut or seed of such fruits as the cherry. (b) hail-stone. (c) = gallstone. 6 (not US) (pl unchanged) unit of weight, 14 lb: I weigh 10 stone. □ vi 1 throw stones at: be ~d to death. 2 take the stone(5(a)) out of (fruit): ~d dates.

the 'Stone Age, period when man used weapons and tools made of stone (before the use of metals was known).

'stone-blind /-'cold /-'dead /-'deaf adj completely blind, etc.

'stone-fruit, kind with stones(5).

'stone-mason, man who cuts, prepares and builds with stone.

'stone-wall vi (fig) (in Parliament) obstruct progress by making long speeches, etc.

'stone-ware, pottery made from clay and flint.

'stone-work, masonry; part(s) of a building made of stone.

stoned /stəʊnd/ adj (informal) 1 under the influence of drugs. 2 drunk.

stony /'stəʊni/ adj (-ier, -iest) 1 having many stones: ~ soil/ground; covered with stones: a ~ path/road. 2 hard, cold and unsympathetic: a ~ stare.

'stony-broke, (sl) completely without money.

ston-ily /-əli/ adv in a stony(2) manner.

stood /stʊd/ pt, pp of stand².

stool /stʊl/ n [C] 1 seat without a back or arms, usually for one person: a plano~. fall between two stools, lose an opportunity through hesitating between two courses of action. 2 = footstool. 3 (pl) (medical) solid excrement.

'stool-pigeon, (fig) person acting as a decoy, eg a person used by the police to trap a criminal.

stoop /stʊp/ vi, vt 1 bend the body forwards and downwards: ~ing with old age. 2 (fig) lower oneself morally: He's a man who would ~ to anything, who would not hesitate to act immorally. □ n [C] (usually sing) stooping position of the body.

stop¹ /stɒp/ n [C] 1 stopping or being stopped: The train came to a sudden ~. put a stop to sth, cause it to stop or end: I'll put a ~ to this nonsense. Traffic was brought to a complete ~. 2 place at which buses, trams, etc stop regularly or (re)quest ~ when requested to do so: Where's the nearest 'bus-~? 3 (music) key or lever (eg in a flute) for regulating pitch; in an organ, knob or lever regulating the flow of air to a row of pipes. pull out all the stops, (fig) make a great effort. 4 = full stop.

'stop-cock, valve inserted in a pipe by which the flow of liquid or gas through the pipe can be regulated.

'stop-gap, temporary substitute.

'stop-press, (not US) latest news put in a newspaper that is already on the printing machines.

'stop-watch, watch with a hand that can be started and stopped when desired, used to time events such as races.

stop² /stɒp/ vi, vt (-pp-) 1 put an end to (the movement or progress of a person, thing, activity, etc): ~ a car/a train. 2 prevent: What can ~ our going/~ us from going if we want to go? 3 discontinue (doing something): ~ work. We ~ped talking. stop at nothing, show no mercy or pity. 4 break off; discontinue: The rain has ~ped. It has ~ped raining. 5 halt: Does this train ~ at Rome? stop dead, stop suddenly. 6 fill or close (a hole, opening, etc): ~ a leak in a pipe. 7 cut off; keep back or refuse to give (something normally supplied): ~

(payment of) a cheque, order the bank not to cash it. stop sth out of sth, deduct (a part) from (wages, salary, etc). 8 (informal) stay: ~ at home. Are you ~ping at this hotel? stop off (at/in); stop over, break a journey and stay for a short period: ~ off/over in Paris. Hence, 'stop-over n [C]. stop up (late), stay up, not go to bed, until late.

stop-page /'stɒpɪdʒ/ n [C] 1 obstruction. 2 stopping(7): ~ of leave/pay, (esp in the armed forces, eg as a form of punishment). 3 interruption of work (in a factory, etc as the result of strike action).

stop-per /'stɒpə(r)/ n [C] object which fits into and closes an opening, esp a bottle or pipe.

storage /'stɔːrɪdʒ/ n [U] (space used for, money paid for) the storing of goods: put one's furniture in ~; (as an adjective) ~ tanks.

'storage heater, electric radiator which stores heat.

store /stɔː(r)/ n 1 [C] quantity or supply of something kept for use as needed: have a good ~ of tinned food in the house. 2 [U] in store, (a) kept ready for use; for future use: That's a treat in ~, a pleasure still to come. (b) destined (for); coming to: Who knows what the future has in ~ (for us)? 3 (pl) goods, etc of a particular kind, or for a special purpose: naval and military ~s. 4 [C] = store-house. 5 [C] (chiefly US but ⇨ 6) shop: a 'clothing ~. 6 [C] shop selling many different goods: the big department ~s of London. ⇨ also chain-store. 7 [U] set great/little/no/not much store by, consider of great/little, etc value or importance. □ vi 1 collect and keep for future use: Do squirrels ~ up food for the winter? 2 put (furniture, etc) in a warehouse, etc, for safe keeping. 3 equip, supply: a mind well ~d with facts.

'store-house, place where goods are kept.

'store-room, one in which household supplies are kept.

storey (US = story) /'stɔːri/ n (pl ~s, US = -ies) floor or level in a building.

'storeyed (US = storied) /-'stɔːrɪd/ suffix having the number of storeys shown: a six-~ed building.

stork /stɔːk/ n [C] large, long-legged, usually white, wading-bird.

storm /stɔːm/ n 1 [C] occasion of violent weather conditions: a 'thunder-/rain/dust/sand-~. a storm in a teacup, a lot of excitement about something unimportant. 2 violent outburst of feeling: a ~ of protests/cheering/applause/abuse. 3 ride out a storm, (fig) survive problems, trouble, attack, etc. take by storm, capture by a violent and sudden attack. □ vi, vt 1 use violence and anger; shout angrily. 2 force (a way) into a building, etc; capture (a place) by sudden and violent attack: The men ~ed (their way) into the fort|~ed the fort.

'storm-bound adj unable to continue a journey, unable to go out, because of storms.

'storm-cloud, heavy grey cloud with, or showing the likelihood of, a storm.

'storm-lantern, one made so that the light is well protected from wind.

'storm-proof adj able to resist storms.

'storm-tossed adj damaged or blown about by storms.

'storm-troops, soldiers trained for violent attacks.

stormy adj (-ier, -iest) (a) marked by strong wind, heavy rain, snow or hail: ~y weather; a ~y night. (b) marked by strong feelings of anger, etc: a ~y discussion/meeting.

story¹ /'stɔ:ri/ n [C] (pl -ies) 1 account of past events: stories of ancient Greece. 2 account of imaginary events. 3 (esp by and to children) untrue statement: Don't tell stories, Tom.

'story-book, child's book of stories. a story-book ending, a happy one.

'story-teller, person who tells stories.

story² /'stɔ:ri/ n (US) ⇨ storey.

stout /staut/ adj (-er, -est) 1 strong, thick, not easily broken or worn out: ~ boots for mountain-climbing. 2 determined and brave: a ~ heart. Hence, 'stout-hearted adj courageous. 3 (of a person) fat: She's growing too ~ to walk far. □ n [U] strongest kind of dark beer.

stout-ly adv

stove¹ /stəʊv/ n [C] closed apparatus burning wood, coal, gas, oil or other fuel, used for cooking, etc.

'stove-pipe, pipe for taking away smoke from a stove.

stove² /stəʊv/ ⇨ stove².

stow /stəʊ/ vt pack, esp carefully and closely: ~ cargo in a ship's holds; ~ things away in the attic.

'stow-away, person who hides himself in a ship or aircraft (until after it starts) in order to make a journey without paying.

straddle /'strædl/ vt, vi sit or stand across (something) with the legs on either side: ~ a horse.

strafe /stra:f/ vt (informal) = bombard.

straggle /'strægl/ vi 1 grow, spread, in an irregular or untidy manner: vines straggling over the fences. 2 be (far) behind (a group) while moving forward.

strag-gler, person who straggles (2).

straight¹ /streit/ adj 1 without a bend or curve; extending in one direction only: a ~ line/road; ~ hair, with no curls in it. 2 level (esp horizontal): Put the picture ~. 3 in good order; tidy: put a room ~. put the record straight, give a more accurate account of events, etc. 4 (of a person, his behaviour, etc) honest, frank, upright: give a ~ answer to a question. ⇨ straight² (4). 5 keep a straight face, refrain from smiling or laughing. 6 (of alcoholic drinks) neat, ie without added (soda-)water: Two ~ whiskies, please.

straight fight, (politics) election in which there are only two candidates.

straight play, an ordinary drama (contrasted with a musical, a show, etc.)

straight-ness n [U]

straight² /streit/ adv 1 directly; not in a curve or at an angle: Keep ~ on. Look ~ ahead. Can you shoot ~, aim accurately? 2 by a direct route; without going elsewhere; without delay: Come ~ home. He went ~ to Rome without staying in Paris. straight out, without hesitating: He came ~ out with his criticism of me. come straight to the point, make a clear statement, without hesitating, of what is meant, wanted, etc. 3 'straight a'way, immediately. 4 go straight, (fig) live an honest life (esp after imprisonment). the straight and narrow, honest or moral way of behaving.

straight³ /streit/ n (usually sing with the) condition of being straight; straight part of something, esp the final part of a track or race-course: The two horses were together as they entered the final ~.

straighten /'streɪtn/ vt, vi make or become straight (1,2,3).

straight-for-ward /streit'fɔ:wəd/ adj 1 honest; without avoiding anything: a ~ explanation. 2 easy to understand or do: written in ~ language.

straight-forward-ly adv straight-way /streit'weɪ/ adv = straight away.

strain¹ /streɪn/ n 1 [C,U] condition of being stretched; the force used: The rope broke under the ~. 2 [C,U] something that tests one's powers; severe demand on one's strength, etc: Do you suffer from the ~ of modern life? He has been under (a) severe ~. 3 [U] exhaustion; fatigue: suffering from mental/nervous ~. 4 [C] = sprain. 5 (pl) (poetic) music, song, verse (of the kind shown): the ~s of a violin. 6 [C] manner of speaking or writing: in a cheerful ~. 7 tendency in a person's character: There is a ~ of insanity in the family. 8 breed (of animals, insects, etc); line of descent: ~s of mosquitoes that are resistant to insecticides.

strain² /streɪn/ vt, vi 1 stretch tightly by pulling (at): a dog ~ing at its lead. 2 make the greatest possible use of; use one's strength, etc: ~ every nerve (to do it), do all one can; I had to ~ my eyes to see it, look with great effort. 3 injure or weaken by straining (2): ~ a muscle; ~ one's eyes, by using them too much, or in poor light, etc. Hence, 'eye-strain n [U]. 4 make an intense effort: The wrestlers ~ed and struggled. 5 (fig) force beyond a limit or what is right: ~ the belief of one's listeners, ask too much of it. 6 pass (liquid) through a cloth, or a network of fine wire, etc; separate solid matter in this way: ~ the soup; ~ off the water from the vegetables. 8 (pp) (esp of feelings and behaviour) unnatural; (as if) forced: a ~ed laugh; ~ed relations, showing loss of patience, risk of quarrelling.

strainer, sieve or other device for straining (6) liquid: a ~tea-er.

strait /streɪt/ n [C] 1 narrow passage of water connecting two seas or two large bodies of water: the S~s of Gibraltar; the Magellan S~. 2 (usually pl) trouble; difficulty: We seem to be in financial ~s.

strait-jacket /'streɪt dʒækɪt/ n [C] jacket with long sleeves tied round a mentally ill or violent person to prevent movement. □ vt 1 use a straight-jacket on. 2 (fig) prevent growth or development.

strait-laced /streɪt 'leɪsd/ adj strict, conservative, serious.

strand¹ /strænd/ n [C] (poetic) sandy shore. □ vi, vt 1 (of a ship) (cause to) run aground. 2 be (left) stranded, (fig) (of a person) be left without means of transport, without money or friends, etc: be ~ed in a foreign country.

strand² /strænd/ n [C] 1 any of the threads, hairs, wires, etc twisted together into a rope, cable or cloth. 2 hair. 3 (fig) line of development (in a story, etc).

strange /streɪndʒ/ adj (-r, -st) 1 not previously known, seen, felt or heard of; (for this reason) surprising: hear a ~ noise. Truth is ~r than fiction. 2 strange to sth, fresh or new to: The village boy was ~ to city life.

strange-ly adv: behave/act ~ly. S~ly (enough)..., It's hard to believe but...

strange-ness n [U] stranger /'streɪndʒə(r)/ n [C] person one does not know; person in a place where he is not known: My dog always barks at ~s.

strangle /'stræŋgl/ vt kill by squeezing the throat of.

'strangle-hold, (usually fig) tight grip: The new laws have put a ~hold on our imports.

strap /stræp/ n [C] strip of leather, cloth, etc (usually with a buckle) to fasten things together or to keep something (eg a wrist-watch) in place. □ vt (-pp-) 1 fasten or hold in place with a strap: ~ on a wrist-watch. Is the baby ~ped in? 2 hit with a belt.

strata /'strætə/ ⇨ stratum.

stratagem /'strætədʒəm/ n [C,U] (pl ~s) (use of a) trick or device to deceive a person.

strategic /'strætɪdʒɪk/, strategi-cal /-kl/ adj of, by, serving the purpose of, strategy: a ~ retreat.

strategically /-klɪ/ adv

strategics n [U] science, art, of strategy.

strat-egy /'strætɪdʒi/ n 1 [U] the art of planning operations or actions, esp of the movements of armies and navies. 2 [U] skill in organizing and doing something. 3 [C] general plan of action.

strategist, person skilled in strategy.

strat-ify /'strætɪfaɪ/ vt, vi (pt, pp -ied) 1 arrange in strata: stratified rock. 2 form into strata.

stratifi-cation /'strætɪfɪ'keɪʃn/ n [U] strato-sphere /'strætəsfiə(r)/ n [C] layer of atmospheric air between about 10 and 60 km above the earth's surface.

stra-tum /'strætəm/ n [C] (pl -ta /-tə) 1 horizontal layer of rock, etc in the earth's crust. 2 social class or division.

straw /strɔː/ n 1 [U] dry cut stalks of wheat, barley, rice and other grains, as material for making mats, etc or bedding for cattle, etc. 2 [C] single stalk or piece of straw. not worth a straw, worth nothing. the last straw, addition to a bad action, task, burden, etc that makes it intolerable. 3 [C] thin tube of paper or plastic for sucking up liquid: suck lemonade through a ~.

'straw-coloured adj pale yellow.

straw-ber-ry /'strɔːbri/ US: -beri/ n [C] (pl -ies) (plant having) juicy red fruit with tiny yellow seeds on its surface.

stray /streɪ/ vi (pt, pp ~ed) 1 move away (without realizing) (from the right path, from one's friends, etc). 2 (fig) lose one's line of argument, story, etc: Don't ~ from the point. □ n 1 strayed animal or person (esp a child). 2 (used as an adjective) without a home: ~ cats. 3 occasional: a few ~ taxis.

streak /stri:k/ n [C] 1 long, thin, usually irregular line or band: like a ~ of lightning, very fast. 2 trace or touch (of): There's a ~ of cruelty in his character. 3 brief period: The gambler had a ~ of good luck. □ vt, vi 1 mark with streaks: white fur ~ed with brown. 2 (informal) move very fast.

streaky adj (-ier, -iest) marked with, having, streaks: ~ bacon.

stream /stri:m/ n [C] 1 small river or brook. 2 current: go up/down ~, move up/down the river. 2 steady flow (of liquid, persons, things, etc): a ~ of blood/abuse. S~s of people were coming out of the railway station. 3 (division of a) class of children in groups according to ability and intelligence: bright boys and girls in the 'A' ~. □ vi 1 flow freely; move continuously and smoothly in one direction: Sweat was ~ing down his face. 2 float or wave (in the wind): Her long hair was ~ing in the wind. 3 place (children) in streams (3).

'stream-line vt make more efficient (by simplifying, getting rid of, wasteful methods, etc): ~ line production, eg in a factory.

'stream-lined adj (a) having a shape that offers least resistance to the flow of air, water, etc: ~ lined cars. (b) having nothing likely to obstruct progress: ~ lined controls.

streamer, long narrow flag; long narrow ribbon of paper.

street /stri:t/ n [C] town or village road with houses on one side or both: meet a friend in the ~; cross the ~; a ~map-plan of York. (Note: compare a road-map of Yorkshire.) the man in the street, ⇨ man'(1). 'streets ahead of, (informal) far ahead of. streets apart, very different. (not) up my street, (informal) (not) within my area of knowledge, interests, etc.

'street-car, (US) = tram.

strength /strenθ/ n [U] 1 quality of being strong: a man/horse of great ~. She hasn't the ~/hasn't ~ enough to walk upstairs. How is the ~ of alcoholic liquors measured? on the strength of, encouraged by, relying on: I employed the boy on the ~ of your recommendation. 2 that which helps to make a person or thing strong: Mind is our ~. 3 power measured by numbers of persons present or persons who can be used: The police force is 500 below ~, needs 500 more men. be/bring sth up to strength, the required number: We must bring the police force up to ~.

strengthen /'strenθn/ vt, vi make or become strong(er).

strenu-ous /'strenjuəs/ adj using or needing great effort: ~ work; make ~ efforts; lead a ~ life.

strenu-ous-ly adv

stress /stres/ n 1 [U] condition causing depression, mental illness, trouble etc: times of ~, of trouble and danger; under the ~ of poverty/fear. 2 [U] (and with a, an) emphasis: a school that lays ~ on foreign languages. 3 [C,U] (result of) extra force, used in speaking, on a particular word or syllable: S~ and rhythm are important in speaking English. 4 [C,U] (mechanics) force exerted between two bodies that touch, or between two parts of one body. □ vt put stress or emphasis on: He ~ed the point that...

'stress-mark, mark (eg ¹ (primary or main stress) and ₁ (secondary stress) as used in this dictionary) that shows the stress(3) on a syllable.

stretch /stretʃ/ vt, vi 1 make wider, longer or tighter, by pulling; be or become wider, etc when pulled: ~ a rope tight; ~ a rope across a path; ~ out one's arm for a book. stretch one's legs, exercise by walking, eg after sitting. 2 lie on at full length: They were ~ed out on the lawn. 3 make (a word, law, etc) include or cover more than is strictly right: ~ the law/one's principles. ⇨ point'(8). 4 use, strain, fully: ~ one's powers, work very hard or too hard. 5 extend: forests ~ing for hundreds of miles. □ n [C] 1 act of stretching or being stretched: by a ~ of authority. The cat woke and gave a ~. by any/no stretch of the imagination, however much one may try to imagine something. at full stretch, using maximum effort, speed, etc: The factory work- ers were at full ~. ⇨ 4 above. 2 unbroken or continuous period of time or extent of country, etc: a beautiful ~ of land. at a stretch, without stopping: work 12 hours at a ~.

stretcher, (a) framework of poles, canvas, etc for carrying a sick, injured or wounded person. (b) device for stretching things (eg gloves, shoes).

strew /stru:/ vt (pt ~ed, pp ~ed or ~n /stru:n/) scatter (things) over a surface; (partly) cover (a surface) (with things): ~ flowers over a path; ~ a path with flowers.

stricken /'strikn/ adj affected or overcome: ~ with malaria; ~terror-~, very frightened.

strict /'strikt/ adj (-er, -est) 1 demanding obedience or exact observance: a ~ father; be ~ with children. 2 clearly and exactly defined; precisely limited: I told her in ~est confidence; in the ~ sense of the word.

strict-ly adv in a strict manner.

stride /straɪd/ vi, vt (pt strode /straʊd/, pp (rare) stridden /'strɪdn/) 1 walk with long steps: ~ along the road; ~ off/away. 2 pass over in one step: ~ over a ditch. □ n [C] (distance covered in) one long step. get in to one's stride, settle down to the task. make great strides, make good and quick progress. take sth in one's stride, do it without effort.

strife /straɪf/ n [U] state of conflict: industrial ~ (between workers and employers).

strike ¹ /straɪk/ n [C] 1 act of striking(5): a ~ of bus-drivers; (as an adjective) take ~ action. be (out) on strike; come/go out on strike, be engaged in, start, a strike. ⇨ general strike. 2 act of finding (oil, etc) in the earth: a lucky ~, a fortunate discovery.

'strike-bound adj unable to function because of a strike: The port is ~bound.

'strike fund, special fund to supplement strike-pay.

'strike-pay, money paid to strikers from trade-union funds.

strike ² /straɪk/ vt, vi (pt, pp struck /straʊk/) (For special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions, ⇨ 16 below.) 1 hit; aim a blow at: He struck me on the chin. He struck the table with a heavy blow. The ship struck a rock. That tree was struck by lightning. strike at the root of sth, attack trouble, evil, etc at its source. Strike while the iron is 'hot, (proverb) Act promptly while action is likely to get results. within 'striking distance, near enough to reach or attack easily. 2 produce (a light) by striking or scraping: ~ a match. 3 discover (by mining, drilling, etc). strike it rich, win wealth suddenly. ⇨ oil(1). 4 (cause to) sound: The clock has struck (four). strike a note of, give an impression (of the kind shown): The Prime Minister struck a note of warning against over- optimism. strike the right note, (fig) speak in a way that gets approval or sympathy. 5 (of workers, etc) stop working for an employer (in order to get more pay, shorter hours, better conditions, etc or as a protest against something): ~ for higher pay/against bad working conditions. ⇨ strike¹(1). 6 impress; have an effect on the mind: How does the idea/suggestion ~ you? 7 have an effect on the body or mind: The room ~s you as warm when you enter. 8 produce by stamping or punching: ~ a coin/medal. 9 achieve, arrive at, by reckoning or weighing: ~ a balance between freedom and repression. strike a bargain (with sb), reach an agreement. 10 set out, go (in a certain direction): The boys struck out across the fields. 11 cause (a person) to be, suddenly and as if by a single stroke: be struck blind. 12 fill, afflict, with fear, etc: The bombing attack struck fear into their hearts. 13 lower, take down, (sails, tents). strike camp, pack up tents, etc. 14 strike root, put out roots. 15 hold or put the body in a certain way to show something: ~ an attitude of defiance. 16 (special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions):

strike sb down, (a) hit so that he falls to the ground. (b) (fig) kill: He was struck down in the prime of life.

strike sth off, cut off with a blow, eg of an axe. strike sth off (sth), remove: His name was struck off the list.

strike out, (a) use the arms and legs vigorously in swimming: ~ out for the shore. (b) aim wild blows: He lost his temper and struck out. (c) follow a new or independent path, a new form of activity: ~ out on one's own. strike sth out, = cross sth out.

strike (sth) up, begin to play: The band struck up (a tune). strike up sth (with sb), begin (perhaps casually) a friendship or acquaintance: She struck up an acquaintance with him during the flight.

striker /'straɪkə(r)/ n [C] 1 worker who strikes(5). 2 (football) player in an attacking position.

striking /'straɪkɪŋ/ adj 1 attracting attention or great interest. 2 that strikes(4): a ~ clock.

striking-ly adv

string¹ /strɪŋ/ n 1 [C,U] (piece or length of) fine cord for tying things, keeping things in place, etc: a ball of ~; a piece of ~. the first/second string, the first/the alternative person or thing relied on for achieving one's purpose. 2 [C] tightly stretched length of cord, gut or wire, eg in a violin or guitar, for producing musical sounds. 3 [C] (usually pl) string used for causing puppets to move. have/keep sb on a string, have/keep him under control. pull (the) strings, control the actions of other people (as if they were puppets). no strings (attached), (informal) (of help, es of money) without conditions about how the help is to be used. ⇨ heartstrings. 4 [C] series of things threaded on a string: a ~ of beads. 5 repetition of types of things: a ~ of abuses/curses/lies.

the strings, (music) string instruments (in an orchestra).

string bean, kind of bean of which the long pod is used as a vegetable.

string instrument, musical instrument with strings(2), eg the violin, guitar, harp.

string orchestra, having only string instruments.

string quartet, for, with, two violins, a viola and a cello.

stringy adj (-ier, -iest) like string; having tough fibres: ~y meat.

string² /strɪŋ/ vt, vi (pt, pp strung /strʌŋ/) 1 put a string or strings on (a bow, violin, tennis racket, etc). 2 (pp) strung (up), (of a person, his senses, nerves) made tense, ready, excited, etc: He is a very highly strung person, is very sensitive, tense. 3 put (pearls, etc) on a string. 4 tie or hang on a string, etc: ~ (up) lamps across a street.

5 (special uses with adverbial particles or prepositions):

string sb along, deliberately mislead a person into the belief that he/she will benefit, etc: He doesn't intend to marry the girl — he's just ~ing her along. string along with sb, maintain a relationship with a person without genuine commitment.

string out, be, become, spread out at intervals in a line. string sth out, cause this to happen: horses strung out towards the end of a long race.

string sb up, (sl) put him to death by hanging. string sth up, ⇨ 4 above.

stringent /'strɪndʒənt/ adj (formal) (of rules) strict, severe; that must be obeyed: take ~ measures against smoking.

stringent-ly adv

strip /stri:p/ vt, vi (-pp-) 1 take off (coverings, clothes, parts, etc): They ~ped the house of all its furnishings. They ~ped off their clothes and jumped into the lake. strip sth down, (eg of an engine) remove detachable parts (for servicing, etc). 2 deprive of property, etc: ~ a man of his possessions/titles. n 1 [C] 1 long narrow piece (of material, land, etc): a ~ of garden behind the house; a ~ of paper. ⇨ airstrip, comic-strip. 2 (modern informal) clothes worn by players in a team: the colourful ~ of football teams.

strip cartoon, cartoon (often one of a series) made up of a number of drawings.

strip lighting, electric lighting using a tubular lamp.

strip-tease, 'strip-show, cabaret or night club entertainment in which a woman takes off her clothes one by one.

stripe /straɪp/ n [C] 1 long, narrow band on a surface different in colour, material, texture, etc: a tiger's ~s. 2 (often a V-shaped) badge worn on a uniform, showing rank, eg of a soldier: How many ~s are there on the sleeve of a sergeant?

striped /straɪpt/ adj having stripes (1).

stripy adj having stripes: a stripy tie.

strip-per /'stri:p(ə)/ n [C] woman who performs a strip-tease.

strive /straɪv/ vi (pt strove /strəʊv/, pp striven /'strɪvən/) 1 struggle: striving with/against poverty/opposition/the enemy. 2 make great efforts: ~ for power/to win.

strode /strəʊd/ pt of stride.

stroke ¹ /strəʊk/ n [C] 1 (act of striking or dealing a) blow: the ~ of a sword; 20 ~s of the whip. 2 one of a series of regularly repeated movements, esp as a way of swimming or rowing: swimming with a slow ~; the 'breast-/side-/back-~. 3 (in a rowing crew) oarsman nearest the boat's stern (back) who sets the rate of striking the oars. 4 single movement of the upper part of the body and arm(s), esp in games, eg cricket, golf. 5 single effort; result of this: I haven't done a ~ of work today. a stroke of luck, a piece of good fortune. at a/one stroke, with one effort and immediately. 6 (mark made by a) single movement of a pen or brush: cross a name out with one ~ of the pen; thin/thick ~s. 7 sound made by a bell striking the hours: on the ~ of three, at three o'clock. 8 sudden attack of illness in the brain, with loss of feeling, power to move, etc: a paralytic ~. ⇨ also sunstroke.

stroke ² /strəʊk/ vt pass the hand along a surface, usually again and again: ~ a cat/one's beard. □ n [C] act of stroking; stroking movement.

stroll /strəʊl/ n [C] quiet, unhurried walk: have/go for a ~. □ vi go for a stroll.

stroller, person who strolls.

strong /strɒŋ US: strɔ:ŋ/ adj (-er, -est) 1 (opposite of weak) having power to resist; not easily hurt, injured, broken, captured, etc; having great power of body or mind: a ~ stick, not easily broken; a ~ wind; a ~ will/imagination; feel quite ~ again, in good health after an illness; an army 500000 ~, numbering 500000; a ~ candidate, one likely to be well supported, etc; ~ (= deeply held or rooted) beliefs/convictions. as strong as a horse, physically powerful. one's 'strong point, that which one does well. 2 having a large proportion of the flavouring element: ~ tea/coffee. 3 having a considerable effect on the mind or the senses: a ~ smell of gas. 4 (adverbial uses) going strong, (informal) continuing (the race, activity, etc) with energy; continuing in good health: aged 90 and still going ~. 5 (commerce) (of prices) rising steadily:

Prices/Markets are ~.

'strong-arm adj (of methods, tactics, etc) using physical force.

'strong-box, one strongly built for keeping valuables.

strong drink, one containing alcohol, eg rum.

'strong-hold, (a) fort. (b) (fig) place where a cause or idea has a strong support: a ~ hold of Protestantism.

strong language, with swear-words, abuses, etc.

'strong-minded adj having a mind that is capable, determined and energetic.

'strong point, (person's) best skill, aspect of personality, etc.

'strong-room, one built with thick walls (eg in a bank) for storing valuables.

strong verb, (gram) which forms the past tense with a vowel change, eg sing, sang, sung.

'strong-willed adj very determined.

strong-ly adv in a strong manner: I ~ly advise you to go.

strove /strəʊv/ pt of strive.

struck /strʌk/ pt, pp of strike².

struc-tural /'strʌktʃərəl/ adj of a structure, esp the framework: ~ alterations to a building, eg combining two rooms into one.

struc-tur-ally /-rəli/ adv: The building is ~ sound.

struc-ture /'strʌktʃə(r)/ n 1 [U] way in which something is put together, organized, etc: the ~ of the human body; sentence ~. 2 [C] framework or essential parts of a building, etc: The Parthenon was a magnificent marble ~.

struggle /'strʌgl/ vi fight, make great efforts: ~ against difficulties/with the accounts; ~ for power. The thief ~d to get free. □ n [C] struggling; contest: the ~ for freedom.

strum /strʌm/ vi, vt (-mm-) strum (on), play music, (usually on a string instrument) (and esp without great skill): ~ (on) the guitar. □ n [C] sound of strumming.

strung /strʌŋ/ pt, pp of string².

strut ¹ /strʌt/ n [C] piece of wood or metal in a framework to strengthen it.

strut ² /strʌt/ vi (-tt-) walk (about, along, in, out, into a room, etc) in a thoughtful, anxious, angry, etc way. □ n [C] such a way of walking.

strych-nine /'stri:kni:n/ n [U] strong poison.

stub /stab/ n [C] 1 short remaining end of a pencil, cigarette or similar object: a ~ of a tail, a very short one. 2 counterfoil: the ~s of a cheque-book. □ vi (-bb-) 1 ~ one's toe, hit the top of it against something. 2 extinguish (esp a cigarette) by pressing it against something hard: ~ out a cigar.

stubble /'stʌbl/ n [U] 1 stalks of grain plants left in the ground after harvest. 2 something suggesting this, eg a short growth of beard.

stub-bly /'stʌbli/ adj: a stubbly beard.

stub-born /'stʌbn/ adj obstinate; determined: ~ soil, difficult to plough, etc. as stubborn as a mule, ⇨ mule.

stub-born-ly adv

stub-born-ness n [U]

stubby /'stʌbɪ/ adj (-ier, -iest) short and thick: ~ fingers.

stuck /stʌk/ pt, pp of stick².

stuck-up /stʌk 'ʌp/ adj (informal) conceited; snobbish.

stud¹ /stʌd/ n [C] 1 small device put through button-holes to fasten a collar, cuff, etc. 2 reflector ~s, used on roads to mark out lanes (and reflecting light from headlamps at night). □ vt (-dd-) (usually pp) having (something) set in or scattered on the surface: a crown ~ded with jewels; a sea ~ded with islands.

stud² /stʌd/ n [C] number of horses kept by one owner for a special purpose (esp breeding or racing).

'stud-farm, place where horses are bred.

stu-dent /'stju:dənt US: 'stu:-/ n [C] 1 (GB) person who is studying at a college, institute, polytechnic or university: 'medical ~s; foreign ~s studying English in London. 2 (esp US) boy or girl attending school. 3 anyone who studies or who is devoted to learning: a ~ of nature.

stu-dio /'stju:diəʊ US: 'stu:-/ n [C] (pl ~s) 1 workroom of a painter, sculptor, photographer, etc. 2 room(s) where films or plays are acted and photographed. 3 room from which radio or TV programmes are broadcast or in which recordings are made.

'studio couch, couch that can be used as a bed.

stu-di-ous /'stju:diəs US: 'stu:-/ adj (formal) 1 having or showing the habit of learning. 2 very careful: with ~ politeness.

stu-di-ous-ly adv

study¹ /'stʌdi/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U and in pl] devotion of time and thought to getting knowledge of, close examination of, a subject, esp from books: fond of ~. My studies show that... 2 [C] something that attracts investigation; that which is (to be) investigated: social studies. 3 room used for reading, writing, etc: You will find Mr Green in the/his ~. 4 sketch, etc made for practice or experiment. 5 piece of music played as a technical exercise.

study² /'stʌdi/ vt, vi (pt, pp -ied) 1 give time and attention to learning or discovering something: ~ medicine. He was ~ing to be a doctor. 2 examine carefully: ~ the map.

stuff¹ /stʌf/ n 1 [C, U] material or substance of which something is made or which may be used for some purpose: What ~ will you use to fill the cushions? 2 [U] (fig) quality, type: He is not the ~ heroes are made of. 3 [U] material of which the name is uncertain, unknown or unimportant; material of poor quality: Do you call this ~ beer? 4 (sl) Do your stuff, Show what you can do, etc. know one's stuff, be expert in what one claims to be able to do, etc.

stuff² /stʌf/ vt 1 fill tightly with; press tightly into: ~ feathers into a bag; ~ oneself with food, eat too much; a head ~ed with silly ideas. 2 put chopped up and specially flavoured food into (a bird, etc) before cooking it: a ~ed chicken. 3 fill the carcass of (an animal, etc) with material to give it the original shape, eg for exhibition in a museum: a ~ed tiger.

stuff-ing n [U] material for stuffing cushions, birds, etc.

stuffy /'stʌfi/ adj (-ier, -iest) 1 (of a room) badly ventilated. 2 (informal) (of a person) easily shocked or offended; too formal. 3 (of language, etc) dull; formal: a ~ book.

stuff-ily /-əli/ adv

stuffi-ness n [U]

stul-tify /'stʌltɪfaɪ/ vt (pt, pp -ied) (formal) cause to seem foolish or to be useless: ~ efforts to reach agreement.

stumble /'stʌmbəl/ vi 1 hit the foot against something and (almost) fall: ~ over the root of a tree. The child ~d and fell. stumble across/on/upon sth, (fig) find it unexpectedly or by accident. 2 move or walk in an unsteady way: stumbling along. 3 speak in a hesitating way, with pauses and mistakes: ~ over one's words. □ n [C] act of stumbling.

'stum-bling block, something that causes difficulties or prevents progress.

stump /stʌmp/ n [C] 1 part of a tree remaining in the ground when the trunk has fallen or has been cut down. 2 anything remaining after the main part has been cut or broken off or has worn off, eg an amputated limb, the end of a pencil, etc. 3 (cricket) one of the three upright pieces of wood at which the ball is bowled. □ vi, vt 1 walk (along, about, etc) with stiff, heavy movements. 2 (informal) be too difficult for: All the candidates were ~ed by the second question. 3 (cricket) end the innings of (a batsman) by touching the stumps with the ball. 4 (sl) pay or give money required: Mr Green has had to ~ up £50 for his son's debts.

stumpy /'stʌmpi/ adj (-ier, -iest) short and thick: a ~ little man; a ~ umbrella.

stun /stʌn/ vi (-nn-) 1 make unconscious by a blow, esp one on the head. 2 shock; confuse the mind of: He was ~ed by the news of his father's death.

stun-ning adj (informal) splendid: a ~ning performance.

stung /stʌŋ/ pt, pp of sting².

stunk /stʌŋk/ pp of stink.

stunt¹ /stʌnt/ n [C] (informal) something done to attract attention: ~ flying, aerobatics. 'stunt man, person employed to perform stunts (involving risk, etc) for an actor in films, etc.

stunt² /stʌnt/ vt halt or slow down the growth or development of: a ~ed mind.

stu-pefy /'stju:pɪfaɪ US: 'stu:-/ vt (pt, pp -ied) (formal) make clear thought impossible:

stupefied with drink/amazement.

stu-pen-dous /stju:'pendəs/ US: stur-/ adj amazing (in size, degree): a ~ achievement.

stu-pen-dous-ly adv

stu-pid /stju:pid/ US: 'stur-/ adj 1 unintelligent; foolish: Don't be ~ enough to believe that. 2 in a state of stupor: ~ through whisky. 3 n [C] (informal) foolish person: I was only teasing, ~!

stu-pid-ly adv

stu-pid-ity /stju:'pidəti/ US: stur-/ n [C,U] stu-por /stju:pa(r)/ US: 'stur-/ n [C,U] almost unconscious condition caused by shock, drugs, drink, etc: in a drunken ~.

sturdy /stɜ:di/ adj (-ier, -iest) strong and solid: ~ children; offer a ~ resistance.

stur-dily /-əli/ adv: a sturdily built bicycle.

stut-ter /stʌtə(r)/ vi, vt n = stammer.

stutterer, person who stutters.

sty¹ /stai/ n [C] (pl sties) = pigsty.

sty² (also stye) /stai/ n [C] (pl sties, styes) inflamed swelling on the edge of the eyelid.

style /stail/ n 1 [C,U] manner of writing or speaking (contrasted with the subject matter); manner of doing anything, esp when it is characteristic of an artist or of a period of art: written in a delightful ~. What do you know about the ~s of architecture? 2 [U] quality that marks something done or made as superior, fashionable or distinctive: live in (grand) ~, in a fashionable house, with luxuries, etc. Did they live in European ~ when they were in Japan? 3 [C,U] (esp) fashion in dress, etc: the latest ~s in shoes/in hair-dressing. 4 [C] general appearance, form or design; kind or sort: made in all sizes and ~s. 5 [C] right title (to be) used when addressing a person: Has he any right to assume the ~ of Colonel? 6 [C] (botany) part of the seed-producing part of a flower. 7 vi 1 describe by a specified title: Should he be ~d 'Right Honourable'? 2 design: new handbags ~d by Italians.

styl-ish /-ɪʃ/ adj (a) having style (2,3): stylish living. (b) fashionable: stylish clothes.

styl-ish-ly adv: stylishly dressed.

styl-ist /stailɪst/ n [C] 1 person, esp a writer, with a good literary style. 2 person who is concerned with creating styles (3): a hair-~.

styl-is-tic /stai'lɪstɪk/ adj of style (1).

styl-is-tically /-kli/ adv styl-ize (also -ise) /stailaɪz/ vt represent or treat (art forms, etc) in the particular, conventional style.

styl-us /stailəs/ n [C] (pl ~es) part like a needle used to cut grooves in records or to reproduce sound from records.

suave /swa:v/ adj smooth and gracious (often insincerely) in manner.

suave-ly adv

sub /sʌb/ n [C] (informal) (abbr. of) 1 submarine. 2 substitute. 3 subscription.

sub- /sʌb-/ prefix 1 under: subway. 2 seconddary, lower in rank: sub-committee. 3 not quite: sub-tropical; sub-conscious.

sub-com-mit-tee /sʌb kəmɪti/ n [C] committee formed from members of a main committee.

sub-con-sci-ous /sʌb'kɒnʃəs/ adj of those mental activities of which we are not (completely) aware: the ~ self. 2 n the ~, subconscious thoughts, desires, etc.

sub-con-sci-ous-ly adv

sub-con-ti-nent /sʌb'kɒntinənt/ n [C] mass of land large enough to be regarded as a separate continent but forming part of a larger mass.

sub-con-tract /sʌb'kɒntrækt/ n [C] contract which is for carrying out a previous contract or a part of it. 2 vi, vt /sʌb'kɒntrækt/ US: -'kɒntrækt/ give or accept a subcontract.

sub-con-tractor /sʌb'kɒntræktə(r)/ US: -'kɒntrækt-/ n person who accepts a subcontract.

sub-cu-taneous /sʌb'kjʊ:təniəs/ adj under the skin: ~ tissue.

sub-di-vid-e /sʌbdɪ'vaɪd/ vt, vi divide into further divisions.

sub-di-vi-sion /sʌbdɪ'vɪʒn/ n [U] subdividing; [C] something produced by subdividing.

sub-due /sʌb'dju:/ US: -'du:/ vt 1 bring under control: ~ one's hatred. 2 make quieter, softer, gentler: (esp pp) ~d voices/lights.

sub-hu-man /sʌb'hju:mən/ adj more like an animal than a human being.

sub-ject¹ /sʌbdʒɪkt/ adj subject to, 1 owing obedience (to): We are ~ to the law of the land. 2 having a tendency (to): Are you ~ to colds? 3 (adj, adv) conditional(ly) on: The plan is ~ to confirmation.

sub-ject² /sʌbdʒɪkt/ n [C] 1 any member of a State except the supreme ruler: British ~s. 2 something (to be) talked or written about or studied: an interesting ~ of conversation. What ~ are you studying? change the subject, talk about something different. 3 person, animal or thing (to be) treated or dealt with, to be made to undergo or experience something: a ~ for experiment. 4 (gram) word(s) in a sentence which is described, which does, something, etc, eg book in 'The book is green' and they in 'Did they come early?' 5 (music) theme on which a composition is based.

'subject matter, plot, topic, etc of a book or speech (contrasted with style).

sub-ject³ /sʌb'dʒekt/ vt 1 bring, get (a country, nation, person) under control: The Romans ~ed most of Europe to their rule. 2 cause to undergo or experience: ~ a man to torture.

sub-jec-tion /sʌb'dʒekʃn/ n [U] sub-ject-ive /sʌb'dʒektɪv/ adj 1 (opposite of objective) (of ideas, feelings, etc) existing in the mind, not produced by things outside the mind: Did he really see a ghost or was it only a ~ impression? 2 (of art and artists, writing, etc) giving the personal or individual point of view or feeling (opposite to realistic). 3 (gram) of the subject (4).

sub-jec-tive-ly adv

sub-jec-tiv-ity /səb'dʒektɪvəti/ n [U] sub-ju-gate /səb'dʒuːgeɪt/ vt (formal) subdue; conquer.

sub-ju-ga-tion /səb'dʒuːgeɪʃn/ n [U] sub-junc-tive /səb'dʒʌŋktɪv/ adj (gram) expressing a condition, hypothesis, possibility, etc. □ n [C] (gram) the subjunctive mood; form of a verb in this mood.

sub-lease /səb'liːs/ vi, vi lease to another person. □ n [C] lease of this kind.

sub-let /səb'let/ vi, vi (-tt-) rent (a room, house, etc of which one is a tenant) to somebody else.

sub-li-mate /'səblɪmənt/ vt 1 (psychology) direct (emotions, impulses) into higher or more desirable channels. 2 (informally) idealize.

sub-lime /sə'blaɪm/ adj 1 of the greatest and highest sort; causing wonder or reverence: ~ heroism. 2 extreme (as of a person who does not fear the consequences): What ~ indifference! □ n the ~, that which fills one with wonder or reverence.

sub-lime-ly adv

sub-lim-in-al /səb'limɪnəl/ adj of which one is not consciously aware.

sub-mar-in /səbmə'riːn/ US: 'səbməriːn/ adj existing, designed for use, under the surface of the sea: a ~ cable. □ n [C] ship which can operate under water.

sub-merge /səb'mɑːdʒ/ vt, vi 1 put under water; cover with a liquid. 2 sink out of sight; (of a submarine) go down under the surface. 3 (fig) inundate.

sub-merged adj (a) under the surface of the sea, etc: ~ d rocks. (b) (fig) overwhelmed.

sub-mer-gence /səb'mɑːdʒəns/, sub-mer-sion /səb'mɑːʃn/ US: -ʒn/ n [U] submerging or being submerged.

sub-mis-sion /səb'mɪʃn/ n 1 [U] act of submitting; acceptance of another's power or authority: The enemy were starved into ~. 2 [U] obedience; respect: with all due ~. 3 [C, U] (legal) theory, etc submitted to a judge or jury: My ~ is that...

sub-mis-sive /səb'mɪsɪv/ adj yielding to the control or authority of another: Marian is not a ~ wife.

sub-mis-sive-ly adv

sub-mit /səb'mɪt/ vt, vi (-tt-) 1 put (oneself) under the control of another: ~ oneself to discipline. 2 put forward for opinion, discussion, decision, etc: ~ plans/proposals to a committee. 3 (legal) suggest: Counsel ~ted that there was no case against his client. 4 surrender: ~ to separation from one's family.

sub-nor-mal /səb'nɔːml/ adj below normal (esp intelligence).

sub-or-di-nate /sə'bɔːdɪnət/ adj junior in rank or position; less important: in a ~ position. □ n [C] person in a junior position. □ vt /sə'bɔːdɪneɪt/ treat as junior.

subordinate clause, (gram) dependent clause; clause which, introduced by a conjunction, serves as a noun, adj or adv.

sub-scribe /səb'skraɪb/ vi, vt 1 (agree to) pay (a sum of money) with other persons (to a cause, for something): He ~s liberally to charities. 2 agree to take (a newspaper, periodical, etc) regularly. 3 agree with, share (an opinion, view, etc): subscribing to the general view that...

sub-scriber, (a) person who subscribes (esp to funds). (b) person, business, etc paying for having a telephone, receiving a journal, etc.

sub-scrip-tion /səb'skrɪpʃn/ n (a) [U] subscribing or being subscribed: paid for by public subscription. (b) [C] sum of money paid (to charity, for receiving a newspaper, magazine, etc or for membership of a club).

sub-se-quent /'səbsɪkwənt/ adj later; following: ~ events; ~ to this event.

sub-ser-vient /səb'sɜːviənt/ adj 1 giving too much respect to: ~ junior staff. 2 subordinate or subject to.

sub-ser-vient-ly adv

sub-side /səb'saɪd/ vi 1 (of flood water) sink to a lower or to the normal level. 2 (of land) sink, eg because of mining operations. 3 (of buildings) settle lower down in the ground. 4 (of winds, anger, etc) become less strong.

sub-sid-ence /səb'saɪdəns/ n [C, U] act or process of subsidizing (2,3); instance of this.

sub-sidi-ary /səb'sɪdɪəri/ US: -dɪəri/ adj serving as a help or support but not of first importance: a ~ company, controlled by a larger one. □ n [C] (pl -ies) subsidiary company, thing or person.

sub-si-dize (also -ise) /'səbsɪdaɪz/ vt give a subsidy to.

sub-sidy /'səbsɪdɪ/ n [C] (pl -ies) money granted, esp by a government or society, to an industry or other cause needing help, or (eg food subsidies) to keep prices down.

sub-sist /səb'sɪst/ vi (formal) exist; be kept in existence on: ~ on a vegetable diet.

sub-sis-tence /-təns/ n [U] (means of) existing: ~ crops, those grown for consumption (contrasted with 'cash crops, sold for money).

sub-soil /'səbsɔɪl/ n [U] layer of soil that lies immediately beneath the surface layer.

sub-stance /'səbstəns/ n 1 [C, U] (particular kind of) matter: Water, ice and snow are the same ~ in different forms. 2 [U] most important part, chief or real meaning, of something: I agree in ~ with what you say, but differ on some small points. 3 [U] firmness; solidity: This material has some ~, is fairly solid or strong. 4 [U] money; property: a man of ~, eg a property owner.

sub-stan-dard /sʌb'stændəd/ adj below average, expected, standard.
sub-stan-tial /sʌb'stænʃl/ adj 1 solidly or strongly built or made. 2 large; considerable: a ~ meal/improvement/loan. 3 possessing considerable property: a ~ business firm. 4 of the main or most important part(s): We are in ~ agreement. 5 real: Was what you saw something ~ or only a ghost?
sub-stan-tially /-ʃəli/ adv: Your efforts contributed ~ly (= a great deal) to our success.
sub-stan-ti-ate /sʌb'stænʃi'eɪt/ vt give facts to support (a claim, statement, charge, etc).
sub-sti-tute /'sʌbstɪtju:t/ US: -tu:t/ n [C] person or thing taking the place of, acting for or serving for another: S~s for rubber can be made from petroleum. □ vt, vi use, serve, as a substitute: ~ margarine for butter.
sub-sti-tu-tion /sʌbstɪ'tju:ʃn/ US: -tu:-/ n [U] sub-str-a-tum /sʌb'stra:təm/ US: -streɪt-/ n [C] (pl -ta /-tə/) level lying below another: a ~ of rock.
sub-struc-ture /'sʌbsɪstrʌktʃə(r)/ n [C] foundation (the usual word).
sub-sume /sʌb'sju:m/ US: -su:m/ vt (formal) include (an example, etc) under a rule or in a particular class.
sub-ter-fuge /sʌb'tɜ:fju:dʒ/ n [C,U] (formal) trick; [U] trickery.
sub-ter-ranean /sʌb'tɜ:'reɪniən/ adj (formal) = underground.
sub-title /'sʌbaɪtl/ n [C] 1 secondary title (of a book). 2 translation of a film script, printed on the film.
subtle /'sʌtl/ adj 1 difficult to become aware of or describe because fine or delicate: a ~ distinction. 2 clever; complex: a ~ argument. 3 quick and clever at seeing or describing small differences: a ~ observer.
subtlety n [C,U] (pl -ies) sub-tly /'sʌtli/ adv
sub-tract /sʌb'trækt/ vt take (a number, quantity) away from (another number, etc): ~ 6 from 9.
sub-trac-tion /sʌb'trækʃn/ n [C,U] sub-tropi-cal /sʌb'trɒpɪkl/ adj nearly tropical.
sub-urb /'sʌbɜ:b/ n [C] residential district round the outside of a town or city.
sub-ur-ban /sʌb'ɜ:bən/ adj of or in a suburb.
sub-ur-bia /sʌb'ɜ:bɪə/ n [U] (usually derogatory) (kind of life lived by, characteristic outlook of, people in) suburbs.
sub-ver-sion /sʌb'vɜ:ʃn/ US: -ʒn/ n [U] act of subverting.
sub-vers-ive /sʌb'vɜ:sɪv/ adj tending to subvert: ~ literature/speeches/policies.
sub-vert /sʌb'vɜ:t/ vt destroy, overthrow, (religion, a government) by weakening people's trust, confidence, belief.

sub-way /'sʌbweɪ/ n [C] 1 underground passage or tunnel, eg used to get from one side of a street to another. 2 (US) = underground(1).
suc-ceed /sʌk'si:d/ vi, vt 1 do what one is trying to do: ~ in passing an examination. The attack ~ed. 2 come next after and take the place of: Who ~ed Kennedy as President? 3 inherit (a title, position, etc): On George VI's death, Elizabeth II ~ed (to the throne).
suc-cess /sʌk'ses/ n 1 [U] succeeding; the gaining of what is aimed at: meet with ~. 2 [U] prosperity: have great ~ in life. 3 [C] person or thing that succeeds: The plan/play/lecturer was a great ~. make a success (of sth), do it successfully.
suc-cess-ful /-fl/ adj having, gaining, success: ~ful candidates; a ~ful application.
suc-cess-fully /-fəli/ adv suc-ces-sion /sʌk'seɪʃn/ n 1 [U] the coming of one thing after another in time or order: the ~ of the seasons. in succession, one after the other. 2 [C] number of things in succession: a ~ of defeats. 3 [U] (right of) succeeding to a title, the throne, property, etc; person having this right: Who is first in ~ to the throne?
suc-cess-ive /sʌk'sesɪv/ adj coming one after the other in an uninterrupted sequence: Liverpool won eleven ~ games.
suc-cess-ive-ly adv
suc-cess-er /sʌk'sesə(r)/ n [C] person or thing that succeeds another: appoint a ~ to a headmaster.
suc-cinct /sʌk'sɪŋkt/ adj expressed briefly and clearly.
suc-cinct-ly adv
suc-cour (US = -cor) /'sʌkə(r)/ n [U] (literary) help given in time of need. □ vt give such help to.
suc-cu-lent /'sʌkjələnt/ adj 1 (of fruit and meat) juicy; tasting good: a ~ steak. 2 (of stems, leaves) thick and fleshy. □ n [C] succulent plant, eg a cactus.
suc-cumb /sʌk'kʌm/ vi yield (to death, temptation, flattery, etc).
such /sʌtʃ/ adj (Note: there is no comparative or superlative; such can not be placed between a and a noun.) 1 of the same kind or degree (as): I've never heard of ~ a thing! All ~ people are respected; poets ~ as Keats and Shelley; ~ poets as Keats and Shelley; on ~ an occasion/ on an occasion ~ as this. ⇨ as²(10). 2 such as it is, (used to suggest that something is of poor quality, of little value, etc): You can use my bicycle, ~ as it is. 3 such (...) that: His behaviour was ~ that everyone disliked him. S~ was the force of the explosion that all the windows were broken. 4 (Compare the positions of such and so in these examples): Don't be in ~ a hurry, in so much of a hurry, in so great a hurry. I haven't had ~ an enjoyable evening (= so enjoyable an evening) for months. 5 (used in exclamatory sentences): It was ~ a long time ago! We've had ~ a good time! □ pron 1 this, that, these, those (as already stated, etc): S~ were his words. S~ is life! Life is like that. 2 person(s) or thing(s) of the same kind, etc: I may have hurt feelings but ~ (= that) was certainly not my intention. as such, as this kind: He's clever and as ~ should pass the exam.

'such-like adj (informal) people, things, of the same kind: I have no time for pop concerts and ~like.

suck /sʌk/ vt, vi 1 draw (liquid) into the mouth by the use of the lip muscles: ~ the juice from an orange. 2 hold (something) in the mouth and lick, move, squeeze, etc with the tongue: The child still ~s its thumb. 3 suck sth up, absorb: plants that ~ up moisture from the soil. 4 (of a whirlpool, etc) pull in: The canoe was ~ed (down) into the whirlpool. 5 suck up to sb, (informal) flatter them, do things for them, for one's own benefit. □ n [C] act or process of sucking: have/take a ~ at a lollipop.

sucker /sʌkə(r)/ n [C] 1 person who, that which, sucks. 2 organ of some animals so that they can rest on a surface by suction. 3 rubber device, eg a rubber disc, that can be used to fix an object to a surface by suction. 4 unwanted shoot from the roots of a tree, shrub, etc. 5 (informal) person foolish enough to be deceived by salesmen, advertisements, etc.

suckle /sʌkl/ vt feed with milk from the breast or udder.

suc-tion /sʌkʃn/ n [U] 1 action of sucking. 2 removal of air, liquid, etc from a cavity so as to produce a partial vacuum and enable air-pressure from outside to force in liquid or dust: Vacuum-cleaners work by ~. 3 similar process, eg in a rubber disc, a fly's foot, producing a vacuum that causes two surfaces to be held together.

sud-den /sʌdn/ adj happening, coming, done, unexpectedly, quickly, without warning: a ~ shower. □ n (only in) all of a sudden, unexpectedly: All of a ~ she screamed.

sud-den-ly adv

suds /sʌdz/ n pl mass of tiny bubbles on soapy water.

sue /su:/ vt, vi sue for, 1 make a legal claim against: ~ a person for damages. 2 beg (the usual word): suing for mercy.

suede, suède /sweɪd/ n [U] kind of soft leather without a shining surface.

suet /su:ɪt/ n [U] hard fat round the kidneys of sheep and oxen, used in cooking.

suf-fer /sʌfə(r)/ vi, vt 1 suffer (from), feel or have pain, loss, etc: ~ from (= often have) headaches. His business ~ed while he was ill. His business did not do well. 2 experience (something unpleasant): ~ pain/defeat. 3 put up with: How can you ~ such insolence?

suf-ferer, person who suffers.

suf-fer-ing, (a) [U] pain of body or mind. (b) (pl) feelings of pain, unhappiness, etc: a prisoner's ~ings.

suf-fer-ance /sʌfərəns/ n [U] with permission suggested (not given) because there was no objection: He's here on ~.

suf-fice /sə'faɪs/ vi, vt 1 be enough (the more usual words): Will £10 ~ for your needs? 2 meet the needs of: One meal a day won't ~ a growing boy.

suf-fi-ciency /sə'fɪnsi/ n (usually with a) sufficient quantity: a ~ of fuel.

suf-fi-cient /sə'fɪnt/ adj enough: Have we ~ food for ten people?

suf-fi-cient-ly adv

suf-fix /sə'fɪks/ n [C] letter(s), sounds or syllable(s) added at the end of a word to make another word, eg -ly, -ment.

suf-fo-cate /sʌfə'keɪt/ vt, vi 1 cause or have difficulty in breathing: The fumes were suffocating me. 2 kill, choke, by making breathing impossible.

suf-fo-ca-tion /sʌfə'keɪʃn/ n [U] sugar /'ʃʊɡə(r)/ n [U] sweet substance obtained from the juices of various plants, used in cooking and for sweetening drinks. □ vt sweeten or mix with sugar.

'sugar daddy, (informal) rich, elderly man who is generous to a young woman.

sugary adj (a) tasting of sugar. (b) (fig) (of music, etc) too sweet.

sug-gest /sə'dʒest/ US: sɔg'dʒ-/ vt 1 put forward for consideration, as a possibility: I ~ed a visit (~ed going) that we should go to the theatre. 2 bring (an idea, possibility, etc) into the mind: That cloud ~s an old man.

sug-ges-tion /sə'dʒestʃən/ US: sɔg'dʒ-/ n (a) [U] suggesting: at the ~ion of my brother; on your ~ion. (b) [C] idea, plan, etc that is suggested: What a silly ~ion! (c) [C] slight indication: a ~ion of a French accent.

sug-ges-tive /sə'dʒestɪv/ US: sɔg-/ adj (a) tending to bring ideas, etc into the mind: ~ive remarks. (b) tending to suggest (2) something indecent: ~ive jokes.

sug-ges-tive-ly adv

sui-cidal /su:'saɪdl/ adj 1 of suicide. 2 very harmful: ~ economic policies.

sui-cide /su:'saɪd/ n [U] murder of oneself: commit ~; [C] instance of this: three ~s last week; [C] person who does this. 2 [U] action destructive to one's interests or welfare: economic ~, eg adoption of policies that will ruin the country's economy.

suit¹ /su:t/ n [C] 1 set of articles of outer clothing of the same material: a man's ~, jacket (waistcoat) and trousers. 2 (formal) request made to a superior, esp to a ruler: press one's ~. 3 = lawsuit. 4 any of the four sets of cards (spades, hearts, diamonds, clubs) used in many card-games. follow suit, (fig) do what somebody else has done.

'suit-case, portable case with flat sides for clothes, used when travelling.

suit² /su:t/ vt, vi 1 satisfy; meet the needs of; be convenient to or right for: *Does the climate ~ you/your health? Will Thursday ~ (you), be convenient? suit oneself, act according to one's own wishes. 2 (esp of articles of dress, hair styles, etc) look well; be appropriate for: Does this hat ~ me? 3 be suited (to/for), be fitted, have the right qualities: *That man is not ~ed for teaching/to be a teacher.

suit-able /'su:tabl/ adj right for the purpose or occasion: ~ clothes for cold weather.

suit-ably /-əbli/ adv: suitably dressed.

suit-abil-ity /'su:təbɪləti/ n [U] suite /swi:t/ n [C] 1 group of personal attendants of an important person (eg a ruler). 2 complete set of matching articles of furniture: a 'bedroom ~. 3 set of rooms (eg in a hotel): the 'bridal ~. 4 (music) orchestral composition made up of three or more related parts.

suitor /'su:tə(r)/ n [C] 1 person bringing a lawsuit. 2 (dated) man courting a woman.

sulk /sʌlk/ vi be in a bad temper and show this by refusing to talk.

sulky adj (-ier, -iest) unsociable.

sul-len /'sʌlən/ adj 1 silent and angry: ~ looks. 2 dark and gloomy: a ~ sky.

sul-len-ly adv

sul-phur (US = sul-fur) /'sʌlfə(r)/ n [U] light-yellow non-metallic element (symbol S) that burns with a bright flame and a strong smell, used in medicine and industry.

sul-phu-ric (US = sul-fu-) /sʌl'fjuərɪk/ adj: ~ic acid.

sul-tan /'sʌltən/ n [C] Muslim ruler.

sul-tan-ate /'sʌltənət/, position, period of rule of, territory ruled by, a sultan.

sul-tana /sʌl'tɑ:nə/ US: -'tɑ:nə/ n [C] (pl ~s) kind of small seedless raisin used in puddings and cakes.

sul-try /'sʌltri/ adj (-ier, -iest) 1 (of the atmosphere, the weather) hot and oppressive. 2 (of a person's temper) passionate.

sum /sʌm/ n [C] 1 (also sum 'total) total obtained by adding together items, numbers or amounts. 2 problem in arithmetic: *good at ~s. 3 amount of money: save a nice little ~ each week. ⇨ lump¹ (1). ⇨ vt, vi (-mm-) 1 give the total of. 2 express briefly (the chief points of what has been said): *The judge ~med up (the evidence). 3 form a judgement or opinion of: *He ~med up the situation at a glance, realized it at once.

sum-mar-ize (also -ise) /'sʌməraɪz/ vt be or make a summary of.

sum-mary /'sʌməri/ adj (formal) 1 brief; giving the chief points only: a ~ account. 2 done or given without delay or attention to small matters: ~ justice. ⇨ n [C] (pl -ies) brief account giving the chief points.

sum-mer /'sʌmə(r)/ n [C, U] (in countries outside the tropics) the warmest season of the year: in (the) ~; this/next/last ~; (used as an adjective) ~ weather; the ~ holidays.

'summer-house, small building in a park or garden for relaxing in summer.

'sum-mer-time, the season of summer.

'summer time, time as recognized in some countries where clocks are put forward one hour so that darkness falls an hour later.

sum-mery adj like, suitable for, summer: a ~y dress.

sum-mit /'sʌmɪt/ n [C] 1 highest point; top: reach the ~, of a mountain. 2 (fig): the ~ of his power.

'summit talk/meeting, (modern use) at the highest level (ie between heads of States).

sum-mon /'sʌmən/ vt 1 call or send for: ~ a person to appear as a witness, eg in a law court. 2 gather together: ~ up courage.

sum-mons /'sʌmənʒ/ n [C] (pl ~es) 1 order to appear before a judge or magistrate; document with such an order: issue a ~. 2 command to do something or appear somewhere. ⇨ vt serve a summons (1) on.

sump-tu-ous /'sʌmptʃuəs/ adj (formal) looking expensive: ~ clothes.

sun /sʌn/ n 1 the ~, the heavenly body from which the earth gets warmth and light. 2 the ~, light and warmth from the sun: sit in the ~. under the sun, anywhere in the world: *the best wine under the ~. 3 [C] any fixed star with satellites: *There are many ~s larger than ours. ⇨ vt (-nn-) put in, expose (oneself) to, the rays of the sun: The cat was ~ning itself on the path. 'sun-baked adj made hard by the heat of the sun: *~baked fields.

'sun-bathe vi expose one's body to sunlight.

'sun-beam, ray of sunshine.

'sun-burn, (place where there is a) reddening and blistering caused by too much exposure to the sun. Hence, 'sun-burnt adj.

'sun-dial, device that shows the time by the sun producing a shadow on a marked surface.

'sun-down, = sunset (which is more usual).

'sun-drenched adj exposed to great light and heat from the sun: ~drenched 'beaches.

'sun-dried adj (of fruit, etc) dried naturally, by the sun, not by artificial heat.

'sun-fish, large fish almost spherical in shape.

'sun-glasses, with dark-coloured glass to protect the eyes from bright sunshine.

'sun-god, the sun worshipped as a god.

'sun-lamp, lamp that gives out ultra-violet rays used for artificial sunbathing.

'sun-light, the light of the sun.

'sun-lit adj lit by the sun: a ~lit room.

'sun-rise, (time of) the sun's rising.

'sun-set, (time of) the sun's setting.

'sun-shade, shade (like an umbrella) to keep off the sun.

'sun-shine, light of the sun.

'sun-spot, (a) (astronomy) dark patch on the sun. (b) (informal) place that has a sunny climate (eg for holidays).

'sun-stroke, illness caused by too much exposure to the sun, esp on the head.

'sun-tan, browning of the skin from exposure to sunlight: ~tan lotion/oil.

'sun-worship, (informal) fondness for sunbathing.

sun-less adj receiving little or no sunlight.

sunny adj (-ier, -iest) (a) bright with sunlight: a ~ny room. (b) cheerful: a ~ny smile.

Sun-day /'sʌndi/ n the first day of the week. (not in) a month of Sundays. (not for) a long period of time.

sun-dries /'sʌndriːz/ n pl various small items.

sung /sʌŋ/ pp of sing.

sunk /sʌŋk/ pt, pp of sink².

sunken /'sʌŋkən/ pp of sink².

sup /sʌp/ vi, vt (-pp-) (esp Scot and N Eng) drink in small amounts. n [C] small quantity (of liquid).

super /'su:pə(r)/ adj (informal) excellent; splendid.

super- /su:pə(r)-/ prefix 1 above, over: super-impose. 2 superior to: superhuman.

super-an-nu-ation /'su:pə:ænju'eɪʃn/ n [U] pension (the usual word).

su-perb /su:'pɜ:b/ adj magnificent; first class: a ~ meal/swimmer/result.

su-perb-ly adv

super-cili-ous /'su:pə'sɪliəs/ adj (formal) snobbish and indifferent: with his nose high in the air, looking ~.

super-cili-ous-ly adv

super-fi-cial /'su:pə'fiʃl/ adj 1 of or on the surface only: a ~ wound. 2 not thorough or deep: have only a ~ knowledge of a subject.

super-fi-cially /-ʃəli/ adv su-per-flu-ous /su:'psɪfluəs/ adj more than is needed or wanted.

su-per-flu-ous-ly adv

super-hu-man /'su:pə'hju:mən/ adj much greater than ordinary human power, size, knowledge, etc: by a ~ effort.

super-im-pose /'su:pə'ɪm'pəʊz/ vt put (one thing) on top of something else.

super-in-tend /'su:pə'ɪn'tend/ vt, vi watch and direct (work, etc).

super-in-ten-dence /-əns/ n [U] super-in-ten-dent /-ənt/ n [C] (a) person who superintends. (b) police officer above a chief inspector in rank.

su-per-ior /sə'piəriə(r)/ adj 1 better than the average: ~ intelligence; ~ grades of coffee. 2 greater in number: The enemy attacked with ~ forces. 3 superior to, (a) better than. (b) higher in rank or position than. 4 snobbish: a ~ look. n [C] 1 person of higher rank, authority, etc than another, or who is better, etc than another (in doing something): Napoleon had no ~ as a general. 2 (in titles) the Father S~, abbot; the Mother S~, abbess.

su-per-ior-ity /sə'piəri'ɒrəti/ US: -ɪər-/ n [U] state of being superior: the ~ity of one thing to another.

super-la-tive /su:'pɜ:lətv/ adj 1 of the highest degree or quality: a man of ~ wisdom. 2 (gram) the ~ degree, the form of an adjective or adverb expressing the highest degree, eg best, worst, highest, most foolish(ly). n [C] superlative form of an adjective or adverb.

super-mar-ket /'su:pə'mɑ:kɪt/ n [C] large self-service store selling food, household goods, etc.

super-natu-ral /'su:pə'nætʃrəl/ adj spiritual; of that which is not controlled or explained by physical laws: ~ beings, eg angels.

super-sede /'su:pə'si:d/ vt take the place of; put or use a person or thing in the place of: Motorways have ~d ordinary roads for long-distance travel.

super-sonic /'su:pə'sɒnɪk/ adj 1 (of speeds) greater than that of sound. 2 (of aircraft) able to fly at supersonic speed.

super-sti-tion /'su:pə'stɪʃn/ n [C,U] (idea, practice, etc based on) belief in magic, witchcraft, etc.

super-sti-tious /'su:pə'stɪʃəs/ adj of, showing, resulting from, believing in, superstitions: superstitious beliefs/ideas/people.

super-sti-tious-ly adv

super-struc-ture /'su:pə'strʌktʃə(r)/ n [C] structure built on the top of something else.

super-vise /'su:pəvaɪz/ vt, vi watch and direct (work, workers, an organization).

super-vi-sion /'su:pə'vɪʒn/, supervising: under the supervision of, supervised by.

super-vi-sor /-zə(r)/, person who supervises.

sup-per /'sʌpə(r)/ n [C,U] last meal of the day.

sup-plant /sə'plɑ:nt/ US: -plənt/ vt 1 supersede (the usual word). 2 take the place of (a person): The Prime Minister was ~ed by his rival.

sup-ple /'sʌpl/ adj (-r, -st) easily bent; not stiff: the ~ limbs of a child.

sup-ple-ment /'sʌplɪmənt/ n [C] 1 something added later to improve or complete, eg a dictionary. 2 extra and separate addition to a newspaper or other periodical: The Times Literary S~. vt /'sʌpləmənt/ make an addition or additions to: ~ one's ordinary income by writing books.

sup-ple-men-tary /'sʌplɪ'mentəri/ adj additional; extra: ~ estimates, eg for additional expenditure.

supply /sə'plai/ vt (pt, pp -ied) 1 give or provide (something needed or asked for): ~ children with money for books. 2 meet (a need):

Should the government ~ the need for more houses, help to provide them (eg by making loans)? □ n 1 [U] supplying; [C] (pl -ies) that which is supplied; stock or amount of something which is obtainable: Have you a good ~ of clothes for the holiday? in short supply, scarce (the more usual word). 2 (pl) (esp) stores necessary for some public need: The refugees need more medical supplies.

sup-plier, person or firm supplying goods, materials, etc.

sup-port /sə'pɔ:t/ vt 1 bear the weight of; hold up or keep in place: Is this bridge strong enough to ~ heavy lorries? 2 provide a person or thing with what is necessary: ~ a political party, agree with its policies; a hospital ~ed by voluntary contributions; an accusation not ~ed by proofs. 3 provide (money, etc) for: He has a large family to ~. □ n 1 [U] supporting or being supported: I hope to have your ~ in the election. If you decide to oppose the decision, you have my full (= total) ~. Mr X spoke in ~ of the motion. The divorced wife claimed ~ (ie a regular financial contribution) for her children from her ex-husband. 2 [C] person who, that which, supports: Dick is the chief ~ of the family, earns the money for the family.

sup-porter, person who, device which, supports.

sup-pose /sə'pəʊz/ vt 1 let it be thought that; take it as a fact that: Let us ~ (that) the news is true. Everyone is ~d to know the rules. It is assumed that we all know the rules. 2 guess; think: What do you ~ he wanted? 'Will he come?' — 'Yes, I ~ so'/'No, I ~ not'/'No, I don't ~ so'. 3 be supposed to, (a) be expected or required to (by customs, duty, etc): Is he ~d to clean the outside of the windows or only the inside? (b) (informal) (in the negative) not be allowed to: We're not ~d to play football on Sundays.

sup-posing conj if: Supposing it rains, what shall you do?

sup-posed-ly /-ɪdli/ adv according to what is/was supposed (2).

sup-po-si-tion /sə'pɒzɪʃn/ n 1 [U] supposing: This newspaper article is based on ~, on what the writer thinks is true or correct, not on fact. 2 [C] guess: Our ~s were fully confirmed.

sup-posi-tory /sə'pɒzɪtri/ US: -tɔ:ri/ n [C] (pl -ies) medicine (in a container which dissolves) to be put into the rectum or vagina.

sup-press /sə'pres/ vt 1 put an end to the activity or existence of: ~ a rebellion. 2 prevent from being known or seen: ~ the truth/a yawn/one's feelings.

sup-pres-sion /sə'presn/ n [U] sup-pres-sive adj tending to, designed to, suppress: ~ive action by the police.

sup-pres-sor /-sə(r)/, something that suppresses; (esp) a device fitted to electric apparatus to prevent interference with radio and television reception.

su-pre-m-acy /su'preməsi/ n [U] being supreme over; highest authority: His ~ was unchallenged.

su-pre-me /su'pri:m/ adj 1 highest in rank or authority: the S~ Commander; the S~ Court, highest in one of the States of the US or in the whole of the US; the S~ Being, God. 2 most important; greatest: make the ~ sacrifice, die (eg in war).

su-pre-me-ly adv extremely: ~ly happy.

sur-charge /'sɜ:tʃɑ:dʒ/ n [C] 1 payment demanded in addition to the usual charge, eg for a letter with insufficient postage paid on it. 2 excessive or additional load. □ vt 1 overload. 2 demand a surcharge (1) on or in.

sure /ʃʊə(r)/ adj 1 free from doubt; having confidence; knowing and believing; having, seeming to have, good reason for belief: I think he's coming, but I'm not quite ~. You're ~ of (= certain to receive) a welcome. I'm not ~ why he wants it. be/feel sure (about sth), have no doubts (about): I think the answer's right, but I'm not ~ (about it). be sure to, don't fail to: Be ~ to write and give me all the news. make sure (that/of sth), (a) feel sure: I made ~ he would be here. (b) satisfy oneself; do what is necessary in order to feel sure, to get something, etc: I think there's a train at 5 o'clock, but you'd better make ~, eg by looking up trains in a timetable. 2 proved or tested; reliable: a ~ cure for colds. □ adv 1 sure e'nough, as expected: I said it would happen, and ~ enough it did. 2 as sure as, as certain as: as ~ as my name's Bob.

sure-ly /'ʃʊəli/ adv 1 with certainty: He was working slowly but ~. 2 if experience or probability can be trusted: S~ this wet weather won't last much longer! You didn't want to hurt his feelings, ~!

surety /'ʃʊərti/ US: 'ʃʊərti/ n [C,U] (pl -ies) 1 (something given as a) guarantee. 2 person who makes himself responsible for the conduct or debt(s) of another person: stand ~ for a debtor.

surf /sɜ:f/ n [U] waves breaking in white foam on the seashore, on sand-banks or reefs.

'surf-board, board used for surfing.

surfing, 'surf-riding, sport in which one balances oneself on a long narrow board while being carried along by heavy surf.

sur-face /'sɜ:fɪs/ n [C] 1 the outside of any object, etc; any of the sides of an object: Glass has a smooth ~. A cube has six ~s. 2 top of a liquid: The submarine rose to the ~. 3 outward appearance; what is seen or learnt from a quick view or consideration: His faults are all on the ~. When you get below the ~, you find that he is generous. ⇨ scratch²(1). 4 (as an adjective) of the surface only: ~ impressions, received quickly or casually, with no depth of thought, observation, etc. ⇨ superficial. □ vt, vi 1 give a surface to: ~ a road with tarmac.

2 (of a submarine, skin-diver, etc) (cause to) come to the surface.

'surface mail, sent by land or sea, not air-mail.

sur-feit /'sɜːfɪt/ n [C] (usually with a, an) too much of anything, esp food and drink: have a ~ of curry while in Madras. □ vt (cause to) take too much of anything: be ~ed with pleasure.

surge /sɜːdʒ/ vi move forward, roll on, in or like waves: The floods ~d over the valley. The crowds were surging out of the sports stadium. □ n [C] 1 forward or upward movement: the ~ of the sea. 2 (fig) (of feelings) grow suddenly: a ~ of anger/pity.

sur-geon /'sɜːdʒən/ n [C] doctor who performs medical operations.

sur-gery /'sɜːdʒəri/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] the science and practice of treating injuries and disease by operations: qualified in both ~ and medicine. 2 [C] (GB) doctor's or dentist's room where patients come to consult him: ~ hours, 4pm to 6pm. 3 (also political surgery) (informal) place where constituents can consult a member of Parliament.

sur-gi-cal /'sɜːdʒɪkl/ adj of, by, for, surgery: ~ instruments.

sur-gi-cal-ly /-kli/ adv

sur-ly /'sɜːli/ adj (-ier, -iest) bad-tempered and unfriendly.

sur-mise /sə'maɪz/ vt, vi guess (the usual word). □ n /'sɜːmaɪz/ [C] guess.

sur-mount /sə'maʊnt/ vt 1 overcome (difficulties); get over (obstacles). 2 be sur-mounted by/with, have on or over the top: a spire ~ed by a cross.

sur-mount-able /-əbl/ adj that can be overcome or conquered.

sur-name /'sɜːneɪm/ n [C] person's hereditary family name: Smith is a very common English ~.

sur-pass /sə'pɑːs/ US: -pæs/ vt (formal) do or be better than: ~ him in speed/skill.

sur-pass-ing adj (formal) excellent: of ~ing beauty.

sur-plice /'sɜːplɪs/ n [C] loose-fitting (usually white) gown with wide sleeves worn by (some) priests (over a cassock) during church services.

sur-plus /'sɜːplʌs/ n 1 [C] amount (of money) that remains after needs have been supplied. 2 amount (of anything) in excess of requirements: Brazil had a ~ of coffee last year. 3 (as an adjective) more than what is needed or used: ~ population, for which there is not enough food, employment, etc.

sur-prise /'sɜːpraɪz/ n [C, U] (feeling caused by) something sudden or unexpected: What a horrible/wonderful ~! He looked up in ~. 2 (as an adjective) unexpected; made, done, etc without warning: a ~ visit/attack. □ vt 1 give a feeling of surprise to: She was more ~d than frightened. take sb by surprise, ☞ take 1 (2). 2 experience surprise: We were ~d at the news/~d to hear the news. 3 discover, see, suddenly or without warning: ~ a burglar in a house.

sur-pris-ing adj causing surprise.

sur-pris-ing-ly adv

sur-render /sə'rendə(r)/ vt, vi 1 give up (oneself, a ship, a town, etc) to the enemy, the police, etc): We shall never ~. 2 give up under pressure or from necessity; abandon possession of: We shall never ~ our liberty. 3 give way to (a habit, emotion, influence, etc): He ~ed to despair and committed suicide. □ n [U] surrendering or being surrendered: demand the ~ of all weapons.

sur-rep-titious /sə'rep'tɪʃəs/ adj (formal) (of actions) done secretly.

sur-round /sə'raʊnd/ vt be, go, all round, shut in on all sides: a house ~ed with/by trees. □ n [C] edge, eg of a floor.

sur-round-ing adj which is around about: York and the ~ing countryside.

sur-round-ings n (pl) everything around and about a place; conditions that may affect a person: pleasant ~ings. Animals are not in their natural ~ings at a zoo.

sur-veil-lance /sɜː'veɪləns/ n [U] close watch kept on persons suspected of doing wrong, etc: under police ~.

sur-vey /sə'veɪ/ vt 1 take a general view of: ~ the countryside from the top of a hill. 2 examine the general condition of: The Prime Minister ~ed the international situation. 3 measure and map out the position, size, boundaries, etc of (an area of land, a country, coast, etc): ~ a parish/a railway. 4 examine the condition of (a building, etc): Have the house ~ed before you offer to buy it. □ n /'sɜːveɪ/ [C] 1 general view: make a general ~ of the situation/subject. 2 (map, record of) land-surveying: an aerial ~ of Africa, made by photography from aircraft. sur-vey-ing, the work of surveying (3,4).

sur-veyor /sə'veɪə(r)/, person who surveys (3,4). ☞ quantity surveyor.

sur-vival /sə'vaɪvl/ n [U] state of continuing to live or exist; surviving: the ~ of the fittest, the continuing existence of those animals and plants which are best adapted to their surroundings, etc; (as an adjective) a ~ kit, package of necessities for a person after a disaster, etc (eg at sea).

sur-vive /sə'vaɪv/ vt, vi continue to live or exist; live or exist longer than: ~ an earthquake/shipwreck. The old lady has ~d all her children/is still surviving.

sur-vivor /-və(r)/, person who has survived: Help was sent to the survivors of the air crash.

sus-cep-tible /sə'septəbl/ adj 1 easily influenced by feelings: a ~ nature. 2 easily affected, influenced, by: ~ to pain.

sus-cep-ti-bil-ity /sə'septə'bɪləti/ n (pl -ities)

(a) [U] sensitiveness: ~ to colds. (b) (pl) sensitive points of a person's nature: We must avoid wounding their susceptibilities.

sus-pect /sə'spekt/ vt 1 have an idea or feeling (concerning the possibility or likelihood of something): She has more intelligence than we ~ed. 2 feel doubt about: ~ the truth of an account. 3 have a feeling that a person may be guilty (of): He is ~ed of telling lies. □ n /'səspekt/ [C] person suspected of doing wrong, etc: Are political ~s kept under police observation in your country? □ adj /'səspekt/ of doubtful character: His statements are ~.

sus-pend /sə'spend/ vt 1 hang up (from): lamps ~ed from the ceiling. 2 (of solid particles, in the air or other fluid medium) be or remain in place: dust/smoke ~ed in the air. 3 stop for a time; delay: ~ judgement, postpone giving one. 4 announce that (a person) cannot be allowed to perform his duties, enjoy privileges, etc for a time: ~ a (professional) football player, eg because of breaking the rules.

sus-penders /sə'spendəz/ n pl (also a pair of ~) 1 (GB) elastic band for keeping up a sock or stocking. 2 (US) = braces¹ (3).

sus-pense /sə'spens/ n [U] uncertainty, anxiety (about news, events, decisions, etc): We waited in ~ for the doctor's opinion.

sus-pen-sion /sə'spensjən/ n [U] suspending or being suspended (4): the ~ of a member of Parliament.

sus-pension bridge, bridge hanging on steel cables supported from towers.

sus-pi-cion /sə'spiʃn/ n 1 [C,U] feeling that a person has when he suspects; suspecting or being suspected; feeling that something is wrong: I have a ~ that he may be right. He was arrested on (the) ~ of having stolen the money.

above suspicion, of such good reputation that suspicion is out of the question. under suspicion (of), being considered as possibly guilty (of). 2 (sing with a or an) slight taste or suggestion: There was a ~ of sadness in her voice.

sus-pi-cious /sə'spiʃəs/ adj having, showing or causing suspicion: The excuse is ~ to me. He's a ~ character. There is reason to suspect that he is dishonest, etc.

sus-pi-cious-ly adv: behave ~ly.

sus-tain /sə'steɪn/ vt 1 keep from falling or sinking: Will this light shelf ~ (the weight of) all these books? 2 (enable to) keep up, maintain: ~ing food, that gives strength; ~ an argument/attempt; ~ a note, continue to sing or play the note without stopping; make a ~ed effort. 3 suffer; experience: ~ a defeat/an injury. 4 (legal) give a decision in favour of: The court ~ed his claim.

sus-ten-ance /'səstɪnəns/ n [U] (formal) (nourishing quality of) food or drink: There's more ~ in cocoa than in tea.

swab /swɒb/ n [C] 1 mop or pad for cleaning, eg floors, decks. 2 piece of absorbent material, etc for medical use; specimen taken with a swab: take throat ~s. □ vt (-bb-) clean with a swab: ~ an injury.

swag-ger /'swægə(r)/ vi walk or behave in a self-important or self-satisfied manner. □ n [C] swaggering walk or way of behaving.

swal-low¹ /'swɒləʊ/ n [C] kinds of small bird with a forked tail.

'swallow-dive, type of diving with arms wide apart until entering the water.

'swallow-tailed adj (of butterflies, birds) with a deeply forked tail.

swal-low² /'swɒləʊ/ vt, vi 1 cause or allow to go down the throat: ~ one's food. 2 take in; exhaust; cause to disappear; use up: earnings that were ~ed up by lawyers' bills. 3 (fig): ~ an insult, accept it without complaining. swallow sth whole, believe it without argument, doubt. swallow one's words, express regret for them. □ n [C] act of swallowing; amount swallowed at one time.

swam /swæm/ pt of swim.

swamp /swɒmp/ n [C,U] (area of) soft wet land; marsh. □ vt 1 flood, soak, with water: A big wave ~ed the boat. 2 (fig) overwhelm: We are ~ed with work. They ~ed us with orders.

swampy adj (-ier, -iest) having swamps.

swan /swɒn/ n [C] large, graceful, long-necked (and usually white) water bird. □ vi (-nn-) (informal) move, go in a slow, often aimless manner: I suppose you're ~ning off to Paris for the weekend.

'swan-song, last performance, appearance, work before death of a poet, musician, etc.

swap /swɒp/ vt, vi (-pp-) = swop.

swarm /swɔ:m/ n [C] large number, of insects, birds, etc moving about together: a ~ of ants/locusts/bees. □ vi 1 (of bees) move or go in large numbers round a queen bee for emigration to a new colony. 2 (of places) be crowded: The beaches were ~ing with people. 3 be present in large numbers: The crowds ~ed into the cinemas.

swarthy /'swɔ:ði/ adj having a dark skin.

swat /swɒt/ vt (-tt-) slap with a flat object: ~ a fly. □ n [C] 1 slap of this kind: Give that fly a ~. 2 implement with a handle for swatting (flies, etc): a fly-~.

swathe /sweɪð/ vi wrap: ~d in bandages.

sway /sweɪ/ vi, vt 1 (cause to) move, first to one side and then to the other: The branches of the trees were ~ing in the wind. 2 control or influence; govern the direction of: a speech that ~ed the voters. □ n [U] 1 swaying movement. 2 rule or control: under the ~ of Rome, (in ancient times).

swear /sweə(r)/ vt, vi (pt swore /swɔ:(r)/, pp sworn /swɔ:n/) 1 say solemnly or emphatically: He swore to tell the truth/that he would tell the truth. 2 (cause a person to) take an oath. swear sb in, cause him to take the oath of office. swear sb to secrecy, make him swear to keep a secret. 3 swear by sth, (a) appeal to as a witness or witnesses: ~ by all the gods that... (b) (informal) use and have great confidence in: He ~s by this ointment. 4 make an affirmation after having taken an oath: sworn evidence/statements. 5 use curses and bad language: The captain swore at his crew. 'swear-word, word used in swearing (5).

swearer, person who swears (5).

sweat /swet/ n [U] moisture that is given off by the body through the skin: wipe the ~ off one's brow. 2 (with a, an) condition of a person or animal (esp a horse) when covered with sweat: be in a ~. □ vt, vi give out sweat: The long hot climb made him ~.

'sweat shirt n [C] thick cotton sweater with long sleeves, worn informally.

sweaty adj (-ier, -iest) (making) damp with sweat.

sweater /'swetə(r)/ n [C] knitted jacket or jersey, usually of thick wool.

swede /swid/ n [C, U] kind of turnip.

sweep /swi:p/ n [C] 1 act of sweeping with, or as with, a broom, etc: Give the room a good ~. make a clean sweep of sth, get rid of what is unwanted completely: They made a clean ~ of their old furniture/of the members of the committee. 2 sweeping movement: with one ~ of his arm. 3 space, range, covered by a sweeping movement: The radar has a ~ (= range) of 100 miles. 4 long unbroken stretch, esp curved, on a road, river, coast, etc or of sloping land: a fine ~ of country. 5 steady uninterrupted flow: the ~ of the tide. 6 = chimney-sweep.

'sweep-stake, form of gambling on horse-races, the money paid by those who take part being divided among the winners.

sweep /swi:p/ vt, vi (pt, pp swept /swept/) 1 clear (dust, dirt, etc) away with, or as with, a brush or broom; clean by doing this: ~ the carpets/the floor; ~ up the crumbs; ~ a room clean/clear of dust. 2 clean or move as with a broom: The current swept the logs along. sweep the board, win easily. sweep sb of his feet, □ *foot*¹ (1). 3 pass over or along, esp so as to overcome obstacles: A huge wave swept over the deck. 4 move in a dignified or stately manner: She swept out of the room. 5 extend in an unbroken line, curve or expanse: The coast ~s northwards in a wide curve. 6 pass over (as if) to examine or survey: The searchlights swept the sky. 7 move over lightly and quickly: Her dress swept the ground. 8 make (a bow, curtsy) with a sweeping movement: He swept her a bow.

sweeper, (a) person or thing that sweeps: 'street ~ers. (b) (football) defender who covers the backs, tackling any opponent who passes them.

sweep-ing adj (a) far-reaching; taking in very much: ~ing changes/reforms. (b) a ~ing statement, not correct in detail.

sweet /swi:t/ adj (-er, -est) 1 (opposite of sour) tasting like sugar or honey: It tastes ~, has a sweet taste. have a sweet tooth, like things that taste sweet. 2 fresh and pure: keep a room clean and ~; ~ breath. 3 having a fragrant smell: Don't the roses smell ~! 4 pleasant or attractive: a ~ face; ~ music. Isn't the baby ~! □ n [C] 1 small piece of something sweet (boiled sugar, etc chocolate, etc). 2 dish of sweet food (puddings, tarts, jellies, trifles, etc) as one of the courses of a meal. 3 (dated) (as a form of address) darling: Yes, my ~.

'sweet-bread, pancreas of a calf or lamb used as food.

'sweet corn, maize kernels, boiled and eaten as food.

'sweet-heart, (dated) either of a pair of lovers: David and his ~heart.

'sweet po'tato, tropical climbing plant with thick edible roots, cooked as a vegetable.

'sweet 'tooth, (informal) liking for sweet-tasting things.

sweet-ly adv

sweet-ness n [U]

sweeten /'swi:tn/ vt, vi make or become sweet.

sweet-en-ing /'swi:tniŋ/ n [C, U] that which sweetens food and drink.

swell /swel/ vi, vt (pt ~ed /sweld/, pp swollen /'swəʊlən/) 1 (cause to) become greater in volume, thickness or force: Wood often ~s when wet. His face began to ~, eg from toothache. have/suffer from a swollen head, be conceited. Hence, 'swollen-'headed adj. 2 have, cause to have, a curved surface: The sails ~ed out in the wind. The wind ~ed the sails. □ n [C] 1 gradual increase in the volume of sound: the ~ of an organ. 2 (sing only) slow rise and fall of the sea's surface after a storm: There was a heavy ~ after the storm. □ adj (dated informal) excellent; fashionable.

swell-ing, (esp) swollen place on the body, eg the result of a toothache.

swel-ter /'sweltə(r)/ vi be uncomfortably warm: a ~ing hot day.

swept /swept/ pt, pp of sweep².

swerve /swɜ:v/ vi, vt (cause to) change direction suddenly: The car ~d to avoid knocking the boy down. □ n [C] swerving movement.

swift /swift/ adj (-er, -est) quick; fast; prompt: a ~ revenge.

swift-ly adv

swift-ness n [U]

swift /swift/ n [C] kinds of small bird with long wings, similar to a swallow.

swill /swil/ vt, vi 1 rinse by pouring liquid into, over or through: ~ out a dirty tub. 2 (informal) drink greedily: The students were ~ing beer when they ought to have been working. □ n 1 [C] rinsing: Give the bucket a good ~ out. 2

[U] waste food, mostly liquid, eg as given to pigs.

swim /swɪm/ vi, vt (pt swam /swæm/, pp swum /swʌm/) (-mm-) 1 move the body through water by using arms, legs, fins, the tail, etc: Fishes ~. Let's go ~ing. He swam across the river. 2 cross by swimming: ~ the English Channel; take part in (a race) in this way; compete in this way: ~ a race; ~ two lengths of the pool. 3 be covered (with), overflowing (with), or (as if) floating (in or on): eyes ~ing with tears; meat ~ing in gravy. 4 seem to be moving round and round; have a dizzy feeling: The room swam before his eyes. His head swam. 5 swim with/against the tide/stream, agree, act with/against general opinion. □ n [C] 1 act or period of swimming: have/go for a ~. 2 (sing with the) main current of affairs. be in/out of the swim, be/not be taking part in, aware of, what is going on.

swim-mer, person who swims.

'swim-ming bath/pool, pool for swimming in.

'swim-ming costume, 'swim-suit, one-piece clothing worn by women and girls for swimming. ⇨ bikini.

'swim-ming-trunks n pl shorts worn by boys and men for swimming.

swindle /'swɪndl/ vt, vi cheat; get (money, etc) by cheating: swindling money out of a brother; ~ a child out of his money. □ n [C] piece, act of swindling, eg something sold, etc that is less valuable than it is described to be: This radio is a ~; the sound is bad.

swindler /'swɪndlə(r)/, person who gets money, etc by cheating.

swine /swaɪn/ n [C] 1 (pl unchanged) pig. 2 (sl) disgusting person.

swing /swɪŋ/ vi, vt (pt, pp swung /swʌŋ/) 1 (of something having one end or one side fixed and the other free) move, cause to move, forwards and backwards or in a curve: His arms swung as he walked. The door swung shut/ swung to. 2 turn, cause to turn, in a curve: He swung round (= turned quickly) and faced his accusers. 3 (fig) change (an opinion, etc). ⇨ 4 below. □ n [C] 1 swinging movement: the ~ of the pendulum. 2 strong rhythm. in full swing, active; in full operation. 3 seat held by ropes or chains for swinging on; act, period, of swinging on such a seat. 4 change (in opinion, voting, etc): a ~ to the Tories.

swing voter, person who changes his vote at elections.

swipe /swaɪp/ vt (informal) 1 hit hard: The batsman ~d the ball into the grandstand. 2 steal. □ n [C] swinging blow: have/take a ~ at the ball.

swirl /swɜ:l/ vi, vt (of water, air, etc) (cause to) move or flow at varying speeds, with twists and turns: dust ~ing about the streets. □ n [C] swirling movement: the ~ of the tide.

swish /swɪʃ/ vt, vi 1 move (something) through the air with a hissing or brushing sound; cut (something off) in this way: The horse ~ed its tail. 2 make, move with, a sound like that of something moving through the air: Her long silk dress ~ed as she came in. □ n [C] sound of, like, swishing.

switch /swɪtʃ/ n [C] 1 device for making and breaking a connection at railway points (to allow trains to go from one track to another). 2 device for making and breaking an electric circuit: a 'light-~. 3 thin twig, etc, eg as used for urging a horse on. 4 bunch of false hair. 5 transfer; change: a ~ from Liberal to Labour. □ vt, vi 1 use a switch (2) to turn (electric current) on/off: ~ the light/radio on. 2 move (a train, tram, etc) on to another track: ~ a train into a siding. 3 shift; change: ~ over to a socialist government. 5 use a switch (3). switch off, (fig) stop being interested or involved. switched on, (dated) up-to-date, with-it.

'switch-board, apparatus for operating several telephone connections, eg in an office.

swivel /'swɪvl/ n [C] device used to join two parts (eg a chain and hook) so that one part can turn without turning the other. □ vt, vi (-ll-, US also -l-) turn on or as if on a swivel: He ~led round in his chair.

swob /swɒb/ n, vt (-bb-) = swab.

swollen /'swɒlən/ pp of swell, esp as an adjective: a ~ ankle.

swoon /swu:n/ vi (dated) faint. □ n [C] fainting fit.

swoop /swu:p/ vi come down on with a rush: The eagle ~ed down on the rabbit. □ n [C] swooping movement; sudden attempt to snatch and carry off something.

swop (also swap) /swɒp/ vt, vi (-pp-) (informal) exchange by bargaining: ~ foreign stamps. swop places with sb, exchange seats, jobs, etc. □ n [C] exchange by bargaining.

sword /sɔ:d/ n [C] long steel blade fixed in a hilt, used as a weapon, or worn by army officers, etc as part of a uniform.

'sword-dance, dance over swords put on the ground, or one in which they are waved or clashed.

'sword-fish, large sea-fish with a long upper jaw.

swore, sworn ⇨ swear.

swot /swɒt/ vi (-tt-) swot (up on), study a subject for an examination. □ n [C] person who swots.

swum /swʌm/ pp of swim.

swung /swʌŋ/ pt, pp of swing.

sycamore /'sɪkəmə(r)/ n 1 [C] large tree valued for its wood. 2 [U] its hard wood.

syllabic /sɪləbɪk/ adj of or in syllables.

syllable /'sɪləbl/ n [C] minimum rhythmic unit of spoken or written language. 'Arithmetic is a word of four ~s.

syl-la-bus /ˈsɪləbəs/ n [C] (pl ~es) outline or summary of a course of studies; programme of lessons.

syl-lo-gism /ˈsɪlədʒɪzəm/ n [C] form of reasoning in which a conclusion is reached from two statements, eg: All men must die; I am a man; therefore I must die.

sym-bol /ˈsɪmbəl/ n [C] sign, mark, object, etc looked on as representing something: mathematical ~s, eg \times , \div , $+$, $-$.

sym-bolic /sɪmˈbɒlɪk/ adj of, using, used as, a symbol.

sym-boli-cally /-klɪ/ adv

sym-bol-ize (also -ise) /ˈsɪmbəlaɪz/ vt be a symbol of; make use of a symbol for.

sym-met-try /ˈsɪmətri/ n [U] (beauty resulting from the) exact shape, design, of opposite parts; quality of harmony or balance (in size, design, etc) between parts: mathematical ~.

sym-met-ric /sɪˈmetrɪk/, sym-met-ri-cal /-kl/ adj having symmetry; (of a design) having (usually two) exactly similar parts on either side of a dividing line.

sym-met-ri-cally /-klɪ/ adv

sym-path-etic /sɪmpəˈθetɪk/ adj having or showing, caused by, sympathy: ~ looks/ words/smiles; he/feel ~ to/towards someone.

sym-path-eti-cally /-klɪ/ adv

sym-path-ize (also -ise) /sɪmpəˈθaɪz/ vi feel or express sympathy (2) (with): Tom's parents do not ~ with his ambition to be an actor.

sym-path-izer (also -iser), person who sympathizes, eg one who supports a political party.

sym-pathy /ˈsɪmpəθi/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] (capacity for) sharing the feelings (troubles, pain) of others, feeling pity and tenderness: send her a letter of ~; feel ~ for her. 2 (often pl) beliefs, preferences, etc: My sympathies are with the miners, I agree with them.

sym-phon-ic /sɪmˈfɒnɪk/ adj of, like, a symphony.

sym-pho-ny /ˈsɪmfəni/ n [C] (pl -ies) (music) (long) musical composition in (usually) three or four parts (called movements) for (usually a large) orchestra.

symp-tom /ˈsɪmptəm/ n [C] 1 change in the body's condition that is a sign of illness: ~s of measles. 2 sign of the existence of something: ~s of political discontent.

symp-to-matic /sɪmptəˈmætɪk/ adj serving as a symptom: Headaches may be ~atic of many kinds of trouble.

symp-to-mati-cally /-klɪ/ adv syna-gogue /ˈsɪnəɡɒɡ/ n [C] (building used for an) assembly of Jews for religious teaching and worship.

syn-chron-ize (also -ise) /ˈsɪŋkrənaɪz/ vt, vi (cause to) happen at the same time, agree in time, speeds, etc: ~ the clocks in a building.

syn-chron-iz-a-tion (also -isation) /ˈsɪŋkrənərɪˈzeɪʃn/ US: -nɪˈz-/ n [U] syn-di-cate /ˈsɪndɪkət/ n [C] 1 business association that supplies articles, cartoons, etc to periodicals. 2 combination of commercial firms associated to forward a common interest. □ vt /ˈsɪndɪkeɪt/ publish (articles, strip-cartoons, etc) in several periodicals through a syndicate (1).

syn-drome /ˈsɪndrəʊm/ n [C] 1 (medical) number of symptoms which indicate an illness, etc. 2 similar series of happenings describing a general condition.

synod /ˈsɪnɒd/ n [C] meeting of church officers to discuss and decide questions of policy, government, teaching, etc.

syn-onym /ˈsɪnənɪm/ n [C] word with the same meaning as another in the same language but often with different implications and associations. ⇒ antonym.

syn-ony-mous /sɪˈnɒnɪməs/ adj syn-op-sis /sɪˈnɒpsɪs/ n [C] (pl -opses /-sɪz/) summary or outline (of a book, etc).

syn-op-tic /sɪˈnɒptɪk/ adj syn-tac-tic /sɪnˈtæktɪk/ adj of syntax.

syn-tac-ti-cally /-klɪ/ adv

syn-tax /ˈsɪntæks/ n [U] (linguistics) (grammatical rules for) forming sentences.

syn-thesis /ˈsɪnθəsɪs/ n [C, U] (pl -theses /-sɪz/) combination of separate parts, elements, substances, etc into a whole or into a system; that which results from this process: produce rubber from petroleum by ~.

syn-thetic /sɪnˈθetɪk/ adj syph-ilis /ˈsɪfəlɪs/ n [U] infectious venereal disease.

syphon /ˈsaɪfən/ n = siphon.

syr-inge /sɪˈrɪndʒ/ n [C] kinds of device for drawing in liquid by suction and forcing it out again in a fine stream, used for injecting liquids into the body, etc: a hypodermic ~. □ vt clean, inject liquid into, apply liquid, with a syringe.

syrup /ˈsɪrəp/ US: ˈsərəp/ n [U] thick sweet liquid made from sugar-cane juice or by boiling sugar with water.

sys-tem /ˈsɪstəm/ n [C] 1 group of things or parts working together in a regular relation: the ~ nervous ~; the ~ digestive ~; a ~ railway ~. 2 ordered set of ideas, theories, principles, etc: a ~ of government; a com~puter ~. 3 [U] organization: You mustn't expect good results if you work without ~.

sys-tem-atic /sɪstəˈmætɪk/ adj methodical; based on a system: a ~atic analysis.

sys-tem-ati-cally /-klɪ/ adv

Tt

T, t /ti:/ (p/ T's, t's /ti:z/) the twentieth letter of the alphabet.

T-junction, place where two roads, pipes, wires, etc meet to form a T.

T-shirt, short-sleeved, cotton shirt like a vest, worn informally.

T-square, T-shaped instrument for drawing right angles.

ta /ta:/ int (informal) thank you.

tab /tæb/ n [C] 1 small piece or strip of cloth, etc fixed to clothing, etc as a badge or distinguishing mark or (as a loop) for hanging up a coat, etc. 2 (informal) account. keep tabs on sth/sb, keep under observation.

tab-er-na-cle /'tæbəneɪkl/ n [C] 1 the T~, the portable structure used by the Jews as a sanctuary during their wanderings before they settled in Palestine. 2 place of worship, eg a Baptist Church or Mormon temple.

table /'teɪbl/ n [C] 1 piece of furniture consisting of a flat top with (usually four) supports (called legs): a 'dining~; a 'kitchen~. set the table, ⇨ set²(9). 2 (sing only) people seated at a table: jokes that amused the whole ~. 3 list, orderly arrangement, of facts, information, etc: a ~ of contents, summary of what a book contains; a 'time~. 4 turn the tables on sb, gain a position of superiority after having been defeated or in a position of inferiority. □ vt 1 put (a proposal, etc) forward for discussion: ~ a motion/a Bill. 2 put in the form of a table(3).

table-cloth, one (to be) spread on a table.

table-knife, knife for eating with.

table-mat, one to be placed under a hot dish or plate on a table.

table-spoon, large spoon for serving food from a dish, etc.

table-spoon-ful /-fʊl/, as much as a table-spoon can hold.

table-talk, conversation during a meal.

table tennis, game with bats and a ball, similar to tennis but played on a table.

table-ware, dishes, silver, cutlery, etc used for meals.

tab-let /'tæblɪt/ n [C] 1 flat surface with words cut or written on it, eg one fixed to a wall in memory of a person or thing. 2 number of sheets of writing-paper fastened together along one edge. 3 piece of hard soap. 4 small, shaped piece of compressed medicine: two ~s of aspirin.

tab-loid /'tæblɔɪd/ n [C] newspaper with many pictures, strip cartoons, etc and with its news presented in a form easily understood.

ta-boo /tə'bu:/ US: tæ'bu:/ n 1 [C,U] (among some primitive races) something which religion or custom regards as forbidden, not to be touched, spoken of, etc: That tree is under (a) ~. 2 [C] general agreement not to discuss or do something. □ adj under a taboo: Many derogatory names for people are ~ □ vt forbid, esp on moral or religious grounds.

taboo word, one which convention prohibits, eg swear-words.

tabu-lar /'tæbjʊlə(r)/ adj arranged in tables(3).

tabu-late /'tæbjʊleɪt/ vt arrange (facts, figures, etc) in tables(3).

tabu-la-tion /'tæbjʊ'leɪʃn/ n [U] tacit /'tæsɪt/ adj understood without being put into words: ~ consent/agreement.

tacit-ly adv

taci-turn /'tæsɪtʒn/ adj (formal) (in the habit of) saying very little.

tack /tæk/ n [C] 1 small, flat-headed nail (eg used for securing carpet to a floor). ⇨ thumb-tack. 2 long, loose stitch used in fastening pieces of cloth together loosely or temporarily. 3 sailing-ship's direction as fixed by the direction of the wind and the position of the sails. on the right/wrong tack, (fig) following a wise/unwise course of action. □ vt,vi 1 fasten with tacks(1): ~ down the carpet. 2 fasten with tacks(2): ~ a hem. 3 make a tack(3).

tackle /'tækl/ n 1 [C,U] set of ropes and pulleys for lifting weights, etc. 2 [U] equipment, apparatus, for doing something: 'fishing ~, a rod, line, hooks, etc. 3 [C] act of seizing and bringing down an opponent with the ball (in rugby and American-style football); act of taking the ball from an opponent (in soccer). □ vt,vi 1 deal with, attack (a problem, a piece of work): I don't know how to ~ this problem, how to start on it. tackle sb about/over sth, speak to him frankly (about a problem, etc). 2 seize, eg a thief or a player who, in rugby, has the ball: He ~s fearlessly. 3 get the ball from (in soccer, etc): a fair/unfair ~.

tact /tækt/ n [U] (use of) skill and understanding shown by a person who handles people and situations successfully and without causing offence: show/have great ~.

tact-ful /-fl/ adj having or showing tact.

tact-fully /-fəli/ adv

tact-less adj without tact.

tact-less-ly adv

tac-tic /'tæktɪk/ n [C] 1 means of achieving an aim. 2 (pl) art of placing or moving fighting forces for or during battle. (Note: often used with a sing verb.) 3 (pl) (fig) plan(s) or method(s) for carrying out a policy: These ~s are unlikely to help you.

tac-ti-cal /-kl/ adj of tactics: a ~al error.

tac-ti-cally /-kli/ adv

tac-ti-cian /tæk'tɪʃn/ n [C] expert in tactics.

tac-tile /'tæktail/ US: -tl/ adj of, experienced by, the sense of touch: ~ greetings, eg kissing.

tad-pole /'tædpəʊl/ n [C] form of a frog or toad from the time it leaves the egg to the time when it takes its adult form.

tag /tæg/ n [C] 1 metal or plastic point at the end of a shoelace, string, etc. 2 label (eg for showing prices, addresses) fastened to or stuck into something. 3 any loose or ragged end. 4 [U] game in which one child chases and tries to touch another. □ vt, vi (-gg-) 1 fasten a tag(2) to. 2 tag along/behind/after, follow closely: T~ along with us (= Come with us) if you like.

tail /teɪl/ n [C] 1 long movable part at the end of the body of a bird, some animals, fish or reptiles: Dogs wag their ~s when they are pleased. turn tail, run away. 2 something like a tail in position: the ~ of a kite/aircraft. 3 (pl) side of a coin opposite to that in which there is the head of a monarch, etc. 4 (informal) person employed to follow and watch another person, eg a suspected criminal: put a ~ on him. □ vt, vi 1 tail after sb, follow close behind. 2 tail sb, follow him closely, eg because he is suspected to be a criminal. 3 tail off/away, (a) gradually become smaller in number, size, etc. (b) (of remarks, etc) end in a hesitating or inconclusive way. (c) fall behind or away in a scattered line. 4 tail back, (of a queue, a line of vehicles, etc) extend back a long way.

tail-land, (usually with the) final part: at the ~end of the procession.

tail-gate, door or flap at the back of a motor-vehicle which can be opened for loading and unloading.

tail-light, light at the end of a train, bus or other vehicle.

tail-spin, spiral dive of an aircraft in which the tail makes wider circles than the front.

tail wind, wind blowing in the same direction as the aircraft, ship, etc.

tail-less adj having no tail: a ~less cat.

tailor /'teɪlə(r)/ n [C] maker of coats, suits, etc. □ vt 1 cut out and sew: a well-~ed suit. 2 adapt: ~ed for a particular age-group.

tailor-made adj (a) (esp of a woman's coat and skirt) made by a tailor, with special attention to exact fit. (b) (fig) appropriate, suitable: He seems ~made for the job.

taint /teɪnt/ n [C,U] trace of some bad smell, decay or infection: There was a ~ of insanity in the family. □ vt, vi make or become infected: ~ed meat.

take /teɪk/ vt, vi (pt took /tʊk/, pp taken /'teɪkən/) (For use with a large number of nouns, ⇨ the noun entries, eg account¹(6), care¹(1), chance¹(1), effect¹(1), hint, leave²(3), notice³(3), offence²(2), part¹(4), place¹(1), stock¹(1), task, trouble¹(3), word. For special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions ⇨ 16 below.) 1 get or hold with the hand(s) or any other part of the body, eg the arms, teeth or with an instrument: ~ her hand; ~ a man by the throat; He took her in his arms, embraced her. 2 capture; catch; win (in a contest, etc): ~ a town, in war; ~ 50 prisoners; be ~n prisoner, be caught and be made a prisoner. Her horse took (= was awarded) the first prize. take a fancy to, ⇨ fancy²(3). be taken ill, ⇨ ill¹(1). take sb by surprise/unawares, discover him doing something when he does not know that one sees him, etc. 3 use without permission or by mistake; steal: Who has ~n my bicycle? 4 carry something, go (away) with somebody from a place: ~ letters to the post; ~ a friend home in one's car. T~ her some flowers. 5 get, have; eat or drink; allow oneself: ~ a holiday/a walk/a bath/a quick look round/a deep breath. Do you ~ sugar in your coffee? take a/the chair/a seat, ⇨ chair¹(1), seat¹(1). 6 accept; receive: Will you ~ £450 for the car, let me buy it for this sum? ⇨ takings. I'm not taking any more of your insults, I refuse to listen to them. ⇨ also easy²(2). take it from me; take my word for it, ⇨ word⁴(4). be able to take it; can take it, be able to endure suffering, punishment, attack, etc without showing weakness, without admitting defeat, easily etc. 7 receive and pay for regularly: Which newspapers do you ~? 8 make record of: ~ notes of a lecture; ~ a letter, from dictation; ~ a photograph. 9 need, require: The work took four hours. ⇨ time¹(3). 10 suppose; consider to be: I took you to be an honest man. Do you ~ me for a fool? 11 find out (by inquiry, measurement, etc): The doctor took my temperature. 12 (gram) use: a transitive verb ~s a direct object. 13 be in charge and act: ~ a class, give the class its lesson, etc. 14 be successful: That smallpox injection did not ~. 15 use as transport: I always ~ the bus to work.

16 (special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions):

be taken aback, ⇨ aback.

take after sb, resemble (esp a parent or relation) in features or character: Your daughter does not ~ after you in any way.

take sth apart, separate it (machinery, etc) into its (component) parts.

take away, (a) (maths) minus: 4 ~ away 2 is 2. (b) (of a meal) take out of a restaurant to eat at home. Hence, take-away adj, n: ~away 'meals; Chinese ~aways. take sth/sb away (from sb/sth), remove: Not to be ~n away, eg books from a library. The child was ~n away from the school.

take sth back, (a) withdraw (what one has said) as an admission of error, as an apology, etc: I ~ back what I said. (b) agree to receive back: Shops will not usually ~ back goods after they have been paid for. take sb back (to), cause to think of an earlier period: These stories took him back to his childhood, brought it back to his mind.

take sth down, (a) write down: The reporters took down the speech. (b) lower; get by lifting down from (a shelf, etc): ~ down a book from the top shelf; ~ down a mast. (c) pull down; get into separate parts: ~ down the scaffolding round a building.

take from, ⇨ take away above.

take sth in, (a) receive (work) to be done in one's own house for payment: She earns money by taking in sewing. (b) reduce the size, area, length or width of (clothes, a sail, etc): This dress needs to be ~n in (= made smaller) at the waist. (c) include, eg in one's journey or route: a tour that ~s in six European capitals. (d) understand: They listened to my lecture, but how much did they ~ in? (e) see at once: She took in every detail of her clothes. (f) listen to, watch, with excitement: The children took in the whole spectacle open-mouthed.

take sb in, (a) admit (into one's home) for payment: make a living by taking in guests. (b) deceive: Don't let yourself be ~n in by these politicians.

take off, (a) make a start in jumping. (b) (of an aircraft) leave the ground and rise. Hence, 'take-off n: a smooth ~off. take sth off, (a) remove: ~ off one's hat. (b) withdraw (from service): The 7am express to Bristol will be ~n off next month, will not run.

take sth off (sth), (a) lift and move to another position: T~ your hand off my shoulder. (b) deduct: ~ 50p off the price. take sb off, (a) lead away somewhere: He was ~n off to prison. (b) imitate (for amusement): Alice is clever at taking off her head teacher. Hence, 'take-off n: a good ~off of the Prime Minister. not/never take one's eyes off sth/sb, look at constantly: He never took his eyes off her, looked at her all the time.

take sth on, (a) undertake: ~ on extra work/responsibilities. (b) put on (a quality, appearance): The chameleon can ~ on the colours of its background. take sb on, (a) accept as an opponent: ~ him on at golf. (b) employ: ~ on twenty more workers. (c) (of a train, etc) allow to enter: The bus stopped to ~ on some children.

take sth out, (a) extract; remove: have a tooth ~n out. (b) obtain: ~ out an insurance policy. take sb out, (a) invite and go with a girlfriend, etc on a social outing. (b) lead, go with: ~ the children out for a walk. take it out of sb, leave him weak and exhausted: All that hard work has ~n it out of him. take it out on sb, show one's disappointment, etc by being angry, etc with somebody else: He was angry at losing his job and took it out on his wife.

take sb over, carry from one place to another: Mr White took me over to the island in his launch. take sth over, assume control of; succeed to the management or ownership of (a business, etc): When Mrs Green retired her son took over the business. Hence, 'take-over n [C] change of control of a firm or company, eg after another has made a successful bid to buy its stock: a ~over bid. take over (from sb), accept duties, responsibilities, etc: The new Chancellor took over (ie from his predecessor) yesterday.

take to sth, (a) adopt as a practice or hobby, etc; get into a habit: ~ to gardening when one retires. (b) take refuge in; use as a means of escape: ~ to the woods, go to the woods to avoid capture. take to sth/sb, have a liking for: He will never ~ to cricket. I have really ~n to my mother-in-law.

take sth up, (a) pick up; raise: ~ up one's pen/book/gun. (b) interest oneself in: ~ up photography. (c) continue (something unfinished): Harry took up the tale at the point where John had left off. (d) occupy (time, space): This table ~s up too much space.

take sth up with sb, speak or write to: I will ~ the matter up with the Ministry, eg by asking for information, or by making a protest.

take sth upon oneself, assume responsibility; undertake: You mustn't ~ upon yourself the right to make decisions.

take² /teɪk/ n 1 [C] amount (of money) taken. 2 (filming) scene that has been or is to be photographed. 3 act of taking.

taker /'teɪkə(r)/ n [C] person who, that which, takes: There were no ~s, no one placed a bet.

tak-ing /'teɪkɪŋ/ adj attractive; captivating. □ n (pl) money taken in business; receipts.

tal-cum powder /'tælkəm paʊdə(r)/ n [U] perfumed powder for the skin.

tale /teɪl/ n [C] 1 story: ~s of adventure. 2 report; account. tell tales, tell something about another person, esp something he has done wrong.

tal-ent /'tælənt/ n [C,U] (particular kind of) natural power or ability to do something well: a man of many ~s; have a ~ for music/not much ~ for painting.

tal-ented adj having talent; skilled.

tal-is-man /'tælɪsmən/ n [C] lucky charm.

talk¹ /tɔːk/ n 1 [C,U] conversation; discussion: I've had several ~s with the headmaster about my boy. ⇨ small talk. the talk of the town, something or somebody that everyone is talking about. 2 [C] informal speech: give a ~ on a holiday in Asia.

talk² /tɔːk/ vi, vt 1 say things; speak to give information; discuss something, etc: He was ~ing to (less often with) a friend. What are they ~ing about? Were they ~ing in Spanish or in Portuguese? be/get oneself talked about, be made the subject of gossip. talk down to sb, talk in a way that suggests that the speaker is superior. Talking of... While on the subject of: Talking of travel, have you been to Munich yet? talk sth over, discuss it. talk round sth, discuss a subject without reaching the point or a conclusion. 2 have the power of speech: Can the baby ~ yet? 3 be able to use (a language): ~ English/Spanish. 4 discuss: We ~ed music all evening. 5 express in words: ~ sense/nonsense/treason. talk shop, ⇨ shop(2). ⇨ also neck(1). 6 bring into a certain condition by talking: ~ oneself hoarse, talk until one's throat hurts. talk sb into/out of doing sth, persuade him to do/not to do it: She ~ed her husband into having a holiday in France. 7 (various uses): Don't do anything indiscreet—you know how people ~, gossip. Has the accused man ~ed yet, given information, eg under torture or threats?

'talking point, topic that has caused or will probably cause discussion.

talkative /'tɔ:kətɪv/ adj fond of talking.

talker, (esp with an adjective) person who talks: a good/poor ~er.

tall /tɔ:l/ adj (-er, -est) 1 (of persons) of more than average height: She is ~er than her sister. 2 (of objects such as a tree whose height is greater than its width) higher than the average or than surrounding objects: a ~ block of flats. 2 of a specified height: Tom is six foot ~. 3 a tall order, an unreasonable request; a task difficult to perform. a tall story, excuse, explanation, description, etc that is difficult or impossible to believe.

tall-ish /-ɪʃ/ adj rather tall.

tal-low /'tæləʊ/ n [U] hard (esp animal) fat used for making candles, etc.

tally /'tæli/ □ vi (pt, pp -ied) (of stories, amounts, etc) correspond; agree: The two lists do not ~. Does your total ~ with mine?

talon /'tælən/ n [C] claw of a bird, eg an eagle.

tam-bour-ine /'tæmbə:rɪn/ n [C] small, shallow drum with metal discs in the rim, played by striking with the knuckles and shaking it at the same time.

tame /teɪm/ adj (-er, -est) 1 (of animals) brought under control and/or accustomed to living with human beings; not wild or fierce: a ~ monkey. 2 (of a person) easily controlled or persuaded: Her husband is a ~ little man. 3 dull: The story/film has a ~ ending. □ vt make tame: ~ a lion.

tamer, (usually in compounds) person who tames animals: a lion-~er.

tame-ly adv (of a person) acting, speaking, without courage, strength, etc.

tame-ness n [U] tam-per /'tæmpə(r)/ vi tamper with, interfere with: Someone has been ~ing with the lock.

tam-pon /'tæmpən/ n [C] compact lump of cotton-wool, etc used to plug a hole in the body, eg to stop bleeding.

tan /tæn/ n [C], adj yellowish-brown; brown colour of sunburnt skin: ~ leather shoes/gloves; get a good ~ (on one's skin). □ vt, vi (-nn-) 1 (of an animal's skin) make, be made, into leather. tan sb's hide, (sl) give him a good beating. 2 make or become brown with sunburn: Some people ~ quickly.

tan-ner, workman who tans skins.

tan-ner-y /'tænəri/, place where skins are tanned..

tan-dem /'tændəm/ n [C] bicycle made for two persons to ride on one behind the other, with pedals for both. □ adv (of horses in harness or two persons on a tandem) one behind the other: drive/ride ~.

tang /tæŋ/ n [C] sharp taste or flavour, esp one that is characteristic of something: the salty ~ of the sea air.

tan-gent /'tændʒənt/ n [C] straight line touching a curve. go/fly off at a tangent, (fig) change suddenly from one line of thought, action, etc to another.

tan-ger-ine /'tændʒərɪn/ US: /'tændʒərɪn/ n [C] small, sweet-scented kind of orange.

tan-gible /'tændʒəbl/ adj 1 that can be known by touch. 2 clear and definite: ~ proof.

tan-gibly /-əblɪ/ adv

tangle /'tæŋɡl/ n [C] 1 confused mass (of string, hair, etc): brush the ~s out of a dog's hair. 2 confused state: The traffic was in a frightful ~. □ vt, vi 1 make or become confused, disordered: ~d hair. 2 (informal) be/ become involved in a fight or quarrel: Don't ~ with Peter—he's bigger than you.

tango /'tæŋɡəʊ/ n [C] (pl ~s) (music for a) S American dance with strongly marked rhythm and a variety of steps.

tank /tæŋk/ n [C] 1 (usually large) container for liquid or gas: the 'petrol-~ of a car; an 'oil-~. 2 armoured fighting vehicle with guns, moving on endless belts instead of wheels. □ vi get tanked up, (sl) get drunk (on beer).

tan-ker, (a) ship or aircraft for carrying petroleum. (b) heavy road vehicle with a large cylindrical tank for carrying oil, milk or other liquid.

tank-ard /'tæŋkəd/ n [C] large drinking mug, esp one for beer.

tan-ner, tan-ner-y, ⇨ tan.

tan-ta-lize (also -ise) /'tæntəlaɪz/ vt raise hopes that cannot (yet) be realized; keep just out of reach something that a person desires: a tantalizing smell of food.

tan-ta-mount /'tæntəmaʊnt/ adj tantamount to, equal in effect to: The Queen's request was ~ to a command.

tan-trum /'tæntɾəm/ n [C] (pl ~s) fit of temper or anger: He's in one of his ~s again.

tap /tæp/ n [C] 1 device for controlling the flow of liquid or gas from a pipe, barrel, etc: Turn the ~ on/off. Don't leave the ~s running, ie turn them off. on tap, (fig) available when needed. 2 plug used to close the opening of a cask. □ vt (-pp-) 1 draw out liquid through the tap of a (barrel): ~ (off) cider from a cask. 2 cut (the bark of a tree) and get (the sap, etc): ~ rubber-trees. 3 extract or obtain: ~ a man for information; ~ a telephone/wire/line, listen in without permission to get information, etc.

tap² /tæp/ n [C] 1 quick, light touch or blow: a ~ on the window/at the door. 2 (pl) (US armed forces) last signal of the day (by drum or bugle) for lights to be put out. □ vt, vi (-pp-) give a tap or taps (to): ~ a man on the shoulder. 'tap-dancing, with rhythmical tapping of the foot.

tape /teip/ n [C, U] 1 (piece, length of) narrow strip of material used for tying up parcels, etc or in dressmaking: three metres of linen ~. □ also insulating tape, red tape. 2 length of tape stretched between the winning-posts on a race-track. 3 = magnetic tape. □ vt 1 fasten, tie together, with tape. 2 record (sound) on magnetic tape. 3 have sth/sb taped, (informal) understand it/him thoroughly.

'tape deck, tape recorder (without speakers or amplifiers) as a component in a hi-fi system.

'tape-measure, length of thin, flexible metal or of strengthened cloth, marked for measuring distances, widths, etc.

'tape recorder, apparatus for recording sound on, and playing sound back from, magnetic tape.

'tape-worm, kinds of many-jointed, long, flat worm that lives during its adult stage as a parasite in the intestines of man and other animals.

taper¹ /'teipə(r)/ n [C] length of string with a covering of wax, burnt to give a light.

taper² /'teipə(r)/ vt, vi make or become gradually narrower towards one end: One end ~s/is ~ed off to a point.

tap-es-try /'tæpɪstri/ n [C, U] (pl -ies) (piece of) cloth into which threads of coloured wool are woven by hand to make designs and pictures.

tapi-oca /'tæpi'əukə/ n [U] food (hard, white grains) used to make a milk pudding.

ta-pir /'teipə(r)/ n [C] animal of Central and S America, like a pig but with a long, flexible nose.

tar /tɑ:(r)/ n [U] black substance obtained from coal, etc used to preserve timber (eg in fences and posts), in making roads, etc. □ vt (-rr-) cover with tar. tar and feather sb, put tar on him and then cover him with feathers as a punishment. tarred with the same brush, having the same faults.

'tar-mac, (mixture of tar and gravel, as used for a) road surface.

ta-ran-tula /tə'ræntjələ/ US: -tʃələ/ n [C] large, hairy, poisonous spider of S Europe.

tar-get /'tɑ:ɡɪt/ n [C] 1 something to be aimed at in shooting-practice; any object aimed at. 2 thing, plan, etc against which criticism is directed: This book will be the ~ of bitter criticism. 3 objective (set for savings, production, etc); total which it is desired to reach.

tar-iff /'tærɪf/ n [C] 1 list of fixed charges, esp for meals, rooms, etc at a hotel. 2 list of taxes on goods imported or (less often) exported.

tar-mac /'tɑ:mæk/ n □ tar.

tarn /tɑ:n/ n [C] small mountain lake.

tar-nish /'tɑ:nɪʃ/ vi, vt 1 (esp of metal surfaces) lose, cause the loss of, brightness: Brass ~es easily. 2 (fig) lessen the quality of: His reputation is ~ed. □ n [U] dullness because of loss of polish.

tar-pau-lin /tɑ:'pə:lin/ n [C, U] (sheet or cover of) canvas made waterproof, esp by being tarred.

tar-ra-gon /'tærəɡən/ US: -ɡɒn/ n [U] herb with sharp-tasting leaves.

tarry¹ /'tɑ:rɪ/ adj covered, sticky, with tar.

tarry² /'tærɪ/ vi (literary) stay, remain; be slow in coming, going, appearing.

tart¹ /tɑ:t/ adj 1 acid in taste: a ~ flavour. 2 (fig) bitter: ~ humour.

tart-ly adv

tart² /tɑ:t/ n [C] pastry cooked with fruit or jam on it.

tart³ /tɑ:t/ n [C] (sf) girl or woman of immoral character. □ vi tart sth/sb up, (informal) dress, decorate, (too) brightly.

tar-tan /tɑ:tæn/ n [U] Scottish woollen fabric woven with coloured crossing stripes; [C] this pattern, eg of a Scottish clan.

tar-tar¹ /'tɑ:tə(r)/ n [U] 1 chalk-like substance deposited on the teeth. 2 substance deposited on the sides of casks from fermented wine.

task /tɑ:sk/ US: tæsk/ n [C] piece of (esp hard) work (to be) done: set a boy a ~. take sb to task (about/for sth), scold him: It's wrong of you to take the child to ~ for such a silly offence.

'task-force, specially organized unit (of police, etc) for a special purpose.

'task-master/-mistress, person who decides on work to be done, esp strictly.

tas-sel /tæsl/ n [C] bunch of threads, etc tied together at one end and hanging (from a flag, hat, etc) as an ornament.

tas-sel-led (US = tas-seled) adj having tassels.

taste¹ /teɪst/ n 1 [U] (with the) sense by which flavour is known: sweet/sour to the ~. 2 [C, U] quality of a substance made known by this sense, eg by putting some on the tongue: Sugar has a sweet ~. 3 (usually sing with a, an) small quantity (of something to eat or drink): Won't you have a ~ of this cake/wine? Give him a ~ of the whip, (fig) enough to be a sample of what it feels like to be whipped. 4 [C, U] liking or preference: She has expensive ~s in clothes. There's no accounting for tastes, It is not obvious why different people like different things. 5 [U] ability to enjoy beauty, esp in art and literature; ability to form judgements about these; ability to choose and use the best kind.

taste-ful /-fl/ adj showing good taste (5).

taste-fully /-fəli/ adv in a tasteful manner: ~fully decorated with flowers.

taste-less adj (a) (of food) having no flavour. (b) without taste (5).

taste-less-ly adv

tasty adj (-ier, -iest) having a pleasant flavour.

taste² /teɪst/ vt, vi 1 be aware of the taste of something: Can you ~ anything strange in this soup? 2 have a particular taste or flavour: tasting sour/bitter/sweet. 3 test the taste of: She ~d the soup to see if she had put enough salt in it. 4 experience: ~ happiness/the joys of freedom.

tat /tæt/ n ⇨ tit².

ta ta /tɑː/ int (baby language) goodbye.

tat-ters /tætəz/ n pl pieces of cloth, paper, etc torn off or hanging loosely from something: in ~, torn badly.

tat-too¹ /tæ'tuː/ n [C] (pl ~s) 1 (sing only) beating of drum(s) to call soldiers back to quarters; hour at which this is sounded: beat/sound the ~. 2 [C] continuous tapping: He was beating a ~ on the table with his fingers. 3 [C] public entertainment, with music, marching, etc by soldiers.

tat-too² /tæ'tuː/ vt mark (a person's skin) with permanent designs or patterns by pricking it and putting in dyes or stains: The sailor had a ship ~ed on his arm. n [C] (pl ~s) mark or design of this kind.

tatty /tæti/ adj (-ier, -iest) (sl) untidy and worn.

taught /tɔːt/ pt, pp of teach.

taunt /tɔːnt/ n [C] remark intended to hurt a person's feelings: listen to the ~s of a successful rival. □ vt attack (a person) with taunts: They ~ed the boy with being a coward.

taunting-ly adv

Taurus /tɔːrəs/ n the Bull, second sign of the zodiac.

taut /tɔːt/ adj (of ropes, nerves, etc) tightly stretched: pull a rope ~.

tauto-logi-cal /tɔːtɒlɒdʒɪkl/ adj of, containing, tautology.

taut-ol-ogy /tɔːtɒlɒdʒi/ n [U] the saying of the same thing again in different ways without making one's meaning clearer or more forceful; [C] (pl -ies) instance of this, eg 'a two-wheeled bicycle'.

tav-ern /tævən/ n [C] (old use) pub selling food and drink (to be consumed on the premises).

taw-dry /tɔːdri/ adj (-ier, -iest) brightly coloured or decorated, but cheap or in bad taste: ~ jewellery/dresses.

taw-drily /-əli/ adv

tawny /tɔːni/ adj brownish-yellow.

tax /tæks/ n 1 [C,U] (sum of) money (to be) paid by citizens (according to income, value of purchases, etc) to the government for public purposes: state/local ~es; direct ~es, ie on income; indirect ~es, eg paid when one buys goods. 2 a tax on, (sing only) something that is a burden or strain: a ~ on one's strength/health/patience. □ vt 1 put a tax on; require (a person) to pay a tax: ~ luxuries/incomes/rich and poor alike. 2 be a tax on: ~ a person's patience, eg by asking him many silly questions. 3 tax sb with sth, accuse: ~ her with neglect of/with having neglected her work.

tax-free adj (a) not subject to taxation. (b) (of dividends or interest) on which tax has been deducted before distribution.

tax-collector, official who collects taxes.

tax-payer, person who pays taxes.

tax-able /-əbl/ adj to be taxed: ~able income.

tax-ation /tæks'eɪʃn/ n [U] (system of) raising money by taxes; taxes (to be) paid.

taxi /tæksi/ n [C] (pl ~s) motor-car, esp one with a meter, which may be hired for journeys. □ vi, vt (of an aircraft) (cause to) move on wheels along the ground (or on floats, etc on the surface of the water): The plane ~ed/was ~ing across the tarmac.

taxi-cab, (common abbr cab) = taxi.

taxi-rank, place where taxis wait to be hired.

tea /tiː/ n 1 [U] (dried leaves of an) evergreen shrub of eastern Asia, India, etc; drink made by pouring boiling water on these leaves: a cup of ~; make (the) ~, prepare it. not my cup of tea, (fig) not the sort of thing I like. 2 [C, U] occasion (in the late afternoon) at which tea is drunk: We have ~ at half-past four. ⇨ high tea.

tea bag, small bag with enough tea leaves for one cup of tea.

tea-break, (in an office, factory, etc) short period when work is stopped for tea drinking.

tea-caddy, air-tight box in which to keep a supply of tea for daily use.

tea-chest, large wooden box in which tea is packed for export.

tea-cloth, cloth used for drying cups, etc when they are washed.

tea-cosy, cover for keeping the contents of a teapot warm.

tea-cup, cup in which tea is served. a storm in a teacup, a lot of fuss about something unimportant.

tea-pot, vessel in which tea is made.

tea-room, restaurant which serves tea and light refreshments.

tea-service/-set, set of cups, saucers, plates, with a teapot, milk-jug, etc.

tea-spoon, small spoon for stirring tea.

tea-spoon-ful /-fʊl/, as much as a teaspoon can hold.

'tea-strainer, device for sieving tea.
'tea-things, (informal) things needed for having tea: Please wash up the ~-things.
'tea-time, time at which tea is usually taken in the afternoon.
'tea-tray, one on which a tea-set is used or carried.
teach /tɪ:tʃ/ vt, vi (pt, pp taught /tɔ:t/) give instruction to (a person); cause (a person) to know or be able to do something; give a person (knowledge, skill, etc); give lessons (at school, etc); do this for a living: ~ children; ~ French/history; ~ a child (how) to swim. She is ~ing the piano to children. He ~es for a living. That will ~ you (not) to..., (informal) (used as a threat) That experience will show you the risk or penalty of...
'teach-in, (informal) discussion of a subject of topical interest (as held in a college, with students, staff and other speakers).
teach-able /-əbl/ adj that can be taught.
teacher, person who teaches.
teaching, (a) [U] work, profession of a teacher: earn a living by ~ing. (b) (usually pl) that which is taught; the ~ings of Islam.
teak /ti:k/ n [C] tall, evergreen tree of India, Malaysia, etc; [U] its hard wood, used for making furniture, etc.
team /ti:m/ n [C] 1 two or more oxen, horses, etc pulling a cart, plough, etc together. 2 number of persons playing together and forming one side in some games, eg football, cricket, hockey and sports, eg relay races. 3 group of people working together: a ~ of surgeons in the operating theatre. □ vi team up (with), (informal) make an effort in co-operation (with); work together (with).
'team-work, combined effort; organized co-operation: good/poor ~work.
'team-mate, fellow member of a team(2).
team 'spirit, spirit in which each member of a team thinks of the success, etc of the team and not of personal advantage, glory, etc.
tear¹ /tuə(r)/ n [C] drop of salty water coming from the eye: Her eyes filled with ~s. The sad story moved us to ~s, made us cry. The girl burst into ~s, began to cry.
'tear-drop, single tear.
'tear-gas, gas that causes severe watering of the eyes (used by the police to disperse a mob of demonstrators, etc).
tear-ful /-fl/ adj crying; wet with tears: a ~ful face.
tear-fully /-fəli/ adv
tear² /tɪə(r)/ vt, vi (pt tore /tɔ:(r)/, pp torn /tɔ:n/) 1 pull apart or to pieces; make a hole in something, damage, by pulling sharply: ~ a sheet of paper in two/~ it to pieces/to bits. He tore the parcel open. They tore down several houses and built an office-block. tear sth up, tear it into small pieces. 2 cause (something) to be out of place (down, off, away, etc) by pulling sharply: ~ a page out of a book. She could scarcely ~ herself away from the scene, found it difficult to leave. 3 destroy the peace of: a country torn by civil war; a heart torn by grief. be torn between, unable to choose between (conflicting demands, wishes, etc). 4 become torn: This material ~s easily. 5 go in excitement or at great speed: The children tore out of the school gates. □ n [C] torn place.

'tear-away n [C] aggressive youth.

tease /ti:z/ vt 1 make fun of (a person) playfully or unkindly: She ~d her father about his bald head. Molly was teasing the cat, eg by pulling its tail. 2 separate, loosen, into separate fibres; fluff up the surface of (cloth, etc) by doing this: ~ flax. □ n [C] person who is fond of teasing others: What a ~ she is!
teaser, person who often teases.

teat /ti:t/ n [C] nipple(2) (esp an artificial one).

tech-ni-cal /'teknɪkəl/ adj 1 of, from, technique. 2 of, connected with, special to, one of the mechanical or industrial arts (eg printing, weaving) or with methods used by experts and artists: a ~ college, for engineering, etc.

tech-ni-cally /-kli/ adv

tech-ni-cal-ity /'teknɪkæləti/ n [C] (pl -ies) technical word, phrase, point, etc: The judge explained the legal technicalities of the case to the jury.

tech-ni-cian /'teknɪʃn/ n [C] expert in the technique(s) of a particular art, etc; highly skilled craftsman or mechanic.

tech-nique /'tek'ni:k/ n 1 [U] technical or mechanical skill in art, music, etc. 2 [C] method of doing something expertly; method of artistic expression in music, painting, etc.

tech-noc-racy /'tek'nɒkrəsi/ n [C, U] (pl -ies) (state where there is) organization and management of a country's industrial resources by technical experts.

tech-no-crat /'teknəkræt/ n [C] supporter, member, of a technocracy.

tech-no-logi-cal /'teknə'lɒdʒɪkəl/ adj of technology; ~ problems.

tech-nol-ogist /'tek'nɒlədʒɪst/ n [C] expert in, student of, technology.

tech-nol-ogy /'tek'nɒlədʒi/ n [U] 1 study, mastery and using of manufacturing methods and industrial arts. 2 systematic application of knowledge to practical tasks in industry: study engineering at a college of ~.

tedi-ous /'ti:diəs/ adj causing tiredness; not interesting: a ~ lecture/lecturer; ~ work.

tedi-ous-ly adv

te-dium /'ti:diəm/ n [U] (informal) boredom.

tee /ti:/ n [C] 1 (golf) place from which a player starts at each hole; specially shaped piece of wood or rubber used for this. 2 mark aimed at in certain games, such as quoits. to a tee, perfectly; exactly: She suits him to a ~. □ vt, vi 1 tee (up), put the ball on a tee(1). 2 tee off, hit the ball from a tee (1).

teem¹ /ti:m/ vi 1 be present in large numbers: Fish ~ in this river. 2 teem with, have in great numbers: His head is ~ing with bright ideas.

teem² /ti:m/ vi (of rain) fall heavily; pour: It was ~ing with rain.

teen-age /'ti:neɪdʒ/ adj for persons in their teens: ~ fashions/music.

teen-ager /'ti:neɪdʒə(r)/ n [C] boy or girl in his or her teens or up to 21 or 22 years of age: a club for ~s.

teens /ti:nz/ n pl the ages 13 to 19: girls in their ~.

tee-shirt /'ti:ʃɜ:t/ n [C] = T-shirt.

tee-tot /'ti:təʊ(r)/ vi stand or walk unsteadily: (fig) ~ing on the edge of disaster.

teeth /ti:θ/ pl of tooth.

teethe /ti:ð/ vi (of a baby) be getting its first teeth.

'teething troubles, (fig) problems which occur when first using a new system.

tee-to-tal /ti:təʊtl/ adj not drinking, opposed to the drinking of, alcoholic liquor.

tee-to-tal-ler (US also tee-to-taler) n [C] person who does not drink alcoholic liquor.

tele-com-muni-cations /i'telɪkəˌmjʊ:nɪkeɪʃnz/ n pl communications by cable, telegraph, telephone, radio or TV.

tele-gram /'telɪgræm/ n [C] message sent by telegraphy.

tele-graph /'telɪgrɑ:f/ US: -græf/ n [C] apparatus for sending messages by the use of electric current along wires or by radio. □ vi, vt send (news, etc) by telegraph.

tel-eg-ra-pher /'telɪgrəfə(r)/, operator who sends and receives messages by telegraph.

tele-graphic /'telɪgræfɪk/ adj sent by, suitable for, of, the telegraph.

tel-eg-ra-phy /'telɪgrəfi/ n [U] art, science, process, of sending and receiving messages by telegraph.

tel-epa-thy /'telɪpəθi/ n [U] transference of thoughts or ideas from one mind to another without using speech, signs, etc.

tele-pathic /'telɪpæθɪk/ adj tele-phone /'telɪfəʊn/ n (usual abbr phone in speech) 1 [U] means, system, of transmitting the human voice by electric current, usually through wires. 2 [C] apparatus (with receiver and mouthpiece) for this purpose: You're wanted on the ~. □ vi, vt send (a message to a person) by telephone.

'telephone booth, (also 'phone booth or 'call-box), small enclosure with a coin-operated public telephone.

'telephone directory, (informal = 'phone book) list of names with telephone numbers and addresses.

'telephone exchange, place where telephone connections are made.

tel-ephon-ist /'tɪləfənist/ n [C] operator in a telephone exchange.

tel-eph-ony /'tɪləfəni/ n [U] method, process, of sending and receiving messages by telephone.

tele-prin-ter /'telɪprɪntə(r)/ n [C] (tele-graphy) apparatus for sending messages that changes typing into coded telephone signals which are changed back into typed form at the other end.

tele-scope /'telɪskaʊp/ n [C] long instrument with lenses for making distant objects appear nearer and larger. □ vt, vi make or become shorter by means of or in the manner of sections that slide one within the other: When the trains collided, the first two cars of one of the trains ~d/were ~d.

tele-scopic /'telɪskəpɪk/ adj (a) of, containing, able to be seen with, a telescope: a tele-scopic view of the moon, seen through a telescope. (b) having sections which slide one within the other: a telescopic aerial, eg as part of a portable radio.

tele-vi-sion /'telɪvɪʒn/ n (abbr TV) 1 [U] process of transmitting pictures by radio waves with sound at the same time: Did you see the news on (the) ~? 2 [C] (also ~ set) apparatus for receiving and showing these pictures and sound.

tele-vise /'telɪvaɪz/ vt send by television: The Olympic Games were televised.

telex /'teleks/ n [C, U] (instance of) sending messages using a teleprinter.

tell /tel/ vt, vi (pt, pp told /təʊld/) 1 make known (in spoken or written words); give information concerning or a description of: I told him my name. T~ me where you live. I can't ~ you how happy I am, can't find words that are adequate. I told you so, I warned you that this would happen, etc and now you see that I'm right: Things have gone wrong but please don't say 'I told you so'! 2 express with words: ~ a lie; ~ the children a story. tell tales, ⇨ tale(2). 3 order; direct: You must do as you're told. T~ him to wait. 4 (esp with can/could/be able to) identify: Can you ~ Tom from his twin brother? They look exactly the same; how can you ~ which is which? 5 learn by observation; become aware (of something): How do you ~ which of these keys to use? tell the time, (be able to) read (or say) the time from a clock, etc: Can Mary ~ the time yet? Can you ~ me what time it is? there is/was, etc no telling, it is impossible or difficult to know: There's no ~ing what may happen/where she's gone/what he's doing. 6 tell sb off (for sth/for doing sth), (informal) criticize, blame, him with angry words: He told me off for being late. 7 have a marked effect on; influence the result of: All this hard work is ~ing on him, is affecting his health. 8 (informal) inform against: John told on his sister. 9 tell a secret: You promised not to ~ and now you've done so!

tel-ler, (a) person who receives and pays out money over a bank counter. (b) man who counts votes, eg in the House of Commons.

tell-ing adj impressive: a ~ing argument/ blow.

telling-¹off, n [C] ⇨ 6 above.

tell-tale /'telteɪl/ n [C] 1 person who tells about another's private affairs, makes known a secret, etc. 2 (used as an adjective) circumstances, etc that reveal a person's thoughts, activities, etc: a ~ blush.

telly /'teli/ n (informal) (abbr for) television: I saw it on (the) ~.

te-mer-ity /'tɪmərəti/ n [U] (formal) impudent speech or action: have the ~ to go home early after arriving late.

tem-per¹ /'tempə(r)/ n [C] 1 state or condition of the mind: in a good ~, calm and pleasant; in a bad ~, angry, impatient, etc. get/fly into a temper, become very angry. keep/lose one's temper, keep/fail to keep one's temper under control. 2 [C] (of steel, etc) degree of strength, hardness, etc.

-tem-pered /'tempəd/ suffix having or showing a certain kind of temper: a bad-/hot-~ed 'man. She's so bad-~.

tem-per² /'tempə(r)/ vt, vi 1 give, come to, the required temper(2) by heating and cooling. 2 soften or modify: ~ justice with mercy, be merciful when giving a just punishment.

tem-pera-ment /'tempərəmənt/ n 1 [C,U] person's personality or nature, esp as this affects his way of thinking, feeling and behaving: *a girl with a nervous/an artistic ~. 2 [U] (without an adjective) kind of personality that is easily excited, not easily controlled, eg as in some actresses and opera singers.*

tem-pera-men-tal /'tempərə'mentl/ adj (a) caused by temperament: a ~al dislike for study. (b) quickly changing moods: a ~al tennis player.

tem-pera-men-tally /-təli/ adv tem-per-ance /'tempərəns/ n [U] 1 self-control in speech, behaviour and (esp) in the use of alcoholic drinks. 2 total abstinence from alcoholic drinks.

tem-per-ate /'tempərət/ adj 1 showing, behaving with, self-control: *Be more ~ in your language, please. 2 (of climate, parts of the world) free from extremes of heat and cold: *the north ~ zone, between the Tropic of Cancer and the Arctic zone.

tem-per-ate-ly adv

tem-pera-ture /'tempərətʃə(r) US: /'tempərətʃʊər/ n [C,U] degree of heat and cold: The nurse took the ~s of all the patients, measured their body temperatures with a thermometer. have/run a temperature, have a fever.

tem-pest /'tempɪst/ n 1 [C] violent storm. 2 (fig) violent agitation: A ~ of anger swept through the crowd.

tem-pes-tu-ous /tem'pestʃʊəs/ adj (of the weather and fig of personality) violent; stormy.

temple¹ /'templ/ n [C] 1 building used for the worship of a god. 2 any of the three successive religious centres of the Jews in ancient Jerusalem.

temple² /'templ/ n [C] flat part of either side of the forehead.

tempo /'tempəʊ/ n [C] (pl ~s or, in music, tempi /-pi/) (It) 1 rate of movement or activity: the tiring ~ of city life. 2 (music) speed at which music is (to be) played.

tempo-ral /'tempərəl/ adj (formal) 1 of, existing in, time. 2 of earthly human life; of this physical life only, not spiritual.

tem-por-ary /'tempəri US: -pərəri/ adj lasting for, designed to be used for, a short time only: ~ employment; a ~ bridge.

tem-por-ar-ily /'tempərəli US: /tempə'rerəli/ adv tempt /tempt/ vt 1 (try to) persuade (a person) to do something wrong or foolish: Nothing could ~ him to agree that torture is a necessary evil. 2 attract (a person) to have or do something: The warm weather ~ed us to go for a swim.

temp-ter, person who tempts.

tempt-ing adj attractive: a ~ing offer.

temp-ress /-trɪs/ n woman who tempts.

temp-ta-tion /temp'teɪʃn/ n 1 [U] tempting or being tempted: *yield/give way to ~. Don't put ~ in my way. 2 [C] that which tempts or attracts: *Clever advertisements are ~s to spend money.

ten /ten/ n [C], adj (of) the number 10. ten to one, very probably: T ~ to one he will arrive late.

tenth /tenθ/ n [C], adj (abbr 10th) (of) the next after 9 or one of 10 equal parts.

tenth-ly adv

ten-fold adv ten times as many or much.

ten-pence n [C,U] (GB coin with the) value of ten pennies.

ten-able /'tenəbl/ adj 1 that can be defended successfully: *His theory is hardly ~. 2 (of an office or position) that can be held (by a person): *The lectureship is ~ for a period of three years.

ten-acious /tɪ'neɪʃəs/ adj (formal) holding tightly, refusing to let go: a ~ memory; ~ of our rights.

ten-acious-ly adv

ten-ac-ity /tɪ'næsəti/ n [U] ten-ancy /'tenənsi/ n [U] 1 use of land, etc as a tenant: during his ~ of the farm. 2 (with a, an) length of time during which a tenant uses land, etc: hold a 'life ~ of a house.

ten-ant /'tenənt/ n [C] person who pays rent for the use of land, a building, a room, etc.

tend¹ /tend/ vt watch over; look after: shep- herds ~ing their flocks.

tend² /tend/ vi be inclined to move; have as a characteristic or direction: Prices are ~ing upwards. He ~s to make too many mistakes.

ten-dency /'tendəns/ n [C] (pl -ies) turning or inclination: Business is showing a ~ to improve.

ten-den-tious /ten'denʃəs/ adj (formal) (of a speech, a piece of writing, etc) having an underlying purpose, aimed at helping a cause; not impartial: Countries at war often send out ~ reports, designed to win sympathy, etc.

ten-den-tious-ly adv

ten-der¹ /'tendə(r)/ adj (-er, -est) 1 delicate; easily hurt or damaged; quickly feeling pain: ~ blossoms, eg easily hurt by frosts; a ~ heart, easily moved to pity. Hence, tender-hearted adj. 2 (of meat) easily chewed; not tough: a ~ steak. 3 kind, loving: ~ looks; ~ parents.

ten-der-loin, tender part of the loin of beef or pork.

ten-der-ly adv

ten-der-ness n [U]

ten-der² /'tendə(r)/ n [C] 1 person who looks after, watches over, something. ⇨ bartender. 2 small ship attending a larger one. 3 wagon for fuel and water behind a steam locomotive.

ten-der³ /'tendə(r)/ vt, vi 1 offer; present: He ~ed his resignation to the Prime Minister. 2 make an offer (to carry out work, supply goods, etc) at a stated price: ~ for the construction of a new motorway. □ n [C] 1 statement of the price at which one offers to supply goods or services, or to do something: invite ~s for a new bridge. ⇨ legal tender.

ten-don /'tendən/ n [C] tough, thick cord that joins muscle to bone.

ten-dril /'tendril/ n [C] part like a thread of a plant, eg a vine, that twists round any nearby support.

ten-ement /'tenimənt/ n [C] 1 large house for the use of many families at low rents. 2 (legal) any dwelling-house; any kind of permanent property.

tenet /'tenet/ n [C] (formal) principle; belief; doctrine.

ten-nis /'tenis/ n [U] game for two or four players who hit a ball with a racket backwards and forwards across a net.

tennis-court, marked area on which tennis is played.

tennis-elbow, inflammation of the elbow caused by playing tennis.

tenor /'tenə(r)/ n [C] 1 (music for, singer with, the) highest normal adult male voice: (as an adjective) ~ voice; the ~ part. 2 (of instruments) with a range about that of the tenor voice: a ~ saxophone.

tense¹ /tens/ adj (-r, -st) tightly stretched or strained: ~ nerves; a moment of ~ excitement/a ~ moment; look ~, appear to be under strain. □ vt, vi make or become tense: He ~d his muscles for the effort.

tense-ly adv

tense-ness n [U]

tense² /tens/ n [C, U] (gram) verb form that shows time: the present/past/future ~.

ten-sion /'tenʃn/ n [U] 1 state of, degree of, being tense: If you increase the ~ of the rope it will break. 2 stretching or being stretched. 3 mental, emotional or nervous strain; condition when feelings are tense, when relations between persons, groups, states are strained: political ~. 4 voltage: Keep away from those high ~ wires or you'll be electrocuted.

tent /tent/ n [C] shelter made of canvas supported by poles and ropes, esp as used by campers, soldiers, etc. ⇨ oxygen tent.

ten-tacle /'tentəkl/ n [C] long, slender, boneless growth on certain animals used for touching, feeling, holding, moving, etc.

ten-ta-tive /'tentətv/ adj made or done as a trial, to test the effect: make a ~ offer.

ten-ta-tive-ly adv

tenth /tenθ/ n, adj ⇨ ten.

ten-u-ous /'tenjuəs/ adj (formal) 1 thin; slender: the ~ web of a spider. 2 (of opinions, differences) without much meaning or value.

ten-ure /'tenjuə(r) US: -jə(r)/ n [C, U] (period, time, condition of) holding (eg political office) or using (land): The farmers want security of ~, to be secure in their tenancies.

tepid /'tepid/ adj lukewarm.

term /tɜ:m/ n [C] 1 fixed or limited period of time: a long ~ of imprisonment; during his ~ of office as President. ⇨ long-/short-term. 2 (of schools, universities, etc) one of the periods (usually three) into which the academic year is divided: end-of-~ examinations; during ~-time. 3 (legal) period during which a Court holds session. 4 (pl) conditions offered or agreed to: ~s of surrender, eg offered to a defeated enemy. ⇨ also reference (1).

come to terms (with sb), reach an agreement. come to terms with sth, accept finally: come to ~s with a difficult situation. 5 (pl) be on good/friendly/bad terms (with sb), be friendly, etc with him. ⇨ also speak (1). 6 words used to express an idea, esp a specialized concept: technical/scientific/legal ~s. 7 (pl) mode of expression: How dare you speak of her in such abusive ~s? 8 (maths) part of an expression joined to the rest by + or -:

The expression $a^2 + 2ab + b^2$ has three ~s. □ vt name; apply a term to: He has no right to ~ himself a professor.

ter-min-able /'tɜ:mɪnəbl/ adj that may be terminated.

ter-minal /'tɜ:mɪnl/ adj 1 of, taking place, each term (1,3): ~ examinations/accounts. 2 of, forming, the point or place at the end: ~ cancer, incurable; the ~ ward, (in a hospital) for persons who cannot be cured and must soon die. □ n [C] 1 end of a railway line, bus route, etc; centre (in a town) used by passengers departing for, or arriving from, an airport: the West London Air T~. 2 point of connection in an electric circuit: the ~s of a battery.

ter-min-ally adv

ter-min-ate /'tɜːmineɪt/ vt, vi bring to an end; come to an end: ~ his contract.

ter-mi-na-tion /'tɜːmɪ'neɪʃn/ n [C,U] ending: the ~ of a contract. 2 [C] final syllable or letter of a word.

ter-mi-nol-ogy /'tɜːmɪ'nɒlədʒi/ n [C,U] (pl -ies) (science of) the proper use of terms(6); terms used: medical/grammatical ~.

ter-mi-no-logi-cal /'tɜːmɪnə'lɒdʒɪkl/ adj ter-mi-nus /'tɜːmɪnəs/ n [C] (pl -ni /-naɪ/ or ~es) station at the end of a railway line, bus route, etc.

ter-mite /'tɜːmaɪt/ n [C] insect (popularly called white ant), which makes large hills of hard earth.

ter-race /'terəs/ n [C] 1 level(led) area of ground with a vertical or sloping front or side; a series of these, separated by sloping banks, rising one above the other, eg as a method of irrigation on a hillside. 2 flight of wide, shallow steps (eg for spectators in a football stadium). 3 continuous row of houses in one block. □ vt (usually as a pp) form into terraces: a ~d lawn; ~d houses, (long line of) houses joined together.

terra-cotta /'terə 'kɒtə/ n [U] hard, reddish-brown pottery; the colour reddish-brown.

ter-rain /te'reɪn US: tə-/ n [C] stretch of land, esp regarding its natural features: difficult ~ for walking.

ter-res-trial /tə'restriəl/ adj 1 of, on, living on, the earth or land: the ~ parts of the world. 2 (opposite of celestial) of the earth.

ter-ri-ble /'terəbl/ adj 1 causing great fear or horror: a ~ war/accident. 2 causing great discomfort; extreme: The heat is ~ in Baghdad during the summer. 3 (informal) extremely bad: What ~ food they gave us!

ter-ri-bly /-əbli/ adv (informal) extremely: How ~ly boring/kind he is!

ter-rier /'teriə(r)/ n [C] kinds of small and lively dog.

ter-rific /tə'rifɪk/ adj 1 causing fear. 2 (informal) very great; extreme: driving at ~ pace.

ter-rifi-cally /-kli/ adv extremely.

ter-rify /'terɪfaɪ/ vt (pt, pp -ied) fill with fear: The child was ~ed of being left alone in the house. What a ~ing experience!

ter-ri-torial /'teri'tɔːriəl/ adj 1 of land, esp land forming a division of a country: ~ possessions. 2 T~, of any of the US Territories: T~ laws. 3 (GB) of the force of mostly non-professional soldiers organized for the defence of Great Britain and trained in their spare time: the T~ Army. □ n [C] member of the Territorial Army.

territorial waters, the sea near a country's coast, over which special rights are claimed, eg for fishing.

ter-ri-tory /'terɪtri US: -tɔːri/ n (pl -ies) 1 [C, U] (area of) land, esp land under one ruler or Government: Is this American ~? 2 [C] land or district; [U] extent of such land, etc: How much ~ can he cover (= travel across) in a day?

ter-ror /'terə(r)/ n 1 [U] great fear: run away in ~. 2 [C] instance of great fear; (person or thing that causes) great fear: have a ~ off fire.

'ter-ror-ism /-ɪzəm/ n [U] use of violence and intimidation, esp for political purposes.

'ter-ror-ist /-ɪst/ n [C] supporter of, participant in, terrorism.

'ter-ror-ize (also -ise) /-aɪz/ vt fill with terror by threats or acts of violence.

terse /tɜːs/ adj (of speech, style, speakers) brief and to the point.

terse-ly adv

ter-ti-ary /'tɜːjəri US: -ʃjəri/ adj third in rank, order, occurrence, importance.

test /test/ n [C] (often as an adjective) examination or trial (of something) to find its quality, value, composition, etc; trial or examination (of a person, his powers, knowledge, skill, etc): methods that have stood the ~ of time; a 'blood ~, eg at a hospital, for infection, etc; a 'driving ~; an in'telligence ~. ⇨ put(5). □ vt examine; make a trial of: have one's eyesight ~ed. The long climb ~ed (= was a test of) our strength.

'test case, (in law) one that shows the principle involved (even though it may not be important in itself).

'test drive n [C] drive in a car one thinks of buying, to judge its qualities, worth, etc. Hence, 'test-drive vt.

'test flight, flight to judge the performance of a new aircraft.

'test match, one of a series of international (cricket, rugby) matches.

'test-pilot, pilot who performs test flights.

'test-tube, slender glass tube, closed at one end, used in chemical experiments: a ~tube baby, who was artificially conceived outside the mother's body.

tes-ta-ment /'testəmənt/ n 1 [C] (often last Will and T~) statement in writing saying how a person wishes his property to be distributed after his death. 2 Old T~, New T~, the two main divisions of the Bible.

tes-ticle /'testɪkl/ n [C] each of the two glands of the male sex organ that secrete sperm.

tes-tify /'testɪfaɪ/ vt, vi (pt, pp -ied) 1 give evidence: He testified under oath that he had not stolen the bike. The teacher testified to the boy's ability. 2 serve as evidence of: Her tears testified her grief.

tes-ti-mo-nial /ˈtestɪˈmɒniəl/ n [C] 1 written statement testifying to a person's merits, abilities, qualifications, etc. 2 something given to a person to show appreciation of services: a ~ match, for a football player.

tes-ti-mony /ˈtestɪməni/ US: -məni/ n [U] 1 declaration, esp in a law court, testifying that something is true: The witness's ~ is false. 2 declarations; statements: According to the ~ of the medical profession, the health of the nation is improving.

tes-tis /ˈtestɪs/ n [C] (pl -tes /-ti:z/) = testicle.

teta-nus /ˈtetanəs/ n [U] disease marked by tightening of voluntary muscles.

tether /ˈteðə(r)/ n [C] rope or chain by which an animal is fastened while grazing. at the end of one's tether, (fig) at the end of one's patience, etc. □ vt fasten with a tether: He ~ed his horse to the fence.

text /tekst/ n 1 [U] printed words in a book. 2 [C] original words of an author, apart from anything else in a book. 3 [C] short passage, sentence, esp of the Bible, etc as the subject of a sermon or discussion.

'text-book, book used to learn a subject: an algebra ~book; a ~book on grammar.

tex-tual /ˈtekstʃuəl/ adj of, in, a text: ~ual errors.

tex-tile /ˈtekstaɪl/ adj of the making of cloth: the ~ industry. □ n [C] cloth.

tex-ture /ˈtekstʃə(r)/ n [C,U] 1 the arrangement of the threads in a cloth: cloth with a loose/close ~. 2 arrangement of the parts that make up something: the ~ of a mineral.

than /ðən/ rarely heard strong form: ðæn/ conj introducing the second part of a comparison: John is taller ~ his brother. I know you better ~ he (does), ie than he knows you. I know you better ~ him, ie than I know him. sooner than, ⇨ soon (3,4).

thank /θæŋk/ vt express gratitude: ~ a person for his help. There's no need to ~ me. Thank you, formula for accepting something or expressing thanks. No, thank you, formula used to decline an offer. □ n (pl) (expression of) gratitude: T~s for the meal. No, thanks, (informal) No, thank you. thanks to, as the result of: T~s to you, we were successful. a vote of thanks, a public expression of gratitude: The Chairman proposed a vote of ~s to the speaker.

,thanks-giving, (a) expression of gratitude, esp to God; form of prayer for this. (b) (US) (also, T~s-giving Day) day set apart each year to thank God for His goodness (usually the fourth Thursday in November).

thank-ful /-fl/ adj grateful: You should be ~ful that we waited for you.

thank-fully /-fəli/ adv

thank-less adj not feeling or expressing gratitude or winning appreciation: a ~less task, with no appreciation or reward.

that¹ /ðæt/ adj, pron (pl those /ðəʊz/) (contrasted with this, these) 1 the person or thing pointed to or drawn attention to (and often far from the speaker), named or understood to be known: Look at ~ man/those men. What is ~? What are those? What was ~ noise? What noise was ~? This book (nearby) is much better than ~ (one) (farther away). These are much better than those. T~s more like it, is an improvement, a better example, etc. He's like ~, has the kind of personality mentioned. Those who do not wish to go need not go. I don't like ~ new secretary of his. in 'that case, ⇨ case¹ (1). that's 'that, there is nothing more to say, do: I'm not going to help you and ~s ~! 2 (used as a collective sing): What about ~ five pounds you borrowed from me last month? □ adv (informal) to such a degree; so: I can't walk ~ far, = as far as that. It's about ~ high, ie as high as that.

that² /ðæt/ rarely heard strong form: ðæt/ conj 1 (introducing noun clauses): She said (~) she would come. The trouble is ~ we are short of money. 2 so that; in order that, (introducing clauses of purpose): Bring it nearer so ~ I can see it better. 3 (introducing clauses of manner): His behaviour was so bad ~ we all refused to talk to him. 4 (introducing clauses of condition): on condition ~...

that³ /ðæt/ rarely heard strong form: ðæt/ relative pron (pl unchanged) (Note: when that is in parentheses in examples, it is often omitted.) 1 (used as the subject of the verb in a clause): The letter ~ came this morning is from my father. 2 (who is usually preferred to that for a person, but that is preferred to who after superlatives, only, all, any, and it is or it was): Newton was one of the greatest men ~ ever lived. You're the only person ~ can help me. 3 (used as the object of the verb in the clause): The pen (~) you gave me is very nice. Is this the best (~) you can do? 4 (used after an expression of time.): the year (~) my father died. 5 (used as the object of a preposition): All the people (~) I wrote to agreed to come. Is this the book (~) you were looking for?

thatch /θætʃ/ n [U] roof covering of dried straw, reeds, etc. □ vt cover (a roof, etc) with thatch.

thaw /θə:/ vi, vt 1 (of snow and ice) begin to melt. 2 (cause anything frozen to) become liquid or soft again: leave frozen food to ~ before cooking it. 3 (of persons, their behaviour) (cause to) become less formal, more friendly: After a good dinner he began to ~. □ n (usually sing) (state of the weather causing) thawing: Let's go skating before a ~ sets in.

the /ðə/ strong form and before vowels: ði:/ definite article 1 (used as a less specific form of this, these, that, those, applied to person(s), thing(s), event(s), etc already referred to or being discussed. Note the changes from a, an to the in these sentences): An old man lived in a small hut near a forest. One day ~ old man left ~ hut and went into ~ forest to collect wood. 2 (used when the situation indicates who or what is referred to): Please close ~ window, i.e. the window that is open. 3 (used with a noun when it stands for something unique): ~ sun; ~ moon; ~ year 1989; ~ universe. 4 (used with nouns such as sea, sky, when there is no adjective): T ~ sea was calm. Isn't ~ wind strong! 5 (used with a noun if it is shown by the context to be unique): ~ back of ~ house. (Note: in many phrases the is or may be omitted: from beginning to end; from (~) top to (~) bottom; in (~) future.) 6 (used with a superlative): ~ best way to get there. (Note: the is not needed after the verb 'be' when the superlative is used without a noun: It is wisest (= The wisest plan is) to avoid the centre of the town. When most means 'very', the is not used: This is a most useful dictionary.) 7 (used before geographical terms and names: ~ Mediterranean; ~ Nile; ~ Alps; ~ West Indies; ~ Sahara. 8 (used to indicate all members of a class): ~ rich; ~ dead; an officer of ~ law. 9 (used with musical instruments): to play ~ piano/~ violin/~ guitar (but not with names of games: to play tennis/football). 10 (used with nouns expressing a unit): This car does thirty miles to ~ gallon, i.e. to each gallon of petrol. 11 (used with titles): Elizabeth ~ Second. □ adv by so much; by that amount: T ~ more he reads ~ less he understands.

theatre /US = theater/ ˈθiətr(ə)r/ n [C] 1 building, etc for the performance of plays, for dramatic events, etc: go to the ~ to see a Shakespeare play. 2 hall or room with seats in rows rising one behind another for lectures, scientific demonstrations, etc. 3 = operating theatre. 4 scene of important events: a ~ of war. 5 (usually sing with the) the writing and acting of plays, esp when connected with one author, country, period, etc: a book about the Greek ~.

'theatre-goer, person who (often) visits theatres.

theatrical /θiˈætrɪkəl/ adj (a) of, for, the theatre: theatrical costumes. (b) (of behaviour, manner, way of speaking, persons, etc) designed to impress; exaggerated.

theatrically /-kli/ adv theft /θeft/ n [C,U] (the act of, an instance of) stealing.

their /ðeə(r)/ possessive adj belonging to them: They have lost ~ dog. They have a house of ~ own. Good students do ~ best, the best they can.

theirs /ðeəz/ possessive pron (the one or ones) belonging to them: That dog is ~s, not ours. It's a habit of ~s, one of their habits.

them /ðəm strong form: ðem/ personal pron (object form of they): Give ~ to me. It was kind of ~.

theme /θi:m/ n [C] 1 topic; subject of a talk or a piece of writing. 2 (music) short melody which is repeated, expanded, etc eg in a sonata or symphony.

'theme song, one that is often repeated in a musical play, film, etc.

them-selves /ðəm'selvz/ pron 1 (reflex): They hurt ~. They kept some for ~. (all) by themselves, (a) without help: They did the work by ~. (b) alone: They were by ~ when I called. 2 (used for emphasis): They ~ have often made that mistake.

then /ðen/ adv 1 at the/that time (past or future): I was still unmarried ~. He'll still be too young ~. (every) now and then, □ now(2). 2 (used after a preposition) that time: from ~ onwards; until ~; since ~. 3 next; after that; afterwards: We spent a week in Rome and ~ we went to Naples. 4 in that case; that being so: A: 'It isn't here.'—B: 'T ~ it must be in the next room.' 5 and also: T ~ there's Mrs Green—she must be invited to the wedding.

theo-lo-gian /θiəˈlədʒɪən/ n [C] advanced student of theology.

theo-logi-cal /θiəˈlədʒɪkəl/ adj of theology.

theo-logi-cally /-kli/ adv

the-ol-ogy /θiˈələdʒi/ n [U] formation of a series of theories about the nature of God and of the foundations of religious belief.

the-orem /θiərəm/ n [C] (pl ~s) 1 statement which logical reasoning shows to be true. 2 (maths) statement for which a reasoned proof is required.

the-or-etic, -i-cal /θiəˈretɪk, -kəl/ adj based on theory, not on practice or experience.

theor-eti-cally /-kli/ adv

the-ory /θiəri/ n (pl -ies) 1 [C,U] (explanation of the) general principles of an art or science (contrasted with practice): Your plan is excellent in ~, but would it succeed in practice? 2 [C] reasoned account offered to explain facts or events: Darwin's ~ of evolution. 3 [C] something offered as an opinion, not necessarily based on reasoning: He has a ~ that wearing hats makes men bald.

the-or-ist /-ɪst/, person who forms theories.

the-or-ize (also -ise) /θiərəɪz/ vi form theories.

thera-peutic /θerəˈpjʊ:tɪk/ adj connected with the art of healing, the cure of disease.

thera-pist /θerəpɪst/ n [C] specialist in therapy, esp psychotherapy.

ther-apy /θerəpi/ n [U] curative treatment (esp of a kind shown by a preceding word): occupational ~, the curing of an illness by means of exercise. □ psychotherapy.

there' /ðeə(r)/ adv of place and direction (contrasted with here) 1 in, at or to, that place: We shall soon be ~. We're nearly ~, have nearly arrived. I've never been to Rome but I hope to go ~ next year. 2 (used in exclamations; always stressed): T~ goes the last bus! T~ they go! so 'there, (used when expressing refusal, etc): I won't give it back, so ~3 (used to call attention; always stressed): T~s the bell for lunch. T~s gratitude for you! Note how grateful/ungrateful he/she is! 4 at, in connection with, that point (in an action, story, argument, etc): Don't stop ~! T~ you are mistaken. 5 (in phrases): here and there; here, there and everywhere, ⇨ here(3). there and back, to a place and back again: Can I go ~ and back in one day? there you are, (used when giving something to somebody). ⇨ also there ³(2). over there, (of a place farther than is shown by using there alone): I live here, Mr Green lives ~, and Mr Brown lives over ~, on the other side of the river.

there² /ðeə(r)/ adv (always unstressed) (used as an introduction in a sentence of which the verb, esp 'be' precedes the subject) 1 (used with 'be'): T~s a man at the door. 2 (used with other verbs, esp seem and appear): T~ seems (to be) no doubt about it. T~ comes a time when...

there³ /ðeə(r)/ int (always stressed) 1 (used to comfort): T~! T~! You'll soon feel better. 2 (used to suggest that the speaker was right, or to show triumph, dismay, etc according to the context): T~ (you are)! What did I tell you! You now see that I was right! T~! You've upset the ink!

thereabouts /'ðeərəbaʊts/ adv (usually preceded by or) near that place, number, quantity, degree, etc: in March 1978 or ~; £5/15 metres/3 o'clock or ~.

there-after /ðeə'lɑ:fɑ:tə/ US: -'æftə/ adv (formal) = afterwards.

there-by /ðeə'baɪ/ adv (formal) by that means; in that connection.

there-fore /'ðeəfɔ:(r)/ adv for that reason.

therm /θɜ:m/ n [C] (100000 GB thermal units as a) unit of heat as used for measuring the consumption of gas.

ther-mal /'θɜ:ml/ adj of heat: ~ springs, of naturally warm or hot water. □ n [C] rising current of warm air (as needed by a glider to gain height).

thermo- /'θɜ:məʊ/ prefix of heat, temperature.

thermo-dy-namics n pl (usually used with a sing verb) science of the relations between heat and mechanical work.

thermo-'nuclear adj (eg of weapons) of, using, the high temperatures released in nuclear fission: the ~-nuclear 'bomb.

'thermo-stat /'θɜ:məstæt/ n [C] device for automatically regulating temperature by cutting off and restoring the supply of heat (eg in central heating).

ther-mom-eter /θə'mɒmɪtə(r)/ n [C] instrument for measuring temperature.

ther-mos /'θɜ:mɒs/ n [C] (pl ~es) (also ~ flask) (P) vacuum flask.

the-sau-rus /θɪ'sɔ:rəs/ n [C] (pl ~es or -ri /-raɪ/) (esp) a book or collection of words, phrases grouped together according to similarities in their meanings.

these /ði:z/ pl of this.

the-sis /'θɪ:sɪs/ n [C] (pl theses /-sɪ:z/) statement or theory (to be) put forward and supported by arguments, submitted (as part of the requirements) for a university degree.

they /ðeɪ/ personal pron (subject form, pl, of he, she, it): T~ (= People in general) say that the government will resign. What a lot of questions ~ (= those in authority) ask in this application! ⇨ them.

they'd /ðeɪd/ = they had; they would.

they'll /ðeɪl/ = they will; they shall.

they're /ðeɪə(r)/ = they are.

they've /ðeɪv/ = they have.

thick /θɪk/ adj (-er, -est) 1 (opposite of thin) of comparatively great or of a specified measurement in diameter, from one side to the other, or from the front to the back: a ~ line; ice three metres ~. 2 having a large number of units close together: ~ hair; a ~ forest. 3 (of a hedge) with bushes, etc closely planted. 4 thick with, full of or packed with: The air was ~ with dust. 5 (of liquids) semi-solid: ~ soup; (of the air, etc) not clear; dense: a ~ fog. 6 (informal) stupid. 7 (informal) as thick as thieves, very friendly. 8 (informal) a bit thick, beyond what is reasonable or endurable: Three weeks of rain is a bit ~. lay it on thick, ⇨ lay on. □ n [U] 1 most crowded part; part where there is greatest activity: We were in the ~ of it. through thick and thin, under any kind of conditions, good or bad. 2 thick part of anything: the ~ of the thumb. □ adv thickly: You spread the butter too ~.

thick-headed adj stupid.

thick-'set adj (a) (of a person) short and solid. (b) (of hedges, etc) closely planted.

thick-'skinned adj (fig) not sensitive to criticism, insults, etc.

thick-ly adv

thick-ness, (a) [U] quality or degree of being thick: four centimetres in ~ness. (b) [C] layer: two ~nesses of woollen cloth.

thicken /'θɪkən/ vt, vi make or become thick: ~ the gravy.

thicket /'θɪkɪt/ n [C] group of trees, shrubs, growing thickly together.

thief /θɪf/ n [C] (pl thieves /θɪ:vz/) person who steals, esp secretly and without violence. ⇨ thick(7).

thieve /θi:v/ vi, vt steal (the usual word).

thigh /θaɪ/ n [C] 1 part of the human leg between the knee and the hip. 2 corresponding part of the back legs of other animals.

thimble /'θɪmbəl/ n [C] cap (of metal, etc) used to protect the end of the finger when pushing a needle through cloth, etc.

thin /θɪn/ adj (-ner, -nest) 1 (opposite of thick) having opposite surfaces close together; of small diameter: a ~ sheet of paper; a ~ piece of string. 2 not full or closely packed: ~ hair; a ~ audience, with more seats empty than occupied. thin on the ground, (of persons, helpers, etc) few in number. 3 (opposite of fat) having not much flesh: looking ~ in the face. 4 (of liquids) not having substance; watery: ~ soup; ~ blood, as when weakened by illness, etc; (of the air, etc) not dense: a ~ mist. 5 not having some important ingredient; poor in quality: a ~ excuse, not very convincing; a ~ disguise, easily seen through. adv so as to be thin: You've spread the butter very ~. vi, vt (-nn-) make or become thin: We had better wait until the fog ~s, becomes less dense. At last the crowd ~ned.

thin-ly adv in a thin manner: Sow the seed ~ly, not close together.

thin-skinned adj (fig) sensitive to criticism, insults, etc.

thin-ness /θɪnnɪs/ n [U] thing /θɪŋ/ n [C] 1 any material object: What are those ~s on the table? 2 (pl) belongings; articles of which the nature is clear (or thought to be clear) from the context: Bring your swimming ~s (= your swim-suit, towel, etc) with you. Have you packed your ~s (= clothes, etc) for the holiday? 3 subject: There's another ~ (= something else) I want to ask you about. 4 be 'seeing things, ⇨ *see*¹(1). 5 situation; event; course of action: That only makes ~s worse. I must think ~s over, consider what has happened, what has to be done, etc. What's the next ~ to do? What must be done next? for 'one thing, (used to introduce a reason): For one ~, I haven't any money; for another... 6 (used of a person or an animal, expressing an emotion of some kind): Poor ~, he's been ill all winter. 7 (sing with the) just what will be best in the circumstances: A holiday will be the very ~ for you. He always says the right/wrong ~, makes the most suitable/unsuitable remark or comment. 8 (phrases) the 'thing 'is, the question to be considered is: The ~ is, can we get there in time? first thing, ⇨ *first*¹. a 'near thing, ⇨ *near*¹(1). have a 'thing about, (informal) be obsessed by. ⇨ also same(4).

think¹ /θɪŋk/ vi, vt (pt, pp thought /θɔ:t/) (For special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions, ⇨ 7 below.) 1 use, the mind in order to form opinions, come to conclusions: What she said has set me ~ing. You should ~ (= not be hasty) before doing that. Do you ~ in English when you speak English? think aloud, say one's thoughts as they occur. 2 consider; be of the opinion: Do you ~ it will rain? Yes, I ~ so. The child thought there was no harm in picking flowers in your garden. I will be better, don't you ~, to start early. I thought it better to stay away. think fit. ⇨ *fit*¹(2). ⇨ also *such*¹. 3 (negative with can/could): I can't ~ what you mean. 4 have a vague intention: I ~ I'll go for a swim. 5 reflect: She was ~ing (to herself) how strange the children were. 6 expect, intend: I thought as much, That is what I expected or suspected.

7 (special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions):

think about sth, (a) examine, consider (esp a plan, idea, to see whether it is desirable, practicable, etc): She's ~ing about emigrating to Canada. (b) reflect on: She was ~ing about her childhood days.

think of sth, (a) consider; take into account: We have a hundred and one things to ~ of before we can decide. (b) consider (without reaching a decision or taking action): We're ~ing of going to Venice for Easter. (c) imagine: Just ~ of the cost/danger! (d) have, entertain, the idea of (often with could, would, should, and not or never, with dream as a possible substitute for think): He would never ~ of marrying a girl like you! (e) remember: I can't ~ of his name at the moment. (f) suggest: Can you ~ of a good place for a weekend holiday? think highly/well/little, etc of sb/sth, have a high/good/poor, etc opinion of: Her work is highly thought of by the critics. He ~s the world of her, loves her dearly. think nothing of, consider as ordinary or unremarkable: Barbara ~s nothing of walking 10 or 20 miles a day.

think sth out, consider carefully and make a plan for: It seems to be a well-thought out scheme.

think sth over, consider further (before reaching a decision, etc): Please ~ over what I've said.

think sth up, invent, devise (a scheme, etc): There's no knowing what he'll ~ up next.

think² /θɪŋk/ n (informal) occasion of, need for, thinking: He's got another ~ coming, will need to think again (because I refuse, etc).

thinker /θɪŋkə(r)/ n [C] (used with an adjective) person who thinks: a great ~.

think-ing /θɪŋkɪŋ/ adj who think: all ~ men, those people who think (about public affairs, etc). n [U] thought; way of reasoning: do some hard ~, think deeply.

third /θɜ:d/ adj, n [C] (abbr 3rd) (of) the next after two or one of three equal parts: the ~ month of the year, ie March; on the ~ of April; every ~ day; a ~ of the cake; two ~s of a litre. third class n [U] standard of accommodation in a hotel, ship, etc next to second. n third-class adj of a third standard: ~class travel. adv by the third standard: travel ~-class.

third de'gree, prolonged or hard questioning, use of torture (as used by the police in some countries to get confessions or information).

third ¹party, another person besides the two principals: (as an adjective) ~party insurance, of/to a person other than the person insured, which the insurance company undertakes to meet.

third-rate adj of poor quality.

the Third World, the economically and industrially less developed countries of the world; the developing countries.

thirdly adv

thirst /θɜːst/ n [U, and with a, an as in examples] 1 feeling caused by a desire or need to drink; suffering caused by this: They lost their way in the desert and died of ~. 2 (fig) strong desire (for): a ~ for knowledge. □ vt 1 have thirst. 2 be eager (for): ~ for revenge.

thirsty adj (-ier, -iest) having or causing thirst: be/feel ~y.

thir-teen /θɜːˈtiːn/ adj, n [C] (of) 13.

thir-teenth /θɜːˈtiːnθ/ adj, n [C] (abbr 13th) (of) the next after 12 or one of 13 equal parts.

thirty /θɜːti/ adj, n [C] (of) 30. in the thirties, (a) (of a person's age, temperature, speed, etc) between 29 and 40. (b) between '29 and '40 in a century.

thir-ti-eth /θɜːˈtiːθ/ adj, n [C] (abbr 30th) (of) the next after 29 or one of 30 equal parts.

this /ðɪs/ adj, pron (pl these /ðiːz/) (contrasted with that, those) 1 the person or thing nearby, touched, etc or drawn attention to, named or understood to be known: Look at ~ box/these boxes. What's ~? What are these? T~ (one) is larger than that. These are better than those. He will be here ~ day week, in a week's time. T~ boy of yours seems very intelligent. in ~this case, ⇨ *case*¹(1). 2 (in narrative) a certain: Then ~ funny little man came up to me. □ adv (informal) so: It's about ~ high. Now that we have come ~ far (= as far as this)...

thistle /θɪsl/ n [C] (sorts of) wild plant with prickly leaves and yellow, white or purple flowers.

tho' /ðəʊ/ adv, conj = though.

thong /θɒŋ/ n [C] narrow strip of leather, eg as a fastening, the lash of a whip.

tho-rax /θɜːˈræks/ n [C] 1 part of an animal's body between the neck and the belly, eg in a man, the chest. 2 middle of the three main sections of an insect (with the legs and wings).

thorn /θɔːn/ n 1 [C] pointed growth on the stem of a plant. a thorn in one's flesh/side, (fig) constant source of irritation. 2 [C,U] kinds of shrub or tree with thorns.

thorny adj (-ier, -iest) (a) having thorns. (b) (fig) full of trouble and difficulty: a ~y problem.

thor-ough /θɒrəʊ/ US: ˈθɒrəʊ/ adj complete in every way; not forgetting or overlooking anything; detailed: a ~ worker; be ~ in one's work.

thorough-going adj complete: a ~going re'vision.

thor-ough-ly adv

thor-ough-ness n [U]

thor-ough-bred /θɒrəbrəd/ US: ˈθɒrə-/ n [C], adj (animal, esp a horse) of pure breed.

thor-ough-fare /θɒrəfeə(r)/ US: ˈθɒrə-/ n [C] road or street, esp one much used by the traffic and open at both ends: Broadway is New York's most famous ~.

those /ðəʊz/ pl of that.

though /ðəʊ/ conj 1 (also al-though /ɔːlˈðəʊ/) in spite of the fact that: T~ they are poor, they are always neatly dressed. He passed the examination al~ he had been prevented by illness from ~studying. 2 (introducing an independent statement) and yet; all the same: I'll try to come, ~ I don't think I shall manage it.

as though, ⇨ *as*²(11). □ adv however: He said he would come; he didn't, ~.

thought¹ /θɔːt/ pt, pp of *think*¹.

thought² /θɔːt/ n 1 [U] (power, process of) thinking: He was lost/deep in ~, thinking so deeply as to be unaware of his surroundings, etc. 2 [U] way of thinking characteristic of a particular period, class, nation, etc: Scientific/Greek ~. 3 [U] care, consideration: He often acts without ~. 4 [C,U] idea, opinion, intention, etc formed by thinking: That boy hasn't a ~ in his head. He keeps his ~s to himself, does not tell anyone what he thinks. She says she can read my ~s, knows what I am thinking. He had no ~ (= intention) of hurting your feelings. food for thought, ⇨ food(2).

on second thoughts, after further consideration. give sb/sth a thought, think about before deciding, be sympathetic, etc according to context. spare a thought for sb, ⇨ *spare*²(2).

thought-ful /-fl/ adj (a) full of, showing, thought: ~ful looks. (b) considerate; thinking of the needs of others: It was ~ful of you to warn me of your arrival.

thought-fully /-fəli/ adv thought-less adj (a) careless; unthinking: Young people are often ~less for the future.

(b) selfish; inconsiderate (of others): a ~less action.

thought-less-ly adv

thou-sand /θəʊzənd/ adj, n [C] 1 (of) 1000. 2 great number: A ~ thanks for your kindness.

He made a ~ and one (= very many) excuses. a thousand to one (chance), a remote possibility. one in a thousand, a rare exception.

thousand-fold /-fəʊld/ adj, adv a thousand times (as much or many).

thou-sandth /θəʊzənθ/ adj, n [C] (abbr 1000th) (of) the next after 999 or one of 1000 parts.

thrash /θræʃ/ vt, vi 1 beat with a stick, whip, etc: He threatened to ~ the life out of me, beat me thoroughly. 2 (informal) defeat (a team, etc) in a contest. 3 thrash sth out, (a) clear up (a problem, etc) by discussion. (b) arrive at (the truth, a solution, etc) by discussion. 4 (cause to) toss, move violently: The swimmer ~ed about in the water.

thrashing, (a) beating: give/get a good ~ing. (b) defeat, eg in games.

thread /θred/ n [C,U] (length of) spun cotton, silk, flax, wool, etc esp for use in sewing and weaving: a needle and ~. 2 something like a thread: A ~ of light came through the keyhole. 3 [C] chain or line (connecting parts of a story, etc): lose the ~ of one's argument. 4 spiral ridge round a screw or bolt. □ vt 1 pass a thread through the eye of (a needle); put (beads, pearls, etc) on a thread. 2 thread one's way through, make one's way (through a crowd, etc). 3 (of hair) streak: black hair ~ed with silver, with streaks of silver hair in it.

'thread-bare /-beə(r)/ adj (of cloth) worn.

threat /θret/ n [C] 1 statement of an intention to punish or hurt a person, esp if he does not do as one wishes: carry out a ~; be under the ~ of expulsion, eg from a university. 2 sign or warning of coming trouble, danger, etc: There was a ~ of rain in the dark sky.

threaten /'θretn/ vt, vi 1 use threats: ~ an employee with dismissal. 2 give warning of: The clouds ~ed rain. 3 seem likely to occur or come: Knowing that danger ~ed, I kept an extra careful watch.

threat-en-ing adj: a ~ sky.

threat-en-ing-ly adv

three /θri:/ adj, n [C] (of) 3.

'three-'cornered adj triangular: a ~ cornered 'contest/fight, with three contestants or competitors, eg in a Parliamentary election.

'three-'D, (abbr for) three-dimensional.

'three-di-'mensional adj having, or appearing to have, three dimensions (length, breadth and depth).

'three-'figure adj (of numbers, amounts) between 100 and 999 (inclusive).

'three-'piece n [C], adj set of three articles of clothing (eg a suit); set of furniture (a sofa and two armchairs): a ~-piece 'suite.

'three-'ply adj (of wool, thread) having three strands.

'three-quarter(s), three fourths of the size, numbers, length, area, etc.

'three-'score, sixty.

'three-some /-səm/ n [C] (game, dance, for) three persons.

thresh /θref/ vt, vi beat (the grain out of) wheat, etc: ~ corn by hand.

'thresh-ing-machine, one for threshing grain.

thresher, person who, machine that, threshes.

thresh-old /'θrefhauld/ n [C] 1 stone or plank under a doorway in a house, church, etc: cross the ~. 2 (fig) start, beginning: He was on the ~ of his career.

threw /θru:/ pt of throw¹.

thrice /θraɪs/ adv (rare) three times.

thrift /θrɪft/ n [U] care, economy, in the use of money or goods.

thrifty adj (-ier, -iest) economical (the usual word).

thrill /θrɪl/ n [C] (experience causing an) excited feeling passing like a wave along the nerves: a ~ of joy/pleasure/horror. □ vt, vi cause a thrill in: The film ~ed the audience. We were ~ed with horror/joy. 2 feel a thrill: We ~ed at the good news.

thriller, novel, play or film in which excitement and emotional appeal are the essential elements.

thrive /θraɪv/ vi (pt thrive /θraʊv/ pp thriven /'θrɪvn/) prosper; succeed; grow strong and healthy: Children ~ on good food. He has a thriving business.

thro', thro /θru:/ = through.

throat /θrəʊt/ n [C] 1 front part of the neck: I gripped him by the ~. 2 passage in the neck through which food passes to the stomach and air to the lungs: A bone has stuck in my ~. cut one's own throat, cause one's own defeat. force/thrust sth down sb's throat, try to make him accept one's views, beliefs, etc. jump down sb's throat, criticize him, become angry with him, suddenly. stick in one's throat, (fig) be unable to be accepted: His words stuck in my ~. ⇨ lump¹ (2).

throb /θrɒb/ vi (-bb-) (of the heart, pulse, etc) beat, esp beat more quickly than usual: His head ~bed. He had a bad headache. □ n [C] throbbing or vibration: ~s of joy. ⇨ heart-throb.

throb-bing adj that throbs: a ~bing pain/sound.

throne /θrəʊn/ n [C] 1 ceremonial chair or seat of a king, queen, bishop, etc. 2 the ~, royal authority: come to the ~, become king/queen.

throng /θrɒŋ US: θrɔ:ŋ/ n [C] crowd. □ vt, vi make, be, a crowd: People ~ed to see the new play.

throttle /'θrɒtl/ vt, vi 1 seize (a person) by the throat and stop his breathing; strangle: He ~d the guard and then robbed the bank. 2 control the flow of steam, etc in an engine; lessen the speed of (an engine) by doing this. □ n [C] valve controlling the flow of steam, etc in an engine.

through¹ (US also thru) /θru:/ adv (For special combinations with verbs, eg get ~, ⇨ the verb entries.) 1 from end to end, beginning to end, side to side: They wouldn't let us ~, eg pass the gate. He slept the whole night ~, all night. The nail went ~ (the wood) easily. all through, all the time (something was happening, etc): I knew that all ~. 2 to the very end. be through (with), (a) finish (with):

When will you be ~ with your work? (b) (informal) have had enough of; be tired of: I'm ~ with this job; I must find something more interesting. (c) (informal) no longer be in love: I'm ~ with her. get through, ⇨ get through. see sth through, continue to do it, etc until it is finished. through and 'through, in all parts; completely: He's a reliable man ~ and ~. 3 all the way to: This train goes ~ to Paris. 4 (as an adjective) (used in the sense of 3): a ~ train to Paris; ~ traffic, road traffic which is going through a place (contrasted with local traffic). 5 (telephoning) (a) (GB) connected: I will put you ~ to the manager, connect you. (b) (US) finished; not wishing to continue the call.

'through-put /-put/, amount of material put through a process.

through² (US also thru) /θru:/ prep (For combinations with verbs, eg go through, ⇨ the verb entries.) 1 (of places) from end to end or side to side of; entering at one side, on one surface, etc and coming out at the other: The River Thames flows ~ London. There is a path ~ (= across) the fields. He was looking ~ a telescope. 2 (fig): He went ~/has come ~ (= experienced) many hardships. We must go ~ (= examine) the accounts. 3 (of time) from beginning to end of: He won't live ~ the night. He will die before morning. 4 (showing the agency, means or cause) because of: The accident happened ~ no fault of yours. 5 without stopping for: Don't drive ~ a red light. 6 (US) up to and including: Monday ~ Friday.

through-out /θru:'aot/ adv right through; in every part; in all ways or respects: The house needs painting ~. □ prep all or right through; from end to end of: ~ the country; ~ the war; ~ the year.

throve /θrəʊv/ pt of thrive.

throw¹ /θrəʊ/ vt,vi (pt threw /θru:/, pp thrown /θrəʊn/) (For special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions, ⇨ 11 below) 1 cause (something) to go through the air, usually with force, by a movement of the arm or by mechanical means: Don't ~ stones at my dog! He threw the ball to his sister. 2 put (articles of clothing) (on, off, over, etc) quickly or carelessly: ~ a coat over one's shoulders. 3 move (one's arms, legs, etc) (out, up, down, about) energetically: ~ one's chest out; ~ one's head back. 4 (a) (of a horse) cause the rider to fall to the ground: Two of the jockeys were ~n in the race. (b) (of a wrestler) force (an opponent) to the floor. 5 (of dice) drop on to the table (after shaking them in something); get by doing this: ~ three sixes. 6 (fig) cause to be noticed as if by throwing: He threw me an angry look. 7 shape (pottery) on a potter's wheel. 8 (informal) throw a party, give a (dinner, cocktail, etc) party. throw a fit, ⇨ fit² (3). 9 throw sth open (to), make (eg a competition) open to all persons. 10 (used with nouns) ⇨ cold¹ (1), doubt¹, gauntlet¹ (1), light² (5), weight² (2).

11 (special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions):

throw sth about, scatter: Don't ~ waste paper about in the park. throw money about, (fig) spend it carelessly.

throw sth away, (a) lose by foolishness or neglect: ~ away an opportunity. (b) (of words spoken by actors, broadcasters, etc) say in a casual way, with conscious under-emphasis.

throw back, show characteristics of, revert to, a remote ancestor. Hence, 'throw-back n [C] person, animal, with these characteristics.

throw oneself down, lie down quickly at full length (eg to avoid danger).

throw sth in, (a) give something extra, without an addition to the price: You can have the guitar for £20, with the case ~n in. (b) put in (a remark, etc) casually. (c) (football) throw the ball in after it has gone out of play. Hence, 'throw-in n [C]. throw in the towel, (informal) admit defeat.

throw oneself into sth, begin to work hard at it.

throw sb/sth off, manage to get rid of; become free from: ~ off a cold/a pursuer.

throw oneself on sb/sth, put one's trust in: ~ oneself on the mercy of the court.

throw sth out, (a) say (esp casually): ~ out a hint/suggestion. (b) reject (a Bill in Parliament, an idea, etc).

throw sb over, desert, abandon: ~ over one's girlfriend.

throw sth together, assemble (too) quickly: That dress seems to have been ~n together.

throw sth up, (a) vomit (food). (b) resign from: ~ up one's job. throw up one's hands (in horror), express horror by doing this.

throw oneself upon sb/sth, = throw on.

throw² /θrəʊ/ n [C] throwing; distance to which something is or may be thrown: a ~ of 70 metres; a well-aimed ~, eg cricket, to get a batsman out. within a stone's throw (of), ⇨ stone² (2).

thru /θru:/ (US) = through.

thrush /θrʌʃ/ n [C] sorts of songbird, esp the 'song-~.

thrust /θrʌst/ vt,vi (pt,pp ~) push suddenly or violently; make a forward stroke with a sword, etc: He ~ his hands into his pockets/a coin into my hand. □ n 1 [C] act of thrusting. 2 [C] (in war) strong attempt to push forward into the enemy's positions. 3 [C] (in debate, etc) attack in words. 4 [U] force directed forward in a jet-engine.

thud /θʌd/ n [C] dull sound as of a blow on something soft: He fell with a ~ to the carpet. □ vi (-dd-) strike, fall, with a thud.

thug /θʌg/ n [C] violent and dangerous person.

thumb /θʌm/ n [C] short, thick finger set apart from the other four. under sb's thumb, under his influence and control. by rule of thumb, using a method or procedure based on experience and practice. □ vt 1 turn over (pages, etc); make dirty by doing this: ~ the pages of a dictionary; a well-~ed 'book. 2 thumb a lift, = hitch-hike.

thump /θʌmp/ vt, vi 1 strike heavily; hit with the fists: He ~ed (on) the door. The two boys began to ~ one another. He was ~ing out a tune on the piano, playing noisily. 2 beat(7) heavily: His heart ~ed with excitement. □ n [C] (noise of, or as of, a) heavy blow (esp one given with the fist): Give him a friendly ~ on the back.

thunder /'θʌndə(r)/ n [U] 1 noise which usually follows a flash of lightning: a loud crash/a long roll of ~. 2 (also pl) loud noise like thunder: the ~ of the guns. steal sb's thunder, spoil his opportunity to be impressive by speaking or acting first. □ vi, vt 1 (impersonal): It was ~ing and lightening. 2 make a noise like thunder: Someone was ~ing at the door, beating at it. 3 speak in a loud voice, attack violently in words.

'thunder-bolt, (a) flash of lightning with a crash of thunder. (b) (fig) unexpected and terrible event.

'thunder-clap, sudden noise of thunder.

'thunder-storm, storm of thunder and lightning, usually with heavy rain.

'thunder-struck adj (fig) amazed.

thunder-ous /-əs/ adj making a noise like thunder: ~ous applause.

Thurs-day /'θɜ:zdi/ n fifth day of the week.

thus /ðʌs/ adv in this way; so: ~ far, to this point.

thwack /θwæk/ vt, n = whack.

thwart /θwɔ:t/ vt obstruct (and so defeat): be ~ed in one's ambitions/aims.

thyme /taim/ n [U] kind of herb.

thy-roid /'θaɪrɔɪd/ n [C] (also '~ gland) gland in the front part of the neck, producing a substance which affects the body's growth and activity.

ti-ara /tɪ'ɑ:rə/ n [C] (pl ~s) 1 coronet for a woman. 2 triple crown worn by the Pope.

tibia /'tɪbiə/ n [C] (pl ~e /-bi:/) (anat) inner and thicker of the two bones between the knee and the foot.

tic /tɪk/ n [C] involuntary twitching of the muscles (esp of the face).

tick ¹ /tɪk/ n [C] 1 light, regularly repeated sound, esp of a clock or watch. 2 (informal) moment: I'll be with you in a couple of ~s. 3 small mark (often ✓) to show that something is correct. □ vi, vt 1 (of a clock, etc) make ticks(1): The child put the watch to its ear and listened to it ~ing. What makes him/it tick? (informal) What makes him/it act, behave, etc like that? 2 (of a clock): ~ away the hours. 3 tick over, (a) (of an internal-combustion engine) be operating with gears disconnected. (b) (fig) be active but slow: Business is ~ing over. 4 put a tick(3) against: ~ off a name/the items on a list. tick sb off, (informal) tell him off. Hence, 'ticking-off n: give her a good ~ing-off.

tick ² /tɪk/ n [C] small parasite that fastens itself on the skin and sucks blood.

ticker /'tɪkə(r)/ n [C] 1 telegraphic machine which automatically prints news on paper tape (called 'ticker-tape). 2 (sl) heart.

ticket /'tɪkɪt/ n [C] 1 written or printed piece of card or paper giving the holder the right to travel in a train, bus, ship, etc or to a seat in a cinema, concert hall, etc: Do you want a single or a return ~? 2 piece of card or paper, label, attached to something and giving information, eg about the price, size of clothing, etc. 3 printed notice of an offence against traffic regulations (eg a parking offence): get a ('parking) ~. 4 (just) the ticket, (informal) the proper thing to do, have. □ vt put a ticket(2) on.

'ticket-collector, person who collects (railway) tickets.

tickle /'tɪkl/ vt, vi 1 excite the nerves of the skin by touching lightly, esp at sensitive parts, often so as to cause laughter: ~ him in the ribs. 2 please (one's sense of humour, etc). tickled pink/to death, very, pleased, amused: I was ~ pink at the praise given to me. 3 have, feel, cause, an itching or tingling sensation: My nose ~s.

tick-ler /'tɪklə(r)/, (esp) puzzling question.

ticklish /'tɪklɪʃ/ adj (a) (of a person) easily made to laugh when tickled. (b) (of a problem, piece of work, etc) needing delicate care or attention: be in a ticklish situation.

ti-dal /'taɪdl/ adj of a tide or tides: a ~ river, in which the tide rises and falls.

'tidal wave, great ocean wave, eg one that is (thought to be) caused by an earthquake.

tid-dler /'tɪdlə(r)/ n [C] (informal) 1 very small fish. 2 small young child.

tide /taɪd/ n 1 [C,U] regular rise and fall in the level of the sea, caused by the attraction of the moon: at high/low ~. 2 [C] flow or tendency (of public opinion, feeling, etc): The Liberals hoped for a turn of the ~, that public opinion might turn in their favour. □ vt tide sb over (sth), help him to get through or survive (a period of difficulty, etc): Will £5 ~ you over until you're paid?

'tide-mark, highest point reached by a tide on a beach.

tid-ings /'taɪdɪnz/ n pl (literary) (used with a sing or pl verb) news: glad ~.

tidy /'taɪdi/ adj (-ier, -iest) 1 arranged neatly and in order; having the habit of placing and keeping everything in its right place: a ~ room/boy. 2 (informal) fairly large (esp of money): a ~ sum of money. □ n [C] (pl -ies) receptacle for odds and ends: a 'sink-~, for bits of kitchen waste. □ vt, vi make tidy: You'd better ~ (up) the room before the guests arrive.

ti-dily /'taɪdli/ adv

ti-di-ness n [U]

tie¹ /taɪ/ n [C] 1 something (rope, ribbon) used for fastening. 2 (fig) something that keeps people united: the ~s of friendship; family ~s. 3 something that takes up one's attention and limits one's freedom of action: Mothers often find their small children a ~. 4 equal score in a game, etc: The game ended in a ~, 2-2. 5 band of material worn round the neck of a shirt and knotted in front.

tie² /taɪ/ vt, vi (present participle tying, pt, pp tied) 1 fasten or bind (with string, rope, wire, etc): ~ a man's feet together; ~ up a parcel. 2 fasten by means of the strings, etc of: ~ on a label. 3 arrange (a ribbon, etc) in the form of a bow or knot: ~ one's shoelaces; ~ a ribbon/scarf; ~ the ribbon in(to) a bow. 4 make by tying: ~ a knot in a piece of string. 5 be fastened: Does this dress ~ in front or at the back? 6 (of players, teams, candidates in a competitive examination) make the same score (as): The two teams ~d. They ~d for first place (in the examination).

7 (special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions):

tie sb down, restrict his freedom: He's not in a hurry to get married; he doesn't want to get ~d down. tie sb down to sth, restrict him to (the terms of a contract, etc).

tie (sth) in with sth, link, agree, with: Doesn't this ~ in with what we were told last week?

tie sth up, (a) invest (capital) so that it is not easily available. (b) ensure that (property, eg land, buildings) can be used, sold, etc only under certain conditions. be/get tied up (with sth/sb), (a) be, get, involved (with it/him) so that one has no time for other things: I'm afraid I can't help you now—I'm too ~d up with other things. (b) be, become, linked with: Isn't this company ~d up with Vickers-Armstrong? Hence, 'tie-up n [C] link; merger; partnership.

tier /tɪə(r)/ n [C] row (esp of seats) parallel to and rising one above another, eg in a theatre or stadium.

tiff /tɪf/ n [C] slight quarrel.

ti-ger /'taɪgə(r)/ n [C] 1 large, fierce animal of the cat family, yellow-skinned with black stripes. ⇨ paper tiger. 2 (informal) strong opponent; energetic person.

ti-ger-ish /-ɪʃ/ adj like, cruel as, a tiger.

ti-gress /'taɪgrɪs/ n [C] female tiger.

tight /taɪt/ adj (-er, -est) 1 fastened, fixed, fitting, held, closely: a ~ knot. The drawer is so ~ that I can't open it. 2 (esp in compounds) made so that something cannot get out or in: water-/air-~. 3 packed so as to occupy the smallest possible space or to get in as much as possible: Make sure that the bags are filled/packed ~. 4 (informal) having had too much alcoholic drink: He gets ~ every pay-day. 5 fully stretched: a ~ rope. 6 produced by pressure; causing difficulty. in a tight corner/spot, (fig) in a difficult or dangerous situation. a tight schedule, one that is difficult to keep to. a tight squeeze, ⇨ squeeze. 7 (of money) not easily obtainable, eg on loan from banks: Money is ~. □ adv = tightly: squeeze/hold it ~. sit tight, ⇨ sit (1).

'tight-fisted, miserly.

'tight-laced adj = strait-laced.

'tight-lipped adj (fig) saying little or nothing.

'tight-rope, one on which acrobats perform.

tight-ly adv

tight-ness n [U]

tighten /'taɪtn/ vt, vi make, become, tight(er): ~ (up) the screws; ~ the ropes of the tent.

tights /taɪts/ n pl 1 close-fitting (usually nylon) clothing covering the hips, legs and feet, as worn by girls and women. 2 skin-tight clothing covering the legs and body, worn by acrobats, ballet-dancers, etc.

tilde /tɪld/ n [C] the mark (˜) (as used in this dictionary to replace the headword in the example sentences).

tile /taɪl/ n [C] (usually square or oblong) plate of baked clay for covering roofs, walls, etc, often painted with designs or pictures. be (out) on the tiles, (sl) out drinking, etc. □ vt cover (a roof, etc) with tiles.

till¹ /tɪl/ (also until /ʌn'tɪl/) (Note: the choice between till and until is chiefly a matter of personal preference, though until is often considered more formal.) conj up to the time when: Go straight on ~ you come to the post office and then turn left. She won't go away ~ you promise to help her. □ prep up to the time when; up to; down to: I shall wait ~ ten o'clock. He works from morning ~ night, day after day.

till² /tɪl/ n [C] money-drawer in a cash-register.

till³ /tɪl/ vt cultivate (land).

till-age /'tɪldʒ/ n [U] act or process of tilling; tilled land.

tiller /'tɪlə(r)/ n [C] lever (like a long handle) used to turn the rudder of a small boat.

tilt /tɪlt/ vt, vi (cause to) come into a sloping position (as by lifting one end); tip: Don't ~ the table. □ n [C] tilting; sloping position.

tim-ber /'tɪmbə(r)/ n 1 [U] wood prepared for use in building, etc: a 1~yard, place where timber is stored, bought and sold, etc. 2 [U] growing trees thought of as containing wood suitable for building, carpentry, etc: The fire destroyed thousands of acres of ~. 3 [C] large piece of shaped wood, beam, forming a support (eg in a roof or a ship).

tim-bered adj (of buildings) made of timber.

time¹ /taɪm/ n 1 [U] all the days of the past, present and future: past, present and future ~. The world exists in space and ~. 2 [U] the passing of all the days, months and years, taken as a whole: T~ will show who is right. 3 [U] (also with a, an and an adjective) portion or measure of time: Six minutes is a short period of ~. What a (long) ~ you have been! all the time, (a) during the whole period in question: I looked all over the house for that letter, and it was in my pocket all the ~, while I was searching. (b) at all times; first and last: He's a business man all the ~, has no other interests in life. half the time, (a) as in: He did the work in four hours; I could have done it in half the ~, in two hours. (b) very often; nearly always: He says he works hard, but he's asleep half the ~. behind time, late: The train is ten minutes behind ~. for the time being, ⇨ *be*³(3). on time, not late, punctual(ly): The train is/came in on ~. in no time, very soon; very quickly. make up for lost time, hurry, etc after starting late. play for time, delay doing something in the hope that the situation will improve. take one's time (over sth), ⇨ *take*¹(9). 4 [U] point of time stated in hours and minutes of the day: What ~ is it? What's the ~? ⇨ tell(5). 5 [U] time measured in units (years, months, hours, etc): The winner's ~ was 11 seconds. pass the time, do something during a period of spare time, eg while waiting. pass the time of day (with...), ⇨ *pass*²(8). 6 [C,U] point or period of time associated with, or available or suitable for, a certain event, purpose, etc: by the ~ we arrived home; every ~ I looked at her. It's 'lunch-~. It's ~ I was going ~ for me to go, I ought to leave now. at the same time, (a) together: laugh and cry at the same ~. (b) (introducing a fact, etc that is to be thought about) still, nevertheless: At the same ~ you must not get that... from time to time; at times, occasionally; now and then. at all times, always. in time, (a) not late; early enough: We were in ~ to catch the train. (b) sooner or later: You will learn how to do it in ~. in no time (at all), very quickly. ⇨ also nick. do time, (informal) go to prison for a period. 7 [C] occasion: this/that/next/another ~; the ~ before last; for the first/last ~. time and (time) again; times without number, again and again; repeatedly. 8 (pl) (used to show multiplication): Three ~s five is/are fifteen, 3 × 5 = 15. 9 [C] (often pl) period of time, more or less definite, associated with certain events, circumstances, persons, etc: in ancient/prehistoric ~s. 10 [C] (often pl) the conditions of life, the circumstances, etc of a period characterized by certain qualities, etc: We lived through terrible ~s during the war years. T~s are good/bad, (often meaning that it is easy/difficult to make a living). behind the times, old-fashioned. have a good time, ⇨ *good*¹(4). have the time of one's life, ⇨ life(5). 11 [U] Greenwich / local / summer / standard time, ⇨ these entries. 12 (music) measurement depending on the number of rhythmic beats in successive bars of a piece of music. beat time, ⇨ *beat*²(7). mark time, ⇨ *mark*²(7).

'time-bomb, designed to explode at some time after being dropped, placed in position.

'time-card/-sheet, one for a record of workmen's hours of work.

'time-consuming adj using, needing, a lot of time.

'time-honoured (US = -honored) adj respected because of its age.

'time-keeper, (a) one who, or that which, records the time spent by workers at their work. (b) (of a watch, etc) one that keeps time well, etc: a good/bad ~keeper.

'time-lag, interval of time between two connected events.

'time-limit, limited period of time; last moment of this: set a ~-limit for the completion of a job.

'time-saving adj serving to save time: a ~-saving idea.

'time-signal, signal (eg a series of pips) for telling the time (in a radio programme).

'time-switch, switch set to operate at a desired time (eg to turn a heating system on or off).

'time-table, list showing the days or hours at which events will take place, work will be done, etc esp a list showing the times at which trains, etc will arrive and depart.

'time-zone, region of the world where the same time(4) is used.

time² /taɪm/ vt 1 choose the time or moment for; arrange the time of: He ~d his journey so that he arrived before dark. 2 measure the time taken by or for (a race, runner, an action or event). 3 regulate: ~ the speed of a machine.

tim-ing n [U] act of determining or regulating the (order of) occurrence of an action, event, etc to achieve the desired results: The timing of last night's performance was excellent.

time-ly /'taɪmlɪ/ adj (-ier, -iest) occurring at just the right time: a ~ arrival.

timid /'tɪmɪd/ adj easily frightened: He's as ~ as a rabbit.

tim-id-ity /'tɪmɪdəti/ n [U] timid-ly adv

tim-or-ous /'tɪmərəs/ adj timid.

tim-or-ous-ly adv

tim-pani /'tɪmpəni/ n pl set of kettledrums (eg of an orchestra).

tim-pan-ist /'tɪmpənɪst/, player of a kettledrum.

tin /tɪn/ n 1 [U] soft, white metal (symbol Sn) used in alloys and for coating iron sheets. 2 [C] (US = can) tin-plated airtight container for food: a ~ of sardines/beans. □ vt (-nn-) 1 put a coating of tin on. 2 (US = can) pack (food, tobacco, etc) in tins (2): ~ned peaches.

'tin-foil, tin in thin, flexible sheets, used for wrapping and packing cigarettes, confectionery, etc.

'tin-opener, device for opening tins.

tinny adj (-ier, -iest) of or like tin (eg in sound): a ~ piano.

tine /taɪn/ n [C] 1 point, prong (eg of a fork, etc). 2 branch of a deer's antler.

tinge /tɪndʒ/ vt 1 'colour slightly (with red, etc). 2 (fig) (esp in pp) affect slightly: admiration ~d with envy. □ n [C] slight colouring or mixture (of): There was a ~ of sadness in her voice.

tingle /'tɪŋɡl/ vi have a pricking or stinging feeling in the skin: His fingers ~d with the cold. The children were tingling with excitement. □ n [C] tingling feeling.

tin-ker /'tɪŋkə(r)/ n [C] 1 worker who repairs kettles, pans, etc. 2 attempt to repair; work: have an hour's ~ at the radio, try to mend it. □ vi work in an inexpert way (at): Please don't ~ with my car engine.

tinkle /'tɪŋkl/ vi, vt (cause to) make a succession of light, ringing sounds, eg of a small bell. □ n (sing) such sounds: the ~ of a bell.

tin-sel /'tɪnsəl/ n [U] 1 glittering metallic substance made in sheets, strips and threads, used for ornament: trim a Christmas tree with ~. 2 cheap, showy brilliance. □ vt (-ll-, US also -l-) trim with tinsel.

tint /tɪnt/ n [C] (esp pale or delicate) shade or variety of colour: ~s of green in the sky at dawn. □ vi give a tint to; put a tint on.

tiny /taɪni/ adj (-ier, -iest) very small.

-tion /-ʃn/ (also -sion /-ʃn/, -ation /-eɪʃn/, -ition /-ɪʃn/) suffix (verb + ~ = noun): relation; confession; hesitation; competition.

-tional /-ʃənl/ adj

-tion-ally /-ʃənəli/ adv

tip¹ /tɪp/ n [C] 1 pointed or thin end of something: the ~s of one's fingers/the 'finger-~s. (have sth) on the tip of one's tongue, (be) just going to say (it), just about to remember (it). 2 small piece put at the end of something: cigarettes with filter-~s. □ vt (-pp-) supply with a tip (2): ~ped cigarettes.

'tip-toe adv on tiptoe, on the tips of one's toes: be on ~toe with excitement. □ vi walk on tiptoe: She ~toed out of the bedroom.

tip²-top adj, adv (informal) first-rate: in ~top con'dition. tip² /tɪp/ vi, vt (-pp-) 1 tip (sth) up, (cause to) rise, lean or tilt on one side or at one end: The table ~ped up. tip sth (over), (cause to) overbalance or overturn: Careful! You'll ~ the canoe over. tip the scale (at), (a) be just enough to cause one scale or pan (of a balance) to go lower than the other. (b) (fig) be the deciding factor (for or against). (c) weigh: He ~ped the scale at 70 kilos. 2 empty (the contents of something) out of/into: No rubbish to be ~ped here, a warning put up in open spaces. She ~ped the water out of the bowl into the sink. □ n [C] 1 (not US) place where rubbish may be tipped (2): a 'refuse ~. 2 hill of waste material from a coalmine, etc. 3 (informal) untidy place: This room is a ~!

tip³ /tɪp/ vt (-pp-) 1 touch or strike lightly: His bat just ~ped the ball. 2 give a tip to (1,2 below): ~ the waiter. tip sb off, (informal) give him a warning, information or a hint. Hence, 'tip-off n [C] hint or warning: give the police a ~-off. tip the winner, name the winner (of a horse-race) before the event takes place. □ n [C] 1 gift of money to a porter, waiter, etc for services: leave a ~ on the table, eg in a restaurant. 2 piece of advice on something, eg information about the probable winner of a horse-race, about a person wanted by the police, etc: If you take my ~ (= advice) you'll say you're sorry. 3 tap (1).

tipple /'tɪpl/ n [U] (usually alcoholic) drink: My favourite ~ is sherry.

tip-ster /'tɪpstə(r)/ n [C] person who gives tips about races. ⇨ tip³ (2).

tipsy /'tɪpsɪ/ adj (informal) slightly drunk.

ti-rade /taɪ'reɪd/ n [C] long, angry or scolding speech.

tire¹ /taɪə(r)/ n [C] (US) = tyre.

tire² /taɪə(r)/ vi, vt make or become weary, in need of rest, etc: The long walk ~d the child | ~d him out/made him ~d. be tired of, have had enough of: be ~d of boiled eggs, have had them too often.

tired /taɪəd/ adj weary in body or mind; sleepy: feel ~d after a long climb. tired out, completely exhausted.

tired-ness n [U]

tire-less adj (a) not easily tired: a ~less worker. (b) continuing a long time: ~less energy.

tire-some /-səm/ adj troublesome; tedious.

tis-sue /'tuː/ n 1 [C, U] mass of cells and cell-products in an animal body: 'muscular ~. 2 [C, U] (also '~ paper) thin, soft paper for wrapping things, protecting delicate articles, etc. 3 [C] (fig) series: a ~ of lies.

tit¹ /tɪt/ n [C] kinds of small bird.

tit² /tɪt/ n (only in) tit for 'tat, blow for blow.

tit³ /tʌt/ n Δ (vulgar sl) nipple; woman's breast.

tit-bit /'tɪtbɪt/ n [C] attractive bit (of food, news, gossip, etc).

tit-il-late /'tɪtɪlət/ vt stimulate or excite pleasantly.

tit-il-la-tion /'tɪtɪləʃn/ n [U] titi-vate (also titti-) /'tɪtɪveɪt/ vi, vt (informal) make smart: She was titivating herself in front of the mirror.

title /'taɪtl/ n 1 [C] name of a book, poem, picture, etc. 2 [C] word used to show a person's rank, occupation, status, etc, eg Lord, Prince, Professor, Dr, Miss. 3 [C,U] (legal) right or claim, esp right to the possession of a position, property: Has he any ~ to the land? 4 = credit titles.

'title-deed, document proving a title(3) to property.

'title-role, part in a play that gives the play its name: a great performance of 'Othello' with Olivier in the ~-role, with Olivier as Othello.

titled /'taɪtlɪd/ adj having a title of nobility: a ~d lady, eg a duchess.

tit-ter /'tɪtə(r)/ vt, n [C] (give a) silly little laugh.

titu-lar /'tɪtjələ(r) US: -tɪʃ-ʊ/ adj 1 held by virtue of a title: ~ possessions. 2 existing in name but not having authority or duties: the ~ ruler.

tizzy /'tɪzi/ n be in a tizzy, (informal) in a nervous state.

T-junction /'ti: dʒʌŋkʃn/ n [C] ⇨ T, t.

TNT /'ti: en 'ti: / n (= trinitrotoluene) powerful explosive.

to¹ /tu:/ adverbial particle 1 to or in the usual or required position, esp to a closed or almost closed position: Push the door ~. 2 to and fro, ⇨ fro. 3 ⇨ come(13), bring(5), and *fall*²(14).

to² /tə/ before vowels and strong form: tu:/ particle (marking the infinitive) 1 (used after many verbs but not after can, do, may, must, shall, will): He wants ~ go. 2 (used with adverbs of functions, purpose, result, outcome): They came (in order) ~ help me. He lived ~ be ninety. 3 (limiting the meanings of adjectives and adverbs): The book is easy ~ understand. He's old enough ~ go to school. 4 (a subsequent fact): The good old days have gone never ~ return, and will never return. He awoke ~ find himself (= and found himself) in a strange room. 5 (used with an infinitive as a noun): It is wrong ~ steal. 6 (used as a substitute for the infinitive): We didn't want to go home but we had ~, ie had to go home.

to³ /tə/ before vowels and strong form: tu:/ prep 1 in the direction of; towards: walk ~ work; point ~ it; hold it (up) ~ the light; turn ~ the right. 2 (fig) towards (a condition, quality, etc): a tendency ~ laziness; slow ~ anger. 3 (introducing the indirect object): Who did you give it ~? The man I gave it ~ has left. 4 as far as: from beginning ~ end; count (up) ~ ten. 5 before: a quarter ~ six. 6 until: from morning ~ night. I didn't stay ~ the end of the meeting. 7 (of comparison, ratio, reference): I prefer walking ~ climbing. We won by six goals ~ three.

toad /təʊd/ n [C] animal like a frog that lives on land except when breeding.

'toad-stool, kinds of fungus, some of them poisonous.

toast¹ /təʊst/ n [U] (slice of) bread made brown and crisp by heating: two slices of ~. □ vt, vi 1 (of bread) make or become brown and crisp by heating. 2 warm (oneself, one's toes, etc) before a fire.

toaster, electric device for toasting bread.

toast² /təʊst/ vt wish happiness, success, etc to (a person or thing) while raising a glass of wine: ~ the bride and bridegroom. □ n [C] act of toasting: person, group, etc toasted: propose/ drink a ~.

to-bacco /tə'bækəʊ/ n [U] (pl for kinds of tobacco leaf) (plant having) leaves which are dried, cured and used for smoking (in pipes, cigars, cigarettes) or as snuff: This is a mixture of the best ~s.

to-bac-co-nist /tə'bækənɪst/, shop, person, selling tobacco, cigarettes, etc.

to-bog-gan /tə'bɒgən/ n [C] long, narrow sledge without runners for sliding on ice. □ vi go down a snow-covered or ice-covered slope on a toboggan.

to-day /tə'deɪ/ adv, n [U] 1 (on) this day: T ~ is Sunday. Have you seen ~'s newspaper? We're leaving ~ week/a week ~, in one week's time. 2 (at) this present age or period: the writers/~ the young people of ~.

toddle /'tɒdl/ vi walk with short, uncertain steps as a baby does.

tod-dler /'tɒdlə(r)/, baby who can toddle.

toe /təʊ/ n [C] 1 each of the five divisions of the front part of the foot; similar part of an animal's foot. tread/step on sb's toes, (fig) offend him. from top to toe, from head to foot, completely. on one's toes, (fig) alert, ready for action. on tiptoe, ⇨ tip-toe. 2 part of a sock, shoe, etc covering the toes. □ vt touch, reach, with the toes. toe the line, (fig) behave properly; obey orders given to one as a member of a group or party.

'toe-nail, nail of the toe of a human being.

tof-fee /'tɒfi US: 'tɒfi/ n [C,U] (piece of) hard, brown sticky sweet made by boiling sugar, butter, etc.

tog /tɒg/ vt (-gg-) (informal) put on smart clothes.

togs n pl (informal) clothes: 'swimming ~s.

toga /'tɒgə/ n [C] (pl ~s) loose flowing outer clothing worn by men in ancient Rome.

to-gether /tə'geðə(r)/ adv 1 in company: They went for a walk ~. together with, as well as, in addition to; and also: These new facts, ~ with the evidence you have already heard, prove the prisoner's innocence. 2 so as to be in the same place, to be in contact, to be united: Tie the ends ~. The leader called his men ~. put your/our, etc heads to-gether, consult with each other (to find a solution, make plans, etc). 3 at the same time: All his troubles seemed to come ~.

to-gether-ness n [C] friendship; feeling of unity.

togs /tɒgz/ n pl ⇨ tog.

toil /tɔɪl/ vi work long or hard (at a task); move with difficulty and trouble: ~ up a steep hill. □ n [U] hard work: after long ~.

toiler, hard worker.

toilet /'tɔɪlɪt/ n [C] 1 lavatory; water-closet. 2 process of dressing, arranging the hair, etc: She spent only a few minutes on her ~. 3 (used as an adjective): a ~ set, ~ articles, such things as a hairbrush, comb, etc.

'toilet-paper, for use in a lavatory.

'toilet-roll, roll of toilet-paper.

to-ken /'təʊkən/ n [C] 1 sign, evidence, guarantee or mark: I am giving you this watch as a ~ of my affection. ⇨ book token. 2 (used as an adjective) acting as a preliminary or small-scale substitute: The enemy offered only a ~ resistance, did not resist seriously.

'token 'payment, payment of a small part of what is owed, made to show that the debt is recognized.

'token 'strike, for a few hours only (as a warning that a long strike may follow).

told /təʊld/ pt, pp of tell.

tol-er-ance /'tɒlərəns/ n [U] quality of tolerating opinions, beliefs, customs, physical types, behaviour, etc different from one's own: religious/racial ~.

tol-er-ant /'tɒlərənt/ adj having or showing tolerance: Mr X is not very ~ (of criticism).

tol-er-ant-ly adv

tol-er-ate /'tɒləreɪt/ vt 1 put up with, allow, without protest: I won't ~ your impudence/your doing that. 2 put up with the company of: How can you ~ that rude girl?

tol-er-able /'tɒlərəbl/ adj (formal) that can be tolerated; fairly good: tolerable food.

tol-er-ably /-əbli/ adv

tol-er-ation /'tɒlə'reɪʃn/ n, tolerance, esp the practice of allowing religious freedom.

toll¹ /təʊl/ n [C] 1 payment required for the use of a road, bridge, harbour, etc. 2 (fig) something paid, lost or suffered: The war took a heavy ~ of the nation's men.

'toll-bar/-gate, bar/gate across a road at which a toll is payable.

'toll-house, house for the man in charge of a toll-bar.

toll² /təʊl/ vt, vi (of a bell) (cause to) ring with slow, regular strokes: The funeral bell ~ed solemnly. □ n (sing only) tolling stroke of a bell.

tom-ato /tə'mɑ:təʊ US: tə'mentəʊ/ n [C] (pl ~es) (plant with a) soft, juicy, (usually) red fruit: (used as an adjective) ~ juice.

tomb /tu:m/ n [C] place dug in the ground, cut out of rock, etc for a dead body, esp one with a monument over it.

'tomb-stone, inscribed stone over a tomb.

tom-boy /'tɒmbɔɪ/ n [C] girl who likes rough, noisy games and play.

tom-cat /tɒmkæt/ n [C] male cat.

tome /təʊm/ n [C] (formal) large, heavy book.

to-mor-row /tə'mɒrəʊ/ adv, n [C, U] (on) the day after today: If today is Monday, ~ will be Tuesday and the day after ~ will be Wednesday. The announcement will appear in ~'s newspapers.

ton /tʌn/ n [C] 1 measure of weight (2240 lb in GB, 2000 lb in the US); metric ton, 2204.6 lb or 1000 kg. 2 (informal) large weight, quantity or number: He has ~s of money.

to-nal /'təʊnl/ adj (music) of tone or tones.

to-nal-ity /təʊ'næləti/ n [C] (pl -ies) (music) character of a melody, depending on the scale in which it is written, etc.

tone¹ /təʊn/ n 1 [C] sound, esp with reference to its quality, pitch, duration, feeling, etc: the sweet ~(s) of a violin; a serious ~ of voice. 2 [C] the pitch aspect of a (usually stressed) syllable; rise, fall, etc of the pitch of the voice in speaking: In 'Are you ill?' there is a rising ~ on 'ill'. 3 (sing only) general spirit, character, morale, of a community, etc: The ~ of the school is excellent. 4 [C] shade (of colour); degree (of light): a carpet in ~s of brown. 5 [C] (music) any one of the five larger intervals between one note and the next. 6 [U] proper and normal condition of (parts of) the body: good muscular ~.

tone-less adj not having colour, spirit, etc; dull: answer in a ~less voice.

tone-less-ly adv

tone² /təʊn/ vt, vi 1 give a particular tone of sound or colour to. 2 tone (sth) down, make or become less intense: The artist ~d down the brighter colours. You'd better ~ down some of the offensive statements in your article. 3 tone (sth) up, make or become more healthy, intense, brighter, etc: Exercise ~s up the muscles. 4 tone in (with), (esp of colours) be in harmony: These curtains ~ in well with your rugs.

tongs /tɒgz/ n pl (also a pair of ~) one of various kinds of U-shaped tool for taking up and holding something: 'sugar ~. be/go at it hammer and tongs, ⇨ hammer(1).

tongue /tʌŋ/ n 1 [C] movable organ in the mouth, used in talking, tasting, licking, etc: Don't put your ~ out at me! (have sth) on the tip of one's tongue, ⇨ tip¹(1).

have one's tongue in one's cheek, say something that one does not intend to be taken seriously. have lost one's tongue, be too shy to speak. hold one's tongue, be silent, stop talking. 2 [C] language: one's mother ~, one's native language. 3 [C, U] animal's tongue, cooked and eaten: ham and ~ sandwiches. 4 something like a tongue in shape or use, eg the strip of leather under the laces of a shoe, a flame.

'tongue-tied adj silent; unable or unwilling to speak through shyness, fear, etc.

'tongue-twister, word or succession or words difficult to say quickly and correctly.

tonic /'tɒnɪk/ n [C], adj 1 (something, eg, medicine) giving strength or energy: get a bottle of ~ from the doctor. Praise can be a useful mental ~. 2 (music) keynote. 3 = tonic water: a gin and ~.

'tonic water, (bottled) water with quinine: a gin and ~.

to-night /tə'naɪt/ adv, n [U] (on) the night of today: last night, ~, and tomorrow night; ~'s television news.

tonnage /'tɒnɪdʒ/ n [U] 1 internal cubic capacity of a ship (1 ton = 100 cu ft). 2 total tonnage(1) of a country's merchant shipping. 3 charge per ton on cargo, etc for transport.

ton-sil /'tɒnsɪl/ n [C] either of two small oval masses of tissue at the sides of the throat, near the root of the tongue.

ton-sil-itis /'tɒnsɪl'aitɪs/ n [U] inflammation of the tonsils.

too /tu:/ adv 1 also; as well, in addition: I, ~, have been to Paris, eg I, as well as he, you, etc. I've been to Paris ~, eg to Paris as well as to Rome, Milan, etc. 2 moreover: There was frost last night, and in May ~! 3 to, in, a higher degree than is allowable, required, etc: We've had ~ much rain lately. You're driving ~ fast for safety. These shoes are much ~ small for me. 4 (phrases) go/carry sth too far, ⇨ far²(2). all too soon/quickly, etc, sooner, more quickly, etc than is desired: The holidays ended all ~ soon. none too early/soon, etc, not at all too early, etc: We were none ~ early for the train. We caught the train with very little time to spare. one too many, ⇨ many(1). be too much (for), ⇨ much¹. only too (+ adj), ⇨ only².

took /tʊk/ pt of take¹.

tool /tu:l/ n [C] 1 instrument held in the hand(s) and used by workmen. 2 person used by another for dishonest purposes: He was a mere ~ in the hands of the dictator.

toot /tu:t/ n [C] short, sharp warning sound from a horn, whistle, trumpet, etc. □ vi, vt (cause to) give out a toot.

tooth /tu:θ/ n [C] (pl teeth /ti:θ/) 1 each of the hard, white, structures rooted in the gums, used for biting and chewing: have a ~ out (US: have a ~ pulled), ie by a dentist. in the teeth of, against the full force of, in opposition to. armed to the teeth, completely and elaborately armed. long in the tooth, old; experienced. by the skin of one's teeth, ⇨ skin(1). fight tooth and nail, ⇨ fight². get one's teeth into sth, attack (a job) vigorously. have a sweet tooth, ⇨ sweet(1). show one's teeth, take up a threatening attitude. 2 part of a comb, saw or rake like a tooth. go over/through sth with a fine-tooth comb, examine it closely and thoroughly. 3 (pl) (informal) effective force: When will the new legislation be given some teeth, be made effective?

'tooth-ache, pain in a tooth or teeth.

'tooth-brush, one for cleaning the teeth.

'tooth-paste/-powder, for cleaning the teeth.

'tooth-pick, short, pointed piece of wood, etc for removing bits of food from between the teeth.

tooth-less adj without teeth: a ~less grin.

tootle /'tu:tl/ vi, n [C] toot softly or continuously, as on a car horn.

top¹ /tɒp/ n 1 (usually sing with the) highest part or point: at the ~ of the hill; the hill ~. on top, (a) above: The green book is at the bottom of the pile and the red one is on ~. (b) more successful. on top of things/one's work, (informal) able to cope. on (the) top of, (a) over, resting on: Put the red book on (the) ~ of the others. (b) in addition to: He borrowed £50 from me for the journey and then, on ~ of that, asked me if he could borrow my car, too. from top to bottom, completely.

from top to toe, from head to foot. blow one's top, (informal) explode in rage. 2 [C] upper surface, eg of a table: polish the ~ of a table. on top of the world, ⇨ world(4). 3 [C] highest rank, foremost (or most important) place: He came out at the ~ of the list, eg of examination results. come to the top, (fig) win fame, success, etc. reach/be at the top of the ladder/tree, the highest position in a profession, career, etc. 4 [C] greatest height or degree: shout at the top of one's voice, ⇨ voice, n(3). 5 (as an adjective) highest in position or degree: on the ~ shelf; at ~ speed; charge ~ prices. 6 (motoring) in top, in top (the highest) gear.

'top-'brass, (informal) senior management.

'top-coat, overcoat (the usual word).

'top-'dog, (sl) master, winner, etc.

'top-'drawer, (informal) the highest social class.

'top-'flight adj (informal) first-rate; best possible: ~flight authors.

'top-'hat, tall silk hat.

'top-'heavy adj over-weighted at the top so as to be in danger of falling.

'top-knot, knot of hair, bunch of feathers, etc on the top of the head.

'top-most /-maʊst/ adj highest.

'top-'notch adj (informal) excellent.

'top-'people, those at the top of their profession, in the highest positions, etc.

'top-'ranking adj of the highest rank.

'top-'secret, needing to be secret because very important.

'top soil, soil on the surface.

top-less adj (of a woman's clothes) leaving the breasts bare: a ~less swimsuit.

top² /tɒp/ vi (-pp-) 1 provide a top for; be a top for; be a top to: a cake ~ped by/with icing.

2 top (sth) up, fill up (a partly empty container): ~ up with oil, add oil; ~ up a drink, refill a partly filled glass. 3 surpass, be taller or higher than: Our exports have just ~ped the £80000 mark. to top it all, the last (and surprising, etc) touch is.... 4 cut the tops off: lift and ~ carrots, take them from the ground and cut off the leaves.

top³ /tɒp/ n [C] toy that spins and balances on a point. sleep like a top, sleep deeply.

to-paz /tə'pæz/ n [U] transparent yellow mineral; [C] gem cut from this.

topic /tə'pɪk/ n [C] subject for discussion.

topi-cal /-kl/ adj of interest now: ~al news.

topi-cally /-kli/ adv

topo-gra-phy /tə'pɒgrəfi/ n [U] (description of the) features, eg rivers, valleys, roads, of a place or district.

topo-graphi-cal /tə'pɒgrəfikl/ adj topo-graphi-cally /-kli/ adv

topple /tɒpl/ vi, vt (cause to) be unsteady and fall (over): The pile of books ~d over/down. The dictator was ~d from power.

tor /tɔ:(r)/ n [C] small hill; rocky peak.

torch /tɔ:tʃ/ n [C] 1 (GB) electric light held in the hand. 2 piece of wood, etc soaked in oil, etc for carrying or using as a flaming light. 3 (fig) something that gives enlightenment: the ~ of learning.

'torch-light, light of a torch: a ~ light procession.

tore /tɔ:(r)/ pt of tear².

tor-ea-dor /tɔ:'eɪdɔ:(r) US: 'tɔ:r-/ n [C] bull-fighter (usually on a horse).

tor-ment /tɔ:'ment/ n [C, U] (something that causes) severe bodily or mental pain or suffering: be in ~; suffer ~s from an aching tooth. □ vt /tɔ:'ment/ cause severe suffering to; annoy: ~ed with pain/hunger.

tor-men-tor /-tɔ:(r)/, person who, that which, torments.

torn /tɔ:n/ pp of tear².

tor-nado /tɔ:'neɪdɔ:/ n [C] (pl ~es) violent and destructive whirlwind.

tor-pedo /tɔ:'pi:dəu/ n [C] (pl ~es) long self-propelled weapon filled with explosives and travelling below the surface of the sea, used to attack ships. □ vi 1 attack or destroy with a torpedo. 2 (fig) attack (a policy, institution, etc) and make it ineffective: Who ~ed the disarmament talks?

tor-rent /tɔ:'rɒnt US: 'tɔ:r-/ n [C] 1 strong rush of liquid (esp water): mountain ~s; ~s of rain. 2 (fig) violent outpouring: a ~ of abuse/insults.

tor-ren-tial /tɔ:'renʃl/ adj of, like, caused by, a torrent: ~ial rain.

tor-so /tɔ:'səu/ n [C] (pl ~s) (statue of a) human body without head, arms and legs.

tor-toise /tɔ:'tɔ:s/ n [C] slow-moving, four-legged land (and fresh-water) varieties of turtle with a hard shell.

tor-tu-ous /tɔ:'tʃuəs/ adj 1 full of twists and bends: a ~ path. 2 (fig) not straightforward: a ~ argument/politician.

tor-tu-ous-ly adv

tor-ture /tɔ:'tʃə(r)/ vt cause severe suffering to: ~ a man to make him confess; ~d with anxiety. □ n 1 [U] infliction of severe bodily or mental suffering: instruments of ~. 2 [C, U] pain caused or suffered; method of torturing: suffer ~ from the secret police.

tor-turer, person who tortures.

Tory /tɔ:'rɪ/ adj, n [C] (pl -ies) = Conservative.

toss /tɒs US: tɔ:s/ vt, vi 1 throw up into or through the air: He ~ed the beggar a coin/~ed a coin to the beggar. The horse ~ed its head.

toss a coin, send a coin spinning up in the air and guess which side will be on top when it falls.

toss sb for sth, use the method of tossing a coin to decide something: Who's to pay for the drinks? Let's ~ for it. 2 (cause to) move restlessly from side to side or up and down: The ship (was) ~ed about on the stormy sea.

3 toss sth off, produce it quickly and without much thought or effort: ~ off a letter. □ n [C] 1 tossing movement: a ~ of the head;

take a ~, (esp) be thrown from the back of a horse. 2 win/lose the toss, guess correctly/incorrectly when a coin is tossed.

'toss-up, tossing of a coin; (hence) (fig) something about which there is doubt: It's a ~-up whether he will get here in time.

tot¹ /tɒt/ n [C] 1 (often tiny tot) very small child. 2 (informal) small glass of liquor.

tot² /tɒt/ vt, vi (-tt-) tot (sth) up, (informal) add up: ~ up a column of figures.

to-tal /tə'tɔ:l/ adj complete; entire: ~ silence. □ n [C] total amount: Our expenses reached a ~ of £20. □ vt, vi (-ll-, US also -l-) find, reach, the total of: The visitors to the exhibition ~led 15000.

to-tally /tə'tɔ:lɪ/ adv completely: ~ly blind.

to-tal-ity /tə'tæləti/ n [U] entirety.

to-tali-tar-ian /tə'tælɪ'tɔ:riən/ adj of a system based on professed terroristic dictatorship by the most reactionary circles.

tot-ter /tɒtə(r)/ vi 1 walk with weak, unsteady steps; get up unsteadily: The wounded man ~ed to his feet. 2 be almost falling; seem to be about to collapse: The tree ~ed and then fell.

tou-can /tʊ:kən/ n [C] kinds of tropical American bird with brightly coloured feathers and a large beak.

touch¹ /tʌtʃ/ n 1 [C] act or fact of touching: I felt a ~ on my arm. 2 [U] (sense giving) feeling by touching: soft/rough to the ~, when touched. 3 [C] stroke made with a brush, pen, etc: add a few finishing ~es (to a drawing or any piece of work). 4 [C] slight quantity, trace: a ~ of frost in the air; a ~ of sadness in his voice. 5 [C] style or manner of playing a musical instrument, of workmanship (in art), etc:

have a light ~, eg on a piano, a typewriter. 6 [U] communication. in/out of touch (with), in/not in regular communication (with); having/not having information about: keep in ~ with old friends; be out of ~ with the political situation. lose touch (with), be out of touch (with): If we correspond regularly we shan't lose ~. 7 (football) part of the pitch outside the side-lines: The ball is in/out of ~. touch-and-go adj risky; of uncertain result: It was ~-and-go whether the doctor would arrive in time.

touch² /tʌtʃ/ vt,vi (For special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions, ⇨ 11 below.) 1 (cause to) be in contact with; bring a part of the body (esp the hand) into contact with: One of the branches is ~ing the water. Can you ~ (= reach with your hand) the top of the door? Visitors (eg in a museum) are requested not to ~ the exhibits. touch bottom, (a) reach the bottom: The water isn't deep here; I can just ~ bottom, ie with my feet. (b) (fig) reach the lowest level of value, misfortune, etc. touch wood, touch something made of wood to avoid bad luck: I've never been in a road accident—~ wood. 2 apply a slight or gentle force to: He ~ed the bell, rang it by pressing the button. 3 (in the negative) compare with; be equal to: No one can ~ him as an actor of tragic roles. 4 (in the negative) take (food, drink): He hasn't ~ed food for two days. 5 affect (a person or his feelings); concern: The sad story ~ed us/our hearts. 6 have to do with: As a pacifist I refuse to ~ (= invest money in) shares of armament firms. 7 injure slightly: Luckily the paintings were not ~ed by the fire. 8 touched, slightly mad or deranged: He seems to be a bit ~ed. 9 cause a painful or angry feeling in; wound: The remark ~ed him deeply; cause a feeling of gratitude: I was so ~ed by your letter of sympathy. ⇨ touching. 10 deal with; cope with; get a result from: Nothing I have used will ~ (= get rid of) these grease spots. She couldn't ~ (= even begin to answer) the first two questions in the biology paper, ie in an examination. 11 (special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions):

touch down, (of aircraft) come down to land. Hence, touch-down n [C] touch sb for sth, (sl) get money from (by begging): He ~ed me for a fiver (ie £5).

touch sth off, (fig) cause to start: The arrest of the men's leaders ~ed off a riot.

touch on sth, mention (a subject) briefly.

touch sth up, make small changes in (a picture, a piece of writing) to improve it.

touch-able /tʌtʃəbl/ adj that may be touched.

touch-ing /tʌtʃɪŋ/ adj pathetic; causing gratitude, sympathy, etc: a ~ request for help. □ prep concerning.

touch-ing-ly adv

touchy /tʌtʃi/ adj (-ier, -iest) easily or quickly offended.

tough /tʌf/ adj (-er, -est) 1 (of meat) hard to cut or get one's teeth into. 2 not easily cut, broken or worn out: as ~ as leather. 3 strong; able to endure hardships: ~ soldiers. 4 (of persons) rough and violent: a ~ criminal. 5 stubborn; unyielding. be/get tough (with sb): The employers got ~ with/adopted a get-~ policy towards their workers. 6 hard to carry out; difficult: a ~ job/problem.

tough luck, (informal) bad luck.

tough-ly adv

tough-ness n [U]

toughen /tʌfn/ vt,vi make or become tough.

tou-pee /tuːpeɪ/ US: tuːpeɪ/ n [C] false hair worn to cover a bald patch.

tour /tuə(r)/ n [C] 1 journey out and home again during which several or many places are visited: a round-the-world ~; conducted ~s, made by a group conducted by a guide. 2 brief visit to or through: a ~ of the palace. 3 period of duty or employment (overseas): a ~ of three years as a lecturer in the University of Ibadan. 4 round of (official) visits to institutions, units, etc: The Director leaves tomorrow on a ~ of overseas branches. 5 number of visits to places made by a theatrical company, etc: take a company on ~. □ vt,vi make a tour (of): western Europe. The play will ~ the provinces in the autumn.

tour-ing n, adj: a ~ing party.

tour-ism /tʊərɪzəm/ n [U] organized touring: foreign exchange from ~ism, from the money brought in by tourists.

tour-ist /tʊərɪst/ n [C] person making a tour for pleasure: London is full of ~s in summer. 2 (used as an adjective) of or for tours: a ~ agency; ~ class, (on liners, airliners) second class.

tour-na-ment /tʊənəmənt/ US: tɔːn-/ n [C] series of contests of skill between a number of players: a ~ tennis/chess ~.

tour-ni-quet /tʊənɪkɪt/ n [C] device for stopping a flow of blood through an artery by twisting something tightly around a limb.

touse /taʊz/ vt (formal) make (esp the hair) untidy: a girl with ~d hair.

tout /taʊt/ n [C] person who encourages others to buy something: a ~ ticket ~, person who sells tickets, eg for a major football match, at a high price. □ vi act as a tout: men outside the station ~ing for the hotels.

tow /təʊ/ vt pull along by a rope or chain: ~ a damaged car to the nearest garage. □ n [C,U] towing or being towed: Can we give you a ~? in tow, (informal) also with (a person). on tow, being towed.

to-ward(s) /təˈwɔːd(z)/ US: tɔːrd(z)/ prep 1 approaching; in the direction of: walking ~ the sea; first steps ~ the abolition of armaments. 2 as regards; in relation to: What will the Government's attitude be ~ the plan? 3 for the purpose of (helping): We must save money ~ her education. 4 (of time) near: ~ the end of the century.

towel /'taʊəl/ n [C] piece of cloth, etc for drying or wiping something wet (eg one's hands or body): a bath-~; a paper-~. throw in the towel, ⇨ throw¹(11). □ vi (-ll-, US -l-) dry or rub (oneself) with a towel.

towel-ing (US = towel-ing) n [U] material for towels.

tower /'taʊə(r)/ n [C] 1 tall building, either standing alone (eg as a fort, the T~ of London) or forming part of a church, castle or other large building (eg a college). 2 a tower of strength, (fig) a person who can be relied on for protection, strength or comfort in time of trouble. 3 = water tower, ⇨ also cooling-tower. □ vi rise to a great height, be very tall, esp in relation to the height of the surroundings: the skyscrapers that ~ over New York. tower above sb, (fig) (of persons) greatly exceed in ability, in intellectual or moral qualities: a man who ~s above his contemporaries.

tower-block, high block of flats or offices.

town /taʊn/ n 1 [C] centre of population larger than a village, esp one that has not been created a city (and often used in contrast to country): Would you rather live in a ~ or in the country? paint the town red, ⇨ paint. 2 [U] the business, shopping, etc part of a town (contrasted with the suburbs, etc): go to ~ to do some shopping. He's in ~ today. ⇨ down-town. go out on the town, go out and enjoy the entertainment facilities of a town (especially at night). go to town, (sl) act, behave, without inhibitions, eg by spending money, having a spree. ⇨ man¹(1). 3 [U] the chief city or town in the neighbourhood (esp, in England, London): He's gone up to ~ for the weekend. 4 [U] (sing with the) the people of a town: The whole ~ was talking about it. the talk of the town, ⇨ talk¹(1). 5 the ~, towns in general: Farm workers are leaving the country in order to get better jobs in the ~.

town 'centre, area around which public buildings, eg the town hall, the public library, main shops, are grouped.

town 'clerk, official who keeps town or city records and advises on certain legal matters.

town 'council, governing body of a town.

town 'councillor, member of a town council.

town 'hall, building with offices of local government.

town house, house in town, of a particular style or belonging to a person who also has a house in the country.

towns-folk, people who live in town or the town referred to.

toxic /'tɒksɪk/ adj poisonous (the usual word).

toxin /'tɒksɪn/ n [C] poisonous substance.

toy /tɔɪ/ n [C] 1 something, eg a doll, for a child to play with. 2 (as an adjective): a ~ soldier, one made as a toy(1); ~ dog/spaniel, small kinds kept as pets. □ vi 1 think not very seriously about: He's ~ing with the idea of buying a new car. 2 = fiddle(2): ~ing with a pencil.

'toy-shop, shop where toys are sold.

trace¹ /treɪs/ n [C] 1 mark, sign, etc showing that a person or thing has been present, that something has existed or happened: ~s of an ancient civilization. We've lost all ~ of them, don't know where they are. 2 very small amount: There were ~s of poison in his blood.

trace² /treɪs/ vt, vi 1 draw, sketch, the course, outline, etc of: tracing (out) one's route on a map. 2 copy (something), eg by drawing on transparent paper the lines, etc on (a map, design, etc) placed underneath. 3 follow or discover (a person or thing) by looking at marks, tracks, evidence, etc: I cannot ~ (= cannot find) any letter from you dated 1st June. trace (sth/sb) back (to sth), (a) find the origin of by going back in time: He ~s his ancestors back to an old Scottish family. (b) find the origin of by going back through evidence: The rumour was ~d back to a journalist. It was discovered that he had started it.

trace-able /-əbl/ adj capable of being traced(3) (to).

trac-ing, reproduction (of a map, design, etc) made by tracing(2).

tracery /'treɪsəri/ n [C,U] (pl -ies) ornamental arrangement of designs (eg as made by frost on glass, or of stonework in a church window).

tra-chea /trə'kiə/ US: 'treɪkiə/ n [C] (pl ~es /-kə/) (anat) = windpipe.

track /træk/ n [C] 1 line or series of marks left by a vehicle, person, animal, etc in passing along; path made by persons, animals: ~s in the snow, eg footprints; ~sheep-~s across the moor. be on sb's track/on the track of sb, be tracking: The police are on the ~ of the thief. cover up one's tracks, hide one's movements or activities. have a one-track 'mind, give all one's attention to one topic or thought. keep/lose track of sb/sth, keep in/lose touch with; follow/fail to follow the course or development of: read the newspapers to keep ~ of current events. off the track, (fig) following a wrong line of action. ⇨ beaten. 2 course; line taken by something (whether marked or not): the ~ of a storm/spacecraft. 3 set of rails for trains, etc: The train left the ~, was derailed. 4 path prepared for racing (eg made of cinders, etc): a 'motor-racing/cycling/running ~. 5 = caterpillar(2). 6 band for recording sound (on magnetized tape); section of something recorded (on a record or tape). □ vi follow the track of: ~ an animal to its den. track sb/sth down, find by searching: ~ down a bear/a reference.

track event, athletic contest, eg running, on a track (4).

track record, (fig) individual's known personal achievements: a good/bad ~ record.

track shoe, spiked shoe worn by a runner.

track suit, loose-fitting warm suit as worn by an athlete.

tracking station, one which, by radar or radio, maintains contact with space-vehicles, etc.

tracker, person, esp a hunter, who tracks wild animals.

tract¹ /trækt/ n [C] 1 stretch or area (of forest, farmland, etc): the wide ~s of desert in N Africa. 2 system of related parts in an animal body: the digestive/respiratory ~.

tract² /trækt/ n [C] short printed essay, esp on a moral or religious subject.

tractable /'træktəbl/ adj (formal) easily controlled or guided.

traction /'trækʃn/ n [U] (power used in) pulling or drawing something over a surface: electric/steam ~.

tractor /'træktə(r)/ n [C] motor-vehicle used for pulling agricultural machinery (ploughs, etc), or other heavy equipment, over rough ground.

trade¹ /treɪd/ n 1 [U] buying and selling of goods; exchange of goods for money or other goods: T ~ was good last year. 2 [C] particular branch of buying and selling: He's in the furniture/book ~. 3 [C,U] occupation; way of making a living, esp a handicraft: He's a carpenter/tailor by ~. Shoemaking is a useful ~. ♠ jack.

the Trades, trade-winds.

trade gap, unfavourable difference between exports and imports.

trade-mark, (a) design, special name, etc used to distinguish a manufacturer's goods from others. (b) (fig) distinguishing characteristics: He leaves his ~ mark on all his activities.

trade name, name given to a manufactured article.

trade price, price charged by a manufacturer or wholesaler to a retailer.

trades-man, shopkeeper (the usual word).

trade secret, technique, etc used by an industry that is not known or made available to competitors.

trade-union, (also less often trades-union) organized association of workers in a trade formed to protect their interests, improve their conditions, etc.

trade-unionist, member of a trade-union.

trade-wind, strong wind blowing always towards the equator from the SE and NE.

trade² /treɪd/ vi, vt 1 engage in trade(1); buy and sell: Britain ~s with many European countries. 2 exchange: The boy ~d his skates for a cricket bat. 3 trade sth in, give (a used article) in part payment for a new purchase: He ~d in his car for a new one. Hence, 'trade-in n [C]. 4 take a wrong advantage of, use, in order to get something for oneself: trading on her sympathy.

trader, person who trades(1).

tra-di-tion /trə'dɪʃn/ n 1 [U] (handing down from generation to generation of) opinions, beliefs, customs, etc. 2 [C] opinion, belief, custom, etc handed down.

tra-di-tional /-ʃənəl/ adj tra-di-tion-ally /-ənəl/ adv traf-fic /'træfɪk/ n [U] 1 (movement of) people and vehicles along roads and streets, of aircraft in the sky: There was a lot of/not much ~ on the roads yesterday. 2 transport business done by a railway, steamship line, airline, etc. 3 illegal trading: the 'drug ~. □ vi (-ck-) trade: ~ king in snakes (with...).

'traffic indicator = trafficator.

'traffic island, platform in the centre of a busy road, for pedestrians when crossing.

'traffic jam, ♂ jamⁿ (1).

'traffic-light(s), coloured lights by the roadside controlling traffic.

'traffic warden, official controlling the parking of cars and use of parking-meters.

traf-fi-ca-tor /'træfɪkə(r)/ n [C] yellow light on a motor-vehicle to show the direction in which it is about to turn.

tra-gedy /'trædʒɪdi/ n (pl -ies) 1 [C] play for the theatre, cinema, TV, of a serious kind, with a sad ending. 2 [U] branch of the drama with this kind of play. 3 [C,U] very sad event, action, experience, etc in real life.

tra-gedian /trə'dʒɪdiən/ n [C] writer of, actor in, tragedy.

tra-gedi-enne /trə'dʒɪdɪ'en/ n [C] actress in tragedy.

tra-gic /'trædʒɪk/ adj of tragedy: a ~ actor/event.

tragi-cally /-kəl/ adv

trail /treɪl/ n [C] 1 line, mark or series of marks, drawn or left by a person or thing that has passed by: a ~ of smoke, (from a railway steam-engine); a ~ of destruction, eg left by a violent storm. 2 track or scent followed in hunting. hot on the trail (of), close behind. 3 path through rough country. □ vi, vt 1 pull, be pulled, along: Her long skirt was ~ing along the floor. 2 = track. 3 (of plants) grow over or along the ground, etc: roses ~ing over the walls.

trailer, (a) transport-vehicle pulled by a tractor or truck. (b) caravan pulled by a motor-vehicle. (c) trailing plant. (d) series of short extracts from a film to advertise it.

train¹ /treɪn/ n 1 [C] (locomotive and) number of railway coaches, wagons, etc joined together: 'passenger'/'goods'/'freight' ~s; travel by ~; get on/off a ~. 2 number of persons, animals, carriages, etc moving in a line: a ~ of camels. 3 series or chain: A knock at the door interrupted my ~ of thought. 4 part of a long formal dress or robe that trails on the ground.

train² /treɪn/ vt, vi 1 give teaching and practice to (eg a child, a soldier, an animal) in order to bring to a desired standard of behaviour, efficiency or physical condition: ~ a horse for a race/circus. There is a shortage of ~ed nurses. 2 attend a course, do exercises, etc to qualify or to achieve something: I'm ~ing to be a vet / ~ing for the Olympic Games. 3 cause to grow in a required direction: ~ roses against/over a wall. 4 point, aim: ~ a gun on the enemy.

trainee /treɪni:/, person undergoing some form of (usually vocational) training.

trainer, person who trains (esp athletes, race-horses, etc).

training, in/out of training, in/not in good physical condition (eg for athletic contests).

trait /treɪt/ n [C] distinguishing quality or characteristic: Peter's generosity and energy are his best ~s.

traitor /ˈtreɪtə(r)/ n [C] person who betrays a friend, is disloyal to his country, etc.

traitorous /-əs/ adj = treacherous (the usual word).

tram /træm/ n [C] (US = 'street-car') (also ~car) public transport powered by electricity on rails in the road surface.

tramp /træmp/ vi, vt 1 walk with heavy steps: He ~ed up and down the platform waiting for the train. 2 walk through or over (esp for a long distance): ~ through the mountains; ~ over the hills. They ~ed (for) miles and miles. □ n 1 the ~, sound of heavy footsteps: I heard the ~ of marching soldiers. 2 [C] long walk: go for a ~ in the country. 3 [C] homeless person who goes from place to place and does no regular work.

'tramp-steamer, cargo boat which goes to any port(s) where cargo can be picked up.

trample /ˈtræmpl/ vt, vi 1 tread heavily on: The children have ~d (down) the flowers/~d the grass down. 2 (fig) affect badly and thoughtlessly: ~ on his feelings. □ n [C] sound, act, of trampling.

tram-po-line /ˈtræmpəli:n/ n [C] strong canvas on a spring frame, used by gymnasts for acrobatic leaps.

trance /træns/ US: træns/ n [C] 1 condition like sleep: be/fall/go into a ~. 2 abnormal, hypnotic, state: send her into a ~.

tran-quil /ˈtræŋkwɪl/ adj (formal) calm; quiet: a ~ life in the country.

tran-quilly /-wɪli/ adv

tran-quil-lity (US also tran-quil-ity) /træŋˈkwɪləti/ n [U] calm, quiet state.

tran-quil-lize (also -ise) (US also tran-quit-lize) /ˈtræŋkwɪlaɪz/ vt make calm, quiet.

tran-quil-li-zer (also -iser) (US also tran-quit-lizer) n [C] drug that produces a calm mental state.

trans- /trænz-/ prefix 1 across: transatlantic. 2 to a changed state: transform.

trans-act /trænˈzækt/ vt (formal) conduct, do, (business, etc).

trans-ac-tion /trænˈzækʃn/ n 1 [U] (sing with the) transacting: the ~ of business. 2 [C] piece of business: cash ~s. 3 (pl) (records of the) proceedings of (esp a learned society, eg its meetings, lectures): the ~s of the Royal Archaeological Society.

trans-at-lan-tic /ˌtrænzətˈlæntɪk/ adj 1 beyond, crossing, the Atlantic: a ~ voyage/flight. 2 concerning (countries on) both sides of the Atlantic: a ~ treaty.

tran-scend /trænˈsend/ vt go or be beyond or outside the range of (human experience, reason, belief, powers of description, etc).

tran-scen-den-tal /ˌtrænsɛndɪdəntl/ adj not based on experience or reason; going beyond human knowledge; that cannot be discovered or understood by practical experience: ~ meditation, technique (using concentration and silent repetition) for relaxing the mind and body.

tran-scen-den-tally /-təli/ adv trans-con-ti-nen-tal /ˌtrænzˌkɒntɪˈnɛntl/ adj crossing a continent: a ~ railway.

trans-cribe /trænˈskraɪb/ vt 1 copy in ordinary writing, esp from shorthand notes or from speech recorded on magnetic tape. 2 write in a special form: ~d into phonetics.

trans-script /ˈtrænskɪpt/ n [C] something transcribed.

tran-sept /ˈtrænsɛpt/ n [C] (either end of the) transverse part of a cross-shaped church.

trans-fer¹ /ˈtrænsfɜ:(r)/ n 1 [C,U] (instance of) transferring. 2 [C] document that transfers a person or thing; drawing, plan, etc transferred from one surface to another.

trans-fer² /trænsˈfɜ:(r)/ vt, vi (-rr-) 1 change position, move: The head office has been ~red from York to London. 2 hand over the possession of (property, etc to): ~ rights to a son. 3 convey (a drawing, design, pattern, etc) from one surface to another (eg from a wooden surface to canvas). 4 change from one train, bus, etc to another. 5 move from one occupation (usually within the same profession), position, company, etc to another: He has been ~red to the Sales Department.

trans-fer-able /-əbl/ adj that can be transferred: These tickets are not ~able, cannot be given to anyone else.

trans-fer-ence /ˈtrænsfərəns/ US: trænsˈfərəns/ n [U] trans-fix /trænsˈfɪks/ vt (formal) 1 pierce through: ~ a leopard with a spear. 2 cause (a person) to be unable to move, speak, think, etc: He stood ~ed with horror.

trans-form /træns'fɔ:m/ vt change the shape, appearance, quality or nature of: Success and wealth ~ed his character. A steam-engine ~s heat into energy.

trans-formation /trænsfə'meɪʃn/ n (a) [U] transforming or being transformed. (b) [C] instance of this: He has undergone a great ~ation since he was married.

trans-former, person or thing that transforms, eg apparatus that increases or decreases the voltage of an electric power supply.

trans-fuse /træns'fju:z/ vt (esp) transfer the blood of one person to another.

trans-fusion /træns'fju:ʒn/ n [U] act or process of transfusing; [C] instance of this: The injured man was given a 'blood transfusion.

trans-gress /trænz'gres/ vi,vi (formal) 1 go beyond (a limit): ~ the limits of decency. 2 break (a law, treaty, agreement). 3 sin.

trans-gres-sion /trænz'greʃn/ n [C,U] (instance of) transgressing.

trans-gres-sor /-sə(r)/, person who transgresses; sinner.

trans-sient /'trænzɪənt US: 'trænfənt/ adj (formal) lasting for a short time only: ~ happiness.

trans-sis-tor /trænzɪstə(r)/ n [C] 1 small electronic device, used in radios, hearing aids and other kinds of electronic apparatus. 2 transistorized radio.

trans-sis-tor-ized (also -ised) /-aɪzɪd/ adj having transistors, not valves: a ~ized computer.

trans-sit /'trænsɪt/ n [U] sending, carrying or being sent, across, over or through. in trans-sit, (while) being carried or sent from one place to another.

'transit camp, one for the use of persons (eg refugees, soldiers) who are in transit from one place to another.

'transit visa, visa allowing passage through (but not a stay in) a country.

tran-si-tion /træn'zɪʃn/ n [C,U] changing, change, from one condition or set of circumstances to another: Adolescence is the period of ~ between childhood and manhood.

tran-si-tional /-ʃənl/ adj tran-si-tive /'trænsətɪv/ adj (gram) (of verbs) used with a direct object (marked vt in this dictionary).

tran-si-tory /'trænsɪtri US: -tɔ:ri/ adj = transient.

trans-late /trænz'leɪt/ vi 1 give the meaning of (something said or written) in another language: ~ a book from English into French. 2 interpret, explain (a person's behaviour, etc): How would you ~ his silence? What do you think it means?

trans-la-tor /-tə(r)/, person who translates.

trans-la-tion /trænz'leɪʃn/ n [U] translating: errors in ~; [C] something translated: make/do a ~ into French.

trans-lu-cent /trænz'lu:snt/ adj allowing light to pass through but not transparent: Frosted glass is ~.

trans-mis-sion /trænz'mɪʃn/ n 1 [U] transmitting or being transmitted: the ~ of news/a TV programme. 2 [C] clutch, gears and drive which help to send power from the engine to the wheels (of a motor-vehicle).

trans-mit /trænz'mɪt/ vt (-tt-) 1 pass or hand on; send on: ~ a message by radio; ~ a disease. 2 allow through or along: Iron ~s heat.

trans-mit-ter, person who, that which, transmits, esp (part of a) radio apparatus for sending out signals, messages, music, etc.

trans-par-ency /træns'pærənsɪ/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] state of being transparent. 2 [C] framed diagram, picture, etc on photographic film (to be projected on to a screen).

trans-par-ent /træns'pærənt/ adj 1 allowing light to pass through so that objects (or at least their outlines) behind can be distinctly seen: Ordinary glass is ~. 2 about which there can be no mistake or doubt: a man of ~ honesty. 3 clear; easily understood: a ~ style of writing. 4 (informal) (of a person, his behaviour) obviously lying, insincere, etc.

tran-spire /træns'paɪə(r)/ vi,vi (formal) 1 (of an event, a secret) come to be known: It ~d that the President had spent the weekend playing golf. 2 (dated) happen.

trans-plant /træns'plɑ:nt US: -plənt/ vt,vi 1 take up (plants, etc) with their roots and plant in another place. 2 transfer (tissue, or an organ, eg a heart or kidney) from one person to another. 3 (fig) (of people) move from one place to another. □ n /trænsplɑ:nt US: -plənt/ [C] instance of transplanting(2): a 'kidney ~.

trans-port ¹ /'træns'pɔ:t/ n 1 [U] carrying (to another place) or being carried; means of carrying: the ~ of goods by air; road ~. 2 (as an adjective) of or for carrying (to another place): London's ~ system; ~ charges.

trans-port ² /træns'pɔ:t US: -træn-/ vi 1 carry (goods, persons) from one place to another: ~ goods by lorry. 2 (in former times) send (a criminal) to a distant colony as a punishment: ~ed to Australia.

trans-port-able /-əbl/ adj that can be transported.

trans-por-ta-tion /træns'pɔ:t'eɪʃn/ n [U] trans-porter /træns'pɔ:tə(r)/ n [C] person or thing that transports, eg a long vehicle for carrying motor-vehicles from a factory.

trans-pose /træns'pəʊz/ vi 1 cause (two or more things) to change places. 2 (music) put into another key.

trans-po-si-tion /træns'pə:zɪʃn/ n [C,U] tran-sub-stan-tiation /trænsəb-'stænfɪ'eɪʃn/ n [U] doctrine that the bread and wine in the Eucharist are changed into the body and blood of Christ.

trans-verse /trænzvɜ:s/ adj lying or placed across.

trans-verse-ly adv

trap /træp/ n [C] 1 device for catching animals, etc: a mouse ~. 2 (fig) plan for deceiving a person; trick or device to make a person say or do something he does not wish to do or say: The employer set a ~ for the man by putting marked money in the till. 3 U-shaped or other section of a drain-pipe which prevents a return flow of water (eg under a lavatory). 4 light, two-wheeled vehicle pulled by a horse or pony. 5 device (eg a box) from which an animal or object can be released, eg greyhounds at the start of a race. 6 (sl) mouth. □ vt (-pp-) 1 catch in a trap. 2 capture by a trick.

trap-per, person who catches animals, esp for their fur.

tra-peze /trə'pi:z/ US: trə-/ n [C] horizontal bar or rod supported by two ropes, used by acrobats and for gymnastic exercises.

tra-pezi-um /trə'pi:ziəm/ n [C] (pl ~s) (geom) (GB) four-sided figure having two sides which are parallel.

trap-ezoid /'træpi:zɔɪd/ n [C] (geom) (GB) four-sided figure having no sides parallel.

trap-pings /'træpiŋz/ n pl (fig) ornaments or decorations, esp as a sign of public office: He had all the ~ of high office but very little power.

trap-se (US = trap-se) /treɪps/ vi (informal) walk wearily: trapsing round the shops.

trash /træʃ/ n [U] 1 worthless material or writing. 2 (US) rubbish; refuse. 3 worthless people.

'trash-can, (US) = dustbin.

trashy adj (informal) worthless: ~y novels.

trauma /'trɔ:mə US: 'traumə/ n [C] (pl ~s or -mata /-mətə/) 1 diseased condition of the body produced by a wound or injury. 2 emotional shock.

trau-matic /trɔ:'mætɪk US: trau-/ adj (a) of or for (the treatment of) a wound or injury. (b) (of an experience) distressing and unforgettable.

travel /'trævl/ vi, vt (-ll-; US -l-) 1 make (esp long) journeys: ~ round the world; ~ (for) thousands of miles; ~ (over) the whole world. 2 go from place to place as a salesman: He ~s in cotton goods. 3 move; go: Light ~s faster than sound. 4 pass from point to point: Her mind ~led over recent events. □ n 1 [U] travelling: He is fond of ~. 2 (pl) journeys, esp abroad: write a book about one's ~s.

'travel agent, person who makes arrangements for travel, by selling tickets, reserving accommodation, etc. Hence, 'travel-agency/-bureau n [C] trav-el-led, (US = trav-eled) adj (a) having made many long journeys: a ~led man. (b) used by people who travel: a much ~led part of the country.

trav-el-ler, (US = trav-eler) /'trævlə(r)/, (a) person on a journey. (b) = commercial traveller.

'traveller's cheque (US = 'traveler's check), one issued by a bank or tourist agency for the convenience of travellers in a foreign country.

trav-el-og (also -logue) /'trævlɒg US: -ləg/ n [C] film or lecture describing travels.

tra-verse /'trævəs/ vt (formal) travel across; pass over: Searchlights ~d the sky. □ n [C] (mountaineering) sideways movement across the face of a steep slope of ice, etc.

trav-esty /'trævɪsti/ n [C] (pl -ies) imitation or description of something that is, often on purpose, unlike and inferior to the real thing: His trial was a ~ of justice. □ vt (pt, pp -ied) make or be a travesty of.

trawl /trɔ:l/ vi, vt fish (with a large net).

traw-ler, boat, fisherman, that trawls.

tray /treɪ/ n [C] flat piece of wood, metal, etc with raised edges, for carrying things.

treach-er-ous /'treɪtʃərəs/ adj 1 false or disloyal (to a friend, cause, etc). 2 not to be relied on: ~ weather.

treach-er-ous-ly adv

treach-ery /'treɪtʃəri/ n (pl -ies) [U] being treacherous; (pl) treacherous acts.

treacle /'tri:kəl/ n [U] thick, sticky, dark liquid produced while sugar is being refined.

tread /tred/ vi, vt (pt trod /trɒd/, pp trodden /'trɒdn/) 1 walk, put the foot or feet down (on): Don't ~ on the flowers. 2 trav on sb's toes, (fig) offend him. 2 stamp or crush; push (down, etc) with the feet: ~ out a fire in the grass; ~ grapes, when making wine. 3 make by walking: The cattle had trodden a path to the pond. 4 walk along: ~ a dangerous path, (fig) follow a risky course of action. 5 trav water, keep oneself afloat in deep water by moving the feet up and down (as if working the pedals of a bicycle). □ n [C] 1 way or sound of walking: with a heavy/loud ~. 2 part of a step or stair on which the foot is placed. 3 grooved part of a tyre which touches the ground.

treadle /'tredl/ n [C] pedal or lever that drives a machine, eg a sewing-machine, worked by pressure of the foot or feet. □ vi work a treadle.

tread-mill /'tredmɪl/ n [C] 1 apparatus worked with the feet for making rotary motion. 2 (fig) monotonous activity.

treason /'tri:zn/ n [U] betrayal of one's country or ruler; disloyalty.

treason-able /-əbl/ adj

treason-ably /-əbli/ adv

treas-ure /'treɪzə(r)/ n 1 [C, U] (store of) gold and silver, jewels, etc; wealth: The pirates buried their ~. 2 highly valued object or person: The National Gallery has many priceless 'art ~s. She says her new secretary is a perfect ~. □ vt 1 store for future use: ~ memories of one's youth. 2 value highly: He ~s the watch she gave him.

'treasure-house, where treasure is stored.

'treasure-trove, treasure found hidden in the earth and of unknown ownership.

treas-ur-er /'treʒərə(r)/ n [C] person in charge of money, etc belonging to a club or society.

treas-ury /'treʒəri/ n (pl -ies) 1 the T~, (in GB) department of State controlling public revenue. 2 [C] (place for the) funds of a society, organization, etc: The ~ of our tennis club is almost empty. 3 [C] person, book, etc looked on as containing valuable information or as a valued source: The book is a ~ of information.

treat /'tri:t/ vt, vi 1 act or behave towards: He ~s his wife badly. 2 consider: We had better ~ it as a joke, instead of taking it seriously. 3 discuss; deal with: The lecturer ~ed his subject thoroughly. 4 give medical or surgical care to: Which doctors are ~ing her for her illness? 5 put (a substance) through a process (in manufacture, etc): ~ wood with creosote. 6 supply (food, drink, entertainment, etc) at one's own expense (to): I shall ~ myself/you to a good weekend holiday. □ n 1 [C] something that gives pleasure, esp not often enjoyed or unexpected: It's a great ~ for her to go to the cinema. 2 act of treating (6): This is to be 'my ~, I'm going to pay.

treat-ise /'tri:tɪz/ US: -tis/ n [C] book, etc that deals systematically with one subject.

treat-ment /'tri:tmənt/ n [C, U] (particular way of) treating a person or thing; what is done to obtain a desired result: Is the ~ of political prisoners worse than it used to be? They are trying a new ~ for cancer.

treaty /'tri:tɪ/ n (pl -ies) 1 [C] (formal) agreement made and signed between nations: a 'peace ~. 2 [U] agreement or negotiation between persons: sell a house by private ~.

treble ¹ /'trebl/ adj, n [C] three times as much or as many (as): He earns ~ my salary. □ vt, vi make or become treble: He has ~d his earnings/His earnings have ~d during the last few years.

treble ² 'chance, method of gambling on football results by predicting all the drawn games (these having higher points value), and then wins for away and home matches (these having less value).

treble ² /'trebl/ n [C] (boy's voice with, instrument that takes, the) highest part in a piece of music.

tree /tri:/ n [C] 1 plant with a single self-supporting trunk of wood with (usually) no branches for some distance above the ground: cut down ~s for timber. 2 = family tree. 3 piece of wood for a special purpose: a 'shoe-~, for keeping a shoe in shape while not being worn.

tree-less adj without trees.

tre-foil /'trefɔɪl/ n [C] 1 kinds of three-leaved plant, eg clover. 2 similar ornament or design.

trek /trek/ vi (-kk-) make a long journey, by ox-wagon, pony or on foot. □ n [C] journey of this kind; any long, hard journey. ⇨ safari.

tre-lis /'treɪlɪs/ n [C] light upright structure of strips of wood, etc esp as used for supporting climbing plants. □ vt furnish with, support on, a trellis.

tremble /'treɪbl/ vi 1 shake involuntarily (as from fear, anger, cold, physical weakness, etc): His voice ~d with anger. We were trembling with cold/excitement. 2 shake: The bridge ~d as the heavy lorry crossed it. 3 be in a state of anxiety: I ~ to think what has happened to him, am deeply worried. □ n [C] uncontrollable shaking: There was a ~ in his voice.

tre-men-dous /tri'mendəs/ adj 1 very great; enormous; powerful: a ~ explosion; travelling at a ~ speed. 2 (informal) extraordinary: He's a ~ eater/talker. 3 (informal) first rate: a ~ concert/performance/meal.

tre-men-dously adv (esp informal) extremely: ~ly grateful.

tremor /'tremə(r)/ n [C] shaking or trembling: 'earth ~s, as during an earthquake; a ~ of fear.

trench /trentʃ/ n [C] ditch dug in the ground, eg for the draining of water.

trend /trend/ n [C] general direction; tendency: The ~ of the coastline is to the south. The ~ of prices is still upwards. set the trend, start a style, etc which others follow. Hence, 'trend-setter n [C], 'trend-setting n [C, U]. □ vi have a certain trend: The road ~s towards the west.

trendy adj (-ier, -iest) (informal) showing, following, the latest fashion, etc.

trepi-da-tion /,trepi'deɪʃn/ n [U] (formal) alarm: in fear and ~.

tres-pass /'trespəs/ vt 1 go on to privately owned land without right or permission: ~ on someone's (private) property. 2 make too much use of: ~ on my time/hospitality/privacy. □ n [U] trespassing (1); [C] instance of this.

tres-pas-ser, person who trespasses (1): T~ers will be prosecuted.

tr-ess /tres/ n [C] (poetic or literary) 1 (pl) hair (esp of a woman's or girl's head). 2 plait or braid of hair.

tre-stle /'treɪsl/ n [C] horizontal beam of wood with two legs at each end, used in pairs to support planks, a table top, a workman's bench, etc.

'tre-stle-table, one made by laying planks on trestles.

tri- /traɪ-/ prefix three: triangle.

trial /'traɪəl/ n 1 [U] testing, trying, proving; [C] instance of this: give a new typist a ~, give her a chance to show her skill. on trial, (a) for the purpose of testing: Take the machine on ~ and then, if you like it, buy it. (b) when tested: The new clerk was found on ~ to be incompetent. trial and error, method of solving a problem by making tests until there are no more errors. 2 (as an adjective) for the purpose of testing: a ~ flight, eg of a new aircraft. 3 [C,U] examination in a law court before a judge (or judge and jury): The ~ lasted a week. be/go on trial (for sth), be tried in a court of law (for an offence). bring sb to trial; put sb on trial, cause him to be tried in a court of law. stand (one's) trial, be tried. 4 [C] troublesome or annoying person or thing, esp thought of as a test of one's patience: Life is full of little ~s.

tri-angle /'traɪəŋɡl/ n [C] 1 flat figure, shape, with three straight sides. 2 group of three. the eternal triangle, the situation existing when two persons are in love with the same person of the opposite sex.

tri-ang-u-lar /'traɪ'æŋɡjələ(r)/ adj (a) in the shape of a triangle. (b) in which there are three persons, etc: a triangular contest in an election, with three candidates.

tri-bal /'traɪbl/ adj of a tribe or tribes: ~ dances.

tri-bal-ism /-ɪzəm/ n [U] tribe /traɪb/ n [C] racial group, esp one united by language and customs, living as a community under one or more chiefs: the Indian ~s of America.

tribes-man, member of a tribe.

tribu-la-tion /'trɪbjʊ'leɪʃn/ n [C,U] (formal) (cause of) trouble, grief: trials and ~s.

tri-bu-nal /'traɪ'bju:nəl/ n [C] place of judgement; board of officials or judges appointed for special duty, eg to hear appeals against high rents.

tri-bune /'trɪbjʊ:n/ n [C] 1 official chosen by the common people of ancient Rome to protect their interests. 2 (later use) popular leader.

tribu-tary /'trɪbjʊtəri/ US: -təri/ adj (of a river) flowing into another. □ n [C] (pl -ies) (esp) tributary river.

trib-ute /'trɪbjʊ:t/ n [C,U] 1 (regular) payment which one government or ruler demands from another: Many conquered nations had to pay ~ to the rulers of ancient Rome. 2 something done, said or given to show respect or admiration: The actress received numerous floral ~s, bunches of flowers.

trice /traɪs/ n in a trice, instantly.

trick /trɪk/ n [C] 1 something done in order to deceive or done to make a person appear ridiculous: He got the money from me by a ~. the tricks of the trade, ways of attracting customers, gaining advantages over rivals, etc. 2 practical joke: The children are always up to amusing ~s. play a trick on sb, □ play² (3). 3 feat of skill with the hands, etc: conjuring ~s. Are you clever at card ~s? do the trick, (sf) make it possible to get something done, finished: One more turn of the screwdriver should do the ~, fasten the screw securely. 4 strange or characteristic habit, mannerism, etc: He has a ~ of pulling his left ear when he is thinking out a problem. 5 (cards played in) one round (of bridge, etc): take/ win/lose a ~. □ vt deceive: He ~ed the poor girl out of her money/ ~ed her into marrying him.

trick-ery /-əri/, deception; cheating.

tricky adj (-ier, -iest) (a) (of persons and their actions) deceptive: a ~ politician. (b) (of work, etc) having hidden or unexpected difficulties: a ~ problem/job.

trickle /'trɪkl/ vi, vt (cause to) flow in drops or in a thin stream: The tears ~d down her cheeks. □ n [C] weak or thin flow: ~ of blood.

tri-cycle /'traɪsɪkl/ n [C] three-wheeled cycle.

tried /traɪd/ □ try¹.

tri-en-nial /'traɪ'eniəl/ n [C], adj (something) lasting for, happening or done every, three years.

trier /'traɪə(r)/ n □ try¹.

trifle /'traɪfl/ n 1 [C] thing, event, of little value or importance: It's silly to quarrel over ~s. 2 [C] small amount of money: It cost me only a ~. 3 a trifle, adv a little: This dress is a ~ too short. 4 [C,U] sweet dish made of cream, white of eggs, cake, jam, etc. □ vi, vt behave lightly or insincerely towards: trifling with the girl's affections.

trif-ling /'traɪflɪŋ/ adj unimportant: a trifling error.

trig-ger /'trɪɡə(r)/ n [C] lever for releasing a spring, esp of a gun, rifle. □ vt trigger sth off, be the immediate cause of (something serious or violent): Who/What ~ed off the rebellion?

trig-on-om-etry /'trɪɡə'nɒmətri/ n [U] branch of mathematics that deals with the relations between the sides and angles of triangles.

tri-lat-eral /'traɪ'lætərəl/ adj having three sides or parts: a ~ treaty.

trilby /'trɪlbi/ n [C] (pl -ies) soft felt hat with a narrow brim and a dent in the top.

trill /trɪl/ n [C] 1 shaky or vibrating sound made by the voice or as in bird song. 2 (music) quick alternation of two notes a tone or a semitone apart. 3 vibrating speech sound (eg Spanish 'r'). □ vi, vt sing or play (a musical note) with a trill.

tril-lion /'trɪljən/ n [C], adj 1 (GB) million million. 2 (US, Fr) million million.

tril-ogy /'trɪlədʒi/ n [C] (pl -ies) group of three plays, novels, operas, etc having a related subject.

trim /trɪm/ adj (-mer, -mest) in good order; neat and tidy: a ~ little garden. □ n [U] trim state; readiness; fitness: Everything was in good/proper ~. □ vi, vi (-mm-) 1 make trim, esp by taking or cutting away uneven, irregular or unwanted parts: ~ one's beard. 2 decorate or ornament (a dress, etc): a hat ~med with fur. 3 set (the sails of a boat) to suit the wind.

trim-ming n [C] (usually pl) something used for trimming (2): lace ~mings.

tri-nitro-tolu-ene /ˌtraɪnaɪtrəʊˈtɒljəɪn/ n [U] (usually TNT) powerful explosive.

trin-ity /ˈtrɪnəti/ n [C] (pl -ies) group of three. the T~, (in Christian teaching) union of three persons, Father, Son and Holy Ghost, one God.

trink-et /ˈtrɪŋkɪt/ n [C] ornament or jewel of small value.

trio /ˈtri:əʊ/ n [C] (pl ~s) 1 group of three. 2 (musical composition for a) group of three singers or players.

trip /trɪp/ vi, vt (-pp-) 1 trip over sth, catch one's foot, etc in an obstacle and fall: He ~ped over the root of a tree. trip (sb) up, (a) (cause to) fall or make a false step: He ~ped up and nearly fell. (b) (fig) cause to make an error: The barrister's next question ~ped the witness up. 2 (poetic) walk, run or dance with quick, light steps: She came ~ping down the garden path. □ n [C] 1 journey, esp for pleasure: a day ~ to the seaside. 2 fall. 3 (informal) experience resulting from taking a hallucinatory drug.

trip-per, person making a (short) journey for pleasure: weekend ~pers.

tri-par-tite /ˌtraɪˈpɑːtɪt/ adj 1 (of an agreement) in which three groups have a share. 2 having three parts.

tripe /traɪp/ n [U] 1 part of the wall of the stomach of an ox or cow used as food: a dish of stewed ~ and onions. 2 (sl) useless talk, writing, ideas, etc: Stop talking ~!

triple /ˈtrɪpl/ adj made up of three (parts or parties): the ~ crown, the Pope's tiara. □ vi, vi make, become, be, three times as much or many.

triple jump, athletic contest consisting of a hop, a step and then a jump.

trip-let /ˈtrɪplɪt/ n 1 (pl) three children born at one birth: One of the ~s is ill. 2 [C] set of three.

trip-li-cate /ˈtrɪplɪkət/ adj of which three copies are made. □ n [C] one of three like things, esp documents: drawn up in ~, one original and two copies. □ vt /ˈtrɪplɪkeɪt/ make in triplicate.

tri-pod /ˈtraɪpɒd/ n [C] three-legged support, eg for a camera.

trip-per /ˈtrɪpə(r)/ n ⇨ trip.

trite /traɪt/ adj (of remarks, ideas, opinions) ordinary (and so dull).

tri-umph /ˈtraɪʌmf/ n [C, U] (joy or satisfaction at a) success or victory: return home in ~; shouts of ~. □ vi win a victory (over); show joy because of success: ~ over a defeated enemy.

tri-um-phal /ˈtraɪʌmfəl/ adj of, for, expressing, triumph: a ~al arch, one built in memory of a victory.

tri-um-phant /ˈtraɪʌmfənt/ adj (celebrating at) having triumphed.

tri-um-phantly adv

triv-ial /ˈtrɪviəl/ adj 1 of small value or importance: a ~ offence. 2 ordinary (and so dull): a ~ speech. 3 (of a person) superficial: Dón't marry a ~ young man.

triv-ially /-iəli/ adv

triv-ial-ity /ˈtrɪviələti/ n [U] state of being trivial; [C] (pl -ies) trivial idea, event, etc: talk/write ~ities.

trod, trod-den /trɒd, ˈtrɒdn/ ⇨ tread.

trol-ley /ˈtrɒli/ n [C] (pl ~s) 1 two- or four-wheeled handcart. 2 small, low truck running on rails, eg one used by workers on a railway.

3 small table on wheels, used for serving food.

trol-lop /ˈtrɒləp/ n [C] prostitute.

trom-bone /trɒmˈbəʊn/ n [C] large brass musical instrument with a sliding tube.

trom-bon-ist /-ɪst/, trombone player.

troop /tru:p/ n [C] 1 company of persons or animals, esp when moving: a ~ of Scouts. 2 (pl) soldiers. 3 unit of cavalry, armoured vehicles or artillery (under the command of a lieutenant). □ vi, vt come or go together in a group: children ~ing out of school. (Note: used with a pl subject.)

'troop-carrier, ship or large aircraft for transporting troops.

'troop-ship, ship for transporting troops.

trooper, soldier in a cavalry or armoured regiment. swear like a trooper, swear a great deal.

trophy /ˈtrɒfi/ n [C] (pl -ies) 1 something kept in memory of a victory or success (eg in hunting, sport, etc). 2 prize, eg for winning a tournament: 'tennis trophies.

tropic /ˈtrɒpɪk/ n 1 [C] line of latitude 23°27' north (T~ of Cancer) or south (T~ of Capricorn) of the equator. 2 the ~s, the parts of the world between these two latitudes.

tropi-cal /-kl/ adj of, or as of, the tropics: a ~al climate.

tropi-cally /-kli/ adv

trot /trɒt/ vi, vt (-tt-) 1 (of horses, etc) go at a pace faster than a walk but not so fast as a gallop. 2 move with short steps. 3 trot sth out, say it without feeling or sincerity: ~ out an excuse. 4 cause to: ~ a person off his legs, take him walking, eg sight-seeing, until he is exhausted. □ n (sing only) 1 trotting pace: go at a steady ~. on the trot, (sl) one after the other: five whiskies on the ~. 2 period of trotting: go for a ~.

trot-ter, (a) horse bred and trained to trot. (b) pig's or sheep's foot eaten as food.

trouble /ˈtrʌbl/ vi, vi 1 cause worry, discomfort, anxiety or inconvenience to: be ~d by bad news; ~d with a nasty cough. 2 ask a person to do something inconvenient: May I ~ you for a match? 3 (esp in the negative or in a question) inconvenience oneself: Don't ~ to meet me at the station. 4 (esp pp) disturb: ~d looks. □ n 1 [C, U] worry; unhappiness; difficulty: She's always making ~ for her friends. He has been through much ~/has had many ~s. The ~ is that..., The difficulty is that... in trouble, suffering, or likely to suffer, anxiety, punishment etc, eg because one has done wrong. be asking/looking for trouble, (informal) behave in such a way that trouble is likely: It's asking for ~ to associate with criminals. get into trouble, do something deserving punishment, etc. get sb into trouble, cause a person to be in trouble. get a girl into trouble, (informal) make her pregnant. 2 [C] nuisance: I don't want to be any ~ to you. 3 [U] (extra) work; inconvenience: Did the work give you much ~? take the trouble (to), be willing to and do: Thank you for all the ~ you've taken to help my son. 4 [C, U] political or social unrest: 'Labour ~ (s) (eg strikes) cost the country enormous sums last year. 5 [C, U] illness: 'liver ~.

'trouble-maker, person who causes trouble (eg in industry).

'trouble-shooter, (informal) person employed to identify and solve an industrial problem.

'trouble spot, place where trouble often occurs.

trouble-some /-səm/ adj causing trouble: a ~ some child/headache/problem.

trough /trɒf/ US: trɔ:f/ n [C] 1 long open box for animals to feed or drink from. 2 region of lower atmospheric pressure between two regions of higher pressure.

trounce /traʊns/ vt (dated) defeat heavily: Our team was ~d on Saturday.

troupe /tru:p/ n [C] company, esp of actors or of members of a circus.

trouper, member of a theatrical troupe: He's a good ~, a loyal and uncomplaining colleague.

trousers /'traʊzəz/ n pl 1 (also a pair of ~s) two-legged outer clothing reaching from the waist to the ankles. 2 (sing) (as an adjective) of or for trousers: trouser pockets.

trous-seau /'tru:səʊ/ n [C] (pl ~s) outfit of clothing, etc for a bride.

trout /traʊt/ n [C] (pl unchanged) freshwater fish valued as food and for the sport of catching it.

trowel /'traʊəl/ n [C] 1 flat-bladed tool for spreading cement, etc. 2 tool with a curved blade for lifting plants, etc.

troy /trɔɪ/ n [U] British system of weights, used for gold and silver, in which one pound = 12 ounces.

tru-ant /'tru:ənt/ n [C] child who stays away from school without permission. play tru-ant, be a truant.

tru-ancy /'tru:ənsi/ n [C, U] (pl -ies) (instance of) playing truant.

truce /tru:s/ n [C] (agreement for the) stopping of fighting for a time.

truck¹ /trʌk/ n [C] 1 (GB) open railway wagon for heavy goods. 2 (esp US) lorry.

trudge /trʌdʒ/ vi walk wearily or heavily:

trudging through the deep snow. □ n [C] long, tiring walk.

true /tru:/ adj (-r, -st) 1 according to, in agreement with, fact: Is the news ~? come true, (of a hope, dream) really happen, become fact.

2 loyal, faithful: be ~ to one's word/promise, do what one has promised to do. 3 in accordance with reason; genuine: T~ friendship should last for ever. 4 true to type, being, behaving, etc as expected. 5 accurately fitted or placed: Is the wheel ~? 6 exact; accurate: a ~ copy of a document. □ n (only in) out of true, not in its exact or accurate position: The door is out of ~. □ adv (used with certain verbs) truly: aim ~; tell me ~.

'true-blue n [C], adj (a) (person who is) firmly loyal. (b) loyal Conservative or royalist.

'true-born adj legitimate.

'true-love, (expression of love to a) boyfriend or girlfriend.

tru-ism /'tru:ɪzəm/ n [C] statement that is obviously true and need not have been made: It's a ~ to say that you are alive.

truly /'tru:li/ adv 1 truthfully: speak ~. 2 sincerely: feel ~ grateful. yours truly, formula used at the end of a formal letter (US = ~ yours). 3 genuinely; certainly: a ~ brave action.

trump /trʌmp/ n [C] (in card-games such as whist, bridge) each card of a suit that has been declared as having higher value than the other three suits: Hearts are ~s. turn up trumps, (informal) (a) have a better result than was expected. (b) have a stroke of good luck. □ vt, vi 1 play a trump(1) on: ~ the ace of clubs. 2 invent (an excuse, a lie, etc) in order to deceive: He was arrested on a ~ed-up charge.

trum-pet /'trʌmpɪt/ n [C] 1 brass musical instrument played by blowing into it. 2 sound (as) of a trumpet: the ~ of an elephant. 3 something like a trumpet in shape (eg a flower). □ vt, vi (esp of an elephant) make loud sounds.

trum-peter, trumpet player.

trun-cheon /'trʌntʃən/ n [C] short thick stick (as used by the police).

trunk /trʌŋk/ n [C] 1 main stem of a tree (contrasted with the branches). 2 body (not the head, arms or legs). 3 main part of any structure. 4 large box with a hinged lid, for clothes, etc while travelling. 5 long nose of an elephant. 6 (pl) man's, boy's, clothing covering the lower part of the trunk (2), worn for swimming. 7 (US) = boot (2).

'trunk call, telephone call to a distant place, with charges according to distance.

'trunk line, (a) main line of a railway. (b) long-distance telephone line.

'trunk road, main road.

truss /trʌs/ n [C] 1 (GB) bundle (of hay, straw). 2 framework supporting a roof, bridge, etc. 3 padded belt worn by a person suffering from hernia. □ vt 1 tie or fasten up: ~ up a chicken, pin the wings to the body before boiling or roasting it. 2 support (a roof, bridge, etc) with a truss(2).

trust¹ /trʌst/ n 1 [U] confidence, strong belief, in the goodness, strength, reliability of a person or thing: A child usually has perfect ~ in its mother. on trust, (a) without proof: You'll have to take my statement on ~. (b) on credit. 2 [U] responsibility: a position of great ~. 3 [C] (legal) property held and managed by one or more persons (trustees) for the benefit of another or others; [U] the legal relation between the trustee(s) and the property: By his will he created ~s for his children. 4 [C] association of business firms for eg reducing competition, maintenance of prices.

trust-ful /-fl/ adj ready to have trust in others; not suspicious.

trust-fully /-fəli/ adv

trust² /trʌst/ vt, vi 1 believe in the honesty and reliability of: He's not the sort of man to be ~ed/not a man I would ~. I ~ her to pay the loan back on time. 2 have confidence in: ~ your instincts. 3 allow (a person) to do or have something, go somewhere, etc knowing that he will act sensibly, etc: Do you ~ your young daughters to go to discos with any man? 4 allow credit to a customer: I wonder whether the newsagent will ~ me.

trustee /trʌ'sti:/ n [C] person who has charge of property in trust(3) or of the business affairs of an institution.

trust-ship /-ʃɪp/ n, position of a trustee.

trust-worthy /trʌstwɜːði/ adj dependable.

truth /truːθ/ n (pl ~s /truːðz/) 1 [U] quality or state of being true: There's no ~/not a word of ~ in what he says. 2 [U] that which is true: tell the ~. to tell the truth... (formula used when making a confession): To tell the ~, I forgot all about it. ☞ naked. 3 [C] fact, belief, etc accepted as true: scientific ~s.

truth-ful /-fl/ adj (a) (of persons) in the habit of telling the truth. (b) (of statements) true.

truth-fully /-fəli/ adv

truth-ful-ness n [U] try¹ /traɪ/ vi, vt (pt, pp tried) 1 make an attempt: I don't think I can do it, but I'll ~. I've tried and tried (= tried a great deal) but it's no use. He's ~ing his hardest, making great efforts. T~ to/T~ and behave better. 2 make an attempt to get or win (esp a position): ~ for a job overseas. 3 use or do something, as an experiment or test, to see whether it is satisfactory: Have you tried sleeping on your back as a cure for snoring? Why not ~ this new glue. try sth on, (a) put on (clothes, etc) to see whether it fits, looks well, etc. (b) (informal) make a bold or impudent attempt to discover whether something will be tolerated: It's no use your ~ing it on with me, I shall not tolerate any nonsense from you. try sth out, use it, experiment with it, in order to test it: The idea seems good but it needs to be tried out. Hence, 'try-out n [C], test of ability, qualification, etc, eg of an athlete. try one's hand at sth, ☞ hand¹(5). 4 inquire into (a case) in a court of law: He was tried and found guilty of murder. 5 cause to be tired, exhausted, out of patience, etc: His courage was severely tried.

try-ing adj (☞ 5 above) causing tiredness, exhaustion, impatience, etc: have a ~ing day.

try² /traɪ/ n [C] (pl tries) 1 attempt: He had three tries and failed each time. 2 (rugby) touching down the ball behind the opponents' goal-line.

tsetse /'tsetsi/ n [C] (also ~fly) blood-sucking fly (in tropical Africa) carrying and transmitting (often fatal) disease in cattle, horses, etc.

T-shirt /'tiːʃɜːt/ n ☞ T, t.

T-square /'tiːskweɪ(r)/ ☞ T, t.

tub /tʌb/ n [C] 1 large open vessel, used for washing clothes, holding liquids, growing plants in, etc. 2 = tubful. 3 (informal) bathtub.

'tub-ful /-fʊl/, as much as a tub can hold.

tuba /'tjuːbə/ US: 'tuː-/ n [C] (pl ~s) large musical instrument of brass playing deep notes.

tubby /'tʌbi/ adj (-ier, -iest) fat and round: a ~ little man.

tube /tjuːb/ US: tuːb/ n [C] 1 long hollow cylinder of metal, glass or rubber, esp for holding or carrying air, liquids, etc: the ~inner ~ of a bicycle/car tyre, of rubber, filled with air at pressure. 2 soft metal container with a screw-cap, used for pastes, paints, etc: a ~ of toothpaste. 3 (in London) underground railway: travel to the office by ~ every morning. 4 hollow cylindrical organ in the body: the bronchial ~s.

tub-ing n [U] material in the form of a tube: copper tubing.

tube-less adj having no inner tube: ~less tyres.

tu-ber /'tjuːbə(r)/ US: 'tuː-/ n [C] enlarged part of an underground stem, eg a potato.

tu-ber-cu-lar /'tjuː'bɜːkjʊlə(r)/ US: tuː-/ adj of, affected by, tuberculosis.

tu-ber-cu-lo-sis /'tjuː'bɜːkjʊləʊsɪs/ US: tuː-/ n [U] (common abbr TB) disease affecting various parts of the body's tissues, esp the lungs.

tu-bu-lar /'tjuːbjʊlə(r)/ US: 'tuː-/ adj having, consisting of, tubes or tubing: ~ furniture, with parts made of metal tubing.

tuck /tʌk/ n 1 [C] flat, stitched fold of material in cloth, for shortening or for ornament. 2 [U] (GB sl) food, esp the cakes, pastry, etc that children enjoy. □ vt, vi 1 draw together into a small space; put or push into a desired or convenient position: Your shirt's hanging out; ~ it in to your trousers. He sat with his legs ~ed up under him. The map is ~ed away in a pocket at the end of the book. She ~ed him up in bed, pulled the bed-clothes up round him. 2 tuck in, (dated) eat a lot quickly.

tuck-shop, shop (esp at a school) where chocolate, fruit, etc is sold.

-tude /tju:d/ US: -tu:d/ suffix (used to form a noun) condition: magnitude.

Tues-day /'tju:zdi/ US: 'tu:-/ n third day of the week, next after Monday.

tuft /tʌft/ n [C] bunch of feathers, grass, etc growing or held together at the base.

tufted adj having, growing in, tufts.

tug /tʌg/ vt, vi (-gg-) pull hard (at): We ~ged so hard that the rope broke. □ n [C] 1 sudden hard pull: I felt a ~ at my sleeve. 2 (also ~boat), small powerful boat for towing ships.

tug of war, contest in which two teams pull against each other on a rope.

tuition /'tju:ʃn/ US: 'tu:-/ n [U] (fee for) teaching: have private ~ in mathematics.

tu-lip /'tju:li:p/ US: 'tu:-/ n [C] bulb plant with a large bell-shaped flower on a tall stem.

tumble /'tʌmbəl/ vi, vt 1 fall, esp quickly: tumbling down the stairs/off a bicycle. 2 move up and down, to and fro, in a restless or disorderly way: The puppies were tumbling about on the floor. 3 be in a weak state (as if ready to fall): The old barn is tumbling down. 4 cause to fall: The accident ~d us all out of the bus and on to the road. 5 tumble to sth, (informal) realize (an idea, etc): At last he ~d to what I was hinting at. □ n [C] 1 fall: have a nasty ~. 2 confused state: Things were all in a ~.

tumble-drier -dryer, machine for drying washing by turning it in warm air.

tum-bler /'tʌmbəl(r)/ n [C] drinking-glass without a handle or stem.

tu-mes-cent /'tju:mesnt/ US: 'tu:-/ adj (formal) swelling; swollen.

tummy /'tʌmi/ n [C] (pl -ies) (informal) (used by and to children) stomach; belly.

tummy-ache, pain in the stomach.

tu-mour (US = tu-mor) /'tju:mə(r)/ US: 'tu:-/ n [C] diseased growth in some part of the body.

tu-mult /'tju:mʌlt/ US: 'tu:-/ n [C, U] 1 great disturbance: the ~ of battle. 2 confused and excited state of mind: be in a ~.

tu-mul-tu-ous /'tju:mʌltʃʊəs/ US: 'tu:-/ adj (formal) noisy and energetic: a ~ welcome.

tu-mul-tu-ous-ly adv

tuna /'tju:nə/ US: 'tu:nə/ n [C] (pl with or without s) large seafish used as food.

tun-dra /'tʌndrə/ n [C] (pl ~s) wide, treeless plain of the arctic regions (of Russia, Siberia).

tune /tju:n/ US: 'tu:n/ n 1 [C] succession of notes forming a melody (of a song, etc). 2 [U] quality of having a strong melody: music with very little ~ in it. 3 [U] in/out of tune, at/not at the correct pitch: sing/play in ~. 4 [U] (fig) harmony: be in/out of ~ with one's surroundings/companions. change one's tune, change one's way of speaking, behaviour, etc (eg from insolence or respect). to the tune of, to the amount of: He was fined (eg for a motoring offence) to the ~ of £30. □ vt, vi 1 adjust the strings, etc (of a musical instrument) to the right pitch: ~ a guitar. 2 tune in (to), (a) adjust the controls of a radio to a particular frequency/station: ~ in to the BBC. (b) (fig) be aware of what other people are saying, feeling, etc: He's not very well ~d in to his surroundings. 3 adjust or adapt the engine of a motor-vehicle so that it gives its best, or a special, performance.

tune-ful /-fl/ adj having a pleasing tune.

tune-fully /-fəli/ adv

tuning-fork, steel instrument like a fork which produces a musical note when struck.

tuner /'tju:nə(r)/ US: 'tu:-/ n [C] 1 person who tunes musical instruments: a piano-~. 2 (part of) a radio, etc which receives the signals.

tu-nic /'tju:nɪk/ US: 'tu:-/ n [C] 1 close-fitting jacket as worn by policemen, soldiers, etc. 2 loose, pleated dress gathered at the waist with a belt.

tun-nel /'tʌnl/ n [C] underground passage (esp through a hill or mountain, for a road, railway, etc). □ vi, vt (-ll-, US also -l-) dig a tunnel (through/into something).

tunny /'tʌni/ n [C] (pl -ies or unchanged) = tuna.

tur-ban /'tʌ:bən/ n [C] 1 man's head-dress made by winding a length of cloth round the head (as worn in some Asian countries). 2 similar woman's close-fitting hat.

tur-bine /'tʌ:bain/ n [C] engine or motor whose driving-wheel is turned by a current of water, steam or gas.

turbo- /'tʌ:bəʊ/ prefix operated by a turbine: a turbo-jet (engine), (aircraft with a) jet engine in which a gas turbine is used; turbo-prop, a gas turbine used to drive a propeller.

tur-bu-lence /'tʌ:bjuləns/ n [C] state of being turbulent.

tur-bu-lent /'tʌ:bjulənt/ adj violent; disorderly; uncontrolled: ~ waves/passions.

tur-bu-lent-ly adv

turf /tɜ:f/ n (pl turves) 1 [U] soil with grass growing in it. 2 [C] piece of turf. 3 the ~, horse-racing as a sport. □ vt 1 cover or lay (a piece of land) with turf. 2 turf sb/sth out, (GB sl) throw out.

turf-accountant, bookmaker.

tur-key /'tɜ:ki/ n [C] (pl ~s) large bird (fowl) eaten as food; [U] its flesh. talk turkey, (informal) be honest, realistic, frank.

Tur-kish bath /'tɜ:kiʃ 'bɑ:θ/ n [C] bath of hot air or steam, followed by a shower and massage.

tur-moil /'tɜ:mɔɪl/ n [C, U] (instance of) trouble, disturbance: The town was in a ~ during the elections.

turn¹ /tɜ:n/ n [C] 1 act of turning; turning movement: a few ~s of the handle. done to a turn, cooked just enough, neither underdone nor overdone. 2 change of direction: sudden ~s in the road. at every turn, (fig) very frequently: I've been coming across old friends at every ~ at the dance. 3 change in condition: The sick man/My affairs took a ~ for the better/worse. 4 occasion or opportunity for doing something, esp in one's proper order among others: It's your ~ to read now, John. in turn, (a) (of two persons) one after the other. (b) (of more than two persons) in succession: The boys were asked in ~ to see the examiner. out of turn, before or after the permitted time: You mustn't speak out of ~. take turns at sth, do it in succession: Mary and Helen took ~s at babysitting. 5 action regarded as affecting a person: do her a good ~, be helpful, etc. 6 natural tendency: a boy with a mechanical ~, interested in, clever at, mechanical things. 7 short period of activity: I'll take a ~ at the wheel if you want a rest (from driving). 8 short performance on the stage.

turn² /tɜ:n/ vt, vi (For special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions, ⇨ 5 below.) 1 (cause to) move round a point; (cause to) move so as to face in a different direction: The earth ~s round the sun. He ~ed away from me. He ~ed to look at me. He ~ed (to the) left. When does the tide ~, begin to flow in/out? turn the corner, ⇨ corner(1). turn a deaf ear (to), ⇨ ear¹(1). turn one's hand to sth, (be able to) do (a task, etc): He can ~ his hand to most jobs about the house. turn one's mind/thoughts/attention to sth, direct one's mind, etc to: Please ~ your attention to something more important. 2 (cause to) change in nature, quality, condition, etc: Frost ~s water into ice. Caterpillars ~ into (= become) butterflies. His hair has ~ed grey. turn sb's head, make him vain: The excessive praise the young actor received ~ed his head. 3 reach and pass: He has ~ed (= reach the age of) fifty. It has just ~ed two, is just after two o'clock. 4 shape (something) on a lathe, etc: ~ a bowl on a potter's wheel. 5 (special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions):

turn (sb) against sb, (cause to) become hostile to: He tried to ~ the children against their mother.

turn (sb) away, (cause to) turn in a different direction so as not to be facing; refuse to look at, welcome, help, admit (to a place): She ~ed away in disgust. We had to ~ away hundreds of fans, eg from a stadium, because all the seats were sold.

turn (sb/sth) back, (cause to) return the way one has come: It's getting dark—we'd better ~ back. turn the clock back, return to an earlier condition, situation, etc.

turn (sth) down, (a) (cause to) fold down: ~ down one's coat collar. (b) reduce (the brilliance of a light, flow of water,) by turning a wheel or tap. turn sb/sth down, refuse to consider (an offer, a proposal, or the person who makes it): He asked Jane to marry him but she ~ed him down.

turn in, (informal) go to bed. turn sb in, (informal) surrender him to the police. turn (sth) in, (cause to) fold or slant inwards: His toes ~ in.

turn (sth) inside out, (cause to) become inside out: The wind ~ed my old umbrella inside out.

turn off, change direction; leave (one road) for another: Is this where we ~ off? turn sth off, stop the flow of (liquid, gas, current) by turning a tap or other control: ~ off the water/lights/radio/TV. turn (sb) off, (sl) (cause him to) lose interest, desire, etc: He/This music really ~s me off!

turn sth on, start the flow of (liquid, gas, current) by turning a tap, etc: T~ the lights/radio on. turn (sb) on, have, give to him, great pleasure or excitement: What kind of music ~s you on? Some psychedelic drugs ~ you on very quickly, change your mental or emotional state. turn on sth, depend on: The success of the debate ~s on the Liberal vote. turn on sb, attack: The dog ~ed on me and bit me in the leg.

turn out (well, etc), prove to be; be in the end: Everything ~ed out well/satisfactory. As it ~ed out..., As it happened in the end...

turn (sth) out, (cause to) point outwards: His toes ~ out. turn sth out, (a) extinguish by turning a knob, etc: Please ~ out the lights. (b) empty (a drawer, one's pockets, a room, etc) when looking for something, etc: ~ out all the drawers in one's desk. turn sb out (of/from sth), expel by force, threats, etc: ~ a tenant out (= from his house) for not paying the rent. turn sb/sth out, produce: Our new factory is ~ing out large quantities of goods. The school has ~ed out some first-rate athletes. turn (sb) out, (cause people to) assemble for some event, or for duty: Not many men ~ed out to watch the match. Hence, turn-out, (a) persons who have turned out (assembled): There was a good ~-out at the meeting. (b) occasion when one turns out a drawer, etc. (c) equipment; clothes and accessories: in a smart ~-out.

turn (sb/sth) over, (cause to) fall over, upset; change the position of: He ~ed over in bed. turn sth over in one's mind, think about it (before making a decision). turn sth/sb over (to sb), give the control or conduct of it or him to: I've ~ed over the management of my affairs to my brother. The thief was ~ed over to the police. turn sth over, do business to the amount of: Mr Smith/His business ~s over £500 a week. Hence, 'turn-over, (a) amount of money made in business within a period of time or for a particular transaction: a profit of £1000 on a ~over of £10000. (b) rate of renewal: There is a higher ~over of teachers in big cities.

turn (sth/sb) round, (cause to) face another way, be in another direction: T ~ round and let me see your new hairstyle.

turn 'to, get busy: The design staff ~ed to and produced a set of drawings in twenty-four hours. turn to sb, go to: The child ~ed to its mother for comfort.

turn up, (a) make one's appearance; arrive: He promised to come, but hasn't ~ed up yet. (b) be found, esp by chance: The book you've lost may ~ up one of these days. (c) (of an opportunity, etc) happen: He's still waiting for something (eg a job, a piece of good luck) to ~ up. turn (sth) up, (a) (cause to) slope upwards: ~ (= roll) up one's shirt sleeves. (b) expose; make visible: He ~ed up some buried treasure on the beach. turn up one's nose at sth, (fig) express a superior and critical attitude towards: She ~ed up her nose at the suggestion. Hence, 'turn-up, (a) turned fold at the bottom of a trouser-leg. (b) surprising and unexpected event: Fancy seeing you after all these years. What a ~-up for the book! What a great surprise!

turn upon sb/sth, = turn on.

turn-coat /'tɜːnkəʊt/ n [C] person who deserts one group for another.

turner /'tɜːnə(r)/ n [C] person who works a lathe.

turn-ing /'tɜːnɪŋ/ n [C] place where a road turns, esp where one road branches off from another: Take the first ~ on/to the right.

'turning-point, (fig) point in place, time, development, etc which is critical: reach a ~ point in history/in one's life.

tur-nip /'tɜːnɪp/ n [C] (plant with a) large round root used as a vegetable and as food for cattle.

turn-stile /'tɜːnstɑɪl/ n [C] revolving gate that allows one person through at a time.

tur-quoise /'tɜːkwoɪz/ n [C,U] (colour of a) greenish-blue precious stone.

tur-ret /'tʌrɪt/ n [C] 1 small tower, esp at a corner of a building or defensive wall. 2 [C] steel structure protecting gunners.

turtle /'tɜːtl/ n [C] sea-animal with a soft body protected by a hard shell like a tortoise.

curves /tɜːvz/ n pl ⇨ turf.

tusk /tʌsk/ n [C] long-pointed tooth, esp one coming out from the closed mouth, as in the elephant, walrus or wild boar.

tussle /'tʌsl/ n [C], vi (have a) difficult fight or struggle or (with).

tut /tʌt/, tut-tut /tʌt tʌt/ int (used to express impatience).

tu-te-lage /'tjuːtlɪdʒ/ US: /tuː-/ n [U] (formal) guardianship.

tu-tor /'tjuːtə(r)/ US: /tuː-/ n [C] 1 private teacher of a single pupil or a very small class. 2 (GB) university teacher who advises a student and guides his general performance. ⇨ vt teach as a tutor.

tu-tor-ial /tjuː'tɔːriəl/ US: /tuː-/ adj of a tutor of his duties: ~ial classes. ⇨ n [C] teaching period for a small group of university students.

tux-edo /tʌk'sɪdəʊ/ n [C] (pl ~s) (US) = dinner-jacket.

twaddle /'twɒdl/ n [U] foolish talk.

twang /twæŋ/ n [C] 1 sound of a tight string or wire being pulled and released: the ~ of a guitar. 2 harsh, nasal tone of voice: speak with a ~. ⇨ vt, vi (cause to) make this kind of sound: He was ~ing a banjo.

'twas /twɒz/ weak form: twɒz/ (old use) = it was.

tweak /twiːk/ vt pinch and twist: ~ a child's nose. ⇨ n [C] act of tweaking.

tweed /twiːd/ n 1 [U] (often as an adjective) thick, soft, woollen cloth of mixed colours: a ~ coat. 2 (pl) (suit of) clothes made of tweed: dressed in Scottish ~s.

tweet /twiːt/ n [C], vi (of a bird) = chirp.

tweez-ers /'twiːzəz/ n pl (also a pair of ~) tiny pair of tongs for picking up or pulling out very small things, eg hairs.

twelfth /twelfθ/ n [C], adj (abbr 12th) (of) the next after the 11 or one of 12 equal parts.

'twelfth-night, eve of the festival of Epiphany, celebrated with festivities.

twelve /twelv/ n [C], adj (of) 12.

twen-ti-eth /'twentɪəθ/ n [C], adj (abbr 20th) (of) the next after 19 or one of 20 equal parts.

twenty /'twenti/ n [C], adj (of) 20. in the twenties, (a) (of a person's age, temperature, speed, etc) between 19 and 30. (b) between '19 and '30 in a century.

twice /twɑɪs/ adv two times: ~ as much/as many. He's ~ the man he was, healthier, stronger, more confident, more capable, etc. think twice about doing sth, hesitate, think carefully, before deciding to do it.

twiddle /'twɪdl/ vt, vi twist or turn idly: ~ one's thumbs; twiddling a ring on one's finger.

twig¹ /twɪɡ/ n [C] small shoot on or at the end of a branch (tree, bush or plant).

twig² /twɪɡ/ vt, vi (-gg-) (GB informal) notice; understand; realize: I soon ~ged what he was up to.

twi-light /'twɪlaɪt/ n [U] 1 faint light before sunrise or after sunset: go for a walk in the ~. 2 (fig) period about which little is known: in the ~ of history.

twin /twin/ n 1 [C] either of two children or animals born together of the same mother: (as an adjective) ~ brothers. 2 (as an adjective) completely like, closely associated with, another: ~ beds, two identical single beds; ~ towns. ⇨ twinned..

'twin-set, woman's jumper and cardigan of the same colour and style.

twine /twaɪn/ n [U] thin string made by twisting two or more yarns together. □ vt, vi twist; wind: vines twining round a tree.

twinge /twɪndʒ/ n [C] sudden, sharp pain: a ~ of toothache. □ vi produce this pain.

twinkle /'twɪŋkl/ vi 1 shine with a light that gleams unsteadily: stars that ~ in the sky. 2 (of eyes) sparkle: Her eyes ~ed with amusement/ mischief. □ n 1 [U] twinkling light: the ~ of the stars. 2 sparkle: There was a mischievous ~ in her eyes.

twinkling /'twɪŋklɪŋ/, (sing only) in a twinkling of an eye, in an instant.

twinned /twɪnd/ adj paired (with): a town in England ~ with a town in France, for cultural, educational, etc exchanges.

twirl /twɜːl/ vt, vi 1 (cause to) turn round and round quickly: He sat ~ing his thumbs. 2 curl: He ~ed his moustache (up). □ n [C] quick circular motion.

twist /twɪst/ vt, vi 1 wind or turn (a number of threads, strands, etc) one around the other: ~ pieces of straw into a rope. 2 make (a rope, a garland, etc) by doing this. 3 turn, esp by the use of force; turn the two ends of (something) in opposite directions: ~ the cap off a tube of toothpaste. He fell and ~ed his ankle. twist sb's arm, (fig) put (friendly or unfriendly) pressure on him to do something. twist sb round one's little finger, (informal) get him to do what one wants him to do. 4 force (a person's words) out of their true meaning: The police tried to ~ his words into a confession of guilt. 5 give a spiral form to (a rod, column, etc); receive, have, move or grow in, a spiral form: ~ed columns, as in architecture. 6 turn and curve in different directions; change position or direction: The road ~s and turns up the side of the mountain. 7 dance the twist, ⇨ 5 below. □ n 1 [C] turning or being turned: Give the rope a few more ~s. There are many ~s in the road. 2 [C] something made by twisting: a rope full of ~s. 3 [C,U] thread, string, rope, etc made by twisting together two or more strands. 4 peculiar type or tendency of mind or character: He has a criminal ~ in him. 5 dance (popular in the 1960's) with twisting of the arms and hips.

twister, difficult task, problem, etc.

'tongue-twister, word or phrase difficult to pronounce, eg 'three frightened thrushes'.

twit /twɪt/ n [C] (sl) foolish person.

twitch /twɪtʃ/ n [C] 1 sudden, quick, usually uncontrollable movement of a muscle. 2 sudden quick pull: I felt a ~ at my sleeve. □ vi, vt (cause to) move in a twitch(1): The horse ~ed its ears.

twit-ter /'twɪtə(r)/ vi 1 (of birds) make a succession of soft short sounds. 2 (of persons) talk rapidly through excitement, nervousness, etc. □ n [C] chirping: the ~ of sparrows.

two /tuː/ adj, n [C] (of) 2. break/cut sth in two, into two parts. put two and two together, infer something from what one sees, hears, learns, etc. ⇨ also mind 1 (2).

two-faced adj (fig) insincere.

two-fold adj, adv double, doubly.

two-piece, set of clothes of similar or matching material, eg skirt and jacket, trousers and jacket: (as an adjective) a ~ piece bathing-suit.

two-ply adj of two strands or thicknesses: ~ply 'wool/wood.

two-seater, car, aircraft, etc with seats for two persons.

two-time, vt, vi (sl) deceive.

two-timing adj (sl) deceitful.

two-way adj (a) (of a switch) allowing current to be switched on or off from either of two points. (b) (of a road or street) in which traffic may move in both directions. (c) (of radio equipment, etc) for both sending and receiving.

tycoon /taɪ'kuːn/ n [C] (modern informal) wealthy and powerful business man or industrialist: 'oil ~s.

ty-ing /'taɪŋ/ present participle of tie².

type¹ /taɪp/ n 1 [C] person, thing, event, etc considered as an example of a class or group: Pele was a fine ~ of football player. 2 [C] class or group considered to have common characteristics: men of this ~. true to type, ⇨ true (4). 3 [U] letters, etc cast in blocks of metal for use in printing; [C] one of these blocks.

'type-script, typewritten copy (prepared for printing, etc).

'type-writer, machine with which a person prints letters on paper, using the fingers on a keyboard.

'type-written adj typed (1).

type² /taɪp/ vt, vi 1 use, write with, a typewriter: ~ a letter. She ~s well. 2 determine the type (2) of something: ~ a virus.

typ-ing n [C] act, job, of using a typewriter.

ty-pist /'taɪpɪst/, person who types (1).

type-cast /'taɪpkɑːst/ US: -kæst/ vt (pt, pp typecast) cast (a person) for a part in a play, etc which seems to fit his/her own personality. □ adj (of a person) very suited to what he is doing.

ty-phoid /'taɪfɔɪd/ n [U] (also ~ fever) infectious disease which attacks the intestines.

ty-phoon /'taɪfuːn/ n [C] violent hurricane.

ty-phus /'taɪfəs/ n [U] infectious disease with fever and purple spots on the body.

typi-cal /'tɪpɪkl/ adj serving as a type; representative or characteristic.

typi-cally /-kli/ adv

typ-ify /'tɪpɪfaɪ/ vt (pt, pp -ied) be a symbol of; be representative of.

ty-pist /'taɪpɪst/ n [C] ⇨ type².

ty-ran-ni-cal /tɪ'rænikl/ adj of, like, a tyrant; acting like a tyrant.

tyr-an-nize (also -ise) /tɪ'rənəɪz/ vi, vt rule cruelly and unjustly: ~ the weak.

tyr-an-nous /tɪ'rənəs/ adj = tyrannical.

tyr-anny /tɪ'rəni/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] cruel or unjust use of power; [C] instance of this. 2 [C, U] (instance of, country with, the) kind of government existing when a ruler has complete power, esp power obtained by force and used unjustly: live under a ~.

ty-rant /tɪ'rənt/ n [C] cruel or unjust ruler, esp one who has obtained complete power by force.

tyre (US = tire) /tɪə(r)/ n [C] band of rubber on the rim of a wheel, esp (pneumatic ~) the kind on bicycle and motor-car wheels.

tsetze /tsets/ n [C] = tsetse.

Uu

U, u /ju:/ (pl U's, u's /ju:z/) the 21st letter of the English alphabet.

U-turn, one of 180°: No U-turns! (as a traffic notice on motorways).

ubi-qui-tous /ju:'bɪkwɪtəs/ adj (formal) present everywhere or in several places at the same time.

ud-der /'ʌdə(r)/ n [C] part of a cow, goat or other animal, from which milk comes.

ugh /ʒ: made with an expression of disgust | int (used to show disgust).

ugly /'ʌɡli/ adj (-ier, -iest) 1 unpleasant to look at: ~ men/furniture. 2 threatening; unpleasant: The situation looks ~.

ug-li-ness n [U] uku-lele /ju:kə'leli/ n [C] Hawaiian four-stringed guitar.

ul-cer /'ʌlsə(r)/ n [C] 1 open sore forming poisonous matter (on the outside or inside surface of the body). 2 (fig) corrupting influence or condition.

ul-cer-ate /-et/ vt, vi form, convert into, an ulcer.

ul-cer-ous /-əs/ adj

ulna /'ʌlnə/ n [C] (pl ~e /-ni:/) (anat) inner of the two bones of the forearm.

ul-ter-ior /'ʌl'tɪəriə(r)/ adj beyond what is first seen or said.

ul-terior 'motive, motive other than what is expressed or admitted.

ul-ti-mate /'ʌltɪmət/ adj last, furthest, basic: ~ principles/truths; the ~ deterrent (used of nuclear weapons).

ul-ti-mate-ly adv finally; in the end.

ul-ti-ma-tum /'ʌltɪ'metəm/ n [C] (pl ~s or -ta /-tə/) final statement of conditions to be agreed without discussion, eg one sent to a student threatening expulsion.

ultra- /'ʌltrə-/ prefix beyond, to excess: ultra-violent; ultra-modern.

ultra-sonic /'ʌltrə'sonɪk/ adj of sound waves above normal human hearing.

ultra-vio-let /'ʌltrə'vaɪələt/ adj of the invisible part of the spectrum beyond the violet.

um-bili-cal /ʌm'bɪlɪk/ adj (also ~ cord) cord connecting a foetus at the navel with the placenta.

um-brella /ʌm'brelə/ n [C] (pl ~s) 1 folding frame covered with cotton, etc used to shelter the person holding it from rain. 2 (fig) protection: under the ~ of the UNO.

um-laut /'ʊmlaut/ n [C] (in Germanic languages) vowel change shown by two dots over the vowel (as in the German plural Männer of Mann).

um-pire /'ʌmpaɪə(r)/ n [C] person chosen to act as a judge in a dispute, to see that the rules are obeyed in cricket, baseball, tennis and other games. (Note: referee for football and boxing.) □ vt, vi act as an umpire: ~ a cricket match.

ump-teen /'ʌmp'ti:n/ adj (sl) many: I've warned you ~ times.

ump-teenth /'ʌmp'ti:nθ/ adj: for the ~th time, for I don't know how many times.

un- /ʌn-/ prefix 1 (used with an adjective or noun) not: unable; untruth. 2 (used with a verb) negative, reverse, opposite of: uncover; unpack; undress.

un-abated /'ʌnə'beɪtɪd/ adj (of a storm, etc) (continuing) as strong, violent, etc as before.

un-able /'ʌn'eɪbl/ adj unable to do sth, not able to.

un-accom-pan-ied /'ʌnə'kʌmpənɪd/ adj 1 without a companion: ~ luggage, sent separately. 2 (music) performed without an accompaniment.

un-ac-count-able /'ʌnə'kaʊntəbl/ adj in a way that cannot be accounted for or explained.

un-ac-count-ably /-əbli/ adv

un-ac-cus-tomed /'ʌnə'kʌstəmd/ adj 1 not accustomed to: ~ as I am to speaking in public. 2 not usual: his ~ silence.

un-ad-vised /'ʌnəd'vaɪzɪd/ adj (esp) not discreet or wise.

un-ad-vised-ly /'ʌnəd'vaɪzɪdli/ adv rashly.

un-af-fec-ted /'ʌnə'fektɪd/ adj 1 sincere. 2 not affected.

un-alien-able /'ʌn'eɪlɪənəbl/ adj that cannot be taken away or separated: ~ rights.

un-al-ter-ably /'ʌn'ɔ:l'tɜ:rəbli/ adv in a way that cannot be changed.

una-nim-ity /ju:'nə'nɪməti/ n [U] complete agreement or unity.

unani-mous /ju:'nænɪməs/ adj in, showing, complete agreement: He was elected by a ~ vote | with ~ approval.

unani-mous-ly adv
un-an-nounced /ʌnə'naʊnst/ adj without having been announced.
un-an-swer-able /ʌn'ɑ:nsərəbl US: -'ænz-/ adj (esp) against which no good argument can be brought: His case is ~.
un-an-swered /ʌn'ɑ:nsəd US: -'ænz-/ adj not replied to: ~ letters.
un-ap-proach-able /ʌnə'prəʊtʃəbl/ adj (esp, of a person) difficult to approach (because too stiff or formal).
un-armed /ʌn'ɑ:md/ adj without weapons or means of defence.
un-asked /ʌn'ɑ:skt US: -'æskt/ adj (esp) without being requested: helping ~.
un-as-sum-ing /ʌnə'sju:mɪŋ US: -'su:-/ adj not drawing attention to oneself; modest.
un-as-sum-ing-ly adv
un-at-tached /ʌnə'tætʃt/ adj 1 not connected or associated with a particular person, group, organization, etc; independent. 2 not married or engaged to be married.
un-at-tended /ʌnə'tendɪd/ adj not attended to; with no one to give care or attention to: Would you leave small children at home ~ while you went to the cinema?
un-auth-or-ized (also -ised) /ʌn'ɔ:θəraɪzd/ adj not authorized; illegal.
un-avail-ing /ʌnə'veɪlɪŋ/ adj without effect or success.
un-avoid-able /ʌnə'vɔɪdəbl/ adj that cannot be avoided.
un-a-void-ably /-əvəbl/ adv: He was unavoidably absent.
un-aware /ʌnə'weə(r)/ adj not knowing; not aware.
un-awares /-ˈweəz/ adv ⇨ take¹ (2).
un-bal-anced /ʌn'bælənst/ adj (esp of a person, the mind) not sane or normal.
un-bear-able /ʌn'beərəbl/ adj that cannot be borne or tolerated: I find his rudeness ~.
un-bear-ably /-əvəbl/ adv in a way that cannot be endured: unbearably hot/rude.
un-beat-able /ʌn'bi:təbl/ adj that cannot be improved on: ~ prices.
un-beaten /ʌn'bi:tɪn/ adj (esp) not having been defeated or surpassed: an ~ record for the 1000 metres race.
un-be-com-ing /ʌnbrɪ'kæmɪŋ/ adj not appropriate.
un-be-liever /ʌnbrɪ'li:və(r)/ n [C] (esp) person who does not believe in God.
un-bend /ʌn'bend/ vi, vt (pt, pp unbent /-bent/) 1 behave in a way free from strain or formality: 'After teaching I ~. 2 relax: ~ one's mind.
un-bend-ing adj (esp) determined.
un-bi-as-sed (also -biased) /ʌn'baɪəst/ adj impartial.
un-block /ʌn'blɒk/ vt remove obstruction from.
un-born /ʌn'bɔ:n/ adj not yet born; future: ~ generations.

un-break-able /ʌn'breɪkəbl/ adj that cannot be broken.
un-bro-ken /ʌn'brəʊkn/ adj (esp) 1 (eg of a horse) not tamed. 2 not interrupted: six hours of ~ sleep. 3 (of records, etc) not beaten.
un-buckle /ʌn'bʌkl/ vt undo the buckle(s) of.
un-built /ʌn'bɪlt/ adj not (yet) built.
un-bur-den /ʌn'bɜ:dn/ vi relieve of a burden: ~ one's conscience, eg by making a confession.
un-called-for /ʌn'kɔ:ld fɔ:(r)/ adj not justified, desirable or necessary: Such rude comments are ~.
un-canny /ʌn'kæni/ adj not natural, mysterious: an ~ ability to predict disaster.
un-cared-for /ʌn'keəd fɔ:(r)/ adj neglected: ~ children.
un-ceas-ing /ʌn'si:sɪŋ/ adj going on, continuing, all the time.
un-ceas-ing-ly adv
un-cer-emo-ni-ous /ʌn,serɪ'məʊniəs/ adj 1 informal. 2 lacking in courtesy.
un-cer-emo-ni-ous-ly adv
un-cer-tain /ʌn'sɜ:tn/ adj 1 not reliable: ~ weather; a man with an ~ temper. 2 not certainly knowing or known: be/feel ~ (about) what to do next; ~ of/about/as to one's plans for the future.
un-cer-tain-ly adv
un-cer-tain-ty /ʌn'sɜ:tnɪ/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] state of being uncertain. 2 [C] something which is uncertain: the uncertainties of employment in many countries.
un-changed /ʌn'tʃeɪndʒd/ adj staying, having stayed, the same: ~ weather.
un-chari-table /ʌn'tʃərɪtəbl/ adj (esp) severe or harsh (in making judgements of the conduct of others).
un-checked /ʌn'tʃekt/ adj not kept under control: ~ anger.
un-christian /ʌn'krɪstʃən/ adj not Christian; contrary to Christian principles.
un-civil /ʌn'sɪvl/ adj impolite (the usual word).
un-civil-ized (also -ised) /ʌn'sɪvəlaɪzd/ adj 1 not (yet) civilized. 2 (informal) (of behaviour) bad, thoughtless.
un-claimed /ʌn'kleɪmd/ adj that has or have not been claimed: ~ letters/parcels.
uncle /'ʌŋkl/ n [C] 1 brother of one's father or mother. 2 husband of one's aunt.
un-clouded /ʌn'klaʊdɪd/ adj (fig) free from care: a life of ~ happiness. ⇨ cloudless.
un-coloured (US = -colored) /ʌn'kɔləd/ adj (fig) not exaggerated: an ~ description of events.
un-com-fort-able /ʌn'kʌmfətəbl/ adj not comfortable.
un-com-mit-ted /ʌn'kɒmɪtɪd/ adj not committed; free, independent.
un-com-mon /ʌn'kɒmən/ adj unusual (and so remarkable).

un-com-mon-ly adv (esp) exceptionally: a ~ly intelligent boy.

un-com-pro-mis-ing /ʌn'kɒmpɹəmaɪzɪŋ/ adj not prepared to make any compromise; firm: an ~ member of the committee.

un-con-cerned /ʌn'kɒn'sɜːnd/ adj 1 not involved (in); not (emotionally) concerned (with). 2 free from anxiety.

un-con-cern-ed-ly /ʌn'kɒn'sɜːnɪli/ adv

un-con-di-tional /ʌn'kɒn'dɪʃənl/ adj absolute; not subject to conditions: We demanded ~ surrender.

un-con-di-tion-ally /-nəli/ adv

un-con-di-tioned /ʌn'kɒn'dɪʃnd/ adj (esp): ~ reflex, instinctive response.

un-con-sci-ous /ʌn'kɒnʃəs/ adj not conscious (all senses). □ n the ~, (psychology) that part of one's mental activity of which one is unaware, but which can be detected and understood through the skilled analysis of dreams, behaviour, etc.

un-con-sci-ous-ly adv

un-con-sid-ered /ʌn'kɒn'sɪdəd/ adj 1 (of words, remarks) spoken, made, thoughtlessly. 2 disregarded (as if of little value or worth).

un-con-trol-lable /ʌn'kɒn'trəʊləbl/ adj unable to be controlled: ~ laughter/children.

un-cork /ʌn'kɔːk/ vt take the cork from (a bottle).

un-count-able /ʌn'kaʊntəbl/ adj that cannot be counted.

uncountable noun, one that may be used with some, enough, a lot of, etc and that has no plural form (marked [U] in this dictionary).

un-couple /ʌn'kʌpl/ vt unfasten: ~ a locomotive from a train.

un-couth /ʌn'kuːθ/ adj (of persons, their behaviour) rough, awkward, uncultured.

un-couth-ly adv

un-cover /ʌn'kʌvə(r)/ vt 1 remove a cover or covering from. 2 (fig) make known: The police ~ed a plot against the President.

un-cros-sed /ʌn'krɒst/ US: -'krɒst/ adj (esp, of a cheque) not crossed.

un-daunted /ʌn'dɔːntɪd/ adj fearless.

un-de-cided /ʌn'dɪ'saɪdɪd/ adj not yet having made up one's mind.

un-de-fended /ʌn'dɪ'fendɪd/ adj (esp of a lawsuit) in which no defence is offered.

un-de-mon-stra-tive /ʌn'dɪ'mɒnstrətɪv/ adj not showing feelings of affection, interest, etc.

un-de-ni-able /ʌn'dɪ'nəəbl/ adj undoubted-ly true: of ~ value.

un-de-ni-ably /-əbli/ adv: undeniably true.

under¹ /'ʌndə(r)/ adv in or to a lower place, position, etc: The ship went ~, sank. down under, (GB informal) in Australia and New Zealand.

under² /'ʌndə(r)/ prep 1 in or to a position lower than: The cat was ~ the table. There's nothing new under the sun, (proverb), nothing unknown anywhere. 2 in and covered by: He hid ~ the bedclothes. 3 less than; lower (in rank) than: children ~ fourteen years of age; incomes ~ £2000; run a hundred metres in ~ ten seconds; no one ~ (the rank of) a captain. (Note: opposites are above or over.) under age, ⇨ age. 4 (showing various conditions): road ~ repair, being repaired; ~ discussion, being discussed; be ~ the impression that, have the idea or belief that.

under- /ʌndə(r)/ prefix 1 located beneath: undergrowth. 2 not enough: undersized. 3 lower in rank or importance: understudy.

under-act /'ʌndə'rækt/ vt, vi act with too little energy, enthusiasm.

under-arm /'ʌndə'rɑːm/ adj, adv (hitting or throwing a ball) with the hand kept below the level of the elbow.

under-bid /'ʌndə'bid/ vt (pt, pp underbid) 1 make a lower bid than (another person). 2 (in card-games) bid less on (a hand of cards) than its strength demands.

under-car-riage /'ʌndə'kærɪdʒ/ n [C] (usually with the) landing gear of an aircraft.

under-charge /'ʌndə'tʃɑːdʒ/ vt charge too little for or to. □ n [C] /'ʌndə'tʃɑːdʒ/ charge that is too small.

under-clothes /'ʌndə'kləʊðz/ US: -kləʊz/ n pl clothing worn next to the skin.

under-cloth-ing /'ʌndə'kləʊðɪŋ/ n [U] = underclothes.

under-cover /'ʌndə'kʌvə(r)/ adj secret: an ~ agent, person who associates with suspected criminals, etc to get evidence against them.

under-cur-rent /'ʌndə'kʌrənt/ US: -kərənt/ n [U] 1 current of water flowing beneath the surface. 2 (fig) tendency (of thought or feeling) lying below what is apparent: an ~ of hatred.

under-cut /'ʌndə'kʌt/ vt (pt, pp undercut) (-tt-) offer (goods, services) at a lower price than competitors.

under-de-vel-oped /'ʌndə'dɪ'veləpt/ adj not yet fully developed: ~ muscles/countries.

under-dog /'ʌndədɒg/ US: -dɒg/ n [C] (usually with the) (fig) person who is considered the poorest, weakest, the probable loser in a competition, etc.

under-done /'ʌndə'dʌn/ adj (esp of meat) not completely cooked throughout.

under-es-ti-mate /'ʌndə'restɪmənt/ vt form too low an estimate or opinion of: ~ the enemy's strength. □ n /-mət/ [C] estimate which is too low.

under-fed /'ʌndə'fed/ adj having had too little food.

under-foot /'ʌndə'fʊt/ adv under one's feet: It is very stony ~.

under-go /'ʌndə'gəʊ/ vt (pt -went /-went/, pp -gone /-gɒn/ US: -'gɔːn/) experience: The explorers had to ~ much suffering.

under-graduate /ˌʌndə'grædʒuət/ n [C] university student working for a bachelor's degree.

under-ground /ˌʌndə'graʊnd/ adj 1 under the surface of the ground: ~ passages/caves. 2 secret (esp of political movement or one for resisting enemy forces in occupation of another country): ~ workers. 3 ~ music, kinds of experimental pop music. □ adv (also) /ˌʌndə'graʊnd/ (in the senses of the adj): He went ~ (= into hiding) when he heard the police were after him. □ n 1 the U~, London's underground railway system. 2 (in war, etc) resistance movement: men of the French ~.

under-growth /ˌʌndə'grəʊθ/ n [U] shrubs, bushes, low trees, growing among taller trees.

under-hand /ˌʌndə'hænd/ adj, adv deceitful(-ly).

under-lay /ˌʌndə'leɪ/ n [U] material (felt, rubber, etc) laid under a carpet.

under-lie /ˌʌndə'laɪ/ vt form the basis of (a theory, of conduct, behaviour, doctrine).

under-line /ˌʌndə'laɪn/ vt 1 draw a line under (a word, etc). 2 (fig) emphasize. □ n /ˌʌndə'laɪn/ [C] line drawn under a word or words.

under-ling /ˌʌndə'lɪŋ/ n [C] person in an unimportant position compared to others.

under-man-ned /ˌʌndə'mænd/ adj not having enough men to do the work.

under-men-tioned /ˌʌndə'menʃnd/ adj mentioned below or later (in an article, etc).

under-mine /ˌʌndə'maɪn/ vt 1 make a hollow or tunnel under: cliffs ~d by the sea. 2 weaken gradually: His health was ~d by drink.

under-neath /ˌʌndə'ni:θ/ adv, prep beneath; below; at or to a lower place.

under-nour-ished /ˌʌndə'nʌrɪʃt/ US: -'nærɪʃt/ adj not provided with sufficient food for good health and normal growth.

under-pants /ˌʌndə'pænts/ n pl male underwear covering the lower part of the body.

under-pass /ˌʌndə'pɑ:s/ US: -pæs/ n [C] section of a road that goes under another road or railway.

under-pay /ˌʌndə'peɪ/ vt (pt, pp -paid /-ˈpeɪd/) pay (workmen, etc) inadequately.

under-pay-ment n [C, U] under-pin /ˌʌndə'pɪn/ vt (-nn-) 1 place a support of stone, etc under (a wall, etc). 2 (fig) support, form the basis for, (an argument, etc).

under-privi-leged /ˌʌndə'prɪvɪlɪdʒd/ adj not having had the educational and social advantages enjoyed by more fortunate people, social classes, nations, etc.

under-rate /ˌʌndə'reɪt/ vt place too low a value or estimate on: ~ an opponent, fail to realize his abilities, strength, etc.

under-sec-retary /ˌʌndə'sekrətəri/ US: -terɪ/ n [C] (pl -ies) (esp) (Parliamentary U~) member of the Civil Service and head of a Government Department.

under-sell /ˌʌndə'sel/ vt (pt, pp -sold /-ˈsəʊld/) sell (goods) at a lower price than (competitors).

under-signed /ˌʌndə'saɪnd/ pp: We, the ~ed..., We whose signatures appear below...

under-sized /ˌʌndə'saɪzd/ adj of less than the usual size.

under-skirt /ˌʌndə'skɜ:t/ n [C] petticoat.

under-staffed /ˌʌndə'sta:fɪt/ US: -stɑ:fɪt/ adj having too small a staff.

under-stand /ˌʌndə'stænd/ vt, vi (pt, pp -stood /-ˈstʊd/) 1 know the meaning, nature, explanation, of (something): ~ him/French/a problem. He didn't ~ me/what I said. 2 learn (from information received): I ~ that you are now married.

under-stand-able /-əbl/ adj that can be understood: His refusal to agree is ~able.

under-stand-ing adj (good at) realizing other persons' feelings or points of view: with an ~ing smile. □ n (a) [U] power of clear thought, for seeing something from another's point of view, etc. (b) (often with a, an, but rarely pl) agreement; realization of another's views or feelings towards oneself: reach/come to an ~ing with the bank-manager. on the under-stand-ing that..., on condition that...

under-state /ˌʌndə'steɪt/ vt fail to state fully or adequately: They exaggerated the enemy's losses and ~d their own.

under-state-ment /ˌʌndə'steɪtmənt/ n [C, U] under-stock /ˌʌndə'stɒk/ vt equip with less stock than is necessary.

under-study /ˌʌndə'stʌdi/ n [C] (pl -ies) person learning to, able to, take the place of another (esp an actor). □ vt (pt, pp -ied) study (a part in a play) for this purpose; act as an understudy to (an actor): He is ~ing Olivier.

under-take /ˌʌndə'teɪk/ vt (pt -took /-ˈtʊk/, pp -taken /-ˈteɪkən/) 1 make oneself responsible for; agree, promise, (to do something): He undertook to finish the job by Friday. 2 start (a piece of work).

under-tak-ing /ˌʌndə'teɪkɪŋ/ n [C] (a) work that one has promised or agreed to do. (b) promise; guarantee.

under-taker /ˌʌndə'teɪkə(r)/ n [C] person whose business is to prepare the dead for burial or cremation and manage funerals.

under-tone /ˌʌndə'təʊn/ n [C] (formal) 1 low, quiet tone: talk in ~s, talk quietly. 2 underlying quality: an ~ of sadness.

under-took /ˌʌndə'tʊk/ pt of undertake.

under-value /ˌʌndə'vælju:/ vt value at less than the true worth.

under-water /ˌʌndə'wɔ:tə(r)/ adj below the surface of the water: ~ swimming.

under-wear /ˌʌndə'weə(r)/ n [U] under-clothes.

under-went /ˌʌndə'went/ pt of undergo.

under-world /ˌʌndə'wɜ:ld/ n [C] 1 (Greek myth, etc) place of the departed spirits of the dead. 2 part of society that lives by vice and crime.

under-write /ˌʌndə'raɪt/ vt (pt -wrote /-rəʊt/, pp -written /-rɪtn/) undertake to take responsibility for all or part of possible loss (by signing an agreement about insurance, esp of ships).

under-writer, person who underwrites policies of (esp marine) insurance.

un-de-sir-able /ˌʌndɪ'zæərəbl/ adj (esp of persons) of a kind not to be welcomed in society. □ n [C] undesirable person.

un-de-ter-red /ˌʌndɪ'tɜːd/ adj not discouraged: ~ by the weather/by failure.

un-de-vel-oped /ˌʌndɪ'veləpt/ adj not developed: ~ land, not yet used (for farming, etc).

un-did /ˌʌndɪd/ pt of undo.

un-dies /ˌʌndɪz/ n pl (informal) women's underclothes.

un-dis-charged /ˌʌndɪs'tʃɑːdʒd/ adj 1 (of a cargo) not unloaded. 2 (of a debt) not paid.

undo /ˌʌnduː/ vt (pt undid /ˌʌndɪd/, pp undone /ˌʌndʌn/) 1 untie, unfasten, loosen (knots, buttons, etc): My shoelace has come undone. 2 bring back the state of affairs that existed before: He has undone the good work of his predecessor.

un-do-ing, (cause of) ruin: Drink was his ~ing.

un-done adj not finished: leave one's work undone.

un-dom-es-ti-cated /ˌʌndə'mestɪkeɪtɪd/ adj not trained or interested in household affairs: His wife/Her husband is ~.

un-doubted /ˌʌndəʊtɪd/ adj certain; accepted as true: show an ~ improvement in health.

un-doubted-ly adv

un-dreamt-of /ˌʌndræmt əv/ not thought of or imagined: ~ wealth.

un-dress /ˌʌndres/ vt, vi 1 remove the clothes of: Jane ~ed her doll. 2 take off one's clothes: ~ and get into bed/get ~ed and go to bed. □ n [U] in a state of undress, naked.

un-due /ˌʌndjuː/ US: -duː/ adj improper: with ~ haste.

un-duly /ˌʌndjuːli/ US: -duːli/ adv too: unduly pessimistic.

un-du-late /ˌʌndjələt/ US: -dʒə-/ vi (of surfaces) have a wave-like motion or look: undulating land, that rises and falls in gentle slopes.

un-du-la-tion /ˌʌndʒələʃn/ n [C, U] un-dy-ing /ˌʌndɪŋ/ adj everlasting: ~ love.

un-earned /ˌʌn'ɜːnd/ adj 1 not gained by work or service: ~ income, eg inherited. 2 not deserved: ~ praise.

un-earth /ˌʌn'ɜːθ/ vt discover and bring to light: ~ new evidence.

un-earth-ly /ˌʌn'ɜːθli/ adj 1 supernatural. 2 mysterious; ghostly: ~ screams. 3 (informal) unreasonable: Why do you wake me up at this ~ hour?

un-easy /ˌʌn'ɪzi/ adj (-ier, -iest) uncomfortable in body or mind: have an ~ conscience.

un-easi-ness n [U]

un-eaten /ˌʌn'ɪtɪn/ adj not (yet) eaten.

un-edu-cated /ˌʌn'edʒukeɪtɪd/ adj (suggesting a person is) not educated: an ~ mind/voice.

un-em-ploy-able /ˌʌnɪm'pləəbl/ adj that, who, cannot be employed.

un-em-ployed /ˌʌnɪm'plɔɪd/ adj 1 not working, not able to get work: ~ men. 2 not being used: ~ capital. □ n the ~, those who are without jobs.

un-em-ploy-ment /ˌʌnɪm'plɔɪmənt/ n 1 [U] state of being unemployed: U~ is a serious social evil. 2 amount of unused labour: There is more ~ now than there was six months ago.

unemployment pay/benefit, money paid to a worker who cannot get employment.

un-end-ing /ˌʌn'endɪŋ/ adj everlasting; continuous.

un-en-light-ened /ˌʌnɪn'laɪtnd/ adj uneducated; not well-informed.

un-equal /ˌʌn'ɪːkwəl/ adj 1 not equal. 2 (esp of work such as writing) variable in quality. 3 not capable, strong, etc enough: I feel ~ to the task.

un-equally /-kwəli/ adv

un-equal-led /ˌʌn'ɪːkwəld/ adj unrivalled.

un-equivo-cal /ˌʌn'kwɪvəkl/ adj (formal) having one only possible meaning.

un-err-ing /ˌʌn'ɜːrɪŋ/ adj (formal) accurate: fire with ~ aim.

un-even /ˌʌn'ɪːvn/ adj 1 not similar in size, quality, etc: an ~ contest between a small boy and a youth. 2 (of surface) not level, not smooth: an ~ road surface. 3 (of light, etc) not constant.

un-even-ly adv

un-event-ful /ˌʌnɪ'ventfl/ adj ordinary; with no surprises: an ~ journey.

un-ex-cep-tion-able /ˌʌnɪk'sepʃənəbl/ adj (formal) beyond criticism.

un-ex-cep-tional /ˌʌnɪk'sepʃənəl/ adj usual, ordinary: an ~ student.

un-ex-pected /ˌʌnɪkspektɪd/ adj surprising because not expected.

un-fail-ing /ˌʌn'feɪlɪŋ/ adj never coming to an end: ~ trust/support.

un-fail-ing-ly adv at all times: ~ly honest.

un-fair /ˌʌn'feə(r)/ adj unjust: ~ remarks/competition.

un-fair-ly adv

un-fair-ness n [U]

un-faith-ful /ˌʌn'feɪθfl/ adj 1 not true to one's duty, a promise, etc. 2 committing adultery: Her husband is ~ to her.

un-faith-fully /-fəli/ adv

un-faith-ful-ness n [U] un-fal-ter-ing /ˌʌn'fɔːltərɪŋ/ adj not hesitating: with ~ courage.

un-fam-il-i-ar /ˌʌnfə'mɪliə(r)/ adj 1 not well known: That face is not ~ to me, I feel that I know it. 2 not acquainted with: He is still ~ with this district.

un-fath-om-able /ʌn'fæðəməbl/ adj 1 so deep that the bottom cannot be reached. 2 (fig) too strange or difficult to be understood.

un-fav-our-able /ʌn'feɪvəbl/ adj not favourable: ~ weather.

un-fit /ʌn'fɪt/ adj not fit or suitable: He is ~ for driving/ ~ to be a doctor/medically ~.

in-flap-pable /ʌn'flæpəbl/ adj not becoming excited or nervous during a crisis.

un-flinch-ing /ʌn'flɪntʃɪŋ/ adj (of a person's character) not avoiding danger or difficulty.

un-fold /ʌn'fəʊld/ vt, vi 1 (of something folded) open out: ~ a newspaper. 2 reveal, make known; become known or visible: as the story ~s (itself).

un-for-get-table /ʌn'fə'getəbl/ adj that cannot be forgotten: an ~ experience.

un-for-tu-nate /ʌn'fɔ:tʃʊnət/ adj 1 unlucky: an ~ expedition. 2 regrettable: an ~ remark.

un-for-tu-nate-ly adv (used to say or write something unwelcome: U ~ I can't come with you tomorrow, eg because of unexpected obligations).

un-founded /ʌn'faʊndɪd/ adj without proof: ~ rumours.

un-freeze /ʌn'fri:z/ vt, vi 1 (cause to) thaw. 2 remove (government) restrictions on wages, prices, etc.

un-fre-quent-ed /ʌn'fri'kwentɪd/ adj visited rarely.

un-friend-ly /ʌn'frendli/ adj not friendly.

un-frock /ʌn'frɒk/ vt (of a priest guilty of bad conduct) dismiss from the priesthood.

un-fruit-ful /ʌn'fru:tfl/ adj 1 not bearing fruit. 2 (fig) without results or success: ~ discussions.

un-furl /ʌn'fɜ:l/ vt, vi unroll, spread out: ~ a flag/the sails.

un-fur-nished /ʌn'fɜ:nɪʃt/ adj (esp) without furniture: a house to let ~.

un-gain-ly /ʌn'geɪnli/ adj clumsy; awkward.

un-gen-er-ous /ʌn'dʒenərəs/ adj not generous.

un-god-ly /ʌn'gɒdli/ adj 1 not religious. 2 (informal) unreasonable: Why did you phone me at this ~ hour?

un-gov-ern-able /ʌn'gʌvənəbl/ adj that cannot be controlled: an ~ temper.

un-grate-ful /ʌn'greɪtfl/ adj not showing gratitude.

un-guarded /ʌn'gɑ:dɪd/ adj (esp of a person and what he says) careless; indiscreet.

un-happy /ʌn'hæpi/ adj (-ier, -iest) not happy.

un-healthy /ʌn'helθi/ adj harmful to bodily or mental health.

un-heard /ʌn'hɜ:d/ adj 1 not heard. 2 not allowed a hearing. go unheard, (esp) have no-one willing to listen: Her request for help went ~.

un-heard-of /ʌn'hɜ:d əv/ adj without an equal: ~ of wealth.

un-hinged /ʌn'hɪndʒd/ adj (informal) stupid; silly.

un-hook /ʌn'hʊk/ vt undo the hooks of (a dress, etc): Please ~ my dress.

un-hoped-for /ʌn'həʊpt fɔ:r/ adj unexpected: ~ luck.

uni- /ju:nɪ-/ prefix one, the same: uniform.

uni-corn /'ju:nɪkɔ:n/ n [C] (in old stories) animal like a horse with one long horn.

un-iden-ti-fied /ʌn'aɪ'dentɪfaɪd/ adj which cannot be identified: The victim is still ~.

uni,identified,flying object, (abbr UFO) object seen in the sky and (claimed to have been) sent from another planet.

uni-form /'ju:nɪfɔ:m/ adj not varying in form, quality, etc: ~ temperature. □ n [C,U] (style of) dress worn by all members of an organization, eg the police, the armed forces. in uniform, wearing such dress: He looks smart in (his) ~.

uni-form-ly adv without varying in quality, timing, etc.

uni-form-ity /'ju:nɪfɔ:mətɪ/ n [U] condition of being the same throughout.

unify /'ju:nɪfaɪ/ vt (pt,pp -ied) 1 form into one; unite. 2 make uniform.

uni-fi-ca-tion /'ju:nɪfɪ'keɪʃn/ n [U] uni-lat-eral /'ju:nɪ'lætərəl/ adj of, on, affecting, done by, one side or party only: a ~ declaration of independence, (abbr UDI); ~ repudiation of a treaty, by one of the parties that signed it, without the consent of the other party or parties.

uni-lat-er-ally /-rəli/ adv un-im-agin-ative /ʌnɪ'mædʒɪnətɪv/ adj (formal) not having, using, imagination.

un-im-peach-able /ʌnɪm'pi:tʃəbl/ adj that cannot be questioned or doubted: news from an ~ source.

un-in-formed /ʌnɪn'fɔ:md/ adj (esp) not having, made without, adequate information: ~ criticism.

un-in-hib-ited /ʌnɪn'hɪbɪtɪd/ adj without inhibitions; unconventional.

un-in-spired /ʌnɪn'spaɪəd/ adj dull: ~ singing.

un-in-ter-ested /ʌnɪn'trɪstɪd/ adj 1 having, showing no interest. 2 having no personal concern in something.

union /'ju:nɪən/ n 1 [U] uniting or being united; joining or being joined; [C] instance of this: the ~ of the three towns into one. 2 [U] state of being in agreement or harmony; [C] instance of this: a happy ~, eg a happy marriage. 3 [C] association formed by the uniting of persons, groups, etc. 4 [C] (often the ~s) = trade-union.

the Union 'Jack, the British national flag.

unique /'ju:nɪk/ adj having no like or equal; being the only one of its sort.

unique-ly adv

uni-sex /'ju:niseks/ adj (of clothes) of a style designed for, or to be worn by, both sexes.

uni-son /'ju:nisn/ n [U] in unison, together; in the same pitch: sing in ~ unit /'ju:nɪt/ n [C] 1 single person, thing or group regarded as complete. 2 quantity or amount used as a standard of measurement: The metre is a ~ of length. 3 the number 1.

Uni-tar-ian /'ju:nɪ'teəriən/ n [C] member of a Christian church which rejects the doctrine of the Trinity and believes that God is one person. □ adj of the Unitarians: the U~ Church.

unite /'ju:nat/ vt, vi 1 make or become one; join: the interests that ~ our two countries, that bring them together. 2 act or work together: Let's ~ to fight for human rights.

united adj (a) joined eg by love and sympathy: a ~d family. (b) resulting from association for a common purpose: make a ~d effort. (c) joined politically: the U~d Kingdom.

the United Kingdom, Great Britain and Northern Ireland.

United Nations, (since 1945) international organization for peace and mutual aid.

United States (of America), nation in North America.

united-ly adv

unity /'ju:nəti/ n (pl -ies) 1 [C,U] the state of being united; (an) arrangement of parts to form a complete or balanced whole: The figure on the left spoils the ~ of the painting. 2 [U] agreement (of aims, feelings, etc): political ~.

uni-ver-sal /'ju:nɪ'vɜ:sl/ adj of, belonging to, done by, affecting, all: War causes ~ misery.

uni-ver-sally /-səli/ adv

uni-verse /'ju:nɪ'vɜ:s/ n the U~, (a) everything that exists everywhere; all the stars, planets, their satellites, etc. (b) the whole creation and the Creator; mankind.

uni-ver-sity /'ju:nɪ'vɜ:səti/ n [C] (pl -ies) 1 (colleges, buildings, etc of an) institution for advanced teaching, conferring degrees and engaging in academic research. 2 members of such an institution collectively. 3 (as an adjective): a ~ student.

un-kempt /ʌn'kempt/ adj = untidy (the usual word).

un-kind /ʌn'kaɪnd/ adj not showing, kindness: an ~ remark.

un-kind-ly adv in an unkind manner.

un-know-ing /ʌn'nəʊɪŋ/ adj unaware.

un-know-ing-ly adv unawares.

un-known /ʌn'nəʊn/ adj not known or identified: U~ at this address, as written on a letter sent to a wrong address. ⇨ also quantity (4).

un-leash /ʌn'li:ʃ/ vt (fig) set free (to attack): ~ one's temper.

un-leavened /ʌn'levnd/ adj (of bread) made without yeast.

un-less /ʌn'les/ conj if not: You will fail ~ you work harder. U~ you work harder, you will fail.

un-like /ʌn'laɪk/ adj, prep not like; different from.

un-like-ly /ʌn'laɪkli/ adj not likely to happen or be true: an ~ event/story.

un-listed /ʌn'listɪd/ adj (of a telephone number) not in the directory; ex-directory.

un-load /ʌn'ləʊd/ vt, vi 1 remove a load, cargo from: ~ a ship. The ship is ~ing. 2 get rid of (somebody, something not wanted): Don't try to ~ all your boring girlfriends on me!

un-lock /ʌn'lɒk/ vt use a key to open a lock.

un-looked-for /ʌn'lʊkt fɔ:(r)/ adj unexpected.

un-loose /ʌn'lʊ:s/ vt let loose; make free.

un-lucky /ʌn'lʌki/ adj (-ier, -iest) not lucky.

un-luck-ily /-ɪli/ adv unfortunately.

un-man-ly /ʌn'mænli/ adj 1 weak; cowardly. 2 effeminate.

un-man-ned /ʌn'mænd/ adj having no crew: send an ~ spacecraft to Mars.

un-mask /ʌn'mɑ:sk/ US: -'mæsk/ vt, vi 1 remove a mask (from). 2 (fig) show the true character or intentions of: ~ a traitor.

un-matched /ʌn'mætʃt/ adj without an equal.

un-men-tion-able /ʌn'men'nəbl/ adj so bad, etc that it must not be spoken of.

un-mind-ful /ʌn'maɪndfʊl/ adj forgetful; oblivious: ~ of the time.

un-mis-tak-able /ʌnmɪ'steɪkəbl/ adj about which no mistake or doubt is possible: Are black clouds an ~ sign of rain?

un-mis-tak-ably /-əbli/ adv

un-miti-gated /ʌn'mɪtɪgeɪtɪd/ adj (formal) complete; absolute: an ~ rascal.

un-moved /ʌn'mʊvɪd/ adj (esp) indifferent.

un-natu-ral /ʌn'nætʃərəl/ adj not natural or normal.

un-nec-ess-ary /ʌn'nesəsəri/ US: -seri/ adj not necessary.

un-nec-ess-ar-ily /ʌn,nesəsə'ri/ adv un-nerve /ʌn'nɜ:v/ vt cause to lose self-control, power of decision, courage.

un-not-iced /ʌn'nəʊtɪst/ adj not observed or noticed: Her sadness went ~.

un-num-bered /ʌn'nʌmbəd/ adj 1 more than can be counted. 2 having no number(s): ~ tickets.

un-ob-trus-ive /ʌnəb'tru:sɪv/ adj not too obvious or easily noticeable.

un-of-fi-cial /ʌnə'fɪʃl/ adj not official: an ~ strike, not authorized by the union.

un-or-tho-dox /ʌn'ɔ:θədɒks/ adj not in accordance with what is orthodox, conventional, traditional: ~ teaching methods.

un-pack /ʌn'pæk/ vt, vi take out (things packed): ~ one's clothes/a suitcase.

un-par-al-leled /ʌn'pærəleɪd/ adj having no equal: an ~ disaster.

un-pleas-ant /ʌn'plezənt/ adj not pleasant.

un-pleas-ant-ness n [U] unpleasant feeling (between persons); [C] quarrel.

un-prece-dented /ʌn'presidentɪd/ adj never done or known before.

un-preju-diced /ʌn'predʒʊdɪst/ adj free from prejudice.

un-pre-ten-tious /ʌn'pri'tenʃəs/ adj modest; not trying to seem important.

un-prin-cipled /ʌn'prɪnsəpld/ adj without moral principles; dishonest.

un-pro-fessional /ʌn'prə'fɛʃənl/ adj (esp of conduct) contrary to the rules or customs of a profession.

un-prompted /ʌn'prɒmptɪd/ adj (of an answer, action) not said, done, etc as the result of a hint, suggestion, etc.

un-pro-vo-ked /ʌn'prə'vəʊkt/ adj without provocation: ~ aggression/attacks.

un-quali-fied /ʌn'kwɒlɪfaɪd/ adj 1 not limited or restricted; absolute: ~ praise. 2 not qualified: ~ to speak on the subject.

un-ques-tion-able /ʌn'kwɛstʃənəbl/ adj beyond doubt; certain.

un-ques-tion-ably /-əblɪ/ adv

un-quote /ʌn'kwəʊt/ (v, imperative only) (in a telegram, a telephoned message, etc) end the quotation: The rebel leader said (quote) 'We shall never surrender' (~).

un-ravel /ʌn'rævl/ vt, vi (-ll-; US -l-) 1 separate the threads of; pull or become separate: The cat has ~led the knitting. 2 solve: ~ a mystery.

un-real /ʌn'riəl/ adj imaginary; not real.

un-reas-on-able /ʌn'ri:zənəbl/ adj not reasonable.

un-re-lent-ing /ʌn'ri'lentɪŋ/ adj not becoming less in intensity, etc: ~ pressure/attacks.

un-re-li-able /ʌn'ri'ləəbl/ adj that cannot be relied on; not to be trusted.

un-re-mit-ting /ʌn'ri'mɪtɪŋ/ adj (formal) unceasing: ~ efforts.

un-re-quit-ed /ʌn'ri'kwɪtɪd/ adj not returned or rewarded: ~ love.

un-re-serv-ed-ly /ʌn'ri:zə'vɪdlɪ/ adv without reservation or restriction: speak ~.

un-rest /ʌn'rest/ n [U] (esp) disturbed condition(s): political ~.

un-re-strained /ʌn'ri'streɪnd/ adj not kept under control: ~ hatred/laughter.

un-re-stricted /ʌn'ri'strɪktɪd/ adj without restriction(s); (esp of a road) not having a speed limit for traffic.

un-ri-valled (US = -ri-valed) /ʌn'raɪvld/ adj having no rival: ~ in courage.

un-ruffled /ʌn'raʃld/ adj calm; not upset or agitated: He was ~ by all the criticisms.

un-ruly /ʌn'ru:lɪ/ adj (-ier, -iest) not easily controlled; naughty: an ~ child.

un-said /ʌn'sed/ adj not expressed: Some things (eg opinions) are better left ~.

un-sa-voury (US = -sa-vory) /ʌn'seɪvəri/ adj (esp) nasty; disgusting: ~ stories/scandals.

un-scathed /ʌn'skeɪðd/ adj unharmed; unhurt.

un-sci-en-ti-fic /ʌn'saɪən'tɪfɪk/ adj not following or using the principles or rules of science.

un-scramble /ʌn'skræmbl/ vt restore from a confused, mixed or coded state: ~ a coded telephone conversation.

un-scru-pu-lous /ʌn'skru:pjʊləs/ adj not guided by conscience (not to do wrong).

un-scru-pu-lous-ly adv

un-sea-soned /ʌn'si:znd/ adj 1 (of wood) not matured. 2 (of food) not flavoured with seasoning.

un-seat /ʌn'si:t/ vt 1 remove from office: Mr Green was ~ed at the General Election, lost his seat in the House of Commons. 2 throw (the rider) from a horse.

un-seem-ly /ʌn'si:mli/ adj (of behaviour, etc) not proper.

un-seen /ʌn'si:n/ adj not seen; invisible.

un-settle /ʌn'setl/ vt make troubled, anxious or uncertain: ~d weather, weather that often changes.

un-sight-ly /ʌn'saɪthl/ adj unpleasant to look at: ~ litter.

un-skilled /ʌn'skɪld/ adj 1 (of work) not needing special skill. 2 (of workers) not having special skill or special training.

un-soph-is-ti-cated /ʌnsə'fɪstɪkətɪd/ adj not sophisticated; inexperienced.

un-sound /ʌn'saʊnd/ adj 1 unsatisfactory: an ~ argument/building. 2 of unsound mind, mentally disturbed.

un-spar-ing /ʌn'speərɪŋ/ adj liberal; holding nothing back: be ~ in one's efforts; ~ of praise.

un-speak-able /ʌn'spi:kəbl/ adj that cannot be expressed or described in words: ~ joy/sadness.

un-steady /ʌn'stedɪ/ adj 1 (of a person's movement, position) unbalanced; not secure: an ~ walk, eg because of age, illness, alcohol. 2 (of behaviour) inconsistent. 3 (of prices, etc) changing often.

un-stuck /ʌn'stʌk/ adj 1 not stuck or fastened: The flap of the envelope has come ~. 2 fail to work according to plan: Our plan has come ~.

un-suit-able /ʌn'su:təbl/ adj not suitable.

un-sung /ʌn'sʌŋ/ adj not celebrated (in poetry or song). go unsung, (informal) (of a person, his actions) be unknown, not thanked, praised.

un-sure /ʌn'ʃʊə(r)/ adj 1 not infident: I feel ~ about appointing her. 2 not certain or reliable: The hotel arrangements are still ~.

un-swerv-ing /ʌn'swə:vɪŋ/ adj (esp of aims, purposes) not changing: ~ loyalty.

un-think-able /ʌn'θɪŋkəbl/ adj not to be considered: Such a possibility is ~!

un-thought-of /ʌn'θɔ:t əv/ adj unexpected.

un-tidy /ʌn'taɪdi/ adj (-ier, -iest) (of a room, desk, person etc) not tidy.

un-tie /ʌn'taɪ/ vt (present participle untying, pt, pp untied) unfasten a knot, etc.

un-till /ʌn'tɪl/ prep, conj ⇨ *till*¹.

un-time-ly /ʌn'taɪmlɪ/ adj happening before the expected time; premature: her ~ death, eg when she was still young.

un-tir-ing /ʌn'taɪərɪŋ/ adj continuing to work without getting tired or causing tiredness: his ~ efforts.

un-told /ʌn'təʊld/ adj (esp) too many or too much to be measured, etc: ~ wealth.

un-true /ʌn'truː/ adj 1 false: an ~ story. 2 disloyal: be ~ to one's mother.

un-truth /ʌn'truːθ/ n [C] (pl ~s /-tʃuːðz/) lie.

un-truth-ful /-fl/ adv

un-truth-fully /-fəli/ adv

un-used¹ /ʌn'juːzd/ adj never having been used.

un-used² /ʌn'juːst/ adj unused to, not accustomed to: ~ to city life.

un-usual /ʌn'juːʒuəl/ adj not usual; strange.

un-usu-ally adv: ~ly hot.

un-veil /ʌn'veɪl/ vt, vi 1 remove a veil (from). 2 reveal.

un-wel-come /ʌn'welkəm/ adj 1 (of persons) not welcome. 2 (of weather, criticism, behaviour) not liked because bad, inappropriate, etc.

un-wieldy /ʌn'wiːldi/ adj awkward to move or control because of shape, size or weight.

un-wind /ʌn'waɪnd/ vt, vi (pt, pp -wound /-waʊnd/) 1 untwist (a ball of wool, etc); loosen (a spring, etc). 2 (informal) relax after a period of tension, exhausting work, etc. ⇨ *wind*³(6).

un-wrap /ʌn'ræp/ vt, vi (-pp-) remove the wrapping or cover.

un-zip /ʌn'zɪp/ vt (-pp-) unfasten or open by pulling a zip-fastener.

up /ʌp/ adverbial particle (contrasted with down) (for special uses with verbs, eg throw up, ⇨ the verb entries.) 1 to or in an erect or vertical position (esp as suggesting readiness for activity): He's already ~, out of bed. It's time to get ~, out of bed. Stand ~! up and about, out of bed and active (esp of a person recently ill). 2 to or in a high(er) place, position, degree, etc: Lift your head ~. Prices are still going ~, rising. 3 to a place, town, of importance; to a place in or to the north: He has gone ~ to London for the day. We're going ~ to Edinburgh. 4 (used vaguely, in a way similar to the use of down, round, over, across) to the place in question, or in which the speaker is, was, will be: He came ~ (to me) and asked the time. 5 (used to show completeness, finality): The stream has dried ~, has become completely dry. We've eaten everything ~. Lock/Tie/Fasten/Chain/Nail it ~, Make it fast, secure, safe, etc by locking, tying, etc. 6 (used to show an increase in intensity, etc): Speak/Sing ~! ie with more force. 7 'up against (it), faced with (difficulties, obstacles, etc). be up before, appear in court (before a magistrate, etc). up and down, (a) forward and back: walking ~ and down the station platform. (b) so as to rise and fall: The boat bobbed ~ and down on the water. up for, (a) being tried (for an offence, etc): ~ for exceeding the speed limit. (b) being considered for; on offer: The house is ~ for sale. up to, (a) occupied or busy with: What's he ~ to? He's ~ to no good. (b) capable of: I don't feel ~ to going to work. (c) as far as: ~ to now/then. ⇨ get up to. (d) required, looked on as necessary: It's ~ to us (= It is our duty) to give them all the help we can. □ prep (in the senses of the adverb): climb ~ a mountain; walk ~ the stairs.

up-and-coming adj (of a person) making good progress, likely to succeed, in his profession, career, etc: an ~and-coming doctor.

ups and downs, (fig) good and bad fortune.

up- /ʌp-/ prefix to a higher or better state: uphill; upgrade.

up-bring-ing /'ʌpbɪŋɪŋ/ n [U] training and education during childhood: a good ~.

up-coun-try /'ʌpkaʊntri/ adj, adv (esp in a large thinly populated country) towards the interior; inland.

up-date /'ʌpdeɪt/ vt bring up to date: ~ a dictionary.

up-grade /'ʌpgreɪd/ vt raise to a higher grade. □ n /'ʌpgreɪd/ (esp) on the upgrade, making progress.

up-heaval /'ʌp'hiːvl/ n [C] great and sudden change: political/social ~s.

up-held /'ʌpheld/ pt, pp of uphold.

up-hill /'ʌphɪl/ adj 1 sloping upward; ascending: an ~ road. 2 (fig) difficult; needing effort: an ~ task. □ adv up a slope: walk ~.

up-hold /'ʌphəʊld/ vt (pt, pp upheld /-held/) 1 support or approve (a person, his conduct, a practice, etc): I cannot ~ such conduct. 2 confirm (a decision, a verdict).

up-hol-ster /'ʌphəʊlsta(r)/ vt provide (seats, etc) with padding, springs, covering material, etc.

up-hol-sterer, person who upholsters.

up-hol-ster-y /-stri/ n [U] (materials used in, business of) upholstering.

up-keep /'ʌpkɪp/ n [U] (cost of) keeping something in good order and repair: I can't afford the ~ of this large garden.

up-land /'ʌplənd/ n (often pl) higher part(s) of a region or country.

up-lift /'ʌplɪft/ vt raise (spiritually or emotionally): His soul was ~ed by Bach's cantata. □ n /'ʌplɪft/ [U] moral or mental inspiration.

up-market /'ʌpmɑːkɪt/ adj (of goods, an address, shops, etc) superior; of a high standard.

up-most /'ʌpməʊst/ adj = uppermost.

upon /ə'pɒn/ prep = on¹ (which is more usual and considered less formal).

up-per /'ʌpə(r)/ adj (contrasted with lower) higher in place; situated above: the ~ lip; the ~ arm. have/get the upper hand (of sb), have/get an advantage or control of. □ n [C] part of a shoe or boot over the sole.

'upper case, capital letter(s).

the 'upper class, top levels of society.

the Upper 'House, (in Parliament) the House of Lords.

'up-per-most /-məʊst/ adj highest: Thoughts of the holidays were ~most in their minds. □ adv on, to, at, the top or surface: say whatever comes ~most, whatever one thinks first.

up-pity /'ʌpɪt/ adj (informal) snobbish.

up-right /'ʌpraɪt/ adj 1 erect; placed vertically (at an angle of 90° to the ground): an ~ post. 2 honourable; straightforward in behaviour: an ~ man/judge. □ n [C] upright support in a structure.

upright piano, ♪ piano.

up-ris-ing /ʌp'raɪzɪŋ/ n [C] revolt; rebellion.

up-roar /'ʌprɔ:(r)/ n [U] (also with a, an) (outburst of) noise and excitement: The meeting ended in (an) ~.

up-roari-ous /ʌp'rɔ:riəs/ adj very noisy, esp with loud laughter and great good humour: ~ious laughter.

up-roari-ous-ly adv

up-root /ʌp'ru:t/ vt pull up with the roots: The gale ~ed numerous trees.

up-set /ʌp'set/ vt, vi (pt, pp ~) (-tt-) 1 tip over; overturn: Don't ~ the boat. 2 trouble; cause (a person or thing) to be disturbed: ~ the enemy's plan; ~ one's stomach by eating too much rich food. She is easily ~ emotionally. □ n /'ʌpset/ [C] 1 upsetting or being upset: have a 'stomach ~. 2 (sport) unexpected result.

up-shot /'ʌpʃɒt/ n the ~, outcome; result: What will be the ~ of it all?

up-side-down /'ʌpsaɪd 'daʊn/ adv 1 with the upper side underneath or at the bottom. 2 (fig) in disorder: The house was turned ~ by the burglars.

up-stairs /ʌp'steəz/ adv 1 to or on a higher floor: go/walk ~. 2 (as an adjective) belonging to, situated on, an upper floor: an ~ room.

up-stand-ing /ʌp'stændɪŋ/ adj 1 standing erect; strong and healthy: fine ~ children. 2 honest.

up-start /'ʌpstɑ:t/ n [C] person who has suddenly risen to wealth, power or higher social position, esp one who is arrogant.

up-stream /ʌp'stri:m/ adv up a river; in the opposite direction to the stream or current.

up-surge /'ʌpsɜ:dʒ/ n [C] growth (of emotion): an ~ of anger/indignation.

up-tight /ʌp'taɪt/ adj (sl) extremely tense or nervous: ~ about an interview.

up-to-date /'ʌp tə 'deɪt/ adj of the present time; of the newest sort: ~ methods.

up-to-the-minute /'ʌp tə də 'mɪnɪt/ adj very modern; latest: ~ information.

up-turn /'ʌptɜ:n/ n [C] 1 upward turn. 2 change for the better: an ~ in profits.

up-ward /'ʌpwəd/ adj moving or directed up: an ~ glance. □ adv (often up-wards) towards a higher place, level, etc.

ura-nium /'ju'reɪniəm/ n [U] heavy white metal (symbol U) with radioactive properties, a source of atomic energy.

Ura-nus /'ju'reɪnəs/ n (astron) planet seventh in order from the sun.

ur-ban /'ɜ:bən/ adj of or in a town: ~ renewal, redevelopment of poor areas of a town.

'urban guer'rilla, member of a small armed group fighting (political) opposition in towns.

ur-bane /'ɜ:beɪn/ adj (formal) polite; refined in manners.

ur-bane-ly adv

ur-chin /'ɜ:tʃɪn/ n [C] 1 mischievous small boy. 2 poor destitute child.

urge /'ɜ:dʒ/ vt 1 push or drive on: The crowd was urging the tennis star on to win. 2 request earnestly; try to persuade: 'Buy it now,' he ~d. 'Prices will soon rise.' 3 stress (the importance of) requests and arguments: He ~d on his pupils the importance of hard work. □ n [C] (rarely pl) strong desire: He has/feels an ~ to travel.

ur-gency /'ɜ:dʒənsɪ/ n [U] importance of, need for, haste or prompt action: a matter of great ~.

ur-gent /'ɜ:dʒənt/ adj 1 needing prompt decision or action: It is most ~ that the patient should get to hospital. 2 (of a person, his voice, etc) showing that something is urgent.

ur-gent-ly adv

uri-nary /'juəriəri/ US: -nerɪ/ adj of urine: ~ infection.

uri-nate /'juərineɪt/ vi discharge urine.

urine /'juəri:n/ n [U] waste liquid which collects in the bladder and is discharged from the body.

urn /ɜ:n/ n [C] 1 vase with a stem as used for holding the ashes of a person whose body has been cremated. 2 large metal container in which a drink such as tea or coffee is made or kept hot, eg in canteens.

us /əs/ strong form: ʌs/ pron (object form of we): We hope you will visit ~ soon.

usage /'ju:zɪdʒ/ US: 'ju:z-/ n 1 [U] way of using something; treatment: Machines soon wear out under rough ~. 2 [C, U] conventions governing the use of a language (esp those not governed by grammatical rules): Such ~s are not characteristic of educated speakers.

use¹ /ju:s/ n 1 [U] using or being used; condition of being used: the ~ of electricity for cooking. in use, being used. come into use, begin to be used: When did the words 'silicon chip' come into common ~? 2 [C, U] purpose for which a person or thing is or may be employed; work that a person or thing is able to do: a tool with many ~s; find a ~ for it; have no further ~ for it. 3 [U] value; advantage: Is this paper of any ~ to you? 4 [U] power of using: lose the ~ of one's legs, become unable to walk. 5 [U] right to use: You can have the ~ of my car.

use-ful /'ju:sl/ adj helpful; producing good results: Are you a ~ful member of society?

use-fully /-fəli/ adv: ~ly employed.

use-ful-ness n [U] use-less adj (a) of no use; worthless: A car is ~less without petrol. (b) without result; unrewarding: It's ~less to argue with them.

use-less-ly adv

use² /ju:z/ vt (pt, pp ~d /ju:zd/) 1 cause to act or serve for a purpose: You ~ your legs when you walk. May I ~ (= quote) your name as a reference, eg in an application for a job? 2 have the use of (until nothing is left): How much coal did we ~ last winter? He has ~d up all his strength. 3 behave towards: U ~ others as you would like them to ~ you.

used /ju:zd/ adj no longer new: ~d cars.

user, person or thing that uses: There are more 'telephone ~rs in the USA than in any other country.

used /ju:st/ anomalous finite (irregular pt and pp of use) (indicating a constant or frequent practice in the past, or, in the construction there used to be, the existence of something in the past): That's where I ~ to live when I was a child. Life isn't so easy here as it ~ to be.

used to /'ju:st tə before vowel sounds: tu:/ adj having become familiar to by habit or custom: You will soon be/get ~ it.

usher /'ʌʃə(r)/ n [C] person who shows people to their seats in theatres, cinemas, etc. □ vt 1 lead, conduct: The girl ~ed me to my seat (in a cinema). 2 produce: The change of government ~ed in a period of prosperity.

usher-ette /'ʌʃə'ret/, girl or woman usher.

usual /'ju:ʒʊəl/ adj happening often; ordinary, expected: He arrived later than ~. □ per.

usu-ally /'ju:ʒəli/ adv in the ordinary way: What do you ~ly do on Sundays?

usurer /'ju:ʒərə(r)/ n [C] person whose business is lending money for profit.

usurp /ju:'zɜ:p/ vt wrongfully take (a person's power, authority, position): ~ the chairman's authority.

usurper, person who does this.

usury /'ju:ʒəri/ n [U] (practice of) lending money, esp at a high rate of interest.

uten-sil /ju:'tensl/ n [C] instrument, tool, etc, esp for use in the house: 'household ~s, eg pots, pans, brushes.

uterus /'ju:tərəs/ n [C] (pl ~es) (anat) = womb.

utili-tar-ian /ju:'tɪlɪ'teəriən/ adj characterized by usefulness rather than by beauty, truth, goodness.

util-ity /ju:'tɪləti/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] quality of being useful: (as an adjective) ~ van, one that can be used for various purposes. 2 [C] public service such as the supply of water or a bus service.

util-ize (also -ise) /'ju:tɪlaɪz/ vt make use of; find a use for.

util-iz-ation (also -isation) /ju:tɪlaɪ'zeɪʃn US: -lɪ'z-/ n [U] ut-most /'ʌtməʊst/ adj most extreme; greatest: with the ~ care. □ n (sing only) the most that is possible: I shall do my ~ to see that justice is done.

ut-ter¹ /'ʌtə(r)/ adj complete; total: ~ darkness/disbelief.

ut-ter-ly adv completely: She's ~ly bored with him.

ut-ter² /'ʌtə(r)/ vt 1 make (a sound or sounds) with the mouth: ~ a sigh/a cry of pain. 2 say: the last words he ~ed. 3 put (counterfeit money, etc) into circulation.

ut-ter-ance /'ʌtərəns/ n 1 (sing only) (formal) way of speaking: a clear ~. 2 [C] spoken word or words. 3 [U] give utterance to (one's feelings), express in words.

ut-ter-most /'ʌtməʊst/ adj, n = utmost.

Vv

V, v /vi:/ n (pl V's, v's) 1 the 22nd letter of the English alphabet. 2 the Roman numeral 5.

vac /væk/ n [C] (informal) = vacation.

va-cancy /'veɪkənsi/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] condition of being empty or unoccupied. 2 [C] unoccupied space. 3 [U] lack of ideas, intelligence or concentration. 4 [C] position in business, etc for which a person is needed: good vacancies for typists.

va-cant /'veɪkənt/ adj 1 empty: gaze into ~ space. 2 not occupied by anyone: a ~ room, eg in a hotel; apply for a ~ position, eg in an office. 3 (of time) not filled with any activity. 4 (of the mind) without thought; (of the eyes) showing no signs of thought or interest: a ~ expression.

va-cant-ly adv

va-cate /veɪ'keɪt US: 'veɪkət/ vt 1 give up living in: ~ a house. 2 leave unoccupied: ~ one's seat.

va-ca-tion /və'keɪʃn US: veɪ-/ n 1 [C] weeks during which universities and law courts stop work: the summer ~. 2 [C] (esp US) = holiday.

vac-ci-nate /'væksɪneɪt/ vt protect (a person) (against smallpox, etc) by injecting vaccine.

vac-ci-na-tion /'væksɪ'neɪʃn/ n [C, U] (instance of) vaccinating.

vac·cine /'væksɪn US: væk'sɪn/ n [C,U] substance from the blood of a cow, used to protect persons from smallpox by causing them to have a slight, but not dangerous, form of the disease.

vac·il·late /'væsɪleɪt/ vi hesitate; be uncertain (in opinion, etc): ~ between hope and fear.

vac·il·la·tion /'væsɪ'leɪʃn/ n [C,U] vac·uum /'vækjuəm/ n [C] (pl ~s or, in science, vacuua /-juə/) 1 space completely empty of substance or gas(es). 2 space in a container from which the air has been pumped out.

'vacuum cleaner, apparatus which takes up dust, dirt, etc by suction.

'vacuum flask, one having a vacuum between its inner and outer walls, keeping the contents at an unchanging temperature.

'vacuum-packed adj (of food, etc) seal in air-tight packets or tins to maintain freshness.

vaga·bond /'vægəbɒnd/ adj having no fixed living-place: live a ~ life. □ n [C] vagabond person.

va·gary /'veɪgəri/ n [C] (pl -ies) (formal) strange, unusual act or idea, esp one for which there seems to be no good reason: the vagaries of fashion.

va·gina /və'dʒaɪnə/ n [C] (pl ~s) (anat) passage (in a female mammal) from the external genital organs to the womb.

vag·inal /və'dʒaɪnəl/ adj vag·rancy /'veɪgrænsɪ/ n [C,U] (instance of) being a vagrant.

vag·rant /'veɪgrənt/ adj leading a wandering life: ~ tribes. □ n [C] vagrant person.

vague /veɪg/ adj (-r, -st) 1 not clear or distinct: I haven't the ~st idea what they want. 2 (of persons, their looks, behaviour) uncertain, suggesting uncertainty (about needs, intentions, etc).

vague·ly adv

vague·ness n [U]

vain /veɪn/ adj (-er, -est) 1 without use, value, meaning or result: a ~ attempt; ~ hopes. 2 in vain, (a) not having the desired result: All our work was in ~. (b) without due honour or respect. ⇨ *name*¹(1). 3 having too high an opinion of one's looks, abilities, etc: as ~ as a peacock, very vain.

vain·ly adv

vale /veɪl/ n [C] (literary) = valley.

val·en·tine /'væləntaɪn/ n [C] (letter, card, etc, sent on St Valentine's Day, 14 Feb, to a sweetheart).

valet /'vælət/ n [C] member of (hotel) staff employed to dry-clean or press clothes. □ vi act as valet to.

val·iant /'væliənt/ adj brave (the usual word).

val·iant·ly adv

valid /'vælɪd/ adj 1 (legal) real, acceptable, because made or done with the correct formal-ties: a ~ claim/marriage. 2 (of contracts, etc, having force in law: a ticket ~ for three months. 3 (of arguments, reasons, etc) well based; acceptable: raise ~ objections to a suggestion.

va·lid·ly adv

va·lid·ity /və'lɪdɪti/ n [U] state of being valid.

vali·date /'vælɪdeɪt/ vi make valid: ~ a claim.

va·lise /və'liːz US: vɑ:lɪs/ n [C] small leather bag for clothes, etc during a journey.

val·ley /'væli/ n [C] (pl ~s) low land between hills or mountains, often with a river flowing through it.

val·our (US = valor) /'vælə(r)/ n [U] (formal) bravery, esp in war.

valu·able /'væljuəbəl/ adj of great value, worth or use: a ~ discovery. □ n (usually pl) something of much value, eg jewels.

valu·ation /'vælju'eɪʃn/ n 1 [U] process of deciding the value of a person or thing. 2 [C] the value that is decided on: The surveyors arrived at widely different ~s.

value /'vælju:/ n 1 [U] quality of being useful or desirable: the ~ of walking as an exercise. 2 [U] worth of something when compared with something else: This book will be of great/little/some/no ~ to him in his studies. 3 [C,U] worth of something in terms of money or other goods for which it can be exchanged: Is the ~ of the American dollar likely to decline?

4 [U] what something is considered to be worth (contrasted with the price obtainable): I've been offered £350 for my old car but its ~ is much higher. 5 (music) full time indicated by a note: Give the note its full ~. 6 (pl) standards: moral/ethical ~s. □ vi 1 estimate the money value of: He ~d the house for me at £37500. 2 have a high opinion of: Do you ~ her as a secretary?

value-added-tax, (abbr VAT) tax paid by the buyer on the difference between the cost of an article's production and the pretax selling price.

value-less adj worthless.

valuer, person whose profession is to estimate the money value of property, land, etc.

valve /vælv/ n [C] 1 (sorts of) mechanical device for controlling the flow of air, liquid, gas, etc in one direction only. 2 structure in the heart or in a blood-vessel allowing the blood to flow in one direction only. 3 vacuum tube used in a radio, allowing the flow of electrons in one direction. 4 device in musical wind instruments, eg a cornet, for changing the pitch by changing the length of the column of air.

val·vu·lar /'vælvjələ(r)/ adj of valves (2).

vam·pire /'væmpaɪə(r)/ n [C] (in stories, etc) corpse that comes to life at night and sucks the blood of sleeping persons.

'vampire bat, sort of blood-sucking bat.

van /væn/ n [C] 1 roofed motor-vehicle for carrying and delivering goods: a 'furniture ~.

2 (GB) roofed railway carriage for goods: the 'luggage' ~.

van² /væn/ n [C] 1 front or leading part of an army or fleet in battle. 2 those persons who lead a procession or (fig) a movement: in the ~ of scientific progress.

'van-guard, advance party of an army, etc as a guard against surprise attack.

van-dal /'vændl/ n [C] person who deliberately destroys works of art or public and private property.

van-dal-ism /-ɪzəm/ n [U] destruction by vandals.

vane /veɪn/ n [C] 1 arrow or pointer on the top of a building, turning to show the direction of the wind. 2 blade of a propeller, or other flat surface acted on by wind or water.

van-guard /'væŋɡɑ:d/ n ⇨ van².

va-nilla /və'nɪlə/ n 1 [C] (pods or beans of) plant with sweet-smelling flowers. 2 [U] substance from vanilla beans or synthetic product used for flavouring: two ~ ices.

van-ish /'vænɪʃ/ vi suddenly disappear; fade away gradually; go out of existence: The thief ran into the crowd and ~ed.

van-ity /'vænəti/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] having too high an opinion of one's looks, abilities, etc: do something out of ~. 2 [U] quality of being unsatisfying, without true value: the ~ of pleasure; [C] vain, worthless thing or act: the vanities of life.

van-quish /'væŋkwɪʃ/ vt defeat (the usual word).

va-por-ize (also -ise) /'veɪpəraɪz/ vt, vi change, be changed, into vapour.

va-pour (US = va-por) /'veɪpə(r)/ n [U] steam; mist; gas to which certain substances may be reduced by heat: 'water ~.

vari-able /'veəriəbl/ adj varying; changeable: ~ winds; ~ standards. □ n [C] variable thing or quantity; factor which may vary, eg in an experiment.

vari-abil-ity /'veəriə'bɪləti/ n [U] vari-ably /-əbli/ adv

vari-ant /'veəriənt/ adj different or alternative: ~ spellings of a word (eg 'programme' and 'program'). □ n [C] variant form (eg of spelling): American English ~s.

vari-ation /'veəri'eɪʃn/ n 1 [C, U] (degree of) varying or being variant: ~(s) of temperature. 2 [C] (music) simple melody repeated in a different form: ~s on a theme by Mozart. 3 [U] (biology) change in bodily structure or form caused by new conditions, environment, etc; [C] instance of such change.

vari-cose vein /'væri:kəʊs 'veɪn/ adj vein that has become permanently swollen or enlarged.

var-ied /'veəriəd/ adj 1 of different sorts: the ~ scenes of life. 2 full of changes or variety: a ~ career.

var-iegated /'veəriɡeɪtɪd/ adj marked irregularly with differently coloured patches:

The flowers of pansies are often ~.

var-ie-ga-tion /'veəri'geɪʃn/ n [U] var-iet-y /və'reɪəti/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] quality of not being the same, or not being the same at all times: a life full of ~. 2 (sing only) number or range of different things: for a ~ of reasons. 3 [C] (biology) subdivision of a species. 4 [C] kind or sort which differs from others of the larger group of which it is a part: rare varieties of early postage stamps. 5 [U] kind of entertainment consisting of singing, dancing, comedy, etc: a ~ act.

vari-ous /'veəriəs/ adj different; of a number of different sorts: for ~ reasons; at ~ times.

vari-ous-ly adv

var-nish /'vɑ:nɪʃ/ n [C, U] (particular kind of) (liquid used to give a) hard, shiny, transparent coating on a surface. □ vt put a coating of varnish on: Some women ~ their toe-nails.

vars-ity /'vɑ:səti/ n [C] (pl -ies) (GB informal) = university.

vary /'veəri/ vi, vt (pt, pp -ied) be, become, cause to become, different: They ~ in weight from 3 to 5 kilos.

vas-cu-lar /'væskjələ(r)/ adj (anat) of, made up of, containing, vessels or ducts through which blood, lymph, flows: ~ tissue.

vase /vɑ:z US: veɪs/ n [C] vessel of glass, pottery, etc for cut flowers, or as an ornament.

va-sec-tomy /və'sektəmi/ n [C, U] (pl -ies) surgical operation to make a man sterile.

vast /vɑ:st US: væst/ adj immense; extensive: ~ sums of money; a ~ expanse of desert.

vast-ly adv: ~ly (= greatly) improved.

vast-ness n [U]

vat /væt/ n [C] large vessel for holding liquids, esp in brewing, dyeing.

vault¹ /vɔ:lt/ n [C] 1 arched roof; series of arches forming a roof. 2 underground room or cellar (with or without an arched roof) as a place of storage ('wine ~s), or for burials (eg under a church), or for keeping valuables safe: keep one's jewels in a 'bank ~.

vault² /vɔ:lt/ vi, vt jump in a single movement, with the hand(s) resting on something, or with the help of a pole: ~ (over) a fence. □ n [C] jump made in this way. ⇨ pole-vault.

'vault-ing-horse, apparatus for practice in vaulting.

vaulter, person who vaults: a 'pole-~er.

veal /vi:l/ n [U] flesh of a calf eaten as food.

veer /viə(r)/ vi change direction: The wind ~ed round to the north. Opinion ~ed in our favour.

veg-et-able /'vedʒɪəbl/ adj of, from, relating to, plants or plant life: ~ oils. □ n [C] plant, esp one used for food, eg potatoes, cabbages, carrots.

vegetable kingdom, all plant life. ⇨ king-dom(3).

veg-etar-ian /'vedʒɪ'teəriən/ n [C] person who eats no meat: (as an adjective) a ~ diet.

veg-etate /'vedʒɪteɪ/ vi lead a dull life with little activity, thought or interest.

veg-eta-tion /'vedʒɪ'teɪʃn/ n [U] plants generally and collectively: a desert with no sign of ~ anywhere.

ve-he-ment /'vi:əmənt/ adj (formal) 1 (of feelings) strong, eager. 2 (of persons, their speech, behaviour, etc) filled with, showing, strong or eager feeling: ~ passions.

ve-he-ment-ly adv

ve-hicle /'vi:kl/ n [C] 1 carriage (car, lorry, van, bus, etc) (usually wheeled) for moving goods or passengers on land (and in space). 2 means by which thought, feeling, etc can be carried: Art can be used as a ~ for/of propaganda.

ve-hicu-lar /vi:'hɪkjʊlə(r)/ adj (a) related to, consisting of, carried by, vehicles: The road is closed to vehicular traffic. (b) vehicular language, one used as a means of communication between people with different languages, eg English in Nigeria.

veil /veɪl/ n [C] 1 covering of fine net or other material to protect or hide a woman's face: She lowered her ~. 2 (fig) something that hides or disguises: a ~ of mist. □ vt 1 put a veil over: Not all Muslim women are ~ed. 2 (fig) hide: He could not ~ his distrust.

veil-ing, light material used for veils.

vein /veɪn/ n [C] 1 blood-vessel along which blood flows from all parts of the body to the heart. 2 one of the lines in some leaves or in the wings of some insects. 3 coloured line or streak in some kinds of stone, eg marble. 4 (fig) characteristic: There is a ~ of madness in him. 5 crack in rock, filled with mineral or ore: a ~ of gold. 6 mood; way of thinking: in an imaginative ~.

vel-oc-ity /vɪ'lɒsəti/ n (formal) = speed.

ve-lours, ve-lour /və'lʊə(r)/ n [U] fabric like velvet.

vel-vet /'velvɪt/ n [U] cloth wholly or partly made of silk with a thick soft pile on one side.

vel-vety adj smooth and soft like velvet.

ve-nal /'vi:nl/ adj 1 (of persons) ready to do something dishonest (eg using influence or position) for money: ~ politicians. 2 (of conduct) influenced by, done for, (possible) payment: ~ practices.

ve-nally /-nəli/ adv

ve-neer /'vi:nə(r)/ n 1 [C,U] (thin layer of) fine quality wood glued to the surface of cheaper wood (for furniture, etc). 2 (fig) surface appearance (of politeness, etc) covering the true nature: a ~ of kindness. □ vt put a veneer on: ~ a desk.

ven-er-able /'venərəbl/ adj 1 deserving respect because of age, character, associations, etc: a ~ abbot. 2 (C of E) title of an archdeacon. 3 (RC Church) title of a person who is in the process of being canonized.

ven-er-ate /'venərəɪt/ vt regard with deep respect: They ~ the old man's memory.

ven-er-ation /'venərə'reɪʃn/ n [U] ve-nereal /vɪ'nəriəl/ adj of, communicated by, sexual intercourse: ~ diseases.

ven-geance /'vendʒəns/ n [U] 1 revenge; the return of injury for injury: take ~ on an enemy. 2 (informal) to a greater degree than is normal, expected or desired: The rain came down with a ~.

venge-ful /'vendʒfl/ adj showing a desire for revenge.

ve-nial /'vi:nɪəl/ adj (of a sin, error, fault) excusable.

ven-ison /'venɪsn/ n [U] flesh of a deer eaten as food.

venom /'venəm/ n [U] 1 poisonous fluid of certain snakes. 2 (fig) hate; spite.

ven-om-ous /'venəməs/ adj deadly; spiteful: ~ous snakes/criticism.

ven-om-ous-ly adv

ve-nous /'vi:nəs/ adj 1 (anat) of the veins: ~ blood. 2 (botany) having veins: a ~ leaf.

vent /vent/ n [C] 1 hole serving as an inlet or outlet for air, gas, liquid, etc, eg a hole in the top of a barrel for air to enter as liquid is drawn out. 2 means of escape: The floods found a ~ through the dykes. 3 (sing only) outlet for one's feelings. give vent to, give free expression to: He gave ~ to his feelings in an impassioned speech. □ vt find or provide an outlet for: He ~ed his anger on his long-suffering wife.

ven-ti-late /'ventɪleɪt/ vt cause (air) to move in and out freely: ~ a room.

ven-ti-la-tor /'ventɪleɪtə(r)/ device for ventilating.

ven-ti-la-tion /'ventɪleɪʃn/ n [U] ven-ture /'ventʃə(r)/ n [C,U] undertaking in which there is risk: a ~ business. □ vt, vi 1 take the risk of, expose to, danger or loss: ~ too near the edge of a cliff. 2 go so far as, dare: ~ (to put forward) an opinion; ~ a guess.

Venus /'vi:nəs/ n (astron) planet second in order from the sun.

ve-ran-dah, ve-randa /və'rændə/ n [C] roofed and floored open space along the side(s) of a house, sports pavilion, etc.

verb /vɜ:b/ n [C] word showing what a person or thing does, what state he or it is in, what is becoming of him or it. ⇨ phrasal verb; intransitive, transitive. (Note: abbr vt, vi used in this dictionary.)

ver-bal /'vɜ:bl/ adj 1 of or in words: have a good ~ memory, be able to remember well the exact words of a statement, etc. 2 spoken, not written: a ~ statement. 3 word for word, literal: a ~ translation. 4 of verbs: a ~ noun (eg swimming in the sentence 'Swimming is a good exercise').

ver-bally /'vɜ:bəli/ adv in spoken words, not in writing.

ver-bal-ize (also -ise) /'vɜːbəlaɪz/ vt put into words.

ver-ba-tim /vɜː'beɪtɪm/ adv exactly as spoken or written: report a speech ~.

ver-bi-age /'vɜːbɪdʒ/ n [U] (use of) unnecessary words for the expression of an idea, etc.

ver-bose /vɜː'bəʊs/ adj using, containing, more words than are needed: a ~ speech/speaker.

ver-bose-ly adv

ver-bos-ity /vɜː'bəʊsəti/ n [U] ver-dict /'vɜːdɪkt/ n [C] 1 decision reached by a jury on a question of fact in a law case: The jury brought in a ~ of guilty/not guilty. ⇨ open verdict. 2 decision or opinion given after testing, examining or experiencing something: The popular ~ (= The opinion of people in general) was against the strike.

verge /vɜːdʒ/ n [C] edge; border (eg strip of grass at the side of a road). 2 be on the verge of, be very close to, on the border of: The country is on the ~ of disaster. □ vi approach closely, border (on): Such ideas ~ on stupidity.

verger /'vɜːdʒə(r)/ n [C] 1 (C of E) official with various duties (eg opening pews for worshippers). 2 officer who carries a staff before a bishop in a cathedral, a vice-chancellor in a university, etc.

ver-ify /'vɜːrɪfaɪ/ vt (pt, pp -ied) 1 test the truth or accuracy of: ~ a report/statement. 2 (of an event, etc) show the truth of: Subsequent events verified my suspicions.

veri-fi-able /'vɜːrɪfaɪəbəl/ adj that can be verified.

veri-fi-ca-tion /'vɜːrɪfɪ'keɪʃn/ n [U] veri-table /'vɜːrɪtəbəl/ adj rightly named: a ~ liar.

ver-mil-ion /vɜː'mɪliən/ adj, n [U] bright red (colour).

ver-min /'vɜːmɪn/ n [U] (used with a pl verb, but not with numerals) 1 wild animals (eg rats, weasels, foxes) harmful to plants, birds and other animals. 2 parasitic insects (eg lice) sometimes found on the bodies of human beings and other animals. 3 (fig) human beings who are harmful to society.

ver-min-ous /'vɜːmɪnəs/ adj ver-nacu-lar /vɜː'nækjələ(r)/ adj (of a word, a language) of the country mentioned: a ~ language, native language. □ n [C] language or dialect of a country or district.

ver-sa-tile /'vɜːsətəl/ US: -tl/ adj interested in and clever at many different things; having various uses: a ~ mind/invention.

ver-sa-til-ity /vɜːsə'tɪləti/ n [U] verse /vɜːs/ n 1 [U] (form of) writing arranged in lines, each conforming to a pattern of accented and unaccented syllables: prose and ~. ⇨ blank verse. 2 [C] group of lines of this kind forming a unit in a rhyme scheme: a poem/hymn of five ~s. 3 [C] one line of verse with a definite number of accented syllables: a few ~s from Tennyson. 4 one of the short numbered divisions of a chapter in the Bible.

versed /vɜːst/ adj versed in, skilled or experienced in: well ~ in mathematics/the arts.

ver-sion /vɜːʃn/ US: 'vɜːʒn/ n [C] 1 account of an event, etc from the point of view of one person: There were three ~s of what happened/of what the Prime Minister said. 2 translation into another language: a new ~ of the Bible.

ver-sus /'vɜːsəs/ prep (Latin) (in law and sport; often shortened to v in print) against: Robinson v Brown; England v Brazil.

ver-te-bra /vɜː'teɪbrə/ n [C] (pl ~e/-bri/) any one of the sections of the backbone.

ver-te-brate /'vɜːteɪbrət/ n [C], adj (animal, bird, etc) having a backbone.

ver-ti-cal /'vɜːtɪkl/ adj (of a line or plane) at a right angle to the earth's surface or to another line or surface. □ n [C] vertical line. ⇨ horizontal.

ver-ti-cally /-kl/ adv verve /vɜːv/ n [U] enthusiasm, spirit, vigour (esp in artistic or literary work).

very¹ /'vɜːrɪ/ adj 1 itself and no other; truly such: At that ~ moment the phone rang. You're the ~ man I want to see. 2 extreme: at the ~ end/beginning; the letter at the ~ top of the pile.

very² /'vɜːrɪ/ adv 1 (used to show intensity with adverbs, adjectives): ~ quickly/little. very well, (often used to show agreement after persuasion or argument, or obedience to a command, request, etc): V ~ well, doctor, I'll give up smoking. 2 (with a superlative) in the highest possible degree: at the ~ latest.

vessel /'vesl/ n [C] 1 hollow receptacle, esp for a liquid, eg a bucket, bowl, bottle, cup. 2 ship or large boat. ⇨ blood-vessel.

vest¹ /vest/ n [C] 1 (GB) underwear worn on the upper part of the body next to the skin. (US = undershirt). 2 (US) waistcoat.

vest² /vest/ vt furnish or give as a fixed right: ~ a man with authority/rights in an estate.

ves-tige /'vestɪdʒ/ n [C] 1 trace or sign; small remaining bit of evidence of what once existed: There is not a ~ of truth in the report. 2 (anat) organ, or part of one, which is a survival of something that once existed: A human being has the ~ of a tail.

ves-tigial /ve'stɪdʒiəl/ adj surviving (in reduced size, etc) from an earlier form: the vestigial legs on some snakes.

vest-ment /'vestmənt/ n [C] ceremonial robe as worn by a priest in church.

ves-try /'vestri/ n [C] (pl -ies) 1 part of a church where vestments are kept. 2 room in a non-conformist church used for Sunday School, prayer meetings, etc.

vet¹ /vet/ n [C] (informal) (abbr for) veterinary surgeon.

vet² /vet/ vt (-tt-) (informal) 1 give (a person) a medical examination. 2 (GB) examine closely and critically, eg qualifications, etc: He must be thoroughly ~ed before he's given the job.

vet-eran /'vetərən/ n [C] 1 person who has had much or long experience, eg as a soldier: a ~ teacher. 2 (of cars) of the years before 1916: a ~ Rolls Royce. 3 (US) any ex-service man.

vet-er-in-ary /'vetərɪnəri/ US: -neri/ adj of or concerned with the diseases and injuries of (esp farm and domestic) animals: a ~ surgeon/colleague.

veto /'vi:təʊ/ n [C] (pl ~es) constitutional right of a sovereign, president, legislative assembly or other body, or a member of the United Nations Security Council, to reject or forbid something; statement that rejects or prohibits something: exercise a power of ~. □ vt put a veto on: The police ~ed the demonstration that the workers wanted.

vex /veks/ vt (formal) annoy; distress: He was ~ed at his failure.

vex-ation /vek'seɪʃn/ n [U] state of being vexed; [C] something that vexes.

via /'vi:ə/ prep (Latin) by way of: travel from London to Paris ~ Dover.

vi-able /'vi:əbl/ adj capable of existing, developing and surviving.

vi-abil-ity /,vi:ə'bɪləti/ n [U] vi-duct /'vi:ədʌkt/ n [C] long bridge (usually with many arches) carrying a road, railway or canal across a valley.

vial /'vi:əl/ n [C] small bottle (for medicine).

vi-brant /'vaɪbrənt/ adj vibrating: the ~ notes of a cello.

vi-brate /'vaɪbreɪt/ US: 'vaɪbreɪt/ vi, vt 1 (cause to) move quickly and continuously backwards and forwards: The house ~s whenever a heavy lorry passes. 2 (of stretched strings, the voice) throb; quiver: The strings of a piano ~ when the keys are struck.

vi-bra-tion /'vaɪbreɪʃn/ n [C,U] 1 vibrating movement: We felt ~s as the train passed. 2 (pl) (informal) sensation, influence: good ~s from a new house/a handsome colleague.

vicar /'vɪkə(r)/ n [C] 1 (C of E) clergyman in charge of a parish. 2 (RC Church) deputy; representative: the ~ of Christ, the Pope.

vicar-age /'vɪkərɪdʒ/ n [C] vicar's residence.

vi-cari-ous /vɪ'keəriəs/ US: var'k-/ adj (formal) done, experienced, by one person for another or others: the ~ sufferings of Jesus.

vi-cari-ous-ly adv

vice¹ /vaɪs/ n [C,U] (any particular kind of) evil conduct or practice: Torture is a ~.

vice² (US = vise) /vaɪs/ n [C] apparatus with strong clamps in which things can be held tightly while being worked on.

vice- /vaɪs-/ prefix person who is next in rank to and may act for another: vice-president.

vice versa /,vaɪsə 'vɜ:sə/ adj (Latin) the other way round; with the terms or conditions reversed: We gossip about them and ~, and they gossip about us.

vi-cin-ity /vɪ'sɪnəti/ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] nearness; closeness of relationship: in close ~ to the church. 2 [C] neighbourhood: There isn't a good school in the ~.

vi-cious /'vɪʃəs/ adj 1 evil (the usual word): a ~ life. 2 given or done with evil intent: a ~ kick/look.

vi-cious 'circle, state of affairs in which a cause produces an effect which itself produces the original cause.

vi-cious-ly adv

vic-tim /'vɪktɪm/ n [C] 1 living creature killed and offered as a religious sacrifice. 2 person, animal, etc suffering injury, pain, loss, etc because of circumstances, an event, war, an accident, etc: the ~s of the earthquake.

vic-tim-ize (also -ise) /-aɪz/ vt select for ill-treatment because of real or alleged misconduct, etc: Trade union leaders claimed that some of their members had been ~ed, eg by being dismissed.

vic-tim-iz-ation (also -isation) /vɪktɪmaɪ'zeɪʃn/ US: -mɪ'z-/ n [U] vic-tor /'vɪktə(r)/ n [C] person who conquers or wins.

vic-tori-ous /vɪk'tɔ:riəs/ adj having gained the victory.

vic-tori-ous-ly adv

vic-tory /'vɪktəri/ n [C,U] (pl -ies) (instance, occasion, of) success (in war, a contest, game, etc): gain/win a ~ over the enemy; lead the troops to ~; (as an adjective) a ~ march.

video /'vɪdiəʊ/ [C,U] prefix recording and reproducing vision: ~ cassettes.

'video recorder, for using video tape.

'video tape, magnetic tape for recording sound and vision, eg of television programmes.

vie /vaɪ/ vi vie with sb/for sth, compete (the usual word): The two boys ~d with one another for the first place.

view¹ /vju:/ n 1 [U] state of seeing or being seen; field of vision: The speaker stood in full ~ of the crowd, could see them and could be seen by them. in view of, considering, taking into account: In ~ of the facts, it seems useless to continue. on view, being shown or exhibited: The latest summer fashions are now on ~ in the big shops. come into view, become visible: As we came round the corner the lake came into ~. 2 [C] (picture, photograph, etc of) natural scenery, landscape, etc: a house with a fine ~ of the mountains. 3 [C] opportunity to see or inspect something: a private ~, eg of paintings, before public exhibition. 4 [C] personal opinion; mental attitude; thought or observation (on a topic, subject): She had expressed strong ~s on the subject of equal pay for men and women. ⇨ point¹(4). 5 aim; intention; purpose. with a/the view to/of, with the intention or hope: with a ~ to saving trouble.

'view-finder, device in a camera showing the area, etc that will be photographed.

'view-point, = point of view.

view² /vju:/ vt look at; examine; consider: The subject may be ~ed in various ways. How do you ~ the situation? What do you think about it?

viewer /'vju:ə(r)/, (esp) (television) ~er, person watching a television programme.

vigil /'vidʒɪl/ n 1 [U] staying awake to keep watch or to pray: keep ~ over a sick child. 2 (pl) instances of this: tired out by her long ~s. 3 [C] eve of a religious festival, esp when observed with prayer and fasting.

vigilance /'vidʒɪləns/ n [U] watchfulness; keeping watch: use ~.

vigilant /'vidʒɪlənt/ adj watchful.

vigour (US = vigor) /'vɪɡə(r)/ n [U] mental or physical strength; energy; forcefulness (of language).

vig-our-ous /'vɪɡərəs/ adj strong; energetic.

vig-our-ous-ly adv

vile /vɪl/ adj (-r, -st) 1 shameful and disgusting: ~ habits/language. 2 (informal) very bad: ~ weather.

vile-ly /'vɪllɪ/ adv

vil-ify /'vɪlɪfaɪ/ vt (pt, pp -ied) say evil things about (a person).

vil-ifi-ca-tion /'vɪlɪfɪ'keɪʃn/ n [U] villa /'vɪlə/ n [C] (pl ~s) 1 (GB) detached or semi-detached house, esp one on the outskirts of a town: No 13 Laburnum Villas. 2 country house with a large garden, esp in Italy or S France.

vil-lage /'vɪlɪdʒ/ n [C] place smaller than a town, where there are houses and shops, and usually a church and school: (as an adjective) the ~ post office.

vil-lager /'vɪlɪdʒə(r)/, person who lives in a village.

vil-lain /'vɪlən/ n [C] (esp in drama) wicked person.

vil-lain-ous /'vɪlənəs/ adj evil: ~ous acts.

vil-lainy n [U] wicked behaviour, action.

vin-di-cate /'vɪndɪkeɪt/ vt show or prove the truth, justice, validity, etc (of something that has been attacked or disputed): ~ a claim. Events have ~d his judgement/actions.

vin-di-ca-tion /'vɪndɪ'keɪʃn/ n [C, U] vin-dic-tive /'vɪndɪktɪv/ adj having or showing a desire for revenge.

vin-dic-tive-ly adv

vine /vaɪn/ n [C] 1 climbing plant whose fruit is the grape. 2 any plant with slender stems that trails or climbs (eg melons, peas).

vin-ery /'vaɪnəri/, greenhouse for vines.

vine-yard /'vɪnjəd/, area of land planted with grape-vines.

vin-egar /'vɪnɪɡə(r)/ n [C] acid liquor (made from malt, wine, cider, etc) used in flavouring food and for pickling.

vin-egary /'vɪnɪɡəri/ adj like vinegar.

vin-tage /'vɪntɪdʒ/ n 1 [C] (rarely pl) (period or season of) grape harvesting: The ~ was later than usual last year. 2 [C, U] (wine from) grapes of a particular year: of the ~ of 1973; a ~ year, one in which good wine was made. 3 (as an adjective) of a period in the past and having a reputation for high quality: a ~ car, one built between 1916 and 1930.

vint-ner /'vɪntnə(r)/ n [C] wine-merchant.

vi-nyl /'vaɪnl/ n [C, U] (kinds of) tough, flexible plastic, used for coverings, clothing, etc.

vi-ola /'vɪəʊlə/ n [C] tenor violin, of larger size than the ordinary violin.

vi-ol-ate /'vɪəleɪt/ vt 1 break (an oath, a treaty, etc); act contrary to (what one's conscience tells one to do, etc). 2 act towards without proper respect: ~ a person's privacy. 3 commit rape.

vi-ol-ation /'vɪəleɪʃn/ n [C, U] vi-ol-ence /'vɪələns/ n [U] state of being violent; violent conduct: robbery with ~.

vi-ol-ent /'vɪələnt/ adj 1 using, showing, accompanied by, great force: a ~ wind/attack/temper. 2 caused by a cruel attack: meet a ~ death. 3 severe: ~ toothache.

vi-ol-ent-ly adv

vi-olet /'vɪəleɪt/ n 1 [C] small wild or garden plant with sweet-smelling flowers. 2 [U] bluish-purple colour (of wild violets).

vi-olin /'vɪə'lɪn/ n [C] four-stringed musical instrument played with a bow.

vi-olin-ist /-ɪst/, player of a violin.

vi-olon-cello /,vɪələn'tʃeləʊ/ n [C] (pl ~s) (abbr cello /'tʃeləʊ/) large bass violin held between the player's knees.

vi-per /'vaɪpə(r)/ n [C] kinds of poisonous snake, esp the common ~, the adder.

vir-gin /'vɜ:dʒɪn/ n [C] girl or woman who has not experienced sexual union. □ adj 1 pure and chaste. 2 pure and untouched: ~ snow. 3 in the original condition; unused: ~ soil, soil never before used for crops.

vir-gin-ity /'vɜ:dʒɪnətɪ/ n [U] state of being a virgin.

vir-ginal /'vɜ:dʒɪnəl/ adj of, suitable for, a virgin.

Virgo /'vɜ:gəʊ/ n the Virgin, sixth sign of the zodiac.

vir-ile /'vɪrəl/ US: 'vɪrl/ adj 1 having or showing strength, energy, manly qualities: a ~ style (of writing). 2 (of men) able to have sexual intercourse.

vir-il-ity /'vɪrɪlətɪ/ n [U] masculine strength and vigour; sexual power.

vir-tual /'vɜ:tʃʊəl/ adj being in fact, acting as, what is described, but not accepted openly or in name as such: a ~ defeat/confession.

vir-tu-ally /-tʃʊəl/ adv

vir-tue /'vɜ:tʃu:/ n 1 [C, U] (any particular kind of) goodness or excellence: Patience is a ~. 2 [U] chastity, esp of women: a woman of easy ~, one who is promiscuous. 3 [U] ability to produce a definite result: Have you any faith in the ~ of herbs to heal sickness? 4 advantage: The great ~ of the scheme is that it costs very little. 5 by/in virtue of, by reason of; because of: He claims a pension by ~ of his age.

vir-tu-ous /'vɜ:tʃʊəs/ adj having, showing, virtue(1).

vir-tu-ous-ly adv

vir-tu-os-ity /'vɜ:tʃʊəsəti/ n [U] special artistic skill.

viru-lent /'vɪrjələnt/ adj 1 (of poison) strong; deadly. 2 (of ill-feeling, hatred) very strong. 3 (of words, etc) full of hatred. 4 (of diseases, etc) very dangerous; malignant.

viru-lent-ly adv

vi-rus /'vaɪərəs/ n [C] (pl ~es) any of various poisonous elements, smaller than bacteria, causing the spread of infectious disease.

visa /'vi:zə/ n [C] (pl ~s) stamp or signature put on a passport to show that it has been examined and approved by the officials of a foreign country which the owner intends to visit ('entrance or 'entry ~) or leave ('exit ~). □ vt put a visa in: get one's passport ~ed /'vɪzəd/ before going to Poland.

vis-count /'vaɪkaʊnt/ n [C] nobleman higher in rank than a baron, lower than an earl.

vis-count-ess /-ɪs/ n [C] wife of a viscount; female viscount.

vis-ible /'vɪzəbl/ adj that can be seen; that is in sight: The eclipse will be ~ to observers in western Europe.

vis-ibly /-əblɪ/ adv in a way that is obvious: She was visibly annoyed.

vis-ibil-ity /'vɪzə'bɪləti/ n [U] (esp) condition of the atmosphere for seeing things at a distance: The aircraft returned because of poor visibility.

vi-sion /'vɪʒn/ n 1 [U] power of seeing or imagining, looking ahead, grasping the truth: the field of ~, all that can be seen from a certain point; a man of ~. 2 [C] something seen or imagined, dreamt, etc: Have you ever had ~s of great wealth?

vi-sion-ary /'vɪʒnəri/ US: -nerɪ/ adj 1 existing only in a vision or the imagination; impractical: ~ schemes. 2 (of persons) having grand ideas; dreamy. □ n [C] (pl -ies) visionary person.

visit /'vɪzɪt/ vt, vi 1 go to see (a person); go to (a place) for a time: ~ a friend; ~ Rome. 2 go to in order to inspect or examine officially: Restaurant and hotel kitchens are ~ed regularly by officers of public health. □ n [C] act, time, of visiting: pay a ~ on a friend/a patient; a ~ of several hours.

vis-it-ing n [U] paying visits: ~ing hours at a hospital.

visi-tor /'vɪzɪtə(r)/ n [C] person who visits; person who stays at a place: summer ~s, eg at a holiday resort.

visi-ta-tion /'vɪzɪ'teɪʃn/ n [C] 1 official visit, eg one made by a bishop or priest. 2 disaster considered as a punishment from God: The famine was a ~ of God for their sins.

vi-sor /'vaɪzə(r)/ n [C] 1 (in former times) movable part of a helmet, covering the face. 2 peak of a cap or similar part of a crash-helmet.

vista /'vɪstə/ n [C] (pl ~s) 1 long, narrow view: a ~ of the church at the end of an avenue of trees. 2 (fig) series of scenes, events, etc which one can look back on or forward to: new ~s of scientific discoveries.

vis-ual /'vɪʒʊəl/ adj concerned with, used in, seeing: She has a ~ memory, is able to remember well things she sees.

visual aids, (eg in teaching) pictures, filmstrips, films, etc.

visual dis-play unit (computers) device, like a television screen and usually with a keyboard that can show data stored in a computer.

vis-ually /'vɪʒʊəli/ adv

vis-ual-ize (also -ise) /'vɪ:ʒʊəlaɪz/ vt imagine (as a picture): I remember meeting the man two years ago but can't ~ him, remember what he looked like.

vi-tal /'vaɪtl/ adj 1 of, connected with, necessary for, living: Air is ~ for all animals. 2 supreme; indispensable: of ~ importance.

vital statistics, (a) figures relating to the duration of life, and to births, marriages and deaths. (b) (modern informal) woman's measurements at bust, waist and hips.

vi-tally /'vaɪtəli/ adv: ~ly important.

vi-tal-ity /'vaɪtələti/ n [U] 1 capacity to endure, survive, perform functions: Can an artificial language have any ~? 2 energy, liveliness: the ~ of young children.

vi-tal-ize (also -ise) /'vaɪtəlaɪz/ vt put energy, strength into.

vit-amin /'vɪtəmin/ US: 'vaɪt-/ n [C] any of a number of organic substances which are present in certain foods and are essential to the health of man and other animals.

vit-reous /'vɪtrɪəs/ adj of or like glass: ~ rocks.

vit-riolic /'vɪtrɪ'ɒlɪk/ adj (of words, feelings) full of abuse.

vi-va-cious /'vɪ'veɪʃəs/ adj lively; high-spirited: a ~ girl.

vi-va-cious-ly adv

vi-vac-ity /'vɪvæsəti/ n [U] vivid /'vɪvɪd/ adj 1 (of colours, etc) intense; bright: a ~ flash of lightning. 2 lively; active: a ~ imagination. 3 clear and distinct: have ~ recollections of a holiday in Italy.

vivid-ly adv

viv-ify /'vɪvɪfaɪ/ vt (pt, pp -ied) (formal) give life to; animate.

vivi-sect /'vɪvɪ'sekt/ vt operate or experiment on (living animals) for scientific research.

vivi-sec-tion /ˌvɪvɪˈsekʃn/ n [C,U] vivi-sec-tion-ist /-ɪst/, person who vivisects or considers vivisection justifiable.

vixen /ˈvɪksn/ n [C] 1 female fox. 2 bad-tempered woman.

vo-cabu-lary /vəˈkæbjʊləri US: -ləri/ n [C] (pl -ies) 1 total number of words which (with rules for combining them) make up a language: No dictionary could list the total ~ of a language. 2 [C,U] (range of) words known to, or used by, a person, in a profession, etc: a writer with a large ~. 3 [C] book containing a list of words; list of words used in a book, etc, usually with definitions or translations.

vo-cal /ˈvəʊkl/ adj of, for, with or using, the voice: the ~ organs, lips, tongue, etc.

vo-cally /-əli/ adv

vo-cal-ist /ˈvəʊkəlɪst/ n [C] singer.

vo-cal-ize (also -ise) /-aɪz/ vt say or sing.

vo-ca-tion /vəˈkeɪʃn/ n 1 (sing only) feeling that one is called to (and qualified for) a certain kind of work (esp social or religious): Nursing, said Florence Nightingale, is a ~ as well as a profession. 2 [U] special ability (for): He has little or no ~ for teaching. 3 [C] person's trade or profession.

vo-ca-tional /-ʃnəl/ adj of or for a vocation(3): ~al courses, eg at a polytechnic.

vodka /ˈvɒdkə/ n [C,U] (portion of) strong alcoholic drink distilled from rye, etc.

vogue /vəʊg/ n [C but usually sing] 1 current fashion; something currently being done or used: Are maxi-skirts still the ~? 2 popularity; popular use or acceptance: The Beatles had a great ~ many years ago. be in/come into vogue; be/go out of vogue, be/become (un)fashionable, (un)popular: When did the mini-skirt come into/go out of ~?

voice /voɪs/ n 1 [U] sounds made when speaking or singing: He is not in good ~, not speaking or singing as well as usual. 2 [C] power of making such sounds: He has lost his ~, cannot speak or sing properly, eg because of a bad cold. 3 [C,U] sounds made by a person, esp considered in relation to their quality: in a loud/soft ~. They gave ~ to their indignation. raise one's voice, shout. shout at the top of one's voice, shout as loudly as one can. 4 [U] have/demand a voice in sth, a right to express an opinion on: I have no ~ in the matter. 5 [C] anything which may be compared or likened to the human voice as expressing ideas, feelings, etc: the ~ of nature/reason. 6 [U] (gram) the contrast between active and passive as shown in the sentences: The dog ate the meat and The meat was eaten by the dog. □ vt put into words: The spokesman ~d the feelings of the crowd.

void /vɔɪd/ adj 1 empty; vacant. 2 void of, without: a subject ~ of interest. 3 null and void, (legal) without force; invalid: The agreement, not having been signed, was null and ~. □ n [C] space: There was an aching ~ in his heart, (fig) a feeling of sadness. □ vt (legal) make void(3).

vol-at-ile /ˈvɒlətaɪl US: -tl/ adj 1 (of a liquid) that easily changes into gas or vapour. 2 (of a person, his mood) changing quickly or easily from one mood or interest to another.

vol-at-il-ity /ˌvɒləˈtɪləti/ n [U] vol-cano /vɒlˈkeɪnəʊ/ n [C] (pl ~es or ~s) hill or mountain with openings (⇨ crater) through which gases, lava, ashes, etc come up from below the earth's crust (in an active ~), or may come up after an interval (in a dormant ~), or have long stopped coming up (in an extinct ~).

vol-canic /vɒlˈkæntɪk/ adj of, from, like, a volcano.

vole /vəʊl/ n [C] animal like a mouse or rat, esp a 'water-~, large water-rat.

vo-li-tion /vəˈlɪʃn US: vɔʊ-/ n [U] act, power, of using one's own will, of choosing, making a decision, etc: do something of one's own ~.

vol-ley /ˈvɒli/ n [C] 1 throwing or shooting of a number of stones, arrows, bullets, etc together. 2 succession of oaths, curses, questions. 3 (tennis) stroke which returns the ball to the sender before it touches the ground. □ vi,vi 1 (of guns) sound together. 2 return a tennis-ball across the net before it touches the ground.

'volley-ball, game in which players on each side of a high net try to keep a ball in motion by hitting it with their hands back and forth over the net without letting it touch the ground.

volt /vəʊlt/ n [C] (abbr v) unit of electrical force.

volt-age /ˈvɒlɪtɪdʒ/ n [C,U] electrical force measured in volts.

vol-uble /ˈvɒljʊbl/ adj talking, able to talk, very quickly and easily; (of speech) fluent.

vol-ubly /-jʊbli/ adv

vol-ubil-ity /ˌvɒljʊˈbɪləti/ n [U]

vol-ume /ˈvɒljʊm US: -jəm/ n [C] 1 book, esp one of a set of books; number of sheets, papers, periodicals, etc bound together: an encyclopedia in 20 ~s. 2 [U] amount of space (expressed in cubic metres, etc) occupied by a substance, liquid or gas: the ~ of wine in a magnum bottle. 3 [C] large mass, amount or quantity: the ~ of business/work. 4 [C] (esp pl) masses of steam or smoke: ~s of black smoke. 5 [U] (of sound) power; strength: Your radio has a ~ control.

vol-umi-nous /vəˈluːmɪnəs/ adj (formal) 1 (of writing) great in quantity: a ~ work/history. 2 (of an author) producing many books. 3 occupying much space: ~ skirts.

vol-un-tary /ˈvɒləntəri US: -teri/ adj 1 doing or ready to do things, willingly, without being forced; (something) done in this manner: ~ work/helpers; a ~ confession. 2 carried on, supported by, voluntary work and gifts. 3 (opposite = involuntary) (of bodily, muscular, movements) controlled by the will.

vol-un-tar-ily /'vɒləntərɪ/ US: /'vɒlən'terəli/ adv

vol-un-tee /'vɒləntiə(r)/ n [C] 1 person who offers to do something, esp unpleasant or dangerous. 2 soldier who is not conscripted: (as an adjective) a ~ corps. □ vt, vi come forward as a volunteer: He ~ed some information/~ed to get some information.

vo-lup-tu-ous /'vɒləptʃuəs/ adj of, for, causing or expressing, sensuous or sensual pleasures: ~ beauty.

vo-lup-tu-ous-ly adv

vomit /'vɒmɪt/ vt, vi 1 bring back from the stomach through the mouth: He ~ed everything he had eaten. He was ~ing blood. 2 send out in large quantities: factory chimneys ~ing smoke. □ n [U] food that has been vomited.

voo-doo /'vu:du:/ n [U] form of religion, with sorcery and witchcraft, practised by some Negroes in the West Indies, esp Haiti.

vo-ra-cious /'vɒ'reɪʃəs/ adj (formal) very hungry or greedy: a ~ appetite; a ~ reader, one who reads many books.

vo-ra-cious-ly adv in a voracious manner.

vo-racity /'vɒ'ræsəti/ n [U] vor-tex /'vɔ:tɪks/ n [C] (pl ~es or vortices /-tɪsɪz/) 1 mass of whirling fluid or wind, esp a whirlpool. 2 (fig) whirl of activity; system, pursuit, viewed as something that tends to absorb people or things: the ~ of politics/war.

vote /vəʊt/ n [C] 1 (right to give an) expression of opinion or will by persons for or against a person or thing, esp by ballot or by putting up of hands: I'm going to the polling-booth to record/cast my ~. vote of thanks, ⇨ thank. 2 total numbers of votes (to be) given (eg at a political election): Will the Labour ~ increase or decrease at the next election? 3 money granted, by votes, for a certain purpose: the Army ~. □ vi, vt 1 vote for/against sb/sth, support/oppose by voting. vote on sth, express an opinion by voting. 2 grant money (to): voting a sum of money for Education. 3 (informal) declare, by general opinion: He was ~d a fine teacher. The children gave this as their opinion. 4 suggest, propose: I ~ (that) we avoid him in future.

voter, person who (by right) votes.

vouch /vaʊtʃ/ vi vouch for sb/sth, be responsible for, express confidence in (a person, his honesty, etc): ~ for him/his ability.

voucher /'vaʊtʃə(r)/ n [C] receipt or document showing payment of money, correctness of accounts, etc. ⇨ gift voucher.

vouch-safe /vaʊt'seɪf/ vt (formal) be kind enough to give, to do (something): He ~d to help.

vow /vaʊ/ n [C] solemn promise or undertaking: 'marriage ~s; a ~ of chastity; break a ~, not do what one promised. □ vt make a vow; promise or declare solemnly: He ~ed to avenge/that he would avenge the insult.

vowel /'vaʊəl/ n [C] 1 vocal sound made without audible stopping of the breath. 2 letter or symbol used to represent such a sound (eg the letters a, e, i, o, u; the phonetic symbols /i:/, ɪ, e, æ, ɑ:, ɒ, ɔ:, ʊ, u:, ɪ, ɜ:, ə/).

voy-age /'vɔɪdʒ/ n [C] journey by water, esp a long one in a ship: a ~ from London to Australia; during the ~ out/home; on the outward/homeward ~. □ vi go on a voyage: ~ through the South Seas.

voy-ager /'vɔɪdʒə(r)/ n [C] person who makes a voyage (esp of those who, in former times, explored unknown seas).

vul-gar /'vʌlgə(r)/ adj 1 rude; showing bad manners: ~ language/behaviour/ideas; a ~ person. 2 showing the absence of taste¹(5): ~ patterns on the carpets.

vulgar 'fraction, one written in the usual way (eg $\frac{1}{2}$), contrasted with a decimal fraction.

vul-gar-ity /'vʌlgærəti/ n (pl -ies) (a) [U] vulgar behaviour or taste¹(5). (b) (pl) vulgar acts, words, etc.

vul-gar-ly adv

vul-ner-able /'vʌlnərəbl/ adj that is capable of being damaged; not protected against attack: a position ~ to attack; people who are ~ to criticism.

vul-ner-abil-ity /'vʌlnərəbɪləti/ n [U] vul-ture /'vʌltʃə(r)/ n [C] 1 kinds of large bird that live on the flesh of dead animals. 2 (fig) greedy person who profits from the misfortunes of others.

vy-ing /'vaɪŋ/ ⇨ vie.

Ww

W, w /'dʌbəlju:/ (pl W's, w's) the 23rd letter of the English alphabet.

wad /wɒd/ n [C] 1 lump of soft material for keeping things apart or in place, or to stop up a hole: ~s of cotton-wool. 2 collection of banknotes, documents, etc folded or rolled together. □ vt (-dd-) stop up, hold in place, with a wad.

waddle /'wɒdl/ vi walk with slow steps as a duck does: The baby ~d across the room. □ n (sing only) this kind of walk.

wade /weɪd/ vi, vt 1 walk with an effort (through water, mud or anything that makes progress difficult); walk across (something) in this way: He ~d across the stream. 2 wade in, make a strong attack. wade into sth, attack it with force.

'wading bird, long-legged water-bird that wades (opposite to web-footed birds that swim).

wader, = wading bird.

wa-fer /'weɪfə(r)/ n [C] 1 thin flat biscuit (as eaten with ice-cream). 2 small round piece of bread used in Holy Communion.

waffle¹ /'wɒfl/ n [C] small cake made of batter baked in a special apparatus with two parts hinged together.

waffle² /'wɒfl/ vi (GB informal) talk vaguely, unnecessarily, and without much result: What's she waffling about now? □ n [U] talk or writing which (even when it sounds impressive) means little or nothing.

waft /wɒft/ US: wæft/ vi carry lightly and smoothly through the air or over water: The scent of the flowers was wafted to us by the breeze. □ n [C] light breeze, smell: ~s of fresh air through the window.

wag /wæɡ/ vt, vi (-gg-) (cause to) move from side to side or up and down: The dog ~ged its tail. □ n [C] wagging movement: with a ~ of the tail.

wage¹ /weɪdʒ/ n [C] payment made or received for work or services: His ~s are £50 a week. The postal workers have asked for a ~ increase/rise of £25 a week. (Note: usually pl except when wage is used as an adjective: a ~freeze.) ⇨ fee(1), *pay*¹, salary.

'wage-earner, person who works for wages (contrasted with the salaried classes).

'wage-freeze, official control of wage increases.

wage² /weɪdʒ/ vt engage in (war, etc).

wa-ger /'weɪdʒə(r)/ n [C], vt, vi bet (the usual word).

waggle /'wæɡl/ vt, vi = *wag*¹.

wag-gon (US usually wagon) /'wæɡən/ n [C] 1 four-wheeled vehicle for carrying goods, pulled by horses or oxen. ⇨ cart. 2 (US = freight car) open railway truck (eg for coal). ⇨ station-wagon.

wa-gon-lit /'wæɡən 'li: US: 'wæɡɑ:n/ n [C] (pl wagons-lit) sleeping-car (as on European railways).

waif /weɪf/ n [C] homeless child: ~s and strays, homeless and abandoned children.

wail /weɪl/ vi, vt 1 cry or complain in a loud voice: a ~ing child. 2 make a similar sound (eg of a siren): an ambulance racing through the streets with sirens ~ing. 3 (of the wind) make similar sounds. □ n [C] wailing cry: the ~s of a newborn child.

wain-scot /'weɪnskɒt/ n [C] wooden paneling (on the lower half of the walls of a room).

waist /weɪst/ n [C] 1 part of the body between the ribs and the hips: measure 60 centimetres round the ~. 2 that part of clothing that goes round the waist. 3 middle and narrow part: the ~ of a violin.

waist-coat /'weɪskəʊt US: 'weskat/, closefitting sleeveless clothing worn under a coat or jacket, buttoned down the front (US = vest). 'waist-band, part of a skirt, etc that fits round the waist.

'waist-deep adj, adv up to the waist: ~deep in the mud.

'waist-high adj, adv high enough to reach the waist: The wheat was ~high.

'waist-line, part of the body, a dress, etc at the smallest part of the waist: a dress with a narrow ~line.

wait¹ /'weɪt/ n [C] 1 act or time of waiting: We had a long ~ for the bus. 2 [U] lie in wait for, be in hiding in order to attack, etc: The cat lay in ~ for the bird to fly down.

wait² /'weɪt/ vi, vt 1 stay where one is, delay acting, until a person or thing comes or until something happens: Please ~ a minute. How long have you been ~ing? We are ~ing for better weather. We ~ed (in order) to see what would happen. wait up (for sb), delay going to bed. keep sb waiting, fail to meet him or be ready at the appointed time: His wife never keeps him ~ing. 2 (= await the usual word): He is ~ing his opportunity. 3 wait on sb, fetch and carry things for. wait on sb hand and foot, ⇨ *hand*¹(1). 4 wait at, act as a waiter etc: ~ at table.

'waiting list, list of persons who will be served, treated, etc later, if possible: Put me on a ~ing list for two concert tickets.

'wait-ing room, (a) room in a railway-station, etc used by people who are waiting for trains. (b) room (eg in a doctor's or dentist's house or office) where people wait until they can be attended to.

waiter, man who serves food, etc in a restaurant, hotel dining-room, etc.

wait-ress /'weɪtrɪs/, female waiter.

waive /weɪv/ vt (say that one will) not insist on (a right or claim): ~ the age-limit.

waiver /'weɪvə(r)/, (legal) (written statement) waiving (a right, etc): sign a ~ of claims against a person.

wake¹ /weɪk/ vi, vt (pt woke /wəʊk/, pp woken /'wəʊkən/) 1 stop sleeping: What time do you usually ~ (up)? He woke up with a start, suddenly. 2 cause to stop sleeping: Don't ~ the baby. The noise woke me (up). 3 stir up from inactivity, inattention, etc: He needs someone to ~ him up, make him active, energetic.

wak-ing adj being awake: waking or sleeping, while awake or asleep.

waken /'weɪkən/ vt, vi (cause to) wake.

wake² /weɪk/ n [C] 1 (usually pl; often 'W~s Week) annual holiday in N England, esp in the manufacturing towns of Lancashire. 2 (in Ireland) all-night watch with a corpse before burial, with grieving and drinking of alcoholic liquor.

wake³ /weɪk/ n [C] track left by a ship on smooth water, eg as made by propellers. in the wake of, after; following: Traders arrived in the ~ of the explorers.

walk¹ /wɔ:k/ n [C] 1 journey on foot, esp for pleasure or exercise: go for a ~. The station is ten minutes' ~ from my house. 2 manner or style of walking: I recognized him at once by his ~. 3 path or route for walking: my favourite ~s in the neighbourhood. 4 walk of life, profession, occupation: They interviewed people from all ~s of life.

walk² /wɔ:k/ vi, vt (for uses with adverbial particles and prepositions, ⇨ 5 below.) 1 (of persons) move by putting forward each foot in turn, not having both feet off the ground at once; (of animals) move at the slowest pace: We ~ed five miles. He was ~ing up and down the station platform. 2 cause to walk: He ~ed his horse up the hill. walk sb off his feet/legs, tire him out by making him walk far. 3 go over on foot: I have ~ed this district for miles round. 4 (used with various nouns). walk the plank, ⇨ plank. walk the streets, be a prostitute Hence, 'street-walker n [C].

5 (special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions):

walk about, walk in various directions, eg as a tourist. 'walk-about n [C] a walk among spectators in the streets (as a politician, etc does).

walk away with sth, win (a competition) easily: The Russian team ~ed away with the gymnastics competition.

walk off with sth, take (either on purpose or unintentionally): Someone has ~ed off with my umbrella.

walk in, enter.

walk into, meet with accidentally: ~ into an ambush.

walk out, go on strike: The workers ~ed out yesterday. Hence, 'walk-out n [C]. walk out on sb, (informal) desert him (at a time when he is expecting help, etc).

walk over sb, (informal) defeat him easily: She ~ed all over the other competitors. Hence, 'walk-over n [C] easy victory.

walk up, (a) (imperative) (used as on invitation to enter (a circus, show, etc). (b) walk along: ~ up the High Street. (c) walk upstairs. (d) approach: A stranger ~ed up (to me) and asked me the time.

wall /wɔ:l/ n [C] 1 continuous, usually vertical, solid structure of stone, brick, concrete, wood, etc forming one of the sides of a building or room, or used to enclose, divide or protect something (including land): Hang the picture on that ~. Some old towns have ~s right round them. have/with one's back to the wall, ⇨ back²(1). be/go up the wall, (sl) be/become very angry. go to the wall, be defeated, especially financially. 2

(fig) something like a wall: a ~ of fire; the abdominal ~. □ vt 1 (usually pp) surround with walls: a ~ed garden. 2 wall sth up/off, fill or close up with bricks, etc: ~ up a window.

'wall-flower, (a) common garden plant with sweet-smelling flowers. (b) woman who does not dance because not asked.

'wall-paper, paper with a coloured design, for covering the walls of rooms.

wal-laby /'wɒləbi/ n [C] (pl -ies) sorts of small kangaroo.

wal-let /'wɒlɪt/ n [C] folding case of leather, etc for banknotes, credit-cards, etc.

wal-lop /'wɒləp/ vt (sl) beat severely; hit hard. □ n [C] heavy blow; crash: Down he went with a ~!

wal-low /'wɒləu/ vi 1 roll about (in mud, dirty water, etc): pigs, ~ing in the mud. 2 (fig) take great delight in: ~ing in success. □ n [C] place to which animals (eg buffaloes) go regularly to wallow.

wal-nut /'wɒlnʌt/ n 1 [C] (tree producing a) nut with a kernel that can be eaten. 2 [U] the wood, used for making furniture.

wal-rus /'wɒlrʌs/ n [C] (pl ~es) large sea-animal of the arctic regions with two long tusks.

waltz /wɔ:ls US: wɔ:ltz/ n [C] (music for a) slow ballroom dance. □ vi, vt (cause to) dance a waltz: She ~es divinely.

wan /wɒn/ adj (-nn-) 1 (of a person, his looks, etc) looking ill, sad, tired, anxious: a ~ smile. 2 (of light, the sky) pale; not bright.

wan-ly adv

wand /wɒnd/ n [C] slender stick or rod as used by a conjurer, fairy or magician.

wan-der /'wɒndə(r)/ vi, vt 1 go from place to place without any special purpose or destination: ~ up and down the road; ~ (through/over) the world. 2 leave the right path or direction: Some of the sheep have ~ed away, are lost. We ~ed (for) miles and miles in the mist. 3 allow the thoughts to go from subject to subject: Don't ~ from the subject/point. His mind is ~ing.

wan-derer, person or animal that wanders.

wan-der-ings n pl (a) long travels; journeys: tell the story of one's ~ings. (b) confused speech during illness (esp high fever).

wan-der-lust /'wɒndələst/ n [U] strong desire to travel.

wane /weɪn/ vi 1 (of the moon) show a decreasing bright area after full moon. ⇨ wax². 2 become less or weaker: His strength/reputation is waning. □ n esp on the wane, waning.

wangle /'wæŋgl/ vt (sl) get, arrange something, by using improper influence, by trickery, persuasion, etc: ~ an extra week's holiday. □ n [C] act of wangling.

want¹ /wɒnt/ n 1 [U] scarcity; state of being absent: The plants died from ~ of water. Your work shows ~ of thought/care. 2 [U] need; absence of some necessary thing: The house is in ~ of repair. 3 [C] (usually pl) desire for something as necessary to life, happiness, etc; thing to be desired: We can supply all your ~s.

want² /wɒnt/ vt, vi 1 be in need of: That man ~s a wife to look after him, needs to marry a woman who will look after him. I don't ~ (= I object to having) women meddling in my affairs. 2 wish for; have a desire for: She ~s to go to Italy. She ~s me to go with her. He is ~ed by the police, ie because he is suspected of having done wrong. (Note: want is used for something possible to get, wish is used for something impossible or unlikely.) 3 need, ought (as in the notes to the examples): Your hair ~s cutting, needs to be cut. You ~ (= ought) to talk to your teacher about that problem. 4 (progressive tenses only) be wanting (in sth), (of a person's character) be without: He's ~ing in politeness, is impolite. be found wanting: He was put to the test and found ~ing, inadequate. 5 want for nothing, have all one needs.

wan-ton /'wɒntən/ adj 1 playful; irresponsible: in a ~ mood. 2 wild: a ~ growth (of weeds, etc). 3 deliberate: ~ destruction/damage. 4 immoral: a ~ woman.

wanton-ly adv in a wanton manner.

war /wɔ:(r)/ n 1 [C,U] (state created by) the use of armed forces between countries or ('civil war') rival groups in a nation: We have had two world ~s in this century. at war, in a state of war. declare war (on), announce that a state of war exists (with another state). go to war (against), start fighting. have been in the wars, (informal) have suffered injury, misfortune, etc. 2 [U] science or art of fighting, using weapons, etc: the art of ~, strategy and tactics. 3 (fig) any kind of struggle or conflict: the ~ against poverty; a ~ of nerves/words. □ vi (-rr-) fight; make war.

'war-cry, word or cry shouted as a signal in battle.

'war-dance, one by tribal warriors before going into battle, to celebrate a victory, or (in peace) to represent fighting.

'war-fare /'wɔ:fə(r)/, making war; condition of being at war; fighting: the horrors of modern ~fare.

'war-god, god (eg Mars) worshipped as giving victory in war.

'war-head, (of a torpedo, shell, etc) explosive head.

'war-like adj (a) ready for, suggesting, war: ~like preparations. (b) fond of war: a cruel, ~like people.

'war-monger, person who encourages war.

'war-path, (only in) on the warpath, ready for, engaged in, a fight or quarrel.

'war-ship, ship for use in war.

'war-time, time when there is war: (used as an adjective) ~time regulations.

'war-torn adj exhausted by, worn out in, war.

'war-widow, woman whose husband has been killed in war.

warble /'wɔ:bl/ vi, vt (esp of birds) sing with a gentle trilling note: a blackbird warbling in a tree. □ n [C] warbling.

'war-bler /'wɔ:blə(r)/, (kinds of) bird that warbles.

ward /wɔ:d/ n 1 [C] division of, separate room in, a building, esp a hospital: the children's ~.

2 [C] division of a local government area, each division being represented by one Councillor.

3 [U] state of being in custody or under the control of a guardian: a child in ~.

4 [C] person under the guardianship of an older person or of law authorities. □ vt ward sth off, keep away, avoid: ~ off a blow/danger.

-ward(s) /-wəd(z)/ suffix in the direction of: backward(s).

'war-den /'wɔ:dən/ n [C] 1 person having control or authority: the ~ of a youth hostel. ♠ traffic warden. 2 (US) = warder.

'war-der /'wɔ:də(r)/ n [C] (GB) person acting as guard in a prison.

'ward-ress /'wɔ:drɪs/, woman warder.

'ward-robe /'wɔ:drəʊb/ n [C] 1 cupboard with pegs, shelves, etc for clothes. 2 stock of clothes: My ~ needs to be renewed, I must buy some new clothes. 3 stock of costumes of a theatrical company.

ware /wɛə(r)/ n 1 (as a suffix) manufactured goods: 'silver~; 'iron~; 'hard~. 2 (pl) articles offered for sale: advertise one's ~s.

'ware-house /'wɛəhaʊs/ n [C] building for storing goods before distribution to retailers. □ vt /-haʊz/ store in a warehouse.

'war-fare /'wɔ:fə(r)/ ♠ war.

'warm¹ /wɔ:m/ adj (-er, -est) 1 having a medium degree of heat (between cool and hot): Come and get ~ by the fire. 2 (of clothing) serving to keep the body warm: Put your ~est coat on. 3 (of colours) bright; suggesting heat: Red and yellow are ~ colours. 4 enthusiastic, hearty: give a speaker a ~ welcome. 5 sympathetic; affectionate: He has a ~ heart.

'warm-blooded, (a) (of animals) having warm blood. (b) (of a person) showing feelings, passion.

'warm-hearted, kind and affectionate.

'warm-ly adv in a warm manner: ~ly dressed; thank them ~ly.

'warm² /wɔ:m/ vt, vi make or become warm or warmer: ~ oneself/one's hands by the fire. Please ~ (up) this milk. warm to one's work/task, etc, become more interested and involved. □ n (usually sing with a) act of warming: Come near the fire and have a ~.

'warmth /wɔ:mθ/ n [U] state of being warm: He was pleased with the ~ of his welcome.

warn /wɔ:n/ vt inform (a person) of possible danger or unpleasant consequences; inform in advance of what may happen: He was ~ed of the danger. He often ~ed me that there were pickpockets in the crowd | ~ed me against pickpockets.

warning /'wɔːnɪŋ/ adj that warns: They fired some ~ shots. □ n 1 [C] that which warns or serves to warn: Let this be a ~ to you, let this punishment, accident, misfortune, etc teach you to be careful in future. 2 [U] action of warning; state of being warned: The speaker sounded a note of ~, spoke of possible danger.

warp /wɔːp/ vt, vi 1 (cause to) become bent or twisted from the usual or natural shape: Some metals ~ in very hot weather. 2 (fig) make evil; twist: His judgement is ~ed, biased because of possible advantage for himself. He has a ~ed sense of humour, eg that is cruel, evil, abnormal, etc. □ n [C] 1 twisted or bent condition in timber, etc caused by shrinking or expansion. 2 threads over and under which other threads (the wefr) are passed when cloth is woven.

warrant /'wɒrənt/ US: 'wɔːr-/ n 1 [U] justification or authority: He had no ~ for saying so | for what he did. 2 [C] written order giving official authority: a ~ to arrest a suspected criminal | for his arrest. □ vt 1 be a warrant (1) for: His interference was certainly not ~ed. 2 guarantee (the more usual word). 3 (usually pp) justified: His anger is not ~ed.

warrantee /'wɒrən'tiː/ US: 'wɔːr-/, person to whom a warranty is made.

warrantor /'wɒrəntɔː(r)/ US: 'wɔːr-/, person who makes a warranty.

warranty /'wɒrənti/ US: 'wɔːr-/, (written or printed) guarantee (eg to repair or replace defective goods): The car is still under ~y.

warren /'wɒrən/ US: 'wɔːrən/ n [C] 1 area of land in which there are many burrows in which rabbits live and breed. 2 (fig) building or district in which it is difficult to find one's way about: lose oneself in a ~ of narrow streets.

warrior /'wɒrɪə(r)/ US: 'wɔːr-/ n [C] (literary) soldier; fighter: (as an adjective) a ~ tribe.

wart /wɔːt/ n [C] small, hard, dry growth on the skin.

wart-hog /'wɔːthɒg/ n [C] kinds of African pig with two large tusks and growths like warts on the face.

wary /'weəri/ adj (-ier, -iest) in the habit of being careful about possible danger or trouble: be ~ of giving offence | of strangers.

warily /-əli/ adv

was /wɔːz/ strong form: wɒz US: wɔːz/ ⇨ *be*¹.

wash¹ /wɒʃ/ US: wɔːʃ/ n 1 (sing only, usually with a, an) act of washing; being washed: Will you give the car a ~, please. 2 (sing only) clothing, sheets, etc (to be) washed or being washed: When does the ~ come back from the laundry? 3 (sing with the) movement or flow of water; sound made by moving water: the ~ of the waves. ⇨ also eyewash, whitewash.

wash² /wɒʃ/ US: wɔːʃ/ vt, vi (for use with adverbial particles and prepositions, ⇨ 7 below.) 1 make clean with or in water or other liquid: ~ one's hands | clothes. He never ~es (ie washes himself) in cold water. wash one's hands of, ⇨ *hand*¹ (1). 2 (of materials) be capable of being washed without damage or loss of colour: Does this material ~ well? 3 (fig) be acceptable, bear examination: That argument/excuse will not ~. 4 (of the sea or a river) flow past or against: The sea ~es the base of the cliffs. 5 (of moving liquid) carry away, or in a specified direction: He was ~ed overboard by a huge wave. 6 go flowing, sweeping or splashing (along, out, in, into, over, etc): We heard the waves ~ing against the sides of our boat. Huge waves ~ed over the deck. 7 (special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions):

wash sth away, remove by washing: ~ away stains. be washed away, be removed by the movement of the sea, a river, etc: The cliffs are gradually being ~ed away.

wash sth down, clean by washing, eg with a hosepipe: ~ down a car | the deck of a ship. wash sth down (with), swallow (liquid) with: bread and cheese ~ed down with beer.

wash sth out, clean by washing: ~ out a dress. washed out, (a) (fig) exhausted; pale: feel ~ed out. (b) (of games, sport) cancelled because of heavy rain. (c) (of roads, etc) ruined by rain: flooded. ⇨ wash-out below.

wash sth up, wash plates, knives, forks, pans, etc: ~ up the breakfast things. Hence, the washing-up n be washed up, carried on to the beach (by waves, etc): The empty boat was ~ed up on the beach. (all) washed up, (informal) ruined.

wash⁻³ /wɒʃ/ US: wɔːʃ/ prefix (often used as a substitute for washing):

'wash-basin, basin for holding water in which to wash one's face and hands.

'wash-hand-basin, = wash-basin.

'wash-out n (a) place in a road, etc where a flood or heavy rain has carried away earth, etc and interrupted communications. (b) (informal) useless or unsuccessful person; complete failure.

'wash-room, (US) toilet (esp in a public building, etc).

'wash-tub, large wooden bowl in which to wash clothes.

wash-able /'wɒʃəbl/ adj that can be washed without being spoiled.

washer /'wɒʃə(r)/ US: 'wɔː-/ n [C] 1 machine ('dish-~) for washing dishes, cutlery, etc. 2 small flat ring of metal, plastic, rubber or leather for making a joint or screw tight.

wash-ing /'wɒʃɪŋ/ US: 'wɔː-/ n [U] 1 washing or being washed. 2 clothes being washed or to be washed: hang out the ~ on the line to dry.

washing-machine, machine for washing clothes.

washing-powder, powdered soap or detergent for washing clothes, etc.

the washing-up, ⇨ wash sth up.

washing-up liquid, liquid detergent for washing dishes, cutlery, etc.

washing-up machine, machine for washing dishes, cutlery, etc.

washy /wɒʃ/ US: 'wɔ:-/ adj 1 (of liquids) thin, watery. 2 (of colours) looking faded; pale. 3 (of feeling) not having strength.

wasn't /'wɒznt/ = was not.

wasp /wɒsp/ US: 'wɔ:sp/ n [C] kinds of flying insect with a powerful sting in the tail.

wast-age /'weɪstɪdʒ/ n [U] amount wasted; loss by waste.

waste /weɪst/ adj 1 (of land) that is not or cannot be used; no longer of use: ~ land, not occupied or used for any purpose. lay sth waste, ⇨ *lay*²(4). 2 useless; thrown away because not wanted; ~ 'paper.

'waste-land, (a) barren, desolate or unused land. (b) land destroyed by war, etc. (c) (fig) life, society, looked on as culturally and spiritually barren.

waste² /weɪst/ n 1 [U] wasting or being wasted: It's a ~ of time to wait any longer. go/run to waste, be wasted: What a pity to see so many ideas going to ~! 2 [U] waste material; refuse. 3 area of waste land, etc: the ~s of the Sahara.

'waste-paper-basket, basket or other container for unwanted paper, etc.

'waste-pipe, pipe for carrying off (used) water.

waste-ful /-fl/ adj causing waste; using more than is needed: ~ ful habits/processes.

waste-fully /-fəli/ adv

waste³ /weɪst/ vt, vi 1 make no use of; use without a good purpose; use more of (something) than is necessary: ~ one's time and money. All his efforts were ~d, had no result. 2 make (land) waste. 3 (cause to) lose strength by degrees: He's ~ing away.

watch¹ /wɒtʃ/ n 1 [U] act of watching, esp to see that all is well. be on the watch (for), be watching for (a person or thing, esp possible danger). 2 (usually sing with the) (in former times) body of men employed to go through the streets and protect people and their property, esp at night. 3 (in ships) period of duty (4 or 2 hours) for part of the crew. keep watch, be on watch or watching.

'watch-dog, dog kept to protect property.

'watch-man, (modern use) man employed to guard a building (eg a bank, block of offices, factory) against thieves, esp at night.

watch-word, (a) password. (b) slogan.

watch-ful /-fəl/ adj (esp) wide-awake.

watch² /wɒtʃ/ vt, vi look at; keep the eyes on: W~ me carefully. W~ what I do and how I do it. We sat there ~ing the cricket. I'll ~ over (= look after) her while you go shopping. watch¹out, be careful (used to warn against punishment or anger or as a warning of danger): You'd better ~ out, he'll sack you if you're late again. W~ out! There's a hole in front of you! watch one's step, (fig) be careful not to make an error, let a person win an advantage, etc, eg in negotiations.

watcher, person who watches.

watch³ /wɒtʃ/ n [C] small instrument for telling the time that can be carried in the pocket or worn on the wrist.

'watch-maker, person who makes or repairs watches.

'watch-strap, strap for a watch.

water¹ /'wɔ:tə(r)/ n (pl only as shown in examples below) 1 [U] liquid (H₂O) as in rivers, lakes, seas and oceans: Fish live in (the) ~. by water, by boat, ship, etc. be in deep water(s), experiencing difficulty or misfortune. under water, flooded: The fields were under ~ after the heavy rain. like a fish out of water, feeling uncomfortable, behaving awkwardly, because of unfamiliar surroundings, an unfamiliar situation, etc. be in/get into hot water, have/get into trouble (esp because of foolish behaviour, etc). trouble water, (of a theory) be sound when tested. keep one's head above water, avoid (esp financial) troubles or misfortunes. spend money, etc like water, extravagantly. throw cold water on (a plan, etc), discourage (it). tread water, ⇨ tread v(4). 2 [U] the state of the tide: at high/low ~. 3 (pl) seas as shown by a preceding word: Home ~s, the seas near the country to which a ship belongs. 4 (usually pl) mass of water: the 'head-~s of the Nile, the lake from which it flows. 5 [U] solution of a substance in water: 'rose-~.

'water-bird, kinds of bird that swim or wade in water.

'water-biscuit, thin, hard biscuit eaten with butter and cheese.

'water-borne adj (a) (of goods) carried by water. (b) (of diseases) passed on by the use of contaminated water.

'water-buffalo, the common domestic buffalo of India, Indonesia, etc.

'water-bus, boat carrying passengers on a river, lake.

'water-closet, (common abbr WC) small room with a lavatory.

'water-colour (US = -color), (a) (pl) paints (to be) mixed with water, not oil. (b) picture painted with water-colours. (c) (pl or sing) the art of painting such pictures.

'water-cress, creeping plant that grows in running water, with hot-tasting leaves used in salads.

'water-fall, fall of water, esp where a river falls over rocks or a cliff.

'water-front, land at the water's edge, esp the part of a town facing the sea, the harbour, a lake, etc.

'water-hole, shallow depression in which water collects (esp in a dry river bed, and to which animals go to drink).

'water-ice, frozen, flavoured water.

'water-level, surface of water in a reservoir, etc esp as a measurement of depth.

'water-lily, kinds of plant with broad, flat leaves floating on the surface of the water.

'water-logged, adj (a) (of wood) so saturated with water that it will not float. (b) (of a ship) so full of water that it will not float. (c) (of land) thoroughly soaked with water.

'water-main, main pipe in a system of water-supply.

'water-mark, (a) manufacturer's design in some kinds of paper, seen when the paper is held against light. (b) mark which shows how high water (eg the tide, a river) has risen or how low it has fallen.

'water-melon, (plant with) large, smooth-skinned melon with juicy pink or red flesh.

'water-mill, mill whose machinery is turned by water-power.

'water-pipe, one for carrying water.

'water-polo, game played by two teams of swimmers who try to throw a ball into a goal.

'water-power, power obtained from flowing or falling water, used to drive machinery or produce electric current.

'water-proof adj which does not let water through: ~proof material. □ n [C] waterproof coat. □ vi make waterproof.

'water-rat/-vole, animal like a rat living in, near, water.

'water-rate, (GB) charge made for the use of water from a public water-supply.

'water-shed, (a) line of high land separating river systems. (b) (fig) division between events which take different courses.

'water-side, edge of the coast, a river-bank, etc: go for a stroll along the ~side.

'water-ski n [C], vi (one of a pair of skis used to) ski on water while being towed at speed by a fast motor-boat. Hence, 'water-skiing n [U].

'water-supply, system of providing and storing water, amount stored, for a district, town, building, etc.

'water-table, level below which the ground is filled with water: The ~table has been lowered by drought.

'water-tight adj (a) so that water cannot get in or out: ~tight boots. (b) (fig) (of an agreement, etc) so that there can be no escape from any of the provisions; leaving no possibility of misunderstanding.

'water tower, one supporting a large tank which maintains the pressure for a water-supply.

'water-way, navigable channel (eg a canal).

'water-wheel, one turned by a flow of water, used to work machinery.

'water-works, (used with a sing or pl verb) (a) system of reservoirs, pumping stations, for supplying water. (b) ornamental fountains. (c) (informal) (working of the) bladder: Are your ~works all right? Can you pass urine normally? (d) (informal) tears: Let's not have the ~works again! Let's have no more crying!

'water-worn adj (of rocks, etc) made smooth by the action of water.

water² /'wɔ:tə(r)/ vt, vi 1 put water on; sprinkle with water: ~ the lawn/the plants. 2 give water to: ~ the horses. 3 (of the eyes or mouth) fill with water; have much liquid: The smoke made my eyes ~. ⇨ *mouth*¹(1). 4 water sth down, (a) add water to: This whisky has been ~ed (down). (b) (fig) weaken: The story was ~ed down.

'water-ing-can, container with a long spout, used for watering plants.

'water-ing-place, (a) water-hole. (b) spa.

wat-ery /'wɔ:təri/ adj (-ier, -iest) 1 of or like water: (esp of cooked vegetables) containing, cooked in, too much water: ~ soup. 2 (of colour) pale. 3 (of the eyes or lips) covered with water.

watt /wɒt/ n [C] unit of electrical power: a 60 ~ light-bulb.

wattle¹ /'wɒtl/ n [U] structure of woven sticks or twigs used for fences, walls, etc.

wattle² /'wɒtl/ n [C] red flesh hanging down from the head or throat of a bird, esp a turkey.

wave /weɪv/ vi, vt 1 move to and fro, up and down: flags/branches waving in the wind. 2 cause (something) to move in this way (eg to make a signal or request, to give a greeting, etc): ~ one's hand/a flag. She ~d goodbye to us. 3 cause (a person) to move in a certain direction by waving: He ~d us away. wave sth aside, (fig) dismiss: My objections were ~d aside. 4 (of a line or surface, of hair) be in a series of curves (~~~): Her hair ~s beautifully. 5 cause to be in a series of curves: She's had her hair permanently ~d. □ n [C] 1 long ridge of water, esp on the sea, between two hollows; such a ridge curling over and breaking on the shore. in waves, in successive lines like waves: The infantry attacked in ~s. 2 act of waving (2 above); waving movement: with a ~ of his hand. 3 curve like a wave of the sea: the ~s in her hair. 4 steady increase and spread: a ~ of enthusiasm/hatred. ⇨ crime-wave, heatwave. 5 motion like a wave by which heat, light, sound or electricity is spread or carried.

'wave-length, distance between the highest point (the crest) of one wave (5) and that of the next. (not) on the same wavelength, wavy adj (-ier, -iest) having curves: a wavy line; wavy hair.

(fig) (not) in agreement.

wa-ver /'weɪvə(r)/ vi 1 move uncertainly or unsteadily: ~ing shadows/flammes. 2 be or become unsteady; begin to give way: His courage ~ed. 3 hesitate: ~ between two opinions.

wa-verer, person who wavers.

wax¹ /wæks/ n [U] soft yellow substance produced by bees ('bees~) and used for making honeycomb cells; kinds of substance similar to beeswax (eg as obtained from petroleum), used for making candles, etc: (as an adjective) a ~ candle. ⇨ sealing-wax. □ vi cover, polish or treat with wax: ~ furniture/a wooden floor.

wax² /wæks/ vi (esp of the moon, contrasted with wane) show a larger bright area.

way /weɪ/ n 1 [C] road, street, path, etc: a ~ across the fields. There's no ~ through. ⇨ highway, railway, etc. pave the way for, (fig) prepare for, prepare people to accept (reforms, etc). 2 [C] route, road (to be) used (from one place to another): Which is the best/right/quickest/shortest ~ there? Can you find your ~ home? Which is the ~ in/out? go one's way(s), depart. go out of one's way (to do sth), make a special effort: He went out of his way to be rude to me/to help me. lead the way, (a) go in front as leader. (b) show by example how something may be done. make one's way in life/the world, succeed. pay one's way, (a) keep out of debt. (b) pay one's share of expenses instead of letting others pay. by way of, using a route through: He came by ~ of Dover. out of the way, exceptional, uncommon: He has done nothing out of the ~ yet. 3 on the/one's way, being engaged in going or coming: They're still on the/their ~. by the way, (fig) incidentally (often used to introduce a remark not connected with the subject of a conversation). on the way out, (fig) (informal) going out of fashion. 4 [C] method or plan; course of action: the right/wrong/best ~ to do/of doing something. The work must be finished (in) one ~ or another. Where there's a will there's a way, (proverb) If we want to get something done, we will find a method of doing it. ways and means, methods, esp of providing money. have/get one's own way, get/do what one wants. go/take one's own way, act independently, esp against advice. 5 (sing only) distance between two points: It's a long ~ off/a long ~ from here. (also fig) This will go a long ~ (= will be very helpful) towards the cost. 6 [C] direction: He went this/thai/the other ~. Look this ~, please. Such opportunities never come/fall my ~, come to me. 7 [U] advance in some direction; progress (esp of a ship or boat). be under way, (of a ship) be moving through the water. get under way, start to move forward. 8 [U] space for forward movement, for passing ahead; freedom to go forward: Don't stand in the/my ~. be/put sth out of harm's way, in a safe place. get sth out of the way, settle it, dispose of it. give way (to sth/sb), ⇨ give¹ (10). make way (for), allow space or a free passage: All traffic has to make ~ for an ambulance. see one's way (clear) to doing sth, (esp) feel justified in doing something: I don't see my ~ clear to helping you. 9 [C] custom; manner of behaving; personal peculiarity: English/Chinese ~ of living; the ~ of the world, what appears to be justified by custom. I don't like the ~ (= manner in which) he looks at me. ⇨ ordinary. mend one's ways, improve one's manners, behaviour, etc. to my way of thinking, in my opinion. 10 [C] respect; point or detail: He's a clever man in some ~s. He's a nice man in his (own) ~. 11 [C] condition, state, degree: Things are/She's in a bad ~. in a small way, on a small scale: help in a small ~. have it both ways, choose first one and then the other of alternatives in order to suit one's convenience, argument, etc. 12 [C] ordinary course: do something in the ~ of business. 13 by way of, (a) as a substitute for or as a kind of: say something by ~ of an introduction. (b) for the purpose of, with the intention of: ask questions by ~ of learning the facts. (c) in the course of: by ~ of business. ⇨ also 2 above.

way-a-head adj (informal) ahead of current fashion: clothes ~-ahead of the fashion.

way-out adj (informal) = way-ahead: ~out clothes.

way-farer /'weɪfeərə(r)/ n [C] (literary) traveller, esp on foot.

way-faring /'feərɪŋ/ adj travelling: a way-faring man.

way-side n [C] side of a road: by the ~; (as an adjective) ~ flowers.

way-lay /weɪ'leɪ/ vt (pt, pp -laid /-'leɪd/) (wait somewhere to) attack, rob (a person), approach (a person) unexpectedly (with a request): He waylaid me with a request for a loan.

way-word /'weɪwɜːd/ adj not easily controlled or guided: a ~ child.

we /wi:/ pron (⇨ us) 1 (used by a speaker or writer referring to himself and another or others): Can ~ all come to visit you? 2 (used by a royal person instead of I).

weak /wiːk/ adj (-er, -est) 1 (opposite of strong) not having strength; easily broken; unable to resist strong use, opposition, etc: too ~ to walk; ~ in the legs; a ~ team; the ~ points of an argument/plan. 2 (of health, etc) below the usual standard: a ~ heart. Hence, ~sighted/~-minded/~-headed. 3 (of mixed liquids or solutions) having little of some substance in relation to the water, etc: ~ tea/beer. 4 not good; not efficient: ~ in spelling/grammar.

weak-kneed adj (fig) weak in character.

weak form (of the pronunciation of some words), form occurring in an unstressed position, usually by the use of a different vowel sound or by the absence of a vowel sound or consonant (eg /ənd/ for and).

weak verb, (gram) one inflected by additions to the stem, not by vowel change (eg walk, walked).

weakling, weak person or animal.

weakly adv in a weak manner. □ adj delicate in health: a ~ly child.

weakness n (a) [U] state of being weak: the ~ness of old age. (b) [C] fault or defect of character: We all have our little ~nesses. (c) have a weakness for, a special or foolish liking for: He has a ~ness for ice-cream/blondes.

weaken /'wi:kən/ vt, vi make, become, weaken (er) weal /wi:l/ n [C] mark on the skin made by a blow from a whip, etc.

wealth /welθ/ n [U] 1 (possession of) a great amount of property, money, etc: a man of ~. 2 (sing only with a, an or the) great amount or number of: a book with a ~ of illustrations; the ~ of phrases and sentences to illustrate meanings in this dictionary.

wealthy adj (-ier, -iest) rich.

wean /wi:n/ vt 1 accustom (a baby, a young animal) to food other than its mother's milk. 2 (fig) cause (a person) to turn away (from a habit, bad companions, etc): ~ a person off/away from drugs.

weapon /'wepən/ n [C] something designed for, or used in, fighting or struggling (eg swords, guns, fists, a strike by workmen).

weaponry n [U] weapons collectively.

wear /weə(r)/ n [U] 1 wearing or being worn; use as clothing: This coat is beginning to look the worse for ~, shows signs of having been worn for a long time, so that it is no longer in a good or useful condition. 2 damage or loss of quality from use: The carpet is showing signs of ~. wear and tear, damage, loss in value, because used. 3 capacity for keeping in good condition: There's not much ~ left in these shoes, they cannot be worn much longer. 4 (used chiefly in compounds or in terms used by tradesmen) things to wear: 'under~; 'ladies' 'men's' 'children's ~.

wear² /weə(r)/ vt, vi (pt wore /wɔ:(r)/, pp worn /wɔ:n/) 1 have on the body, carry on one's person or on some part of it: He was ~ing glasses/heavy shoes/a ring on his finger. She never ~s green, ie green clothes. She used to ~ her hair long, used to have long hair. 2 (of expressions) have on the face: ~ a smile. 3 (cause to) become less useful or to be in a certain condition, by being used: I have worn my socks into holes. This material has worn thin. The stones were worn by the constant flow of water. 4 make (a hole, groove, etc) in by rubbing or attrition: ~ holes in a rug/one's socks. In time a path was worn across the field. 5 remain in a certain condition (after use): Good leather will ~ for years. This cloth has worn well/badly. Old Mr Smith is ~ing well, looks well in spite of being old.

6 (special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions):

wear away, (a) become broken, thin, weak, as the result of constant use: The inscription on the stone had worn away, the words were difficult to read. (b) (of time) pass slowly: as the evening wore away. wear sth away, use up or damage something by constant use, etc: The footsteps of thousands of visitors had worn away the stones.

wear down, become gradually smaller, thinner, weaker, etc: The heels of these shoes are ~ing down. wear sth down, cause to wear down. wear sb/sth down, weaken by constant attack, nervous strain, etc: These noisy children do ~ me down!

wear off, gradually disappear: The novelty will soon ~ off.

wear on, (of time) pass: Evening wore on.

wear (sth) out, (cause to) become useless, worn thin, exhausted: Cheap shoes soon ~ out. His patience had/was at last worn out. wear sb out, exhaust, tire out: I'm worn out by all this hard work. Hence, worn-out adj: a ~, worn-out coat.

wear-able /'weərəbl/ adj that can be, or is fit to be, worn.

weary /'weəri/ adj (-ier, -iest) 1 tired: feel ~; be ~ of his constant grumbling. 2 causing tiredness: a ~ journey. 3 showing tiredness: a ~ sigh. □ vi, vi make or become weary: ~ of living alone.

wear-ily /-əli/ adv

weari-ness n [U]

weari-some /'weəriəsəm/ adj tiring; long and dull.

weasel /'wi:zl/ n [C] small, fierce animal with red-brown fur.

weather¹ /'weðə(r)/ n [C] conditions over an area and at a particular time with reference to sunshine, temperature, wind, rain, etc: He stays indoors in wet ~. She goes out in all ~s (= all kinds of ~). (Note: climate is used when referring to a long period of time, eg a season.) be/feel under the weather, (informal) unwell. make heavy weather of sth, find it difficult.

weather-beaten adj showing marks or signs which come from being in the sun, wind, rain, etc: a ~-beaten face.

weather-bound adj unable to make or continue a journey because of bad weather.

weather-chart/-map, diagram showing details of the weather over an area.

weather forecast, ⇨ forecast.

weather-man, (informal) man who reports and forecasts the weather (on radio and TV).

'weather-proof adj able to stand exposure to all types of weather.

'weather-ship, one at sea to make observations of the weather.

'weather-station, building where the weather is observed.

'weather-vane, = vane(1).

weather² /'wɛðə(r)/ vt, vi 1 (literally and fig) come through successfully: ~ a storm/crisis. 2 sail to the windward of: ~ a cape. 3 expose to the weather: ~ wood, leave it in the open air until it is properly shrunk and ready for use. 4 (cause to) discolour, become worn, by the weather: rocks ~ed by wind and rain.

weave /wi:v/ vt, vi (pt wove /wəʊv/, pp woven /'wəʊvən/) 1 make (by hand or by machine) (threads) into cloth, etc; make (cloth, etc) from threads: ~ cotton thread into cloth. 2 make (garlands, baskets, etc) by a similar process: ~ flowers into a wreath; ~ a garland of flowers. 3 (fig) put together, compose (a story, romance, etc): ~ a plot. get weaving (on sth), (sl) make an energetic start (on a task, etc). 4 twist and turn: The driver was weaving (his way) through the traffic. □ n [C] style of weaving: a loose/tight ~.

weaver, person who weaves cloth.

web /web/ n [C] 1 something made of threads by a spider or other spinning creature: spider's ~. ⇨ cobweb. 2 (usually fig): a ~ of (= many) lies. 3 skin joining the toes of some waterbirds, eg ducks, and some water-animals, eg frogs. Hence, web-'footed adj.

web-bed adj having the toes joined by webs.

wed /wed/ vt, vi (pt ~ed, pp ~ed or rare wed) 1 marry. 2 unite: simplicity ~ed to beauty. wedded to, devoted to; unable to give up: He is ~ed to his own opinions and nothing can change him.

we'd /wi:d/ = we had; we would.

wed-ding /'wedɪŋ/ n [C] marriage ceremony (and festivities connected with it): attend/invite one's friends to a ~; the ~ dress.

'wedding breakfast, meal for the bride and bridegroom, their relatives, friends, etc between the wedding ceremony and departure for the honeymoon.

'wedding-ring, ring placed on the bride's or groom's finger at a wedding.

wedge /wedʒ/ n [C] 1 V-shaped piece of wood or metal, used to split wood or rock (by being hammered), to widen an opening, or to keep two things separate. the thin end of the wedge, (fig) a small change or demand likely to lead to big changes or demands. 2 something shaped like or used like a wedge: ~ heels (on shoes). □ vt fix tightly (as) with a wedge: ~ a door open, by placing a wedge under it; be tightly ~ed between two fat women on the bus.

wed-lock /'wedlɒk/ n [U] condition of being married: born out of ~, illegitimate.

Wed-nes-day /'wenzdi/ n fourth day of the week.

wee¹ /wi:/ adj very small: I'll have a ~ drop of brandy in my coffee.

wee², wee-wee /('wi:) wi:/ n [U] (used by and to small children) urine: □ vi urinate.

weed /wid/ n [C] 1 wild plant growing where it is not wanted (eg in a garden). 2 (fig) thin, tall, weak-looking person. □ vt, vi 1 take weeds out of (the ground): ~ the garden. 2 remove, get rid of (what is unwanted, or of lower value than the rest): ~ out the lazy students.

weedy adj (-ier, -iest) (a) full of, overgrown with, weeds. (b) tall, thin, weak: a ~y young man.

weeds /widz/ n pl (also 'widow's ~) black clothes as (formerly) worn by a widow for mourning.

week /wi:k/ n [C] 1 any period of seven days; (esp) seven days from Saturday midnight to Saturday midnight: this/last/next ~; this day ~, one week forward from today; this Monday ~, one week from Monday next; for the last/next six ~s; a six ~s' holiday; tomorrow ~, eight days from today; yesterday ~, eight days ago; the working ~, (usually) Monday to Friday or Saturday. week in, week out, for weeks in succession. 2 the working days of the week.

'week-day, any day except Sunday: I'm always busy on ~days.

'week-'end n [C] Saturday and Sunday (as a period of rest or holiday): spend the ~end with friends; (as an adjective) a ~end holiday. □ vi spend a weekend: I'm ~ending at Brighton.

week-ly adj, adv (happening) once a week, every week; of, for or lasting a week: a ~ly wage of £80; ~ly visits. □ n [C] (pl -ies) periodical published once a week.

weep /wi:p/ vi, vt (pt, pp wept /wept/) cry; let tears fall from the eyes: ~ for joy. She wept to see him so ill. She wept over her sad fate. She wept bitter tears.

'weep-ing adj (of trees, eg the birch and willow) having drooping branches.

wee-vil /'wi:vl/ n [C] small beetle with a hard shell, feeding on stores of grain, nuts and other seeds.

weft /weft/ n [C] cross-threads taken over and under the warp in weaving.

weigh /wei/ vt, vi 1 measure (by means of a scale, balance, etc) how heavy something is: He ~ed himself on the scales. weigh sth out, distribute in defined quantities; take a definite quantity of: She ~ed out flour, sugar and butter for a cake. weigh in (with), produce (arguments, facts, etc) triumphantly; bring (them) to bear on a discussion. 2 show a certain measure when put on a scale, etc: ~ 10 kilos/a ton/nothing. 3 (of a machine, etc) be capable of taking, designed to take, objects up to a specified weight: This machine will ~ up to 10 kilos. 4 compare the importance, value, etc of (one thing and another): ~ one plan against another. weigh sth (up), consider carefully, assess: ~ (up) the consequences of an action. 5 weigh anchor, raise the anchor and start a voyage.

6 (uses with adverbial particles and prepositions):

weigh sth down, pull or bring down: The fruit ~ed the branches down. weigh sb down, make tired, depressed, troubled, etc: ~ed down with sorrow/cares/anxieties.

weigh on sb/sth, cause concern, anxiety (because of importance, seriousness): The problem/responsibility ~s heavily on him/his mind.

weigh with, influence: evidence that did not ~ with the judges.

'weigh-ing-machine, machine for weighing objects that are too large for a simple balance or scale.

weight /weɪt/ n 1 [U] force with which a body tends towards the centre of the earth. 2 [U] how heavy a thing is; this expressed in some scale (eg tons, kilogrammes) as measured on a scale, weighing-machine, etc: That man is twice my ~. My ~ is 70 kilos.

over/under weight, weighing too much/too little. pull one's weight, ⇨ pull² (2).

put on weight, (of a person) become heavier. throw one's weight about, (informal) be conceited; try to bully people. 3 (not pl, but with a, an or the) load to be supported: The pillars have a great ~ to bear/have to support the ~ of the roof. That's a great ~ (= problem) off my mind. 4 [U] (degree of) importance or influence: opinions that carry ~; considerations that had great ~ with me. 5 [C] piece of metal of known weight used in scales for weighing things: an ounce/100 grammes ~. 6 [C] heavy object for various purposes: keep papers down with a 'paper-~. 7 [U] system of units, scale or notation, for expressing weight: troy/metric ~. vt 1 put a weight (5) on; add weight to; make heavy: ~ a pendulum in a clock. 2 (fig) give advantage: Circumstances are ~ed in his favour. 3 weight sb down, burden with: He was ~ed down with suitcases.

'weight-lifting, gymnastic feat of lifting great weights.

weight-less adj having no weight, eg because of absence of gravity.

weighty adj (-ier, -iest) (a) very heavy. (b) (fig) influential; important: ~y considerations/arguments.

weir /wɪə(r)/ n [C] wall or barrier across a river or canal to control the flow of water or as a trap for catching fish.

weird /wɪəd/ adj 1 unnatural: ~ shrieks from the ruined castle. 2 (informal) strange; difficult to understand or explain: Have you seen the ~ makeup some punks use.

weird-ly adv

weird-ness n [U]

wel-come /'welkəm/ adj 1 received with, giving, pleasure: a ~ visitor/rest; ~ news; make a friend ~, show him that his coming is welcome. 2 welcome to, (a) allowed with pleasure to: You are ~ to borrow my bicycle. (b) (ironic) allowed to have something burdensome or unwanted: If anyone thinks he can do this job any better, he's ~ to it/~ to try! 3 (used as an interjection): W~ home! W~ to England! □ n [C] greeting, response by word or action, when somebody arrives, when an offer is received, etc: They gave us/We received a warm/cold/enthusiastic ~. ⇨ outstay. □ vt show pleasure or satisfaction at something, at the arrival of a person or thing: ~ a friend to one's home; ~ a suggestion warmly/coldly.

weld /weld/ vt, vi 1 join (pieces of metal) by hammering or pressure (usually when the metal is softened by heat) or fusing; make by doing this: ~ the pieces of a broken axle; ~ parts together. 2 (of iron, etc) be capable of being welded: Some metals ~ better than others. □ n [C] welded joint.

wel-der, workman who welds.

wel-fare /'welfeə(r)/ n [U] condition of having good health, comfortable living and working conditions, etc: work for the ~ of the nation; child/infant/social ~; ~ work, organized efforts to improve the welfare of those who need help.

the 'Welfare 'State, name applied to a country with State-financed social services, eg health, insurance, pensions.

well ¹ /wel/ n [C] 1 shaft, usually lined with brick or stone, for obtaining water from an underground source: drive/sink a ~. 2 hole bored for mineral oil: the 'oil-~s of Iran. 3 space in a building for a staircase or lift: a 'stair ~. □ vi flow, like water from a well: The blood was ~ing out (from the wound). well over, overflow. well up (in), rise, like water in a well: Tears ~ed up in her eyes.

'well-water, water from a well.

well² /wel/ adj (better, best) 1 in good health: be/look/feel/get ~. I'm quite ~, thank you. 2 in a satisfactory condition: All's ~ that ends ~. It's all very well... (used ironically to show discontent, dissatisfaction, disagreement, etc): It's all very ~ (for you) to suggest a holiday in Italy, but how am I to find the money? 3 advisable; desirable: It would be ~ to start early.

well³ /wel/ (better, best) adv 1 in a good, right or satisfactory manner: The children behaved ~. They are ~behaved children. W~ done! I hope everything is going ~ (= satisfactorily) with you. Does this colour go ~ with that colour? do well, succeed; make progress; prosper: Simon has done ~ at school this term.

be doing well, (in the progressive tense only) making a good recovery (from an operation, etc): Both mother and baby are doing ~.
do well out of, make a profit from. 2 with praise or approval: think/speak ~ of a person.
3 fortunately. be well out of sth, be fortunate to be out of an undertaking, commitment, etc. well 'off, rich; fortunate: He doesn't know when he is ~ off, does not realize how fortunate he is. come off well, (a) (of a person) have good fortune; be lucky. (b) (of an event) have a satisfactory outcome. 4 with good reason, justice; fairly; advisably: You may ~ be surprised. I couldn't very ~ refuse to help them. It would have been difficult, unreasonable, etc to have done so. It may ~ be that... It is likely or possible that... 5 may as well, ⇨ may(4). be just as well, with no loss of advantage, no need for regret: It's just as ~ I didn't lend him the money. 6 (end position) thoroughly; completely: Examine the account ~ before you pay it. 7 to a considerable extent: His name is ~ up in the list, near the top. He must be ~ past forty/~ over forty years old. well away, (a) making good progress: We're ~ away, have made a good start. (b) (informal) on the way to being drunk. 8 as well (as), in addition (to): He gave me money as ~ as advice. Give me those as ~, = those too. 9 (used with another adv) pretty well, ⇨ pretty adv.

well¹ /wel/ int 1 (expressing astonishment): W~, who would have thought he'd do that? W~, ~! 2 (expressing relief): W~, here we are at last! 3 (expressing resignation): W~, there's nothing we can do about it. 4 (expressing understanding or agreement): Very ~, then, we'll talk it over again tomorrow. 5 (expressing concession): W~, you may be right. 6 (used to resume a story, etc): W~, as I was saying...

well² /wel/ n [U] that which is good: wish him ~, wish him good fortune, success, etc. let well alone, not change what is already satisfactory.

well- /wel-/ prefix (~ + pp = adjective) fortunately, properly, thoroughly.

well-ad'vised adj wise: You'd be ~-advised to apologize.

well-'balanced adj sane, sensible.

well-be'have'd adj behaving well.

'well-being, welfare; health, happiness and prosperity: the ~-being of the nation.

well-'born adj of a family with good social position.

well-'bred adj of good upbringing.

well-con'ducted adj characterized by good organization and control: a ~-conducted 'meeting.

well-con'nect'ed adj connected by blood or marriage with families of good social position or to rich or influential people.

well-'earned adj fully deserved: ~earned 'praise; a ~earned 'rest.

well-'founded adj based on good evidence, having a foundation in fact: ~founded sus'pitions.

well-'grounded adj (a) = well-founded. (b) having a good training in or knowledge of the groundwork of a subject.

well-'heeled adj (sl) rich.

well-in'formed adj (a) having wide knowledge. (b) having access to reliable information: in ~-informed 'quarters.

well-in'tentioned adj showing good intentions.

well-'known adj known by many.

well-'marked adj definite; distinct.

well-'meaning adj = well-intentioned.

well-'meant adj done, said, etc with good intentions.

'well-nigh adv almost: ~nigh im'possible.

well-'read adj having a mind full of ideas, information, as the result of reading much.

well-'spoken adj (a) speaking well, politely. (b) spoken well.

well-'thought-of adj having a good reputation.

well-'timed adj done, said, at the right or a suitable time.

well-to-'do adj wealthy; from a high social class.

well-'tried adj (of methods, remedies) tested and proved useful.

well-'turned adj (of a compliment, phrase, verse) expressed well.

'well-wisher, person who wishes (a person) good luck.

well-'worn adj (a) much used. (b) (fig) used, heard, often (and so dull).

we'll /wi:l/ = we shall; we will.

wel-ling-ton /'welɪŋtən/ n [C] (also a pair of ~s; a ~ 'boot) waterproof boot reaching to the knee.

wel-ter /'welte(r)/ vi be soaked or steeped (in blood, etc). □ n [C] general confusion; disorderly mixture or aimless conflict: the ~ of political beliefs.

wel-ter-weight /'welte weɪt/ n [C] boxer weighing between 135 and 147 lbs (61 to 66·6 kg).

went /went/ pt of go¹.

wept /wept/ pt, pp of weep.

were /wɜ:(r)/ pt of be¹.

we're /wɪə(r)/ = we are.

weren't /wɜ:nt/ = were not.

were-wolf /'wɪəwɒlf/ n [C] (pl -wolves /-wɒlvz/) (in myths) human being turned into a wolf.

west /west/ n 1 the ~, point of the horizon where the sun sets. 2 [U] that part of the world, of a country, etc in this direction: Bristol is in the ~ of England. 3 (as an adjective): the ~ wind, blowing from the west; towards, at in the direction of the west: On the ~ coast. □

adv towards the west: to travel face ~. go west, die; become destroyed. west of, farther west than.

the West, (a) Europe and the continent of America (contrasted with Asia). (b) (world politics) Western Europe and America (contrasted with the socialist countries). (c) western part of a country.

the 'west country, part of England west of the Isle of Wight.

the 'West 'End, part of London with the largest and most fashionable shops, theatres, etc: (as an adjective) ~-end theatres.

westward /'westwəd/ adj towards the west: in a ~ direction.

westward(s) /-wəd(z)/ adv: travel ~(s).

west-er-ly /'westəli/ adj, adv in a western position or direction; (of the wind) coming from the west.

west-ern /'westən/ adj of, from, living in, the west part of the world. □ n [C] film or novel dealing with life in the western part of the US in the times of the wars with the Red Indians, or one with cowboys, etc.

Western time, one of 4 standard time zones in the US.

the 'Western 'Hemisphere, ⇨ hemisphere.

west-erner, native of the West, esp of the west US.

west-ern-ize (also -ise) /-aɪz/ vt introduce western civilization into.

'west-ern-most /-məʊst/ adj farthest west.

wet /wet/ adj (-ter, -test) 1 covered or soaked with water or other liquid: ~ clothes/roads. Did you get ~, eg in the rain? 'wet 'through, soaked: Your coat is ~ through. 2 rainy: ~ weather. 3 (sl) (of a person) without courage, strong personality, etc. □ n 1 the ~, rain: Come in out of the ~. 2 [U] moisture. □ vt (pt, pp ~ or ~ted) (-tt-) make wet: The baby has ~ its bed again. wet one's whistle, ⇨ whistle, n (2).

'wet 'blanket, (informal) person who prevents others from enjoying themselves by being gloomy or bad-tempered.

we've /wi:v/ = we have.

whack /wæk US/ wæk/ vt hit (a person or thing) with a hard blow, object. □ n [C] 1 (sound of a) hard blow. 2 (sl) share: Have you all had a fair ~?

whacked adj (informal) (of a person) worn out; tired.

whack-ing n [C] beating: give a child a ~ing. □ adj (informal) big of its kind: a ~ing lie. □ adv very: a ~ing great lie.

whale /weɪl US/ hweɪl/ n [C] 1 kinds of very large sea-animal some of which are hunted for their oil and flesh. 2 have a whale of a (good) time, a very enjoyable time. □ vi hunt whales: go whaling.

whaler /'weɪlə(r) US/ 'hw-/ man, ship, en- gaged in whaling.

wharf /wɔ:f US/ hwɔ:rɪf/ n [C] (pl ~s or wharves /wɔ:vz/) wooden or stone structure at which ships are moored for (un)loading cargo.

what /wɒt US/ hwɒt/ adj 1 asking for a selection from an indefinite number or amount: W~ books have you read on this subject? Tell me ~ books you have read recently. W~ time is it? 2 (used in exclamations): W~ a good idea! 3 the... that; any... that; as much/many... as: Give me ~ books (= the books, any books, that) you have on the subject. W~ few friends (= The few friends that) I have here have been very kind to me. □ pron 1 what thing(s): W~ happened? Tell me ~ happened. what for, for what purpose: W~ is this tool used for? W~ did you do that for? Why did you do that? what... like, (used to ask for a description, for details, etc): W~s the weather like this morning? what if, what will, would, be the result if: W~ if it rains while we are out? what about/of, (a) what news is there about... (b) ⇨ about²(4), of(10). 2 that which; the thing(s) which: W~ he says is not important. Do ~ you think is right. It's a useful book and, ~ is more (= also), not an expensive one.

what-e'er /wɒt'eə(r) US/ hw-/ (poetic) = whatever.

what-ever /wɒt'evə(r) US/ hw-/ adj 1 (emphatic for what) of any sort, degree, etc: W~ nonsense the newspapers print, some people always believe it. 2 (placed after a noun in a negative context, giving emphasis to the negative): There can be no doubt ~ about it. □ pron 1 no matter what: You are certainly right, ~ others may say. Keep calm, ~ happens. 2 anything or everything that: Do ~ you like.

what-so-e'er /wɒtsəu'eə(r) US/ 'hw-/ (poetic) = whatsoever.

what-so-ever /wɒtsəu'evə(r) US/ 'hw-/ = whatever, adj.

wheat /wi:t US/ hw-/ n [U] (plant producing) grain from which flour (as used for bread) is made: a field of ~.

wheedle /'wi:dl US/ 'hw-/ vt be pleasant to a person, flatter, to get something one wants: She ~d a pound out of her father/~d her father into buying her a bicycle.

wheel /wi:l US/ hwi:l/ n [C] 1 circular frame or disc which turns on an axle (as on carts, cars, bicycles, etc and machines). put one's shoulder to the wheel, work hard when doing something. 2 [C] motion like that of a wheel, esp of a line of soldiers: a right/left ~. □ vt, vi 1 push or pull (a vehicle with wheels): ~ a bike up a hill; ~ a barrow; ~ the rubbish out to the dump. 2 (cause to) turn in a curve or circle: The seagulls were ~ing in the air above me.

'wheel-barrow, small cart with one wheel and two handles for moving small loads.

'wheel-base, distance between the axles of a motor-vehicle.

'wheel-chair, chair with large wheels for the use of invalids.

'wheel-wright, person who makes and repairs wheels.

wheeze /wɪz/ US: hwɪz/ vi, vt 1 breathe noisily, esp with a whistling sound in the chest (as when suffering from asthma). 2 say with such sounds: The asthmatic man ~d out a few words. □ n [C] sound of wheezing.

'wheezy adj (-ier, -iest) breathing, speaking, with wheezes.

whelk /welk/ US: hwelk/ n [C] kinds of sea-animal (like a snail) with a spiral shell, some used as food.

when /wen/ US: hwen/ adv 1 at what time; on what occasion: W~ can you come? W~ did that happen? I don't know ~ that happened. 2 (used after a preposition) what time: Since ~ has he been missing? □ adv (with day, time, etc) at or on which: Sunday is the day ~ I am least busy. There are times ~ I could scream with rage. □ conj 1 at or during the time that: It was raining ~ we arrived. W~ he spoke everyone listened. 2 although: He walks ~ he could take a taxi. 3 since; considering that: How can I help them to understand ~ they won't listen to me? 4 at or during which time: The President will visit the town in May, ~ he will open the new hospital.

whence /wens/ US: hwens/ adv (old use) 1 (in questions) from what place or cause: Do you know ~ she came? 2 (in statements) from which place: the land ~ they are come. 3 to the place from which: Return ~ you came.

when-ever /wen'evə(r)/ US: hw-/ adv 1 at whatever time; no matter when: I'll discuss it with you ~ you like. 2 on any occasion; as often as; every time that: W~ that man says 'To tell the truth', he's about to tell a lie. 3 or whenever, (informal) or at any time: He'll arrive on Monday, or Friday, or ~, and expect to be given a meal.

where /weə(r)/ US: hwəə(r)/ adv 1 in or to what place or position; in what direction; in what respect: W~ does he live? I wonder ~ he lives. 2 (used with a preposition following the verb) what place: W~ does he come from? W~ are you going to? □ adv 1 (with place, etc) in or at which: That's the place/corner ~ the accident occurred. 2 in, at or to the place in which; in the direction in which: I found my books ~ I had left them. That's ~ (ie the point in respect of which) you are mistaken.

'where-a-bouts adv in or near what place: W~abouts did you find it? □ n ('abouts) (used with a sing or pl verb) place where a person or thing is: Her present ~abouts is/are unknown.

where-as conj (a) (esp legal) considering that. (b) but in contrast; while on the other hand: Some people like fat meat, ~as others hate it.

'where-by adv by what; by which: He devised a plan ~by he might escape.

'where-fore conj (formal) for which reason; why. □ n (pl): the whys and the ~fores, the reasons.

where-in adv (formal) in what; in which; in what respect: W~in am I mistaken?

where-so-ever /,weərsəʊ'evə(r)/, US: /hw-/ (old use) (emphatic for) wherever.

wher-ever /,weə'evə(r)/ US: /hw-/ adv in, to, at, whatever place; at those places: Sit ~ you like. W~ you go, I'll follow you.

where-withal /'weərwiðəl/ (US): /hw-/ adv (old use) with which. □ n the ~, (informal) money needed for a purpose: I'd like to buy a car but haven't got the ~.

whet /wet/ US: hwet/ vt (-tt-) 1 sharpen (a knife, axe, etc). 2 (fig) sharpen or excite (the appetite, a desire).

'whet-stone, shaped stone used for sharpening tools, eg scythes.

whether /'weðə(r)/ US: /hw-/ conj (introducing an indirect question expressing doubt or choice; often replaced by if in informal style): I wonder ~if it's large enough (or not). I wonder ~ we'll be in time for the last bus or ~ we'll have to walk home. I don't know ~ to accept or refuse. It's doubtful ~ we shall be able to come. The question was ~ to wait for the bus or (~) to walk. I am not interested in ~ you like the plan or not.

whew /hwi:/ int cry used (often in joke) to express surprise, tiredness, etc.

which /wɪtʃ/ US: hwɪtʃ/ adj (asking for selection from two, or from a group, esp from possibilities thought of as limited in number): 1 W~ way shall we go—up the hill or along the river? W~ languages can you speak? 2 and this; and these: Don't call between 1 o'clock and 2 o'clock, at ~ time I'm usually having lunch. □ pron which thing(s), person(s): W~ of the boys is the tallest? I never know ~ is ~, I cannot distinguish one from the other. □ pron (of things only, not of persons) 1 (in defining or restrictive clauses which is often replaced by that) (a) (with which as the subject of the verb in the clause): Take the book ~ is lying on that table. (b) (with which as the object of the verb in the clause): Was the book (~) that you were reading a novel? (c) (with which as the object of a preposition; replaceable by that): The photographs at ~ you were looking/The photographs (that) you were looking at were all taken by my brother. 2 (in non-defining or non-restrictive clauses which is not replaceable by that) (a) (with which as the subject of the clause): The meeting, ~ was held in the park, was attended by five hundred people. (b) (with which as the object of the verb in the clause): This desk, ~ I bought second-hand, is made of oak. (c) (with which as the object of a preposition): His car, for ~ he paid £800, is very unreliable.

able. (d) (referring to a clause or sentence, not to a noun): He said he had lost the book, ~ (= but this) was untrue.

which-ever /wɪtʃ'levə(r) US: hw-/ adj, pron 1 the one which: Take ~ you like best. W~ (of you) comes in first will receive a prize. 2 no matter which: Does British foreign policy remain the same, ~ party is in power?

whiff /wɪf US: 'hwɪf/ n [C] slight puff or breath (of): a ~ of fresh air; the ~ (= smell) of a cigar. □ vt, vi 1 blow or puff lightly. 2 get a slight smell of.

while /waɪl US: hwaɪl/ n [C] (period of) time: Where have you been all this ~? I haven't seen him for a long ~. (every) once in a while, occasionally. worth (one's) while, worth the time spent in doing it, etc: It isn't worth ~ going there now. He will make it worth your ~, ie will reward you. □ vt (only in) while away, pass the time in a leisurely way: whiling away the time. □ conj 1 during the time that; for as long as; at the same time as: He fell asleep ~ (he was) reading his book. 2 (used in contrasts) but: Jane was dressed in brown ~ Mary was wearing blue. 3 although: W~ I admit that the problems are difficult, I don't agree that they cannot be solved.

whilst /waɪlst US: hwaɪlst/ conj = while (which is more usual).

whim /wɪm US: hwɪm/ n [C] sudden desire or idea, often something unusual or unreasonable: full of ~s.

whim-per /'wɪmpə(r) US: 'hw-/ vi, vt 1 make weak, frightened or complaining sounds, eg like a baby when ill, a dog when frightened or hurt. 2 say, cry in this voice. □ n [C] sobbing sound.

whim-si-cal /'wɪmzɪkl US: 'hw-/ adj (formal) odd; playful: be in a ~ mood.

whim-si-cally /-klɪ/ adv whine /waɪn US: hwaɪn/ n [C] long complaining cry or high-pitched sound (eg as made by a miserable dog, a child, a motor-engine). □ vi, vt 1 make such cries: The dog was whining to come into the room. 2 complain, esp about trivial things: a child that never stops whining.

whinny /'wɪni US: 'hw-/ n [C] (pl -ies) gentle cry of a horse. □ vi (pt, pp -ied) make such a sound.

whip¹ /wɪp US: hwɪp/ n [C] 1 strip (of cord, leather, etc) fastened to a handle, used for urging a horse on, or for punishing. 2 organizing secretary of a political party (in GB and US) with authority over its members to maintain discipline and secure attendance at parliamentary debates and divisions(6); order given by such a secretary to members of his party to attend a debate and vote. a three-line whip, urgent order of this kind, with three underlines. 3 dish of eggs, cream, etc beaten or whipped(2): strawberry ~.

whip² /wɪp US: hwɪp/ vt, vi (-pp-) 1 beat with a whip: ~ a horse/a child. 2 beat (eggs, cream, etc) with a fork or other utensil to mix thoroughly or to make stiff: ~ped cream. 3 (informal) defeat (in a competition). 4 take, be taken, move, be moved, suddenly: He ~ped out a knife.

whip-ping, beating with a whip as a punishment.

'whip-ping-boy, person (being) punished for another's offence.

whir /wɜ:(r) US: hw-/ = whirr.

whirl /wɜ:l US: hwɜrl/ vt, vi 1 (cause to) move quickly round and round: The wind ~ed the dead leaves about. 2 (cause to) move or travel quickly (off, away, etc): Our friends were ~ed away in Jack's sports-car. 3 (of the brain, the senses) seem to go round and round; (of thoughts) be confused: His head ~ed. □ n (sing only) 1 whirling movement: a ~ of dust/of dead leaves. 2 quick succession of activities, etc: the ~ of modern life in a big city.

'whirl-pool, place where there are circular currents in the sea, etc (drawing floating objects towards its centre).

'whirl-wind, swift circling current of air.

whirr /wɜ:(r) US: hwar/ n (sing only) sound (as) of a bird's wings moving quickly, or of wheels, etc turning fast: the ~ of a helicopter's propellers. □ vi (-tr-) make such sounds.

whisk /wɪsk US: hw-/ n [C] 1 device (eg coiled wire) for whipping eggs, cream, etc. 2 light brushing movement (eg of a horse's tail). □ vt, vi 1 whisk sb/sth off/away, brush quickly and lightly: ~ the flies off. 2 move with a whisk(2): The cow ~ed her tail. 3 take (a person) quickly and suddenly: They ~ed him off to prison. 4 = whip(2): ~ eggs.

whisker /'wɪskə(r) US: 'hw-/ n 1 (pl) hair allowed to grow on the sides of a man's face. 2 one of the long, stiff hairs growing near the mouth of a cat, rat, etc.

whis-key /'wɪskɪ US: 'hw-/ n [C, U] (pl ~s) US and Irish spelling of whisky.

whisky /'wɪskɪ US: 'hw-/ n [C, U] (pl -ies) (portion of) strong alcoholic drink distilled from malted grain (esp barley or rye).

whis-per /'wɪspə(r) US: 'hw-/ vi, vt 1 speak, say (something), using the breath but no sound from the vocal cords: ~ (a word) to a person. 2 tell privately or secretly: It is ~ed that he is heavily in debt. 3 (of leaves, the wind, etc) make soft sounds: The wind was ~ing in the trees. □ n [C] 1 whispering sound or speech: He answered in a ~. 2 whispered remark: There are ~s that the firm is going bankrupt.

whistle /'wɪsl US: 'hw-/ n [C] 1 (usually long) tuneful note made by forcing air or steam through a small opening (eg of the lips) or made by the wind; tuneful sound made by some kinds of bird (eg the blackbird): We heard the ~ of a steam-engine. 2 instrument for producing such sounds: the referee's ~ (in a football game). wet one's whistle, (informal) have a drink. □ vi, vt 1 make a whistle(1) (eg by blowing through rounded lips or by using a whistle(2): whistling at the girls). ⇨ wolf-whistle. whistle for sth, wish for it but not get it: I owe him £10, but he can ~ for it. 2 produce a tune in this way: ~ a tune. 3 make a signal (to) by this means: He ~d his dog back. 4 pass swiftly with a whistling sound: The bullets ~d past our ears.

Whit /wit/ US: hwit/ n = Whitsun.

white¹ /waɪt/ US: hwait/ adj (-r, -st) of the colour of fresh snow or common salt: as ~ as a sheet, very white. His hair has turned ~. Her face went ~, pale.

'white ant, termite.

'white-bait, small young fish eaten fried.

'white-collar adj non-manual: ~collar jobs/workers. ⇨ blue-collar.

'white coffee, with milk added.

'white elephant, useless, troublesome possession.

'white heat, temperature at which metals become white.

the 'White House, the official residence of the President of the US, Washington, DC.

'white lie, small lie considered to be harmless.

'white man, member of one of the races inhabiting, or from, Europe.

'white meat, poultry, veal, pork.

'white-wash, (a) mixture of powdered lime or chalk and water, used for coating walls, ceilings, etc. (b) (fig) means used to cover or hide errors, faults, etc. □ vt (a) put whitewash on (a wall, etc). (b) (fig) try to make (a person, his reputation, etc) appear blameless by covering up his faults, etc.

white² /waɪt/ US: hwait/ n 1 [U] white colour: dressed in ~. 2 [C, U] colourless part, eg round the yolk of an egg or the white part of the eyeball.

white-ness n [U]

Whit-sun /'hwɪtsn/ US: 'hw-/ n [C] (also 'Whit Sunday) 7th Sunday after Easter, the feast of the Pentecost.

whittle /'hwɪtl/ US: 'hw-/ vt, vi whittle sth away/down, (a) reduce the size of by cutting away slices, etc. (b) (fig) reduce gradually: Our membership is being slowly ~d away/down.

whiz /wɪz/ US: hwɪz/ vi (-zz-), n [U] (make the) sound of something rushing through the air: The bullets ~ed past.

whizz-kid /'wɪz kɪd/ n [C] (sf) bright, inventive young person with progressive ideas who achieves rapid success.

who /hu:/ pron (used as the subject, and only of persons; object form = whom /hu:m/) 1 W~ is that man/are those men? 2 (replaceable by whom formal style): W~ did you give it to?

W~(m) did you see? □ pron 1 (used in defining or restrictive clauses; that, sometimes replaces who): This is the man who/These are the men who wanted to see you. 2 (Whom is often replaced by that except after a preposition and it can often be omitted): That is the man (~) I met in London last year. That's the man (that) we were speaking about. I know the man you mean. 3 (used in non-defining clauses, not replaceable by that): My wife, ~ has been abroad recently, hopes to see you soon.

whoa /wəʊ/ US: hwəʊ/ int (used to stop a horse).

who'd /hu:d/ = who had; who would.

who-ever /hu:'evə(r)/ pron any person who; the person who: W~ says that is wrong.

whole /həʊl/ adj 1 not injured or damaged; unbroken: She swallowed the sweet ~. He ate the ~ loaf, all of it. 2 entire; complete: I waited for her a ~ half hour. 3 (as an adjective; used with a sing noun, preceded by the or a possessive) all that there is of; complete: I want to know the ~ truth about this matter. The ~ country (= Everyone in the country) was anxious for peace. 4 (as an adjective; used with a pl noun) not less or fewer than; nothing less than: It rained for three ~ days. □ n (sing with a, an or the) thing that is complete in itself; all that there is of something: Four quarters make a ~. He spent the ~ (of the) year in Pakistan. as a whole, considered together. on the whole, having considered all the facts (and decided); for the most part: On the ~ I agree with you.

'whole-hearted(ly) adj, adv with complete attention, commitment, etc.

'whole-meal, flour with all the parts of the grain.

'whole number, undivided quantity; number without fractions.

wholly /'həʊli/ adv completely; entirely: I wholly agree with you.

whole-sale /'həʊlseɪl/ n [U] (usually as an adjective) selling of goods (esp in large quantities) to shopkeepers, for sale to the public. □ adj, adv 1 on the wholesale plan: Our business is ~ only. 2 (fig) on a large scale: There was a ~ slaughter when the police opened fire.

'whole-saler, person who sells by wholesale.

whole-some /'həʊlsəm/ adj healthy; suggesting good health: ~ food/exercise; a ~ appearance.

who'll /hu:l/ = who shall; who will.

whom /hu:m/ ⇨ who.

whoop /hu:p/ n [C] 1 loud cry: ~s of joy. 2 gasping sound heard during a fit of coughing. □ vi, vt make a loud cry or yell: to ~ with joy.

'whoop-ing-cough, children's disease with gasping coughs and long, noisy indrawing of breath.

who're /hu:ə(r)/ = who are.

whore /'hɔ:(r)/ n [C] prostitute.

whorl /wɔ:l/ US: hwɔ:l/ n [C] 1 ring of leaves, petals, etc round a stem of a plant. 2 one turn of a spiral, eg as seen on the shell of a snail or on a fingerprint.

who's /hu:z/ = who is; who has.

whose /hu:z/ possessive pron (⇨ who, which) of whom; of which: W~ house is that? I wonder ~ house that is. Is that the man ~ house was burnt down last week? Members of the Fire Service, ~ work is often dangerous, are paid less than the Police Force.

who-so-ever /hu:səʊ'evə(r)/ pron (old use) = whoever.

who've /hu:v/ = who have.

why /waɪ US: hwaɪ/ adv for what reason; with what purpose: W~ was he late? Do you know ~ he was late? That's (the reason) ~ I left.

wick /wɪk/ n [C,U] 1 (length of) string through a candle. 2 (strip of) woven material by which oil is drawn up in some cigarette lighters, an oil-lamp, etc.

wicked /'wɪkɪd/ adj 1 (of a person, his acts) wrong; immoral: It was ~ of you to hit the old woman. 2 spiteful; intended to injure: a ~ blow. 3 mischievous: She gave me a ~ look.

wick-ed-ly adv

wick-ed-ness n [U]

wicker /'wɪkə(r)/ adj of twigs or canes woven together: a ~ chair.

wicket /'wɪkɪt/ n [C] (cricket) either of the two pairs of three sticks (stumps) (with cross-pieces called bails) at which the ball is bowled; area of grass between two wickets.

'wicket-keeper, player who stands behind the wicket to stop balls not struck by the batsman, to catch batsmen out, etc.

wide /waɪd/ adj (-r, -st) 1 measuring much from side to side or in comparison with length: a ~ river; a road twelve metres ~. 2 (fig) of great extent; comprehensive: a man with ~ interests, interested in many subjects; a ~ selection of new books; in the ~st sense of the word. 3 fully opened: Open your mouth ~. 4 far from what is aimed at or from a specific point: Your answer was ~ of the mark. ⇨ mark 1 (6). □ adv 1 far from the point aimed at: The arrow fell ~ of the mark. 2 fully: He was ~ awake. The window was ~ open. 3 over a large area: travel far and ~.

'wide-a'wake adj (fig) alert, watchful: a ~ awake young woman, one who realizes what is going on, etc and is not easily deceived.

'wide-spread adj (esp) found, distributed, over a large area.

wide-ly adv (a) at distant intervals: ~ly distributed. (b) to a large extent or degree: ~ly different. (c) over a large area; by many persons: It is ~ly known that...

widen /'waɪdn/ vt, vi make or become wide(r).

widow /'wɪdəʊ/ n [C] woman who has not married again after her husband's death.

wid-ower, man who has not married again after his wife's death.

'widow-hood /-hʊd/ n [U] state, time, of being a widow.

width /waɪθ/ n 1 [U] quality or state of being wide: a road of great ~. 2 [C] measurement from side to side: a ~ of 10 metres; 10 metres in ~. 3 [C] piece of material of a certain width: silk of various ~s.

wield /wɪld/ vt have and use: ~ an axe; ~ power.

wife /waɪf/ n [C] (pl wives /waɪvz/) married woman, esp in relation to her husband: Smith and his ~; the baker's ~.

wife-ly adj of, like, suitable for, a wife: ~ly duties.

wig /wɪɡ/ n [C] head-covering of false hair (as worn to hide baldness, and by actors, barristers and judges).

wiggle /'wɪɡl/ vt, vi (cause to) move with quick, short, side-to-side movements: The baby was wiggling its toes. Stop wiggling your hips and sit down. □ n [C] wiggling movement.

wig-gly adj wavy: a wiggly line.

wild /waɪld/ adj (-er, -est) 1 (of animals) not tamed or domesticated; living in natural conditions (eg lions, giraffes, wolves); (of plants) growing in natural conditions; not cultivated: ~ flowers/birds. 2 (of persons, tribes, etc) uncivilized; savage. 3 (of scenery, areas of land, etc) not lived in and perhaps dangerous: ~, mountainous areas. 4 stormy: You'd better stay indoors on a ~ night like this. 5 excited; passionate: There were sounds of ~ laughter. He was ~ with anger. drive sb wild, make him angry, mad. 6 be wild about sth/sb, (informal) have a strong desire for; be madly enthusiastic about: I'm still ~ about the Beatles. 7 disorderly; out of control: a state of ~ confusion; settle down after a ~ youth. run wild, be without control or discipline: They allow their children to run ~. 8 done or said without thought or consideration: a ~ guess. □ adv in a wild manner: shoot ~.

'wild 'boar, wild pig with tusks.

'wild 'cat, (a) wild European cat. (b) (fig) uncontrolled, hot-tempered woman.

'wild-cat adj (of a strike) sudden and unofficial: a ~cat 'strike.

'wild-fire, (in) spread like wild-fire, (of rumours, etc) very fast.

'wild-fowl, game birds.

'wild-'goose-chase, hopeless, foolish search, etc.

'wild-life, wild animals, birds, insects, etc collectively.

'Wild 'West, western US during the period of early settlement.

the wilds, uncultivated (and often uninhabited) areas: the ~s of Africa.

wild-ly adv in a wild manner: rush about ~ly; a ~ly (= greatly) exaggerated story.

wild-ness n [U]

wilde-beest /'wɪldəbi:st/ n [C] = gnu.

wil-der-ness /'wɪldənɪs/ n [C] (rarely pl) 1 wild uncultivated land. 2 empty expanse: a ~ of waters.

wile /waɪl/ n [C] (usually pl) trick: the ~s of the Devil. □ vt (rare) 1 trick: ~ him away. 2 (used for while): wiling away the time.

wil-ful (US also will-) /'wɪlfəl/ adj 1 (of a person) obstinate; determined to have one's own way: a ~ child. 2 intentional; for which compulsion, ignorance or accident is no excuse: ~ murder/negligence.

wil-fully /-fəli/ adv

will¹ /wɪl/ anomalous finite (often shortened to 'll in speech; negative will not or won't /wəʊnt/; pt conditional would /wəd strong form wʊd/ often shortened to 'd in speech; negative would not or wouldn't /'wʊdn't/) 1 (used to make the future tense): If today is Monday, tomorrow ~ be Tuesday. You'll be in time if you hurry. I wonder whether it ~ be ready. I wondered whether it would be ready. 2 (used with the first person (I, we) to express willingness, consent, an offer or a promise): All right, I'll come. We won't do it again. We said we would help them. 3 (used in questions, making requests, etc and often equivalent to please): W~ you come in? Pass the salt, ~ you? Please pass the salt. 4 (used to show insistence or inevitability; always stressed): He ~ have his own way, insists on this. Accidents ~ happen. They are to be expected from time to time. That's just what you ~ would say, what you might be expected to say. 5 (used in the negative to show refusal): He won't/wouldn't help me. 6 (used to show that something happens from time to time, that a person has the habit, that something is natural or to be expected): He'll sit there hour after hour looking at the traffic go by. 7 (used to show probability or likelihood): This'll be the book you're looking for, I think. 8 (Would is used with I, we to form conditional statements expressing the speaker's will or intention): We would have come if it hadn't rained.

will² /wɪl/ vt (pt would, no other forms used) (old use) 1 wish: Let him do what he ~. 2 (the subject I is often omitted) used to express wishes: Would (that) it were otherwise! 3 choose; desire: the place where he would be.

'would-be adj (used to show what is desired, aspired to, or intended): would-be authors.

will³ /wɪl/ vt, vi (pt, pp ~ed) 1 make use of one's mental powers in an attempt to do or get something: We cannot achieve success merely by ~ing it. 2 use the will⁴(1): W~ing and wishing are not the same thing. 3 intend unconditionally: It's as if fate ~ed us to be happy. 4 influence, control or compel, by exercising the will: Can you ~ yourself to keep awake? 5 leave (property, etc) (to a person) by means of a will⁴(6): He ~ed most of his money to charities.

will⁴ /wɪl/ n 1 the ~, mental power by which a person can direct his thoughts and actions, and influence those of others: the freedom of the ~. 2 [C] control exercised over oneself, one's desires, etc: He has no ~ of his own, is easily influenced by others. He has a strong/weak ~. 3 (sing only) determination; desire or purpose: The ~ to live helps a patient to recover. of one's own free will, without being required or compelled: You did it of your own free ~. 4 (sing with a, an) energy; enthusiasm: work with a ~. 5 [U] (used with a possessive) that which is desired or determined: He has always had his ~ (or, informal, his own way). □ ill-will. 6 [C] (also last ~ and testament) statement of how a person's property is to be owned after death.

will-ful adj (US = wilful).

will-ing /'wɪlɪŋ/ adj 1 ready, agreeing, to help, to do what is needed, asked, etc: ~ workers. 2 done, given, etc quickly, without hesitation: ~ obedience.

will-ing-ly adv

will-ing-ness n [C]: show ~ness to help.

wil-low /'wɪləʊ/ n [C] kinds of tree or shrub with thin, easily bent branches; [U] twigs of this tree used for weaving into baskets; its wood, used for making cricket bats, etc.

wilt /wɪlt/ vi, vt 1 (of plants, flowers) (cause to) droop, lose freshness (through dryness). 2 (fig) (of persons) lose energy: ~ in the hot weather.

wily /'waɪli/ adj (-ier, -iest) cunning (the usual word).

win /wɪn/ vi, vt (pt, pp won /wʌn/) (-nn-) 1 get as the result of hard work, perseverance, struggle, competition, gambling, etc: ~ a race/a battle/a scholarship/second prize/fame and fortune. win hands down, (informal) succeed easily. 2 persuade (a person) by argument; gain the favour of: We won him over to our view. 3 reach by effort: ~ the summit/the shore. □ n [C] success in a game, competition, etc: Our team has had five ~s this summer.

win-ner, person, animal, thing, that wins.

win-ning adj (a) that wins: the ~ing horse. (b) producing confidence and friendship: a ~ing smile.

win-nings /'wɪnɪŋz/ n pl money won in betting, gambling, etc.

wince /wɪns/ vt show bodily or mental pain or distress (by a movement, sound or by loss of control): He ~ed at the insult. □ n [C] wincing movement: without a ~.

winch /wɪntʃ/ n [C] machine for hoisting or pulling heavy objects. □ vt move by using a winch.

wind¹ /wɪnd/ n 1 [C,U] (often sing with the; with much, little, etc when the reference is to degree or force; with a, an or in pl when the reference is to the kind of wind) air in motion as the result of natural forces: a north ~, blow- ing from the north. The ~ blew my hat off. put the wind up sb, (sl) cause him to feel frightened. see/find out how the wind blows, what people are thinking, what is likely to happen. take the wind out of sb's sails, (a) prevent him from doing or saying something by doing it or saying it before him. (b) take away his advantage suddenly. 2 (pl) the cardinal points: The house stands on a hilltop, exposed to the four ~s. 3 [U] breath needed for running or continuous exercise: The runner soon lost his ~, became out of breath. ⇨ second wind. 4 [U] scent carried by the wind (showing where something is). get wind of, (fig) hear a rumour of, begin to suspect. 5 [U] empty words; meaningless or useless talk: Don't listen to the politicians—they're all ~. 6 [U] gas formed in the bowels and causing discomfort: The baby is suffering from ~. break wind, expel wind from the bowels. 7 (sing with the) orchestral wind-instruments: the 'wood~, eg flutes, oboes.

'wind-bag, (informal) person who talks a lot but says nothing important.

'wind-break, hedge, fence, line of trees, etc to give protection from the wind.

'wind-cheater, jacket designed to give protection against the wind.

'wind-fall, (a) fruit (eg an apple) blown off a tree by the wind. (b) (fig) unexpected piece of good fortune, esp money coming to somebody.

'wind-instrument, musical instrument in which sound is produced by a current of air (eg an organ, a flute, a cornet).

'wind-mill, mill worked by the action of the wind on sails (2) which revolve.

'wind-pipe, passage for air from the throat to the lungs.

'wind-screen (US = 'wind-shield), screen of glass in front of a motor-vehicle, etc.

'wind-screen-wiper, apparatus for wiping rain from a windscreen.

'wind-swept adj exposed to (and blown bare by) strong winds: a ~swept hillside.

'wind-tunnel, structure through which air is forced (at controlled speeds) to study its effects on (models of) aircraft, etc.

wind-less adj without wind: a ~less day.

wind-ward /-wəd/ adj, adv (side) in the direction from which the wind blows. □ n [U] wind-ward side.

windy adj (-ier, -iest) with a lot of wind: a ~y day; ~y weather.

wind-ily /-əli/ adv

windiness n [U]

wind² /wɪnd/ vt (from wind¹) (pt, pp ~ed /'wɪndɪd/) 1 know the presence of by smell: The hounds ~ed the fox. 2 exhaust the wind(3) of: He was quite ~ed by the long climb/by running to catch the bus.

wind³ /waɪnd/ vi, vt (pt, pp wound /waʊnd/) 1 go, (cause to) move, in a curving, spiral, or twisting manner: The river ~s (its way) to the sea. 2 twist (string, thread, etc) into a ball, or round or on to something: ~ (up) wool into a ball. 3 fold or wrap closely (round): ~ a shawl round a baby. She wound her arms round the child. 4 turn (a handle, eg of a winch); raise (something) by doing this: ~ a handle; ~ up a bucket from a well. 5 tighten the spring of (a watch or clock), raise the weights that operate a clock: If you forget to ~ (up) your watch it will stop. 6 be wound up (to), be (emotionally) excited: He was wound up to a high pitch of excitement. ⇨ unwind. 7 come or bring to an end: It's time for him to ~ up his speech. They wound up the evening by singing some folk-songs. □ n [C] single turn in winding string, winding up a clock, etc.

wind-lass /'wɪndləs/ n [C] machine for pulling or lifting things (eg water from a well) by means of a rope or chain which is wound round an axle.

win-dow /'wɪndəʊ/ n [C] opening (usually covered with glass) in a wall or roof of a building, the side of a ship, carriage, car, etc to let in light and air: look out of the ~; break a ~.

'window-box, box fixed to a window-sill for plants.

'window-dresser, person whose profession is designing shop-window displays.

'window-dressing, (esp) (fig) giving a deliberately false or exaggerated image to hid the unpleasant truth.

'window-pane, pane of glass for or in a window.

'window-shopping, looking at goods displayed in shop-windows.

'window-sill, ⇨ sill.

windy /'wɪndi/ ⇨ *wind*¹.

wine /waɪn/ n 1 [U] alcoholic drink made from the fermented juice of grapes (and other fruit, vegetables): a bottle/glass of ~. 2 (pl) different kinds of wine: French ~s. □ vt (esp) wine and dine sb, entertain to a meal: We were ~d and dined at the firm's expense.

'wine-glass, glass for drinking wine.

wing /wɪŋ/ n [C] 1 either of the two organs of a bird by which it flies; one of the similar organs of an insect; one of the surfaces by which an aircraft is supported in the air. clip a person's wings, limit his movements, power, expenditure, etc. take sb under one's wing, take him under one's protection; give him care and guidance. 2 part of a building, etc which projects or is extended from one of its sides: add a new ~ to a hospital. 3 (GB) part of the body of a motor-vehicle covering the wheel (US = fender). 4 either of the flanks of an army or fleet; unit placed to guard a flank. 5 those members of a political party holding more extreme views than those of the majority: the left/right ~. 6 (pl) unseen areas to the right and left of the stage of a theatre. 7 on the wing, in flight. take wing, start flying. 8 something like a wing in appearance or position, eg certain types of screw, seeds (esp of the maple and sycamore). 9 (also winger) (football, hockey) forward whose place is either side of the centre. □ vt, vi 1 fly: The planes ~ed (their way) over the Alps. 2 injure (a bird) in flight. 3 (informal) injure (a person) in the arm.

'wing-chair, one with angled extensions on a high back.

wing-collar, upright collar with corners turned down.

wing-commander, officer in the Royal Air Force.

'wing-span/-spread, measurement across wings when extended.

'wing-tip, outer edge of a wing.

wink /wɪŋk/ vi, vt 1 wink (at), close and open (an eye); get rid of (tears) by doing this: She ~ed at me, eg as a private signal of some kind. 2 (of a star, light, etc) shine or flash at very short intervals: A lighthouse was ~ing in the far distance. □ n [C] 1 act of winking, esp as a signal or hint. 2 very short time: I didn't sleep a ~/didn't have a ~ of sleep, didn't sleep at all. have forty winks, a short sleep (esp during the day).

winkle /'wɪŋkl/ n [C] sea-snail used as food. □ vt extract, force or pull out.

win-ner, win-ning ⇨ win.

win-now /'wɪnəʊ/ vi use a stream of air to separate dry outer coverings from (grain).

win-some /'wɪnsəm/ adj (formal) (of a person, his appearance) attractive; pleasing.

win-ter /'wɪntə(r)/ n [C] season between autumn and spring (November or December to February in the northern hemisphere): a cold ~; have snow in ~; ~ sports, eg ice-skating, skiing. □ vi pass the winter: ~ in the south.

win-tery, win-try /'wɪntri/ adj of or like winter: a ~y sky/day.

wipe¹ /waɪp/ n [C] 1 act of wiping. 2 something used for wiping (eg for cleaning wounds).

wipe² /waɪp/ vt, vi 1 clean or dry (something) by rubbing with a cloth, paper, the hands, etc: ~ one's hands on a towel; ~ plates dry. 2 (uses with adverbial particles and prepositions):

wipe sth away, remove (eg tears) by wiping.

wipe sth off, (a) remove by wiping: ~ off a drawing from the blackboard. (b) get rid of: ~ off a debt.

wipe sb out, (sl) murder him. wipe sth out, (a) clean the inside of: ~ out a jug. (b) get rid of; remove: ~ out an insult (esp by revenge). (c) destroy completely: a disease that almost ~ed out the population.

wipe sth up, (a) wipe crockery, cutlery, etc dry. (b) take up (liquid, etc) by wiping: ~ up spilt milk; ~ up a mess.

wire /'waɪə(r)/ n 1 [C,U] (piece or length of) metal in the form of a thread: 'telephone ~ (s); ~ netting, made by weaving wire (used for fences, fruit cages, etc). ⇨ barbed wire. 2 [C] (informal, esp US) = telegram: send off a ~. □ vt, vi 1 fasten with wire: ~ two things together. 2 install electrical circuits (in a building): Has the house been ~d for electricity yet? 3 (informal, esp US) telegraph: He ~d me that he would be delayed.

'wire-cutters, tool for cutting wire.

'wire-haired adj with stiff, wiry hair.

'wire-'wool, pad of fine wire for cleaning with.

wir-ing, (esp) system of wires for electric current.

wiry adj (-ier, -iest) (a) like wire. (b) (of persons) lean and with strong sinews.

wire-less /'waɪələs/ adj, n [C] (old use) = radio.

wis-dom /'wɪzdəm/ n [U] 1 quality of being wise. 2 wise thoughts, sayings, etc: the ~ of the ancients/our ancestors.

'wisdom-tooth, back tooth, usually coming through after 20 years of age.

wise /waɪz/ adj (-r, -st) having or showing experience, knowledge, good judgement, etc: ~ men/acts. He was ~ enough not to drive when he was feeling ill. be none the wiser, be no better informed: After the lecture he was none the ~, knew no more than before.

wise-ly adv

wish /wɪʃ/ vt, vi 1 have a desire that is possible or impossible: I ~ I knew what was happening. I ~ I were rich. 2 have as a desire: She ~ed herself home (= wished that she was at home) again. 3 wish sb well/ill, hope that he may have good/ill fortune, etc: He ~es me well. I ~ nobody ill. 4 say that one hopes for: I ~ you a pleasant journey. 5 express as a greeting: ~ him good morning/goodbye. 6 wish for, have a strong desire for (esp something unlikely to be obtained or achieved, or that can be obtained only by good fortune or in exceptional circumstances): How he ~ed for an opportunity to go abroad! What more can you ~ for? 7 express a desire: Doing is better than ~ing. 8 wish sb/sth on sb, (informal) transfer to a person (esp with the idea of getting rid of him or it): I wouldn't ~ my father-in-law on anyone, (suggesting that he is unpleasant). □ n 1 [C,U] desire; longing: He ignored his father's ~es. 2 [C] that which is wished for: She got her ~.

wish-ful /-fl/ having or expressing a wish; desiring. wishful thinking, thinking or believing that something is true because one wishes it were true.

wish-fully /-fəli/ adv

wisp /wɪsp/ n [C] small bunch, amount: a ~ of straw/hair/smoke.

wispy adj (-ier, -iest) small, vague, slight.

wist-ful /'wɪstfəl/ adj sad and longing; having, showing disappointment: a ~ expression.

wist-fully /-fəli/ adv in a wistful manner: She looked ~ly at the photographs of herself when she was young and beautiful.

wit /wɪt/ n 1 (sing or pl) intelligence; understanding; quickness of mind: He hadn't the ~s/ hadn't ~ enough to realize what to do in the emergency. at one's wit's end, not knowing what to do or say because of worry, etc. ⇨ also scare. have/keep one's wits about one, be alert and ready to act. live by one's wits, live by clever, not always honest, methods. 2 [U] clever and humorous expression of ideas; liveliness of spirit: His writings sparkle with ~. 3 [C] person noted for his wit (2).

wit-tily /-əli/ adv

wit-ti-cism /'wɪtɪsɪzəm/ n [C] witty remark.

wit-less adj stupid.

witty adj (-ier, -iest) full of humour: a ~ty girl/remark.

witch /wɪtʃ/ n [C] 1 woman said to use magic, esp for evil purposes. 2 (fig) fascinating or persuasive woman.

'witch-craft, use of magic.

'witch-doctor man believed to be able to cure disease by magic.

'witch-hunt, (modern informal) search and persecution (eg of persons said to be disloyal to the state).

with /wɪð/ prep 1 (equivalent to constructions with have) having; carrying; characterized by: a coat ~ two pockets; a girl ~ blue eyes. 2 (used to show what is used for filling, covering, etc): Fill the box ~ sand. The hills were covered ~ snow. 3 (used to show the means or method): write ~ a pen; carry it ~ both hands; see it ~ your own eyes; ~ your help. 4 (used to show accompaniment or relationship): live ~ your parents; put one thing ~ others. Is there anyone ~ you or are you alone? in with, mixed up with: She's in ~ the wrong crowd, eg of a girl whose companions are a bad influence. 5 (used to show antagonism, opposition): fight/argue/struggle/quarrel ~ them. fall out with, ⇨ fall² (14). have it out with sb, ⇨ have⁴ (9). 6 (used to show cause) because of; owing to: trembling ~ fear; shaking ~ cold. 7 (used to show manner): do it ~ an effort/~ pleasure; standing ~ his hands in his pockets; fight ~ courage, courageously. 8 in the same way or direction as; at the same time as: A tree's shadow moves ~ the sun. Do you rise ~ the sun, ie at dawn? 9 (used to show care, charge or possession): Leave the child ~ (= in the care of) its aunt. I have no money ~ me. 10 in regard to; concerning: be patient ~ them; sympathize ~ her. What do you want ~ me? We can't do anything/can do nothing ~ him, cannot influence, control, make use of, him. 11 (used to show separation): He has broken ~ his best friend. 12 (used to show agreement, harmony): He who is not ~ me (= on my side) is against me. I (dis)agree ~ you. be/get ~with it, (sl) become aware of what is popular and up to date: (as an adjective) ~it clothes. 13 in spite of: W ~ all her faults he still liked her.

with-draw /wɪð'drɔː/ vt, vi (pt -drew /-druː/, pp -drawn /-drɔːn/) 1 pull or draw back; take out or away: ~ money from the Bank. The workers threatened to ~ their labour, to go on strike. 2 take back (a statement, an accusation, an offer): He refused to ~ (the remark), eg after calling a person a liar. 3 (cause to) move back or away: ~ troops from an exposed position; ~ from society.

with-drawal /-əl/ n [U] withdrawing or being withdrawn; [C] instance of this.

with-drawn adj (of persons, their looks) shy; reserved and quiet.

with-er /'wɪðə(r)/ vt, vi 1 (cause to) become dry, faded or dead: The hot summer ~ed (up) the grass. Her hopes ~ed (away). 2 cause (a person) to be covered with shame or confusion: She gave him a ~ing look.

with-er-ing-ly /'wɪðərɪŋli/ adv with-ers /'wɪðəz/ n pl highest part of the back of a horse, etc between the shoulder-blades.

with-hold /wɪð'həʊld/ vt (pt, pp -held /-held/) keep back; refuse to give: He tried to ~ the truth from us. I shall ~ my consent.

with-in /wɪð'ɪn/ prep inside; not beyond: remain ~ call/reach, near by; live ~ one's income, not spend more than one earns; ~ an hour, in less than an hour; ~ a mile of the station.

with-out /wɪð'aʊt/ prep 1 not having; not with; free from: You can't buy things ~ money. He was working ~ any hope of reward. with-out doubt, admittedly; certainly. without fail, certainly. do without, ⇨ do² (14). 2 (uses before gerunds): He can't speak German ~ making mistakes, He speaks German incorrectly. it/that goes without saying, is too obvious, too well known, etc to need saying. adv (old use) to, at, or on, the outside.

with-stand /wɪð'stænd/ vt (pt, pp -stood /-stʊd/) resist, hold out against, (pressure, attack): ~ a siege; shoes that will ~ hard wear.

wit-less /'wɪtlɪs/ adj ⇨ wit¹.

wit-ness /'wɪtnɪs/ n [C] 1 (often 'eye-~) person who was actually present at an event and should, for this reason, be able to describe it; person who gives evidence under oath in a law court. 2 [U] evidence; testimony; what is said about a person, an event, etc: give ~ on behalf of an accused person at his trial. bear wit-ness to sth, be evidence of: acts that bear ~ to her courage. 3 person who adds his own signature to a document to testify that another person's signature on it is genuine. 4 person or thing that is a sign or proof: My clothes are a ~ to my poverty. □ vt, vi 1 be present at and see: ~ an accident. 2 give evidence (in a law court): ~ (= testify) to the truth of a statement. 3 be a witness (3): ~ a signature. 4 give evidence of; show: Her pale face ~ed the pain she felt.

'witness-box, enclosure in a law court in which a witness stands while giving evidence.

wit-ti-cism /'wɪtɪsɪzəm/ ⇨ *wit*¹.

wit-ting-ly /'wɪtɪŋli/ adv knowingly; intentionally.

wives /waɪvz/ pl of wife.

wiz-ard /'wɪzəd/ n [C] 1 magician. 2 person with amazing abilities: a financial ~, person able to make money with amazing ease.

wiz-ened /'wɪznd/ adj dried up, shrivelled: a ~ tree/apple.

wobble /'wɒbl/ vi, vt 1 (cause to) move unsteadily from side to side: Jellies ~. 2 (fig) be uncertain (in opinions, in making decisions, etc): I ~ed between two opinions.

wob-bly /'wɒbli/ adj (-ier, -iest) not firm or steady: He's still a little wobbly on his legs after his long illness.

woe /wəʊ/ n (poetic) 1 [U] sorrow; grief; distress: a tale of ~. 2 (pl) causes of woe; troubles: poverty, illness and other ~s.

woe-ful /-fl/ adj sorrowful; causing woe: ~ful ignorance.

woe-fully /-fəli/ adv woke, woken ⇨ *wake*¹.

wolf /wɒlf/ n [C] (pl wolves /wʊlvz/) wild, flesh-eating animal of the dog family. cry wolf, raise false alarms. □ vt eat quickly and greedily: ~ down one's dinner.

'wolf-cub, (a) young wolf. (b) (formerly) junior scout.

'wolf-whistle, whistle or other sound (eg made by a man in the street) expressing admiration of a woman's beauty. □ vt make this sound.

woman /'wʊmən/ n (pl women /'wɪmɪn/) 1 adult female human being: men, women and children; a single (= unmarried) ~; a ~ of the world, one with experience of society, not young and innocent. 2 (used as an adjective): a ~ driver/doctor. 3 (without a, an or the) the female sex; any woman: W ~ is as capable as man. 4 (sing with the) feminine emotions: There is something of the ~ in his character. 5 [C] man with a weak or indecisive character: He behaves like an old ~.

'woman-hood /-hʊd/, (a) (collective) women in general. (b) the state of being a woman: She had now grown to/reached ~hood.

woman-ize (also -ise) /-aɪz/ vi try to get a woman's friendship (esp for casual relationships).

,woman-'kind, women in general.

women-folk /'wɪmɪnfəʊk/ n pl women, esp of one's own family.

,women's 'lib, ⇨ lib.

womb /wʊm/ n [C] (anat) organ in a female mammal in which offspring is carried and nourished while developing before birth.

wom-bat /'wɒmbæt/ n [C] Australian animal (looking like a small bear), the female of which has a pouch for its young.

won /wʌn/ ⇨ win.

won-der /'wʌndə(r)/ n 1 [U] feeling caused by something unusual, surprising or that cannot be explained; surprise combined with admiration, etc: They were filled with ~. no/little/small wonder, it is not surprising: No ~ you were so late. 2 [C] thing or event that causes such feeling: Walking on the moon is one of the ~s of our times. work wonders, work with remarkable results. It is a wonder (that), It is surprising that: It's a ~ (that) you didn't lose your way in the dark. □ vi, vt 1 be filled with wonder (1); feel surprised: I don't ~ at her refusing to marry him. 2 feel curiosity; think: I was ~ing about that. I was just ~ing. I ~ who he is.

'won-der-land, (a) fairyland. (b) country that is remarkable in some way (eg because of many natural resources).

won-der-ful /-fl/ adj causing wonder; surprising: We've had ~ful weather.

won-der-fully /-fəli/ adv won-der-ment n [U] (formal) = surprise.

wonky /'wɒŋki/ adj (GB sl) unsteady; unreliable: a ~ chair, one that might break.

wont /wəʊnt/ US: wɒnt/ n (sing only) (dated) what a person is accustomed to doing: He went to bed much earlier than was his ~, than he usually did.

won't /wəʊnt/ = will not.

woo /wu:/ vt (pt, pp ~ed) 1 (old use) = court² (1). 2 (modern use) try to win (fame, success): ~ voters.

wooer, person who woos.

wood /wʊd/ n 1 [U] (with a, an, and pl only when meaning kind, sort, variety) hard solid substance of a tree below the bark: Tables are usually made of ~. Put some more ~ on the fire. Teak is a hard (kind of) ~ and pine is a soft (kind of) ~. ⇨ touch² (1). 2 [C] (often pl) area of land covered with growing trees (not so extensive as a forest): a house in the middle of a ~; go for a walk in the ~(s). out of the wood, (fig) free from troubles or difficulties: We're not yet out of the ~, still have difficulties to face. be unable to see the wood for the trees, (fig) be unable to get a clear view of the whole because of too many details. 3 (sing with the) in/from the wood, the cask or barrel: wine in the ~.

'wood-cut, print from a design, drawing, picture, etc cut on a block of wood.

'wood-cutter, man who cuts down trees.

'wood-land, land covered with trees.

'wood-man, forester; woodcutter.

'wood-pecker, kinds of bird that cling to the bark of trees and tap or peck it to find insects.

'wood-wind, wind-instrument made of wood.

'wood-work, (a) things made of wood, esp parts of a building. (b) carpentry.

'wood-worm, (damage from) wood-eating larva.

wooded adj covered with trees: a thickly ~ed country.

wooden /'wʊdn/ adj (a) made of wood: a ~en leg. (b) stiff, clumsy, awkward (as if made of wood): a ~en (= inexpressive) smile.

woody adj (-ier, -iest) (a) wooded: a ~y hillside. (b) of or like wood: the ~y stems of a plant.

wooler /'wʊ:ə(r)/ n ⇨ woo.

woof /wʊf/ n [C] cry made by a dog.

wool /wʊl/ n [U] 1 soft hair of sheep, goats and some other animals; thread, yarn, cloth, clothing, made from this. pull the wool over sb's eyes, deceive or trick him. 2 material similar in appearance or texture to wool: cotton-~, raw cotton pad.

wool-len (US = woolen) /'wʊlən/ adj made of wool: ~len cloth/blankets.

wool-ens (US = wool-ens) n pl woollen cloth, clothes, blankets, etc.

woolly (US also wooly) /'wʊli/ adj (-ier, -iest) (a) covered with, made of, looking like, wool: ~ly hair; a ~ly coat. (b) (fig) (of the mind, ideas, decisions) confused; not clear. □ n [C] (pl -ies) (informal) woollen clothes, esp a sweater: Put an extra ~ly on when you go out.

word /wɜ:d/ n [C] 1 sound or combination of sounds (or the written or printed symbols) forming a unit of the grammar or vocabulary of a language: When we speak we put our thoughts into ~s. I have no ~s to (= cannot adequately) express my gratitude. a play on words, a pun. word for word, literally. in a/one word, briefly; to sum up. by word of mouth, in spoken, not written, words. 2 [C] something said; remark or statement: He didn't say a ~ about it. I don't believe a ~ of the story. eat one's words, admit that one was wrong. have a word with sb, speak to him. have words with sb, quarrel. have the last word, make the final remark in an argument. put words into sb's mouth, (a) tell him what to say. (b) suggest falsely that he has said something. say a few words, make a short speech. say/put in a good word (for sb), speak on his behalf (to support or defend). say the word, give the order. take the words out of sb's mouth, say what he was about to say. the last word (in sth), the latest, most up-to-date, etc in: Our tours of Greece are the last ~ in comfort and convenience. 3 (sing, without the) news; information: Please send me ~ of your safe arrival. W~ came that I was wanted at the office. 4 (sing only) promise; assurance. be as good as one's word, do what one promises. give sb one's word (that...), promise: The goods will arrive on time—I give you my ~. take sb's word for it, believe what he says: I have no proof, but you may take my ~ for it. take sb at his word, believe that he is telling the truth, that he will keep a promise. 5 (sing only) command; order; spoken signal: The officer gave the ~ to fire. His ~ is law, His orders must be obeyed. ⇨ password. 6 (in the Christian religion) the Scriptures, esp the Gospel. □ vt express in words: a well-~ed letter.

'word-division, dividing of the spelling of a word, eg at the end of a line of writing. (Note: correct places for word-division are shown by (-) in this dictionary.)

'word-perfect adj knowing, able to repeat, a poem, a part in a play, etc without reading.

'word-power, ability to express oneself well.

'word-splitting, making of distinctions of meaning, etc that are (too) subtle.

word-ing n (sing only) way in which something is expressed; choice of words to express meaning: A different ~ing might make the meaning clearer.

wordy adj (-ier, -iest) using, expressed in, a large number of words, esp unnecessary words: a ~y telegram.

wore /wɜ:(r)/ pt of wear².

work /wɜ:k/ n 1 [U] use of bodily or mental powers with the purpose of doing or making something (esp contrasted with play or recreation): Are you fond of hard ~? The ~ of building the new garage took six months. It was terribly hard ~ getting to the top of the mountain. This is the ~ of an enemy, An enemy has done this. set/get to work (on sth/to do sth), begin; make a start. at work (on sth), busy or occupied with. all in the day's work, (used to show that something is) normal; what is usual or to be expected. 2 [U] what a person does to earn a living; employment: What time do you get to (your) ~ every day? The men were on their way to ~. in/out of work, employed/unemployed at work, at one's place of employment: She's at ~ now, but she'll be back at six. 3 [U] something to be done, not necessarily connected with a trade or occupation, not necessarily for payment: I always find plenty of ~ that needs doing in my garden. 4 [U] things needed or used for work: She took her ~ (eg her sewing materials) into the garden. 5 [U] that which is produced by work: The ~ of famous sculptors may be seen in museums. ⇨ stonework, woodwork. 6 (pl; also sing with a) product of the intellect or the imagination: the ~s of Shakespeare; the ~s of Beethoven. 7 [U] use of energy supplied by electricity, etc: Many machines now do the ~ of men. 8 (pl, and used with a pl verb) moving parts of a machine: the ~s of a clock or watch. There's something wrong with the ~s. 9 (pl in form but often treated as a sing noun) building(s) where industrial or manufacturing processes are carried on: a 'gas-~s; an 'iron-~s; a 'brick-~s.

work of art, (excellent) painting, piece of sculpture, etc.

work-bench, table at which a mechanic does his work.

work-book, book with questions to be answered (in empty spaces provided), for notes, etc.

work-day, day which is not a Sunday or a holiday.

work force, total number of men working in a factory, etc.

work-in, occasion when workers continue to work in a factory to protest against a proposed closure of the factory, etc.

work-man, (a) man who earns a living by physical labour or at machines, etc. (b) person who works in a specified way: a skilled ~man.

work-man-like adj characteristic of a good workman.

work-man-ship /-mənʃɪp/, quality as seen in something made: articles of poor/excellent ~manship.

work-out, (a) practice, trial, test. (b) period of exercise (esp by athletes).

work-room, room in which work is done.

work-shop, room or building in which things (esp machines) are made or repaired.

work-shy adj not liking to work; lazy.

work-study, study of how work may be done efficiently and economically.

work-table, (esp) table with drawers for sewing materials, etc.

work² /wɜ:k/ vi, vt (pt, pp ~ed) ⇨ wrought. (For uses with adverbial particles and prepositions, ⇨ 9 below.) 1 do work; engage in physical or mental activity: I've been ~ing hard all day. The men in this factory ~ 40 hours a week. work to rule, ⇨ rule(1). 2 (of a machine, apparatus, bodily organ, plan, method, etc) do what it is designed to do; have the desired result: The lift/telephone is not ~ing. This machine ~s by electricity. My brain doesn't seem to be ~ing well today. Will this new plan/method ~? 3 cause to work; set in motion: He ~s his wife/himself too hard. It ~s by electricity. 4 produce or obtain as the result of effort: ~ wonders. work one's way (through college, etc), have a paid job, while studying to meet costs: He's ~ing his way through medical school. work one's passage, pay for a journey on a ship by work: He ~ed his passage to New York. 5 operate; control; manage: ~ a mine. 6 (cause to) move into, reach, a new state or position, usually by degrees or with a succession of small movements: Your shirt has ~ed out, has come out from above the top of your trousers. One of the screws has ~ed loose. 7 make or shape by hammering, mixing, squeezing, pressure, etc: ~ clay, (when making pottery); ~ dough, (when making bread). 8 make by sewing; embroider: ~ a design on a cushion-cover.

9 (special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions):

work away (at sth), continue to work: He's been ~ing away at this job since breakfast.

work sth in/into, introduce; find a place for: Can't you ~ in a few jokes? ~ a few jokes into your lecture?

work sth off, get rid of; dispose of; deal with: ~ off extra energy/excess weight.

work on sb/sth, excite, influence: The information about the treatment of prisoners ~ed on the consciences of the United Nations representatives. ⇨ also 1 above: ~ on a novel.

work out, (a) be capable of being solved: This sum/problem will not ~ out. (b) be, turn out, in the end: The situation ~ed out quite well. (c) ⇨ 6 above. (d) exercise, train (for a contest): The champion is ~ing out in the gym this morning. Hence, work-out n [C] period, form, of training. work sth out, (a) calculate: I've ~ed out your share of the expenses at £5. (b) get results for: I can't ~ out these algebra problems. (c) devise; invent: They've ~ed out a method of sending a spacecraft to Mars. (d) solve: He was ~ing out some coded messages. (e) (modern use) solve problems in a relationship, marriage: We can ~ it out, solve our problems together. (f) (usually passive) exhaust by using, operating, etc: That silver-mine is now ~ed out, has no more ore.

work up to sth, advance steadily to a high level: The orchestra was ~ing up to a crescendo. work sth up, excite; stir up: ~ up the feelings of an audience. work sb/oneself up (into), encourage to a high point (of excitement, etc): He ~ed himself/everyone up into a state of hysteria.

work upon sb/sth, ⇨ work on sb/sth.

work-able /'wɜ:kəbl/ adj that can be worked; that will work; practicable: Is the proposed scheme ~, feasible?

worker /'wɜ:kə(r)/ n [C] person who works.

worker ant/bee, undeveloped female kind. ⇨ drone.

work-ing /'wɜ:kɪŋ/ n 1 [C] mine, quarry, etc or part of it, which is being, or has been, worked: The boys went exploring in some disused ~s. 2 [C] the way something works, or the result of this: the ~s of the human mind. 3 (as an adjective) a working majority, one that is sufficient to be sure of winning when voting: The Government has a ~ majority. the working day. (a) workday (as opposed to a day of rest). (b) number of hours worked on a normal day: a ~ day of eight hours. in working order, able to function properly, do what is required; going smoothly: put a machine in ~ order. Everything is in ~ order. □ adj engaged in work.

the working classes, those engaged in manual work. Hence, 'working-class adj 'working party, (esp) committee appointed to secure efficiency in an industry, or one appointed (eg by a government department) to study and report on a question.

world /wɜ:ld/ n [C] 1 the earth, its countries and people; heavenly body that may look like it: make a journey round the ~. The whole ~/All the ~ knows... It is widely or generally known... 2 (as an adjective) affecting, used by, intended for, extending over, the world: We've had two ~ wars in this century. 3 time, state or scene of existence: this ~ and the next, life on earth and existence after death. man of the world, ⇨ man¹(1). 4 the universe; everything: Is this the best of all possible ~s? in the world, in existence: Nothing in the ~ would please me more. for (all) the world, for any reason: I wouldn't hurt her feelings for the ~. think the world of sb, think very highly of him. be/feel on top of the world, elated (because of success, good health, etc). sth out of this world, something magnificent. a world of sth, a great number or quantity of; very much/many: My holiday did me a ~ of good. There's often a ~ of difference between promise and achievement. 5 the material things and occupations of life (contrasted with the spiritual). make the best of both worlds, the material and spiritual. 6 human affairs; active life: know/see the ~, have experience of life; a man of the ~, person who has had a great experience of life. 7 persons, institutions, etc connected with a special social class or special interests: the ~ of sport/art; the racing/scientific ~. 8 average society, fashionable society, their opinions, customs, etc: What will the ~ say? What will people say? World Cup, international football competition every four years. world-famous adj known throughout the world. world-power, nation influencing international politics. world-weary adj tired of life. world-wide, affecting, throughout, the world. world-ly adj (a) material: my ~ly goods, my pursuit. (b) of the affairs of this life (esp the pursuit of pleasure, contrasted with spiritual). (c) concerned with, interested in, material things.

world-li-ness n [U] worm /wɜ:m/ n [C] 1 kinds of small, boneless, limbless, creeping creature. ⇨ earthworm, hookworm, tapeworm. 2 (used in compounds) name for larvae, insects, etc: 'silk~; 'glow~. 3 (fig) insignificant or contemptible person. □ vt 1 move slowly, or by patience, or with difficulty: He ~ed himself/his way through the undergrowth. He ~ed himself into her confidence. worm sth out of sb, extract (by persistent questioning, etc): He ~ed the secret out of me. 2 rid of parasitic worms: I think we'd better ~ the cat.

worn /wɔ:n/ pp of wear².

worri-some /'wɒrɪsəm/ US: 'wɔ:-/ adj causing worry.

worry /'wɒrɪ/ US: 'wɒrɪ/ vt, vi (pt, pp -ied) 1 trouble; give (a person, oneself) no peace of mind; cause anxiety or discomfort to: The noise of the traffic worried her. What's ~ing you? He'll ~ himself to death, make himself ill by worrying. 2 be anxious, uneasy, troubled: You have no cause to ~. What's the use of ~ing? 3 (esp of dogs) seize with the teeth and shake: The dog was ~ing the rat. □ n (pl -ies) 1 [U] condition of being troubled: show signs of ~. 2 [C] (usually pl) something that worries; cause of anxiety: Is your life full of worries? Money has always been a ~ to her.

wor-ried adj troubled; anxious: a worried look.

worry-ing adj full of, causing, worry: have a ~ing time. Her lateness is ~ing.

worse /wɜ:s/ adj (⇨ bad, worst) 1 more bad; more evil: Your work is bad but mine is much ~. He escaped with nothing ~ than a broken arm. the worse for wear, (a) badly worn as the result of long wear. (b) (fig) exhausted: He looks the ~ for wear after only a year in office. 2 (in to) less good health or condition or circumstances: The doctor says she is much ~ today. □ adv (⇨ badly, worst) 1 more badly: He is behaving ~ than ever. He has been taken ~, has become more seriously ill. none the worse, not less: I like a man none the ~ for being outspoken. worse off, in worse circumstances; poorer. 2 (used to intensify): It's raining ~ (= more heavily) than ever. She hates me ~ (= more strongly) than before. □ n worse thing(s): I have ~ to tell. The first news was bad, but ~ followed.

worsen /'wɜ:sn/ vt, vi make, become, worse.

wor-ship /'wɜ:ʃɪp/ n [U] 1 reverence and respect paid to God: places of ~, churches and chapels. 2 admiration and respect shown to or felt for a person or thing: the ~ of success; 'hero ~. □ vt, vi (-pp; US -p-) give worship to: ~ God.

wor-ship-per (US = wor-shiper), person who worships.

worst /wɜ:st/ adj (⇨ bad, worse) the most bad, evil, ill: the ~ storm for five years; the ~

behaviour; the ~ condition. □ adv (⇒ badly, worse) most badly: Tom played badly, Harry played worse and I played ~. □ n the ~, worst part, state, event, etc: You must be prepared for the ~, the worst possible news, outcome, etc. get the worst of, suffer most. □ vt (rare) get the better of: He ~ed his enemy.

worth /wɜ:θ/ adj 1 having a certain value (money or ability, etc); of value equal to: It's not ~ more than two pounds. worth (one's) while, ⇒ while. for what it is worth, without any guarantee or promise concerning it. 2 possessing; having property to the value of: What's the old man ~? for all one is worth, (informal) with all one's energy; making every effort: He was running for all he was ~. 3 giving a satisfactory or rewarding return for: The book is well ~ reading. It's hardly ~ troubling about. □ n [U] 1 value; what a person or thing is worth: know a friend's ~. 2 (usually /wəθ/) quantity of something of a specified value: a ~ pound's ~ of apples.

worth-less adj having no value.

worth-while adj that is worth the time, etc needed: a ~ while experiment. ⇒ while.

worthy /'wɜ:ði/ adj (-ier, -iest) 1 deserving: a cause ~ of support; a man who is ~ of a place in the team to be in the team. 2 (often ironic) having merit; deserving respect: a ~ gentleman.

worth-ily /-əli/ adv

worthi-ness n [U]

-worthy /-wɜ:ði/ suffix deserving of: praise-worthy.

would ⇒ will¹.

wound¹ /wu:nd/ n [C] 1 hurt or injury to the living tissue of the body, caused by cutting, shooting, tearing, etc, esp as the result of attack (injury being more usually for the result of an accident): a ~ bullet ~. 2 injury to a plant, tree, etc in which the bark is cut or torn. 3 injury to a person's feelings: a ~ to his pride vanity. □ vt give a wound to: Ten soldiers were killed and thirty ~ed.

wound² /waʊnd/ pt, pp of wind³.

wove, wo-ven ⇒ weave.

wow /waʊ/ n [C] (sl) tremendous success: The new play at the National Theatre's a ~. □ int expressing wonder, admiration, etc: W~, what a girl!

wrangle /'ræŋgl/ vi n [C] (take part in a) noisy or angry argument.

wrap /ræp/ vt, vi (-pp-) 1 put round; cover or roll up (in): ~ a child in a shawl; ~ up a present in tissue paper; ~ oneself in a blanket. 2 wind or fold as a covering or protection: W~ plenty of paper round it. 3 be wrapped up in, (a) (fig) be hidden in: The affair is ~ped (up) in mystery. (b) be deeply interested in: He is ~ped up in his work/studies. (c) be deeply devoted to: She is ~ped up in her children, devotes all her time, care, etc to them. □ n [C] outer clothing or covering (eg a scarf, cloak, fur or rug).

wrap-per, (a) loose paper cover for a book. (b) cloth tied round the body as a long skirt.

wrap-ping, (a) [C] something used for covering or packing: 'sweet ~pings. (b) [U] material for covering or packing something: Put plenty of ~ping round the cups.

wrath /rɒθ US: ræθ/ n [U] (literary) great anger (esp caused by misconduct, injustice).

wreak /rɪk/ vt give expression to: ~ havoc/vengeance on her.

wreath /rɪ:θ/ n [C] (pl ~s /rɪ:ðz/) 1 flowers or leaves twisted or woven together into a circle (as placed on a coffin, a grave, a memorial to the dead, etc). 2 curling line (of smoke, mist, etc).

wreathe /rɪ:ð/ vt, vi 1 cover, encircle: ~d with flowers; hills ~d in mist; a face ~d in smiles. 2 wreathe sth into..., make (flowers, etc) (into a wreath). 3 (of smoke, mist, etc) move in the shape of a wreath.

wreck /rek/ n 1 [U] ruin or destruction, esp of a ship by storms: save a ship from ~; [C] instance of this: The storm caused ~s all along the coast. 2 [C] ship that has suffered wreck (1): Robinson Crusoe obtained food and supplies from the ~. 3 [C] vehicle, building, etc that has been badly damaged or fallen into ruin: The car was a worthless ~ after the collision. 4 [U] (fig) ruin (of hopes, etc). 5 [C] person whose health has been destroyed: If you worry too much, you'll become a nervous ~. □ vt cause the wreck of: The ship/train was ~ed.

wreck-age /'rekɪdʒ/ n [U] wrecked object, material: The ~age (of the aircraft) was scattered over a wide area.

wren /ren/ n [C] kinds of small songbird.

wrench /rentʃ/ n [C] 1 sudden and violent twist or pull: He gave his ankle a ~, twisted it by accident. 2 (pain caused by a) sad parting or separation: Separation from her children was a terrible ~. 3 tool for gripping and turning nuts, bolts, etc; spanner. □ vt 1 twist or pull violently: ~ the door open; ~ a door off its hinges. 2 injure (eg one's ankle) by twisting.

wrest /rest/ vt 1 take (something) away with force: ~ a knife from him ~ it out of his hands. 2 get by effort: ~ a confession of guilt from a person.

wrestle /'resl/ vi 1 struggle with a person (as a sport) and try to throw him to the ground without hitting him. 2 (fig) struggle: ~ with a problem one's conscience.

wres-tler, /'reslə(r)/, person who wrestles.

wretch /retʃ/ n [C] 1 unfortunate and miserable person. 2 contemptible, mean person.

wretched /'retʃɪd/ adj 1 miserable: living in ~ poverty. 2 causing misery: ~ houses. 3 (informal) of poor quality: ~ weather/food.

wretched-ly adv

wriggle /'rɪgl/ vi, vt 1 move with quick, short, twistings; move along in this way: Small chil- dren ~ in their seats when they are bored. The eel ~d out of my fingers. 2 move with a wriggling motion: ~ one's toes; ~ one's way out. □ n [C] wriggling movement.

wring /rɪŋ/ vt (pt, pp wrung /rʌŋ/) 1 twist; squeeze: ~ a hen's neck, to kill it. wring one's hands, squeeze them together (to show sorrow, etc). 2 twist and squeeze something tightly (to force out water): ~ out wet clothes. wringing wet, very wet. 3 (pl) force a person to confess, by persuasion, threats, etc: ~ the truth out of him. □ n [C] squeeze: Give it another ~.

wringer /'rɪŋə(r)/, machine for wringing (2).

wrinkle /'rɪŋkl/ n [C] small fold or line in the skin (esp of the kind produced by age) or on the surface of something: She's beginning to get ~s round her eyes. She ironed out the ~s in her dress. □ vt, vi make, get, have, wrinkles in: ~ up one's forehead, eg when worrying; ~d with age.

wrinkly /'rɪŋkli/ adj wrist /rɪst/ n [C] joint between the hand and the arm: He took me by the ~.

'wrist-band, band of cloth worn round the wrist, eg by tennis-players.

'wrist-watch, watch worn on the wrist.

writ /rɪt/ n [C] 1 written order issued in the name of a ruler or an official to do or not to do something: a ~ for the arrest of a suspected criminal. 2 Holy W~, the Bible.

write /raɪt/ vi, vt (pt wrote /rəʊt/, pp written /'rɪtn/) 1 make letters or other symbols (eg ideographs) on a surface, esp with a pen or pencil on paper: learn to read and ~. I've been writing (for) three hours. Are we to ~ in ink or (in) pencil? 2 put down (on paper) by means of words, etc: ~ words/Chinese characters/shorthand; ~ one's name; ~ a cheque/a book; ~ an application (by filling in the spaces with words, figures, etc). 3 do the work of an author; compose for publication: ~ a novel; ~ for the newspapers; make a living by writing. 4 write and send a letter (to, or informal, without to): He promised to ~ (to) me every week. He ~s home/~s to his parents regularly. 5 (usually passive) show clear signs of: He had pain/honesty written on his face.

6 (special uses with adverbial particles and prepositions):

write sth down, put down (on paper) in words: You'd better ~ the address down before you forget it.

write in for sth, apply by letter for.

write off (for sth), order by post: ~ off for an application form. write sth off, (a) compose quickly and easily: ~ off a report. (b) cancel; recognize that something is a loss or failure: ~ off a debt. He has just written off a new car, damaged it beyond repair, so that the insurers regard it as a loss. Hence, 'write-off n: The burnt-out airliner was a complete ~-off, had no value whatever.

write sth out, write the whole of; write in full: ~ out a copy of an agreement; ~ out an abbreviation, write the actual words. write out a cheque, fill one in.

write sth up, complete: ~ up one's diary. I must ~ up my notes of the lecture. Hence, 'write-up n [C] written account of an event.

writer /'raɪtə(r)/ n [C] 1 person who writes: the ~ of this letter. 2 author.

writer's cramp, cramp of the muscles in the hand, causing difficulty in writing.

writhe /raɪð/ vi twist or roll about (in pain) (mental or physical): writhing under insults.

writ-ing /'raɪtɪŋ/ n 1 [U] (in the senses of the verb write): busy with his ~; put something down in ~. 2 = handwriting. 3 (pl) literary work: the ~s of Swift.

'writing-ink, ink for writing (contrasted with printing-ink).

'writing-paper, (esp) paper cut to the size usual for letters.

writ-ten /'rɪtn/ ⇨ write.

wrong /rɒŋ US: rɔŋ/ adj (contrasted with right) 1 not morally right; unjust: It is ~ to steal. 2 mistaken; unsuitable; improper: He has six ~ answers in his arithmetic. You've dialled the ~ number (when telephoning). Can you prove that I am/that my opinions are ~? We got into the ~ train. Go the ~ way. be caught on the wrong foot, ⇨ foot¹ (1). 3 out of order; in a bad condition: There's nothing ~ with the engine—perhaps there's no petrol in the tank. □ adv in a wrong manner: guess ~. You've spelt my name ~. You've got it ~, have misunderstood, miscalculated, etc.

go wrong, (a) take the wrong path or road. (b) have a bad or poor result; fail: All our plans went ~. (c) (informal) (of a machine, etc) break down. (d) take to immorality: What's the best way to help young girls who go ~? □ n 1 [U] what is morally wrong; [C] wrong action: know the difference between right and ~; do ~, sin. Two ~s don't make a right. 2 [U] injustice; unjust treatment; [C] instance of this; unjust action: suffer ~; do ~ to her. 3 in the wrong, responsible for an error, for having caused a quarrel, etc: He admitted that he was in the ~. □ vi treat unjustly; be unfair to: He ~ed me when he said that I was envious.

wrong-ful /-fl/ adj unjust; unlawful: ~ful dismissal (from employment).

wrong-fully /-fəli/ adv

wrong-ly adv in a wrong manner (used esp before a pp): ~ly informed/directed/accused.

wrong-doer /'rɒŋduːə(r)/ n [C] person who does wrong; criminal.

wrote /rəʊt/ ⇨ write.

wrought /rɔ:t/ pt, pp of work²; beaten into shape: ~ iron. ⇨ also overwrought.

'wrought-up adj over-excited; extremely agitated.

wrung /rʌŋ/ ⇨ wring.

wry /raɪ/ adj (wrier, wriest) pulled or twisted out of shape: a ~ smile, a forced smile that shows disappointment.

wry-ly adv

Xx

X, x /eks/ (pl X's, x's /'eksɪz/) 1 the 24th letter of the English alphabet. 2 symbol for the Roman numeral 10. 3 (algebra) first unknown quantity.

xeno-phobia /zenə'fəʊbiə/ n [U] great hatred or fear of strangers or foreigners.

Xmas /'krɪsməs/ n (common abbr for) Christmas.

X-ray /'eks reɪ/ n [C] (apparatus for using a) form of short-wave ray that penetrates solids and makes it possible to see into or through them; photograph taken by this means. □ vi examine, treat, photograph, with X-rays.

xylo-phone /'zailəfəʊn/ n [C] musical instrument of parallel wooden bars, of different lengths, which produce different notes when struck with small wooden hammers.

Yy

Y, y /waɪ/ (pl Y's, y's /waɪz/) the 25th letter of the English alphabet.

yacht /jɒt/ n [C] 1 light sailing-boat built specially for racing. 2 (usually motor-driven) vessel kept by a wealthy person for pleasure-cruising. □ vi travel or race in a yacht.

yacht-ing, the art, sport, of sailing yachts.

yak /jæk/ n [C] long-haired ox, wild or domesticated, of Central Asia.

yam /jæm/ n [C,U] (edible tuber of) kinds of tropical climbing plant.

yank /jæŋk/ vi give a sudden sharp pull to: ~ out a tooth.

yap /jæp/ vi (-pp-) 1 (esp of dogs) make short, sharp barks. 2 (sf) talk noisily or foolishly. □ n [C] short, shrill bark.

yard¹ /jɑ:d/ n [C] 1 (usually unroofed) enclosed or partly enclosed space near or round a building or group of buildings: a 'farm~. 2 (usually in compounds) enclosure for a special purpose: the 'railway ~; a 'dock~.

yard² /jɑ:d/ n [C] 1 unit of length, 3 feet or 36 inches: Can you still buy cloth by the ~ in Britain? 2 long, piece of wood like a pole fastened to a mast for supporting and spreading a sail.

'yard-stick, (fig) standard of comparison.

yarn /jɑ:n/ n 1 [U] fibres which have been spun for knitting, weaving, etc. 2 [C] (informal) story; traveller's tale. spin a yarn, tell a story (often untrue). □ vi tell yarns.

yash-mak /'jæʃmæk/ n [C] veil worn in public by some Muslim women.

yawn /jɔ:n/ vi 1 (usually involuntarily) open the mouth wide and inhale as when sleepy or bored. 2 be wide open: a ~ing gap. □ n [C] act of yawning (1).

yaws /jɔ:z/ n pl contagious tropical skin disease.

year /jɜ:(r) US: jɪər/ n [C] 1 time taken by the earth in making one revolution round the sun, about 365½ days. 2 period from 1 January to 31 December (also called the calendar ~): in the ~ 1865; last ~; this ~; next ~; the ~ after next. year in year 'out, year after year. 'all the 'year 'round, at all times of the year. 3 any period of 365 consecutive days: It is just a ~ since I arrived here. He's twenty ~s of age/ twenty ~s old. 4 period of one year associated with something: the academic ~, for schools, colleges and universities (beginning, in GB and US, in the autumn); the financial ~, for making up accounts. 5 for years, for a long time: We've been friends for ~s.

year-ly adj, adv (taking place) every year; once a year.

year-ling /'jɜ:lɪŋ/ n [C] animal between one and two years old.

yearn /jɜ:n/ vi long for with great, tender feeling, affection, etc: He ~ed for home.

yearn-ing n [U] (also pl) strong desire.

yeast /jɪst/ n [C] substance used in fermenting beer, wine and in making bread rise.

yeasty adj

yell /jel/ vi, vt 1 make a loud sharp cry or cries as of pain, excitement, etc: ~ with fright/ laughter. 2 say in a loud voice: ~ (out) an order. □ n [C] loud, sharp cry: a ~ of terror.

yel-low /'jeləʊ/ n [U], adj 1 (of) the colour of gold or the yolk of a hen's egg. 2 (informal) cowardly: He has a ~ streak in him. □ vi, vi (cause to) become yellow: The leaves of the book were ~ed/had ~ed with age.

'yellow 'fever, infectious tropical disease causing the skin to turn yellow.

'yellow 'pages, (section of a) telephone directory listing businesses, professions and services.

yellow-ish /-ɪʃ/ adj a little yellow.

yellow-ness n [U]

yelp /jelp/ vi, n [C] (make a) short, sharp cry (of pain, anger, excitement, etc).

yes /jes/ particle (contrasted with no) expressing agreement, affirmation, consent, etc: 'Can you read this?' 'Y~.' 'Don't you like it?' — 'Y~.' (= 'Yes, I do like it') 'Isn't she beautiful?' — 'Y~, isn't she?' □ n [C]: Answer with a plain 'Y~' or 'No'.

yes-ter-day /'jestədi/ adv, n [C] (on) the day just past; (on) the day before today: He arrived ~. Y~ was Sunday. Where's ~'s newspaper?

yet /jet/ adv 1 by this or that time; up to now; up to then: They are not here ~/not ~ here. At 2 o'clock they had not ~ decided how to spend the afternoon. 2 so far; up to this/that time: Has your brother arrived ~? We needn't do it just ~. ⇨ already, still. 3 still (the usual word): Go at once while there is ~ time, while it is not too late. 4 at some future time; before all is over: He may surprise us all ~. 5 as yet, up to now or then: As ~ we have/had not made any plans for the holidays. □ conj but at the same time: He worked hard and ~ he failed.

yew /ju:/ n [C] (also ~-tree) tree with dark-green leaves and red berries, often used for garden hedges; [U] wood of this tree.

yield /ji:ld/ vt, vi 1 give a natural product, a result or profit: trees that ~ fruit. 2 give way (to); cease opposition: We will never ~ to force. He ~ed to temptation. □ n [C,U] amount produced: a good ~ of wheat.

yield-ing adj (a) easily giving way or bending. (b) (fig) not obstinate.

yip-pee /'jɪpi/ int expression of joy.

yodel /'jəʊdl/ vt, vi (-ll-; US also -l-) sing (a song), make a musical call, with frequent changes from the normal voice to high falsetto notes, in the manner of Swiss mountaineers. □ n [C] such a song or call.

yodel-ler (US also yodeler), person who yodels.

yoga /'jəʊgə/ n [U] Hindu system of meditation and self-control intended to produce mystical experience and the union of the individual soul with the universal spirit.

yogi /'jəʊgi/ n [C] (pl ~s) teacher of, expert in, yoga.

yo-gurt, yo-ghurt, yo-ghourt /'jəʊgət/ US: /jəʊgərt/ n [U] semi-solid food made from fermented milk.

yoke /jəʊk/ n [C] 1 shaped piece of wood placed across the necks of oxen pulling a cart, plough, etc. 2 (fig) symbol of defeat, etc: throw off the ~ of servitude, rebel; refuse to obey. 3 shaped piece of wood to fit a person's shoulders and support a pail at each end. 4 (dress-making) part of a dress, etc fitting round the shoulders from which the rest hangs. □ vt, vi 1 put a yoke on (oxen). 2 unite: ~d to an unwilling partner.

yokel /'jəʊkl/ n [C] simple countryman.

yolk /jəʊk/ n [C,U] yellow part of an egg: Beat up the ~s of three eggs.

yon-der /'jɒndə(r)/ adj, adv (literary) (that is, that can be seen) over there.

yoo-hoo /ju: 'hu:/ int (informal) (used to call a greeting to a friend, etc).

you /ju:/ personal pron 1 the person(s) addressed: Y~ are my friend. Does he know ~? 2 (informal) one; anyone: It is much easier to cycle with the wind behind ~.

you'd /ju:d/ = you had; you would.

you'll /ju:l/ = you will.

young /jʌŋ/ adj (-er, -est) 1 (contrasted with old) not far advanced in life, growth, development, etc; of recent birth or origin: a ~ woman/tree/animal/nation. 2 still near its beginning: The evening/century is still ~. 3 (used before a person's name to distinguish, esp, a son from his father): Y~ Jones is always ready to help his parents. 4 (used as a form of address): Now listen to me, ~ man/my ~ lady! 5 having little practice or experience (in something): ~ in crime. ⇨ old (2). □ n 1 the ~, young people; children: books for the ~. 2 [U] offspring; young animals, birds: The cat fought to defend its ~.

young-ish /'jʌŋɪʃ/ adj fairly young.

young-ster /'jʌŋstə(r)/, child, youth, esp a boy.

your /jɔ:(r) US: /jʊər/ possessive adj belonging to, relating to, you: Show me ~ hands. You'll see the post office on your right, ie the right side.

you're /jɔ:(r) US: /jʊər/ = you are.

yours /jɔ:(r) US: /jʊəz/ possessive pron 1 of, belonging to, you: Is that book ~? I borrowed a book of ~. 2 (used to end a letter). ⇨ affectionately/faithfully/sincerely/truly.

your-self /jɔ:(r)self US: /jʊər'self/ pron (pl -selves /-'selvz/) 1 (reflexive): Did you hurt ~? 2 (used for emphasis): You ~ said so. You said so ~. (all) by yourself, (a) alone. (b) without help.

youth /ju:θ/ n (pl ~s /ju:ðz/) 1 [U] the state or time of being young: the friends of one's ~; in my ~, when I was young. 2 [C] young man: Half a dozen ~s were standing at the street corner. 3 (collective) young men and women: a ~ centre/club, for the leisure time activities of young people.

youth-ful /-fl/ adj young; having the qualities, etc of young people: a ~ful appearance.

youth-fully /-fəli/ adv

youth-ful-ness n [U] you've /ju:v/ = you have.

yowl /jəʊl/ vi howl.

yule /ju:l/ n (dated) Christmas.

Zz

Z, z /zed *US: /zi:/ (pl Z's, z's /zeds US: /zi:z/) the 26th and last letter of the English alphabet.*

zany /'zeɪni/ adj pleasantly foolish; odd.

zeal /zi:l/ n [U] great interest and effort: work with great ~.

zeal-ous /'zeləs/ adj enthusiastic (the usual word).

zebra /'zebrə/ n [C] (pl ~s) wild animal of Africa like a horse, with dark stripes on its body.

zebra crossing, street-crossing marked with broad white stripes, at which pedestrians have priority over traffic.

Zen /zen/ n [U] form of Buddhism, teaching that enlightenment comes from meditation and intuition, with less dependence on the scriptures.

zen-ith /'zeniθ/ US: 'zi:nθ/ n [C] 1 part of the sky directly overhead. 2 (fig) highest point (of one's fame, fortunes, etc): at the ~ of his career.

zero /'ziərəʊ/ n [C] (pl ~s) 1 the figure 0. 2 the point between the positive (+) and negative (−) on a scale, esp on a thermometer: The thermometer fell to ~ last night. It was ten degrees below ~ (eg −10°C or −10°F). ⇨ absolute zero.

'zero hour, time at which (military) operations are to begin: Z~ hour was 3am.

zest /zest/ n [U] 1 great interest or pleasure: He entered into our plans with ~. 2 (often with a, an) pleasing or stimulating quality or flavour: Garlic adds ~ to a stew.

zig-zag /'zigzæg/ n [C] line or path which turns right and left alternately at sharp (equal or unequal) angles: (as an adjective) a ~ path up the hillside. ⇨ adv in a zigzag. ⇨ vi (-gg-) go in a zigzag: The drunken man ~ged down the street.

zinc /zɪŋk/ n [U] hard, bluish-white metal (symbol Zn) used in alloys and in coating iron sheets, etc to protect against rust.

zip /zip/ n [C] 1 sound as of a bullet going through the air, or of the sudden tearing of cloth. 2 = zip-fastener. ⇨ vt (-pp-) open or close by means of a zip-fastener.

zip-fastener /'zip fɑ:snə(r)/ US: fæz-/ n [C] (informal = zip-per /'zipə(r)/) device for locking together two toothed metal or plastic edges by means of a sliding tab, used for fastening articles of clothing, bags, etc.

zip code /'zip kəʊd/ n (US) = postcode.

zither /'ziðə(r)/ n [C] musical instrument with many strings on a flat sounding-board, played with a plectrum or the fingers.

zo-diac /'zəʊdiæk/ n belt of the heavens extending about 8° on each side of the path followed by the sun and containing the path of the planets, divided into 12 equal parts known as the signs of the ~, named after 12 groups of stars.

zone /zəʊn/ n [C] 1 belt, band or stripe going round, and distinguished by colour, appearance, etc. 2 one of the five parts into which the earth's surface is divided by imaginary lines parallel to the equator. 3 area with particular features, purpose or use: the war ~; the 'danger ~; a smokeless ~, (usually urban) areas in which only smokeless fuels may be used. 4 (US) particular area in which certain postal, telephone, etc rates are charged. ⇨ vi encircle, divide, mark, with, into, or as with a zone.

zonal /-nl/ adj relating to, arranged in, zones.

zoo /zu:/ n [C] (pl ~s) zoological gardens.

zo-ologi-cal /,zəʊə'lɒdʒɪkl/ adj of zoology: ~ gardens, place where many kinds of animals are kept for exhibition.

zo-ol-ogist /zəʊ'blɒdʒɪst/ n [C] student of, expert in, zoology.

zo-ol-ogy /zəʊ'blɒdʒɪ/ n [U] science of the structure, forms and distribution of animals.

zoom /zu:m/ n [U] (low, deep humming sound of the) sudden upward flight of an aircraft. ⇨ vi 1 (of aircraft) move upwards at high speed. 2 (of a camera with a zoom lens): ~ in/out, cause the object being photographed to appear nearer/further.

'zoom lens, (on a camera), one with continuously variable focal length.

zuc-chini /zu:'ki:ni/ (pl ~s or unchanged) (esp US) = courgette.

Appendix 1 Irregular Verbs

Note: Full phonetic transcriptions of the irregular past tense and past participle forms are given in the entries on the infinitive forms in the dictionary.

Infinitive	Past Tense	Past Participle abide	abode, abided	abode, abided arise	arose	arisen
awake	awoke	awake, awoke
be	was	been
bear	bore	borne, born
beat	beat	beaten
become	became	become befall	befell	befallen
beget	begot	begotten
begin	began	begun
behold	beheld	beheld
bend	bent	bent, bended
bereave	bereaved, bereft	bereaved, bereft beseech	besought	besought beset	beset	beset
bet	bet, betted	bet, betted bid	bade, bid	bidden, bid bind	bound	bound
bite	bit	bitten, bit
bleed	bled	bled
blend	blended	blended
bless	blessed, blest	blessed, blest blow	blew	blown
break	broke	broken
breed	bred	bred
bring	brought	brought broadcast	broadcast	broadcast build	built	built
burn	burnt, burned	burnt, burned burst	burst	burst
buy	bought	bought
cast	cast	cast
catch	caught	caught
chide	chid	chidden, chid
choose	chose	chosen
cleave	clove, cleft	cloven, cleft cling	clung	clung
clothe	clothed	clothed
come	came	come
cost	cost	cost
creep	crept	crept
crow	crowed	crowed
cut	cut	cut
dare	dared	dared
deal	dealt	dealt
dig	dug	dug
do	did	done
draw	drew	drawn
dream	dreamed, dreamt	dreamed, dreamt drink	drank	drunk
drive	drove	driven
dwell	dwelt	dwelt
eat	ate	eaten
fall	fell	fallen
feed	fed	fed
feel	felt	felt
fight	fought	fought

Infinitive

find flee fling fly forbear forbid forecast foresee foretell forget forgive forsake forswear freeze get gild give go grind grow hamstring hang have hear heave hew hide hit hold hurt inlay
keep kneel knit know lay lead learn leave lend let lie light lose make mean meet melt mislay mislead misspell
mistake misunderstand
mow outdo overcome overdo overhang overhear overlay override overrun

Past Tense

found fled flung flew forbore forbade, forbad forecast, forecasted
foresaw foretold forgot forgave forsook forsovere
froze got gilded, gilt gave went ground grew hamstrung
hung, hanged
had heard heaved, hove
hewed hid
hit hold hurt inlaid
kept knelt knitted, knit knew laid led learnt, learned left lent
let lay lighted, lit lost
made meant met melted mislaid misled misspelt
mistook misunderstood mowed outdid overcame overdid overhung
overheard overlaid overrode overran

Past Participle

found fled flung flown forborne forbidden forecast, forecasted
foreseen
foretold
forgotten forgiven forsaken forsovere
frozen got, (US) gotten gilded given gone ground
grown hamstrung
hung, hanged
had heard heaved, hove
hewed, hewn hidden, hid hit held hurt inlaid
kept knelt knitted, knit
known laid
led learnt, learned
left lent
let lain lighted, lit
lost
made meant met melted, molten mislaid
misled
misspelt
mistaken misunderstood
mown, (US) mowed outdone overcome overdone overhung
overheard
overlaid overridden
overrun

Infinitive

oversee overshoot
 oversleep overtake overthrow overwork partake pay prove put read rebuild recast
 redo relay remake rend repay rerun reset retell rewrite rid ride ring rise run saw say
 see seek sell send set sew shake shave shear shed shine shoe shoot show shred shrink shut
 sing sink sit slay sleep slide sling slink slit smell smite
 sow speak speed spell spend

Past Tense

oversaw overshoot
 overslept
 overtook overthrew overworked partook paid proved
 put read/red/rebuilt recast
 redid relaid remade rent repaid reran
 reset retold rewrote rid, ridden rode rang rose ran sawed said
 saw sought
 sold sent set sewed shook shaved sheared
 shed shone /ʃɒn/ (US) /ʃəʊn/shod
 shot showed shredded shrank, shrunk
 shut
 sang sank sat
 slew slept slid slung slunk
 slit smelt smote sowed spoke sped, speeded spelt, spelled spent

Past Participle

overseen
 overshoot
 overslept
 overtaken overthrown overworked, overwrought partaken
 paid proved, proven put read/red/rebuilt recast
 redone
 relaid
 remade
 rent
 repaid rerun
 reset
 retold
 rewritten rid, ridden
 ridden rung risen
 run sawn (sawed)
 said
 seen sought
 sold
 sent set sewn shaken shaved, shaven shorn, sheared
 shed shone /ʃɒn/ (US) /ʃəʊn/shod
 shot shown, showed shredded
 shrunk, shrunk
 shut sung sunk, sunken sat
 slain
 slept slid, slidden
 slung slunk
 slit smelt smitten sown, sowed spoken
 sped, speeded spelt, spelled
 spent

Infinitive

spill spin spit split spoil spread spring stand stave steal stick sting
stink strew stride strike string strive swear sweep swell swim swing take teach tear tell think thrive throw thrust tread understand undertake undo upset wake waylay wear weave wed
weep win wind withdraw withhold withstand work wring write

Past Tense

spilt, spilled spun, span spat
split spoilt, spoiled spread sprang stood staved, stove stole stuck stung stank, stunk strewed strode struck strung strove swore swept swelled swam swung took taught tore told thought throve, thrived threw thrust
trod understood undertook undid upset woke waylaid wore wove wedded wept
won winded, wound withdrew withheld withstood worked wrung wrote

Past Participle

spilt, spilled
spun spat
split spoilt, spoiled spread sprung stood staved, stove
stolen
stuck stung
stunk strewn, strewed stridden struck, stricken strung striven sworn swept swollen, swelled
swum
swung taken taught
torn told thought thriven, thrived thrown thrust trodden understood
undertaken undone
upset
woken waylaid
worn woven wedded, wed
wept
won winded, wound
withdrawn withheld
withstood
worked wrung written

Appendix 2 Common abbreviations

- A-bomb atomic bomb
A/A Alcoholics Anonymous; Automobile Association AA/A Amateur Athletics Association a/c account acc(t) account
ad(vt) advertisement
A/D Anno Domini in the year of the Lord add(r) address
A/G/M Annual General Meeting a'm ante meridiem before noon amp ampere(s)
anon anonymous
ANZAC /'ænzæk/ Australia and New Zealand Army Corps appro /'æprəʊ/ approval approx approximately Apr April
arr arrival; arrives ASEAN Association of South East Asian Nations assoc associate; association asst assistant
Aug August
A/V Audio-Visual; Authorized Version (of the Bible)
Av(e) Avenue
A W/O'L absent without leave
- b born
b & b bed and breakfast
B/A (GB) Bachelor of Arts; British Airways
B/B/C British Broadcasting Corporation
B/C Before Christ; British Council bk book
bldg(s) building(s) b/o body odour; box office
Br Brother
Brig Brigadier
Brit Britain; British
Bro(s) Brother(s)
B Sc /,bi: es 'si:/ (GB) Bachelor of Science
B/S/T British Summer Time
- C Centigrade; (Roman) 100
c cent(s); century; circa about; cubic ca circa about, approximately Capt Captain
Cath Catholic
c/c cubic centimetre(s) cc capita chapters; centuries
C/D Corps Diplomatique Diplomatic Service Cdr Commander
cert certificate; certified c/f confer compare with cg centigram
ch central heating ch(ap) chapter
ch'w constant hot water
CI/A (US) Central Intelligence Agency CI'D (GB) Criminal Investigation Department
- C-in-'C Commander-in-Chief cl class; centilitre(s) cm centimetre(s)
Co (commerce) Company
c/o care of
C O'D Cash on Delivery
C of 'E /,si: əv 'i:/ Church of England
COI (GB) Central Office of Information Coll College
concl concluded; conclusion Cons (GB) Conservative (political party)
cont contents; continued Co-op /'kəʊ ɒp/ Co-operative (Society) Corp Corporation
cp compare with Cpl Corporal
Cres(c) Crescent
cu cubic cwt hundredweight
- D Roman 500
d died
D/D Doctor of Divinity
D D'T Dichloro-diphenyl-trichloroethane insecticide Dec December
dec deceased deg degree(s) dep departs; departure; deputy Dept Department
diag diagram
diff difference; different Dip Diploma
Dip Ed /,dɪp 'ed/ Dipoma in Education
Dir Director
DIY do it yourself ⇨ do²(1)
D/J dinner jacket; disc jockey D N'A deoxyribonucleic acid basic constituent of the gene dol dollar(s) doz dozen
D Phil /,di: 'fɪl/ Doctor of Philosophy Dr Doctor; Drive (i.e. small road) dr dram(s)
- E east
EE/C European Economic Community (the Common Market) EFTA /'eftə/ European Free Trade Association e'g exempli gratia for example, for instance encl enclosed
E N E east northeast
Eng Engineer(ing); England; English
E/R Elizabeth Regina Queen Elizabeth
E S E east southeast
ES/P Extra-Sensory Perception Esq Esquire
eta estimated time of arrival et al /et 'æl/ et alii and other people; et alia and other things etc /et 'etɹə/ et cetera and the rest; and all the others

Appendix 2 Common abbreviations

etd estimated time of departure eve evening

excl excluding; exclusive

F Fahrenheit; Fellow

f foot; feet; female; feminine

F/A Football Association

FA/O Food and Agricultural Organization

FBI (US) Federal Bureau of Investigation;

Federation of British Industries

Feb February

Fed Federal; Federated; Federation

fem female; feminine

FIFA /'fi:fə/ International Federation of Football Associations

fig figurative; figure

fl fluid; floor

F/O (GB) Foreign Office

fol(l) following for foreign

Fr Father; Franc; France; French

Fri Friday

FR/S Fellow of the Royal Society

ft foot; feet

furn furnished

fwd forward

gal(l) gallon(s)

G/B Great Britain

Gdn(s) Garden(s)

Gen General

G/I (US) enlisted soldier

Gk Greek

gm gram(s)

GMT Greenwich Mean Time

gov(t) government

G/P General Practitioner ⇨ general

GPO General Post Office

gt great

h hour; height

H-bomb Hydrogen bomb

H/M His/Her Majesty

HM/S His/Her Majesty's Ship

HMS/O His/Her Majesty's Stationery Office

H of C House of Commons

H of L House of Lords

Hon Honorary; Honourable

hosp hospital

H/P Hire Purchase; Horse Power

HQ Headquarters

hr hour(s)

H R H His/Her Royal Highness

I Island; Roman one

ib; ibid ibidem in the same place ie id est which is to say, in other words

ILO International Labour Organization

IM/F International Monetary Fund

in inch(es)

Inc Incorporated

incl including; inclusive

info /'ɪnfəʊ/ information

Inst Institute

int interior; internal; international intro introduction

IO/U I owe you

IQ Intelligence Quotient comparative measure of intelligence

IR/A Irish Republican Army

Is Islands

IT/V (GB) independent television

Jan January

Jnr; Jr Junior

Jul July

Jun June; Junior

kg kilogram(s)

KG/B the USSR Committee for State Security

km kilometre(s)

K/O knock-out

k p/h kilometres per hour

kw kilowatt(s)

L lake; little; Roman 50

Lab (GB) Labour (political party)

lang language

lat latitude

lb pound(s) (weight)

Lib (GB) Liberal (political party); Liberation

L/P long-playing (record)

LS/D lysergic acid diethylamide drug inducing hallucinations

Lt Lieutenant

Ltd Limited

lux luxury

m male; married; metre(s); mile(s); million

M/A Master of Arts

Mar March

masc masculine math /mæθ/ (US) mathematics maths /mæθs/ (GB) mathematics max maximum

Mc Megacycle(s)

METO /'mi:təʊ/ Middle East Treaty Organization

mg milligram(s)

MIS (GB) National Security Division of Military Intelligence

min minimum

misc miscellaneous

mkt market

ml mile(s), millilitre(s) mm millimetre(s)

M/O Mail Order; Medical Officer; Money Order

mod moderate; modern mod cons /,mɒd 'kɒnz/ modern conveniences

Mon Monday

MO/T (GB) Ministry of Transport (vehicle test)

M/P Member of Parliament (House of Commons); Military Police mpg miles per gallon mph miles per hour	Prov Province

Mr, Mrs, Ms ⇔ dictionary entries	Ps Psalm
MSc /,em es 'si:/ Master of Science	P'S Postscript
Mt Mount	pt part; payment; pint; point
N north	P'T Physical Training
NATO /'neɪtəʊ/ North Atlantic Treaty Organisation	P'TA Parent-Teacher Association
N'B nota bene take special note of	PTO Please turn over
NE northeast	qt quart
NH'S (GB) National Health Service	Qu Queen; Question
NNE north northeast	q'v quod vide which may be referred to NNW north northwest
no(s) number(s)	R River; Royal
Nov November	r radius; right
nr near	R'A Rear-Admiral; Royal Academy; Royal Academician
NSP/C/C (GB) National Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children	RAC Royal Automobile Club
NT New Testament	RAF (also /ræf/) Royal Air Force
NW northwest	R'C Red Cross; Roman Catholic
	Rd Road
O A'S (US) Organization of American States	rec(d) received
O A'U Organization for African Unity	ref referee /ref/; reference; refer(red)
Oct October	Rep repertory /rep/; Representative; Republic(an)
OHMS On Her/His Majesty's Service	ret(d) retired ono or nearest offer	rev revolution
OPEC Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries	Rev(d) Reverend opp opposite	RIP requiescat/requiescant in pace may he/she rest in peace
OT Old Testament	rm room oz ounce(s)	RM Royal Marines
	R'N Royal Navy
p page; penny, pence; per	rpm revolutions per minute pa per annum (for) each year	RSVP répondez s'il vous plaît please reply para(s) paragraph(s)	RSPCA Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals
P/C Police Constable; (GB) Privy Councillor; (US) Peace Corps	rt right
pd paid	Rt Hon Right Honourable
PDSA People's Dispensary for Sick Animals	Rt Rev Right Reverend P'E physical education
P'G Paying Guest	S south
PhD /,pi: etf 'di:/ Doctor of Philosophy	sae stamped addressed envelope
Pk Park	SALT /sɔ:lt/ Strategic Arms Limitation Talks
pkt packet	Sat Saturday
Pl Place	s/c self-contained
P'M Prime Minister	Sch School
p'm post meridiem after noon; per month	SE southeast
PO Post Office; Postal Order	SEATO /'si:təʊ/ South East Asia Treaty Organisation
P'O Box Post Office Box	sec second(ary); secretary pop popular; population	SE'N State Enrolled Nurse poss possible; possibly	Sen Senate; Senator; Senior P'O'W Prisoner of War	Sept September pp pages	S'F Science Fiction
pr pair; price	sgd signed
P'R Public Relations	SHAPE Supreme Headquarters of Allied Powers in Europe
Pres President	Sn(r) Senior pro /prəʊ/ professional	Soc Society
P'RO Public Records Office; Public Relations Officer	Sq Square
pro tem /,prəʊ 'tem/ pro tempore for the time being	Sr Senior; Sister
Prof (informally /prof/) Professor	S'R'N State Registered Nurse pron pronounced; pronunciation	SSE south southeast

Appendix 2 Common abbreviations

SSW south southwest	UNRWA /'ʌnwə/ United Nations Relief and Works Agency
St Saint; Street
Str Strait; Street
sub(s) subscription; substitute	V Roman 5; Victory; Volt
Sun Sunday	vac /væk/ vacation
Supt Superintendent	VAT /væt/ Value Added Tax, ⇨ value(3)
SW southwest	,V'C Vice Chairman; Vice Chancellor
	,V'D Venereal Disease
,T'B Tuberculosis	,V'H'F very high frequency
Tech /tek/ Technical (College)	,V'I'P very important person tel telephone	viz /vɪz/ videlicet namely temp temperature; temporary /temp/	vol volume
Ter(r) Terrace; Territory	vs versus
Thurs Thursday	,V'S'O (GB) Voluntary Service Overseas
,TN'T Trinitrotoluene explosive trans translated	W west
TU Trade Union	w watt(s); week; width; with
,T'U'C (GB) Trades Union Congress	,w'c water closet
Tues Tuesday	WCC World Council of Churches
,T'V television	,W'H'O (also /hu/) World Health Organization wk week; work
,U'D'I unilateral declaration of independence	WNW west northwest
UEFA /ju:'eɪfə/ Union of European Football Associations	wpm words per minute
UFO /'ju:fəʊ/ unidentified flying object	,WRA'C Women's Royal Army Corps
,U'K United Kingdom	,WRA'F Women's Royal Air Force
,U'H'F ultra high frequency	,WRN'S also /renz/) Women's Royal Naval Service
,U'N United Nations	WSW west southwest
UNCTAD /'ʌnktæd/ United Nations Conference on Trade Development	wt weight UNESCO /ju:'neskəʊ/ United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization
UNICEF /'ju:nɪsef/ United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund (or United Nations Children's Fund)	X Roman ten ; a kiss; an unknown number, thing, name, etc
Univ University	Xmas Christmas
UNO /'ju:nəʊ/ United Nations Organization
	,Y'H'A Youth Hostels Association
	,Y'M'C'A Young Men's Christian Association yr year; your
	,YWC'A Young Women's Christian Association

Appendix 3 Numbers, weights and measures

Note: a/one (as in 'a/one hundred'): 'a /ə/ hundred' is a less formal usage than 'one /wʌn/ hundred'.

Cardinal

1	one /wʌn/
2	two /tu:/
3	three /θri:/
4	four /fɔ:(r)/
5	five /faɪv/
6	six /sɪks/
7	seven /'sevn/
8	eight /eɪt/
9	nine /naɪn/
10	ten /ten/
11	eleven /'levn/
12	twelve /twelv/
13	thirteen /,θɜ:'ti:n/
14	fourteen /,fɔ:'ti:n/
15	fifteen /,fɪf'ti:n/
16	sixteen /,sɪk'sti:n/
17	seventeen /,sevn'ti:n/
18	eighteen /,eɪ'ti:n/
19	nineteen /,naɪn'ti:n/
20	twenty /'twenti/
21	twenty-one /,twenti 'wʌn/
22	twenty-two /,twenti 'tu:/
23	twenty-three /,twenti 'θri:/
30	thirty /'θɜ:ti/
38	thirty-eight /,θɜ:ti 'eɪt/
40	forty /'fɔ:ti/
50	fifty /'fɪfti/
60	sixty /'sɪksti/
70	seventy /'sevnti/
80	eighty /'eɪti/
90	ninety /'naɪnti/
100	a/one hundred /ə, wʌn 'hʌndrəd/
1000	a/one thousand /ə, wʌn 'θaʊznd/
10 000	ten thousand /,ten 'θaʊznd/
100 000	a/one hundred thousand /ə, wʌn ,hʌndrəd 'θaʊznd/
1 000 000	a/one million /ə, wʌn 'mɪljən/

Vulgar Fractions

$\frac{1}{8}$	an/one-eighth /ən, wʌn 'eɪtθ/
$\frac{1}{4}$	a/one quarter /ə, wʌn 'kwɔ:tə(r)/
$\frac{1}{3}$	a/one third /ə, wʌn 'θɜ:d/
$\frac{1}{2}$	a/one half /ə, wʌn 'ha:f US: 'hæf/
$\frac{3}{4}$	three-quarters /θri: 'kwɔ:təz/

Collective Numbers

6	a half dozen/half a dozen
12	a/one dozen (24 is two dozen not two dozens)

Ordinal

1st	first /fɜ:st/
2nd	second /'sekənd/
3rd	third /θɜ:d/
4th	fourth /fɔ:θ/
5th	fifth /fɪfθ/
6th	sixth /sɪksθ/
7th	seventh /'sevnθ/
8th	eighth /eɪtθ/
9th	ninth /naɪnθ/
10th	tenth /tenθ/
11th	eleventh /'levnθ/
12th	twelfth /twelfθ/
13th	thirteenth /,θɜ:'ti:nθ/
14th	fourteenth /,fɔ:'ti:nθ/
15th	fifteenth /,fɪf'ti:nθ/
16th	sixteenth /,sɪk'sti:nθ/
17th	seventeenth /,sevn'ti:nθ/
18th	eighteenth /,eɪ'ti:nθ/
19th	nineteenth /,naɪn'ti:nθ/
20th	twentieth /'twentɪəθ/
21st	twenty-first /,twenti 'fɜ:st/
22nd	twenty-second /,twenti 'sekənd/
23rd	twenty-third /,twenti 'θɜ:d/
30th	thirtieth /'θɜ:tiəθ/
38th	thirty-eighth /,θɜ:ti 'eɪtθ/
40th	fortieth /'fɔ:tiəθ/
50th	fiftieth /'fɪftɪəθ/
60th	sixtieth /'sɪkstiəθ/
70th	seventieth /'sevntɪəθ/
80th	eightieth /'eɪtɪəθ/
90th	ninetieth /'naɪntɪəθ/
100th	a/one hundredth /ə, wʌn 'hʌndrədθ/
1000th	a/one thousandth /ə, wʌn 'θaʊzndθ/
10 000th	ten thousandth /,ten 'θaʊzndθ/
100 000th	a/one hundred thousandth /ə, wʌn ,hʌndrəd 'θaʊzndθ/
1 000 000th	a/one millionth /ə, wʌn 'mɪljənθ/

Decimal Fractions

0.25	(,nought) point ,two 'five
0.33	(,nought) point ,three 'three
0.5	(,nought) point 'five
0.75	(,nought) point ,seven 'five

20	a/one score
144	a/one gross /grəʊs/

Time of day

GB

- 7.00 seven o'clock/seven am /₁ei 'em/or seven pm /₁pi: 'em/8.15 a quarter past eight/eight fifteen 9.45 a quarter to ten/nine forty-five 4.30 half past four/four thirty (informal) half four
5.10 ten (minutes) past five/five ten 6.25 twenty-five (minutes) past six/five and twenty past six/six twenty-five 6.35 twenty-five (minutes) to seven/five and twenty (minutes) to seven/six thirty-five 5.40 twenty (minutes) to six/five forty 3.50 ten (minutes) to four/three fifty 7.55 five (minutes) to eight/seven fifty-five 9.57 three minutes to ten/nine fifty-seven
2.03 three minutes past two/two oh three

US

- After* is usual where GB has past:
5.10 ten after five
5.15 a quarter after five
9.30 'nine thirty' is more usual than 'half past nine'
Of is common where GB has to:
7.45 a quarter of eight
7.55 five of eight

Twenty-four hour clock

- 07.00 (₁oh) seven hundred hours
= 7.00 a.m.
12.00 twelve hundred hours
= midday/noon
13.45 thirteen forty-five = 1.45 p.m.
19.00 nineteen hundred hours = 7.00 p.m.
24.00 twenty-four hundred hours = midnight

Dates

- 55 BC fifty-five BC /₁bi: 'si:/
AD 55 AD /₁ei 'di:/ fifty-five
GB
3(rd) January 1985, often abbreviated to 3 Jan. '85 or to 3/1/85
US
January 3(rd) 1985, or Jan. 3, 1985 or 1/3/85

The Metric system

METRIC	length	GB & US
10 millimetres (mm)	= 1 centimetre (cm)	= 0.3937 inches (in)
100 centimetres	= 1 metre (m)	= 39.37 inches or 1.094 yards (yd)
1000 metres	= 1 kilometre (km)	= 0.62137 miles or about $\frac{1}{2}$ mile surface

100 square metres (sq m)	= 1 are (a)	= 0.0247 acres
100 ares	= 1 hectare (ha)	= 2.471 acres
100 hectares	= 1 square kilometre (km ²)	= 0.386 square miles weight

10 milligrams (mg)	= 1 centigram (cg)	= 0.1543 grains
100 centigrams	= 1 gram (g)	= 15.4323 grains
1000 grams	= 1 kilogram (kg)	= 2.2046 pounds
1000 kilograms	= 1 tonne	= 19.684 cwt capacity

1000 millilitres (ml)	= 1 litre (l)	= 1.75 pints (= 2.101 US pints)
10 litres	= 1 dekalitre (dl)	= 2.1997 gallons (= 2.63 US gallons)

Avoirdupois weight

GB and US		METRIC
	1 grain (gr)	= 0.0648 grams (gm)
437½ grains	= 1 ounce (oz)	= 28.35 grams
16 drams (dr)	= 1 ounce	= 28.35 grams
16 ounces	= 1 pound (lb)	= 0.454 kilograms (kg)
14 pounds	= 1 stone	= 6.356 kilograms
2 stone	= 1 quarter	= 12.7 kilograms
4 quarters	= 1 hundredweight (cwt)	= 50.8 kilograms
112 pounds	= 1 cwt	= 50.8 kilograms
100 pounds	= 1 short cwt	= 45.4 kilograms
20 cwt	= 1 ton	= 1016.04 kilograms
2000 pounds	= 1 short ton	= 0.907 metric tons
2240 pounds	= 1 long ton	= 1.016 metric tons

Linear measure

GB and US		METRIC
	1 inch (in)	= 25.3995 millimetres (mm)
12 inches	= 1 foot (ft)	= 30.479 centimetres (cm)
3 feet	= 1 yard (yd)	= 0.9144 metres (m)
5½ yards	= 1 rod, pole, or perch	= 5.0292 metres
22 yards	= 1 chain (ch)	= 20.1168 metres
220 yards	= 1 furlong (fur)	= 201.168 metres
8 furlongs	= 1 mile	= 1.6093 kilometres (km)
1760 yards	= 1 mile	= 1.6093 kilometres
3 miles	= 1 league	= 4.8279 kilometres

Time

60 seconds	= 1 minute	4 weeks, or 28 days	= 1 lunar month
60 minutes	= 1 hour	52 weeks, 1 day; or 13
24 hours	= 1 day	lunar months, 1 day	= 1 year
7 days	= 1 week	365 days, 6 hours	= 1 (Julian) year

GB Money

£ p (pounds and pence) 100 pence (100p) = 1 pound (£1) amount		coin

½p	a halfpenny /'heipni/, half a penny	a halfpenny /'heipni/
1p	a penny, (informal) one p /pi:/	a penny
2p	twopence /'tʌpəns/, two pence, (informal) two p /pi:/	a twopenny /'tʌpni/ piece
5p	five pence	a fivepenny piece
10p	ten pence	a tenpenny piece
50p	fifty pence	a fifty pence piece note
£1	a pound, (sl) a quid	a pound note
£5, £10, £20	five/ten/twenty pounds; (sl) five/ten/twenty quid	a five/ten/twenty pound note; (sl) a fiver/a tenner
£3.82	three pounds eighty-two pence

Appendix 4 Punctuation

- full stop (.) (US = period), used to mark the end of a sentence:
Edward walked into the hotel.
- question mark (?) used at the end of a direct question:
Who was the last to arrive?
 (Note: It is not used at the end of an indirect question:
He asked who had been the first to arrive.)
- exclamation mark (!) (US also exclamation point), used at the end of a sentence expressing anger, amazement or other strong emotion:
Get out!
What a wonderful surprise!
- comma (,) 1 used to separate items in a list:
Red, pink, yellow and white flowers filled the vase.
2 used after adverbial clauses and phrases, and phrases without a verb, that come before the main clause:
When the sun shines brightly, the world seems a happier place.
Happy and contented, she fell asleep.
3 used before and after any element that interrupts the sentence:
The fire, although it had been put out, was still very hot.
4 used before and after a part of a sentence which gives more information about the subject:
The Alps, which are the highest mountains in Europe, are a popular centre for skiers.
5 sometimes used to separate main clauses joined by a conjunction.
We looked forward to meeting him, but found him very unpleasant.
- colon (:) (formal) 1 used after a main clause where the following statement illustrates the content of the clause:
The garden had been neglected: it was full of weeds.
2 used before a long list:
Your shopping list should include the following items: sugar, bread, coffee, meat, vegetables.
- semicolon (;) 1 used to separate two parts of a sentence which are closely related.
He had never been to Russia; it had always been his ambition.
2 used to separate parts of a sentence already separated by commas.
There are two facts to consider: first, the weather; second, the expense.
- dash (—) 1 used instead of a colon or semicolon to make the writing more dramatic:
People crowded in, ambulances arrived, flames roared into the air—it was chaos.

2 used to isolate part of a sentence as a comment or for extra information:

The idea—so I believe—came from my brother.

apostrophe (') 1 used with 's' to indicate the possessive:

(a) singular noun: the dog's /dɒgz/ bone.

(b) singular noun ending in 's':

the princess's /prɪn'sesɪz/ smile.

(c) singular proper noun ending in 's' (two possible forms):

King Charles's /ˈtʃɑːlɪz/ crown; King Charles' /ˈtʃɑːlɪz/ crown.

(d) plural noun: students' /ˈstjuːdənts/ books.

irregular plural: men's /menz/ jackets.

2 used in a contracted form to indicate the omission of letters or figures:

I'm (= I am); he's (he is/has); they'd (= they would/had);
In '77 (= 1977).

3 used with 's' to form the plural of a letter, a figure or an abbreviation, when these are used as words in their own right.

In modern usage it is often omitted after a figure or a capital letter:

In the 1960's/the 1960s;

MP's/MPs;

He can't pronounce his r's.

hyphen (-) (Note: It must not be confused with the dash, which separates parts of a sentence. The hyphen is half the length of the dash.)

1 used to form a compound from two other words:

hard-hearted; radio-telescope; fork-lift truck.

2 used to form a compound from a prefix:

pre-recorded; ex-president; anti-Fascist.

3 used to form a compound word from two other words which are separated by a preposition:

mother-in-law; out-of-date.

4 (esp GB) sometimes used to separate a prefix ending in a vowel from a word beginning with that same vowel:

co-ordination; re-elect; pre-eminent.

5 used in word-division at the end of a written line.

quotation marks (" ") (Note: (GB) usually 'Fire!' (single); (US) normally "Fire!" (double). Also called inverted commas or speech marks.)

1 used to enclose words spoken:

'Come home soon,' he said.

2 used to enclose a word or phrase that is unusual, uncommon, or to separate it from the other words:

Next, the clay pot had to be 'fired'.

We can use 'make up a story' or 'make up an excuse'.

УЧЕБНЫЙ СЛОВАРЬ СОВРЕМЕННОГО АНГЛИЙСКОГО ЯЗЫКА

Редактор

В. И. Синоков

Художественный редактор

В. Г. Ежков

Художник переплета

Е. Т. Яковлев

Технический редактор

Л. М. Абрамова

Корректор

О. В. Мокрович

Подписано к печати с диапозитивов 26.04.83. Формат 84 × × 108^{1/32}. Бумага типографская № 1. Гарнит. таймс. Печать высокая. Усл. печ. л. 41,16. Усл. кр.-отт. 41,16. Уч.-изд. л. 113,94. Тираж 100 000 экз. Заказ № 939.

Цена 5 р. 20 к.

ИБ № 7194

Ордена Трудового Красного Знамени издательство «Просвещение» Государственного комитета РСФСР по делам издательств, полиграфии и книжной торговли. Москва, 3-й проезд Марьиной роши, 41.

Отпечатано в ордена Октябрьской Революции, ордена Трудового Красного Знамени Ленинградском производственно-техническом объединении «Печатный Двор» имени А. М. Горького Союзполиграфпрома при Государственном комитете СССР по делам издательств, полиграфии и книжной торговли. 197136, Ленинград, П-136, Чкаловский пр., 15, с диапозитивов фирмы Oxford University Press.

W 203

Notes

Notes

5 р. 20к.

OXFORD STUDENT'S DICTIONARY OF CURRENT ENGLISH

A.S.HORNBY